  - (d) made by such an overseas authority on behalf of the payee.
- (1C) If either the payer or the payee of a registrable maintenance liability that is not registered under this Act is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the payer may apply to the Registrar, in a manner specified by the Registrar, for the registration of the liability under this Act.
- (1D) If the payer is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the application mentioned in subsection (1C) must be either:
  - (a) made by the payer and given to the Registrar by an overseas authority of the reciprocating jurisdiction; or
  - (b) made directly to the Registrar.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if the Registrar receives an application from the payee or payer the Registrar must, within 28 days after receiving the application, register the liability under this Act by entering particulars of the liability in the Child Support Register.
- (2A) However, if either the payer or the payee is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the Registrar has 90 days to register the liability, instead of 28 days.
- (2B) The Registrar may refuse to register a registrable overseas maintenance liability if the Registrar is satisfied that the liability arises in a manner that is inconsistent with the international maintenance arrangement on which the payee relies.
- (2C) If:
  - (a) a registered maintenance liability relates to a particular child, a particular payer and a particular payee; and
  - (b) a registrable maintenance liability:
    - (i) that relates to the same child, payer and payee; and
    - (ii) that arose before the registered maintenance liability arose;

first comes to the notice of the Registrar after the registration of the registered maintenance liability;
the Registrar must not register the registrable maintenance liability except for the purpose of facilitating the recovery of arrears under it.

- (2D) A registrable maintenance liability that is registered to facilitate the recovery of arrears under it is to be treated for all other purposes as if it had not been registered.
- (3) The Registrar must not register the liability if the payee has given notice, or is required to give notice, under subsection 23(2) in relation to the liability.
- (4) The regulations may provide that this section applies in relation to collection agency maintenance liabilities only if specified conditions or restrictions are complied with or only in specified circumstances.

Note: In relation to applications made under subsection (1) or (1C), section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which the application may be made.

25A Inclusion of certain liabilities in the Child Support Register

- (1) A payee may apply to the Registrar for entry, in the Child Support Register, of the particulars of an overseas maintenance liability that is not a registrable overseas maintenance liability.
- (2) An application must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.
- (3) In the absence of an application made in accordance with subsection (2), a document or documents given by the payee may be taken to be an application for entry of the particulars of an overseas maintenance liability if the Registrar is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.
- (4) The Registrar must, within 90 days after receiving an application, enter the particulars of the liability in the Child Support Register if the Registrar is satisfied that to do so would be consistent with the international maintenance arrangement on which the payee relies.

Section 25B

- (5) The Registrar may refuse to register a maintenance assessment, order or agreement issued, made or registered in a foreign country that is a party to an international treaty and that is prescribed by the regulations if the payee is habitually resident in that country.
- (6) For the purposes of this Act, a decision under this section is taken to be a decision in relation to a registrable maintenance liability.

25B Effect of inclusion

- (1) If the particulars of an overseas maintenance liability are entered in the Child Support Register under section 25A, an amount payable under the maintenance assessment, order or agreement that gives rise to the liability is a debt due to the payee.
- (2) A debt due under this section is recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction by the payee from the person who is liable to make payments under the liability.

25C Limitation on inclusion of liabilities in Register

Despite anything else in this Division, the Registrar must not register a liability if neither the payee nor the payer is a resident of Australia.

26 Particulars of liability to be entered in Child Support Register

Particulars of the child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement

- (1) The entry in the Child Support Register in relation to a registered maintenance liability must include particulars from the child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement under which the liability arose. Those particulars are as follows:
  - (a) the name of the payer;
  - (b) the name of the payee;

- (c) particulars of the child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement under which the liability arose and each assessment, court order and maintenance agreement varying or otherwise affecting the first-mentioned assessment, order or agreement, being particulars that are, in the opinion of the Registrar, sufficient to adequately identify the basis of the liability;
  - (d) the name and date of birth of each child to whose maintenance the entry relates;
  - (e) the name of any other person to whose maintenance the entry relates;
  - (f) the periodic amount, or the aggregate of the periodic amounts that are:
    - (i) stipulated in the child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement under which the liability arose; and
    - (ii) payable by the payer in relation to the entry;
  - (g) if the entry relates to the maintenance of 2 or more persons—the periodic amount attributable to each of them;
  - (h) the period specified in the child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement as the period at which amounts are payable under the liability;
  - (i) particulars of any terms and conditions of the court order or agreement that the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to include in the entry to ensure that all the terms and conditions of the order or agreement relating to the liability are fully given effect to under this Act.
- (1A) To avoid doubt, the reference to 2 or more persons in paragraph (1)(g) does not include a reference to 2 or more children in relation to whom a single administrative assessment applies (see section 67 of the Assessment Act).

Section 26

Particulars as to the payment period and payment rate

- (2) The entry in the Register must also include particulars relating to the payment rate and payment period in respect of the liability. Those particulars are as follows:
- (a) the initial period (determined under section 26C) (if any) at which an amount is payable in respect of the liability;
  - (b) the payment period (determined under section 26A, 26B or 42A or Part IV), after the initial period (if any), at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability, and the start day of the period;
  - (c) if employer withholding is to apply in relation to a liability—a weekly rate of payment in relation to the periodic amount, or the aggregate of the periodic amounts;
  - (d) the rate of payment (weekly, fortnightly, 4 weekly or monthly) in relation to the periodic amount, or the aggregate of the periodic amounts, payable by the payer in relation to the entry and the amount of the rate of payment.

Note 1: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

Note 2: Section 28B requires the Registrar to convert the periodic amount payable in respect of a registrable maintenance liability to a rate of payment depending upon the payment period determined in respect of the liability.

Particulars relating to enforceability of the liability

- (3) The entry in the Register must also include particulars relating to the enforceability of the liability. Those particulars are as follows:
- (a) the day on which the liability first becomes enforceable under this Act;
  - (b) if the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act (whether on one occasion or more than one occasion)—each day on which the liability ceases to be so enforceable;
  - (c) if the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act and again becomes so enforceable (whether on one occasion or more than one occasion)—each day on which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act;

- (d) particulars of any suspension of the liability.

Other particulars that the Register may include

- (4) The entry in the Register may also include the following particulars in relation to the liability:
- (a) the daily rate of payment in relation to the periodic amount, or the aggregate of the periodic amounts, payable by the payer in relation to the entry;
  - (b) a statement of whether or not employer withholding applies in relation to the liability;
  - (c) such other matters as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to be included in the Child Support Register.

Registrable overseas maintenance liabilities

- (5) In the case of a registrable overseas maintenance liability, the entry in the Child Support Register must include the particulars mentioned in this section that are relevant to the liability.

26A Payment period to be entered in Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) if Registrar to collect by deduction from salary or wages

Application of section

- (1) This section applies to a registrable maintenance liability or an enforceable maintenance liability if the Registrar is to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, the liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability.

Object of section

- (2) This section deals with the determination, in relation to a liability, of:
- (a) the payment period the Registrar must enter in the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) as the period at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability (see subsection (3)); and

Section 26B

- (b) the day that the Registrar must enter in the Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) as the day from which a payment period (see subsection (4)) starts.

Note: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

Period that must be registered where liability to be collected by deduction from salary or wages

- (3) If the Registrar is going to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under a liability, or in relation to the liability, by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer, the period that the Registrar must enter in the Register is the payment period that reflects the payer's pay cycle.

Example: If a payer is paid weekly, the payment period the Registrar must enter in the Child Support Register will be a week. Similarly, if the payer is paid monthly, the payment period the Registrar must enter in the Register will be a calendar month or a month.

Note: Part IV deals with collection by deduction from salary or wages.

Day from which a payment period starts

- (4) The start day of the payment period referred to in subsection (3) in respect of the liability, is a day specified by the Registrar. The day that the Registrar must specify is the first day of the first of the payment periods in which deduction from the salary or wages of the payer will occur.

26B Payment period to be entered in Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) if payer makes voluntary payments

Application of section

- (1) This section applies to a registrable maintenance liability or an enforceable maintenance liability if the Registrar is not going to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, the liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability.

Section 26B

Object of section

- (2) This section deals with the determination, in relation to a liability of:
- (a) the payment period that the Registrar must enter in the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) as the period at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability (see subsections (3) and (5)); and
  - (b) the day that the Registrar must enter in the Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) as the day from which an elected period (see subsection (4)) starts.

Note: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

Period that must be registered when liability to be paid voluntarily and election made

- (3) If:
- (a) the Registrar is not going to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, a liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability; and
  - (b) the payer makes an election that a payment period be entered in the Register as the period at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability; and
  - (c) the Registrar is satisfied that the payment period elected by the payer will be a convenient payment period for the payer to accrue debts;

the Registrar must enter in the Register the elected period as the period at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability.

Day from which elected period starts

- (4) In making an election under subsection (3), the payer must specify the day from which the payment period starts. The Registrar must enter in the Register the specified day as the day from which the elected period starts.

Section 26B

Example 1: The payer elects a 4 week period as the payment period. The payer elects that the start day of the period will be 8 July which is a Wednesday. Therefore the period will end 4 weeks later on a Tuesday.

Example 2: The payer elects a period of a month as the payment period. The payer elects that the start day will be 16 October. Therefore the period will end on 15 November. If the payer elects that the start day will be 31 January the period will end on 28 February.

Period that must be registered when liability to be paid voluntarily and no election is made or election is rejected

(5) If:

- (a) the Registrar is not going to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, a liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability; and
- (b) either:
  - (i) the payer does not make an election under subsection (3); or
  - (ii) the Registrar is not satisfied that the payment period elected by the payer will be a convenient payment period for the payer to accrue debts;

the Registrar must enter in the Register any payment period determined by the Registrar to be a convenient payment period for the payer to accrue debts as the period at which amounts are payable in respect of the liability.

Manner in which election is to be made

(6) An election made under subsection (3) must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an election may be made.

26C Initial period that may be registered under paragraph 26(2)(a)

- (1) If the Registrar is about to enter a period in the Child Support Register under subsection 26A(3) or 26B(3) in respect of a registrable maintenance liability or an enforceable maintenance liability, the Registrar may also enter in the Register an initial period under paragraph 26(2)(a) in respect of the liability.

When will the initial period start and end—Registrar about to enter liability

- (2) If the Registrar is about to register the liability, the initial period starts on the day on which the liability first becomes enforceable under this Act and ends:
- (a) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26A(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the Registrar under subsection 26A(4) in respect of the liability; or
  - (b) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26B(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the payer of the liability under subsection 26B(4).

