7 Novelty, inventive step and innovative step*Novelty*

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to be novel when compared with the prior art base unless it is not novel in the light of any one of the following kinds of information, each of which must be considered separately:
- (a) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
 - (b) prior art information (other than that mentioned in paragraph (c)) made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information;
 - (c) prior art information contained in a single specification of the kind mentioned in subparagraph (b)(ii) of the definition of prior art base in Schedule 1.

Inventive step

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an inventive step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would have been obvious to a person skilled in the relevant art in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, whether that knowledge is considered separately or together with the information mentioned in subsection (3).
- (3) The information for the purposes of subsection (2) is:
- (a) any single piece of prior art information; or
 - (b) a combination of any 2 or more pieces of prior art information that the skilled person mentioned in subsection (2) could, before the priority date of the relevant claim, be reasonably expected to have combined.

Section 7A

Innovative step

- (4) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is to be taken to involve an innovative step when compared with the prior art base unless the invention would, to a person skilled in the relevant art, in the light of the common general knowledge as it existed (whether in or out of the patent area) before the priority date of the relevant claim, only vary from the kinds of information set out in subsection (5) in ways that make no substantial contribution to the working of the invention.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the information is of the following kinds:
 - (a) prior art information made publicly available in a single document or through doing a single act;
 - (b) prior art information made publicly available in 2 or more related documents, or through doing 2 or more related acts, if the relationship between the documents or acts is such that a person skilled in the relevant art would treat them as a single source of that information.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4), each kind of information set out in subsection (5) must be considered separately.

[Notes: (1) For the meaning of document see section 2B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

(2) See also the definitions of prior art base and prior art information in Schedule 1: see also paragraph 18(1)(b) and section 98.]

7A Meaning of useful

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an invention is taken not to be useful unless a specific, substantial and credible use for the invention (so far as claimed) is disclosed in the complete specification.
- (2) The disclosure in the complete specification must be sufficient for that specific, substantial and credible use to be appreciated by a person skilled in the relevant art.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not otherwise affect the meaning of the word useful in this Act.

9 Secret use

For the purposes of this Act, the following acts are not to be taken to be secret use of an invention in the patent area:

- (a) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for the purpose of reasonable trial or experiment only;
- (b) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, being use occurring solely in the course of a confidential disclosure of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee, nominated person, or predecessor in title;
- (c) any other use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for any purpose other than the purpose of trade or commerce;
- (d) any use of the invention by or on behalf of the Commonwealth, a State, or a Territory where the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, has disclosed the invention, so far as claimed, to the Commonwealth, State or Territory;
- (e) any use of the invention by or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person, or his or her predecessor in title to the invention, for any purpose, if a complete application is made for the invention within the prescribed period.

[Note: See also paragraph 18(1)(d)]

10 Certain international applications to be taken to have been given an international filing date

- (1) Where:

Section 11

- (a) an international application specifies Australia as a designated State under Article 4(1)(ii) of the PCT; and
 - (b) the receiving Office does not give the application an international filing date; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, that the application should, under Article 25(2)(a) of the PCT, be treated as if it had been given an international filing date;
- the application is to be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have been given an international filing date under Article 11 of the PCT.
- (2) This section does not apply to an international application that was not filed in the receiving Office in English unless a translation of the application into English, verified in accordance with the regulations, has been filed.
 - (3) Where this section applies, the international filing date of the application is to be taken to be the date that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, should have been given to the application as its international filing date under the PCT.

[Note: international filing date is defined in Schedule 1.]

12A Application of the Criminal Code

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences created by this Act.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Chapter 2—Patent rights, ownership and validity

Part 1—Patent rights

13 Exclusive rights given by patent

- (1) Subject to this Act, a patent gives the patentee the exclusive rights, during the term of the patent, to exploit the invention and to authorise another person to exploit the invention.
- (2) The exclusive rights are personal property and are capable of assignment and of devolution by law.
- (3) A patent has effect throughout the patent area.

14 Assignment of patent

- (1) An assignment of a patent must be in writing signed by or on behalf of the assignor and assignee.
- (2) A patent may be assigned for a place in, or part of, the patent area.

Part 2—Ownership

15 Who may be granted a patent?

- (1) Subject to this Act, a patent for an invention may only be granted to a person who:
 - (a) is the inventor; or
 - (b) would, on the grant of a patent for the invention, be entitled to have the patent assigned to the person; or
 - (c) derives title to the invention from the inventor or a person mentioned in paragraph (b); or
 - (d) is the legal representative of a deceased person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).
- (2) A patent may be granted to a person whether or not he or she is an Australian citizen.

16 Co-ownership of patents

- (1) Subject to any agreement to the contrary, where there are 2 or more patentees:
 - (a) each of them is entitled to an equal undivided share in the patent; and
 - (b) each of them is entitled to exercise the exclusive rights given by the patent for his or her own benefit without accounting to the others; and
 - (c) none of them can grant a licence under the patent, or assign an interest in it, without the consent of the others.
- (2) Where a patented product, or a product of a patented method or process, is sold by any of 2 or more patentees, the buyer, and a person claiming through the buyer, may deal with the product as if it had been sold by all the patentees.
- (3) This section does not affect the rights or obligations of a trustee or of the legal representative of a deceased person, or rights or obligations arising out of either of those relationships.

Section 17

17 Directions to co-owners

- (1) Where there are 2 or more patentees, the Commissioner may, on the application of any of them, give such directions in accordance with the application as the Commissioner thinks fit, being directions about:
 - (a) a dealing with the patent or an interest in it; or
 - (b) the grant of licences under the patent; or
 - (c) the exercise of a right under section 16 in relation to the patent.
- (2) If a patentee fails to do anything necessary to carry out a direction under subsection (1) within 14 days after being asked in writing to do so by one of the other patentees, the Commissioner may, on the application of one of those other patentees, direct a person to do it in the name and on behalf of the defaulting patentee.
- (3) Before giving a direction, the Commissioner must give an opportunity to be heard:
 - (a) in the case of an application by a patentee or patentees under subsection (1)—to the other patentee or patentees; and
 - (b) in the case of an application under subsection (2)—to the defaulting patentee.
- (4) The Commissioner must not give a direction that:
 - (a) affects the rights or obligations of a trustee or of the legal representative of a deceased person, or rights or obligations arising out of either of those relationships; or
 - (b) is inconsistent with the terms of an agreement between the patentees.

