- (b) the other member of the couple is receiving, or has made a claim for, a social security payment that is or would be based on or affected by the person being the principal carer of a child; and
- (c) apart from subsection (20C), the application of subsection (20A) would, or would if the claim or claims were granted, prevent each member of the couple from being the principal carer of any child;

the Secretary must determine in writing that one of them can be a principal carer of a child.

(20C) The determination has effect accordingly, despite subsection (20A).

(20D) The Secretary must give a copy of the determination to each member of the couple.

 - (ii) a child of a family member of the person;

 - (i) the person is accruing a liability to pay an accommodation charge (or would be accruing such a liability, assuming that no sanctions under Part 7B of the Aged Care Quality and Safety Commission Act 2018 were currently being imposed on the provider of the care concerned); and

Definitions

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

relevant AWOTE, in relation to a calendar year, means the amount that, under the heading “Trend Estimates” in the document entitled “Average Weekly Earnings, States and Australia” last published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics before 1 January in that year, is specified as being the full-time adult ordinary time earnings for Australia for the quarter to which the document relates.

seasonal work means:

- (a) work that, because of its nature or of factors peculiar to the industry in which it is performed, is available, at approximately the same time or times every year, for part or parts only of the year; or
- (aa) work:
 - (i) that is intermittent; and
 - (ii) that is to be performed for a period of less than 12 months; and
 - (iii) that is to be performed for a specified period or a period that can reasonably be calculated by reference to the completion of a specified task; and

Section 16A

- (b) work that is intermittent and is determined, under subsection (2), to be seasonal work for the purposes of this Act.

Examples: Examples of work described in paragraph (a) are fishing, fruit picking, shearing and work in an industry that is subject to Christmas shutdowns. Examples of work that is intermittent are relief teaching and work as a locum.

seasonal work income means gross income from seasonal work less amounts necessarily expended in relation to that seasonal work that the person can demonstrate are allowable deductions for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, as the case may be.

Secretary's determination—seasonal work

- (2) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine that a specified kind of work that is intermittent is seasonal work for the purposes of this Act.

Seasonal work preclusion periods

- (3) If:
 - (a) a person is not a member of a couple; and

Section 16A

- (b) the person has made a claim for jobseeker payment, widow allowance, mature age allowance under Part 2.12B, youth allowance, special benefit, parenting payment, disability support pension, sickness allowance, carer payment or austudy payment; and
- (c) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;

the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (5) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.

(4) If:

- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person has made a claim for jobseeker payment, mature age allowance under Part 2.12B, partner allowance, parenting payment, youth allowance, special benefit, disability support pension, sickness allowance, carer payment or austudy payment; and
- (c) the person, or the person's partner, or both, were engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;

the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (6), (7) or (8) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.

- (5) If the person is not a member of a couple, the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Section 16A

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 5. Divide the person's seasonal work earnings by the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the person's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that a person paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year would have to work to earn an amount equal to the person's seasonal work earnings.

Section 16A

- Step 6. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 6A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 6B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.
- Step 6C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 6 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 6B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.
- Step 7. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the person's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(6) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and

Section 16A

- (b) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.

Section 16A

- Step 5. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person's partner during the person's relevant periods of seasonal work. Add the amount obtained to the person's seasonal work earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 6. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 7. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 7A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 7B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.

Section 16A

Step 7C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 7 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 7B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.

Step 8. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(7) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Section 16A

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the partner that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the partner has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the partner has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person during the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work. The result is called the person's earnings.
- Step 4. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the partner during each of the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the partner before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 5. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 4. The result is called the partner's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 6. Add the partner's seasonal work earnings and the person's earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.

Section 16A

- Step 7. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 8. Work out the number of weeks in the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 8A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 8B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's intervening weeks.
- Step 8C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 8 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 8B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's self-supported weeks.

Section 16A

Step 9. Subtract the partner's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(8) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) both the person and the person's partner have engaged in seasonal work during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (6) applied to the person.

Step 2. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (7) applied to the person.

Step 3. Compare the number of weeks in each period. The number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is equal to the number of weeks in the longer of the 2 periods.

Section 16B

Subject to a seasonal work preclusion period

- (11) If a person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a claim consists of a number of weeks that is greater than nil, then, except as otherwise provided under this Act, the person is subject to that period for the purposes of this Act.

16B Partial capacity to work

- (1) A person has a partial capacity to work if:
- (a) the person has a physical, intellectual or psychiatric impairment; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that:
 - (i) the impairment of itself prevents the person from doing 30 hours per week of work independently of a program of support within the next 2 years; and
 - (ii) no training activity is likely (because of the impairment) to enable the person to do 30 hours per week of work independently of a program of support within the next 2 years.
- (2) A person is treated as doing work independently of a program of support if the Secretary is satisfied that to do the work the person:
- (a) is unlikely to need a program of support that:
 - (i) is designed to assist the person to prepare for, find or maintain work; and
 - (ii) is funded (wholly or partly) by the Commonwealth or is of a type that the Secretary considers is similar to a program of support that is funded (wholly or partly) by the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) is likely to need such a program of support provided occasionally; or
 - (c) is likely to need such a program of support that is not ongoing.

38B Notional continuous period of receipt of income support payments

- (1) The object of this section is to treat a person in certain circumstances as having received an income support payment in respect of a continuous period even though the person did not actually receive such a payment during a part or parts of the period.
- (2) A continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments can only start on a day on which the person is receiving such a payment and can only end on a day when the person is receiving such a payment, and the following provisions of this section have effect subject to this section.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), in determining the continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 6 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.
- (4) If a person is taken, because of subsection (3), to have received income support payments in respect of a continuous period of at least 12 months, then, in determining, as at a time after the end of that period of 12 months, the continuous period in respect of which the person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 13 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.
- (5) In determining for the purposes of subsection (4) the length of a period in respect of which a person did not receive an income support payment, any part of the period that occurred immediately before the end of the period of 12 months referred to in that subsection is to be taken into account.

EXAMPLE OF APPLICATION OF SUBSECTION (5)

Facts:

John receives an income support payment for 48 weeks. He is then employed for 14 weeks. After the 14 weeks he again begins to receive an income support payment. How does his break in payments affect the calculation of his continuous period of receipt of income support payments?

Application:

At the end of the first 4 weeks of John's employment he may be taken, under subsection 38B(3), to have received income support payments for a continuous period of 12 months because no longer than 6 weeks have elapsed since he actually received such a payment.

Therefore, as John may be taken to have accrued 12 months continuous receipt of income support payments, he may have a period, under subsection 38B(4), of not longer than 13 weeks without income support payments and still be taken to be in continuous receipt.

However, under subsection 38B(5), the period of not longer than 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4) must include the period of 4 weeks that occurred immediately before, as well as the 10 weeks immediately after, John was taken to have accrued 12 months duration.

As his total period in which he did not receive income support payments was 14 weeks, it exceeds the 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4). His continuous period in receipt of income support ceased, under subsection 38B(2), on the last day he received payment before he started employment.

A new period of continuous receipt of income support payments will begin when John resumes income support payments after his 14 week break.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person who was receiving an income support payment is taken to have continued to receive the payment in respect of a period if:
- (a) for the duration of the period, the person remained qualified to receive the income support payment by the operation of the exercise of the discretion under:
 - (i) section 516 of this Act as in force at a time before 20 September 1996; or
 - (ii) section 595 of this Act (disregard a period of employment);but the person's rate of payment was reduced to nil because of the operation of:
 - (iii) section 1067G, 1067L or 1068 of this Act; or
 - (b) the period was a compliance penalty period that applied to the person in respect of the income support payment; or

Section 38C

- (c) subsection 547AA(1), 615(1) or 771HF(1) applied to the person in respect of the income support payment for the duration of the period.

Note: For income support payment see subsection 23(1).

 - (c) provide a method for giving a qualifying rating to a person (the carer) who is caring for the child that takes into account:
 - (i) the care provided for the child by the carer; and
 - (ii) the assessment completed by the treating health professional.

Section 38F

- (2) If a carer who is caring for a child also cares for one or more other persons (whether or not aged under 16), the Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination may provide a method for giving a qualifying rating to the carer that takes into account:
 - (a) both:
 - (i) the care provided for the child by the carer; and
 - (ii) the assessment completed by the treating health professional; and
 - (b) the care provided by the carer for each other person.
- (3) The Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination may, in addition, declare that a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability specified in the determination is a recognised disability for the purposes of section 953.

Note 1: For green army allowance see subsection 23(1).

Note 2: Any part of green army allowance that is ordinary income of the person's partner will be taken into account in applying the ordinary income test in working out the person's rate of social security pension.

 - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 83 (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 83 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 84 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

- (a) a person is receiving an age pension; and

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long term social security recipient if:

- (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
- (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:

 - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III, IIIA or IIIAA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
 - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the partner's payday; or
 - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

84 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

Section 84

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
 - (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;
- there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Section 85

- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

85 Adjustment of person's age pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 82(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's age pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of age pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which age pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the age pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

86 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the person's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

Section 87

- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

87 Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
 - (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and

Section 91

- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

Subdivision C—Death of recipient

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the person under this Act on the person's payday after the person's death if the person had not died.
- (2) If an amount is paid under subsection (1) in respect of a person, the Commonwealth is not liable to any action, claim or demand for any further payment under that subsection in respect of the person.

93G Pension multiple

For the purposes of this Division, a person's pension multiple is worked out using the formula:

$$0.094 \times \text{No. of years in the person's overall qualifying period}$$

Section 93H

93H Annual pension rate

Application

- (1) This section sets a person's annual pension rate for the purposes of this Division if the start day for the age pension is on or after 20 September 2009.

Note: See clause 144 of Schedule 1A if the start day is before 20 September 2009.

If person is not permanently blind

- (2) If the person is not permanently blind, the person's annual pension rate is the rate that would be the person's provisional annual payment rate under step 11 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, worked out as at the start day for the age pension, if the maximum payment rate under step 4 of the method statement were the total of:
- (a) the person's maximum basic rate under point 1064-B1; and
 - (b) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection (4).

If person is permanently blind

- (3) If the person is permanently blind, the person's annual pension rate is the sum of the following, worked out as at the start day for the age pension:
- (a) the person's maximum basic rate in the table in point 1065-B1;
 - (b) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection (4).

