Division 2—Directions to relinquish control over an RSE licensee

131E Object of this Division

The object of this Division is to enable the Regulator to direct a person who is in control of an RSE licensee to relinquish that control if there has been, is or is likely to be interference with the ability of the RSE licensee to satisfy its obligations in relation to a superannuation entity.

131EA Application of this Division

This Division applies in relation to an RSE licensee that is a body corporate.

131EB Direction to relinquish control

- (1) The Regulator may give a person a direction to relinquish control of an RSE licensee if:
- (a) the Regulator has reason to believe that:

Section 131EB

- (i) the person has a controlling stake in the RSE licensee;
or
 - (ii) the person has practical control of the RSE licensee; and
- (b) the Regulator has reason to believe that because of:
 - (i) the person's controlling stake, or practical control, of the RSE licensee; or
 - (ii) the way in which control has been, is or is likely to be exercised;
the RSE licensee has been, is or is likely to be unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.
- (2) The Regulator may give a person a direction to relinquish control of an RSE licensee if:
 - (a) the Regulator has reason to believe that the person has a controlling stake in the RSE licensee; and
 - (b) the person does not have approval under section 29HD to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.
- (3) The Regulator may give a person a direction to relinquish control of an RSE licensee if:
 - (a) the Regulator has reason to believe that that the person has a controlling stake in the RSE licensee; and
 - (b) the person has approval under section 29HD to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee; and
 - (c) information given to the Regulator in relation to the application for approval was false or misleading in a material particular.
- (4) To avoid doubt, a direction under subsection (1) or (3) to a person to relinquish a controlling stake in an RSE licensee may be given even if the person has approval to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.
- (5) The direction must be given in writing.
- (6) The Regulator must give the person:

Section 131EC

- (a) a copy of the direction; and
 - (b) a statement of the Regulator's reasons for giving the direction.
- (7) The Regulator may revoke a direction to relinquish control of an RSE licensee.
- (8) The revocation must be in writing and a copy of the revocation must be given to the person.

131EC Meaning of practical control

A person has practical control over an RSE licensee that is a body corporate if:

- (a) either of the following is satisfied:
 - (i) the directors of the RSE licensee are accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the person (either alone or together with associates);
 - (ii) the person (either alone or together with associates) is in a position to exercise control over the RSE licensee; and
- (b) the person does not hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.

131ED Consequences of a direction to relinquish control

- (1) If the Regulator gives a person a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee, the person must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that:
 - (a) the directors of the RSE licensee are not accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the person (either alone or together with associates); and
 - (b) the person (either alone or together with associates) is not in a position to exercise control over the RSE licensee; and
 - (c) the person does not hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.

Section 131EE

- (2) The person must take those steps:
 - (a) within 90 days after being given a copy of the direction; or
 - (b) if the Regulator, by written notice given to the person, allows a longer period for compliance—before the end of that longer period.
- (3) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) the person is subject to a requirement under this section; and
 - (b) the person intentionally or recklessly contravenes the requirement.

Penalty: 400 penalty units.

Note: Section 4K (Continuing and multiple offences) of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an offence under subsection (3), so a person commits an offence, after the period for relinquishment expires, on each day on which the person does not relinquish control.

131EE Interim orders

Orders where the direction is stayed by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal

- (1) The Regulator may apply to the Federal Court of Australia (the Federal Court) for orders under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the Regulator has given a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee to a person; and
 - (b) an application has been made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of the decision to give the direction; and
 - (c) the Tribunal has made an order or orders staying or otherwise affecting the operation or implementation of the decision to give the direction, or a part of that decision.
- (2) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that the person does not, during the period to which an order of the Tribunal relates, exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE licensee being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.

Orders to deal with conduct during the compliance period

- (3) The Regulator may apply to the Federal Court of Australia (the Federal Court) for orders under subsection (4) if:
 - (a) a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee is in force in relation to a person; and
 - (b) the Regulator has reason to believe that the person may, during the period under subsection 131ED(2) during which the person is required to take steps under the direction (the compliance period), exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE licensee being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.
- (4) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that the person does not, during the compliance period, exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.

