Preamble

The Parliament of Australia intends that the following law will take effect according to its terms and be a special law for the descendants of the original inhabitants of Australia.

The law is intended, for the purposes of paragraph 4 of Article 1 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and the Racial Discrimination Act 1975, to be a special measure for the advancement and protection of Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islanders.

1-5 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 2007.

1-10 Act binds Crown

- (1) This Act (except Part 5.8 of the Corporations Act as applied by sections 516-1, 521-1, 526-35 and 526-40) binds the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the States, of the Australian Capital Territory and of the Northern Territory.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a reference in this section to the Crown in a particular right includes a reference to an instrumentality or agency (whether a body corporate or not) of the Crown in that right.
- (3) However, this Act does not make the Crown liable to a pecuniary penalty or to be prosecuted for an offence.

1-15 Geographical application of Act

- (1) This Act extends to the external Territories.
- (2) Each provision of this Act applies, according to its tenor, in relation to acts and omissions outside this jurisdiction.

Each provision of this Act applies according to its tenor to:

- (a) natural persons whether:
  - (i) resident in Australia or an external Territory or not; and
  - (ii) Australian citizens or not; and

If an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is registered under Part 2-3 as a result of an application made under section 21-1, the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation comes into existence as a body corporate with perpetual succession at the beginning of the day on which it is registered.

Note: The corporation remains in existence until it is deregistered (see Chapter 12).

42-3 Effect of registration of existing body corporate under Part 2-3

If a body corporate is registered under Part 2-3 as an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation as a result of an application made under section 22-1, registration under Part 2-3 does not:

- (a) create a new legal entity; or
- (b) affect the body's existing property, rights or obligations (except as against the members of the body in their capacity as members); or
- (c) render defective any legal proceedings by or against the body or its members.

Note: The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation remains in existence until it is deregistered (see Chapter 12).

42-4 Effect of registration of amalgamated corporation under Part 2-3

- (1) This section applies if an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation (the amalgamated corporation) is registered under Part 2-3 as a result of an application made under section 23-1 to register the amalgamated corporation to replace 2 or more existing

- (2) The amalgamated corporation comes into existence as a body corporate with perpetual succession at the beginning of the day on which it is registered.

Note: The amalgamated corporation remains in existence until it is deregistered (see Chapter 12).

- (3) On registration:

- (b) the liabilities of each of the amalgamating corporations cease to be liabilities of the amalgamating corporations and become liabilities of the amalgamated corporation and the amalgamated corporation becomes the amalgamating corporation's successor in law in relation to those liabilities; and
- (c) if any proceedings to which an amalgamating corporation was a party were pending in any court or tribunal immediately before registration—the amalgamated corporation is substituted for the amalgamating corporation as a party to the proceedings; and
- (d) any investigation that was commenced before registration in relation to an amalgamating corporation may be continued after registration as if the investigation were an investigation in relation to the amalgamated corporation; and
- (e) an act or thing done, or omitted to be done, before registration by or in relation to an amalgamating corporation is taken to have been done, or to have been omitted to be done, by or in relation to the amalgamated corporation; and

  - (a) that a specified matter is an exempt matter; or
  - (b) that a specified thing was connected with a specified exempt matter.
- (12) In all courts, and for all purposes (other than for the purposes of criminal proceedings), a certificate under subsection (11) is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

Chapter 3—Basic features of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation

Part 3-1—Introduction

Division 52—Introduction

52-1 What this Chapter is about

This Chapter deals with the internal governance rules, the minimum number of members requirement, names and the powers of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation. It also deals with other basic matters affecting an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.

Part 3-2—Rules dealing with the internal governance of corporations

Division 57—Introduction

57-1 What this Part is about

The rules dealing with the internal governance of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation are of 4 kinds:

- (a) common law rules; and
- (b) rules in this Act that cannot be replaced by the corporation's constitution; and
- (c) replaceable rules in this Act that may be modified or replaced by the corporation's constitution; and
- (d) rules that are in the corporation's constitution.

Some of the rules in paragraph (d):

- (a) may be required by this Act to be in the constitution; or
- (b) may be there to modify or replace a replaceable rule; or
- (c) may be there as a special rule applying to that particular corporation.

This Part deals with the rules in paragraphs (c) and (d) and refers to them as internal governance rules of the corporation (see section 63-1).

Section 57-5

The corporation may choose to adopt all or some of the replaceable rules as rules of its internal governance.