Part 3—Validity

Division 1—Validity

18 Patentable inventions

Patentable inventions for the purposes of a standard patent

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an invention is a patentable invention for the purposes of a standard patent if the invention, so far as claimed in any claim:
- (a) is a manner of manufacture within the meaning of section 6 of the Statute of Monopolies; and
 - (b) when compared with the prior art base as it existed before the priority date of that claim:
 - (i) is novel; and
 - (ii) involves an inventive step; and
 - (c) is useful; and
 - (d) was not secretly used in the patent area before the priority date of that claim by, or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person or the patentee's or nominated person's predecessor in title to the invention.

Patentable inventions for the purposes of an innovation patent

- (1A) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an invention is a patentable invention for the purposes of an innovation patent if the invention, so far as claimed in any claim:
- (a) is a manner of manufacture within the meaning of section 6 of the Statute of Monopolies; and
 - (b) when compared with the prior art base as it existed before the priority date of that claim:
 - (i) is novel; and
 - (ii) involves an innovative step; and
 - (c) is useful; and

Section 19

- (d) was not secretly used in the patent area before the priority date of that claim by, or on behalf of, or with the authority of, the patentee or nominated person or the patentee's or nominated person's predecessor in title to the invention.
- (2) Human beings, and the biological processes for their generation, are not patentable inventions.

Certain inventions not patentable inventions for the purposes of an innovation patent

- (3) For the purposes of an innovation patent, plants and animals, and the biological processes for the generation of plants and animals, are not patentable inventions.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the invention is a microbiological process or a product of such a process.

[Note: see also sections 7 and 9.]

19 Certificate of validity

- (1) In any proceedings in a court in which the validity of a patent, or of a claim, is disputed, the court may certify that the validity of a specified claim was questioned.
- (2) If a court issues a certificate, then, in any subsequent proceedings for infringement of the claim concerned, or for the revocation of the patent so far as it relates to that claim, the patentee, or any other person supporting the validity of the claim is, on obtaining a final order or judgment in his or her favour, entitled to full costs, charges and expenses as between solicitor and client, so far as that claim is concerned.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect subject to any direction by the court trying the proceedings.

20 Validity of patent not guaranteed

- (1) Nothing done under this Act or the PCT guarantees the granting of a patent, or that a patent is valid, in Australia or anywhere else.

- (2) The Commonwealth, the Commissioner, a Deputy Commissioner, or an employee, is not liable because of, or in connection with, doing any act under this Act or the PCT, or any proceedings consequent on doing any such act.

21 Validity not implied by making or refusal of non-infringement declaration

The making of, or refusal to make, a non-infringement declaration in respect of a claim of a patent does not imply that the claim is valid.

Division 2—Matters not affecting validity

22A Validity not affected by who patent is granted to

A patent is not invalid merely because:

- (a) the patent, or a share in the patent, was granted to a person who was not entitled to it; or
- (b) the patent, or a share in the patent, was not granted to a person who was entitled to it.

22 Invalidity in relation to one claim not to affect validity in relation to other claims

The invalidity of a patent in relation to a claim does not affect its validity in relation to any other claim.

23 Validity not affected by publication etc. after priority date

A patent is not invalid, so far as the invention is claimed in any claim, merely because of:

- (a) the publication or use of the invention, so far as claimed in that claim, on or after the priority date of that claim; or
- (b) the grant of another patent which claims the invention, so far as claimed in the first-mentioned claim, in a claim of the same or a later priority date.

24 Validity not affected by certain publication or use

- (1) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:
 - (a) any information made publicly available in the prescribed circumstances, by or with the consent of the nominated person or patentee, or the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; and
 - (b) any information made publicly available without the consent of the nominated person or patentee, through any publication or use of the invention by another person who derived the information from the nominated person or patentee or from the predecessor in title of the nominated person or patentee; but only if a complete application for the invention is made within the prescribed period.

- (2) For the purpose of deciding whether an invention is novel or involves an inventive step or an innovative step, the person making the decision must disregard:
- (a) any information given by, or with the consent of, the nominated person or the patentee, or his or her predecessor in title, to any of the following, but to no other person or organisation:
 - (i) the Commonwealth or a State or Territory, or an authority of the Commonwealth or a State or Territory;
 - (ii) a person authorised by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory to investigate the invention; and
 - (b) anything done for the purpose of an investigation mentioned in subparagraph (a)(ii).

25 Validity: patents of addition

Objection cannot be taken to a patent request or complete specification in respect of an application for a patent of addition, and a patent of addition is not invalid, merely because the invention, so far as claimed, does not involve an inventive step, having regard to the publication or use of the main invention during the prescribed period.

26 Validity not affected in certain cases involving amendments

- (1) Objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not invalid, merely because the specification claims an invention that was not the subject of the request, or that was not described or claimed in the specification as filed.
- (2) Except in the case of an amendment made in contravention of section 112 or 112A, objection cannot be taken to a patent request and specification that have been accepted, and a patent is not

Part 3 Validity

Section 26

invalid, merely because an amendment of the specification has been made that was not allowable.

Division 3—Notice of matters affecting validity

27 Notice of matters affecting validity of standard patents

- (1) A person may, within the prescribed period after a complete specification filed in relation to an application for a standard patent becomes open to public inspection, notify the Commissioner, in accordance with the regulations, that the person asserts, for reasons stated in the notice, that the invention concerned is not a patentable invention because it does not comply with paragraph 18(1)(b).
- (2) The Commissioner must inform the applicant for the patent in writing of any matter of which the Commissioner is notified and send the applicant a copy of any document accompanying the notice.
- (3) The Commissioner must otherwise consider and deal with a notice in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) A notice and any document accompanying it are open to public inspection.

