About this compilation

This compilation

This is a compilation of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission Amendment Act 2005 that shows the text of the law as amended and in force on 21 February 2018 (the compilation date).

The notes at the end of this compilation (the endnotes) include information about amending laws and the amendment history of provisions of the compiled law.

Uncommenced amendments

The effect of uncommenced amendments is not shown in the text of the compiled law. Any uncommenced amendments affecting the law are accessible on the Legislation Register (www.legislation.gov.au). The details of amendments made up to, but not commenced at, the compilation date are underlined in the endnotes. For more information on any uncommenced amendments, see the series page on the Legislation Register for the compiled law.

Application, saving and transitional provisions for provisions and amendments

If the operation of a provision or amendment of the compiled law is affected by an application, saving or transitional provision that is not included in this compilation, details are included in the endnotes.

Editorial changes

For more information about any editorial changes made in this compilation, see the endnotes.

Modifications

If the compiled law is modified by another law, the compiled law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law. Accordingly, this compilation does not show the text of the compiled law as modified. For more information on any modifications, see the series page on the Legislation Register for the compiled law.

Self-repealing provisions

If a provision of the compiled law has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law, details are included in the endnotes.

Schedule 1 Abolition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission, consequential amendments and transitional and saving arrangements

Part 2 Consequential amendments relating to the abolition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission

- (ii) loans made by the Aboriginal Development Commission under section 25 of the Aboriginal Development Commission Act 1980; or
  - (iii) loans made by the Aboriginal Loans Commission under section 25 of the Aboriginal Loans Commission Act 1974; and
  - (d) interest received by Indigenous Business Australia on investment of money from the New Housing Fund; and
  - (e) such amounts of the money of Indigenous Business Australia as it determines, in writing, to make available to the New Housing Fund; and
  - (f) such amounts (if any) as are made available by any other person to Indigenous Business Australia for the purposes of the New Housing Fund.
- (3) The money in the New Housing Fund may only be applied:
- (a) in making housing loans to individuals or bodies; or
  - (b) in making loans to individuals or bodies to enable the individuals or bodies to provide housing for Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders; or
  - (c) in making grants of money for the purpose of enabling Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders to obtain housing loans from lenders operating on a commercial basis.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the investment of money under section 18 of the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997.
- (5) Indigenous Business Australia must prepare budget estimates for the New Housing Fund for each financial year and, if the Minister so directs, for any other period specified by the Minister, and must submit estimates so prepared to the Minister not later than such date as the Minister directs.
- (6) Money in the New Housing Fund must not be applied otherwise than in accordance with budget estimates approved by the Minister.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (5):

- (a) if the period from ATSIC abolition day to the 30 June next following that day is more than 6 months—that period; and
  - (b) in any other case—the period from ATSIC abolition day to the second 30 June next following that day;
- is taken to be first financial year for which Indigenous Business Australia must prepare budget estimates for the New Housing Fund.
- (8) A determination by Indigenous Business Australia for the purposes of paragraph (2)(e) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

181B Review of decisions to refuse loans from New Housing Fund

An application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision made by Indigenous Business Australia to refuse a housing loan from the New Housing Fund to an individual.

127 At the end of section 183

Add:

- (3) In this section:

money of Indigenous Business Australia does not include:

- (a) money held in trust by Indigenous Business Australia; or
- (b) money in the New Housing Fund.

128 At the end of section 185

Add:

- (2) In this section, the reference to assets of Indigenous Business Australia does not include a reference to:
- (a) money held in trust by Indigenous Business Australia; or
  - (b) money in the New Housing Fund; or
  - (c) any money owed to Indigenous Business Australia on a housing loan made, or treated as having been made, from the New Housing Fund.

- (1) If, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, proceedings to which the Commission was a party, other than proceedings relating to:
- (a) a class A or class B exempted asset; or
  - (b) a class A or class B exempted liability; or
  - (c) a class A or class B exempted instrument; or
  - (d) a loan or grant made, a security taken, or a guarantee given, under a business loans program;
- were pending in any court or tribunal, the Commonwealth is, on and after that day and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument, substituted for the Commission as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the Commission had.
- (2) If, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, proceedings to which the Commission was a party and that relate to:
- (a) a class A exempted asset; or
  - (b) a class A exempted liability; or
  - (c) a class A exempted instrument;

were pending in any court or tribunal, Indigenous Business Australia is, on and after that day and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument, substituted for the Commission as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the Commission had.

- (3) If, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, proceedings to which the Commonwealth was a party and that relate to a loan or grant made, a security taken, or a guarantee given, under a business loans program were pending in any court or tribunal, Indigenous Business Australia is, on and after that day and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument, substituted for the Commonwealth as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the Commonwealth had.

- (4) If, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, proceedings to which the Commission was a party and that relate to:

- (a) a class B exempted asset; or
- (b) a class B exempted liability; or
- (c) a class B exempted instrument;

were pending in any court or tribunal, the Indigenous Land Corporation is, on and after that day and despite the provisions of any other law or instrument, substituted for the Commission as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the Commission had.

196 Final report and financial statements for Commission

- (1) The Secretary must, as soon as practicable after ATSIC abolition day, prepare and give to the Minister:
- (a) a report on the operations of the Commission during the period (in this section called the closure period) commencing on 1 July 2004 and ending immediately before ATSIC abolition day; and
  - (b) financial statements that relate to the Commission during that period in such form as the Minister administering the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997 approves.
- (2) The report prepared by the Secretary in accordance with paragraph (1)(a):