Note: Section 28 deals with when a liability first becomes enforceable under this Act.

When will the initial period start and end—Registrar varies Register under subsection 37B(7) to again make a registered maintenance liability enforceable

- (3) If:
- (a) a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to a registered maintenance liability ends; and
  - (b) the Registrar has varied the particulars of the Register as required by paragraph 37B(7)(1)(a) by specifying the end of the low-income non-enforcement period as the time at which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act;

Section 26C

the initial period, in respect of the liability, starts on the day the Registrar has entered in the Register as the time at which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act and ends:

- (c) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26A(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the Registrar under subsection 26A(4) in respect of the liability; or
- (d) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26B(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the payer of the liability under subsection 26B(4).

When will the initial period start and end—Registrar receives an application under subsection 39(1) to again make a registered maintenance liability enforceable

(4) If:

- (a) the Registrar receives an application under subsection 39(1) for a registered maintenance liability to again become enforceable under this Act; and
- (b) the Registrar has varied the particulars of the Child Support Register as required by paragraph 39(6)(a) by specifying a day as the day on which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act;

the initial period, in respect of the liability, starts on the day the Registrar has entered in the Register as the day on which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act and ends:

- (c) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26A(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the Registrar under subsection 26A(4) in respect of the liability; or
- (d) in the case of the Registrar entering in the Register a payment period under subsection 26B(3)—on the day before the start day specified by the payer of the liability under subsection 26B(4).

27 Single entry in relation to all liabilities with same payer and payee

Where the payer and payee of a registrable maintenance liability are the same as the payer and payee of another registrable maintenance liability (whether or not the liabilities arise under the same child support assessment, court order or maintenance agreement and whether or not the liabilities are in relation to the maintenance of the same person), the Registrar may include particulars of the liabilities in the same entry in the Child Support Register.

28 Day on which liability first becomes enforceable under Act

- (1) A registered maintenance liability first becomes enforceable under this Act on whichever of the following days is applicable in relation to the liability:
  - (a) if the liability is a transferred maintenance liability—the day on which the liability is transferred to the Child Support Register;
  - (b) if the liability is registered under subsection 24(1)—the day on which the liability arose under, or was varied or otherwise affected by, the court order or maintenance agreement by virtue of which the liability is registered under that subsection;
  - (baa) if the liability is registered under subsection 24(2)—such day as is determined, in writing, by the Registrar (being a day not earlier than the day on which the liability arose under, or was varied or otherwise affected by, the court order or maintenance agreement by virtue of which the liability is registered under that subsection);
  - (ba) if the liability arose under a child support assessment and is registered under subsection 24A(1)—the day on and from which child support is payable under the assessment;
  - (c) if the liability is registered under subsection 25(2)—such day as is determined, in writing, by the Registrar (being a day not later than 60 days after the day on which the Registrar

Section 28A

- receives, under subsection 25(1), the relevant duly completed form from the payee of the liability);
- (d) if the liability is of a kind mentioned in subsection 18A(1), (2) or (3)—the day on which the Registrar receives the application for the liability to be registered under this Act;
  - (e) if the liability is an amount in arrears under a liability mentioned in subsection 18A(1) or (2) or paragraph 18A(3)(a)—the day on which the Registrar received the application for registration under this Act of the liability to which the arrears relate.
- (2) If the Registrar registers a liability referred to in paragraph (1)(e), this Act has effect as if the amounts in arrears were payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period that began on the day on which the liability first became enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of that paragraph.

28A Reversal of subsection 23(3) or 24A(2) election—collection of arrears

When section applies

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a payee applies under subsection 25(1) for registration of a registrable maintenance liability; and
  - (b) the payee has, at any time before the making of the application, made an election under subsection 23(3) or 24A(2) in relation to the liability.
- (1A) This section applies if:
  - (a) a payee applies under subsection 25(1) for registration of a registrable maintenance liability; and
  - (b) the registrable maintenance liability arises under a child support assessment made because of an application by the payer.

Maximum arrears period

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the maximum arrears period is the period:
- (a) beginning at whichever is latest of the following times:
    - (i) 9 months before the liability first becomes enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of paragraph 28(1)(c);
    - (ii) the beginning of the period to which the liability relates;
    - (iii) the commencement of this section; and
  - (b) ending at the time when the liability first becomes enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of paragraph 28(1)(c).

Application by payee for enforcement of arrears

- (3) The payee may apply to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, for any unpaid amounts payable under the liability in relation to a specified period to be treated as arrears amounts for the purposes of this section. The specified period must:
- (a) consist of, or be included in, the maximum arrears period; and
  - (b) end at the end of the maximum arrears period.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

Registrar's decision—arrears for 3 months or less

- (4) If:
- (a) the specified period does not exceed 3 months; and
  - (b) the Registrar registers the liability under subsection 25(2);
- the Registrar must grant the payee's application.

Registrar's decision—arrears for more than 3 months

- (5) If:
- (a) the specified period exceeds 3 months; and

Section 28A

---

- (b) the Registrar registers the liability under subsection 25(2);
then:
- (c) if the Registrar is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances—the Registrar must grant the payee’s application; or
- (d) if:
  - (i) the Registrar is not satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (ii) unpaid amounts are payable under the liability in relation to the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period;the Registrar must:
  - (iii) treat the payee’s application as if the specified period were the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period; and
  - (iv) grant the payee’s application; or
- (e) if:
  - (i) the Registrar is not satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (ii) no unpaid amounts are payable under the liability in relation to the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period;the Registrar must refuse to grant the payee’s application.

Consequences of successful application

- (6) If the Registrar grants the payee’s application:
  - (a) this Act has effect as if:
    - (i) the unpaid amounts were payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period that began on the day on which the liability first became enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of paragraph 28(1)(c); and
    - (ii) the unpaid amounts became child support debts at the time when the liability became enforceable as a result of the operation of paragraph 28(1)(c); and

- (b) the Registrar must make such variations to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to give effect to this subsection.

Amounts that would have been credited under section 71C

- (7) To avoid doubt, a reference in this section to an unpaid amount payable under a liability does not include a reference to any amount that would have been credited against that unpaid amount under section 71C if the liability had been an enforceable maintenance liability at all relevant times.

28B Conversion of periodic amounts into payment rates in respect of payment periods

- (1) The Registrar must convert a periodic amount payable under a registered maintenance liability arising under a court order or a maintenance agreement to:
  - (a) a daily rate of payment; and
  - (b) one of the following rates of payment:
    - (i) weekly;
    - (ii) fortnightly;
    - (iii) 4 weekly;
    - (iv) monthly.

Note: An amount payable under a registrable maintenance liability is entered on the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(1)(f).

- (2) The Registrar must convert an amount payable under a registered maintenance liability arising under a child support assessment in respect of a day into one of the rates of payment set out in paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) If the Registrar is to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, a liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability, the Registrar must convert the periodic amount or daily amount (as the case may be) to a weekly rate of payment.

Section 29

---

- (4) The rate of payment to which the Registrar must convert a periodic amount payable under a registered maintenance liability, is the rate that reflects the payment period entered in the Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) in respect of the liability.

Note 1: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

Note 2: Sections 26A, 26B and 42A and Part IVA deal with the determination of the period, and the start day for the period, that may be entered in the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(2)(b).

Note 3: The particulars entered in the Child Support Register in respect of a liability must include the rates of payment provided for in this section (see paragraphs 26(2)(c) and (d)).

29 Conversion of amounts payable under registrable maintenance liability into daily rates etc.

The regulations may make provision with respect to the conversion of amounts payable under registrable maintenance liabilities into daily, weekly, fortnightly, 4 weekly and monthly rates of payment.

30 Effect of registration

- (1) If a registrable maintenance liability is registered under this Act, amounts payable under the child support assessment, court order, maintenance agreement, maintenance order or maintenance assessment under which the liability arises are debts due to the Commonwealth by the payer in accordance with the particulars of the liability entered in the Child Support Register.
- (2) In particular, the amounts are payable by the payer at the payment rate entered in the Register under paragraph 26(2)(d) in respect of the periods entered in the Register under paragraphs 26(2)(a) and (b).

Note: Section 28B requires the Registrar to convert the periodic amount payable in respect of a registrable maintenance liability to a rate of payment depending upon the payment period determined in respect of the liability.

- (3) If a registrable maintenance liability is registered under this Act, the payee of the liability is not entitled to, and may not enforce payment of, amounts payable under the liability other than by instituting a proceeding under section 113A to recover a debt due in relation to the liability.

Section 30AA

30AA Rule to avoid dual liabilities

- (1) If:
- (a) a registrable maintenance liability (the first liability) relating, in whole or in part, to a particular child, and also relating to a particular payer and a particular payee, is registered; and
  - (b) at any time after the registration of the first liability, a subsequent registrable maintenance liability relating, in whole or in part, to the same child, and also relating to the same payer and the same payee, is registered;
- the first liability ceases, at the time the subsequent liability is registered, to have effect to the extent only that it relates to the particular child.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the first liability is treated, for the sole purpose of facilitating the recovery of arrears in respect of any period ending on or before it ceases to have effect, as if it had not ceased to have effect as provided in subsection (1).

30A Enforcement of Australian liabilities overseas

- (1) A payee may apply to the Registrar to have a maintenance order or agreement, or a child support assessment, enforced in a reciprocating jurisdiction (other than an excepted reciprocating jurisdiction in relation to such an order, agreement or assessment).
- (2) For the purpose of having a maintenance order or agreement, or a child support assessment, enforced in a reciprocating jurisdiction (other than an excepted reciprocating jurisdiction in relation to such an order, agreement or assessment) the Registrar may, at any time, and must, as soon as practicable after a payee makes an application under subsection (1):
- (a) request, in writing, a judicial or administrative authority in the reciprocating jurisdiction to enforce the liability; and

Section 31

- (b) in a case where there is an application by a payee under subsection (1)—give the application to the authority; and
  - (c) give the authority such other documentation and information as is required by the authority for enforcement proceedings in that jurisdiction.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of paragraph (2)(c), the Registrar must give to the judicial or administrative authority a certificate signed by the Registrar stating the amounts that are due or payable under the liability.
- (4) In this section:
  - excepted reciprocating jurisdiction*, in relation to a maintenance order or agreement, or a child support assessment, means a reciprocating jurisdiction that is declared by the regulations to be an excepted reciprocating jurisdiction in respect of such an order, agreement or assessment.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a jurisdiction may be declared to be an excepted reciprocating jurisdiction, in relation to a maintenance order or agreement, or a child support assessment, only if the enforcement in the jurisdiction of such an order, agreement or assessment would not be permitted by the law of the jurisdiction.
- (6) A request under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

31 Effect of registration on existing garnishment and attachment of earnings orders

Where, on the day on which a registered maintenance liability first becomes enforceable under this Act or again becomes enforceable under this Act, a garnishment or attachment of earnings order made by a court under the Family Law Act 1975, the Matrimonial Causes Act 1959 or the law of a State or Territory is in force in relation to the liability, the order ceases to have effect in so far as it relates to amounts payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period.

