Part 2—Arrival, presence and departure of persons

Division 14—Recovery of costs from certain persons

262 Liability to the Commonwealth for the cost of keeping, maintaining and removing certain persons

- (1) A person who:
- (a) is, or has been, detained under section 189; and
 - (b) was on board a vessel (not being an aircraft) when it was used in connection with the commission of an offence against this Act or against a prescribed law in force in the Commonwealth or in a State or Territory, being a law relating to the control of fishing; and
 - (ba) is convicted of the offence;
- and the master, owner, agent and charterer of the vessel on which the person travelled to Australia, are, jointly and severally, liable to pay the Commonwealth:
- (c) the amount applicable to the person under subsection (2) for the cost of keeping and maintaining the person while the person is in immigration detention; and
 - (d) the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, from the vessel to the place of immigration detention; and
 - (e) the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, between places of immigration detention; and
 - (f) if the person is returned to the vessel or another vessel—the cost of transporting the person, and a person holding the person, from the place of immigration detention to the vessel or that other vessel; and
 - (g) if the person is, or is to be, removed from Australia at the expense of the Commonwealth—the cost of that removal (including the cost of transporting a person holding the person).

Section 263

- (2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine a daily amount for the keeping and maintaining of a person in immigration detention at a specified place in a specified period.
- (3) An amount determined under subsection (2) is to be no more than the cost to the Commonwealth of detaining a person at that place in that period.
- (4) To avoid doubt, the liability to pay the Commonwealth an amount under subsection (1) may be enforced:
 - (a) at the time the person is convicted of an offence mentioned in paragraph (1)(b); or
 - (b) after the person has served the whole or a part of any sentence imposed upon the person because of his or her conviction of an offence mentioned in paragraph (1)(b).

263 Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner able to issue notice of debt

If:

- (a) a person is liable to pay to the Commonwealth an amount under section 262; and
- (b) the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner gives written notice to the person giving particulars of the liability and stating that the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner requires payment of a specified amount not exceeding that amount;

the specified amount is a debt recoverable by the Commonwealth from the person:

- (c) in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- (d) by garnishee notice under section 264.

264 Garnishee notice

- (1) If an amount (debt) is a debt recoverable from a person (debtor) by the Commonwealth under section 263 or 265, the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner may by written notice given to another person:

Section 264

- (a) from whom any money is due or accruing, or may become due, to the debtor; or
 - (b) who holds, or may later hold, money for or on account of the debtor; or
 - (c) who holds, or may later hold, money on account of some other person for payment to the debtor; or
 - (d) who has authority from some other person to pay money to the debtor;
- require the person to whom the notice is given to pay to the Commonwealth:
- (e) an amount specified in the notice, not exceeding the debt or the amount of the relevant money; or
 - (f) such amount as is specified in the notice out of each payment that the person becomes liable from time to time to make to the debtor until that debt is paid.
- (2) The time for making a payment in compliance with a notice under subsection (1) is such time as is specified in it, not being a time before:
 - (a) the relevant money becomes due or is held; or
 - (b) the end of the period of 14 days after the notice is given.
 - (3) If the debtor is in Australia when the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner gives the notice, the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner must give a copy of the notice to the debtor.
 - (4) A person who makes a payment to the Commonwealth in compliance with the notice is taken to have made the payment under the authority of the person who owes the debt to the Commonwealth and of any other person concerned.
 - (5) If, after the notice is given to a person, an amount is paid by another person in reduction or satisfaction of the debt, the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner must notify the person given the notice accordingly, and the amount specified in the notice is taken to be reduced by the amount paid.

Section 265

- (6) If money is not due, or repayable, to a person on demand unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be due or repayable on demand, even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

265 Debt from failure to comply with garnishee notice

- (1) If a person (garnishee debtor):
- (a) is given a notice under section 264 in respect of a debt; and
 - (b) fails to comply with the notice to the extent that the garnishee debtor is capable of complying with it;
- then the amount of the debt outstanding is recoverable from the garnishee debtor by the Commonwealth by:
- (c) legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (d) a garnishee notice under section 264.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the amount of the debt outstanding is a reference to whichever is the lesser of:
- (a) as much of the amount required by the notice under section 264 to be paid by the garnishee debtor as the garnishee debtor was able to pay; or
 - (b) as much of the debt due at the time when the notice was given as remains due from time to time.
- (3) If the Commonwealth recovers:
- (a) the whole or a part of the debt due by the garnishee debtor; or
 - (b) the whole or a part of the debt due by the debtor (within the meaning of section 264);
- then:
- (c) both debts are reduced by the amount that the Commonwealth has so recovered; and
 - (d) the amount specified in the notice under section 264 is taken to be reduced by the amount so recovered.

266 Future debts

For the purposes of this Division, an amount is a future debt in relation to a person if the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner believes on reasonable grounds that the person will, under section 262, become liable to pay the amount to the Commonwealth.

