REGULATION UNDER THE WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY ACT 1905 AND THE TELEGRAPH ACT 1909.

Control of Radiotelegraphic Communication in Emergencies.

(1) The Postmaster-General may, notwithstanding anything contained in a licence issued to a licensee under the Wireless Telegraphy Regulations 1913, by order published in the Gazette, prohibit for such time as he directs any licensee (whether licensed in respect of a land station or a ship station) from communicating with any radiotelegraph station licensed by, or belonging to, or in any country which is at war with His Majesty the King, or the possessions thereof.

(2) Any order under this Regulation may prohibit all communications whatever, or may permit communications to particular stations, or under special circumstances.
