the registering officer shall register that death under this Act.

(3) Before registering a death, a registering officer may make such inquiries as he thinks fit to inform himself of the matters of which he is required to be satisfied before registering the death.

Registration of death on basis of knowledge of registering officer

13. Subject to section 14, where—

- (a) a registering officer becomes aware, otherwise than by reason of an application under sub-section 10 (1), of the death of a person, not being a death that is deemed by paragraph 9 (1) (a) to have occurred on board a flying craft or ship; and
- (b) the registering officer is satisfied that—
 - (i) the death is that of a prescribed person who died otherwise than in a State or Territory; and
 - (ii) the death may be registered under this Act,

the registering officer shall register that death under this Act.

Registration prohibited in certain circumstances

14. (1) A registering officer shall not register a death under this Act if he knows, or has reason to believe, that the death has already been registered under this Act.

(2) A registering officer, other than the Registrar, shall not register a death under this Act if he knows, or has reason to believe, that an application for the registration of the death under this Act has been refused by another registering officer.

Method of registration

15. (1) Where, under this Act, a registering officer is required to register the death of a person, he shall do so by completing a certificate in writing, to be known as a Certificate of Death Abroad, containing such of the particulars relating to the person, death or registering officer that are prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this sub-section as are known to him.

(2) A Certificate of Death Abroad shall not be taken to have been completed by a registering officer unless and until he has signed the certificate and—

- (b) in the case of a registering officer holding, or performing the duties of, an office which is referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “registering officer” in sub-section 3 (1) and in respect of which there is an official seal—has affixed that seal to the certificate.

(3) Where a death is registered on the application of a person under sub-section 10 (1) or (2), the registering officer shall make, and give to that person, a copy of the Certificate of Death Abroad relating to the death unless that person has informed him that he does not require a copy of the certificate.

(4) Where a registering officer completes a Certificate of Death Abroad, he shall make a copy of the certificate (in addition to any copy required to be made under sub-section (3)) and cause that copy to be retained at a place that is appropriate for the keeping of records made by him for the purposes of this Act.

(5) Without limiting the generality of sub-section (1), regulations made for the purposes of that sub-section may prescribe particulars for inclusion only in specified classes of Certificates of Death Abroad or may prescribe different particulars for inclusion in different classes of Certificates of Death Abroad.

(b) completes a Certificate of Death Abroad under section 15, he shall enter, or cause to be entered, in the Register such of the particulars contained in the certificate as are required by the regulations to be entered.

(3) If, by reason of applications for the registration of a death having been made to registering officers in different places or otherwise, a particular death is registered under this Act, and Certificates of Death Abroad in relation to the death are completed, by more than one registering officer, the Registrar shall comply with sub-section (2) in relation to one only of those Certificates of Death Abroad.

(4) Without limiting the generality of sub-section (1), regulations made for the purposes of that sub-section may prescribe particulars to be entered only in specified classes of Certificates of Death Abroad or may prescribe different particulars to be entered in different classes of Certificates of Death Abroad.

(4) Instead of signing his name on a document (including a Certificate of Death Abroad and an entry in the Register), or on a copy of, or an extract from, a document, in pursuance of, or for the purposes of, a provision of this Act, the Registrar may stamp the document, copy or extract with, or cause the document, copy or extract to be stamped with, the stamp referred to in sub-section (3), and the document, copy or extract shall then be deemed to have been signed by him.

(5) All courts and all persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the mark of a stamp referred to in this section appearing on a document or a copy of, or an extract from, a document and, in the absence of proof to the contrary, shall presume that it was affixed by proper authority.

(3) Subject to sub-section (4), the Registrar shall, on receipt of an application made under sub-section (1) and of the relevant prescribed fee or fees, cause a search to be made for the relevant entry in the index and the Register and—

- (a) if there is such an entry in the Register and the applicant did not apply for a copy of, or an extract from, the entry—issue to the applicant a notification of the result of the search;
- (b) if there is such an entry in the Register and the applicant applied for a copy of, or an extract from, the entry—issue to the applicant a copy of, or an extract from, the entry, as the case may be, certified by the Registrar in accordance with the prescribed form; or
- (c) if the search fails to locate such an entry—issue to the applicant a notification of the result of the search.

(4) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that an applicant under this section does not have a proper reason for requiring a search, copy or extract or requires a search, copy or extract for an improper reason, he may refuse to make the search, issue the copy or issue the extract, as the case requires.

(5) Where—

- (a) on an application under sub-section (1), a person has paid both a fee for a search and a fee for the issue of a copy of, or an extract from, an entry in the Register; and

- (b) the Registrar issues to that person a notification under paragraph (3) (c), that person is entitled to have refunded to him the amount of the fee for the issue of the copy or extract.