267 Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner may freeze amounts to secure future debts

- (1) If there is a future debt in relation to a person (future debtor), the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner may by written notice given to another person:

 - (b) who holds, or may later hold, money for or on account of the future debtor; or

 - (f) such amount as is specified in the notice out of each payment that the person becomes liable from time to time to make to the future debtor until that debt is paid.
- (2) If the future debtor is in Australia when the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner gives the notice, the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner must give a copy of the notice to the future debtor.
- (3) If, after the notice is given to a person, an amount is paid by another person in respect of the future debt, the Secretary or Australian Border Force Commissioner must notify the person

- (4) If money is not due, or repayable, to a person on demand unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be due or repayable on demand even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

- (6) A notice under subsection (2) must include a statement explaining the consequences under this section of failing to comply with the requirements of the notice.

289 Registration

- (1) The Migration Agents Registration Authority must register an applicant by entering his or her name in the Register, unless this Part prohibits registration of the applicant.

- (2) The Migration Agents Registration Authority must do so as soon as possible.
- (3) However, if the applicant was required under section 288 to satisfy 1 of 2 publishing options:

Section 289A

- (a) the Authority must not register the applicant before the end of the time for objections that was specified in the notice concerned; and
- (b) the Authority must consider any objection received within that time when deciding whether to register the applicant.

289A Applicant must not be registered if academic and vocational requirements are not satisfied

- (1) This section applies to an applicant:

Note 2: A registered migration agent must notify the Migration Agents Registration Authority within 28 days after becoming a restricted legal practitioner or an unrestricted legal practitioner (see section 312).

Note 3: The Authority must cancel the registration of an agent who is an unrestricted legal practitioner, or who is a restricted legal practitioner who is not eligible (see section 302A).

290 Applicant must not be registered if not a person of integrity or not fit and proper

- (1) An applicant must not be registered if the Migration Agents Registration Authority is satisfied that:
 - (a) the applicant is not a fit and proper person to give immigration assistance; or
 - (b) the applicant is not a person of integrity; or
 - (c) the applicant is related by employment to an individual who is not a person of integrity and the applicant should not be registered because of that relationship.
- (2) In considering whether it is satisfied that the applicant is not fit and proper or not a person of integrity, the Migration Agents Registration Authority must take into account:
 - (a) the extent of the applicant's knowledge of migration procedure; and
 - (c) any conviction of the applicant of a criminal offence relevant to the question whether the applicant is not:
 - (i) a fit and proper person to give immigration assistance; or
 - (ii) a person of integrity;(except a conviction that is spent under Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914); and
 - (d) any criminal proceedings that the applicant is the subject of and that the Authority considers relevant to the application; and
 - (e) any inquiry or investigation that the applicant is or has been the subject of and that the Authority considers relevant to the application; and

 - (h) any other matter relevant to the applicant's fitness to give immigration assistance.

Section 290A

- (3) In considering whether it is satisfied that an individual to whom the applicant is related by employment is not a person of integrity, the Migration Agents Registration Authority must take into account each of the following matters, so far as the Authority considers it relevant to the question whether the individual is not a person of integrity:
- (a) any conviction of the individual of a criminal offence (except a conviction that is spent under Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914);
 - (b) any criminal proceedings that the individual is the subject of;
 - (c) any inquiry or investigation that the individual is or has been the subject of;

290A Applicant must not be registered if continuing professional development requirements are not satisfied

- (1) This section applies in relation to an applicant who has been registered at some time within the period, immediately before making the registration application, that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.
- (2) The applicant must not be registered if the Migration Agents Registration Authority is satisfied that the applicant has not met, within the period prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, the prescribed requirements for continuing professional development of registered migration agents.

290B Applicant must not be registered if any unpaid registration status charge

An applicant must not be registered if any registration status charge payable by him or her remains unpaid after the time when it becomes due for payment.

291 Applicant must not be registered if registration refused in past year

- (1) An applicant must not be registered if he or she has been refused registration as a migration agent within 12 months before his or her application.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

291A Applicant must not be registered if suspension would be in effect

If:

- (a) an applicant has been registered (the previous registration) at some time before making the application; and
- (b) the Migration Agents Registration Authority decided to suspend the previous registration (whether or not that decision was stayed); and
- (c) the previous registration ended on or after the suspension decision;

then the applicant must not be registered during a period in which the previous registration would have been suspended had the previous registration not already ended.

Example 1: A registered migration agent's registration is suspended for a period. The agent is deregistered under section 302 so the suspension of the registration ends. The agent cannot be re-registered until the suspension period ends.

Example 2: The Migration Agents Registration Authority suspends a registered migration agent's registration. The agent applies for review of the decision and a stay order is made in relation to the decision. The agent continues to practise, while the stay order is in force, until the agent's registration ends. Subsection 288(6A) prevents the agent from being re-registered until the review proceedings are finalised. The agent cannot be re-registered if the suspension decision is affirmed on review and the suspension would not have ended (had the registration continued).

Example 3: Under section 300, a registered migration agent's registration is continued after the expiry day of the agent's registration. The Migration Agents Registration Authority makes a decision to suspend the agent's registration until the agent complies with a condition, and so the registration ends because of subsection 300(4). The agent cannot be re-registered until the agent complies with the condition.

292 Applicant must not be registered if registration cancelled in past 5 years

An applicant whose registration has been cancelled under section 303 must not be registered within 5 years of the cancellation.

292A Applicant must not be registered if any barring period has not ended

- (b) the period has not ended.

