An Act relating to the foreign acquisition of certain land interests and to the foreign acquisition and foreign control of certain business enterprises and mineral rights

Part 1—Preliminary

Division 1—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by Proclamation.

3 Simplified outline of this Act

This Act deals with certain actions to acquire interests in securities, assets or Australian land, and actions taken in relation to entities (being corporations and unit trusts) and businesses, that have a connection to Australia. These actions are called significant actions. For an action to be a significant action, the action must in most cases result in a change in control involving a foreign person or be taken by a foreign person.

This Act also deals with actions taken by persons that have, or may have, implications for Australia's national security. These actions may or may not be significant actions. Actions relating to a national security business or national security land are notifiable national security actions. If an action is a reviewable national security action, or a significant action that is not a notifiable action or a notifiable national security action, the Treasurer may review the action if the Treasurer considers that the action may pose a national security concern.

If a person proposes to take or has taken an action, the Treasurer has power to do one or more of the following:

- (a) decide that the Commonwealth has no objection to the action;
- (b) impose conditions on the action;
- (c) prohibit the action;
- (d) require the action to be undone (for example, by requiring the disposal of an interest that has been acquired).

Offences and civil penalties apply for failing to comply with:

- (a) an order made prohibiting an action, or requiring an action to be undone; or
- (b) a condition imposed on an action.

Significant actions that are notifiable actions, and notifiable national security actions, must generally be notified to the Treasurer before the actions can be taken. Offences and civil penalties may apply if a notifiable action is taken without a notice having been given. Broadly, if a notice has been given stating that a significant action is proposed to be taken, the action must not be taken before the end of a specified period (generally of 40 days, or an additional period of up to 90 days from the registration of an interim order).

Fees are payable in relation to applications and orders made, and notices and notifications given, under this Act.

A person must make and keep records for the purposes of this Act, including in relation to significant actions and notifiable actions. Information that is obtained for the purposes of this Act (called protected information) may be disclosed only for certain purposes.

A person who obtains, uses or discloses protected information other than as authorised by this Act may commit an offence.

The Register of Foreign Ownership of Australian Assets is kept under Part 7A.

The Register records certain actions relating to interests acquired, held or disposed of by foreign persons. A foreign person who takes such an action (which may or may not be a significant action or a notifiable action, or otherwise covered by this Act) must give a register notice to the Registrar. In some circumstances, other people must also give notices to the Register. A civil penalty applies to a failure to give a notice under Part 7A.

Part 2 Actions to which this Act applies

Division 1 Simplified outline of this Part

Section 38

Part 2—Actions to which this Act applies

Division 1—Simplified outline of this Part

38 Simplified outline

This Part defines the concepts of significant action, notifiable action, notifiable national security action and reviewable national security action.

The Treasurer has powers under Part 3 in respect of these kinds of actions.

Division 2—Meaning of significant action

39 Simplified outline of this Division

Broadly, a significant action is an action to acquire interests in securities, assets or Australian land, or otherwise take action in relation to entities (being corporations and unit trusts) and businesses, that have a connection to Australia. For an action to be a significant action, the action must in most cases result in a change in control involving a foreign person or be taken by a foreign person.

Generally, the action is only a significant action if the entity, business or land meets the threshold test. A different threshold test applies for certain significant actions taken in relation to agribusinesses.

The regulations may also prescribe actions that are significant actions.

An acquisition of an interest in Australian land by a foreign person that is specified in an exemption certificate under Division 5 is generally not a significant action.

Division 6 deals with the treatment of entities whose securities are stapled and entities operating on a unified basis.

40 Meaning of significant action—entities

- (1) An action is a significant action if the conditions in this section are met.

First condition—kinds of action

- (2) The first condition is that the action is any of the following:

Section 40

- (a) to acquire a direct interest in an Australian entity that is an agribusiness;
- (b) to acquire interests in securities in an entity;
- (c) to issue securities in an entity;
- (d) to enter an agreement:
 - (i) relating to the affairs of the entity; and
 - (ii) under which one or more senior officers of the entity will be under an obligation to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of a foreign person who holds a substantial interest in the entity (or of an associate of such a foreign person);
- (e) to alter a constituent document of the entity as a result of which one or more senior officers of the entity will be under an obligation to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of a foreign person who holds a substantial interest in the entity (or of an associate of such a foreign person).

Note: An action mentioned in any of paragraphs (2)(b) to (e) may be taken in relation to an Australian entity that is an agribusiness (see section 42).

Second condition—threshold

- (3) The second condition is that the threshold test is met in relation to the entity (see Subdivision B of Division 4).

Third condition—kinds of entities covered

- (4) The third condition (except if paragraph (2)(a) applies) is that the entity is the following:
 - (a) for an acquisition of interests in shares or an issue of shares:
 - (i) a corporation that is a relevant entity that carries on an Australian business, whether alone or together with one or more other persons; or
 - (ii) the holding entity of such a corporation;
 - (b) for any other action relating to a corporation:

- (i) an Australian corporation that carries on an Australian business, whether alone or together with one or more other persons; or
- (ii) the holding entity (other than a foreign corporation) of such a corporation;
- (c) for an action relating to a unit trust:
 - (i) an Australian unit trust; or
 - (ii) a holding entity of an Australian unit trust.

Last condition—action taken by a foreign person

- (5) If paragraph (2)(a) applies, the last condition is that the action is or is to be taken by a foreign person.

Last condition—action results in change in control

- (6) If any of paragraphs (2)(b) to (e) apply, the last condition is that there would be or has been a change in control of the entity as a result of the action (see Subdivision C of Division 4).
- (7) However, the last condition in subsection (6) is not required to be met if:
- (a) paragraph (2)(b) applies and the action is or is to be taken by a foreign person who controls the entity (whether alone or together with one or more associates) immediately before the action is or is to be taken; or
 - (b) paragraph (2)(c) applies and a foreign person controls the entity (whether alone or together with one or more associates) immediately before the action is or is to be taken.

41 Meaning of significant action—businesses

- (1) An action is a significant action if the conditions in this section are met.

First condition—kinds of action

- (2) The first condition is that the action is any of the following:

Part 2 Actions to which this Act applies

Division 2 Meaning of significant action

Section 42

- (a) to acquire a direct interest in an Australian business that is an agribusiness;
- (b) to acquire interests in assets of an Australian business;
- (c) to enter or terminate a significant agreement with an Australian business.

Note: An action mentioned in paragraph (2)(b) or (c) may be taken in relation to an Australian business that is an agribusiness (see section 42).

Second condition—threshold

- (3) The second condition is that the threshold test is met in relation to the Australian business (see Subdivision B of Division 4).

Third condition—action taken by a foreign person

- (4) If paragraph (2)(a) applies, the third condition is that the action is or is to be taken by a foreign person.

Third condition—action results in change in control

- (5) If paragraph (2)(b) or (c) applies, the third condition is that there would be or has been a change in control of the business as a result of the action (see Subdivision C of Division 4).
- (6) However, the third condition in subsection (5) is not required to be met if:
 - (a) paragraph (2)(b) applies; and
 - (b) the action is or is to be taken by a foreign person who controls the business (whether alone or together with one or more associates) immediately before the action is or is to be taken.

42 Action taken in relation to agribusinesses

To avoid doubt, a person may take an action under any of paragraphs 40(2)(b) to (e) or 41(2)(b) or (c) in relation to an Australian entity or Australian business that is an agribusiness.

43 Meaning of significant action—land

An action is a significant action if:

- (a) the action is for a foreign person to acquire an interest in Australian land; and
- (b) the threshold test is met in relation to the land (see Subdivision B of Division 4).

Note: Certain acquisitions of land by foreign persons may not be significant actions (see section 45).

44 Meaning of significant action—actions prescribed by the regulations

- (1) The regulations may provide that a specified action is a significant action (including by providing that a specified action is a significant action if specified conditions are met).
- (2) Sections 40, 41 and 43 do not limit the actions that may be specified by the regulations.

Note: For example, the regulations may specify an action without requiring the threshold test to be met or a change in control.