131EF Remedial orders

- (1) The Regulator may apply to the Federal Court of Australia (the Federal Court) for orders under this section if a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee is in force in relation to a person.
- (2) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that:
 - (a) the directors of the RSE licensee are not accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the person (either alone or together with associates); and

- (b) the person (either alone or together with associates) is not in a position to exercise control over the RSE licensee; and
 - (c) the person does not hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.
- (3) However, the Federal Court may only make orders under this section if the court is satisfied that:
- (a) both of the following are satisfied:
 - (i) the person holds a controlling stake in the RSE licensee, or has practical control of the RSE licensee;
 - (ii) because of the person's control of the RSE licensee, or the way in which that control has been, is or is likely to be exercised, the RSE licensee has been, is or is likely to be unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A; or
 - (b) both of the following are satisfied:
 - (i) the person holds a controlling stake in the RSE licensee;
 - (ii) the person does not have approval under section 29HD to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee; or
 - (c) each of the following is satisfied:
 - (i) the person has a controlling stake in the RSE licensee;
 - (ii) the person has approval under section 29HD to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee;
 - (iii) information given to the Regulator in relation to the application for approval was false or misleading in a material particular.
- (4) The Federal Court's orders include:
- (a) an order directing the disposal of shares; or
 - (b) an order restraining the exercise of any rights attached to shares; or
 - (c) an order prohibiting or deferring the payment of any sums due to a person in respect of shares held by the person; or
 - (d) an order that any exercise of rights attached to shares be disregarded.

Section 131EF

- (5) Subsection (4) does not, by implication, limit subsection (2).
- (6) In addition to the Federal Court's powers under subsections (2) and (4), the court:
 - (a) has power, for the purpose of securing compliance with any other order made under this section, to make an order directing any person to do or refrain from doing a specified act; and
 - (b) has power to make an order containing such ancillary or consequential provisions as the court thinks just.
- (7) The Federal Court may, before making an order under this section, direct that notice of the Regulator's application be given to such persons as it thinks fit or be published in such manner as it thinks fit, or both.
- (8) The Federal Court may, by order, rescind, vary or discharge an order made by it under this section or suspend the operation of such an order.

Division 3—Provisions relating to all directions under this Act

- (2) To avoid doubt, any information provided by a person to APRA under section 130A is taken, for the purposes of subsection (1), to be provided in the exercise of a power or the performance of a function under this Act.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person referred to in section 58 of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority Act 1998 and, to avoid doubt, does not affect the operation of that section.

131FC Protection from liability—directions

- (1) An action, suit or proceeding (whether criminal or civil) does not lie against a person in relation to anything done, or omitted to be done, in good faith by the person if:

- (3) If APRA provides the Treasurer with information about a direction and then later revokes the direction, APRA must notify the Treasurer of the revocation of the direction as soon as practicable after the revocation. Failure to notify the Treasurer does not affect the validity of the revocation.

- this Act does not prevent the Regulator from so appointing that person.
- (5) In deciding whether it is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (4)(c) in relation to a person who is or has been a trustee of a registrable superannuation entity, the Regulator may also take into account any criteria for fitness and propriety that are relevant to the trustee set out in the prudential standards.

- (3) The Federal Court of Australia does not have jurisdiction with respect to criminal proceedings for an offence constituted by a contravention of a civil penalty provision.

203 Application for civil penalty order precludes later criminal proceedings

Criminal proceedings for an offence constituted by a contravention of a civil penalty provision cannot be begun if a person has already applied for a civil penalty order in relation to the same contravention, even if the application has been finally determined or otherwise disposed of.

Division 4—Effect of criminal proceedings on application for civil penalty order

204 When Division applies

This Division applies if criminal proceedings are begun against a person for an offence constituted by a contravention of a civil penalty provision.

205 Effect during criminal proceedings

- (1) An application may be made for a civil penalty order against the person in relation to the same contravention.
- (2) However, such an application is stayed, because of this subsection, until:
 - (a) the criminal proceedings; and
 - (b) all appeals and applications for review (including appeals and applications for review under this Division) arising out of the criminal proceedings;have been finally determined or otherwise disposed of.

206 Final outcome precluding applications for civil penalty order

When the criminal proceedings, appeals and applications for review are finally determined or otherwise disposed of:

- (a) an application for a civil penalty order in relation to the same contravention cannot be made (except under this Division); and
 - (b) such an application that was stayed because of subsection 205(2) is, because of this section, dismissed;
- if the result of the criminal proceedings, appeals and applications for review is:
- (c) a court finding the person guilty of the offence; or

Note: Section 195 defines when a court is taken to find a person guilty of an offence.

Section 207

- (d) the person being acquitted of the offence, unless there is in force a declaration that the person committed the contravention; or

Note: This kind of declaration is made under section 209, 210 or 211.

- (e) a declaration by a court that the evidence in a committal proceeding for the offence could not satisfy the Court, on an application for a civil penalty order, that the person committed the contravention; or

Note: This kind of declaration is made under section 208.

- (f) a declaration by a court that the person committed the contravention; or

Note: This kind of declaration is made under section 209 or 211.