292B Applicant must not be registered unless he or she holds appropriate professional indemnity insurance

- (1) An applicant must not be registered unless the Migration Agents Registration Authority is satisfied that he or she has professional indemnity insurance of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

293 Applicant under 18 must not be registered

An applicant must not be registered if he or she is under 18.

294 Applicant must not be registered if not an Australian citizen, permanent resident or New Zealander with special visa

- (1) An applicant must not be registered unless he or she is:
 - (a) an Australian citizen; or
 - (b) an Australian permanent resident (within the meaning of the regulations); or
 - (c) a New Zealand citizen who holds a special category visa.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this section applies to all applicants (not just first time applicants).

295 Notice of refusal of application

If the Migration Agents Registration Authority decides not to register an applicant, the Authority must give the applicant written notice of the decision and of the reasons for it.

Note: The applicant may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision. See section 306 of this Act. (Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires that people whose interests are affected by the Authority's decision be given notice of their rights to seek review of the decision.)

299 Period of registration

- (1) Subject to any other provision of this Part (including subsection (2) of this section), the registration of a registered migration agent ends 12 months after the day of registration.
- (2) If the registration is suspended for a period, the period of the registration is extended by a period equal to the period of suspension.

Section 300

300 Automatic continuation of registration

When agent's registration is automatically continued

- (1) Subsection (4) applies to continue a registered migration agent's registration beyond the last day (the expiry day) of the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day:
 - (a) the agent made a registration application; and
 - (b) the agent paid the registration application fee (if any) in respect of the application; and
 - (c) the Migration Agents Registration Authority had not decided the application.

Exception—suspension

- (2) However, subsection (4) does not apply to continue the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day, the Authority made a decision to suspend the agent's registration, unless:
 - (a) the suspension had been completed before the end of the expiry day; or
 - (b) there was a decision (other than a stay order) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force, immediately before the end of the expiry day, to the effect that the agent's registration is not suspended or cancelled.

Exception—cancellation

- (3) Subsection (4) also does not apply to continue the agent's registration if, before the end of the expiry day, the Authority made a decision to cancel the agent's registration, unless:
 - (a) there was a decision (other than a stay order) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force, immediately before the end of the expiry day, to the effect that the agent's registration is not suspended or cancelled; or
 - (b) there was a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court in force to the effect that the agent's registration is suspended, and the suspension had been completed before the end of the expiry day.

Period of continuation of registration

- (4) The agent's registration is taken to continue after the expiry day until the earliest of the following:
- (a) the Authority decides the application;
 - (b) the Authority decides to suspend the agent's registration;
 - (c) the Authority decides to cancel the agent's registration;
 - (d) the end of the period of 10 months beginning on the day after the expiry day.

Application granted if no decision within a certain period

- (5) If, before the end of the period of 10 months beginning on the day after the expiry day, the Authority has not:
- (a) decided the registration application; and
 - (b) decided to suspend the agent's registration; and
 - (c) decided to cancel the agent's registration;
- then the application is taken to have been granted at the end of that period.

When registration takes effect

- (6) If the Authority grants the registration application, or the registration application is taken to have been granted under subsection (5), the registration is treated as having taken effect at the end of the expiry day.

Example: An agent's registration is due to end on 31 October (the expiry day). On 20 October the agent applies to be registered again. The Authority has not decided the application by the end of 31 October.

The agent's registration continues automatically past 31 October until the Authority decides the application.

On 15 November the Authority grants the application. The new 12 month registration is treated as having taken effect at the end of 31 October.

Section 301

When Authority makes decision

- (7) For the purposes of this section, the Authority is taken to have made a decision even if the decision is later stayed.

301 Migration Agents Registration Authority must warn of expiry

At least 30 days before the period for which a registered migration agent is registered will end under section 299, the Migration Agents Registration Authority must give the agent a written notice stating when the period will end.

302 Automatic deregistration

 - (b) that the agent is a restricted legal practitioner who is not eligible.

Note 1: For when a person is eligible, see sections 278A and 333C.

Note 2: A registered migration agent must notify the Authority within 28 days after becoming a restricted legal practitioner or an unrestricted legal practitioner (see section 312).

Note 3: An unrestricted legal practitioner, or a restricted legal practitioner other than an eligible restricted legal practitioner, cannot be registered as a migration agent (see section 289B).

- (2) The Authority may cancel the registration of a registered migration agent under subsection (1) because of the status of the agent as an Australian legal practitioner only on the basis of a document authorised by a body authorised to grant practising certificates to Australian legal practitioners in the relevant State or Territory.

- (3) The Authority must give a registered migration agent written notice of a decision to cancel the agent's registration under subsection (1).
- (4) The notice must set out the reason for the decision.
- (5) The decision takes effect at the time the agent is given written notice of it.

Note: Section 332H sets out when the agent is taken to have been given the notice.

303 Disciplining registered migration agents

- (1) The Migration Agents Registration Authority may:
 - (a) cancel the registration of a registered migration agent by removing his or her name from the register; or
 - (b) suspend his or her registration; or
 - (c) caution him or her;if it becomes satisfied that:
 - (d) the agent's application for registration was known by the agent to be false or misleading in a material particular; or

This subsection applies even if a stay order is made in relation to the decision.

