An Act to regulate Banking, to make provision for the Protection of the Currency and of the Public Credit of the Commonwealth, and for other purposes

Part I—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Banking Act 1959.

2 Commencement

Except as otherwise provided by this Act, this Act shall come into operation on the day on which the Reserve Bank Act 1959 comes into operation.

2A Main objects of this Act

- (1) The main objects of this Act are:
 - (a) to protect the interests of depositors in ADIs in ways that are consistent with the continued development of a viable, competitive and innovative banking industry; and
 - (b) to promote financial system stability in Australia.
- (2) This Act, and the prudential standards and non-ADI lender rules determined by APRA under this Act, achieve this mainly by:
 - (a) restricting who can carry on banking business in Australia; and
 - (b) providing for the prudential supervision of ADIs by APRA, by APRA determining prudential standards or taking other action to ensure prudent management of ADIs; and
 - (c) providing for APRA to manage or respond to circumstances in which the ability of an ADI to meet its obligations may be threatened; and

Section 4

- (d) providing for certain account-holders to be paid amounts where the financial claims scheme has been declared to apply in relation to an ADI; and
 - (e) providing for heightened accountability for banking directors and senior executives through the Banking Executive Accountability Regime; and
 - (f) for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b)—providing rules in relation to the provision of certain kinds of finance by non-ADI lenders.
- (3) It is intended that APRA, in taking actions to address risks to financial system stability in Australia, may consider specific sources of systemic risks, whether geographic, sectoral or otherwise.
- (4) This section does not apply to the following:
- (a) Divisions 4 (Mobilization of foreign currency) and 5 (Advances) of Part II;
 - (b) Parts III (Foreign exchange, foreign investment etc.), IV (Gold) and V (Interest rates);
 - (c) any other provision of this Act, to the extent that it relates to any of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

Division 1AA—Authority to be a NOHC of an ADI

11AA Authority to be a NOHC

- (1) A body corporate may apply in writing to APRA for an authority under this section. The authority operates as an authority in relation to the body corporate and any ADIs that are subsidiaries of the body corporate from time to time.

Note 1: The body corporate may want the authority:

- (a) because APRA refuses or may refuse to grant a subsidiary of the body corporate a section 9 authority unless the body corporate holds a NOHC authority (see subsection 9(3A)); or
- (b) for a purpose connected with the Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1998.

Note 2: The body corporate may also need to consider the implications of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 and the Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1998.

- (1A) APRA may, by legislative instrument, set criteria for the granting of an authority under this section.
- (2) APRA may grant the authority if it considers it is appropriate to do so.

Note: For APRA's power to revoke the authority, see section 11AB.

- (3) If APRA grants an authority under subsection (2), APRA must cause notice of that authority to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that authority to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.
- (4) A failure to comply with subsection (3) does not affect the validity of the authority.
- (5) Part VI applies to a decision to refuse an application under this section.

Section 11AAA

11AAA Conditions on an authority

- (1) APRA may, at any time, by giving written notice to a body corporate:
 - (a) impose conditions, or additional conditions, on the body corporate's NOHC authority; or
 - (b) vary or revoke conditions imposed on the body corporate's NOHC authority.The conditions must relate to prudential matters.
- (2) A condition may be expressed to have effect despite anything in the prudential standards or the regulations.
- (3) If APRA imposes, varies or revokes the conditions on a body corporate's NOHC authority, APRA must:
 - (a) give written notice to the body corporate; and
 - (b) ensure that notice that the action has been taken is published in the Gazette.
- (4) The taking of an action is not invalid merely because of a failure to comply with subsection (3).
- (5) Part VI applies to the following decisions made under this section:
 - (a) a decision to impose conditions, or additional conditions, on a body corporate's NOHC authority;
 - (b) a decision to vary conditions imposed on a body corporate's NOHC authority.

11AAB Breach of authority conditions

- (1) A body corporate commits an offence if:
 - (a) the body corporate does an act or fails to do an act; and
 - (b) doing the act or failing to do the act results in a contravention of a condition of the body corporate's NOHC authority; and
 - (c) there is no determination in force under section 11 that this subsection does not apply to the body corporate.

Penalty: 300 penalty units.

- (2) If an individual:
 - (a) commits an offence against subsection (1) because of Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code; or
 - (b) commits an offence under Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code in relation to an offence against subsection (1);he or she is punishable, on conviction, by a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units.

- (3) An offence against this section is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

11AB Revocation of authority etc.

- (1) APRA must revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate if:
 - (a) the body corporate, by notice in writing to APRA, requests the revocation of the authority; and
 - (b) APRA is satisfied that revocation of the authority:
 - (i) would not be contrary to the national interest; and
 - (ii) would not be contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate.
- (2) APRA may revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate if APRA is satisfied that:
 - (aa) the body corporate has, whether before or after the commencement of this paragraph, provided, in connection with its application for the authority, information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (a) the body corporate has failed to comply with any of the following:
 - (i) a requirement of this Act;
 - (ii) a requirement of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001;
 - (iii) a requirement of the regulations or any other instrument made under this Act;

Section 11AB

- (iv) a requirement of a provision of another law of the Commonwealth, if the provision is specified in the regulations;
- (v) a direction under this Act;
- (vi) a condition of its NOHC authority; or
- (b) the body corporate has ceased to be a NOHC of any ADI or ADIs; or
- (c) it would be contrary to the national interest for the authority to remain in force; or
- (ca) it would be contrary to financial system stability in Australia for the authority to remain in force; or
- (d) it would be contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate for the authority to remain in force; or
- (e) the body corporate has failed to pay:
 - (i) an amount of levy or late penalty to which the Financial Institutions Supervisory Levies Collection Act 1998 applies; or
 - (ii) an amount of charge fixed under section 51 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

The procedures to be undergone before a revocation under this subsection are set out in subsection (3). Those procedures apply unless APRA determines under subsection (4) that they are not to apply.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), APRA must not, under subsection (2), revoke a body corporate's NOHC authority unless:
 - (a) APRA has given the body corporate a notice in writing advising the body corporate:
 - (i) that APRA is considering revoking the authority for the reasons specified in the notice; and
 - (ii) that the body corporate may make submissions to APRA, in accordance with the notice, about the possible revocation; and

Section 11AB

- (iii) of the date by which any submissions must be made (being a date at least 90 days after the giving of the notice); and
 - (b) APRA has considered any submissions that were made by the body corporate by the specified date.
- (4) APRA may determine that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply if APRA is satisfied that following those procedures could result in a delay in revocation that would be:
 - (a) contrary to the national interest; or
 - (b) contrary to the interests of depositors of any ADI that is a subsidiary of the body corporate.
- (5) A revocation of a body corporate's NOHC authority under subsection (1) or (2) must be in writing, and APRA must give the body corporate written notice of the revocation of the authority.
- (5A) The notice of the revocation of the authority may state that the authority continues in effect in relation to a specified matter or specified period, as though the revocation had not happened, for the purposes of:
 - (a) a specified provision of this Act or the regulations; or
 - (b) a specified provision of another law of the Commonwealth that is administered by APRA; or
 - (c) a specified provision of the prudential standards;and the statement has effect accordingly.
- (6) If APRA revokes a body corporate's NOHC authority under subsection (1) or (2), APRA must cause notice of the revocation to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of the revocation to be published in any other way it considers appropriate.
- (7) A failure to comply with subsection (5) (so far as it requires a body corporate to be given written notice of a revocation) or with subsection (6) does not affect the validity of a revocation.
- (8) Part VI applies to the following decisions under this section:

Section 11AC

- (a) a decision to refuse to revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate;
- (b) a decision to revoke a NOHC authority granted to a body corporate, unless APRA has determined, under subsection (4), that the procedures in subsection (3) do not apply.

11AC Bodies that cease to exist or change their names

- (1) If APRA is satisfied that a body corporate that has been granted a NOHC authority:
 - (a) has ceased to exist; or
 - (b) has changed its name;APRA must cause notice of that fact to be published in the Gazette. APRA may also cause notice of that fact to be published in any other way it thinks appropriate.
- (2) If the body corporate has ceased to exist, any NOHC authority granted to the body corporate that is still in force is taken to be revoked on publication of the notice in the Gazette.
- (3) If the body corporate has changed its name, any NOHC authority granted to the body corporate that is still in force has effect after the publication of the notice in the Gazette as if it had been granted to the body under its changed name.

11AD Publication of list of NOHCs

APRA may, from time to time, publish a list of authorised NOHCs:

- (a) in the Gazette; or
- (b) in such other manner as APRA determines.

11AE APRA may give notice to ensure that ADI has an authorised NOHC

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a body corporate is a holding company of an ADI; and

- (b) the ADI is not a subsidiary of an authorised NOHC.
- (2) APRA may, by notice in writing to the body corporate, require it to ensure, in accordance with the conditions (if any) specified in the notice, that either of the following occurs:
- (a) the body corporate becomes an authorised NOHC of the ADI;
 - (b) a subsidiary of the body corporate becomes an authorised NOHC of the ADI.
- Note: See Part 4A of the Financial Sector (Transfer and Restructure) Act 1999 for other provisions that deal with a restructure arrangement to make an operating body a subsidiary of a NOHC.
- (3) The notice may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.
- (4) The body corporate has power to comply with the notice despite anything in its constitution or any contract or arrangement to which it is a party.
- (5) APRA may, by notice in writing to the body corporate, vary the notice mentioned in subsection (2) if, at the time of the variation, it considers that the variation is necessary and appropriate.
- (6) The notice mentioned in subsection (2) has effect until APRA revokes it by notice in writing to the body corporate. APRA may revoke the notice mentioned in subsection (2) if, at the time of revocation, it considers that the notice is no longer necessary or appropriate.
- (7) Part VI applies to a decision to give a notice under subsection (2).
- (8) Section 11CG applies in relation to a notice to a body corporate under subsection (2) in the same way in which it applies to a direction to an ADI under Subdivision B of Division 1BA.
- (9) However, section 11CG does not apply to a contravention by a body corporate of a requirement in a notice under subsection (2) if:

Section 11AE

- (a) the contravention happens merely because APRA refuses to grant the body corporate (or its subsidiary) an authority under subsection 11AA(2); and
- (b) APRA's reasons for that refusal do not include the reason that one or more conditions specified in the notice are not satisfied.

- (1AB) However, APRA can only make a direction as a result of a ground referred to in paragraph (1AA)(a), (b), (c), (e), (f), (g), (h) or (k) if APRA considers that the direction is reasonably necessary for one or more prudential matters relating to the body corporate.

- (1AD) APRA cannot give a direction under subsection (1AC) to a body corporate of a kind specified in regulations (if any) made for the purposes of this subsection.
- (1AE) Subsections (1), (1AA) and (1AC) do not limit each other.
- (1A) The direction must:
 - (a) be given by notice in writing to the body corporate; and
 - (b) specify:
 - (i) in the case of a direction under subsection (1AC)—the ground referred to in subsection (1AA) as a result of which the direction is given; or

- (1C) The regulations may specify that a particular form of support is not external support for the purposes of subsection (1B).

A direction under paragraph (n) not to pay or transfer any amount or asset does not apply to the payment or transfer of money pursuant to an order of a court or a process of execution.

