Section 199

- a person assisting suspects on reasonable grounds that the person has any evidential material or seizable items in his or her possession; and
- (ii) to seize any such material or items found in the course of the search.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of the powers conferred by a warrant issued in respect of premises that are not a conveyance or a container, the warrant extends to every conveyance or container on the premises.

- (b) if necessary to achieve the purpose mentioned in paragraph (a)—to add, copy, delete or alter other data in the computer or device mentioned in subparagraph (a)(i); and

- (c) if, having regard to other methods (if any) of obtaining access to the relevant data which are likely to be as effective, it is reasonable in all the circumstances to do so:

- (e) to do any other thing reasonably incidental to any of the above.

Note: As a result of the warrant, a person who, by means of a telecommunications facility, obtains access to data stored in a computer etc. will not commit an offence under Part 10.7 of the Criminal Code or equivalent State or Territory laws (provided that the person acts within the authority of the warrant).

- (4B) Subsection (4A) does not authorise the addition, deletion or alteration of data, or the doing of any thing, that is likely to:
 - (a) materially interfere with, interrupt or obstruct:
 - (i) a communication in transit; or
 - (ii) the lawful use by other persons of a computer;unless the addition, deletion or alteration, or the doing of the thing, is necessary to do one or more of the things specified in the warrant; or

 - (b) if necessary to achieve the purpose mentioned in paragraph (a)—to add, copy, delete or alter other data in the computer or device mentioned in subparagraph (a)(i); and
 - (c) if, having regard to other methods (if any) of obtaining access to the relevant data which are likely to be as effective, it is reasonable in all the circumstances to do so:

200 Use of equipment to examine or process things

- (1) The executing officer of a warrant in relation to premises, or a person assisting, may bring to the warrant premises any equipment reasonably necessary for the examination or processing of a thing found on or in the premises in order to determine whether it is a thing that may be seized under the warrant.
- (2) A thing found at warrant premises, or a thing found during a search under a warrant that is in force in relation to a person, may be moved to another place for examination or processing in order to determine whether it may be seized under a warrant if:

 - (c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;
- he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment, whether by locking it up, placing a guard or otherwise.
- (5) The executing officer or a person assisting must give notice to the occupier of the premises of his or her intention to secure equipment and of the fact that the equipment may be secured for up to 24 hours.
- (6) The equipment may be secured:

 - (b) a statement of the tariff classification that, in the opinion of the applicant, applies to the goods; and
 - (c) if the applicant is not proposing to make use of the TCO to import the goods to which the application relates into Australia on the applicant's own behalf—the identity of the importer for whom the applicant is acting; and
 - (d) particulars of all the inquiries made by the applicant (including inquiries made of prescribed organisations) to assist in establishing that there were reasonable grounds for believing that, on the day on which the application was lodged, there were no producers in Australia of substitutable goods.
- (4) A TCO application may be lodged:
 - (a) by leaving it at a place that has been allocated for lodgement of TCO applications by notice published on the Department's website; or
 - (b) by posting it by prepaid post to a postal address specified in the approved form; or

- (c) by sending it by fax to a fax number specified in the approved form; and the application is taken to have been lodged when the application, or a fax of the application, is first received by an officer of Customs.
- (5) The day on which an application is taken to have been lodged must be recorded on the application.

269FA The applicant's obligation

It is the responsibility of an applicant for a TCO to establish, to the satisfaction of the Comptroller-General of Customs, that, on the basis of:

- (a) all information that the applicant has, or can reasonably be expected to have; and
 - (b) all inquiries that the applicant has made, or can reasonably be expected to make;
- there are reasonable grounds for asserting that the application meets the core criteria.

269G Withdrawing a TCO application

- (1) A person who has lodged a TCO application under section 269F may withdraw the application at any time before a decision is made under section 269P or 269Q in relation to that application.
- (2) A withdrawal of a TCO application:
 - (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) must be lodged with the Comptroller-General of Customs in the same manner, and is taken to be lodged on the same day, as is specified in relation to a TCO application; and
 - (c) must have the day of its lodgement recorded.
- (3) If a notice informing of the lodgement of a TCO application is published in the Gazette before that application is withdrawn, the Comptroller-General of Customs must publish in the Gazette, as soon as practicable after the withdrawal is lodged, a notice:

Section 269H

- (a) stating that the TCO application has been withdrawn; and
- (b) describing the goods to which the TCO application related;
and
- (c) specifying the Gazette number and date of the previous notice relating to the TCO application; and
- (d) specifying the date of withdrawal of the TCO application.