Amount for paragraphs (2)(b) and (3)(b)

- (4) For the purposes of paragraphs (2)(b) and (3)(b), the table is as follows:

Section 93J

Amount for paragraphs (2)(b) and (3)(b)
Column 1 Item	Column 2 Person's family situation	Column 3 Amount
1	Not member of a couple	$507.00
2	Partnered	$423.80
3	Member of illness separated couple	$507.00
4	Member of respite care couple	$507.00
5	Partnered (partner in gaol)	$507.00

Note 1: For member of a couple, partnered, illness separated couple, respite care couple and partnered (partner in gaol) see section 4.

Note 2: The amounts are indexed 6 monthly in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

93J Amount of pension bonus*No change in couple status during overall qualifying period*

(1) If:

- (a) a person was a member of a couple throughout the person's overall qualifying period; or
- (b) a person was not a member of a couple at any time during the person's overall qualifying period;

the amount of the person's pension bonus is worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (7)):

$$\text{Annual pension rate} \times \text{Pension multiple} \times \frac{\text{No. of years in the person's overall qualifying period}}{\text{overall qualifying period}}$$

Change in couple status during overall qualifying period

- (2) If subsection (1) does not apply to a person, the amount of the person's pension bonus is worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (7)):

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional single pension rate is equal to:

(a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:

(i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and

(ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day; or

(b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:

(i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and

(ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional partnered pension rate is equal to:

(a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:

(i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and

(ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

Section 93J

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day; or

- (b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:
- (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and
 - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person's adjusted percentage is the percentage worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (8)):

$$\frac{\text{Annual pension rate}}{\text{Maximum basic rate}} \times 100$$

where:

maximum basic rate is the sum of the person's maximum basic rate worked out using Module B of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 and the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4).

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the number of single years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was not a member of a couple; and
 - (b) the number of partnered years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was a member of a couple.

Rounding up

- (7) An amount calculated under subsection (1) or (2) is to be rounded to the nearest 10 cents (with 5 cents being rounded up).

Section 93K

- (8) A percentage worked out under subsection (5) is to be calculated to 3 decimal places. However, if a percentage worked out under subsection (5) would, if it were calculated to 4 decimal places, end in a digit that is greater than 4, the percentage is to be increased by 0.001.

93K Top up of pension bonus for increased rate of age pension

- (1) The Secretary may determine (a top up determination) that a person's pension bonus is to be increased if:
- (a) the Secretary makes a determination (a rate determination) increasing the person's rate of age pension; and
 - (b) the rate determination takes effect on a day that is not more than 13 weeks after the start day for the person's pension bonus; and
 - (c) the rate determination is made because of a reduction since the start day in either or both of the following:
 - (i) the value of the person's assets;
 - (ii) the person's ordinary income.

Note: Any reduction in the value of a person's assets or the person's income will be determined by applying the assets test and the ordinary income test in Pension Rate Calculator A in Part 3.2 (including because of the operation of Pension Rate Calculator B in Part 3.3).

- (2) The person's pension bonus is increased by the difference between:
- (a) the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day; and
 - (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the highest rate at which age pension was payable to the person during the 13 weeks after the start day.
- (3) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.
- (4) A top up determination is not a legislative instrument.

93L Top up of pension bonus in specified circumstances

- (1) The Secretary may determine (a top up determination) that a person's pension bonus is to be increased if:
 - (a) the Secretary makes a determination (a rate determination) increasing the person's rate of age pension; and
 - (b) the rate of age pension is increased in circumstances specified in an instrument made under subsection (6).
- (2) The person's pension bonus is increased by the amount specified by the Secretary in the top up determination.
- (3) The Secretary must not specify an increase that would be greater than the difference between:
 - (a) the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day for the bonus; and
 - (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the rate specified in the rate determination.
- (4) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.
- (5) A top up determination is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify circumstances (other than circumstances specified in subsection 93K(1)) for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).

- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

(4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 146J.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:

 - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

146H Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and

Section 146J

- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 146J, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

146J Adjustment of person's disability support pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 146F(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and

Section 146K

- (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the disability support pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

146K Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Section 146L

- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 97 of the Administration Act, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

146L Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

Section 146Q

- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
 - (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;
- the following provisions have effect:
- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
 - (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).
- (2) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
 - (b) an amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
 - (c) the bank pays to the person, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);
- the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

Subdivision C—Death of recipient

146Q Death of recipient

 - (A) is not receiving a social security pension; and
 - (C) is not receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; and
 - (c) the person dies;
- there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the person under this Act on the person's payday after the person's death if the person had not died.
- (2) If an amount is paid under subsection (1) in respect of a person, the Commonwealth is not liable to any action, claim or demand for any further payment under that subsection in respect of the person.

Note: For the death of a person qualified for bereavement payments under Subdivision A, see section 146K.

- (a) the person has turned 16; and
 - (b) the person has not been assessed and rated and given a score under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.

Constant care

- (7) If section 197F applies in relation to the person as a care receiver or as one of 2 or more care receivers, it does not matter that the care provided for the person is not constant care.

197E Qualification—child who has a terminal condition

- (1) A person is qualified for a carer payment if:

Section 197E

- (a) the person personally provides constant care for a person (the care receiver) aged under 16; and
 - (b) a medical practitioner certifies in relation to the care receiver that:
 - (i) the care receiver has a terminal condition; and
 - (ii) the average life expectancy for a child with the same or a similar condition is not substantially longer than 24 months; and

 - (b) the care receiver turns 18.

Constant care in home

- (3) The constant care must be provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver.

Person must be Australian resident

 - (i) pass the assets test under section 198D; or
 - (ii) be the subject of a decision in force under subsection 198N(2), (3) or (4) that subparagraph (i) does not disqualify the person providing the constant care from carer payment.

197F Qualification—exchanged care of children

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to allow a person to qualify under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for a carer payment for caring for persons who are or include 2 or more persons aged under 16 despite the fact that the person is not personally providing constant care for the same persons.

When section applies

- (2) This section applies if:
 - (a) the person is a parent of 2 or more persons aged under 16; and
 - (b) the person (the carer) is personally providing care for at least 2 of those persons (the care receivers); and
 - (c) the care receivers would qualify the carer for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, apart from:
 - (i) the fact that the carer is not personally providing constant care for the care receivers; and
 - (ii) the fact that each care receiver has or may have more than one home; and
 - (d) the circumstances in subsection (3) apply in relation to each of the care receivers.

Section 197F

Circumstances—family law arrangements

- (3) The circumstances are:
- (a) under one or more registered parenting plans, parenting plans or parenting orders that are in force, the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with the carer and the care receiver's other parent (whether or not the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, someone else); and
 - (b) the length or percentage of time (however described) that the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, the carer and the other parent is specified in, or worked out in accordance with, the plans or orders; and
 - (c) the carer personally provides constant care for the care receiver when the care receiver is living with, or spending time with, the carer; and
 - (d) the carer does not personally provide constant care for the care receiver only because the terms of the plans or orders require the care receiver to live with, or spend time with, the other parent or someone else; and
 - (e) when the carer is not personally providing care for the care receiver, the carer is personally providing care for one or more other care receivers in relation to whom this subsection also applies.

Qualification for a carer payment

- (4) If this section applies, the carer is taken to be qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for caring for the care receivers or for persons who include the care receivers, as the case requires.

Example: The parents of 3 children each with a disability or medical condition are divorced. Under a registered parenting plan covering all 3 children, one parent (the first parent) personally provides care in week 1 to:

- (a) one of the children covered by the plan; and
- (b) another child who is similarly disabled but who is not covered by the plan.

Section 197G

The other parent personally provides care for the other 2 children covered by the plan. In week 2, the parents swap care arrangements for the children covered by the plan.

The first parent would not qualify for a carer payment under section 197C because he or she is not providing constant care for the same children. However, this section allows the first parent to qualify for a carer payment for providing care for different children.

Application of income and assets tests

- (5) In applying the income and assets tests under section 198A or 198D in working out whether a parent qualifies under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H because of this section, disregard the other parent for the purposes of the following:
- (a) subsections 198B(1B) and 198D(1A), (1C) and (1DA);
 - (b) subparagraph 198N(5)(aa)(ii);
 - (c) paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) of the definition of FPC in subsection 198N(6).

197G Qualification—short term or episodic care of children

Secretary's determination

- (1) The Secretary may determine that a person is qualified for a carer payment for a period if:
- (a) the person is personally providing constant care for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) each with:
 - (i) a severe disability or severe medical condition; or
 - (ii) a disability or medical condition; and
 - (b) each care receiver is aged under 16 at the start of the period; and
 - (c) in relation to each care receiver—a treating health professional has certified in writing that, because of the severe disability or severe medical condition, or because of the disability or medical condition:
 - (i) the care receiver will need personal care for at least 3 months but less than 6 months; and

Section 197H

- (ii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons; and
- (d) apart from the fact that the care receiver, or care receivers, will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
 - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person.

Limits on period determined

- (2) The period determined by the Secretary:
 - (a) must be 3 months or more and less than 6 months; and
 - (b) must not begin before the person's start day.

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (3) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197H Qualification—extension of short term or episodic care

Extension of qualification under section 197G

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
 - (i) under section 197G; or
 - (ii) if this section has previously applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of this section; and

- (b) in relation to each care receiver—before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
 - (i) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition, or a disability or medical condition, the care receiver will need personal care for a further period of less than 3 months starting immediately after the end of the preceding period; and
 - (ii) the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (iii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.

Person qualified for further period determined by Secretary

- (2) The person is qualified for a carer payment for a further period if:
 - (a) apart from the fact that the care receiver or care receivers will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
 - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person; and
 - (b) the Secretary determines that a carer payment should be granted to the person for the period.
- (3) The period determined must end not later than 6 months after the first day on which the person started to receive a carer payment under section 197G.

Section 197J

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (4) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197J Qualification following qualification for short term or episodic care

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to treat a person as qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C or 197D, or because of 197F, for caring for:
- (a) one or more persons aged under 16; or
 - (b) persons who include one or more persons aged under 16;
- if, immediately beforehand, the carer was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the person or persons aged under 16.