- (a) APRA is in control of a body corporate's business under this Subdivision—APRA is the Banking Act statutory manager of the body corporate; or
- (b) an administrator appointed by APRA is in control of a body corporate's business under this Subdivision—the administrator is the Banking Act statutory manager of the body corporate.

Note: This section and other provisions relating to statutory management do not apply to the aspects described in subsection 11E(1) of the business and management of a foreign ADI.

(2A) If APRA appoints 2 or more Banking Act statutory managers of a body corporate, or appoints one or more additional Banking Act statutory managers of a body corporate:

- (a) the functions and powers under this Act of a Banking Act statutory manager of the body corporate may be performed or exercised by:
 - (i) all of the Banking Act statutory managers of the body corporate acting jointly; or
 - (ii) each of the Banking Act statutory managers of the body corporate acting individually (except to the extent (if any) specified in a notice given by APRA under paragraph (b)); and
- (b) at the time of appointment, APRA may give all of the Banking Act statutory managers of the body corporate a notice in writing for the purposes of subparagraph (a)(ii), specifying limits or conditions on their ability to perform functions and exercise powers individually; and

Section 13A

- (c) treat a reference in this Act to a Banking Act statutory manager as being a reference to whichever one or more of those Banking Act statutory managers the case requires.

Priorities for application of assets of ADI in Australia

- (3) If an ADI becomes unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment, the assets of the ADI in Australia are to be available to meet the ADI's liabilities in the following order:

- (4) An ADI commits an offence if:

Section 13A

- (a) it does not hold assets (excluding goodwill and any assets or other amount excluded by the prudential standards for the purposes of this subsection) in Australia of a value that is equal to or greater than the total amount of its deposit liabilities in Australia; and
- (b) APRA has not authorised the ADI to hold assets of a lesser value.

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

(4A) For the purposes of subsection (4):

- (a) the ADI's deposit liabilities are taken not to include an amount equal to the total of the face values of all of the covered bonds issued by the ADI; and
- (b) the assets of the ADI are taken not to include:
 - (i) any interest in an asset (or a part of an asset) in a cover pool for which the ADI is the issuing ADI; or
 - (ii) any loan to a covered bond special purpose vehicle that relates to an asset (or a part of an asset) in a cover pool for which the ADI is the issuing ADI.

(5) An offence against subsection (4) is an indictable offence.

(6) If the circumstances relating to the asset holdings of an ADI are such that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (4), the ADI commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:

- (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
- (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Section 13B

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (7) To avoid doubt, this section applies to a body corporate that is, or becomes, a Chapter 5 body corporate (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) in the same way as this section applies to any other body corporate.

13B Investigators—ADI must provide information and facilities

- (1) An investigator of the affairs of an ADI under section 13 or 13A is entitled to have access to the books, accounts and documents of the ADI, and to require the ADI to give the investigator information or facilities to conduct the investigation.
- (1A) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the ADI does not give the investigator access to its books, accounts and documents; or
 - (b) the ADI fails to comply with a requirement made under subsection (1) for the provision of information or facilities.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

- (1B) If the ADI does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (1A), the ADI commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:
- (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
 - (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (2) Part 6 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 prohibits certain disclosures of information received by investigators under this Act.

13BA Start of control of body corporate's business by Banking Act statutory manager

- (1) After the decision that a Banking Act statutory manager will take control of a body corporate's business is made, APRA must give the body corporate written notice that the Banking Act statutory manager will take, or is taking, control of the business.

Note: Subsections 15A(4) and 16A(3) also require APRA to give notice of the taking of control.

- (2) A Banking Act statutory manager takes control of a body corporate's business:
- (a) at the time specified in a notice under this section as the time when the Banking Act statutory manager takes control of the business (which must not be earlier than the notice is given); or
 - (b) if a notice under this section does not specify a time as the time when the Banking Act statutory manager takes control of the business—at the time the notice is given.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

13C Banking Act statutory managers—termination of control

Conditions necessary for termination of control

- (1) If APRA assumes control of a body corporate's business or appoints an administrator of a body corporate's business, APRA must ensure that either it or an administrator of the body corporate's business has control of the body corporate's business until:
- (a) APRA considers that it is no longer necessary for it or an administrator to remain in control of the body corporate's business; or

Section 13C

(b) APRA has applied for the body corporate to be wound up.

A termination of control that is permitted under this section is called an ultimate termination of control.

Note: This provision does not prevent a change, or changes, between control of a body corporate's business by APRA and an administrator or between administrators.

Events to precede termination

- (2) Before making an ultimate termination of control by a Banking Act statutory manager of a body corporate's business, APRA must:
- (a) ensure that directors of the body corporate have been appointed or elected under the body corporate's constitution at a meeting called by the Banking Act statutory manager in accordance with the body corporate's constitution; or
 - (b) appoint directors of the body corporate by instrument in writing; or
 - (c) ensure that a liquidator for the body corporate has been appointed.

Power to terminate control

- (3) If the requirements in subsections (1) and (2) are satisfied, APRA may by instrument in writing make an ultimate termination of control of a body corporate's business by a Banking Act statutory manager.
- (4) If the Banking Act statutory manager at the time of the termination is an administrator, the instrument of termination also operates as a termination of the appointment of the administrator. A copy of the instrument must be given to the administrator. However, mere failure to give the copy to the administrator does not affect the termination of the appointment.

Period of director's appointment

- (5) If a director is elected or appointed under subsection (2), the director takes office on the termination of the Banking Act statutory manager's control of the body corporate's business. If the director was appointed by APRA, the director holds office until the body corporate's next annual general meeting, subject to any terms and conditions imposed by APRA on the director's appointment. If the director was appointed or elected under the body corporate's constitution, the constitution governs the appointment.

Note: For further information about what happens when a Banking Act statutory manager is in control of a body corporate's business, see Subdivision B.

Subdivision AA—Recapitalisation directions by APRA

13D Who this Subdivision applies to

- (1) This Subdivision applies to an ADI that:
 - (a) is a company that:
 - (i) is registered under the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (ii) has a share capital; and
 - (b) does not have a Banking Act statutory manager.
- (2) Subsections (3) and (4) apply if:
 - (a) APRA has given a recapitalisation direction to an ADI under subsection 13E(1) (the primary recapitalisation direction); and
 - (b) the ADI is a subsidiary of a NOHC/NOHC subsidiary; and
 - (c) the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary is a company that:
 - (i) is registered under the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (ii) has a share capital; and
 - (d) the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary does not have a Banking Act statutory manager.
- (3) This Subdivision applies to the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary in the same way that it does to an ADI.
- (4) However, disregard the following provisions in applying this Subdivision to the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary:
 - (a) subsection 13E(1);
 - (b) subsection 13F(1).

Section 13E

(5) In this section:

NOHC/NOHC subsidiary means a body corporate that is any of the following:

- (a) an authorised NOHC;
- (b) a subsidiary of an authorised NOHC.

13E Recapitalisation direction by APRA

(1) APRA may give an ADI a direction (a recapitalisation direction) that requires the ADI to increase the ADI's level of capital to the level specified in the direction if:

- (a) the ADI informs APRA that:
 - (i) the ADI considers that the ADI is likely to become unable to meet the ADI's obligations; or
 - (ii) the ADI is about to suspend payment; or
- (b) APRA considers that, in the absence of external support:
 - (i) the ADI may become unable to meet the ADI's obligations; or
 - (ii) the ADI may suspend payment; or
 - (iii) it is likely that the ADI will be unable to carry on banking business in Australia consistently with the interests of the ADI's depositors; or
 - (iv) it is likely that the ADI will be unable to carry on banking business in Australia consistently with the stability of the financial system in Australia; or
- (c) the ADI:
 - (i) becomes unable to meet the ADI's obligations; or
 - (ii) suspends payment.

(1A) Subsection (1B) applies if subsections 13D(3) and (4) apply to a NOHC/NOHC subsidiary because of a primary recapitalisation direction given to an ADI (as mentioned in subsection 13D(2)).

(1B) For the purposes of facilitating compliance with the primary recapitalisation direction, APRA may give the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary a direction (also a recapitalisation direction) that requires the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary to do anything that is specified in the direction.

- (2) In deciding whether to give a recapitalisation direction, APRA must consult with the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (the ACCC), unless the ACCC notifies APRA, in writing, that the ACCC does not wish to be consulted about:
 - (a) the direction; or
 - (b) a class of directions that includes the direction.
- (3) The regulations may specify that a particular form of support is not external support for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).
- (4) A recapitalisation direction is not a legislative instrument.
- (5) A recapitalisation direction may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.
- (6) APRA may, by notice in writing to the ADI, vary the recapitalisation direction if, at the time of the variation, it considers that the variation is necessary and appropriate.
- (7) The direction has effect until APRA revokes it by notice in writing to the ADI. APRA may revoke the direction if, at the time of revocation, it considers that the direction is no longer necessary or appropriate.

13F Additional contents of a recapitalisation direction

- (1) A recapitalisation direction may direct the ADI to issue:
 - (a) shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the ADI; or
 - (b) other capital instruments of a kind specified in the direction.
- (1A) If the recapitalisation direction is a direction to a NOHC/NOHC subsidiary under subsection 13E(1B), the direction may direct the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary to do any of the following:
 - (a) issue:
 - (i) shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary; or

Section 13F

- (ii) other capital instruments in the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary of a kind specified in the direction;
- (b) acquire:
 - (i) shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the ADI mentioned in subsection 13E(1A); or
 - (ii) other capital instruments in the ADI mentioned in subsection 13E(1A) of a kind specified in the direction;
- (c) acquire:
 - (i) shares, or rights to acquire shares, in a specified body corporate covered by subsection (1B); or
 - (ii) other capital instruments in a specified body corporate covered by subsection (1B), of a kind specified in the direction.
- (1B) This subsection covers a body corporate if:
 - (a) the body corporate is a subsidiary of the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary; and
 - (b) the ADI is a subsidiary of the body corporate.
- (1C) Without limiting the generality of subsections (1), (1A) and (2), but subject to subsection (3), a direction referred to in those subsections may:
 - (a) deal with some only of the matters referred to in those subsections; or
 - (b) deal with a particular class or particular classes of those matters; or
 - (c) make different provision with respect to different matters or different classes of matters.
- (2) A direction for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or subparagraph (1A)(a)(i), (1A)(b)(i) or (1A)(c)(i) may specify that the shares or rights must:
 - (a) be of a kind specified in the direction; or
 - (b) have the characteristics specified in the direction.
- (3) A direction for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) or subparagraph (1A)(a)(ii), (1A)(b)(ii) or (1A)(c)(ii):

- (a) must not specify a kind of capital instrument unless that kind of capital instrument is specified in the regulations; and
- (b) may specify that the capital instruments must have the characteristics specified in the direction.

13G Compliance with a recapitalisation direction

Giving members of the ADI notice of share issue etc.

- (1) As soon as practicable after an ADI issues shares, rights to acquire shares, or other capital instruments, in compliance with a recapitalisation direction, the ADI must give written notice to the persons who were members (under section 231 of the Corporations Act 2001) of the ADI just before the issue.
- (2) The notice must:
 - (a) identify the issue; and
 - (b) explain the effect of the issue of the shares, rights to acquire shares, or other capital instruments on the members' interests.

