- (i) a determination under section 16 was in force at any time in the past period under which the claimant was not, because of a variation of the determination under subsection 27(5), 27A(3), 28A(2), 28B(2), 28B(3), 29(2), 30(2), 30A(2) or 30B(2), entitled to be paid family tax benefit;
- (ii) the claim is made before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation mentioned in that subsection took effect.

Claim must relate to one income year and be made within a certain period

- (2) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
  - (a) the period does not fall wholly within one income year; or
  - (b) the period does fall wholly within one income year (the relevant income year) but the claim is made after the end of:
    - (i) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
    - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the claimant from making the claim before the end of that first income year.
- (2A) The further period referred to in subparagraph (2)(b)(ii) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

Claim must be accompanied by instalment claim in some circumstances

- (3) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
  - (a) the period occurs in the income year in which the claim is made; and
  - (b) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit; and

Section 10

- (c) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is not prevented by section 9 from making an effective claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (d) the claim is not accompanied by a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.
- (4) A claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is not effective if:
  - (a) the period occurs in either of the 2 income years before the one in which the claim is made; and
  - (b) if the claimant is an individual—at any time during the past period, the claimant, or the claimant's partner, received a social security benefit, social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment; and
  - (c) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit; and
  - (d) if the claimant is an individual—at the time the claim is made, the claimant, or the claimant's partner, is receiving a social security benefit, social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment; and
  - (e) at the time the claim is made, the claimant is not prevented by section 9 from making an effective claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (f) the claim is not accompanied by a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.
- (5) Paragraph (4)(f) does not apply if, at the time the claim for payment of family tax benefit for a past period is made, subsection 32AE(2) applies in respect of the claimant or subsection 32AE(5) applies in respect of the claimant's partner.

Section 11

11 Restrictions on bereavement claims

Entitlement must not already have been determined, or be awaiting determination, on a previous claim

- (1) A claim for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual is not effective if the claimant has previously made a claim for payment of family tax benefit because of the death of that individual (whether or not the claim has yet been determined).

Single payment/substitution claims must relate to current or previous income year

- (2) If a claim for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual is based on eligibility for an amount of family tax benefit under subsection 32(2) or section 33 of the Family Assistance Act, the claim is not effective if it is made after the end of the income year following the one in which the death mentioned in that provision occurred.

12 Claim may be withdrawn or varied

- (1) A claimant may withdraw or vary a claim before the claim is determined.
- (2) The claimant may only do so in a manner determined by the Secretary.
- (3) If a claim is withdrawn, it is taken never to have been made.

Subdivision B—Determination of claims etc.

13 Secretary must determine claim

- (1) If an effective claim is made, the Secretary must determine the claim in accordance with this Subdivision. If a claim is not effective, it is taken not to have been made.

14 Restriction on determining claim where income tax assessment not made

- (1) If, in relation to a claim for payment of family tax benefit made by an individual:
- (a) the claim is for payment of that benefit for a past period; and
  - (b) the past period falls in an income year (the past period income year) that is one of the 2 income years before the one in which the claim is made; and
  - (c) either or both of subsections (2) and (3) apply;
- the Secretary can only determine the claim if each assessment concerned has been made.
- (2) This subsection applies if:
- (a) the claimant is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
  - (b) at the time the claim is made, an assessment has not been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the tax payable on the claimant's taxable income for the past period income year.
- (3) This subsection applies if:
- (a) at the time the claim is made, a person is the claimant's partner and that person was the claimant's partner at any time during the past period; and
  - (b) that person is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
  - (c) at the time the claim is made, an assessment has not been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the tax payable on that person's taxable income for the past period income year.

14A Restriction on determining claim where income tax return not lodged

- (1) If, in relation to a claim for payment of family tax benefit made by an individual:

Section 14A

- (a) the claim is for payment of that benefit for a past period; and
  - (b) the past period falls in an income year (the past period income year) that is one of the 2 income years before the one in which the claim is made; and
  - (c) one or more of subsections (2) to (3A) apply;
- then the claim is taken never to have been made.
- (2) This subsection applies if:
- (a) the claimant is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
  - (b) the claimant has not lodged the return before the end of:
    - (i) the first income year after the past period income year; or
    - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the claimant from lodging the return before the end of that first income year.
- (3) This subsection applies if:
- (a) at the time the claim is made, a person is the claimant's partner, and that person was the claimant's partner at any time during the past period; and
  - (b) that person is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
  - (c) that person has not lodged the return before the end of:
    - (i) the first income year after the past period income year; or
    - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the person from lodging the income tax return before the end of that first income year.
- (3A) This subsection applies if:
- (a) the claimant, or any other individual whose adjusted taxable income is relevant in working out the claimant's entitlement to, or rate of, family tax benefit for the past period, is not

- required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year; and
- (b) the claimant does not notify the Secretary of the amount of the claimant's adjusted taxable income for the past period income year before the end of:
    - (i) the first income year after the past period income year; or
    - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the claimant from making that notification before the end of that first income year.
- (4) The further period referred to in subparagraph (2)(b)(ii), (3)(c)(ii) or (3A)(b)(ii) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the past period income year.

15 Restriction on determining claim where tax file number not provided etc.

Statement that TFN claim person or TFN substitution person does not know what his or her tax file number is etc.

- (1) If:
- (a) a TFN claim person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(4); or
  - (b) a TFN substitution person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8A(4);
- the Secretary can only determine the claim concerned if:
- (c) within 28 days after the claim is made, the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary the person's tax file number; or
  - (d) 28 days pass after the claim is made without the Commissioner of Taxation telling the Secretary that the person has no tax file number.

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

- (2) If:

- (a) a TFN claim person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(5); or
  - (b) a TFN substitution person makes a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8A(5);
- the Secretary can only determine the claim concerned if:
- (c) within 28 days after the claim is made, the Commissioner of Taxation tells the Secretary the person's tax file number; or
  - (d) 28 days pass after the claim is made without the Commissioner of Taxation telling the Secretary that:
    - (i) the person has not applied for a tax file number; or
    - (ii) an application by the person for a tax file number has been refused; or
    - (iii) the person has withdrawn an application for a tax file number.
- (3) If, after the 28 days mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) have passed, the Secretary cannot, because of that subsection, determine the claim, the claim is taken never to have been made.

15A Restriction on determining claim where bank account details not provided

- (1) If a person makes a statement of the kind set out in paragraph 7A(2)(b), the Secretary can only determine the claim concerned if, within 28 days after the claim is made, the person nominates, and provides details of, a bank account of a kind referred to in paragraph 7A(2)(a) into which instalments of family tax benefit are to be paid.
- (2) If, after the 28 days mentioned in subsection (1) have passed, the Secretary cannot, because of that subsection, determine the claim, the claim is taken never to have been made.

15B Deferral of determination of early claims

If:

- (a) an individual makes a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment in respect of a child before the child is an FTB child of the claimant; and
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time the determination would otherwise be made, the claimant would be likely to be eligible for family tax benefit in respect of the child if the child were to become an FTB child of the claimant;
- the Secretary must not determine the claim for family tax benefit until the earlier of the following:
- (c) the time when the child becomes an FTB child of the claimant, or is stillborn;
  - (d) 28 days after the day that, on the day the claim is made, is the expected day on which the child to whom the claim relates will become an FTB child of the claimant.

16 Determination of instalment entitlement claim

- (1) This section applies if the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit by instalment.
- (2) If the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant is, at the time the Secretary makes the determination on the claim, eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act, the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for each day on which the determination is in force at the daily rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible.

Additional entitlement in subsection (2) cases

- (4) If:
  - (a) the Secretary is satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2); and
  - (b) the Secretary is also satisfied that the claimant was eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act during the whole or part of the period since the claim was made; the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid that amount of family tax benefit.

Section 16

Instalments where bereavement eligibility—remaining FTB or regular care children

- (5) If the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time of making the determination on the claim:
- (a) the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with section 31 of the Family Assistance Act; and
  - (b) assuming subsection (4) of that section were disregarded, the claimant would be eligible for family tax benefit under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3 of that Act;

the Secretary must determine that:

- (c) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible:
  - (i) for each day on which the determination is in force that occurs during the period to which subsection 31(2) of that Act applies; and
  - (ii) for each day, before the determination came into force, that occurred during that period; and
- (d) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant would be eligible, on the assumption in paragraph (b) of this subsection, for each day while the determination is in force that occurs after the last day on which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit in accordance with paragraph (c) of this subsection.

Instalments where bereavement eligibility—no remaining FTB or regular care children

- (6) If the Secretary is satisfied that, at the time of making the determination on the claim:
- (a) the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit in accordance with section 31 of the Family Assistance Act; and

- (b) assuming subsection (4) of that section were disregarded, the claimant would not be eligible for family tax benefit under Subdivision A of Division 1 of Part 3 of that Act;
the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, at the rate at which the Secretary considers the claimant to be eligible:
- (c) for each day on which the determination is in force that occurs during the period to which subsection 31(2) of that Act applies; and
- (d) for each day, before the determination came into force, that occurred during that period.

17 Determination of past period entitlement claim

If:

- (a) the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit for a past period; and
- (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant was eligible for family tax benefit:
  - (i) for the whole of the period in accordance with Subdivision A or C of Division 1 of Part 3 of the Family Assistance Act; or
  - (ii) for part of the period in accordance with Subdivision A of that Division and for the remainder of the period in accordance with section 31 of that Act;

the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for the past period.

18 Determination of bereavement entitlement claim

If:

- (a) the claim is one for payment of family tax benefit by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual; and

- (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant is eligible for family tax benefit under section 32 or 33 of the Family Assistance Act;

the Secretary must determine that the claimant is entitled to be paid the family tax benefit.

19 Determination that no entitlement

If the Secretary is not satisfied as mentioned in section 16, 17 or 18, the Secretary must determine:

- (a) if the determination is on a claim for payment of family tax benefit by instalment—that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for each day on which the determination is in force; or
- (b) in any other case—that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for the past period or because of the death of the other individual, as the case requires.

20 Determination of rate may be based on estimate, indexed estimate or indexed actual income

(1) If:

- (a) an individual's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit is required to be determined for the purposes of this Division or Division 3; and
- (b) information about the amount of adjusted taxable income needed for the determination of the eligibility or rate is not available (for example, because the taxable income of the individual or another individual cannot be known until after the end of the relevant income year); and
- (c) the individual or, if the individual has died, another individual making a claim under this Division or Division 3 gives the Secretary an estimate of the amount needed; and
- (d) the Secretary considers the estimate to be reasonable; and
- (e) since the estimate was given, the Secretary has not given the individual a notice under subsection 20A(2) or 20B(2) with a start day that has arrived or passed;

the Secretary may determine the individual's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit on the basis of the estimate.

(2) If:

- (a) an estimate is given to the Secretary for the purposes of subsection (1); and
  - (b) the Secretary does not consider the estimate reasonable;
- the following paragraphs apply:
- (c) the eligibility or rate cannot be determined; and
  - (d) if the determination of the eligibility or rate is required for the purposes of this Division, section 19 applies.

(2A) If:

- (a) an individual's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit is required to be determined for the purposes of this Division or Division 3; and
- (b) information about the amount of adjusted taxable income needed for the determination of the eligibility or rate is not available (for example, because the taxable income of the individual or another individual cannot be known until after the end of the relevant income year); and
- (c) the Secretary has given the individual a notice under subsection 20A(2) or 20B(2) with a start day that has arrived or passed; and
- (d) since the notice was given, the individual has not given the Secretary an estimate of the individual's adjusted taxable income that the Secretary considers to be reasonable;

the Secretary may determine the individual's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit on the basis of the indexed estimate or indexed actual income stated in the notice (or, if the Secretary has given the individual more than one such notice—the notice with the most recent start day).

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of this provision for members of couples.

(3) If:

Section 20A

- (a) an individual's rate of family tax benefit is required to be calculated for the purpose of making a determination under this Division; and
- (b) information about the amount of maintenance income needed for the calculation of the rate is not available;

the Secretary may determine the individual's rate of family tax benefit on the basis of an estimate by the Secretary of the amount needed.

Note: If family tax benefit is worked out on the basis referred to in subsection (1), (2A) or (3), it is referred to in this Act as being worked out on an estimated income basis (see the definition of this term in subsection 3(1)).

20A Indexed estimates

- (1) The Secretary may calculate an indexed estimate for an individual under subsection (5), with a start day chosen by the Secretary, if:
  - (a) the individual is a claimant, or the partner of a claimant, for family tax benefit; and
  - (b) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (c) the determination includes a determination of the claimant's rate of family tax benefit worked out on the basis of a reasonable estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income, an indexed estimate for the claimant or an indexed actual income for the claimant.

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of paragraph (c) for members of couples.

- (2) If the Secretary calculates an indexed estimate for the individual, the Secretary may give the claimant a notice:
  - (a) stating the indexed estimate for the individual; and
  - (b) specifying the start day used in the Secretary's calculation (which must be at least 14 days after the day on which the notice is given).

- (3) The Secretary must not give a notice under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for the individual with a start day in an income year if the Secretary has already given a notice under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for that individual with a start day in the same income year.
- (4) A notice given to a claimant under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for an individual has no effect if, before the start day specified in the notice for the indexed estimate, the Secretary gives the claimant a notice under subsection 20B(2) stating an indexed actual income for the same individual. Any such notice under subsection 20B(2) must specify a start day that is no earlier than the start day specified in the superseded notice.
- (5) Calculate an indexed estimate (which may be nil) for the individual by multiplying the individual's current ATI number (see subsection (6)) by the indexation factor, rounding the result to the nearest dollar and rounding 50 cents upwards. The indexation factor is the greater of 1 and the factor worked out to 3 decimal places as follows (increasing the factor by 0.001 if it would, if worked out to 4 decimal places, end in a number greater than 4):

$$\frac{\text{AWE for the reference period in the most recent November}}{\text{AWE for the reference period in the highest previous November}}$$

where:

AWE means the amount published by the Australian Statistician in a document titled "Average Weekly Earnings" under the headings "Average Weekly Earnings, Australia—Original—Persons—All employees total earnings" (or, if any of those change, in a replacement document or under replacement headings).

highest previous November means the November in which, of all the Novembers from November 2004 to the November before the most recent November (inclusive), AWE was the highest.

most recent November means the November of the income year before the income year in which the start day occurs.