269H Screening the application

- (1) Not later than 28 days after a TCO application is lodged, the Comptroller-General of Customs must:
 - (a) if he or she is satisfied:
 - (i) that the application complies with section 269F; and
 - (ii) that, having regard to the information disclosed in the application and to the particulars of the inquiries made by the applicant, there are reasonable grounds for believing that the applicant has discharged the responsibility referred to in section 269FA; and
 - (b) if he or she is not aware of any producer in Australia of substitutable goods;
by notice in writing given to the applicant, inform the applicant that the application is accepted as a valid application; and
 - (c) if he or she is not so satisfied; or
 - (d) if he or she is aware of such a producer;
by notice in writing given to the applicant, inform the applicant that the application is rejected and of the reasons for the rejection.
- (2) If the Comptroller-General of Customs has not, within that period, accepted or rejected the application, this Part has effect as if the Comptroller-General of Customs had, immediately before the end of that period, informed the applicant, by notice in writing, that the application is accepted as a valid application.

269HA Comptroller-General of Customs may reject a TCO application in relation to goods referred to in section 269SJ

- (1) If, at any time during the period starting from the receipt of a TCO application and ending with the making of a TCO, the Comptroller-General of Customs becomes satisfied that the goods to which the application relates are goods in respect of which, under subsection 269SJ(1), the Comptroller-General of Customs is prevented from making a TCO, the Comptroller-General of Customs must:
 - (a) reject the application; and
 - (b) by notice in writing given to the applicant, inform the applicant that the application is rejected and of the reason for the rejection.
- (2) If, at any time after the publication of a notice in the Gazette under subsection 269K(1), the Comptroller-General of Customs rejects the application to which the notice relates under subsection (1), the Comptroller-General of Customs must, as soon as practicable after rejecting the application, publish a notice in the Gazette stating that the application has been rejected and giving the reason for the rejection.

269J Applications taken to be lodged in certain circumstances

- (1) If the Comptroller-General of Customs decides that it is desirable to consider making a TCO despite the absence of a TCO application, the Comptroller-General of Customs may declare, in writing, that he or she has so decided.
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1) must include a proposal for the issue of the TCO in respect of the goods referred to in the declaration.
- (3) If the Comptroller-General of Customs makes a declaration under this section, this Part has effect as if:

Section 269K

- (a) the proposal contained in the declaration were a TCO application lodged under section 269F on the day on which the declaration is made; and
- (b) the application had been accepted under section 269H as a valid application on that day.

269K Processing a valid application

- (1) As soon as practicable after accepting a TCO application as a valid application, the Comptroller-General of Customs must publish a notice in the Gazette:
 - (a) stating that the application has been lodged; and
 - (aa) identifying the applicant; and
 - (ab) if the applicant is not proposing to make use of the TCO to import the goods to which the application relates into Australia on the applicant's own behalf—identifying the importer for whom the applicant is acting; and
 - (b) providing a description of the goods to which the application relates including a reference to the Customs tariff classification that, in the opinion of the Comptroller-General of Customs, applies to the goods; and
 - (c) inviting any persons who consider that there are reasons why the TCO should not be made to lodge a submission with the Comptroller-General of Customs not later than 50 days after the gazettal day.
- (2) A submission must:
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) be in an approved form; and
 - (c) contain such information as the form requires; and
 - (d) be signed in the manner indicated in the form.
- (3) A submission:
 - (a) must be lodged with the Comptroller-General of Customs in the same manner, and is taken to be lodged on the same day, as is specified in relation to a TCO application; and
 - (b) must have the day of its lodgement recorded.

- (4) If a person lodges a submission later than 50 days after the gazettal day in respect of a TCO application without being invited by the Comptroller-General of Customs to do so under section 269M, the Comptroller-General of Customs must not take the submission into account in determining whether to make a TCO.

269L Amendment of TCO applications

- (1) If a person lodges a submission in respect of a TCO application within 50 days after the gazettal day, the Comptroller-General of Customs must, within 14 days after the end of that 50 day period, give the applicant for the TCO a notice in writing setting out:
- (a) the name and address of each person who has lodged a submission within that period; and
 - (b) a short statement of the grounds on which each submission is based.
- (2) The applicant may, within 28 days of receiving a notice under subsection (1) and having regard to the grounds on which each submission was made, notify the Comptroller-General of Customs, in writing, that he or she proposes to amend the application by altering the description of the goods the subject of the application, and set out in that notice the proposed amendment.
- (3) The applicant must not, under subsection (2), propose an amendment of an application:
- (a) that would cause the goods to which the application relates to be covered by a different Customs tariff classification to the one notified by the Comptroller-General of Customs in the Gazette under section 269K; or
 - (b) that would do otherwise than narrow the description of the goods as set out in the application.
- (4) As soon as practicable after, but not more than 7 days after, a proposed amendment of a TCO application was notified to the Comptroller-General of Customs, the Comptroller-General of Customs must consider the proposed amendment and:

Section 269L

- (a) if the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that the proposed amendment does not contravene subsection (3)—the Comptroller-General of Customs must inform the applicant that he or she is so satisfied and that subsection (4B) applies accordingly; or
 - (b) if the Comptroller-General of Customs is not so satisfied—the Comptroller-General of Customs must inform the applicant that he or she is not so satisfied and of the reasons for not being so satisfied.
- (4A) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is not satisfied that a proposed amendment of a TCO does not contravene subsection (3), the Comptroller-General of Customs must continue to consider the application as it was originally made.
- (4B) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that the proposed amendment does not contravene the requirements of subsection (3), the Comptroller-General of Customs must, within 14 days after becoming so satisfied:
 - (a) notify the proposed amendment to each person who lodged a submission referred to in subsection (1) and, subject to the operation of subsections (5) and (6), invite that person, if he or she considers there are reasons not dealt with in the original submission why the TCO as proposed to be amended should not be made, to lodge a further submission within 14 days after being so notified; and
 - (b) publish a notice in the Gazette setting out the amended description in relation to the application and inviting persons who consider that there are reasons why the TCO as proposed to be amended should not be made to lodge a submission with the Comptroller-General of Customs no later than 14 days after the publication of that notice.
- (4C) The notification and subsequent publication of an amendment of a TCO application does not affect the gazettal day in relation to the application or any time limits calculated by reference to that gazettal day.

Section 269M

- (5) If a person who lodged a submission referred to in subsection (1) notifies the Comptroller-General of Customs, in writing, within 14 days after being notified of a proposed amendment, that he or she no longer objects to the TCO application, the submission is taken to have been withdrawn.
- (6) If a person who lodged a submission referred to in subsection (1) does not so notify the Comptroller-General of Customs, he or she is taken to wish to proceed with the submission as if it were a submission made in respect of the amended application.

269M Comptroller-General of Customs may invite submissions or seek other information, documents or material

- (1) If the Comptroller-General of Customs considers that, in relation to a particular TCO application, a person may have reason to oppose the making of the TCO to which the application relates, he or she may, by notice in writing, invite the person to lodge a written submission with the Comptroller-General of Customs within a period specified in the notice ending not later than 150 days after the gazettal day.
- (2) A submission must:
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) be in an approved form; and
 - (c) contain such information as the form requires; and
 - (d) be signed in the manner indicated in the form.
- (3) A submission:
 - (a) must be lodged with the Comptroller-General of Customs in the same manner, and is taken to be lodged on the same day, as is specified in relation to a TCO application; and
 - (b) must have the day of its lodgement recorded.
- (4) If the Comptroller-General of Customs considers that, in relation to a particular TCO application, any person (including the applicant or a person who has lodged a submission with the Comptroller-General of Customs) may be able to supply information or produce a document or material relevant to the consideration of the application, the Comptroller-General of Customs may, by notice in writing, request the supply of the information in writing or the production of the document or material within a period specified in the notice and ending not later than 150 days after the gazettal day.

- (5) If a person refuses or fails to lodge a submission under subsection (1) or to supply information or produce a document or material under subsection (4) within the period allowed but subsequently lodges that submission, supplies the information or produces the document or material, the Comptroller-General of Customs must not take that submission, information, document or material into account in determining whether to make a TCO.
- (6) At any time during the period of 150 days starting on the gazettal day, the Comptroller-General of Customs may, for the purpose of dealing with a TCO application, and despite Part 6 of the Australian Border Force Act 2015, give a copy of all, or of a part, of the application to a prescribed organisation with a view to obtaining the advice of the organisation in relation to the question whether there are producers in Australia of substitutable goods.

269N Reprocessing of TCO applications

- (1) If, after gazettal day in respect of a TCO application but before a decision is made on the application, the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that:
 - (a) because of an amendment of a Customs Tariff; or
 - (b) having regard to a decision of a court or of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal; or
 - (c) having regard to written advice on the matter given by an officer of Customs;

the tariff classification that was stated in the notice published in the Gazette under section 269K to apply to the goods the subject of the application has not, with effect from the gazettal day or a later day, applied to the goods, the Comptroller-General of Customs must take action to reprocess the application.