Correction of errors in Register

20. (1) Subject to sub-section (4), where the Registrar is satisfied that there is an error or mis-statement in, or an omission from, any particulars entered in the Register, he may correct the Register by causing the true particulars, or the particulars omitted from the Register, as the case may be, to be entered in the Register on the page of the Register containing the entry in relation to the death to which the particulars relate.

(2) Where the Registrar causes particulars to be entered in the Register under sub-section (1), he shall sign his name immediately under the particulars and write the date on which those particulars were so entered.

(3) Where a person believes that there is an error or mis-statement in, or an omission from, any particulars entered in the Register, he may apply, in writing, to the Registrar for the correction in accordance with sub-section (1) of the Register in relation to those particulars, specifying the error, mis-statement or omission that he believes exists and the reasons for his belief.

(4) Where the Registrar intends to exercise his powers under sub-section (1) in respect of an entry in relation to a death, otherwise than on the application of the person who applied for the registration of the death, he shall, unless he is satisfied that it is impracticable to do so, give that person notice, in writing, of his intention specifying the particulars that he intends to cause to be entered in the Register and, where he gives such notice, he shall not cause those particulars to be entered in the Register unless and until he has considered any objection made by that person, within 14 days after the giving of the notice, to the entry of those particulars.

(5) Any failure by the Registrar to comply with the requirements of sub-section (4) shall not be taken to affect the validity of any entry of particulars in the Register under sub-section (1).

(1) Subject to sub-section (4), where the Registrar is satisfied that there is an error or mis-statement in, or an omission from, any particulars entered in a Certificate of Death Abroad, he may correct the Certificate by causing the true particulars, or the particulars omitted from the Certificate, as the case may be, to be entered in the certificate.

(2) Where the Registrar causes particulars to be entered in a Certificate of Death Abroad under sub-section (1), he shall sign his name immediately under the particulars and write the date on which those particulars were so entered.

(4) Where the Registrar intends to exercise his powers under sub-section (1) in respect of a Certificate of Death Abroad, otherwise than on the application of the person who applied for the registration of the death to which the Certificate relates, he shall, unless he is satisfied that it is impracticable to do so, give that person notice in writing of his intention specifying the particulars that he intends to cause to be entered in the Certificate and, where he gives such notice, he shall not cause those particulars to be entered in the Certificate unless and until he has considered any objection made by that person, within 14 days after the giving of the notice, to the entry of those particulars.

(5) Any failure by the Registrar to comply with the requirements of sub-section (4) shall not be taken to affect the validity of any entry of particulars in a Certificate of Death Abroad under sub-section (1).

(6) Where the Registrar is satisfied that there is an error or mis-statement in, or an omission from, any particulars entered in a Certificate of Death Abroad, he may require the person who holds the Certificate to surrender the Certificate to him so that the Certificate may be corrected in accordance with sub-section (1) but, after the Registrar has corrected the Certificate, he shall return the Certificate to that person.

(7) A person who holds a Certificate of Death Abroad who is required by the Registrar under sub-section (6) to surrender the Certificate shall comply with the requirement.

(2) The Registrar shall cancel the registration of a death under sub-section (1) by writing in the margin of the entry in the Register that relates to that death the words "Registration of death cancelled", signing his name immediately under those words and adding the date on which the registration was cancelled.

(3) Where a person believes that a death that has been registered under this Act has not occurred, he may apply, in writing, to the Registrar for the cancellation in accordance with sub-section (1) of the registration of that death, specifying the reasons for his belief.

(4) Where the Registrar intends to exercise his powers under sub-section (1) in respect of the registration of a death, otherwise than on the application of the person who applied for the registration, he shall, unless he is satisfied that it is impracticable to do so, give that person notice in writing of his intention and, where he gives such notice, he shall not cancel the registration of that death unless and until he has considered any objection made by that person, within 14 days after the giving of the notice, to the cancellation of the registration.

(5) Any failure by the Registrar to comply with the requirements of sub-section (4) shall not be taken to affect the validity of any cancellation of the registration of a death.

(6) Where the registration of a death is cancelled under sub-section (1), the Certificate of Death Abroad, or the Certificates of Death Abroad, that relate to that death is or are void.

(7) Where the registration of a death is cancelled under sub-section (1), the Registrar may require any person holding a Certificate of Death Abroad that relates to that death to surrender the certificate to him.

- (b) that those facts were duly recorded in the Register; and
- (c) that the death which is recorded in the Register and to which the copy or extract relates was duly registered under this Act, and a document purporting to be such a copy or extract shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be such a copy or extract and to have been duly issued.

(3) A Certificate of Death Abroad, not being a certificate that is void by reason of sub-section 22 (6), is prima facie evidence—

(a) of the facts stated in it; and

(b) that the death to which the certificate relates was duly registered under this Act, and a document purporting to be a Certificate of Death Abroad shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to be a valid Certificate of Death Abroad.

(4) In this section, “Certificate of Death Abroad” has the same meaning as it has in section 21.
