Division 2—Object of this Act

3 Object of this Act

The object of this Act is to provide a balanced framework for cooperative and productive workplace relations that promotes national economic prosperity and social inclusion for all Australians by:

- (a) providing workplace relations laws that are fair to working Australians, are flexible for businesses, promote productivity and economic growth for Australia's future economic prosperity and take into account Australia's international labour obligations; and
- (b) ensuring a guaranteed safety net of fair, relevant and enforceable minimum terms and conditions through the National Employment Standards, modern awards and national minimum wage orders; and
- (c) ensuring that the guaranteed safety net of fair, relevant and enforceable minimum wages and conditions can no longer be undermined by the making of statutory individual employment agreements of any kind given that such agreements can never be part of a fair workplace relations system; and
- (d) assisting employees to balance their work and family responsibilities by providing for flexible working arrangements; and
- (e) enabling fairness and representation at work and the prevention of discrimination by recognising the right to freedom of association and the right to be represented, protecting against unfair treatment and discrimination, providing accessible and effective procedures to resolve grievances and disputes and providing effective compliance mechanisms; and
- (f) achieving productivity and fairness through an emphasis on enterprise-level collective bargaining underpinned by simple good faith bargaining obligations and clear rules governing industrial action; and

- (g) acknowledging the special circumstances of small and medium-sized businesses.

Main terms and conditions

- (3) Part 2-2 contains the National Employment Standards, which are minimum terms and conditions that apply to all national system employees.

An enterprise agreement can have terms that are ancillary or supplementary to the National Employment Standards.

19 Meaning of industrial action

- (1) Industrial action means action of any of the following kinds:
- (a) the performance of work by an employee in a manner different from that in which it is customarily performed, or the adoption of a practice in relation to work by an employee, the result of which is a restriction or limitation on, or a delay in, the performance of the work;
 - (b) a ban, limitation or restriction on the performance of work by an employee or on the acceptance of or offering for work by an employee;
 - (c) a failure or refusal by employees to attend for work or a failure or refusal to perform any work at all by employees who attend for work;

Note: In Automotive, Food, Metals, Engineering, Printing and Kindred Industries Union v The Age Company Limited, PR946290, the Full Bench of the Australian Industrial Relations Commission considered the nature of industrial action and noted that action will not be industrial in character if it stands completely outside the area of dispute and bargaining.

- (2) However, industrial action does not include the following:
- (a) action by employees that is authorised or agreed to by the employer of the employees;
 - (b) action by an employer that is authorised or agreed to by, or on behalf of, employees of the employer;

Agreed ordinary hours of work

- (1) The ordinary hours of work of an award/agreement free employee are the hours agreed by the employee and his or her national system employer as the employee's ordinary hours of work.

If there is no agreement

- (2) If there is no agreement about ordinary hours of work for an award/agreement free employee, the ordinary hours of work of the employee in a week are:

 - (b) for an employee who is not a full-time employee—the lesser of:

- (a) 38 hours; and
 - (b) the employee's usual weekly hours of work.

Regulations may prescribe usual weekly hours

- (4) For an award/agreement free employee who is not a full-time employee and who does not have usual weekly hours of work, the regulations may prescribe, or provide for the determination of, hours that are taken to be the employee's usual weekly hours of work for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3).

- (a) defines or describes the employee as a pieceworker, if the employee is covered by a modern award that is in operation and does not include such a term; or
- (b) does not define or describe the employee as a pieceworker, if the employee is covered by a modern award that is in operation and includes such a term.

- (2) Without limiting the way in which a class may be described for the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the class may be described by reference to one or more of the following:
 - (a) a particular industry or part of an industry;
 - (b) a particular kind of work;
 - (c) a particular type of employment.

Section 22

22 Meanings of service and continuous service

General meaning

- (1) A period of service by a national system employee with his or her national system employer is a period during which the employee is employed by the employer, but does not include any period (an excluded period) that does not count as service because of subsection (2).
- (2) The following periods do not count as service:
 - (a) any period of unauthorised absence;
 - (b) any period of unpaid leave or unpaid authorised absence, other than:
 - (i) a period of absence under Division 8 of Part 2-2 (which deals with community service leave); or
 - (ii) a period of stand down under Part 3-5, under an enterprise agreement that applies to the employee, or under the employee's contract of employment; or
 - (iii) a period of leave or absence of a kind prescribed by the regulations;
 - (c) any other period of a kind prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) An excluded period does not break a national system employee's continuous service with his or her national system employer, but does not count towards the length of the employee's continuous service.
- (3A) Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (2)(c) may prescribe different kinds of periods for the purposes of different provisions of this Act (other than provisions to which subsection (4) applies). If they do so, subsection (3) applies accordingly.

Meaning for Divisions 4 and 5, and Subdivision A of Division 11, of Part 2-2

- (4) For the purposes of Divisions 4 and 5, and Subdivision A of Division 11, of Part 2-2:

Section 22

- (a) a period of service by a national system employee with his or her national system employer is a period during which the employee is employed by the employer, but does not include:
 - (i) any period of unauthorised absence; or
 - (ii) any other period of a kind prescribed by the regulations; and
- (b) a period referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) or (ii) does not break a national system employee's continuous service with his or her national system employer, but does not count towards the length of the employee's continuous service; and
- (c) subsections (1), (2) and (3) do not apply.

Note: Divisions 4 and 5, and Subdivision A of Division 11, of Part 2-2 deal, respectively, with requests for flexible working arrangements, parental leave and related entitlements, and notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice.

- (4A) Regulations made for the purposes of subparagraph (4)(a)(ii) may prescribe different kinds of periods for the purposes of different provisions to which subsection (4) applies. If they do so, paragraph (4)(b) applies accordingly.

When service with one employer counts as service with another employer

- (5) If there is a transfer of employment (see subsection (7)) in relation to a national system employee:
- (a) any period of service of the employee with the first employer counts as service of the employee with the second employer; and
 - (b) the period between the termination of the employment with the first employer and the start of the employment with the second employer does not break the employee's continuous service with the second employer (taking account of the effect of paragraph (a)), but does not count towards the length of the employee's continuous service with the second employer.

Note: This subsection does not apply to a transfer of employment between non-associated entities, for the purpose of Division 6 of Part 2-2 (which deals with annual leave) or Subdivision B of Division 11 of Part 2-2 (which deals with redundancy pay), if the second employer decides not to recognise the employee's service with the first employer for the purpose of that Division or Subdivision (see subsections 91(1) and 122(1)).

- (6) If the national system employee has already had the benefit of an entitlement the amount of which was calculated by reference to a period of service with the first employer, subsection (5) does not result in that period of service with the first employer being counted again when calculating the employee's entitlements of that kind as an employee of the second employer.

Note: For example:

- (a) the accrued paid annual leave to which the employee is entitled as an employee of the second employer does not include any period of paid annual leave that the employee has already taken as an employee of the first employer; and
- (b) if an employee receives notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice in relation to a period of service with the first employer, that period of service is not counted again in calculating the amount of notice of termination, or payment in lieu, to which the employee is entitled as an employee of the second employer.

Meaning of transfer of employment etc.

- (7) There is a transfer of employment of a national system employee from one national system employer (the first employer) to another national system employer (the second employer) if:
- (a) the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (i) the employee becomes employed by the second employer not more than 3 months after the termination of the employee's employment with the first employer;
 - (ii) the first employer and the second employer are associated entities when the employee becomes employed by the second employer; or
 - (b) the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (i) the employee is a transferring employee in relation to a transfer of business from the first employer to the second employer;
 - (ii) the first employer and the second employer are not associated entities when the employee becomes employed by the second employer.

Section 23

Note: Paragraph (a) applies whether or not there is a transfer of business from the first employer to the second employer.

- (8) A transfer of employment:
- (a) is a transfer of employment between associated entities if paragraph (7)(a) applies; and
 - (b) is a transfer of employment between non-associated entities if paragraph (7)(b) applies.

23 Meaning of small business employer

- (1) A national system employer is a small business employer at a particular time if the employer employs fewer than 15 employees at that time.
- (2) For the purpose of calculating the number of employees employed by the employer at a particular time:
 - (a) subject to paragraph (b), all employees employed by the employer at that time are to be counted; and
 - (b) a casual employee is not to be counted unless, at that time, he or she has been employed by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.
- (3) For the purpose of calculating the number of employees employed by the employer at a particular time, associated entities are taken to be one entity.
- (4) To avoid doubt, in determining whether a national system employer is a small business employer at a particular time in relation to the dismissal of an employee, or termination of an employee's employment, the employees that are to be counted include (subject to paragraph (2)(b)):
 - (a) the employee who is being dismissed or whose employment is being terminated; and
 - (b) any other employee of the employer who is also being dismissed or whose employment is also being terminated.

- (1) Regulations made for the purposes of section 32 or subsection 33(4) or 34(4) may exclude the application of the whole of this Act in relation to all or a part of an area referred to in section 32 or subsection 33(4) or 34(4) (as the case may be).

Section 36

- (2) If subsection (1) applies, this Act has effect as if it did not apply in relation to that area or that part of that area.

36 Geographical application of offences

Division 14 (Standard geographical jurisdiction) of the Criminal Code does not apply in relation to an offence against this Act.

Note: The extended geographical application that this Division gives to this Act will apply to the offences in this Act.

Division 4—Miscellaneous

37 Act binds Crown

- (1) This Act binds the Crown in each of its capacities.
- (2) However, this Act does not make the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

38 Act not to apply so as to exceed Commonwealth power

- (1) Unless the contrary intention appears, if a provision of this Act:
 - (a) would, apart from this section, have an application (an invalid application) in relation to:
 - (i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; or
 - (ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; because of which the provision exceeds the Commonwealth's legislative power; and
 - (b) also has at least one application (a valid application) in relation to:
 - (i) one or more particular persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; or
 - (ii) one or more classes (however defined or determined) of persons, things, matters, places, circumstances or cases; that, if it were the provision's only application, would be within the Commonwealth's legislative power;it is the Parliament's intention that the provision is not to have the invalid application, but is to have every valid application.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the provision is not to have a particular valid application if:
 - (a) apart from this section, it is clear, taking into account the provision's context and the purpose or object underlying this Act, that the provision was intended to have that valid application only if every invalid application, or a particular invalid application, of the provision had also been within the Commonwealth's legislative power; or

- (b) the provision's operation in relation to that valid application would be different in a substantial respect from what would have been its operation in relation to that valid application if every invalid application of the provision had been within the Commonwealth's legislative power.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the cases where a contrary intention may be taken to appear for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (4) This section applies to a provision of this Act, whether enacted before, at or after the commencement of this section.

39 Acquisition of property

This Act, or any instrument made under this Act, does not apply to the extent that the operation of this Act or the instrument would result in an acquisition of property (within the meaning of paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution) from a person otherwise than on just terms (within the meaning of that paragraph).

40 Interaction between fair work instruments and public sector employment laws

Generally, public sector employment laws prevail

- (1) A public sector employment law prevails over a fair work instrument that deals with public sector employment, to the extent of any inconsistency.

When fair work instruments or their terms prevail

- (2) However, a fair work instrument, or a term of a fair work instrument, that deals with public sector employment prevails over a public sector employment law, to the extent of any inconsistency, if:
 - (a) the instrument or term is prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of that particular law; or

Section 40A

- (b) the instrument or term (other than an FWC order or a term of an FWC order) is included in a class of instruments or terms that are prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of that particular law.

Meaning of public sector employment law

- (3) A public sector employment law is a law of the Commonwealth (other than this Act) or a Territory, or a term of an instrument made under such a law, that deals with public sector employment.

Laws that fair work instruments never prevail over

- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply to any provisions of the following that are public sector employment laws:
 - (a) the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988;
 - (b) the Superannuation Act 1976;
 - (c) the Superannuation Act 1990;
 - (d) the Superannuation Act 2005;
 - (e) the Superannuation (Productivity Benefit) Act 1988;
 - (f) an instrument made under a law referred to in any of the above paragraphs.

Relationship with section 29

- (5) This section prevails over section 29, to the extent of any inconsistency.

40A Application of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901

- (1) The Acts Interpretation Act 1901, as in force on 25 June 2009, applies to this Act.
- (2) Amendments of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 made after that day do not apply to this Act.

Chapter 2—Terms and conditions of employment

Part 2-1—Core provisions for this Chapter

Division 1—Introduction

41 Guide to this Part

This Part has the core provisions for this Chapter, which deals with terms and conditions of employment of national system employees. The main terms and conditions come from the National Employment Standards, modern awards, enterprise agreements and workplace determinations.

The National Employment Standards (Part 2-2) are minimum terms and conditions that apply to all national system employees.

A modern award (see Part 2-3), an enterprise agreement (see Part 2-4) or a workplace determination (see Part 2-5) provides terms and conditions for those national system employees to whom the award, agreement or determination applies. Only one of those instruments can apply to an employee at a particular time.

Division 2 has the provisions to enforce the National Employment Standards, modern awards and enterprise agreements. It also sets out when a modern award or enterprise agreement applies to a person and the significance of that for this Act.

Note: In most cases, this Act applies to a workplace determination as if it were an enterprise agreement in operation (see section 279). For the rules about workplace determinations, see Part 2-5.

Division 3 deals with the interaction between the National Employment Standards, modern awards and enterprise agreements.

42 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Division 2—Core provisions for this Chapter

Subdivision A—Terms and conditions of employment provided under this Act

43 Terms and conditions of employment provided under this Act

Main terms and conditions

- (1) The main terms and conditions of employment of an employee that are provided under this Act are those set out in:
- (a) the National Employment Standards (see Part 2-2); and
 - (b) a modern award (see Part 2-3), an enterprise agreement (see Part 2-4) or a workplace determination (see Part 2-5) that applies to the employee.

Note 1: The situations in which a workplace determination, rather than a modern award or enterprise agreement, provides an employee's terms and conditions of employment are limited. In most cases, this Act applies to a workplace determination as if it were an enterprise agreement in operation (see section 279). See Part 2-5 generally for the rules on workplace determinations.

Note 2: Part 2-8 provides for the transfer of certain modern awards, enterprise agreements and workplace determinations if there is a transfer of business from an employee's employer to another employer.

Note 3: Copied State instruments provide the main terms and conditions of employment for an employee to whom the instrument applies. See Part 6-3A generally for the rules about those instruments.

Other terms and conditions

- (2) In addition, other terms and conditions of employment include:
- (a) those terms and conditions arising from:
 - (i) a national minimum wage order (see Part 2-6); or
 - (ii) an equal remuneration order (see Part 2-7); and
 - (b) those terms and conditions provided by Part 2-9.

Note: Part 2-9 deals with miscellaneous terms and conditions of employment, such as payment of wages.

Subdivision B—Terms and conditions of employment provided by the National Employment Standards

44 Contravening the National Employment Standards

- (1) An employer must not contravene a provision of the National Employment Standards.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

- (2) However, an order cannot be made under Division 2 of Part 4-1 in relation to a contravention (or alleged contravention) of subsection 65(5) or 76(4).

Note 1: Subsections 65(5) and 76(4) state that an employer may refuse a request for flexible working arrangements, or an application to extend unpaid parental leave, only on reasonable business grounds.

Note 2: Modern awards and enterprise agreements include terms about settling disputes in relation to the National Employment Standards (other than disputes as to whether an employer had reasonable business grounds under subsection 65(5) or 76(4)).

Subdivision C—Terms and conditions of employment provided by a modern award

45 Contravening a modern award

A person must not contravene a term of a modern award.

Note 1: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: A person does not contravene a term of a modern award unless the award applies to the person: see subsection 46(1).

46 The significance of a modern award applying to a person

- (1) A modern award does not impose obligations on a person, and a person does not contravene a term of a modern award, unless the award applies to the person.
- (2) A modern award does not give a person an entitlement unless the award applies to the person.

Section 47

Note: Subsection (2) does not affect the ability of outworker terms in a modern award to be enforced under Part 4-1 in relation to outworkers who are not employees.

47 When a modern award applies to an employer, employee, organisation or outworker entity

When a modern award applies to an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity

- (1) A modern award applies to an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity if:
- (a) the modern award covers the employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity; and
 - (b) the modern award is in operation; and
 - (c) no other provision of this Act provides, or has the effect, that the modern award does not apply to the employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity.

Note 1: Section 57 provides that a modern award does not apply to an employee (or to an employer, or an employee organisation, in relation to the employee) in relation to particular employment at a time when an enterprise agreement applies to the employee in relation to that employment.

Note 2: In a modern award, coverage of an outworker entity must be expressed to relate only to outworker terms: see subsection 143(4).

Modern awards do not apply to high income employees

- (2) However, a modern award does not apply to an employee (or to an employer, or an employee organisation, in relation to the employee) at a time when the employee is a high income employee.

Modern awards apply to employees in relation to particular employment

- (3) A reference in this Act to a modern award applying to an employee is a reference to the award applying to the employee in relation to particular employment.

48 When a modern award covers an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity

When a modern award covers an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity

- (1) A modern award covers an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity if the award is expressed to cover the employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity.

Note: In a modern award, coverage of an outworker entity must be expressed to relate only to outworker terms: see subsection 143(4).

Effect of other provisions of this Act, FWC orders or court orders on coverage

- (2) A modern award also covers an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the award covers the employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity:
- (a) a provision of this Act or of the Registered Organisations Act;
 - (b) an FWC order made under a provision of this Act;
 - (c) an order of a court.
- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a modern award does not cover an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the award does not cover the employee, employer or organisation or outworker entity:
- (a) a provision of this Act;
 - (b) an FWC order made under a provision of this Act;
 - (c) an order of a court.

Modern awards that have ceased to operate

- (4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a modern award that has ceased to operate does not cover an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity.

Section 49

Modern awards cover employees in relation to particular employment

- (5) A reference to a modern award covering an employee is a reference to the award covering the employee in relation to particular employment.

49 When a modern award is in operation

When a modern award comes into operation

- (1) A modern award comes into operation:
- (a) on 1 July in the next financial year after it is made; or
 - (b) if it is made on 1 July in a financial year—on that day.
- (2) However, if the FWC specifies another day as the day on which the modern award comes into operation, it comes into operation on that other day. The FWC must not specify another day unless it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.
- (3) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the modern award is made.

Note: For when a State reference public sector modern award comes into operation, see section 168J.

When a determination revoking a modern award comes into operation

- (4) A determination revoking a modern award comes into operation on the day specified in the determination.
- (5) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the determination is made.

Modern awards and revocation determinations take effect from first full pay period

- (6) A modern award, or a determination revoking a modern award, does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day the award or determination comes into operation.

Modern awards operate until revoked

- (7) A modern award continues in operation until it is revoked.

Subdivision D—Terms and conditions of employment provided by an enterprise agreement

50 Contravening an enterprise agreement

A person must not contravene a term of an enterprise agreement.

Note 1: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: A person does not contravene a term of an enterprise agreement unless the agreement applies to the person: see subsection 51(1).

51 The significance of an enterprise agreement applying to a person

- (1) An enterprise agreement does not impose obligations on a person, and a person does not contravene a term of an enterprise agreement, unless the agreement applies to the person.
- (2) An enterprise agreement does not give a person an entitlement unless the agreement applies to the person.

52 When an enterprise agreement applies to an employer, employee or employee organisation

When an enterprise agreement applies to an employee, employer or organisation

- (1) An enterprise agreement applies to an employee, employer or employee organisation if:
 - (a) the agreement is in operation; and
 - (b) the agreement covers the employee, employer or organisation; and
 - (c) no other provision of this Act provides, or has the effect, that the agreement does not apply to the employee, employer or organisation.

Section 53

Enterprise agreements apply to employees in relation to particular employment

- (2) A reference in this Act to an enterprise agreement applying to an employee is a reference to the agreement applying to the employee in relation to particular employment.

53 When an enterprise agreement covers an employer, employee or employee organisation

Employees and employers

- (1) An enterprise agreement covers an employee or employer if the agreement is expressed to cover (however described) the employee or the employer.

Employee organisations

- (2) An enterprise agreement covers an employee organisation:
- (a) for an enterprise agreement that is not a greenfields agreement—if the FWC has noted in its decision to approve the agreement that the agreement covers the organisation (see subsection 201(2)); or
 - (b) for a greenfields agreement—if the agreement is made by the organisation.

Effect of provisions of this Act, FWC orders and court orders on coverage

- (3) An enterprise agreement also covers an employee, employer or employee organisation if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the agreement covers the employee, employer or organisation:
- (a) a provision of this Act or of the Registered Organisations Act;
 - (b) an FWC order made under a provision of this Act;
 - (c) an order of a court.
- (4) Despite subsections (1), (2) and (3), an enterprise agreement does not cover an employee, employer or employee organisation if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the agreement does not cover the employee, employer or organisation:

- (a) another provision of this Act;
- (b) an FWC order made under another provision of this Act;
- (c) an order of a court.

Enterprise agreements that have ceased to operate

- (5) Despite subsections (1), (2) and (3), an enterprise agreement that has ceased to operate does not cover an employee, employer or employee organisation.

Enterprise agreements cover employees in relation to particular employment

- (6) A reference in this Act to an enterprise agreement covering an employee is a reference to the agreement covering the employee in relation to particular employment.

54 When an enterprise agreement is in operation

 - (a) 7 days after the agreement is approved; or
 - (b) if a later day is specified in the agreement—that later day.
- (2) An enterprise agreement ceases to operate on the earlier of the following days:
 - (a) the day on which a termination of the agreement comes into operation under section 224 or 227;
 - (b) the day on which section 58 first has the effect that there is no employee to whom the agreement applies.

Note: Section 58 deals with when an enterprise agreement ceases to apply to an employee.

- (3) An enterprise agreement that has ceased to operate can never operate again.

Division 3—Interaction between the National Employment Standards, modern awards and enterprise agreements

Subdivision A—Interaction between the National Employment Standards and a modern award or an enterprise agreement

55 Interaction between the National Employment Standards and a modern award or enterprise agreement

National Employment Standards must not be excluded

- (1) A modern award or enterprise agreement must not exclude the National Employment Standards or any provision of the National Employment Standards.

Terms expressly permitted by Part 2-2 or regulations may be included

- (2) A modern award or enterprise agreement may include any terms that the award or agreement is expressly permitted to include:
- (a) by a provision of Part 2-2 (which deals with the National Employment Standards); or
 - (b) by regulations made for the purposes of section 127.

Note: In determining what is permitted to be included in a modern award or enterprise agreement by a provision referred to in paragraph (a), any regulations made for the purpose of section 127 that expressly prohibit certain terms must be taken into account.

- (3) The National Employment Standards have effect subject to terms included in a modern award or enterprise agreement as referred to in subsection (2).

Note: See also the note to section 63 (which deals with the effect of averaging arrangements).

Ancillary and supplementary terms may be included

- (4) A modern award or enterprise agreement may also include the following kinds of terms:
- (a) terms that are ancillary or incidental to the operation of an entitlement of an employee under the National Employment Standards;
 - (b) terms that supplement the National Employment Standards; but only to the extent that the effect of those terms is not detrimental to an employee in any respect, when compared to the National Employment Standards.

Note 1: Ancillary or incidental terms permitted by paragraph (a) include (for example) terms:

- (a) under which, instead of taking paid annual leave at the rate of pay required by section 90, an employee may take twice as much leave at half that rate of pay; or
- (b) that specify when payment under section 90 for paid annual leave must be made.

Note 2: Supplementary terms permitted by paragraph (b) include (for example) terms:

- (a) that increase the amount of paid annual leave to which an employee is entitled beyond the number of weeks that applies under section 87; or
- (b) that provide for an employee to be paid for taking a period of paid annual leave or paid/personal carer's leave at a rate of pay that is higher than the employee's base rate of pay (which is the rate required by sections 90 and 99).

Note 3: Terms that would not be permitted by paragraph (a) or (b) include (for example) terms requiring an employee to give more notice of the taking of unpaid parental leave than is required by section 74.

Enterprise agreements may include terms that have the same effect as provisions of the National Employment Standards

- (5) An enterprise agreement may include terms that have the same (or substantially the same) effect as provisions of the National Employment Standards, whether or not ancillary or supplementary terms are included as referred to in subsection (4).

Chapter 2 Terms and conditions of employment

Part 2-1 Core provisions for this Chapter

Division 3 Interaction between the National Employment Standards, modern awards and enterprise agreements

Section 56

Effect of terms that give an employee the same entitlement as under the National Employment Standards

- (6) To avoid doubt, if a modern award includes terms permitted by subsection (4), or an enterprise agreement includes terms permitted by subsection (4) or (5), then, to the extent that the terms give an employee an entitlement (the award or agreement entitlement) that is the same as an entitlement (the NES entitlement) of the employee under the National Employment Standards:
- (a) those terms operate in parallel with the employee's NES entitlement, but not so as to give the employee a double benefit; and
 - (b) the provisions of the National Employment Standards relating to the NES entitlement apply, as a minimum standard, to the award or agreement entitlement.

Note: For example, if the award or agreement entitlement is to 6 weeks of paid annual leave per year, the provisions of the National Employment Standards relating to the accrual and taking of paid annual leave will apply, as a minimum standard, to 4 weeks of that leave.

Terms permitted by subsection (4) or (5) do not contravene subsection (1)

- (7) To the extent that a term of a modern award or enterprise agreement is permitted by subsection (4) or (5), the term does not contravene subsection (1).

Note: A term of a modern award has no effect to the extent that it contravenes this section (see section 56). An enterprise agreement that includes a term that contravenes this section must not be approved (see section 186) and a term of an enterprise agreement has no effect to the extent that it contravenes this section (see section 56).

56 Terms of a modern award or enterprise agreement contravening section 55 have no effect

A term of a modern award or enterprise agreement has no effect to the extent that it contravenes section 55.

Subdivision B—Interaction between modern awards and enterprise agreements

57 Interaction between modern awards and enterprise agreements

- (1) A modern award does not apply to an employee in relation to particular employment at a time when an enterprise agreement applies to the employee in relation to that employment.
- (2) If a modern award does not apply to an employee in relation to particular employment because of subsection (1), the award does not apply to an employer, or an employee organisation, in relation to the employee.

57A Designated outworker terms of a modern award continue to apply

- (1) This section applies if, at a particular time:
 - (a) an enterprise agreement applies to an employer; and
 - (b) a modern award covers the employer (whether the modern award covers the employer in the employer's capacity as an employer or an outworker entity); and
 - (c) the modern award includes one or more designated outworker terms.
- (2) Despite section 57, the designated outworker terms of the modern award apply at that time to the following:
 - (a) the employer;
 - (b) each employee who is both:
 - (i) a person to whom the enterprise agreement applies; and
 - (ii) a person who is covered by the modern award;
 - (c) each employee organisation that is covered by the modern award.
- (3) To avoid doubt:
 - (a) designated outworker terms of a modern award can apply to an employer under subsection (2) even if none of the employees of the employer is an outworker; and

Section 58

- (b) to the extent to which designated outworker terms of a modern award apply to an employer, an employee or an employee organisation because of subsection (2), the modern award applies to the employer, employee or organisation.

Subdivision C—Interaction between one or more enterprise agreements

58 Only one enterprise agreement can apply to an employee

Only one enterprise agreement can apply to an employee

- (1) Only one enterprise agreement can apply to an employee at a particular time.

General rule—later agreement does not apply until earlier agreement passes its nominal expiry date

- (2) If:
 - (a) an enterprise agreement (the earlier agreement) applies to an employee in relation to particular employment; and
 - (b) another enterprise agreement (the later agreement) that covers the employee in relation to the same employment comes into operation; and
 - (c) subsection (3) (which deals with a single-enterprise agreement replacing a multi-enterprise agreement) does not apply;then:
 - (d) if the earlier agreement has not passed its nominal expiry date:
 - (i) the later agreement cannot apply to the employee in relation to that employment until the earlier agreement passes its nominal expiry date; and
 - (ii) the earlier agreement ceases to apply to the employee in relation to that employment when the earlier agreement passes its nominal expiry date, and can never so apply again; or

- (e) if the earlier agreement has passed its nominal expiry date—the earlier agreement ceases to apply to the employee when the later agreement comes into operation, and can never so apply again.

Special rule—single-enterprise agreement replaces multi-enterprise agreement

- (3) Despite subsection (2), if:
 - (a) a multi-enterprise agreement applies to an employee in relation to particular employment; and
 - (b) a single-enterprise agreement that covers the employee in relation to the same employment comes into operation;the multi-enterprise agreement ceases to apply to the employee in relation to that employment when the single-enterprise agreement comes into operation, and can never so apply again.

Part 2-2—The National Employment Standards

Division 1—Introduction

59 Guide to this Part

This Part contains the National Employment Standards.

Division 2 identifies the National Employment Standards, the detail of which is set out in Divisions 3 to 12.