45 Actions that are not significant actions—exemption certificates

- (1) Despite this Division, an action is not a significant action if:
 - (a) the action is a foreign person acquiring an interest in a new dwelling that will be, is being or has been built on another interest (the development interest) in Australian land; and
 - (b) the acquisition was from a person who was specified in an exemption certificate in force under section 57; and
 - (c) the development interest was specified in the certificate; and
 - (d) the specified person provided the foreign person with a copy of that certificate before the foreign person acquired the interest; and
 - (e) either:
 - (i) the conditions (if any) specified in the certificate were met; or

Part 2 Actions to which this Act applies

Division 2 Meaning of significant action

Section 45

- (ii) the foreign person is not, at the time of the action, aware that one or more of the conditions specified in the certificate have not been met.
- (2) Despite this Division, an action is not a significant action if:
- (a) the action is a foreign person acquiring a kind of interest in Australian land; and
 - (b) the foreign person is specified in an exemption certificate in force under section 58 or 59; and
 - (c) the interest is, or is of a kind, specified in the certificate; and
 - (d) the conditions (if any) specified in the certificate were met.
- (3) The regulations may provide, in relation to exemption certificates in force under regulations made for the purposes of section 63, that an action of a specified kind is not a significant action.

Division 3—Meaning of notifiable action

46 Simplified outline of this Division

A notifiable action is an action by a foreign person:

- (a) to acquire a direct interest in an Australian entity or Australian business that is an agribusiness; or
- (b) to acquire a substantial interest in an Australian entity; or
- (c) to acquire an interest in Australian land.

Generally, the action is only notifiable if the entity, business or land meets the threshold test. A different threshold test applies for certain notifiable actions taken in relation to agribusinesses.

There does not need to be a change in control for actions relating to entities and businesses to be notifiable actions.

The regulations may also prescribe actions that are notifiable actions.

Actions to acquire interests in Australian land that are specified in an exemption certificate under Division 5 are generally not notifiable actions.

Division 6 deals with the treatment of entities whose securities are stapled and entities operating on a unified basis.

47 Meaning of notifiable action—general

- (1) An action is a notifiable action if the conditions in this section are met.

First condition—kinds of action

- (2) The first condition is that the action is any of the following:

Section 48

- (a) to acquire a direct interest in:
 - (i) an Australian entity that is an agribusiness; or
 - (ii) an Australian business that is an agribusiness;
- (b) to acquire a substantial interest in an Australian entity;
- (c) to acquire an interest in Australian land.

Note: For the definition of acquire a direct interest or a substantial interest, see section 20.

Second condition—threshold

- (3) The second condition is that the threshold test is met in relation to the entity, business or land (see Subdivision B of Division 4).

Third condition—kinds of entities covered

- (4) If subparagraph (2)(a)(i) or paragraph (b) applies, the third condition is that the entity is:
 - (a) an Australian corporation that carries on an Australian business, whether alone or together with one or more other persons; or
 - (b) an Australian unit trust; or
 - (c) an Australian entity that is the holding entity of an entity mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

Last condition—action taken by a foreign person

- (5) The last condition (whether paragraph (2)(a), (b) or (c) applies) is that the action is or is to be taken by a foreign person.

48 Meaning of notifiable action—actions prescribed by the regulations

- (1) The regulations may provide that a specified action is a notifiable action (including by providing that a specified action is a notifiable action if specified conditions are met).
- (2) Section 47 does not limit the actions that may be specified by the regulations.

Note: For example, the regulations may specify an action without requiring the threshold test to be met.

49 Actions that are not notifiable actions—exemption certificates

- (1) Despite this Division, an action is not a notifiable action if:
 - (a) the action is a foreign person acquiring an interest in Australian land; and
 - (b) the action would not be a significant action under section 45 (actions that are not significant actions—exemption certificates).
- (2) The regulations may provide, in relation to exemption certificates in force under regulations made for the purposes of section 63, that an action of a specified kind is not a notifiable action.

Part 2 Actions to which this Act applies

Division 4 The threshold test and change in control

Section 50

Division 4—The threshold test and change in control

Subdivision A—Simplified outline of this Division

50 Simplified outline of this Division

Two important tests in determining whether an action is a significant action are whether the threshold test is met and whether there has been a change in control. The threshold test is also important in determining whether an action is a notifiable action.

For the threshold test to be met, a certain value must be above a threshold prescribed by the regulations. The value depends on the action taken.

There is a change in control of an entity or business if the Treasurer is satisfied that one or more foreign persons begin to control the entity or business, or the foreign persons who currently control the entity or business change.

A person who holds a substantial interest in an entity is taken to control the entity. Also, a person controls the entity if the person is in a position to determine the policy of the entity or business.

There are broad powers for the regulations to prescribe thresholds under this Part.

Subdivision B—The threshold test

51 The threshold test for entities and businesses

The threshold test is met in relation to an entity or business for an action mentioned in column 1 of the following table if the value mentioned in column 2 of the table is more than the value prescribed by the regulations.

When the threshold test is met
Item	Column 1 Kind of action	Column 2 Value
1	A person acquiring a direct interest in an Australian entity or Australian business that is an agribusiness	The total of the following: (a) the value of the consideration for the acquisition; (b) the total value of the other interests held by the person, alone or together with one or more associates: (i) in the entity or business; or (ii) previously acquired from the entity or business
2	Acquiring interests in securities in an entity, or issuing securities in an entity	The higher of the following: (a) the total asset value for the entity; (b) the total issued securities value for the entity
2A	Acquiring a substantial interest in an Australian entity	The higher of the following: (a) the total asset value for the entity; (b) the total issued securities value for the entity
3	Entering an agreement mentioned in paragraph 40(2)(d) in relation to an entity, or altering a constituent document of an entity as mentioned in paragraph 40(2)(e)	The total asset value for the entity
4	Acquiring interests in the assets of an Australian business	The value of the consideration for the acquisition
5	Entering or terminating a significant agreement with an Australian business	The total value of the assets of the business
Note 1: Total asset value, total issued securities value and consideration are defined by the regulations (see section 4).

Part 2 Actions to which this Act applies

Division 4 The threshold test and change in control

Section 52

Note 2: The regulations may provide in relation to valuing assets of an entity or business (see section 27).

52 The threshold test for land

Land without threshold value

- (1) The threshold test is met in relation to land if the land is of a kind that is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Agricultural land where total value of interests is above threshold value

- (2) The threshold test is met in relation to land if both of the following apply:
- (a) the land is agricultural land;
 - (b) the total value of the following is more than the value prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph:
 - (i) all interests in agricultural land held by the foreign person, alone or together with one or more associates;
 - (ii) the consideration for the acquisition of the interest in the land.

Note: Consideration is defined by the regulations (see section 4).

Other land where value of interest is above threshold value

- (3) The threshold test is met in relation to land if both of the following apply:
- (a) the land is not land prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) or agricultural land;
 - (b) the value of the interest in the land is more than the value prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph.

53 The threshold test in relation to actions of more than one kind

Agreements covering more than one action

- (1) If:
- (a) an action relating to an entity, business or land is covered by an agreement; and
 - (b) the threshold test is met in relation to the action and the entity, business or land;
- the threshold test is met for the action even if the test is not met for another action covered by the agreement (whether or not relating to the same entity, business or land).

Actions of more than one kind

- (2) If either or both of the following apply:
- (a) a single action is covered by more than one of the following (because an action is an action of more than one kind):
 - (i) paragraph 40(2)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e);
 - (ii) paragraph 41(2)(a), (b) or (c);
 - (iii) paragraph 43(a);
 - (iv) a provision of regulations made for the purposes of section 44;
 - (b) a single action relating to land is covered by more than one subsection of section 52 (because the land is land of more than one kind);
- the threshold test is met in relation to the single action if the test is met in relation to any of the kinds of actions or land (even if the threshold test is not met in relation to any of the other kinds of actions or land).

Example 1: An acquisition of an interest in securities in an Australian land corporation is covered by paragraphs 40(2)(b) and 43(a). The threshold test is met if the threshold test is met in relation to the corporation or land held by the corporation.

Example 2: An acquisition of an interest in land may be an acquisition of an interest in a mining or production tenement and an interest in agricultural land. The threshold test is met if the threshold test is met in relation to either kind of land.

Subdivision C—Change in control

54 Change in control

- (1) For the purposes of determining whether an action is a significant action, there is a change in control of an entity or business if, and only if, the Treasurer is satisfied that the action would have, or has had, any of the results mentioned in subsection (2) or (3).

Foreign persons begin to control entity or business

- (2) One or more foreign persons would begin, or have begun, to control the entity or business (whether alone or together with any associates of any of those persons).

Change in foreign persons who control the entity or business

- (3) If one or more foreign persons already control or controlled the entity or business:
- (a) another foreign person would become, or has become, a person who controls the entity or business; or
 - (b) a person would cease, or has ceased, to be a person who controls the entity or business.

