An Act relating to the establishment of systems of quotas to protect the orderly export of Australian meat and live-stock

1 Short title [see Note 1]

This Act may be cited as the Australian Meat and Live-stock (Quotas) Act 1990.

2 Commencement [see Note 1]

This Act commences on the day on which it receives the Royal Assent.

3 Definitions

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

class has a meaning affected by subsection (3).

country includes a part of a country.

export means export from Australia.

goods means meat or live-stock, as the case requires.

quota means a quota referred to in section 6.

restriction includes an economic disincentive, such as a tariff.

- (2) Unless the contrary intention appears, expressions used in this Act have the same meanings as in Part 2 of the Australian Meat and Live-stock Industry Act 1997.

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, the factors by reference to which a class of goods may be determined include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) the quality, standard or grade of goods;
- (b) the period during which the goods are to be exported;

- (c) the way in which a restriction on export is to apply to goods (for example, the rate of tariff or other similar charge that is to apply to goods).

4 Object of this Act

The object of this Act is to enable the Secretary to establish systems of quotas to protect the orderly export of goods:

- (a) where restrictions on exports of meat or particular classes of meat to particular countries are imposed, or in the opinion of the Secretary will be imposed, either by Australia or the countries concerned; or
- (b) where, in relation to live sheep and lambs, the Secretary otherwise considers it in the best interests of the industry to do so.

5 Limitation on exports

- (1) The Secretary may, by notices in writing given to licensees, impose a limitation on the total quantity of goods, or a specified class of goods, that may be exported to a specified country.
- (2) A licensee who has been given a notice under subsection (1) must not export goods, or goods of the class specified in the notice, as the case may be, to the country referred to in the notice, except in accordance with a quota held by the licensee.

6 Quotas

- (1) Where a limitation has been, or is to be, imposed under section 5 in relation to particular exports, the Secretary may grant:
 - (a) a single quota authorising the holder to make all those exports; or
 - (b) 2 or more quotas authorising each of the holders to make a specified proportion of those exports.
- (2) The Secretary may grant a quota:
 - (a) by allocating it to a licensee on application by the licensee and on payment of the prescribed fee; or
 - (b) by selling it to a licensee by auction, sale by tender or private sale.

- (3) A quota has effect for the period, not exceeding 2 years, specified in the quota document, but this subsection does not prevent the grant of other quotas.
- (4) A quota is subject to the conditions, if any, specified in the quota document.

7 Secretary not obliged to grant quota

The Secretary is not obliged:

- (a) to sell or allocate a quota of a particular amount or kind; or
- (b) to sell or allocate a quota to a particular person;

if the Secretary is satisfied that it is not in the best interests of the industry to do so.

8 Act to have effect subject to Division 3 of Part 2 of the Australian Meat and Live-stock Industry Act 1997

This Act has effect subject to Division 3 of Part 2 of the Australian Meat and Live-stock Industry Act 1997.

8A Delegation

The Secretary may, in writing, delegate all or any of the Secretary's powers under this Act to a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999, who is employed in the Department.

9 Regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing all matters:

- (a) that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) that are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