- (g) an order by a court prohibiting an application for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention from being made or from proceeding; or

Note: This kind of declaration is made under section 212.

- (h) the Court, on an appeal or review, affirming, varying or substituting a declaration that the person committed the contravention.

Note: Section 213 applies in this case.

207 Final outcome not precluding application for civil penalty order

If the result of the criminal proceedings, appeals and applications for review being finally determined or otherwise disposed of is:

- (a) a declaration by a court (other than the Court) that the person committed the contravention; or

Note: This kind of declaration is made under section 209, 210 or 211.

- (b) none of the results referred to in section 206;

then:

- (c) if an application for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention was stayed because of subsection 205(2)—the application may proceed; or

- (d) otherwise—such an application may be made and may proceed;

as if the criminal proceedings had never begun.

208 After unsuccessful committal proceeding, court may preclude application for civil penalty order

- (1) If:
 - (a) a proceeding in a court for the commitment of the person for trial for the offence is finally determined or otherwise disposed of without the person being committed for trial for the offence; and
 - (b) that court is satisfied that the evidence in the proceeding could not satisfy the Court, on an application for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention, that the person committed the contravention;the court may declare that it is so satisfied.
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1) is subject to appeal or review in the same way as any other order or decision made in the proceeding.

209 Application for civil penalty order based on alternative verdict at jury trial

- (1) This section applies if the person is tried on indictment for the offence and the jury is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person committed the contravention, but is not satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person did so as mentioned in subsection 202(1).
- (2) The jury may find the person not guilty of the offence, but guilty of the contravention.
- (3) If the jury does so, the court is to declare that the person has, by a specified act or omission, contravened the civil penalty provision in relation to a specified superannuation entity.
- (4) If the court is the Court, it may then proceed to make an order under subsection 196(3) on the application of the prosecutor or someone else who has power under section 197 to apply for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention.

Section 210

- (5) Subsection (4) has effect despite section 198.
- (6) A declaration under subsection (3) is subject to appeal or review as if it were a conviction by the court for an offence constituted by the contravention.

210 Application for civil penalty order based on alternative finding by court of summary jurisdiction

- (1) This section applies if, on the hearing of a proceeding for the summary conviction of the person for the offence, the court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person committed the contravention but is not satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person did so as mentioned in subsection 202(1).
- (2) The court may find the person not guilty of the offence, but guilty of the contravention.
- (3) If the court does so, it is to declare that the person has, by a specified act or omission, contravened the civil penalty provision in relation to a specified superannuation entity.
- (4) A declaration under subsection (3) is subject to appeal or review as if it were a conviction by the court for an offence constituted by the contravention.

211 Application for civil penalty order based on alternative finding by appeal court

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a court finds the person guilty of the offence; and
 - (b) on appeal or review, a court makes an order determining the criminal proceedings for the offence in a way that does not involve convicting the person of that or any other offence; and

- (c) the court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the person committed the contravention.
- (2) The court may declare that the person has, by a specified act or omission, contravened the civil penalty provision in relation to a specified superannuation entity.
- (3) If the court is the Court, it may then proceed to make an order under subsection 196(3) on the application of the prosecutor or someone else who has power under section 197 to apply for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention.
- (4) Subsection (3) has effect despite section 198.
- (5) A declaration under subsection (2) is subject to appeal or review in the same way as any other order or decision that was made on the appeal or review or might have been made.

212 After setting aside declaration, court may preclude application for civil penalty order

If a court sets aside a declaration made under section 209, 210 or 211, the court may, by order, prohibit an application for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention from being made or from proceeding.

213 On unsuccessful appeal against declaration, Court may make civil penalty orders

- (1) This section applies if, on an appeal from, or review of, a declaration made under section 209, 210 or 211 by a court other than the Court, the Court determines the appeal or review by:
 - (a) affirming or varying the declaration; or
 - (b) substituting another declaration for the first-mentioned declaration.
- (2) The Court may then proceed to make orders under subsection 196(3) on the application of the prosecutor or someone else who has power under section 197 to apply for a civil penalty order in relation to the contravention.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect despite section 198.

214 Appeals under this Division

For the purposes of an appeal or review under subsection 208(2), 209(6), 210(4) or 211(5), a law about appeals or reviews has effect with such modifications as the circumstances require.

