- (2) The ACMA's directions may include:

- (4A) Subsection (4) does not prevent the ACMA from giving a direction under subsection (1) to a registered controller of a registered media group that would have the effect of requiring the registered controller to cease to be in a position to exercise control of a media operation in the group if:
- (a) the registered controller failed to comply with a notice under section 61AJ; and
 - (b) the notice related, to any extent, to the media operation.
- (4B) Subsection (4) does not prevent the ACMA from giving a direction under subsection (1) to a registered controller of a registered media group that would have the effect of requiring the registered controller to cease to be in a position to exercise control of a media operation in the group if:
- (a) an approval under section 61AJ was given on the basis that the ACMA was satisfied that a person other than the registered controller would, within a particular period, take action that, to any extent, relates to the media operation; and
 - (b) the person failed to take the action within that period.

Section 61AN

(4C) If:

subsection (4) does not prevent the ACMA from giving a direction under subsection (1) to a registered controller of that other group that would have the effect of requiring the registered controller to cease to be in a position to exercise control of any media operation in that other group.

Section 61AN

 - (i) the unacceptable media diversity situation coming into existence; or
 - (ii) if the unacceptable media diversity situation already existed—a reduction in the number of points in the licence area concerned;
- the period specified in the direction must be 2 years.
- (8) If the ACMA is satisfied that the person acted flagrantly in breach of section 61AG or 61AH, the period specified in the direction must be one month.
- (9) The Parliament recognises that, if a period of one month is specified in a direction, the person to whom the direction is given or another person may be required to dispose of shares or interests in shares in a way, or otherwise make arrangements, that could cause the person a considerable financial disadvantage. Such a result is seen as necessary in order to discourage flagrant breaches of sections 61AG and 61AH.

Section 61AP

61AP Extension of time for compliance with remedial direction

- (1) A person who has been given a direction under section 61AN may, within 3 months before the end of the period specified in the direction but not less than one month before the end of that period, apply in writing to the ACMA for an extension of that period.

 - (b) the applicant acted in good faith; and
 - (c) an extension is appropriate in all the circumstances.

- (a) receiving the application; or

 - (aa) a breach of a civil penalty provision occurring; or
 - (b) a breach of the conditions of the licence occurring;
- decide that this subsection applies to the company.

- (5) Paragraph (4)(c) does not require the ACMA to consider the application of subsection 83(2) in relation to a proposed transferee before approving the transfer of a licence to the proposed transferee.
- (6) The ACMA must not approve the transfer of a community broadcasting licence unless the ACMA is satisfied that:

- (b) if the licence has been renewed on one or more occasions—the proposed transferee represents the same community interest as the applicant for renewal represented when the licence was last renewed.
- (7) In deciding whether to approve the transfer of a community

Part 6A—Temporary community broadcasting licences

92A Interpretation

In this Part:

company includes an incorporated association.

licence period means the period of a temporary community broadcasting licence determined by the ACMA under paragraph 92G(1)(c) or varied by the ACMA under section 92J.

timing conditions means the conditions of a temporary community broadcasting licence that:

- (a) are about the times in which the licence allows community broadcasting services to be provided; and
- (b) are determined by the ACMA under paragraph 92G(1)(b) or varied by the ACMA under section 92J.

92B Temporary community broadcasting licences

- (1) The ACMA may allocate to a person, on application in writing by the person, a temporary community broadcasting licence.
- (2) Applications must be in accordance with a form approved in writing by the ACMA.

92C Applicants for temporary community broadcasting licences

- (1) The ACMA is not to allocate a temporary community broadcasting licence to an applicant unless the applicant:
 - (a) is a company that is formed in Australia or in an external Territory; and
 - (b) represents a community interest.

Note: See also section 96B of the Radiocommunications Act 1992, which provides that licences for television services under this Part must not be granted to new holders after 30 June 2021.

- (2) The ACMA is not to allocate a licence to an applicant if the ACMA decides that subsection 92D(2) applies to the applicant in relation to the licence. However, the ACMA is not required to consider the application of subsection 92D(2) to the applicant before allocating the licence.
- (3) The ACMA may refuse to allocate a licence to an applicant if the applicant was a temporary community broadcasting licensee for a period but did not provide community broadcasting services in that period. This subsection does not limit the ACMA's discretion to refuse to allocate a licence.

92D When applicants and licensees are regarded as suitable

- (1) A company is a suitable applicant or suitable licensee in relation to a temporary community broadcasting licence if the ACMA has not decided that subsection (2) applies to the company in relation to the licence.

Note: It is a condition of a temporary community broadcasting licence that the licensee remain a suitable licensee: see paragraph 9(2)(a) of Schedule 2.