32 Payer and payee to be given copy of entry in Child Support
Register on application

- (1) The payer or payee of a registered maintenance liability may apply to the Registrar requesting that a copy of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability be provided to him or her.
- (2) The application must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

- (3) The Registrar must comply with the request.

Section 33

Division 3—Variations to entries in Child Support Register

33 Payee to notify Registrar of court order varying registered maintenance liability etc.

(1) Where:

(a) under this Act, the Assessment Act, the Family Law Act 1975 or the law of a State or Territory:

(i) an order is made by, or registered in, a court; or

(ii) a maintenance agreement is registered in, or approved by, a court; and

(b) the order or agreement varies or otherwise affects a registered maintenance liability (other than a registered maintenance liability that is not enforceable under this Act because of an election made under section 38A or a decision of the Registrar under section 38B);

the payee of the registered maintenance liability shall, within 14 days after the day on which the order is made by, or registered in, the court or the agreement is registered in, or approved by, the court, give notice to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, in relation to the order or agreement.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which a notice may be given.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

(2A) Subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.

(3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) if the person charged proves that the person gave the notice to the Registrar as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the making or registration of the relevant order or of the registration or approval of the relevant maintenance agreement, as the case may be.

34 Payee to notify Registrar of happening of affecting event

- (1) The payee of an enforceable maintenance liability shall, within 14 days after the happening of an affecting event in relation to the liability (other than, in a case where the liability relates to the maintenance of a child, the child attaining 18 years of age), give notice to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, of the affecting event.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which a notice may be given.

- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.
- (2A) Subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) if the person charged proves that the person notified the Registrar of the happening of the relevant affecting event as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the happening of the event.
- (4) This section does not apply in relation to a liability that arises under a child support assessment.
- (5) This section does not apply to an enforceable maintenance liability that is a registrable overseas maintenance liability.

35 Payer may apply to Registrar for variation of Child Support Register

- (1) The payer of a registered maintenance liability may apply to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, for the variation of particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability to enable a court order or court registered maintenance agreement that varies or otherwise affects the liability to be given effect to under this Act.
- (2) The payer of an enforceable maintenance liability may apply to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, for the variation of particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability to take account of the happening of an affecting event in relation to the liability.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

- (3) This section does not apply in relation to a liability that arises under a child support assessment.

36 Registrar to vary Child Support Register on receipt of notification or application

- (1) When the Registrar receives under subsection 33(1), 34(1) or 35(1) or (2) an application or notice (as the case may be) from the payee or payer of a registrable maintenance liability, the Registrar must, within 28 days after receipt of the application or notice, make such variations (if any) to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to:
- (a) enable the relevant order or maintenance agreement to be given effect to under this Act; or
  - (b) take account of the happening of the relevant affecting event; as the case requires.
- (2) However, if either the payer or the payee is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the Registrar has 90 days to make the variations, instead of 28 days.

37 Registrar may vary Child Support Register to give effect to court order etc.

Where the Registrar is of the opinion (otherwise than because of the receipt of an application or notice (as the case may be) under subsection 33(1), 34(1) or 35(1) or (2)):

- (a) that, under this Act, the Assessment Act, the Family Law Act 1975 or the law of a State or Territory:
  - (i) an order has been made by, or registered in, a court; or

- (ii) a maintenance agreement has been registered in, or approved by, a court; and the order or agreement varies or otherwise affects a registered maintenance liability; or
  - (b) that an affecting event in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability has happened;
- the Registrar shall make such variations (if any) to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to enable the order or agreement to be given effect to under this Act or to take account of the happening of the event, as the case may be.

37A Registrar to vary Child Support Register on amendment of child support assessment

Where the Registrar amends a child support assessment under which a registrable maintenance liability arose, the Registrar must immediately make such variations (if any) to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to enable the amendment to be given effect to under this Act.

37B Registered maintenance liability not to be enforced if payer is a low-income recipient of a social security pension or a social security benefit

Object

- (1) The object of this section is to provide for the non-enforcement of certain registered maintenance liabilities during the subsistence of a low-income non-enforcement period.

Payer may apply to have liability no longer enforced under Act

- (2) If the payer of an enforceable maintenance liability covered by subsection 17(1) or arising under a maintenance order made by, or a maintenance agreement registered by, a judicial authority of a reciprocating jurisdiction:

Section 37B

- (a) is in receipt of a social security pension or a social security benefit; or
- (b) has made a claim for a social security pension or a social security benefit;

the payer may apply to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, to have the liability no longer enforced under this Act.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

Court orders etc. dealing with unemployment etc.

- (3) The payer is not entitled to make an application under subsection (2) if:
  - (a) the liability is covered by subparagraph 17(1)(b)(i); and
  - (b) the court order or court registered maintenance agreement concerned provides, either directly or indirectly, for the reduction of amounts payable under the liability during periods when:
    - (i) the payer is unemployed; or
    - (ii) the payer's income is substantially reduced.

Start of low-income non-enforcement period

- (4) For the purposes of this section, if the payer of a registered maintenance liability:
  - (a) makes an application under subsection (2); and
  - (b) is taken, under the regulations, to satisfy the prescribed income test in relation to the first instalment of a social security pension or a social security benefit paid to the payer after the day on which the application was made;

a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to the liability:

  - (c) begins on whichever of the following days is applicable:
    - (i) the day on which the application was made;
    - (ii) an earlier day determined by the Registrar, being a day that is on or after the day on which the payer

Section 37B

commences to receive a social security pension or a social security benefit; and

(d) continues until the time worked out under subsection (5).

End of low-income non-enforcement period

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to a registered maintenance liability ends at whichever is the earliest of the following:
- (a) when the payer of the liability ceases to receive a social security pension or a social security benefit;
  - (b) if the payer of the liability is taken, under the regulations, not to satisfy the prescribed income test in relation to an instalment of a social security pension or a social security benefit paid to the payer for a particular fortnight—the beginning of that fortnight;
  - (c) when the liability ends.

Non-enforcement of liability—variation of Child Support Register

- (6) If a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to a registered maintenance liability begins, the Registrar must, as soon as practicable, vary the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability by specifying the beginning of the low-income non-enforcement period as the time at which the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act. However, this rule does not apply if, immediately before the low-income non-enforcement period, the liability had already ceased to be enforceable under this Act because of section 38A, 38B or 39B.

Resumption of enforcement of liability—variation of Child Support Register

- (7) If a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to a registered maintenance liability ends, the Registrar:
- (a) must, as soon as practicable, vary the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability by specifying the end of the low-income non-enforcement

Section 38

period as the time at which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act; and

- (b) may make such variations (if any) to those particulars as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable:
  - (i) to enable a court order or court registered maintenance agreement that varies or otherwise affects the liability to be given effect to under this Act; or
  - (ii) to take account of the happening of an affecting event in relation to the liability.

However, these rules do not apply if, immediately before the low-income non-enforcement period, the liability had ceased to be enforceable under this Act because of section 38A, 38B or 39B.

Section not to prevent payee recovery of a debt

- (7A) This section does not prevent a payee of a registered maintenance liability from instituting a proceeding under section 113A during a low-income non-enforcement period to recover a debt due in relation to the liability.

Definitions

- (8) In this section:

social security benefit has the same meaning as in the Social Security Act 1991.

social security pension has the same meaning as in the Social Security Act 1991.

38 Variation of Register to have enforceable maintenance liability no longer enforced under Act

The Registrar must vary the particulars in the Child Support Register in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability so that the liability is no longer enforced under this Act if:

- (a) the payee of the liability makes an election under section 38A; or

Section 38A

---

- (b) the payee and payer of the liability jointly make an election under section 38A; or
- (c) the Registrar makes a decision under section 38B.

38A Election by payee or by payee and payer jointly

- (1) The payee of an enforceable maintenance liability, or the payee and payer jointly, may make an election to have the liability no longer enforced under this Act.
- (2) An election under this section must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an election may be made.

- (3) Within 28 days after receiving the election, the Registrar must:
  - (a) vary the particulars relating to the liability in the Child Support Register by specifying a day (not later than 60 days after the day on which the Registrar received the election) as the day on which the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act (the terminating day); and
  - (b) if the payee, or the payee and payer jointly, have elected to have amounts payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period that are unpaid on the terminating day also no longer enforced under this Act—vary the particulars so as to ensure that, in spite of section 30, those amounts cease to be debts due by the payer to the Commonwealth.
- (3A) However, if either the payer or the payee is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the Registrar has 90 days to vary the relevant particulars, instead of 28 days.
- (4) The Registrar must not make a variation under paragraph (3)(a) by specifying a day that is included in a period that is a low-income non-enforcement period under section 37B in relation to the liability. If that day is included in that period, the Registrar must not take action under paragraph (3)(b) in relation to that day.

38B Decision by Registrar based on payment record and other factors

- (1) The Registrar may decide that an enforceable maintenance liability should no longer be enforced under this Act if all the following conditions are met:
  - (a) the payer is taken, under the regulations, to have a satisfactory payment record in relation to the previous 6 months;
  - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the payer is likely to continue to have a satisfactory payment record;
  - (c) the Registrar is satisfied that a decision under this section is appropriate in relation to the liability.
- (2) If the Registrar makes a decision under subsection (1), the Registrar must vary the particulars relating to the liability in the Child Support Register by specifying a day (not earlier than 28 days after the day on which the Registrar makes the decision) as the day on which the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act.
- (3) If, before the day specified in a variation under subsection (2), the Registrar decides to revoke the decision that gave rise to the variation, the Registrar must vary the particulars concerned in the Child Support Register to give effect to the revocation.
- (4) The revocation takes effect on the day the Registrar varies the particulars concerned.