Person taken to be qualified

- (2) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
 - (i) under section 197G; or
 - (ii) if section 197H has applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of that section; and
 - (b) before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate in relation to each of them as required by whichever of subsection (3) or (4) applies; and
 - (c) apart from paragraph 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) or 197D(1)(c), the person would be qualified (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them;

the person is taken to qualify under section 197B, 197C or 197D (as the case requires) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them.

Note: Paragraphs 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) and 197D(1)(c) require that a treating health professional has certified that the care receiver, or each of them, will need personal care for 6 months or more.

- (3) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for a care receiver with a severe disability or severe medical condition, there must be a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
 - (b) the severe disability or severe medical condition is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.
- (4) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 each with a disability or medical condition, there must be a certificate in relation to each care receiver from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a disability or medical condition, the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
 - (b) the disability or condition is the same as, or related to, the disability or condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.

Section 197K

- (5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3)(a) and (4)(a):
 - (a) the 6 months includes any preceding periods under section 197G or under an application of section 197H; and
 - (b) it does not matter if the treating health professional who certified under those sections is the same treating health professional referred to in subsection (3) or (4) or not.

197K Remaining qualified for up to 3 months after child turns 16

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for a care receiver aged under 16 under one of the following provisions:
 - (i) section 197B, 197C or 197D (whether or not because of section 197F);
 - (ii) paragraph 198(2)(d); and
 - (b) the care receiver turns 16; and
 - (c) the care receiver has not been assessed and rated and given a score under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.
- (2) If, apart from the care receiver turning 16, the person would remain qualified for a carer payment under that provision, the person remains qualified under that provision for 3 months after the care receiver turns 16.

198 Qualification—disabled adult or disabled adult and dependent child

- (1) A person is qualified for a carer payment if the requirements of this section are met.

Note: Sections 198AA, 198AB and 198AC allow the person to qualify in certain short-term circumstances where the requirements would not be met.

Constant care for disabled adult or disabled adult and a dependent child

- (2) The person must personally provide constant care for:

- (a) either:
- (i) if the person is the only person providing the constant care—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 25, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 10; or
 - (ii) if not—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 80, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 32; or
- (d) a disabled adult and a dependent child of the adult (the care receivers), where:
- (i) the disabled adult has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 20, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 8; and
 - (ii) the child is aged under 16; and
 - (iii) if the child is aged 6 or more—carer allowance is payable for the child; and
 - (iv) section 197D does not apply in respect of the care receivers.

Note: In a paragraph (d) case, subsection (9) deems certain supervision to constitute care.

Care in home

- (3) The care must be provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver or care receivers.

Section 198

 - (b) the scheduled international social security agreement entered into force on or before 24 December 1992.

Income and assets tests etc.

- (5) The care receiver or care receivers must:

- Note: For Australian resident see section 7.
- (c) subject to subsection (7), pass the income test under section 198A; and
 - (d) subject to subsection (7), either:
 - (i) pass the assets test under section 198D; or

Alternative to Australian residence test for higher ADAT score adults

- (6) Paragraph (5)(b) does not apply if:
- (a) the care receiver is the higher ADAT score adult mentioned in paragraph (2)(a); and
 - (b) the adult is receiving a social security pension; and
 - (c) carer payment may be granted to another person for the adult under a scheduled international social security agreement.

Section 198AAA

Alternative to income/assets test for higher ADAT score adults

- (7) Paragraphs (5)(c) and (d) do not apply if the care receiver is the higher ADAT score adult mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) and the adult:

198AAA Continuation of qualification when person receiving care admitted to institution

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) carer payment is payable:
 - (i) to a person who has ordinarily been providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) because of section 197F, to a person who has ordinarily been providing care for a care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (b) the person would, apart from this section, cease to be qualified for the payment because he or she ceases to provide constant care (or, if section 197F applies to the person, care) for the care receiver or any of the care receivers as a result of the care receiver being admitted permanently to an institution where care is provided for the care receiver.

Section 198AA

- (2) The person remains qualified for the carer payment during the 14 weeks after the care receiver is admitted permanently to an institution.

198AA Qualification for carer payment—hospitalisation

Participating in care of person in hospital (not qualified under section 197G or 197H)

- (1) A person (the carer) is qualified for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a disabled adult;
 - (ii) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (iii) a child with a disability or medical condition;
 - (iv) a child who has a terminal condition;
 - (v) a dependent child of a disabled adult; and
 - (b) it is reasonable to assume that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify, except under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F), for a carer payment for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
 - (c) a requirement in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the requirements are that either:
- (a) the hospitalised person is terminally ill; or
 - (b) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
 - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

Limit on qualification under subsection (1)

- (3) However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a disabled adult is 63 days in any calendar year.

Note: There is no limit under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a child.

Short term or episodic care of child (qualified under section 197G or 197H)

- (4) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
 - (b) the Secretary determines in writing that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period or periods for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
 - (c) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
 - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the period, or the sum of the periods, determined under paragraph (b).

- (5) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
 - (b) immediately before the carer began participating in that care, the carer was qualified under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
 - (c) the person would cease to be qualified under section 197G or 197H for a carer payment for the balance of the period only because the person is participating in the care of the hospitalised person in hospital; and
 - (d) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
 - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the balance of the period referred to in paragraph (c).

198AB Care not required to be in private residence during portability period

- (1) This section applies if a person:

Section 198AC

- (a) is qualified for a carer payment; and
 - (b) is absent from Australia for a period:
 - (i) throughout which Division 2 of Part 4.2 applies to the person; and
 - (ii) that is before the end of the person's portability period for carer payment (within the meaning of that Division).
- (2) The person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment:
- (a) merely because the constant care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (b) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—merely because the care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is a home of the care receiver or care receivers.

198AC Effect of cessation of care etc. on carer payment

Continuation of payment where temporary cessation of care

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), if:
- (a) a person is qualified (except under section 197G or 197H) for a carer payment:
 - (i) because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—because the person is personally providing care for care receivers; and
 - (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.

- (1A) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment:

Section 198AC

- (i) under section 197G or 197H because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197G or 197H because of section 197F because the person is personally providing care for care receivers; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.

Continuation of payment after hospitalisation—section 198AA ceases to apply

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment under section 198AA because the person is participating in the care of an adult or child in hospital; and
 - (b) apart from this subsection, the person would later cease to be qualified for carer payment under that section; and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing constant care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person; or
 - (ii) if the person qualified under section 198AA because of section 197F—the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for carer payment merely because of the lack of provision of that care.

Limit on subsections (1) and (2)

- (3) Subject to subsection (3B), the period, or the sum of the periods, for which subsection (1) or (2), or a combination of those subsections, can apply is:
- (a) 63 days in any calendar year; or
 - (b) another period that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.
- (3A) The period (or the sum of the periods) for which subsection (1A) or (2) (or a combination of those subsections) can apply to the person in a calendar year is the number of whole days worked out in accordance with the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Carer payment period}}{\text{Number of days in calendar year}} \times \text{Limit}$$

where:

carer payment period, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) if only 197G applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days in the period determined under that section that fall in the calendar year; or
- (b) if sections 197G and 197H applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days worked out by adding the days in each period determined under those sections to the extent that those days fall in the calendar year.

It does not matter whether section 197G or 197H (or both of them) apply because of section 197F or not.

limit, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) 63 days; or
- (b) another number of days in the calendar year that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.

(3B) If:

- (a) because of subsection (1A), the person does not cease to be qualified in a calendar year for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for a care receiver or care receivers;

Section 198AC

and

- (b) the number of days (the qualifying days) for which the person does not cease to be qualified (whether under subsection (1A) or (2), or a combination of them) in the calendar year is not more than the number of days worked out under subsection (3A) in relation to the person; and
- (c) subsequently in the calendar year, the person begins to qualify for a carer payment because of section 197J for the care receiver or care receivers; subsection (3) applies as if the periods referred to in whichever of paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection apply were reduced by the number of qualifying days.

Cessation of constant personal care in order to undertake training etc.

(4) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and
- (c) the cessation does not exceed 25 hours per week;

the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of the cessation.

Cessation of participation in hospital care in order to undertake training etc.

(5) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is participating in the care of another person in hospital; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to participate in the care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and

Section 198AD

(c) the cessation does not exceed 25 hours per week;
the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of the cessation.

198AD Qualification—wife pension and carer allowance recipient

A woman is qualified for a carer payment if:

- (a) immediately before 20 March 2020, the woman was receiving a wife pension under Part 2.4; and
- (b) immediately before 20 March 2020, the woman was receiving carer allowance under Part 2.19; and
- (c) on and after 20 March 2020, the woman continuously receives carer allowance under Part 2.19; and
- (d) the woman is not otherwise qualified for a carer payment.

Note: The effect of paragraph (c) is that once the woman stops receiving carer allowance, the woman will not be able to again qualify for a carer payment under this section.

198A Income test

Passing the income test

- (1) A care receiver or care receivers pass the income test if the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, worked out under section 198B for the appropriate tax year determined under section 198C is not more than $66,403 (the income ceiling).

Income test failed where no taxable income for appropriate tax year

- (2) A care receiver or care receivers do not pass the income test if any person (whether or not a care receiver) whose taxable income is required to be taken into account in applying section 198B does not have an assessed taxable income or an accepted estimated taxable income for the appropriate tax year.

Section 198B

198B Taxable income

Rules that apply for the purposes of this Subdivision

- (1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, the rules set out in subsections (1A), (1B), (1BA), (1C) and (6) apply.

Taxable income of higher ADAT score adult

- (1A) If a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult is a member of a couple, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the care receiver's partner.

Taxable income of sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child

- (b) if the parent is a member of a couple—the parent's partner;
- (c) if the parent or the partner has one or more FTB children—the FTB children (other than any who are care receivers).

However, if the care receiver is a combined care child or a multiple care child who is one of 2 or more care receivers, the taxable income of the same person is not to be included in the taxable income of any of the other care receivers.

Note: See also subsection 197F(5).

Taxable income of lower ADAT score adult

- (1BA) If a care receiver is a lower ADAT score adult, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the following people:

- (a) if the adult is a member of a couple—the adult's partner and any FTB child (except the other care receiver or other care receivers) of the adult or of the partner;

- (b) in any other case—any FTB child (except the other care receiver) of the adult.