Issue or acquisition of shares etc. despite other laws etc.

- (3) An ADI may issue or acquire shares, rights to acquire shares, or other capital instruments, in compliance with a recapitalisation direction despite:
 - (a) the Corporations Act 2001 (without limiting the scope of section 70B of this Act); and
 - (b) the ADI's constitution; and
 - (c) any contract or arrangement to which the ADI is a party; and
 - (d) any listing rules of a financial market in whose official list the ADI is included.

13H APRA must obtain expert's report on the fair value of shares etc.

- (1) APRA must comply with this section before giving a recapitalisation direction that directs an ADI to issue shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the ADI, unless APRA is satisfied that compliance with this section would detrimentally affect:

- (a) the depositors with the ADI; or
- (b) the stability of the financial system in Australia.

(1A) If the recapitalisation direction is a direction to a NOHC/NOHC subsidiary under subsection 13E(1B), treat the reference in paragraph (1)(a) to “the depositors with the ADI” as being a reference to “the depositors with the ADI mentioned in subsection 13E(1A)”.

(2) APRA must:

- (a) obtain a report on the fair value of the shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the ADI from an expert who is not an associate of the company under Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act 2001; and
- (b) consider the report.

(3) The report must set out:

- (a) the amount that is, in the expert’s opinion, the fair value for each of those shares or rights; and
- (b) the reasons for forming the opinion; and
- (c) any relationship between the expert and:
 - (i) the ADI; or
 - (ii) a person who is an associate of the ADI under Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act 2001; including any circumstances in which the expert gives the ADI or person advice, or acts on behalf of the ADI or person, in the proper performance of the functions attaching to the expert’s professional capacity or business relationship with the ADI or person; and
- (d) any financial or other interest of the expert that could reasonably be regarded as being capable of affecting the expert’s ability to give an unbiased opinion in relation to the matter being reported on.

- (4) If the recapitalisation direction is a direction to a NOHC/NOHC subsidiary under subsection 13E(1B), treat the references in paragraph (3)(c) to “the ADI” as being a reference to “the NOHC/NOHC subsidiary mentioned in subsection 13E(1B)”.

13J Determination of the fair value of shares by an expert

- (1) In determining the fair value for each share in an ADI for the purposes of paragraph 13H(3)(a), the expert must:
- (a) first, assess the value of the ADI as a whole, in accordance with the assumptions (if any) notified to the expert by the Minister for the valuation of the ADI; and
 - (b) then, allocate that value among the classes of shares in the ADI that:
 - (i) have been issued; or
 - (ii) APRA proposes to direct be issued (taking into account the relative financial risk, and voting and distribution rights, of the classes); and
 - (c) then, allocate the value of each class pro rata among the shares in that class that:
 - (i) have been issued; or
 - (ii) APRA proposes to direct be issued (without allowing a premium or applying a discount for particular shares in that class).
- (2) The Minister may give the expert written notice of assumptions for the valuation of the company.
- (3) The Minister may, by further written notice given to the expert, revoke, but not vary, notice of the assumptions.
- (4) A notice given under subsection (2) or (3) is not a legislative instrument.

13K Determination of the fair value of rights by an expert

- (1) In determining the fair value for each right to acquire shares in an ADI for the purposes of paragraph 13H(3)(a), the expert must act in accordance with the assumptions (if any) notified to the expert by the Minister for the valuation of that right.

- (2) The Minister may give the expert written notice of assumptions for the valuation of such rights.
- (3) The Minister may, by further written notice given to the expert, revoke, but not vary, notice of the assumptions.
- (4) A notice given under subsection (2) or (3) is not a legislative instrument.

13L Ascertaining the fair value of other capital instruments

- (1) APRA must comply with this section before giving a recapitalisation direction that directs an ADI to issue capital instruments other than shares, or rights to acquire shares, in the ADI.
- (2) APRA must comply with any requirements of the regulations relating to ascertaining the fair value of the capital instruments.
- (3) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may specify different requirements in relation to different kinds of capital instruments.

13M Contravention of certain provisions does not affect the validity of recapitalisation direction etc.

A contravention of:

- (a) section 13H or subsection 13J(1) or 13K(1); or
- (b) section 13L or regulations made for the purposes of that subsection; does not affect the validity of a recapitalisation direction or anything done in compliance with the direction.

13N Recapitalisation direction not grounds for denial of obligations

- (1) This section applies if a body corporate is party to a contract, whether the proper law of the contract is:
 - (a) Australian law (including the law of a State or Territory); or
 - (b) law of a foreign country (including the law of part of a foreign country).
- (2) None of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) allows the contract, or a party to the contract (other than the body corporate), to do any of the following:
 - (a) deny any obligation under the contract;
 - (b) accelerate any debt under the contract;
 - (c) close out any transaction relating to the contract;
 - (d) enforce any security under the contract.
- (3) The matters are as follows:
 - (a) the body corporate being subject to a recapitalisation direction;
 - (b) if the body corporate is a member of a relevant group of bodies corporate—another member of the group being subject to a recapitalisation direction.

13P Supply of information about issue and revocation of recapitalisation directions

Power to publish notice of recapitalisation directions in Gazette

- (1) APRA may publish in the Gazette notice of a recapitalisation direction.
- (2) The notice must include:
 - (a) the name of the ADI that is given the direction; and
 - (b) a summary of the direction.

Section 13P

Requirement to publish notice of revocation of certain recapitalisation directions in Gazette

- (3) If APRA publishes notice of a recapitalisation direction and later revokes the direction, APRA must publish in the Gazette notice of that revocation as soon as practicable after the revocation.
- (4) Failure to publish notice of the revocation does not affect the validity of the revocation.

Requirement to provide information about recapitalisation direction to Minister and Reserve Bank

- (5) If the Minister or the Reserve Bank requests APRA to provide information about:
 - (a) any recapitalisation directions in respect of a particular ADI; or
 - (b) any recapitalisation directions made during a specified period in respect of any ADIs;APRA must comply with the request.

Power to inform Minister and Reserve Bank of recapitalisation direction

- (6) APRA may provide any information that APRA considers appropriate to the Minister or the Reserve Bank about any recapitalisation directions, or revocations of recapitalisation directions, in respect of any ADI, at any time.

Requirement to inform Minister and Reserve Bank of revocation of recapitalisation direction if informed of making of direction

- (7) If APRA:
 - (a) provides the Minister or the Reserve Bank with information about a recapitalisation direction; and
 - (b) later revokes the direction;APRA must notify that person of the revocation of the direction as soon as practicable after the revocation.

- (8) Failure to notify the person does not affect the validity of the revocation.

13Q Non-compliance with a recapitalisation direction

- (1) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the ADI does, or refuses or fails to do, an act; and
 - (b) doing, or refusing or failing to do, the act results in a contravention of a recapitalisation direction given to the ADI.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the ADI made reasonable efforts to comply with the recapitalisation direction; and
 - (b) the ADI's contravention is due to circumstances beyond the ADI's control.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (2) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

- (3) If an ADI does, or refuses or fails to do, an act in circumstances that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (1), the ADI commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:
- (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
 - (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (4) An officer of an ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the officer refuses or fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a recapitalisation direction given to the ADI; and

Section 13R

- (b) the officer's duties include ensuring that the ADI complies with the direction, or with a class of directions that includes the direction.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (5) If an officer of an ADI refuses or fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a recapitalisation direction given to the ADI in circumstances that give rise to the officer committing an offence against subsection (4), the officer commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:
 - (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
 - (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the officer committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (6) In this section, officer has the meaning given by section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.

13R Exceptions to Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010

For the purposes of subsection 51(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, the following things are specified and specifically authorised:

- (a) the acquisition of shares in an ADI as a direct result of:

This subsection has effect subject to section 31B.

- (3) The matters are as follows:
 - (a) a Banking Act statutory manager being in control, or being appointed to take control, of the business of the body corporate;
 - (b) if the body corporate is a member of a relevant group of bodies corporate—a Banking Act statutory manager being in control, or being appointed to take control, of the business of another member of the group.

15D Application of other provisions

- (1) None of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) affect:
 - (a) the continued operation of other provisions of this Act or the operation of the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 in relation to a body corporate; or
 - (b) the obligation of a body corporate to comply with those other provisions and that Act.

- (2) The matters are as follows:

- (a) the appointment of a Banking Act statutory manager of the body corporate's business under this Division;
 - (b) the fact that a Banking Act statutory manager is in control of the body corporate's business.
- (3) The Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 does not apply to a body corporate that has a Banking Act statutory manager.

16 Costs of statutory management

- (1) APRA's costs (including costs in the nature of remuneration and expenses) of being in control of a body corporate's business, or of having an administrator in control of a body corporate's business, are payable from the body corporate's funds and are a debt due to APRA.
- (2) Despite anything contained in any law relating to the winding-up of companies, but subject to subsection 13A(3), debts due to APRA by a body corporate under subsection (1) have priority in a winding-up of the body corporate over all other unsecured debts.

Note: Subsection 13A(3) applies if the body corporate is an ADI, and provides for priorities for the application of the ADI's assets in Australia.

16A APRA must report to Treasurer and publish information about statutory management

Reports to the Treasurer

- (1) If the Treasurer requests APRA to give him or her a written report concerning the activities of Banking Act statutory managers in respect of specified bodies corporate or in respect of a specified period, APRA must give the Treasurer such a written report within a reasonable time after the Treasurer requests it.
- (2) If a Banking Act statutory manager takes control of a body corporate's business during a financial year, or if there is an ultimate termination of control during a financial year, APRA must give the Treasurer a written report within a reasonable time after the end of the financial year concerning activities of all Banking Act statutory managers and each ultimate termination of control that occurred during that financial year.

Requirement to publish notices in Gazette

(3) If APRA:

- (a) takes control of a body corporate's business; or
- (b) appoints an administrator of a body corporate's business; or
- (c) makes an ultimate termination of control in respect of a body corporate's business;

APRA must publish notice of that fact in the Gazette. However, mere failure to publish such a notice does not affect the validity of the act.

16AA Exceptions to Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010

For the purposes of subsection 51(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010, the following things are specified and specifically authorised:

- (a) the acquisition of assets in a sale or disposal of the whole or part of the business of a body corporate under this Division by a Banking Act statutory manager in control of the body corporate's business (whether the assets are shares in another body corporate or other assets);
- (b) the acquisition of shares in a body corporate as a direct result of:
 - (i) the issue or sale of the shares under this Division by a Banking Act statutory manager in control of the body corporate's business; or
 - (ii) the exercise of a right to acquire shares that was issued or sold under this Division by a Banking Act statutory manager in control of the body corporate's business.

Subdivision C—APRA’s powers to apply for ADI to be wound up

16AAA APRA’s powers to apply for ADI to be wound up

Power to apply for ADI to be wound up

- (1) APRA may apply to the Federal Court of Australia for an order that an ADI be wound up if APRA considers that the ADI is insolvent and could not be restored to solvency within a reasonable period.

Note: This section does not apply in relation to a foreign ADI (see subsection 11E(1B)).

- (2) To avoid doubt, subsection (1) applies whether or not an ADI statutory manager is in control of the ADI’s business.
- (3) The application is to be made under section 459P of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (4) The winding up of the ADI is to be conducted in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001.
- (5) If APRA makes an application under subsection (1), APRA must inform the Minister of the application as soon as possible.

