Note: These benefits may be provided directly from the RSA or from policies paid for using money from the RSA.

- (4) As long as the RSA is maintained to provide one or more of the benefits set out in subsections (2) and (3), it may also be maintained to provide one or more of the following:
- (a) benefits for the holder on or after the termination of the holder's employment with an employer who had, or any of whose associates had, at any time, contributed amounts in the account;

- (2) The statement is not admissible if:
- (a) the proceeding is:
 - (i) a criminal proceeding; or
 - (ii) a proceeding for the imposition of a penalty; other than a proceeding in respect of the falsity of the statement; and
 - (b) before making the statement, the person claimed that it might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

Irrelevant statement exception

- (3) The statement is not admissible if it is not relevant to the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

Related statement exception

- (4) The statement (the subject statement) is not admissible if:
- (a) it is qualified or explained by some other statement made at the examination; and
 - (b) evidence of the other statement is not tendered in the proceeding; and

Section 121

- (c) the person objects to the admission of evidence of the subject statement.

Legal professional privilege exception

- (5) The statement is not admissible if:
 - (a) it discloses a matter in respect of which the person could claim legal professional privilege in the proceeding if subsection (1) did not apply in relation to the statement; and
 - (b) the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

Joint proceedings

- (6) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a proceeding against a person even if it is heard together with a proceeding against another person.

Record is prima facie evidence

- (7) If a written record of an examination of a person is signed by the person under subsection 110(2) or authenticated in any other prescribed manner, the record is, in a proceeding, prima facie evidence of the statements it records.

Admissibility of other evidence

- (8) This Part does not limit or affect the admissibility in the proceeding of other evidence to statements made at the examination.

121 Statements made at an examination: other proceedings

Admissibility of absent witness evidence

- (1) If direct evidence by a person (the absent witness) of a matter would be admissible in a proceeding, a statement that the absent witness made at an examination of the absent witness and that tends to establish that matter is admissible in the proceeding as evidence of that matter in accordance with subsection (2).

Section 122

Requirement for admissibility

- (2) The statement is admissible:
- (a) if it appears to the court or tribunal that:
 - (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness; or

122 Weight of evidence admitted under section 121

- (1) This section applies if evidence of a statement made by a person at an examination of the person is admitted under section 121 in a proceeding.
- (2) In deciding how much weight (if any) to give to the statement as evidence of a matter, regard is to be had to:
 - (a) how long after the matters to which it related the statement was made; and
 - (b) any reason the person may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
 - (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about how accurate the statement is.
- (3) If the person is not called as a witness in the proceeding:

- (a) evidence that would, if the person had been so called, have been admissible in the proceeding for the purpose of destroying or supporting his or her credibility is so admissible; and
 - (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the person has made at any time.
- (4) However, evidence of a matter is not admissible under this section if, had the person been called as a witness in the proceeding and denied the matter in cross-examination, evidence of the matter would not have been admissible if adduced by the cross-examining party.

123 Objection to admission of statements made at examination

Notice of intention to apply to admit evidence and statements

- (1) A party (the adducing party) to a proceeding may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceeding, give to another party to the proceeding written notice that the adducing party:

 - (b) the notice under subsection (3).

Action by court or tribunal

- (6) If subsection (5) is complied with, the court or tribunal may either:
 - (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceeding begins; or
 - (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.

Right to object to admission of statement

- (7) If a notice has been given in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceeding to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceeding unless:

original book, as the case may be, whether or not the copy or extract was made under section 104.

- (2) A copy of, or an extract from, a book is not admissible in evidence under subsection (1) unless it is proved that the copy or extract is a true copy of the book, or of the relevant part of the book, as the case may be.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person who has compared:
 - (a) a copy of a book with the book; or

125 Report under Division 5

Subject to section 126, if a copy of a report under Division 5 purports to be certified by the Regulator as a true copy of such a report, the copy is admissible in a proceeding (other than a criminal proceeding) as prima facie evidence of any facts or matters that the report states an inspector to have found to exist.