- (a) must include particulars of any directions given to the Commission during the closure period under section 12 of the ATSIC Act; and
    - (b) must not disclose any matters known to the Secretary to be held sacred by Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders or by any particular community or group of Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders.
  - (3) Subject to any direction by the Minister administering the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997, the financial statements prepared by the Secretary under paragraph (1)(b) must deal with the Housing Fund and the Regional Land Fund separately from each other and from the other finances of the Commission, and must:
    - (a) in the case of the Housing Fund—properly reflect the state of the Fund immediately before ATSIC abolition day; and
    - (b) in the case of the Regional Land Fund—properly reflect the state of the Fund immediately before ATSIC abolition day.
  - (4) A direction referred to in subsection (3) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
  - (5) Before giving financial statements to the Minister under subitem (1), the Secretary must give them to the Auditor-General, who must report to the Minister:
    - (a) whether, in the Auditor-General's opinion, the statements are based on proper accounts and records; and
    - (b) whether the statements are in agreement with the accounts and records and, in the Auditor-General's opinion, show fairly the financial transactions and state of affairs of the Commission; and
    - (c) whether, in the Auditor-General's opinion, the receipt, expenditure and investment of money, and the acquisition and disposal of assets by the Commission during the closure period were in accordance with the ATSIC Act; and
    - (d) such other matters arising out of the statements as the Auditor-General considers should be reported to the Minister.
  - (6) The Secretary and the Auditor-General may, in discharging their obligations under this item, rely on accounts and records of the Commission that are in the possession of the Commonwealth or to which the Secretary is allowed access, and on any other information provided to a person who was a member of the Commission or who was a member of the staff of the Commission.

- (7) The Minister must cause copies of the reports and financial reports, together with a copy of the report to the Auditor-General, to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sittings days of that House after the receipt by the Minister.

197 Certificates relating to assets, liabilities and instruments

- (1) An authorised officer may certify, in writing, that:
- (a) an asset or liability specified in the certificate becomes or became, because of item 192 of this Schedule, an asset or liability of the Commonwealth, of Indigenous Business Australia or of the Indigenous Land Corporation; or
  - (b) an instrument specified in the certificate is a Commission instrument; or
  - (c) an instrument specified in the certificate is a class A or class B exempted instrument; or
  - (d) an instrument specified in the certificate is a business loan instrument.
- (2) The certificate is, in all courts and for all purposes, prima facie evidence of the matter stated in the certificate.
- (3) If:
- (a) under item 192 of this Part, an estate or interest in land becomes an asset of the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation; and
  - (b) a certificate under subitem (1) to that effect is lodged with the Registrar-General, Registrar of Titles or other proper officer of the State or Territory in which the land is situated; the officer with whom the certificate is lodged may deal with and give effect to the certificate as if it were a grant, conveyance, memorandum or instrument of transfer of the estate or interest to the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation, as the case may be, duly executed under the laws in force in that state or Territory.

- (4) If a document purports to be a certificate under subitem (1) or (3) signed by a person purporting to be an authorised officer, judicial notice must be taken of the signature of the person and of the fact that the person is or was an authorised officer.

198 Exemption from taxation

- (1) Any transfer or other dealing under this Part, and any instrument facilitating or evidencing such a transfer or other dealing, is not subject to stamp duty or other tax under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory if an authorised officer certifies, in writing:
- (a) that the transfer or dealing is a transfer or dealing for a purpose connected with, or arising out of, the operation of this Part; or
  - (b) that the instrument facilitating or evidencing a transfer or dealing is an instrument made or given because of, or for a purpose connected with, or arising out of, the operation of this Part.
- (2) A certificate given by an authorised officer under subitem (1) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

199 Repayment of grants and loans

- (1) If, before ATSIC abolition day, the Commission had made a grant to a person or body under Part 2 of the ATSIC Act (other than a grant that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class A exempted asset or a class B exempted asset) on particular terms and conditions:
- (a) the Commonwealth is treated, on and after that day, as if it had made the grant on the same terms and conditions; and
  - (b) if the Minister is satisfied that the person or body has failed to fulfil such a term or condition—the Minister may, on

Schedule 1 Abolition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission, consequential amendments and transitional and saving arrangements

Part 3 Transitional and saving arrangements relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission

- behalf of the Commonwealth, give notice to the person or body receiving the grant that the Minister is so satisfied; and
- (c) if the Commission had, before ATSIC abolition day, given a notice under section 20 of the ATSIC Act to the effect that the Commission was satisfied that the person or body receiving the grant had failed to fulfil a term or condition of the grant—that notice has effect, on and after that day, as if it had been given by the Minister under paragraph (b).
- (2) A person or body to whom a notice is given, or treated as having been given, by the Commonwealth under subitem (1) is liable to pay to the Commonwealth, immediately, an amount equal to:
- (a) the amount of the grant; or
- (b) so much of the amount of the grant as was specified in the notice.
- (3) If, before ATSIC abolition day, the Commission had made a loan to a person or body under Part 2 of the ATSIC Act (other than a loan that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class A exempted asset) on particular terms and conditions:
- (a) the Commonwealth is treated, on and after that day, as if it had made the loan on the same terms and conditions; and
- (b) if the Minister is satisfied that the person or body has failed to fulfil such a term or condition—the Minister may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, give notice to the person or body receiving the loan that the Minister is so satisfied; and
- (c) if the Commission had, before ATSIC abolition day, given a notice under section 20 of the ATSIC Act to the effect that the Commission was satisfied that the person or body receiving the loan had failed to fulfil a term or condition of the loan—that notice has effect, on and after that day, as if it had been given by the Minister under paragraph (b).
- (4) A notice given, or treated as having been given, by the Minister under paragraph (1)(b) or (3)(b) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
- (5) A person or body to whom a notice is given, or treated as having been given, by the Commonwealth under subitem (3) is liable to pay to the Commonwealth, immediately, an amount equal to the sum of:

- (a) so much of the amount of the loan as has not yet been repaid; and
    - (b) any accrued interest that has not been paid;or so much of that amount as was specified in the notice.
  - (6) If:
    - (a) the Commission had, before ATSIC abolition day, made a grant or loan under Part 2 of the ATSIC Act to a person or body on particular terms and conditions; and
    - (b) on ATSIC abolition day the grant or loan is declared to be a class A exempted asset;then:
    - (c) Indigenous Business Australia is to be treated, on and after that day, as if it had made the grant or loan on the same terms and conditions, and, in the case of a housing loan, as if it had made the loan from the New Housing Fund; and
    - (d) if Indigenous Business Australia is satisfied that the person or body has failed to fulfil such a term or condition—Indigenous Business Australia may give notice to the person or body receiving the grant or loan that it is so satisfied; and
    - (e) if the Commission had, before ATSIC abolition day, given a notice under section 20 of the ATSIC Act to the effect that the Commission was satisfied that the person or body receiving the grant or loan had failed to fulfil a term or condition of the grant or loan—that notice has effect, on and after that day, as if it had been given by Indigenous Business Australia under paragraph (d) of this item.
  - (7) A notice given, or treated as having been given, by Indigenous Business Australia under paragraph (6)(d) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
  - (8) A person or body to whom a notice is given, or treated as having been given, by Indigenous Business Australia under subitem (6) is liable to pay to Indigenous Business Australia, immediately, an amount equal to the sum of:
    - (a) in the case of a grant:
      - (i) the amount of the grant; or

Schedule 1 Abolition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission, consequential amendments and transitional and saving arrangements

Part 3 Transitional and saving arrangements relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait
Islander Commission

- (ii) so much of the amount of the grant as was specified in the notice; and
- (b) in the case of a loan:
- (i) so much of the amount of the loan as has not yet been repaid; and
- (ii) any accrued interest that has not been paid; or so much of that amount as was specified in the notice.
- (9) If:
- (a) before ATSIC abolition day, the Commission had made a grant under section 14 of the ATSIC Act to a person or body from the Regional Land Fund on particular terms and conditions; and
- (b) on ATSIC abolition day the grant is declared to be a class B exempted asset;
- then:
- (c) the Indigenous Land Corporation is treated, on and after that day, as if it had made the grant on the same terms and conditions; and
- (d) if the Indigenous Land Corporation is satisfied that the person or body has failed to fulfil such a term or condition—the Corporation may give notice to the person or body receiving the grant that the Corporation is so satisfied; and
- (e) if the Commission had, before ATSIC abolition day, given a notice under section 20 of the ATSIC Act to the effect that the Commission was satisfied that the person or body receiving the grant had failed to fulfil a term or condition of the grant—that notice has effect, on and after that day, as if it had been given by the Indigenous Land Corporation under paragraph (d).
- (10) A notice given, or treated as having been given, by the Indigenous Land Corporation under paragraph (9)(d) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
- (11) A person or body to whom a notice is given, or treated as having been given, by the Indigenous Land Corporation under subitem (9) is liable to pay to the Corporation, immediately, an amount equal to:

- (a) the amount of the grant; or
  - (b) so much of the amount of the grant as was specified in the notice.
- (12) This item does not affect the availability to the Commonwealth, to Indigenous Business Australia or to the Indigenous Land Corporation, of any legal or equitable remedy for a failure to fulfil a term or condition of a grant or loan that was made by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under Part 2 of the ATSIC Act.

200 Restrictions on right to dispose of certain property

- (1) This item applies if an individual or body has acquired an interest in land and any of the following applies:
  - (a) the interest was acquired using money granted to the individual or body by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under paragraph 14(1)(a) of the ATSIC Act;
  - (b) the interest was acquired from the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under paragraph 14(1)(b) of the ATSIC Act;
  - (c) the acquisition of the interest was financed by a loan that was guaranteed by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under section 15 of the ATSIC Act.
- (1A) The appropriate consenting authority may give the individual or body written notice stating that the appropriate consenting authority's consent is not required in relation to any disposal of the interest by the individual or body.
- (2) If the interest is not covered by a notice under subitem (1A), the individual or body must not dispose of the interest without the appropriate consenting authority giving written consent to that disposal.
- (3) The consent must specify the disposal it covers by identifying the person or class of persons to whom the interest is to be disposed of.
- (4) Subitem (3) does not prevent a consent from further specifying a particular disposal in other ways.

Schedule 1 Abolition of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission, consequential amendments and transitional and saving arrangements

Part 3 Transitional and saving arrangements relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait
Islander Commission

- (5) A purported disposal of the interest by the individual or body has no effect unless it is covered by a notice under subitem (1A) or a consent under subitem (2).
- (6) The appropriate consenting authority may attach a condition to a consent by specifying the condition in the document setting out the consent.
- (7) Contravention of a condition does not affect the disposal of the interest by the individual or body.
- (8) The appropriate consenting authority may give the individual or body written notice requiring the individual or body to pay to the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation, as the case requires, the amount specified in the notice if:
- (a) the interest disposed of was acquired by the individual or body either:
    - (i) using money granted by the Commission to the individual or body under paragraph 14(1)(a) of the ATSIC Act; or
    - (ii) by way of a grant of that interest in land from the Commission under paragraph 14(1)(b) of that Act; and
  - (b) the condition attached to the consent to the disposal of that interest was that some or all of the proceeds of the disposal be applied for a purpose specified by the appropriate consenting authority; and
  - (c) the appropriate consenting authority is satisfied that the condition was not complied with.
- (9) The appropriate consenting authority must not specify in a notice under subitem (8) an amount greater than the amount of the grant made to the individual or body under paragraph 14(1)(a) or (b) of the ATSIC Act.
- (10) An individual or body that is given a notice is liable to pay to the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation, as the case requires, the amount specified in the notice.
- (11) Subitems (8), (9) and (10) do not affect the availability to the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land

Corporation, of any legal or equitable remedy for contravention of a condition attached to the consent.

(12) A consent given under subitem (2) or a notice under subitem (1A) or (8) is not a legislative instrument.

