 - (4) This section does not authorise a prescribed authority to dispense with the consent of a person to a marriage of a minor where any other person whose consent to the marriage is required by this Act has refused to give consent, unless a magistrate or a Judge has, in pursuance of this Part, given consent in place of the consent of that other person.
 - (5) For the purposes of this section, the fact that a person does not reside in, or is absent from, Australia shall not of itself be deemed to make it impracticable to ascertain the views of that person.

16 Consent by magistrate where parent etc. refuses consent etc.

- (1) Where, in relation to a proposed marriage of a minor:
 - (a) a person whose consent to the marriage is required by this Act refuses to consent to the marriage; or

- (2A) A Judge or magistrate shall not proceed with an inquiry in accordance with subsection (2) unless:

Section 17

the expiration of the time prescribed for the purposes of section 17 and if, within that time, a request for a re-hearing is made under that section, the magistrate shall not issue consent unless that request is withdrawn.

- (5) Where a Judge or magistrate gives consent to the marriage of a minor in place of the consent of a person who has refused to consent to the marriage, the Judge or magistrate may also, upon application by the minor, give consent in place of the consent of any other person if the Judge or magistrate is satisfied that it is impracticable, or that it is impracticable without delay that would, in all the circumstances of the case, be unreasonable, to ascertain the views of that person with respect to the proposed marriage.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the fact that a person does not reside in, or is absent from, Australia shall not of itself be deemed to make it impracticable to ascertain the views of that person.

17 Re-hearing of applications by a Judge

- (1) Where:
 - (a) an application to a magistrate under subsection 16(1) or (5) is refused; or

- (2) The provisions of subsections 16(2), (5) and (6) apply, so far as they are applicable, in relation to the re-hearing of an application made under section 16 and, for the purpose of such a re-hearing, references in those provisions to the magistrate dealing with an application shall be read as references to the Judge re-hearing the application.

Section 20

- (2) The fact that an application is heard or dealt with in contravention of subsection (1) does not affect the validity of an order made, or the effectiveness of a consent given, upon the application or the re-hearing of the application or make ineffective any dispensation with a consent granted on the application.

20 Effect of consent of magistrate or Judge

Subject to section 21, where a magistrate or a Judge gives his or her consent to the marriage of a minor in place of the consent of another person, his or her consent operates, for the purposes of this Act, as the consent of that other person.

21 Consent by magistrate or Judge and dispensation with consent to be ineffective after 3 months etc.

- (a) the person's liability to pay the charge may be affected by:
 - (i) the outcome of an application for internal review of a decision to refuse to grant an exemption; or
 - (ii) any other circumstance of which the Registrar is aware; or
- (b) the person's details have been removed from the register under paragraph 39I(2)(d) or 39K(a) before the notice is sent.

 - (d) disclose that the celebrant is a marriage celebrant, and whether or not the celebrant is a religious marriage celebrant, in any document relating to the performance of services as a marriage celebrant (including advertisements) by the celebrant.

Note 1: If a marriage celebrant fails to comply with these obligations, the Registrar may take disciplinary measures under section 39I.

Note 2: For subparagraph (1)(c)(i), a person may notify the Registrar by updating the person's details using a portal provided by the Registrar.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may require a fee to be paid in respect of an application for an exemption from requirements prescribed by regulations made for the purpose of paragraph (1)(b). The regulations may specify the fee, or provide for the fee to be determined by the Minister by legislative instrument.
- (3) The regulations may specify the details that must be notified to the Registrar for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(c)(i).

Section 39H

39H Performance reviews

- (1) The Registrar of Marriage Celebrants may, from time to time, review the performance of a marriage celebrant in respect of a period to determine whether the Registrar considers that the celebrant's performance in the period is satisfactory.

Note: The period to which a review relates is at the discretion of the Registrar.