- (2) The ACMA may, if it is satisfied that allowing a company to provide or continue to provide broadcasting services under a temporary community broadcasting licence would lead to a significant risk of:
 - (a) an offence against this Act or the regulations being committed; or
 - (aa) a breach of a civil penalty provision occurring; or
 - (b) a breach of the conditions of the licence occurring;decide that this subsection applies to the company in relation to the licence.
- (3) In deciding whether such a risk exists, the ACMA is to take into account only:

Section 92E

- (a) the business record of the company; and
 - (b) the company's record in situations requiring trust and candour; and
 - (c) the business record of the chief executive and each director and secretary of the applicant; and
 - (d) the record in situations requiring trust and candour of each such person; and
 - (e) whether the company, or a person referred to in paragraph (c) or (d), has been convicted of an offence against this Act or the regulations; and
 - (f) whether a civil penalty order has been made against:
 - (i) the company; or
 - (ii) a person referred to in paragraph (c) or (d).
- (4) This section does not affect the operation of Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 (which includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them).

92E Criteria for deciding whether to allocate a licence

- (1) In deciding whether to allocate a temporary community broadcasting licence to an applicant or to one of a group of applicants, the ACMA may have regard to:
 - (a) the undesirability of one person being in a position to exercise control of more than one community broadcasting licence that is a broadcasting services bands licence in the same licence area; and
 - (b) the undesirability of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory or a political party being in a position to exercise control of a temporary community broadcasting licence.
- (2) In deciding whether to allocate a temporary community broadcasting licence to an applicant or to one of a group of applicants, the ACMA may also have regard to:

- (a) the extent to which the proposed service would meet the existing and perceived future needs of the community within the licence area of the proposed licence; and
- (b) the nature and diversity of the interests of that community; and
- (ba) the extent to which the proposed service would provide material of local significance (within the meaning of subsection 84(3)); and
- (c) the nature and diversity of other broadcasting services (including national broadcasting services) available within that licence area; and
- (d) the capacity of the applicant to provide the proposed service.

92F Licences to accord with alternative planning procedures

- (1) The ACMA is not to allocate a temporary community broadcasting licence except in accordance with a determination of the ACMA under section 34.
- (2) If the ACMA specifies in the determination a maximum number of temporary community broadcasting licences for the purposes of subsection 34(2A), the ACMA is not to allocate a temporary community broadcasting licence if that number would be exceeded.

92G Licence area, timing conditions and licence period

- (1) Before allocating a temporary community broadcasting licence, the ACMA is to:
 - (a) designate a particular area in Australia as the licence area of the licence; and
 - (b) determine the timing conditions of the licence; and
 - (c) determine a period:
 - (i) starting on a day determined by the ACMA; and
 - (ii) ending not later than 12 months after that day; as the licence period.

Section 92H

- (2) In determining the timing conditions and licence period, the ACMA is to have regard to:
- (a) any other applications for temporary community broadcasting licences in the licence area of the proposed licence; and
 - (b) any other temporary community broadcasting licences in the licence area of the proposed licence; and

- (a) vary or revoke a condition of the licence (including a timing condition); or
 - (b) impose an additional condition on the licence; or
 - (c) vary the licence period.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the ACMA may impose an additional condition on a licence:
- (a) requiring the licensee to comply with a code of practice that is applicable to the licensee; or
 - (b) designed to ensure that a breach of a condition by the licensee does not recur.
- (3) An additional condition of a licence must be relevant to community broadcasting services.

- (4) If the ACMA proposes to vary or revoke a condition, impose an additional condition or vary the licence period, the ACMA is to give to the licensee:
- (a) written notice of its intention; and
 - (b) a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the ACMA in relation to the proposed action.
- (5) This section does not allow the ACMA:
- (a) to vary or revoke a condition set out in Part 5 of Schedule 2; or
 - (b) to vary or revoke a timing condition so that there are no times in which the licence allows community broadcasting services to be provided; or
 - (c) to vary the licence period so that the period is longer than 12 months.
- (6) If the ACMA varies or revokes a condition (other than a timing condition), imposes an additional condition or varies the licence period, the ACMA is to publish the fact of the variation, revocation or additional condition in the Gazette.
- (7) Action taken under subsection (1) must not be inconsistent with:
- (a) determinations and clarifications under section 19; or
 - (b) conditions set out in Part 5 (other than paragraph 9(1)(h)) of Schedule 2.

92K Duration of temporary community broadcasting licences

Subject to section 92L and Part 10, a temporary community broadcasting licence remains in force for the licence period.

 - (b) the ACMA decides that subsection 98(2) applies to the applicant.
- (2) Paragraph (1)(b) does not require the ACMA to consider the application of subsection 98(2) in relation to an applicant before a subscription television broadcasting licence is allocated to the applicant.

96 Allocation of other subscription television broadcasting licences

- (1) The ACMA may allocate to a person, on application in writing by the person, a subscription television broadcasting licence.
- (2) Licences under subsection (1) are to be allocated on the basis of one licence per service.
- (4) Applications must:
 - (a) be in accordance with a form approved in writing by the ACMA; and
 - (b) be accompanied by the application fee determined by the ACMA.