The corporation's internal governance rules must comply with the internal governance rules requirements (see Division 66).

There are a number of ways the corporation's constitution may be changed. Any changes must comply with the internal governance rules requirements (see Division 69).

Division 72 deals with other matters concerning constitutions.

57-5 List of internal governance rules

Division 60—What are the replaceable rules and when do they apply to a corporation?

60-1 Replaceable rules

Which are the replaceable rules?

- (1) A section or subsection whose heading contains the words “replaceable rule—see section 60-1” is a replaceable rule.

To which corporations do the replaceable rules apply?

- (2) The replaceable rules apply to:
- (a) an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation (not being a corporation to which paragraph (b) applies) that is registered on or after the day this section commences (the commencing day); and
  - (b) an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation:
    - (i) that was registered under the Aboriginal Councils and Associations Act 1976 as an Aboriginal corporation immediately before the commencing day; and
    - (ii) that repeals its constitution after the commencing day; except to the extent to which the rules are modified or replaced by the corporation’s constitution as provided for in section 60-5.

60-5 Corporation’s constitution can modify or replace replaceable rules

A provision of a section or subsection of a replaceable rule that applies to an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation can be modified or replaced by the corporation’s constitution.

Note: In modifying or replacing a replaceable rule, an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation must ensure that the matter covered by the original replaceable rule is provided for in the corporation’s constitution. If it is not, then the constitution may not be covering the matters provided for in the replaceable rules (see section 66-1).

Section 60-10

60-10 Effect of constitution and replaceable rules

- (1) An Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation's constitution, and any replaceable rules that apply to the corporation, have effect as a contract:
  - (a) between the corporation and each member; and
  - (b) between the corporation and each director and corporation secretary; and
  - (c) between a member and each other member.
- (2) Under the contract, each person agrees to observe and perform the requirements of the constitution and rules so far as they apply to that person.

60-15 Failure to comply with replaceable rules

A failure to comply with the replaceable rules as they apply to an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is not of itself a contravention of this Act (so the provisions about criminal liability, civil liability and injunctions do not apply).

60-20 Modification by regulations

- (1) The regulations may modify the replaceable rules in relation to:
  - (a) a specified Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation; or
  - (b) a specified class of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may:
  - (a) modify or repeal the replaceable rules; and
  - (b) set out new replaceable rules.

Division 63—What are the internal governance rules of a corporation?

63-1 Meaning of internal governance rules

The following constitute the internal governance rules of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation:

- (a) the replaceable rules (if any) applying to the corporation;
- (b) the rules (if any) in the corporation's constitution that modify or replace some or all of the replaceable rules;
- (c) the rules (if any) in the corporation's constitution providing for the resolution of disputes between the corporation and persons who are or who claim to be common law holders of native title;
- (d) the other rules dealing with the internal governance of the corporation that are in the corporation's constitution.

Division 66—What are the internal governance rules requirements?

66-1 Requirements

- (1) The following are the internal governance rules requirements for an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation.
- (2) The corporation must have a constitution written in English that sets out the corporation's objects.
- (3) The corporation's constitution must cover the matters that this Act specifies must be covered in the corporation's constitution.
- (3A) The corporation's constitution must provide for the resolution of disputes internal to the operation of the corporation.
- (3B) If:
  - (a) the application for registration of the corporation seeks registration for the purpose of becoming a registered native title body corporate; or
  - (b) the corporation is a registered native title body corporate; the corporation's constitution must provide for the resolution of disputes between the corporation and a person who is or who claims to be a common law holder of native title (whether or not the person is a member of the corporation) in relation to:
    - (c) whether or not the person is a common law holder of native title; or
    - (d) the corporation's performance of its functions under the Native Title legislation.
- (4) The internal governance rules must cover the matters that are provided for in the replaceable rules (see section 66-5).
- (5) The internal governance rules must also be:
  - (a) internally consistent; and

Section 66-5

---

- (b) adequate and workable, given the context in which the corporation operates; and
  - (c) consistent with this Act; and
  - (d) consistent with the Native Title legislation if:
    - (i) the application for registration of the corporation seeks registration for the purpose of becoming a registered native title body corporate; or
    - (ii) the corporation is a registered native title body corporate.
- (6) The corporation must meet the requirements at all times after registration.

Note 1: An application for registration of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation may not be successful unless the corporation, on registration, is complying with the requirements (see section 29-20).

Note 2: If an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is making a change to its constitution and the Registrar is of the opinion that the corporation's internal governance rules, after the change, would not comply with the internal governance rules requirements, the Registrar may refuse to register the change (see section 69-30).