Taxable income

- (1C) A person's taxable income for a tax year is:
 - (a) the person's assessed taxable income for the tax year; or
 - (b) if the Commissioner of Taxation has not made an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year—the person's accepted estimated taxable income for the tax year.

Note: For accepted estimated taxable income see subsection (5).

Assessed taxable income

- (2) At a particular time, a person's assessed taxable income for a tax year is the taxable income according to whichever of the following was made most recently:
 - (a) an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;
 - (b) an amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;

 - (ii) an amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by a tribunal.

Estimating taxable income

- (3) A person, or, if the person is a child—the child's parent or carer, may give the Secretary a written estimate of the person's taxable income for a tax year.

Section 198C

- (3A) If the care receivers are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children, the lower ADAT score adult may give the Secretary a written estimate of each child's taxable income for a tax year.

Accepting estimate of taxable income

- (4) The Secretary may accept the estimate only if:
- (a) the person does not have an assessed taxable income for the tax year; and
 - (b) one of the following applies:
 - (i) the tax year has not ended;
 - (ii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is not required to lodge a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act;
 - (iii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person has lodged, or proposes to lodge, a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the estimate is reasonable.

Accepted estimated taxable income

Nil amounts of taxable income

- (6) A person's assessed taxable income or accepted estimate of taxable income may be a nil amount.

198C Appropriate tax year

Appropriate tax year in ordinary cases

- (1) Subject to this section, the appropriate tax year for a day is the base tax year for that day.

Note: For base tax year see subsection (6).

(2) If:

- (a) carer payment would not be payable to a person because the care receiver or care receivers would not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1) apart from this subsection; and
- (b) the Secretary is given a written request to treat the care receiver or care receivers as if the tax year in which the request is given were the appropriate tax year; and
- (c) the request is given to the Secretary by the person, any care receiver who is 16 or over or a parent of any care receiver who is under 16; and
- (d) the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the request is made is likely to be less than the income ceiling;

the appropriate tax year, for the purposes of applying subsection 198A(1) to the care receiver or care receivers on or after the day on which the request is given, is the tax year in which the request is made.

Note 1: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Current tax year to be retained for consecutive calendar years in certain circumstances

(3) If:

- (a) an instalment of carer payment (the first payment) is paid to a person on a day in one calendar year; and
- (b) the next instalment of carer payment (the second payment) is paid to a person on a day in the next calendar year; and
- (c) the instalment period to which the second payment relates:
 - (i) commences immediately after the end of the instalment period to which the first payment related; and
 - (ii) includes the first day of the calendar year referred to in paragraph (b); and

Section 198C

- (d) the person's carer payment is payable in relation to the period referred to in subparagraph (c)(i) because, as a result of a request under paragraph (2)(b), the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which that period occurs (the current tax year); and
- (e) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the current tax year is less than the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the base tax year; the care recipient's appropriate tax year, as from the beginning of the later calendar year, is the current tax year and not the base tax year unless the care recipient's taxable income for the base tax year is less than the income ceiling.

Note 1: For base tax year see subsection (6).

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Change to appropriate tax year because of notifiable event

- (4) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
 - (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and
 - (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs exceeds the income ceiling;the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 3: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Note 4: The effect of subsection (4) is that the person caring for the care receiver or care receivers will cease to be qualified for carer payment because the care receiver or care receivers will not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1).

Section 198C

Change to appropriate tax year because of effect of notifiable event on taxable income for later tax year

- (5) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
- (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and
 - (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs (the event tax year) does not exceed the income ceiling; and
 - (c) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year that follows the event tax year is likely to exceed the income ceiling;
- the appropriate tax year is the year that follows the event tax year.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Definitions

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the base tax year for a day is the tax year that ended on 30 June in the calendar year immediately before the calendar year in which the day falls; and
 - (b) a notifiable event is an event or change of circumstances that:
 - (i) is specified in a notice under section 70 of the Administration Act; and
 - (ii) is described by the notice as a notifiable event.

Example: Suppose 4 April 1996 is a carer payment payday. It falls in the calendar year 1 January to 31 December 1996, so the base tax year for that payday is the tax year that ended on 30 June 1995 (i.e. the year of income beginning on 1 July 1994).

 - (e) if the adult or the partner has one or more FTB children—the FTB children.

However, assets of the same person are not to be taken into account more than once.

Section 198F

- (b) the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the care receiver's assets because of that disposition is no longer to be included in the assets of the care receiver.

Pension year

(5) In this section:

pension year, in relation to a carer, means:

- (a) the 12 months starting on the day the carer payment first became payable to the carer; or
- (b) any preceding or following period of 12 months.

Section 198LA

198LA Disposal of assets in income year—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If the amount of the relevant disposal, or the sum of that amount and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner (whether before or after they became members of the couple), during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, the lesser of the following amounts is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place:
 - (a) one-half of the amount of the relevant disposal;
 - (b) one-half of the amount by which the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the partner, or the care receiver and the partner, during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000.

Section 198LB

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver

- (4) If:
- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver; and
 - (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);
- the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

- (5) If:
- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and
 - (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);
- the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the care receiver because of the relevant disposal is no longer to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

198LB Disposal of assets in 5 year period—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section also has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Section 198LB

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If:

- (a) the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts of any previous disposals during the rolling period of assets by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner;

less

- (b) the sum of any amounts included in the value of the assets of the care receiver or the partner during the rolling period under a provision of this Subdivision other than this section or under any previous application or applications of this section;

exceeds $30,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, an amount equal to one-half of the excess is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver

- (4) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is a disposal of an asset by the care receiver; and
(b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

(5) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is a disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and
- (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the care receiver because of the relevant disposal is no longer to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Rolling period

- (6) For the purposes of this section, the rolling period is the period comprising the income year in which the relevant disposal took place and such (if any) of the 4 previous income years as occurred after 30 June 2002.

198M Certain dispositions to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposition of an asset by a person (the disposer):

 - (i) because the carer was providing care for the disposer and the disposer was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or
 - (ii) because the carer was providing care for the person who was the disposer's partner at the time of the disposition and that person was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or
- (b) less than 5 years before the time referred to in paragraph (a) but before the time when the disposer could, in the Secretary's opinion, reasonably have expected that the carer

Section 198MA

198MA Other disposals to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposal by a person (the disposer) of an asset of a child:

Definitions—assets and income

- (5) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) the value of the assets or liquid assets of a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult is the sum of the values of the assets or liquid assets (as the case requires) of the following people:
 - (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver has a partner—the partner;
 - (iii) if the care receiver or the care receiver's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children; and
- (aa) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
 - (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver lives with his or her parent—the parent;
 - (iii) if the parent with whom the care receiver lives is a member of a couple—the parent's partner;
 - (iv) if the parent with whom the care receiver lives or the parent's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children.

However, if the care receiver is one of 2 or more care receivers each of whom is a combined care child or a multiple care child, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and

- (ab) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a lower ADAT score adult is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
 - (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver is a member of a couple—the care receiver's partner and any FTB child (except the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers) of the care receiver or the care receiver's partner;
 - (iii) if the care receiver is not a member of a couple—any FTB child (except the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers).

However, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and

Note: The value of the liquid assets of the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers is not adjusted by adding any other person's liquid assets.

- (b) the liquid assets limit is $10,000 if the care receiver or any of the care receivers is a member of a couple, or $6,000 if not; and
- (c) the taxable income of a care receiver or of any of 2 or more care receivers for a particular financial year is the taxable income of the care receiver for that year as worked out under section 198B.

Note 1: For liquid assets see subsection 19B(1).

Note 2: Subsections 198D(1B), (1D) and (1DB) provide that if a sole care child, a combined care child or a multiple care child lives with a parent, the assets listed in subsection 198D(1A) and paragraphs 198D(1C)(b) and (1DA)(c) are taken to be assets of the child.

Note 3: For subparagraph (5)(aa)(ii), see also subsection 197F(5).

Working out the threshold amount

- (6) For the purposes of paragraphs (2)(c), (3)(b) and (4)(c), the threshold amount is the amount worked out using the following formula:

$$(\text{MBR} \times 2) + ($639.60 \times \text{FPC})$$

where:

MBR is the maximum basic rate of age pension payable, as at the last 1 January, to a person who has a partner.

FPC is:

- (a) in the case of a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver's partner (if the care receiver has a partner); or

Section 198P

- (b) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who lives with his or her parent—the number of FTB children of the parent or the parent’s partner (if the parent has a partner); or
- (c) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who does not live with his or her parent—0; or
- (d) in the case of care receivers who are 2 or more combined care children:
 - (i) if any of the children lives with his or her parent—the sum of the number of FTB children of each such parent or of the partner (if the parent has a partner) of each such parent; or
 - (ii) in any other case—0; or
- (e) in the case of care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children, or a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver’s partner (if the care receiver has a partner).

Note 1: For the maximum basic rate of age pension see point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

Note 2: For paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) of the definition of FPC, see also subsection 197F(5).

Division 4—Rate of carer payment

210 How to work out a person's carer payment rate

A person's carer payment rate is worked out using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 (see Part 3.2).

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision A—Continuation of carer payment

235 Continuation of carer payment for bereavement period where person cared for dies

(1) If:

- (a) a person is receiving carer payment because he or she ordinarily cares for a care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (b) the person is caring for the care receiver or care receivers or has temporarily ceased to care for the care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (c) the care receiver or any of the care receivers dies; and
 - (d) the care receiver who dies is not the person's partner; and
 - (e) because of the death, the person would, apart from this subsection, cease to be qualified for the carer payment;
- the person remains qualified for the carer payment during the bereavement period as if the death had not occurred.

(1A) If:

- (a) a person (the carer) is receiving a carer payment only because section 198AA or subsection 198AC(2) applies; and
- (b) the death occurs of:
 - (i) the person or any of the persons for whom the person would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in paragraph 198AA(1)(b); or
 - (ia) the person or any of the persons for whom the carer would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in subsection 198AA(4) or (5); or
 - (ii) the person or any of the persons for whom the care mentioned in paragraph 198AC(2)(c) is assumed to be provided; and
- (c) the person who dies is not the carer's partner;

Section 236

the carer remains qualified for carer payment during the bereavement period as if the death had not occurred.