Section 20B

reference period, in a particular November, means the period described by the Australian Statistician as the last pay period ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of that November.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the individual's current ATI number is:
- (a) if, at the time of calculation, the Secretary has given the claimant a notice under subsection 20B(2) stating an indexed actual income for the individual with a start day that has not arrived—the indexed actual income stated in the notice; or
  - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant—the amount the Secretary is permitted to use for the individual under section 20 (disregarding the effect for couples of section 20C of this Act and clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act); or
  - (c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant's partner—the amount the Secretary would be permitted to use for the individual under section 20 if the individual were the claimant (disregarding the effect for couples of section 20C of this Act and clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act).
- (7) A notice under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

20B Indexed actual incomes

- (1) The Secretary may calculate an indexed actual income for an individual under subsection (4), with a start day chosen by the Secretary, if:
- (a) the individual is a claimant for, or the partner of a claimant for, family tax benefit; and
  - (b) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (c) the determination includes a determination of the claimant's rate of family tax benefit worked out on the basis of an

indexed estimate for the claimant or an indexed actual income for the claimant; and

- (d) since the claimant was last given a notice under subsection 20A(2) or subsection (2) of this section stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for an individual, the claimant has not given the Secretary an estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income that the Secretary considers to be reasonable; and
- (e) the adjusted taxable income for an income year (actual income) of the individual (disregarding the effect for couples of clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act) becomes known to the Secretary and it is the most recent income year for which the individual's actual income is known to the Secretary.

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of paragraph (1)(c) for members of couples.

(2) If:

- (a) the Secretary calculates an indexed actual income for the individual; and
- (b) the indexed actual income is greater than the individual's current ATI number (see subsection (5));

the Secretary may give the claimant a notice:

- (c) stating the indexed actual income for the individual; and
- (d) specifying the start day used in the Secretary's calculation (which must be at least 14 days after the day on which the notice is given).

- (3) A notice given to a claimant under subsection (2) stating an indexed actual income for an individual has no effect if, before the start day specified in the notice, the Secretary gives the claimant another notice under that subsection or a notice under subsection 20A(2) stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the same individual. Any other such notice must specify a start day that is no earlier than the start day specified in the superseded notice.

- (4) Calculate an indexed actual income (which may be nil) for the individual by multiplying the actual income of the individual which became known to the Secretary by the indexation factor, rounding the result to the nearest dollar and rounding 50 cents upwards. The indexation factor is the greater of 1 and the factor worked out to 3 decimal places as follows (increasing the factor by 0.001 if it would, if worked out to 4 decimal places, end in a number greater than 4):

$$\frac{\text{AWE for the reference period in the most recent November}}{\text{AWE for the reference period in the highest previous November}}$$

where:

AWE means the amount published by the Australian Statistician in a document titled “Average Weekly Earnings” under the headings “Average Weekly Earnings, Australia—Original—Persons—All employees total earnings” (or, if any of those change, in a replacement document or under replacement headings).

highest previous November means the November in which, of all the Novembers from November 2004 to the November before the most recent November (inclusive), AWE was the highest.

most recent November means the November of the income year before the income year in which the start day occurs.

reference period, in a particular November, means the period described by the Australian Statistician as the last pay period ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of that November.

- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), the individual’s current ATI number is:
- (a) if, at the time of calculation, the Secretary has given the claimant a notice under subsection 20A(2) or subsection (2) of this section stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual with a start day that has not arrived—the indexed estimate or indexed actual income stated in the notice; or

- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant—the amount the Secretary is permitted to use for the individual under section 20 (disregarding the effect for couples of section 20C of this Act and clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act); or
- (c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant's partner—the amount the Secretary would be permitted to use for the individual under section 20 if the individual were the claimant (disregarding the effect for couples of section 20C of this Act and clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act).

- (6) A notice under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

20C Indexed estimates and indexed actual incomes of members of couples

Section applies to couples

- (1) This section applies in relation to any individual who is a member of a couple.

Family tax benefit Part A

- (2) For the purposes of the Family Assistance Act other than Part 4 of Schedule 1, any reference in this Act to eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit being determined or worked out on the basis of an indexed estimate, or an indexed actual income, for an individual or stated in a notice, is affected by subsection (3).
- (3) The reference is taken to be a reference to eligibility for, or rate of,
family tax benefit being determined or worked out on the basis of the indexed estimate, or the indexed actual income, for that individual or stated in that notice, combined with:
  - (a) the most recent indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual's partner (see subsection (6)); or

Part 3 Payment of family assistance (other than child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy)

Division 1 Family tax benefit

- (b) if there is no such indexed estimate or indexed actual income—a reasonable estimate of the adjusted taxable income of the individual's partner (disregarding the effect of clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act) that has been given to the Secretary by the individual.

Family tax benefit Part B

- (4) For the purposes of Part 4 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act, any reference in this Act to eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit being determined or worked out on the basis of an indexed estimate, or an indexed actual income, for an individual or stated in a notice, is affected by subsection (5).
- (5) The reference is taken to be a reference to eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit being determined or worked out on the basis of the lower of these:
  - (a) the indexed estimate or indexed actual income for that individual or stated in that notice;
  - (b) the most recent indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual's partner (see subsection (6)) or, if there is no such indexed estimate or indexed actual income, a reasonable estimate of the adjusted taxable income of the individual's partner (disregarding the effect of clause 3 of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act) that has been given to the Secretary by the individual.

If the amounts in paragraphs (a) and (b) are equal, the reference is taken to be a reference to:

- (c) if the individual is the claimant for family tax benefit—the amount in paragraph (a); or
- (d) if the individual is the partner of the claimant for family tax benefit—the amount in paragraph (b).

Most recent indexed estimate or indexed actual income for individual's partner

- (6) In subsections (3) and (5), the most recent indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual's partner is the indexed

estimate or indexed actual income for the individual's partner stated in a notice given to:

- (a) if the individual is the claimant for family tax benefit—the individual; or
- (b) if the individual is the partner of the claimant for family tax benefit—the individual's partner;

under subsection 20A(2) or 20B(2) with a start day that has arrived or passed (or, if the Secretary has given more than one such notice—the notice with the most recent start day).

21 When determination is in force

- (1) Subject to this section, a determination under this Division comes into force when it is made and remains in force at all times afterwards.
- (1A) A determination under paragraph 19(a) may be expressed to come into force on a day before it is made (but not earlier than the day the claim concerned is made).

Effect of later determination on certain instalment determinations

- (2) If, on a particular day, a determination is in force:
  - (a) under section 16, where under the determination the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit on the particular day or any later day; or

  - (c) another determination is made on the particular day on a claim by the claimant for payment of family tax benefit by instalment; or
  - (d) another determination is made after the particular day on a claim by the claimant for payment of family tax benefit for a past period, where the particular day occurs within the past period.

- (3) A determination in force under section 16 on a particular day ceases to be in force if:
- (a) under the determination, the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit on the particular day or any later day; and
  - (b) on the particular day, the claimant is not receiving a social security pension, social security benefit, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment; and
  - (c) on the particular day, the claimant advises the Secretary, in the form and manner required by the Secretary, that the claimant wishes the determination:
    - (i) to cease to be in force from the particular day or from a specified later day; or
    - (ii) to have ceased to be in force at the end of the most recent instalment period before the particular day.
- The determination ceases to be in force in accordance with the advice.

22 Notice of determination

    - (i) if the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment—the daily rate of the benefit, the days on which the entitlement arises and how it is to be paid; or
    - (ii) in any other case—the amount of the benefit and how it is to be paid; and
  - (c) that the claimant may apply for review of the determination in the manner set out in Part 5.

Instalment amount and instalment period

- (2) In subsection (1):

instalment amount means the amount accruing for the days in the instalment period for which an entitlement to be paid family tax benefit arose under the determination.

instalment period means, subject to subsection (3):

- (a) the period of 14 days beginning on the day the Secretary considers appropriate in relation to the claimant, or class of claimants in which the claimant is included, and each successive period of 14 days; or

- (i) is included in a class of persons specified under subsection (3A); and
  - (ii) is the subject of a determination in force under subsection (3B);
- the period of 7 days beginning on the day the Secretary considers appropriate, and each successive period of 7 days.

Changing the day on which later instalment periods begin

- (3) The Secretary may change the day on which successive instalment periods are to begin in relation to a claimant or class of claimants. If the Secretary does so, the last instalment period before the first day on which the new instalment periods are to begin is shortened so that it ends immediately before that day.

- (3A) The Minister may by legislative instrument specify a class of persons any of whom the Secretary may determine to have 7-day instalment periods.
- (3B) The Secretary may determine that a claimant who is a member of a class of persons specified under subsection (3A) has instalment periods of 7 days.
- (3C) The Secretary must revoke a determination made under subsection (3B) if he or she is satisfied that the claimant is no longer a member of a class of persons specified under subsection (3A).

Secretary may make direction as to the manner of making payments

- (5) The Secretary may direct that the whole or a part of an amount which is to be paid for the purposes of this section is to be paid in a different way from that provided for by subsection (1). If the Secretary gives the direction, the amount is to be paid in accordance with the direction.

Early payment of FTB instalment in particular cases

- (5A) If the Secretary is satisfied that an instalment amount that would, apart from this subsection, be paid under this section on a particular day cannot reasonably be paid on that day, the Secretary may direct that the instalment amount be paid on an earlier day.
- (6) This section is subject to Subdivision CA of this Division, Part 4, Division 3 of Part 8B and sections 225 and 226.

  - (a) for a past period; or
  - (b) by single payment/in substitution because of the death of another individual;the Secretary must pay the amount to the claimant, at such time and in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate.
- (4) This section is subject to Subdivision CA of this Division, Part 4, Division 3 of Part 8B and sections 225 and 226.

- (2) This section is subject to Subdivision CA of this Division, Part 4, Division 3 of Part 8B and sections 225 and 226.

25 Obligation to notify change of circumstances

- (1) If, after a claimant becomes entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment:
  - (a) anything happens that causes the claimant to cease to be eligible for family tax benefit on the days for which the claimant will become entitled to be paid the benefit under the determination concerned, or to become eligible for a daily rate of family tax benefit that is less than that specified in the determination; or
  - (b) the claimant becomes aware that anything is likely to happen that will have that effect;

Section 25A

the claimant must, in the manner set out in a written notice given to the claimant under section 25A, as soon as practicable after the claimant becomes aware that the thing has happened or is likely to happen, notify the Secretary that it has happened or is likely to happen.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) Strict liability applies to the element of an offence against subsection (1) that a notice is a notice given under section 25A.
- (3) If, after the Secretary determines under subsection 23(3B) that a claimant has instalment periods of 7 days:
  - (a) anything happens that causes the claimant to cease to be a member of a class of persons specified under subsection 23(3A); or
  - (b) the claimant becomes aware that anything is likely to happen that will have that effect;

the claimant must, in the manner set out in a written notice given to the claimant under section 25A, as soon as practicable after the claimant becomes aware that the thing has happened or is likely to happen, notify the Secretary that it has happened or is likely to happen.

- (4) If a thing that is described in both subsections (1) and (3) happens or is likely to happen, subsection (1) applies in relation to the thing but subsection (3) does not.

Statement of tax file number

- (2) The first kind of statement that can be made is a statement of the TFN determination person's tax file number. Regardless of who the TFN determination person is, this kind of statement can be made by the claimant only.

Statement that TFN person does not know what his or her tax file number is etc.

- (3) The second kind of statement that can be made is a statement by the TFN determination person that the person:

If:

- (a) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
- (b) the claimant has not nominated a bank account into which instalments of family tax benefit are to be paid;

the Secretary may require the claimant to give the Secretary, within 28 days of the requirement being made, details of a bank account maintained by the claimant alone, or jointly or in common with someone else, into which instalments of family tax benefit are to be paid.

Subdivision C—Variation of determinations

27 Variation of instalment and past period determinations where failure to provide tax file number

Non-compliance with request

- (1) If:
  - (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
  - (b) the claimant does not comply with the request within 28 days of the request being made;then, subject to subsection (2), the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Section 27

Exemption from request under subsection 26(1)

- (2) The Secretary may determine that the consequence in subsection (5) does not apply if:
- (a) the TFN determination person concerned is or was the claimant's partner; and
  - (b) the claimant cannot obtain from the person:
    - (i) the person's tax file number; or
    - (ii) a statement by the person under subsection 26(3) or (4).

Statement made by TFN determination person under subsection 26(3)

- (3) If:
- (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
  - (b) by the end of 28 days after the request is made, the claimant gives the Secretary a statement by the TFN determination person of the kind set out in subsection 26(3); and
  - (c) the Commissioner of Taxation subsequently tells the Secretary that the TFN determination person has no tax file number;
- the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Statement made by TFN determination person under subsection 26(4)

- (4) If:
- (a) the Secretary makes a request under subsection 26(1); and
  - (b) by the end of 28 days after the request is made, the claimant gives the Secretary a statement by the TFN determination person of the kind set out in subsection 26(4); and
  - (c) the Commissioner of Taxation subsequently tells the Secretary that the TFN determination person has not applied for a tax file number, that an application by the person for a tax file number has been refused or that the person has withdrawn an application for a tax file number;
- the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Section 27

---

Statement made by TFN claim person under subsection 8(4)

(4A) If:

- (a) a TFN claim person has made a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(4); and
- (b) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment or for a past period; and
- (c) the Commissioner of Taxation subsequently tells the Secretary that the TFN claim person has no tax file number; the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Statement made by TFN claim person under subsection 8(5)

(4B) If:

- (a) a TFN claim person has made a statement of the kind set out in subsection 8(5); and
- (b) a determination is in force under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment or for a past period; and
- (c) the Commissioner of Taxation subsequently tells the Secretary that the TFN claim person has not applied for a tax file number, that an application by the person for a tax file number has been refused or that the person has withdrawn an application for a tax file number; the consequence in subsection (5) applies.

Variation of determination

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), (3), (4), (4A) or (4B), the consequence is that the Secretary may:
  - (a) if the determination is one under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment—vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place; or

---

- (b) if the determination is one under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for a past period—vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day in the past period.

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of tax file number

- (6) If:
  - (a) under subsection (5), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) the Secretary finds out the tax file number of the TFN determination person or TFN claim person, as the case requires:
    - (i) if paragraph (5)(a) applies—before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect; or
    - (ii) if paragraph (5)(b) applies—at any time after the variation took place;the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (5).