Division 13 contains miscellaneous provisions relating to the National Employment Standards.

The National Employment Standards are minimum standards that apply to the employment of national system employees. Part 2-1 (which deals with the core provisions for this Chapter) contains the obligation for employers to comply with the National Employment Standards (see section 44).

The National Employment Standards also underpin what can be included in modern awards and enterprise agreements. Part 2-1 provides that the National Employment Standards cannot be excluded by modern awards or enterprise agreements, and contains other provisions about the interaction between the National Employment Standards and modern awards or enterprise agreements (see sections 55 and 56).

Divisions 2 and 3 of Part 6-3 extend the operation of the parental leave and notice of termination provisions of the National Employment Standards to employees who are not national system employees.

60 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Section 60

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Division 2—The National Employment Standards

61 The National Employment Standards are minimum standards applying to employment of employees

- (1) This Part sets minimum standards that apply to the employment of employees which cannot be displaced, even if an enterprise agreement includes terms of the kind referred to in subsection 55(5).

Note: Subsection 55(5) allows enterprise agreements to include terms that have the same (or substantially the same) effect as provisions of the National Employment Standards.

- (2) The minimum standards relate to the following matters:
- (a) maximum weekly hours (Division 3);
 - (b) requests for flexible working arrangements (Division 4);
 - (c) parental leave and related entitlements (Division 5);
 - (d) annual leave (Division 6);
 - (e) personal/carer's leave and compassionate leave (Division 7);
 - (f) community service leave (Division 8);
 - (g) long service leave (Division 9);
 - (h) public holidays (Division 10);
 - (i) notice of termination and redundancy pay (Division 11);
 - (j) Fair Work Information Statement (Division 12).
- (3) Divisions 3 to 12 constitute the National Employment Standards.

Division 3—Maximum weekly hours

62 Maximum weekly hours

Maximum weekly hours of work

- (1) An employer must not request or require an employee to work more than the following number of hours in a week unless the additional hours are reasonable:
 - (a) for a full-time employee—38 hours; or
 - (b) for an employee who is not a full-time employee—the lesser of:
 - (i) 38 hours; and
 - (ii) the employee's ordinary hours of work in a week.

Employee may refuse to work unreasonable additional hours

- (2) The employee may refuse to work additional hours (beyond those referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b)) if they are unreasonable.

Determining whether additional hours are reasonable

- (3) In determining whether additional hours are reasonable or unreasonable for the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), the following must be taken into account:
 - (a) any risk to employee health and safety from working the additional hours;
 - (b) the employee's personal circumstances, including family responsibilities;
 - (c) the needs of the workplace or enterprise in which the employee is employed;
 - (d) whether the employee is entitled to receive overtime payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level of remuneration that reflects an expectation of, working additional hours;
 - (e) any notice given by the employer of any request or requirement to work the additional hours;

Section 63

- (f) any notice given by the employee of his or her intention to refuse to work the additional hours;
- (g) the usual patterns of work in the industry, or the part of an industry, in which the employee works;
- (h) the nature of the employee's role, and the employee's level of responsibility;
- (i) whether the additional hours are in accordance with averaging terms included under section 63 in a modern award or enterprise agreement that applies to the employee, or with an averaging arrangement agreed to by the employer and employee under section 64;
- (j) any other relevant matter.

Authorised leave or absence treated as hours worked

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), the hours an employee works in a week are taken to include any hours of leave, or absence, whether paid or unpaid, that the employee takes in the week and that are authorised:
 - (a) by the employee's employer; or
 - (b) by or under a term or condition of the employee's employment; or
 - (c) by or under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or an instrument in force under such a law.

63 Modern awards and enterprise agreements may provide for averaging of hours of work

- (1) A modern award or enterprise agreement may include terms providing for the averaging of hours of work over a specified period. The average weekly hours over the period must not exceed:
 - (a) for a full-time employee—38 hours; or
 - (b) for an employee who is not a full-time employee—the lesser of:
 - (i) 38 hours; and
 - (ii) the employee's ordinary hours of work in a week.

- (2) The terms of a modern award or enterprise agreement may provide for average weekly hours that exceed the hours referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) if the excess hours are reasonable for the purposes of subsection 62(1).

Note: Hours in excess of the hours referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) that are worked in a week in accordance with averaging terms in a modern award or enterprise agreement (whether the terms comply with subsection (1) or (2)) will be treated as additional hours for the purposes of section 62. The averaging terms will be relevant in determining whether the additional hours are reasonable (see paragraph 62(3)(i)).

64 Averaging of hours of work for award/agreement free employees

- (1) An employer and an award/agreement free employee may agree in writing to an averaging arrangement under which hours of work over a specified period of not more than 26 weeks are averaged. The average weekly hours over the specified period must not exceed:
- (a) for a full-time employee—38 hours; or
 - (b) for an employee who is not a full-time employee—the lesser of:
 - (i) 38 hours; and
 - (ii) the employee's ordinary hours of work in a week.
- (2) The agreed averaging arrangement may provide for average weekly hours that exceed the hours referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) if the excess hours are reasonable for the purposes of subsection 62(1).

Note: Hours in excess of the hours referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) that are worked in a week in accordance with an agreed averaging arrangement (whether the arrangement complies with subsection (1) or (2)) will be treated as additional hours for the purposes of section 62. The averaging arrangement will be relevant in determining whether the additional hours are reasonable (see paragraph 62(3)(i)).

Division 4—Requests for flexible working arrangements

65 Requests for flexible working arrangements

Employee may request change in working arrangements

- (1) If:
- (a) any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (1A) apply to an employee; and
 - (b) the employee would like to change his or her working arrangements because of those circumstances;
- then the employee may request the employer for a change in working arrangements relating to those circumstances.

Note: Examples of changes in working arrangements include changes in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work.

(1A) The following are the circumstances:

- (a) the employee is the parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child who is of school age or younger;
- (b) the employee is a carer (within the meaning of the Carer Recognition Act 2010);
- (c) the employee has a disability;
- (d) the employee is 55 or older;
- (e) the employee is experiencing violence from a member of the employee's family;
- (f) the employee provides care or support to a member of the employee's immediate family, or a member of the employee's household, who requires care or support because the member is experiencing violence from the member's family.

(1B) To avoid doubt, and without limiting subsection (1), an employee who:

- (a) is a parent, or has responsibility for the care, of a child; and
- (b) is returning to work after taking leave in relation to the birth or adoption of the child; may request to work part-time to assist the employee to care for the child.

- (2) The employee is not entitled to make the request unless:
- (a) for an employee other than a casual employee—the employee has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the employer immediately before making the request; or
 - (b) for a casual employee—the employee:
 - (i) is a long term casual employee of the employer immediately before making the request; and
 - (ii) has a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.

Formal requirements

- (3) The request must:
- (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) set out details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

Agreeing to the request

- (4) The employer must give the employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request.
- (5) The employer may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds.
- (5A) Without limiting what are reasonable business grounds for the purposes of subsection (5), reasonable business grounds include the following:
- (a) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be too costly for the employer;
 - (b) that there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other employees to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;
 - (c) that it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other employees, or recruit new employees,

Section 66

- to accommodate the new working arrangements requested by the employee;
- (d) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be likely to result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;
 - (e) that the new working arrangements requested by the employee would be likely to have a significant negative impact on customer service.
- (6) If the employer refuses the request, the written response under subsection (4) must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

66 State and Territory laws that are not excluded

This Act is not intended to apply to the exclusion of laws of a State or Territory that provide employee entitlements in relation to flexible working arrangements, to the extent that those entitlements are more beneficial to employees than the entitlements under this Division.

Division 5—Parental leave and related entitlements

Subdivision A—General

67 General rule—employee must have completed at least 12 months of service

Employees other than casual employees

- (1) An employee, other than a casual employee, is not entitled to leave under this Division (other than unpaid pre-adoption leave or unpaid no safe job leave) unless the employee has, or will have, completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the employer immediately before the date that applies under subsection (3).

Casual employees

- (2) A casual employee, is not entitled to leave (other than unpaid pre-adoption leave or unpaid no safe job leave) under this Division unless:
 - (a) the employee is, or will be, a long term casual employee of the employer immediately before the date that applies under subsection (3); and
 - (b) but for:
 - (i) the birth or expected birth of the child; or
 - (ii) the placement or the expected placement of the child; or
 - (iii) if the employee is taking a period of unpaid parental leave that starts under subsection 71(6) or paragraph 72(3)(b) or 72(4)(b)—the taking of the leave; the employee would have a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.

Date at which employee must have completed 12 months of service

- (3) For the purpose of subsections (1) and (2), the date that applies is:
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) or (c) applies:

Section 67

- (i) if the leave is birth-related leave—the date of birth, or the expected date of birth, of the child; or
- (ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave—the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; or
- (b) for an employee taking a period of unpaid parental leave that is to start within 12 months after the birth or placement of the child under subsection 71(6)—the date on which the employee’s period of leave is to start; or
- (c) for a member of an employee couple taking a period of unpaid parental leave that is to start under paragraph 72(3)(b) or 72(4)(b) after the period of unpaid parental leave of the other member of the employee couple—the date on which the employee’s period of leave is to start.

Meaning of birth-related leave

- (4) Birth-related leave means leave of either of the following kinds:
 - (a) unpaid parental leave taken in association with the birth of a child (see section 70);
 - (b) unpaid special maternity leave (see section 80).

Meaning of adoption-related leave

- (5) Adoption-related leave means leave of either of the following kinds:
 - (a) unpaid parental leave taken in association with the placement of a child for adoption (see section 70);
 - (b) unpaid pre-adoption leave (see section 85).

Meaning of day of placement

- (6) The day of placement, in relation to the adoption of a child by an employee, means the earlier of the following days:
 - (a) the day on which the employee first takes custody of the child for the adoption;
 - (b) the day on which the employee starts any travel that is reasonably necessary to take custody of the child for the adoption.

68 General rule for adoption-related leave—child must be under 16 etc.

An employee is not entitled to adoption-related leave unless the child that is, or is to be, placed with the employee for adoption:

- (a) is, or will be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- (b) has not, or will not have, lived continuously with the employee for a period of 6 months or more as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
- (c) is not (otherwise than because of the adoption) a child of the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto partner.

69 Transfer of employment situations in which employee is entitled to continue on leave etc.

(1) If:

- (a) there is a transfer of employment in relation to an employee; and
- (b) the employee has already started a period of leave under this Division when his or her employment with the first employer ends;

the employee is entitled to continue on that leave for the rest of that period.

(2) If:

- (a) there is a transfer of employment in relation to an employee; and
- (b) the employee has, in relation to the first employer, already taken a step that is required or permitted by a provision of this Division in relation to taking a period of leave; the employee is taken to have taken the step in relation to the second employer.

Note: Steps covered by this subsection include (for example) giving the first employer notice under subsection 74(1), confirmation or advice under subsection 74(4) or evidence under subsection 74(5).

Section 70

Subdivision B—Parental leave

70 Entitlement to unpaid parental leave

An employee is entitled to 12 months of unpaid parental leave if:

- (a) the leave is associated with:
 - (i) the birth of a child of the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto partner; or
 - (ii) the placement of a child with the employee for adoption; and
- (b) the employee has or will have a responsibility for the care of the child.

Note: Entitlement is also affected by:

- (a) section 67 (which deals with length of the employee's service); and
- (b) for pregnancy and birth—subsection 77A(3) (which applies if the pregnancy ends other than by the child being born alive, or if the child dies after birth); and
- (c) for adoption—section 68 (which deals with the age etc. of the adopted child).

71 The period of leave—other than for members of an employee couple who each intend to take leave

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies to an employee who intends to take unpaid parental leave if:
 - (a) the employee is not a member of an employee couple; or
 - (b) the employee is a member of an employee couple, but the other member of the couple does not intend to take unpaid parental leave.

Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- (2) The employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.

Note 1: An employee may take a form of paid leave at the same time as he or she is on unpaid parental leave (see section 79).

Section 71

Note 2: Periods of unpaid parental leave can include keeping in touch days on which an employee performs work (see section 79A).

- (3) If the leave is birth-related leave for a female employee who is pregnant with, or gives birth to, the child, the period of leave may start:
- (a) up to 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (b) earlier, if the employer and employee so agree;
- but must not start later than the date of birth of the child.

Note 1: If the employee is not fit for work, she may be entitled to:

- (a) paid personal leave under Subdivision A of Division 7; or
- (b) unpaid special maternity leave under section 80.

Note 2: If it is inadvisable for the employee to continue in her present position, she may be entitled:

- (a) to be transferred to an appropriate safe job under section 81; or
- (b) to paid no safe job leave under section 81A; or
- (c) to unpaid no safe job leave under section 82A.

Note 3: Section 344 prohibits the exertion of undue influence or undue pressure on the employee in relation to a decision by the employee whether to agree as mentioned in paragraph (3)(b) of this section.

- (4) If the leave is birth-related leave but subsection (3) does not apply, the period of leave must start on the date of birth of the child.

When adoption-related leave must start

- (5) If the leave is adoption-related leave, the period of leave must start on the day of placement of the child.

Leave may start later for employees whose spouse or de facto partner is not an employee

- (6) Despite subsections (3) to (5), the period of leave may start at any time within 12 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the child if:
- (a) the employee has a spouse or de facto partner who is not an employee; and

Section 72

- (b) the spouse or de facto partner has a responsibility for the care of the child for the period between the date of birth or day of placement of the child and the start date of the leave.

Note: An employee whose leave starts under subsection (6) is still entitled under section 76 to request an extension of the period of leave beyond his or her available parental leave period. However, the period of leave may not be extended beyond 24 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the child (see subsection 76(7)).

72 The period of leave—members of an employee couple who each intend to take leave

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies to an employee couple if each of the employees intends to take unpaid parental leave.

Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- (2) Each employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.

Note 1: An employee may take a form of paid leave at the same time as he or she is on unpaid parental leave (see section 79).

Note 2: Periods of unpaid parental leave can include keeping in touch days on which an employee performs work (see section 79A).

When birth-related leave must start

- (3) If the leave is birth-related leave:
 - (a) one employee's period of leave must start first, in accordance with the following rules:
 - (i) if the member of the employee couple whose period of leave starts first is a female employee who is pregnant with, or gives birth to, the child—the period of leave may start up to 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child, or earlier if the employer and employee so agree, but must not start later than the date of birth of the child;
 - (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—the period of leave must start on the date of birth of the child; and

- (b) the other employee's period of leave must start immediately after the end of the first employee's period of leave (or that period as extended under section 75 or 76).

When adoption-related leave must start

- (4) If the leave is adoption-related leave:
 - (a) one employee's period of leave must start on the day of placement of the child; and
 - (b) the other employee's period of leave must start immediately after the end of the first employee's period of leave (or that period as extended under section 75 or 76).

Limited entitlement to take concurrent leave

- (5) If one of the employees takes a period (the first employee's period of leave) of unpaid parental leave in accordance with paragraph (3)(a) or (4)(a), the other employee may take a period of unpaid parental leave (the concurrent leave) during the first employee's period of leave, if the concurrent leave complies with the following requirements:
 - (a) the concurrent leave must not be longer than 8 weeks in total;
 - (b) the concurrent leave may be taken in separate periods, but, unless the employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than 2 weeks;
 - (c) unless the employer agrees, the concurrent leave must not start before:
 - (i) if the leave is birth-related leave—the date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave—the day of placement of the child.
- (6) Concurrent leave taken by an employee:
 - (a) is an exception to the rule that the employee must take his or her leave in a single continuous period (see subsection (2)); and
 - (b) is an exception to the rules about when the employee's period of unpaid parental leave must start (see subsection (3) or (4)).

Section 73

Note: The concurrent leave is unpaid parental leave and so comes out of the employee's entitlement to 12 months of unpaid parental leave under section 70.

73 Pregnant employee may be required to take unpaid parental leave within 6 weeks before the birth

Employer may ask employee to provide a medical certificate

- (1) If a pregnant employee who is entitled to unpaid parental leave (whether or not she has complied with section 74) continues to work during the 6 week period before the expected date of birth of the child, the employer may ask the employee to give the employer a medical certificate containing the following statements (as applicable):
 - (a) a statement of whether the employee is fit for work;
 - (b) if the employee is fit for work—a statement of whether it is inadvisable for the employee to continue in her present position during a stated period because of:
 - (i) illness, or risks, arising out of the employee's pregnancy; or
 - (ii) hazards connected with the position.

Note: Personal information given to an employer under this subsection may be regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

Employer may require employee to take unpaid parental leave

- (2) The employer may require the employee to take a period of unpaid parental leave (the period of leave) as soon as practicable if:
 - (a) the employee does not give the employer the requested certificate within 7 days after the request; or
 - (b) within 7 days after the request, the employee gives the employer a medical certificate stating that the employee is not fit for work; or
 - (c) the following subparagraphs are satisfied:
 - (i) within 7 days after the request, the employee gives the employer a medical certificate stating that the employee is fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for the employee

Section 73

- to continue in her present position for a stated period for a reason referred to in subparagraph (1)(b)(i) or (ii);
- (ii) the employee has not complied with the notice and evidence requirements of section 74 for taking unpaid parental leave.

Note: If the medical certificate contains a statement as referred to in subparagraph (c)(i) and the employee has complied with the notice and evidence requirements of section 74, then the employee is entitled to be transferred to a safe job (see section 81) or to paid no safe job leave (see section 81A).

When the period of leave must end

- (3) The period of leave must not end later than the earlier of the following:
- (a) the end of the pregnancy;
 - (b) if the employee has given the employer notice of the taking of a period of leave connected with the birth of the child (whether it is unpaid parental leave or some other kind of leave)—the start date of that leave.

Special rules about the period of leave

- (4) The period of leave:
- (a) is an exception to the rule that the employee must take her unpaid parental leave in a single continuous period (see subsection 71(2) or 72(2)); and
 - (b) is an exception to the rules about when the employee's period of unpaid parental leave must start (see subsections 71(3) and (6), or subsection 72(3)).

Note: The period of leave is unpaid parental leave and so comes out of the employee's entitlement to 12 months of unpaid parental leave under section 70.

- (5) The employee is not required to comply with section 74 in relation to the period of leave.

Section 74

74 Notice and evidence requirements

Notice

- (1) An employee must give his or her employer written notice of the taking of unpaid parental leave under section 71 or 72 by the employee.
- (2) The employee must give the notice to the employer:
 - (a) at least:
 - (i) 10 weeks before starting the leave, unless subparagraph (ii) applies; or
 - (ii) if the leave is to be taken in separate periods of concurrent leave (see paragraph 72(5)(b)) and the leave is not the first of those periods of concurrent leave—4 weeks before starting the period of concurrent leave; or
 - (b) if that is not practicable—as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).
- (3) The notice must specify the intended start and end dates of the leave.

Confirmation or change of intended start and end dates

- (4) At least 4 weeks before the intended start date specified in the notice given under subsection (1), the employee must:
 - (a) confirm the intended start and end dates of the leave; or
 - (b) advise the employer of any changes to the intended start and end dates of the leave;unless it is not practicable to do so.
- (4A) Subsection (4) does not apply to a notice for a period of concurrent leave referred to in subparagraph (2)(a)(ii).

Evidence

- (5) An employee who has given his or her employer notice of the taking of unpaid parental leave must, if required by the employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person:

Section 75

- (a) if the leave is birth-related leave—of the date of birth, or the expected date of birth, of the child; or
- (b) if the leave is adoption-related leave:
 - (i) of the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and
 - (ii) that the child is, or will be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child.
- (6) Without limiting subsection (5), an employer may require the evidence referred to in paragraph (5)(a) to be a medical certificate.

Compliance

- (7) An employee is not entitled to take unpaid parental leave under section 71 or 72 unless the employee complies with this section.

Note: Personal information given to an employer under this section may be regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

75 Extending period of unpaid parental leave—extending to use more of available parental leave period

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an employee has, in accordance with section 74, given notice of the taking of a period of unpaid parental leave (the original leave period); and
 - (b) the original leave period is less than the employee's available parental leave period; and
 - (c) the original leave period has started.
- (2) The employee's available parental leave period is 12 months, less any periods of the following kinds:
 - (a) a period of concurrent leave that the employee has taken in accordance with subsection 72(5);
 - (b) a period of unpaid parental leave that the employee has been required to take under subsection 73(2) or 82(2);

Section 76

- (c) a period by which the employee's entitlement to unpaid parental leave is reduced under paragraph 76(6)(c).

First extension by giving notice to employer

- (3) The employee may extend the period of unpaid parental leave by giving his or her employer written notice of the extension at least 4 weeks before the end date of the original leave period. The notice must specify the new end date for the leave.
- (4) Only one extension is permitted under subsection (3).

Further extensions by agreement with employer

- (5) If the employer agrees, the employee may further extend the period of unpaid parental leave one or more times.

No entitlement to extension beyond available parental leave period

- (6) The employee is not entitled under this section to extend the period of unpaid parental leave beyond the employee's available parental leave period.

76 Extending period of unpaid parental leave—extending for up to 12 months beyond available parental leave period

Employee may request further period of leave

- (1) An employee who takes unpaid parental leave for his or her available parental leave period may request his or her employer to agree to an extension of unpaid parental leave for the employee for a further period of up to 12 months immediately following the end of the available parental leave period.

Note: Extended periods of unpaid parental leave can include keeping in touch days on which an employee performs work (see section 79A).

Making the request

- (2) The request must be in writing, and must be given to the employer at least 4 weeks before the end of the available parental leave period.

Agreeing to the requested extension

- (3) The employer must give the employee a written response to the request stating whether the employer grants or refuses the request. The response must be given as soon as practicable, and not later than 21 days, after the request is made.
- (4) The employer may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds.
- (5) If the employer refuses the request, the written response under subsection (3) must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

Special rules for employee couples

- (6) The following paragraphs apply in relation to a member of an employee couple extending a period of unpaid parental leave in relation to a child under this section:
 - (a) the request must specify any amount of unpaid parental leave that the other member of the employee couple has taken, or will have taken, in relation to the child before the extension starts;
 - (b) the period of the extension cannot exceed 12 months, less any period of unpaid parental leave that the other member of the employee couple has taken, or will have taken, in relation to the child before the extension starts;
 - (c) the amount of unpaid parental leave to which the other member of the employee couple is entitled under section 70 in relation to the child is reduced by the period of the extension.

No extension beyond 24 months after birth or placement

- (7) Despite any other provision of this Division, the employee is not entitled to extend the period of unpaid parental leave beyond 24 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the child.

Section 77

77 Reducing period of unpaid parental leave

If the employer agrees, an employee whose period of unpaid parental leave has started may reduce the period of unpaid parental leave he or she takes.

77A Pregnancy ends (other than by birth of a living child) or child born alive dies

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies to unpaid parental leave, if:
- (a) the leave is birth-related leave; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the pregnancy ends other than by the child being born alive; or
 - (ii) the child dies after being born.

Cancellation of leave

- (2) Before the leave starts:
- (a) the employee may give the employer written notice cancelling the leave; or
 - (b) the employer may give the employee written notice cancelling the leave.

Example: Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply if:

- (a) the child dies after being born; and
- (b) the employee is the female employee who gave birth to the child.

This is because in this case the leave must not start later than the date of birth of the child (see subsection 71(3)).

- (3) If the employee or employer does so, the employee is not entitled to unpaid parental leave in relation to the child.

Note: If the employee is the female employee who was pregnant with the child and the employee is not fit for work, she may be entitled to:

- (a) paid personal leave under Subdivision A of Division 7; or
- (b) unpaid special maternity leave under section 80.

Return to work

- (4) The employee may give the employer written notice that the employee wishes to return to work:
 - (a) after the start of the period of leave, but before its end; and
 - (b) within 4 weeks after the employer receives the notice.
- (5) The employer:
 - (a) may give the employee written notice requiring the employee to return to work on a specified day; and
 - (b) must do so if the employee gives the employer written notice under subsection (4);unless the leave has not started and the employer cancels it under subsection (2).
- (6) The specified day must be after the start of the period of leave, and:
 - (a) if subsection (4) applies—within 4 weeks after the employer receives the notice under that subsection; or
 - (b) otherwise—at least 6 weeks after the notice is given to the employee under subsection (5).
- (7) The employee's entitlement to unpaid parental leave in relation to the child ends immediately before the specified day.

Interaction with section 77

- (8) This section does not limit section 77 (which deals with the employee ending the period of unpaid parental leave with the agreement of the employer).

78 Employee who ceases to have responsibility for care of child

- (1) This section applies to an employee who has taken unpaid parental leave in relation to a child if the employee ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child.
- (1A) However, this section does not apply if section 77A applies to the unpaid parental leave (because the unpaid parental leave is birth-related leave and either the pregnancy ends other than by the child being born alive or the child dies after being born).

Section 79

- (2) The employer may give the employee written notice requiring the employee to return to work on a specified day.
- (3) The specified day:
 - (a) must be at least 4 weeks after the notice is given to the employee; and
 - (b) if the leave is birth-related leave taken by a female employee who has given birth—must not be earlier than 6 weeks after the date of birth of the child.
- (4) The employee's entitlement to unpaid parental leave in relation to the child ends immediately before the specified day.

79 Interaction with paid leave

- (1) This Subdivision (except for subsections (2) and (3)) does not prevent an employee from taking any other kind of paid leave while he or she is taking unpaid parental leave. If the employee does so, the taking of that other paid leave does not break the continuity of the period of unpaid parental leave.

Note: For example, if the employee has paid annual leave available, he or she may (with the employer's agreement) take some or all of that paid annual leave at the same time as the unpaid parental leave.
- (2) An employee is not entitled to take paid personal/carer's leave or compassionate leave while he or she is taking unpaid parental leave.
- (3) An employee is not entitled to any payment under Division 8 (which deals with community service leave) in relation to activities the employee engages in while taking unpaid parental leave.

79A Keeping in touch days

- (1) This Subdivision does not prevent an employee from performing work for his or her employer on a keeping in touch day while he or she is taking unpaid parental leave. If the employee does so, the performance of that work does not break the continuity of the period of unpaid parental leave.

Section 79A

- (2) A day on which the employee performs work for the employer during the period of leave is a keeping in touch day if:
- (a) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the employee to keep in touch with his or her employment in order to facilitate a return to that employment after the end of the period of leave; and
 - (b) both the employee and the employer consent to the employee performing work for the employer on that day; and
 - (c) the day is not within:
 - (i) if the employee suggested or requested that he or she perform work for the employer on that day—14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child to which the period of leave relates; or
 - (ii) otherwise—42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child; and
 - (d) the employee has not already performed work for the employer or another entity on 10 days during the period of leave that were keeping in touch days.

The duration of the work the employee performs on that day is not relevant for the purposes of this subsection.

Note: The employer will be obliged, under the relevant contract of employment or industrial instrument, to pay the employee for performing work on a keeping in touch day.

- (3) The employee's decision whether to give the consent mentioned in paragraph (2)(b) is taken, for the purposes of section 344 (which deals with undue influence or pressure), to be a decision to make, or not make, an arrangement under the National Employment Standards.
- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d), treat as 2 separate periods of unpaid parental leave:
- (a) a period of unpaid parental leave taken during the employee's available parental leave period; and
 - (b) a period of unpaid parental leave taken as an extension of the leave referred to in paragraph (a) for a further period immediately following the end of the available parental leave period.

Section 79B

Note: Performance of work on keeping in touch days is also dealt with, for the purposes of parental leave pay, in sections 49 and 50 of the Paid Parental Leave Act 2010.

79B Unpaid parental leave not extended by paid leave or keeping in touch days

If, during a period of unpaid parental leave, an employee:

- (a) takes paid leave; or
- (b) performs work for his or her employer on a keeping in touch day;

Division 9—Long service leave

113 Entitlement to long service leave

Entitlement in accordance with applicable award-derived long service leave terms

- (1) If there are applicable award-derived long service leave terms (see subsection (3)) in relation to an employee, the employee is entitled to long service leave in accordance with those terms.

Note: This Act does not exclude State and Territory laws that deal with long service leave, except in relation to employees who are entitled to long service leave under this Division (see paragraph 27(2)(g)), and except as provided in subsection 113A(3).

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if:

- (a) a workplace agreement, or an AWA, that came into operation before the commencement of this Part applies to the employee; or
- (b) one of the following kinds of instrument that came into operation before the commencement of this Part applies to the employee and expressly deals with long service leave:
 - (i) an enterprise agreement;
 - (ii) a preserved State agreement;
 - (iii) a workplace determination;
 - (iv) a pre-reform certified agreement;
 - (v) a pre-reform AWA;
 - (vi) a section 170MX award;
 - (vii) an old IR agreement.

Note: If there ceases to be any agreement or instrument of a kind referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) that applies to the employee, the employee will, at that time, become entitled under subsection (1) to long service leave in accordance with applicable award-derived long service leave terms.