- (5) The ACMA must not allocate a subscription television broadcasting licence under this section if the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission has reported, within 30 days after being requested for a report under section 97, that, in the opinion of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, the allocation of the licence to the applicant:
- (a) would constitute a contravention of section 50 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 if the allocation of the licence were the acquisition by the applicant of an asset of a body corporate; and
 - (b) would not be authorised under section 88 of that Act if the applicant had applied for such an authorisation.
- (6) If a licence is allocated under this section, the ACMA must publish in the Gazette the name of the successful applicant.

97 Requests to Australian Competition and Consumer Commission

- (1) Before a subscription television broadcasting licence is allocated to a person under section 96, the ACMA must request the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission to provide a report under this section.
- (2) The report is to advise whether, in the opinion of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, the allocation of the licence to the applicant:
- (a) would constitute a contravention of section 50 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 if the allocation of the licence were the acquisition by the applicant of an asset of a body corporate; and
 - (b) would not be authorised under section 88 of that Act if the applicant had applied for such an authorisation.
- (3) For the purposes of the consideration of a request by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, section 155 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 applies as if the allocation of a licence under this Part were a matter referred to in subsection (1) of that section.

Section 98

98 Suitability for allocation of licence

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a company is a suitable subscription television broadcasting licensee or a suitable applicant for a subscription television broadcasting licence if the ACMA has not decided that subsection (2) applies to the person.
- (2) The ACMA may, if it is satisfied that allocating a subscription television broadcasting licence to a particular company or allowing a particular company to continue to hold a subscription television broadcasting licence would lead to a significant risk of:
 - (a) an offence against this Act or the regulations being committed; or
 - (aa) a breach of a civil penalty provision occurring; or

A subscription television broadcasting licensee may, by notice in writing given to the ACMA, surrender the licence.

115 Minister may protect the free availability of certain types of programs

- (1) The Minister may give notice, by legislative instrument, specifying an event, or events of a kind, the televising of which should, in the opinion of the Minister, be available free to the general public.
- (1A) The Minister may give notice, by legislative instrument, amending a notice under subsection (1) to specify an additional event, or events of a kind, the televising of which should, in the opinion of the Minister, be available free to the public.
- (1AA) Subject to subsection (2), an event specified in a notice under subsection (1) is taken to be removed from the notice 4,368 hours before the start of the event, unless the Minister, by legislative instrument registered under the Legislation Act 2003 before that time, declares that the event continues to be specified in the notice after that time.

The Minister is of the opinion that removing the event from the notice is likely to have the effect that the event will be televised to a greater extent than if it remained on the notice.

Example 2

A commercial television broadcasting licensee has acquired the right to televise an event, but has failed to televise the event or has televised only an unreasonably small proportion of the event. The Minister is of the opinion that removing that event, or another event, from the notice is likely to have the effect that the removed event will be televised to a greater extent than it would be if it remained on the notice.

116 Certain arrangements not to result in control or in persons being associates

- (1) A person who is in a position to exercise control of a satellite subscription television broadcasting licence is not taken to be in a position to exercise control of another satellite subscription television broadcasting licence only because of a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding under which all or any of the following things are done:

- (b) the subscription television broadcasting services being provided under those licences are marketed on a joint basis;
 - (c) joint use is made of facilities for:
 - (i) transmitting programs; or
 - (ii) the operation of disabling devices for restricting access to certain programs;

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a contract, arrangement or understanding under which, or as a result of which, a person who is in a position to exercise control of a satellite subscription television broadcasting service comes to be in a position to exercise control (whether directly or indirectly) of the selection or provision of a significant proportion of the programs broadcast by another satellite subscription television broadcasting licensee.

116A Use of additional capacity

Services under a satellite subscription television broadcasting licence may use capacity other than high performance beams on a subscription television satellite for the purpose of ensuring that as much of Australia as possible is covered by those services.

116B Application of section 51 of the Competition and Consumer Act

Nothing in this Part is to be taken as specifically authorising any act or thing for the purposes of subsection 51(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010.

120 Variation of class licences

- (1) The ACMA may, by legislative instrument:
- (a) vary or revoke conditions specified in a class licence; or

Division 4A—Nominated broadcaster declarations

121FLA Object of this Division

The main object of this Division is to provide for the making of declarations (nominated broadcaster declarations) that allow the following licences to be held by different persons:

- (a) an international broadcasting licence that authorises the provision of an international broadcasting service;
- (b) a transmitter licence for a radiocommunications transmitter that is for use for transmitting the international broadcasting service.