28 Notice of matters affecting validity of innovation patents

Person may give notice of invalidity of an innovation patent

- (1) A person may notify the Commissioner that the person asserts, for reasons stated in the notice, that an innovation patent is invalid because the invention concerned does not comply with paragraph 18(1A)(b).

When notice may be given

- (2) A notice may only be given to the Commissioner under subsection (1) in respect of an innovation patent within the prescribed period after an innovation patent has been granted.

How notice must be given

- (3) Notice must be given in accordance with the regulations.

Section 28

Commissioner must inform patentee of notice given

- (4) If the Commissioner receives a notice in respect of an innovation patent, the Commissioner must inform the patentee, in writing, of any matter of which the Commissioner is notified and send the patentee a copy of any document accompanying the notice.

Commissioner to deal with notice in accordance with regulations

- (5) The Commissioner must otherwise consider and deal with a notice in accordance with the regulations.

Chapter 3—From application to acceptance

- (2) The description, drawings and claims contained in a PCT application are to be treated as a complete specification filed in respect of the application.
- (3) The specification of a PCT application is to be taken to be amended in the circumstances, on the day and in the manner as prescribed by the regulations.

Section 29B

- (4) A PCT application is to be taken to comply with the prescribed requirements of this Act that relate to applications for standard patents, but is not to be taken, merely because of subsection (1) or (2), to comply with any other requirements of this Act.

29B Applications for patents—special rules for Convention applications

Making Convention applications

- (1) A Convention applicant in relation to a basic application may make a Convention application, or 2 or more such applicants may make a joint Convention application.
- (2) If 2 or more basic applications for protection in respect of inventions have been made in one or more Convention countries, one Convention application may be made within the prescribed period by a Convention applicant in relation to those basic applications, or by 2 or more such entitled applicants jointly, in respect of the inventions disclosed in the basic applications.

30 Filing date

A patent application (including a PCT application) is to be taken to have been made on the filing date determined under the regulations.

31 Joint applicants

2 or more persons (within the meaning of section 29) may make a joint patent application.

32 Disputes between applicants etc.

- (1) If a dispute arises between any 2 or more joint applicants in relation to a patent application whether, or in what manner, the application should proceed, the Commissioner may, on a request made in accordance with the regulations by any of those applicants, make any determinations the Commissioner thinks fit for enabling the application to proceed in the name of one or more of the applicants alone, or for regulating the manner in which it is to proceed, or both, as the case requires.
- (2) The Commissioner may make a determination under subsection (1) whether or not the application has lapsed.
- (3) The Commissioner must not make a determination under subsection (1) without first giving each joint applicant a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied on the balance of probabilities, in relation to an invention disclosed in the specification filed in relation to the application for the patent:
 - (i) that the nominated person is not an eligible person, but that the section 36 applicants are eligible persons; or
 - (ii) that the nominated person is an eligible person, but that the section 36 applicants are also eligible persons;

Section 37

- (4) If a complete application is made under section 29 by one or more of the declared persons, the priority date of the claims of a patent for the invention granted to the person, or persons, as the case may be, must be determined under the regulations.
- (5) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision by the Commissioner under this section.

37 Complete application may be treated as provisional

- (1) Where a complete application is made, the applicant may, at any time during the prescribed period, by written request, ask the Commissioner to direct that the application be treated as a provisional application.
- (2) A person is not entitled to make a request if the patent request and specification filed in respect of the application have been accepted or have become open to public inspection.
- (3) On receiving a request, the Commissioner must give a direction as asked.
- (4) Where the Commissioner gives a direction, the complete application is to be taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be, and to have always been, a provisional application.

38 Time for making complete application

- (1) If an applicant makes a provisional application, the applicant may make one or more complete applications associated with the provisional application at any time within the prescribed period.
- (1A) A Convention application must be made within the prescribed period.

[Note: see also section 5 for requirements relating to associated applications.]

Division 2—Specifications

40 Specifications

Requirements relating to provisional specifications

- (1) A provisional specification must disclose the invention in a manner which is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art.
- (2) A complete specification must:
 - (a) disclose the invention in a manner which is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art; and
 - (aa) disclose the best method known to the applicant of performing the invention; and
 - (b) where it relates to an application for a standard patent—end with a claim or claims defining the invention; and
 - (c) where it relates to an application for an innovation patent—end with at least one and no more than 5 claims defining the invention.
- (3) The claim or claims must be clear and succinct and supported by matter disclosed in the specification.
- (3A) The claim or claims must not rely on references to descriptions or drawings unless absolutely necessary to define the invention.
- (4) The claim or claims must relate to one invention only.

41 Specifications: micro-organisms

- (1) To the extent that an invention is a micro-organism, the complete specification is to be taken to comply with paragraph 40(2)(a), so far as it requires a description of the micro-organism, if the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.
- (2) Where:

Section 42

- (a) an invention involves the use, modification or cultivation of a micro-organism, other than the micro-organism mentioned in subsection (1); and
 - (b) a person skilled in the relevant art in the patent area could not reasonably be expected to perform the invention without having a sample of the micro-organism before starting to perform the invention; and
 - (c) the micro-organism is not reasonably available to a person skilled in the relevant art in the patent area;
- the specification is to be taken to comply with paragraph 40(2)(a), so far as it requires a description of the micro-organism, if, and only if, the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, a micro-organism may be taken to be reasonably available to a person even if it is not so available in the patent area.
- (4) Where:
- (a) the requirements specified in paragraph 6(c) or (d) cease to be satisfied in relation to a micro-organism; and
 - (b) steps are taken at a later time within the prescribed period in accordance with such provisions (if any) of the regulations as are applicable; and
 - (c) as a result of those steps, if the period during which those requirements are not satisfied is disregarded, those requirements would be satisfied at that later time;
- those requirements are to be taken to have been satisfied during the period mentioned in paragraph (c), and such provisions as are prescribed have effect for the protection or compensation of persons who availed themselves, or took definite steps by way of contract or otherwise to avail themselves, of the invention during that period.