(13) In this item:

appropriate consenting authority means:

(a) unless paragraph (b) or (c) applies—the Secretary; and

(b) if the interest in land concerned:

(i) was acquired using money made available to the individual or body by means of a grant made by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under section 14 of the ATSIC Act and the grant is declared to be a class A exempted asset; or

(ii) was acquired using money made available to the individual or body by means of a loan that was guaranteed by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under section 15 of the ATSIC Act and the guarantee is declared to be a class A exempted liability;

Indigenous Business Australia; and

(c) if the interest in land concerned:

(i) was acquired using money made available to the individual or body by means of a grant made by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under paragraph 14(1)(a) of the ATSIC Act from the Regional Land Fund; or

(ii) was granted to the individual or body by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day after the Commission acquired the interest using money from the Regional Land Fund; or

(iii) was acquired using money made available to the individual or body by means of a loan that was guaranteed by the Commission before ATSIC abolition day under section 15 of the ATSIC Act and the guarantee is declared to be a class B exempted liability; the Indigenous Land Corporation.

201 Liabilities taken to be interests in land

- (1) Any liability of an individual, a body corporate or an unincorporated body to the Commission (other than a liability arising under subitem (2) or (3)) arising:
- (a) under the terms and conditions of a grant or loan referred to in subsection 14(2) of the ATSIC Act; or
  - (b) under section 20 or 21 of the ATSIC Act in relation to such a grant or loan;
- is taken, on and after ATSIC abolition day, to be an interest of the Commonwealth in the land to which it relates.
- (2) Any liability of an individual, a body corporate or an unincorporated body to the Commission arising:
- (a) under the terms and conditions of a grant or loan referred to in subsection 14(2) of the ATSIC Act that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class A exempted asset; or
  - (b) under section 20 or 21 of the ATSIC Act in relation to such a grant or loan;
- is taken, on and after that day, to be an interest of Indigenous Business Australia in the land to which it relates.
- (3) Any liability of an individual, a body corporate or an unincorporated body to the Commission arising:
- (a) under the terms and conditions of a grant referred to in subsection 14(2) of the ATSIC Act that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class B exempted asset; or
  - (b) under section 20 or 21 of the ATSIC Act in relation to such a grant;
- is taken, on and after that day, to be an interest of the Indigenous Land Corporation in the land to which it relates.
- (4) Any liability of an individual, a body corporate or an unincorporated body to the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation arising under item 199 or 200 of this Schedule is taken to be an interest of the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation in the land to which the liability relates.

- (5) The land is charged with a payment of all costs and expenses incurred by the Commission, the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation in respect of its enforcement of the liability.
- (6) The land referred to in subitem (1), (2), (3) or (4) is taken, for the purposes of the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 to be alienated Crown land in which all estates or interests not held by the Crown are held on behalf of Aboriginals.
- (7) This item does not apply to a liability arising under subsection 21(10) of the ATSIC Act or under subitem 200(10) of this Schedule.

202 Preservation of model rules

Despite the repeal of subsection 128(12) of the ATSIC Act, the model rules formulated by the Commission under that subsection and in force immediately before ATSIC abolition day have effect, on and after that day, as if they were model rules formulated by the Registrar of Aboriginal Corporations under subsection 128(12) of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005.

203 Transitional provision—Suspension of Regional Councillors before ATSIC abolition day

If, before ATSIC abolition day:

- (a) the Commission had suspended a Regional Councillor under section 122A of the ATSIC Act; and
- (b) the Commission had caused a statement in relation to that suspension to be laid before each House of the Parliament in accordance with the requirements of that section; and
- (c) neither House of the Parliament had, before that day, passed a resolution declaring that the Regional Councillor ought to be restored to office; and
- (d) the period within which such a resolution could be passed had not, as at ATSIC abolition day, finally elapsed;

section 122A of the ATSIC Act as amended by this Act applies, on and after ATSIC abolition day, in relation to that suspension as if:

- (e) that section as so amended had been in force at the time when the Regional Councillor had been suspended; and

- (f) the actions of the Commission before ATSIC abolition day had been actions of the Minister.

204 Transitional provision—Petitions for suspension of Regional Council received by the Commission

If:

- (a) at any time within the period of 6 months before ATSIC abolition day, the Commission had received a petition under section 123 of the ATSIC Act calling for the suspension of a Regional Council; and
- (b) the Commission had not, by notice published in the Gazette, taken action to remove the members of the Regional Council from office or to appoint an administrator to administer the affairs of the Regional Council;

then section 123 of the ATSIC Act as amended by this Act has effect, on and after ATSIC abolition day, as if:

- (c) that section as so amended had been in force at the time when the Commission had received the petition; and
- (d) the petition received by the Commission had been received by the Minister.

205 Former Commissioners on Board of Directors of Indigenous Business Australia or on Board of Indigenous Land Corporation

- (1) A person who was a Commissioner at any time on or after 14 April 2004 and who is, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, a member of the Board of Directors of Indigenous Business Australia, ceases on ATSIC abolition day, by force of this subitem, to hold office as such a member.
- (2) A person who was a Commissioner at any time on or after 14 April 2004 and who is, immediately before ATSIC abolition day, a member of the Board of the Indigenous Land Corporation, ceases on ATSIC abolition day, by force of this subitem, to hold office as such a member.

206 Saving provision—Rights of internal review of decisions made before ATSIC abolition day

- (1) If, before ATSIC abolition day, an agent or delegate of the Commission had refused to make a housing loan under section 14 of the ATSIC Act from the Housing Fund:
  - (a) that refusal is to be treated, on and after that day, as a refusal to make that loan by a delegate of Indigenous Business Australia; and
  - (b) the notice of that refusal given by the agent or delegate of the Commission is to be treated as if it were a notice given by a delegate of Indigenous Business Australia; and
  - (c) the person or body refused that loan may, within 30 days after being notified of the refusal, request that Indigenous Business Australia reconsider that refusal.
- (2) If a request is made in the circumstances set out in subitem (1), Indigenous Business Australia must reconsider the refusal and decide whether to make the loan.
- (3) If, before ATSIC abolition day:
  - (a) an agent or delegate of the Commission refused to make a housing loan to a person or body under section 14 of the ATSIC Act from the Housing Fund; and
  - (b) that person or body had requested the Commission to reconsider the refusal; and
  - (c) that reconsideration had not been completed;Indigenous Business Australia must reconsider the refusal and decide whether to make the loan.