- (3) A person to whom subsection (1) applies may, by written notice to the Secretary, choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision and to receive instead any payments to which the person would be otherwise entitled.
- (4) If a person makes an election under subsection (3):
 - (a) this Act, or Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, has effect accordingly; and
 - (b) the person may not withdraw the election after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to the election.

236 Continued carer payment rate

If a person is qualified for a carer payment solely because of section 235, the rate at which the pension is payable is to be determined having regard to the person's actual circumstances.

236A Lump sum payable in some circumstances

- (1) A lump sum is payable to a person under this section if:
 - (a) the person remains qualified for carer payment because subsection 235(1) or (1A) applies; and
 - (b) immediately before the death of the person mentioned in that subsection, the person who died was not a member of a couple, or was a member of a couple and his or her partner:
 - (i) was not receiving a social security pension; and
 - (ii) was not receiving a social security benefit; and
 - (iii) was not receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.
- (1A) However, if subsection (1) would apply where 2 or more persons die at the same time, only one payment is payable under that subsection.

Section 236B

- (2) The amount of the lump sum under this section is the lesser of the amount worked out under subsection (3) and the amount worked out under subsection (4).

- (3) The amount under this subsection is:

$$\frac{(\text{Partnered MBR} + \text{Pension supplement})}{26} \times 7$$

where:

partnered MBR is the maximum basic rate applicable, on the day that the person dies, to a person covered by item 2 of the Maximum Basic Rate Table in point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

pension supplement is the person's pension supplement worked out under Module BA of Pension Rate Calculator A.

- (4) The amount under this subsection is:

$$\text{carer's current instalment} \times 7$$

where:

carer's current instalment is the amount of the last instalment of carer payment paid to the carer before the person died.

236B Subdivision not to apply in certain cases involving simultaneous death

If:

- (a) either:

- (i) a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children die at the same time; or
- (ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and

- (b) apart from this subsection and section 243, because of those deaths, a person would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and would be qualified for payments under Subdivision B; and

- (c) the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A is less than the sum of the amounts payable to the person under Subdivision B;
- the person does not continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and no lump sum is payable to the person under section 236A.

Subdivision B—Death of partner

237 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
 - (b) the person is a member of a couple; and
 - (c) the person's partner dies; and
 - (d) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (e) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 238 (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance); and
 - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 240 (person's continued rate);

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 238 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Section 237

Note 2: Section 239 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision for the death of the person's partner may, in some circumstances, be automatically transferred to a parenting payment after the end of the bereavement period without making a claim for that payment (see subsection 501(4)).

(1A) If:

- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
- (b) immediately before starting to receive the carer payment the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
- (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended; the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the remainder of the bereavement period.

(1AB) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply in relation to care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children if:

- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of the child or children; and
- (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.

(1B) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply if:

- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of a care receiver who is a dependent child of a lower ADAT score adult; and
- (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.

(2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

(3) An election under subsection (2):

- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
- (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and

- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 240.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:
 - (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
 - (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a social security benefit; or
 - (iii) was receiving a youth training allowance; or
 - (iv) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment.
- (6) A person is taken to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (5)(b) if:
 - (a) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for a continuous period of 12 months; or
 - (b) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for 46 weeks of the previous 52.

238 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period:
 - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or

Section 239

- (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III, IIIA or IIIAA (as the case may be) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
 - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the pension payday; or
 - (ii) in any other case—follows the pension payday; if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

239 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the person's partner had not died; and

Section 239

- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

Section 240

240 Adjustment of person's carer payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 237(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's carer payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of carer payment payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person is the rate at which the carer payment would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

241 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Section 242

- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

242 Benefits under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

 - (ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and
- (b) apart from this subsection and section 236B, because of those deaths a person would be qualified for payments under this Subdivision and would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235; and
- (c) the sum of the amounts payable to the person under this Subdivision is less than or equal to the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A;

no amounts are payable to the person under this Subdivision.

 - (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
 - (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or

 - (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.
- (8) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (7) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

there is payable to the surviving partner as a lump sum an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

Lump Sum Calculator

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Section 514C

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount of pension PP (single) that would, if section 514D did not apply, have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the surviving partner's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the surviving partner's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the surviving partner under this section.

Section 514D

514D Adjustment of person's parenting payment rate

- (1) This section applies if a surviving partner:
 - (a) is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
 - (b) does not elect under subsection 514A(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

 - (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
 - (b) if the couple had been an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they had not been such a couple.
- (3) The surviving partner's parenting payment rate during the bereavement lump sum period (if any) is the pension PP (single) rate.

Note 1: For bereavement period, bereavement rate continuation period, bereavement lump sum period and first available bereavement adjustment payday see section 21.

Note 2: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8) respectively.

- (b) the surviving partner dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the deceased partner before the surviving partner dies;

there is payable, as a lump sum, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

Lump Sum Calculator

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

- (a) neither the surviving partner nor the deceased partner had died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the deceased partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

- (a) neither the surviving partner nor the deceased partner had died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the deceased partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Section 514F

- Step 4. Work out the amount of pension PP (single) that would, if section 514D did not apply, have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if the surviving partner had not died: the result is called the surviving partner's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the surviving partner's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the surviving partner dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Note: For bereavement period and first available bereavement adjustment payday see section 21.

514F Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) after the deceased partner died, an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if he or she had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the surviving partner has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the surviving partner or from the personal representative of the deceased partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision;

Section 514FA

- (e) the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if the deceased partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the surviving partner, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the deceased partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the surviving partner.

Note: For bereavement period see section 21.

Subdivision D—Bereavement payment in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant

514FA Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Division in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 500W had not been enacted.

Note: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Note: Only one course of education can be considered in deciding if a person satisfies the undertaking full-time study requirement: see section 541C.

When two-thirds study load applies

(1A) This subsection applies for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(iv) if the person cannot undertake the normal amount of full-time study in respect of the course for that period:

Alternative meaning of normal amount of full-time study

- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), and without limiting subsection (2), the normal amount of full-time study in respect of a course is an average, taken over the duration of the period for which the person in question is enrolled in the course, of 20 contact hours per week.

Section 541D

541B(1)(b), (c) and (d) are satisfied in relation to the person is to be determined in relation to only one course of education.

Note 1: The effect of this section is that 2 or more courses of education for a person cannot be aggregated to satisfy the undertaking full-time study requirement.

Note 2: The one course of education may be a combined course: see the legislative instrument made under section 5D of the Student Assistance Act 1973.

- (b) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or
- (ba) the person is the principal carer for one or more children, and does not have access to appropriate care and supervision for the children at the times when the person would be required to undertake the work; or

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

- (c) performing the work in the conditions in which the work would be performed would constitute a risk to health or safety and would contravene a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory relating to occupational health and safety; or
- (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or
- (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or

Section 541D

- (ga) the place of work is not accessible by public transport services and the person does not have access to alternative transport facilities and could not reasonably be expected to travel to the place of work; or
 - (h) the work would require enlistment in the Defence Force or the Reserves; or
 - (ha) the work requires the person to move from a home in one place to a home in another place; or
 - (i) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.
- (1AA) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:
 - (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or
 - (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (1AB) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.
- (1AC) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (1AD) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (1AC) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.

Section 541D

(1A) If:

- (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and
- (b) the person is offered permanent full-time work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;

the work offered is not unsuitable for the person because of paragraph (1)(g), (ga) or (ha) unless:

- (c) the person is under the age of 18; or
- (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or
- (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or

- (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
- (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or
- (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
- (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or
- (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.

(1B) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (1A) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed a youth allowance participation failure, the failure is not a youth allowance participation failure if:

 - (a) a Youth Allowance Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person; and
 - (b) during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in that program in circumstances that constitute a failure to comply with the plan.

 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 567C (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 567A (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;
- the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 567A provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 567B provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: By making such a choice, the person may qualify for a payment under Subdivision AA.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):

Rate during bereavement period

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which youth allowance is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made a choice under subsection (2), governed by section 567C.

567A Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

567B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

Section 567C

- Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.
- Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

567C Adjustment of person's youth allowance rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 567(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's youth allowance during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of youth allowance payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which youth allowance is payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

567D Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and

Section 567D

- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;
- there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that begins on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

Section 567F

Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not more than the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, despite anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

567F Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Subdivision in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 552C had not been enacted.

- (2) If subparagraph 567FA(g)(i) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

Section 567FB

- (3) If subparagraph 567FA(g)(ii) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

$$\left[\begin{array}{c} \text{Daily rate of person's youth allowance} \\ \text{on the relevant day} \end{array} \times 14 \times 3 \right] + \text{Additional amount}$$

where:

additional amount means the amount worked out in accordance with the following table:

Additional amount
Item	If the relevant period is:	the additional amount is:

- (b) the person is the principal carer of a child who dies; and
- (c) the person is not undertaking full-time study and is not a new apprentice; and
- (d) apart from this section, the person's rate of youth allowance would be reduced because the person is no longer the child's principal carer;

the person's rate of youth allowance, during the period of 14 weeks that starts on the day of the child's death, is to be worked out as if the child had not died.

Note 1: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

Note 2: For undertaking full-time study see section 541B.

Note 3: For new apprentice see subsection 23(1).

the full-time student load for the course; or
 - (b) if the course is not such a course and the institution defines an amount of full-time study that a full-time student should typically undertake in respect of the course—the amount so defined; or

Section 569F

- (c) otherwise—an amount of full-time study equivalent to the average amount of full-time study that a person would have to undertake for the duration of the course in order to complete the course in the minimum amount of time needed to complete it.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the normal amount of full-time study in respect of a course is an average, taken over the duration of the period for which the person in question is enrolled in the course, of 20 contact hours per week.

569F First fortnight of classes

A person is taken to be undertaking full-time study or a concessional study-load (as the case may be) in respect of a course during the period (the relevant period):

- (a) starting on the first day of classes in a study period; and

 - (v) each of the previous courses was undertaken more than 10 years before the present study.

Course at year 12 level

- (3) A secondary course is at year 12 level if the institution in which the course is undertaken regards it as being at year 12 level.