- (3) Applicable award-derived long service leave terms, in relation to an employee, are:

Section 113

- (a) terms of an award, or a State reference transitional award, that (disregarding the effect of any instrument of a kind referred to in subsection (2)):
 - (i) would have applied to the employee at the test time (see subsection (3A)) if the employee had, at that time, been in his or her current circumstances of employment; and
 - (ii) would have entitled the employee to long service leave; and
 - (b) any terms of the award, or the State reference transitional award, that are ancillary or incidental to the terms referred to in paragraph (a).
- (3A) For the purpose of subparagraph (3)(a)(i), the test time is:
- (a) immediately before the commencement of this Part; or
 - (b) if the employee is a Division 2B State reference employee (as defined in Schedule 2 to the Transitional Act)—immediately before the Division 2B referral commencement (as defined in that Schedule).
- Entitlement in accordance with applicable agreement-derived long service leave terms*
- (4) If there are applicable agreement-derived long service leave terms (see subsection (5)) in relation to an employee, the employee is entitled to long service leave in accordance with those terms.
 - (5) There are applicable agreement-derived long service leave terms, in relation to an employee if:
 - (a) an order under subsection (6) is in operation in relation to terms of an instrument; and
 - (b) those terms of the instrument would have applied to the employee immediately before the commencement of this Part if the employee had, at that time, been in his or her current circumstances of employment; and
 - (c) there are no applicable award-derived long service leave terms in relation to the employee.
 - (6) If the FWC is satisfied that:

Section 113A

- (a) any of the following instruments that was in operation immediately before the commencement of this Part contained terms entitling employees to long service leave:
 - (i) an enterprise agreement;
 - (ii) a collective agreement;
 - (iii) a pre-reform certified agreement;
 - (iv) an old IR agreement; and
 - (b) those terms constituted a long service leave scheme that was applying in more than one State or Territory; and
 - (c) the scheme, considered on an overall basis, is no less beneficial to the employees than the long service leave entitlements that would otherwise apply in relation to the employees under State and Territory laws;
- the FWC may, on application by, or on behalf of, a person to whom the instrument applies, make an order that those terms of the instrument (and any terms that are ancillary or incidental to those terms) are applicable agreement-derived long service leave terms.

References to instruments

- (7) References in this section to a kind of instrument (other than an enterprise agreement) are references to a transitional instrument of that kind, as continued in existence by Schedule 3 to the Transitional Act.

113A Enterprise agreements may contain terms discounting service under prior agreements etc. in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an instrument (the first instrument) of one of the following kinds that came into operation before the commencement of this Part applies to an employee on or after the commencement of this Part:
 - (i) an enterprise agreement;
 - (ii) a workplace agreement;
 - (iii) a workplace determination;
 - (iv) a preserved State agreement;
 - (v) an AWA;

Section 113A

- (vi) a pre-reform certified agreement;
 - (vii) a pre-reform AWA;
 - (viii) an old IR agreement;
 - (ix) a section 170MX award; and
 - (b) the instrument states that the employee is not entitled to long service leave; and
 - (c) the instrument ceases, for whatever reason, to apply to the employee; and
 - (d) immediately after the first instrument ceases to apply, an enterprise agreement (the replacement agreement) starts to apply to the employee.
- (2) The replacement agreement may include terms to the effect that an employee's service with the employer during a specified period (the excluded period) (being some or all of the period when the first instrument applied to the employee) does not count as service for the purpose of determining whether the employee is qualified for long service leave, or the amount of long service leave to which the employee is entitled, under this Division or under a law of a State or Territory.
- (3) If the replacement agreement includes terms as permitted by subsection (2), the excluded period does not count, and never again counts, as service for the purpose of determining whether the employee is qualified for long service leave, or the amount of long service leave to which the employee is entitled, under this Division or under a law of a State or Territory, unless a later agreement provides otherwise. This subsection has effect despite sections 27 and 29.
- (4) References in this section to a kind of instrument (other than an enterprise agreement) are references to a transitional instrument of that kind, as continued in existence by Schedule 3 to the Transitional Act.

Division 10—Public holidays

114 Entitlement to be absent from employment on public holiday

Employee entitled to be absent on public holiday

- (1) An employee is entitled to be absent from his or her employment on a day or part-day that is a public holiday in the place where the employee is based for work purposes.

Reasonable requests to work on public holidays

- (2) However, an employer may request an employee to work on a public holiday if the request is reasonable.
- (3) If an employer requests an employee to work on a public holiday, the employee may refuse the request if:
 - (a) the request is not reasonable; or
 - (b) the refusal is reasonable.
- (4) In determining whether a request, or a refusal of a request, to work on a public holiday is reasonable, the following must be taken into account:
 - (a) the nature of the employer's workplace or enterprise (including its operational requirements), and the nature of the work performed by the employee;
 - (b) the employee's personal circumstances, including family responsibilities;
 - (c) whether the employee could reasonably expect that the employer might request work on the public holiday;
 - (d) whether the employee is entitled to receive overtime payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level of remuneration that reflects an expectation of, work on the public holiday;
 - (e) the type of employment of the employee (for example, whether full-time, part-time, casual or shiftwork);
 - (f) the amount of notice in advance of the public holiday given by the employer when making the request;

Section 115

- (g) in relation to the refusal of a request—the amount of notice in advance of the public holiday given by the employee when refusing the request;
- (h) any other relevant matter.

115 Meaning of public holiday

The public holidays

- (1) The following are public holidays:
 - (a) each of these days:
 - (i) 1 January (New Year's Day);
 - (ii) 26 January (Australia Day);
 - (iii) Good Friday;
 - (iv) Easter Monday;
 - (v) 25 April (Anzac Day);
 - (vi) the Queen's birthday holiday (on the day on which it is celebrated in a State or Territory or a region of a State or Territory);
 - (vii) 25 December (Christmas Day);
 - (viii) 26 December (Boxing Day);
 - (b) any other day, or part-day, declared or prescribed by or under a law of a State or Territory to be observed generally within the State or Territory, or a region of the State or Territory, as a public holiday, other than a day or part-day, or a kind of day or part-day, that is excluded by the regulations from counting as a public holiday.

Substituted public holidays under State or Territory laws

- (2) If, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of a State or Territory, a day or part-day is substituted for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subsection (1), then the substituted day or part-day is the public holiday.

Section 116

Substituted public holidays under modern awards and enterprise agreements

- (3) A modern award or enterprise agreement may include terms providing for an employer and employee to agree on the substitution of a day or part-day for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subsection (1) or (2).

Substituted public holidays for award/agreement free employees

- (4) An employer and an award/agreement free employee may agree on the substitution of a day or part-day for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subsection (1) or (2).

Note: This Act does not exclude State and Territory laws that deal with the declaration, prescription or substitution of public holidays, but it does exclude State and Territory laws that relate to the rights and obligations of an employee or employer in relation to public holidays (see paragraph 27(2)(j)).

116 Payment for absence on public holiday

If, in accordance with this Division, an employee is absent from his or her employment on a day or part-day that is a public holiday, the employer must pay the employee at the employee's base rate of pay for the employee's ordinary hours of work on the day or part-day.

Note: If the employee does not have ordinary hours of work on the public holiday, the employee is not entitled to payment under this section. For example, the employee is not entitled to payment if the employee is a casual employee who is not rostered on for the public holiday, or is a part-time employee whose part-time hours do not include the day of the week on which the public holiday occurs.

Division 11—Notice of termination and redundancy pay

Subdivision A—Notice of termination or payment in lieu of notice

117 Requirement for notice of termination or payment in lieu

Notice specifying day of termination

- (1) An employer must not terminate an employee's employment unless the employer has given the employee written notice of the day of the termination (which cannot be before the day the notice is given).

Note 1: Section 123 describes situations in which this section does not apply.

Note 2: Sections 28A and 29 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provide how a notice may be given. In particular, the notice may be given to an employee by:

- (a) delivering it personally; or
- (b) leaving it at the employee's last known address; or
- (c) sending it by pre-paid post to the employee's last known address.

Amount of notice or payment in lieu of notice

- (2) The employer must not terminate the employee's employment unless:
- (a) the time between giving the notice and the day of the termination is at least the period (the minimum period of notice) worked out under subsection (3); or
 - (b) the employer has paid to the employee (or to another person on the employee's behalf) payment in lieu of notice of at least the amount the employer would have been liable to pay to the employee (or to another person on the employee's behalf) at the full rate of pay for the hours the employee would have worked had the employment continued until the end of the minimum period of notice.
- (3) Work out the minimum period of notice as follows:
- (a) first, work out the period using the following table:

Section 118

Period
	Employee's period of continuous service with the employer at the end of the day the notice is given	Period
1	Not more than 1 year	1 week
2	More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
3	More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
4	More than 5 years	4 weeks

- (b) then increase the period by 1 week if the employee is over 45 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service with the employer at the end of the day the notice is given.

118 Modern awards and enterprise agreements may provide for notice of termination by employees

A modern award or enterprise agreement may include terms specifying the period of notice an employee must give in order to terminate his or her employment.

Subdivision B—Redundancy pay

119 Redundancy pay

Entitlement to redundancy pay

- (1) An employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by the employer if the employee's employment is terminated:
- (a) at the employer's initiative because the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour; or
 - (b) because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer.

Note: Sections 121, 122 and 123 describe situations in which the employee does not have this entitlement.

Amount of redundancy pay

- (2) The amount of the redundancy pay equals the total amount payable to the employee for the redundancy pay period worked out using the following table at the employee's base rate of pay for his or her ordinary hours of work:

Redundancy pay period
	Employee's period of continuous service with the employer on termination	Redundancy pay period
1	At least 1 year but less than 2 years	4 weeks
2	At least 2 years but less than 3 years	6 weeks
3	At least 3 years but less than 4 years	7 weeks
4	At least 4 years but less than 5 years	8 weeks
5	At least 5 years but less than 6 years	10 weeks
6	At least 6 years but less than 7 years	11 weeks
7	At least 7 years but less than 8 years	13 weeks
8	At least 8 years but less than 9 years	14 weeks
9	At least 9 years but less than 10 years	16 weeks
10	At least 10 years	12 weeks

120 Variation of redundancy pay for other employment or incapacity to pay

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an employee is entitled to be paid an amount of redundancy pay by the employer because of section 119; and
 - (b) the employer:
 - (i) obtains other acceptable employment for the employee; or
 - (ii) cannot pay the amount.
- (2) On application by the employer, the FWC may determine that the amount of redundancy pay is reduced to a specified amount (which may be nil) that the FWC considers appropriate.

Section 121

- (3) The amount of redundancy pay to which the employee is entitled under section 119 is the reduced amount specified in the determination.

121 Exclusions from obligation to pay redundancy pay

- (1) Section 119 does not apply to the termination of an employee's employment if, immediately before the time of the termination, or at the time when the person was given notice of the termination as described in subsection 117(1) (whichever happened first):
 - (a) the employee's period of continuous service with the employer is less than 12 months; or
 - (b) the employer is a small business employer.
- (2) A modern award may include a term specifying other situations in which section 119 does not apply to the termination of an employee's employment.
- (3) If a modern award that is in operation includes such a term (the award term), an enterprise agreement may:
 - (a) incorporate the award term by reference (and as in force from time to time) into the enterprise agreement; and
 - (b) provide that the incorporated term covers some or all of the employees who are also covered by the award term.

122 Transfer of employment situations that affect the obligation to pay redundancy pay

Transfer of employment situation in which employer may decide not to recognise employee's service with first employer

- (1) Subsection 22(5) does not apply (for the purpose of this Subdivision) to a transfer of employment between non-associated entities in relation to an employee if the second employer decides not to recognise the employee's service with the first employer (for the purpose of this Subdivision).

Employee is not entitled to redundancy pay if service with first employer counts as service with second employer

- (2) If subsection 22(5) applies (for the purpose of this Subdivision) to a transfer of employment in relation to an employee, the employee is not entitled to redundancy pay under section 119 in relation to the termination of his or her employment with the first employer.

Note: Subsection 22(5) provides that, generally, if there is a transfer of employment, service with the first employer counts as service with the second employer.

Employee not entitled to redundancy pay if refuses employment in certain circumstances

- (3) An employee is not entitled to redundancy pay under section 119 in relation to the termination of his or her employment with an employer (the first employer) if:
- (a) the employee rejects an offer of employment made by another employer (the second employer) that:
 - (i) is on terms and conditions substantially similar to, and, considered on an overall basis, no less favourable than, the employee's terms and conditions of employment with the first employer immediately before the termination; and
 - (ii) recognises the employee's service with the first employer, for the purpose of this Subdivision; and
 - (b) had the employee accepted the offer, there would have been a transfer of employment in relation to the employee.
- (4) If the FWC is satisfied that subsection (3) operates unfairly to the employee, the FWC may order the first employer to pay the employee a specified amount of redundancy pay (not exceeding the amount that would be payable but for subsection (3)) that the FWC considers appropriate. The first employer must pay the employee that amount of redundancy pay.

Section 123

Subdivision C—Limits on scope of this Division

123 Limits on scope of this Division

Employees not covered by this Division

- (1) This Division does not apply to any of the following employees:
 - (a) an employee employed for a specified period of time, for a specified task, or for the duration of a specified season;
 - (b) an employee whose employment is terminated because of serious misconduct;
 - (c) a casual employee;
 - (d) an employee (other than an apprentice) to whom a training arrangement applies and whose employment is for a specified period of time or is, for any reason, limited to the duration of the training arrangement;
 - (e) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to whom this Division does not apply.
- (2) Paragraph (1)(a) does not prevent this Division from applying to an employee if a substantial reason for employing the employee as described in that paragraph was to avoid the application of this Division.

Other employees not covered by notice of termination provisions

- (3) Subdivision A does not apply to:
 - (b) a daily hire employee working in the building and construction industry (including working in connection with the erection, repair, renovation, maintenance, ornamentation or demolition of buildings or structures); or
 - (c) a daily hire employee working in the meat industry in connection with the slaughter of livestock; or
 - (d) a weekly hire employee working in connection with the meat industry and whose termination of employment is determined solely by seasonal factors; or
 - (e) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to whom that Subdivision does not apply.

Other employees not covered by redundancy pay provisions

- (4) Subdivision B does not apply to:
- (a) an employee who is an apprentice; or
 - (b) an employee to whom an industry-specific redundancy scheme in a modern award applies; or
 - (c) an employee to whom a redundancy scheme in an enterprise agreement applies if:
 - (i) the scheme is an industry-specific redundancy scheme that is incorporated by reference (and as in force from time to time) into the enterprise agreement from a modern award that is in operation; and
 - (ii) the employee is covered by the industry-specific redundancy scheme in the modern award; or
 - (d) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to whom that Subdivision does not apply.

Division 12—Fair Work Information Statement

124 Fair Work Ombudsman to prepare and publish Fair Work Information Statement

- (1) The Fair Work Ombudsman must prepare a Fair Work Information Statement. The Fair Work Ombudsman must publish the Statement in the Gazette.

Note: If the Fair Work Ombudsman changes the Statement, the Fair Work Ombudsman must publish the new version of the Statement in the Gazette.

- (2) The Statement must contain information about the following:
 - (a) the National Employment Standards;
 - (b) modern awards;
 - (c) agreement-making under this Act;
 - (d) the right to freedom of association;
 - (e) the role of the FWC and the Fair Work Ombudsman;
 - (f) termination of employment;
 - (g) individual flexibility arrangements;
 - (h) right of entry (including the protection of personal information by privacy laws).
- (3) The Fair Work Information Statement is not a legislative instrument.
- (4) The regulations may prescribe other matters relating to the content or form of the Statement, or the manner in which employers may give the Statement to employees.

125 Giving new employees the Fair Work Information Statement

- (1) An employer must give each employee the Fair Work Information Statement before, or as soon as practicable after, the employee starts employment.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not require the employer to give the employee the Statement more than once in any 12 months.

Section 125

Note: This is relevant if the employer employs the employee more than once in the 12 months.

Division 13—Miscellaneous

126 Modern awards and enterprise agreements may provide for school-based apprentices and trainees to be paid loadings in lieu

A modern award or enterprise agreement may provide for school-based apprentices or school-based trainees to be paid loadings in lieu of any of the following:

- (a) paid annual leave;
- (b) paid personal/carer's leave;
- (c) paid absence under Division 10 (which deals with public holidays).

Note: Section 199 affects whether the FWC may approve an enterprise agreement covering an employee who is a school-based apprentice or school-based trainee, if the employee is covered by a modern award that is in operation and provides for the employee to be paid loadings in lieu of paid annual leave, paid personal/carer's leave or paid absence under Division 10.

127 Regulations about what modern awards and enterprise agreements can do

The regulations may:

- (a) permit modern awards or enterprise agreements or both to include terms that would or might otherwise be contrary to this Part or section 55 (which deals with the interaction between the National Employment Standards and a modern award or enterprise agreement); or
- (b) prohibit modern awards or enterprise agreements or both from including terms that would or might otherwise be permitted by a provision of this Part or section 55.

128 Relationship between National Employment Standards and agreements etc. permitted by this Part for award/agreement free employees

The National Employment Standards have effect subject to:

Section 129

- (a) an agreement between an employer and an award/agreement free employee or a requirement made by an employer of an award/agreement free employee, that is expressly permitted by a provision of this Part; or
- (b) an agreement between an employer and an award/agreement free employee that is expressly permitted by regulations made for the purpose of section 129.

Note 1: In determining what matters are permitted to be agreed or required under paragraph (a), any regulations made for the purpose of section 129 that expressly prohibit certain agreements or requirements must be taken into account.

Note 2: See also the note to section 64 (which deals with the effect of averaging arrangements).

129 Regulations about what can be agreed to etc. in relation to award/agreement free employees

The regulations may:

- (a) permit employers, and award/agreement free employees, to agree on matters that would or might otherwise be contrary to this Part; or
- (b) prohibit employers and award/agreement free employees from agreeing on matters, or prohibit employers from making requirements of such employees, that would or might otherwise be permitted by a provision of this Part.

130 Restriction on taking or accruing leave or absence while receiving workers' compensation

- (1) An employee is not entitled to take or accrue any leave or absence (whether paid or unpaid) under this Part during a period (a compensation period) when the employee is absent from work because of a personal illness, or a personal injury, for which the employee is receiving compensation payable under a law (a compensation law) of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory that is about workers' compensation.

Section 131

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent an employee from taking or accruing leave during a compensation period if the taking or accruing of the leave is permitted by a compensation law.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent an employee from taking unpaid parental leave during a compensation period.

131 Relationship with other Commonwealth laws

This Part establishes minimum standards and so is intended to supplement, and not to override, entitlements under other laws of the Commonwealth.

Part 2-3—Modern awards

Division 1—Introduction

132 Guide to this Part

This Part provides for the FWC to make, vary and revoke modern awards. Modern awards may set minimum terms and conditions for national system employees in particular industries or occupations. Modern awards can have terms that are ancillary or supplementary to the National Employment Standards (see Part 2-1).

Division 2 provides for the modern awards objective. This requires the FWC to ensure that modern awards, together with the National Employment Standards, provide a fair and relevant minimum safety net of terms and conditions, taking into account certain social and economic factors. Division 2 also contains special provisions about modern award minimum wages.

Division 3 deals with the terms of modern awards.

Division 4 provides for the FWC to conduct 4 yearly reviews of modern awards (other than in relation to default fund terms of modern awards).

Division 4A provides for the FWC to conduct 4 yearly reviews of default fund terms of modern awards.

It also sets out the process for making the Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper products in a 4 yearly review, and amending the schedule after it is made to include other employer MySuper products. If an employer MySuper product is on the schedule, an employer covered by a modern award can make contributions, for the benefit of a default fund employee, to a superannuation fund that offers the product (see subsection 149D(1A)).

Section 133

Division 5 provides for the FWC to exercise modern award powers outside the system of 4 yearly reviews in certain circumstances.

Division 6 contains some general provisions relating to modern award powers.

Division 7 contains additional provisions relating to modern enterprise awards.

Division 8 contains additional provisions relating to State reference public sector modern awards.

The obligation to comply with a modern award is in section 45 (in Part 2-1).

In relation to minimum wages in modern awards, the FWC has powers both under this Part and under Part 2-6 (which deals with minimum wages). The following is a summary of the FWC's powers under the 2 Parts:

- (a) the initial making of a modern award setting modern award minimum wages can only occur under this Part;
- (b) the main power to vary modern award minimum wages is in annual wage reviews under Part 2-6;
- (c) modern award minimum wages can also be varied under this Part, but only for work value reasons or in other limited circumstances;
- (d) modern award minimum wages can be set (otherwise than in the initial making of a modern award) or revoked either under this Part or in annual wage reviews under Part 2-6.

133 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Section 133

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Division 2—Overarching provisions

134 The modern awards objective

What is the modern awards objective?

- (1) The FWC must ensure that modern awards, together with the National Employment Standards, provide a fair and relevant minimum safety net of terms and conditions, taking into account:
 - (a) relative living standards and the needs of the low paid; and
 - (b) the need to encourage collective bargaining; and
 - (c) the need to promote social inclusion through increased workforce participation; and
 - (d) the need to promote flexible modern work practices and the efficient and productive performance of work; and
 - (da) the need to provide additional remuneration for:
 - (i) employees working overtime; or
 - (ii) employees working unsocial, irregular or unpredictable hours; or
 - (iii) employees working on weekends or public holidays; or
 - (iv) employees working shifts; and
 - (e) the principle of equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value; and
 - (f) the likely impact of any exercise of modern award powers on business, including on productivity, employment costs and the regulatory burden; and
 - (g) the need to ensure a simple, easy to understand, stable and sustainable modern award system for Australia that avoids unnecessary overlap of modern awards; and
 - (h) the likely impact of any exercise of modern award powers on employment growth, inflation and the sustainability, performance and competitiveness of the national economy.

This is the modern awards objective.

When does the modern awards objective apply?

- (2) The modern awards objective applies to the performance or exercise of the FWC's modern award powers, which are:
- (a) the FWC's functions or powers under this Part; and
 - (b) the FWC's functions or powers under Part 2-6, so far as they relate to modern award minimum wages.

Note: The FWC must also take into account the objects of this Act and any other applicable provisions. For example, if the FWC is setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages, the minimum wages objective also applies (see section 284).

135 Special provisions relating to modern award minimum wages

- (1) Modern award minimum wages cannot be varied under this Part except as follows:
- (a) modern award minimum wages can be varied if the FWC is satisfied that the variation is justified by work value reasons (see subsections 156(3) and 157(2));
 - (b) modern award minimum wages can be varied under section 160 (which deals with variation to remove ambiguities or correct errors) or section 161 (which deals with variation on referral by the Australian Human Rights Commission).

Note 1: The main power to vary modern award minimum wages is in annual wage reviews under Part 2-6. Modern award minimum wages can also be set or revoked in annual wage reviews.

Note 2: For the meanings of modern award minimum wages, and setting and varying such wages, see section 284.

- (2) In exercising its powers under this Part to set, vary or revoke modern award minimum wages, the FWC must take into account the rate of the national minimum wage as currently set in a national minimum wage order.

Division 3—Terms of modern awards

Subdivision A—Preliminary

136 What can be included in modern awards

Terms that may or must be included

- (1) A modern award must only include terms that are permitted or required by:
- (a) Subdivision B (which deals with terms that may be included in modern awards); or
 - (b) Subdivision C (which deals with terms that must be included in modern awards); or
 - (c) section 55 (which deals with interaction between the National Employment Standards and a modern award or enterprise agreement); or
 - (d) Part 2-2 (which deals with the National Employment Standards).

Note 1: Subsection 55(4) permits inclusion of terms that are ancillary or incidental to, or that supplement, the National Employment Standards.

Note 2: Part 2-2 includes a number of provisions permitting inclusion of terms about particular matters.

Terms that must not be included

- (2) A modern award must not include terms that contravene:
- (a) Subdivision D (which deals with terms that must not be included in modern awards); or
 - (b) section 55 (which deals with the interaction between the National Employment Standards and a modern award or enterprise agreement).

Note: The provisions referred to in subsection (2) limit the terms that can be included in modern awards under the provisions referred to in subsection (1).

137 Terms that contravene section 136 have no effect

A term of a modern award has no effect to the extent that it contravenes section 136.

138 Achieving the modern awards objective

A modern award may include terms that it is permitted to include, and must include terms that it is required to include, only to the extent necessary to achieve the modern awards objective and (to the extent applicable) the minimum wages objective.

Subdivision B—Terms that may be included in modern awards

Coverage of industry-specific redundancy schemes must not be extended

- (2) If:
 - (a) a modern award includes an industry-specific redundancy scheme; and
 - (b) the FWC is making or varying another modern award under Division 4 or 5 so that it (rather than the modern award referred to in paragraph (a)) will cover some or all of the classes of employees who are covered by the scheme;
 the FWC may include the scheme in that other modern award. However, the FWC must not extend the coverage of the scheme to classes of employees that it did not previously cover.

Varying industry-specific redundancy schemes

- (3) The FWC may only vary an industry-specific redundancy scheme in a modern award under Division 4 or 5:

Section 142

- (a) by varying the amount of any redundancy payment in the scheme; or
 - (b) in accordance with a provision of Subdivision B of Division 5 (which deals with varying modern awards in some limited situations).
- (4) In varying an industry-specific redundancy scheme as referred to in subsection (3), the FWC:
 - (a) must not extend the coverage of the scheme to classes of employees that it did not previously cover; and
 - (b) must retain the industry-specific character of the scheme.

Section 144

award in relation to the employee and the employer, in order to meet the genuine needs of the employee and employer.

Effect of individual flexibility arrangements

- (2) If an employee and employer agree to an individual flexibility arrangement under a flexibility term in a modern award:
 - (a) the modern award has effect in relation to the employee and the employer as if it were varied by the flexibility arrangement; and
 - (b) the arrangement is taken, for the purposes of this Act, to be a term of the modern award.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the individual flexibility arrangement does not change the effect the modern award has in relation to the employer and any other employee.

Requirements for flexibility terms

- (4) The flexibility term must:
 - (a) identify the terms of the modern award the effect of which may be varied by an individual flexibility arrangement; and
 - (b) require that the employee and the employer genuinely agree to any individual flexibility arrangement; and
 - (c) require the employer to ensure that any individual flexibility arrangement must result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would have been if no individual flexibility arrangement were agreed to; and
 - (d) set out how any flexibility arrangement may be terminated by the employee or the employer; and
 - (e) require the employer to ensure that any individual flexibility arrangement must be in writing and signed:
 - (i) in all cases—by the employee and the employer; and

145 Effect of individual flexibility arrangement that does not meet requirements of flexibility term

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an employee and employer agree to an arrangement that purports to be an individual flexibility arrangement under a flexibility term in a modern award; and
 - (b) the arrangement does not meet a requirement set out in section 144.

Note: A failure to meet such a requirement may be a contravention of a provision of Part 3-1 (which deals with general protections).

Arrangement has effect as if it were an individual flexibility arrangement

- (2) The arrangement has effect as if it were an individual flexibility arrangement.

Employer contravenes flexibility term in specified circumstances

- (3) If subsection 144(4) requires the employer to ensure that the arrangement meets the requirement, the employer contravenes the flexibility term of the award.

Flexibility arrangement may be terminated by agreement or notice

- (4) The flexibility term is taken to provide (in addition to any other means of termination of the arrangement that the term provides) that the arrangement can be terminated:
- (a) by either the employee, or the employer, giving written notice of not more than 28 days; or
 - (b) by the employee and the employer at any time if they agree, in writing, to the termination.

Section 145A

- (1) Without limiting paragraph 139(1)(j), a modern award must include a term that:

 - (b) allows for the representation of those employees for the purposes of that consultation.
- (2) The term must require the employer:
 - (a) to provide information to the employees about the change; and

Note: The FWC or a person must not settle a dispute about whether an employer had reasonable business grounds under subsection 65(5) or 76(4) (see subsections 739(2) and 740(2)).

147 Ordinary hours of work

A modern award must include terms specifying, or providing for the determination of, the ordinary hours of work for each classification of employee covered by the award and each type of employment permitted by the award.

Note: An employee's ordinary hours of work are significant in determining the employee's entitlements under the National Employment Standards.

148 Base and full rates of pay for pieceworkers

If a modern award defines or describes employees covered by the award as pieceworkers, the award must include terms specifying, or providing for the determination of, base and full rates of pay for those employees for the purposes of the National Employment Standards.

Specified superannuation fund offering standard MySuper product

- (1) A default fund term of a modern award must require an employer covered by the award to make contributions, for the benefit of a default fund employee, to a superannuation fund that:
 - (a) offers a standard MySuper product; and
 - (b) is specified in the default fund term of the award in relation to that product;if:

 - (d) the employer is not making contributions to a superannuation fund referred to in subsection (1A), (2), (3), (4) or (5) for the benefit of the employee.