[Note: see also section 6 in relation to satisfaction of deposit requirements.]

Section 42

42 Micro-organisms ceasing to be reasonably available

- (1) Where:
- (a) a complete application has been made for a patent, or a patent has been granted for an invention of a kind mentioned in paragraph 41(2)(a); and
 - (b) the relevant micro-organism was, at the date of filing of the complete specification, reasonably available (within the meaning of section 41) to a skilled person working in the relevant art in the patent area; and
 - (c) the micro-organism has ceased to be so available;
- a prescribed court or the Commissioner, on application made in accordance with the regulations, or the Commissioner, on his or her own motion, may declare that the specification does not comply with section 40 unless the deposit requirements are satisfied in relation to the micro-organism.
- (2) Where a declaration is made under subsection (1):
- (a) this Act has effect in relation to the specification accordingly; and
 - (b) section 6 applies as if the references in that section to the date of filing of the specification were references to a date specified in the declaration for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the operation of section 223.
- (4) Where:
- (a) an application is made under subsection (1); or
 - (b) the Commissioner proposes to make a declaration under that subsection on his or her own motion;

- (6) An office copy of a declaration by a prescribed court must be served on the Commissioner by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court.
- (7) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Commissioner under subsection (1).

[Note: see also section 6 in relation to satisfaction of deposit requirements.]

Division 3—Priority dates

43 Priority dates

- (1) Each claim of a specification must have a priority date.
- (2) The priority date of a claim is:
 - (a) if subsection (2A) applies to the claim—the date determined under the regulations; or
 - (b) otherwise—the date of the filing of the specification.
- (2A) This subsection applies to a claim if:
 - (a) prescribed circumstances apply in relation to the invention defined in the claim; and
 - (b) a prescribed document discloses the invention in the claim in a manner that is clear enough and complete enough for the invention to be performed by a person skilled in the relevant art.
- (3) Where a claim defines more than one form of an invention, then, for the purposes of determining the priority date of the claim, it must be treated as if it were a separate claim for each form of the invention that is defined.
- (4) The priority date of a claim of a specification may be different from the priority date of any other claim of the specification.
- (5) If, at the time when a Convention application or a PCT application is made in respect of an invention:
 - (a) an application (the earlier application) has been made for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country; and
 - (b) the earlier application was made in the prescribed period; and
 - (c) the earlier application has been withdrawn, abandoned or refused without becoming open to public inspection; and
 - (d) the earlier application has not been used as the basis of claiming a right of priority in a Convention country under a law of that country; and

Section 43AA

- (e) a later application has been made by the same applicant for protection in respect of the invention in a Convention country;

the earlier application is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to have never been made.

Note: For the purposes of paragraph (e), the later application need not have been made in the same Convention country as the earlier application.

43AA Disclosure in basic applications

Prescribed documents relating to basic applications

- (1) The regulations may prescribe documents that relate to a basic application.

Disclosures in prescribed documents may generally be taken into account

- (2) Without limiting the documents or disclosures that may be taken into account for the purposes of this Act in relation to a basic application, account may be taken of a disclosure in a prescribed document that relates to a basic application.

Disclosures in prescribed documents must not be taken into account if Commissioner's requirement not complied with

- (3) However, if the Commissioner makes a requirement under subsection (4) in relation to a prescribed document, account must not be taken, for the purposes of this Act, of a disclosure in the prescribed document unless the document has been made available by the prescribed means and within the prescribed period.

Commissioner may require prescribed documents be made available

- (4) The Commissioner may require that a prescribed document relating to a basic application be made available to the Commissioner by the prescribed means and within the prescribed period.
- (5) The Commissioner may make a requirement under subsection (4) more than once in relation to the same prescribed document.

- (3) Subsection (1) does not give the applicant a right to start proceedings in respect of the doing of an act unless:
 - (a) a patent is granted on the application; and
 - (b) the act would, if done after the grant of the patent, have constituted an infringement of a claim of the specification.
- (4) It is a defence to proceedings under subsection (1) in respect of an act done:

81 Grant of patent of addition

- (1) Where:
 - (a) a patent for an invention (in this Chapter called the main invention) has been applied for or granted; and
 - (b) the applicant or patentee (or a person authorised by the applicant or patentee) applies for a further patent for an improvement in, or modification of, the main invention; and
 - (c) the application for that further patent is made in accordance with the regulations;the Commissioner may, subject to this Act and the regulations, grant a patent of addition for the improvement or modification.

- (3) If the term of a patent of addition is extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6:
 - (a) the extension begins at the end of the unextended term of the patent for the main invention; and
 - (b) when the extension begins, the patent of addition becomes an independent patent.

Patent for main invention extended

- (4) If:
 - (a) the term of the patent for the main invention is extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6; and

Section 85

- (b) the term of the patent of addition is not extended under that Part;

Note 1: This section applies in relation to a patent granted as a result of an application filed on or after the commencement of Schedule 6 to the Intellectual Property Laws Amendment Act 2006 (which repealed and substituted this section).

Note 2: Section 119 of this Act as in force before the commencement of that Schedule continues to apply in relation to patents granted as a result of earlier applications.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if, before the priority date, the person:
 - (a) had stopped (except temporarily) exploiting the product, method or process in the patent area; or
 - (b) had abandoned (except temporarily) the steps to exploit the product, method or process in the patent area.

Limit for product, method or process derived from patentee

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a product, method or process the person derived from the patentee or the patentee's predecessor in title in the patented invention unless the person derived the product, method or process from information that was made publicly available:
 - (a) by or with the consent of the patentee or the patentee's predecessor in title; and

Section 119

- (b) through any publication or use of the invention in the prescribed circumstances mentioned in paragraph 24(1)(a).