- (3) In reviewing the performance of a marriage celebrant, the Registrar:
- (a) must consider the matters prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (b) may have regard to any information in his or her possession, but is not required to seek any further information.
- (4) The Registrar must not determine that a marriage celebrant's performance in respect of a period was not satisfactory unless:
- (a) the Registrar has given the marriage celebrant a written notice:
 - (i) stating the Registrar's intention to make the determination unless, before the date specified in the notice (which must be at least 21 days after the date on which the notice was given), the marriage celebrant satisfies the Registrar that the marriage celebrant's performance in respect of the period was satisfactory; and
 - (ii) informing the marriage celebrant that any representations made to the Registrar before that date will be considered by the Registrar; and
 - (b) the Registrar has considered any representations made by the marriage celebrant before the date specified in the notice; and
 - (c) the determination is made in writing within 14 days after the date specified in the notice.

39I Disciplinary measures

- (1) The Registrar of Marriage Celebrants may only take disciplinary measures against a marriage celebrant if the Registrar:
 - (a) is satisfied that the marriage celebrant is no longer entitled to be registered as a marriage celebrant; or
 - (aa) is satisfied that the marriage celebrant is no longer entitled to be identified as a religious marriage celebrant on the register of marriage celebrants; or
 - (b) is satisfied that the marriage celebrant has not complied with an obligation under section 39G; or
 - (c) has determined in writing under section 39H that the marriage celebrant's performance in respect of a period was not satisfactory; or

 - (e) is satisfied that the marriage celebrant's application for registration was known by the marriage celebrant to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (f) is satisfied that the marriage celebrant's notice under section 39DB or paragraph 39DD(2)(b) (notice requesting to be identified as a religious marriage celebrant) was known by the marriage celebrant to be false or misleading in a material particular.
- (2) The only disciplinary measures that the Registrar may take against a marriage celebrant are to:
 - (a) caution the marriage celebrant in writing; or
 - (b) in accordance with regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph, require the marriage celebrant to undertake professional development activities determined in writing by the Registrar; or
 - (c) suspend the marriage celebrant's registration for a period (the suspension period) of up to 6 months by annotating the register of marriage celebrants to include:

Section 39I

- (ii) the dates of the start and end of the suspension period; or
- (d) deregister the marriage celebrant by removing his or her details from the register of marriage celebrants; or
- (e) if the marriage celebrant is identified as a religious marriage celebrant on the register of marriage celebrants:
 - (i) remove the identification of the marriage celebrant as a religious marriage celebrant from the register for a period (the suspension period) of up to 6 months by annotating the register of marriage celebrants to include a statement that the celebrant is not identified as a religious marriage celebrant, and the dates of the start and end of the suspension period; or
 - (ii) remove the identification of the marriage celebrant as a religious marriage celebrant permanently from the register.

Note: A decision to suspend a marriage celebrant's registration, or to deregister a marriage celebrant, is reviewable under section 39J.

- (3) If the Registrar suspends a marriage celebrant's registration for a particular period, section 39F does not apply in respect of the marriage celebrant during the period.
- (3A) If the Registrar removes the identification of a marriage celebrant as a religious marriage celebrant for any period under paragraph (2)(e), section 47A does not apply in respect of the celebrant during that period.
- (4) If the Registrar decides to take disciplinary measures against a marriage celebrant (including a religious marriage celebrant), the Registrar:
 - (a) must give the marriage celebrant written notice of:
 - (i) the decision; and
 - (ii) the reasons for it; and
 - (iii) the disciplinary measure that is being taken; and

- (iv) if the marriage celebrant has a right under section 39J to apply for review of the decision—that right; and
- (b) may inform the community, in any way the Registrar thinks appropriate, including by electronic means, that the disciplinary measure is being taken against the marriage celebrant.

39J Review of decisions

- (1) An application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of a decision of the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants:

 - (a) a person has made application for registration as a marriage celebrant (see subsection 39D(1A)); and
 - (b) at the end of 3 months after the day on which the application was made, the person has not been:
 - (i) registered; or
 - (ii) notified by the Registrar that that person's application has been refused;the Registrar is taken to have decided, on the last day of the 3 month period, not to register that person as a marriage celebrant.

