- (2) If the signature of a person referred to in subsection (1) purports to be attached or appended to any official document produced under the family assistance law, all courts are to take judicial notice of the fact that the person is, or has been, an officer.

230 Documentary evidence

- (1) If the signature of any person who is or has been an officer purports to be attached or appended to any official document, the document is to be received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the facts and statements contained in it.
- (2) A statement in writing signed by a person referred to in subsection (1) that another person is or was entitled to, or had received, a payment under this Act on a certain date and of a certain amount is to be received in all courts as prima facie evidence that the person is or was entitled to, or had received, the payment on the date, and of the amount, stated.

230A Application of family assistance law to providers that are partnerships

- (1) The family assistance law applies to a partnership as if it were a person, but with the changes set out in this section.
- (2) An obligation that would otherwise be imposed on the partnership by the family assistance law is imposed on each partner instead, but may be discharged by any of the partners.
- (3) A permission that would otherwise be conferred on the partnership by the family assistance law is conferred on each partner instead, but may be exercised by any of the partners.

Section 230B

- (4) An offence against the family assistance law that would otherwise have been committed by the partnership is taken to have been committed by each partner in the partnership, at the time the offence was committed, who:
  - (a) did the relevant act or made the relevant omission; or
  - (b) aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant act or omission; or
  - (c) was in any way knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant act or omission (whether directly or indirectly and whether by any act or omission of the partner).
- (5) This section applies to a contravention of a civil penalty provision in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies to an offence.
- (6) For the purposes of the family assistance law, a change in the composition of a partnership does not affect the continuity of the partnership.
- (7) The Minister's rules may make provision in relation to the application of the family assistance law to a partnership, to the extent to which this section and section 231 do not do so.

230B Application of family assistance law to providers that are unincorporated

- (1) The family assistance law applies to an unincorporated entity or body, other than a partnership, as if it were a person, but with the changes set out in this section.
- (2) An obligation that would otherwise be imposed on the entity or body by the family assistance law is imposed on each member of the entity or body's governing body instead, but may be discharged by any of the members.
- (3) A permission that would otherwise be conferred on the entity or body by the family assistance law is conferred on each member of the entity or body's governing body instead, but may be exercised by any of the members.

Section 231

---

- (4) An offence against the family assistance law that would otherwise have been committed by the entity or body is taken to have been committed by each member of the entity or body's governing body, at the time the offence was committed, who:
  - (a) did the relevant act or made the relevant omission; or
  - (b) aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant act or omission; or
  - (c) was in any way knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant act or omission (whether directly or indirectly and whether by any act or omission of the member).
- (5) This section applies to a contravention of a civil penalty provision in a corresponding way to the way in which it applies to an offence.
- (6) The Minister's rules may make provision in relation to the application of the family assistance law to an unincorporated entity or body, to the extent to which this section and section 231 do not do so.

231 Application of family assistance law to unincorporated bodies

- (1) The family assistance law applies to an unincorporated body or association (the body) as if it were a person other than an individual, but it applies with the following 3 changes.

Imposition of obligations

- (2) The first change is that obligations that would be imposed on the body are imposed instead on:
  - (a) if the body is a partnership—each partner; or
  - (b) in any other case—each member of the committee of management of the body;but they may be discharged by any of the partners or any of those members.

Section 231

Permissions

- (2A) A permission that would otherwise be conferred on the body by the family assistance law is conferred on:
- (a) if the body is a partnership—each partner instead; and
  - (b) otherwise—each member of the entity or body’s governing body instead;
- but may be exercised by any of those partners or members.

Commission of offences

- (3) The second change is that any offence against this Act that would otherwise be committed by the body is taken instead to have been committed by:
- (a) if the body is a partnership—any partner:
    - (i) who was knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant act or omission; or
    - (ii) who aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant act or omission; or
  - (b) in any other case—any member of the committee of management of the body:
    - (i) who was knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant act or omission; or
    - (ii) who aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant act or omission.

Contravention of civil penalty provisions

- (4) The third change is that any contravention of a civil penalty provision that would otherwise be committed by the body is taken instead to have been committed by:
- (a) if the body is a partnership—any partner:
    - (i) who was knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant contravention; or
    - (ii) who aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant contravention; or

Section 232

---

- (b) in any other case—any member of the committee of management of the body:
  - (i) who was knowingly concerned in, or party to, the relevant contravention; or
  - (ii) who aided, abetted, counselled or procured the relevant contravention.

Interaction with sections 230A and 230B

- (5) Section 230A or 230B applies instead of this section if:
  - (a) apart from this subsection, both section 230A or 230B and this section would apply to a situation; and
  - (b) in the situation, the family assistance law:
    - (i) expressly refers to a provider or an approved provider; or
    - (ii) operates in relation to a body that is applying to become, is, or has been, an approved provider.

232 Annual report

- (1) As soon as practicable after 30 June in each year, the Secretary must give the Minister a written report on the administrative operation of the family assistance law during the financial year that ended on that 30 June.
- (2) The Minister is to cause a copy of the report to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the Minister receives the report.

233 Appropriation

- (1) Payments under this Act are to be made out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is appropriated accordingly.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to a payment of an amount under an agreement entered into under section 85GA (funding agreements) of the Family Assistance Act unless the payment is for a purpose prescribed by the Minister's rules.

Section 234

Note: The purposes that may be prescribed by the Minister's rules are limited by subsection 85GA(1) of the Family Assistance Act.

- (3) The Minister's rules must prescribe the total amount that may be paid in respect of a financial year under subsection (1) because of subsection (2).
- (4) Minister's rules for the purposes of subsection (3) for a financial year:
  - (a) must be made before the start of the financial year; and
  - (b) may be varied at any time before the financial year ends.
- (5) The Minister's rules may prescribe the total amount that may be paid in respect of a financial year under subsection (1) because of subsection (2) for a purpose prescribed by the Minister's rules made for the purposes of subsection (2).

234 Agreements on administrative arrangements

- (1) The Secretary and the Principal Member may agree on administrative arrangements to further the objectives of Division 2 of Part 5.
- (2) The Secretary and the Commissioner of Taxation may agree on administrative arrangements to further the objectives of this Act.

235 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing matters:
  - (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
  - (b) necessary or convenient for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

Offences and civil penalties

- (1A) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may:
  - (a) prescribe penalties for offences against the regulations that do not exceed a fine of 10 penalty units; and

Section 235

---

- (b) declare that specified provisions of the regulations are civil penalty provisions, and prescribe penalties for contraventions of such provisions that do not exceed:
  - (i) for a body corporate—250 penalty units; or
  - (ii) in any other case—50 penalty units.

Fees

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may prescribe fees for the making of applications under section 194 or 207. Any such fees must not be such as to amount to taxation.

Proof of making of claims etc.

- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), if a provision of the family assistance law provides that the Secretary or another officer may approve:
  - (a) the form or manner of making or withdrawing any application or claim; or
  - (b) the way of doing any other thing that is required or permitted to be done for the purposes of that law;the regulations may make provision for the proof of the making or withdrawing of the application or claim, or the doing of the other thing, for the purposes of any legal proceedings.

Date of effect of review decisions

- (4) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may provide that specified decisions by:
  - (a) the Secretary under any provision of this Act; or
  - (b) an authorised review officer or the ART, under Part 5;that have the effect of creating or increasing an entitlement to be paid family tax benefit by instalment, only have effect from a specified day before the making of the decisions.

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

Endnote 2—Abbreviation key

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