27A Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to provide bank account details

Non-compliance with requirement

- (1) If:
  - (a) the claimant is subject to a requirement under section 26A; and
  - (b) the claimant does not comply with the requirement within 28 days of the requirement being made;then, subject to subsection (2), the consequence in subsection (3) applies.

Section 28

Exemption from requirement under section 26A

- (2) The Secretary may determine that the consequence in subsection (3) does not apply if the Secretary considers that it is appropriate to exempt the claimant from the consequence.

Variation of determination

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the consequence is that the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of bank account details

- (4) If:
- (a) under subsection (3), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) the Secretary finds out the bank account details of the claimant concerned before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect;
- the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (3).

28 Variation of instalment and past period entitlement determinations where income tax return not lodged

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a determination under section 16 or 17 is in force at, or was in force before, a particular time; and
  - (b) there are one or more days (the cancellation days) before the particular time in respect of which the following conditions are satisfied:
    - (i) the cancellation days occur in the income year (the cancellation income year) that began 2 years before the beginning of the income year in which the particular time occurs;

- (ii) the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit under the determination for the cancellation days;
- (iii) the claimant, or the claimant's partner at the particular time (if he or she was also the claimant's partner at some time in the cancellation income year), or both, are required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year but have not done so by the particular time;
- (iv) by the particular time, an assessment has not been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the taxable income for the cancellation income year of everyone to whom subparagraph (iii) applies.

Consequence of section applying

- (2) If this section applies, the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not, and never was, entitled to family tax benefit for the cancellation days.

Consequence where income tax returns are later lodged

- (3) If:
  - (a) after the Secretary varies the determination under subsection (2) or (6), an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 for the cancellation income year for everyone (the taxpayers involved):
    - (i) who was required to lodge an income tax return as mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(iii); and
    - (ii) in respect of whom an assessment had not been made before the determination was varied; and
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant was eligible for an amount (the recalculated amount) of family tax benefit for the cancellation days; and

- (ba) subsection (4) (which is about when the claimant and the claimant's partner separate after the determination is varied) does not apply;

the Secretary must again vary the determination so that it has the effect that, for the cancellation days, the claimant is entitled to be paid:

- (c) if each of the taxpayers involved lodged an income tax return with the Commissioner of Taxation:
  - (i) before the end of the income year after the cancellation income year; or
  - (ii) within such further period as the taxpayer is allowed under Subdivision D of Division 1 of this Part;the recalculated amount; or
- (d) in any other case—the lesser of:
  - (i) the recalculated amount; and
  - (ii) the amount that the claimant was entitled to be paid before the variation under subsection (2) was made.

Consequence where claimant and partner separate after determination varied

- (4) After the Secretary varies the determination under subsection (2) or (6), the Secretary must again vary the determination if the following conditions are met:
  - (a) the claimant and the partner mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(iii) (the ex-partner) ceased to be members of the same couple during the further period that the Secretary has allowed, under Subdivision D of Division 1 of this Part, within which the ex-partner may lodge an income tax return;
  - (b) at the time when the Secretary would vary the determination under this subsection, the claimant and the ex-partner are not members of the same couple;
  - (c) if the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year:

- (i) the claimant has lodged an income tax return for the cancellation income year before the end of the first income year after the cancellation income year, or of the further period that the Secretary has allowed, under Subdivision D of Division 1 of this Part, within which the claimant may lodge an income tax return; and
    - (ii) an assessment is or has been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the claimant's taxable income for the cancellation income year;
  - (d) in any case—the ex-partner was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year but still had not done so by:
    - (i) if paragraph (c) applies—the later of the time when the claimant and the ex-partner last ceased to be members of the same couple and the time when the assessment of the claimant's taxable income is made; or
    - (ii) otherwise—the time when the claimant and the ex-partner last ceased to be members of the same couple;
  - (e) the Secretary is satisfied that the claimant was eligible for an amount (the recalculated amount) of family tax benefit for the cancellation days.
- (5) The Secretary must vary the determination under subsection (4) so that it has the effect that, for the cancellation days, the claimant is entitled to be paid the recalculated amount.

Consequence where claimant and ex-partner reconcile after separation

- (6) If:
- (a) after the Secretary varies the determination under subsection (4), the claimant and the ex-partner become members of the same couple again; and
  - (b) the ex-partner has still not lodged an income tax return for the cancellation income year by the time when the claimant and the ex-partner become members of the same couple;

Section 28AA

the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not, and never was, entitled to family tax benefit for the cancellation days.

28AA Effect of section 28 on newborn upfront payment of family tax benefit

(1) If:

(a) an individual is entitled to be paid an amount (the upfront amount) of family tax benefit under section 58AA of the Family Assistance Act because an amount of newborn supplement is added in relation to the individual under Division 1A of Part 5 of Schedule 1 to that Act for one or more days; and

(b) a variation under subsection 28(2) or (6) of this Act has the effect that the individual never was entitled to family tax benefit for those days;

then the individual is taken not to have been entitled to the upfront amount.

(2) If a variation under subsection 28(3) or (4) of this Act has the effect that the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for those days, then subsection (1) of this section ceases to apply to the individual.

(3) Subsection (2) does not prevent subsection (1) again applying to the individual.

28A Variation of instalment entitlement determination where estimate of an amount is not reasonable

(1) This section applies if:

(a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and

(b) the claimant gives the Secretary an estimate of the amount of adjusted taxable income needed by the Secretary to determine the claimant's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit; and

- (c) the Secretary does not consider the estimate to be reasonable.

Consequence of section applying

- (2) If this section applies, the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.

Consequence of later provision of reasonable estimate or Secretary finding out the actual amount

- (3) If:
- (a) under subsection (2), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) either:
    - (i) the claimant provides an estimate of the amount that the Secretary considers reasonable by the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect; or
    - (ii) the Secretary finds out the actual amount needed to determine the claimant's eligibility for, or rate of, family tax benefit (whether from the claimant or someone else) by the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect;

the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2).

28B Variation of instalment entitlement determination where claim made for another payment type

- (1) This section applies if:

Part 3 Payment of family assistance (other than child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy)

Division 1 Family tax benefit

- (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment in respect of an individual; and
- (b) the individual is any of the following:
  - (i) an FTB child of the claimant;
  - (ii) a regular care child who is also a rent assistance child of the claimant;
  - (iii) an individual in respect of whom an approved care organisation is the claimant; and
- (c) the individual makes a claim for one of the following:
  - (i) a social security pension;
  - (ii) a social security benefit;
  - (iii) payments under a program included in the programs known as Labour Market Programs;
  - (iv) if the individual is aged 16 or more—payments under a prescribed educational scheme, unless subsection (1A) applies to the individual.

(1A) This subsection applies to an individual if:

- (a) the claim is for payments under the ABSTUDY scheme; and
- (b) the individual is seeking the payments to be paid on the basis of the individual:
  - (i) undertaking full-time study at a secondary school (within the meaning of the Student Assistance Act 1973); and
  - (ii) being, in accordance with the ABSTUDY scheme, a student approved to live away from home; and
  - (iii) boarding away from home for the purposes of attending the school.

Note: For undertaking full-time study, see subsection 3(1) of the Family Assistance Act.

Consequence of section applying if the individual is the claimant's only FTB or regular care child or the claimant is an approved care organisation

(2) If:

- (a) this section applies because the individual is an individual in respect of whom the claimant is an approved care organisation; or
- (b) this section applies because the individual is the only individual who is either an FTB child, or a regular care child who is a rent assistance child, of the claimant;

the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place or from a later day determined by the Secretary.

Consequence of section applying if the individual is not the claimant's only FTB or regular care child

(3) If:

- (a) this section applies because the individual is an FTB child, or a regular care child who is also a rent assistance child, of the claimant; and
- (b) the individual is not the claimant's only FTB child, or regular care child who is also a rent assistance child;

the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has the effect that the daily rate of family tax benefit for which the claimant is entitled under the determination does not take into account the child who has made a claim for a payment listed in paragraph (1)(c). The determination takes effect from the day after the end of the claimant's last instalment period before the variation takes place or from a later day determined by the Secretary.

Consequence of later rejection etc. of individual's claim

(4) If:

Section 29

---

- (a) under subsection (2) or (3), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) the individual's claim for the payment is rejected, withdrawn or taken not to have been made;
- the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2) or (3), as the case may be.

29 Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to provide information

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) the Secretary, in order to make a decision about the eligibility, or daily rate of eligibility, of the claimant for family tax benefit on either or both of the following:
    - (i) the particular day or any later day;
    - (ii) any day or days in the past when the determination was in force;requires the claimant or the claimant's partner under Division 1 of Part 6 to give information or produce documents; and
- (c) the claimant or the claimant's partner refuses or fails to comply with the requirements.

Consequences of section applying

- (2) If this section applies, the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.
- (2A) Without limiting subsection (2), if the information or documents required relate to:
- (a) the claimant's eligibility for rent assistance; or

- (b) the amount of rent assistance to be added in calculating the claimant's rate of family tax benefit;
- the Secretary may vary the determination so as to establish a different rate of family tax benefit that does not have the amount of rent assistance added for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place or from a later day determined by the Secretary.
- (2B) Without limiting subsection (2), if the Secretary considers that the information or document is relevant to whether an individual is a senior secondary school child, the Secretary may vary the determination so as to disregard the individual for the purposes of working out whether the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit, and if so the rate at which it is to be paid:
- (a) for any day on which the determination was or will be in force after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place; or
  - (b) for any later day on which the determination was or will be in force specified by the Secretary in the variation.

Consequence of later provision of information or documents

- (3) If:
- (a) under subsection (2), (2A) or (2B), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) the claimant gives the information or produces the documents mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) by the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect;
- the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2), (2A) or (2B).

30 Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to notify change of address

- (1) This section applies if:

- (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
- (b) the Secretary has reason to believe that the claimant's address has changed since it was last known to the Secretary but the Secretary does not know the claimant's new address; and
- (c) the Secretary, after taking reasonable steps, is not able to find out whether the claimant's address has changed or, if it has, what the claimant's new address is.

Consequence of section applying

- (2) If this section applies, the Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day, on which the determination was or will be in force, after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of address etc.

- (3) If:
  - (a) under subsection (2), the Secretary varies the determination; and
  - (b) before the end of the income year following the one in which the variation took effect, the Secretary finds out:
    - (i) that the claimant's address has not changed; or
    - (ii) what the claimant's new address is;the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (2).

30A Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to notify claimant's departure from Australia

- (1) This section applies if:
    - (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and

---

- (b) the claimant leaves Australia without having notified the Secretary that the claimant proposed to leave or is leaving; and
  - (c) less than 6 weeks have passed since the claimant left Australia.
- (2) The Secretary may vary the determination so that it has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit for any day on which the determination was or will be in force after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place.
- (3) If the Secretary varies the determination under subsection (2), and later obtains information relating to the question whether the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for a day described in that subsection, the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in that subsection.

30B Variation of instalment entitlement determination where failure to notify FTB or regular care child's departure from Australia

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) an FTB child, or a regular care child who is also a rent assistance child, of the claimant leaves Australia without the claimant having notified the Secretary that the child will leave or is leaving; and
  - (c) less than 6 weeks have passed since the child left Australia.
- (2) The Secretary may vary the determination so that, for any day on which the determination was or will be in force after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place, the determination:
  - (a) has the effect that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit, if the conditions in paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) are met in relation to:

Section 31

---

- (i) each FTB child of the claimant; and
  - (ii) each regular care child who is also a rent assistance child of the claimant; or
- (b) has the effect that the daily rate of family tax benefit for which the claimant is entitled under the determination does not take into account the FTB child or regular care child, if the conditions in paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) are not met in relation to:
  - (i) each FTB child of the claimant; and
  - (ii) each regular care child who is also a rent assistance child of the claimant.
- (3) If the Secretary:
  - (a) varies the determination under subsection (2); and
  - (b) later obtains information relating to the question whether the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for the FTB child or regular care child for a day described in that subsection or the question what is the claimant's daily rate of family tax benefit for the day;the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in that subsection relating to the day.

31 Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect changes in eligibility

- (1) If:
  - (a) a determination is made under section 16 that a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) after the determination is made an event occurs; and
  - (c) when the Secretary becomes aware of the occurrence, the Secretary considers that, if he or she were making the determination immediately after the occurrence, he or she would conclude:
    - (i) that the claimant was no longer eligible for family tax benefit; or

- (ii) that the claimant was still so eligible but that the rate of family tax benefit should be a different rate to the rate previously determined;
- the Secretary must, subject to subsection (2):
- (d) if subparagraph (c)(i) applies—vary the determination so that the claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit with effect from the date of occurrence; and
  - (e) if subparagraph (c)(ii) applies—vary the determination so as to establish the different rate with effect from the date of occurrence.
- (1A) For the purpose of subsection (1), the occurrence of an event includes the expiration of a period of time if the expiration of that period is relevant to the operation of this Act.
- (1B) The reference in subsection (1) to the occurrence does not include the occurrence of any event:
- (a) that causes the claimant to provide a revised estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income to the Secretary; or
  - (b) that causes the Secretary to revise an estimate of the claimant's maintenance income;
- unless:
- (c) the event also affects the claimant's eligibility for family tax benefit, or the rate of family tax benefit payable to the claimant, for a reason other than the amount of the claimant's adjusted taxable income or maintenance income; or
  - (d) the event is the claimant's becoming, or ceasing to be, a member of a couple.
- (1C) If:
- (a) the Secretary under paragraph (1)(d) varies a determination in relation to an individual because of subsection 24(1) of the Family Assistance Act; and
  - (b) the child concerned comes to Australia within the period of 13 weeks beginning on the day after the end of:
    - (i) the 6-week period referred to in subsection 24(1) of the Family Assistance Act; or

- (ii) if that 6-week period has been extended under subsection 24(7) or (9) of the Family Assistance Act—that period as so extended; and
  - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the individual is eligible for family tax benefit on the day the child comes to Australia;
- then the Secretary must vary the determination so that the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit with effect from the date of the child coming to Australia.

Note: The individual does not have to make another claim for family tax benefit.