Exemption for successors in title

- (4) A person (the disposer) may dispose of the whole of the disposer's entitlement under subsection (1) to do an act without infringing a patent to another person (the recipient). If the disposer does so, this section applies in relation to the recipient as if the references in subsections (1), (2) and (3) to the person were references to:
 - (a) the disposer; or
 - (b) if the disposer's entitlement arose because of one or more previous applications of this subsection—the first person:
 - (i) who was entitled under subsection (1) (applying of its own force) to do an act without infringing the patent; and
 - (ii) to whom the disposer's entitlement is directly or indirectly attributable.

Definition

- (5) In this section:

exploit includes:

- (a) in relation to a product:
 - (i) make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
 - (ii) offer to make, hire, sell or otherwise dispose of the product; and
 - (iii) use or import the product; and
 - (iv) keep the product for the purpose of doing an act described in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii); and
- (b) in relation to a method or process:
 - (i) use the method or process; and
 - (ii) do an act described in subparagraph (a)(i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) with a product resulting from the use of the method or process.

Section 119A

119A Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval of pharmaceuticals

- (1) The rights of a patentee of a pharmaceutical patent are not infringed by a person exploiting an invention claimed in the patent if the exploitation is solely for:
 - (a) purposes connected with obtaining the inclusion in the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods of goods that:
 - (i) are intended for therapeutic use; and
 - (ii) are not medical devices, or therapeutic devices, as defined in the Therapeutic Goods Act 1989; or
 - (b) purposes connected with obtaining similar regulatory approval under a law of a foreign country or of a part of a foreign country.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the export from Australia of goods for purposes described in paragraph (1)(b) unless the term of the patent has been extended under Part 3 of Chapter 6 and the goods consist of or contain:
 - (a) a pharmaceutical substance per se that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification; or
 - (b) a pharmaceutical substance when produced by a process that involves the use of recombinant DNA technology, that is in substance disclosed in the complete specification of the patent and in substance falls within the scope of the claim or claims of that specification.

Note: Part 3 of Chapter 6 provides for the extension of the term of standard patents claiming pharmaceutical substances.

- (3) In this section:

pharmaceutical patent means a patent claiming:

- (a) a pharmaceutical substance; or
- (b) a method, use or product relating to a pharmaceutical substance, including any of the following:
 - (i) a method for producing a raw material needed to produce the substance;

Section 119B

- (ii) a product that is a raw material needed to produce the substance;
- (iii) a product that is a pro-drug, metabolite or derivative of the substance.

119B Infringement exemptions: acts for obtaining regulatory approval (non-pharmaceuticals)

- (1) A person may, without infringing a patent, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done solely for:
 - (a) purposes connected with obtaining an approval required by a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory to exploit a product, method or process; or
 - (b) purposes connected with obtaining a similar approval under a law of another country or region.
- (2) This section does not apply in relation to a pharmaceutical patent within the meaning of subsection 119A(3).

119C Infringement exemptions: acts for experimental purposes

- (1) A person may, without infringing a patent for an invention, do an act that would infringe the patent apart from this subsection, if the act is done for experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, experimental purposes relating to the subject matter of the invention include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) determining the properties of the invention;
 - (b) determining the scope of a claim relating to the invention;
 - (c) improving or modifying the invention;
 - (d) determining the validity of the patent or of a claim relating to the invention;
 - (e) determining whether the patent for the invention would be, or has been, infringed by the doing of an act.

120 Infringement proceedings

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), infringement proceedings may be started in a prescribed court, or in another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter, by the patentee or an exclusive licensee.
- (1A) Infringement proceedings in respect of an innovation patent cannot be started unless the patent has been certified.
- (2) If an exclusive licensee starts infringement proceedings, the patentee must be joined as a defendant unless joined as a plaintiff.
- (3) A patentee joined as a defendant is not liable for costs unless the patentee enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.
- (4) Infringement proceedings must be started within:
 - (a) 3 years from the day on which the relevant patent is granted; or
 - (b) 6 years from the day on which the infringing act was done; whichever period ends later.

121 Counter-claim for revocation of patent

- (1) A defendant in infringement proceedings may apply by way of counter-claim in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.
- (2) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

121A Burden of proof—infringement of patent for a process

- (1) This section applies only to a patent for a process for obtaining a product.
- (2) If, in proceedings for infringement of a patent started by the patentee or the exclusive licensee:
 - (a) the defendant alleges that he or she has used a process different from the patented process to obtain a product

Section 122

(defendant's product) identical to the product obtained by the patented process; and

(b) the court is satisfied that:

- (i) it is very likely that the defendant's product was made by the patented process; and
- (ii) the patentee or exclusive licensee has taken reasonable steps to find out the process actually used by the defendant but has not been able to do so; then, in the absence of proof to the contrary the onus for which is on the defendant, the defendant's product is to be taken to have been obtained by the patented process.

- (3) In deciding how the defendant is to adduce evidence for the purposes of subsection (2), the court is to take into account the defendant's legitimate interests in having business and manufacturing secrets protected.

122 Relief for infringement of patent

- (1) The relief which a court may grant for infringement of a patent includes an injunction (subject to such terms, if any, as the court thinks fit) and, at the option of the plaintiff, either damages or an account of profits.
- (1A) A court may include an additional amount in an assessment of damages for an infringement of a patent, if the court considers it appropriate to do so having regard to:
- (a) the flagrancy of the infringement; and
 - (b) the need to deter similar infringements of patents; and
 - (c) the conduct of the party that infringed the patent that occurred:
 - (i) after the act constituting the infringement; or
 - (ii) after that party was informed that it had allegedly infringed the patent; and
 - (d) any benefit shown to have accrued to that party because of the infringement; and
 - (e) all other relevant matters.

- (2) On the application of either party, the court may make such order for the inspection of any thing in or on any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or premises, and may impose such terms and give such directions about the inspection, as the court thinks fit.