Note: Once informed, the Minister may choose to apply Subdivision C of Division 2AA in relation to the ADI so some depositors can receive payments earlier than they would in the winding up of the ADI.

Division 2AA—Financial claims scheme for account-holders with insolvent ADIs

Subdivision A—Preliminary

16AB Purpose of this Division

The main purpose of this Division is to provide for a scheme that:

- (a) allows the Minister to make a declaration about an ADI if:
 - (i) APRA has applied under section 16AAA for the ADI to be wound up; or
 - (ii) a Banking Act statutory manager is in control of the ADI's business; and
- (b) entitles account-holders who have certain protected accounts with a declared ADI to be paid certain amounts to maintain the account-holders' liquidity before they would receive payment in a winding up of the ADI; and
- (c) substitutes APRA for those account-holders as a creditor of the declared ADI to the extent of the entitlements; and
- (d) allows APRA to facilitate a transfer of business from the declared ADI to a receiving body under the Financial Sector (Transfer and Restructure) Act 1999 by entitling the receiving body to amounts in respect of the protected accounts.

16AC APRA's functions relating to this Division

APRA's functions include:

- (a) meeting entitlements under Subdivision C; and
- (b) preparing, and assisting the Minister to prepare, for the application of that Subdivision in relation to ADIs; and
- (c) meeting APRA's other obligations under this Division and the regulations made for the purposes of this Division.

Subdivision B—Declaration of ADI

16AD Declaration that Subdivision C applies in relation to ADI

- (1) The Minister may declare that Subdivision C applies in relation to a specified ADI if any of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (a) APRA has applied under section 16AAA for the ADI to be wound up;
 - (b) a Banking Act statutory manager is in control of the ADI's business.

Note: The Minister cannot make a declaration under this subsection in relation to a foreign ADI (see section 11E).

Declaration to specify amount for meeting entitlements

- (2) The declaration must also specify the amount (if any) that is to be credited to the Financial Claims Scheme Special Account in connection with the application of Subdivision C in relation to the declared ADI. If APRA's application under section 16AAA was made on or after 12 October 2011, the amount must not be more than $20,000,000,000.

Declaration to specify amount for administration

- (3) The declaration must also specify the amount (if any) that is to be credited to the APRA Special Account in connection with the administration of this Division in relation to the declared ADI. The amount must not be more than $100,000,000.

Amendment of specification of amounts

- (4) The Minister may amend a declaration made under subsection (1), but only to change the specification of an amount under subsection (2) or (3), within the limit set in that subsection.

Declaration cannot be revoked

- (5) The Minister cannot revoke a declaration made under subsection (1).

Section 16AE

Declaration or amendment not disallowable

- (6) A declaration made under subsection (1), or an amendment of the declaration, is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to the declaration or amendment.

Note: Part 4 of Chapter 3 (sunsetting) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to the declaration or amendment: see regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 54(2)(b) of that Act.

Effect of declaration or amendment

- (7) The declaration or amendment:
- (a) commences from the time it is made, despite subsection 12(1) of the Legislation Act 2003; and
 - (b) has effect according to its terms.
- (7A) Subsection 12(2) (retrospective application of legislative instruments) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to the declaration or amendment.

Declaration not to specify ADI by reference to class

- (8) Subsection 13(3) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to a declaration under subsection (1) specifying an ADI.

Note: This ensures that a declaration must specify an ADI individually, and cannot specify it by reference to a class of ADIs.

16AE Advice and information for decision on making declaration

- (1) The Minister may give APRA, ASIC or the Reserve Bank a written request for advice or information about a matter relevant to making a decision about making a declaration under section 16AD (including a matter relating to the affairs of an ADI).
- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after being given the request, APRA, ASIC or the Reserve Bank must give the Minister the advice or information about the matter.

- (3) In making the decision, the Minister must take into account the advice and information (if any) that he or she has been given before making the decision. This does not limit what the Minister may take into account in making the decision.

Subdivision C—Payment of account-holders with declared ADI

16AF Payment of account-holders with declared ADI

- (1) An account-holder who has a protected account with a net credit balance with a declared ADI at the declaration time is entitled to be paid by APRA an amount equal to the sum of:
- (a) that balance; and
 - (b) the interest (if any) accrued by, but not credited to, the account-holder in connection with the protected account before the declaration time;
- increased or decreased in accordance with the regulations to take account of clearance, within the period prescribed by the regulations, of transactions connected with the protected account and entered into before the declaration time.
- (1A) The interest is payable at:
- (a) the rate of interest that is payable according to the terms and conditions of the protected account; or
 - (b) if APRA considers that that rate is not certain—the rate of interest that APRA declares, in writing, is payable.
- (1B) A declaration under paragraph (1A)(b) is not a legislative instrument.

Joint protected accounts

- (2) If the account mentioned in subsection (1) is held jointly by 2 or more account-holders with the declared ADI, that subsection entitles each of the account-holders to an equal share of the amount to which one of those account-holders would be entitled if it alone had the account with the declared ADI.

Section 16AG

Pooled accounts

- (3) If:
- (a) one person holds the protected account mentioned in subsection (1); and
 - (b) the person is the trustee of 2 or more trusts; and
 - (c) the net credit balance of the account consists of the trust funds of 2 or more of those trusts;
- subsection (1) entitles the person to be paid, in connection with that account, the amount worked out under subsection (1).

16AG Limit on payments to account-holder with declared ADI

- (1) Despite section 16AF, an account-holder is not entitled under that section to be paid, in connection with the protected account or protected accounts the account-holder has with a particular declared ADI at a particular time, one or more amounts totalling more than the limit prescribed by, or worked out under, the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe, or provide for working out, different limits for the purposes of subsection (1) relating to account-holders in different classes.
- (3) Despite section 16AF, if:
- (a) the account-holder has 2 or more protected accounts with the declared ADI at that time; and
 - (b) subsection (1) of this section reduces the total amount to which the account-holder would otherwise be entitled under section 16AF in connection with those protected accounts;

APRA may determine in writing, for each of the protected accounts, the amount (if any) of the entitlement under that section connected with the protected account (so that the total of the entitlements equals the limit prescribed by, or worked out under, the regulations for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section).

Note: Amounts may be determined by reference to a class, or more than one class, of accounts: see subsection 33(3AB) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

- (4) In making the determination, the desirability of the account-holder receiving its entitlements as early as possible is to be taken into account. This does not limit the matters that may be taken into account in making a determination.

16AH Payment

Various ways of meeting entitlement

- (1) An account-holder's entitlement under this Subdivision to be paid an amount may be met:
- (a) by paying the amount to the account-holder as a single amount or in instalments determined by APRA; or
 - (b) by applying the amount, as a single amount or in instalments determined by APRA, for the account-holder's benefit, by establishing an account with an ADI on behalf of the account-holder or in another way; or
 - (c) by paying part of the amount to the account-holder and applying the rest of the amount for the account-holder's benefit.
- (2) The regulations may make provision for or in relation to the ways in which account-holders' entitlements under this Subdivision to be paid amounts may be met.

Establishment of account by APRA for meeting entitlement

- (3) APRA may establish, on behalf of an account-holder who has an entitlement under this Subdivision, an account with an ADI (except a declared ADI) for the purposes of wholly or partly meeting the entitlement.
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect:
- (a) whether or not the account-holder consents to the establishment of the account; and
 - (b) despite any other law of the Commonwealth relating to the establishment of such an account.

Section 16AHA

- (5) If an account-holder has an entitlement under this Subdivision connected with a protected account of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection, APRA must establish an account of the same kind on behalf of the account-holder for the purposes of wholly or partly meeting the entitlement.

Act to meet entitlement is not provision of designated service

- (6) An act done by any of the following persons for the purposes of meeting an account-holder's entitlement under this Subdivision is taken, for the purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006, not to be the provision of a designated service by the person:
- (a) APRA;
 - (b) the Reserve Bank.

Note: One effect of subsection (6) is that the person's act does not make the person a reporting entity for the purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006.

Exemption from section 32 of Anti-Money Laundering Act

- (7) Section 32 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 does not apply to a designated service described in item 1 of the table in subsection 6(2) of that Act provided by an ADI as a result of the exercise of APRA's power under subsection (3) of this section (whether or not subsection (5) required APRA to exercise that power).

16AHA Giving information about payments in a financial year

- (1) This section applies if one or more amounts are paid to, or applied for the benefit of, one or more account-holders in a financial year to meet (wholly or partly) the account-holders' entitlements under this Subdivision.

Section 16AI

Giving each account-holder an annual statement

- (2) Within 14 days after the end of the financial year, APRA must give each of those account-holders a statement about the amounts paid to, or applied for the benefit of, the account-holder in the financial year. The statement must:
- (a) be in the approved form; and
 - (b) name the account-holder; and
 - (c) state the account-holder's tax file number, if APRA knows it; and
 - (d) state the total of the amounts and the total of the amounts (if any) withheld from them under the Taxation Administration Act 1953; and
 - (e) specify the financial year to which the statement relates.

Provisions about statements and reports in approved forms

- (4) Division 388 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 applies as if this section were a taxation law for the purposes of that Act.

Note: That Division sets out rules about approved forms and when they can be given.

This section does not limit the Taxation Administration Act 1953

- (5) Subsection (4) does not limit the operation of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 in relation to APRA.

16AI Substitution of APRA for account-holder as ADI's creditor

- (1) When an ADI becomes a declared ADI, then, by force of this subsection, the right of an account-holder who has a protected account with the ADI to be paid an amount by the ADI in connection with the account:
- (a) is reduced to the extent of the account-holder's entitlement under this Subdivision connected with the account; and
 - (b) to the extent of the reduction, becomes a right of APRA.

Section 16AIA

- (2) APRA may exercise or assign a right it has under paragraph (1)(b).

Note: Under section 11 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998, APRA's property is generally held on behalf of the Commonwealth.