126 Exceptions to admissibility of report

- (1) This section applies if a party to a proceeding tenders a copy of a report as evidence against another party.
- (2) The copy is not admissible under section 125 in the proceeding as evidence against the other party unless the court or tribunal is satisfied that:
 - (a) a copy of the report has been given to the other party; and
 - (b) the other party, and the other party's lawyer, have had a reasonable opportunity to examine that copy and to take its contents into account in preparing the other party's case.
- (3) Before or after the copy referred to in subsection (1) is admitted in evidence, the other party may apply to cross-examine, in relation to

Section 127

- (5) If:
- (a) the court or tribunal grants an application or applications made under subsection (3); and
 - (b) a person to whom the application or any of the applications relate, or 2 or more such persons, is or are unavailable, or does not or do not attend, to be cross-examined in relation to the report; and
 - (c) the court or tribunal is of the opinion that to admit the copy under section 125 in the proceeding as evidence against the other party without the other party having the opportunity so to cross-examine the person or persons would unfairly prejudice the other party;
- the court or tribunal must refuse so to admit the copy, or must treat the copy as not having been so admitted, as the case requires.

127 Material otherwise admissible

Nothing in this Division renders evidence inadmissible in a proceeding in circumstances where it would have been admissible in that proceeding if this Division had not been enacted.

benefit of the holder, the RSA provider must, at the time of the transfer and in the manner approved by APRA, inform the other RSA provider or the trustee of the superannuation entity or regulated exempt public sector superannuation scheme of the holder's tax file number.

Exception

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply where an amount is transferred to another RSA or to a superannuation entity or regulated exempt public sector superannuation scheme if, before the transfer, the holder gives the RSA provider a written statement requesting the RSA provider not to inform any other RSA provider or any trustee of the holder's tax file number.

Offence

- (4) An RSA provider that intentionally or recklessly contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.

Part 11 Tax file numbers

Division 3 Quotation, use and transfer of holder's tax file number

Section 138A

Passing on tax file numbers

- (3) The Commissioner of Taxation may inform the provider of an RSA of the tax file number of a holder of the RSA as part of the Commissioner passing on to the provider a request made by the holder under a scheme prescribed for the purposes of section 39A (Portability forms).
- (4) If the Commissioner does so, the holder is:

 - (b) taken to have quoted that tax file number at the time when the Commissioner of Taxation informs the provider of the tax file number.

Division 4—Method of quotation of tax file numbers, including deemed quotation

139 Method of quoting tax file number

A person quotes his or her tax file number to another person in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts if:

- (a) the person informs the other person of the number in a manner approved by APRA or in the approved form (as defined by section 388-50 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953); or
- (b) the person is taken to have quoted the number to the other person in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts under any of the following provisions of this Division.

140 Employee taken to have quoted to RSA provider where RSA provider informed by employer

If:

- (a) an employee is a holder, or is applying to become a holder, of an RSA; and
- (b) the employer informs the RSA provider of the employee's tax file number in accordance with section 132 or 133;

the employee is:

- (d) taken to have quoted the tax file number at the time when the employer informs the RSA provider.

in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts if the Commissioner of Taxation gives to the provider notice of the person's tax file number.

- (2) The holder or applicant is taken to have quoted that tax file number at the time when the Commissioner of Taxation gave the notice.

141 Information provided by RSA provider taken to have been provided by holder

If an RSA provider (the first RSA provider) informs another RSA provider (the second RSA provider) or the trustee of a superannuation entity or regulated exempt public sector superannuation scheme of the tax file number of a holder of an RSA provided by the first RSA provider in accordance with subsection 138(2), the holder is:

- (a) taken to have quoted the tax file number to the second RSA provider or the trustee in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts, or the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the other Superannuation Acts, as the case may be; and
- (b) taken to have quoted that tax file number at the time when the first RSA provider informs the second RSA provider or the trustee.

142 Person claiming benefit taken to have quoted where he or she provided tax file number in connection with claim

- (1) This section applies if a person who considers that he or she is entitled to an RSA benefit applies to an RSA provider for payment of the benefit and sets out in a manner approved by APRA his or her tax file number in the application.
- (2) The person is:

- (a) taken to have quoted the tax file number to the RSA provider in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts; and

- (b) to have quoted the tax file number to the RSA provider at the later of the time at which the quotation took place and the commencement of this section.