(1D) If:

- (a) the Secretary under paragraph (1)(d) varies a determination in relation to an individual because of subsection 24(4) of the Family Assistance Act; and
- (b) the individual returns to Australia within the period of 13 weeks beginning on the day after the end of:
  - (i) the 6-week period referred to in subsection 24(4) of the Family Assistance Act; or
  - (ii) if that 6-week period has been extended under subsection 24(7), (9) or (10) of the Family Assistance Act—that period as so extended; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the individual is eligible for family tax benefit on the day the individual returns to Australia;

then the Secretary must vary the determination so that the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit with effect from the date of the individual's return to Australia.

Note: The individual does not have to make another claim for family tax benefit.

(1E) Subsections (1C) and (1D) do not limit any later application of subsection (1) in relation to the determination.

Example: The Secretary under subsection (1D) varies the determination so that the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit.

The individual remains in Australia for 8 weeks, but then leaves Australia again for more than 6 weeks.

Because of subsection 24(4) of the Family Assistance Act, the Secretary may, under paragraph (1)(d) of this section, vary the determination again so that the individual is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit.

Beneficial variations only to have limited effect

(2) If:

- (a) the Secretary does not become aware of the occurrence of the event until after the end of the income year (the second income year) following the one in which the event occurred; and
- (b) the claimant did not notify the Secretary of the occurrence of the event before the end of the second income year; and
- (c) apart from this subsection, the Secretary would be required by subsection (1) to vary the determination so as to increase the claimant's entitlement to family tax benefit under the determination;

the Secretary must vary the determination so that it has that effect only from the beginning of the income year that precedes the one in which the Secretary becomes aware of the event.

Sections 27, 27A, 28, 28A, 28B, 30, 30A and 30B and subsection 29(2) variations prevail

(3) If:

- (a) when the variation under this section takes place, a variation of the determination is in force under section 27, 27A, 28, 28A, 28B, 30, 30A or 30B or subsection 29(2); and
- (b) the variation under that section or subsection has effect for any period when the variation under this section would have the effect that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit;

the variation under that section or subsection prevails over the variation under this section.

31A Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect revised adjusted taxable income estimates

(1) If:

- (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
- (b) the determination includes a determination of the claimant's rate of family tax benefit worked out on the basis of a reasonable estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income, an indexed estimate for the claimant or an indexed actual income for the claimant; and
- (c) the claimant provides the Secretary with a revised estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income for the current income year or the next income year that is not attributable to an event mentioned in paragraph 31(1B)(c) or (d); and
- (d) the Secretary considers the revised estimate to be reasonable; and
- (e) if the claimant's rate of family tax benefit were calculated using the revised estimate—a new rate of family tax benefit would be required;

the Secretary must vary the determination so that the claimant's rate of family tax benefit is determined on the basis of that revised estimate.

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of paragraph (1)(b) for couples.

(2) A variation of a determination under subsection (1) has effect:

- (a) if it results in an increase in the claimant's rate of family tax benefit:
  - (i) unless subparagraph (ii) applies—from the day on which the revised estimate was provided to the Secretary; or
  - (ii) if the first day of the income year to which the revised estimate relates occurs after the day identified in subparagraph (i)—from that first day; and

- (b) if it results in a decrease (including a decrease to nil) in the claimant's rate of family tax benefit:
  - (i) unless subparagraph (ii) or (iii) applies—from the day on which the revised estimate was provided to the Secretary; or
  - (ii) if the first day of the income year to which the revised estimate relates occurs after the day identified in subparagraph (i) and subparagraph (iii) does not apply—from that first day; or
  - (iii) if the day after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place occurs after the days identified in subparagraphs (i) and (ii)—from the day first-mentioned in this subparagraph.
- (3) If:
  - (a) when the variation under this section takes place, a variation of the determination is in force under section 27, 27A, 28, 28A, 28B, 30, 30A or 30B or subsection 29(2); and
  - (b) the variation under that section or subsection has effect for any period when the variation under this section would have the effect that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit;the variation under that section or subsection prevails over the variation under this section.

31B Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect revised maintenance income estimates

- (1) If:
  - (a) a determination is in force on a particular day under which a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) that determination includes a determination of the claimant's rate of family tax benefit worked out on the basis of an estimate of the claimant's maintenance income in a particular income year; and

- (c) the Secretary, at any time before or during that income year, makes a revised estimate of that amount that is attributable to the occurrence of an event other than an event to which paragraph 31(1B)(c) or (d) applies; and
  - (d) if the claimant's rate of family tax benefit were calculated using the revised estimate—a new rate of family tax benefit would be required;
- the Secretary must vary the determination so that the claimant's rate of family tax benefit is determined on the basis of that revised estimate.
- (2) A variation of a determination under subsection (1) has effect from a day determined by the Secretary, which must not be earlier than either of the following:
  - (a) the day after the end of the last instalment period before the variation takes place;
  - (b) the first day of the income year to which the revised estimate relates.
- (3) If:
  - (a) when the variation under this section takes place, a variation of the determination is in force under section 27, 27A, 28, 28A, 28B, 30, 30A or 30B or subsection 29(2); and
  - (b) the variation under that section or subsection has effect for any period when the variation under this section would have the effect that the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit;the variation under that section or subsection prevails over the variation under this section.

31C Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect indexation of estimate of adjusted taxable income

- (1) If:
  - (a) a determination is in force under which a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and

Section 31D

- (b) the Secretary gives the claimant a notice under subsection 20A(2); and
- (c) the claimant does not, before the start day specified in the notice, give the Secretary an estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income that the Secretary considers to be reasonable; and
- (d) if the claimant's rate of family tax benefit were calculated using the indexed estimate stated in the notice—a new rate of family tax benefit would be required;

the Secretary may vary the determination so that the claimant's rate of family tax benefit is determined on the basis of the indexed estimate stated in the notice.

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of this provision for members of couples.

- (2) The variation has effect:
  - (a) from the start day specified in the notice for the indexed estimate; or
  - (b) if the variation is made after that start day—from the later of the start day and the first day of the instalment period in which the variation is made.

31D Variation of instalment entitlement determination to reflect indexation of adjusted taxable income

- (1) If:
  - (a) a determination is in force under which a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) the Secretary gives the claimant a notice under subsection 20B(2); and
  - (c) the claimant does not, before the start day specified in the notice, give the Secretary an estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income that the Secretary considers to be reasonable; and

Section 31E

- (d) if the claimant's rate of family tax benefit were calculated using the indexed actual income stated in the notice—a new rate of family tax benefit would be required;

the Secretary may vary the determination so that the claimant's rate of family tax benefit is determined on the basis of the indexed actual income stated in the notice.

Note: Section 20C affects the meaning of this provision for members of couples.

- (2) The variation has effect:
  - (a) from the start day specified in the notice for the indexed actual income; or
  - (b) if the variation is made after that start day—from the later of the start day and the first day of the instalment period in which the variation is made.

31E Continuous adjustment of daily rate of family tax benefit

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a determination is in force in an income year under which a claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; and
  - (b) one of the following applies:
    - (i) a variation of the determination under subsection 31A(1) has effect on a day in the income year that is after 1 July;
    - (ii) a variation of the determination under subsection 31B(1) has effect on a day in the income year that is after 1 July;
    - (iii) a variation of the determination under subsection 31C(1) has effect on a day in the income year that is after 1 July;
    - (iv) a variation of the determination under subsection 31D(1) has effect on a day in the income year that is after 1 July;

- (v) on a day in the income year, the claimant provides the Secretary with a revised estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income for the income year that does not result in a variation of the determination under subsection 31A(1);
  - (vi) on a day in the income year that is after 1 July, the Secretary makes a revised estimate of the claimant's maintenance income that does not result in a variation of the determination under subsection 31B(1);
  - (vii) the determination ceases to be in force in the income year and another determination comes into force in that income year under which the claimant is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment or family tax benefit for a past period that falls wholly within that income year.
- (2) The Secretary must apply the following method statement to work out if there is a daily overpayment rate:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total amount of family tax benefit the claimant is or was entitled to be paid during the period beginning at the start of the income year and ending at the end of the day before the applicable day.
- Step 2. Work out the total amount of family tax benefit the claimant would have been entitled to be paid during that period if the claimant's rate of family tax benefit were calculated using:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(b)(i) applies—the revised estimate concerned; or
  - (b) if subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies—the revised estimate concerned; or

- (c) if subparagraph (1)(b)(iii) applies—the indexed estimate concerned; or
- (d) if subparagraph (1)(b)(iv) applies—the indexed actual income concerned; or
- (e) if subparagraph (1)(b)(v) applies—the revised estimate concerned; or
- (f) if subparagraph (1)(b)(vi) applies—the revised estimate concerned; or
- (g) if subparagraph (1)(b)(vii) applies—the estimate of the claimant’s adjusted taxable income for the income year, and the estimate of the claimant’s maintenance income in that income year, that were used in determining the claimant’s rate of family tax benefit under the other determination referred to in that subparagraph.

Step 3. Take the amount worked out at step 2 away from the amount worked out at step 1.

Step 4. If the amount worked out at step 3 is greater than zero, work out the number of days during the period beginning on the applicable day and ending at the end of the last day in the income year.

Step 5. Work out the daily overpayment rate by dividing the amount worked out at step 3 by the number of days worked out at step 4, and rounding the result of the division to the nearest cent (rounding 0.5 cents upwards).

- (3) If there is a daily overpayment rate, the Secretary must vary the applicable determination so that the claimant’s daily rate of family tax benefit for the period beginning on the applicable day and ending at the end of the last day in the income year is reduced (but not below nil) by that daily overpayment rate.

- (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3), the applicable determination is:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(b)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) or (vi) applies—the determination referred to in paragraph (1)(a); or
  - (b) if subparagraph (1)(b)(vii) applies—the other determination referred to in that subparagraph.
- (4) This section may have more than one application in relation to the claimant during the income year.
- (5) In this section:

applicable day means:

- (a) if subparagraph (1)(b)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) applies—the day on which the variation concerned has effect; and
- (b) if subparagraph (1)(b)(v) or (vi) applies—the first day of the instalment period in which the Secretary applies the method statement because of that subparagraph applying; and
- (c) if subparagraph (1)(b)(vii) applies—the first day in the income year for which the claimant's entitlement to be paid family tax benefit arose under the other determination referred to in that subparagraph.

32 Notice of variation of determination

- (1) The Secretary must give notice of any variation of a determination under this Subdivision to the claimant, stating the effect of the variation and that the claimant may apply for review of the decision involved in the manner set out in Part 5.
- (2) The variation is not ineffective by reason only that the requirements of subsection (1) are not complied with.

Subdivision CA—Non-payment of family tax benefit for non-lodgment of tax returns

32AA Non-payment of family tax benefit for non-lodgment of tax returns

- (1) If the Secretary varies a determination under subsection 28(2) in relation to a claimant, the Secretary must not make a payment of family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) to:
  - (a) the claimant during a prohibited period for the claimant (see section 32AB); and
  - (b) the claimant's partner (if any) (the relevant partner) mentioned in subparagraph 28(1)(b)(iii) during a prohibited period for that partner (see section 32AC).
- (2) This section is subject to section 32AE.

32AB Prohibited periods for claimant

First kind of prohibited period

- (1) There is a prohibited period for the claimant if:
  - (a) the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but the claimant has not done so by the end of the grace period; or
  - (b) the claimant and the relevant partner are members of the same couple at the end of the grace period, and that partner was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but has not done so by the end of the grace period.

Note: For relevant partner see section 32AA. For grace period see subsection (8).

- (1A) However, there is not a prohibited period for the claimant under subsection (1) because of a variation mentioned in section 32AA if:
  - (a) no debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation; or

- (b) a debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation, but no amount of that debt is outstanding at the end of the grace period.
- (2) The prohibited period referred to in subsection (1):
  - (a) begins on the day after the end of the grace period; and
  - (b) ends when subsection (3), (4), (4A) or (7) applies (whichever occurs first).
- (3) This subsection applies if:
  - (a) if the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned—the claimant lodges or has lodged the return; and
  - (b) if the relevant partner was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned—that partner lodges or has lodged the return.
- (4) This subsection applies if:
  - (a) the claimant and the relevant partner cease to be members of the same couple at any time after the end of the grace period; and

  - (b) an amount of that debt was outstanding at the end of the grace period; and
  - (c) at a time after the end of the grace period, no amount of that debt is outstanding.

Second kind of prohibited period

- (5) There is a prohibited period for the claimant if:

- (a) the claimant and the relevant partner cease to be members of the same couple on or after the day the variation mentioned in section 32AA is made; and
    - (b) the claimant and that partner become members of the same couple again on a day (the applicable day) that is after the end of the period applicable under paragraph (a) of the definition of grace period in subsection (8); and
    - (c) that partner was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but has not done so by the applicable day.
  - (5A) However, there is not a prohibited period for the claimant under subsection (5) because of a variation mentioned in section 32AA if:
    - (a) no debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation; or
    - (b) a debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation, but no amount of that debt is outstanding immediately before the day that would, apart from this subsection, be determined under paragraph (6)(a).
  - (6) The prohibited period referred to in subsection (5):
    - (a) begins on the day determined by the Secretary (which must not be earlier than the applicable day); and
    - (b) ends when:
      - (i) the relevant partner lodges an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned; or
      - (ii) the claimant and the relevant partner cease to be members of the same couple again; or
      - (iii) subsection (6A) or (7) applies;whichever occurs first.
  - (6A) This subsection applies if:
    - (a) a debt arose under section 71 as a result of the variation mentioned in section 32AA; and
    - (b) an amount of that debt was outstanding immediately before the day determined under paragraph (6)(a); and
    - (c) at a time on or after that day, no amount of that debt is outstanding.

Section 32AC

Prohibited period may end in special circumstances

- (7) This subsection applies if the Secretary, by writing, determines that the prohibited period concerned ends. The Secretary may make the determination only if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.

Grace period

- (8) In this section:

grace period means:

- (a) the period of 75 days, or such longer period as the Secretary determines under subsection (9), beginning on the day the variation mentioned in section 32AA is made; or
- (b) if subsection (7) has applied in relation to a previous prohibited period—the period of 14 days, or such longer period as the Secretary determines under subsection (9), beginning on the day the determination mentioned in subsection (7) is made.

Note: The effect of paragraph (b) of the definition is that there may be another prohibited period for the claimant under subsection (1).

- (9) The Secretary may, by writing, determine a period for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of grace period in subsection (8) if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.

Determinations are not legislative instruments

- (10) A determination made under paragraph (6)(a) or subsection (7) or (9) is not a legislative instrument.