Meaning of control

- (4) A person controls an entity or business if:
- (a) the person (whether alone or together with one or more associates) is in a position to determine the policy of the entity or business in relation to any matter; or
 - (b) without limiting paragraph (a), in relation to the acquisition of interests in securities in an entity or an issue of securities in an entity—the person holds a substantial interest in the entity.

Note: For determining the policy of a business of exploiting a mining or production tenement, see section 24.

- (5) However, a person mentioned in paragraph (4)(b) does not control the entity if the Treasurer is satisfied that, having regard to all the circumstances, the person together with any one or more associates of that person is not in a position to determine the policy of the entity.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not require the Treasurer to determine whether a person is in a position to determine the policy of an entity.

References to foreign persons

- (7) If the Treasurer is satisfied that one or more foreign persons together with any one or more associates control an entity under subsection (4), then, in relation to an action taken relating to the entity, a reference to a foreign person is taken, for the purposes of Part 3 (powers of Treasurer), to include a reference to those associates (even if those associates are not foreign persons).

Subdivision D—Regulations

55 Regulations

- (1) Regulations made for the purposes of this Part may prescribe any of, or any combination of, the following:
 - (a) values of nil;
 - (b) different values for different kinds of entities, businesses or land;
 - (c) different values for different kinds of foreign persons;
 - (d) different values for:
 - (i) sensitive businesses generally; or
 - (ii) different sensitive businesses for different foreign persons.
- Note: Regulations may also provide for indexation (see subsection 139(2)).
- (2) The paragraphs and subparagraphs in subsection (1) do not limit:
 - (a) each other; or

 - (b) either:
 - (i) the exemption certificate is revoked under section 62 or 62A; or

 - (b) a notifiable action;
 - (c) a notifiable national security action;
 - (d) a reviewable national security action.

 - (i) it was not a core Part 3 action; or

- (ii) it was not contrary to the national interest or to national security; and
 - (b) as a result of the operation of subsection (2), the action becomes a core Part 3 action at the time mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5) To avoid doubt, the Treasurer may make an order under section 69 (disposal orders) in relation to the action despite the fact that, at the time the action was taken:
- (a) it was not a core Part 3 action; or
 - (b) it was not contrary to the national interest or to national security.

63 Exemption certificates provided for by the regulations

The regulations may provide for and in relation to additional kinds of certificates given by the Treasurer.

- Note: The regulations may provide, in relation to exemption certificates in force under regulations made for the purposes of this section, that an action of a specified kind is not:
- (a) a significant action (see subsection 45(3)); or
 - (b) a notifiable action (see subsection 49(2)); or
 - (c) a notifiable national security action (see subsection 55B(3)); or
 - (d) a reviewable national security action (see section 55G).

Division 6—Entities whose securities are stapled and entities operating on a unified basis

64 Simplified outline of this Division

This Division deals with the treatment of entities whose securities are stapled and entities operating on a unified basis. In certain circumstances, if any of those entities are foreign or not carrying on an Australian business, they are treated as if they were Australian entities or carrying on an Australian business. Consequently, an action taken in relation to those entities may be a significant action or a notifiable action.

65 Entities whose securities are stapled and entities operating on a unified basis

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) either:
 - (i) the securities in an entity can only be transferred together with securities in one or more other entities; or
 - (ii) an entity has entered an agreement with one or more other entities resulting in the entities being under a legal obligation to operate on a unified basis; and
 - (b) a person takes an action in relation to one of the entities (the target) mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (c) the target is not:
 - (i) an Australian entity; or
 - (ii) an entity carrying on an Australian business; or
 - (iii) an entity carrying on a national security business; or
 - (iv) the holding entity of an entity mentioned in subparagraph (ii) or (iii);as is required for the action to be a significant action, notifiable action, notifiable national security action or reviewable national security action; and

- (d) there is at least one other entity mentioned in paragraph (a) that is an entity of a kind mentioned in subparagraph (c)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv).

Note: Entities in a dual listed company arrangement are examples of entities that are under a legal obligation to operate on a unified basis.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, the target is taken to be the same kind of entity as the entity mentioned in paragraph (d).

Example: A foreign person acquires interests in securities in the target (see paragraph 40(2)(b)). The target's securities are stapled to securities in another entity. The other entity is a relevant entity that carries on an Australian business (see subparagraph 40(4)(a)(i)). The target is taken to be a relevant entity that carries on an Australian business.

Part 3—Powers of Treasurer

Division 1—Simplified outline of this Part

66 Simplified outline of this Part

This Part deals with the powers that the Treasurer has if an action is proposed to be taken or has been taken.

The Treasurer may review actions in the circumstances set out in Division 1A. Such actions are reviewable national security actions, and significant actions that are not notifiable actions or notifiable national security actions. The Treasurer may make orders and decisions of a kind mentioned below in relation to any actions so reviewed.

If an action is proposed to be taken, the Treasurer may prohibit the action. The Treasurer may make an interim order before deciding whether to make an order prohibiting an action.

If an action has been taken, the Treasurer may order that the action be undone (for example, by requiring an acquisition to be disposed of).

Instead of making an order, the Treasurer may give a notification (called a no objection notification) stating that the Commonwealth does not object to an action. The Treasurer may impose conditions on an action.

If the Treasurer is given a notice that an action is proposed to be taken or reviews an action under Division 1A, the Treasurer must make a decision under this Part within a certain period, although the period may be extended. A person must not take the action during this period unless the person is given a no objection notification.

The Treasurer also has last resort powers to deal with national security risks arising in relation to an action. If the Treasurer is permitted to review the action, the Treasurer may make orders to eliminate or reduce any such risks.

Division 1A—Review of reviewable national security actions

Note 1: See also section 77 (time limit on making orders and decisions) and Parts 5 (offences and civil penalties) and 6 (fees).

Note 2: In reviewing the reviewable national security action, the Treasurer may seek information: see section 133.

When review may begin

- (2) The Treasurer may only start a review of an action that has been taken within the time prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the following provisions are to be disregarded:

 - (b) paragraphs 17(1)(c) and (2)(c);
 - (c) subparagraphs 19A(1)(c)(ii) and 20(1)(c)(iii).

Notice of review

- (4) If the Treasurer reviews an action mentioned in subsection (1), the Treasurer must give written notice to the person who has taken, or who proposes to take, the action, of the review.

Actions not reviewable in certain circumstances

- (5) The Treasurer may not review an action under this section if, at the time a review would otherwise start, any of the following apply:
- (a) the action has been notified to the Treasurer;
 - (b) a person was given a no objection notification in relation to the action;
 - (c) the action or the kind of action is specified in an exemption certificate that is in force under Division 5 of Part 2 or the regulations;

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 74

- (c) in any case, both of the following apply:
- (i) either the period specified under section 76 in the notification has not ended or the actions were taken before the end of the period specified in the notification;
 - (ii) the foreign persons who took the actions were specified in the notification.
- (2) The Treasurer may make an order under section 69 (disposal orders) in relation to the actions only if:
- (a) the person is convicted of an offence against section 87 in relation to a condition included in the notification; or
 - (b) an order is made under section 19B of the Crimes Act 1914 in relation to the person in respect of such an offence; or
 - (c) a civil penalty order is made against the person under the Regulatory Powers Act in relation to a contravention of section 93, 96 or 97 of this Act relating to a condition included in the notification.
- Note: The Treasurer may make an order under this Subdivision in relation to:
- (a) a significant action that is not specified in the notification but is covered by the same agreement that covered the actions mentioned in subsection (1); or
 - (b) a foreign person who is not specified in the notification but who took significant actions covered by the same agreement that covered the actions mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) To avoid doubt, this section is subject to subsection 76A(7) (effect of revocation of no objection notification).

Subdivision B—No objection notifications

74 No objection notification imposing conditions

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the Treasurer is satisfied that a significant action (other than a significant action covered by paragraph (1A)(b)) is proposed to be taken (whether or not the Treasurer was given a notice relating to the action); or

- (b) all of the following apply:
 - (i) the Treasurer is satisfied that a significant action has been taken;
 - (ii) the Treasurer was not given a notice relating to the action before the action was taken;

 - (ii) the Treasurer was given a notice relating to the action before the action was taken;
 - (ia) the action is not covered by paragraph (1A)(b);
 - (iii) the action was taken before the day mentioned in section 82.

Note: See also sections 76 (content of no objection notification) and 77 (time limit on making orders and decisions).

- (1A) This section also applies if the following kinds of actions are proposed to be taken or have been taken:
 - (a) a notifiable national security action that is not a significant action;
 - (b) an action in respect of which the Treasurer has given a notice under subsection 66A(4);
 - (c) a reviewable national security action that is notified to the Treasurer.