123 Innocent infringement

- (1) A court may refuse to award damages, or to make an order for an account of profits, in respect of an infringement of a patent if the defendant satisfies the court that, at the date of the infringement, the defendant was not aware, and had no reason to believe, that a patent for the invention existed.
- (2) If patented products, marked so as to indicate that they are patented in Australia, were sold or used in the patent area to a substantial extent before the date of the infringement, the defendant is to be taken to have been aware of the existence of the patent unless the contrary is established.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects a court's power to grant relief by way of an injunction.

Part 2—Non-infringement declarations

124 Interpretation

In this Part:

patentee includes an exclusive licensee.

125 Application for non-infringement declaration

- (1) A person who has done, is doing, or is intending to do an act may apply to a prescribed court for a declaration that the doing of the act does not, or would not, infringe a patent.
- (2) An application may be made:
 - (a) for a declaration in relation to an invention claimed in a standard patent—at any time after the patent has been granted; and
 - (b) for a declaration in relation to an innovation patent—at any time after the patent has been certified; and
 - (c) whether or not the patentee has made any assertion to the effect that the doing of the act has or would infringe the claim.
- (3) The patentee must be joined as a respondent in the proceedings.

126 Proceedings for non-infringement declarations

- (1) A prescribed court must not make a non-infringement declaration unless:
 - (a) the applicant for the declaration:
 - (i) has asked the patentee in writing for a written admission that the doing of the act has not infringed, or would not infringe, the patent; and
 - (ii) has given the patentee full written particulars of the act done, or proposed to be done; and

Section 127

- (iii) has undertaken to pay a reasonable sum for the patentee's expenses in obtaining advice about whether the act has infringed or would infringe the claim; and
 - (b) the patentee has refused or failed to make the admission.
- (2) The court may make orders as to costs as the court thinks fit.

127 Effect of non-infringement declarations

If:

- (a) a patentee has given a person a written admission that the doing of an act has not infringed, or would not infringe, a claim, or a prescribed court has made a non-infringement declaration in respect of an invention; and
- (b) the patentee later gets an injunction restraining the person from doing the act as specified in the admission, or the declaration is revoked;

the person is not liable:

- (c) to account to the patentee for any profits, made by the person before the date on which the injunction was granted or the declaration was revoked, from the doing of the act as specified in the admission or declaration; or
- (d) to pay damages for any loss suffered by the patentee before that date as a result of the doing of that act.

Part 3—Unjustified threats of infringement proceedings

128 Application for relief from unjustified threats

- (1) Where a person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings, or other similar proceedings, a person aggrieved may apply to a prescribed court, or to another court having jurisdiction to hear and determine the application, for:
 - (a) a declaration that the threats are unjustifiable; and
 - (b) an injunction against the continuance of the threats; and
 - (c) the recovery of any damages sustained by the applicant as a result of the threats.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies whether or not the person who made the threats is entitled to, or interested in, the patent or a patent application.

129 Court's power to grant relief if threats related to a standard patent or standard patent application

If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a standard patent or an application for a standard patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe:

- (a) a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid; or
- (b) rights under section 57 in respect of a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be a claim that would be invalid if the patent had been granted.

Section 129A

129A Threats related to an innovation patent application or innovation patent and court's power to grant relief

Certain threats of infringement proceedings are always unjustifiable

- (1) If:
- (a) a person:
 - (i) has applied for an innovation patent, but the application has not been determined; or
 - (ii) has an innovation patent that has not been certified; and
 - (b) the person, by means of circulars, advertisements or otherwise, threatens a person with infringement proceedings or other similar proceedings in respect of the patent applied for, or the patent, as the case may be;
- then, for the purposes of an application for relief under section 128 by the person threatened, the threats are unjustifiable.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the applicant for an innovation patent or the patentee of an uncertified innovation patent

- (2) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of an innovation patent that has not been certified or an application for an innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for.

Courts power to grant relief in respect of threats made by the patentee of a certified innovation patent

- (3) If an application under section 128 for relief relates to threats made in respect of a certified innovation patent, the court may grant the applicant the relief applied for unless the respondent satisfies the court that the acts about which the threats were made infringed, or would infringe, a claim that is not shown by the applicant to be invalid.

Section 130

130 Counter-claim for infringement

- (1) The respondent in proceedings under section 128 may apply, by way of counter-claim, for relief to which the respondent would be entitled in separate proceedings for an infringement by the applicant of the patent to which the threats relate.
- (2) Where the respondent applies by way of counter-claim, the applicant may, without making a separate application under Chapter 12, apply in the proceedings for the revocation of the patent.
- (3) The provisions of this Act relating to infringement proceedings apply, with the necessary changes, to a counter-claim.

Note: Infringement proceedings cannot be commenced in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has first been certified (see subsection 120(1A)).

- (4) The provisions of this Act relating to proceedings under section 138 for the revocation of a patent apply, with the necessary changes, to an application under subsection (2).

Note: Revocation proceedings under section 138 cannot be commenced in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has first been certified (see subsection 138(1A)).

131 Notification of patent not a threat

The mere notification of the existence of a patent, or an application for a patent, does not constitute a threat of proceedings for the purposes of section 128.

132 Liability of legal practitioner or patent attorney

A legal practitioner or a registered patent attorney is not liable to proceedings under section 128 in respect of an act done in a professional capacity on behalf of a client.

Chapter 12—Compulsory licences and revocation of patents

133 Compulsory licences

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), a person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order requiring the patentee to grant the applicant a licence to work the patented invention.
- (1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.
- (2) After hearing the application, the court may, subject to this section, make the order if satisfied that:
 - (a) all the following conditions exist:
 - (i) the applicant has tried for a reasonable period, but without success, to obtain from the patentee an authorisation to work the invention on reasonable terms and conditions;
 - (ii) the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to the patented invention have not been satisfied;
 - (iii) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent; or
 - (b) the patentee has contravened, or is contravening, Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.
- (3) An order must direct that the licence:
 - (a) is not to give the licensee, or a person authorised by the licensee, the exclusive right to work the patented invention; and
 - (b) is to be assignable only in connection with an enterprise or goodwill in connection with which the licence is used;and may direct that the licence is to be granted on any other terms specified in the order.