32AC Prohibited periods for relevant partner

First kind of prohibited period

- (1) There is a prohibited period for the relevant partner if:

Note: For relevant partner see section 32AA. For grace period see subsection (10).

- (1A) However, there is not a prohibited period for the relevant partner under subsection (1) because of a variation mentioned in section 32AA if:
  - (a) no debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation; or
  - (b) a debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation, but no amount of that debt is outstanding at the end of the grace period.
- (2) The prohibited period referred to in subsection (1):
  - (a) begins on the day after the end of the grace period; and
  - (b) ends when subsection (3), (4), (4A) or (9) applies (whichever occurs first).
- (3) This subsection applies if:

  - (b) the claimant and that partner become members of the same couple again on a day (the applicable day) that is after the end of the period applicable under paragraph (a) of the definition of grace period in subsection (10); and
  - (c) either or both of the following apply:
    - (i) the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but has not done so by the applicable day;
    - (ii) that partner was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but has not done so by the applicable day.
- (5A) However, there is not a prohibited period for the relevant partner under subsection (5) because of a variation mentioned in section 32AA if:
  - (a) no debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation; or
  - (b) a debt arose under section 71 as a result of that variation, but no amount of that debt is outstanding immediately before the day that would, apart from this subsection, be determined under paragraph (6)(a).
- (6) The prohibited period referred to in subsection (5):
  - (a) begins on the day determined by the Secretary (which must not be earlier than the applicable day); and

Section 32AC

  - (c) at a time on or after that day, no amount of that debt is outstanding.

Prohibited period may end in special circumstances

- (9) This subsection applies if the Secretary, by writing, determines that the prohibited period concerned ends. The Secretary may make the determination only if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.

Grace period

- (10) In this section:
  - grace period means:
    - (a) the period of 75 days, or such longer period as the Secretary determines under subsection (11), beginning on the day the variation mentioned in section 32AA is made; or

- (b) if subsection (9) has applied in relation to a previous prohibited period—the period of 14 days, or such longer period as the Secretary determines under subsection (11), beginning on the day the determination mentioned in subsection (9) is made.

Note: The effect of paragraph (b) of the definition is that there may be another prohibited period for the relevant partner under subsection (1).

- (11) The Secretary may, by writing, determine a period for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of grace period in subsection (10) if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.

Determinations are not legislative instruments

- (12) A determination made under paragraph (6)(a) or subsection (9) or (11) is not a legislative instrument.

32AD Prohibited periods for new partner

If:

- (a) on or after the day the variation mentioned in section 32AA is made, the claimant becomes a member of a couple and the claimant's partner (the new partner) is not the relevant partner; and
- (b) the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for the cancellation income year concerned but has not done so when the claimant becomes a member of that couple;

then, during a prohibited period for the claimant and while the claimant and the new partner are members of the same couple, the Secretary must not make a payment of family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) to the new partner.

Note: For relevant partner see section 32AA.

Section 32AE

32AE Non-entitlement to payment of family tax benefit after 3 or more variations under subsection 28(2)

- (1) This section applies if 3 or more variations under subsection 28(2) have been made in relation to a claimant.

Claimant

- (2) The claimant is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) for a period if, throughout that period, both subsections (3) and (4) of this section apply in relation to one or more of the cancellation income years concerned.

Note 1: For cancellation income year see subsection 28(1).

Note 2: Subsection (8) creates an exception to subsection (2).

- (3) This subsection applies in relation to a cancellation income year if either or both of the following apply:
- (a) if the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for that year—the claimant has not lodged that return;
  - (b) if the claimant is a member of a couple and the claimant's partner is a relevant partner in relation to that year and that partner was required to lodge an income tax return for that year—that partner has not lodged that return.

Note: For relevant partner see section 32AA.

- (4) This subsection applies in relation to a cancellation income year if a debt arose under section 71 as a result of the variation concerned and an amount of that debt is outstanding.

Partner

- (5) If the claimant is a member of a couple, the claimant's partner is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) for a period if, throughout that period, both subsections (6) and (7) of this section apply in relation to one or more of the cancellation income years concerned.

Note 1: For cancellation income year see subsection 28(1).

Section 32AEA

Note 2: Subsection (9) creates an exception to subsection (5).

- (6) This subsection applies in relation to a cancellation income year if either or both of the following apply:
- (a) if the claimant was required to lodge an income tax return for that year—the claimant has not lodged that return;
  - (b) if the claimant's partner is a relevant partner in relation to that year and that partner was required to lodge an income tax return for that year—that partner has not lodged that return.

Note: For relevant partner see section 32AA.

- (7) This subsection applies in relation to a cancellation income year if a debt arose under section 71 as a result of the variation concerned and an amount of that debt is outstanding.

Exceptions

- (8) The Secretary may, by writing, determine that subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a specified person and to a specified period if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.
- (9) The Secretary may, by writing, determine that subsection (5) does not apply in relation to a specified person and to a specified period if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that justify the Secretary doing so.
- (10) A period specified in a determination under subsection (8) or (9) may be a period beginning before, on or after the day the determination is made.
- (11) A determination made under subsection (8) or (9) is not a legislative instrument.

32AEA Effect of this Subdivision on newborn upfront payment of family tax benefit

If this Subdivision has the effect that:

Section 32AF

- (a) the Secretary must not make a payment of family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) to an individual during a period; or
  - (b) an individual is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) for a period;
- then the individual is not entitled to be paid an amount of family tax benefit under section 58AA of the Family Assistance Act during that period.

Subdivision CB—Non-entitlement to FTB on estimated income basis

32AF Non-entitlement to FTB on estimated income basis—review of income during 2 consecutive income years

Scope of Subdivision

- (1) This Subdivision applies in relation to an individual if:
  - (a) there are 2 consecutive income years (each of which is a consecutive year) in which there are one or more days for which the individual was entitled to be paid family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis; and
  - (b) in respect of each consecutive year, the Secretary, under section 105, reviews the rate of family benefit the individual was entitled to be paid for those days on the basis of the individual's adjusted taxable income as finally determined in respect of the consecutive year by the Secretary; and
  - (c) as a result of the review and in respect of each consecutive year, the Secretary determines either or both of the following:
    - (i) the individual's Part A rate of family tax benefit is nil for those days because of the individual's adjusted taxable income, and there are no other days in either consecutive year for which the individual was entitled to be paid the Part A rate;

- (ii) the individual's Part B rate of family tax benefit is nil for those days because of subclause 28B(1) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act.

Note: Family tax benefit may be worked out on an estimated income basis under subsection 20(1), (2A) or (3) (see definition of estimated income basis in subsection 3(1)).

Basic non-entitlement rule

- (2) Subject to this Subdivision:
- (a) if subparagraph (1)(c)(i) applies—the individual is not entitled, on and after the exclusion day, to be paid the Part A rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis; and
  - (b) if subparagraph (1)(c)(ii) applies—the individual is not entitled, on and after the exclusion day, to be paid the Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.
- (3) For the purposes of this Subdivision, the exclusion day, in relation to an individual, is:
- (a) either:
    - (i) if the later of the consecutive years is 2010-11—1 July 2012; or
    - (ii) in any other case—1 July of the first income year after the later of the consecutive years; or
  - (b) if the Secretary determines a later day in relation to the individual—the later day.
- (4) A determination under paragraph (3)(b) is not a legislative instrument.

Position of individual's partner

- (5) While paragraph (2)(a) applies in relation to the individual, the individual's partner (if any) is not entitled to be paid the Part A rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Section 32AG

- (6) While paragraph (2)(b) applies in relation to the individual, the individual's partner (if any) is not entitled to be paid the Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Multiple applications of section

- (7) Sections 32AG to 32AM do not prevent this section applying again in relation to the individual in respect of 2 consecutive income years, either or both of which are different from the 2 consecutive income years the subject of the previous application of this section.

32AG Exception—greater than nil rate of FTB for later income year

Scope

- (1) This section applies if, in respect of an income year (the payment year) after the later of the consecutive years, the Secretary, taking into account the individual's adjusted taxable income as finally determined in respect of the payment year by the Secretary, determines either or both of the following on a day (the payment day):
- (a) the individual's Part A rate of family tax benefit is greater than nil on one or more days in the payment year;
  - (b) the individual's Part B rate of family tax benefit is greater than nil on one or more days in the payment year.

Payment day is in same income year as exclusion day

- (2) If the payment day is in the income year in which the exclusion day occurs, then:
- (a) if this section applies in relation to the Part A rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(a) is taken not to have applied in relation to the individual; and
  - (b) if this section applies in relation to the Part B rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(b) is taken not to have applied in relation to the individual.

Example: Assume that under section 32AF the consecutive years are 2009-10 and 2010-11. Assume that the individual is not entitled, on and after

1 July 2012, to be paid the Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis. The exclusion day is 1 July 2012.

Assume that on 1 November 2012 the Secretary determines, under subsection (1), that the individual's Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit are greater than nil on one or more days in 2011-12. The payment day is 1 November 2012.

Under subsection (2), subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to have prevented the individual from being entitled, on and after 1 July 2012, to be paid family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Payment day is in income year later than that of exclusion day

- (3) If the payment day is in an income year that is later than the income year in which the exclusion day occurs, then:
- (a) if this section applies in relation to the Part A rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(a) ceases to apply in relation to the individual on 1 July of the later income year; and
  - (b) if this section applies in relation to the Part B rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(b) ceases to apply in relation to the individual on 1 July of the later income year.

Example: Assume that under section 32AF the consecutive years are 2009-10 and 2010-11. Assume that the individual is not entitled, on and after 1 July 2012, to be paid the Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis. The exclusion day is 1 July 2012.

Assume that on 1 November 2013 the Secretary determines, under subsection (1), that the individual's Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit are greater than nil on one or more days in 2011-12. The payment day is 1 November 2013.

Under subsection (3), subsection 32AF(2) ceases to prevent the individual from being entitled, on and after 1 July 2013, to be paid family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

Section 32AH

32AH Exception—resumption of eligibility for FTB

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the individual is not eligible for family tax benefit for the whole of an income year (the applicable year) that is after the later of the consecutive years (other than because of the individual's income or the individual's partner's income); and
  - (b) after the applicable year, the individual makes a claim for family tax benefit in relation to the income year (the current year) in which the claim is made; and
  - (c) the Secretary has finally determined the individual's adjusted taxable income in respect of the applicable year; and
  - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that, if the Secretary were to take into account that adjusted taxable income, either or both of the following would apply in respect of one or more days in the current year:
    - (i) the individual's Part A rate of family tax benefit would be greater than nil;
    - (ii) the individual's Part B rate of family tax benefit would be greater than nil, or would be nil (other than because of subclause 28B(1) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act).

Exclusion day is in current year

- (2) If the exclusion day is in the current year, then:
- (a) if this section applies in relation to the Part A rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(a) is taken not to have applied in relation to the individual; and
  - (b) if this section applies in relation to the Part B rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(b) is taken not to have applied in relation to the individual.

Example: Assume that under section 32AF the consecutive years are 2009-10 and 2010-11. Assume that the individual is not entitled, on and after

1 July 2012, to be paid the Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis. The exclusion day is 1 July 2012.

Assume that the individual is not eligible for family tax benefit for the whole of 2011-12 (the applicable year). Assume that in 2012-13 (the current year) the individual makes a claim for family tax benefit for 2012-13.

Assume that the Secretary is satisfied that, if the Secretary were to take into account the individual's final adjusted taxable income for 2011-12, the individual's Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit would be greater than nil on one or more days in 2012-13.

Under subsection (2), subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to have prevented the individual from being entitled, on and after 1 July 2012, to be paid family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Current year is later than that of exclusion day

- (3) If the current year is later than the income year in which the exclusion day occurs, then:
- (a) if this section applies in relation to the Part A rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(a) ceases to apply in relation to the individual on 1 July of the current year; and
  - (b) if this section applies in relation to the Part B rate of family tax benefit—paragraph 32AF(2)(b) ceases to apply in relation to the individual on 1 July of the current year.

Example: Assume that under section 32AF the consecutive years are 2010-11 and 2011-12. Assume that the individual is not entitled, on and after 1 July 2012, to be paid the Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis. The exclusion day is 1 July 2012.

Assume that the individual is not eligible for family tax benefit for the whole of 2012-13 (the applicable year). Assume that in 2013-14 (the current year) the individual makes a claim for family tax benefit for 2013-14.

Assume that the Secretary is satisfied that, if the Secretary were to take into account the individual's final adjusted taxable income for 2012-13, the individual's Part A rate and Part B rate of family tax benefit would be greater than nil on one or more days in 2013-14.

Part 3 Payment of family assistance (other than child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy)

Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 32AI

Under subsection (3), subsection 32AF(2) ceases to prevent the individual from being entitled, on and after 1 July 2013, to be paid family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

32AI Exception—income support payments

Scope

- (1) This section applies if, on a day (the income support day) after the later of the consecutive years, the individual, or the individual's partner (if any), is receiving support (income support), in the form of a social security pension, a social security benefit, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.

Trigger day is on or before exclusion day

- (2) If the trigger day is on or before the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to apply to the individual.

Trigger day is after exclusion day

- (3) If the trigger day is after the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) ceases to apply to the individual on and from the trigger day.

Trigger day for income support payments

- (4) In this section:

trigger day means the later of:

- (a) the earliest income support day; and
- (b) 1 July of the income year the Secretary becomes aware that the individual, or the individual's partner, is receiving the income support.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

32AJ Exception—new FTB child

Scope

- (1) This section applies if, on a day (the FTB child day) after the later of the consecutive years:
  - (a) the individual has an FTB child; and
  - (b) the child was not an FTB child of the individual at any time during the consecutive years.

Trigger day is on or before exclusion day

- (2) If the trigger day is on or before the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to apply to the individual.

Trigger day is after exclusion day

- (3) If the trigger day is after the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) ceases to apply to the individual on and from the trigger day.

Trigger day for new FTB child

- (4) In this section:

trigger day means the later of:

- (a) the earliest FTB child day; and
- (b) 1 July of the income year the Secretary becomes aware of the existence of the FTB child.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

32AK Exception—couple separates

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) at the end of the later of the consecutive years, the individual is a member of a couple; and

Part 3 Payment of family assistance (other than child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy)

Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 32AK

- (b) on any later day (a separation day) the individual ceases to be a member of that couple.