38C Election not to enforce—registered maintenance liability

- (1) If a registered maintenance liability of a kind mentioned in section 18A is not enforceable because of an election under section 38A, an amount unpaid under the relevant maintenance assessment, order or agreement is a debt due and payable by the payer to the payee.
- (2) A debt due under this section is recoverable by the payee from the payer in a court of competent jurisdiction.

39 Application for variation to enable liability to again become enforceable under Act

(1) If a registered maintenance liability is not enforceable under this Act because of an election made under section 38A or a decision by the Registrar under section 38B, the payee may apply to the Registrar for the liability to again become enforceable under this Act.

(2) The application must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

(3) An application cannot be made in relation to a liability during a period that is a low-income non-enforcement period under section 37B in relation to the liability.

(4) Within 28 days after receiving an application under subsection (1), the Registrar must grant or refuse the application.

(4A) However, if either the payer or the payee is a resident of a reciprocating jurisdiction, the Registrar has 90 days to grant or refuse the application, instead of 28 days.

(5) The Registrar must grant the application unless the Registrar is satisfied that:

- (a) the payer of the liability has been complying with his or her child support obligations in relation to the payee; or
- (b) the payer of the liability has satisfactorily explained and rectified a failure to comply with his or her child support obligations in relation to a payee; or
- (c) there are special circumstances that exist in relation to the liability that make it appropriate to refuse the application.

(6) If the Registrar grants the application, the Registrar must:

- (a) vary the particulars relating to the liability in the Child Support Register by specifying a day (not later than 60 days after the day on which the Registrar received the application)

Section 39A

- as the day on which the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act; and
- (b) may make any variations to those particulars that the Registrar considers necessary or desirable:
- (i) to enable a court order or court registered maintenance agreement that varies or otherwise affects the liability to be given effect under this Act; or
  - (ii) to take account of the happening of an affecting event in relation to the liability.
- (7) The Registrar must not make a variation under subsection (6) by specifying a day that is included in a period that is a low-income non-enforcement period under section 37B in relation to the liability. If that day is included in that period, the Registrar must not take action under paragraph (6)(b) in relation to that day.

39A Reversal of section 38A election or 38B decision—collection of arrears

When section applies

- (1) This section applies if a payee applies under subsection 39(1) for a liability to again become enforceable under this Act.

Section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period is the period:
- (a) beginning when the liability ceased to be enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of section 38A or 38B; and
  - (b) ending when the liability again becomes enforceable under this Act as a result of the operation of section 39.

Maximum arrears period

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the maximum arrears period is the period:

Section 39A

---

- (a) beginning at whichever is the latest of the following times:
  - (i) 9 months before the end of the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period;
  - (ii) the start of the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period;
  - (iii) the commencement of this section; and
- (b) ending at the end of the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period.

Application by payee for enforcement of arrears

- (4) The payee may apply to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, for any unpaid amounts payable under the liability in relation to a specified period to be treated as arrears amounts for the purposes of this section. The specified period must:
  - (a) consist of, or be included in, the maximum arrears period; and
  - (b) end at the end of the maximum arrears period.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

Registrar's decision—arrears for 3 months or less

- (5) If the specified period does not exceed 3 months, the Registrar must grant the payee's application.

Registrar's decision—arrears for more than 3 months

- (6) If the specified period exceeds 3 months, then:
  - (a) if the Registrar is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances—the Registrar must grant the payee's application; or
  - (b) if:
    - (i) the Registrar is not satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances; and

Section 39A

---

- (ii) unpaid amounts are payable under the liability in relation to the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period;
- the Registrar must:
- (iii) treat the payee's application as if the specified period were the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period; and
  - (iv) grant the payee's application; or
- (c) if:
- (i) the Registrar is not satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (ii) no unpaid amounts are payable under the liability in relation to the period of 3 months that ended at the end of the maximum arrears period;
- the Registrar must refuse to grant the payee's application.

Consequences of successful application

- (7) If the Registrar grants the payee's application:
- (a) this Act has effect as if:
    - (i) the unpaid amounts were payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period that began immediately after the end of the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period; and
    - (ii) the unpaid amounts became child support debts immediately after the end of the section 38A or 38B non-enforcement period; and
  - (b) the Registrar must make such variations to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to give effect to this subsection.

Amounts that would have been credited under section 71C

- (8) To avoid doubt, a reference in this section to an unpaid amount payable under a liability does not include a reference to any amount that would have been credited against that unpaid amount

Section 39B

under section 71C if the liability had been an enforceable maintenance liability at all relevant times.

39B Amounts not enforceable under this Act during periods when the payee is not the main provider of ongoing daily care for a child

When this section applies

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) at a particular time after the commencement of this section, the payee of an enforceable maintenance liability covered by subsection 17(1) is the main provider of ongoing daily care for a particular child covered by the liability; and
  - (b) at a later time (the cessation time) the payee ceases to be the main provider of ongoing daily care for the child.

Overall non-care period

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the overall non-care period is the period:
  - (a) beginning at the cessation time; and
  - (b) ending at whichever is the earlier of the following:
    - (i) when the payee next resumes being the main provider of ongoing daily care for the child;
    - (ii) when the liability ends.

Joint election by payer and payee

- (3) During the overall non-care period, the payer and payee may jointly elect, by applying to the Registrar in the manner specified by the Registrar, to have so much of the liability as is attributable to the child no longer enforced under this Act. The election takes effect at whichever of the following times is applicable:
  - (a) if the election is made within 28 days after the start of the overall non-care period—the start of the overall non-care period;

Section 39B

(b) in any other case—when the election is made.

However, the election does not take effect if the applicable time is included in a period that is a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to the liability for the purposes of section 37B.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

Consequences of election under subsection (3)

(4) If an election is made under subsection (3):

- (a) if the child is the only child covered by the liability—the liability ceases to be enforceable under this Act after the applicable time; or
- (b) in any other case—this Act has effect in relation to the liability, after the applicable time, as if a reference in this Act to amounts payable under the liability did not include a reference to an amount attributable to the child.

Note: Paragraph (4)(b) could result in the liability becoming partially unenforceable under this Act.

Reversal of election

(5) If:

- (a) so much of the liability as is attributable to the child is not enforceable under this Act because of an election made under subsection (3); and
- (b) the overall non-care period ends;

the payer or the payee may elect, by applying to the Registrar in the manner specified by the Registrar, to have so much of the liability as is attributable to the child again become enforceable under this Act.

When reversal of election takes effect

(6) An election under subsection (5) takes effect at whichever of the following times is applicable:

- (a) if the election is made within 28 days after the end of the overall non-care period—the end of the overall non-care period;
- (b) in any other case—when the election is made.

However, the election does not take effect if the applicable time is included in a period that is a low-income non-enforcement period in relation to the liability for the purposes of section 37B.

Consequences of reversal of election

- (7) An election under subsection (5) has effect accordingly.

Registrar to vary Register

- (8) If an election is made under this section, the Registrar must, as soon as practicable, make such variations to the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability as the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to give effect to subsection (4) or (7), as the case requires.

Election form may include declaration

- (9) A form of election made by a person or persons under this section may require the person or persons, as the case requires, to make a declaration about the circumstances relating to the beginning or end of the overall non-care period.

Partial unenforceability

- (10) A reference in this Act to a liability that is enforceable under this Act includes a reference to a liability that is partially unenforceable under this Act as a result of paragraph (4)(b).

40 Entry wrongly existing in Child Support Register

Where the Registrar is satisfied that an entry wrongly exists in the Child Support Register, the Registrar shall delete the entry from the Child Support Register.

Section 41

41 Obsolete entries in Child Support Register

Where the Registrar is satisfied (whether because of the happening of a terminating event in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability or the length of time that has elapsed since a registered maintenance liability was an enforceable maintenance liability) that the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability is obsolete, the Registrar may delete the entry from the Child Support Register.

42 Correction of clerical errors and other mistakes in Child Support Register

Where the Registrar is satisfied that a clerical error or other mistake exists in particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to a registered maintenance liability, the Registrar may vary the particulars for the purpose of correcting the error or mistake.

42A Registrar may vary Child Support Register to change period entered under paragraph 26(2)(b) to reflect pay cycle

- (1) If:
- (a) the Registrar is collecting amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to a registered maintenance liability, by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability; and
  - (b) the Registrar becomes aware, other than by means of a notice referred to in paragraph 42B(1)(a) or (b), that the period of the payer's pay cycle is different from the payment period entered in the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) in respect of the payer;
- the Registrar may vary the particulars in the Child Support Register by deleting the period in the Register and substituting another payment period and start day of the period.
- (2) The period that the Registrar must register in substitution is the payment period that reflects the payer's pay cycle. The start day that the Registrar must register is the day specified by the Registrar as the start day of the period.

Note: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

42B Registrar may vary Child Support Register if payer's pay cycle changes

(1) If:

(a) the Registrar receives:

- (i) a notice under subsection 47(1) from an employer who is making deduction from a payer's salary or wages; or
- (ii) a notice from a payer under subsection 111(1) (Notification of commencement of employment); and

(b) the notice indicates that the period of the payer's pay cycle is different from the payment period entered in the Child Support Register under paragraph 26(2)(b) in respect of the payer;

the Registrar must, within 28 days of receiving the notice, vary the particulars in the Child Support Register by deleting the period and start day in the Register and substituting another payment period and start day.

(2) The period that the Registrar must register in substitution is the payment period that reflects the payer's pay cycle. The start day that the Registrar must register is the day specified by the Registrar as the start day.

Note: For payment period see subsection 4(1).

Section 42C

Division 4—Notices in respect of registration decisions

  - (b) varies particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to a registrable maintenance liability;the Registrar must serve on the payer and payee of the liability a notice in writing of the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability, unless notice of those particulars has already been given to the payer and the payee under the Assessment Act.

  - (a) the person may, subject to this Act, object to the original decision; and lodges the objection), the person may, subject to this Act and the AAT Act, apply to the AAT for review of the later decision.