Section 133

- (3B) If the patented invention cannot be worked by the applicant without his or her infringing another patent:
- (a) the court is to make the order only if the court is further satisfied that the patented invention involves an important technical advance of considerable economic significance on the invention (other invention) to which the other patent relates; and
 - (b) the court must further order that the patentee of the other invention:
 - (i) must grant to the applicant a licence to work the other invention insofar as is necessary to work the patented invention; and
 - (ii) is to be granted, if he or she so requires, a cross-licence on reasonable terms to work the patented invention; and
 - (c) the court must direct that the licence granted by the patentee of the other invention may be assigned by the applicant:
 - (i) only if he or she assigns the licence granted in respect of the patented invention; and
 - (ii) only to the assignee of that licence.
- (4) An order operates, without prejudice to any other method of enforcement, as if it were embodied in a deed granting a licence and executed by the patentee and all other necessary parties.
- (5) The patentee is to be paid in respect of a licence granted to the applicant under an order:
- (a) such amount as is agreed between the patentee and the applicant; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—such amount as is determined by the Federal Court to be just and reasonable having regard to the economic value of the licence and the desirability of discouraging contraventions of Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act).
- (6) The patentee or the Federal Court may revoke the licence if:
- (a) the patentee and the licensee are agreed, or the court on application made by either party finds, that the circumstances that justified the grant of the licence have ceased to exist and are unlikely to recur; and

- (b) the legitimate interests of the licensee are not likely to be adversely affected by the revocation.

134 Revocation of patent after grant of compulsory licence

- (1) Where a compulsory licence relating to a patent is granted, an interested person may apply to the Federal Court, after the end of the prescribed period, for an order revoking the patent.
- (2) After hearing the application, the court may make the order if satisfied that:
 - (a) both:
 - (i) the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to the patented invention have not been satisfied; and
 - (ii) the patentee has given no satisfactory reason for failing to exploit the patent; or
 - (b) the patentee is contravening Part IV of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 or an application law (as defined in section 150A of that Act) in connection with the patent.

135 Reasonable requirements of the public

- (1) For the purposes of sections 133 and 134, the reasonable requirements of the public with respect to a patented invention are to be taken not to have been satisfied if:
 - (a) an existing trade or industry in Australia, or the establishment of a new trade or industry in Australia, is unfairly prejudiced, or the demand in Australia for the patented product, or for a product resulting from the patented process, is not reasonably met, because of the patentee's failure:
 - (i) to manufacture the patented product to an adequate extent, and supply it on reasonable terms; or
 - (ii) to manufacture, to an adequate extent, a part of the patented product that is necessary for the efficient working of the product, and supply the part on reasonable terms; or

Section 136

- (iii) to carry on the patented process to a reasonable extent;
or
 - (iv) to grant licences on reasonable terms; or
 - (b) a trade or industry in Australia is unfairly prejudiced by the conditions attached by the patentee (whether before or after the commencing day) to the purchase, hire or use of the patented product, the use or working of the patented process; or
 - (c) if the patented invention is not being worked in Australia on a commercial scale, but is capable of being worked in Australia.
- (2) If, where paragraph (1)(c) applies, the court is satisfied that the time that has elapsed since the patent was granted has, because of the nature of the invention or some other cause, been insufficient to enable the invention to be worked in Australia on a commercial scale, the court may adjourn the hearing of the application for the period that the court thinks sufficient for that purpose.

136 Orders to be consistent with international agreements

An order must not be made under section 133 or 134 that is inconsistent with a treaty between the Commonwealth and a foreign country.

136A Dealing with allegation of contravention of application law

Proceedings under section 133 or 134 involving an allegation of contravention of an application law that is a law of a State must be dealt with as if the law were a law of the Commonwealth.

Note: Those proceedings are in the Federal Court, which can only exercise the judicial power of the Commonwealth. This section lets the court deal comprehensively with the proceedings without the need for a court of the State to determine whether the application law has been contravened.

137 Revocation on surrender of patent

- (1) A patentee may, at any time, by written notice to the Commissioner, offer to surrender the patent.

- (2) The Commissioner must give notice of an offer in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) After hearing all interested persons who notify the Commissioner in accordance with the regulations of their wish to be heard, the Commissioner may accept the offer and revoke the patent.
- (4) Where relevant proceedings in relation to a patent are pending, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent without either the leave of the court or the consent of the parties to the proceedings.
- (5) Where a compulsory licence is in force in relation to a patent, the Commissioner must not accept an offer to surrender the patent.

138 Revocation of patents in other circumstances

- (1) Subject to subsection (1A), the Minister or any other person may apply to a prescribed court for an order revoking a patent.
- (1A) A person cannot apply for an order in respect of an innovation patent unless the patent has been certified.
- (2) At the hearing of the application, the respondent is entitled to begin and give evidence in support of the patent and, if the applicant gives evidence disputing the validity of the patent, the respondent is entitled to reply.
- (3) After hearing the application, the court may, by order, revoke the patent, either wholly or so far as it relates to a claim, on one or more of the following grounds, but on no other ground:
 - (a) that the patentee is not entitled to the patent;
 - (b) that the invention is not a patentable invention;
 - (d) that the patent was obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
 - (e) that an amendment of the patent request or the complete specification was made or obtained by fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
 - (f) that the specification does not comply with subsection 40(2) or (3).

Section 139

- (4) A court must not make an order under subsection (3) on the ground that the patentee is not entitled to the patent unless the court is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it is just and equitable to do so.

139 Parties to proceedings

- (1) The patentee, and any person claiming an interest in the patent as exclusive licensee or otherwise, are parties to any proceedings under section 133, 134 or 138.
- (2) In any proceedings under section 133, 134 or 138:
 - (a) the applicant must serve a copy of the application on the Commissioner; and
 - (b) the Commissioner may appear and be heard in the proceedings.