Note: Paragraph (b) may apply more than once, for example if the couple separates, then reconciles, then again separates.

Trigger day is on or before exclusion day

- (2) If the trigger day is on or before the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to apply to the individual.

Trigger day is after exclusion day

- (3) If the trigger day is after the exclusion day, subsection 32AF(2) ceases to apply to the individual on and from the trigger day.

Reconciliation of separated couple

- (4) However, if on any day (the reconciliation day) after a separation day, the individual again becomes a member of that couple, then subsection 32AF(2) applies in relation to the individual as if the reconciliation day were the exclusion day.

Note: This subsection may apply more than once, for example if the couple separates, then reconciles, then again separates and reconciles.

Trigger day for separation

- (5) In this section:

trigger day, in relation to a particular separation day, means the later of:

- (a) the separation day; and
- (b) 1 July of the income year the Secretary becomes aware that the individual has (on that separation day) ceased to be a member of that couple.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

32AL Exception—special circumstances

Scope

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) on a day (the special circumstances day) after the later of the consecutive years, special circumstances exist in relation to the individual, the individual's partner (if any) or both; and
  - (b) those circumstances did not exist at the end of the later of the consecutive years; and
  - (c) those circumstances make it inappropriate to prevent the individual from being entitled to be paid the Part A rate and the Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.

Trigger day is on or before exclusion day

- (2) If the trigger day is on or before the exclusion day, the Secretary must determine that subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to apply to the individual.

Trigger day is after exclusion day

- (3) If the trigger day is after the exclusion day, the Secretary must determine that subsection 32AF(2) ceases to apply to the individual on and from the trigger day.

Secretary's determinations—general

- (4) A determination under subsection (2) or (3):
- (a) has effect in accordance with its terms; and
  - (b) is not a legislative instrument.

Trigger day for special circumstances

- (5) In this section:

trigger day means the later of:

- (a) the special circumstances day; and

Part 3 Payment of family assistance (other than child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy)

Division 1 Family tax benefit

Section 32AM

- (b) 1 July of the income year the Secretary becomes aware of the existence of the special circumstances.

Note: For the meaning of consecutive year, see subsection 32AF(1). For the meaning of exclusion day, see subsection 32AF(3).

32AM Exception—determined circumstances

Scope

- (1) This section applies if the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) on a day (the determined circumstances day) after the later of the consecutive years, circumstances determined in an instrument under subsection (2) exist in relation to the individual, the individual's partner (if any) or both; and
  - (b) the determined circumstances make it inappropriate to prevent the individual from being entitled to be paid the Part A rate and the Part B rate of family tax benefit worked out on an estimated income basis.
- (2) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine circumstances for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a).

Trigger day is on or before exclusion day

- (3) If the trigger day is on or before the exclusion day, the Secretary must determine that subsection 32AF(2) is taken not to apply to the individual.

Trigger day is after exclusion day

- (4) If the trigger day is after the exclusion day, the Secretary must determine that subsection 32AF(2) ceases to apply to the individual on and from the trigger day.

Secretary's determinations—general

- (5) A determination under subsection (3) or (4):
- (a) has effect in accordance with its terms; and

(b) is not a legislative instrument.

Trigger day for determined circumstances

(6) In this section:

trigger day means the later of:

- (a) the determined circumstances day; and
- (b) 1 July of the income year the Secretary becomes aware of the existence of the determined circumstances.

Subdivision D—FTB reconciliation conditions

32A FTB Part A supplement and FTB Part B supplement to be disregarded unless and until individual has satisfied the FTB reconciliation conditions

- (1) This section applies to a decision of the Secretary to make or vary a section 16 or 17 determination if, as a result of the decision, an individual (the first individual) is entitled to be paid family tax benefit at a particular rate in respect of a period (the same-rate benefit period) that consists of, or is included in, a particular income year (the relevant income year).
- (2) In making or varying the determination, the Secretary must disregard the following provisions:
  - (a) paragraph (ca) of step 1 of the method statement in clause 3 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;
  - (b) paragraph (d) of step 1 of the method statement in clause 25 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;
  - (ba) paragraph 29(1)(b) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;
  - (bb) paragraph (b) of step 1 of the method statement in subclause 29(2) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;

---

- (bba) paragraph 29A(2)(b) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;
- (bc) subclause 31A(1) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;
- (c) subclause 38A(1) of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act;

unless and until:

- (d) if the same-rate benefit period to which the decision relates is the only same-rate benefit period for the first individual for the relevant income year—the first individual has satisfied the FTB reconciliation conditions for the same-rate benefit period; or
- (e) if the same-rate benefit period to which the decision relates is one of 2 or more same-rate benefit periods for the first individual for the relevant income year—the first individual has satisfied the FTB reconciliation conditions for each of those same-rate benefit periods.

Note 1: If those provisions are disregarded, they will be taken into account when the determination or variation is reviewed under section 105—see section 105A.

Note 2: To work out when the first individual has satisfied the FTB reconciliation conditions, see section 32B.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply for the purposes of working out the amount of a clean energy advance.

32B When FTB reconciliation conditions are satisfied

For the purposes of this Act, the first individual satisfies the FTB reconciliation conditions for a same-rate benefit period:

- (a) if only one of sections 32C to 32Q applies to the first individual for the same-rate benefit period—at the relevant reconciliation time; or
- (b) if 2 or more of sections 32C to 32Q apply to the first individual for the same-rate benefit period—at whichever of the relevant reconciliation times is the latest.

32C Relevant reconciliation time—first individual must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
  - (a) the first individual is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
  - (b) clause 38L of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act did not apply to the first individual at any time during the same-rate benefit period.
- (2) Disregard paragraph (1)(b) if the first individual was a member of a couple at any time during the same-rate benefit period.
- (3) The relevant reconciliation time is the time when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the first individual's taxable income for the relevant income year, so long as the first individual's income tax return for the relevant income year was lodged before the end of:
  - (a) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
  - (b) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the first individual from lodging the return before the end of that first income year.
- (4) The further period under paragraph (3)(b) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

32D Relevant reconciliation time—no separation of couple and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
  - (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and
  - (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and

- (c) the first individual continues to be a member of the couple until the end of:
  - (i) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
  - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the partner from lodging the return before the end of that first income year.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is the time when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year, so long as the partner's income tax return for the relevant income year was lodged before the end of:
  - (a) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
  - (b) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows under subparagraph (1)(c)(ii).
- (3) The further period under subparagraph (1)(c)(ii) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

32E Relevant reconciliation time—couple separates during next income year and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
  - (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and
  - (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
  - (c) the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple during the first income year after the relevant income year.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is:
  - (a) if the partner lodged the return before the end of the first income year after the relevant income year—when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year; or

Section 32F

- (b) otherwise—the end of the first income year after the relevant income year.

32F Relevant reconciliation time—couple separates after end of next income year and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
- (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and
  - (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
  - (c) the partner did not lodge the return before the end of the first income year after the relevant income year; and
  - (d) the Secretary allowed a further period for the partner to lodge the return because the Secretary was satisfied that there were special circumstances that prevented the partner from lodging the return before the end of that first income year; and
  - (e) the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple during the period beginning at the start of the second income year after the relevant income year and ending at the end of that further period allowed by the Secretary.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is:
- (a) if the partner lodged the return while the first individual and the partner were members of the same couple—when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year; or
  - (b) otherwise—when the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple.

- (1) Subject to this section, if an individual is not required to make a claim for single income family supplement in relation to a period (the past period) in an income year (the past period income year), the Secretary must pay any amount of single income family supplement the individual is eligible for in relation to that past period:
    - (a) on the day that the Secretary considers to be the earliest day on which it is reasonably practicable for the amount to be paid; and
    - (b) in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate.
- Note: Subsection 65K(2) sets out when a claim for single income family supplement is not required.
- (2) If either or both of the following apply:
    - (a) the individual is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year;
    - (b) the following apply:
      - (i) a person is the individual's partner at any time during the past period;

Section 65KP

- (ii) that person is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year;

then the amount of single income family supplement cannot be paid to the individual unless, in relation to each person who is required to lodge an income tax return for that income year, an assessment has been made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the tax payable on that person's taxable income for that income year.

- (3) If either or both of the following apply:

- (a) the individual is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year, but the individual has not lodged the return before the end of:

- (i) the first income year after the past period income year;
  - or

- (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the individual from lodging the return before the end of that first income year;

- (b) the following apply:

- (i) a person is the individual's partner at any time during the past period;
  - (ii) that person is required to lodge an income tax return for the past period income year;
  - (iii) that person has not lodged the return before the end of the first income year after the past period income year, or of such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the person from lodging the income tax return before the end of that first income year; then the amount of single income family supplement is not to be paid to the individual.

Section 65KQ

- (3A) The further period referred to in subparagraph (3)(a)(ii) or (3)(b)(iii) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the past period income year.
- (4) This section is subject to Part 4, Division 3 of Part 8B and sections 225 and 226.

- the Secretary must pay the amount to the individual at such time and in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate.
- (2) This section is subject to Part 4, Division 3 of Part 8B and sections 225 and 226.

65KR Secretary's power to request tax file numbers

the consequence in subsection (7) applies.

Statement made by TFN claim person under subsection 65KB(4)

- (5) If:

Consequence of Secretary later becoming aware of tax file number

- (8) If:
- (a) under subsection (7), the Secretary varies the determination;
and

- the Secretary must vary the determination to undo the effect mentioned in subsection (7).

65KT Notice of variation of determination

- (1) The Secretary must give notice of any variation of a determination under this Subdivision to the claimant, stating the effect of the variation and that the claimant may apply for review of the decision involved in the manner set out in Part 5.

Part 3A—Payment of child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy

Division 1—Introduction

67AA Simplified outline of this Part

Individuals must make a claim for CCS in order to become entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS in relation to child care provided to a child.

In order to become entitled to be paid ACCS (grandparent) or ACCS (transition to work), an application is needed as well as the claim for CCS.

The Secretary will determine whether an individual is eligible for CCS for a child. If the individual is eligible, weekly determinations are then made about how much (if any) CCS or ACCS is to be paid each week.

Weekly payments are mostly made via the child care service provider, who will pass them on to the individual (usually as a fee reduction).

Broadly, recipients of CCS and ACCS have responsibilities to keep the Secretary informed about changes in their circumstances that might affect their eligibility for or entitlement to CCS or ACCS, and to respond to requests for information.

An approved provider who is eligible for ACCS (child wellbeing) for a child does not need to make a claim, but does need to make a declaration in order to become entitled to be paid the ACCS. Providers also have responsibilities to keep the Secretary informed and respond to requests for information.

It is also possible for individuals to claim CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died. If an individual is entitled to be paid such an amount, it is paid directly to the individual.

Note: For the constitutional basis of the provisions of this Act in relation to child care subsidy and additional child care subsidy (including provisions in relation to approved providers), see section 85AB of the Family Assistance Act.

67AB Forms of CCS and ACCS

- (1) An individual may, in accordance with this Part, become entitled to be paid:
  - (a) CCS by fee reduction;
  - (b) ACCS by fee reduction;
  - (c) CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died.
- (2) An approved provider may, in accordance with this Part, become entitled to be paid ACCS (child wellbeing).

Section 67BA

Division 2—Making claims

67BA Simplified outline of this Division

Claims for CCS must include particular information and be made in a particular way. Among other things, information is needed about bank account details and tax file numbers.

A claim that does not meet the requirements is taken not to have been made.

67BB Need for a claim

The only way that an individual (other than an approved provider) can become entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS is to make a claim in respect of a child for CCS in accordance with this Division.

Note 1: As well as making a claim for CCS, an individual who wants to be paid ACCS (grandparent) or ACCS (transition to work) must apply for that kind of ACCS. See paragraphs 67CD(4)(a) and (6)(a).

Note 2: An approved provider does not have to make a claim to be entitled to be paid ACCS (child wellbeing), but does need to make a declaration. See paragraph 67CH(1)(c).

67BC Who can claim

The only persons who can make a claim for CCS in accordance with this Division are individuals.

67BD Kinds of claims

An individual may make a claim in respect of a child for CCS:

- (a) by fee reduction; or
- (b) in substitution for an individual who has died.

67BE When a claim is effective

- (1) A claim made by an individual in respect of a child for CCS is effective if:
  - (a) the claim is made in a form and manner approved by the Secretary; and
  - (b) the claim contains the information, and is accompanied by the documents, required by the Secretary; and
  - (c) the claim contains details of a bank account, maintained by the individual alone or jointly with someone else, into which amounts of CCS or ACCS can be paid; and
  - (d) unless paragraph (e) applies—the claim contains the tax file number of each TFN claim person; and
  - (e) if the claim is for CCS in substitution for an individual who has died—the claim contains the tax file number of each TFN substitution person; and
  - (f) if the claim is for CCS in substitution for an individual who has died—the claim is made before the end of the income year after the income year in which the individual died; and
  - (g) any other requirements in the Secretary's rules are met; and
  - (h) no other provision in this Division prevents the claim being effective.
- (2) The Secretary may make a written determination that paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a claim for 28 days after the day the determination is made, if the Secretary is satisfied that it is appropriate in the circumstances to do so.
- (3) If:
  - (a) a determination under subsection (2) is made in relation to a claim; and
  - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that it is appropriate in the circumstances that paragraph (1)(d) not apply in relation to the claim indefinitely;the Secretary may, before the end of the 28 days after the day the determination is made, make a further written determination accordingly.

Section 67BF

67BF Claims that are taken not to have been made

- (1) A claim that is not effective is taken not to have been made.
- (2) A claim is taken not to have been made by an individual if:
  - (a) the Secretary has made a determination under subsection 67BE(2) in relation to the claim; and
  - (b) at the end of the 28 days after the day the determination was made:
    - (i) if the Secretary has made a further determination under subsection 67BE(3) in relation to the claim—the individual has not provided the individual’s tax file number; or
    - (ii) if the Secretary has not made a further determination under subsection 67BE(3) in relation to the claim—the individual has not provided the tax file number of each TFN claim person.
- (3) The Secretary’s rules may prescribe other circumstances in which a claim is taken not to have been made.

Division 3—Determinations

Subdivision A—Entitlement to be paid CCS or ACCS

67CA Simplified outline of this Division

An individual or an approved provider who is eligible for CCS or ACCS is only entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS if the Secretary has made a determination to that effect.