- (5) A contravention of subsection (4) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

42D Content of notices in relation to registration decisions for registrable overseas maintenance liabilities

- (1) In the case of a registrable overseas maintenance liability, a notice served on a person under section 42C must, if the reciprocating jurisdiction in which the liability arose provides for review of the liability, include, or be accompanied by, a statement to the effect that a person aggrieved by the decision notified under that section may seek review of the liability by a judicial or administrative authority of the jurisdiction.
- (2) If the registrable maintenance liability:
- (a) arises under a maintenance order made by a judicial authority of a reciprocating jurisdiction (other than a prescribed reciprocating jurisdiction); or

- subsections (3) and (4) also apply in relation to the notice given under section 42C.
- (3) The notice served under section 42C on a person against whom the maintenance order or assessment was made must also include, or be accompanied by:

Section 42D

Part IV—Collection by deduction from salary or wages

Division 1—Employer withholding

43 General rule of collection by automatic withholding in case of employees

- (1) This section applies (subject to subsection (3)) if:
  - (a) the payer of an enforceable maintenance liability is an employee; and

    - (i) the enforceable maintenance liability;
    - (ii) a liability to pay a child support related debt;
    - (iii) a carer liability.
- (2) The Registrar must, as far as practicable, collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under or in relation to the deductible liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer under this Part.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability, or any other deductible liability, of a payer if, under section 44, the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability of the payer contain a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability.

44 Cases in which employer withholding not applicable

- (1) If:
  - (a) the payer of an enforceable maintenance liability elects that employer withholding is not to apply in relation to the liability; and

Section 44

---

- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the payer is likely to make timely payments to the Registrar under the liability;
the Registrar must, within 28 days after receiving the election, vary the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability so that they contain a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the liability.
- (2) If:
- (a) the Registrar is about to register a registrable maintenance liability; and
  - (b) either before or after becoming the payer, the person who is the payer elected that employer withholding is not to apply in relation to the liability; and

- the Registrar must, when registering the liability, include a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the liability.
- (3) An election under subsection (1) or (2) must be made to the Registrar in the manner specified by the Registrar.
- Note:       Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an election may be made.
- (5) If:
- (a) because of subsection (1) or (2), the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability of the payer contain a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to that liability; and
  - (b) the payer does not make timely payments to the Registrar under that liability or any other deductible liability of the payer;
- the Registrar must vary those particulars so that they contain a statement that employer withholding applies in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability.

- (5A) The Registrar is not required to vary particulars under subsection (5) if the Registrar is satisfied that:
- (a) the collection of payments due under the enforceable maintenance liability or the deductible liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer under this Part would not be an efficient method of collecting those payments; or
  - (b) the payer is likely to recommence timely payments to the Registrar under the enforceable maintenance liability or the deductible liability in the near future.
- (6) Where the Registrar is satisfied that, in the special circumstances of a particular case, the collection of payments due under an enforceable maintenance liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer under this Part would not be an efficient method of collecting those payments, the Registrar may include in the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the liability or may vary those particulars so that they contain such a statement, as the case requires.
- (7) If:
- (a) because of subsection (6), the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability of the payer contain a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to that liability; and
  - (b) the payer does not make timely payments to the Registrar under that liability or any other deductible liability of the payer;
- the Registrar must vary those particulars so that they contain a statement that employer withholding applies in relation to the enforceable maintenance liability.
- (7A) The Registrar is not required to vary particulars under subsection (7) if the Registrar is satisfied that:
- (a) the collection of payments due under the enforceable maintenance liability or the deductible liability by deduction

- (b) that the payer is likely to recommence timely payments to the Registrar under the enforceable maintenance liability or the deductible liability in the near future.

(7B) A payer of an enforceable maintenance liability may not make an election under subsection (1) if, within the previous 6 months, employer withholding started to apply in relation to the liability because of a variation made under subsection (5) or (7).

(7C) If a payer of an enforceable maintenance liability has made an election under subsection (1) or (2) in relation to the liability that has been rejected by the Registrar, the payer may not make an election under subsection (1) in relation to the liability within 2 months after that rejection.

(8) Where:

- (a) by virtue of subsection (6), the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability contain a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the liability; and
- (b) the Registrar becomes satisfied that the collection of payments due under the liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer under this Part would be an efficient method of collecting those payments;

the Registrar shall vary those particulars so that they contain a statement that employer withholding applies in relation to the liability.

(9) In determining for the purposes of subsections (5) to (8) (inclusive) whether the collection of payments due under an enforceable maintenance liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer under this Part would be an efficient method of collecting those payments, the Registrar shall have regard in particular to the need to ensure that the payments are received by the Registrar on a timely basis.

- (10) If the period at which amounts are payable under an enforceable maintenance liability exceeds one calendar month or one month, the Registrar shall include in the particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability a statement that employer withholding does not apply in relation to the liability.

- (2) Where:
- (a) particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability are varied; and
  - (b) the Registrar is of the opinion that the revocation or variation of a notice in force under subsection (1) in relation to the liability is necessary or desirable to take account of the variations made to those particulars;
- the Registrar shall forthwith give a notice in writing to the employer to whom the notice was given varying or revoking accordingly the earlier notice given to the employer.
- (2A) Where the Registrar thinks that the variation of a notice in force under subsection (1) in relation to a deductible liability is necessary or desirable for the purpose of collecting amounts already due to the Commonwealth under or in relation to the liability by

  - (c) if the employee is entitled to be paid the amount in relation to a period of longer than one week—the employer shall be deemed to have paid an amount of salary or wages to the employee in relation to each week or part of a week in the period, being the amount ascertained by dividing the amount of salary or wages in fact paid by the number of days in the period and multiplying the resultant amount:
    - (i) in the case of each week—by 7; and

Section 47

Note: See subsection 62(2) for alternative ways to serve a document or requisition on a company (through its public officer or someone else acting or appearing to act for the company).

63 Public officer of trust estate

- (1) The person who is, from time to time, the public officer of a trust estate for the purposes of section 252A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 is the public officer of the trust estate for the purposes of this Act, and the address for service of the public officer under that Act is the address for service of the public officer under this Act.
- (2) Service of any document or requisition at the address for service of the public officer, or on the public officer, is sufficient service on the trustee of the trust estate for the purposes of this Act, but, if at any time there is not a public officer of the trust estate, service on any person acting or appearing to act on the business of the trust estate is sufficient.
- (3) The public officer is answerable for the doing of all acts required to be done by the trustee of the trust estate under this Act, and in case of default is liable to the same penalties.

Section 63

- (4) Everything done by the public officer that the public officer is required to do in that capacity shall be deemed to have been done by the trustee of the trust estate.
- (5) If, at any time, there is not a public officer of the trust estate, this Act applies in relation to the trustee of the trust estate as if there were no requirement to appoint a public officer of the trust estate.
- (6) Any proceedings under this Act (including proceedings for an offence against this Act) taken against the public officer shall be deemed to have been taken against the trustee of the trust estate, and the trustee shall be liable jointly with the public officer for any penalty imposed on the public officer.
- (7) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (6) (inclusive) and without affecting any of the obligations and liabilities of the public officer, any notice, process or proceeding that under this Act may be given to, served on or taken against the trustee or public officer of the trust estate may, if the Registrar thinks fit, be given to, served on or taken against any agent or attorney of the trustee, and the agent or attorney has the same liability in relation to the notice, process or proceeding as the trustee or public officer would have had if it had been given to, served on or taken against the trustee or public officer.

Division 4—Miscellaneous

64 Amounts payable under Part debts due to Commonwealth

An amount payable to the Registrar under this Part is a debt due to the Commonwealth.

65 Application of amounts paid or credited where 2 or more debts due

Where:

- (a) 2 or more debts are due to the Commonwealth by an employer under this Part;
- (b) an amount is paid to or to be credited by the Registrar, or an amount is paid to and an amount is to be credited by the Registrar, in relation to all or any of the debts; and
- (c) the total amount of the debts exceeds the amount so paid or to be credited or the sum of the amounts so paid and to be credited, as the case may be;

the Registrar may, in spite of any direction given by or on behalf of the employer:

- (d) apply the amount, or the sum of the amounts, in partial discharge of the total amount of the debts; and
- (e) recover the amount by which the total amount of the debts exceeds the amount or the sum of the amounts;

without allocating the amount, or the sum of the amounts, towards the discharge of any particular debt or debts.

Section 65AA

Division 5—Application of this Part to those engaged under a contract for services

65AA Application of this Part to those engaged under a contract for services

This Part applies to a person (the independent contractor) engaged under a contract for services as if:

- (a) a reference to an employee includes a reference to the independent contractor; and
- (b) a reference to an employer of the employee includes a reference to the person who engages the independent contractor; and
- (c) a reference to refusing to employ a person includes a reference to refusing to engage a person under a contract for services; and
- (d) if a person is an employer and also engages an independent contractor—the reference in section 65 to an employer includes the person in both of those capacities.

Part IVA—Election available to payers who make voluntary payments of maintenance liabilities

65A Election under this Part

- (1) If the Registrar is not going to collect amounts due to the Commonwealth under, or in relation to, an enforceable maintenance liability by deduction from the salary or wages of the payer of the liability, the payer may elect that the payment period entered in the Child Support Register in respect of the liability under paragraph 26(2)(b) be changed.
- (2) In making the election, the payer must:
  - (a) specify a payment period; and
  - (b) specify the day from which the period starts.
- (3) An election made under subsection (1) must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.

Example 1: The payer elects a 4 week period as the payment period. The payer elects that the start day of the period will be 8 July which is a Wednesday. Therefore the period will end 4 weeks later on a Tuesday.

Example 2: The payer elects a period of a month as the payment period. The payer elects that the start day will be 16 October. Therefore the period will end on 15 November. If the payer elects that the start day will be 31 January, the period will end on 28 February.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an election may be made.

65B Registrar to act on election

If:

- (a) a payer of an enforceable maintenance liability makes an election of a kind set out in section 65A; and

Section 65B

---

- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that it will be more convenient for the payer to accrue debts in relation to the elected period instead of the period in the Child Support Register;
the Registrar must, within 28 days of receiving the election, vary the particulars of the entry in the Register in relation to the payment period by:
  - (c) substituting the elected period; and
  - (d) entering in the Register the specified day as the day from which the period starts.

Part V—Payment and recovery of child support debts and carer debts

Division 1—Payment and late payment of child support debts

66 When child support debts become payable

- (1) An amount that becomes a child support debt in respect of a day in an initial period is due and payable on the seventh day of the calendar month following that day.
- (2) An amount that becomes a child support debt in respect of a payment period is due and payable on the seventh day after the end of the period.

Note: For initial period and payment period see subsection 4(1).

- (3) An amount payable under subsection (1) or (2), in respect of a day in an initial period or payment period in a year of income, is taken to be paid at the time that the amount becomes due and payable, to the extent that a remaining lump sum payment will be credited, under section 69A, at the end of the year of income against that amount.