Section 39K

- (2A) For the purposes of both the making of an application under subsection (1) and the operation of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 in relation to such an application, if:
- (a) a person has given notice under section 39DB or paragraph 39DD(2)(b) (notice requesting to be identified as a religious marriage celebrant); and
 - (b) at the end of 3 months after the day on which the notice was given, the person has not been:
 - (i) identified as a religious marriage celebrant on the register of marriage celebrants; or
 - (ii) notified by the Registrar that the Registrar has decided not to identify the person as a religious marriage celebrant on the register of marriage celebrants;the Registrar is taken to have decided, on the last day of the 3 month period, not to identify that person as a religious marriage celebrant on the register of marriage celebrants.
- (3) The Registrar must take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Tribunal's decision.

Division 2—Marriages by authorised celebrants

40 Application of Division

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Division applies to and in relation to all marriages solemnised, or intended to be solemnised, in Australia.
- (2) This Division does not apply to or in relation to marriages to which Division 3 of this Part applies.

41 Marriages to be solemnised by authorised celebrant

A marriage shall be solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant who is authorised to solemnise marriages at the place where the marriage takes place.

42 Notice to be given and declaration made

- (1) Subject to this section, a marriage shall not be solemnised unless:
 - (a) notice in writing of the intended marriage has been given in accordance with this section and has been received by the authorised celebrant solemnising the marriage not earlier than 18 months before the date of the marriage and not later than 1 month before the date of the marriage;
 - (b) there has been produced to that authorised celebrant, in respect of each of the parties:
 - (i) an official certificate, or an official extract of an entry in an official register, showing the date and place of birth of the party; or
 - (ii) a statutory declaration made by the party or a parent of the party stating that, for reasons specified in the declaration, it is impracticable to obtain such a certificate or extract and stating, to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief and as accurately as the declarant has been able to ascertain, when and where the party was born; or

- (iii) a passport issued by a government of an overseas country, showing the date and place of birth of the party; or
 - (iv) an Australian passport, showing the date and place of birth of the party; and
 - (c) each of the parties has made and subscribed before that authorised celebrant a declaration, in writing, as to:
 - (i) the party's conjugal status;
 - (ii) the party's belief that there is no legal impediment to the marriage; and
 - (iii) such other matters as are prescribed.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1):
- (a) must contain such particulars in relation to the parties as are prescribed; and
 - (b) must be signed by each of the parties; and
 - (c) if a party signs the notice in Australia—must be signed in the presence of:
 - (i) an authorised celebrant; or
 - (ii) a Commissioner for Declarations under the Statutory Declarations Act 1959; or
 - (iii) a justice of the peace; or
 - (iv) a barrister or solicitor; or
 - (v) a medical practitioner; or
 - (vi) a member of the Australian Federal Police or the police force of a State or Territory; and
 - (d) if a party signs the notice outside Australia—must be signed in the presence of:
 - (i) an Australian Diplomatic Officer; or
 - (ii) an Australian Consular Officer; or
 - (iii) a notary public; or
 - (iv) an employee of the Commonwealth authorised under paragraph 3(c) of the Consular Fees Act 1955; or