For individuals who claim in respect of a child for CCS by fee reduction, the Secretary will make an initial determination of the individual's eligibility for CCS for the child. Once this is in effect, determinations are made, for each week, about the individual's entitlement to CCS or ACCS that week.

To be entitled to be paid for a week, the individual must:

- (a) be eligible for CCS or ACCS (generally); and
- (b) meet some additional entitlement conditions.

The additional entitlement conditions mean that not everyone who is eligible for CCS or ACCS will be entitled to be paid for every week. In particular, individuals need to have met the CCS reconciliation conditions for previous income years for which they were entitled to CCS (usually these conditions are met by obtaining a timely tax assessment) and to have kept the Secretary up to date about changes affecting eligibility or entitlement.

Even if the Secretary determines that an individual is entitled to be paid CCS for a week, the individual might later have to repay the CCS if the individual does not meet the CCS reconciliation conditions in time. (This does not apply to ACCS.)

Determinations are also made each week in relation to an approved provider's entitlement to be paid ACCS (child wellbeing) for a child.

Section 67CB

One-off determinations are made in relation to an individual's entitlement to be paid CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died.

67CB Entitlement to be paid CCS or ACCS

- (1) An individual or an approved provider is only entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS if the Secretary has made a determination to that effect under this Division.
- (2) The Secretary is to make determinations under this Division on the basis of the information available to the Secretary at the time of making the determination.

Note: Part 5 provides for review of determinations, including in relation to the use of information in circumstances where information becomes available after a determination is made.

- (3) At any time, an individual or an approved provider is entitled to be paid, in accordance with this Part, the amount of CCS or ACCS (if any) for a week specified in whichever child care decision is in effect at the time for the week.
- (4) However, an individual who is entitled to be paid CCS for sessions of care provided to a child in a week:
  - (a) ceases to be entitled to be paid that CCS, and is taken never to have been entitled to be paid that CCS, if the individual has not met the CCS reconciliation conditions, for the income year in which the CCS fortnight that includes the week starts, by the first deadline for the income year; and
  - (b) cannot again become entitled to be paid that CCS if the individual does not meet the CCS reconciliation conditions for the income year by the second deadline for the income year.

Note: See section 105E for the determinations the Secretary is required to make in these circumstances.

- (5) Subsection (4) applies despite any other provision of this Act or the Family Assistance Act or any determination in effect to the contrary.

Subdivision B—Determinations for individuals claiming CCS by fee reduction

67CC Determination of individual's eligibility for CCS by fee reduction

Determination on effective claim

- (1) If an individual makes an effective claim in respect of a child for CCS by fee reduction, the Secretary must determine:
- (a) if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that the requirements in subparagraphs 85BA(1)(a)(i) to (iv) of the Family Assistance Act are met in relation to the claim—that the individual is eligible for CCS by fee reduction for the child; and
  - (b) if not so satisfied—that the individual is not eligible for CCS by fee reduction for the child.

Cessation of eligibility

- (2) The Secretary may determine that an individual for whom a determination under paragraph (1)(a) is in effect in relation to a child is not eligible for CCS by fee reduction for the child, if any of the following apply:
- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that the individual has ceased to be eligible, and is not reasonably likely to become eligible again, for CCS by fee reduction for sessions of care provided to the child;
  - (b) the Secretary has made determinations under subsection 67CD(8) (the individual is not entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS for sessions of care provided to the child) for at least 52 consecutive weeks (otherwise than because of subsection 105E(2));

Section 67CC

- (c) the child ceased to meet the immunisation requirements in section 6 of the Family Assistance Act more than 63 days ago.

Cessation of eligibility on request

- (3) The Secretary may determine that an individual for whom a determination under paragraph (1)(a) is in effect in relation to a child is not eligible for CCS by fee reduction for the child, if the individual requests the Secretary, in a form and manner approved by the Secretary, to do so. The Secretary may make the determination despite the individual being eligible.

Date of effect

- (4) A determination made under paragraph (1)(a):
  - (a) takes effect on the day specified in the determination, which must be the first day for which the Secretary is satisfied that the requirements in subparagraphs 85BA(1)(a)(i) to (iv) of the Family Assistance Act are met that is also:
    - (i) the first Monday of a CCS fortnight; and
    - (ii) not more than 28 days before the day the claim was made; and
  - (b) continues in effect until any of the following happens:
    - (i) it is superseded by a determination made under subsection (2) or (3);
    - (ii) it is set aside on review;
    - (iii) a day or event (if any) specified in the determination as the day or event on which the determination ceases to have effect;
    - (iv) the individual dies.
- (5) A determination made under paragraph (1)(b) has effect from the day the determination is made.
- (6) A determination made under subsection (2) or (3) has effect from the day specified in the determination (which may be earlier than the day the determination is made).

67CD Determination of individual's entitlement to be paid CCS or ACCS

Preconditions for making determinations

- (1) The Secretary may make a determination under this section for an individual for a week, in relation to sessions of care provided to a child by an approved child care service, only if:

  - (b) the provider of the service has given the Secretary a report under section 204B (requirement to report about children for whom care is provided) in relation to the child for the week, including such a report as varied, substituted or corrected under subsection 204B(6) or section 204C; and
  - (c) if the Secretary gives the individual a notice under subsection (11) in relation to the child's enrolment for those sessions—the individual has complied with the notice.
- (1A) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the provider of the service is taken to have given the Secretary a report under section 204B in relation to the child for the week even if the report is not given by the day required under paragraph 204B(2)(d).

Note: The report must still be given in accordance with paragraphs 204B(2)(a), (b) and (c), and the information included in the report as required by those provisions must be accurate and complete (see subsection 204B(3)).

Entitlement to be paid CCS

- (2) If the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) the individual is eligible for CCS under section 85BA of the Family Assistance Act for one or more of the sessions of care provided by the service to the child in the week, or would be eligible except that a session of care is provided on a day in an immunisation grace period for the child (see subsection (9)); and

Note: See subsection (1) for preconditions for making determinations under this subsection.

- (7) A determination cannot be made under subsection (6) for an individual for a week if the CCS fortnight that includes the week starts before the individual made the application referred to in paragraph (6)(a).

No entitlement to be paid CCS or ACCS

- (8) If the Secretary is not satisfied as referred to in subsection (2), (3), (4) or (6), the Secretary must determine that the individual is not entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS for the sessions of care provided to the child by the service in the week.

Immunisation grace period

    - (iv) the Secretary has the tax file number of the individual and is satisfied that it is unreasonable in the circumstances for the individual to provide the tax file number of each TFN determination person other than the individual;
  - (c) if, before the week, a period for giving information or producing a document required under Division 1 of Part 6 had ended without the individual giving the information or

producing the document—the individual has given the information or produced the document; and

- (d) if a determination was made for the individual under section 67CD for a week in the income year (the relevant income year) that is 2 income years before the income year in which the CCS fortnight that includes the week starts—the individual has met the CCS reconciliation conditions for the relevant income year.

Notice requiring information about enrolments

- (11) For paragraph (1)(e), the Secretary may, by written notice, require an individual to give to the Secretary, in a form and manner approved by the Secretary, information stated in the notice in relation to the child's enrolment for sessions of care provided, or to be provided, by an approved child care service.

- (1A) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the provider is taken to have given the Secretary a report for the week under section 204B in relation to the child even if the report is not given by the day required under paragraph 204B(2)(d).

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) may be given to an approved provider by making the notice available to the provider using an electronic interface.

Division 4—Estimates etc. of adjusted taxable income

67DA Simplified outline of this Division

To work out the amount of CCS an individual is entitled to be paid for a week, it is necessary to know the individual's adjusted taxable income for the income year the week relates to.

The final amount of the individual's income for the income year usually cannot be known until after the income year has ended.

In the meantime, the Secretary is able to rely on an estimate provided by the individual, or on an indexed estimate or the indexed actual income of an earlier income year.

After the individual meets the CCS reconciliation conditions, any underpayment to the individual will generally be topped up and any overpayments become debts due to the Commonwealth.

67DB Determinations when adjusted taxable income is not known

Determinations under section 67CD

- (1) This section applies if, at the time of making a determination under section 67CD for a week in a CCS fortnight, for an individual who is not eligible for any kind of ACCS, the individual has not met the CCS reconciliation conditions.

Estimate

- (2) The Secretary may make the determination under section 67CD on the basis of the most recent of whichever of the following estimates (if any) exists on the first Monday of the CCS fortnight:
  - (a) a reasonable estimate given to the Secretary by the individual;

Section 67DC

- (b) the indexed estimate stated in a notice given to the individual under section 67DC and with a start day that has arrived or passed;
- (c) the indexed actual income stated in a notice given to the individual under section 67DD and with a start day that has arrived or passed.

No estimate

- (3) If none of the estimates referred to in subsection (2) exists on the first Monday of the CCS fortnight, the Secretary must determine under subsection 67CD(8) that the individual is not entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS.

67DC Indexed estimates

- (1) The Secretary may calculate an indexed estimate for an individual under subsection (5), with a start day chosen by the Secretary, if:
  - (a) the individual, or the individual's partner, is a claimant for CCS by fee reduction; and
  - (b) a determination is in effect under paragraph 67CC(1)(a) that the claimant is eligible for CCS for a child; and
  - (c) information about the adjusted taxable income of the individual needed to make a determination under Division 3 for the claimant is not known; and
  - (d) the claimant has given the Secretary an estimate of the amount needed that the Secretary considers to be reasonable.
- (2) If the Secretary calculates an indexed estimate for the individual, the Secretary may give the claimant a notice:
  - (a) stating the indexed estimate for the individual; and
  - (b) specifying the start day used in the Secretary's calculation (which must be the first day of a CCS fortnight at least 14 days after the day the notice is given).
- (3) The Secretary must not give a notice under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for the individual with a start day in an income year if the Secretary has already given a notice under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for that individual with a start day in the same income year.

- (4) A notice given to a claimant under subsection (2) stating an indexed estimate for an individual has no effect if, before the start day specified in the notice for the indexed estimate, the Secretary gives the claimant a notice under subsection 67DD(2) stating an indexed actual income for the same individual. Any such notice under subsection 67DD(2) must specify a start day that is no earlier than the start day specified in the superseded notice.
- (5) Calculate an indexed estimate (which may be nil) for the individual by multiplying the individual's current ATI number (see subsection (6)) by the indexation factor, rounding the result to the nearest dollar and rounding 50 cents upwards. The indexation factor is the greater of 1 and the factor worked out to 3 decimal places as follows (increasing the factor by 0.001 if it would, if worked out to 4 decimal places, end in a number greater than 4):

$$\frac{\text{AWE for the reference period in the most recent November}}{\text{AWE for the reference period in the highest previous November}}$$

where:

AWE means the amount published by the Australian Statistician in a document titled "Average Weekly Earnings" under the headings "Average Weekly Earnings, Australia—Original—Persons—All employees total earnings" (or, if any of those change, in a replacement document or under replacement headings).

highest previous November means the November in which, of all the Novembers from November 2004 to the November before the most recent November (inclusive), AWE was the highest.

most recent November means the November of the income year before the income year in which the start day occurs.

reference period, in a particular November, means the period described by the Australian Statistician as the last pay period

Section 67DD

ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of that November.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the individual's current ATI number is:
- (a) if, at the time of calculation, the Secretary has given the claimant a notice under subsection 67DD(2) stating an indexed actual income for the individual with a start day that has not arrived—the indexed actual income stated in the notice; or
  - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant—the amount the Secretary is permitted to use for the individual under section 67DB (disregarding the effect for couples of section 67DE of this Act and clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act); or
  - (c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant's partner—the amount the Secretary would be permitted to use for the individual under section 67DB if the individual were the claimant (disregarding the effect for couples of section 67DE of this Act and clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act).
- (7) A notice under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

67DD Indexed actual incomes

- (1) The Secretary may calculate an indexed actual income for an individual under subsection (4), with a start day chosen by the Secretary, if:
- (a) the individual, or the individual's partner, is a claimant for CCS by fee reduction; and
  - (b) a determination is in effect under paragraph 67CC(1)(a) that the claimant is eligible for CCS; and
  - (c) information about the adjusted taxable income of the individual needed to make a determination under Division 3 for the claimant is not known; and

- (d) the most recent such determination made for the claimant was made on the basis of an indexed estimate or an indexed actual income; and
  - (e) since the claimant was last given a notice under subsection 67DC(2) or subsection (2) of this section stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for an individual, the claimant has not given the Secretary an estimate of the claimant's adjusted taxable income that the Secretary considers to be reasonable; and
  - (f) the adjusted taxable income for an income year (actual income) of the individual (disregarding the effect for couples of clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act) becomes known to the Secretary and it is the most recent income year for which the individual's actual income is known to the Secretary.
- (2) If:
- (a) the Secretary calculates an indexed actual income for the individual; and
  - (b) the indexed actual income is greater than the individual's current ATI number (see subsection (5));
- the Secretary may give the claimant a notice:
- (c) stating the indexed actual income for the individual; and
  - (d) specifying the start day used in the Secretary's calculation (which must be the start of a CCS fortnight at least 14 days after the day the notice is given).
- (3) A notice given to a claimant under subsection (2) stating an indexed actual income for an individual has no effect if, before the start day specified in the notice, the Secretary gives the claimant another notice under that subsection or a notice under subsection 55AA(2) stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the same individual. Any other such notice must specify a start day that is no earlier than the start day specified in the superseded notice.
- (4) Calculate an indexed actual income (which may be nil) for the individual by multiplying the actual income of the individual which became known to the Secretary by the indexation factor, rounding the result to the nearest dollar and rounding 50 cents upwards. The indexation factor is the greater of 1 and the factor worked out to 3 decimal places as follows (increasing the factor by 0.001 if it would, if worked out to 4 decimal places, end in a number greater than 4):

$$\frac{\text{AWE for the reference period in the most recent November}}{\text{AWE for the reference period in the highest previous November}}$$

where:

AWE means the amount published by the Australian Statistician in a document titled “Average Weekly Earnings” under the headings “Average Weekly Earnings, Australia—Original—Persons—All employees total earnings” (or, if any of those change, in a replacement document or under replacement headings).

highest previous November means the November in which, of all the Novembers from November 2004 to the November before the most recent November (inclusive), AWE was the highest.

most recent November means the November of the income year before the income year in which the start day occurs.

reference period, in a particular November, means the period described by the Australian Statistician as the last pay period ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of that November.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), the individual’s current ATI number is:

- (a) if, at the time of calculation, the Secretary has given the claimant a notice under subsection 67DC(2) or subsection (2) of this section stating an indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual with a start day that has not arrived—the indexed estimate or indexed actual income stated in the notice; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant—the amount the Secretary is permitted to use for the individual under section 67DB (disregarding the effect for couples of section 67DE of this Act and clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act); or

- (c) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the individual is the claimant's partner—the amount the Secretary would be permitted to use for the individual under section 67DB if the individual were the claimant (disregarding the effect for couples of section 67DE of this Act and clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act).