140 Commissioner to be given copies of orders

An office copy of an order made under this Chapter must be served on the Commissioner by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court that made the order.

Chapter 13—Withdrawal and lapsing of applications and ceasing of patents

141 Withdrawal of applications

- (1) A patent application, other than a PCT application, may be withdrawn if all of the following conditions are met:
 - (a) the applicant lodges a written notice of withdrawal signed by the applicant;
 - (b) if the application has been opposed under section 59—the Commissioner has consented to the withdrawal;
 - (c) if the regulations prescribe a period within which an application must not be withdrawn—the withdrawal will not occur within the prescribed period.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which PCT applications may be withdrawn, or are to be taken to be withdrawn.

142 Lapsing of applications

- (1) A provisional application for a patent lapses at the end of the period prescribed for the purpose of section 38 or, if that period is extended, at the end of the period as so extended.
- (2) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if:
 - (a) the applicant does not ask for an examination of the patent request and complete specification within the relevant period prescribed for the purposes of subsection 44(1), (2) or (3), as the case requires; or
 - (d) the applicant does not pay a continuation fee for the application within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (e) the patent request and complete specification are not accepted within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
 - (f) if the application is a PCT application—prescribed circumstances apply to the application.

Section 143

- (3) A complete application for a standard patent lapses if the applicant does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 107 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.

143 Ceasing of patents

A standard patent ceases if the patentee:

- (a) does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
- (b) does not file the prescribed documents (if any) within the prescribed period.

143A Ceasing of innovation patents

An innovation patent ceases if:

- (a) the fee for filing the request and accompanying specification relating to an application for an innovation patent is not paid in accordance with the regulations; or
- (b) after an examination of the patent has been requested under paragraph 101A(b), the patentee does not pay the prescribed fee for the examination within the prescribed period; or
- (c) the Commissioner does not make a decision under paragraph 101E(1)(a) within the period prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
- (d) the patentee does not pay a renewal fee for the patent within the prescribed period; or
- (e) the patentee does not comply with a direction of the Commissioner under section 106 within the time allowed by the Commissioner under that section.

143B Payment of fees

To avoid doubt, a reference in this Chapter to the payment of a continuation fee or renewal fee by the applicant or patentee is taken to include a reference to the payment of that fee by a person other than the applicant or patentee.

Chapter 14—Contracts

144 Void conditions

- (1) A condition in a contract relating to the sale or lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented invention is void if the effect of the condition would be:
 - (a) to prohibit or restrict the buyer, lessee or licensee from using a product or process (whether patented or not) supplied or owned by a person other than the seller, lessor or licensor, or a nominee of the seller, lessor or licensor; or
 - (b) to require the buyer, lessee or licensee to acquire a product not protected by the patent from the seller, lessor or licensor, or a nominee of the seller, lessor or licensor.
- (1A) A condition in a contract relating to the sale or lease of, or a licence to exploit, an invention the subject of an innovation patent is void if the effect of the condition would be to:
 - (a) prohibit the buyer, lessee or licensee from applying for examination of the patent; or
 - (b) impose restrictions on the circumstances in which the buyer, lessee or licensee may apply for examination of the patent.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
 - (a) the seller, lessor or licensor proves that, at the time the contract was made, the buyer, lessee or licensee had the option of buying the product, or obtaining a lease or licence, on reasonable terms without the condition; and
 - (b) the contract entitles the buyer, lessee or licensee to be relieved of the liability to comply with the condition on giving the other party 3 months' notice in writing and paying, in compensation for the relief:
 - (i) in the case of a sale—such sum as is fixed by an arbitrator appointed by the Minister; or
 - (ii) in the case of a lease or licence—such rent or royalty as is so fixed for the rest of the term of the contract.

Section 145

- (3) A person is not stopped from applying for or obtaining relief in any proceedings under this Act merely because of an admission made by the person about the reasonableness of terms offered to the person as mentioned in paragraph (2)(a).
- (4) It is a defence to proceedings for infringement of a patent that the patented invention is, or was when the proceedings were started, the subject of a contract containing a provision, inserted by the patentee, that is void under this section.
- (5) If the patentee offers the other parties to a contract mentioned in subsection (4) a new contract that does not contain the void condition but that otherwise gives the parties the same rights as the existing contract, then, whether or not the other parties accept the new contract in place of the existing contract, subsection (4) ceases to apply, but the patentee is not entitled to damages or an account of profit for an infringement of the patent committed before the offer of the new contract.

145 Termination of contract after patent ceases to be in force

- (1) A contract relating to the lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented invention may be terminated by either party, on giving 3 months' notice in writing to the other party, at any time after the patent, or all the patents, by which the invention was protected at the time the contract was made, have ceased to be in force.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite anything to the contrary in that contract or in any other contract.

146 Effect of Chapter

Nothing in this Chapter:

- (a) affects a condition in a contract that prohibits a person from selling products other than those of a particular person; or
- (b) validates a contract that would otherwise be invalid; or
- (c) affects a right to terminate a contract, or to terminate a condition of a contract, being a condition exercisable independently of this section; or

Section 146

- (d) affects a condition in a contract for the lease of, or a licence to exploit, a patented product, that reserves to the lessor or licensor the right to supply new parts of the patented product that are required to put or keep it in repair.

Chapter 15—Special provisions relating to associated technology

147 Certificate by Director as to associated technology

- (1) Where the Commissioner considers that a specification in respect of an application may contain information of a kind referred to in the definition of associated technology in subsection 4(1) of the Safeguards Act, the Commissioner must give the Director written notice to that effect together with a copy of the patent request and specification.
- (2) On receiving a notice, the Director may, if satisfied that the specification contains information of that kind, issue a certificate to that effect.
- (3) Where the Director is satisfied that:
 - (a) the possession by the applicant or the nominated person of the associated technology containing the information was not in accordance with a permit; or