Overall level of course at year 12 level

- (4) The overall level of a secondary course is at year 12 level if the institution in which the course is undertaken regards at least 50% of the course as being at year 12 level.

Meaning of secondary course

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a course is a secondary course if it is a course determined, under section 5D of the Student Assistance Act 1973, to be a secondary course for the purposes of that Act.

Section 569H

569H Progress rules—tertiary students

Full-time students

- (1) A person who is a full-time student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
- (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is not yet enrolled in the course but intends to enrol in the course—on the day on which enrolments in the course are next accepted;
- the time already spent by the student on the course, or on one or more other tertiary courses at the same level as that course, does not exceed the allowable study time for that course.

Note: For allowable study time for a course see subsection (3).

Concessional study-load students

- (2) A person who is a concessional study-load student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
- (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is not yet enrolled in the course but intends to enrol in the course—on the day on which enrolments in the course are next accepted;
- the time already spent by the person on the course, or on one or more other tertiary courses at the same level as that course, does not exceed the allowable study time for the course.

Note: For allowable study time for a course see subsections (3) and (4).

Allowable study time—full-time students and 66% concessional study-load students

- (3) The allowable study time for a course undertaken by a full-time student or a 66% concessional study-load student is:

- (a) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is one year or less—that minimum amount of time; or
 - (b) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is more than 1 year and:
 - (i) the student is enrolled, or intends to enrol, in a year-long subject; or
 - (ii) the student's further progress in the course depends on passing a whole year's work in the course; the minimum amount of time plus 1 year; or
 - (c) in any other case—the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student plus half an academic year.

Allowable study time—25% concessional study-load students

- (4) The allowable study time for a course undertaken by a 25% concessional study-load student is twice the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student but the Secretary may approve, in particular cases, an allowable study time of up to four times the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student.

Time spent by person studying part-time

- (5) If a student has studied part-time for a course over a certain period, the time spent by the student on that course is taken to be the proportion of that period calculated by using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Study undertaken}}{\text{Normal full-time study}}$$

where:

normal full-time study means the normal amount of full-time study for the course.

study undertaken means the amount of study undertaken part-time by the student for the course.

Section 569H

Current full-time students who have previously undertaken courses as concessional study-load students

- (6) If:
- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a full-time student; and
 - (b) the person has previously undertaken:
 - (i) part of the course; or
 - (ii) one or more than one other course at the same level as that course;as a concessional study-load student; and
 - (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);
- the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be equal to the minimum amount of time that a full-time student would have taken to complete the previous study.

Current 25% concessional study-load students who have previously undertaken courses on a different basis

- (6A) If:
- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a 25% concessional study-load student; and

 - (i) part of that course; or
 - (ii) one or more than one other course at the same level as that course;in any of the following ways:
 - (iii) as a full-time student;
 - (iv) as a 66% concessional study-load student;
 - (v) on a part-time basis; and
 - (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);

Section 569H

the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be:

- (d) twice the time that the person took to complete the previous study; or
- (e) if the Secretary has approved, under subsection (4), a longer allowable study time in relation to the person for the course—the time taken by the person to complete the previous study multiplied by the factor used by the Secretary for the purposes of the approval under that subsection.

Matters to be disregarded in determining whether someone has exceeded the allowable study time

- (7) In determining whether a person has exceeded the allowable study time (for a full-time student or a concessional study-load student), disregard the following:
 - (a) if the person has completed a course (a pre-requisite course) the completion of which is the normal requirement for admission to the course in which the person is enrolled or intends to enrol—time spent undertaking the pre-requisite course;
 - (b) a failed year of study, or a failed part of a year of study, if the failure is because of:
 - (i) the person's illness; or
 - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
 - (c) time spent undertaking a course that has been permanently discontinued because of:
 - (i) the person's illness; or
 - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
 - (d) time spent undertaking a course that has been completed but which, because of the person's illness, the person cannot use in any of the trades or profession to which the course is appropriate;
 - (e) time spent undertaking a TAFE course or a course provided by a VET provider if the normal length of the course for a full-time student is one year or less;

Section 569H

- (f) time spent undertaking a course more than 10 years ago, unless the course has since been completed;
- (g) time spent undertaking a course after 1973 if the course was not:
 - (i) approved for the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme; or
 - (ii) approved for the AUSTUDY scheme; or
 - (iii) an approved course for the purposes of paragraph 541B(1)(c), 569A(b) or 1061PB(1)(b) of this Act;
- (h) time spent undertaking a course at a foreign institution;
- (i) time spent undertaking a subject from which the student withdrew, if the educational institution in which the subject was undertaken did not record the withdrawal from the subject as a failure;
- (j) any time spent undertaking a course during which the person was ineligible to receive:
 - (i) AUSTUDY; or
 - (ii) a benefit under the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme; or
 - (iii) youth allowance; or

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed an austudy participation failure, the failure is not an austudy participation failure if:

Reasonable excuse etc.

- (2) This section does not apply in relation to the failure if:
- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that the person had a reasonable excuse for the failure referred to paragraph (1)(c); or

- (2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a person had a reasonable excuse for the failure referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

Section 576B

Meaning of participation failure instalment period

- (3) The participation failure instalment period for the austudy participation failure is the next instalment period of the person to start after the day on which the Secretary first became aware that the person committed the failure.

576C When the period of non-payment ends

The period for which austudy payment is not payable to the person because of section 576A ends when:

- (a) in accordance with a requirement of the Secretary that the person comply with the requirement, or undertake the activity, to which the austudy participation failure related, the person has complied with the requirement or undertaken the activity; or

Reasonable excuse etc.

- (2) Disregard any earlier failure that is a failure to which subsection 576A(1) does not apply because of subsection 576A(2).

Qualification for payment

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving an austudy payment; and
 - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
 - (d) the person's partner dies; and
 - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Division is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 592C (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 592A (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Division to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 592A provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Section 592A

Note 2: Section 592B provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Division may choose not to receive payments under this Division.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Division; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that choice.

Rate during bereavement period

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which austudy payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made a choice under subsection (2), governed by section 592C.

592A Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

592B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Section 592C

- Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

592C Adjustment of person's austudy payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 592(2) not to receive payments under this Division;

the rate of the person's austudy payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of austudy payment payable to the person is the rate at which the austudy payment would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which austudy payment is payable to the person is the rate at which austudy payment would be payable to the person apart from this Division.

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that begins on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

(1AB) In subsection (1A):

work, in relation to a person, means work that the person has contracted to perform under a contract of employment that:

- (1D) Subject to sections 596, 596A and 598, a person is qualified for a jobseeker payment, in respect of the period starting in accordance with subsection (1E) and ending in accordance with subsection (1F), if:
- (a) the person satisfies the Secretary that throughout the period the person is unemployed; and

Section 593

- (b) throughout the period the person:
 - (i) has reached the age of 22 years and has not reached the pension age; and

- (1E) The period for which the person is qualified for a jobseeker payment under subsection (1D) starts:
- (a) if the person is already receiving jobseeker payment when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition referred to in paragraph (1D)(e)—when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition; or
 - (b) otherwise—when the person made, or is taken to have made, the claim for jobseeker payment.

The subsection deems the person to be so qualified. As a result, the person may be paid a jobseeker payment for the period beginning on the day after the day on which the person's last instalment of social security pension, service pension, income support supplement or veteran payment was paid. The subsection aims to ensure that there is minimal disruption to a person's payments when a person transfers from a social security pension, a service pension, income support supplement or a veteran payment to a jobseeker payment.

- (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or
- (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or
- (h) the work would require enlistment in the Defence Force or the Reserves; or
- (i) the work requires the person to move from a home in a place to a home in another place; or
- (j) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.

(2AAA) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (2A)(ba), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:

- (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or
- (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or
- (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.

(2AAB) For the purposes of paragraph (2A)(ba), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.

(2AA) If:

- (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and
- (b) the person is offered permanent full-time work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;

the work offered is not unsuitable for the person because of paragraph (2A)(g) or (i) unless:

- (c) the person is under the age of 18; or
- (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or
- (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
- (f) the acceptance of the offer would jeopardise the current employment, or the employment prospects, of the person's partner; or
- (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
- (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or
- (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
- (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or
- (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.

(2AB) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (2AA) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

(2AC) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2A)(j), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.

- (a) throughout the period, the person complies with the terms of a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person; and

- (4D) A person also satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if, throughout the period, the person is participating in the National Green Jobs Corps program.
- (5) If a person fails to comply, throughout a period, with a requirement in a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person, the person cannot be taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of the period in spite of any compliance of the person with subsection (1), (4B) or (4D).

Section 603

603 Relief from activity test—general

- (1) A person is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period when the person is attending a training camp as a member of:
 - (a) the Naval Reserve; or
 - (b) the Army Reserve; or
 - (c) the Air Force Reserve.
- (2) Where the Secretary considers that:
 - (a) it would be reasonable to assume that, at the end of a period, a person is present in an area where:
 - (i) there is no locally accessible labour market; and
 - (ii) there is no locally accessible vocational training course or labour market program; and
 - (aa) it would be reasonable to assume that, throughout the period, the person is unemployed and is capable of undertaking, and is willing to undertake, paid work that, in the Secretary's opinion, is suitable for the person to undertake; and
 - (b) having regard to all the relevant factors, including:
 - (i) the location of offices of the Department; and
 - (ii) difficulties with transport and communication; and
 - (iii) the educational and cultural background of the person;it would be unreasonable to expect the person to comply with the activity test in order to be qualified for jobseeker payment for that period;

then, unless the person has been notified of a requirement under subsection 601(1A) in relation to the period, the person is taken to satisfy the activity test during that period.

Note 1: For activity test see section 601.

Note 2: For remote area see section 14.

- (3) If:
 - (a) a person is treated as being unemployed because of subsection 595(1); and the person is taken to satisfy the activity test during the period starting when the person made a claim, or is to be taken to have made a claim, for jobseeker payment and ending:

- (c) if the person has been required to enter into a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan but has failed to enter that plan—when the person so failed; or
 - (d) in any other case—when the person has entered into such a plan.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if, at the time of becoming a person who is treated as being unemployed because of subsection 595(1), the person had already been required to enter into a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan.