Note: If a superannuation fund is specified in the default fund term of a modern award in relation to a standard MySuper product and, in addition to offering the standard MySuper product, the fund offers a tailored MySuper product that a default fund employee is entitled to hold, then any contributions made by the employer to the fund for the benefit of that employee will be paid into the tailored MySuper product instead of the standard MySuper product (see section 29WB of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993).

Superannuation funds offering employer MySuper products on the schedule

- (1A) A default fund term of a modern award must permit an employer covered by the award to make contributions, for the benefit of a default fund employee, to a superannuation fund that offers an employer MySuper product that:

Certain terms are not discriminatory

- (2) A term of a modern award does not discriminate against an employee:

Section 154

- (a) if the reason for the discrimination is the inherent requirements of the particular position held by the employee; or
- (b) merely because it discriminates, in relation to employment of the employee as a member of the staff of an institution that is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of a particular religion or creed:
 - (i) in good faith; and
 - (ii) to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion or creed.

 but only for up to 5 years starting on the day on which the first modern award that included those terms came into operation.

(3) If:

- (a) a modern award includes State-based difference terms as permitted under subsection (2); and
- (b) the FWC is making or varying another modern award so that it (rather than the modern award referred to in paragraph (a)) will cover some or all of the classes of employees who are covered by those terms;

the FWC may include those terms in that other modern award.

However, the FWC must not extend the coverage of those terms to classes of employees that they did not previously cover.

155 Terms dealing with long service leave

A modern award must not include terms dealing with long service leave.

Division 4—4 yearly reviews of modern awards

156 4 yearly reviews of modern awards to be conducted

Timing of 4 yearly reviews

- (1) The FWC must conduct a 4 yearly review of modern awards starting as soon as practicable after each 4th anniversary of the commencement of this Part.

Note 1: The FWC must be constituted by a Full Bench to conduct 4 yearly reviews of modern awards, and to make determinations and modern awards in those reviews (see subsections 616(1), (2) and (3)).

Note 2: The President may give directions about the conduct of 4 yearly reviews of modern awards (see section 582).

What has to be done in a 4 yearly review?

- (2) In a 4 yearly review of modern awards, the FWC:
- (a) must review all modern awards; and
 - (b) may make:
 - (i) one or more determinations varying modern awards; and
 - (ii) one or more modern awards; and
 - (iii) one or more determinations revoking modern awards; and
 - (c) must not review, or make a determination to vary, a default fund term of a modern award.

Note 1: Special criteria apply to changing coverage of modern awards or revoking modern awards (see sections 163 and 164).

Note 2: For reviews of default fund terms of modern awards, see Division 4A.

Variation of modern award minimum wages must be justified by work value reasons

- (3) In a 4 yearly review of modern awards, the FWC may make a determination varying modern award minimum wages only if the FWC is satisfied that the variation of modern award minimum wages is justified by work value reasons.

Section 156

- (4) Work value reasons are reasons justifying the amount that employees should be paid for doing a particular kind of work, being reasons related to any of the following:
- (a) the nature of the work;
 - (b) the level of skill or responsibility involved in doing the work;
 - (c) the conditions under which the work is done.

Each modern award to be reviewed in its own right

- (5) A 4 yearly review of modern awards must be such that each modern award is reviewed in its own right. However, this does not prevent the FWC from reviewing 2 or more modern awards at the same time.

Division 4A—4 yearly reviews of default fund terms of modern awards

Subdivision A—4 yearly reviews of default fund terms

156A 4 yearly reviews of default fund terms

Timing of 4 yearly reviews

- (1) The FWC must conduct a 4 yearly review of default fund terms of modern awards starting as soon as practicable after each 4th anniversary of the commencement of this Part.

Note: The President may give directions about the conduct of those reviews (see section 582).

Two stages of the 4 yearly reviews

- (2) There are 2 stages of the 4 yearly review.

First stage—the Default Superannuation List

- (3) In the first stage, the FWC must make the Default Superannuation List for the purposes of the review.

Note: In the first stage, the FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel for the purposes of making the list and determining applications to include standard MySuper products on the list (see paragraphs 617(4)(a) and (b)).

Second stage—reviewing and varying default fund terms

- (4) In the second stage, the FWC:
 - (a) must review the default fund term of each modern award; and
 - (b) must make a determination varying the term in accordance with section 156H; and
 - (c) if section 156J applies—must make a determination varying the term in accordance with that section.

Note: For the second stage, the FWC must be constituted by a Full Bench (see subsections 616(2A) and (3A)).

Section 156B

The Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products

- (5) In the 4 yearly review, the FWC must also make the Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products.

Note: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel for the purposes of making the schedule and determining applications to include employer MySuper products on the schedule (see paragraphs 617(4)(c) and (d)).

Subdivision B—The first stage of the 4 yearly review

156B Making the Default Superannuation List

- (1) In the 4 yearly review, the FWC must make and publish the Default Superannuation List.
- (2) The Default Superannuation List must specify each standard MySuper product that the FWC has determined under section 156E is to be included on the list.
- (3) The Default Superannuation List must not specify any other product.

156C Applications to list a standard MySuper product

- (1) Before making the Default Superannuation List, the FWC must publish a notice that invites superannuation funds that offer a standard MySuper product to apply to the FWC to have the product included on the list.
- (2) The notice must specify the period in which an application may be made.
- (3) After the notice is published, a superannuation fund that offers a standard MySuper product may make a written application to have the product included on the list.
- (4) The application must:
 - (a) be made in the period specified in the notice; and
 - (b) be accompanied by any fees that are prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (c) provide information relating to the first stage criteria.

- (5) The FWC must publish any application made under subsection (3).
- (6) However, if an application includes information that is claimed by the superannuation fund to be confidential or commercially sensitive, and the FWC is satisfied that the information is confidential or commercially sensitive:
 - (a) the FWC may decide not to publish the information; and
 - (b) if it does so, it must instead publish a summary of the information which contains sufficient detail to allow a reasonable understanding of the substance of the information (without disclosing anything that is confidential or commercially sensitive).
- (7) A reference in this Act (other than in this section) in relation to an application made under subsection (3) includes a reference to a summary referred to in paragraph (6)(b).

156D Submissions on applications to list a standard MySuper product

- (1) The FWC must ensure that all persons and bodies have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions to the FWC in relation to an application made under subsection 156C(3).
- (2) If:
 - (a) a person or body makes a written submission in relation to an application made under subsection 156C(3); and
 - (b) the person or body has an interest in relation to:
 - (i) the superannuation fund that made the application; or
 - (ii) if the person or body refers to another superannuation fund in the submission—that superannuation fund;then the person or body must disclose that interest in the submission.
- (3) The FWC must publish any submission that is made.

156E Determining applications to list a standard MySuper product

- (1) If an application is made under subsection 156C(3) to have a standard MySuper product included on the Default Superannuation

Section 156F

List, the FWC must make a determination about whether to include the product on the list.

- (2) The FWC must not determine that the product is to be included on the list unless, taking into account:

- (a) the information provided in the application; and
- (b) the first stage criteria; and
- (c) any submissions that were made in relation to the application;

the FWC is satisfied that including the product on the list would be in the best interests of default fund employees to whom modern awards apply or a particular class of those employees.

156F First stage criteria

The first stage criteria are as follows:

- (a) the appropriateness of the MySuper product's long term investment return target and risk profile;
 - (b) the superannuation fund's expected ability to deliver on the MySuper product's long term investment return target, given its risk profile;
 - (c) the appropriateness of the fees and costs associated with the MySuper product, given:
 - (i) its stated long term investment return target and risk profile; and
 - (ii) the quality and timeliness of services provided;
 - (d) the net returns on contributions invested in the MySuper product;
 - (e) whether the superannuation fund's governance practices are consistent with meeting the best interests of members of the fund, including whether there are mechanisms in place to deal with conflict of interest;
 - (f) the appropriateness of any insurance offered in relation to the MySuper product;
 - (g) the quality of advice given to a member of the superannuation fund relating to the member's existing interest in the fund and products offered by the fund;
 - (h) the administrative efficiency of the superannuation fund;

- (i) any other matters the FWC considers relevant.

Subdivision C—Second stage of the 4 yearly review

156G Review of the default fund term of modern awards

- (1) As soon as practicable after the Default Superannuation List is made, the FWC must review the default fund term of each modern award.
- (2) The FWC must ensure that the following persons have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions (including submissions requesting that a particular superannuation fund be specified in the term in relation to a standard MySuper product) to the FWC in relation to the default fund term of the award:
 - (a) an employee and employer that are covered by the modern award;
 - (b) an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more employees or employers that are covered by the award;
 - (c) if the award includes an outworker term—an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more outworkers to whom the outworker term relates.
- (3) If:
 - (a) a person or body (whether or not a person referred to in subsection (2)) makes a written submission in relation to the default fund term of a modern award; and
 - (b) the person or body refers to a particular superannuation fund in the submission; and
 - (c) the person or body has an interest in relation to that superannuation fund;then the person or body must disclose that interest in the submission.
- (4) The FWC must publish any submission that is made.

Section 156H

156H Default fund term must specify certain superannuation funds

- (1) After reviewing the default fund term of a modern award, the FWC must make a determination varying the term:
 - (a) to remove every superannuation fund that is specified in the term; and
 - (b) to specify at least 2, but no more than 15, superannuation funds in relation to standard MySuper products that satisfy the second stage test.

Note: See subsection (3) for when the default fund term may specify more than 15 superannuation funds.

- (2) A standard MySuper product satisfies the second stage test if:
 - (a) it is on the Default Superannuation List; and
 - (b) the FWC is satisfied that specifying a superannuation fund in relation to the product in the default fund term of the modern award would be in the best interests of the default fund employees to whom the modern award applies, taking into account:
 - (i) any submissions that were made in relation to the default fund term of the award; and
 - (ii) any other matter the FWC considers relevant.
- (3) The default fund term may specify more than 15 superannuation funds in relation to standard MySuper products that satisfy the second stage test if, taking into account the range of occupations of employees covered by the modern award, the FWC is satisfied it is warranted.

156J Variation to comply with section 149D

If, at the time of the 4 yearly review, the default fund term of a modern award does not comply with section 149D, the FWC must make a determination varying the term so that it does.

156K Transitional authorisation for certain superannuation funds

- (1) The FWC may make a transitional authorisation in relation to a superannuation fund (other than a superannuation fund referred to in subsection 149D(1), (1A), (2), (3) or (4)) if, at the time of the 4 yearly review, the FWC is satisfied that it is appropriate to make the authorisation.

- (2) The transitional authorisation comes into operation on the day it is made and ceases to be in operation on the day specified in the authorisation.

Subdivision D—The Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products

156L The Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products

- (1) In the 4 yearly review, the FWC must:
- (a) make and publish the Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products; and
 - (b) revoke any previous Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products.

Note: If an employer MySuper product is on the schedule, an employer covered by a modern award can make contributions, for the benefit of a default fund employee, to a superannuation fund that offers the product (see subsection 149D(1A)).

- (2) When the schedule is made, it must specify any employer MySuper product that the FWC has determined under section 156P is to be included on the schedule.
- (3) After the schedule is made, it must be amended to specify any employer MySuper product that the FWC has determined under section 156P is to be included on the schedule.

Note: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel for the purposes of amending the schedule (see paragraph 617(5)(b)).

- (4) If the schedule is amended as referred to in subsection (3), the FWC must publish the schedule as amended.
- (5) The schedule must not specify any other product.

Section 156M

156M FWC to invite applications to include employer MySuper products on schedule

- (1) Before making the schedule, the FWC must publish a notice that invites:
 - (a) superannuation funds that offer an employer MySuper product; and
 - (b) employers to which an employer MySuper product relates; to apply to the FWC to have the product included on the schedule.
- (2) The notice must specify the period in which an application may be made.

156N Making applications to include employer MySuper products on schedule

- (1) The following may apply to the FWC to have an employer MySuper product included on the schedule:
 - (a) a superannuation fund that offers the product;
 - (b) an employer to which the product relates.
 - (2) The application must be made:
 - (a) in the period (the standard application period) specified in the notice under section 156M; or
 - (b) in the period (the interim application period) that:
 - (i) starts immediately after the schedule is made under paragraph 156L(1)(a); and
 - (ii) ends immediately before the next 4th anniversary of the commencement of this Part.

Note: Paragraph (2)(a) deals with applications that are made in a 4 yearly review of default fund terms, and paragraph (2)(b) deals with applications that are made outside a 4 yearly review.
 - (3) The application must also:
 - (a) be accompanied by any fees that are prescribed by the regulations; and
 - (b) provide information relating to the first stage criteria.
 - (4) The FWC must publish any application made under subsection (1).

Section 156P

- (5) However, if an application includes information that is claimed by the applicant to be confidential or commercially sensitive, and the FWC is satisfied that the information is confidential or commercially sensitive:
 - (a) the FWC may decide not to publish the information; and
 - (b) if it does so, it must instead publish a summary of the information which contains sufficient detail to allow a reasonable understanding of the substance of the information (without disclosing anything that is confidential or commercially sensitive).
- (6) A reference in this Act (other than in this section) in relation to an application made under subsection (1) includes a reference to a summary referred to in paragraph (5)(b).
- (7) Only one application in relation to an employer MySuper product may be made under subsection (1) in the period that:
 - (a) starts at the start of the standard application period; and
 - (b) ends at the end of the interim application period.

156P FWC to determine applications

- (1) If an application is made under subsection 156N(1) to have an employer MySuper product included on the schedule, the FWC must make a determination about whether to include the product on the schedule.

Note: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel for the purposes of making this determination (see paragraphs 617(4)(d) and (5)(a)).

- (2) The FWC must not determine that the product is to be included on the schedule unless the product satisfies the first stage test and the second stage test.

156Q The first stage test

An employer MySuper product satisfies the first stage test if the FWC is satisfied that including the product on the Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products would be in the best interests of default fund employees, or a particular class of those employees, taking into account:

Section 156R

- (a) the information provided in the application; and
- (b) the first stage criteria; and
- (c) any submissions that were made in relation to whether the product satisfies the first stage test.

156R Submissions about the first stage test

- (1) The FWC must ensure that all persons and bodies have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions to the FWC about whether an employer MySuper product satisfies the first stage test.
- (2) If:
 - (a) a person or body makes a written submission in relation to whether an employer MySuper product satisfies the first stage test; and
 - (b) the person or body has an interest in relation to:
 - (i) the superannuation fund that offers the product; or
 - (ii) if the person or body refers to another superannuation fund in the submission—that superannuation fund;then the person or body must disclose that interest in the submission.
- (3) The FWC must publish any submission that is made.

156S The second stage test

An employer MySuper product satisfies the second stage test if the FWC is satisfied that including the product on the Schedule of Approved Employer MySuper Products would be in the best interests of default fund employees of an employer to which the product relates, or a particular class of those employees, taking into account:

- (a) any submissions that were made in relation to whether the product satisfies the second stage test; and
- (b) any other matter the FWC considers relevant.

156T Submissions about the second stage test

- (1) The FWC must ensure that the following persons have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions to the FWC about whether an employer MySuper product satisfies the second stage test:
 - (a) an employee of an employer to which the product relates;
 - (b) an employer to which the product relates;
 - (c) an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) If:
 - (a) a person or body (whether or not a person referred to in subsection (1)) makes a written submission in relation to whether an employer MySuper product satisfies the second stage test; and
 - (b) the person or body has an interest in relation to:
 - (i) the superannuation fund that offers the product; or
 - (ii) if the person or body refers to another superannuation fund in the submission—that superannuation fund;then the person or body must disclose that interest in the submission.
- (3) The FWC must publish any submission that is made.

Subdivision E—Publishing documents under this Division

156U Publishing documents under this Division

If the FWC is required by this Division to publish a document, the FWC must publish the document on its website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

Division 5—Exercising modern award powers outside 4 yearly reviews and annual wage reviews

Subdivision A—Exercise of powers if necessary to achieve modern awards objective

157 FWC may vary etc. modern awards if necessary to achieve modern awards objective

- (1) The FWC may:
- (a) make a determination varying a modern award, otherwise than to vary modern award minimum wages or to vary a default fund term of the award; or
 - (b) make a modern award; or
 - (c) make a determination revoking a modern award;
- if the FWC is satisfied that making the determination or modern award outside the system of 4 yearly reviews of modern awards is necessary to achieve the modern awards objective.
- Note 1: The FWC must be constituted by a Full Bench to make a modern award (see subsection 616(1)).
- Note 2: Special criteria apply to changing coverage of modern awards or revoking modern awards (see sections 163 and 164).
- Note 3: If the FWC is setting modern award minimum wages, the minimum wages objective also applies (see section 284).
- (2) The FWC may make a determination varying modern award minimum wages if the FWC is satisfied that:
- (a) the variation of modern award minimum wages is justified by work value reasons; and
 - (b) making the determination outside the system of annual wage reviews and the system of 4 yearly reviews of modern awards is necessary to achieve the modern awards objective.
- Note: As the FWC is varying modern award minimum wages, the minimum wages objective also applies (see section 284).
- (3) The FWC may make a determination or modern award under this section:

Section 158

- (a) on its own initiative; or
- (b) on application under section 158.

Subdivision B—Other situations

159 Variation of modern award to update or omit name of employer, organisation or outworker entity

- (1) The FWC may make a determination varying a modern award:
- (a) to reflect a change in the name of an employer, organisation or outworker entity; or

159A Variation of default fund term of modern award

- (1) The FWC may make a determination varying the default fund term of a modern award in relation to a superannuation fund specified in the term in relation to a standard MySuper product (the specified product) in the following circumstances:
- (a) to reflect a change in the name of the fund or the specified product;
 - (b) if the fund has ceased to exist—to omit the name of the fund and the specified product;
 - (c) if the specified product has ceased to exist and no other MySuper product is specified in relation to the fund—to omit the name of the fund and the specified product;
 - (d) if the specified product has ceased to exist and another MySuper product is specified in relation to the fund—to omit the name of the specified product;
 - (e) if the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority gives the FWC notice under subsection 29U(4) of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 that the fund no longer offers the specified product and no other MySuper product is specified in relation to the fund—to omit the name of the fund and the specified product;
 - (f) if the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority gives the FWC notice under subsection 29U(4) of the Superannuation

Section 160

Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 that the fund no longer offers the specified product and another MySuper product is specified in relation to the fund—to omit the name of the specified product.

- (2) The FWC may make a determination under this section:
 - (a) in any case—on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by an employee, employer, organisation or outworker entity covered by the modern award.

160 Variation of modern award to remove ambiguity or uncertainty or correct error

- (1) The FWC may make a determination varying a modern award to remove an ambiguity or uncertainty or to correct an error.
- (2) The FWC may make the determination:
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by an employer, employee, organisation or outworker entity that is covered by the modern award; or
 - (c) on application by an organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more employers or employees that are covered by the modern award; or

161 Variation of modern award on referral by Australian Human Rights Commission

- (1) The FWC must review a modern award if the award is referred to it under section 46PW of the Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986 (which deals with discriminatory industrial instruments).
- (2) The following are entitled to make submissions to the FWC for consideration in the review:

Chapter 2 Terms and conditions of employment

Part 2-3 Modern awards

Division 5 Exercising modern award powers outside 4 yearly reviews and annual wage reviews

Section 161

- (a) if the referral relates to action that would be unlawful under Part 4 of the Age Discrimination Act 2004—the Age Discrimination Commissioner;
 - (b) if the referral relates to action that would be unlawful under Part 2 of the Disability Discrimination Act 1992—the Disability Discrimination Commissioner;
 - (c) if the referral relates to action that would be unlawful under Part II of the Sex Discrimination Act 1984—the Sex Discrimination Commissioner.
- (3) If the FWC considers that the modern award reviewed requires a person to do an act that would be unlawful under any of the Acts referred to in subsection (2) (but for the fact that the act would be done in direct compliance with the modern award), the FWC must make a determination varying the modern award so that it no longer requires the person to do an act that would be so unlawful.

Note: Special criteria apply to changing coverage of modern awards (see section 163).

Division 6—General provisions relating to modern award powers

162 General

This Division contains some specific provisions relevant to the exercise of modern award powers. For other provisions relevant to the exercise of modern award powers, see the general provisions about the FWC's processes in Part 5-1.

Note: Relevant provisions of Part 5-1 include the following:

- (a) section 582 (which deals with the President's power to give directions);
- (b) section 590 (which deals with the FWC's discretion to inform itself as it considers appropriate, including by commissioning research);
- (c) section 596 (which deals with being represented in a matter before the FWC);
- (d) section 601 (which deals with writing and publication requirements).

163 Special criteria relating to changing coverage of modern awards

Special rule about reducing coverage

- (1) The FWC must not make a determination varying a modern award so that certain employers or employees stop being covered by the award unless the FWC is satisfied that they will instead become covered by another modern award (other than the miscellaneous modern award) that is appropriate for them.

Special rule about making a modern award

- (2) The FWC must not make a modern award covering certain employers or employees unless the FWC has considered whether it should, instead, make a determination varying an existing modern award to cover them.

Section 164

Special rule about covering organisations

- (3) The FWC must not make a modern award, or make a determination varying a modern award, so that an organisation becomes covered by the award, unless the organisation is entitled to represent the industrial interests of one or more employers or employees who are or will be covered by the award.

The miscellaneous modern award

- (4) The miscellaneous modern award is the modern award that is expressed to cover employees who are not covered by any other modern award.

164 Special criteria for revoking modern awards

The FWC must not make a determination revoking a modern award unless the FWC is satisfied that:

- (a) the award is obsolete or no longer capable of operating; or
- (b) all the employees covered by the award are covered by a different modern award (other than the miscellaneous modern award) that is appropriate for them, or will be so covered when the revocation comes into operation.

165 When variation determinations come into operation, other than determinations setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages

Determinations come into operation on specified day

- (1) A determination under this Part that varies a modern award (other than a determination that sets, varies or revokes modern award minimum wages) comes into operation on the day specified in the determination.

Note 1: For when a modern award, or a revocation of a modern award, comes into operation, see section 49.

Note: For when a determination under this Part setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages comes into operation, see section 166.

- (2) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the determination is made, unless:
 - (a) the determination is made under section 160 (which deals with variation to remove ambiguities or correct errors); and
 - (b) the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify specifying an earlier day.

Determinations take effect from first full pay period

- (3) The determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day the determination comes into operation.

166 When variation determinations setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages come into operation

Determinations generally come into operation on 1 July

- (1) A determination under this Part that sets, varies or revokes modern award minimum wages comes into operation:
 - (a) on 1 July in the next financial year after it is made; or
 - (b) if it is made on 1 July in a financial year—on that day.

Note: Modern award minimum wages can also be set, varied or revoked by determinations made in annual wage reviews. For when those determinations come into operation, see section 286.

FWC may specify another day of operation if appropriate

- (2) However, if the FWC specifies another day in the determination as the day on which it comes into operation, the determination comes into operation on that other day. The FWC must not specify another day unless it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.
- (3) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the determination is made, unless:
 - (a) the determination is made under section 160 (which deals with variation to remove ambiguities or correct errors); and
 - (b) the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify specifying an earlier day.

Section 167

Determinations may take effect in stages

- (4) The FWC may specify in the determination that changes to modern award minimum wages made by the determination take effect in stages if the FWC is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.

Determinations take effect from first full pay period

- (5) A change to modern award minimum wages made by the determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after:
- (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the day the determination comes into operation; or
 - (b) if the determination takes effect in stages under subsection (4)—the day the change to modern award minimum wages is specified to take effect.

167 Special rules relating to retrospective variations of awards

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a determination varying a modern award has a retrospective effect because it comes into operation under subsection 165(2) or 166(3) on a day before the day on which the determination is made.

No effect on past approval of enterprise agreement or variation

- (2) If, before the determination was made, an enterprise agreement or a variation of an enterprise agreement was approved by the FWC, the validity of the approval is not affected by the retrospective effect of the determination.

No creation of liability to pay pecuniary penalty for past conduct

- (3) If:
- (a) a person engaged in conduct before the determination was made; and

- (b) but for the retrospective effect of the determination, the conduct would not have contravened a term of the modern award or an enterprise agreement;

a court must not order the person to pay a pecuniary penalty under Division 2 of Part 4-1 in relation to the conduct, on the grounds that the conduct contravened a term of the modern award or enterprise agreement.

Note 1: This subsection does not affect the powers of a court to make other kinds of orders under Division 2 of Part 4-1.

Note 2: A determination varying a modern award could result in a contravention of a term of an enterprise agreement because of the effect of subsection 206(2).

168 Varied modern award must be published

- (1) If the FWC makes a determination under this Part or Part 2-6 (which deals with minimum wages) varying a modern award, the FWC must publish the award as varied as soon as practicable.
- (2) The publication may be on the FWC's website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

Division 7—Additional provisions relating to modern enterprise awards

168A Modern enterprise awards

- (1) This Division contains additional provisions that relate to modern enterprise awards. The provisions in this Division have effect despite anything else in this Part.
- (2) A modern enterprise award is a modern award that is expressed to relate to:
 - (a) a single enterprise (or a part of a single enterprise) only; or
 - (b) one or more enterprises, if the employers all carry on similar business activities under the same franchise and are:
 - (i) franchisees of the same franchisor; or
 - (ii) related bodies corporate of the same franchisor; or
 - (iii) any combination of the above.
- (3) A single enterprise is:
 - (a) a business, project or undertaking that is carried on by an employer; or
 - (b) the activities carried on by:
 - (i) the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (ii) a body, association, office or other entity established for a public purpose by or under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (iii) any other body in which the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory has a controlling interest.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), if 2 or more employers carry on a business, project or undertaking as a joint venture or common enterprise, the employers are taken to be one employer.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3), if 2 or more related bodies corporate each carry on a single enterprise:
 - (a) the bodies corporate are taken to be one employer; and
 - (b) the single enterprises are taken to be one single enterprise.

Section 168B

Note: However, a modern enterprise award could just relate to a part of that single enterprise.

- (6) A part of a single enterprise includes, for example:
- (a) a geographically distinct part of the single enterprise; or
 - (b) a distinct operational or organisational unit within the single enterprise.

168B The modern enterprise awards objective

What is the modern enterprise awards objective?

- (1) The FWC must recognise that modern enterprise awards may provide terms and conditions tailored to reflect employment arrangements that have been developed in relation to the relevant enterprises. This is the modern enterprise awards objective.

When does the modern enterprise awards objective apply?

- (2) The modern enterprise awards objective applies to the performance of the FWC's functions or powers under this Act, so far as they relate to modern enterprise awards.

References to the modern awards objective

- (3) A reference to the modern awards objective in this Act, other than section 134, is taken to include a reference to the modern enterprise awards objective.

168C Rules about making and revoking modern enterprise awards

Making modern enterprise awards

- (1) The FWC must not, under this Part:
- (a) make a modern enterprise award; or
 - (b) make a determination varying a modern award so that it becomes a modern enterprise award.

Note: Modern enterprise awards can be made only in accordance with the enterprise instrument modernisation process provided for by Part 2 of Schedule 6 of the Transitional Act.

Section 168C

Revoking modern enterprise awards

- (2) The FWC may make a determination revoking a modern enterprise award only on application under section 158.
- (3) The FWC must not make a determination revoking a modern enterprise award unless the FWC is satisfied that:
 - (a) the award is obsolete or no longer capable of operating; or
 - (b) all the employees covered by the award will, when the revocation comes into operation, be covered by a different modern award (other than the miscellaneous modern award or a modern enterprise award) that is appropriate for them.
- (4) In deciding whether to make a determination revoking a modern enterprise award the FWC must take into account the following:
 - (a) the circumstances that led to the making of the modern enterprise award;
 - (b) the content of the modern award referred to in paragraph (3)(b);
 - (c) the terms and conditions of employment applying in the industry in which the persons covered by the modern enterprise award operate, and the extent to which those terms and conditions are reflected in the modern enterprise award;
 - (d) the extent to which the modern enterprise award provides enterprise-specific terms and conditions of employment;

Part 2-4—Enterprise agreements

Division 1—Introduction

169 Guide to this Part

This Part is about enterprise agreements. An enterprise agreement is made at the enterprise level and provides terms and conditions for those national system employees to whom it applies. An enterprise agreement can have terms that are ancillary or supplementary to the National Employment Standards.

Division 2 deals with the making of enterprise agreements about permitted matters. An enterprise agreement (including a greenfields agreement) may be a single-enterprise agreement or a multi-enterprise agreement.

Division 3 deals with the right of employees to be represented by a bargaining representative during bargaining for a proposed enterprise agreement. It also sets out the persons who are bargaining representatives for such agreements.

Subdivision A of Division 4 deals with the approval of proposed enterprise agreements by employees and sets out when an enterprise agreement is made.