Note: See also sections 76 (content of no objection notification) and 77 (time limit on making orders and decisions).

Imposition of conditions

- (2) The Treasurer may:
 - (a) decide that the Commonwealth has no objection to the action if one or more of the following conditions were imposed:

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 74

- (i) for paragraph (1)(a)—a condition that the Treasurer is satisfied is necessary to ensure the action, if taken, will not be contrary to the national interest;
 - (ii) for paragraphs (1)(b) and (c)—a condition that the Treasurer is satisfied is necessary to ensure that the action is not contrary to the national interest;
 - (iii) for subsection (1A) and in relation to an action proposed to be taken—a condition that the Treasurer is satisfied is necessary to ensure the action, if taken, will not be contrary to national security;
 - (iv) for subsection (1A) and in relation to an action that has been taken—a condition that the Treasurer is satisfied is necessary to ensure the action is not contrary to national security; and
- (b) notify the person, in writing (the no objection notification), of the conditions.
- (3) The no objection notification:
- (a) must be given before the end of 10 days after the decision is made; and
 - (b) if a notice relating to the action was given—may be given to the person at an address (including an electronic address) specified in that notice as the address for service of notices relating to the action.

Variation and revocation of conditions

- (4) Subject to subsection (6), the Treasurer may:
- (a) in relation to an action of a kind mentioned in subsection (1)—vary a no objection notification given to a person in one or more ways mentioned in subsection (4A) if the Treasurer is satisfied that the variation is not contrary to the national interest; and
 - (b) in relation to an action of a kind mentioned in subsection (1A)—vary a no objection notification given to a person in one or more ways mentioned in subsection (4A) if the Treasurer is satisfied that the variation is not contrary to national security.

- (4A) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Treasurer may vary a no objection notification in one or more of the following ways:
- (a) revoking a condition;
 - (b) imposing a new condition;
 - (c) varying an existing condition;
 - (d) varying the information specified under section 76.

- (5) The variation may be made on the Treasurer's own initiative.

Note: The variation may also be made on application by the person (see subsection 76(6)).

- (6) The Treasurer may vary a no objection notification given to a person by imposing a new condition or varying an existing condition only if:
- (a) the person consents to the new condition or the variation; or
 - (b) the Treasurer is satisfied that the new condition or variation does not disadvantage the person.

Statements in notices

- (7) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) a notice relating to an action stating that a person has a right (including a right under an option) to acquire interests in securities, assets or Australian land is taken to be a statement that the person proposes to acquire the interests in the securities, assets or land; and
 - (b) a notice relating to an action stating that a person proposes to acquire a right (including a right under an option) to acquire an interest in a security, asset or Australian land is taken to be a statement that the person proposes to exercise that right.

Effect of notification on later actions

- (8) If:

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 75

- (a) a person gives a notice to the Treasurer relating to more than one significant action proposed to be taken in relation to an entity or business; and
- (b) the Treasurer is satisfied that the actions would result in a change in control of the entity or business; and
- (c) the Treasurer gives a no objection notification to the person under this section in relation to the actions; and
- (d) not all of the actions are taken; and
- (e) the person gives a later notice to the Treasurer relating to a later action that is proposed to be taken in relation to the entity or business;

the giving of the no objection notification does not prevent the Treasurer from determining that there has been or will be a change in control of the entity or business as a result of the later action.

Note: See also subparagraph 79A(1)(b)(ii).

75 No objection notification not imposing conditions

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the Treasurer receives a notice that a person proposes to take an action; and
 - (b) the Treasurer is satisfied that the action is covered by:
 - (i) subsections 40(2) and (3), and whichever of subsection 40(4) or (5) applies (meaning of significant action—entities); or
 - (ii) subsections 41(2) and (3) and subsection 41(4) (if it applies) (meaning of significant action—business); or
 - (iii) section 43 (meaning of significant action—land); or
 - (iv) regulations made for the purposes of section 44 (meaning of significant action—actions prescribed by the regulations), disregarding any conditions prescribed by the regulations in relation to a change in control.

Note 1: See also sections 76 (content of no objection notification) and 77 (time limit on making orders and decisions) and Parts 5 (offences and civil penalties) and 6 (fees).

Note 2: This section disregards whether there has been a change in control.

- (1A) This section also applies if:
- (a) the Treasurer receives a notice that a person proposes to take a notifiable national security action; or
 - (b) a person proposes to take:
 - (i) an action in respect of which the Treasurer has given a notice under subsection 66A(4); or
 - (ii) a reviewable national security action that the person notifies to the Treasurer.

Note: See also sections 76 (content of no objection notification) and 77 (time limit on making orders and decisions).

- (2) The Treasurer may:
- (a) decide that the Commonwealth has no objection to the action; and
 - (b) notify the person, in writing (the no objection notification), of the decision.
- (3) The no objection notification:
- (a) must be given before the end of 10 days after the decision is made; and
 - (b) may be given to the person at an address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice relating to the action as the address for service of notices relating to the action.

Statements in notices

- (4) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) a notice relating to an action stating that a person has a right (including a right under an option) to acquire interests in securities, assets or Australian land is taken to be a statement that the person proposes to acquire the interests in the securities, assets or land; and
 - (b) a notice relating to an action stating that a person proposes to acquire a right (including a right under an option) to acquire

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 76

an interest in a security, asset or Australian land is taken to be a statement that the person proposes to exercise that right.

Effect of notifications on later actions

- (5) A notification given under this section in relation to an action taken relating to an entity or business does not prevent the Treasurer from determining later whether there has been a change in control of the entity or business.

76 Content of notification

- (1) A no objection notification given to a person under section 74 or 75 must:
- (a) specify the following:
 - (i) the one or more actions to which the notification relates;
 - (ii) the one or more foreign persons to which the notification relates; and
 - (b) include the following:
 - (i) a requirement that the actions to which the notification relates, if taken, must be taken before the end of a specified period after the day the notification is given;
 - (ii) a statement to the effect that the Treasurer may, in certain circumstances review the actions to which the notification relates under Division 3 and exercise powers under that Division.
- (2) The no objection notification may specify a foreign person by specifying:
- (a) a foreign person that:
 - (i) is not yet incorporated; or
 - (ii) is a trustee of a trust that is not yet established; and
 - (b) the way in which the foreign person is to be incorporated or the trust is to be established.
- (3) A foreign person is taken not to be specified in a no objection notification if:

- (a) the notification specified the foreign person under subsection (2) before the foreign person was incorporated or the trust was established; and
- (b) the foreign person is not incorporated or the trust is not established in the way specified in the notification.

Note: The protection under section 70 from disposal orders applies to a foreign person only if the foreign person is specified in a no objection notification.

- (4) The period mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(i) is:
 - (a) the period prescribed by the regulations; or
 - (b) if the Treasurer is satisfied that a longer period is not contrary to national security or the national interest—that longer period.
- (5) A single notification may include a no objection notification under each of sections 74 and 75 in relation to different actions.

Variation of no objection notification

- (6) A person given a no objection notification may apply to the Treasurer for a variation of the notification (including after the action specified in the notification is taken).

Note: See also Part 6 (fees) and section 135 (manner of application).

- (7) An application for an extension of a period specified in a no objection notification must be made 2 months before the end of the period.
- (8) The Treasurer may vary a no objection notification if:
 - (a) in the case of a no objection notification given in relation to an action of a kind mentioned in subsection 74(1) or 75(1)—the Treasurer is satisfied that the variation is not contrary to the national interest; and
 - (b) in the case of a no objection notification given in relation to an action of a kind mentioned in subsection 74(1A) or 75(1A)—the Treasurer is satisfied that the variation is not contrary to national security.

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 76A

76A Revocation of no objection notification

- (1) The Treasurer may give a notice under subsection (2) if the Treasurer reasonably believes that before a no objection notification was given to a person the person (or another person specified in the notification) gave the Treasurer information that was or documents that were:
 - (a) relevant to the no objection notification; and
 - (b) false or misleading in a material particular.
- (2) The Treasurer may give the person who was given the notification a notice, in writing, that the Treasurer is considering revoking the notification (and the relevant decision mentioned in paragraph 74(2)(a) or 75(2)(a)) because the Treasurer has the reasonable belief mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The Treasurer may revoke a no objection notification given to a person (and the relevant decision mentioned in paragraph 74(2)(a) or 75(2)(a)) if:
 - (a) the Treasurer is satisfied that before the no objection notification was given the person (or another person specified in the notification) gave the Treasurer information that was or documents that were:
 - (i) relevant to the no objection notification; and
 - (ii) false or misleading in a material particular; and
 - (b) the Treasurer has given the person a notice under subsection (2) in respect of the no objection notification; and
 - (c) the revocation is made no later than 120 days after the day on which the Treasurer gave the person that notice.
- (4) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of this section, information or documents may be false or misleading in a material particular because of the omission of a matter or thing.
- (5) The Treasurer must notify the person, in writing, of the revocation before the end of 10 days after the revocation is made.