121FLB Applications for nominated broadcaster declarations

If a person (the transmission provider):

- (a) is the licensee of a transmitter licence for a transmitter that is used, or intended for use, for transmitting an international broadcasting service; or
- (b) proposes to apply for a transmitter licence for a transmitter that is intended for use for transmitting an international broadcasting service;

the transmission provider may apply to the ACMA for a nominated broadcaster declaration in relation to the provision of the international broadcasting service by a particular person (the content provider).

121FLC Making a nominated broadcaster declaration

- (1) After considering the application, the ACMA must declare in writing that the provision of the international broadcasting service by the content provider is nominated in relation to the transmitter licence or proposed transmitter licence, if the ACMA is satisfied that:
 - (a) either:

- (i) the content provider holds an international broadcasting licence that authorises the provision of the international broadcasting service; or
 - (ii) the content provider does not hold such a licence but, if the declaration were made, the transmission provider or another person will, within 60 days after the making of the declaration, apply under subsection 121FA(1A), on behalf of the content provider, for an international broadcasting licence that authorises the provision of the international broadcasting service by the content provider; and
 - (b) the transmission provider intends to transmit the international broadcasting service on behalf of the content provider; and
 - (c) the transmission provider is registered as a company under Part 2A.2 of the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (d) if the declaration were made, the transmission provider would be in a position to comply with all of the obligations imposed on the transmission provider under section 121FLE.
- (2) The ACMA must give a copy of the declaration to:
- (a) the transmission provider; and
 - (b) the content provider.
- (3) If the ACMA refuses to make a nominated broadcaster declaration, the ACMA must give written notice of the refusal to:
- (a) the transmission provider; and
 - (b) the content provider.
- (4) If an application is made for a nominated broadcaster declaration, the ACMA must make reasonable efforts to:
- (a) make the declaration under subsection (1); or
 - (b) refuse to make the declaration;
- within 30 days after the application is made.
- (5) This Part does not prevent the ACMA from making more than one nominated broadcaster declaration in relation to a particular international broadcasting service, so long as each declaration

Part 9B—Industry codes and industry standards

Division 1—Simplified outline

130C Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- Industry codes may be registered by the ACMA.
- The ACMA has a reserve power to make an industry standard if there are no industry codes or if an industry code is deficient.
- Compliance with industry standards is mandatory.

Division 2—Interpretation

130D Industry codes

For the purposes of this Part, an industry code is a code developed under this Part (whether or not in response to a request under this Part).

130E Industry standards

 - (a) in isolation; or
 - (b) in conjunction with any other equipment.

Definitions

- (3) In this section:

130G Sections of the industry

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, sections of the industry are to be ascertained in accordance with this section.
- (2) The ACMA may, by legislative instrument, determine that persons carrying on, or proposing to carry on, one or more specified kinds of industry activity constitute a section of the industry for the purposes of this Part.

- (6) Subsection (5) does not, by implication, limit subsection (2).

130H Participants in a section of the industry

For the purposes of this Part, if a person is a member of a group that constitutes a section of the industry, the person is a participant in that section of the industry.

Division 3—General principles relating to industry codes and industry standards

130J Statement of regulatory policy

The Parliament intends that bodies or associations that the ACMA is satisfied represent sections of the industry should develop codes (industry codes) that are to apply to participants in that section of the industry in relation to the industry activities of the participants.

130K Examples of matters that may be dealt with by industry codes and industry standards

- (1) This section sets out examples of matters that may be dealt with by industry codes and industry standards.
- (2) The applicability of a particular example will depend on which section of the industry is involved.
- (3) The examples are as follows:
 - (a) the labelling of domestic reception equipment;
 - (b) electronic program guides, including the provision of information for the purpose of compiling electronic program guides;
 - (c) the numbering of digital services, including the use of logical channel numbers;
 - (d) application program interfaces (within the meaning of section 130A);
 - (e) conditional access systems (within the meaning of section 130A);
 - (f) the updating of software used in domestic reception equipment.

130L Industry codes and industry standards not to deal with certain matters

For the purposes of this Part, an industry code or an industry standard that deals with a particular matter has no effect to the extent (if any) to which the matter is dealt with by:

- (a) a code registered, or a standard determined, under Part 6 of the Telecommunications Act 1997; or
- (b) a code registered, or a standard determined, under Part 9 of this Act; or
- (c) a standard determined under Part 9A of this Act; or
- (e) a code registered, or a standard determined, under Division 7 of Part 9 of the Online Safety Act 2021; or
- (f) a code registered, or a standard determined, under Part 4 of Schedule 6 to this Act; or
- (g) a code of practice notified to the ACMA under subsection 8(1) of the Australian Broadcasting Corporation Act 1983; or
- (h) a code of practice notified to the ACMA under subsection 10(1) of the Special Broadcasting Service Act 1991.