Subdivision B of Division 4 deals with the approval of enterprise agreements by the FWC. The remaining Subdivisions of the Division deal with certain approval requirements, including in relation to genuine agreement by employees and the better off overall test.

Division 5 deals with the mandatory terms of enterprise agreements relating to individual flexibility arrangements and consultation requirements.

Section 170

Division 6 deals with the base rate of pay under an enterprise agreement.

Division 7 deals with the variation and termination of enterprise agreements.

Division 8 provides for the FWC to facilitate bargaining by making bargaining orders, serious breach declarations, majority support determinations and scope orders. It also permits bargaining representatives to apply for the FWC to deal with bargaining disputes.

Division 9 provides for the making of low-paid authorisations in relation to proposed multi-enterprise agreements. The effect of such an authorisation is that specified employers are subject to certain rules that would not otherwise apply (for example, bargaining orders that would not usually be available for multi-enterprise agreements will be available). It also permits the FWC to assist the bargaining representatives for such agreements.

Division 10 deals with single interest employer authorisations. The effect of such an authorisation is that the employers specified in the authorisation are single interest employers in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement.

Division 11 deals with other matters relating to enterprise agreements.

170 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

171 Objects of this Part

The objects of this Part are:

Section 171

 - (b) the date will not be more than 4 years after the day on which the FWC approves the agreement.

Requirement for a term about settling disputes

- (6) The FWC must be satisfied that the agreement includes a term:
 - (a) that provides a procedure that requires or allows the FWC, or another person who is independent of the employers, employees or employee organisations covered by the agreement, to settle disputes:
 - (i) about any matters arising under the agreement; and
 - (ii) in relation to the National Employment Standards; and
 - (b) that allows for the representation of employees covered by the agreement for the purposes of that procedure.

Section 187

Note 1: The FWC or a person must not settle a dispute about whether an employer had reasonable business grounds under subsection 65(5) or 76(4) (see subsections 739(2) and 740(2)).

Note 2: However, this does not prevent the FWC from dealing with a dispute relating to a term of an enterprise agreement that has the same (or substantially the same) effect as subsection 65(5) or 76(4).

187 When the FWC must approve an enterprise agreement—additional requirements

Additional requirements

- (1) This section sets out additional requirements that must be met before the FWC approves an enterprise agreement under section 186.

Requirement that approval not be inconsistent with good faith bargaining etc.

- (2) The FWC must be satisfied that approving the agreement would not be inconsistent with or undermine good faith bargaining by one or more bargaining representatives for a proposed enterprise agreement, or an enterprise agreement, in relation to which a scope order is in operation.

Requirement relating to notice of variation of agreement

- (3) If a bargaining representative is required to vary the agreement as referred to in subsection 184(2), the FWC must be satisfied that the bargaining representative has complied with that subsection and subsection 184(3) (which deals with giving notice of the variation).

Requirements relating to particular kinds of employees

- (4) The FWC must be satisfied as referred to in any provisions of Subdivision E of this Division that apply in relation to the agreement.

Note: Subdivision E of this Division deals with approval requirements relating to particular kinds of employees.

Requirements relating to greenfields agreements

- (5) If the agreement is a greenfields agreement, the FWC must be satisfied that:
- (a) the relevant employee organisations that will be covered by the agreement are (taken as a group) entitled to represent the industrial interests of a majority of the employees who will be covered by the agreement, in relation to work to be performed under the agreement; and
 - (b) it is in the public interest to approve the agreement.

188 When employees have genuinely agreed to an enterprise agreement

An enterprise agreement has been genuinely agreed to by the employees covered by the agreement if the FWC is satisfied that:

- (a) the employer, or each of the employers, covered by the agreement complied with the following provisions in relation to the agreement:
 - (i) subsections 180(2), (3) and (5) (which deal with pre-approval steps);
 - (ii) subsection 181(2) (which requires that employees not be requested to approve an enterprise agreement until 21 days after the last notice of employee representational rights is given); and
- (b) the agreement was made in accordance with whichever of subsection 182(1) or (2) applies (those subsections deal with the making of different kinds of enterprise agreements by employee vote); and
- (c) there are no other reasonable grounds for believing that the agreement has not been genuinely agreed to by the employees.

189 FWC may approve an enterprise agreement that does not pass better off overall test—public interest test

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if:

Section 190

- (a) the FWC is not required to approve an enterprise agreement under section 186; and
- (b) the only reason for this is that the FWC is not satisfied that the agreement passes the better off overall test.

Approval of agreement if not contrary to the public interest

- (2) The FWC may approve the agreement under this section if the FWC is satisfied that, because of exceptional circumstances, the approval of the agreement would not be contrary to the public interest.

Note: The FWC may approve an enterprise agreement under this section with undertakings (see section 190).

- (3) An example of a case in which the FWC may be satisfied of the matter referred to in subsection (2) is where the agreement is part of a reasonable strategy to deal with a short-term crisis in, and to assist in the revival of, the enterprise of an employer covered by the agreement.

Nominal expiry date

- (4) The nominal expiry date of an enterprise agreement approved by the FWC under this section is the earlier of the following:
 - (a) the date specified in the agreement as the nominal expiry date of the agreement;
 - (b) 2 years after the day on which the FWC approved the agreement.

190 FWC may approve an enterprise agreement with undertakings

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an application for the approval of an enterprise agreement has been made under section 185; and
 - (b) the FWC has a concern that the agreement does not meet the requirements set out in sections 186 and 187.

Section 191

Approval of agreement with undertakings

- (2) The FWC may approve the agreement under section 186 if the FWC is satisfied that an undertaking accepted by the FWC under subsection (3) of this section meets the concern.

Undertakings

- (3) The FWC may only accept a written undertaking from one or more employers covered by the agreement if the FWC is satisfied that the effect of accepting the undertaking is not likely to:
- (a) cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the agreement; or
 - (b) result in substantial changes to the agreement.

FWC must seek views of bargaining representatives

- (4) The FWC must not accept an undertaking under subsection (3) unless the FWC has sought the views of each person who the FWC knows is a bargaining representative for the agreement.

Signature requirements

- (5) The undertaking must meet any requirements relating to the signing of undertakings that are prescribed by the regulations.

191 Effect of undertakings

- (1) If:
- (a) the FWC approves an enterprise agreement after accepting an undertaking under subsection 190(3) in relation to the agreement; and
 - (b) the agreement covers a single employer;
- the undertaking is taken to be a term of the agreement, as the agreement applies to the employer.
- (2) If:
- (a) the FWC approves an enterprise agreement after accepting an undertaking under subsection 190(3) in relation to the agreement; and

Section 192

(b) the agreement covers 2 or more employers;
the undertaking is taken to be a term of the agreement, as the agreement applies to each employer that gave the undertaking.

192 When the FWC may refuse to approve an enterprise agreement

- (1) If an application for the approval of an enterprise agreement is made under section 185, the FWC may refuse to approve the agreement if the FWC considers that compliance with the terms of the agreement may result in:
 - (a) a person committing an offence against a law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) a person being liable to pay a pecuniary penalty in relation to a contravention of a law of the Commonwealth.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect despite sections 186 and 189 (which deal with the approval of enterprise agreements).
- (3) If the FWC refuses to approve an enterprise agreement under this section, the FWC may refer the agreement to any person or body the FWC considers appropriate.

Subdivision C—Better off overall test

193 Passing the better off overall test

When a non-greenfields agreement passes the better off overall test

- (1) An enterprise agreement that is not a greenfields agreement passes the better off overall test under this section if the FWC is satisfied, as at the test time, that each award covered employee, and each prospective award covered employee, for the agreement would be better off overall if the agreement applied to the employee than if the relevant modern award applied to the employee.

FWC must disregard individual flexibility arrangement

- (2) If, under the flexibility term in the relevant modern award, an individual flexibility arrangement has been agreed to by an award covered employee and his or her employer, the FWC must disregard the individual flexibility arrangement for the purposes of determining whether the agreement passes the better off overall test.

When a greenfields agreement passes the better off overall test

- (3) A greenfields agreement passes the better off overall test under this section if the FWC is satisfied, as at the test time, that each prospective award covered employee for the agreement would be better off overall if the agreement applied to the employee than if the relevant modern award applied to the employee.

Award covered employee

- (4) An award covered employee for an enterprise agreement is an employee who:
- (a) is covered by the agreement; and
 - (b) at the test time, is covered by a modern award (the relevant modern award) that:
 - (i) is in operation; and
 - (ii) covers the employee in relation to the work that he or she is to perform under the agreement; and
 - (iii) covers his or her employer.

Prospective award covered employee

- (5) A prospective award covered employee for an enterprise agreement is a person who, if he or she were an employee at the test time of an employer covered by the agreement:
- (a) would be covered by the agreement; and
 - (b) would be covered by a modern award (the relevant modern award) that:
 - (i) is in operation; and
 - (ii) would cover the person in relation to the work that he or she would perform under the agreement; and
 - (iii) covers the employer.

Section 194

Test time

- (6) The test time is the time the application for approval of the agreement by the FWC was made under section 185.

FWC may assume employee better off overall in certain circumstances

- (7) For the purposes of determining whether an enterprise agreement passes the better off overall test, if a class of employees to which a particular employee belongs would be better off if the agreement applied to that class than if the relevant modern award applied to that class, the FWC is entitled to assume, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the employee would be better off overall if the agreement applied to the employee.

Subdivision D—Unlawful terms

194 Meaning of unlawful term

A term of an enterprise agreement is an unlawful term if it is:

- (a) a discriminatory term; or
- (b) an objectionable term; or
- (ba) a term that provides a method by which an employee or employer may elect (unilaterally or otherwise) not to be covered by the agreement; or
- (c) if a particular employee would be protected from unfair dismissal under Part 3-2 after completing a period of employment of at least the minimum employment period—a term that confers an entitlement or remedy in relation to a termination of the employee's employment that is unfair (however described) before the employee has completed that period; or
- (d) a term that excludes the application to, or in relation to, a person of a provision of Part 3-2 (which deals with unfair dismissal), or modifies the application of such a provision in a way that is detrimental to, or in relation to, a person; or

 - other than in accordance with Part 3-4 (which deals with right of entry); or
 - (g) a term that provides for the exercise of a State or Territory OHS right other than in accordance with Part 3-4 (which deals with right of entry); or
 - (h) a term that has the effect of requiring or permitting contributions, for the benefit of an employee (the relevant employee) covered by the agreement who is a default fund employee, to be made to a superannuation fund or scheme that is specified in the agreement but does not satisfy one of the following:
 - (i) it is a fund that offers a MySuper product;
 - (ii) it is a fund or scheme of which the relevant employee, and each other default fund employee in relation to whom contributions are made to the fund or scheme by the same employer as the relevant employee, is a defined benefit member;
 - (iii) it is an exempt public sector superannuation scheme.

195 Meaning of discriminatory term

Discriminatory term

- (1) A term of an enterprise agreement is a discriminatory term to the extent that it discriminates against an employee covered by the agreement because of, or for reasons including, the employee's race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, family or carer's responsibilities, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin.

Section 196

Certain terms are not discriminatory terms

- (2) A term of an enterprise agreement does not discriminate against an employee:
 - (a) if the reason for the discrimination is the inherent requirements of the particular position concerned; or

 - (i) in good faith; and
 - (ii) to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of that religion or creed.

 - (b) all employees with a disability, or a class of employees with a disability; or
 - (c) all employees to whom training arrangements apply, or a class of employees to whom training arrangements apply.

 - (b) result in substantial changes to the variation.

Signature requirements

- (4) An undertaking must meet any requirements relating to the signing of undertakings that are prescribed by the regulations.

229 Applications for bargaining orders

Persons who may apply for a bargaining order

Note: An employer cannot request employees to approve the agreement under subsection 181(1) until 21 days after the last notice of employee representational rights is given.

Prerequisites for making an application

 - (c) the actions to be taken by those bargaining representatives to deal with the effects of such capricious or unfair conduct;
 - (d) such matters, actions or requirements as the FWC considers appropriate, taking into account subparagraph 230(3)(a)(ii) (which deals with multiple bargaining representatives), for the purpose of promoting the efficient or fair conduct of bargaining for the agreement.
- (2) The kinds of bargaining orders that the FWC may make in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement include the following:

 - (b) an order requiring some or all of the bargaining representatives of the employees who will be covered by the agreement to meet and appoint one of the bargaining representatives to represent the bargaining representatives in bargaining;
 - (c) an order that an employer not terminate the employment of an employee, if the termination would constitute, or relate to, a failure by a bargaining representative to meet the good faith bargaining requirement referred to in paragraph 228(1)(e) (which deals with capricious or unfair conduct that undermines freedom of association or collective bargaining);
 - (d) an order to reinstate an employee whose employment has been terminated if the termination constitutes, or relates to, a failure by a bargaining representative to meet the good faith bargaining requirement referred to in paragraph 228(1)(e) (which deals with capricious or unfair conduct that undermines freedom of association or collective bargaining).
- (3) The regulations may:
- (a) specify the factors the FWC may or must take into account in deciding whether or not to make a bargaining order for reinstatement of an employee; and

235 When the FWC may make a serious breach declaration

Serious breach declaration

- (1) The FWC may make a serious breach declaration in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement if:

The objects of this Division are:

- (a) to assist and encourage low-paid employees and their employers, who have not historically had the benefits of collective bargaining, to make an enterprise agreement that meets their needs; and
- (b) to assist low-paid employees and their employers to identify improvements to productivity and service delivery through bargaining for an enterprise agreement that covers 2 or more employers, while taking into account the specific needs of individual enterprises; and

FWC must take into account historical and current matters relating to collective bargaining

Section 243

FWC must take into account matters relating to the likely success of collective bargaining

Section 244

Operation of authorisation

- (5) The authorisation comes into operation on the day on which it is made.

244 Variation of low-paid authorisations—general

Variation to remove employer

- (1) An employer specified in a low-paid authorisation may apply to the FWC for a variation of the authorisation to remove the employer's name from the authorisation.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the FWC must vary the authorisation to remove the employer's name if the FWC is satisfied that, because of a change in the employer's circumstances, it is no longer appropriate for the employer to be specified in the authorisation.

Variation to add employer

- (3) The following may apply to the FWC for a variation of a low-paid authorisation to add the name of an employer that is not specified in the authorisation:
 - (a) the employer;
 - (b) a bargaining representative of an employee who will be covered by the proposed multi-enterprise agreement to which the authorisation relates;
 - (c) an employee organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee in relation to work to be performed under that agreement.
- (4) If an application is made under subsection (3), the FWC must vary the authorisation to add the employer's name if the FWC is satisfied that it is in the public interest to do so, taking into account the matters specified in subsections 243(2) and (3).

245 Variation of low-paid authorisations—enterprise agreement etc. comes into operation

The FWC is taken to have varied a low-paid authorisation to remove an employer's name when an enterprise agreement, or a workplace determination, that covers the employer comes into operation.

246 FWC's assistance for the low-paid

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a low-paid authorisation is in operation in relation to a proposed multi-enterprise agreement.

FWC's assistance

- (2) The FWC may, on its own initiative, provide to the bargaining representatives for the agreement such assistance:
 - (a) that the FWC considers appropriate to facilitate bargaining for the agreement; and
 - (b) that the FWC could provide if it were dealing with a dispute.

Note: This section does not empower the FWC to arbitrate, because subsection 595(3) provides that the FWC may arbitrate only if expressly authorised to do so.

FWC may direct a person to attend a conference

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the FWC may provide assistance by directing a person who is not an employer specified in the authorisation to attend a conference at a specified time and place if the FWC is satisfied that the person exercises such a degree of control over the terms and conditions of the employees who will be covered by the agreement that the participation of the person in bargaining is necessary for the agreement to be made.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the FWC's powers under Subdivision B of Division 3 of Part 5-1.

Division 10—Single interest employer authorisations

Subdivision A—Declaration that employers may bargain together for a proposed enterprise agreement

247 Ministerial declaration that employers may bargain together for a proposed enterprise agreement

Application for declaration

- (1) Two or more employers that will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement may apply to the Minister for a declaration under subsection (3).

Note: Employers named in a declaration may apply for a single interest employer authorisation (see Subdivision B of this Division).

- (2) The application must specify the employers (the relevant employers) that will be covered by the agreement.

Declaration by the Minister

- (3) If an application is made under subsection (1), the Minister may declare, in writing, that the relevant employers may bargain together for the agreement.
- (4) In deciding whether or not to make the declaration, the Minister must take into account the following matters:
 - (a) the history of bargaining of each of the relevant employers, including whether they have previously bargained together;
 - (b) the interests that the relevant employers have in common, and the extent to which those interests are relevant to whether they should be permitted to bargain together;
 - (c) whether the relevant employers are governed by a common regulatory regime;
 - (d) whether it would be more appropriate for each of the relevant employers to make a separate enterprise agreement with its employees;

- (e) the extent to which the relevant employers operate collaboratively rather than competitively;
 - (f) whether the relevant employers are substantially funded, directly or indirectly, by the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory;
 - (g) any other matter the Minister considers relevant.
- (5) If the Minister decides to make the declaration, the relevant employers must be specified in the declaration.
- (6) A declaration under subsection (3) is not a legislative instrument.

Subdivision B—Single interest employer authorisations

248 Single interest employer authorisations

- (1) Two or more employers may apply to the FWC for an authorisation (a single interest employer authorisation) under section 249 in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement.
- Note: The effect of a single interest employer authorisation is that the employers are single interest employers in relation to the agreement (see paragraph 172(5)(c)).
- (2) The application must specify the following:
- (a) the employers that will be covered by the agreement;
 - (b) the employees who will be covered by the agreement;
 - (c) the person (if any) nominated by the employers to make applications under this Act if the authorisation is made.

249 When the FWC must make a single interest employer authorisation

Single interest employer authorisation

- (1) The FWC must make a single interest employer authorisation in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement if:
- (a) an application for the authorisation has been made; and
 - (b) the FWC is satisfied that:

Section 249

- (i) the employers that will be covered by the agreement have agreed to bargain together; and
- (ii) no person coerced, or threatened to coerce, any of the employers to agree to bargain together; and
- (c) the requirements of either subsection (2) (which deals with franchisees) or (3) (which deals with employers that may bargain together for a proposed enterprise agreement) are met.

Franchisees

- (2) The requirements of this subsection are met if the FWC is satisfied that the employers carry on similar business activities under the same franchise and are:
 - (a) franchisees of the same franchisor; or
 - (b) related bodies corporate of the same franchisor; or
 - (c) any combination of the above.

Employers that may bargain together for the agreement

- (3) The requirements of this subsection are met if the FWC is satisfied that all of the employers are specified in a declaration made under section 247 in relation to the agreement.

Operation of authorisation

- (4) The authorisation:
 - (a) comes into operation on the day on which it is made; and
 - (b) ceases to be in operation at the earlier of the following:
 - (i) the day on which the enterprise agreement to which the authorisation relates is made;
 - (ii) 12 months after the day on which the authorisation is made or, if the period is extended under section 252, at the end of that period.

250 What a single interest employer authorisation must specify

What authorisation must specify

- (1) A single interest employer authorisation in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement must specify the following:
 - (a) the employers that will be covered by the agreement;
 - (b) the employees who will be covered by the agreement;
 - (c) the person (if any) nominated by the employers to make applications under this Act if the authorisation is made;
 - (d) any other matter prescribed by the procedural rules.

Authorisation may relate to only some of employers or employees

- (2) If the FWC is satisfied of the matters specified in subsection 249(2) or (3) (which deal with franchisees and employers that may bargain together for a proposed enterprise agreement) in relation to only some of the employers that will be covered by the agreement, the FWC may make a single interest employer authorisation specifying those employers and their employees only.

251 Variation of single interest employer authorisations

Variation to remove employer

- (1) An employer specified in a single interest employer authorisation in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement may apply to the FWC for a variation of the authorisation to remove the employer's name from the authorisation.
- (2) If an application is made under subsection (1), the FWC must vary the authorisation to remove the employer's name if the FWC is satisfied that, because of a change in the employer's circumstances, it is no longer appropriate for the employer to be specified in the authorisation.

Section 252

Variation to add employer

- (3) An employer that is not specified in a single interest employer authorisation may apply to the FWC for a variation of the authorisation to add the employer's name to the authorisation.
- (4) If an application is made under subsection (3), the FWC must vary the authorisation to add the employer's name if the FWC is satisfied that:
 - (a) each employer specified in the authorisation has agreed to the employer's name being added; and
 - (b) no person coerced, or threatened to coerce, the employer to make the application; and
 - (c) the requirements of subsection 249(2) or (3) (which deal with franchisees and employers that may bargain together for a proposed enterprise agreement) are met.

252 Variation to extend period single interest employer authorisation is in operation

- (1) A bargaining representative for a proposed enterprise agreement to which a single interest employer authorisation relates may apply to the FWC to vary the authorisation to extend the period for which the authorisation is in operation.
- (2) The FWC may vary the authorisation to extend the period if the FWC is satisfied that:
 - (a) there are reasonable prospects that the agreement will be made if the authorisation is in operation for a longer period; and
 - (b) it is appropriate in all the circumstances to extend the period.

Division 11—Other matters

253 Terms of an enterprise agreement that are of no effect

- (1) A term of an enterprise agreement has no effect to the extent that:
 - (a) it is not a term about a permitted matter; or
 - (b) it is an unlawful term; or
 - (c) it is a designated outworker term.

Note 1: A term of an enterprise agreement has no effect to the extent that it contravenes section 55 (see section 56).

Note 2: A term of an enterprise agreement permitting or requiring deductions or payments to be made has no effect if it benefits the employer and is unreasonable in the circumstances (see section 326).

- (2) However, if an enterprise agreement includes a term that has no effect because of subsection (1), or section 56 or 326, the inclusion of the term does not prevent the agreement from being an enterprise agreement.

254 Applications by bargaining representatives

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Part permits an application to be made by a bargaining representative of an employer that will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement.

Persons who may make applications

- (2) If the agreement will cover more than one employer, the application may be made by:
 - (a) in the case of a proposed enterprise agreement in relation to which a single interest employer authorisation is in operation—the person (if any) specified in the authorisation as the person who may make applications under this Act; or
 - (b) in any case—a bargaining representative of an employer that will be covered by the agreement, on behalf of one or more other such bargaining representatives, if those other bargaining representatives have agreed to the application being made on their behalf.

Section 255

255 Part does not empower the FWC to make certain orders

- (1) This Part does not empower the FWC to make an order that requires, or has the effect of requiring:
 - (a) particular content to be included or not included in a proposed enterprise agreement; or
 - (b) an employer to request under subsection 181(1) that employees approve a proposed enterprise agreement; or
 - (c) an employee to approve, or not approve, a proposed enterprise agreement.
- (2) Despite paragraph (1)(a), the FWC may make an order that particular content be included or not included in a proposed enterprise agreement if the order is made in the course of arbitration undertaken when dealing with a dispute under section 240.

Note: The FWC may only arbitrate a dispute under section 240 if arbitration has been agreed to by the bargaining representatives for the agreement (see subsection 240(4)).

256 Prospective employers and employees

A reference to an employer, or an employee, in relation to a greenfields agreement, includes a reference to a person who may become an employer or employee.

256A How employees, employers and employee organisations are to be described

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Part requires or permits an instrument of any kind to specify the employers, employees or employee organisations covered, or who will be covered, by an enterprise agreement or other instrument.
- (2) The employees may be specified by class or by name.

- (3) The employers and employee organisations must be specified by name.
- (4) Without limiting the way in which a class may be described for the purposes of subsection (2), the class may be described by reference to one or more of the following:
 - (a) a particular industry or part of an industry;
 - (b) a particular kind of work;
 - (c) a particular type of employment;
 - (d) a particular classification, job level or grade.

257 Enterprise agreements may incorporate material in force from time to time etc.

Despite section 46AA of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, an enterprise agreement may incorporate material contained in an instrument or other writing:

- (a) as in force at a particular time; or
- (b) as in force from time to time.

Part 2-5—Workplace determinations

Division 1—Introduction

258 Guide to this Part

This Part is about workplace determinations, which provide terms and conditions for those national system employees to whom they apply.

Division 2 deals with low-paid workplace determinations. Bargaining representatives for a proposed multi-enterprise agreement may apply to the FWC for such a determination if they are unable to reach agreement on the terms that should be included in the agreement.

Division 3 deals with industrial action related workplace determinations. The FWC must make such a determination if:

- (a) a termination of industrial action instrument is made in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement; and
- (b) after the end of the post-industrial action negotiating period, the bargaining representatives for the agreement have not settled the matters that were at issue during bargaining for the agreement.

Division 4 deals with bargaining related workplace determinations. The FWC must make such a determination if:

- (a) a serious breach declaration is made in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement; and
- (b) after the end of the post-declaration negotiating period, the bargaining representatives for the agreement have not settled the matters that were at issue during bargaining for the agreement.

Section 259

Division 5 sets out the core terms, mandatory terms and agreed terms of workplace determinations. It also sets out the factors that the FWC must take into account in deciding the terms of a workplace determination.

Division 6 deals with the operation, coverage and interaction etc. of workplace determinations. It also provides that, subject to certain exceptions, this Act applies to a workplace determination that is in operation as if it were an enterprise agreement that is in operation.

Division 7 deals with contraventions of workplace determinations and other matters relating to applications by bargaining representatives.

259 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

273 Mandatory terms of workplace determinations

- (a) the merits of the case;
- (b) for a low-paid workplace determination—the interests of the employers and employees who will be covered by the determination, including ensuring that the employers are able to remain competitive;
- (c) for a workplace determination other than a low-paid workplace determination—the interests of the employers and employees who will be covered by the determination;
- (d) the public interest;
- (e) how productivity might be improved in the enterprise or enterprises concerned;
- (f) the extent to which the conduct of the bargaining representatives for the proposed enterprise agreement concerned was reasonable during bargaining for the agreement;
- (g) the extent to which the bargaining representatives for the proposed enterprise agreement concerned have complied with the good faith bargaining requirements;
- (h) incentives to continue to bargain at a later time.

Division 6—Operation, coverage and interaction etc. of workplace determinations

276 When a workplace determination operates etc.

- (1) A workplace determination operates from the day on which it is made.
- (2) A workplace determination ceases to operate on the earlier of the following days:
 - (a) the day on which a termination of the determination comes into operation under section 224 or 227 as applied to the determination by section 279 (which deals with the application of this Act to workplace determinations);
 - (b) the day on which section 278 first has the effect that there is no employee to whom the agreement applies.

Note: Section 278 deals with when a workplace determination ceases to apply to an employee.

- (3) A workplace determination that has ceased to operate can never operate again.

277 Employers, employees and employee organisations covered by a workplace determination

Employers, employees and employee organisations

- (1) A workplace determination covers an employer, employee or employee organisation if the determination is expressed to cover the employer, employee or organisation.

Effect of provisions of this Act, FWC orders and court orders on coverage

- (2) A workplace determination also covers an employer, employee or employee organisation if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the determination covers the employer, employee or organisation:
 - (a) a provision of this Act;

- (b) an FWC order made under a provision of this Act;
 - (c) an order of a court.
- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a workplace determination does not cover an employer, employee or employee organisation if any of the following provides, or has the effect, that the determination does not cover the employer, employee or organisation:
- (a) another provision of this Act;
 - (b) an FWC order made under another provision of this Act;
 - (c) an order of a court.

Workplace determinations that have ceased to operate

- (4) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a workplace determination that has ceased to operate does not cover an employer, employee or employee organisation.

Workplace determinations cover employees in relation to particular employment

- (5) A reference in this Act to a workplace determination covering an employee is a reference to the determination covering the employee in relation to particular employment.

278 Interaction of a workplace determination with enterprise agreements etc.

Interaction with an enterprise agreement

- (1) If:
- (a) a workplace determination applies to an employee in relation to particular employment; and
 - (b) an enterprise agreement that covers the employee in relation to the same employment comes into operation;
- the determination ceases to apply to the employee in relation to that employment, and can never so apply again.

Interaction with another workplace determination

- (2) If:

Section 279

- (a) a workplace determination (the earlier determination) applies to an employee in relation to particular employment; and
- (b) another workplace determination (the later determination) that covers the employee in relation to the same employment comes into operation;

the earlier determination ceases to apply to the employee in relation to that employment when the later determination comes into operation, and can never so apply again.