- (6) This section does not limit the circumstances in which the Treasurer may revoke a no objection notification.
- (7) If the Treasurer revokes a no objection notification under subsection (1) (and the relevant decision mentioned in paragraph 74(2)(a) or 75(2)(a)), the Treasurer may make:
- (a) an order under section 67, 68 or 69; or
 - (b) a decision under paragraph 74(2)(a) or 75(2)(a);
- as if the no objection notification had never been given (and the relevant decision had never been made).

Note: The Treasurer cannot make an order under section 67 or 68 if the core Part 3 action in relation to which the no objection notification was given had already been taken before the revocation.

Subdivision C—Time limits on making orders and decisions

77 Time limit on making orders and decisions

Time limit on making orders or decisions

- (1) If a decision period starts in relation to an action (see subsection (6)), the Treasurer must not (subject to subsections (2) to (5)) make an order or decision under Division 2 relating to the action after the end of the decision period.

Note 1: For when the Treasurer may vary or revoke an order or no objection notification, see sections 74, 76, 76A and 79G.

Note 2: For further powers the Treasurer has after the expiry of the time limit in this section, see Division 3 of Part 3 (about last resort powers).

Longer time limit where interim order is made

- (2) However, if:
- (a) the Treasurer makes, or purports to make, an interim order in relation to the action on or before the end of the decision period; and
 - (b) the interim order is registered in accordance with section 79M;

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 77

the Treasurer must not make an order under section 67 or 69 or a decision under section 74 or 75 relating to the action after the end of the period specified in the interim order.

No time limit if action taken during period

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if:
- (a) the decision period started because the Treasurer received a notice from a person stating that the action was proposed to be taken; and
 - (b) the person took the action before the end of:
 - (i) for a case to which subsection (1) applies—the decision period; or
 - (ii) for a case to which subsection (2) applies—the period specified in the interim order.

No time limit if order made during period

- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if:
- (a) the Treasurer made an order (other than an interim order) or decision under Division 2 relating to the action on or before the end of:
 - (i) for a case to which subsection (1) applies—the decision period; or
 - (ii) for a case to which subsection (2) applies—the period specified in the interim order; and
 - (b) the Treasurer also registers the order in accordance with section 79M, or gives a notification in accordance with subsection 74(3) or 75(3).

Later decision periods

- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not prevent the Treasurer from making an order or decision in relation to an action at a time after the end of a period if the time is in:
- (a) another decision period that has started in relation to the action under subsection (6); or

- (b) a period specified in an interim order made, or purported to be made, during another decision period that has started in relation to the action under subsection (6).

Note: Under the table in subsection (6), there may be more than one decision period for an action. For example, a decision period might start in relation to an action under item 1 of the table and then later another decision period might start under item 5 of the table.

When a decision period starts

- (6) A decision period starts in relation to an action referred to in column 1 of an item in the following table if the event referred to in column 2 of that table item occurs. To avoid doubt, there may be more than one decision period for an action.

When a decision period starts
Item	Column 1 Action	Column 2 Event
1	Any of the following: (a) a significant action; (b) a notifiable national security action; (c) a reviewable national security action	The Treasurer receives a notice from a person stating that the action is proposed to be taken

3	Any of the following: (a) a significant action that is not a notifiable action or notifiable national security action; (b) a reviewable national security action	The Treasurer gives a person a notice in relation to the action under subsection 66A(4) (which is about national security review of actions)

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 2 Orders relating to actions that are, or whose result would be, contrary to national security or the national interest

Section 77

When a decision period starts

Note 1: If a fee is payable by a person under section 113, the notice is taken not to have been given until the fee has been paid or waived (see section 114).

Note 2: For withdrawal of notices, see section 136.

Notice given under section 133

- (7) If a notice is given to a person under section 133 requiring a person to give information or produce a document, a decision period, or a period specified in an interim order, does not include any day in the period:
- (a) beginning on the day the notice is given; and
 - (b) ending on the day the person gives the information or produces the document in accordance with the notice.

Meaning of decision period

- (8) A decision period is:
- (a) the period of 30 days after the day the event referred to in column 2 of the applicable item of the table in subsection (6) occurs; or

- (b) if, before the end of a decision period (including a decision period as extended under this paragraph), the person specified in subsection (9) requests in writing the Treasurer to extend the period—the period as so extended; or
- (c) if, before the end of a decision period (including a decision period as extended under this paragraph or paragraph (b)), the Treasurer extends the period under section 77A—the period as so extended.

Specified person for extensions of the decision period

- (9) The person is:
 - (a) in a case to which item 1, 3 or 4 of the table in subsection (6) applies—the person mentioned in column 2 of that table item; or
 - (b) in a case to which item 2 of the table in subsection (6) applies in relation to a variation or revocation under section 62—the person to whom the exemption certificate was given; or
 - (c) in a case to which item 2 of the table in subsection (6) applies in relation to a variation or revocation under section 62A—the person to whom the notice under section 62A was given; or
 - (d) in a case to which item 5 of the table in subsection (6) applies—the person who took, or proposed to take, the action.

77A Treasurer may extend decision period by up to 90 days

- (1) Before the end of a decision period, the Treasurer may, by notice in writing given to the person specified in subsection 77(9), extend (or further extend) the period. The Treasurer may do so more than once.
- (2) The total number of days by which the Treasurer may extend a decision period by notices given under this section must not exceed 90 days.
- (3) The notice:

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Section 78

- (a) must include the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) in a case to which item 1 of the table in subsection 77(6) applies—may be given to the person at an address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice relating to the action as the address for service of notices relating to the action.
- (4) The Treasurer is not required to observe any requirements of the natural justice hearing rule in making a decision under subsection (1).

Subdivision D—Anti-avoidance

78 Anti-avoidance

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) one or more persons enter into, begin to carry out or carry out a scheme; and
 - (b) the Treasurer is satisfied that any of the persons who entered into, began to carry out or carried out all or any part of the scheme did so for the sole or dominant purpose of avoiding the application of any provision of this Act in relation to one or more persons (whether those persons are the same as the persons mentioned in paragraph (a)); and
 - (c) all or part of the scheme has achieved, or (apart from this section) would achieve, that purpose.

Note: For the definition of scheme, see section 4.

- (2) The Treasurer may (subject to subsection (3)) make any order or decision under Division 2 that the Treasurer would have been able to make if all or part of the scheme had not achieved that purpose.
- (3) The Treasurer must not make an order prohibiting a person from doing anything that has already been done by the person before the order is made.

79 Persons involved in avoidance taken to be associates

- (1) The Treasurer may make an order under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the Treasurer makes an order under section 78 (anti-avoidance) in relation to more than one person; and
 - (b) the Treasurer is satisfied that not making an order under subsection (2) is contrary to national security or the national interest.
- (2) The Treasurer may make an order specifying that some or all of the persons to which the order under section 78 relates are taken to be associates of each other for the purposes of this Act or for specified purposes.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) must specify the period during which the order is in force.

Effect of order

- (4) An order under subsection (2) has effect according to its terms.

Order not a legislative instrument

- (5) An order under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 3 Last resort powers: orders to deal with national security risks arising after an initial assessment

Section 79A

Division 3—Last resort powers: orders to deal with national security risks arising after an initial assessment

Subdivision A—National security review required

79A National security review required before orders may be made

Bases on which Treasurer may review actions

- (1) The Treasurer may review an action if the Treasurer is satisfied that:
 - (a) any of the following apply:
 - (i) a no objection notification in relation to the action has been given and has not been revoked under section 76A;
 - (ii) the action has been taken and, at the time it was taken, the action or the kind of action was specified in an exemption certificate in force under Division 5 of Part 2 or the regulations;
 - (iii) the action has been taken and, at the time it was taken, the interest or kind of interest to which the action relates was specified in an exemption certificate in force under Division 5 of Part 2 or the regulations;
 - (iv) an interim order in relation to the action was made and the Treasurer did not make an order under section 67 before the end of the period specified in the interim order;
 - (v) an order or decision under Division 2 was not made by the Treasurer in relation to the action before the end of the decision period;
 - (vi) a person was given a notice imposing conditions under section 79H in relation to the action; and
 - (b) any of the following apply:

- (i) the person notified the action to the Treasurer and made a statement, whether orally or in that notification, that was false or misleading in a material particular, or that omitted a matter or thing without which the statement was misleading in a material particular;
- (ii) the business, structure or organisation of the person has, or the person's activities have, materially changed since the time paragraph (a) was satisfied;
- (iii) the circumstances or market in which the action was, or is proposed to be, taken have materially changed since the time paragraph (a) was satisfied.