207 Saving provision—Rights of review of decisions made before ATSIC abolition day

- (1) For the purpose of this item, and without limiting the effect of item 193 of this Schedule, each decision of a kind referred to in section 196 of the ATSIC Act that was made by the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission before ATSIC abolition day has effect, on and after that day:

- (a) unless paragraph (b) or (c) applies—as a decision of the Commonwealth; and
    - (b) if the decision related to a grant or loan that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class A exempted asset, or to a guarantee in respect of a loan that is so declared—as a decision of Indigenous Business Australia; and
    - (c) if the decision related to a grant that is, on ATSIC abolition day, declared to be a class B exempted asset—as a decision of the Indigenous Land Corporation.
  - (2) Despite the amendment of section 196 of the ATSIC Act, that section continues in force, on and after ATSIC abolition day, for the purpose of enabling persons or bodies to seek review of decisions referred to in that section that were made before that day as if:
    - (a) the amendments made by those items had not been made; and
    - (b) each reference in that section, as so continued in force, to a decision of the Commission were a reference to a like decision made by the Commonwealth, Indigenous Business Australia or the Indigenous Land Corporation, as the case requires.

208 Rights of review of certain repayment decisions made on or after ATSIC abolition day

- (1) An application may be made on or after ATSIC abolition day to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review of:
  - (a) a decision to give notice to a person or body that is made by the Minister on or after that day under subitem 199(1) or (3); or
  - (b) a decision to give notice to a person or body that is made by Indigenous Business Australia on or after that day under subitem 199(6); or
  - (c) a decision to give notice to a person or body that is made by the Indigenous Land Corporation on or after that day under subitem 199(9).
- (2) In this item:
decision made by the Minister means:
  - (a) a decision made by the Minister; or

- (b) a decision made by a delegate of the Minister on a reconsideration of a decision made by another delegate of the Minister.

209 Offences in relation to guarantees given by Commission before ATSIC abolition day

A person must not, in or in connection with a claim under a guarantee given by the Commission under Part 2 of the ATSIC Act, make a statement that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or present a document that, to the person's knowledge, contains information that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 5 years or 100 penalty units.

210 Transitional provision—Notices under section 124H or 124J of ATSIC Act

Any notice published by the Commission in the Gazette under section 124H or 124J of the ATSIC Act and in force immediately before ATSIC abolition day, has effect, on and after that day, as if it were a notice to the same effect published by the Minister under that section of that Act as amended by this Act.

211 Transitional provision—Determinations in force under subsection 127D(2) of ATSIC Act

Any determination of leave entitlements, other than recreation leave, made by the Commission and in force under subsection 127D(2) of the ATSIC Act as in force before ATSIC abolition day, has effect, on and after that day, as if it were a determination to the same effect made by the Minister under that subsection of that Act as amended by this Act.

212 Saving provision—Conferral of functions under subsection 142AA(1) of ATSIC Act

If the Prime Minister had conferred a departmental function on the TSRA under subsection 142AA(1) of the ATSIC Act as in force before ATSIC abolition day, that conferral continues to have effect, on and after that day, as if it were a conferral of that function under that subsection of that Act as amended by this Act.

---

213 Delegation of powers and functions conferred under this Part

- (1) The Minister may, by written instrument, delegate to:
- (a) the Secretary or any other agency head within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999; or
  - (b) an SES employee or acting SES employee; or
  - (c) the Chief Executive Officer of a Commonwealth authority or an employee of a Commonwealth authority of equivalent rank to an SES employee;
- all or any of the powers and functions conferred on or acquired by the Minister under this Part, other than the power to declare a program of expenditure to be a business loans program, or the power to make a declaration under subitem 192(5) or 193(5).
- (2) The Secretary may, by written instrument, delegate to:
- (a) an SES employee or acting SES employee; or
  - (b) an employee of a Commonwealth authority of equivalent rank to an SES employee;
- the powers and functions of the Secretary under this Part.
- (3) An agency head, within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999, to whom a power or function is delegated under subitem (1) may, by written instrument, delegate that power to:
- (a) an SES employee or acting SES employee; or
  - (b) an employee of a Commonwealth authority of equivalent rank to an SES employee.

Note 1: The expressions SES employee, and acting SES employee are defined in section 17AA of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Note 2: See also sections 34AA and 34AB of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

- (a) a Department of State, a Department of the Parliament or a prescribed Agency within the meaning of the Financial Management and Accountability Act 1997; and
- (b) a Commonwealth authority within the meaning of the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997; and
- (c) a Commonwealth company within the meaning of the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997; and
- (d) a body established for a public purpose by or under a law of the Commonwealth.

Director means the Director of Evaluation and Audit appointed, or taken to have been appointed, under section 193ZA.

evaluate or audit includes evaluate and audit.

individual or organisation includes any person, body corporate or unincorporated body.

Office means the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) referred to in section 193W.

relevant program means a program, or a program component, under which money is provided, including on loan, or a guarantee is given, or an interest in land or other property is transferred, for the purpose of furthering the social, economic or cultural development of Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders.

- (2) A reference in this Part to a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 is to be read as a reference to a person so engaged whose Agency Head, within the meaning of that Act, is the Secretary of the Department.

193W Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs)

- (1) An Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) is established within the Department.
- (2) The purposes of the Office are:
- (a) to evaluate or audit relevant programs administered by Australian Government bodies; and
  - (b) to evaluate or audit the activities of any individual or organisation that has received funding under any relevant program; and
  - (c) to report to the Minister on those evaluations or audits and to report to other Ministers in accordance with the directions of the Minister.