279 Act applies to a workplace determination as if it were an enterprise agreement

- (1) This Act applies to a workplace determination that is in operation as if it were an enterprise agreement that is in operation.
- (2) However, the following provisions do not apply to the determination:
 - (a) section 50 (which deals with contraventions of enterprise agreements);
 - (b) section 53 (which deals with the coverage of enterprise agreements);
 - (c) section 54 (which deals with the operation of enterprise agreements);
 - (d) section 58 (which deals with the interaction between one or more enterprise agreements);
 - (e) section 183 (which deals with the entitlement of employee organisations to be covered by enterprise agreements);
 - (f) the provisions of Subdivisions A and B of Division 7 of Part 2-4 (which deal with the variation of enterprise agreements) other than section 218 (which deals with variation of an enterprise agreement on referral by the Australian Human Rights Commission).
- (3) In addition, Subdivision C of Division 7 of Part 2-4 (which deals with the termination of enterprise agreements by employers and employees) only applies to a workplace determination after the determination has passed its nominal expiry date.

Division 7—Other matters

280 Contravening a workplace determination

A person must not contravene a term of a workplace determination.

Note 1: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: A person does not contravene a term of a workplace determination unless the determination applies to the person: see subsections 51(1) and 279(1).

281 Applications by bargaining representatives

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Part permits an application to be made by a bargaining representative of an employer that would have been covered by a proposed enterprise agreement.

Persons who may make applications

- (2) If the agreement would have covered more than one employer, the application may be made by:
 - (a) in the case of a proposed enterprise agreement in relation to which a single interest employer authorisation is in operation—the person (if any) specified in the authorisation as the person who may make applications under this Act; or
 - (b) in any case—a bargaining representative of an employer that would have been covered by the agreement, on behalf of one or more other such bargaining representatives, if those other bargaining representatives have agreed to the application being made on their behalf.

281A How employees, employers and employee organisations are to be described

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Part requires or permits an instrument of any kind to specify the employers, employees or employee organisations covered, or who will be covered, by a workplace determination or other instrument.

- (2) The employees may be specified by class or by name.
- (3) The employers and employee organisations must be specified by name.
- (4) Without limiting the way in which a class may be described for the purposes of subsection (2), the class may be described by reference to one or more of the following:
 - (a) a particular industry or part of an industry;
 - (b) a particular kind of work;
 - (c) a particular type of employment;
 - (d) a particular classification, job level or grade.

Part 2-6—Minimum wages

Division 1—Introduction

282 Guide to this Part

This Part provides for the FWC (constituted by an Expert Panel) to set and vary minimum wages for national system employees. For employees covered by modern awards, minimum wages are specified in the modern award. For award/agreement free employees, minimum wages are specified in the national minimum wage order.

Division 2 provides for the minimum wages objective. This requires the FWC to establish and maintain a safety net of fair minimum wages, taking into account certain social and economic factors.

Division 3 provides for the FWC (constituted by an Expert Panel) to conduct annual wage reviews. In an annual wage review, the FWC may set or vary minimum wages in modern awards, and must make a national minimum wage order. Minimum wages in modern awards can also be set, or varied (in limited circumstances), under Part 2-3 (which deals with modern awards).

Division 4 provides for national minimum wage orders and requires employers to comply with them. The orders set the national minimum wage, as well as special national minimum wages for junior employees, employees to whom training arrangements apply and employees with a disability. The orders also set the casual loading for award/agreement free employees.

National minimum wages and special national minimum wages apply to award/agreement free employees. However, they are also relevant to other employees as follows:

Section 283

- (a) in setting or varying modern award minimum wages, the FWC must take the national minimum wage into account (see subsection 135(2) (in Part 2-3) and subsection 285(3) (in this Part));
- (b) for an employee who is not covered by a modern award and to whom an enterprise agreement applies, the employee's base rate of pay under the agreement must not be less than the relevant national minimum wage or special national minimum wage (see subsection 206(3) (in Part 2-4)).

For an employee who is covered by a modern award and to whom an enterprise agreement applies, the employee's base rate of pay under the agreement must not be less than the base rate of pay that would have been payable to the employee if the award applied (see subsection 206(1) (in Part 2-4)).

283 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Division 2—Overarching provisions

284 The minimum wages objective

What is the minimum wages objective?

- (1) The FWC must establish and maintain a safety net of fair minimum wages, taking into account:
 - (a) the performance and competitiveness of the national economy, including productivity, business competitiveness and viability, inflation and employment growth; and
 - (b) promoting social inclusion through increased workforce participation; and
 - (c) relative living standards and the needs of the low paid; and
 - (d) the principle of equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value; and
 - (e) providing a comprehensive range of fair minimum wages to junior employees, employees to whom training arrangements apply and employees with a disability.

This is the minimum wages objective.

When does the minimum wages objective apply?

- (2) The minimum wages objective applies to the performance or exercise of:
 - (a) the FWC's functions or powers under this Part; and
 - (b) the FWC's functions or powers under Part 2-3, so far as they relate to setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages.

Note: The FWC must also take into account the objects of this Act and any other applicable provisions. For example, if the FWC is setting, varying or revoking modern award minimum wages, the modern awards objective also applies (see section 134).

Meaning of modern award minimum wages

- (3) Modern award minimum wages are the rates of minimum wages in modern awards, including:

Section 284

- (a) wage rates for junior employees, employees to whom training arrangements apply and employees with a disability; and
- (b) casual loadings; and
- (c) piece rates.

Meaning of setting and varying modern award minimum wages

- (4) Setting modern award minimum wages is the initial setting of one or more new modern award minimum wages in a modern award, either in the award as originally made or by a later variation of the award. Varying modern award minimum wages is varying the current rate of one or more modern award minimum wages.

Division 3—Annual wage reviews

Subdivision A—Main provisions

285 Annual wage reviews to be conducted

- (1) The FWC must conduct and complete an annual wage review in each financial year.

Note 1: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel to conduct annual wage reviews, and to make determinations and orders in those reviews (see section 617).

Note 2: The President may give directions about the conduct of annual wage reviews (see section 582).

- (2) In an annual wage review, the FWC:

- (a) must review:

- (i) modern award minimum wages; and

- (ii) the national minimum wage order; and

- (b) may make one or more determinations varying modern awards to set, vary or revoke modern award minimum wages; and

- (c) must make a national minimum wage order.

Note: For provisions about national minimum wage orders, see Division 4.

- (3) In exercising its power in an annual wage review to make determinations referred to in paragraph (2)(b), the FWC must take into account the rate of the national minimum wage that it proposes to set in the review.

286 When annual wage review determinations varying modern awards come into operation

Determinations generally come into operation on 1 July

- (1) A determination (a variation determination) varying one or more modern awards to set, vary or revoke modern award minimum wages that is made in an annual wage review comes into operation on 1 July in the next financial year.

Section 287

Later operation of determinations in exceptional circumstances

- (2) If the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances justifying why a variation determination should not come into operation until a later day, the FWC may specify that later day as the day on which it comes into operation. However, the determination must be limited just to the particular situation to which the exceptional circumstances relate.

Note: This may mean that the FWC needs to make more than one determination, if different circumstances apply to different employees.

- (3) If a later day is so specified, the variation determination comes into operation on that later day.

Effect of determinations cannot be deferred

- (4) The FWC cannot provide for the effect of a variation determination on modern award minimum wages to be deferred to a day that is later than the day on which the determination comes into operation.

Determinations take effect from first full pay period

- (5) A variation determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day the determination comes into operation.

287 When national minimum wage orders come into operation etc.

Orders come into operation on 1 July

- (1) A national minimum wage order that is made in an annual wage review comes into operation on 1 July in the next financial year (the year of operation).

Setting of different wages or loadings only permitted in exceptional circumstances

- (2) The national minimum wage or the casual loading for award/agreement free employees set by the order must be the same for all employees, unless:

Section 287

- (a) the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances justifying setting different wages or loadings; and
 - (b) the setting of different wages or loadings is limited just to the extent necessary because of the particular situation to which the exceptional circumstances relate.
- (3) A special national minimum wage set by the order for a specified class of employees must be the same for all employees in that class, unless:
 - (a) the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances justifying setting different wages; and
 - (b) the setting of different wages is limited just to the extent necessary because of the particular situation to which the exceptional circumstances relate.

Adjustments taking effect during year of operation only permitted in exceptional circumstances

- (4) The order may provide that an adjustment of the national minimum wage, the casual loading for award/agreement free employees, or a special national minimum wage, set by the order takes effect (whether for some or all employees to whom that wage or loading applies) on a specified day in the year of operation that is later than 1 July, but only if:
 - (a) the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances justifying the adjustment taking effect on that day; and
 - (b) the adjustment is limited just to the particular situation to which the exceptional circumstances relate.

When orders take effect

- (5) The order takes effect in relation to a particular employee from the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after 1 July in the year of operation. However, an adjustment referred to in subsection (4) takes effect in relation to a particular employee from the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day specified as referred to in that subsection.

Section 288

Subdivision B—Provisions about conduct of annual wage reviews

288 General

This Subdivision contains some specific provisions relevant to the conduct of annual wage reviews. For other provisions relevant to the conduct of annual wage reviews, see the general provisions about the FWC's processes in Part 5-1.

- Note: Relevant provisions of Part 5-1 include the following:
- (a) section 582 (which deals with the President's power to give directions);
 - (b) section 590 (which deals with the FWC's discretion to inform itself as it considers appropriate, including by commissioning research);
 - (c) section 596 (which deals with being represented in a matter before the FWC);
 - (d) section 601 (which deals with writing and publication requirements).

289 Everyone to have a reasonable opportunity to make and comment on submissions

- (1) The FWC must, in relation to each annual wage review, ensure that all persons and bodies have a reasonable opportunity to make written submissions to the FWC for consideration in the review.
- (2) The FWC must publish all submissions made to the FWC for consideration in the review.
- (3) However, if a submission made by a person or body includes information that is claimed by the person or body to be confidential or commercially sensitive, and the FWC is satisfied that the information is confidential or commercially sensitive, the FWC:
 - (a) may decide not to publish the information; and
 - (b) may instead publish:
 - (i) a summary of the information which contains sufficient detail to allow a reasonable understanding of the substance of the information (without disclosing anything that is confidential or commercially sensitive); or

Section 290

- (ii) if the FWC considers that it is not practicable to prepare a summary that would comply with subparagraph (i)—a statement that confidential or commercially sensitive information in the submission has not been published.
- (4) A reference in this Act (other than in this section) to a submission under this section includes a reference to a summary or statement referred to in paragraph (3)(b).
- (5) The FWC must ensure that all persons and bodies have a reasonable opportunity to make comments to the FWC, for consideration in the review, on the material published under subsections (2) and (3).
- (6) The publishing of material under subsections (2) and (3) may be on the FWC's website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

290 President may direct investigations and reports

- (1) The President may give a direction under section 582 requiring that a matter be investigated, and that a report about the matter be prepared, for consideration in an annual wage review.
- (2) The direction:
 - (a) may be given to:
 - (i) an Expert Panel; or
 - (ii) an Expert Panel Member; or
 - (iii) a Full Bench that includes one or more Expert Panel Members; and
 - (b) must require the report to be given to the Expert Panel that is constituted to conduct the annual wage review, unless the direction is given to that Expert Panel.

291 Research must be published

- (1) If the FWC undertakes or commissions research for the purposes of an annual wage review, the FWC must publish the research so that submissions can be made addressing issues covered by the research.

Section 292

- (2) The publication may be on the FWC's website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

292 Varied wage rates must be published

- (1) If the FWC makes one or more determinations varying modern award minimum wages in an annual wage review, the FWC must publish the rates of those wages as so varied:
- (a) for wages in a modern award (other than a modern enterprise award or a State reference public sector modern award)—before 1 July in the next financial year; and
 - (b) for wages in a modern enterprise award or a State reference public sector modern award—as soon as practicable.

Note: The FWC must also publish the modern award as varied (see section 168).

- (2) The publication may be on the FWC's website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

Division 4—National minimum wage orders

293 Contravening a national minimum wage order

An employer must not contravene a term of a national minimum wage order.

Note: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

294 Content of national minimum wage order—main provisions

Setting minimum wages and the casual loading

- (1) A national minimum wage order:
- (a) must set the national minimum wage; and
 - (b) must set special national minimum wages for all award/agreement free employees in the following classes:
 - (i) junior employees;
 - (ii) employees to whom training arrangements apply;
 - (iii) employees with a disability; and
 - (c) must set the casual loading for award/agreement free employees.

Note: A national minimum wage order must be made in each annual wage review (see section 285).

Requiring employers to pay minimum wages and the casual loading

- (2) The order:
- (a) must require employers to pay employees to whom the national minimum wage applies a base rate of pay that at least equals the national minimum wage; and
 - (b) must require employers to pay to employees to whom a special national minimum wage applies a base rate of pay that at least equals that special national minimum wage; and
 - (c) must require employers to pay, to award/agreement free employees who are casual employees, a casual loading that at least equals the casual loading for award/agreement free employees (as applied to the employees' base rates of pay).

Section 295

What employees does the national minimum wage apply to?

- (3) The national minimum wage applies to all award/agreement free employees who are not:
- (a) junior employees; or
 - (b) employees to whom training arrangements apply; or
 - (c) employees with a disability.

What employees does a special national minimum wage apply to?

- (4) A special national minimum wage applies to the employees to whom it is expressed in the order to apply. Those employees must be:
- (a) all junior employees who are award/agreement free employees, or a specified class of those employees; or
 - (b) all employees to whom training arrangements apply and who are award/agreement free employees, or a specified class of those employees; or
 - (c) all employees with a disability who are award/agreement free employees, or a specified class of those employees.

295 Content of national minimum wage order—other matters

Expressing minimum wages and the casual loading

- (1) In a national minimum wage order:
- (a) the national minimum wage, and the special national minimum wages, set by the order must be expressed in a way that produces a monetary amount per hour; and
 - (b) the casual loading for award/agreement free employees must be expressed as a percentage.

Note: The means by which the national minimum wage or a special national minimum wage may be expressed include:

- (a) a monetary amount per hour; or
- (b) a monetary amount for a specified number of hours; or
- (c) a method for calculating a monetary amount per hour.

Terms about how the order applies

- (2) The order may also include terms about how the order, or any of the requirements in it, applies.

296 Variation of national minimum wage order to remove ambiguity or uncertainty or correct error

Permitted variations

- (1) The FWC may make a determination varying a national minimum wage order to remove an ambiguity or uncertainty or to correct an error.

Note: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel to vary a national minimum wage order (see section 617).

- (2) If the FWC varies a national minimum wage order, the FWC must, as soon as practicable, publish the order as varied on its website or by any other means that the FWC considers appropriate.

No other variation or revocation permitted

- (3) A national minimum wage order:
 - (a) cannot be varied except as referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) cannot be revoked.

297 When determinations varying national minimum wage orders come into operation

Determinations come into operation on specified day

- (1) A determination varying a national minimum wage order under section 296 comes into operation on the day specified in the determination.

Note: For when a national minimum wage order comes into operation, see section 287.

- (2) The specified day must not be earlier than the day on which the determination is made, unless the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify specifying an earlier day.

Section 298

Determinations take effect from first full pay period

- (3) The determination does not take effect in relation to a particular employee until the start of the employee's first full pay period that starts on or after the day the determination comes into operation.

298 Special rule about retrospective variations of national minimum wage orders

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a determination varying a national minimum wage order has a retrospective effect because it comes into operation under subsection 297(2) on a day before the day on which the determination is made.

No creation of liability to pay pecuniary penalty for past conduct

- (2) If:
- (a) a person engaged in conduct before the determination was made; and
 - (b) but for the retrospective effect of the determination, the conduct would not have contravened a term of the national minimum wage order or an enterprise agreement;
- a court must not order the person to pay a pecuniary penalty under Division 2 of Part 4-1 in relation to the conduct, on the grounds that the conduct contravened a term of the national minimum wage order or enterprise agreement.

Note 1: This subsection does not affect the powers of a court to make other kinds of orders under Division 2 of Part 4-1.

Note 2: A determination varying a national minimum wage order could result in a contravention of a term of an enterprise agreement because of the effect of subsection 206(4).

299 When a national minimum wage order is in operation

A national minimum wage order continues in operation until the next national minimum wage order comes into operation.

Note: For when a national minimum wage order comes into operation, see section 287.

Part 2-7—Equal remuneration

Division 1—Introduction

300 Guide to this Part

This Part allows the FWC to make orders to ensure that there will be equal remuneration for men and women workers for work of equal or comparable value.

301 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Division 2—Equal remuneration orders

302 FWC may make an order requiring equal remuneration

Power to make an equal remuneration order

- (1) The FWC may make any order (an equal remuneration order) it considers appropriate to ensure that, for employees to whom the order will apply, there will be equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value.

Meaning of equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value

- (2) Equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value means equal remuneration for men and women workers for work of equal or comparable value.

Who may apply for an equal remuneration order

- (3) The FWC may make the equal remuneration order only on application by any of the following:
 - (a) an employee to whom the order will apply;
 - (b) an employee organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of an employee to whom the order will apply;
 - (c) the Sex Discrimination Commissioner.

FWC must take into account orders and determinations made in annual wage reviews

- (4) In deciding whether to make an equal remuneration order, the FWC must take into account:
 - (a) orders and determinations made by the FWC in annual wage reviews; and
 - (b) the reasons for those orders and determinations.

Note: The FWC must be constituted by an Expert Panel in annual wage reviews (see section 617).

Restriction on power to make an equal remuneration order

- (5) However, the FWC may make the equal remuneration order only if it is satisfied that, for the employees to whom the order will apply, there is not equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value.

303 Equal remuneration order may increase, but must not reduce, rates of remuneration

- (1) Without limiting subsection 302(1), an equal remuneration order may provide for such increases in rates of remuneration as the FWC considers appropriate to ensure that, for employees to whom the order will apply, there will be equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value.
- (2) An equal remuneration order must not provide for a reduction in an employee's rate of remuneration.

304 Equal remuneration order may implement equal remuneration in stages

An equal remuneration order may implement equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value in stages (as provided in the order) if the FWC considers that it is not feasible to implement equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value when the order comes into operation.

305 Contravening an equal remuneration order

An employer must not contravene a term of an equal remuneration order.

Note: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

306 Inconsistency with modern awards, enterprise agreements and orders of the FWC

A term of a modern award, an enterprise agreement or an FWC order has no effect in relation to an employee to the extent that it is less beneficial to the employee than a term of an equal remuneration order that applies to the employee.

Section 306

Part 2-8—Transfer of business

Division 1—Introduction

307 Guide to this Part

This Part provides for the transfer of enterprise agreements, certain modern awards and certain other instruments if there is a transfer of business from one national system employer to another national system employer. (For a transfer of business from a non-national system employer that is a State public sector employer to a national system employer, see Part 6-3A.)

Division 2 describes when a transfer of business occurs and defines the following key concepts: old employer, new employer, transferring work, transferring employee and transferable instrument.

Division 2 also sets out the circumstances in which enterprise agreements, certain modern awards and certain other instruments that covered the old employer and the transferring employees (including high income employees) cover the new employer, the transferring employees and certain non-transferring employees and organisations.

Division 3 provides for the FWC to make orders in relation to a transfer of business.

308 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

Section 309

309 Object of this Part

The object of this Part is to provide a balance between:

- (a) the protection of employees' terms and conditions of employment under enterprise agreements, certain modern awards and certain other instruments; and
- (b) the interests of employers in running their enterprises efficiently;

if there is a transfer of business from one employer to another employer.

Division 2—Transfer of instruments

310 Application of this Division

This Division provides for the transfer of rights and obligations under enterprise agreements, certain modern awards and certain other instruments if there is a transfer of business from an old employer to a new employer.

311 When does a transfer of business occur

*Meanings of transfer of business, old employer, new employer and transferring work

- (1) There is a transfer of business from an employer (the old employer) to another employer (the new employer) if the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (a) the employment of an employee of the old employer has terminated;
 - (b) within 3 months after the termination, the employee becomes employed by the new employer;
 - (c) the work (the transferring work) the employee performs for the new employer is the same, or substantially the same, as the work the employee performed for the old employer;
 - (d) there is a connection between the old employer and the new employer as described in any of subsections (3) to (6).

*Meaning of transferring employee

- (2) An employee in relation to whom the requirements in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) are satisfied is a transferring employee in relation to the transfer of business.

Transfer of assets from old employer to new employer

- (3) There is a connection between the old employer and the new employer if, in accordance with an arrangement between:

Section 311

- (a) the old employer or an associated entity of the old employer;
and
- (b) the new employer or an associated entity of the new employer;
the new employer, or the associated entity of the new employer, owns or has the beneficial use of some or all of the assets (whether tangible or intangible):
- (c) that the old employer, or the associated entity of the old employer, owned or had the beneficial use of; and
- (d) that relate to, or are used in connection with, the transferring work.

Old employer outsources work to new employer

- (4) There is a connection between the old employer and the new employer if the transferring work is performed by one or more transferring employees, as employees of the new employer, because the old employer, or an associated entity of the old employer, has outsourced the transferring work to the new employer or an associated entity of the new employer.

New employer ceases to outsource work to old employer

- (5) There is a connection between the old employer and the new employer if:
 - (a) the transferring work had been performed by one or more transferring employees, as employees of the old employer, because the new employer, or an associated entity of the new employer, had outsourced the transferring work to the old employer or an associated entity of the old employer; and
 - (b) the transferring work is performed by those transferring employees, as employees of the new employer, because the new employer, or the associated entity of the new employer, has ceased to outsource the work to the old employer or the associated entity of the old employer.

New employer is associated entity of old employer

- (6) There is a connection between the old employer and the new employer if the new employer is an associated entity of the old employer when the transferring employee becomes employed by the new employer.

312 Instruments that may transfer

Meaning of transferable instrument

- (1) Each of the following is a transferable instrument:
- (a) an enterprise agreement that has been approved by the FWC;
 - (b) a workplace determination;
 - (c) a named employer award.

Meaning of named employer award

- (2) Each of the following is a named employer award:
- (a) a modern award (including a modern enterprise award) that is expressed to cover one or more named employers;
 - (b) a modern enterprise award that is expressed to cover one or more specified classes of employers (other than a modern enterprise award that is expressed to relate to one or more enterprises as described in paragraph 168A(2)(b)).

Note: Paragraph 168A(2)(b) deals with employers that carry on similar business activities under the same franchise.

313 Transferring employees and new employer covered by transferable instrument

- (1) If a transferable instrument covered the old employer and a transferring employee immediately before the termination of the transferring employee's employment with the old employer, then:
- (a) the transferable instrument covers the new employer and the transferring employee in relation to the transferring work after the time (the transfer time) the transferring employee becomes employed by the new employer; and
 - (b) while the transferable instrument covers the new employer and the transferring employee in relation to the transferring work, no other enterprise agreement or named employer award that covers the new employer at the transfer time covers the transferring employee in relation to that work.

Section 314

- (2) To avoid doubt, a transferable instrument that covers the new employer and a transferring employee under paragraph (1)(a) includes any individual flexibility arrangement that had effect as a term of the transferable instrument immediately before the termination of the transferring employee's employment with the old employer.
- (3) This section has effect subject to any FWC order under subsection 318(1).

314 New non-transferring employees of new employer may be covered by transferable instrument

- (1) If:
 - (a) a transferable instrument covers the new employer because of paragraph 313(1)(a); and
 - (b) after the transferable instrument starts to cover the new employer, the new employer employs a non-transferring employee; and
 - (c) the non-transferring employee performs the transferring work; and
 - (d) at the time the non-transferring employee is employed, no other enterprise agreement or modern award covers the new employer and the non-transferring employee in relation to that work;then the transferable instrument covers the new employer and the non-transferring employee in relation to that work.
- (2) A non-transferring employee of a new employer, in relation to a transfer of business, is an employee of the new employer who is not a transferring employee.
- (3) This section has effect subject to any FWC order under subsection 319(1).

315 Organisations covered by transferable instrument

Employer organisation covered by named employer award

- (1) If:

Section 315

- (a) a named employer award covers the new employer because of paragraph 313(1)(a); and
- (b) the named employer award covered an employer organisation in relation to the old employer immediately before the termination of a transferring employee's employment with the old employer;

then the named employer award covers the employer organisation in relation to the new employer.

Employee organisation covered by named employer award

(2) If:

- (a) a named employer award covers the new employer and a transferring employee because of paragraph 313(1)(a); and
- (b) the named employer award covered an employee organisation in relation to the transferring employee immediately before the termination of the transferring employee's employment with the old employer;

then the named employer award covers the employee organisation in relation to:

- (c) the transferring employee; and
- (d) any non-transferring employee of the new employer who:
 - (i) is covered by the named employer award because of a provision of this Part or an FWC order; and
 - (ii) performs the same work as the transferring employee.

Employee organisation covered by enterprise agreement

(3) To avoid doubt, if:

- (a) an enterprise agreement covers a transferring employee or a non-transferring employee because of a provision of this Part or an FWC order; and
- (b) the enterprise agreement covered an employee organisation immediately before the termination of the transferring employee's employment with the old employer;

then the enterprise agreement covers the employee organisation.

Section 316

316 Transferring employees who are high income employees

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the old employer had given a guarantee of annual earnings for a guaranteed period to a transferring employee; and
 - (b) the transferring employee was a high income employee immediately before the termination of the transferring employee's employment with the old employer; and
 - (c) some of the guaranteed period occurs after the time (the transfer time) the transferring employee becomes employed by the new employer; and
 - (d) an enterprise agreement does not apply to the transferring employee in relation to the transferring work at the transfer time.
- (2) The guarantee of annual earnings has effect after the transfer time (except as provided in this section) as if it had been given to the transferring employee by the new employer.
- (3) The new employer is not required to comply with the guarantee of annual earnings in relation to any part of the guaranteed period before the transfer time.
- (4) The new employer is not required to comply with the guarantee of annual earnings to the extent that it requires the new employer to pay an amount of earnings to the transferring employee, in relation to the part of the guaranteed period after the transfer time, at a rate that is more than the annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings.
- (5) If:
 - (a) the transferring employee is entitled to non-monetary benefits under the guarantee of annual earnings after the transfer time; and
 - (b) it is not practicable for the new employer to provide those benefits to the transferring employee;then the guarantee of annual earnings is taken to be varied so that, instead of the entitlement to those benefits, the transferring employee is entitled to an amount of money that is equivalent to the agreed money value of those benefits.

Section 316

- (6) This section does not affect the rights and obligations of the old employer that arose before the transfer time in relation to the guarantee of annual earnings.

 - (a) to remove terms that the FWC is satisfied are not, or will not be, capable of meaningful operation because of the transfer of business to the new employer; or

Section 320

- (b) to remove an ambiguity or uncertainty about how a term of the instrument operates if:
 - (i) the ambiguity or uncertainty has arisen, or will arise, because of the transfer of business to the new employer; and

Who may apply for a variation

- (3) The FWC may make the variation only on application by:
 - (a) a person who is, or is likely to be, covered by the transferable instrument; or

Part 2-9—Other terms and conditions of employment

Division 1—Introduction

321 Guide to this Part

This Part deals with other terms and conditions of employment.

Division 2 is about the frequency and methods of payment of amounts payable to national system employees in relation to the performance of work, and the circumstances in which a national system employer may make deductions from such amounts.

Division 3 is about the guarantee of annual earnings that may be given to a national system employee whose earnings exceed the high income threshold. Modern awards do not apply to such an employee.

322 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

- (2) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which a requirement referred to in subsection (1) is or is not reasonable.

326 Certain terms have no effect

Unreasonable payments and deductions for benefit of employer

- (1) A term of a modern award, an enterprise agreement or a contract of employment has no effect to the extent that the term:

- (2) The regulations may prescribe circumstances in which a deduction or payment referred to in subsection (1) is or is not reasonable.

 - (a) permits, or has the effect of permitting, an employer to make a requirement that would contravene subsection 325(1); or
 - (b) directly or indirectly requires an employee to spend an amount, if the requirement would contravene subsection 325(1) if it had been made by an employer.

In proceedings for recovery of an amount payable to an employee in relation to the performance of work:

Division 3—Guarantee of annual earnings

328 Employer obligations in relation to guarantee of annual earnings

Employer must comply with guarantee

- (1) An employer that has given a guarantee of annual earnings to an employee must (subject to any reductions arising from circumstances in which the employer is required or entitled to reduce the employee's earnings) comply with the guarantee during any period during which the employee:
- (a) is a high income employee of the employer; and
 - (b) is covered by a modern award that is in operation.

Note 1: Examples of circumstances in which the employer is required or entitled to reduce the employee's earnings are unpaid leave or absence, and periods of industrial action (see Division 9 of Part 3-3).

Note 2: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Employer must comply with guarantee for period before termination

- (2) If:

 - (b) either or both of the following apply:
 - (i) the employer terminates the employment;

 - (c) the employee is covered by a modern award that is in operation at the time of the termination;
- the employer must pay earnings to the employee in relation to the part of the guaranteed period before the termination at the annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings.