16AIA APRA may make transferred liabilities determination where transfer of business

- (1) APRA may make a determination (a transferred liabilities determination) if:
- (a) an ADI is a declared ADI as a result of the Minister having made a declaration under section 16AD; and
 - (b) APRA has made, or proposes to make, a determination under section 25 (compulsory transfer determination) of the Financial Sector (Transfer and Restructure) Act 1999 that there is to be a total transfer or partial transfer of business from the declared ADI to a receiving body (within the meaning of that Act); and
 - (c) the transfer of business will transfer:
 - (i) the liabilities of the declared ADI in respect of every protected account kept by an account-holder with the ADI; or
 - (ii) the liabilities of the declared ADI in respect of every protected account kept by an account-holder with the ADI, to the extent of the amount to which each of those account-holders is entitled under this Subdivision in relation to those protected accounts; and
 - (d) APRA is satisfied that it will be able to identify those protected accounts; and
 - (e) APRA has worked out:
 - (i) APRA's reasonable estimate of the total amount (the FCS amount) to which account-holders of those protected accounts will be entitled (disregarding the determination) under section 16AF as a result of the Minister's declaration mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) APRA's reasonable estimate of the total amount (the administration amount) of the costs that would be

Section 16AIB

- incurred by APRA in relation to the exercise of its powers and the performance of its functions under this Division relating to the declared ADI if it did not make the determination; and
- (f) APRA has worked out a total payment amount in accordance with section 16AIB; and
 - (g) APRA considers that it is reasonable in the circumstances to make the determination.
- (2) However, APRA cannot make the determination if APRA has already issued a certificate of transfer under section 33 of the Financial Sector (Transfer and Restructure) Act 1999 stating that the transfer is to take effect.
- (3) The determination must be in writing.
- (4) The determination must specify the following:
- (a) the declared ADI;
 - (b) the receiving body;
 - (c) a description, in general or detailed terms, of all the protected accounts kept with the declared ADI;
 - (d) the FCS amount;
 - (e) the administration amount;
 - (f) the total payment amount;
 - (g) the FCS payment amount;
 - (h) the administration payment amount;
 - (i) any other information that APRA considers appropriate.
- (5) A determination under subsection (1) may be varied, but not revoked, in accordance with subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
- (6) A determination made under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

16AIB Payment amounts under transferred liabilities determination

- (1) For the purposes of paragraph 16AIA(1)(f), APRA may work out:

Section 16AIC

- (a) an amount (the FCS payment amount) that:
 - (i) is equal to or less than the FCS amount; and
 - (ii) APRA considers to be appropriate; and
 - (b) an amount (the administration payment amount) that:
 - (i) is equal to or less than the administration amount; and
 - (ii) APRA considers to be appropriate; and
 - (c) the amount (the total payment amount) that is the sum of the FCS payment amount and the administration payment amount.
- (2) In working out the FCS payment amount and the administration payment amount, APRA must have regard to the following:
- (a) the total value of the assets that will be transferred from the declared ADI to the receiving body in accordance with the transfer of business;
 - (b) the total value of the liabilities that will be transferred from the declared ADI to the receiving body in accordance with the transfer of business;
 - (c) any other matter that APRA considers appropriate.
- (3) The FCS payment amount or the administration payment amount may be a nil amount.

16AIC Consequences of transferred liabilities determination once certificate of transfer issued

Application of section

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) APRA has made a transferred liabilities determination; and
 - (b) APRA has issued a certificate of transfer under section 33 of the Financial Sector (Transfer and Restructure) Act 1999 stating that the transfer is to take effect.

Section 16AJ

Receiving body entitled to total payment amount

- (2) The receiving body is entitled to be paid by APRA an amount equal to the total payment amount specified in the determination.

Reduction of rights and entitlements of account-holder

- (3) An account-holder's entitlement under this Subdivision to be paid an amount in respect of a protected account kept with the declared ADI is reduced to nil.

Declared ADI liable to APRA for total payment amount

- (4) The declared ADI is liable to pay to APRA an amount equal to the sum of the total payment amount specified in the determination.
- (5) That liability is due and payable to APRA when the certificate of transfer comes into force.
- (6) Despite paragraph 16AI(1)(b), APRA does not have the right mentioned in that paragraph.

Subdivision D—Administration

16AJ Requiring assistance

- (1) APRA may, by written notice given to any of the following persons, require the person to give APRA such reasonable assistance in the performance of its functions, and the exercise of its powers, under this Division as is specified:
- (a) an ADI (whether or not it is a declared ADI);
 - (b) an administrator appointed under subsection 13A(1) to take control of an ADI's business;
 - (c) a liquidator appointed in connection with the winding up, or proposed winding up, of an ADI.

Note: APRA may amend or vary the requirement in writing: see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Section 16AJ

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), APRA may require a liquidator to assist APRA in APRA's function of paying account holders their entitlements under Subdivision C.
- (3) For example, APRA may, by notice issued under subsection (1), require the liquidator to do the things specified in the notice, including:
 - (a) carrying on the business of the ADI so far as necessary, or doing any other act or thing, to facilitate APRA's payment to account holders in accordance with Subdivision C; or
 - (b) seeking the re-entry of the ADI into a payment system (as defined in section 7 of the Payment Systems (Regulation) Act 1998); or
 - (c) transferring the entitlements of account holders to accounts held by the account holders in another ADI.
- (4) The liquidator must give compliance with a notice issued under subsection (1) precedence over the other aspects of winding up the ADI, including any requirements under the Corporations Act 2001.
- (5) However, the liquidator is not required to comply with a notice issued under subsection (1) unless there is sufficient available property to meet the liquidator's costs likely to be incurred in complying with the notice in full, unless APRA indemnifies the liquidator for those costs.
- (6) The liquidator has the powers that are necessary or convenient to comply with a notice issued under subsection (1).
- (7) The liquidator's costs of complying with a notice issued under subsection (1) are expenses properly incurred by a relevant authority for the purposes of section 556 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (8) A reference in this section to a liquidator's costs includes:
 - (a) remuneration, or fees for services, payable to the liquidator for complying with a notice issued under subsection (1); and
 - (b) expenses incurred by the liquidator in complying with a notice issued under subsection (1).

16AK Obtaining information relevant to determining and paying entitlements

- (1) APRA may, by written notice given to:
- (a) an ADI (whether or not it is a declared ADI); or
 - (b) an administrator appointed under subsection 13A(1) to take control of an ADI's business; or
 - (c) a liquidator appointed in connection with the winding up, or proposed winding up, of an ADI; or
 - (d) any other person;
- require the ADI, administrator, liquidator or other person to give a specified person specified information about an account-holder relevant to one or more of the actions described in subsection (4) in a specified way within a reasonable specified time for the person to use in taking one or more of those actions.

Note: APRA may amend or vary the requirement in writing: see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

- (2) The person specified in the requirement must be one of the following:
- (a) APRA;
 - (b) an APRA member whose duties relate to an action described in subsection (4);
 - (c) an APRA staff member whose duties relate to an action described in subsection (4).
- (3) The information specified in the requirement may be or include either or both of the following:
- (a) personal information about the account-holder (if he or she is an individual);
 - (b) the tax file number (as defined in section 202A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) of the account-holder.

This does not limit the information that may be specified in the requirement.

Section 16AL

- (4) The actions are as follows:
- (a) identifying an account-holder who may have an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (b) determining whether an account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (c) determining the amount of an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (d) meeting an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (e) establishing an account under section 16AH on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (ea) preparing or giving a statement required by section 16AHA;
 - (eb) complying with an obligation under a law relating to taxation;
 - (f) making a disclosure required by section 16AT in connection with the establishment of an account under section 16AH by APRA on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C;
 - (g) assessing whether and how information could be provided by an ADI (or a liquidator of the ADI, if one is appointed) to enable the actions described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (ea), (eb) and (f) to be taken if the ADI were to become a declared ADI.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a foreign ADI.
- (6) This section does not limit section 16AJ.

16AL Enforcing requirement for assistance or information

Requirement made of ADI—civil penalty

- (1) An ADI must comply with a requirement made of it under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Civil penalty: 10,000 penalty units.

Section 16AL

Requirement made of ADI—offence

- (2) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) it does, or fails to do, an act; and
 - (b) the doing of the act, or the failure to do the act, results in a contravention of a requirement made of the ADI under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

- (3) An offence against subsection (2) is an indictable offence.

Note: Section 4K (Continuing and multiple offences) of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an offence against subsection (2) relating to subsection 16AK(1), so an ADI commits an offence for each day it does not comply with a requirement under that subsection (to give information within a particular time).

Requirement made of ADI—offence by officer

- (4) An officer (as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001) of an ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the officer fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a requirement made of it under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1); and
 - (b) the officer's duties include ensuring that the ADI complies with the requirement.

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to an officer who is a liquidator of the ADI.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

- (6) If an officer of an ADI fails to take reasonable steps to ensure that the ADI complies with a requirement made of it under subsection 16AK(1) in circumstances that give rise to the officer committing an offence against subsection (4) of this section, the officer commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:
- (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and

Section 16AM

- (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the officer committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection does not affect the application of section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 to other offences against this Act (including subsection (2)) or the regulations.

Liquidator to comply with requirement made of liquidator

- (7) A liquidator must comply with a requirement made of the liquidator under section 16AJ or subsection 16AK(1).

Note: Action may be taken under the Corporations Act 2001 against a liquidator who does not comply with such a requirement.

Requirement made of other person—civil penalty

- (8) A person mentioned in paragraph 16AK(1)(d) must comply with a requirement made of the person under subsection 16AK(1).

Civil penalty: 200 penalty units.

16AM Recovery of overpayments

The regulations may make provision for and in relation to the recovery by APRA of the excess of an amount paid to, or applied for the benefit of, an account-holder purportedly to meet an entitlement of the account-holder under Subdivision C over the account-holder's entitlement (if any) under that Subdivision.

16AN APRA may delegate functions and powers under this Division

- (1) APRA may, by writing under its seal, delegate any or all of APRA's functions and powers under this Division to a person.
- (2) In performing or exercising functions or powers delegated under subsection (1), the delegate must comply with any directions given by APRA.

Section 16AO

- (3) This section does not limit section 15 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998.

Note: Section 15 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998:

- (a) makes the agreement of the Chair of ASIC a condition for a delegation to an ASIC member or an ASIC staff member; and
- (b) makes the agreement of the Governor of the Reserve Bank a condition for a delegation to the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank or to an officer of the Reserve Bank Service.

16AO APRA's costs of administration

- (1) The costs incurred by APRA in relation to the exercise of its powers and the performance of its functions under this Division relating to a declared ADI are a debt due by the declared ADI to APRA.
- (2) The debt is admissible to proof against the declared ADI in the winding up of the ADI.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the amounts of entitlements under Subdivision C.

Note: APRA may be able to recover those amounts through the rights it acquires under section 16AI from the account-holder.

Subdivision E—Account-holder's claims against ADI remaining after entitlement

16AP When this Subdivision applies

This Subdivision applies if:

- (a) a court orders the winding up of an ADI that becomes a declared ADI before, on or after the order is made; and
- (b) on making the order, the court appoints a liquidator of the ADI; and
- (c) an account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C connected with a protected account the account-holder has with the ADI; and

Section 16AQ

- (d) after the operation of section 16AI of this Act, section 553C of the Corporations Act 2001 and, if relevant, section 554B of that Act, there is still a debt payable by the ADI to the account-holder, or a claim of the account-holder against the ADI, based on a right to be paid an amount by the ADI in connection with the protected account.

16AQ Liquidator may admit debt or claim without normal proof

- (1) The liquidator may admit the debt or claim even if it has not been proved by the account-holder in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and regulations made under that Act.
- (2) However, the liquidator must act in accordance with the regulations (if any) made for the purposes of this subsection in deciding whether to admit or reject the debt or claim, and the extent to which to admit or reject the debt or claim.

Note: This section overrides any requirements imposed on the liquidator by the Corporations Act 2001 and regulations under that Act in relation to proof of the debt or claim and a decision whether to admit or reject the debt or claim: see section 70B of this Act.

16AR How liquidator must pay distributions to account-holder

- (1) This section applies if, in the winding up of the ADI, a distribution attributable to the protected account is payable to the account-holder and the protected account was of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (2) The liquidator must pay the distribution (so far as it is attributable to the account) into an account of the same kind that is held by the account-holder with an ADI (except a declared ADI).
- (3) If the account-holder does not hold an account of that kind, the liquidator must establish, on behalf of the account-holder, an account of that kind with an ADI (except a declared ADI) for the payment of the distribution in accordance with subsection (2).