- (2) If the Tribunal gives a document to the authorised recipient, the Tribunal is taken to have given the document to the applicant. However, this does not prevent the Tribunal giving the applicant a copy of the document.
- (3) Subject to subsection (3A), the applicant (but not the authorised recipient) may vary or withdraw the notice under paragraph (1)(b) at any time, but must not (unless the regulations provide otherwise) vary the notice so that any more than one person becomes the applicant's authorised recipient.
- (3A) In addition to the applicant being able to vary the notice under paragraph (1)(b) by varying the address of the authorised recipient, that recipient may also vary that notice by varying that address.
- (5) This section does not apply to the Tribunal giving documents to, or communicating with, the applicant when the applicant is appearing before the Tribunal.

- (3) If the Tribunal gives a document to an individual, as mentioned in subsection (2), the Tribunal is taken to have given the document to the minor. However, this does not prevent the Tribunal giving the minor a copy of the document.

Part 7 Review of Part 7-reviewable decisions

Division 7A Review of Part 7-reviewable decisions: giving and receiving documents

Section 441F

Note 1: If the Tribunal gives a person a document by a method specified in section 441A, the person is taken to have received the document at the time specified in section 441C in respect of that method.

Note 2: Section 441G deals with giving documents to a person's authorised recipient.

441F Giving documents etc. to the Tribunal

If, in relation to the review of a Part 7-reviewable decision, a person is required or permitted to give a document or thing to the Tribunal, the person must do so:

- (a) by giving the document or thing to an officer of the Tribunal; or
- (b) by a method set out in directions under section 18B of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975; or
- (c) if the regulations set out a method for doing so—by that method.

441G Authorised recipient

(1) If:

- (a) a person (the applicant) applies for review of a Part 7-reviewable decision; and
- (b) the applicant gives the Tribunal written notice of the name and address of another person (the authorised recipient) authorised by the applicant to receive documents in connection with the review;

the Tribunal must give the authorised recipient, instead of the applicant, any document that it would otherwise have given to the applicant.

Note: If the Tribunal gives a person a document by a method specified in section 441A, the person is taken to have received the document at the time specified in section 441C in respect of that method.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1):

- (a) paragraph (1)(a) is taken to also apply to an application for review of a Part 7-reviewable decision where the application is not a valid application under section 412; and

- (b) in connection with such an application, paragraph (1)(b) is taken to apply to a notice of a kind referred to in that paragraph as if the notice authorised the authorised recipient to receive documents in connection with the application (including a document notifying that recipient that the application is not a valid application under that section).
- (2) If the Tribunal gives a document to the authorised recipient, the Tribunal is taken to have given the document to the applicant. However, this does not prevent the Tribunal giving the applicant a copy of the document.
- (3) Subject to subsection (3A), the applicant (but not the authorised recipient) may vary or withdraw the notice under paragraph (1)(b) at any time, but must not (unless the regulations provide otherwise) vary the notice so that any more than one person becomes the applicant's authorised recipient.
- (3A) In addition to the applicant being able to vary the notice under paragraph (1)(b) by varying the address of the authorised recipient, that recipient may also vary that notice by varying that address.
- (5) This section does not apply to the Tribunal giving documents to, or communicating with, the applicant when the applicant is appearing before the Tribunal.

Part 7AA—Fast track review process in relation to certain protection visa decisions

Division 1—Introduction

473BA Simplified outline of this Part

This Part provides a limited form of review of certain decisions (fast track decisions) to refuse protection visas to some applicants, including unauthorised maritime arrivals who entered Australia on or after 13 August 2012, but before 1 January 2014, and who have not been taken to a regional processing country. These applicants are known as fast track review applicants and decisions to refuse to grant them protection visas are known as fast track reviewable decisions.

Fast track decisions made in relation to some applicants are excluded from the fast track review process. These applicants are known as excluded fast track review applicants.

Fast track review applicants and excluded fast track review applicants are collectively known as fast track applicants.

Fast track reviewable decisions must be referred by the Minister to the Immigration Assessment Authority as soon as reasonably practicable after a decision is made. A person cannot make an application for review directly to the Immigration Assessment Authority.

Decisions to refuse to grant protection visas to fast track applicants are generally not otherwise reviewable under this Act, although some decisions are reviewable by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal.

Section 473BB

The Immigration Assessment Authority consists of the President of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal, the head of the Migration and Refugee Division of the Tribunal, the Senior Reviewer and other Reviewers. The President and that Division head are responsible for the overall administration and operation of the Immigration Assessment Authority. The Senior Reviewer is appointed by the President or that Division head. The Senior Reviewers and other Reviewers are engaged under the Public Service Act 1999.

In reviewing fast track reviewable decisions, the Immigration Assessment Authority is required to pursue the objective of providing a mechanism of limited review that is efficient, quick, free of bias and consistent with Division 3 (conduct of review).

The Immigration Assessment Authority does not hold hearings and is required to review decisions on the papers that are provided to it when decisions are referred to it. However, in exceptional circumstances the Immigration Assessment Authority may consider new material and may invite referred applicants to provide, or comment on, new information at an interview or in writing.