Section 329

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Employer must give notice of consequences

- (3) Before or at the time of giving a guarantee of annual earnings to an employee covered by a modern award that is in operation, an employer must notify the employee in writing that a modern award will not apply to the employee during any period during which the annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings exceeds the high income threshold.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

329 High income employee

- (1) A full-time employee is a high income employee of an employer at a time if:
- (a) the employee has a guarantee of annual earnings for the guaranteed period; and
 - (b) the time occurs during the period; and
 - (c) the annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings exceeds the high income threshold at that time.
- (2) An employee other than a full-time employee is a high-income employee of an employer at a time if:
- (a) the employee has a guarantee of annual earnings for the guaranteed period; and
 - (b) the time occurs during the period; and
 - (c) the annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings would have exceeded the high income threshold at that time if the employee were employed on a full-time basis at the same rate of earnings.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the employee does not have a guarantee of annual earnings for the guaranteed period if the employer revokes the guarantee of annual earnings with the employee's agreement.

330 Guarantee of annual earnings and annual rate of guarantee

- (1) An undertaking given by an employer to an employee is a guarantee of annual earnings if:

Section 331

 - (ii) a day on which the employer and employee agree to vary the terms and conditions of the employee's employment; and
 - (e) an enterprise agreement does not apply to the employee's employment at the start of the period.
- (2) However, if:

 - (b) an employee will perform duties of a particular kind for a period shorter than 12 months;
- the undertaking may be given for that shorter period.
- (3) The annual rate of the guarantee of annual earnings is the annual rate of the earnings covered by the undertaking.

331 Guaranteed period

The guaranteed period for a guarantee of annual earnings is the period that:

- (3) Non-monetary benefits are benefits other than an entitlement to a payment of money:
 - (a) to which the employee is entitled in return for the performance of work; and
 - (b) for which a reasonable money value has been agreed by the employee and the employer;but does not include a benefit prescribed by the regulations.
- (4) This subsection applies to contributions that the employer makes to a superannuation fund to the extent that one or more of the following applies:
 - (a) the employer would have been liable to pay superannuation guarantee charge under the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 in relation to the person if the amounts had not been so contributed;

- (b) the employer is required to contribute to the fund for the employee's benefit in relation to a defined benefit interest (within the meaning of section 291-175 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997) of the employee;
- (c) the employer is required to contribute to the fund for the employee's benefit under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

333 High income threshold

- (1) Subject to this section, the high income threshold is the amount prescribed by, or worked out in the manner prescribed by, the regulations.
- (2) A regulation made for the purposes of subsection (1) has no effect to the extent that it would have the effect of reducing the amount of the high income threshold.
- (3) If:
 - (a) in prescribing a manner in which the high income threshold is worked out, regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) specify a particular matter or state of affairs; and
 - (b) as a result of a change in the matter or state of affairs, the amount of the high income threshold worked out in that manner would, but for this subsection, be less than it was on the last occasion on which this subsection did not apply;the high income threshold is the amount that it would be if the change had not occurred.

333A Prospective employees

- If:
- (a) an employer, or a person who may become an employer, gives to another person an undertaking that would have been a guarantee of annual earnings if the other person had been the employer's or person's employee; and
 - (b) the other person subsequently becomes the employer's or person's employee; and

Section 333A

(c) the undertaking relates to the work that the other person performs for the employer or person;
this Division applies in relation to the undertaking, after the other person becomes the employer's or person's employee, as if the other person had been the employer's or person's employee at the time the undertaking was given.

Division 8—Compliance

Subdivision A—Contraventions involving dismissal

If:

- (a) a person has been dismissed; and
- (b) the person, or an industrial association that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the person, alleges that the person was dismissed in contravention of this Part;

the person, or the industrial association, may apply to the FWC for the FWC to deal with the dispute.

366 Time for application

- (1) An application under section 365 must be made:
 - (a) within 21 days after the dismissal took effect; or
 - (b) within such further period as the FWC allows under subsection (2).
- (2) The FWC may allow a further period if the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, taking into account:
 - (a) the reason for the delay; and
 - (b) any action taken by the person to dispute the dismissal; and
 - (c) prejudice to the employer (including prejudice caused by the delay); and
 - (d) the merits of the application; and
 - (e) fairness as between the person and other persons in a like position.

367 Application fees

- (1) The application must be accompanied by any fee prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe:

- (b) a method for indexing the fee; and
- (c) the circumstances in which all or part of the fee may be waived or refunded.

368 Dealing with a dismissal dispute (other than by arbitration)

- (1) If an application is made under section 365, the FWC must deal with the dispute (other than by arbitration).

Note: The FWC may deal with a dispute by mediation or conciliation, or by making a recommendation or expressing an opinion (see subsection 595(2)). One of the recommendations that the FWC might make is that an application be made under Part 3-2 (which deals with unfair dismissal) in relation to the dispute.

- (2) Any conference conducted for the purposes of dealing with the dispute (other than by arbitration) must be conducted in private, despite subsection 592(3).

Note: For conferences, see section 592.

- (3) If the FWC is satisfied that all reasonable attempts to resolve the dispute (other than by arbitration) have been, or are likely to be, unsuccessful, then:

- (a) the FWC must issue a certificate to that effect; and
- (b) if the FWC considers, taking into account all the materials before it, that arbitration under section 369, or a general protections court application, in relation to the dispute would not have a reasonable prospect of success, the FWC must advise the parties accordingly.

- (4) A general protections court application is an application to a court under Division 2 of Part 4-1 for orders in relation to a contravention of this Part.

369 Dealing with a dismissal dispute by arbitration

- (1) This section applies if:

 - (ii) complies with any requirements prescribed by the procedural rules; and
- (d) sections 726, 728, 729, 730, 731 and 732 do not apply.

Note: Sections 726, 728, 729, 730, 731 and 732 prevent multiple applications or complaints of a kind referred to in those sections from being made in relation to the same dispute. A notification can only be made under this section where there is no such other application or complaint in relation to the dispute at the time the notification is made. Generally, once a notification is made no such application or complaint can be made in relation to the dispute (see section 727).

- (2) The FWC may deal with the dispute by arbitration, including by making one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order for reinstatement of the person;
 - (b) an order for the payment of compensation to the person;
 - (c) an order for payment of an amount to the person for remuneration lost;
 - (d) an order to maintain the continuity of the person's employment;
 - (e) an order to maintain the period of the person's continuous service with the employer.
- (3) A person to whom an order under subsection (2) applies must not contravene a term of the order.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

370 Taking a dismissal dispute to court

A person who is entitled to apply under section 365 for the FWC to deal with a dispute must not make a general protections court application in relation to the dispute unless:

- (a) both of the following apply:

Section 372

- (i) the FWC has issued a certificate under paragraph 368(3)(a) in relation to the dispute;
- (ii) the general protections court application is made within 14 days after the day the certificate is issued, or within such period as the court allows on an application made during or after those 14 days; or
- (b) the general protections court application includes an application for an interim injunction.

Note 1: Generally, if the parties notify the FWC that they agree to the FWC arbitrating the dispute (see subsection 369(1)), a general protections court application cannot be made in relation to the dispute (see sections 727 and 728).

Note 2: For the purposes of subparagraph (a)(ii), in Brodie-Hanns v MTV Publishing Ltd (1995) 67 IR 298, the Industrial Relations Court of Australia set down principles relating to the exercise of its discretion under a similarly worded provision of the Industrial Relations Act 1988.

Subdivision B—Other contraventions

372 Application for the FWC to deal with a non-dismissal dispute

If:

- (a) a person alleges a contravention of this Part; and

- (2) Despite subsection 592(3), the FWC must conduct the conference in private.

375 Advice on general protections court application

If the FWC considers, taking into account all the materials before it, that a general protections court application in relation to the dispute would not have a reasonable prospect of success, it must advise the parties accordingly.

Subdivision C—Appeals and costs orders

375A Appeal rights

- (1) Despite subsection 604(2), the FWC must not grant permission to appeal from a decision made by the FWC under subsection 369(2) (which is about arbitration of a dismissal dispute) unless the FWC considers that it is in the public interest to do so.
- (2) Despite subsection 604(1), an appeal from a decision made by the FWC in relation to a matter arising under subsection 369(2) can only, to the extent that it is an appeal on a question of fact, be made on the ground that the decision involved a significant error of fact.

Section 375B

375B Costs orders against parties

- (1) The FWC may make an order for costs against a party (the first party) to a dispute for costs incurred by the other party to the dispute if:
 - (a) an application for the FWC to deal with the dispute has been made under section 365; and
 - (b) the FWC is satisfied that the first party caused those costs to be incurred because of an unreasonable act or omission of the first party in connection with the conduct or continuation of the dispute.
- (2) The FWC may make an order under subsection (1) only if the other party to the dispute has applied for it in accordance with section 377.
- (3) This section does not limit the FWC's power to order costs under section 611.

376 Costs orders against lawyers and paid agents

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an application for the FWC to deal with a dispute has been made under section 365 or 372; and
 - (b) a person who is a party to the dispute has engaged a lawyer or paid agent (the representative) to represent the person in the dispute; and
 - (c) under section 596, the person is required to seek the FWC's permission to be represented by the representative.
- (2) The FWC may make an order for costs against the representative for costs incurred by the other party to the dispute if the FWC is satisfied that the representative caused those costs to be incurred because:
 - (a) the representative encouraged the person to start, continue or respond to the dispute and it should have been reasonably apparent that the person had no reasonable prospect of success in the dispute; or
 - (b) of an unreasonable act or omission of the representative in connection with the conduct or continuation of the dispute.

- (3) The FWC may make an order under this section only if the other party to the dispute has applied for it in accordance with section 377.
- (4) This section does not limit the FWC's power to order costs under section 611.

377 Applications for costs orders

An application for an order for costs in relation to an application under section 365 or 372 must be made within 14 days after the FWC finishes dealing with the dispute.

377A Schedule of costs

- (1) A schedule of costs may be prescribed in relation to items of expenditure likely to be incurred in relation to matters that can be covered by an order under section 611, 375B or 376 in relation to an application under section 365, including expenses arising from the representation of a party by a person or organisation other than on a legal professional basis.
- (2) If a schedule of costs is prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1), then, in awarding costs under section 611, 375B or 376 in relation to an application under section 365, the FWC:
 - (a) is not limited to the items of expenditure appearing in the schedule; but
 - (b) if an item does appear in the schedule—must not award costs in relation to that item at a rate or of an amount that exceeds the rate or amount appearing in the schedule.

378 Contravening costs orders

A person to whom an order for costs made under section 375B or 376 applies must not contravene a term of the order.

Note: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Part 3-2—Unfair dismissal

Division 1—Introduction

379 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the unfair dismissal of national system employees, and the granting of remedies for unfair dismissal.

Division 2 sets out when a person is protected from unfair dismissal.

Division 3 sets out the elements that make up an unfair dismissal.

Division 4 sets out the remedies the FWC can grant for unfair dismissal.

Division 5 is about the procedural aspects of getting remedies for unfair dismissal.

380 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee means a national system employee, and employer means a national system employer.

Note: See also Division 2 of Part 6-4A (TCF contract outworkers taken to be employees in certain circumstances).

381 Object of this Part

- (1) The object of this Part is:
- (a) to establish a framework for dealing with unfair dismissal that balances:
 - (i) the needs of business (including small business); and
 - (ii) the needs of employees; and
 - (b) to establish procedures for dealing with unfair dismissal that:
 - (i) are quick, flexible and informal; and

Section 381

- (ii) address the needs of employers and employees; and
 - (c) to provide remedies if a dismissal is found to be unfair, with an emphasis on reinstatement.
- (2) The procedures and remedies referred to in paragraphs (1)(b) and (c), and the manner of deciding on and working out such remedies, are intended to ensure that a “fair go all round” is accorded to both the employer and employee concerned.

Note: The expression “fair go all round” was used by Sheldon J in in re Loty and Holloway v Australian Workers’ Union [1971] AR (NSW) 95.

Division 2—Protection from unfair dismissal

382 When a person is protected from unfair dismissal

A person is protected from unfair dismissal at a time if, at that time:

- (a) the person is an employee who has completed a period of employment with his or her employer of at least the minimum employment period; and
- (b) one or more of the following apply:
 - (i) a modern award covers the person;
 - (ii) an enterprise agreement applies to the person in relation to the employment;
 - (iii) the sum of the person's annual rate of earnings, and such other amounts (if any) worked out in relation to the person in accordance with the regulations, is less than the high income threshold.

383 Meaning of minimum employment period

The minimum employment period is:

- (a) if the employer is not a small business employer—6 months ending at the earlier of the following times:
 - (i) the time when the person is given notice of the dismissal;
 - (ii) immediately before the dismissal; or
- (b) if the employer is a small business employer—one year ending at that time.

384 Period of employment

- (1) An employee's period of employment with an employer at a particular time is the period of continuous service the employee has completed with the employer at that time as an employee.
- (2) However:

- (a) a period of service as a casual employee does not count towards the employee's period of employment unless:
 - (i) the employment as a casual employee was on a regular and systematic basis; and
 - (ii) during the period of service as a casual employee, the employee had a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the employer on a regular and systematic basis; and
- (b) if:
 - (i) the employee is a transferring employee in relation to a transfer of business from an old employer to a new employer; and
 - (ii) the old employer and the new employer are not associated entities when the employee becomes employed by the new employer; and
 - (iii) the new employer informed the employee in writing before the new employment started that a period of service with the old employer would not be recognised;the period of service with the old employer does not count towards the employee's period of employment with the new employer.

Division 3—What is an unfair dismissal

385 What is an unfair dismissal

A person has been unfairly dismissed if the FWC is satisfied that:

- (a) the person has been dismissed; and
- (b) the dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable; and
- (c) the dismissal was not consistent with the Small Business Fair Dismissal Code; and
- (d) the dismissal was not a case of genuine redundancy.

Note: For the definition of consistent with the Small Business Fair Dismissal Code: see section 388.

386 Meaning of dismissed

(1) A person has been dismissed if:

- (a) the person's employment with his or her employer has been terminated on the employer's initiative; or
- (b) the person has resigned from his or her employment, but was forced to do so because of conduct, or a course of conduct, engaged in by his or her employer.

(2) However, a person has not been dismissed if:

- (a) the person was employed under a contract of employment for a specified period of time, for a specified task, or for the duration of a specified season, and the employment has terminated at the end of the period, on completion of the task, or at the end of the season; or
- (b) the person was an employee:
 - (i) to whom a training arrangement applied; and
 - (ii) whose employment was for a specified period of time or was, for any reason, limited to the duration of the training arrangement;and the employment has terminated at the end of the training arrangement; or
- (c) the person was demoted in employment but:

- (i) the demotion does not involve a significant reduction in his or her remuneration or duties; and
 - (ii) he or she remains employed with the employer that effected the demotion.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person employed under a contract of a kind referred to in paragraph (2)(a) if a substantial purpose of the employment of the person under a contract of that kind is, or was at the time of the person's employment, to avoid the employer's obligations under this Part.

387 Criteria for considering harshness etc.

In considering whether it is satisfied that a dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable, the FWC must take into account:

- (a) whether there was a valid reason for the dismissal related to the person's capacity or conduct (including its effect on the safety and welfare of other employees); and
- (b) whether the person was notified of that reason; and
- (c) whether the person was given an opportunity to respond to any reason related to the capacity or conduct of the person; and
- (d) any unreasonable refusal by the employer to allow the person to have a support person present to assist at any discussions relating to dismissal; and
- (e) if the dismissal related to unsatisfactory performance by the person—whether the person had been warned about that unsatisfactory performance before the dismissal; and
- (f) the degree to which the size of the employer's enterprise would be likely to impact on the procedures followed in effecting the dismissal; and
- (g) the degree to which the absence of dedicated human resource management specialists or expertise in the enterprise would be likely to impact on the procedures followed in effecting the dismissal; and
- (h) any other matters that the FWC considers relevant.

Section 388

388 The Small Business Fair Dismissal Code

- (1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, declare a Small Business Fair Dismissal Code.
- (2) A person's dismissal was consistent with the Small Business Fair Dismissal Code if:
 - (a) immediately before the time of the dismissal or at the time the person was given notice of the dismissal (whichever happened first), the person's employer was a small business employer; and
 - (b) the employer complied with the Small Business Fair Dismissal Code in relation to the dismissal.

389 Meaning of genuine redundancy

- (1) A person's dismissal was a case of genuine redundancy if:
 - (a) the person's employer no longer required the person's job to be performed by anyone because of changes in the operational requirements of the employer's enterprise; and
 - (b) the employer has complied with any obligation in a modern award or enterprise agreement that applied to the employment to consult about the redundancy.
- (2) A person's dismissal was not a case of genuine redundancy if it would have been reasonable in all the circumstances for the person to be redeployed within:
 - (a) the employer's enterprise; or
 - (b) the enterprise of an associated entity of the employer.

Division 4—Remedies for unfair dismissal

390 When the FWC may order remedy for unfair dismissal

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the FWC may order a person's reinstatement, or the payment of compensation to a person, if:
 - (a) the FWC is satisfied that the person was protected from unfair dismissal (see Division 2) at the time of being dismissed; and
 - (b) the person has been unfairly dismissed (see Division 3).
- (2) The FWC may make the order only if the person has made an application under section 394.
- (3) The FWC must not order the payment of compensation to the person unless:
 - (a) the FWC is satisfied that reinstatement of the person is inappropriate; and
 - (b) the FWC considers an order for payment of compensation is appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.

Note: Division 5 deals with procedural matters such as applications for remedies.

391 Remedy—reinstatement etc.

Reinstatement

- (1) An order for a person's reinstatement must be an order that the person's employer at the time of the dismissal reinstate the person by:
 - (a) reappointing the person to the position in which the person was employed immediately before the dismissal; or
 - (b) appointing the person to another position on terms and conditions no less favourable than those on which the person was employed immediately before the dismissal.
- (1A) If:

Section 391

- (a) the position in which the person was employed immediately before the dismissal is no longer a position with the person's employer at the time of the dismissal; and
- (b) that position, or an equivalent position, is a position with an associated entity of the employer; the order under subsection (1) may be an order to the associated entity to:

- (c) appoint the person to the position in which the person was employed immediately before the dismissal; or
- (d) appoint the person to another position on terms and conditions no less favourable than those on which the person was employed immediately before the dismissal.

Order to maintain continuity

- (2) If the FWC makes an order under subsection (1) and considers it appropriate to do so, the FWC may also make any order that the FWC considers appropriate to maintain the following:
 - (a) the continuity of the person's employment;
 - (b) the period of the person's continuous service with the employer, or (if subsection (1A) applies) the associated entity.

Order to restore lost pay

- (3) If the FWC makes an order under subsection (1) and considers it appropriate to do so, the FWC may also make any order that the FWC considers appropriate to cause the employer to pay to the person an amount for the remuneration lost, or likely to have been lost, by the person because of the dismissal.
- (4) In determining an amount for the purposes of an order under subsection (3), the FWC must take into account:
 - (a) the amount of any remuneration earned by the person from employment or other work during the period between the dismissal and the making of the order for reinstatement; and
 - (b) the amount of any remuneration reasonably likely to be so earned by the person during the period between the making of the order for reinstatement and the actual reinstatement.

392 Remedy—compensation

Compensation

- (1) An order for the payment of compensation to a person must be an order that the person's employer at the time of the dismissal pay compensation to the person in lieu of reinstatement.

Criteria for deciding amounts

- (2) In determining an amount for the purposes of an order under subsection (1), the FWC must take into account all the circumstances of the case including:
 - (a) the effect of the order on the viability of the employer's enterprise; and
 - (b) the length of the person's service with the employer; and
 - (c) the remuneration that the person would have received, or would have been likely to receive, if the person had not been dismissed; and
 - (d) the efforts of the person (if any) to mitigate the loss suffered by the person because of the dismissal; and
 - (e) the amount of any remuneration earned by the person from employment or other work during the period between the dismissal and the making of the order for compensation; and
 - (f) the amount of any income reasonably likely to be so earned by the person during the period between the making of the order for compensation and the actual compensation; and
 - (g) any other matter that the FWC considers relevant.

Misconduct reduces amount

- (3) If the FWC is satisfied that misconduct of a person contributed to the employer's decision to dismiss the person, the FWC must reduce the amount it would otherwise order under subsection (1) by an appropriate amount on account of the misconduct.

Shock, distress etc. disregarded

- (4) The amount ordered by the FWC to be paid to a person under subsection (1) must not include a component by way of compensation for shock, distress or humiliation, or other analogous hurt, caused to the person by the manner of the person's dismissal.

Section 393

Compensation cap

- (5) The amount ordered by the FWC to be paid to a person under subsection (1) must not exceed the lesser of:
 - (a) the amount worked out under subsection (6); and
 - (b) half the amount of the high income threshold immediately before the dismissal.
- (6) The amount is the total of the following amounts:
 - (a) the total amount of remuneration:
 - (i) received by the person; or
 - (ii) to which the person was entitled;(whichever is higher) for any period of employment with the employer during the 26 weeks immediately before the dismissal; and
 - (b) if the employee was on leave without pay or without full pay while so employed during any part of that period—the amount of remuneration taken to have been received by the employee for the period of leave in accordance with the regulations.

393 Monetary orders may be in instalments

To avoid doubt, an order by the FWC under subsection 391(3) or 392(1) may permit the employer concerned to pay the amount required in instalments specified in the order.

Division 5—Procedural matters

394 Application for unfair dismissal remedy

- (1) A person who has been dismissed may apply to the FWC for an order under Division 4 granting a remedy.

Note 1: Division 4 sets out when the FWC may order a remedy for unfair dismissal.

Note 2: For application fees, see section 395.

Note 3: Part 6-1 may prevent an application being made under this Part in relation to a dismissal if an application or complaint has been made in relation to the dismissal other than under this Part.

- (2) The application must be made:
- (a) within 21 days after the dismissal took effect; or
 - (b) within such further period as the FWC allows under subsection (3).
- (3) The FWC may allow a further period for the application to be made by a person under subsection (1) if the FWC is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, taking into account:
- (a) the reason for the delay; and
 - (b) whether the person first became aware of the dismissal after it had taken effect; and
 - (c) any action taken by the person to dispute the dismissal; and
 - (d) prejudice to the employer (including prejudice caused by the delay); and

- (b) informs itself in relation to the application.

399 Hearings

- (1) The FWC must not hold a hearing in relation to a matter arising under this Part unless the FWC considers it appropriate to do so, taking into account:

 - (b) whether a hearing would be the most effective and efficient way to resolve the matter.
- (2) If the FWC holds a hearing in relation to a matter arising under this Part, it may decide not to hold the hearing in relation to parts of the matter.

400A Costs orders against parties

- (1) The FWC may make an order for costs against a party to a matter arising under this Part (the first party) for costs incurred by the other party to the matter if the FWC is satisfied that the first party caused those costs to be incurred because of an unreasonable act or omission of the first party in connection with the conduct or continuation of the matter.

Section 402

- (1A) The FWC may make an order for costs against the representative for costs incurred by the other party to the matter if the FWC is satisfied that the representative caused those costs to be incurred because:

Part 3-3—Industrial action

Division 1—Introduction

406 Guide to this Part

This Part deals mainly with industrial action by national system employees and national system employers.

Division 2 sets out when industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement is protected industrial action. No action lies under any law in force in a State or Territory in relation to protected industrial action except in certain circumstances.

Division 3 provides that industrial action must not be organised or engaged in by certain persons before the nominal expiry date of an enterprise agreement or workplace determination has passed.

Division 4 provides for the FWC to make orders, in certain circumstances, that industrial action stop, not occur or not be organised for a specified period.

Division 5 deals with injunctions against industrial action if a bargaining representative of an employee who will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement is engaging in pattern bargaining.

Division 6 provides for the FWC to make orders suspending or terminating protected industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement in certain circumstances. If the FWC makes such an order, the action will no longer be protected industrial action.

Division 7 provides for the Minister to make a declaration terminating protected industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement in certain circumstances. If the Minister makes such an order, the action will no longer be protected industrial action.

Section 407

Division 8 establishes the process that will allow employees to choose, by means of a fair and democratic secret ballot, whether to authorise protected industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement.

Division 9 sets out restrictions about payments to employees relating to periods of industrial action.

Division 10 deals with the making of applications under this Part.

Division 8—Protected action ballots

Subdivision A—Introduction

435 Guide to this Division

This Division establishes the process that will allow employees to choose, by means of a fair and democratic secret ballot, whether to authorise protected industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement.

Subdivision B provides for the FWC to make a protected action ballot order, on application by a bargaining representative of an employee who will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement, requiring a protected action ballot to be conducted.

Subdivision C deals with the conduct of a protected action ballot.

Subdivision D deals with the effect of a protected action ballot.

Subdivision E deals with compliance matters in relation to a protected action ballot.

Subdivision F deals with the liability for the costs of a protected action ballot.

Subdivision G deals with records and other miscellaneous matters.

436 Object of this Division

The object of this Division is to establish a fair, simple and democratic process to allow a bargaining representative to determine whether employees wish to engage in particular protected industrial action for a proposed enterprise agreement.

Note: Under Division 2, industrial action by employees for a proposed enterprise agreement (other than employee response action) is not protected industrial action unless it has been authorised in advance by a protected action ballot.

Subdivision B—Protected action ballot orders

437 Application for a protected action ballot order

Who may apply for a protected action ballot order

- (1) A bargaining representative of an employee who will be covered by a proposed enterprise agreement, or 2 or more such bargaining representatives (acting jointly), may apply to the FWC for an order (a protected action ballot order) requiring a protected action ballot to be conducted to determine whether employees wish to engage in particular protected industrial action for the agreement.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the proposed enterprise agreement is:
 - (a) a greenfields agreement; or
 - (b) a multi-enterprise agreement.

Matters to be specified in application

- (3) The application must specify:
 - (a) the group or groups of employees who are to be balloted; and
 - (b) the question or questions to be put to the employees who are to be balloted, including the nature of the proposed industrial action.
- (4) If the applicant wishes a person other than the Australian Electoral Commission to be the protected action ballot agent for the protected action ballot, the application must specify the name of the person.

Note: The protected action ballot agent will be the Australian Electoral Commission unless the FWC specifies another person in the protected action ballot order as the protected action ballot agent (see subsection 443(4)).

- (5) A group of employees specified under paragraph (3)(a) is taken to include only employees who:
 - (a) will be covered by the proposed enterprise agreement; and
 - (b) either:

Section 438

- (i) are represented by a bargaining representative who is an applicant for the protected action ballot order; or
- (ii) are bargaining representatives for themselves but are members of an employee organisation that is an applicant for the protected action ballot order.

Documents to accompany application

- (6) The application must be accompanied by any documents and other information prescribed by the regulations.

438 Restriction on when application may be made

- (1) If one or more enterprise agreements cover the employees who will be covered by the proposed enterprise agreement, an application for a protected action ballot order must not be made earlier than 30 days before the nominal expiry date of the enterprise agreement, or the latest nominal expiry date of those enterprise agreements (as the case may be).
- (2) To avoid doubt, making an application for a protected action ballot order does not constitute organising industrial action.

439 Joint applications

Without limiting section 609, the procedural rules may provide for the following:

- (a) how a provision of this Act that applies in relation to an applicant for a protected action ballot order is to apply in relation to joint applicants for such an order;
- (b) the joinder, with the consent of each existing applicant, of one or more bargaining representatives to an application for a protected action ballot order;
- (c) the withdrawal of one or more applicants from a joint application for a protected action ballot order.

440 Notice of application

Within 24 hours after making an application for a protected action ballot order, the applicant must give a copy of the application to the employer of the employees who are to be balloted, and:

- (a) if the application specifies a person that the applicant wishes to be the protected action ballot agent—that person; or
- (b) otherwise—the Australian Electoral Commission.

441 Application to be determined within 2 days after it is made

- (1) The FWC must, as far as practicable, determine an application for a protected action ballot order within 2 working days after the application is made.
- (2) However, the FWC must not determine the application unless it is satisfied that each applicant has complied with section 440.

442 Dealing with multiple applications together

The FWC may deal with 2 or more applications for a protected action ballot order at the same time if:

- (a) the applications relate to industrial action by:
 - (i) employees of the same employer; or
 - (ii) employees at the same workplace; and

443 When the FWC must make a protected action ballot order

- (1) The FWC must make a protected action ballot order in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement if:
 - (a) an application has been made under section 437; and

Section 443

- (2) The FWC must not make a protected action ballot order in relation to a proposed enterprise agreement except in the circumstances referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) A protected action ballot order must specify the following:
 - (a) the name of each applicant for the order;
 - (b) the group or groups of employees who are to be balloted;
 - (c) the date by which voting in the protected action ballot closes;
 - (d) the question or questions to be put to the employees who are to be balloted, including the nature of the proposed industrial action.
- (3A) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(c), the FWC must specify a date that will enable the protected action ballot to be conducted as expeditiously as practicable.
- (4) If the FWC decides that a person other than the Australian Electoral Commission is to be the protected action ballot agent for the protected action ballot, the protected action ballot order must also specify:
 - (a) the person that the FWC decides, under subsection 444(1), is to be the protected action ballot agent; and
 - (b) the person (if any) that the FWC decides, under subsection 444(3), is to be the independent advisor for the ballot.
- (5) If the FWC is satisfied, in relation to the proposed industrial action that is the subject of the protected action ballot, that there are exceptional circumstances justifying the period of written notice referred to in paragraph 414(2)(a) being longer than 3 working days, the protected action ballot order may specify a longer period of up to 7 working days.