66-5 Meaning of *cover the matters provided for in the replaceable rules

If all replaceable rules apply or all are replaced

- (1) The internal governance rules of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation cover the matters provided for in the replaceable rules if:
- (a) all of the replaceable rules apply to the corporation; or
  - (b) none of the replaceable rules apply to the corporation and the corporation's constitution covers all of the matters provided for in the replaceable rules.

Section 66-5

If some replaceable rules apply and some are modified or replaced

- (2) The internal governance rules of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation also cover the matters provided for in the replaceable rules if:
- (a) some of the replaceable rules apply to the corporation; and
  - (b) the corporation's constitution provides for the matters covered by the replaceable rules that the corporation has modified or replaced.

Corporation may also have other rules unrelated to the replaceable rules in its constitution

- (3) To avoid doubt, and subject to the internal governance rules requirements, nothing in this Part precludes the constitution of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation providing for a matter that is in addition to those matters provided for in the replaceable rules.

Regulations may modify section

- (4) The regulations may modify this section.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (4), the regulations may provide for further situations in which the internal governance rules of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation cover the matters provided for in the replaceable rules.

  - (b) the applicant is acting in good faith; and
  - (c) it is in the best interests of the corporation that the applicant be granted leave; and
  - (d) if the applicant is applying for leave to bring proceedings—there is a serious question to be tried; and
  - (e) either:

169-15 Effect of ratification by members

Exercise of proxies

- (4) A person must not exercise proxies for more than the number of members:

A particularly important duty that is imposed on the directors of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is the obligation imposed by section 588G of the Corporations Act (as applied by section 531-1 of this Act) not to incur debts, make distributions to members or enter into uncommercial transactions when the corporation is insolvent.

Division 274 deals with the powers of directors.

- (a) takes effect as soon as it is given; and
- (b) ceases to have effect if a person who was not a director of the corporation at the time when the notice was given is appointed as a director of the corporation.

A standing notice that ceases to have effect under paragraph (b) commences to have effect again if it is given to the person referred to in that paragraph.

Note: The notice may be given to the person referred to in paragraph (b) by someone other than the director to whose interests it relates (for example, by the secretary).

Effect of material increase in nature or extent of interest

- (6) The standing notice ceases to have effect in relation to a particular interest if the nature or extent of the interest materially increases above that disclosed in the notice.

Effect of contravention by director

- (7) A contravention of this section by a director does not affect the validity of any act, transaction, agreement, instrument, resolution or other thing.

268-15 Interaction of sections 268-1 and 268-10 with other laws etc.

Sections 268-1 and 268-10 have effect in addition to, and not in derogation of:

- (a) any general law rule about conflicts of interest; and
- (b) any provision in an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation's constitution (if any) that restricts a director from:
  - (i) having a material personal interest in a matter; or

  - (c) for any other reason, the interest does not need to be disclosed under section 268-1.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (2) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

Note 2: Because section 268-5 provides that certain interests a director has as a common law holder of native title do not need to be disclosed, those interests will not prevent the director from being present and voting.

- (3) An offence against subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Participation with approval of other directors

- (4) The director may be present and vote if directors who do not have a material personal interest in the matter have passed a resolution that:
- (a) identifies the director, the nature and extent of the director's interest in the matter and its relation to the affairs of the corporation; and
  - (b) states that those directors are satisfied that the interest should not disqualify the director from voting or being present.

Chapter 6 Officers

Section 268-25

- (a) be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
  - (b) vote on the matter; or
  - (c) both be present and vote.
- (2) A declaration under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

Section 268-25

---

- (3) However, the Registrar may only make the declaration if:
  - (a) the number of directors entitled to be present and vote on the matter would be less than the quorum for a directors' meeting if the director were not allowed to vote on the matter at the meeting; and

The order may be made in respect of a specified class of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation, directors, resolutions or interests.
- (6) An order made under subsection (5) in respect of a class of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is a legislative instrument.

These provisions are the civil penalty provisions.

Note: Once a declaration has been made, the Registrar can then seek a pecuniary penalty order (section 386-10) or a disqualification order (section 279-15).

Declarations to specify certain matters

- (2) A declaration of contravention must specify the following:
- (a) the Court that made the declaration;
  - (b) the civil penalty provision that was contravened;
  - (c) the person who contravened the provision;

- (d) the conduct that constituted the contravention;
- (e) the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island corporation affected by the contravention.