The Immigration Assessment Authority may affirm a referred decision or may remit the decision for reconsideration in accordance with directions.

The Immigration Assessment Authority may give directions restricting the disclosure of information. There are also specific requirements for the giving and receiving of documents.

The Minister may issue a conclusive certificate in relation to a fast track decision if the Minister believes that:

- (a) it would be contrary to the national interest to change the decision; or

476 Jurisdiction of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2)

- (1) Subject to this section, the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) has the same original jurisdiction in relation to migration decisions as the High Court has under paragraph 75(v) of the Constitution.

 - (a) a primary decision;

 - (d) a privative clause decision or purported privative clause decision mentioned in subsection 474(7).
- (3) Nothing in this section affects any jurisdiction the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) may have in relation to non-privative clause decisions under section 8 of the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 or section 44AA of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975.
- (4) In this section:
- primary decision means a privative clause decision or purported privative clause decision:
- (a) that is reviewable under Part 5 or 7 or section 500 (whether or not it has been reviewed); or
 - (b) that would have been so reviewable if an application for such review had been made within a specified period; or
 - (c) that has been, or may be, referred for review under Part 7AA (whether or not it has been reviewed).

476A Limited jurisdiction of the Federal Court

- (1) Despite any other law, including section 39B of the Judiciary Act 1903 and section 8 of the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, the Federal Court has original jurisdiction in relation to a migration decision if, and only if:
- (a) both:
 - (i) the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) transfers a proceeding pending in that court in relation to the decision to the Federal Court under section 153 of the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia Act 2021; and

In addition, reference of a question of law arising in relation to a review of any of the proceedings mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) cannot be made by the Tribunal to the Federal Court under section 45 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975.

The only migration decisions in relation to which an appeal under section 44 of that Act, or a referral under section 45 of that Act, can be made to the Federal Court are non-privative clause decisions.

- (1A) To avoid doubt, the Federal Court does not have original jurisdiction in relation to a migration decision under subsection (1) in respect of proceedings that are transferred to the Federal Court under section 32AC of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976.
- (2) Where the Federal Court has jurisdiction in relation to a migration decision under paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c), that jurisdiction is the same as the jurisdiction of the High Court under paragraph 75(v) of the Constitution.
- (3) Despite section 24 of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976, an appeal may not be brought to the Federal Court from:

- (2) The High Court must not remit a matter, or any part of a matter, that relates to a migration decision to the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) unless that court has jurisdiction in relation to the matter, or that part of the matter, under section 476.
- (3) The High Court may remit a matter, or part of a matter, that relates to a migration decision in relation to which the Federal Court has jurisdiction under paragraph 476A(1)(b) or (c) to that court.

- (2) Subject to section 80 of the Constitution, where a person has committed an offence against a provision of this Act outside a Territory and is found in, or brought into, the Territory, a court of the Territory has the same jurisdiction in respect of the offence as it would have if the offence had been committed in the Territory.

494A Giving documents by Minister where no requirement to do so by section 494B method

- (1) If:
- (a) a provision of this Act or the regulations requires or permits the Minister to give a document to a person; and
 - (b) the provision does not state that the document must be given:
 - (i) by one of the methods specified in section 494B; or
 - (ii) by a method prescribed for the purposes of giving documents to a person in immigration detention;
- the Minister may give the document to the person by any method that he or she considers appropriate (which may be one of the methods mentioned in subparagraph (b)(i) or (ii) of this section).

Note: Section 494D deals with giving documents to a person's authorised recipient.

- (2) If a person is a minor, the Minister may give a document to an individual who is at least 18 years of age if the Minister reasonably believes that:
- (a) the individual has day-to-day care and responsibility for the minor; or
 - (b) the individual works in or for an organisation that has day-to-day care and responsibility for the minor and the individual's duties, whether alone or jointly with another person, involve care and responsibility for the minor.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if subsection 52(3C) (which relates to giving notifications in the case of combined applications) applies in relation to the minor.
- (4) If the Minister gives a document to an individual, as mentioned in subsection (2), the Minister is taken to have given the document to the minor. However, this does not prevent the Minister giving the minor a copy of the document.
- (5) This section does not apply to the giving of any of the following documents:
- (a) a document relating to the proposed cancellation of a visa;

Section 494B

- (b) a document relating to the cancellation of a visa;
- (c) a document relating to the revocation of the cancellation of a visa;

Note 1: The Minister must give a person a document mentioned in this subsection in the way prescribed by the regulations for the document (see, for example, subsections 119(2), 127(2A) and 501G(3) and paragraph 504(1)(e)).

Note 2: For the giving of such a document to the person's authorised recipient, see section 494D.

494B Methods by which Minister gives documents to a person

Coverage of section

- (1) For the purposes of provisions of this Act or the regulations that:
 - (a) require or permit the Minister to give a document to a person (the recipient); and
 - (b) state that the Minister must do so by one of the methods specified in this section;the methods are as follows.
- (1A) If a person is a minor, the Minister may use the method mentioned in subsection (4), (5) or (5A) to dispatch, transmit or make available a document to an individual (a carer of the minor):
 - (a) who is at least 18 years of age; and
 - (b) who the Minister reasonably believes:
 - (i) has day-to-day care and responsibility for the minor; or
 - (ii) works in or for an organisation that has day-to-day care and responsibility for the minor and whose duties, whether alone or jointly with another person, involve care and responsibility for the minor.