Section 143A

Division 4A—Commissioner of Taxation may issue notices about tax file numbers

143A Effect of mistaken quotation of tax file number

- (1) The Commissioner of Taxation (the Commissioner) may give an RSA provider notice of the tax file number of the holder of an RSA if:
 - (a) the provider has made a record of a number (the recorded TFN) the provider believes to be the tax file number of the holder; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the recorded TFN:
 - (i) has been cancelled or withdrawn since it was quoted; or
 - (ii) is otherwise wrong; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied that the holder has a tax file number.
- (2) The holder is taken to have quoted his or her tax file number to the provider in connection with the operation or the possible future operation of this Act and the other Superannuation Acts at a time if:
 - (a) the Commissioner gives the provider a notice under subsection (1); and
 - (b) had the recorded TFN been the tax file number of the holder, the holder would have quoted his or her tax file number to the trustee in that way at the time.

143B Effect of invalid quotation of tax file number

- (1) The Commissioner of Taxation (the Commissioner) may give an RSA provider a notice under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the provider has made a record of a number (the recorded TFN) the trustee believes to be the tax file number of the holder of an RSA; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the recorded TFN:

Section 143C

- (i) has been cancelled or withdrawn since it was quoted; or
 - (ii) is otherwise wrong; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is not satisfied that the holder has a tax file number.
- (2) The notice must identify the holder and state that the Commissioner is not satisfied that the holder has a tax file number.
- (3) If the Commissioner gives a notice under subsection (2), the Commissioner must give a copy of the notice to the holder.

143C Commissioner of Taxation may inform RSA provider of tax file number

- (1) The Commissioner of Taxation (the Commissioner) may give an RSA provider notice of the tax file number of a person if the Commissioner is satisfied that:
- (a) the person is a holder of an RSA provided by the RSA provider, or a person applying to become such a holder; and
 - (b) the person has quoted (for superannuation purposes) (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) his or her tax file number to another person.
- (2) However if, before the time the Commissioner gives the notice, the person specifically requests the provider not to record the person's tax file number:
- (a) the notice is to be disregarded; and
 - (b) section 140A does not apply to deem the person to have quoted the tax file number to the provider when the notice was given.

Note: A consequence is that provisions that require or permit a provider to record or use a validly quoted tax file number do not apply.

143D Validation notice—holders of RSAs

- (1) The Commissioner of Taxation (the Commissioner) may give an RSA provider a notice under subsection (2) if:

Section 143E

- (a) the RSA provider gives the Commissioner information that the RSA provider believes to be:
 - (i) the full name, tax file number and date of birth of a person; or
 - (ii) the full name, tax file number, date of birth and address of a person; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (i) the person is a holder of an RSA provided by the RSA provider, or a person applying to become such a holder; and
 - (ii) the RSA provider is giving the information to the Commissioner in connection with the operation of the RSA; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied, having regard to the information (if any) that the Commissioner has recorded for the tax file number given, that it is reasonable to give the notice.
- (2) The notice must state whether or not the Commissioner is able to validate the information given.
 - (3) To avoid doubt, a notice that the Commissioner is not able to validate the information is not a notice under section 143B.

143E Validation notice—employees

- (1) The Commissioner of Taxation (the Commissioner) may give an employer a notice under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the employer gives the Commissioner information that the employer believes to be:
 - (i) the full name, tax file number and date of birth of a person; or
 - (ii) the full name, tax file number, date of birth and address of a person; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (i) the person is an employee of the employer for whose benefit a contribution to an RSA is to be made; and

Section 143F

- (ii) the employer is giving the information to the Commissioner in connection with the operation of the RSA; and
 - (iii) that use by the employer of the tax file number complies with section 133A; and
 - (c) the Commissioner is satisfied, having regard to the information (if any) that the Commissioner has recorded for the tax file number given, that it is reasonable to give the notice.
- (2) The notice must state whether or not the Commissioner is able to validate the information given.
- (3) To avoid doubt, a notice that the Commissioner is not able to validate the information is not a notice under subsection 202CE(3) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can