603A Relief from activity test—special circumstances

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person is not required to satisfy the activity test for a period if:
 - (a) the Secretary is satisfied that special circumstances, beyond the person's control, exist; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that in those circumstances it would be unreasonable to expect the person to comply with the activity test for that period.
- (1A) Subsection (1) does not apply to circumstances wholly or predominantly attributable to the person's misuse of alcohol or another drug, unless the person is a declared program participant.
- (2) The period referred to in subsection (1) is not to exceed 13 weeks.
- (3) If:
 - (a) the Secretary makes a number of determinations under any one or more of the following provisions:

 - (ii) subsection 542H(1) of this Act;
 - (ia) subsection 731E(1) of this Act;
 - (iii) subsection (1) of this section; and

Section 603AAA

- (b) the periods to which the determinations relate form a continuous period;

603AAA Pre-natal and post-natal relief from activity test

- (1) A pregnant woman is not required to satisfy the activity test for the period that starts 6 weeks before the woman's expected date of confinement and ends on the day on which the woman gives birth to the child (whether or not the child is born alive).

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person who has reached 55 years is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period of 2 weeks (the relevant period) if the person:

 - (b) is engaged, for at least 30 hours in the relevant period, in a combination of:
 - (i) approved unpaid voluntary work for an approved organisation; and
 - (ii) paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable; or
 - (c) is engaged for at least 30 hours in the relevant period in paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable.

Section 603AA

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a person who has reached 55, but is under 60, years of age and to a period of 2 weeks (the relevant period) if that period begins before the end of 12 months starting on the day the person starts to receive jobseeker payment. Instead the person is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of the relevant period if the person:
- (a) is engaged, for at least 30 hours in the relevant period, in a combination of:
 - (i) approved unpaid voluntary work for an approved organisation; and
 - (ii) paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable and that is at least 15 hours in the relevant period; or
 - (b) is engaged for at least 30 hours in the relevant period in paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable.

Note: Because of the definition of receive in section 23, this subsection applies separately in relation to each occasion the person starts to receive jobseeker payment.

- (2A) If jobseeker payment ceases to be payable to a person for a period of less than 3 months (except because the jobseeker payment was cancelled), then, for the purposes of subsection (2), the person is taken to be receiving jobseeker payment during that period.
- (3) This section does not apply to a person in respect of a day in a relevant period if, in respect of the person, having regard to the opportunities, or possible opportunities, for employment that become available to the person on or before the day, the Secretary considers that this section is not to apply to the person in respect of that day.
- (4) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) approved unpaid voluntary work, either full-time or otherwise, is work that has been approved by the Secretary for the purposes of this section; and
 - (b) an approved organisation is an organisation that has been approved by the Secretary for the purposes of this section.

Subdivision BA—Exemption from activity test—people temporarily incapacitated for work

603BA Subdivision not to apply to a person with a pending claim for disability support pension

This Subdivision does not apply to a person who is qualified for jobseeker payment under subsection 593(1B).

603B Interpretation

A reference in this Subdivision to a person being exempt from the activity test, or ceasing to be exempt from the activity test, under, or under a provision of, this Subdivision is a reference to a person not being required to satisfy the activity test, or becoming required to satisfy the activity test, as the case may be, because of the operation of, or the operation of that provision of, this Subdivision.

603C Incapacitated person not required to satisfy activity test

- (1) Subject to this Subdivision, a person is not required to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period if:
 - (a) throughout the period the person is incapacitated for work because of sickness or an accident; and
 - (b) the incapacity is caused wholly, or virtually wholly, by a medical condition arising from the sickness or accident; and
 - (c) the incapacity is, or is likely to be, of a temporary nature; and
 - (d) if this Subdivision had not been enacted and paragraphs 593(1)(b), (c), (d) and (e) were disregarded, the person would qualify for jobseeker payment; and
 - (e) the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a certificate of a medical practitioner, in a form approved by the Secretary, stating:
 - (i) the medical practitioner's diagnosis; and
 - (ii) the medical practitioner's prognosis; and
 - (iii) that the person is incapacitated for work; and

Section 603D

- (iv) the period for which the person is incapacitated for work; and
 - (f) the Secretary is satisfied that the incapacity has not been brought about with a view to obtaining an exemption from the activity test.
- (1AA) Subsection (1) does not apply to sickness, or an accident, wholly or predominantly attributable to the person's dependence on alcohol or another drug, unless the person is a declared program participant.
- (1A) The Secretary must comply with the guidelines (if any) determined and in force under subsection (1B) in deciding the following:
 - (a) whether paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c) applies to a person in respect of a period;
 - (b) whether, for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of work in subsection (2), work is of a kind that a person could be reasonably expected to do.
- (1B) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine guidelines to be complied with by the Secretary in making a decision referred to in subsection (1A).
- (2) In this section:
 - work, in relation to a person, means work (whether full-time, part-time, permanent or casual) that:
 - (a) is of a kind that the person could, in the Secretary's opinion, be reasonably expected to do; and
 - (b) is for at least 8 hours per week on wages that are at or above the relevant minimum wage.

603D Time limit for exemption—Secretary satisfied person can undertake activity

- (1) A person ceases to be exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test if the Secretary is satisfied that, although the person meets the requirements of section 603C, the person should undertake one or more activities that the Secretary regards as suitable for the person.

- (2) The cessation occurs:
 - (a) if the person has failed to comply with a requirement to enter into a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan—when the person so failed; or
 - (b) in any other case—when the person has entered into such a plan.
- (3) This section does not prevent a person ceasing to be exempt under section 603F.

- (1) A person ceases to be exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test if the person’s maximum exemption period ends.
- (2) Subject to this section, a person’s maximum exemption period is:
 - (a) if the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a medical certificate for the purpose of enabling the Secretary to decide whether the person was required to satisfy the activity test—the lesser of the following periods:
 - (i) the period stated in the certificate as the period for which the person would be incapacitated for work;
 - (ii) the period of 13 weeks that started or starts on the first day of the period so stated in the certificate; or
 - (b) otherwise—the period of 4 weeks that started or starts on the day determined by the Secretary to have been the day on which the person’s incapacity for work began.

- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period;

the Secretary may extend the person's maximum exemption period by a period that is not more than the lesser of the following periods:

- (b) the person gives the Secretary written evidence (other than a certificate referred to in paragraph (4)(b)) that the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period; and

- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that:
 - (i) the person's circumstances make it unreasonable to expect the person to obtain a certificate referred to in paragraph (4)(b) before the end of the maximum exemption period; and
 - (ii) the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period;the Secretary may extend the person's maximum exemption period by not more than 4 weeks.

 - (a) if the person is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period (whether in relation to the claim referred to in subsection (1) or any other claim under this Act) and the Secretary has not made a determination under subsection (3) in relation to the person—for the person's seasonal work preclusion period; or
 - (b) if the Secretary has made a determination under subsection (3) in relation to the person—for that part (if any) of the person's seasonal work preclusion period to which the person is subject as a result of the determination.

Note: For seasonal work preclusion period see subsection 16A(1).

Section 633

- (3) If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while the person is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period (whether in relation to the claim referred to in subsection (1) or any other claim under this Act):
- (a) the Secretary may determine that the person is not subject to the whole, or any part, of the preclusion period; and
 - (b) the determination has effect accordingly.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (5); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (2) by the Secretary.
- (5) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (4)(a).
- (6) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person if:
- (a) the person makes a claim for jobseeker payment on or after the commencement of this subsection; and
 - (b) the person makes the claim after the death of the person's partner on or after the commencement of this subsection; and
 - (c) if the person is a man or a woman who was not pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; and
 - (d) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the person makes the claim:
 - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or

- (ii) in the period starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant;
whichever ends later.

634 Move to area of lower employment prospects

- (1) Subject to subsections (1B) and (2), if, in the opinion of the Secretary, a person has reduced his or her employment prospects by moving to a new place of residence without sufficient reason, a jobseeker payment is not payable to the person for 26 weeks.
- (1A) Subsection (1) extends to a person who makes a claim for jobseeker payment on or after the day on which the person moved to the new place of residence and before the end of the period referred to in that subsection.
- (1B) If a person to whom a jobseeker payment is not payable under subsection (1) for a period of 26 weeks (including that subsection as it applies by subsection (1A)) does either of the following during that period:
 - (a) moves back to the place of residence (the original place of residence) the movement from which resulted in jobseeker payment not being payable to him or her;
 - (b) moves to another place of residence a movement to which from the original place of residence would not have resulted in jobseeker payment not being payable to him or her;the period of 26 weeks ends at the time of the movement back to the original place of residence or the movement to the other place of residence, as the case may be.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who:
 - (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (2A); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (1) by the Secretary.

Section 634

- (2A) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (2)(a).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person has a sufficient reason for moving to a new place of residence if and only if the person:
- (a) moves to live with a family member who has already established his or her residence in that place of residence; or
 - (b) moves to live near a family member who has already established residence in the same area; or
 - (c) satisfies the Secretary that the move is necessary for the purposes of treating or alleviating a physical disease or illness suffered by the person or by a family member; or
 - (d) satisfies the Secretary that the person has moved from his or her original place of residence because of an extreme circumstance which made it reasonable for the person to move to the new place of residence (for example, the person had been subjected to domestic or family violence in the original place of residence).

Note: For family member see subsection 23(1).

- (4) The Secretary may determine in writing the day on which the period of non-payment imposed by subsection (1) commences and that day may be before the day of the determination.

Division 4—Rate of jobseeker payment

643 How to work out a person's jobseeker payment rate

Subject to this Division, a person's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out using Benefit Rate Calculator B at the end of section 1068.

644AAA Approved program of work supplement

If a person:

- (a) is receiving jobseeker payment; and
- (b) is participating in an approved program of work for income support payment;

the rate of the person's jobseeker payment is increased by an amount of $20.80, to be known as the approved program of work supplement, for each fortnight during which the person participates in the program unless, during that fortnight, the person subsequently ceases to participate in the program in circumstances that constitute:

- (c) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or
- (d) a failure to comply with a requirement in a Jobseeker Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.

644AAB Approved program of work supplement not payable in certain circumstances

An approved program of work supplement under section 644AAA is not payable to a person in respect of a fortnight if a training supplement is payable to the person in respect of the fortnight.