Note: If the Minister gives an individual a document by the method mentioned in subsection (4), (5) or (5A), the individual is taken to have received the document at the time specified in section 494C in respect of that method.

Section 494B

- (1B) However, subsection (1A) does not apply if subsection 52(3C) (which relates to giving notifications in the case of combined applications) applies in relation to the minor.

Giving by hand

- (2) One method consists of the Minister (including by way of an authorised officer) handing the document to the recipient.

Handing to a person at last residential or business address

- (3) Another method consists of the Minister (including by way of an authorised officer) handing the document to another person who:
- (a) is at the last residential or business address provided to the Minister by the recipient for the purposes of receiving documents; and
 - (b) appears to live there (in the case of a residential address) or work there (in the case of a business address); and
 - (c) appears to be at least 16 years of age.

Dispatch by prepaid post or by other prepaid means

- (4) Another method consists of the Minister dating the document, and then dispatching it:
- (a) within 3 working days (in the place of dispatch) of the date of the document; and
 - (b) by prepaid post or by other prepaid means; and
 - (c) to:
 - (i) the last address for service provided to the Minister by the recipient for the purposes of receiving documents; or
 - (ii) the last residential or business address provided to the Minister by the recipient for the purposes of receiving documents; or
 - (iii) if the recipient is a minor—the last address for a carer of the minor that is known by the Minister.

Section 494B

Transmission by fax, email or other electronic means

- (5) Another method consists of the Minister transmitting the document by:
- (a) fax; or
 - (b) email; or
 - (c) other electronic means;
- to:
- (d) the last fax number, email address or other electronic address, as the case may be, provided to the Minister for the purposes of receiving documents; or
 - (e) if the recipient is a minor—the last fax number, email address or other electronic address, as the case may be, for a carer of the minor that is known by the Minister.

Making document available by way of online account

- (5A) Another method consists of the Minister making the document available by way of an online account of the recipient established for purposes relating to this Act or the regulations.

When the Minister hands a document by way of an authorised officer

- (6) For the purposes of sections 494C and 494D, a reference in those sections to an act of the Minister includes, if the act is of a kind referred to in subsection (2) or (3) of this section, a reference to an act of the Minister by way of an authorised officer.

Documents given to a carer

- (7) If the Minister gives a document to a carer of a minor, the Minister is taken to have given the document to the minor. However, this does not prevent the Minister giving the minor a copy of the document.

Section 494C

494C When a person is taken to have received a document from the Minister

- (1) This section applies if the Minister gives a document to a person by one of the methods specified in section 494B (including in a case covered by section 494A).

Giving by hand

- (2) If the Minister gives a document to a person by the method in subsection 494B(2) (which involves handing the document to the person), the person is taken to have received the document when it is handed to the person.

Handing to a person at last residential or business address

- (3) If the Minister gives a document to a person by the method in subsection 494B(3) (which involves handing the document to another person at a residential or business address), the person is taken to have received the document when it is handed to the other person.

Dispatch by prepaid post or by other prepaid means

- (4) If the Minister gives a document to a person by the method in subsection 494B(4) (which involves dispatching the document by prepaid post or by other prepaid means), the person is taken to have received the document:
- (a) if the document was dispatched from a place in Australia to an address in Australia—7 working days (in the place of that address) after the date of the document; or
 - (b) in any other case—21 days after the date of the document.

Transmission by fax, email or other electronic means

- (5) If the Minister gives a document to a person by the method in subsection 494B(5) (which involves transmitting the document by fax, email or other electronic means), the person is taken to have received the document at the end of the day on which the document is transmitted.

Making document available by way of online account

- (6) If the Minister gives a document to a person by the method in subsection 494B(5A) (which involves making the document available by way of an online account), the person is taken to have received the document at the end of the day on which it is made available.

Document not given effectively

- (7) If:
- (a) the Minister purports to give a document to a person in accordance with a method (the relevant method) specified in section 494B (including in a case covered by section 494A) but makes an error in doing so; and
 - (b) the person nonetheless receives the document or a copy of it; then, despite the error:
 - (c) the document is taken to have been given in accordance with the relevant method; and
 - (d) the person is taken to have received the document:
 - (i) at the time mentioned in this section for the relevant method; or
 - (ii) if the person can show that the person received the document at a later time—at that later time.

Section 494D

494D Authorised recipient

- (1) If a person (the first person) gives the Minister written notice of the name and address of another person (the authorised recipient) authorised by the first person to receive documents in connection with specified matters arising under this Act or the regulations, the Minister must give the authorised recipient, instead of the first person, any documents in connection with those matters that the Minister would otherwise have given to the first person.

Note: If the Minister gives a person a document by a method specified in section 494B, the person is taken to have received the document at the time specified in section 494C in respect of that method.