67 Penalty for late payment of child support debts

- (1) If a child support debt in respect of a payment period remains unpaid after the time when it became due and payable, the person liable to pay the debt is liable to pay to the Registrar, by way of penalty, whichever of the following amounts applies:
  - (a) if the payment period is a week—an amount calculated on the balance outstanding each week at a weekly rate equal to  $\frac{1}{52}$  of the relevant annual rate;
  - (b) if the payment period is a fortnight—an amount calculated on the balance outstanding each fortnight at a fortnightly rate equal to  $\frac{1}{26}$  of the relevant annual rate;

Section 67A

- (c) if the payment period is a 4 week period—an amount calculated on the balance outstanding each four weeks at a four weekly rate equal to  $\frac{4}{52}$  of the relevant annual rate;
  - (d) if the payment period is a month or a calendar month—an amount calculated on the balance outstanding each month or calendar month at a monthly rate equal to  $\frac{1}{12}$  of the relevant annual rate.
- (1AA) If a child support debt in respect of a day in an initial period remains unpaid after the time when it became due and payable, the person liable to pay the debt is liable to pay to the Registrar, by way of penalty, an amount calculated on the balance outstanding each calendar month at a monthly rate equal to  $\frac{1}{12}$  of the relevant annual rate.
- (1A) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (1AA), the balance outstanding is the total amount of one or more child support debts remaining unpaid.
- (2) An amount payable to the Registrar under subsection (1) or (1AA) is a debt due to the Commonwealth.
- (3) In this section:

relevant annual rate means the rate that is from time to time the general interest charge rate under subsection 8AAD(1) of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

67A Due date of certain debts for the purposes of calculating penalty

For the purposes of section 67, if:

- (a) the Registrar has entered an initial period in the Register under paragraph 26(2)(a) in respect of a liability; and
- (b) a child support debt in respect of a payment period for the liability becomes due and payable on a particular day (the payment period due day); and
- (c) the payment period due day occurs before any day on which a child support debt in respect of a day in the initial period for the liability is due and payable;

the child support debt in respect of the payment period is taken to have become due and payable on the day on which a child support debt in respect of the last day in the initial period is due and payable.

68 Remission of late payment penalty

- (1) If an amount (in this section called the late payment penalty) is payable by a person under section 67 in relation to a child support debt and:
  - (a) the Registrar is satisfied that:
    - (i) the circumstances that contributed to the delay in payment of the debt were not due to, or caused directly or indirectly by, an act or omission of the person; and
    - (ii) the person has taken reasonable action to mitigate, or mitigate the effects of, those circumstances; or
  - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that:
    - (i) the circumstances that contributed to the delay in payment of the debt were due to, or caused directly or indirectly by, an act or omission of the person; and
    - (ii) the person has taken reasonable action to mitigate, or mitigate the effects of, those circumstances; and
    - (iii) having regard to the nature of those circumstances, it would be fair and reasonable to remit the late payment penalty or part of the late payment penalty; or
  - (c) the Registrar is satisfied that there are special circumstances by reason of which it would be fair and reasonable to remit the late payment penalty or part of the late payment penalty;the Registrar may remit the late payment penalty or part of the late payment penalty.

Notices of decisions

- (2) If the Registrar makes a decision under subsection (1):
  - (a) to remit only part of a penalty; or
  - (b) not to remit any part of a penalty;

Section 69

---

the Registrar must serve written notice of the decision on the person by whom the penalty is, or but for the remission would be, payable.

- (3) The notice must include, or be accompanied by, a statement to the effect that:
- (a) the person may, subject to this Act, object to the decision (the original decision); and
  - (b) if the person is dissatisfied by a later decision of the Registrar on an objection to the original decision, the person may, subject to this Act and the AAT Act, apply to the AAT for review of the later decision.
- (4) A contravention of subsection (3) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

69 Reduction of late payment penalty where judgment debt carries interest

Where judgment is given by, or entered in, a court for payment of:

- (a) a child support debt; or
- (b) an amount that includes a child support debt;

then:

- (c) the debt shall not be taken, for the purposes of subsection 67(1), to have ceased to be due and payable merely because of the giving or entering of the judgment; and
- (d) if the judgment debt carries interest, the amount that would, but for this paragraph, be payable under that subsection in relation to the debt shall, by force of this paragraph, be reduced by:
  - (i) in a case to which paragraph (a) applies—the amount of the interest; or
  - (ii) in a case to which paragraph (b) applies—an amount that bears the same proportion to the amount of the interest as the amount of the debt bears to the amount of the judgment debt.

69A Crediting of lump sum payments

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) either:
    - (i) a child support agreement accepted by the Registrar includes lump sum payment provisions in accordance with paragraph 84(1)(e) of the Assessment Act; or
    - (ii) a court has made an order under section 123A of that Act in relation to the provision of child support in the form of a lump sum payment; and
  - (b) the Registrar has been notified that the lump sum payment has been paid in accordance with the agreement or order.
- (2) The Registrar must, in accordance with subsection (3):
  - (a) in respect of a day in an initial period, or in respect of a day in a payment period, in a year of income, for a registered maintenance liability, credit the remaining lump sum payment against:
    - (i) if the agreement or order states that the lump sum payment is to be credited against a specified percentage of the amount payable under the liability—that percentage of the amount payable under the liability; and
    - (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—100% of the amount payable under the liability; and
  - (b) reduce, but not below nil, the remaining lump sum payment by the amount so credited.
- (3) The Registrar must credit a remaining lump sum payment and reduce the remaining lump sum payment at the end of each year of income.
- (4) The remaining lump sum payment, in relation to the lump sum payment paid under the agreement or order, means:
  - (a) for the first day after the agreement is accepted or the order is made—the lump sum payment; and

Section 69A

---

- (b) for 1 July in a year of income (except if that 1 July is covered by paragraph (a))—the remaining lump sum payment for the previous day as indexed under subsection (5); and
  - (c) otherwise—so much of the remaining lump sum payment as remains after crediting under the previous application of this section.
- (5) The remaining lump sum payment, for 1 July in a year of income, is indexed as follows:

$$\frac{\text{The remaining lump sum payment for the previous day}}{\text{Indexation factor}}$$

where:

base quarter means the March quarter (before the March quarter for the previous year of income, but after the agreement is accepted or the order is made) with the highest index number.

indexation factor means:

$$\frac{\text{Index number for the March quarter of the previous year of income}}{\text{Index number for the base quarter}}$$

index number for a quarter is the All Groups Consumer Price Index number that is the weighted average of the 8 capital cities and is published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.

March quarter means the quarter ending on 31 March.

- (6) If an indexation factor worked out under subsection (5) would be less than 1, the indexation factor is to be increased to 1.
  - (7) Subject to subsection (8), if at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this subsection), the Australian Statistician publishes an index number for a quarter in substitution for an index number previously published by the Australian Statistician for that quarter, the publication of the later index number is to be disregarded for the purposes of subsection (5).

- (8) If at any time the Australian Statistician changes the index reference period for the Consumer Price Index, regard is to be had, for the purposes of applying subsection (5) after the change takes place, only to index numbers published in terms of the new index reference period.

Division 2—Child support debts and carer debts

69B Overpayments of payees

- (1) If:
- (a) the payee of a registered maintenance liability is:
    - (i) paid an amount under section 76; or
    - (ii) because of section 71AA or 71AB, taken to have been paid an amount under section 76; and
  - (b) the payee was not entitled to be paid the amount (including because of a subsequent variation to particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the registered maintenance liability);
- the amount is, subject to subsection (2), repayable by the payee to the Registrar and is a debt due by the payee to the Commonwealth.
- (2) An amount is not repayable by the payee, or a debt due, under subsection (1) if:
- (a) the payee was not entitled to be paid the amount because of a subsequent variation to particulars of the entry in the Child Support Register in relation to the registered maintenance liability; and
  - (b) the variation was the result of:
    - (i) a decision that the registered maintenance liability should never have existed; or
    - (ii) the payer of the registered maintenance liability ceasing to be a resident of Australia or a reciprocating jurisdiction.
- Note: An amount covered by subparagraph (2)(b)(i) may be recovered under section 143 of the Assessment Act.
- (3) The Registrar must pay any amount that is paid to the Registrar under subsection (1) to the payer of the registered maintenance liability.

Note: The payee referred to in this section becomes a payer of a carer debt (see the definitions of carer debt and payer in subsection 4(1)).

- (4) The payee of a liability under subsection (1) is not entitled to, and may not enforce payment of, amounts payable under the liability other than by instituting a proceeding under section 113A to recover a debt due in relation to the liability.

Note: A liability under subsection (1) is a carer liability (see the definition of carer liability in subsection 4(1)).

70 Apportionment of payment between payees

- (1) If:
- (a) a person owes:
    - (i) 2 or more child support debts that relate to 2 or more enforceable maintenance liabilities with different payees; or
    - (ii) 2 or more carer debts that relate to 2 or more carer liabilities with different payees; and
  - (c) an amount is paid to the Registrar in relation to all or any of the debts; and
  - (d) the total amount of the debts exceeds the amount paid to the Registrar;
- the Registrar must, despite any direction given by or on behalf of the person, apportion the amount of the payment between the payees in proportion to the amount of the debt owing in relation to each payee, and apply the amounts so apportioned in partial discharge of each of those debts.
- (2) This section does not apply to amounts paid to the Registrar in accordance with a court order made in relation to a proceeding instituted by a payee of a registered maintenance liability or carer liability under section 113A to recover a debt due in relation to the liability.

71 Direct payments to payee

- (1) Subject to section 71D, if:
- (a) either:

---

- (i) the payee of an enforceable maintenance liability receives from the payer an amount intended by both the payer and the payee to be paid in complete or partial satisfaction of an amount payable under the liability in relation to the child support enforcement period; or
    - (ii) the payee of a carer liability receives from the payer an amount intended by both the payer and the payee to be paid in complete or partial satisfaction of an amount payable under the liability; and
  - (b) the payer or the payee applies to the Registrar to have the amount received by the payee treated as having been paid to the Registrar;
the Registrar must, despite sections 30 and 69B, credit the amount received by the payee against the amount payable under the liability.
- (2) An application must be made in the manner specified by the Registrar.
- Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.
- (3) This section does not apply to an enforceable maintenance liability of a kind referred to in paragraph 18A(3)(a).