Treasurer to decide whether a national security risk exists

- (2) When reviewing an action under this section, the Treasurer must decide whether a national security risk relating to the action exists. In doing so, the Treasurer must obtain, and have regard to, advice from an agency in the national intelligence community about national security risks in relation to the action.

Note: A person may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision that a national security risk relating to the action exists: see section 130A.

Treasurer may give notice of review

- (3) If the Treasurer reviews an action under this section:
- (a) the Treasurer must, unless it would prejudice Australia's national security interests to do so, notify the person, in writing, of the review; and
 - (b) if the action has not been taken—the giving of the notice prohibits, by force of this paragraph, the taking of the action until the review of the action is completed and:
 - (i) an order made under this Division is registered under section 79M; or
 - (ii) a no objection notification is varied under section 79G; or

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 3 Last resort powers: orders to deal with national security risks arising after an initial assessment

Section 79B

- (iii) a notice imposing conditions is given to the person under section 79H or is varied under section 79J; or
 - (iv) a notice is given under section 79B advising that a national security risk does not exist in relation to the action; and
- (c) if the action has been taken—the Treasurer may:
- (i) in the notice—give any direction to the person in relation to the action or a related activity that the Treasurer considers necessary to address the national security risk; and
 - (ii) in writing and before the review is completed—give any subsequent direction to the person in relation to the action or a related activity that the Treasurer considers necessary to address the national security risk.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b) and an exemption certificate, the giving of the notice also prohibits, by force of this subsection, an action in relation to interests or kinds of interests, or the kinds of actions, to which the certificate relates until the review of the action is completed and an event mentioned in any of subparagraphs (3)(b)(i) to (iv) has occurred.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(c), the Treasurer may not give a direction that would require the person to take action of a kind mentioned in section 79E.

79B When an action creates a national security risk

- (1) If the Treasurer reviews an action, as allowed by section 79A, the Treasurer must:
- (a) give written notice to the person who proposes to take, or took, the action of the review; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) if the Treasurer decides that a national security risk does not exist in relation to the action—include a statement to that effect in the notice; or

- (ii) if the Treasurer decides that a national security risk exists in relation to the action—include the Treasurer’s reasons for deciding that the risk exists in the notice.
- (2) The Treasurer may redact from the written notice to the person who proposes to take, or took, the action:
 - (a) any reasons that would disclose the national security risk or result in prejudice to Australia’s national security interests; or
 - (b) any information relied on in carrying out the review of the action on grounds of national security.
- (3) To avoid doubt, a written notice to the person who proposes to take, or took, the action may be validly given under subsection (1) even if all the contents of the notice are redacted.

Subdivision B—Orders

79C Considerations required by Treasurer before any order given

If the Treasurer proposes to give an order to a person relating to an action under this Subdivision:

- (a) the Treasurer must be satisfied that the action has been reviewed under Subdivision A; and
- (b) the Treasurer must be reasonably satisfied that:
 - (i) in a case in which subparagraph 79A(1)(b)(i) applies—the false or misleading statement or the omission directly relates to the national security risk; or
 - (ii) in a case in which subparagraph 79A(1)(b)(ii) applies—the national security risk posed by the material change could not have been reasonably foreseen, or could have been reasonably foreseen but was only a remote possibility, at the time paragraph 79A(1)(a) was satisfied; or
 - (iii) in a case in which subparagraph 79A(1)(b)(iii) applies—the material change alters the nature of the national security risk posed at the time paragraph 79A(1)(a) was satisfied; and

Part 3 Powers of Treasurer

Division 3 Last resort powers: orders to deal with national security risks arising after an initial assessment

Section 79D

- (c) the Treasurer must also be satisfied that:

Part 5—Offences and civil penalties

Division 1—Simplified outline of this Part

83 Simplified outline of this Part

To ensure that persons comply with their obligations under this Act, this Part provides for a range of enforcement options, including criminal offences and civil penalties.

There are additional civil penalties in relation to residential land. Some of these penalties may be calculated by reference to the market value of, or consideration for, the acquisition of the interest in the residential land or the capital gain from disposing of the interest.

Part 2.4 of the Criminal Code, which among other things extends criminal responsibility to those who attempt to commit an offence or incite another person to commit an offence, applies to offences against this Act. A similar provision for civil penalty provisions is found in section 92 of the Regulatory Powers Act, and applies to civil penalty provisions in this Act.

An officer of a corporation who authorises or permits the corporation to commit an offence or contravene a civil penalty provision may also commit an offence or contravene a civil penalty provision. Similarly, an officer of a corporation may contravene a civil penalty provision by failing to prevent a contravention of the civil penalty provision by the corporation.

The Regulatory Powers Act applies in relation to civil penalty orders, infringement notices, searches and enforceable undertakings under this Act. The Treasurer may give directions if the Treasurer has reason to believe that a person has engaged, or is engaging, in conduct that contravenes, or will contravene, this Act.

Reasonable steps to prevent contravention

Kinds of interests covered by this subsection

- (a) paragraphs 104(1)(a) to (c) apply to the person; and
 - (b) the contravention mentioned in paragraph 104(1)(a) does not relate to the acquisition of the interest in the land; and
 - (c) the Treasurer is satisfied that the declaration is necessary to secure the payment of the penalty mentioned in paragraph 104(1)(b).

Treasurer's declaration—extending land to which charge applies

- (2) The Treasurer may declare, in writing, that section 104 applies in relation to Australian land (the additional land) in which a person has an interest if:

Content of declaration under subsection (1)

- (4) For a declaration under subsection (1), if the person has more than one interest in Australian land, the declaration must specify the land to which section 104 applies. The Treasurer may specify more than one area of Australian land only if the Treasurer is satisfied that specifying each of those areas is necessary to secure the payment of the penalty.

Declarations not legislative instruments

- (5) A declaration under subsection (1) or (2) is not a legislative instrument.

106 Effect of charge on land

- (1) A charge created on land under section 104 has priority over any other interest in the land (even if the interest has been registered on a land register).
- (2) The charge remains in force until:
 - (a) all of the following amounts are paid:
 - (i) the penalty mentioned in subsection 104(1);

- (5) The Treasurer's powers under subsection (4) include:

 - (i) the interest is an estate in fee simple in the land or an interest in a long term lease; and
 - (ii) the person holds the interest alone.

Note: Subsection (4) contains an exception to this section (proceeds of crime orders).

Section 107

- (2) At the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (1)(b):
- (a) the interest in the Australian land vests in equity in the Commonwealth but does not vest in the Commonwealth at law until the applicable registration requirements have been complied with; and
 - (b) the Treasurer has power, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to do anything necessary or convenient to give notice of, or otherwise protect, the Commonwealth's equitable interest in the Australian land; and

108 When the Commonwealth can begin dealing with interests in land

- (1) The Treasurer, and persons acting on the Commonwealth's behalf, can dispose of, or otherwise deal with, a person's interest in Australian land that vests under section 107 only after the later of the following times:
 - (a) if the period provided for lodging an appeal against the finding in relation to the person mentioned in subsection 104(1) has ended without such an appeal having been lodged—the end of that period;
 - (b) if an appeal against the finding in relation to the person has been lodged—the appeal lapses or is finally determined.
- (2) However, such disposals and dealings may occur earlier with the leave of a court and in accordance with any directions of a court.

109 Disposing of interests in land

- (1) The Treasurer must, on behalf of the Commonwealth, dispose of an interest in a person's (the owner's) land that vests in the Commonwealth under section 107 as soon as practicable after the time mentioned in section 108.

 - (b) any other penalty that is due and payable to the Commonwealth under this Act by the owner; and
 - (c) any costs incurred by the Commonwealth in relation to the disposal.

Section 110

- (4) The Treasurer must pay the remainder of the proceeds, if any, to the persons mentioned in subsection (6) in the order in which they appear in that subsection.

Note: Not all of the persons mentioned in subsection (6) may be paid if the proceeds are insufficient.