Division 4—Industry codes

130M Registration of industry codes

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the ACMA is satisfied that a body or association represents a particular section of the industry; and
 - (b) that body or association develops an industry code that applies to participants in that section of the industry and deals with one or more matters relating to the industry activities of those participants; and
 - (c) the body or association gives a copy of the code to the ACMA; and
 - (d) the ACMA is satisfied that:
 - (i) to the extent to which the code deals with one or more matters of substantial relevance to the community—the code provides appropriate community safeguards for that matter or those matters; and
 - (ii) to the extent to which the code deals with one or more matters that are not of substantial relevance to the community—the code deals with that matter or those matters in an appropriate manner; and
 - (e) the ACMA is satisfied that, before giving the copy of the code to the ACMA:
 - (i) the body or association published a draft of the code and invited members of the public to make submissions to the body or association about the draft within a specified period; and
 - (ii) the body or association gave consideration to any submissions that were received from members of the public within that period; and
 - (f) the ACMA is satisfied that, before giving the copy of the code to the ACMA:
 - (i) the body or association published a draft of the code and invited participants in that section of the industry to

- make submissions to the body or association about the draft within a specified period; and
- (ii) the body or association gave consideration to any submissions that were received from participants in that section of the industry within that period.
- (2) The ACMA must register the code by including it in the Register of industry codes kept under section 130ZA.
 - (3) A period specified under subparagraph (1)(e)(i) or (1)(f)(i) must run for at least 30 days.
 - (4) If:
 - (a) an industry code (the new code) is registered under this Part; and
 - (b) the new code is expressed to replace another industry code; the other code ceases to be registered under this Part when the new code is registered.

130N ACMA may request codes

- (1) If the ACMA is satisfied that a body or association represents a particular section of the industry, the ACMA may, by written notice given to the body or association, request the body or association to:
 - (a) develop an industry code that applies to participants in that section of the industry and deals with one or more specified matters relating to the industry activities of those participants; and
 - (b) give the ACMA a copy of the code within the period specified in the notice.
- (2) The period specified in a notice under subsection (1) must run for at least 120 days.
- (3) The ACMA must not make a request under subsection (1) in relation to a particular section of the industry unless the ACMA is satisfied that:

Section 130P

- (a) the development of the code is necessary or convenient in order to:
 - (i) provide appropriate community safeguards; or
 - (ii) otherwise deal with the performance or conduct of participants in that section of the industry; and
 - (b) in the absence of the request, it is unlikely that an industry code would be developed within a reasonable period.
- (4) The ACMA may vary a notice under subsection (1) by extending the period specified in the notice.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not, by implication, limit the application of subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
- (6) A notice under subsection (1) may specify indicative targets for achieving progress in the development of the code (for example, a target of 60 days to develop a preliminary draft of the code).

130P Publication of notice where no body or association represents a section of the industry

- (1) If the ACMA is satisfied that a particular section of the industry is not represented by a body or association, the ACMA may publish a notice in the Gazette:
- (a) stating that, if such a body or association were to come into existence within a specified period, the ACMA would be likely to give a notice to that body or association under subsection 130N(1); and
 - (b) setting out the matter or matters relating to the industry activities that would be likely to be specified in the subsection 130N(1) notice.
- (2) The period specified in a notice under subsection (1) must run for at least 60 days.

130Q Replacement of industry codes

- (1) Changes to an industry code are to be achieved by replacing the code instead of varying the code.
- (2) If the replacement code differs only in minor respects from the original code, section 130M has effect, in relation to the registration of the code, as if paragraphs 130M(1)(e) and (f) had not been enacted.

Note: Paragraphs 130M(1)(e) and (f) deal with submissions about draft codes.

Division 5—Industry standards

130R ACMA may determine an industry standard if a request for an industry code is not complied with

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the ACMA has made a request under subsection 130N(1) in relation to the development of a code that is to:

 - (c) the ACMA is satisfied that it is necessary or convenient for the ACMA to determine a standard in order to:
 - (i) provide appropriate community safeguards in relation to that matter or those matters; or
 - (ii) otherwise regulate adequately participants in that section of the industry in relation to that matter or those matters.
- (2) The ACMA may, by legislative instrument, determine a standard that applies to participants in that section of the industry and deals with that matter or those matters. A standard under this subsection is to be known as an industry standard.
- (3) Before determining an industry standard under this section, the ACMA must consult the body or association to whom the request mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) was made.

Section 130ZBA

Part 9C—Access to commercial television broadcasting services provided with the use of a satellite

130ZBA Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- A conditional access scheme is a scheme that sets out rules relating to access to services provided under a commercial television broadcasting licence allocated under section 38C.
- The ACMA may register a conditional access scheme developed by a body or association that represents commercial television broadcasting licensees.
- If no conditional access scheme is developed by a body or association that represents commercial television broadcasting licensees, the ACMA may formulate and register a conditional access scheme.

Note: Under paragraph 7A(1)(c) of Schedule 2, it is a condition of a licence allocated under section 38C that the licensee will ensure that any conditional access system relating to the services provided under the licence will comply with any conditional access scheme registered under this Part.