71AA Registrar may offset debts between payer and payee

- (1) If:
- (a) 2 persons each have a debt that is either:
    - (i) a child support debt arising from a liability referred to in section 17 or 17A; or
    - (ii) a carer debt; and
  - (b) the Commonwealth would (apart from this section) be required for each debt, under subsection 69B(3) or section 76, to pay the amount paid by one of the persons to the other person; and

- (c) for a debt that arose from a liability referred to in section 17 or for a carer debt—the liability provided for, or related to, child support for a child of the 2 persons;
the Registrar may offset the debts by deducting the amount, or part of the amount, of the debt of the person who owes the lesser amount from the amount of the debt of the person who owes the greater amount.
- (2) If the amount of the debts is the same, the Registrar may offset one debt against the other. In this case, the Commonwealth is taken to have recovered both of the debts.
- (3) If the amount of the debts is not the same, the Commonwealth is taken to have recovered:
- (a) so much of the amount of the smaller debt as is offset against the larger debt; and
  - (b) so much of the amount of the larger debt that equals the amount of the smaller debt as is offset.
- (4) Any amounts recovered by the Commonwealth by way of offset are taken to be:
- (a) paid by the payer to the Registrar under the registered maintenance liability or carer liability concerned; and
  - (b) paid by the Commonwealth to the payee as provided for in this Act.

Example: Offset of part of a debt

Helena was previously the payer of a registrable maintenance liability. Helena's children have now come to live with her. Helena has the greater debt of $3,000 from the period when she was a child support payer. Even though the children are no longer living with Theo, he is entitled to $3,000 in child support when Helena pays it.

Theo has now been assessed as having a child support liability. Under that liability, Theo has a debt of $150 in respect of a calendar month.

The Registrar offsets $100 of the debt (part of it only) that became due and payable by Theo against the amount owed by Helena. The effect of the offset is that Helena is taken to have paid $100 per calendar month. Theo is taken to have paid $100 of his liability to pay $150. Under the liability, Theo must pay $50 for that calendar month.

Section 71AB

Each time a debt incurred by Theo under the liability becomes due and payable it may be offset against the remainder of Helena's debt.

71AB Reduction of child support debts or carer debts when other debts are paid back

- (1) This section applies if:
  - (a) a person (the first person) owes either of the following debts (the first debt):
    - (i) a child support debt;
    - (ii) a carer debt; and
  - (b) the Registrar receives an amount (the repayment amount) from another person that is intended by the other person to be in partial or complete satisfaction of a child support debt or carer debt that is owed by the other person; and
  - (c) the Registrar would (apart from this section) be required under subsection 69B(3) or section 76 to pay the repayment amount to the first person.
- (2) The Registrar may, despite those provisions:
  - (a) credit the repayment amount against the amount payable under the first debt; and
  - (b) if, after the amount has been credited, the first debt has been paid in full, pay any excess to the first person.

71A Payments to third persons by payer

- (1) Subject to section 71D, if:
  - (a) the payer of an enforceable maintenance liability or carer liability pays a third party an amount that partially or completely satisfies a debt owed by:
    - (i) the payee of the enforceable maintenance liability or carer liability; or
    - (ii) the payer; or
    - (iii) both the payee and payer; and
  - (b) the payer or the payee applies to the Registrar, in the manner specified by the Registrar, to have the amount, or part of the amount, received by the third party treated as having been paid to the Registrar; and

- (c) the amount paid, or a part of the amount paid, was intended by both the payer and the payee to be paid in complete or partial satisfaction of an amount payable under:
  - (i) the enforceable maintenance liability in relation to the child support enforcement period; or
  - (ii) the carer liability;

the Registrar must, despite sections 30 and 69B, and in accordance with subsections (2) and (3), credit the amount, or part of the amount, received by the third party against the amount payable under the enforceable maintenance liability or carer liability.

Note: Section 16A provides for the Registrar to specify the manner in which an application may be made.

- (2) If:
  - (a) the application referred to in paragraph (1)(b) specifies that the amount, or part of the amount, received by the third party is to be credited against a specified percentage (that is less than 100%) of the amount payable under the liability; and
  - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the payer and the payee agree that the amount received is to be so credited;then the Registrar must credit the amount, or the part of the amount, received against that percentage of the amount payable under the liability.
- (3) Otherwise, the Registrar must credit the amount, or the part of the amount, received against all of the amount payable under the liability.
- (4) This section does not apply to an enforceable maintenance liability of a kind referred to in paragraph 18A(3)(a).

71B Payments not in money

- (1) For the purposes of sections 71 and 71A, if both the payer and the payee of an enforceable maintenance liability or carer liability so intend:

Section 71C

- (a) a payment in a form, other than money, by the payer; or
  - (b) a transfer of any property or right by the payer;
- is taken to be an amount paid in complete or partial satisfaction of an amount payable under the liability.
- (2) For the purpose of determining the amount to be credited under section 71 or 71A, in relation to the payment or transfer, against the amount payable under the liability of the payer to the Commonwealth, the amount of the payment or transfer is taken to be:
- (a) the amount agreed by the payer and the payee; or
  - (b) if no amount is agreed, the amount determined by the Registrar.

71C Other payments of up to 30% of child support liability

- (1) If:
- (a) the payer of an enforceable maintenance liability in relation to a payment period or initial period has made one or more payments to the payee of the liability, or to another person; and
  - (b) the payment is a payment of the kind specified in the regulations; and
  - (ba) at the time the payment is made, the payer does not have at least regular care of any of the children to whom the relevant administrative assessment relates; and
  - (c) the sum of those payments exceeds the sum of all such payments previously credited under this section against the amount payable under the liability for all past periods; and
  - (d) the payer does not, at the time at which the Registrar applies this section, have at least regular care of any of the children to whom the relevant administrative assessment relates;
- then the Registrar must, despite section 30, credit the excess amount mentioned in paragraph (c) against the amount payable under the payer's liability for the period, up to a maximum of 30% of the amount payable.

Note: Subsection (1) is subject to section 71D.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a payment (the prescribed payment) mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) if:
- (a) before the prescribed payment is made, the payer has provided child support to the payee in the form of a lump sum payment; and
  - (b) the lump sum payment has been credited, or will be credited, under section 69A against all or part of the amount payable under the enforceable maintenance liability in relation to the day the prescribed payment is made.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the Registrar must not credit an amount under this section in relation to a period for which the payer has not paid to the Commonwealth an amount equal to the difference between:
- (a) the amount payable by the payer to the Commonwealth under the enforceable maintenance liability in relation to that period; and
  - (b) the amount that is to be credited under subsection (1), or that would be so credited but for this subsection, in relation to that period.
- (4) If the payer:
- (a) did not pay that difference to the Commonwealth within the time required under section 66; and
  - (b) subsequently pays the amount of that difference to the Commonwealth;
- the Registrar may credit against the amount payable under the enforceable maintenance liability in relation to that period the amount that, but for subsection (3), would have been credited under subsection (1).
- (5) This section does not apply in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability in relation to a payment period or an initial period if:
- (a) the liability is covered by section 17A or 18; or
  - (b) both of the following apply:

Section 71D

- (i) the payer of the liability has provided child support to the payee of the liability in the form of a lump sum payment;
  - (ii) the lump sum payment will be credited, under section 69A, against all or part of the amount payable under the liability in relation to the days in the payment period or the initial period.
- (6) This section does not apply in relation to an enforceable maintenance liability of a kind mentioned in section 18A.

71D Registrar may refuse to credit amounts in special circumstances

The Registrar may refuse to credit an amount under section 71, 71A or 71C if satisfied that, in the circumstances of the particular case, the amount ought not to be credited.

71E Notices must be given to payers and payees

Notices must be given

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar decides, under section 71, 71A or 71C, to credit an amount received by the payee of an enforceable maintenance liability or carer liability, or a third party, against the amount payable under the liability of the payer of that liability.

Note: If the Registrar refuses to credit an amount under section 71, 71A or 71C, the Registrar must give a notice under subsection 42C(3).

- (2) As soon as practicable after the Registrar credits the amount, the Registrar must serve a notice in writing of the decision on the payee and the payer.

Content of notices

- (3) A notice served on a person under this section in relation to a decision (the original decision) must include, or be accompanied by, a statement to the effect that:

- (a) the person may, subject to this Act, object to the original decision; and
  - (b) if the person is dissatisfied by a later decision of the Registrar on an objection to the original decision (no matter who lodges the objection), the person may, subject to this Act and the AAT Act, apply to the AAT for review of the later decision.
- (4) A contravention of subsection (3) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

72 Application of certain amounts to debts under this Act

- (1) If, apart from this section:
- (a) the Commissioner would be required under section 8AAZLF of the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to refund an amount (the refund amount) to a person (the creditor); and
  - (b) the creditor owes a relevant debt to the Commonwealth;
- then, despite anything contained in any law of the Commonwealth apart from this Act (including section 8AAZLF of the Taxation Administration Act 1953):
- (c) the Registrar may require the Commissioner, at a particular time, to pay an amount to the Registrar not exceeding the lesser of the refund amount and the debt; and
  - (d) if the Registrar so requires, the Commissioner must, as soon as practicable, pay the required amount to the Registrar.
- (2) If the Commissioner pays an amount to the Registrar under subsection (1), the Registrar must:
- (a) apply the amount against the debt of the creditor; or

Part VI—Payments to payees

Division 1—Child Support Account

73 Child Support Account

- (1) There is continued in existence the Child Support Account.

Note: The Account was established by subsection 5(3) of the Financial Management Legislation Amendment Act 1999.

- (2) The Account is a special account for the purposes of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013.

74 Credit of amounts to Account

  - (c) amounts equal to amounts that are to be debited from the Account in making payments mentioned in paragraph 75(1)(c).
- (2) If the Registrar receives an amount of which only part appears to the Registrar to fall within subsection (1), the Registrar must determine, in writing, the portion of the amount falling within that subsection, and only that portion is to be credited to the Account under subsection (1).
- (3) If an amount would be credited to the Account under both section 74 of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 (which deals with receipt of amounts by non-corporate Commonwealth entities) and paragraph (1)(c) of this section, the amount is to be credited to the Account under whichever of those provisions first applies.