- (4) Subsection (3) empowers the liquidator to establish the account:
 - (a) whether or not the account-holder consents to the establishment of the account; and
 - (b) despite any other law of the Commonwealth relating to the establishment of such an account.

16AS APRA may disclose relevant personal information to liquidator

Information about account-holder's entitlement

- (1) APRA may disclose to the liquidator personal information about the fact that the account-holder has an entitlement under Subdivision C, and the amount of that entitlement, for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to decide whether to admit or reject the debt or claim in whole or in part.

Information relevant to section 16AR

- (2) APRA may disclose to the liquidator personal information about the account-holder for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to determine whether subsection 16AR(2) or (3) applies and, if it does, for complying with it.

Subdivision F—Disclosure of information relating to new accounts

16AT APRA or liquidator to disclose information to ADI

- (1) This section applies if, on behalf of an account-holder with an entitlement under Subdivision C:

 - (b) a liquidator establishes an account with an ADI under section 16AR.

Section 16AU

- (2) In the circumstances prescribed by the regulations, whichever of APRA and the liquidator established the account must disclose to the ADI the information (if any) that:
 - (a) is connected with the establishment of the account; and
 - (b) is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (3) The regulations may prescribe different information in relation to different circumstances for disclosure.
- (4) The information prescribed by the regulations may be personal information about the account-holder (if he or she is an individual). This does not limit the information that may be prescribed by the regulations.

 - (ii) otherwise—is a disqualified person; or
 - (b) does not meet one or more of the criteria for fitness and propriety set out in the prudential standards.
- (3) Before directing an ADI or authorised NOHC to remove a person, APRA must give written notice to:
 - (a) the person; and
 - (b) the ADI or NOHC;giving each of them a reasonable opportunity to make submissions on the matter.
- (4) If a submission is made to APRA in response to the notice, APRA must have regard to the submission and may discuss any matter contained in the submission with such persons as it considers appropriate for the purpose of assessing the truth of the matter.
- (5) A notice given under subsection (3) to a person, an ADI or an authorised NOHC must state that any submissions made in response to the notice may be discussed by APRA with other persons as mentioned in subsection (4).

Section 23

- (6) A direction takes effect on the day specified in it, which must be not earlier than 7 days after it is signed.

(8) Part VI applies to a direction given by APRA under this section.

Division 3A—Covered bonds

24 Guide to this Division

This Division provides for the issue of covered bonds by ADIs.

An ADI issuing covered bonds must provide assets to secure the covered bonds and related liabilities. These assets are held by a covered bond special purpose vehicle. Some of the assets held by the covered bond special purpose vehicle form the cover pool for the covered bonds.

The ADI must not issue covered bonds if the combined value of assets in cover pools securing covered bonds issued by the ADI would exceed 8%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by the regulations, of the value of the ADI's assets in Australia.

25 Application of Division

This Division does not apply in relation to:

- (a) a foreign ADI; or
- (b) a bond, note or other debenture, liabilities in relation to which are secured wholly by assets that are not in Australia.

26 Covered bonds

- (1) Covered bonds are bonds, notes or other debentures issued by an ADI, liabilities to the holders of which, or their representatives, are:
 - (a) recoverable from the ADI; and
 - (b) secured by assets beneficially owned by a covered bond special purpose vehicle.

Section 26

Purposes of covered bond special purpose vehicle

- (2) The purposes of the covered bond special purpose vehicle must relate only to the covered bonds.

Cover pool

- (3) The cover pool for the covered bonds consists of the assets beneficially owned by the covered bond special purpose vehicle to the extent that they secure the liabilities to the holders or representatives equally or in priority to any other liabilities.

Note 1: The value of the cover pool will usually exceed the value of the liabilities to the holders or representatives.

Note 2: Assets in cover pools may change from time to time.

Covered bond liabilities

- (4) The liabilities to the holders or representatives, and any other liabilities secured by assets beneficially owned by the covered bond special purpose vehicle, are covered bond liabilities of the ADI.

Note: This means that liabilities incurred by the covered bond special purpose vehicle can be covered bond liabilities of the ADI.

- (5) However, a liability to the ADI, other than a liability in relation to a derivative or the provision of services, secured in priority to any liability to the holders or representatives is not a covered bond liability of the ADI.

Issuing ADI

- (6) The ADI is the issuing ADI for:
- (a) the cover pool; and
 - (b) the covered bond special purpose vehicle.

27 Arrangements involving several ADIs

Aggregated issuing of covered bonds

- (1) Two or more ADIs may enter into an arrangement with another entity (the aggregating entity) under which the aggregating entity issues bonds, notes or other debentures secured by covered bonds issued by each of the ADIs to the aggregating entity.

Other arrangements

- (2) The regulations may prescribe other arrangements that may be entered into by 2 or more ADIs for the purposes of issuing or dealing with covered bonds.

28 Restrictions on issuing covered bonds—8% rule

An ADI must not issue a covered bond if the combined value of assets in cover pools securing covered bonds issued by the ADI would exceed 8%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by the regulations, of the value of the ADI's assets in Australia.

29 Restrictions on issuing covered bonds—APRA directions

- (1) APRA may direct an ADI not to issue a covered bond.
- (2) APRA may, by written notice given to the ADI, give the ADI such a direction if:
 - (a) APRA has reason to believe that the ADI has contravened:
 - (i) this Division; or
 - (ii) another provision of this Act, a prudential requirement regulation or a prudential standard relating to covered bonds; or
 - (b) APRA has given the ADI a direction under section 11CA.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.
- (4) The direction may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.

Section 30

- (5) The ADI has power to comply with the direction despite anything in its constitution or any contract or arrangement to which it is a party.
- (6) APRA may, by notice in writing to the ADI, vary the direction if, at the time of the variation, it considers that the variation is necessary and appropriate.
- (7) The direction has effect until APRA revokes it by notice in writing to the ADI. APRA may revoke the direction if, at the time of revocation, it considers that the direction is no longer necessary or appropriate.
- (8) Part VI applies to a decision to give a direction under subsection (1).
- (10) This section does not limit any other powers of APRA to give directions.

30 Cover pool monitors

- (1) Each cover pool must have a cover pool monitor.
- (2) The cover pool monitor must:
 - (a) be registered as an auditor under Part 9.2 of the Corporations Act 2001; or
 - (b) hold an Australian financial services licence under that Act that covers the provision of financial services as the cover pool monitor; or
 - (c) be exempt under that Act from holding an Australian financial services licence for the provision of financial services as the cover pool monitor.
- (3) However, the cover pool monitor must not be:
 - (a) the issuing ADI for the cover pool; or
 - (b) an associated entity (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) of the issuing ADI.
- (4) The functions of the cover pool monitor are as follows:

- (a) to assess the keeping, by the issuing ADI or covered bond special purpose vehicle concerned, of an accurate register of the assets in the cover pool;
 - (b) to assess compliance by the issuing ADI with sections 31 and 31A;
 - (c) to make reports relating to the matters in paragraphs (a) and (b) available to the issuing ADI (or any substituted entity) for distribution to the holders of covered bonds or their representatives;
 - (d) to provide reports relating to the cover pool to APRA on written request by APRA;
 - (e) such functions (if any) as are prescribed by the regulations.
- (5) Copies of reports provided under paragraph (4)(d) must be provided to the issuing ADI (or any substituted entity) and the covered bond special purpose vehicle concerned.
- (6) The functions covered by paragraphs (4)(a) to (c) must be performed at least every 6 months.
- (7) The functions covered by paragraphs (4)(a) and (b) may be performed by sampling in accordance with auditing standards made under the Corporations Act 2001.

31 Assets that may be in cover pools

- (1) An asset in a cover pool must be one of the following:
- (a) an at call deposit held with an ADI and convertible into cash within 2 business days;
 - (b) a bank accepted bill or certificate of deposit that:
 - (i) matures within 100 days; and
 - (ii) is eligible for repurchase transactions with the Reserve Bank; and
 - (iii) was not issued by the ADI that issued the covered bonds secured by the assets in the cover pool;
 - (c) a bond, note, debenture or other instrument issued or guaranteed by the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory;

Section 31A

 - (e) a loan secured by a mortgage, charge or other security interest over commercial property in Australia;
 - (f) a mortgage insurance policy or other asset related to a loan covered by paragraph (d) or (e);
 - (g) a contractual right relating to the holding or management of another asset in the cover pool;
 - (h) a derivative held for one or more of the following purposes:
 - (i) to protect the value of another asset in the cover pool;
 - (ii) to hedge risks in relation to another asset in the cover pool;
 - (iii) to hedge risks in relation to liabilities secured by the assets in the cover pool;
 - (i) an asset of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) Paragraph (1)(i) is not limited by paragraphs (1)(a) to (h).
- (3) Despite subsection (1), a cover pool must not contain an asset of a kind prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

31A Maintenance of cover pools

- (1) The value of assets in a cover pool must be at least 103%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by the regulations, of the face value of the covered bonds secured by the assets.
- Note: An exception to this rule is set out in subsection (5).
- (2) The value of assets covered by paragraph 31(1)(b) (bank accepted bills or certificates of deposit) in a cover pool must not exceed 15% of the face value of the covered bonds secured by the assets.
- Note: An exception to this rule is set out in subsection (6).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the sum of:

Section 31A

- (a) the outstanding principal amount of a loan secured by a residential property; and
 - (b) the outstanding principal amounts of any prior or equal ranking loans secured by the property;
- exceeds 80%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by the regulations, of the value of the property (as determined by the most recent valuation of the property), then the value of the loan is reduced by the amount of the excess.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the sum of:
- (a) the outstanding principal amount of a loan secured by a commercial property; and
 - (b) the outstanding principal amounts of any prior or equal ranking loans secured by the property;
- exceeds 60%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by the regulations, of the value of the property (as determined by the most recent valuation of the property), then the value of the loan is reduced by the amount of the excess.

Exceptions

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that compliance would be inconsistent with a direction given by APRA.
- (6) Subsection (2) does not apply to the extent that compliance would be inconsistent with the need to deal with an asset to satisfy a call on security in relation to a covered bond.

Section 31B

31B Protection of certain contractual rights

Directions by APRA

- (1) Subsection 11CD(1A) (direction not grounds for denial of obligations) does not prevent the exercise of a contractual right in relation to an asset that secures liabilities to holders of covered bonds, or their representatives, if payments under the covered bonds to the holders or representatives are not made.

Banking Act statutory manager in control

- (2) The following provisions do not prevent the exercise of a contractual right in relation to an asset that secures liabilities to holders of covered bonds, or their representatives, if payments under the covered bonds to the holders or representatives are not made:
- (a) section 15BA (moratorium—effect of Banking Act statutory management on enforcement process regarding property);
 - (b) section 15BB (moratorium—effect of Banking Act statutory management on disposal of property);

 - (d) section 15C (Banking Act statutory manager being in control not grounds for denial of obligations).

31C Powers and obligations of Banking Act statutory manager or external administrator

To the extent that an asset secures covered bond liabilities of an ADI, a Banking Act statutory manager or an external administrator has:

- (a) no powers in relation to the asset apart from the contractual powers of the ADI; and
- (b) the contractual obligations of the ADI in relation to the asset.