193X Functions of the Office

- (1) The Office has the following functions:
- (a) in accordance with a program developed by the Director under section 193Y, or, in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2), at the request of the Minister—to evaluate or audit:

- (i) relevant programs administered by an Australian Government body; or
  - (ii) particular aspects of the operations of Australian Government bodies, but only to the extent that the evaluation or audit concerns relevant programs administered by such a body; and
- (b) when requested to do so by the Minister—to evaluate or audit the activities of any individual or organisation:
  - (i) who has received money, including money on loan, or an interest in land or other property, from an Australian Government body under a relevant program; or
  - (ii) who has had a loan guaranteed by an Australian Government body under such a program; or
  - (iii) who has derived income or other benefit, directly or indirectly, from money (including money on loan), or a guarantee, provided by an Australian Government body under such a program or from a transfer of an interest in land or other property from such a body under such a program;but only to the extent that the evaluation or audit concerns the money, land or other property, or the guarantee, provided under that program or concerns the income or other benefit derived from such money, land or other property or from such a guarantee; and
- (c) when a funding or loan agreement entered into with any individual or organisation under a relevant program provides that the Office can evaluate or audit the activities of the individual or organisation:
  - (i) that directly or indirectly relate to the use of money provided under the agreement; or
  - (ii) that relate to any matter facilitated by income derived from the use of money so provided;with the consent of the Minister—to evaluate or audit those activities in accordance with that agreement; and
- (d) to report on evaluations or audits conducted under this section in a manner required by the Minister; and

- (e) to inform the Minister about any significant issues that have arisen, or may arise, in relation to audits or evaluations conducted under this section; and
  - (f) to inform the Minister about any issues affecting the independence of the Office.
- (2) In any circumstance where the Minister considers that there is a need for the Office of Evaluation and Audit to evaluate or audit:
  - (a) relevant programs administered by an Australian Government body; or
  - (b) particular aspects of the operations of an Australian Government body, to the extent that the evaluation or audit concerns relevant programs administered by such a body;the Minister may request the Office to conduct such an evaluation or audit whether or not an evaluation or audit would ordinarily be conducted at that time under a program developed under section 193Y.
- (3) The functions conferred on the Office under this section are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any functions conferred on the Auditor-General or any other person by or under any other law of the Commonwealth.

193Y Programs of evaluation and audit

- (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of this section, and before the start of each succeeding year commencing on a 1 July, the Director must develop a program for the evaluation or audit of Australian Government bodies by the Office in the performance of the function referred to in paragraph 193X(1)(a).
- (2) The first program must cover the period ending on 30 June 2007 and each subsequent program must cover a period of 3 years from the 1 July on which it commences.
- (3) The Director may, from time to time, vary a program in force under subsection (1).
- (4) In developing a program under subsection (1) and in making any variation to that program, the Director must have regard to the audit priorities of the Minister and also of the Minister having primary responsibility for indigenous affairs.

- (5) A program for the evaluation or audit of Australian Government bodies developed in accordance with subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

193Z Minister may table reports in the Parliament

The Minister may, in his or her discretion, lay before each House of the Parliament, a copy of any report that is given to the Minister by the Office under this Act.

193ZA Director of Evaluation and Audit

- (1) There is to be a Director of Evaluation and Audit.
- (2) The Director is to be a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 who is appointed as Director of Evaluation and Audit by the Minister.
- (3) The Director is the head of the Office.
- (4) The Director must, as soon as practicable after 30 June in each year, give the Secretary of the Department a report of the operations of the Office during that year for inclusion in the annual report of the Department.
- (5) The office of Director of Evaluation and Audit is not a public office for the purposes of the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.

193ZB Period of appointment

- (1) The Director holds office for the period specified in, or worked out under, the instrument of appointment.
- (2) The period must not be longer than 5 years.

193ZC Acting Director

- (1) The Minister may appoint a person engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 to act as the Director of Evaluation and Audit:
  - (a) during a vacancy in the office of Director; or
  - (b) during any period, or during all periods, when the Director is absent from duty or from Australia or is, for any reason, unable to perform the duties of the office;but a person appointed to act during a vacancy must not continue so to act for more than 6 months.
- (2) Anything done by or in relation to a person purporting to act under this section is not invalid merely because:
  - (a) the occasion for the appointment had not arisen; or
  - (b) there was a defect or irregularity in connection with the appointment; or
  - (c) the appointment had ceased to have effect; or
  - (d) the occasion to act had not arisen or had ceased.
- (3) Any reference in section 193ZD, 193ZE, 193ZF or 193ZG to the Director or to the Director of Evaluation and Audit is taken to include a reference to the acting Director.

193ZD Resignation

The Director may resign by writing signed by him or her and sent to the Minister.

193ZE Termination of appointment

- (1) The Minister may terminate, by writing signed by him or her, the appointment of the Director.
- (2) The appointment of the Director is terminated if the Director ceases to be, for any reason, engaged under the Public Service Act 1999.

193ZF Director not personally liable

The Director is not personally liable in an action or other proceeding for damages for, or in relation to, anything done or omitted to be done in good faith:

- (a) by the Office; or
- (b) by the Director in the capacity of Director.

193ZG Examination of documents etc.

- (1) The Director may, by notice in the Gazette, authorise a person (the authorised person) who is a member of the staff of, or an independent contractor engaged by, the Department to perform functions and exercise powers for the purposes of this section.
- (2) For the purposes of an evaluation or audit relating to an Australian Government body, individual or organisation, the Director or an authorised person may examine documents relating to the Australian Government body, individual or organisation concerned.
- (3) An authorised person must report to the Director on the results of an examination conducted in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of performing the functions conferred by subsection (2) and section 193X, the Director or the authorised person:
  - (a) is entitled at all reasonable times to full and free access to documents relating to the body, individual or organisation; and
  - (b) may make copies, or take extracts from, any such document; and
  - (c) by notice in writing, may require a person:
    - (i) to answer such questions; and
    - (ii) to produce such documents in the person's possession or to which the person has access;within such reasonable period, not being a period of less than 14 days, as is specified in the notice.

