

Statutory Rules 1985 No. 64<sup>1</sup>

Extradition (Internationally Protected Persons) Regulations

I, THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL of the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, hereby make the following Regulations under the Extradition (Foreign States) Act 1966.

Dated 23 April 1985.

N. M. STEPHEN
Governor-General

By His Excellency's Command,

LIONEL BOWEN
Attorney-General

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Extradition (Internationally Protected Persons) Regulations.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“Convention” means the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents (being the Convention referred to in the Crimes (Internationally Protected Persons) Act 1976);

“the Act” means the Extradition (Foreign States) Act 1966.

Application of Act

3. (1) Notwithstanding any limitations, conditions, exceptions, or qualifications to which the application of the Act in relation to each foreign state specified in Part I of the Schedule is subject by reason of sub-section 9 (2) or 11 (2) of the Act, the Act applies in relation to each of those foreign states subject to the Convention.

(2) Notwithstanding any limitations, conditions, exceptions, or qualifications to which the application of the Act in relation to each foreign state specified in Part II of the Schedule is subject by reason of sub-section 11 (2) of the Act, the Act applies in relation to each of those foreign states subject to—

- (a) the Convention; and
- (b) the condition that offences against a law of, or of a part of, that state that are offences of the kind referred to in sub-section 4 (5B) of the Act are extradition crimes for the purposes of the Act.

(3) The Act applies in relation to each foreign state specified in Part III of the Schedule subject to—

- (a) the Convention; and
- (b) the condition that the only offences against a law of, or of a part of, that state that are extradition crimes for the purposes of the Act are offences of the kind referred to in sub-section 4 (5B) of the Act.