31D Prudential standards—treatment of assets and liabilities

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of applying:
 - (a) prudential standards in relation to assets in cover pools securing covered bonds issued by an ADI; and
 - (b) any other prudential standard in relation to the ADI.
- (2) Treat those assets as assets of the ADI to the extent that the total value of those assets at the time does not exceed 8%, or such other percentage as is prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of section 28, of the ADI's assets in Australia.
- (3) Disregard any liability of the ADI to a covered bond special purpose vehicle that relates to an asset, or a part of an asset, that is to be treated as an asset of the ADI under subsection (2).
- (4) Disregard any liability of a covered bond special purpose vehicle to the ADI that relates to an asset, or a part of an asset, that is to be treated as an asset of the ADI under subsection (2).

31E Prudential standards for covered bonds

- (1) A prudential standard may provide for any matter relating to covered bonds, including the following:

 - (b) assets in cover pools;
 - (c) maintenance of cover pools.

Note: Prudential standards are made under section 11AF.
- (2) A prudential standard relating to covered bonds may:

- (3) This section does not limit the prudential matters in relation to which APRA may determine standards under section 11AF.

31F APRA may direct covered bond special purpose vehicles to return certain assets

- (1) APRA may, by written notice given to a covered bond special purpose vehicle, direct the covered bond special purpose vehicle to return to its issuing ADI an asset to the extent that, at the time the direction is given, the asset does not secure covered bond liabilities of the issuing ADI.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only if APRA may give the issuing ADI a direction under section 11CA.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.
- (4) The direction may deal with the time by which, or period during which, it is to be complied with.
- (5) The covered bond special purpose vehicle has power to comply with the direction despite anything in its constitution or any contract or arrangement to which it is a party.

- (7) The direction has effect until APRA revokes it by notice in writing to the covered bond special purpose vehicle. APRA may revoke the direction if, at the time of revocation, it considers that the direction is no longer necessary or appropriate.
- (8) Part VI applies to a decision to give a direction under subsection (1).
- (10) This section does not limit any other powers of APRA to give directions.
- (11) If a direction is given under subsection (1), this Act applies in relation to the direction as if:
 - (a) the covered bond special purpose vehicle were an ADI; and
 - (b) the direction were given under section 29.

Division 4—Mobilization of foreign currency

32 Interpretation

In this Division:

excess receipts of foreign currency, in relation to an ADI as at a date, means the amount by which the amount of that ADI's surplus foreign currency as at that date exceeds the amount (if any) of its surplus foreign currency as at the commencement of this Part.

sterling means currency that is legal tender in the United Kingdom.

surplus foreign currency, in relation to an ADI, means the amount by which the amount of that ADI's assets outside Australia attributable to, or acquired by virtue of, its Australian business exceeds the amount of its liabilities outside Australia attributable to, or incurred by virtue of, its Australian business.

33 Transfer of foreign currency to Reserve Bank

- (1) The Reserve Bank may, from time to time, by notice in writing, require each ADI to transfer to the Reserve Bank an amount of sterling equivalent to such proportion as is specified in the notice of that ADI's excess receipts of foreign currency as at the close of business on a date specified in the notice, not being more than 21 days before the date on which the notice is given.
- (2) The proportion specified in a notice under subsection (1) shall be the same in respect of each ADI.
- (3) Where, as at the close of business on a date specified in a notice under subsection (1), an ADI has not transferred an amount of sterling that it has been required to transfer in pursuance of any previous notice under that subsection, the excess receipts of foreign currency to which that amount of sterling is equivalent shall not, for the purpose of calculating the amount of sterling required to be transferred in pursuance of the first-mentioned notice, be taken into account as part of the excess receipts of foreign currency of that ADI.

- (4) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the ADI receives a notice under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the ADI does not comply with the notice within:
 - (i) 7 days after receiving the notice; or
 - (ii) if a longer period for compliance is specified by the Reserve Bank—the period so specified.

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

- (4A) An offence against subsection (4) is an indictable offence.
- (4B) If an ADI does or fails to do an act in circumstances that give rise to the ADI committing an offence against subsection (4), the ADI commits an offence against that subsection in respect of:
- (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
 - (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the ADI committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (5) An ADI shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of a notice under subsection (1) if it transfers to the Reserve Bank an amount of sterling equivalent to the specified proportion of that ADI's excess receipts of foreign currency, as shown in that ADI's books of account, as at the close of business on the date in question.
- (6) Where an ADI's assets outside Australia attributable to, or acquired by virtue of, its Australian business include foreign currency that is not freely convertible into sterling, the Reserve Bank shall make such adjustment in the amount of sterling required to be transferred by that ADI to the Reserve Bank under this section as appears to the Reserve Bank to be necessary in the circumstances.

34 Payment for transferred foreign currency

The Reserve Bank shall pay to an ADI transferring sterling in compliance with a notice under section 33 such amount in Australian currency as is agreed upon between the Reserve Bank and the ADI transferring the sterling or, in default of agreement, as is determined in an action for compensation by the ADI against the Reserve Bank.

35 Sale of foreign currency by Reserve Bank

The Reserve Bank may sell foreign currency to an ADI:

- (a) where the Reserve Bank is satisfied that the ADI has complied with the provisions of this Division and is likely to suffer a shortage of foreign currency; or
- (b) if the Reserve Bank considers that, for any other reason, it is desirable to do so.

Division 5—Advances

36 Advance policy

- (1) Where the Reserve Bank is satisfied that it is necessary or expedient to do so in the public interest, the Reserve Bank may determine the policy in relation to advances to be followed by ADIs.

- (1A) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the Reserve Bank has made a determination under subsection (1) of a policy that applies to the ADI; and
 - (b) the ADI fails to follow the policy.

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

- (1B) An offence against subsection (1A) is an indictable offence.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Reserve Bank may give directions as to the classes of purposes for which advances may or may not be made by ADIs.

- (2A) An ADI commits an offence if:
- (a) the Reserve Bank has given a direction under subsection (2) that applies to the ADI; and
 - (b) the ADI fails to comply with the directions.

Penalty: 200 penalty units.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against this subsection, subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty stated above.

Section 36

- (2B) An offence against subsection (2A) is an indictable offence.
- (3) Nothing in this section:
- (a) authorizes the Reserve Bank to make a determination or give a direction with respect to an advance made, or proposed to be made, to a particular person; or
 - (b) affects the validity of a transaction entered into in relation to an advance or affects the right of an ADI to recover an advance or enforce the security given in respect of an advance.

 - (b) may specify in the notice:
 - (i) the extent to which the ADI need not comply with that obligation; and

- (2) An ADI is not required to comply with that obligation:
 - (a) to the extent compliance would result in the ADI contravening that law of a foreign country; or

Subdivision B—Accountable persons

- (1) An accountable person must comply with his or her accountability obligations under Division 2 in relation to each of the responsibilities that cause him or her to be an accountable person of an ADI, or of a subsidiary of an ADI.

Section 51C

- (b) set out the findings on material questions of fact; and
 - (c) refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based; and
 - (d) give APRA's reasons for confirming, revoking or varying the decision, as the case may be.

- (7) A person commits an offence if the person fails to comply with a condition imposed under subsection (6).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (8) Strict liability applies to the physical element of the offence in subsection (7) that the condition is imposed under subsection (6).

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

51C Review of decisions

- (1) Applications may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of decisions of APRA that have been confirmed or varied under subsection 51B(3).
- (2) If a decision is taken, because of the operation of subsection 51B(4), to be confirmed, section 29 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 applies as if the prescribed time for making application for review of the decision were the period beginning on the day on which the decision is taken to be confirmed and ending on the 28th day after that day.
- (3) If a person makes a request under subsection 51B(1) in respect of a reviewable decision of APRA, section 41 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 applies as if the making of the request were the making of an application to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of that decision.

Section 51D

51D Statements to accompany notification of decisions

- (1) If a reviewable decision of APRA is made and notice in writing of the decision is given to a person affected by the decision, the notice is to include a statement to the effect that:

 - (b) a person whose interests are affected by the decision may, subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, if dissatisfied with a decision made by APRA upon that reconsideration confirming or varying the first-mentioned decision, apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of the decision so confirmed or varied.
- (2) A notice given to a person under subsection (1) may impose conditions relating to the disclosure of any information setting out reasons for the decision that is contained in, or in a document accompanying, the notice.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.
- (4) If APRA confirms or varies a decision under subsection 51B(3) and gives to a person notice in writing of the confirmation or variation of the decision, the notice is to include a statement to the effect that a person whose interests are affected by the decision may, subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, if dissatisfied with the decision so confirmed or varied, apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision.
- (5) Any failure to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) or (4) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

Part VIA—Protections in relation to information

Note: For protections for whistleblowers, see Part 9.4AAA of the Corporations Act 2001.

52F Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from complying with a requirement under this Act or the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 to give information, produce a book, account or document or sign a record on the ground that doing so would tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (2) However, if the person is an individual, the information given, the record signed or the book, account or document produced by the individual in compliance with the requirement is not admissible in evidence against the individual in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information, if:
 - (a) before complying with the requirement, the individual claims that giving the information, signing the record or producing the book, account or document might tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty; and
 - (b) giving the information, signing the record or producing the book, account or document might in fact tend to incriminate the individual or make the individual liable to a penalty.

Part VII—Financial records

60 Keeping of financial records

Financial records must be kept in Australia etc.

- (1) If an ADI is required, under section 286 of the Corporations Act 2001, to keep financial records (within the meaning of that Act), the ADI must keep the records:
 - (a) in the English language, or in a form in which the records are readily accessible and readily convertible into writing in the English language; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) in Australia; or
 - (ii) if APRA gives written approval and the ADI meets the conditions (if any) specified in the approval—in another country specified in the approval.
- (2) The approval may be given subject to specified conditions.

Notification of address where financial records are kept

- (3) An ADI must notify APRA, in the approved form, of the address where the ADI's financial records are kept:

 - (a) a body corporate that is:
 - (i) an ADI; or
 - (ii) an authorised NOHC; or

 - (ii) the Australian operations of another subsidiary of the foreign corporation (other than a body mentioned in paragraph (a), being a subsidiary that is not incorporated in Australia and carries on business in Australia; if it is satisfied that such a report is necessary. The appointment must be in writing and must specify the prudential matters that are to be the subject of the investigation and report.

- (2) If APRA has appointed a person under this section to investigate and report on prudential matters in relation to a body corporate, the body corporate must give the person access to its books, accounts and documents and must give the person such information and facilities as the person requires to conduct the investigation and produce the report.
- (3) A body corporate commits an offence if:

- (a) under subsection (1), APRA has appointed a person to investigate and report on prudential matters in relation to the body corporate; and
- (b) the body corporate:
 - (i) does not give the person access to its books, accounts and documents; or

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

 - (a) the first day on which the offence is committed; and
 - (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the body corporate committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

- (6) Nothing in this section is intended to limit the operation of any other provision of this Act.
- (7) To avoid doubt, this section applies to a body corporate that is, or becomes, a Chapter 5 body corporate (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) in the same way as this section applies to any other body corporate.

Section 61A

- (2) A person commits an offence if he or she refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under this section.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

Note: Failure to comply with a requirement made under this subsection is an offence (see section 61G).