644AAC Training supplement

- (1) This section applies if a person:
 - (a) is receiving newstart allowance; and

Section 645

- (b) is participating in an approved training course for training supplement for the person; and
 - (c) started participating in the course during the period beginning on the day on which this section commenced and ending on 30 June 2011.
- (2) The rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $41.60 (to be known as a training supplement) for each fortnight during which the person participates in the course.
- (3) However, a training supplement is not payable for a fortnight during which the person participates in the course if, during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in the course in circumstances that constitute:
 - (a) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or
 - (b) if a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person—a failure to comply with a requirement in the plan.

645 National Green Jobs Corps supplement

- (1) This section applies if a person:
 - (a) is receiving newstart allowance; and
 - (b) is under 25 years of age; and
 - (c) is participating in the National Green Jobs Corps program; and
 - (d) started participating in that program before 2012.
- (2) The rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $41.60 (to be known as a National Green Jobs Corps supplement) for each fortnight during which the person participates in the National Green Jobs Corps program.
- (3) However, a National Green Jobs Corps supplement is not payable for a fortnight during which the person participates in the National Green Jobs Corps program if:
 - (a) both:

Section 653A

- (i) a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person; and
- (ii) during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in that program in circumstances that constitute a failure to comply with the plan; or
- (b) the rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by training supplement for the fortnight.

653A CDEP Scheme participant may accumulate newstart allowance

- (1) A person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of a quarter may, by written notice given to the Secretary, choose to accumulate the amounts of any newstart allowance that become payable to the person in respect of that quarter, or any later quarter in respect of the whole or a part of which the person is a CDEP Scheme participant, and have not already been paid.
- (2) If a person to whom subsection (1) applies makes a choice under that subsection, the sum of the accumulated amounts payable to the person in respect of a quarter is to be paid on, or as soon as practicable after, the first payday after:
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the last day of the quarter; or
 - (b) if the person ceases to be a CDEP Scheme participant before the end of the quarter—the day on which the person so ceases.
- (3) In this section:

quarter means a CDEP Scheme quarter.

Note 1: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Note 2: For CDEP Scheme quarter see subsection 23(1).

Section 654

654 Rate of jobseeker payment for former recipients of wife pension

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a woman was receiving wife pension under Part 2.4 immediately before 20 March 2020; and
 - (b) the Secretary makes a determination under section 12 of the Administration Act that the woman is taken to have made a claim for jobseeker payment because the woman became qualified for that payment immediately after ceasing to receive wife pension.
- (2) The Secretary must, in determining the claim, disregard section 611.
- (3) Subject to this section, if:
- (a) the Secretary determines that the claim is to be granted; and
 - (b) as a result of that determination and disregarding section 611, jobseeker payment is payable to the woman on a day (a transition day) on or after 20 March 2020;
- the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is worked out in accordance with the following method statement:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA.

Step 2. Work out the woman's wife pension transition rate on the transition day.

Note: See subsection (4) for the wife pension transition rate.

Step 3. If the rate at step 2 exceeds the rate at step 1, the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is the rate at step 2.

Section 655

Step 4. If the rate at step 2 does not exceed the rate at step 1, the woman's jobseeker payment rate on the transition day is the rate at step 1.

- (4) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a transition day is the rate worked out in accordance with section 655 or 656.
- (5) If, for a period of 42 consecutive days, the following apply:
- (a) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is the rate at step 1 of the method statement in subsection (3);
 - (b) if section 611 had applied in relation to the woman throughout that period, the value of the woman's assets throughout that period is less than or equal to the woman's asset value limit under that section;
- then for any day after the end of that period:
- (c) section 611 applies in relation to the woman; and
 - (d) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA (and not under this section).
- (6) If, on a day (the cessation day) on or after 20 March 2020, the woman would not have qualified for a wife pension if Part 2.4 (as in force immediately before 20 March 2020) were still in force on the cessation day, then on and after the cessation day:
- (a) section 611 applies in relation to the woman; and
 - (b) the woman's jobseeker payment rate is to be worked out in accordance with sections 643 and 644AAA (and not under this section).

655 Wife pension transition rate—method 1

- (1) A woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is worked out in accordance with this section if:
- (a) on 19 March 2020, there was no reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, and there was no reduction under step 9 of that method statement, in relation to the woman's rate of wife pension on that day; and

Section 656

- (b) assuming the woman were receiving newstart allowance on each day in the period starting on 6 February 2020 and ending at the end of 19 March 2020, there would have been no reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1 on any day in that period.
- (2) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is the rate that would have been the woman's rate of wife pension on that day under Module A of the Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 if the woman had been receiving wife pension on that day.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies with the following modifications:
 - (a) in working out the amount at step 1 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-B1 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
 - (b) in working out the amount at step 1A of the method statement in point 1064-A1:
 - (i) assume the combined couple rate of pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020; and
 - (ii) assume the combined couple rate of minimum pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
 - (c) assume the amount at step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1 were the amount worked out at step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1, multiplied by 26;
 - (d) in working out the amount at step 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-G3 were that amount as at 19 March 2020.

656 Wife pension transition rate—method 2

- (1) A woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is worked out in accordance with this section if:
 - (a) on 19 March 2020, there was a reduction under either or both of steps 5 and 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1 in relation to the woman's rate of wife pension on that day; or
 - (b) assuming the woman were receiving newstart allowance on each day in the period starting on 6 February 2020 and ending at the end of 19 March 2020, there would have been a reduction under step 5 of the method statement in point 1068-A1 on at least one day in that period.

- (2) The woman's wife pension transition rate on a day is the rate that would have been the woman's rate of wife pension on that day under Module A of the Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 if the woman had been receiving wife pension on that day.
- (3) However, subsection (2) applies with the following modifications:
 - (a) in working out the amount at step 1 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-B1 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
 - (b) in working out the amount at step 1A of the method statement in point 1064-A1:
 - (i) assume the combined couple rate of pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020; and
 - (ii) assume the combined couple rate of minimum pension supplement were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
 - (c) in working out the amount at step 5 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-E4 were that amount as at 19 March 2020;
 - (d) in working out the amount at step 9 of the method statement in point 1064-A1, assume each amount in the table in point 1064-G3 were that amount as at 19 March 2020.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, take into account clause 146 of Schedule 1A as in force immediately before 20 March 2020. However, in taking that clause into account, assume each amount referred to in subparagraph 146(4)(a)(i) of Schedule 1A were that amount as at 19 March 2020.

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision AA—Ongoing payments for death of partner

660LA Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a jobseeker payment; and
 - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
 - (d) the person's partner dies; and
 - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or a veteran payment; or
 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 660LD (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person, under section 660LB (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 660LB provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Section 660LB

Note 2: Section 660LC provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: By making such an election, the person may qualify for a payment under Subdivision A.

- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which jobseeker payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 660LD.

660LB Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

660LC Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

Section 660LC

- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;
- there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Section 660LD

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

660LD Adjustment of a person's jobseeker payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 660LA(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's jobseeker payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of jobseeker payment payable to the person is the rate at which the payment would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which jobseeker payment is payable to the person is the rate at which the payment would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

660LE Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Section 660LF

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

660LF Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and

Section 660LG

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

660LG Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Subdivision in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 614A had not been enacted.

Note: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Subdivision A—One-off payment for death of partner

660LH Qualification for payment under this Subdivision

A person is qualified for a lump sum payment under this Subdivision if:

- (a) the person is qualified for jobseeker payment on a day (the relevant day); and
- (b) jobseeker payment is payable to the person on the relevant day; and
- (c) on or before the relevant day but after the commencement of this section, the person was a member of a couple and stopped being a member of a couple because the person's partner died; and
- (d) the person is not a member of a couple on the relevant day; and
- (e) when the person's partner died, both the person and the person's partner were Australian residents; and

Section 660LI

- (f) if the person is a man or a woman who was not pregnant when her partner died—the relevant day occurs in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; and
- (g) if the person is a woman who was pregnant when her partner died—the relevant day occurs:
 - (i) in the period of 14 weeks starting on the day of the death of the partner; or
 - (ii) in the period (the relevant period) starting on the day of the death of the partner and ending when the child is born or the woman otherwise stops being pregnant; whichever ends later; and
- (h) the relevant day is the day that the person first notifies the Secretary of the person's partner's death; and
- (i) if the person is qualified for payments under section 660LA in respect of the person's partner's death—the person has made an election under subsection 660LA(2).

660LI Amount of payment

- (1) The amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula (except if paragraph 660LH(g) applies in relation to the person):

$$\text{Daily rate of person's jobseeker payment on the relevant day} \times 14 \times 4.5$$
- (2) If subparagraph 660LH(g)(i) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

$$\left[\text{Daily rate of person's jobseeker payment on the relevant day} \times 14 \times 3 \right] + $1,000$$
- (3) If subparagraph 660LH(g)(ii) applies in relation to the person, the amount of the person's payment is worked out using the following formula:

Section 660LI

$$\left[\begin{array}{c} \text{Daily rate of person's jobseeker payment} \\ \text{on the relevant day} \end{array} \times 14 \times 3 \right] + \text{Additional amount}$$

where:

additional amount means the amount worked out in accordance with the following table:

Additional amount
Item	If the relevant period is:	the additional amount is:
1	More than 14 weeks but not more than 16 weeks	$1,150
2	More than 16 weeks but not more than 18 weeks	$1,500
3	More than 18 weeks but not more than 20 weeks	$1,850
4	More than 20 weeks but not more than 22 weeks	$2,150
5	More than 22 weeks but not more than 24 weeks	$2,500
6	More than 24 weeks but not more than 26 weeks	$2,850
7	More than 26 weeks but not more than 28 weeks	$3,200
8	More than 28 weeks but not more than 30 weeks	$3,550
9	More than 30 weeks but not more than 32 weeks	$3,900
10	More than 32 weeks	$4,250

660M Death of child—continuation of jobseeker payment rate for 14 weeks

If:

- (a) a person is receiving jobseeker payment; and
- (b) the person is the principal carer of a child who dies; and
- (c) apart from this section, the person's rate of jobseeker payment would be reduced because the person is no longer the child's principal carer;

the person's rate of jobseeker payment, during the period of 14 weeks that starts on the day of the child's death, is to be worked out as if the child had not died.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).