- (2) If the Minister gives a document to the authorised recipient, the Minister is taken to have given the document to the first person. However, this does not prevent the Minister giving the first person a copy of the document.
- (3) Subject to subsection (3A), the first person (but not the authorised recipient) may vary or withdraw the notice under subsection (1) at any time, but must not (unless the regulations provide otherwise) vary the notice so that any more than one person becomes the first person's authorised recipient.
- (3A) In addition to the first person being able to vary the notice under subsection (1) by varying the address of the authorised recipient, that recipient may also vary that notice by varying that address.
- (5) The Minister need not comply with subsection (1) if:
- (a) the authorised recipient is not a registered migration agent (within the meaning of Part 3); and
 - (b) the Minister reasonably suspects that the authorised recipient is giving immigration assistance (within the meaning of that Part); and
 - (c) the Minister has given the first person a notice, by one of the methods specified in section 494B, stating that he or she does not intend to give the authorised recipient documents as mentioned in subsection (1).

494E When documents are taken to comply with content requirements

- (1) This section applies in relation to a document if:
 - (a) a provision of this Act or the regulations requires or permits the Minister to give the document to a person; and
 - (b) a provision of this Act or the regulations requires (the content requirements) the document to include particular information.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act or the regulations, the document is taken to comply with the content requirements if:
 - (a) there is substantial compliance with those requirements; and
 - (b) the failure to strictly comply with those requirements does not, or is not likely to, cause substantial prejudice to the person's rights (including, but not limited to, rights to seek review in connection with the matter to which the document relates).
- (3) Subsection (2) applies despite any other provision of this Act or the regulations.
- (4) Without limiting paragraph (2)(a), there may be substantial compliance with the content requirements even if there is an error, omission, misstatement or misdescription in the document.
- (5) Without limiting paragraph (2)(b), a failure by the person to:
 - (a) exercise any rights (including, but not limited to, rights to seek review) in connection with the matter to which the document relates; or
 - (b) take any other action (including, but not limited to, the making of representations) in connection with the matter to which the document relates;is not on its own to be taken to imply that the failure to strictly comply with the content requirements has caused substantial prejudice to the person's rights (including, but not limited to, rights to seek review in connection with the matter to which the document relates).

Section 494E

Example 1: Andrew, George and Daniel each make an application for the grant of a visa. The Minister refuses to grant each applicant the visa and gives notice of the refusal decision to each applicant. The notice states that the applicant may make an application for review of the refusal decision within 30 days after the notice is received by the applicant.

While the notice substantially complies with the requirement in the Act to state the period within which an application for review must be made, the notice misstates the period. The correct period is 28 days after the notice is received by the applicant.

Andrew makes an application for review of the refusal decision 25 days after receiving the notice. As the misstatement in the notice does not cause substantial prejudice to Andrew's right to seek review, it is intended that subsection (2) would apply in relation to the notice given to Andrew.

George makes an application for review of the refusal decision 29 days after receiving the notice. The misstatement in the notice causes substantial prejudice to George's right to seek review as the application for review is not made within the required period but is made within the misstated period specified in the notice. It is intended that subsection (2) would not apply in relation to the notice given to George.

Daniel makes an application for review of the refusal decision 40 days after receiving the notice. The misstatement in the notice does not cause substantial prejudice to Daniel's right to seek review as the application for review is made well after the required period. It is intended that subsection (2) would apply in relation to the notice given to Daniel.

Example 2: Anne applies for a visa and has an authorised recipient under section 494D. The Minister refuses to grant Anne the visa and gives notice of the refusal decision by sending an email to the authorised recipient. The authorised recipient receives the notice and 2 days later forwards it on to Anne.

The notice states that Anne may make an application for review of the refusal decision within 21 days after the day Anne receives the notice. The notice does not explain that the effect of sections 494C and 494D is that the period of 21 days begins to run on the day after the day the notice is received by the authorised recipient, rather than by Anne.

While the notice substantially complies with the requirement in the Act to state the period within which an application for review must be made, the notice misdescribes when that period begins to run.

Anne makes an application for review of the refusal decision 35 days after receiving the notice. The misdescription in the notice does not cause substantial prejudice to Anne's right to seek review as the application for review is made well after the required period. It is intended that subsection (2) would apply in relation to the notice given to the authorised recipient.

495 Minister may approve forms

The Minister may, in writing, approve a form for the purposes of a provision of this Act in which the expression "approved form" is used.

495A Minister may arrange for use of computer programs to make decisions etc.

- (1) The Minister may arrange for the use, under the Minister's control, of computer programs for any purposes for which the Minister may, or must, under the designated migration law:

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the following provisions are the designated migration law:
 - (a) Subdivisions A, AA, AB and AC of Division 3 of Part 2 (other than section 48B);
 - (aa) section 257A;

Section 495B

- (b) any provision of this Act or of the regulations that the Minister, by legislative instrument, determines to be part of the designated migration law.

495B Minister may substitute more favourable decisions for certain computer-based decisions

- (1) The Minister may substitute a decision (the substituted decision) for a decision (the initial decision) made by the operation of a computer program under an arrangement made under subsection 495A(1) if:
 - (a) a certificate under paragraph 271(1)(l) relates to the computer program and to the initial decision; and
 - (b) the certificate states that the computer program was not functioning correctly; and
 - (c) the substituted decision could have been made under the same provision of the designated migration law as the initial decision; and
 - (d) the substituted decision is more favourable to the applicant.
- (2) The Minister does not have a duty to consider whether to exercise the power under subsection (1) in respect of any decision, whether he or she is requested to do so by the applicant or by any other person, or in any other circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (1) has effect despite:
 - (a) any law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) any rule of common law;to the contrary effect.