75 Purposes of the Account

- (1) The purposes of the Account are:
  - (aa) to make payments under subsection 69B(3) to payees of carer liabilities; and
  - (a) to make payments under subsection 76(1) to payees of registered maintenance liabilities; and
  - (b) to make payments to the payees of enforceable maintenance liabilities of amounts received from the payers of the liabilities as voluntary payments for transmission to the payees; and

- (2) Amounts received from employers and payers of enforceable maintenance liabilities, in relation to cases in which amounts have been credited to the Account under section 77 or subsection 78(3), may be debited from the Account.

Division 2—Payments to payees

76 Entitlement of payees of registered maintenance liabilities to be paid collected amounts

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, sections 71AA, 71AB, 79A and 79B, every payee of a registered maintenance liability is entitled to be paid, on or before the first Wednesday following the end of each calendar month (in this section called the current month), an amount equal to the aggregate of:
- (a) amounts deducted by an employer under Part IV in relation to the liability during the calendar month (in this section called the previous month) preceding the current month;
  - (b) amounts received by the Registrar (otherwise than under Part IV) in payment of a child support debt in relation to the liability during the period (in this section called the payment period) beginning on the day following the closing day of the previous month and ending on the closing day of the current month; and
  - (c) to the extent that they have not previously been paid to the payee, amounts that were:
    - (i) deducted by an employer under Part IV in relation to the liability before the previous month; or
    - (ii) received by the Registrar (otherwise than under Part IV) in payment of a child support debt in relation to the liability before the payment period;
- but excluding (in the case of each of the amounts mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c)) any amount that was not due and payable by the payer on the seventh day of the current month.
- Note: A debt may arise if the payee is overpaid (see section 69B).
- (2) Subject to the regulations, where the amount that a person is, but for this subsection, entitled to be paid at any time under subsection (1) in relation to a registered maintenance liability is less than the amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection, the person is not entitled to be paid the amount at that time.

77 Unremitted deductions made by employers

Where:

- (a) the Registrar is satisfied that a deduction has been made under subsection 46(1) in a calendar month by an employer from the salary or wages of an employee; and
- (b) the amount of the deduction is not paid to the Registrar under paragraph 47(1)(a) on or before the closing day of the following calendar month;

an amount equal to the amount of the deduction unpaid on that closing day must be credited to the Account.

78 Unexplained remittances from employers

(1) This section applies where:

- (a) on or before the closing day of a calendar month, the Registrar receives under paragraph 47(1)(a) an amount (in this section called the received amount) from an employer in relation to the amounts deducted by the employer under Part IV from the salary or wages of employees during the preceding calendar month;
- (b) the employer contravenes paragraph 47(1)(b) in relation to the preceding calendar month; and
- (c) the Registrar is unable to ascertain to the Registrar's satisfaction, on or before the closing day, the portion of the received amount attributable to each of the employees (in this section called the relevant employees) in relation to whom a notice given to the employer under subsection 45(1) was in force during the preceding calendar month.

(2) The Registrar may, for the purposes of subsection 76(1):

- (a) subject to subsection (3), treat the received amount as the total of the amounts deducted by the employer under Part IV from the salary or wages of all the relevant employees during the preceding calendar month; and

Section 78

---

- (b) apportion the amount between the relevant employees on the basis that appears to the Registrar to be the most appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) Where:
  - (a) the received amount is less than the amount (in this subsection called the expected amount) that, according to the records held by the Registrar, should have been received from the employer under paragraph 47(1)(a) in relation to the preceding calendar month; and
  - (b) the expected amount does not exceed the sum of the received amount and the product of the amount prescribed for the purposes of this subsection and the number of relevant employees;then:
  - (c) for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section, the received amount shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the expected amount; and
  - (d) an amount equal to the difference between the expected amount and the received amount must be credited to the Account.

Division 3—Suspension determinations for registered maintenance liabilities

79A Suspension determinations—pending declarations that person should not be assessed in respect of the costs of the child

Suspension determinations

- (1) The Registrar must make a determination (a suspension determination) that a payee of a registered maintenance liability in relation to a child is not entitled under subsection 76(1) to be paid an amount that is payable for the child by a payer of the liability if:
- (a) the Registrar has notice that an application has been made under section 107 of the Assessment Act for a declaration that the payer should not be assessed in respect of the costs of the child because the payer is not a parent of the child; and
  - (b) the application is pending.

Payee not entitled to be paid amounts until resumption determination made

- (2) If the Registrar makes a suspension determination on a day, the payee is not entitled to be paid an amount from that payer for the child on that or any later day mentioned in subsection 76(1) unless and until the Registrar makes a determination under subsection (3) of this section in relation to the payee and an amount payable by that payer for the child.

Note 1: If the court grants the declaration under section 107 of the Assessment Act, the application for administrative assessment of child support is taken to have never been accepted by the Registrar, and the payee was never entitled to be paid amounts under subsection 76(1) of this Act from that payer for that child.

Note 2: The Registrar must vary the Child Support Register after making the suspension determination (see section 79C).

Section 79B

---

Resumption determinations

(3) If:

- (a) the Registrar has made a suspension determination under subsection (1) in relation to the payee of a registered maintenance liability; and
- (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the application referred to in paragraph (1)(a) has been:
  - (i) finally refused by the court (within the meaning of section 144 of the Assessment Act); or
  - (ii) dismissed or withdrawn; or
  - (iii) struck out by the court;

the Registrar must make a determination (a resumption determination) that:

- (c) the payee is again entitled under subsection 76(1) to be paid an amount from that payer for the child; and
- (d) if the payee has not, because of the suspension determination, been paid an amount which the payee would otherwise have been paid under subsection 76(1)—the payee is entitled to be paid that amount.

Note: The Registrar must vary the Child Support Register after making the resumption determination (see section 79C).

79B Suspension determination—pending AAT and court reviews

Suspension determinations

- (1) The Registrar may make a determination (a suspension determination) that a payee of a registered maintenance liability in relation to a child is not entitled under subsection 76(1) to be paid an amount that is payable for the child by the payer of the liability if:
  - (a) any of the following proceedings has been brought by the payer (whether under this Act or the AAT Act) in respect of a decision to accept an application for administrative assessment under subsection 30(1) of the Assessment Act and the proceeding is pending:

---

- (i) a proceeding that the child was not a child in relation to whom the application for administrative assessment of child support was entitled to be made;
  - (ii) a proceeding that the applicant was not a person entitled to make the application for the child;
  - (iii) a proceeding that a person who was to be assessed in respect of the costs of the child was not a resident of Australia; or
- (b) a proceeding has been brought by the payer under Part IVA of the AAT Act (appeal to court on a question of law) in relation to the payee's entitlement to administrative assessment of child support for the child and the proceeding is pending.

Payee not entitled to be paid amounts until resumption determination made

- (2) If the Registrar makes a suspension determination on a day, the payee is not entitled to be paid an amount from that payer for the child on that or any later day mentioned in subsection 76(1) unless and until the Registrar makes a determination under subsection (3) of this section in relation to the payee and an amount payable by that payer for the child.

Note: The Registrar must vary the Child Support Register after making the suspension determination (see section 79C).

Resumption determinations

- (3) If:
- (a) the Registrar has made a suspension determination under subsection (1) in relation to the payee of a registered maintenance liability; and
  - (b) the Registrar is satisfied that the proceeding referred to in subsection (1) has been:
    - (i) finally refused by the Registrar, the AAT or a court (within the meaning of section 110W); or
    - (ii) dismissed or withdrawn; or

Section 79C

---

- (iii) struck out by the court;
the Registrar must make a determination (a resumption determination) that:
- (c) the payee is again entitled under subsection 76(1) to be paid an amount from that payer for the child; and
  - (d) if the payee has not, because of the suspension determination, been paid an amount which the payee would otherwise have been paid under subsection 76(1)—the payee is entitled to be paid that amount.

Note: The Registrar must vary the Child Support Register after making the resumption determination (see section 79C).

79C Varying particulars after suspension or resumption determination is made

- (1) Immediately after making a suspension determination in relation to an amount payable under a registered maintenance liability, the Registrar must vary the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability in whatever way the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to give effect to the determination.

Note: As soon as practicable after varying particulars under this subsection, the Registrar must serve a notice under section 42C.

- (2) Immediately after making a resumption determination in relation to an amount payable under a registered maintenance liability, the Registrar must vary the particulars entered in the Child Support Register in relation to the liability in whatever way the Registrar considers necessary or desirable to give effect to the determination.

Note: As soon as practicable after varying particulars under this subsection, the Registrar must serve a notice under section 42C.

Part VII—Internal objection procedures for certain decisions

79D Simplified outline of this Part

Certain persons can object under this Part to certain decisions of the Registrar under the Assessment Act and this Act.

If a person is dissatisfied with the reconsideration, he or she can apply to the AAT for review of the decision (an “AAT first review”).

79E Object of this Part

The object of this Part is to provide for internal reconsideration of decisions of the Registrar before the decisions may be reviewed by the AAT.

Part VIIA—Review by Administrative Appeals Tribunal

Division 1—Preliminary

87A Simplified outline of this Part

Certain decisions made by the Registrar on reconsideration under Part VII are reviewable by the AAT. A person may apply to the AAT for review of such a decision (an “AAT first review”).

The person may apply to the AAT for a further review (an “AAT second review”) if the person is dissatisfied with any of the following decisions of the AAT:

- (a) a decision to refuse an extension of time for a person to make an application for AAT first review;
- (b) a decision on AAT first review of a care percentage decision;
- (c) a decision in relation to the date of effect of a decision on AAT first review of a care percentage decision.

The rules relating to reviews by the AAT are mainly in the AAT Act, but the operation of that Act is modified in some ways by this Part.

The AAT Act allows a person to appeal to a court on a question of law from a decision of the AAT.

Section 89

- (3) The AAT must give written notice of the decision granting or refusing the extension application to the person who made the extension application.
- (4) If the AAT refuses the extension application, the notice under subsection (3) must include, or be accompanied by, a statement to the effect that the person may, subject to this Act and the AAT Act, apply to the AAT for review of the decision.

93 Certain procedures suspended for AAT first review until extension application granted

- (1) Section 29AC of the AAT Act does not apply in relation to an application for AAT first review for which an extension application has been made under section 91, unless the AAT or a court decides the extension application is to be granted.

- (2) If the AAT requests the Registrar to lodge with the AAT, in relation to the application for AAT first review, the statement or other documents referred to in subsection 37(1) of the AAT Act, the Registrar must do so within 28 days after receiving the request.

95J AAT may require Registrar to obtain information for AAT first review specified provision of Part IV, is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.