130ZB Objectives of conditional access scheme—South Eastern Australia TV3 licence area and Northern Australia TV3 licence area

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a commercial television broadcasting licence allocated under section 38C for:

Section 130ZB

- (a) the South Eastern Australia TV3 licence area; or
- (b) the Northern Australia TV3 licence area.

Objectives

- (2) A conditional access scheme for the section 38C licence area complies with this section if the scheme is directed towards the achievement of the objectives set out in this section.
- (3) The first objective is that:
 - (a) the scheme should specify all of the following as areas that are taken to be areas (category A reception areas) in which people are unable to receive adequate reception of all of the applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services:
 - (i) the related terrestrial licence areas;
 - (ii) the external Territory in the section 38C licence area; and
 - (b) if a terrestrial licensee for a related terrestrial licence area is authorised, under paragraph 7(2A)(d) of Schedule 2, to provide a commercial television broadcasting service outside the related terrestrial licence area to one or more persons who are in the section 38C licence area—the scheme should provide that those persons are taken in to be in a category A reception area.
- (4) The second objective is that the scheme should:
 - (a) specify one or more areas included in the section 38C licence area; or
 - (b) specify a method for ascertaining one or more areas included in the section 38C licence area;that are taken to be areas (category B reception areas) in which people are unable to receive adequate reception of all of the applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services.

Section 130ZB

- (5) The third objective is that a conditional access system that relates to any of the commercial television broadcasting services provided under the section 38C licence must enable persons in:
- (a) a category A reception area; or
 - (b) a category B reception area; or
 - (c) a declared service-deficient area;
- to receive those commercial television broadcasting services.
- (7) The fourth objective is that the scheme should provide that so much of the section 38C licence area as is neither:
- (a) a category A reception area; nor
 - (b) a category B reception area;
- is a category C reception area.
- (8) The fifth objective is that the scheme must:
- (a) if the scheme is developed by a body or association that the ACMA is satisfied represents commercial television broadcasting licensees—identify a company; or
 - (b) if the scheme is formulated by the ACMA—identify the ACMA;
- as the scheme administrator for the scheme.
- (9) The sixth objective is that the scheme must authorise the scheme administrator to issue a certificate (a reception certificate) to a person in a category C reception area (but not in a declared service-deficient area) stating that the person is unable to receive adequate reception of all of the applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services.
- (10) The seventh objective is that a conditional access system that relates to any of the commercial television broadcasting services provided under the section 38C licence must enable a person who:
- (a) is in a category C reception area; and
 - (aa) is not in a declared service-deficient area; and
 - (b) holds a reception certificate;
- to receive those commercial television broadcasting services.

Section 130ZB

- (12) The eighth objective is that, if an application for a reception certificate is made in accordance with the scheme, the application must:
- (a) be dealt with by the scheme administrator within 15 business days after receiving the application; and
 - (b) be accepted, and dealt with, without requiring:
 - (i) the payment of a fee by the applicant; or
 - (ii) the applicant to incur any expenses (other than the expense of filling in the application and sending it to the scheme administrator).
- (13) The ninth objective is that the scheme must authorise the scheme administrator to revoke a reception certificate issued to a person if the person is no longer eligible for the reception certificate.
- (13A) For the purposes of subsection (13), if:
- (a) at a particular time, a reception certificate was issued to a person; and
 - (b) after that time, the person has not moved to new premises; the person is taken to be eligible for the reception certificate.
- (15A) The 12th objective is that, if:
- (a) at a particular time, a person was in a category B reception area; and
 - (b) at that time, a conditional access system that relates to any of the commercial television broadcasting services provided under the section 38C licence enabled the person to receive those commercial television broadcasting services; and
 - (c) after that time:
 - (i) the person ceases to be in the category B reception area; and
 - (ii) the person has not moved to new premises;the conditional access system must enable the person to receive those commercial television broadcasting services.
- (15B) The 13th objective is that, if:

Section 130ZB

- (a) at a particular time, a person was in a declared service-deficient area; and
 - (b) at that time, a conditional access system that relates to any of the commercial television broadcasting services provided under the section 38C licence enabled the person to receive those commercial television broadcasting services; and
 - (c) after that time:
 - (i) the person ceases to be in the declared service-deficient area; and
 - (ii) the person has not moved to new premises;the conditional access system must enable the person to receive those commercial television broadcasting services.
- (16) In this section:

related terrestrial licence area:

- (a) in relation to a licence allocated under section 38C for the South Eastern Australia TV3 licence area—means a terrestrial licence area mentioned in column 3 of item 1 of the table in subsection 38C(1); or
- (b) in relation to a licence allocated under section 38C for the Northern Australia TV3 licence area—means a terrestrial licence area mentioned in column 3 of item 2 of the table in subsection 38C(1).

terrestrial licence means a commercial television broadcasting licence other than a commercial television broadcasting licence allocated under section 38C or subsection 40(1).

terrestrial licence area means the licence area of a terrestrial licence.