- (6) A notice under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

67DE Indexed estimates and indexed actual incomes for members of couples

- (1) This section applies in relation to any individual who is a member of a couple.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act or the Family Assistance Act, any reference to a determination under section 67CD being made on the basis of an indexed estimate, or an indexed actual income, for an individual or stated in a notice, is affected by subsection (3).
- (3) The reference is taken to be a reference to the determination being made on the basis of the indexed estimate, or the indexed actual income, for that individual or stated in that notice, combined with:
- (a) the indexed estimate or indexed actual income for the individual's partner stated in a notice given to:
    - (i) if the individual is the claimant for CCS or ACCS (grandparent)—the individual; or
    - (ii) if the individual is the partner of the claimant—the individual's partner;under subsection 67DC(2) or 67DD(2) with the most recent start day that has arrived or passed; or
  - (b) if there is no such indexed estimate or indexed actual income—a reasonable estimate of the adjusted taxable income of the individual's partner (disregarding the effect of clause 3AA of Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act) that has been given to the Secretary by the individual.

Division 5—Payments

67EA Simplified outline of this Division

If an individual is entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS by fee reduction for sessions of care provided to a child in a week:

- (a) the Secretary pays the amount to the provider of the child care service (less a withholding amount in the case of CCS); and
- (b) the provider must pass on the amount to the individual within 14 days (whether as a fee reduction or in any other way). The provider's obligation to pass on the amount is dealt with in section 201A.

If the individual does not receive their full entitlement in this way, the entitlement is paid directly to them, though usually not until after the CCS reconciliation conditions are met.

Approved providers who are entitled to be paid ACCS (child wellbeing), and individuals who are entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died, are paid their entitlements directly.

67EB Payments to providers of individuals' entitlements to CCS or ACCS by fee reduction

- (1) If a fee reduction decision is made for an individual in relation to sessions of care provided by a child care service to a child, the Secretary must pay the fee reduction amount for the decision to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by the provider of the service.

Note: However, the Secretary may instead pay the fee reduction amount directly to the individual (see subsection 67EC(2)).

- (2) The following table sets out the decisions that are fee reduction decisions and the amount that is the fee reduction amount for each

Before CCS reconciliation conditions met

(1) If:

- (a) a decision is made for an individual in relation to sessions of care provided by an approved child care service to a child; and
- (b) the decision would be a fee reduction decision except that the child is not enrolled for care by the service when the decision is made;

the Secretary must pay the amount that would have been the fee reduction amount for the decision, in accordance with subsection (5):

- (c) directly to the individual; or
- (d) if the Secretary considers it appropriate—to another person:

the Secretary may pay the fee reduction amount directly to the individual in accordance with subsection (5) instead of under subsection 67EB(1) (payment to credit of approved provider's bank account).

Fee reduction amounts not passed on

- (3) If a provider:
- (a) remits a fee reduction amount to the Secretary in accordance with paragraph 201A(1)(b); or
  - (b) incurs a debt to the Commonwealth under section 71D in relation to a fee reduction amount;
- the Secretary may pay the fee reduction amount directly to the individual in accordance with subsection (5).

After CCS reconciliation conditions met

- (4) If:
- (a) an individual is entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS by fee reduction for sessions of care provided by an approved child care service in CCS fortnights starting in an income year (the relevant income year); and
  - (b) the individual meets the CCS reconciliation conditions for the relevant income year no later than the second deadline for the relevant income year; and
  - (c) the total of the fee reduction amounts passed on by the provider of the service to the individual under section 201A, for fee reduction decisions for weeks in CCS fortnights starting in the relevant income year, is less than the total amount of CCS or ACCS the individual is entitled to be paid for those weeks;
- the Secretary must pay so much of the difference as has not already been paid under subsection (1), (2) or (3) to the individual under subsection (5).

How amounts are to be paid under this section

- (5) The whole or any part of an amount mentioned in subsection (1), (2), (3) or (4) must be paid at such time as the Secretary considers appropriate:
- (a) to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by:
    - (i) the individual; or

Section 67ED

- (ii) if the amount is to be paid to another person under paragraph (1)(b)—the other person; or
  - (b) if the Secretary so directs—in a different way.
- (6) Without limitation, the Secretary may consider that it is not appropriate to make a payment under subsection (1), (2) or (3) until after the individual meets the CCS reconciliation conditions for the income year in which the CCS fortnight that includes the week to which the payment relates starts.

Provisions this section is subject to

- (7) This section is subject to:
  - (a) Part 4 (overpayments and debt recovery); and
  - (b) Division 3 of Part 8B (payments to payment nominees).

67ED Payment of CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died

- (1) If an individual is entitled to be paid CCS or ACCS in substitution for an individual who has died, the Secretary must pay the amount of the entitlement, at such time as the Secretary considers appropriate and to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by the individual.
- (2) The Secretary may direct that the whole or part of the amount is to be paid in a different way. If the Secretary does so, the amount must be paid in accordance with the direction.

Secretary must pay the amount, at such time as the Secretary considers appropriate and to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by the provider.

- (a) Part 4 (overpayments and debt recovery); and
  - (b) paragraph 195H(1)(f) (suspension of payments); and
  - (c) section 205B (setting off business continuity payments).

Division 6—Giving information

67FA Simplified outline of this Division

Individuals who are eligible for CCS or ACCS have a duty to keep the Secretary informed about changes of circumstances that might affect their eligibility or entitlement.

The Secretary may also request individuals from time to time to give information relevant to their eligibility or entitlement.

Providers have a duty to notify the Secretary if they consider that a child who has been considered to be at risk of serious abuse or neglect is not at risk. The Secretary may also request them to give information about various matters.

67FB Notice of change of circumstances: individuals

- (1) An individual must notify the Secretary as soon as practicable, in a manner set out in a notice given to the individual under section 67FD, if:
  - (a) a determination is in effect under paragraph 67CC(1)(a) that the individual is eligible for CCS for a child; and
  - (b) any of the following happens:
    - (i) an event that causes the individual to cease to be eligible for CCS for sessions of care provided by an approved child care service to the child;
    - (ii) if the individual was eligible for a kind of ACCS—an event that causes the individual to cease to be eligible for that kind of ACCS for sessions of care provided by an approved child care service to the child;
    - (iii) an event that affects whether the individual is entitled to be paid CCS or a kind of ACCS, or the amount of CCS or ACCS the individual is entitled to be paid, for the child;

- (iv) the individual becomes aware that an event referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) is likely to happen.
  - (2) An individual commits an offence if the individual contravenes subsection (1).
- Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

Division 7—Payment protection and garnishee orders

Generally, a payment of CCS or ACCS is protected, subject to some exceptions related to debt management and payment to nominees.

67GB Protection of payments in relation to CCS and ACCS

- (1) Payments of the following amounts are absolutely inalienable, whether by way of, or in consequence of, sale, assignment, charge, execution, bankruptcy or otherwise:
  - (a) child care subsidy;
  - (b) additional child care subsidy;
  - (c) payments under section 67EB (fee reduction amounts);

- Step 1. Work out the total amount of the payments mentioned in subsection (1) that have been paid to the credit of the account during the 4 week period immediately before the court order came into force.
- Step 2. Subtract from the step 1 amount the total amount withdrawn from the account during the same 4 week period: the result is the saved amount.

Part 4—Overpayments and debt recovery

69 Special provisions relating to approved providers

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to an amount being paid to a person when the person is an approved provider includes a reference to an amount that, at the time when it was paid, was paid to an approved provider even if:

- (a) this Act; or
- (b) the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990; expressly provides that it is.

71 Debts in respect of family assistance other than CCS, ACCS and family tax benefit advance

---

- (b) the received amount is greater than the amount (the correct amount) of assistance that should have been paid to the person under the family assistance law;
the difference between the received amount and the correct amount is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the person.

71A Debts arising in respect of family tax benefit advances

No entitlement to advance

- (1) If:
  - (a) a family tax benefit advance has been paid to an individual;
and
  - (b) the individual was not entitled to the advance;the amount so paid is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the individual.

Overpayment

- (2) If:
  - (a) an amount (the received amount) of family tax benefit advance has been paid to an individual; and

Debt arising due to variation or review after the repayment period for a family tax benefit advance has expired

(4) If:

- (a) an individual is paid a family tax benefit advance; and
- (b) the individual's Part A rate has been reduced under clause 5 or 25A of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act to repay the advance; and
- (c) the repayment period for the advance has expired; and
- (d) due to a variation in a determination, or a variation or substitution of a decision on review (other than a variation under subsection 28(2) or (6)), the reduction in the individual's Part A rate under clause 5 or 25A of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act has not been sufficient to repay the advance; and
- (e) at the time of the variation of the determination, or the variation or substitution of the decision on review:
  - (i) the individual is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment; or
  - (ii) the individual's Part A rate is nil (before reduction under clause 5 or 25A of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act);

the amount of the family tax benefit advance left unrepaid as a result of the variation of the determination, or the variation or substitution of the decision on review, becomes a debt due to the Commonwealth by the individual.

Note: If the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit by instalment and has a Part A rate greater than nil, the unrepaid amount of the advance is to be repaid by reductions in the individual's Part A rate (see clause 51 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act).

the amount of the family tax benefit advance left unrepaid as a result of the variation of the determination becomes a debt due to the Commonwealth by the individual.

(6) If a debt is created under subsection (5) and the Secretary varies the determination of the individual's entitlement to family tax benefit under subsection 28(3) or (4), the debt is taken never to have been created.

Note: If, after the variation, the individual's Part A rate was not sufficient to repay the advance, the unrepaid amount of the advance is to be repaid either by reductions in the individual's Part A rate (see clauses 48 and 51 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act) or as a debt under subsection (3) or (4).

Debt arising due to determination under clause 45 of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act

- an amount equal to the amount of the payment made to the institution is, subject to subsection 93A(5), a debt due to the Commonwealth by the person, or jointly and severally by the persons, in whose name the incorrect account is kept.

Section 71D

- (a) pass on the fee reduction amount for the decision to the individual to whom the decision relates;
- (b) remit the fee reduction amount to the Secretary in a manner approved by the Secretary;

an amount equal to the fee reduction amount is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the provider.

71E Debts in respect of ACCS (child wellbeing) for provider—individual at fault

- (1) The Secretary may make a determination for an individual and a provider in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2). If the Secretary does so:

Section 71F

- (a) the provider is taken not to have incurred a debt that, apart from the determination, was incurred by the provider under subsection 71B(1) or 71C(2); and
  - (b) the amount of the debt is instead a debt due to the Commonwealth by the individual.
- (2) The circumstances are that:
- (a) the individual makes a false or misleading statement; and
  - (b) because of the statement, the provider is paid an amount by way of ACCS (child wellbeing) for one or more sessions of care provided by a service to a child who was in the care of the individual immediately before the sessions of care were provided; and
  - (c) the provider incurs a debt under subsection 71B(1) or 71C(2) in relation to the payment.

71F Debts in respect of CCS or ACCS for individual—provider at fault

If:

  - (i) made a false or misleading statement; or
  - (ii) failed to comply with the family assistance law; and
- (c) the individual incurs a debt under subsection 71B(1) or 71C(1) that is wholly or partly comprised of the attributable amount;

then:

- (d) the individual is taken not to have incurred as a debt under subsection 71B(1) or 71C(1) so much of the amount of the debt as is equal to the attributable amount; and
- (e) the attributable amount is instead a debt due to the Commonwealth by the provider.

Section 71G

71G Debts where provider approval is suspended cancelled or varied

(1) If:

- (a) an amount is paid to a provider under the family assistance law; and
  - (b) before the payment is made:
    - (i) the provider's approval, or the provider's approval in respect of a service, is suspended by operation of section 197AB; or
    - (ii) the provider's approval is cancelled by operation of subsection 197L(1); or
    - (iii) the provider's approval is varied to remove a service from the approval by operation of subsection 197L(3); and
  - (c) because of that suspension, cancellation or variation, the recipient should not have been paid the amount;
- the amount paid is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the provider.

(2) If:

- (a) a fee reduction amount is paid to a provider under section 67EB in relation to a session of care provided by a child care service of the provider on a day; and

    - (iii) the provider's approval in respect of the service is suspended (other than by operation of section 197AB);
- so much of the fee reduction amount as relates to the session of care is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the provider.

71H Debts in respect of business continuity payments paid to provider

(1) If:

- (a) an amount is paid under section 205A (business continuity payments) in respect of a child care service; and
- (b) any of the following occurs:
  - (i) the approval of the provider of the service is suspended or cancelled;
  - (ii) the approval of the provider of the service is varied to remove the service from the approval;
  - (iii) the approval of the provider in respect of the service is suspended; and
- (c) the whole or a part of the amount has not already been set off against another amount under section 205B by the day the suspension, cancellation or variation takes effect;

then that whole or part is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the provider immediately before the provider's approval was suspended, cancelled or varied.

(2) If:

- (a) a payment under section 205A is made to a financial institution for the credit of an account kept with the institution (an incorrect account); and
- (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the amount paid to the institution was intended to be paid for the credit of an account kept in the name of a person who was not the person, or one of the persons, in whose name the incorrect account was kept;

an amount equal to the amount of the payment made to the institution is, subject to subsection 93A(5), a debt due to the Commonwealth by the person, or jointly and severally by the persons, in whose name the incorrect account was kept.

If a person is dissatisfied with a decision of the AAT on AAT first review, the person may apply to the AAT for further review (an “AAT second review”).

Certain decisions may only be reviewed once by the AAT (an “AAT single review”).

The rules relating to reviews by the AAT are mainly in the AAT Act, but the operation of that Act is modified in some ways by this Division.

The AAT Act allows a person to appeal to a court on a question of law from a decision of the AAT on AAT second review or AAT single review.