- (5) If the remainder of the proceeds is insufficient to pay:
- (a) all of the persons mentioned in paragraph (6)(a); or
 - (b) after paying all of the persons mentioned in paragraph (6)(a), all of the persons mentioned in paragraph (6)(b);
- the Treasurer must pay each person mentioned in that paragraph proportionately.
- (6) The persons are as follows:
- (a) a person holding a mortgage, charge or other interest over the land if the mortgage, charge or interest:

 - (d) the owner.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Commonwealth to recover penalties by other means.

110 Exemption from stamp duty and other State or Territory taxes and fees

- (1) No stamp duty or other tax or fee is payable under a law of a State or a Territory in respect of the vesting of an interest in Australian land under section 107, or anything connected with the vesting of the interest, if the Treasurer, in writing:

Note: For the definitions of acquisition of property and just terms, see section 4.

- (2) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

Part 6A—Vacancy fees for foreign acquisitions of residential land

Division 1—Simplified outline of this Part

115A Simplified outline of this Part

A vacancy fee is payable by a foreign person for any dwelling on residential land, for any year (called a vacancy year), if the dwelling is residentially occupied for less than 183 days in the year.

A dwelling is residentially occupied on a day in any of the following circumstances (or any combination of these circumstances over the vacancy year):

- (a) the foreign person, or a relative of the foreign person, genuinely occupies the dwelling as a residence (whether or not with other persons);
- (b) the dwelling is genuinely occupied as a residence under a lease or licence with a term of 30 or more days;
- (c) the dwelling is genuinely available for occupation as a residence under a lease or licence with a term of 30 or more days.

The amount of the vacancy fee is found in regulations made under the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Fees Imposition Act 2015. However, a vacancy fee may be waived or remitted.

The foreign person is required to give a vacancy fee return to the Commissioner of Taxation after the end of each vacancy year for a dwelling. The person must also keep all relevant records for 5 years after disposal of the interest in residential land.

Unpaid vacancy fees for a dwelling may be recovered as a debt, or by the creation of a charge over Australian land in which an interest is held by the foreign person. The charge also secures any unpaid penalties for contraventions of civil penalty provisions under this Part relating to giving annual returns and keeping records.

Division 2—Vacancy fees: liability

115B Scope of this Division—persons and land

- (1) This Division applies in relation to a person if:
 - (a) the person is a foreign person; and
 - (b) the person acquires an interest in residential land on which one or more dwellings are, or are to be, situated; and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the acquisition is a notifiable action; or
 - (ii) the acquisition would be a notifiable action were it not for section 49 (actions that are not notifiable actions—exemption certificates).

Note: Regulations made for the purposes of section 37 may provide for circumstances in which this Division does not apply in relation to a person or a dwelling.

- (2) The Commissioner of Taxation has the general administration of this Part.

Note: This Part is therefore a taxation law for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (among other laws). That Act contains a wide range of provisions about gathering, protecting and dealing with information, the exercise of powers and the performance of functions, under taxation laws, and the enforcement of taxation laws.

- (3) However, the provisions of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 mentioned in subsection 138(2) of this Act do not apply in relation to this Part.

115C Liability for vacancy fees

Main rule

- (1) The person must pay a fee (a vacancy fee) in relation to each dwelling on the land that is residentially occupied for fewer than 183 days during each vacancy year for the dwelling.

Note: The amount of the vacancy fee is in regulations made under the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Fees Imposition Act 2015.

Vacancy year

- (2) A vacancy year, for a dwelling on the land, is the first, and each successive, period of 12 months since the occupation day for the dwelling during which the person has continuously held the interest in land.

Occupation day

- (3) The occupation day for a dwelling on the land is:
- (a) if the dwelling is an established dwelling, unless paragraph (c) applies—the first day the person acquires the right to occupy the dwelling; or
 - (b) if the dwelling is a new dwelling, or the interest in the dwelling acquired by the person is a near-new dwelling interest, unless paragraph (c) applies—the later of:
 - (i) the day on which a certificate of fitness for occupancy or use (however described) is issued in relation to the dwelling for the purposes of the law of a State or Territory relating to approvals of new dwellings; and
 - (ii) the first day the person acquires the right to occupy the dwelling; or
 - (c) a day prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this paragraph.

Residential occupation

- (4) A dwelling is residentially occupied on a day if:
- (a) the person, or a relative of the person, genuinely occupies the dwelling as a residence on that day (with or without any other persons); or
 - (b) the dwelling is genuinely occupied on that day as a residence under a lease or licence with a term of 30 or more days; or

Section 115D

- (c) the dwelling is genuinely available on that day for occupation as a residence under a lease or licence with a term of 30 or more days.

115D Vacancy fee liability—vacancy fee return

- (1) Within 30 days after the end of the vacancy year for a dwelling on the land, the person must give a vacancy fee return to the Commissioner of Taxation for the dwelling, in accordance with subsection (2).

Civil penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (2) The return must be in the approved form within the meaning of section 388-50 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.
- (3) If the Commissioner of Taxation is satisfied that the person has contravened subsection (1), the person is taken to be liable to pay a vacancy fee in relation to the dwelling under section 115C regardless of the number of days during the vacancy year on which the dwelling is residentially occupied.

Note: This section has no application to the person if the person has disposed of his or her interest in the land before the end of the vacancy year.

Person holds the interest jointly with one or more other foreign persons

- (4) Subsection (1) ceases to apply to the person for the vacancy year and the dwelling on the land if:
- (a) the person holds the interest in land jointly with one or more other foreign persons (whether or not the first-mentioned person also holds the interest jointly with one or more other persons who are not foreign persons); and
- (b) this Division also applies in relation to that other foreign person, or those other foreign persons, for the dwelling on the land; and

- (c) that other foreign person, or at least one of those other foreign persons, both:
 - (i) has a vacancy year for the dwelling that is the same as the first-mentioned person's vacancy year; and
 - (ii) complies with subsection (1) for that vacancy year and the dwelling.

115DA Vacancy fee liability—false or misleading vacancy fee return

- (1) A person who gives a vacancy fee return to the Commissioner of Taxation for the purposes of subsection 115D(1) must ensure that the return does not contain information that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Civil penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (2) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of subsection (1), information or documents may be false or misleading in a material particular because of the omission of a matter or thing.

115E Vacancy fee liability—notice of liability for vacancy fee

- (1) The Treasurer or the Commissioner of Taxation must give written notice to a person liable to pay a vacancy fee for a dwelling in relation to a vacancy year of the amount of the fee, and the reasons why the person is liable to pay the fee.

Note: Section 25D of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 sets out rules about the contents of a statement of reasons.

- (2) If the Treasurer decides to waive or remit all of the vacancy fee under section 115H, reasons for the waiver or remission are not required to be given under subsection (1).
- (3) A notice given to a person by the Treasurer or the Commissioner of Taxation under this section is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the notice.

115F Vacancy fee liability—due date

A vacancy fee for a dwelling becomes due for payment on a day specified in the notice under section 115E, which must be at least 21 days after the notice is given to the person.

115G Vacancy fee liability—requirement to keep records

Main requirement

- (1) The person must:
 - (a) keep records, in accordance with subsection (2), that record and explain all transactions and other acts the person engages in that are relevant to the person's liability for vacancy fees for each dwelling on the land in each vacancy year for the dwelling; and
 - (b) retain those records for at least 5 years after the end of each such vacancy year.

Civil penalty: 500 penalty units.

Records in English

- (2) The records must be in English, or readily accessible and easily convertible into English.

Exception

- (3) This section does not require the person to retain a record if:
 - (a) the Commissioner of Taxation notifies the person that the person does not need to retain the record; or
 - (b) the person is a company that has been finally dissolved.

115H Vacancy fee liability—waiver and remission

The Treasurer may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, waive or remit the whole or a part of a vacancy fee if the Treasurer is satisfied that it is not contrary to the national interest to waive or remit the fee.

Division 3—Vacancy fees: recovery of unpaid fees

Creation of charge

- (2) A charge is created on the land to secure the payment of the following amounts:
- (a) amounts of vacancy fees (unpaid vacancy fees) that are due for payment under section 115F, and have not been paid, in relation to that land or any other interest in land held by the person;

Section 115L

 - (i) subsection 115D(1) (which deals with vacancy fee returns);
 - (ia) subsection 115DA(1) (vacancy fee liability—false or misleading vacancy fee return);
 - (ii) subsection 115G(1) (which deals with the requirement to keep records).
- (3) The charge under subsection (2) is created at the time the declaration under section 115L comes into force.