Division 5—Compensation for loss suffered by superannuation entity

215 On application for civil penalty order, Court may order compensation

- (1) If, on an application for a civil penalty order against a person in relation to a contravention, the Court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the person committed the contravention; and
 - (b) the superannuation entity in relation to which the contravention was committed has suffered loss or damage as a result of the act or omission constituting the contravention;the Court may (whether or not it makes an order under subsection 196(3)) order the person to pay to a trustee of the entity or, if the person is a trustee of the entity, to pay to the entity compensation of such amount as the order specifies.
- (2) A trustee of a superannuation entity may intervene in an application for a civil penalty order against a person in relation to a contravention, unless the application was made under Division 4.
- (3) A trustee of a superannuation entity that so intervenes is entitled to be heard:
 - (a) only if the Court is satisfied that the person committed the contravention in relation to that entity; and
 - (b) only on the question whether the Court should order the person to pay compensation to the trustee because of the contravention.

216 Criminal court may order compensation

- (1) If:
 - (a) a court finds a person guilty of an offence constituted by a contravention of a civil penalty provision in relation to a superannuation entity; and

Section 217

- (b) the court is satisfied that the superannuation entity has suffered loss or damage as a result of the act or omission constituting the contravention;

the court may (whether or not it imposes a penalty) order the person to pay to a trustee of the entity or, if the person is a trustee of the entity, to pay to the entity compensation of such amount as the order specifies.

Note: Section 195 defines when a court is taken to find a person guilty of an offence.

(2) If:

- (a) a court declares under Division 4 that a person has, by an act or omission, contravened a civil penalty provision in relation to a superannuation entity; and

- (b) the court is satisfied that the superannuation entity has suffered loss or damage as a result of that act or omission;

the court may (whether or not it makes an order under subsection 196(3)) order the person to pay to a trustee of the entity or, if the person is a trustee of the entity, to pay to the entity compensation of such amount as the order specifies.

217 Enforcement of order under section 215 or 216

An order to pay compensation that a court makes under section 215 or 216 may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the court.

218 Recovery of profits, and compensation for loss, resulting from contravention

- (1) If a civil penalty provision in relation to a superannuation entity is contravened by a person other than a trustee of the entity, a trustee of the entity may, by proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction, recover from the person, as a debt due to the trustee:
 - (a) if that or another person has made a profit because of the act or omission constituting the contravention—an amount equal to the amount of that profit; and

- (b) if the entity has suffered loss or damage as a result of that act or omission—an amount equal to the amount of that loss or damage;
- whether or not:
- (c) the first-mentioned person has been convicted of an offence in relation to the contravention; or
 - (d) a civil penalty order has been made against the first-mentioned person in relation to the contravention.
- (2) Proceedings under this section may only be begun within 6 years after the contravention.

219 Effect of sections 215, 216 and 218

Sections 215, 216 and 218:

- (a) have effect in addition to, and not in derogation of, any rule of law about the duty or liability of a person because of the person's office or employment in relation to a superannuation entity; and
- (b) do not prevent proceedings from being instituted in respect of a breach of such a duty or in respect of such a liability.

220 Certificates evidencing contravention

For the purposes of this Part, a certificate that:

- (a) purports to be signed by the Registrar or other proper officer of an Australian court; and
- (b) states:
 - (i) that the court has declared that a specified person has, by a specified act or omission, contravened a specified civil penalty provision in relation to a specified superannuation entity; or
 - (ii) that a specified person was convicted by that court of an offence constituted by a specified contravention of a civil penalty provision in relation to a specified superannuation entity; or

Section 220

- (iii) that a specified person charged before that court with such an offence was found in that court to have committed the offence but that the court did not proceed to convict the person of the offence; is, unless it is proved that the declaration, conviction or finding was set aside, quashed or reversed, conclusive evidence:

- (c) that the declaration was made, that the person was convicted of the offence, or that the person was so found, as the case may be; and
- (d) that the person committed the contravention.

Division 6—Miscellaneous

220A Burden of proof—civil proceedings relating to duty to act in best financial interests of beneficiaries

- (1) In civil proceedings for a contravention of subsection 54B(1) in relation to a covenant set out in paragraph 52(2)(c), it is presumed that a trustee did not perform the trustee's duties and exercise the trustee's powers in the best financial interests of beneficiaries, unless the trustee adduces evidence to the contrary.
- (2) If, in such proceedings:
 - (a) a trustee wishes to adduce evidence to the contrary—the trustee bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter; and
 - (b) in the case that evidence to the contrary is so adduced—the Regulator must prove, on the balance of probabilities, that the trustee did not perform the trustee's duties and exercise the trustee's powers in the best financial interests of beneficiaries.

221 Relief from liability for contravention of civil penalty provision

- (1) In this section:

eligible proceedings means proceedings for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (including proceedings under section 218) but does not include proceedings for an offence (except so far as the proceedings relate to the question whether the court should make an order under section 216).
- (2) If, in eligible proceedings against a person, it appears to the court that the person has, or may have, contravened a civil penalty provision but that:
 - (a) the person has acted honestly; and
 - (b) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the person ought fairly to be excused for the contravention;

Section 222

the court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person, because of the contravention.