Note 1: For adequate reception, see section 130ZFA.

Note 2: For applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services, see section 130ZG.

Note 3: For declared service-deficient area, see section 130ZH.

 - (c) the scheme should provide that a person in a category D reception area is taken not to be in a category A reception area.

Note: For category D reception area, see subsection (8).

- (4) The second objective is that the scheme should:

Section 130ZBB

- (a) specify one or more areas included in the Perth TV1 licence area; or

- that are taken to be areas (category B reception areas) in which people are unable to receive adequate reception of all of the applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services.
- (5) The third objective is that a conditional access system that relates to any of the commercial television broadcasting services provided under the section 38C licence must enable persons in:
- (a) a category A reception area; or
 - (b) a category B reception area; or
 - (c) a declared service-deficient area;
- to receive those commercial television broadcasting services.

- (8) The fifth objective is that the scheme should:
- (a) specify one or more related terrestrial sub-areas; or
 - (b) specify a method for ascertaining one or more related terrestrial sub-areas;
- each of which is taken to be an area (a category D reception area) in which people are to receive adequate reception of all the applicable terrestrial digital commercial television broadcasting services.
- (9) The sixth objective is that the scheme must:

Section 130ZBB

- (a) if the scheme is developed by a body or association that the ACMA is satisfied represents commercial television broadcasting licensees—identify a company; or

Notification of results of investigation

- (14) If:

Part 10A—Anti-hoarding rules

Division 1—Introduction

146A Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- This Part sets up a regime to discourage commercial television broadcasting licensees, program suppliers, the ABC and the SBS from hoarding rights to provide live television coverage of certain events or series of events.
- The Minister may, by legislative instrument, designate the events or series that are covered by this Part. The instrument must also specify an offer time for the event or series. The offer time must occur 30 days or more before the start of the event or series unless the Minister is satisfied that the offer time should occur closer to the start of the event or series.
- If a commercial television broadcasting licensee acquires a right to provide live television coverage of a designated event or series, but does not intend to televise the whole or a part of the event or series, the licensee must, before the offer time, offer to transfer the right to televise the whole or the part of the event or series, for a nominal charge, to the ABC and the SBS. The offer must remain open for acceptance for a minimum period of 7 days.

Section 146B

- If a commercial television broadcasting licensee's program supplier is entitled to confer on the licensee a right to provide live television coverage of a designated event or series, but does not confer the right to televise the whole or a part of the event or series, the program supplier must, before the offer time, offer to transfer the right to televise the whole or the part of the event or series, for a nominal charge, to the ABC and the SBS. The offer must remain open for acceptance for a minimum period of 7 days.
- If the ABC acquires a right to provide live television coverage of a designated event or series, but does not intend to televise the whole or a part of the event or series, the ABC must, before the offer time, offer to transfer the right to televise the whole or the part of the event or series, for a nominal charge, to the SBS. The offer must remain open for acceptance for a minimum period of 7 days.
- If the SBS acquires a right to provide live television coverage of a designated event or series, but does not intend to televise the whole or a part of the event or series, the SBS must, before the offer time, offer to transfer the right to televise the whole or the part of the event or series, for a nominal charge, to the ABC. The offer must remain open for acceptance for a minimum period of 7 days.

Agreements

- (2) A person is a program supplier of a commercial television broadcasting licensee for the purposes of this Part if:

Schedule 1—Control and ownership of company interests

Part 1—Introduction

1 Control—general

- (1) This Schedule is intended to provide a means of finding out who is in a position to exercise control of commercial television broadcasting licences, commercial radio broadcasting licences, subscription television broadcasting licences, international broadcasting licences, newspapers and companies and a means of tracing company interests.

This Schedule recognises that the concept of control of a licence, a newspaper or a company can be a complex one.

The holding of company interests is not the only way to be in a position to exercise control. Clauses 2 and 3 set out the rules for deciding when a position to exercise control exists. While company interests may be important in deciding that question, they are only one issue. In some cases, it may be important to look at agreements and arrangements between people and at accustomed courses of conduct between people. In this respect, the definition of associate in section 6 of this Act is important.

A person who has company interests exceeding 15% in a company is regarded as being in a position to control the company.

Control of a company may also come about through company interests of 15% or less. This could happen where a person holds company interests of say 10% but no other person holds company interests of more than say 2% and those other persons do not act in concert.

A person may be in a position to exercise control of only the media activities of a licensee or a newspaper, but that position is nevertheless to be regarded as a position to exercise control of the licence or the newspaper.