- (2) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that, in publishing a notice in the Gazette under section 269K in relation to a TCO application, there has been a transcription error in the description of the goods the subject of the application including the tariff classification that is stated to apply to the goods, the Comptroller-General of Customs must take action to reprocess the application.
- (3) Where the Comptroller-General of Customs is required to take action under subsection (1) or (2), he or she must, as soon as practicable after becoming so required, notify:
- (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) all persons from whom submissions in relation to the application have been received; and
 - (c) all persons from whom submissions in relation to the application have been sought;
- that, for the reasons specified in subsection (1) or (2), it is necessary to reprocess the application and that a new notice of the application will be published in the Gazette for that purpose.
- (4) As soon as practicable after giving a notice under subsection (3), the Comptroller-General of Customs must publish in the Gazette a new notice under subsection 269K(1) in relation to the TCO application in substitution for the notice previously published.
- (5) A person who had lodged a submission in relation to the original notice published under section 269K in respect of a TCO application may notify the Comptroller-General of Customs in writing, not later than 50 days after the day of publication of the substituted notice under that section, that he or she wishes to proceed with the submission, or wishes to proceed with it subject to stated modifications, as if it had been provided in response to the substituted notice and, where the Comptroller-General of Customs is so notified, the submission is to be treated as if it had been so provided on the day of that notification.
- (6) If a TCO is made in respect of a TCO application that is reprocessed in accordance with this section, the day on which the

- (1A) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied on any day that a TCO is no longer required because, in the 2 years preceding that day, the TCO has not been quoted in an import entry to secure a concessional rate of duty, the Comptroller-General of Customs may make an order revoking the TCO with effect from that day.

 - (a) make an order revoking the TCO with effect from that day; and
 - (b) make a new TCO in respect of the goods with effect from that day.
- (3) If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that, in making a TCO, there has been a transcription error in the description of goods the subject of the TCO including the tariff classification that is stated in the TCO to apply to the goods, the Comptroller-General of Customs may:

 - (b) by notice published in the Gazette, inform all other interested persons of the decision.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the Comptroller-General of Customs makes a decision to make an order under subsection 269SD(1AB), (1) or (1A), (2), (2A) or (5), the Comptroller-General of Customs must, by notice published in the Gazette, inform all interested persons of the decision.
- (3) If the decision referred to in subsection (1) or (2) has led to the making of an order revoking a TCO or both to the making of an order revoking a TCO and the making of a new TCO, the notice of that decision given to the applicant and published in the Gazette must include full particulars of the order or orders.
- (4) A failure to comply with subsection (1), (2) or (3) does not affect the validity of the decision concerned or of any order or orders to which it has led.

269SF Comptroller-General of Customs may seek information, documents or material relating to revocation

- (1) If the Comptroller-General of Customs considers that, in relation to a request for revocation of a TCO, any person (including the person who made the request) may be able to supply information or produce a document or material relevant to the consideration of the request, the Comptroller-General of Customs may, by notice in writing, request the supply of the information or the production of the document or material within a period specified in the notice and ending not later than 60 days after receiving the request.

Section 269SG

- (2) Any information provided in satisfaction of a request under subsection (1) must be provided in writing.
- (3) If a person refuses or fails to supply information or produce a document or material under subsection (1) within the period allowed but subsequently supplies the information or produces the document or material, the Comptroller-General of Customs must not take that information, document or material into account in determining whether to revoke a TCO.

269SG Effect of revocation on goods in transit and capital equipment on order

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a TCO is revoked under subsection 269SC(3) or (4) or 269SD(1AB) or (1A), the TCO ceases to apply in relation to goods entered for home consumption on or after the day on which the revocation comes into effect.
- (2) Despite the revocation of a TCO under subsection 269SC(3) or (4) or 269SD(1AB) or (1A) in respect of goods, the TCO continues to apply in relation to:
 - (a) goods that:
 - (i) were imported into Australia on or before the day on which the revocation came into effect; and
 - (ii) are entered for home consumption, before, on, or within 28 days after, that day; and
 - (b) goods that:
 - (i) were in transit to Australia on that day; and
 - (ii) are entered for home consumption before, on, or within 28 days after, the day on which they were imported into Australia.
- (3) For the purposes of subparagraph (2)(b)(i), goods shall be taken to be in transit to Australia if, and only if, they have left for direct shipment to Australia from a place of manufacture, or a warehouse, in the country from which they are being exported.