386-10 Pecuniary penalty orders

Pecuniary penalties

Responsibilities of secretaries for certain corporate contraventions

- (1A) Without limiting subsection (1), if a declaration of contravention by a person of subsection 265-40(1) has been made under section 386-1, a Court may order the person to pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty of up to $3,000.

Penalty a civil debt etc.

- (2) The penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth. The Registrar, or the Commonwealth, may enforce the order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

386-15 Compensation orders—civil penalty provisions

Compensation for damage suffered

- (1) A Court may order a person to compensate an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation for damage suffered by the corporation if:
  - (a) the person has contravened a civil penalty provision in relation to the corporation; and

Note: An order may be made under this subsection whether or not a declaration of contravention has been made under section 386-1.

Damage includes profits

- (2) In determining the damage suffered by the corporation for the purposes of making a compensation order, include profits made by any person resulting from the contravention.

- (3) The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation affected by the contravention of a civil penalty provision may intervene in an application for a declaration of contravention or a pecuniary penalty order in relation to the corporation. The corporation is entitled to be heard on all matters other than whether the declaration or order should be made.

No one else may apply

- (4) No person may apply for a declaration of contravention, a pecuniary penalty order or a compensation order unless permitted by this section.

Note: In certain circumstances, a person may bring proceedings in the name of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation (see Division 169).

- (a) a declaration of contravention has been made against the person; or
- (b) a pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person; or
- (c) a compensation order has been made against the person; or
- (d) the person has been disqualified from managing an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation under Part 6-5.

386-50 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:

- (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.

- (1) The Registrar may require a person to give all reasonable assistance in connection with:

  - (b) the person required to assist is, in relation to a person who is or should be a defendant in the proceedings:
    - (i) an employee or agent (including a banker or auditor) of the other person; or
    - (ii) if the other person is a body corporate—an officer or employee of the other person; or
    - (iii) if the other person is an individual—a partner of the other person.
- (5) The Registrar can require the person to assist regardless of whether:
  - (a) an application for the declaration or penalty order has actually been made; or
  - (b) criminal proceedings for the offence have actually begun.
- (6) The person cannot be required to assist if they are or have been a lawyer for:

- (7) The requirement to assist must be given in writing.
- (8) The Court may order the person to comply with the requirement in a specified way. Only the Registrar may apply to the Court for an order under this subsection.

Note: The person must comply with the requirement and may commit an offence if they do not, even if there is no order under this subsection (see section 694-100).

- (2) If:
- (a) proceedings to which this section applies are brought against a person; and
  - (b) in the proceedings it appears to the court that the person has, or may have, contravened a civil penalty provision but that:
    - (i) the person has acted honestly; and
    - (ii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including, where applicable, those connected with the person's appointment as an officer, or employment as an employee, of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation), the person ought fairly to be excused for the contravention;
- the court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person, because of the contravention.
- (3) In determining under subsection (2) whether a person ought fairly to be excused for a contravention of section 588G of the Corporations Act (as applied by section 531-1 of this Act), the matters to which regard is to be had include, but are not limited to:
- (a) any action the person took with a view to:

- (c) the results of that action.
- (4) If a person thinks that proceedings to which this section applies will or may be begun against them, they may apply to the Court for relief.
- (5) On an application under subsection (4), the Court may grant relief under subsection (2) as if the proceedings had been begun in the Court.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (2) as applying for the purposes of a case tried by a judge with a jury:
  - (a) a reference in that subsection to the court is a reference to the judge; and
  - (b) the relief that may be granted includes withdrawing the case in whole or in part from the jury and directing judgment to be entered for the defendant on such terms as to costs as the judge thinks appropriate.
- (7) Nothing in this section limits, or is limited by, section 576-1.

- (6) The writing referred to in subsection (5) need not bear a certificate or signature in order to be taken to purport to have been prepared by the Registrar.

- (7) Nothing in this section limits, or is limited by, any other provision of this Part.

424-10 Registrar's certificate that person was a director etc.

The Registrar may certify that a person was a director, secretary or contact person of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation at a particular time or during a particular period. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, a certificate is proof of the matters stated in it.

Division 482—Introduction

482-1 What this Chapter is about

This Chapter deals with the various ways in which the management of some or all of the affairs of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation may be assumed by someone other than the directors of the corporation.