- (3) If a person thinks that eligible proceedings will or may be begun against him or her, he or she may apply to the Court for relief.
- (4) On the application under subsection (3), the Court may grant relief under subsection (2) as if the eligible proceedings had been begun in the Court.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (2) as applying for the purposes of a case tried by a judge with a jury:
 - (a) a reference in that subsection to the court is a reference to the judge; and
 - (b) the relief that may be granted includes withdrawing the case in whole or in part from the jury and directing judgment to be entered for the defendant on such terms as to costs as the judge thinks appropriate.
- (6) Section 323 provides for additional relief from liability.

222 Part does not limit power to award punitive damages

Nothing in this Part limits a court's power to order someone to pay damages in the nature of punitive damages because of an act or omission constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision.

Part 22—Infringement notices

Division 1—Overview

223 Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

This Part deals with the use of infringement notices if an infringement officer reasonably believes that a provision has been contravened.

A person can be given an infringement notice in relation to a contravention of a provision that is subject to an infringement notice under this Part. The provision may be an offence provision or a civil penalty provision, or both.

A person who is given an infringement notice can choose to pay an amount as an alternative to having court proceedings brought against the person for a contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part. If the person does not choose to pay the amount, proceedings can be brought against the person in relation to the contravention.

- (2) The Chair of APRA must not specify a class of APRA staff members in the determination unless the Chair is satisfied that persons of that class have suitable training or experience to properly exercise the powers of an infringement officer.
- (3) An infringement officer must, in exercising powers as such, comply with any directions of the Chair of APRA in relation to the relevant provision.
- (4) If a direction is given under subsection (3) in writing, the direction is not a legislative instrument.

Division 2—Infringement notices

224 When an infringement notice may be given

- (1) If an infringement officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has contravened a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part, the infringement officer may give to the person an infringement notice for the alleged contravention.
- (2) The infringement notice must be given within 12 months after the day on which the contravention is alleged to have taken place.
- (3) A single infringement notice must relate only to a single contravention of a single provision unless subsection (4) applies.
- (4) An infringement officer may give a person a single infringement notice relating to multiple contraventions of a single offence provision if:
 - (a) the provision requires the person to do a thing within a particular period or before a particular time; and
 - (b) the person fails or refuses to do that thing within that period or before that time; and
 - (c) the failure or refusal occurs on more than one day; and
 - (d) each contravention is constituted by the failure or refusal on one of those days.

Note: For continuing offences, see subsection 4K(2) of the Crimes Act 1914.

224A Matters to be included in an infringement notice

- (1) An infringement notice must:

- (h) state that, if the person to whom the notice is given pays the amount within 28 days after the day the notice is given, then (unless the notice is withdrawn):
 - (i) if the provision is a civil penalty provision and does not also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order will not be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; or
 - (ii) if the provision is a civil penalty provision that can also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order will not be brought, and the person is not liable to be prosecuted in a court, in relation to the alleged contravention; or
 - (iii) if the provision is an offence provision—the person will not be liable to be prosecuted in a court for the alleged contravention; and
- (i) state that payment of the amount is not an admission of guilt or liability; and
- (j) state that the person may apply to the relevant chief executive to have the period in which to pay the amount extended; and

 - (i) if the provision is a civil penalty provision and does not also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; or
 - (ii) if the provision is a civil penalty provision that can also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a

Section 224A

- civil penalty order may be brought, and the person may be liable to be prosecuted in a court, in relation to the alleged contravention; or
- (iii) if the provision is an offence provision—the person may be liable to be prosecuted in a court for the alleged contravention; and
- (l) set out how the notice can be withdrawn; and

- (b) if the provision is a civil penalty provision—one-fortieth of the maximum penalty that a court could impose on the person for that contravention.

Section 224B

224B Extension of time to pay amount

- (1) A person to whom an infringement notice has been given may apply to the relevant chief executive for an extension of the period referred to in paragraph 224A(1)(h).
- (2) If the application is made before the end of that period, the relevant chief executive may, in writing, extend that period. The relevant chief executive may do so before or after the end of that period.
- (3) If the relevant chief executive extends that period, a reference in this Part, or in a notice or other instrument under this Part, to the period referred to in paragraph 224A(1)(h) is taken to be a reference to that period so extended.
- (4) If the relevant chief executive does not extend that period, a reference in this Part, or in a notice or other instrument under this Part, to the period referred to in paragraph 224A(1)(h) is taken to be a reference to the period that ends on the later of the following days:
 - (a) the day that is the last day of the period referred to in paragraph 224A(1)(h);
 - (b) the day that is 7 days after the day the person was given notice of the relevant chief executive's decision not to extend.
- (5) The relevant chief executive may extend the period more than once under subsection (2).