- (2) Because of the complexities involved in this area, it is not possible to provide rules which will give a definite answer in all cases. Therefore, the ACMA is given a monitoring role over the broadcasting industry and suitable powers of investigation in order to reach a conclusion as to whether a person is in a position to exercise control or not. In order to provide certainty for persons involved in those industries, the ACMA is also given, under section 74, a power to give a binding opinion on the question of control.

Part 2—When person is in a position to exercise control

2 When person is in a position to exercise control

- (1) For the purposes of this Schedule, a person is in a position to exercise control of a licence or a company if:
 - (a) the person, either alone or together with an associate of the person, is in a position to exercise control of the licensee or the company; or
 - (b) in the case of a licence:
 - (i) the person is the licensee; or
 - (ii) the person, either alone or together with an associate of the person, is in a position to exercise (whether directly or indirectly) control of the selection or provision of a significant proportion of the programs broadcast by the licensee; or
 - (iii) the person, either alone or together with an associate of the person, is in a position to exercise (whether directly or indirectly) control of a significant proportion of the operations of the licensee in providing broadcasting services under the licence; or
 - (c) in the case of a non-licensee company—the person, either alone or together with an associate of the person, is in a position to exercise (whether directly or indirectly) control of a significant proportion of the operations of the company; or
 - (d) the person, either alone or together with an associate of the person, is in a position to:
 - (i) veto any action taken by the board of directors of the licensee or the company; or
 - (ii) appoint or secure the appointment of, or veto the appointment of, at least half of the board of directors of the licensee or the company; or

- (iii) exercise, in any other manner, whether directly or indirectly, direction or restraint over any substantial issue affecting the management or affairs of the licensee or the company; or
- (e) the licensee or the company or more than 50% of its directors:
 - (i) act, or are accustomed to act; or
 - (ii) under a contract or an arrangement or understanding (whether formal or informal) are intended or expected to act;
in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of, or in concert with, the person or of the person and an associate of the person acting together or, if the person is a company, of the directors of the person.
- (2) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply to the provision of programs by a person to a licensee under an agreement for the supply of programs to a licensee if the conditions of the agreement relate only to the programs so supplied or their promotion.

Part 3—Deemed control

5 Explanation of examples

In an example in this Part, a percentage written next to an arrow indicates that the person before the arrow has company interests in the company to which the arrow is pointing which exceeds that percentage.

6 The 15% rule

- (1) If a person has company interests in a company exceeding 15%, the person is to be regarded as being in a position to exercise control of the company.

7 Application of method through chain of companies

The method described in clause 6 can be applied in the case of a chain of companies. Where a company interest of more than 15% is maintained throughout the chain, the person is to be regarded as being in a position to exercise control of the last company in the chain.

Example:

Here the person is to be regarded as being in a position to exercise control of Company D.

Part 4—Tracing of ownership

8 Tracing of ownership

Company interests can be traced through a chain of companies using a method known as the fractional tracing method. This method applies a formula to decide what company interest a person has.

This method is best demonstrated by an example.

Example:

The person's company interest in Company B is worked out using the formula:

$$\text{Company Interest 1} \times \text{Company Interest 2}$$

where:

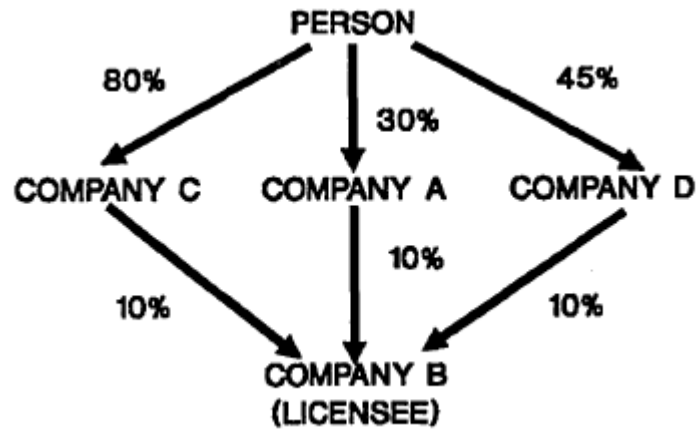

Company Interest 1 is the company interest of the person, expressed as a fraction, in Company A.

Company Interest 2 is the company interest of Company A, expressed as a fraction, in Company B.

In this case, the formula produces: $3/10 \times 1/10$, which means that the person has a 3% company interest in Company B.

Interests traced in this way can be added. If Company B is a licensee and the person had, through other chains of companies, a further 12.5% company interest in Company B, the person would be regarded as being in a position to exercise control of Company B under Part 3 of this Schedule because the person would have company interests exceeding 15% in Company B.

Example:

In this example, the person has a 15.5% company interest in Company B. This is made up of 3% (through Company A), 8% (through Company C) and 4.5% (through Company D).

This method of tracing ownership may be used through any number of companies. However, the ACMA is not required to trace every minor company interest.