- (5) For the purposes of exercising powers conferred by subsection (4), an Australian Government body must provide access to premises (including any land or place) occupied by the Australian Government body, at all reasonable times, to the Director or an authorised person.
- (6) A person may only be required, under paragraph (4)(c), to provide information or to produce a document if the Director or authorised person has reason to believe that the person is capable of providing that information or producing that document.
- (7) A person who fails to comply with a requirement under paragraph (4)(c) is guilty of an offence punishable upon conviction by a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.
- (8) Subsection (7) is an offence of strict liability.
- Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.
- (9) Subsection (7) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.
- Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (9) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9), it is not a reasonable excuse for a person to fail:
- (a) to give information; or
  - (b) to produce a document;
- in accordance with a requirement made of the person, on the ground that the information or production of the document might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty. However:
- (c) evidence as to the giving of the information or the producing of the document; or
  - (d) any information, document or thing obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of the giving of the information or the producing of the document;
- is not admissible in evidence against the person in any proceedings in a court that may expose the person to a penalty, other than proceedings for an offence against, or arising out of, subsection (7) or (11).

- (11) A person who, in purported compliance with a requirement under paragraph (4)(c), makes a statement that is, to the person's knowledge, false or misleading in a material particular, is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.
- (12) Before exercising powers under subsection (4), an authorised person must produce written authority given by the Director as notified in the Gazette under subsection (1). If the authorised person fails to do so, he or she has no powers under that subsection.
- (13) The functions and powers conferred by this section are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any functions or powers conferred on the Auditor-General, or any other person, by or under any other law of the Commonwealth.
- (14) A notice under subsection (1) or under paragraph (4)(c) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

Part 2—Transitional and saving arrangements relating to Office of Evaluation and Audit

2 Transitional arrangement definitions

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

ATSIC abolition day means the day on which Schedules 1 and 2 to this Act commence.

ATSIC Act means the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission Act 1989.

Commission means the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission that was established under section 6 of the ATSIC Act.

Indigenous Business Australia means the body of that name referred to in section 145 of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005.

Indigenous Land Corporation means the body of that name established under section 191A of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005.

Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) means the office, referred to in section 193W of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, that was originally established by section 75 of the ATSIC Act and that became, on ATSIC abolition day, the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs).

Secretary means the Secretary of the Department.

TSRA means the Torres Strait Regional Authority established by section 142 of the ATSIC Act.

3 Office of Evaluation and Audit to continue under new name

The Office of Evaluation and Audit that was established within the Commission by section 75 of the ATSIC Act becomes, by force of this item, on ATSIC abolition day, for the purposes of section 193W of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) established in the Department.

4 Current Director of Evaluation and Audit

- (1) The person holding office as Director of Evaluation and Audit under section 77 of the ATSIC Act immediately before ATSIC abolition day continues, on and after that day, by force of this item and despite section 193ZA of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, to hold office as the Director of Evaluation and Audit as if the person had been duly appointed by the Minister under section 193ZA of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005.
- (2) The person referred to in subitem (1):
  - (a) is taken to have been so appointed under section 193ZA of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, by instrument in writing, for the balance of the term of appointment under section 77 of the ATSIC Act; and
  - (b) is taken to have been so appointed on the same terms and conditions as applied to the person immediately before ATSIC abolition day.
- (3) Despite section 193ZA of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, the person referred to in subitem (1):
  - (a) is entitled to remuneration and allowances in accordance with section 194 of that Act; and
  - (b) is to have such recreation leave entitlements as are determined by the Remuneration Tribunal.
- (4) Section 193ZE of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005 does not apply in relation to the deemed appointment of the person referred to in subitem (1).
- (5) The Minister may grant the person referred to in subitem (1) leave of absence (other than recreation leave) on such terms and conditions, as to remuneration or otherwise, as the Minister determines in writing.
- (6) The Minister may terminate the appointment of the person referred to in subitem (1) as Director of Evaluation and Audit because of incompetence, misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity.
- (7) The Minister must terminate the appointment of the person referred to in subitem (1) as Director of Evaluation and Audit if the person:

- (a) is absent from duty, except on leave granted to that person, for 14 consecutive days or for 28 days in any period of 12 months; or
  - (b) becomes bankrupt; or
  - (c) applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or
  - (d) compounds with his or her creditors; or
  - (e) makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for the benefit of his or her creditors; or
  - (f) fails, without reasonable excuse, to make a disclosure of financial interests equivalent to the disclosure required to be made by an SES employee; or
  - (g) engages in paid employment outside the duties of the office of Director of Evaluation and Audit without the written consent of the Minister.
- (8) The person referred to in subitem (1) holds office on such terms and conditions (if any) in respect of matters not provided for by operation of subitems (1) to (7) as are determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

5 Transitional evaluation and audit functions

- (1) The Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) has, in addition to the functions imposed on it under section 193X of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, the following functions:
  - (a) when requested to do so by the Minister—to evaluate or audit the activities of any individual or organisation who, before ATSIC abolition day, received one or more grants or loans from the Commission, but only to the extent that the evaluation or audit concerns those grants or loans;
  - (b) when requested to do so by the Minister—to evaluate or audit the activities of a borrower, being any individual or organisation, one or more of whose loans were guaranteed, before ATSIC abolition day, by the Commission, but only to the extent that the evaluation or audit concerns those guarantees;

- (c) to report on evaluations or audits conducted in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b), in writing, to the Minister as required by the Minister.
- (2) A requirement under paragraph (1)(c) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
- (3) Subsection 193X(3) and section 193ZG of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005 apply in relation to any evaluation or audit commenced at the request of the Minister under this item.

6 Evaluations or audits begun but not completed before ATSIC abolition day

- (1) If:
  - (a) before ATSIC abolition day, the Office of Evaluation and Audit has begun an evaluation or audit in relation to a body corporate, an unincorporated body or an individual under section 76 of the ATSIC Act, whether at the request of the Minister, the Commission, Aboriginal Hostels Limited, Indigenous Business Australia, the TSRA, or the Indigenous Land Corporation; and
  - (b) that evaluation or audit has not been completed before that day;the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) must continue that evaluation or audit and, subject to subitem (3), report on that evaluation or audit, as if the amendments of the ATSIC Act made by this Act had not been made.
- (2) An instrument under subitem (1) reporting on an evaluation or audit is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.
- (3) If the evaluation or audit is one in respect of which the Office of Evaluation and Audit would have been required to report in accordance with subitem (1) both to the Minister and to the Commission, the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) is required to report only to the Minister.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, the Director of Evaluation and Audit must include in any report of the operations of the Office of Evaluation and Audit (Indigenous Programs) in a particular year that is given under subsection 193ZA(4) of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005, a report of the operations of the Office that are carried out during that year under item 5 and under this item.