224C Withdrawal of an infringement notice

Representations seeking withdrawal of notice

- (1) A person to whom an infringement notice has been given may make written representations to the relevant chief executive seeking the withdrawal of the notice.

Withdrawal of notice

- (2) The relevant chief executive may withdraw an infringement notice given to a person (whether or not the person has made written representations seeking the withdrawal).
- (3) When deciding whether or not to withdraw an infringement notice (the relevant infringement notice), the relevant chief executive:
 - (a) must take into account any written representations seeking the withdrawal that were given by the person to the relevant chief executive; and
 - (b) may take into account the following:
 - (i) whether a court has previously imposed a penalty on the person for a contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part;
 - (ii) the circumstances of the alleged contravention;
 - (iii) whether the person has paid an amount, stated in an earlier infringement notice, for a contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part if the contravention is constituted by conduct that is the same, or substantially the same, as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention in the relevant infringement notice;
 - (iv) any other matter the relevant chief executive considers relevant.

Notice of withdrawal

- (4) Notice of the withdrawal of the infringement notice must be given to the person. The withdrawal notice must state:
 - (a) the person's name and address; and
 - (b) the day the infringement notice was given; and
 - (c) the identifying number of the infringement notice; and
 - (d) that the infringement notice is withdrawn; and
 - (e) that:
 - (i) if the provision is a civil penalty provision and does not also constitute an offence provision—proceedings

Section 224D

- seeking a civil penalty order may be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; or
- (ii) if the provision is a civil penalty provision that can also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may be brought, and the person may be liable to be prosecuted in a court, in relation to the alleged contravention; or
 - (iii) if the provision is an offence provision—the person may be liable to be prosecuted in a court for the alleged contravention.

Refund of amount if infringement notice withdrawn

- (5) If:
- (a) the relevant chief executive withdraws the infringement notice; and
 - (b) the person has already paid the amount stated in the notice;
- the Commonwealth must refund to the person an amount equal to the amount paid.

224D Effect of payment of amount

- (1) If the person to whom an infringement notice for an alleged contravention of a provision is given pays the amount stated in the notice before the end of the period referred to in paragraph 224A(1)(h):
- (a) any liability of the person for the alleged contravention is discharged; and
 - (b) if the provision is a civil penalty provision and does not also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may not be brought in relation to the alleged contravention; and
 - (c) if the provision is a civil penalty provision that can also constitute an offence provision—proceedings seeking a civil penalty order may not be brought, and the person may not be prosecuted in a court, in relation to the alleged contravention; and

Section 224E

- (d) if the provision is an offence provision—the person may not be prosecuted in a court for the alleged contravention; and
 - (e) the person is not regarded as having admitted guilt or liability for the alleged contravention; and
 - (f) if the provision is an offence provision—the person is not regarded as having been convicted of the alleged offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the notice has been withdrawn.

224E Effect of this Part

This Part does not:

- (a) require an infringement notice to be given to a person for an alleged contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part; or
- (b) affect the liability of a person for an alleged contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part if:
 - (i) the person does not comply with an infringement notice given to the person for the contravention; or
 - (ii) an infringement notice is not given to the person for the contravention; or
 - (iii) an infringement notice is given to the person for the contravention and is subsequently withdrawn; or
- (c) prevent the giving of 2 or more infringement notices to a person for an alleged contravention of a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part; or
- (d) limit a court's discretion to determine the amount of a penalty to be imposed on a person who is found to have contravened a provision subject to an infringement notice under this Part.

Part 23—Financial assistance to certain funds

Division 1—Preliminary

227 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to make provision for the grant of financial assistance for certain superannuation entities that have suffered loss as a result of fraudulent conduct or theft.

228 Interpretation

In this Part:

eligible loss means a loss suffered by a fund as a result of fraudulent conduct, or theft, but does not include an amount that the fund did not receive because of the failure of a person to pay contributions to the fund.

levy means the levy imposed by the Superannuation (Financial Assistance Funding) Levy Act 1993.

229 Application for assistance

(1) If:

 - (c) the court or tribunal is of the opinion that to admit the copy under section 295 in the proceeding as evidence against the other party without the other party having the opportunity so to cross-examine the person or persons would unfairly prejudice the other party;the court or tribunal must refuse so to admit the copy, or must treat the copy as not having been so admitted, as the case requires.