Section 42

- (v) an employee of the Australian Trade and Investment Commission authorised under paragraph 3(d) of the Consular Fees Act 1955.
- (3) However, if the signature of a party to an intended marriage cannot conveniently be obtained at the time when it is desired to give notice under this section, a notice duly signed by the other party and otherwise complying with the provisions of this section shall, if it is signed by the first-mentioned party in the presence of an authorised celebrant before the marriage is solemnised, be deemed to have been a sufficient notice.
- (4) Where a party to an intended marriage is unable, after reasonable inquiry, to ascertain all of the particulars in relation to that party required to be contained in a notice under this section, the failure to include in the notice such of those particulars as the party is unable to ascertain does not make the notice ineffective for the purposes of this section if, at any time before the marriage is solemnised, that party furnishes to the authorised celebrant solemnising the marriage a statutory declaration as to that party's inability to ascertain the particulars not included in the notice and the reason for that inability.
- (5) Despite a notice required by subsection (1) having been received later than 1 month before the date of the marriage, a prescribed authority may authorise an authorised celebrant to solemnise a marriage if the authority is satisfied that one or more of the circumstances prescribed in the regulations have been met.
- (5A) An authorised celebrant shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the notice referred to in subsection (1), give to the parties a document outlining the obligations and consequences of marriage and indicating the availability of marriage education and counselling.
- (6) Where, by reason of the death, absence or illness of an authorised celebrant to whom a notice of intention to marry has been given, or for any other reason, it is impracticable for that person to solemnise the marriage, the marriage may be solemnised by any authorised celebrant who has possession of the notice.

- (7) The declarations of the parties required by subsection (1) shall both be written on the one paper and on the same side of that paper.
- (8) An authorised celebrant shall not solemnise a marriage:
- (a) unless the authorised celebrant has satisfied himself or herself that the parties are the parties referred to in the notice given under this section in relation to the marriage; or
 - (b) if the authorised celebrant has reason to believe that:
 - (i) a notice given under this section; or
 - (ii) a declaration made and subscribed under this section, or a statutory declaration made for the purposes of this section;
- in relation to the marriage, contains a false statement or an error or is defective.
- (9) An authorised celebrant may permit an error in a notice under this section to be corrected in his or her presence by either of the parties at any time before the marriage to which it relates has been solemnised and may treat the corrected notice as having been originally given in its corrected form.
- (10) Where the declaration made by a party under subsection (1) states that that party is a divorced person or that that party's last spouse has died, an authorised celebrant shall not solemnise the marriage unless there is produced to him or her evidence of that party's divorce, or of the death of that party's spouse, as the case requires.

42A Commissioner of Australian Federal Police or approved authority may issue special notice

- (1) If the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police or a person who is an approved authority for the purposes of the Witness Protection Act 1994 gives to a Registrar a certificate under section 14 of that Act stating that the person has received the evidence referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of that section and the statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (d) of that section, the Registrar:

- (a) if he or she is to solemnise the marriage himself or herself—is to treat the certificate as satisfying the requirements of section 42; or
 - (b) in any other case—is to give to the celebrant a notice stating that the celebrant should treat the requirements of section 42 of this Act as having been met.
- (2) The names specified in the certificate are to be used in the marriage certificate.

43 Marriage may be solemnised on any day etc.

A marriage may be solemnised on any day, at any time and at any place.

44 Witnesses

A marriage shall not be solemnised unless at least 2 persons who are, or appear to the person solemnising the marriage to be, over the age of 18 years are present as witnesses.

45 Form of ceremony

- (1) Where a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, being a minister of religion, it may be solemnised according to any form and ceremony recognised as sufficient for the purpose by the religious body or organisation of which he or she is a minister.
- (2) Where a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, not being a minister of religion, it is sufficient if each of the parties says to the other, in the presence of the authorised celebrant and the witnesses, the words:
“I call upon the persons here present to witness that I, A.B. (or C.D.), take thee, C.D. (or A.B.), to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband, or spouse)”;

or words to that effect.

- (3) Where a marriage has been solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, a certificate of the marriage prepared and signed in accordance with section 50 is conclusive evidence that the marriage was solemnised in accordance with this section.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (3) makes a certificate conclusive:
 - (a) where the fact that the marriage ceremony took place is in issue—as to that fact; or
 - (b) where the identity of a party to the marriage is in issue—as to the identity of that party.