There are basically 4 ways in which this can happen:

- (a) The Registrar may appoint a special administrator for the corporation under Part 11-2.
- (b) A receiver, or another controller, of the corporation's property may be appointed under the provisions of Part 5.2 of the Corporations Act (as applied by Part 11-3 of this Act).
- (c) An administrator for the corporation may be appointed under Part 5.3A of the Corporations Act (as applied by Part 11-4 of this Act).
- (d) The corporation may be wound up on the grounds set out in Part 11-5 of this Act (with the winding up being carried out under Chapter 5 of the Corporations Act as applied by Part 11-5 of this Act).

Section 482-1

---

The following Parts of this Chapter also apply some other provisions of the Corporations Act to an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation:

- (a) Part 11-6 applies Divisions 3, 4, 5 and 6 of Part 5.7B of the Corporations Act (which deal with insolvent trading and creditor-defeating dispositions);
- (b) Part 11-7 applies Part 5.8A of the Corporations Act (which deals with employee entitlements).

  - (a) must not make a determination under subsection (1) if:
    - (i) the corporation is being wound up; or
    - (ii) a liquidator of the corporation has been appointed; and
  - (b) may make a determination under subsection (1) even if the corporation is being administered under Part 5.3A of the Corporations Act (as applied by section 521-1 of this Act).
- (4) The Registrar may make a determination under subsection (1) only if the Registrar is satisfied that at least one of the grounds set out in section 487-5 is satisfied.
- (5) The Registrar must make a determination under subsection (1) in accordance with section 487-10.

4	civil penalty provision	civil penalty provision (within the meaning of this Act)

Note: Although section 526-35 applies the provisions of Part 5.7B to the winding up of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation, the insolvent trading and creditor-defeating disposition provisions are capable of applying independently of there being a winding up. This section ensures, for example, that a director of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation commits an offence if the corporation trades while insolvent (regardless of whether winding up proceedings are ever commenced).

- (2) This section has effect without limiting section 526-35.

Section 531-5

the director's duty under section 588G, 588GAB or 588GAC of the Corporations Act as so applied prevails, and the director is released from the first-mentioned duty, to the extent of the conflict.

- (2) The corporation is released from the duty to comply with its Native Title legislation obligations to the extent that complying with them would place a director of the corporation in breach of his or her duty in relation to the corporation under section 588G, 588GAB or 588GAC of the Corporations Act as so applied.

Note: Although section 526-35 applies the provisions of Part 5.8A to the winding up of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation, the employees' entitlements provisions are capable of applying independently of there being a winding up. - (3) Under subsection (2), the Registrar takes only the same property rights that the corporation itself held. If the corporation held particular property subject to a security or other interest or claim, the Registrar takes the property subject to that interest or claim.
- (4) The Registrar has all the powers of an owner over property vested in the Registrar under subsection (2).

Note: See also subsection 546-25(3), which deals with liabilities that a law imposes on the property (particularly liabilities such as rates, taxes and other charges).

Strict liability offences

- (7) An offence based on subsection (5) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

  - (d) all accounts, vouchers, receipts and papers relating to the property and that money.

546-30 Registrar's power to fulfil outstanding obligations of deregistered corporation

The Registrar may do an act on behalf of the corporation or its liquidator if the Registrar is satisfied that the corporation or liquidator would be bound to do the act if the corporation still existed.

Note: This power is a general one and is not limited to acts in relation to property vested in the Registrar under subsection 546-20(2). The Registrar has all the powers that automatically flow from the vesting of property in the Registrar under that subsection (see subsection 546-20(4)) and may exercise those powers whether or not the corporation was bound to do so.

Note: For example, the Court may direct the Registrar to transfer to another person property vested in the Registrar under subsection 546-20(2).

Registrar to give notice of reinstatement

- (4) The Registrar must give notice of a reinstatement in the Gazette. If the Registrar exercises his or her power under subsection (1) in response to an application by a person, the Registrar must also give notice of the reinstatement to the applicant.

Effect of reinstatement

- (5) If an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporation is reinstated:
- (a) the corporation is taken to have continued in existence as if it had not been deregistered; and
  - (b) a person who was a director of the corporation immediately before deregistration becomes a director again as from the time when the Registrar or the Court reinstates the corporation; and

  - (b) any practice or pattern of behaviour affecting the second entity's financial or operating policies is to be taken into account (even if it involves a breach of an agreement or a breach of trust).

- (3) The first entity does not control the second entity merely because the first entity and a third entity jointly have the capacity to determine the outcome of decisions about the second entity's financial and operating policies.