- (2) The oath or affirmation to be taken or made by the examinee for the purposes of the examination is an oath or affirmation that the statements that the examinee will make will be true.
- (3) The investigator may require the examinee to answer a question that is put to the examinee at the examination and is relevant to a matter that the investigator is investigating, or is to investigate.

Note: Failure to comply with a requirement made under this subsection is an offence (see section 61G).

- (4) The examiner may make an audio, or audio-visual, recording of all or any part of the examination.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

- (4) The examinee's lawyer may, at such times during the examination as the investigator determines, address the investigator and examine the examinee about matters about which the investigator has examined the examinee.
- (5) The investigator may require a person to stop addressing the investigator or examining the examinee if, in the investigator's opinion, the person is trying to obstruct the examination by exercising rights under subsection (4).

Note: Failure to comply with a requirement made under this subsection is an offence (see section 61G).

61F Record of examination

Written record of statements

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

61G Offences

A person commits an offence if he or she refuses or fails to comply with a requirement under this Division.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

Division 3—Evidentiary use of certain material

61H Statements made at an examination—proceedings against examinee

Admissibility of statements made at examination

- (1) Subject to this section, a statement that a person makes at an examination of the person is admissible in evidence against the person in a proceeding.

Self-incrimination exception

- (2) The statement is not admissible if the statement is not admissible in evidence against the person under section 52F.

Irrelevant statement exception

- (3) The statement is not admissible if it is not relevant to the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

Related statement exception

- (4) The statement (the subject statement) is not admissible if:
 - (a) it is qualified or explained by some other statement made at the examination; and
 - (b) evidence of the other statement is not tendered in the proceeding; and
 - (c) the person objects to the admission of evidence of the subject statement.

Legal professional privilege exception

- (5) The statement is not admissible if:
 - (a) it discloses matter in respect of which the person could claim legal professional privilege in the proceeding if subsection (1) did not apply in relation to the statement; and

Section 61J

- (b) the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

Joint proceedings

- (6) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a proceeding against a person even if it is heard together with a proceeding against another person.

Record is prima facie evidence

- (7) If a written record of an examination of a person is signed by the person under subsection 61F(2), or is authenticated as mentioned in subsection 290(7) of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, the record is, in a proceeding, prima facie evidence of the statements it records.

Admissibility of other evidence

- (8) This Division does not limit or affect the admissibility in the proceedings of other evidence of statements made at the examination.

61J Statements made at an examination—other proceedings

Admissibility of absent witness evidence

- (1) If direct evidence by a person (the absent witness) of a matter would be admissible in a proceeding, a statement that the absent witness made at an examination of the absent witness and that tends to establish that matter is admissible in the proceedings as evidence of that matter in accordance with subsection (2).

Requirement for admissibility

- (2) The statement is admissible:
 - (a) if it appears to the court or tribunal that:
 - (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness;

Section 61K

- (ii) the absent witness is outside the State or Territory in which the proceeding is being heard and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his or her attendance; or
 - (iii) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the absent witness but he or she cannot be found; or
- (b) if it does not so appear to the court or tribunal—unless another party to the proceeding requires the party tendering evidence of the statement to call the absent witness as a witness in the proceeding and the tendering party does not so call the absent witness.

61K Weight of evidence under section 61J

- (1) If evidence of a statement made by a person at an examination of the person is admitted under section 61J in a proceeding, in deciding how much weight (if any) to give to the statement as evidence of a matter, regard is to be had to:
 - (a) the length of period between the statement and the matter to which the statement relates; and
 - (b) any reason the person may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
 - (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about the accuracy of the statement.
- (2) If the person is not called as a witness in the proceeding:
 - (a) evidence that would, if the person had been so called, have been admissible in the proceeding for the purpose of destroying or supporting his or her credibility is so admissible; and
 - (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the person has made at any time.
- (3) However, evidence of a matter is not admissible under this section if, had the person been called as a witness in the proceeding and denied the matter in cross-examination, evidence of the matter would not have been admissible if adduced by the cross-examining party.

61L Objection to admission of statements made at examination

Notice of intention to apply to admit evidence and statements

- (1) A party (the adducing party) to proceedings may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceeding, give to another party to the proceeding written notice that the adducing party:
 - (a) will apply to have admitted in evidence in the proceeding specified statements made at an examination; and
 - (b) for that purpose, will apply to have evidence of those statements admitted in the proceeding.

Notice to set out etc. statements

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must set out, or be accompanied by writing that sets out, the specified statements.

Notice of objection

- (3) Within 14 days after a notice is given under subsection (1), the other party may give to the adducing party a written notice:
 - (a) stating that the other party objects to specified statements being admitted in evidence in the proceeding; and
 - (b) specifies, in relation to each of those statements, the grounds of objection.

Extension of objection period

- (4) The period prescribed by subsection (3) may be extended by the court or tribunal or by agreement between the parties concerned.

Notice etc. to be given to court or tribunal

- (5) On receiving a notice given under subsection (3), the adducing party must give to the court or tribunal a copy of:

Section 61M

- (a) the notice under subsection (1) and any writing that subsection (2) requires to accompany that notice; and
- (b) the notice under subsection (3).

Action by court or tribunal

- (6) If subsection (5) is complied with, the court or tribunal may either:
 - (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceeding begins; or
 - (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.

Right to object to admission of statement

- (7) If a notice has been given in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceeding to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceedings, unless:
 - (a) the other party has, in accordance with subsection (3), objected to the statement being so admitted; or
 - (b) the court or tribunal gives the other party leave to object to the statement being so admitted.

61M Copies of, or extracts from, certain books, accounts and documents

- (1) A copy of, or an extract from, a book, account or document to which subsection 13(1), 13B(1), 61(2), 61A(1) or 62(1) applies, is admissible in evidence in a proceeding as if the copy was the original book, account or document or the extract were the relevant part of original book, account or document.
- (2) A copy of, or an extract from, a book, account or document is not admissible in evidence under subsection (1) unless it is proved that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book, account or document, or of the relevant part of the book, account or document.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person who has compared:

Section 61N

- (a) a copy of a book, account or document with the book, account or document; or
 - (b) an extract from a book, account or document, with the relevant part of the book, account or document;
- may give evidence, either orally or by an affidavit or statutory declaration, that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book, account or document, or relevant part of the book, account or document.

61N Report under section 61

Subject to section 61P, if a copy of a report under subsection 61(1) purports to be certified by APRA as a true copy of such a report, the copy is admissible in a proceeding (other than a criminal proceeding) as prima facie evidence of any facts or matters that the report states an investigator to have found to exist.

61P Exceptions to admissibility of report

- (1) If a party to a proceeding tenders a copy of a report as evidence against another party, the copy is not admissible under section 61N in the proceeding as evidence against the other party unless the court or tribunal is satisfied that:
 - (a) a copy of the report has been given to the other party; and
 - (b) the other party, and the other party's lawyer, have had a reasonable opportunity to examine that copy and to take its contents into account in preparing the other party's case.
- (2) Before or after the copy tendered in evidence is admitted in evidence, the other party may apply to cross-examine, in relation to the report, a specified person who, or 2 or more specified persons each of whom:
 - (a) was concerned in preparing the report or making a finding about a fact or matter that the report states the investigator to have found to exist; or
 - (b) whether or not pursuant to a requirement made under this Part, gave information, or produced a book, account or document, on the basis of which, or on the basis of matters including which, such a finding was made.

Section 61Q

- (3) The court or tribunal must grant an application made under subsection (2) unless it considers that, in all the circumstances, it is not appropriate to do so.
- (4) The court or tribunal must refuse to admit the copy, or must treat the copy as not having been admitted, if:
 - (a) the court or tribunal grants the application or applications made under subsection (2); and
 - (b) one or more persons to whom the application or any of the applications relates:
 - (i) are unavailable; or
 - (ii) do not attend to be cross-examined in relation to the report; and
 - (c) the court or tribunal is of the opinion that to admit the copy under section 61N in the proceeding as evidence against the other party without the other party having the opportunity to cross-examine the other person or persons would unfairly prejudice the other party.

61Q Material otherwise admissible

Nothing in this Division renders evidence inadmissible in a proceeding in circumstances where it would have been admissible in that proceeding if this Division had not been enacted.

Division 4—Information

62 Supply of information

(1B) An offence against subsection (1A) is an indictable offence.

(1C) If a person fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) in circumstances that give rise to the person committing an offence against subsection (1A), the person commits an offence against subsection (1A) in respect of:

- (b) each subsequent day (if any) on which the circumstances that gave rise to the person committing the offence continue (including the day of conviction for any such offence or any later day).

Note: This subsection is not intended to imply that section 4K of the Crimes Act 1914 does not apply to offences against this Act or the regulations.

(2) A requirement under subsection (1) must not require information, books, accounts or documents to be given with respect to the affairs of an individual customer of an ADI unless the information, books, accounts or documents are in respect of prudential matters relating to:

- (a) the ADI; or
- (b) any member of a relevant group of bodies corporate of which the ADI is a member.

(3) To avoid doubt, this section applies to a person that is, or becomes, a Chapter 5 body corporate (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001) in the same way as this section applies to any other person.

- (b) the authorisation is later amended so as to increase the amount;

Part 1—Contravention of a civil penalty provision

1 Federal Court may order person to pay pecuniary penalty for contravening civil penalty provision

Application for order

- (1) Within 6 years of a person contravening a civil penalty provision, APRA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to the Federal Court of Australia for an order that the person pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.

Court may order person to pay pecuniary penalty

- (2) If the Court is satisfied that the person has contravened a civil penalty provision, the Court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth for each contravention the pecuniary penalty that the Court determines is appropriate (but not more than the relevant amount specified for the provision).

Determining amount of pecuniary penalty

- (3) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the Court must have regard to all relevant matters, including:
 - (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention; and
 - (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
 - (d) whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Act to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Clause 2

Conduct contravening more than one civil penalty provision

- (4) If conduct constitutes a contravention of 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this Act against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of those provisions. However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this clause in respect of the same conduct.

2 Contravening a civil penalty provision is not an offence

A contravention of a civil penalty provision is not an offence.

3 Persons involved in contravening civil penalty provision

- (1) A person must not:
- (a) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
 - (b) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
 - (c) be in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
 - (d) conspire to contravene a civil penalty provision.
- (2) This Schedule applies to a person who contravenes subclause (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision as if the person had contravened the provision.
- (3) However, if an individual contravenes subclause (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision that can be contravened only by a body corporate, subclause 1(2) applies as if the reference in that subclause to the relevant amount specified for the provision were a reference to $\frac{1}{5}$ of the relevant amount specified for the provision.

4 Recovery of a pecuniary penalty

If the Federal Court of Australia orders a person to pay a pecuniary penalty:

- (a) the penalty is payable to the Commonwealth; and

- (b) the Commonwealth may enforce the order as if it were a judgment of the Court.

5 Civil evidence and procedure rules for pecuniary penalty orders

The Federal Court of Australia must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order.

Part 2—Civil penalty proceedings and criminal proceedings

6 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Federal Court of Australia must not make a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

7 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:
 - (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
 - (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.
- (2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

8 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person.

9 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:

- (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
- (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