Exception in relation to proceeds of crime orders

 - (a) a restraining order is in force in relation to the land under Part 2-1 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002; or
 - (b) a forfeiture order is in force in relation to the land under Part 2-2 of that Act; or

 - (a) unpaid vacancy fees; and
 - (b) unpaid vacancy penalties (if any).
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1) must specify:

Note: For service of notices or other documents relating to the application, see section 135A.

- (2) On application under subsection (1), a court may make the order sought if:

 - (b) the court is satisfied that it is necessary to make the order to recover the amount of the unpaid vacancy fees and any unpaid vacancy penalties; and
 - (c) the Australian land is not charged under section 104 (which provides for the creation of charges to secure the payment of pecuniary penalties for the contravention of civil penalty provisions); and

No stamp duty or other tax or fee is payable under a law of a State or a Territory in respect of the vesting of an interest in Australian land under section 115P, or anything connected with the vesting of the interest, if the Treasurer, by notifiable instrument:

For example, a person may be required to give a further register notice in relation to a registered circumstance if the nature of the interest that gave rise to the registered circumstance changes, or if the registered circumstance ceases. The events that result in a registered circumstance ceasing are set out in this Part.

No fee is payable for giving a register notice under this Part.

The Register will be required to be kept, and the notice requirements will begin to apply, on the Register commencement day.

A civil penalty applies to a failure to give a notice as required by this Part.

 - (b) the foreign person is aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the cessation.

Note 1: A register notice need not be given under this section if a registered circumstance ceases before the register notice that would give rise to the registered circumstance is given. However, the data standards may require a register notice to state whether the registered circumstance has already ceased at the time the register notice is given.

Note 2: A registered circumstance may exist only on or after the Register commencement day.

- (2) The registrable event day for a register notice under this section is the day on which the foreign person is aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, that the registered circumstance has ceased.
- (3) However, if the registered circumstance is a registered circumstance under section 130ZE or 130ZF (registrable water interests), the registrable event day for a register notice under this section is the last day of the financial year in which the registered circumstance ceases.

130ZR Foreign person ceases to be a foreign person while registered circumstances exist

- (1) A person must give a register notice to the Registrar if:
 - (a) one or more registered circumstances relate to the person; and
 - (b) the person ceases to be a foreign person.

Note: A registered circumstance may exist only on or after the Register commencement day.

- (2) Each such registered circumstance ceases when the register notice is given. No register notice under section 130ZQ is required for the cessation of a registered circumstance under this subsection.
- (3) Subject to subsections (5) and (7) of this section, the registrable event day for a register notice under this section is the day on which the person ceases to be a foreign person.

Notice by executor or administrator of person who has died

- (4) If the person ceases to be a foreign person because the person dies, the executor or administrator of the person's estate must give the register notice to the Registrar.

Note: The executor or administrator may also be required to give a register notice or notices under section 130ZS.

- (5) If subsection (4) applies to a register notice, the registrable event day for the register notice under this section is the day on which the executor or administrator is appointed.

Notice by liquidator of corporation that is wound up

- (6) If the person ceases to be a foreign person because the person is a corporation that is wound up, the liquidator of the corporation must give the register notice to the Registrar.

Note: The liquidator may also be required to give a register notice or notices under section 130ZT.

- (7) If subsection (6) applies to a register notice, the registrable event day for the register notice under this section is the day on which the corporation is wound up.

130ZS Requirement for executor or administrator to give notice for person who dies before giving notice

- (1) If a person who is required to give a register notice to the Registrar under a provision of this Division dies before giving the notice, the executor or administrator of the person's estate must give the register notice in accordance with the provision.

 - (d) circumstances in which such a registered circumstance ceases.
- (2) A person who is required to give a register notice under regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) must comply with the requirement.
- (3) To avoid doubt, circumstances prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or (d) may relate to matters or events occurring before, on or after the Register commencement day.

- (3) A direction under subsection (1) must be of a general nature only.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent a direction under subsection (1) from relating to a particular matter to be dealt with in the data standards. However, the direction must not direct the Registrar how to apply the data standards in a particular case.
- (5) The Registrar must comply with a direction under subsection (1).

130ZX Delegation

- (2) The statistics in the report must not identify, or be reasonably capable of being used to identify, a person.
- (3) The Registrar must give the report to the Treasurer as soon as practicable after 30 June in the financial year.

Note: See also section 34C of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, which contains extra rules about periodic reports.

130ZZ Data standards

- (1) The Registrar may, by legislative instrument, determine data standards on matters relating to the performance of the Registrar's functions and the exercise of the Registrar's powers.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the data standards may provide for any of the following:

An act is not invalidated by the fact that it constitutes an offence against or contravention of a civil penalty provision of this Act.

An application or notice that is withdrawn is of no effect.

137 Delegation of powers or functions

Delegations by Treasurer

- (1) The Treasurer may, in writing, delegate to the following persons all or any of the Treasurer's powers or functions under this Act (except under subsection 122(4) or section 105, 106, 107, 110, 130R, 130ZW or regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 130Z(2)(d)):
- (a) the Secretary;
 - (b) the Commissioner of Taxation;
 - (c) a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 who is employed in the Department or the Australian Taxation Office.

- (b) an instrument made under regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 130Z(2)(d);
- (c) paragraph 133(1)(b) or (c) (power to require information or documents);
- (d) section 135A (service of notices and other documents) in relation to a notice under paragraph 133(1)(b) or (c).

- (5) Sections 34AA, 34AB and 34A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 apply in relation to the subdelegation in a way corresponding to the way in which they apply in relation to a delegation.

Directions

- (6) In exercising powers or performing functions delegated or subdelegated by a person under this section, the delegate or subdelegate must comply with any directions of the person.

Section 138

Delegations in relation to specified kinds of matters

- (7) Without limiting this section or subsection 33(3A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, a power or function may be delegated or subdelegated generally or only in relation to specified kinds of matters.

Powers and functions under the Regulatory Powers Act

- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a power or function that a person has under the Regulatory Powers Act (as it applies in relation to this Act).

Note: Powers and functions of this kind may be delegated under sections 99, 100 and 101F.

138 Powers of Commissioner of Taxation

Powers of Commissioner of Taxation as a result of delegation under section 137

- (1) If a power or function under a provision of this Act is delegated to the Commissioner of Taxation under section 137, the Commissioner has the general administration of this Act to the extent of administering the provision.

Note: The provision is therefore a taxation law for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (among other laws). That Act contains a wide range of provisions about gathering, protecting and dealing with information, the exercise of powers and the performance of functions, under taxation laws, and the enforcement of taxation laws.

- (2) However, the following provisions of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 do not apply in relation to this Act:
- (a) section 255-10 (to defer the payment time);
 - (b) Subdivision 255-D in that Schedule (security deposits);
 - (c) Part 4-25 (charges and penalties), other than section 288-35 and Division 298 to the extent that it relates to that section;
 - (d) Part 4-50 (release from particular liabilities);
 - (e) paragraph 355-15(c) (application of Division 355);

- (f) Part 5-5 (rulings);
 - (g) Division 444 (obligations of entities on behalf of other entities).
- (3) To avoid doubt, the Secretary or a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 who is employed in the Department may be a taxation officer (within the meaning of subsection 8J(1) of the Taxation Administration Act 1953) to the extent that this Act is a taxation law.

Powers of Commissioner of Taxation as a result of delegation under section 101F

- (3A) Subsections (1) to (3) apply in relation to a delegation to the Commissioner of Taxation under section 101F in the same way as they apply in relation to a delegation to the Commissioner under section 137.

Note: Section 101F allows for the delegation to the Commissioner of certain powers and functions under the Regulatory Powers Act (as it applies in relation to this Act).

- (3B) However, for the purposes of applying subsection (2) in relation to a delegation to the Commissioner of Taxation under section 101F, treat that subsection as including the following paragraph:
- (da) sections 353-10 and 353-15 (powers to obtain information and evidence and access premises);

Powers of Commissioner of Taxation as a result of request by Treasurer

- (4) The Treasurer may request, in writing, the Commissioner of Taxation to exercise his or her powers under section 353-10 or 353-15 (powers to obtain information and evidence and access premises) in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 in relation to a matter if a power or function has not been delegated to the Commissioner under section 137 in relation to the matter.
- (5) If the Treasurer does so, the Commissioner of Taxation (or an individual authorised by the Commissioner) may exercise his or her powers under those sections of that Act as if a reference in those sections to a taxation law included a reference to this Act to the extent that it relates to the matter.

139 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters:
 - (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed by the regulations; or
 - (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

- (3) Despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, the regulations may provide in relation to a matter by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any matter contained in any other instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
