- 12.—(1.) A nomination is not valid unless— Requisites for nomination.
- (a) the person nominated—
 - (i) consents in writing to act, if elected; and
 - (ii) declares in writing that he is qualified under these Regulations for nomination; and

(b) the nomination is received by the Returning Officer on or before the date, or later date (if any), fixed by the Minister in pursuance of this regulation.

(2.) The Minister shall fix a date in respect of an election on or before which nominations shall be lodged, and if, at any time after fixing that date, the Minister is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary or desirable to alter the date so fixed, the Minister may fix a later date on or before which nominations shall be lodged, and that later date shall be substituted for the date originally fixed.

(3.) The Minister shall notify in the Gazette the date, and the later date (if any), fixed in pursuance of the last preceding sub-regulation, and the address of the Returning Officer with whom nominations are to be lodged.

13. A person may give his consent and make the declaration required by paragraph (a) of sub-regulation (1.) of the last preceding regulation in the form specified at the foot of Form A, but the Returning Officer may accept any other form of consent and declaration, whether accompanying the nomination paper or not, that he deems satisfactory.

Form of consent and declaration.

14. As soon as practicable after the date fixed by the Minister as the last date for receiving nominations, the Returning Officer shall publish in the Gazette the name, place of residence and occupation of each person nominated.

Declaration of nominations.

15. A candidate may withdraw his consent to his nomination, at any time on or before the date fixed for receiving nominations, by lodging with the Returning Officer with whom his nomination was lodged a notice of withdrawal signed by the candidate and witnessed by a Justice of the Peace.

Withdrawal of consent to nomination.

16.—(1.) If one candidate only is nominated in respect of an election, the Returning Officer shall, by notice in the Gazette, declare that candidate duly elected.

Proceedings on nomination day.

(2.) If more than one candidate is nominated in respect of an election, a poll shall be taken to decide the election.

PART IV.—VOTING.

17. Voting at a poll shall be carried out by post.

Voting by post.

18.—(1.) The person authorized to vote for a cannery shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each one hundred and twenty thousand tins of canned fruits containing thirty ounces or its equivalent produced by the cannery during the year which ended on the thirtieth day of June immediately preceding the date fixed for the close of the poll.

Number of votes.

(2.) For the purposes of this regulation, where two or more canneries are owned by the same person, partnership or body corporate, those canneries shall be deemed to be one cannery.

19.—(1.) The Minister shall fix a date on which the poll shall close, and if, at any time after fixing that date, the Minister is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary or desirable to alter the date so fixed, the Minister may fix a later date on which the poll shall close, and that later date shall be substituted for the date originally fixed.

Date of close of poll.

(2.) The Minister shall notify in the Gazette the date, and the later date (if any), fixed in pursuance of the last preceding sub-regulation.

(3.) A poll closes at four o'clock in the afternoon of the day fixed by the Minister in accordance with this regulation.

20.—(1.) As soon as practicable after the date for the close of the polls is fixed, the Returning Officer shall send by post to each person entitled to vote at the election a ballot-paper, or if the voter is entitled under regulation 18 of these Regulations to more than one vote, so many ballot-papers as are equal to the number of votes to which the voter is entitled together with an envelope bearing a form of declaration in accordance with Form 5. Voting papers and form of declaration.

(2.) A ballot-paper may be in accordance with Form 6.

(3.) The name of the candidates shall be set out on each ballot-paper in such order and with such descriptions or additions, if any, as the Returning Officer thinks fit.

21. Before posting a ballot-paper or ballot-papers and an envelope bearing the voter's form of declaration, the Returning Officer shall, in the spaces provided for those purposes, initial the ballot-paper and insert the date fixed for the close of the poll, and in the form of declaration on the envelope he shall insert— Particulars to be inserted in voting papers and declaration.

- (a) the Christian names in full (if known), or the initials, and the surname of the voter;
- (b) the place of residence or place of business of the voter; and
- (c) the date fixed for the close of the poll.

22.—(1.) On receipt of a ballot-paper and the envelope bearing the voter's form of declaration, the voter shall— Manner of voting.

- (a) sign the declaration on the envelope in the presence of a witness;
- (b) record his vote or votes in accordance with the directions set out on the ballot-paper; and
- (c) send the envelope containing the ballot-paper or ballot-papers to the Returning Officer.

(2.) A person who witnesses the signature of a voter on the voter's form of declaration shall sign his name in the place provided for the purpose and add his address and the date on which the declaration is witnessed.

23. If a voter makes and transmits to the Returning Officer a statement in writing setting out his full name and address and stating that he has not received a ballot-paper or envelope, or that any ballot-paper or envelope received by him has been lost or destroyed, and that he has not already voted at the poll, the Returning Officer may post to the voter a ballot-paper and envelope, or a further ballot-paper and envelope, as the case may be. Ballot-papers not received or lost or destroyed.