496 Delegation

- (1) The Minister may, by writing signed by him or her, delegate to a person any of the Minister's powers under this Act.
- (1A) The delegate is, in the exercise of a power delegated under subsection (1), subject to the directions of the Minister.

- (2) The Secretary may, by writing signed by him or her, delegate to a person any of the Secretary's powers under this Act.
- (3) If an application for a visa that has a health criterion is made, the Minister may:
 - (a) delegate to a person the power to consider and decide whether that criterion is satisfied; and
 - (b) consider and decide, or delegate to another person the power to consider and decide, all other aspects of the application.
- (4) To avoid doubt, if there is a delegation described in paragraph (3)(a) in relation to an application for a visa:
 - (a) Subdivision AB of Division 3 of Part 2 has effect accordingly; and
 - (b) for the purposes of subsection 65(1), the Minister is satisfied or not satisfied that the health criterion for the visa has been satisfied if the delegate who was given that delegation is so satisfied or not so satisfied, as the case may be.
- (5) Subsection (1A) does not limit subsection 499(1).

497 Delegate not required to perform certain administrative tasks

- (1) If the Minister delegates the power to grant or refuse to grant visas, the delegation does not require the delegate personally to perform any task in connection with the grant or refusal, except the taking of a decision in each case whether or not a visa should be granted.
- (2) If the Minister delegates the power to cancel visas, the delegation does not require the delegate personally to perform any task in connection with the cancellation, except the taking of a decision in each case whether a visa should be cancelled.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) shall be taken to imply that:
 - (a) a person on whom a power is conferred by or under this or any other Act; or
 - (b) a delegate of such a person;

Section 498

is required personally to perform all administrative and clerical tasks connected with the exercise of the power.

498 Exercise of powers under Act

- (1) The powers conferred by or under this Act shall be exercised in accordance with any applicable regulations under this Act.
- (2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to limit the operation of subsection 29(4).

499 Minister may give directions

- (1) The Minister may give written directions to a person or body having functions or powers under this Act if the directions are about:
 - (a) the performance of those functions; or
 - (b) the exercise of those powers.
- (1A) For example, a direction under subsection (1) could require a person or body to exercise the power under section 501 instead of the power under section 200 (as it applies because of section 201) in circumstances where both powers apply.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not empower the Minister to give directions that would be inconsistent with this Act or the regulations.
- (2A) A person or body must comply with a direction under subsection (1).
- (3) The Minister shall cause a copy of any direction given under subsection (1) to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after that direction was given.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not limit subsection 496(1A).

500 Review of decision

- (1) Applications may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of:

- (a) decisions of the Minister under section 200 because of circumstances specified in section 201, other than decisions to which a certificate under section 502 applies; or
- (b) decisions of a delegate of the Minister under section 501 (subject to subsection (4A)); or
- (ba) decisions of a delegate of the Minister under subsection 501CA(4) not to revoke a decision to cancel a visa; or
- (c) a decision, other than a decision to which a certificate under section 502 applies, to refuse under section 65 to grant a protection visa, relying on:
 - (i) subsection 5H(2) or 36(1C); or
 - (ii) paragraph 36(2C)(a) or (b) of this Act.

Note: Decisions to refuse to grant a protection visa to fast track applicants are generally not reviewable by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal. However, some decisions of this kind are reviewable by that Tribunal, in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (a), or subparagraph (b)(i) or (iii), of the definition of fast track decision in subsection 5(1).

- (2) A person is not entitled to make an application under paragraph (1)(a) unless:
 - (a) the person is an Australian citizen; or
 - (b) the person is a lawful non-citizen whose continued presence in Australia is not subject to any limitation as to time imposed by law.
- (3) A person is not entitled to make an application under subsection (1) for review of a decision referred to in paragraph (1)(b) or (c) unless the person would be entitled to seek review of the decision under Part 5 or 7 if the decision had been made on another ground.
- (4) The following decisions are not reviewable under Part 5 or 7:
 - (a) a decision under section 200 because of circumstances specified in section 201;
 - (b) a decision under section 501;

Section 500

- (c) a decision to refuse to grant a protection visa, or to cancel a protection visa, relying on:
 - (i) subsection 5H(2) or 36(1C); or

 - (c) a decision of a delegate of the Minister under subsection 501(3A) to cancel a visa.
- (6) Where an application has been made to the Tribunal for the review of a decision under section 200 ordering the deportation of a person, the order for the deportation of the person shall not be taken for the purposes of section 253 to have ceased or to cease to be in force by reason only of any order that has been made by:
 - (a) the Tribunal (for example, an order under section 41 (stay orders) of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975); or
 - (c) the Federal Court of Australia or a Judge of that Court under section 44A of that Act; or
 - (d) the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) or a Judge of that Court under section 44A of that Act.
- (6A) If a decision under section 501 of this Act, or a decision under subsection 501CA(4) of this Act not to revoke a decision to cancel a visa, relates to a person in the migration zone, section 28 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 does not apply to the decision.