46 Certain authorised celebrants to explain nature of marriage relationship

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), before a marriage is solemnised by or in the presence of an authorised celebrant, not being a minister of religion of a recognised denomination, the authorised celebrant shall say to the parties, in the presence of the witnesses, the words:

“I am duly authorised by law to solemnise marriages according to law.

“Before you are joined in marriage in my presence and in the presence of these witnesses, I am to remind you of the solemn and binding nature of the relationship into which you are now about to enter.

“Marriage, according to law in Australia, is the union of 2 people to the exclusion of all others, voluntarily entered into for life.”;

or words to that effect.
- (2) Where, in the case of a person authorised under subsection 39(2) to solemnise marriages, the Minister is satisfied that the form of ceremony to be used by that person sufficiently states the nature and obligations of marriage, the Minister may, either by the instrument by which that person is so authorised or by a subsequent instrument, exempt that person from compliance with subsection (1) of this section.

Section 47

47 Ministers of religion may refuse to solemnise marriages

Refusing to solemnise a marriage despite this Part

- (1) A minister of religion may refuse to solemnise a marriage despite anything in this Part.
- (2) In particular, nothing in this Part prevents a minister of religion from:

 - (ii) additional requirements to those provided by this Act are complied with; and
 - (b) refusing to solemnise the marriage if the condition is not observed.

Refusing to solemnise a marriage on the basis of religious beliefs etc.

Grounds for refusal not limited by this section

- (2) This section does not limit the grounds on which a religious marriage celebrant may refuse to solemnise a marriage.

47B Bodies established for religious purposes may refuse to make facilities available or provide goods or services

- (1) A body established for religious purposes may refuse to make a facility available, or to provide goods or services, for the purposes of the solemnisation of a marriage, or for purposes reasonably incidental to the solemnisation of a marriage, if the refusal:
- (a) conforms to the doctrines, tenets or beliefs of the religion of the body; or
 - (b) is necessary to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to facilities made available, and goods and services provided, whether for payment or not.
- (3) This section does not limit the grounds on which a body established for religious purposes may refuse to make a facility available, or to provide goods or services, for the purposes of the solemnisation of a marriage, or for purposes reasonably incidental to the solemnisation of a marriage.
- (4) To avoid doubt, a reference to a body established for religious purposes has the same meaning in this section as it has in section 37 of the Sex Discrimination Act 1984.

Section 48

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), a purpose is reasonably incidental to the solemnisation of marriage if it is intrinsic to, or directly associated with, the solemnisation of the marriage.

48 Certain marriages not solemnised in accordance with this Division to be invalid

- (1) Subject to this section, a marriage solemnised otherwise than in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Division is not a valid marriage.

 - (e) failure to comply with the requirements of section 44 or 46;
 - (f) failure to comply with the requirements of section 13.
- (3) A marriage is not invalid by reason that the person solemnising it was not authorised by this Act to do so, if either party to the marriage, at the time the marriage was solemnised, believed that that person was lawfully authorised to solemnise it, and in such a case the form and ceremony of the marriage shall be deemed to have been sufficient if they were such as to show an intention on the part of each of the parties to become thereby the lawfully wedded spouse of the other.

49 Authorised celebrant to retain consents, statutory declarations etc.

An authorised celebrant to whom a consent, dispensation with consent or statutory declaration is produced under this Act shall retain it in his or her possession until he or she deals with it in accordance with section 50.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a child whether or not there was a legal impediment to the marriage of his or her parents at the time of his or her birth and whether or not the child was still living at the time of the marriage or, in the case of a child born before the commencement of this Act, at the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a child unless:

- the child is for all purposes the legitimate child of his or her parents as from the time of the marriage or the commencement of section 25 of the Marriage Amendment Act 1985, whichever was the later.
- (2) Where the relationship of a child and his or her father and mother is, for the purposes of the law of a place, required by a law in force in that place to be determined irrespective of whether or not the father and mother are or have been married to each other, the law of that place shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken not to recognise the status of illegitimacy.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