- (5) The Office of Evaluation and Audit must:
- (a) under subsection 77(3) of the ATSIC Act, make a final report of its operations for the period commencing on 1 July 2004 and ending immediately before ATSIC abolition day as if that period were a financial year; and
  - (b) ensure that a copy of that report is included in the final annual report of the Commission.

Part 3—Transitional and saving arrangements relating to Regional Councils

47 Transitional arrangement definitions

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears:

assets means property of every kind and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes:

- (a) choses in action; and
- (b) rights, interests and claims of every kind in or to property, whether arising under an instrument or otherwise, and whether liquidated or unliquidated, certain or contingent, accrued or accruing.

ATSIC abolition day means the day Schedules 1 and 2 to this Act commence.

authorised officer means the Minister, the Secretary of the Department or any other person authorised by the Minister for the purposes of this Part.

liabilities means liabilities of every kind and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes obligations of every kind, whether arising under an instrument or otherwise, and whether liquidated or unliquidated, certain or contingent, accrued or accruing.

Regional Council means a Regional Council that was established under section 92 of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005 and was in existence immediately before Regional Councils abolition day.

Regional Council instrument means an instrument subsisting immediately before Regional Councils abolition day:

- (a) to which a Regional Council was a party; or
- (b) that was given to, or in favour of, a Regional Council; or
- (c) in which a reference is made to a Regional Council; or
- (d) under which money is, or may become, payable to a Regional Council; or
- (e) under which any other property is to be, or may become liable to be, transferred to or by a Regional Council.

Regional Councils abolition day means the day Schedule 3 to this Act commences.

Secretary means the Secretary of the Department.

48 Transfer of assets and liabilities of Regional Councils

On Regional Councils abolition day:

- (a) any assets that, immediately before that day, were vested in a Regional Council are, by force of this item, vested in the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the Commonwealth becomes, by force of this item, liable to pay and discharge liabilities or other obligations of a Regional Council that existed immediately before that day.

49 Regional Council instruments

A Regional Council instrument in force under the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005 immediately before Regional Councils abolition day has effect, on and after that day, in relation to everything occurring on or after that day, as if a reference in the instrument to a Regional Council were a reference to the Commonwealth.

50 Pending proceedings

If, immediately before Regional Councils abolition day, proceedings to which a Regional Council was a party were pending in any court or tribunal, the Commonwealth is, with effect from that day, substituted for the Regional Council as a party to the proceedings and has the same rights in the proceedings as the Regional Council had.

51 Certificates relating to assets, liabilities and instruments

- (1) An authorised officer may certify, in writing, that:
  - (a) an asset or liability specified or described in the certificate became, because of item 48, an asset or liability of the Commonwealth; or
  - (b) an instrument specified or described in the certificate is a Regional Council instrument.
- (2) A certificate under subitem (1) is, in all courts and for all purposes, prima facie evidence of the matter stated in the certificate.
- (3) If a document purports to be a certificate under subitem (1) signed by a person purporting to be an authorised officer, judicial notice must be taken of the signature of the person and of the fact that the person is or was an authorised officer.

52 Exemption from taxation

- (1) Any transfer or other dealing under this Part, and any instrument facilitating or evidencing such a transfer or other dealing, is not subject to stamp duty or other tax under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory if an authorised officer certifies, in writing:
  - (a) that the transfer or dealing is a transfer or dealing for a purpose connected with, or arising out of, the operation of this Part; or
  - (b) that the instrument facilitating or evidencing a transfer or dealing is an instrument made or given because of, or for a purpose connected with, or arising out of, the operation of this Part.
- (2) A certificate given by an authorised officer under subitem (1) is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

53 Saving provision—Rights of review of certain decisions made before Regional Councils abolition day

Despite the repeal of section 196 of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Act 2005 by this Schedule, that section as in force immediately before Regional Councils abolition day is to be treated as continuing in force, on and after that day, for the purpose of enabling persons or bodies to seek review of decisions referred to in that section that were made on or after ATSIC abolition day and before Regional Councils abolition day, as if that section had not been repealed.

47 Subsections 203CA(4) and (5)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

Serious or repeated breaches of conditions

- (5) If the Secretary of the Department considers that the representative body:

- (a) has committed, or is committing, serious breaches of conditions to which the provision of funding has been made subject under this Division; or
- (b) has repeatedly breached, or is repeatedly breaching, such conditions;

the Secretary must give to the Commonwealth Minister a written notice informing the Minister of the breaches and stating what measures the Secretary is taking, or proposes to take, as a result of the breaches.

Certain instruments not to be legislative instruments

- (6) An instrument that:

- (a) determines conditions of funding for the purposes of subsection (1); or
- (b) informs the Minister of a breach under subsection (5);

is not a legislative instrument for the purposes of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003.

Note: The heading to section 203CA is replaced by the heading “Conditions of funding”.

48 Saving provision

Despite the repeal of subsection 203CA(4) of the Native Title Act 1993 by this Act, sections 20, 21 and 21A of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission Act 1989 (the ATSIC Act) as in force before the day Schedules 1 and 2 to this Act commence continue to apply on and after that day in relation to any grants to representative bodies made under Division 4 of Part 11 of the Native Title Act 1993 as if:

- (a) the grants had been made on behalf of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the grants had been made under section 14 of the ATSIC Act as in force before that day; and

- (c) references to the Commission in sections 20, 21 and 21A of the ATSIC Act as in force before that day were references to the Commonwealth.

49 Subsection 203D(3)

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can