Section 269SG

- (4) Where an officer of Customs is satisfied that, after a TCO in relation to made-to-order capital equipment comes into force but before its revocation under subsection 269SC(3) or (4) or 269SD(1AB) or (1A), a firm order had been placed for the purchase of any such equipment, the TCO continues to apply in relation to the importation into Australia of that capital equipment.

- (5) In this section:

made-to-order capital equipment means a particular item of capital equipment:

- (a) that is made on a one-off basis to meet a specific order rather than being the subject of regular or intermittent production; and
- (b) that is not produced in quantities indicative of a production run.

- (3A) As soon as practicable after receiving a request for reconsideration of a decision that leads to the making of a TCO or that refuses to revoke a TCO, the Comptroller-General of Customs must publish a Gazette notice stating:
 - (a) that the request has been lodged; and
 - (b) the date that the request was lodged; and
 - (c) the full particulars of the TCO to which the request relates.
- (4) Where application is made for reconsideration of a decision made on a TCO application, the Comptroller-General of Customs, having regard to:

Section 269SH

must decide, not later than 60 days after the last day for lodgement of the application for reconsideration, whether to affirm the original decision or to substitute any other decision that the Comptroller-General of Customs might have made.
- (6) If the Comptroller-General of Customs fails to make a decision under subsection (4) or (5) within the period referred to in that subsection, the Comptroller-General of Customs is taken, for the purposes of the reconsideration, at the end of that period, to have made a decision to affirm the original decision.
- (7) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), the Comptroller-General of Customs must not take into account any new material that is not produced to him or her by the applicant for reconsideration of an original decision within the period of 28 days after notification of the original decision in the Gazette.

- (8) Where the Comptroller-General of Customs, on reconsidering an original decision, decides to substitute for that decision any decision that he or she might have made, the substituted decision is to be taken to have been made when the original decision was made.
- (9) If the substituted decision involves the making of a TCO, or of an order revoking a TCO, that TCO or revocation order comes into force on the day on which, if the original decision had involved making the TCO or order revoking a TCO, that TCO or order would have come into force.
- (10) As soon as practicable after the Comptroller-General of Customs makes a decision under subsection (4) or (5) on an application for reconsideration, the Comptroller-General of Customs must:
 - (a) by notice in writing inform the applicant for reconsideration of the decision made on the reconsideration; and
 - (b) by notice published in the Gazette, inform all other interested persons of the decision made on that reconsideration.

- (2) If an affected person applies to the Tribunal for review of a reconsideration decision, the Comptroller-General of Customs must, as soon as practicable after being notified of the application or of the first such application, publish in the Gazette:

- (4) The Tribunal must not grant a person applying to be joined as a party to proceedings for review of a reconsideration decision an extension of the period of 60 days referred to in subsection (3) unless it is satisfied that the person was not reasonably able to apply within the period.
- (5) Any document on which a party to proceedings for review of a reconsideration decision before the Administrative Appeals Tribunal intends to rely must, subject to the provisions of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975:
 - (a) be filed with the Tribunal; and

- (6) In deciding whether to make such an order, the Tribunal must have regard to whether there is any reasonable cause for the document not being made available at least 28 days before the date of the hearing.

- (1) The Comptroller-General of Customs must not make a TCO in respect of goods:
 - (aa) described in terms other than generic terms; or
 - (a) described in terms of their intended end use; or
 - (b) declared by the regulations to be goods to which a TCO should not extend.
- (1A) Without limiting the meaning of the reference in paragraph (1)(aa) to goods described in generic terms, goods are taken not to be so described if their description, either directly or by implication, indicates that they are goods of a particular brand or model, or that a particular part number applies to the goods.

Section 269SK

- (2) If a regulation is made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) in respect of goods to which a TCO applies, that TCO must be taken, to the extent that it covers those goods, to have been revoked by the Comptroller-General of Customs on the day those regulations came into effect.
- (3) Where a TCO is taken to have been revoked under subsection (2) to the extent that it covers goods the subject of a regulation made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the Comptroller-General of Customs must, as soon as practicable after the making of the regulation, by notice published in the Gazette, inform interested persons:
 - (a) of the fact that the regulation has been made; and
 - (b) of its effect on the TCO; and
 - (c) of the day on which the TCO is taken to have been so revoked.

269SK TCOs not to contravene international agreements

If the Comptroller-General of Customs is satisfied that, in accordance with the obligations of Australia under an agreement (including a treaty or convention) between Australia and another country or other countries, the rate of duty attaching to the importation of goods (whether or not the produce of a particular country) is not to be less than a particular minimum rate, the Comptroller-General of Customs must not make a TCO that would result in a contravention of those obligations.