Note: Under subsection 414(1), before a person engages in employee claim action for a proposed enterprise agreement, a bargaining representative of an employee who will be covered by the agreement must give written notice of the action to the employer of the employee.

444 FWC may decide on ballot agent other than the Australian Electoral Commission and independent advisor

Alternative ballot agent

- (1) The FWC may decide that a person other than the Australian Electoral Commission is to be the protected action ballot agent for a protected action ballot only if:

Independent advisor

- (3) The FWC may decide that a person (the other person) is to be the independent advisor for a protected action ballot if:

- (2) The FWC may make, or vary, the protected action ballot orders so as to require the protected action ballots to be held at the same time if the FWC is satisfied:
 - (a) that the level of disruption of the employer's enterprise, or at the workplace, could be reduced if the ballots were held at the same time; and
 - (b) that requiring the ballots to be held at the same time will not unreasonably delay either ballot.

447 Variation of protected action ballot order

- (1) An applicant for a protected action ballot order may apply to the FWC to vary the order.
 - (2) The protected action ballot agent for a protected action ballot may apply to the FWC to vary the protected action ballot order to change the date by which voting in the ballot closes.

- then the employee's payments are reduced in accordance with subsection (2) in relation to the period (the industrial action period) referred to in subsection (5).
- (2) The employee's payments in relation to the industrial action period are reduced:
- (a) by the proportion specified in the notice; or
 - (b) if the FWC has ordered a different proportion under section 472—by the proportion specified in the order;
- and the modern award, enterprise agreement or contract of employment that applies to the employee's employment has effect accordingly.
- (3) The regulations may prescribe how the proportion referred to in paragraph (2)(a) is to be worked out.

Employer gives notice of non-payment

- (4) If:
- (a) an employee engaged, or engages, in protected industrial action against an employer on a day; and
 - (b) the industrial action is a partial work ban; and
 - (c) the employer gives to the employee a written notice stating that, because of the ban:

Section 471

- (i) the employee will not be entitled to any payments; and
- (ii) the employer refuses to accept the performance of any work by the employee until the employee is prepared to perform all of his or her normal duties;

then the employee is not entitled to any payments in relation to the period (the industrial action period) referred to in subsection (5).

(4A) If:

- (a) an employer has given an employee a notice under paragraph (4)(c); and
- (b) the employee fails or refuses to attend for work, or fails or refuses to perform any work at all if he or she attends for work, during the industrial action period;

then:

- (c) the failure or refusal is employee claim action, even if it does not satisfy subsections 409(2) and 413(4), if the related industrial action referred to in paragraph (4)(a) is employee claim action; or
- (d) the failure or refusal is employee response action, even if it does not satisfy subsection 413(4), if the related industrial action referred to in paragraph (4)(a) is employee response action.

The industrial action period

(5) The industrial action period is the period:

- (a) starting at the later of:
 - (i) the start of the first day on which the employee implemented the partial work ban; or
 - (ii) the start of the next day, after the day on which the notice was given, on which the employee performs work; and
- (b) ending at the end of the day on which the ban ceases.

Form and content of notice

(6) The regulations may prescribe requirements relating to one or both of the following:

- (a) the form of a notice given under paragraph (1)(c) or (4)(c);

Section 472

- (b) the content of such a notice.

Manner of giving notice

- (7) Without limiting paragraph (1)(c) or (4)(c), the employer is taken to have given a notice in accordance with that paragraph to the employee if the employer:
 - (a) has taken all reasonable steps to ensure that the employee, and the employee's bargaining representative (if any), receives the notice; and
 - (b) has complied with any requirements, relating to the giving of the notice, prescribed by the regulations.

Employer does not give notice

- (8) If:
 - (a) an employee engaged, or engages, in protected industrial action against an employer on a day; and
 - (b) the industrial action is a partial work ban; and
 - (c) the employer does not give the employee a notice in accordance with paragraph (1)(c) or (4)(c);then the employee's payments for the day are not to be reduced because of the ban.

472 Orders by the FWC relating to certain partial work bans

- (1) The FWC may make an order varying the proportion by which an employee's payments are reduced.
 - (2) The FWC may make the order only if a person has applied for it under subsection (4).
 - (3) In considering making such an order, the FWC must take into account:
 - (a) whether the proportion specified in the notice given under paragraph 471(1)(c) was reasonable having regard to the nature and extent of the partial work ban to which the notice relates; and
 - (b) fairness between the parties taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case.

Section 473

- (4) An employee, or the employee's bargaining representative, may apply to the FWC for an order under subsection (2) if a notice has been given under paragraph 471(1)(c) stating that the employee's payments will be reduced.

473 Accepting or seeking payments relating to periods of industrial action

- (1) An employee must not:
- (a) accept a payment from an employer if the employer would contravene section 470 by making the payment; or
 - (b) ask the employer to make such a payment.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: Acts of coercion, or misrepresentations, relating to such payments may also contravene section 348 or 349.

- (2) An employee organisation, or an officer or member of an employee organisation, must not ask an employer to make a payment to an employee if the employer would contravene section 470 by making the payment.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: Acts of coercion, or misrepresentations, relating to such payments may also contravene section 348 or 349.

Subdivision B—Industrial action that is not protected industrial action

474 Payments not to be made relating to certain periods of industrial action

- (1) If an employee engaged, or engages, in industrial action that is not protected industrial action against an employer on a day, the employer must not make a payment to an employee in relation to:
- (a) if the total duration of the industrial action on that day is at least 4 hours—the total duration of the industrial action on that day; or
 - (b) otherwise—4 hours of that day.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Section 474

- (2) However, if the industrial action is, or includes, an overtime ban, this section does not apply, in relation to a period of overtime to which the ban applies, unless:
- (a) the employer requested or required the employee to work the period of overtime; and
 - (b) the employee refused to work the period of overtime; and
 - (c) the refusal was a contravention of the employee's obligations under a modern award, enterprise agreement or contract of employment.

Note: An employee is able to refuse to work additional hours if they are unreasonable (see subsection 62(2)). There may be other circumstances in which an employee can lawfully refuse to work additional hours.

(2A) If:

- (a) the industrial action is, or includes, an overtime ban; and
- (b) this section applies in relation to a period of overtime to which the ban applies;

then, for the purposes of this section:

- (c) the total duration of the industrial action is, or includes, the period of overtime to which the ban applies; and
- (d) if paragraph (1)(b) applies—the period of 4 hours mentioned in that paragraph includes the period of overtime to which the ban applies.

(3) If:

- (a) the industrial action is during a shift (or other period of work); and
- (b) the shift (or other period of work) occurs partly on one day and partly on the next day;

then, for the purposes of this section, the shift is taken to be a day and the remaining parts of the days are taken not to be part of that day.

Example: An employee, who is working a shift from 10 pm on Tuesday until 7 am on Wednesday, engages in industrial action that is not protected industrial action from 11 pm on Tuesday until 1 am on Wednesday. That industrial action would prevent the employer making a payment to the employee in relation to 4 hours of the shift, but would not prevent the employer from making a payment in relation to the remaining 5 hours of the shift.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), overtime is taken not to be a separate shift.

475 Accepting or seeking payments relating to periods of industrial action

- (1) An employee must not:
- (a) accept a payment from an employer if the employer would contravene section 474 by making the payment; or
 - (b) ask the employer to make such a payment.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: Acts of coercion, or misrepresentations, relating to such payments may also contravene section 348 or 349.

- (2) An employee organisation, or an officer or member of an employee organisation, must not ask an employer to make a payment to an employee if the employer would contravene section 474 by making the payment.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Note 2: Acts of coercion, or misrepresentations, relating to such payments may also contravene section 348 or 349.

Subdivision C—Miscellaneous

476 Other responses to industrial action unaffected

If an employee engaged, or engages, in industrial action against an employer, this Division does not affect any right of the employer, under this Act or otherwise, to do anything in response to the industrial action that does not involve payments to the employee.

Division 10—Other matters

477 Applications by bargaining representatives

Application of this section

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this Part permits an application to be made by a bargaining representative of an employer that will be covered by a proposed single-enterprise agreement.

Persons who may make applications

- (2) If the agreement will cover more than one employer, the application may be made by:
 - (a) in the case of a proposed single-enterprise agreement in relation to which a single interest employer authorisation is in operation—the person (if any) specified in the authorisation as the person who may make applications under this Act; or
 - (b) in any case—a bargaining representative of an employer that will be covered by the agreement, on behalf of one or more other such bargaining representatives, if those other bargaining representatives have agreed to the application being made on their behalf.

Part 3-4—Right of entry

Division 1—Introduction

478 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the rights of officials of organisations who hold entry permits to enter premises for purposes related to their representative role under this Act and under State or Territory OHS laws.

Division 2 allows permit holders to enter premises to investigate suspected contraventions of this Act and fair work instruments. The Division makes special provision in relation to TCF award workers. Division 2 also allows permit holders to enter premises to hold discussions with certain employees and TCF award workers. In exercising rights under Division 2, permit holders must comply with the requirements set out in the Division.

Division 3 sets out requirements for exercising rights under State or Territory OHS laws.

Division 4 prohibits certain action in relation to the operation of this Part.

Division 5 sets out powers of the FWC in relation to the operation of this Part.

Division 6 deals with entry permits, entry notices and certificates.

Division 7 deals with accommodation and transport arrangements in remote areas.

479 Meanings of employee and employer

In this Part, employee and employer have their ordinary meanings.

Section 480

480 Object of this Part

The object of this Part is to establish a framework for officials of organisations to enter premises that balances:

- (a) the right of organisations to represent their members in the workplace, hold discussions with potential members and investigate suspected contraventions of:
 - (i) this Act and fair work instruments; and
 - (ii) State or Territory OHS laws; and
- (b) the right of employees and TCF award workers to receive, at work, information and representation from officials of organisations; and
- (c) the right of occupiers of premises and employers to go about their business without undue inconvenience.

Division 2—Entry rights under this Act

Subdivision A—Entry to investigate suspected contravention

481 Entry to investigate suspected contravention

- (1) A permit holder may enter premises and exercise a right under section 482 or 483 for the purpose of investigating a suspected contravention of this Act, or a term of a fair work instrument, that relates to, or affects, a member of the permit holder's organisation:
- (a) whose industrial interests the organisation is entitled to represent; and
 - (b) who performs work on the premises.

Note 1: Particulars of the suspected contravention must be specified in an entry notice or exemption certificate (see subsections 518(2) and 519(2)).

Note 2: The FWC may issue an affected member certificate if it is satisfied that a member referred to in this subsection is on the premises (see subsection 520(1)).

Note 3: A permit holder, or the organisation to which the permit holder belongs, may be subject to an order by the FWC under section 508 if rights under this Subdivision are misused.

Note 4: A person must not refuse or unduly delay entry by a permit holder, or intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder, exercising rights under this Subdivision (see sections 501 and 502).

- (2) The fair work instrument must apply or have applied to the member.
- (3) The permit holder must reasonably suspect that the contravention has occurred, or is occurring. The burden of proving that the suspicion is reasonable lies on the person asserting that fact.

Note: A permit holder who seeks to exercise rights under this Part without reasonably suspecting that a contravention has occurred, or is occurring, is liable to be penalised under subsection 503(1) (which deals with misrepresentations about things authorised by this Part).

Section 482

482 Rights that may be exercised while on premises

 - (ii) is accessible from a computer that is kept on the premises.

Note 1: The use or disclosure of information or documents obtained under this section is strictly controlled (see section 504).

Note 2: The use or disclosure of personal information obtained under this section is regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

- (1A) However, an occupier or affected employer is not required under paragraph (1)(c) to allow the permit holder to inspect, or make copies of, a record or document if to do so would contravene a law of the Commonwealth or a law of a State or Territory.

Meaning of affected employer

- (2) A person is an affected employer, in relation to an entry onto premises under this Subdivision, if:
- (a) the person employs a member of the permit holder's organisation whose industrial interests the organisation is entitled to represent; and

 - (c) the suspected contravention relates to, or affects, the member.

Meaning of non-member record or document

- (2A) A non-member record or document is a record or document that:
- (a) relates to the employment of a person who is not a member of the permit holder's organisation; and
 - (b) does not also substantially relate to the employment of a person who is a member of the permit holder's organisation;
- but does not include a record or document that relates only to a person or persons who are not members of the permit holder's organisation if the person or persons have consented in writing to the record or document being inspected or copied by the permit holder.

Occupier and affected employer must not contravene requirement

- (3) An occupier or affected employer must not contravene a requirement under paragraph (1)(c).

- (3) The notice may be given:

Section 483AA

Note 1: The use or disclosure of information or documents obtained under this section is strictly controlled (see section 504).

Note 2: The use or disclosure of personal information obtained under this section is regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

483AA Application to the FWC for access to non-member records

- (1) The permit holder may apply to the FWC for an order allowing the permit holder to do either or both of the following:
 - (a) require the occupier or an affected employer to allow the permit holder to inspect, and make copies of, specified non-member records or documents (or parts of such records or documents) under paragraph 482(1)(c);
 - (b) require an affected employer to produce, or provide access to, specified non-member records or documents (or parts of such records or documents) under subsection 483(1).
 - (2) The FWC may make the order if it is satisfied that the order is necessary to investigate the suspected contravention. Before doing so, the FWC must have regard to any conditions imposed on the permit holder's entry permit.
 - (3) If the FWC makes the order, this Subdivision has effect accordingly.

- (4) An application for an order under this section:
 - (a) must be in accordance with the regulations; and
 - (b) must set out the reason for the application.

Subdivision AA—Entry to investigate suspected contravention relating to TCF award workers

483A Entry to investigate suspected contravention relating to TCF award workers

- (1) Subject to subsection (6), a permit holder may enter premises and exercise a right under section 483B or 483C for the purpose of investigating a suspected contravention of:
 - (a) this Act, or a term of a fair work instrument, that relates to, or affects, a TCF award worker:
 - (i) whose industrial interests the permit holder's organisation is entitled to represent; and
 - (ii) who performs work on the premises; or
 - (b) a designated outworker term that is in an instrument that relates to TCF award workers whose industrial interests the permit holder's organisation is entitled to represent.

Note 1: Particulars of the suspected contravention must be specified in an entry notice, unless the entry is a designated outworker terms entry (see subsection 518(2)).

Note 2: A permit holder, or the organisation to which the permit holder belongs, may be subject to an order by the FWC under section 508 if rights under this Subdivision are misused.

Note 3: A person must not refuse or unduly delay entry by a permit holder, or intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder, exercising rights under this Subdivision (see sections 501 and 502).

 - (b) the accreditation is in writing and is in force; and
 - (c) the premises are identified in the accreditation as being the principal place of business of the accredited person.
- Note: The fact that this subsection may result in certain premises not being able to be entered under paragraph (1)(a) for the purpose of investigating a particular suspected contravention does not:
- (a) prevent the premises being entered for that purpose under Subdivision A; or
 - (b) prevent the premises being entered under paragraph (1)(b) of this section.
- (7) Before the Governor-General makes a regulation specifying a particular person or body for the purposes of paragraph (6)(a), the Minister must be satisfied that the person or body:

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Section 483D

Where record or document may be inspected or copied

- (6) The permit holder may inspect, and make copies of, the record or document at:
- (a) the premises; or
 - (b) if another place is agreed upon by the permit holder and the occupier or affected employer—that other place.

Note 1: The use or disclosure of information or documents obtained under this section is strictly controlled (see section 504).

Note 1: A permit holder, or the organisation to which the permit holder belongs, may be subject to an order by the FWC under section 508 if rights under this Subdivision are misused.

Note 2: A person must not refuse or unduly delay entry by a permit holder, or intentionally hinder or obstruct a permit holder, exercising rights under this Subdivision (see sections 501 and 502).

Note 3: Under paragraph 487(1)(b), the permit holder must give the occupier of the premises notice for the entry. Having given that notice, the permit holder may hold discussions with any person on the premises described in this section.

Subdivision C—Requirements for permit holders

Division 5—Powers of the FWC

Subdivision A—Dealing with disputes

505 FWC may deal with a dispute about the operation of this Part

- (1) The FWC may deal with a dispute about the operation of this Part, including a dispute about:
 - (a) whether a request under section 491, 492A or 499 is reasonable; or
 - (b) when a right of the kind referred to in section 490 may be exercised by a permit holder on premises of a kind mentioned in subsection 521C(1) or 521D(1), despite that section; or
 - (c) whether accommodation is reasonably available as mentioned in subsection 521C(1) or premises reasonably accessible as mentioned in subsection 521D(1); or
 - (d) whether providing accommodation or transport, or causing accommodation or transport to be provided, would cause the occupier of premises undue inconvenience as mentioned in paragraph 521C(2)(a) or 521D(2)(a); or
 - (e) whether a request to provide accommodation or transport is made within a reasonable period as mentioned in paragraph 521C(2)(c) or 521D(2)(c).
- Note 1: Sections 491 and 499 deal with requests for permit holders to comply with occupational health and safety requirements.
- Note 2: Section 492A deals with requests for a permit holder to take a particular route to a room or area in which an interview is to be conducted or discussions held.
- Note 3: Section 490 deals with when rights under Subdivision A, AA or B of Division 2 of this Part may be exercised.
- Note 4: Sections 521C and 521D deal with accommodation in and transport to remote areas for the purpose of exercising rights under this Part.
- (2) The FWC may deal with the dispute by arbitration, including by making one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order imposing conditions on an entry permit;
 - (b) an order suspending an entry permit;

Section 505

- (c) an order revoking an entry permit;
- (d) an order about the future issue of entry permits to one or more persons;
- (e) any other order it considers appropriate.

Note: The FWC may also deal with a dispute by mediation or conciliation, or by making a recommendation or expressing an opinion (see subsection 595(2)).

- (3) The FWC may deal with the dispute:
 - (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by any of the following to whom the dispute relates:
 - (i) a permit holder;
 - (ii) a permit holder's organisation;
 - (iii) an employer;
 - (iv) an occupier of premises.
- (4) In dealing with the dispute, the FWC must take into account fairness between the parties concerned.
- (5) In dealing with the dispute, the FWC must not confer rights on a permit holder that are additional to, or inconsistent with, rights exercisable in accordance with Division 2, 3 or 7 of this Part, unless the dispute is about:
 - (a) whether a request under section 491, 492A or 499 is reasonable; or
 - (b) when a right of the kind referred to in section 490 may be exercised by the permit holder on premises of a kind mentioned in subsection 521C(1) or 521D(1), despite that section; or
 - (c) whether accommodation is reasonably available as mentioned in subsection 521C(1) or premises reasonably accessible as mentioned in subsection 521D(1); or

Section 505A

- (e) whether a request to provide accommodation or transport is made within a reasonable period as mentioned in paragraph 521C(2)(c) or 521D(2)(c).

 - (b) an employer of the employees or the TCF award workers, or occupier of the premises, disputes the frequency with which the permit holder or permit holders of the organisation enter the premises.
- (2) The FWC may deal with a dispute about the frequency with which a permit holder or permit holders of an organisation enter premises under section 484.
- (3) The FWC may deal with the dispute by arbitration, including by making one or more of the following orders:

 - (b) an order suspending an entry permit;
 - (c) an order revoking an entry permit;
 - (d) an order about the future issue of entry permits to one or more persons;
 - (e) any other order it considers appropriate.

Note: The FWC may also deal with a dispute by mediation or conciliation, or by making a recommendation or expressing an opinion (see subsection 595(2)).

- (4) However, the FWC may only make an order under subsection (3) if the FWC is satisfied that the frequency of entry by the permit holder or permit holders of the organisation would require an unreasonable diversion of the occupier's critical resources.
 - (5) The FWC may deal with the dispute:

Section 506

- (a) on its own initiative; or
- (b) on application by any of the following to whom the dispute relates:

Section 508

Subdivision C—Restricting rights of organisations and officials where misuse of rights

508 FWC may restrict rights if organisation or official has misused rights

- (1) The FWC may restrict the rights that are exercisable under this Part by an organisation, or officials of an organisation, if the FWC is satisfied that the organisation, or an official of the organisation, has misused those rights.

Note: Only a Vice President, Deputy President or Full Bench may take action under this subsection (see subsections 612(2) and 615(1)).

- (2) The action that the FWC may take under subsection (1) includes the following:
- (a) imposing conditions on entry permits;
 - (b) suspending entry permits;

 - (d) requiring some or all of the entry permits that might in future be issued in relation to the organisation to be issued subject to specified conditions;
 - (e) banning, for a specified period, the issue of entry permits in relation to the organisation, either generally or to specified persons;
 - (f) making any order it considers appropriate.
- (3) The FWC may take action under subsection (1):
- (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by an inspector.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (1), an official misuses rights exercisable under this Part if:
- (a) the official exercises those rights repeatedly with the intention or with the effect of hindering, obstructing or otherwise harassing an occupier or employer; or
 - (b) in exercising a right under Subdivision B of Division 2 of this Part, the official encourages a person to become a member of an organisation and does so in a way that is unduly disruptive:

- (i) because the exercise of the right is excessive in the circumstances; or
- (ii) for some other reason.

509 Contravening order made for misuse of rights

A person must not contravene a term of an order under subsection 508(1).

Note: This section is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

Subdivision D—When the FWC must revoke or suspend entry permits

510 When the FWC must revoke or suspend entry permits

When the FWC must revoke or suspend entry permits

- (1) The FWC must, under this subsection, revoke or suspend each entry permit held by a permit holder if it is satisfied that any of the following has happened since the first of those permits was issued:
 - (a) the permit holder was found, in proceedings under this Act, to have contravened subsection 503(1) (which deals with misrepresentations about things authorised by this Part);
 - (b) the permit holder has contravened section 504 (which deals with unauthorised use or disclosure of information or documents);
 - (c) the Information Commissioner has, under paragraph 52(1)(b) of the Privacy Act 1988, found substantiated a complaint relating to action taken by the permit holder in relation to information or documents obtained under section 482, 483, 483B, 483C, 483D or 483E;
 - (d) the permit holder, or another person, was ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under this Act in relation to a contravention of this Part by the permit holder;
 - (e) a court, or other person or body, under a State or Territory industrial law:

Section 510

- (i) cancelled or suspended a right of entry for industrial purposes that the permit holder had under that law; or
 - (ii) disqualified the permit holder from exercising, or applying for, a right of entry for industrial purposes under that law;
 - (f) the permit holder has, in exercising a right of entry under a State or Territory OHS law, taken action that was not authorised by that law.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the FWC is not required to suspend or revoke an entry permit under paragraph (1)(d) or (f) if the FWC is satisfied that the suspension or revocation would be harsh or unreasonable in the circumstances.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a circumstance referred to in a paragraph of that subsection if the FWC took the circumstance into account when taking action under that subsection on a previous occasion.

Minimum suspension period

- (4) A suspension under subsection (1) must be for a period that is at least as long as the period (the minimum suspension period) specified in whichever of the following paragraphs applies:
- (a) if the FWC has not previously taken action under subsection (1) against the permit holder—3 months;
 - (b) if the FWC has taken action under subsection (1) against the permit holder on only one occasion—12 months;
 - (c) if the FWC has taken action under subsection (1) against the permit holder on more than one occasion—5 years.

- (5) If the FWC takes action under subsection (1), it must also ban the issue of any further entry permit to the permit holder for a specified period (the ban period).
- (6) The ban period must:
- (a) begin when the action is taken under subsection (1); and
 - (b) be no shorter than the minimum suspension period.

Subdivision E—General rules for suspending entry permits

511 General rules for suspending entry permits

If the FWC suspends an entry permit, the suspension:

- (a) must be for a specified period; and
- (b) does not prevent the revocation of, or the imposition of conditions on, the entry permit during the suspension period; and
- (c) does not alter the time at which the entry permit would otherwise expire.

Division 6—Entry permits, entry notices and certificates

Subdivision A—Entry permits

512 FWC may issue entry permits

The FWC may, on application by an organisation, issue a permit (an entry permit) to an official of the organisation if the FWC is satisfied that the official is a fit and proper person to hold the entry permit.

513 Considering application

- (1) In deciding whether the official is a fit and proper person, the FWC must take into account the following permit qualification matters:
- (a) whether the official has received appropriate training about the rights and responsibilities of a permit holder;
 - (b) whether the official has ever been convicted of an offence against an industrial law;
 - (c) whether the official has ever been convicted of an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or a foreign country, involving:
 - (i) entry onto premises; or
 - (ii) fraud or dishonesty; or
 - (iii) intentional use of violence against another person or intentional damage or destruction of property;
 - (d) whether the official, or any other person, has ever been ordered to pay a penalty under this Act or any other industrial law in relation to action taken by the official;
 - (e) whether a permit issued to the official under this Part, or under a similar law of the Commonwealth (no matter when in force), has been revoked or suspended or made subject to conditions;
 - (f) whether a court, or other person or body, under a State or Territory industrial law or a State or Territory OHS law, has:

Section 514

- (i) cancelled, suspended or imposed conditions on a right of entry for industrial or occupational health and safety purposes that the official had under that law; or
 - (ii) disqualified the official from exercising, or applying for, a right of entry for industrial or occupational health and safety purposes under that law;
 - (g) any other matters that the FWC considers relevant.
- (2) Despite paragraph 85ZZH(c) of the Crimes Act 1914, Division 3 of Part VIIC of that Act applies in relation to the disclosure of information to or by, or the taking into account of information by, the FWC for the purpose of making a decision under this Part.

Note: Division 3 of Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them.

514 When the FWC must not issue permit

The FWC must not issue an entry permit to an official at a time when a suspension or disqualification, imposed by a court or other person or body:

- (a) applies to the official's exercise of; or
- (b) prevents the official from exercising or applying for; a right of entry for industrial or occupational health and safety purposes under a State or Territory industrial law or a State or Territory OHS law.

515 Conditions on entry permit

- (1) The FWC may impose conditions on an entry permit when it is issued.
- (2) In deciding whether to impose conditions under subsection (1), the FWC must take into account the permit qualification matters.
- (3) The FWC must record on an entry permit any conditions that have been imposed on its use (whether under subsection (1) or any other provision of this Part).

Section 516

- (4) If the FWC imposes a condition on an entry permit after it has been issued, the permit ceases to be in force until the FWC records the condition on the permit.
- (5) To avoid doubt, a permit holder does not contravene an FWC order merely because the permit holder contravenes a condition imposed on his or her permit by order (whether the condition is imposed at the time the entry permit is issued or at any later time).

516 Expiry of entry permit

- (1) Unless it is revoked, an entry permit expires at the earlier of the following times:
 - (a) at the end of the period of 3 years beginning on the day it is issued, or that period as extended under subsection (2);
 - (b) when the permit holder ceases to be an official of the organisation that applied for the permit.
- (2) The FWC may extend the period of 3 years referred to in paragraph (1)(a) by a specified period if:
 - (a) the organisation that applied for the permit (the old permit) has applied for another entry permit for the permit holder; and
 - (b) the application was made at least 1 month before the old permit would otherwise have expired under that paragraph; and
 - (c) the FWC is satisfied that the old permit is likely to expire before the FWC determines the application.
- (3) The period specified must not be longer than the period that the FWC considers necessary for it to determine the application.
- (4) The FWC must not extend the period under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) the FWC has requested or required the organisation or permit holder to provide copies of records or documents, or to provide any other information, in relation to the application; and
 - (b) the organisation or permit holder has not complied with the request or requirement; and

- (c) the FWC is satisfied that the organisation or permit holder does not have a reasonable excuse.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

FWC to return entry permit to permit holder after suspension

Subdivision C—Exemption certificates

519 Exemption certificates

- (1) The FWC must issue a certificate (an exemption certificate) to an organisation for an entry under section 481 (which deals with entry to investigate suspected contraventions) if:
- (a) the organisation has applied for the certificate; and

- (a) the premises to which it relates;
 - (b) the organisation to which it relates;
 - (c) the day or days on which the entry may occur;

Section 521D

Costs

- (3) If an accommodation arrangement is entered into under subsection (2), the occupier must not charge an organisation or a permit holder a fee for accommodation under the arrangement that is more than is necessary to cover the cost to the occupier of providing the accommodation, or causing it to be provided.

 - (c) the request is made within a reasonable period before transport is required;