PART V.—SCRUTINY.

24.—(1.) The Returning Officer shall, for each election—

Ballot-box.

- (a) keep a locked and sealed ballot-box marked with the words “Australian Canned Fruits Board Ballot-Box—Ballot-papers received from Voters” and such additional words as are, in his opinion, necessary to indicate the election for which the ballot-box is to be used; and
- (b) place and keep in the ballot-box, until the scrutiny, all envelopes containing ballot-papers relating to the election received by him before four o’clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for the close of the poll.

(2.) Where an envelope containing a ballot-paper is posted to the Returning Officer, but the postage on the envelope is wholly unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, the Returning Officer shall refuse to accept that envelope and ballot-paper, and that envelope and ballot-paper shall be deemed not to have been received by him for the purposes of this regulation.

25. A ballot-paper received by the Returning Officer after four o’clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for the close of the poll shall not be admitted to the scrutiny.

Ballot-papers received after close of poll.

26. A candidate may, by notice in writing signed by him, or by telegram, addressed to the Returning Officer and setting out the name and address of the scrutineer, appoint one scrutineer to represent him at the scrutiny.

Appointment of scrutineers.

27. The Returning Officer shall, as soon as practicable after four o’clock in the afternoon of the day fixed for the close of the poll—

Scrutiny of votes and declarations.

- (a) open the ballot-box and produce unopened all envelopes containing ballot-papers contained in the box;
- (b) examine each envelope, and—
 - (i) if the declaration is, in his opinion, signed by a person who is entitled to vote at the poll (being a person who has not previously voted at the poll) and is duly attested—accept the vote for further scrutiny; or
 - (ii) if the declaration is not so signed or attested—disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope;
- (c) place the envelopes containing the disallowed ballot-papers in a parcel, seal the parcel, endorse it “Australian Canned Fruits Board Elections—Election of a member to represent —Votes disallowed at the Preliminary Scrutiny” and add his signature and the date;
- (d) number consecutively (from one onwards on the address side of the envelope) the envelopes accepted for further scrutiny, and place them on a table before him with the address side of the envelope uppermost;

- (e) withdraw from each envelope the ballot-paper or ballot-papers contained in the envelope and, without unfolding it or them or inspecting the vote or votes or permitting any other person to do so, write on the ballot-paper or ballot-papers a number corresponding with that written on the envelope from which it was withdrawn, and then place the ballot-paper in a locked and sealed ballot-box provided for the purpose of holding ballot-papers relating to that election; and
- (f) place the envelopes in a parcel, seal the parcel and endorse it "Australian Canned Fruits Board Elections—Election of a member to represent —Envelopes from which ballot-papers have been withdrawn" and add his signature and the date.

28.—(1.) For the purpose of counting the votes, the Returning Officer shall open the ballot-box referred to in paragraph (e) of the last preceding regulation, and conduct a further scrutiny of the ballot-papers contained in the box in accordance with this regulation. Counting of votes.

(2.) The Returning Officer shall, in the presence of persons approved by him and of such scrutineers (if any) appointed in pursuance of regulation 26 as attend the scrutiny, count the first preference votes given for each candidate on such of the ballot-papers as are not rejected as informal.

(3.) The candidate who receives the greatest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.

(4.) If no candidate receives an absolute majority of first preference votes, the Returning Officer shall proceed with the scrutiny and the counting of the votes as follows:—

- (a) The candidate who has received the least number of first preference votes shall be excluded, and each ballot-paper counted to him shall be counted to the candidate next in order of the voter's preference.
- (b) If no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the least number of votes, and counting each of his ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in order of the voter's preference, shall be repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.
- (c) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes shall be elected.

(5.) If, on any count, two or more candidates have an equal number of votes, and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall decide which shall be excluded. If, on the final count, two candidates have an equal number of votes, the Returning Officer shall have a casting vote.

(6.) In this regulation—

"absolute majority" means a number greater than one-half of the total number of votes counted at the poll;

"continuing candidate" means a candidate not excluded from the count.

29.—(1.) The Returning Officer shall publish in the Gazette notice of the result of an election and the name of the candidate elected. Declaration of election.

(2.) A notice of the result of an election published in the Gazette in pursuance of this regulation shall, subject to these Regulations, be conclusive evidence of the result of the election.

30.—(1.) At any time before notice of the result of an election is published in the Gazette— Recount of votes.

- (a) a candidate may (by notice in writing specifying reasons for the request) request the Returning Officer to conduct a recount of the ballot-papers; and
- (b) the Returning Officer, whether or not he receives a request in pursuance of the last preceding paragraph, may recount the ballot-papers.

(2.) If the Returning Officer refuses, at the request of a candidate made in pursuance of the last preceding sub-regulation, to conduct a recount of the ballot-papers, the candidate may appeal in writing to the Minister to direct a recount of the ballot-papers, and the Minister may, as he thinks fit, either direct a recount or refuse to direct a recount.