 - (i) has been cancelled or withdrawn since it was quoted; or
 - (ii) is otherwise wrong; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the beneficiary has a tax file number.

 - (b) the person has quoted (for superannuation purposes) (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) his or her tax file number to another person.
- (2) However if, before the time the Commissioner gives the notice, the person specifically requests the trustee not to record the person's tax file number:
- (a) the notice is to be disregarded; and
 - (b) section 299SA does not apply to deem the person to have quoted the tax file number to the trustee when the notice was given.

No civil proceedings under this Act are to be stayed merely because the proceeding discloses, or arises out of, the commission of an offence.

322 Standard of proof

Where subsection (2) applies

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if, in proceedings other than proceedings for an offence, it is necessary to establish, or for the Court to be satisfied, for any purpose relating to a matter arising under this Act, that:

 - (b) if the defendant is a body corporate—a director, servant or agent of the defendant.

Notice to be given about reliance on defence

- (4) If a defence provided by subsection (2) involves an allegation that a contravention was due to:

 - (c) the court grants leave; or
 - (d) both:
 - (i) the defendant has served on the person by whom the proceedings were instituted a written notice giving such information:
 - (A) that would identify, or assist in the identification of, the other person; and
 - (B) as was then in the defendant's possession; and

Section 324

- (ii) that notice is served not later than 7 days before the day on which the hearing of the proceedings begins.

 - (ii) a person charged before that court with a specified offence was, on a specified day, found in that court to have committed the offence but that the court did not proceed to convict the person of the offence;
- is, unless it is proved that the conviction was quashed or set aside, or that the finding was set aside or reversed, as the case may be, conclusive evidence:
- (c) if subparagraph (b)(i) applies—that the person was convicted of the offence on that day; and
 - (d) if the offence was constituted by a contravention of a provision of a law—that the person contravened that provision.

324A Time for instituting criminal proceedings

Despite anything in any other law, proceedings for an offence against a provision of this Act may be instituted within the period of 5 years after the act or omission alleged to constitute the offence or, with the Minister's consent, at any later time.

- (5) At any time when a determination under subsection (4) is in force in relation to a trustee of a superannuation entity, the Regulator may give the trustee a survey form. In that event, the trustee must:
- (a) fill up and supply, in accordance with the instructions contained in the form, the particulars specified in the form; and
 - (b) give the filled-up form to the authorised recipient in accordance with those instructions.

Note: Section 166 imposes an administrative penalty for a contravention of subsection (5) in relation to a self managed superannuation fund.

- (6) A trustee commits an offence if the trustee contravenes subsection (5).

Penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Section 347A

Survey form and determination may be given at the same time

- (7) For the purposes of subsection (5), if a determination under subsection (4) is given to a trustee of a superannuation entity at the same time as a survey form, the determination is taken to have been in force at the time when the survey form was given to the trustee.

Survey period

- (8) The particulars specified in a survey form must relate to one or more specified periods (the survey periods). The instructions contained in a survey form must not require a trustee to give the filled-up form to the authorised recipient before the 28th day after:
- (a) the end of the survey period; or
 - (b) if there is more than one survey period—the end of the most recent survey period.

Extension of lodgment period—particular survey forms

- (9) The Regulator may extend the period within which a particular filled-up form is to be given to the authorised recipient.

Extension of lodgment period—general

- (10) The Regulator may, by notice published in the Gazette, extend the period within which a specified class of filled-up survey forms is to be given to the authorised recipient.

Delegation

- (11) The Regulator may, by writing, delegate to a person any or all of the Commissioner's powers under this section.

Section does not limit other powers

- (12) This section does not, by implication, limit:
- (a) any other provision of this Act; or
 - (b) anything in the Census and Statistics Act 1905.

- (13) In this section:

Regulator means the Commissioner of Taxation.

348 The Regulator may publish statistical information

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Regulator may arrange for the publication of statistical information relating to superannuation entities or relating to payments made to persons.
- (2) The Regulator must not arrange for the publication of statistical information in a manner that enables the identification of:
 - (a) a superannuation entity; or
 - (b) a person.
- (3) The Regulator may determine that fees are to be paid in respect of the supply of publications in accordance with this section.
- (4) In this section:

Regulator means the Commissioner of Taxation.

348A Quarterly reports about superannuation

- (1) As soon as practicable after the end of each quarter, the Regulator must publish the following information on its website in respect of the quarter:
 - (a) the fees charged in relation to MySuper products, on a product by product basis;
 - (b) the costs incurred in relation to MySuper products, on a product by product basis;
 - (c) the net returns to beneficiaries of regulated superannuation funds who hold MySuper products, on a product by product basis;
 - (d) any other information prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The Regulator must not publish the information in a manner that enables the identification of a beneficiary of a regulated superannuation fund.

Section 349

- (4) In this section:

Regulator means APRA.

349 This Act and the regulations to be subject to certain superannuation orders

This Act, the regulations and the prudential standards apply in relation to a regulated superannuation fund subject to the effect of any superannuation order within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979 or the Crimes (Superannuation Benefits) Act 1989 that is made in respect of any member of the fund.

349A Payment out of a fund in accordance with the Bankruptcy Act 1966

If a member of an approved deposit fund or of a regulated superannuation fund becomes a bankrupt, within the meaning of subsection 5(1) of the Bankruptcy Act 1966, nothing in this Act, the regulations or the prudential standards prevents a trustee of the fund from paying to the trustee in bankruptcy an amount out of the fund that is property divisible amongst the member's creditors, within the meaning of section 116 of the Bankruptcy Act 1966.

349B Acquisition of property

- (1) This Act does not apply to the extent (if any) that its operation would result in an acquisition of property (within the meaning of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution) from a person otherwise than on just terms (within the meaning of that paragraph).
- (2) The following subsections do not limit subsection (1).
- (3) If, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because:
 - (a) it would require a person to take action in relation to an accrued default amount; or
 - (b) it would require a person to take action in relation to an asset of the kind mentioned in subparagraph 29SAB(a)(i); or

Section 349B

- (c) it would require a person to take action in relation to an amount held in an entity that is or was an eligible rollover fund;
then despite any other provision of this Act, the person is not required to take that action.
- (4) If, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because it would prevent the charging of a fee of a kind mentioned in paragraph 29SAC(1)(a) or 242C(1)(a), then despite any other provision of this Act, the person is not prevented from charging that fee.
- (5) If, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because it would require or permit a person to use, disclose or publish information, then despite any other provision of this Act, the person is not required or permitted to use, disclose or publish the information in the circumstances that would result in such an acquisition.
- (6) If, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because it excuses a person from liability, then despite any other provision of this Act, the person is not excused from the liability.
- (6A) If, apart from this section, this Act would result in such an acquisition of property because it would require a person to comply with a direction given under this Act, then despite any other provision of this Act, the person is not required to comply with the direction in circumstances that would result in such an acquisition.
- (7) To avoid doubt, any provision that does not result in an acquisition of property continues to apply in relation to:
- (a) action in relation to accrued default amounts; and
 - (b) action in relation to an asset of the kind mentioned in subparagraph 29SAB(a)(i); and
 - (ba) action in relation to an amount held in an entity that is or was an eligible rollover fund; and
 - (c) the charging of a fee of a kind mentioned in paragraph 29SAC(1)(a) or 242C(1)(a); and

Section 350

- (d) the use, disclosure and publication of information; and
- (e) a liability; and
- (f) a direction given under this Act.

350 Concurrent operation of State/Territory laws

It is the intention of the Parliament that this Act is not to apply to the exclusion of a law of a State or Territory to the extent that that law is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.

353 Regulations

- (1) The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters:
 - (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
 - (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act;and without limiting the generality of the above, may make regulations:
 - (c) prescribing fees in respect of any matter under this Act; and
 - (d) prescribing penalties not exceeding 10 penalty units in respect of offences against the regulations.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for and in relation to the keeping of one or more registers by the Regulator, where the registers relate to matters arising under this Act or the regulations. In particular, the regulations may make provision for the following:
 - (a) a register to be kept in such form and manner as the Regulator directs;
 - (b) persons to inspect a register;
 - (c) persons to obtain information contained in a register;
 - (d) fees to be charged for such an inspection or for providing such information.

Part 32—Additional transitional provisions—tax file numbers

381 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to allow a member of a fund, scheme or trust to quote his or her tax file number to the trustee before the commencement of Parts 22 and 24. Those Parts commence on 1 July 1994.

Note: Part 22 was repealed by the Superannuation (Unclaimed Money and Lost Members) Consequential and Transitional Act 1999.

383 Pre-1 July 1994 quotation of tax file number to be treated as if made under provisions commencing on 1 July 1994

- (1) This section applies if a beneficiary or member of a fund, scheme or trust quotes his or her tax file number to the trustee under section 382 as in force immediately before its repeal by the Treasury Laws Amendment (2019 Measures No. 1) Act 2019.
- (2) This Act has effect, after 30 June 1994, as if the beneficiary or member had quoted that tax file number to the trustee under subsections 225(4) and 245(2), as in force immediately before their repeal by the Taxation Laws Amendment Act (No. 2) 1996, immediately after the beginning of 1 July 1994.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