31. The Returning Officer, in conducting a recount, shall have the same powers as if the recount were the scrutiny, and may reverse any decision in relation to the scrutiny as to the allowance and admission or disallowance and rejection of a ballot-paper. Powers of Deputy Returning Officer conducting recount.

32. A ballot-paper is informal if—

- (a) it is not initialled by the Returning Officer;
- (b) it has no vote marked on it;
- (c) it is so imperfectly marked that the intention of the voter is uncertain; or
- (d) it is not marked in accordance with the directions on the ballot-paper.

Informal ballot-papers.

33. The Returning Officer shall, in respect of an election, place in separate parcels— Voting papers to be placed in parcels.

- (a) ballot-papers rejected as informal;
- (b) ballot-papers allowed or admitted; and
- (c) the copy of the roll used for the election, and shall endorse on each parcel a description of the contents thereof, add his signature and the date, and retain the parcels until he authorizes the destruction of their contents.

34. At the expiration of six months from the date of publication of the result of the election, the Returning Officer may authorize the ballot-papers and the voters' declarations relating to the election to be destroyed. Destruction of papers.

35. A person shall not, except in accordance with these Regulations— Intruders.

- (a) wilfully intrude into a room in which an examination of voting papers is being conducted; or
- (b) refuse or fail to leave the room when requested to do so by the Returning Officer.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

PART VI.—DISPUTED ELECTIONS.

36. A candidate at an election, or a person entitled to vote at an election, may, by petition addressed to the Minister, dispute the validity of— Right to dispute election.

- (a) the roll used for the election;
- (b) the election; or
- (c) the result, or the notice of the result, of the election.

37. A petition made in pursuance of the last preceding regulation shall— Requisites of petition.

- (a) set out the facts relied on to dispute the roll, election, result or notice;
- (b) contain a prayer asking for the relief to which the petitioner claims to be entitled;
- (c) be signed by the petitioner;
- (d) be attested by two witnesses, whose occupations and addresses shall be stated; and
- (e) be presented to the Minister within thirty days after the publication in the Gazette of the notice of the result of the election.

38. The dispute shall be determined by the Minister in such manner as he deems fit, and the Minister may declare that— Determination of dispute.

- (a) a candidate who was returned as elected was not duly elected;
- (b) a candidate who was not returned as elected was duly elected; or
- (c) the election was void.

39.—(1.) Where a candidate has been returned as elected, and he is declared by the Minister under this Part not to have been duly elected, he shall cease to be a member. Effect of decision.

(2.) Where a candidate has not been returned as elected, and he is declared by the Minister under this Part to have been duly elected, he shall become a member.

(3.) If an election is declared by the Minister under this Part to be void, a new election shall be held.

40. Decisions of the Minister under this Part are final and conclusive and cannot be questioned or appealed against. Decisions to be final.

41.—(1.) The Minister shall not declare an election, the result of an election, or the notice of the result of an election void because of— Immaterial errors not to vitiate poll or election.

- (a) delay in taking votes or giving or publishing a notice; or
- (b) the absence, error or omission of an officer, if the Minister is satisfied that the delay, absence, error or omission did not affect the result of the election.

(2.) A person shall not dispute an election—

- (a) because of a defect in the title, or lack of title, of the person who acted as the Returning Officer or a Deputy Returning Officer;

- (b) because of an error or defect in form in a statement, notice, instrument or publication made under or in pursuance of these Regulations, or purporting to be so made; or
- (c) because an act or thing was not performed or done at or within a prescribed time.

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS.

42. Where a person acting as Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer at an election is guilty of wilful misfeasance or of a wilful or negligent act of commission or omission contrary to these Regulations he is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

43. A person shall not make a false statement in a claim for enrolment, a declaration made, or in answer to a question asked, under these Regulations, or in information supplied to the Returning Officer or a Deputy Returning Officer for the purpose of obtaining a ballot-paper or a further ballot-paper.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

44. A person shall not witness the signature of a person to a declaration made under these Regulations unless the person acting as witness—

- (a) is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) satisfies himself as to the identity of the person making the declaration;
- (c) has seen that person sign the declaration in his own handwriting; and
- (d) knows, or has reasonable grounds for believing, that the statements contained in the declaration are true.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

45. A person (other than the voter to whom a ballot-paper has been issued) shall not mark or write on a ballot-paper otherwise than in accordance with these Regulations.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

46. A person shall not—

- (a) impersonate another person for the purpose of securing a ballot-paper or of voting at an election;
- (b) fraudulently destroy or deface a ballot-paper; or
- (c) vote more than the number of times that he is entitled to vote under regulation 18 of these Regulations.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

47. Strict compliance with the Forms in the Schedule to these Regulations is not necessary, and substantial compliance is sufficient.
