2 Commencement

Section 3A

Division 1A—Objects of this Act

3A Objects of this Act

- (1) This Act establishes a paid parental leave scheme for the payment of parental leave pay and paid parental leave superannuation contributions.
- (2) The objects of the paid parental leave scheme are to:
 - (a) signal that taking time out of the paid workforce to care for a child is part of the usual course of life and work for both parents; and
 - (b) promote equality between men and women and balance between work and family life; and
 - (c) provide financial support to parents caring for children, in order to:
 - (i) allow those parents to take time off work to care for the child after the child's birth or adoption; and
 - (ii) enhance the health and development of birth mothers and children; and
 - (iii) encourage women to continue to participate in the workforce; and
 - (iv) provide those parents with flexibility to balance work and family life; and
 - (v) increase the time that fathers and partners take off work around the time of birth or adoption; and
 - (vi) create further opportunities for fathers and partners to bond with their child; and
 - (vii) allow fathers and partners to take a greater share of caring responsibilities and to support mothers and partners from the beginning; and
 - (viii) reduce the long term financial impact of taking time off work to care for the child by adding to the superannuation balances of those parents.

Section 3A

- (3) The financial support provided by this Act is intended to complement and supplement existing entitlements to paid or unpaid leave in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

Section 4

Division 2—Guide to this Act

4 Guide to this Act

Overview

This Act provides for the payment of parental leave pay following the birth of a child or, for adoption, the placement of a child.

Parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child for a flexible PPL day for the child. The number of flexible PPL days for the child for which parental leave pay can be paid is limited.

Parental leave pay is paid in instalments at the daily national minimum wage amount for a day that is a flexible PPL day for the child and for which parental leave pay is payable to the person.

Parental leave pay is paid by either the person's employer (if it is for at least 40 consecutive flexible PPL days for a child that are week days) or the Secretary.

Chapter 2—When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Chapter 2 sets out when parental leave pay is payable to a person. The key provisions for the Chapter are found in Part 2-1.

A person can only be paid parental leave pay if the Secretary makes a determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person. Part 2-2 has the rules about when the Secretary can make that determination.

The Secretary cannot make that determination if the person is not eligible for parental leave pay. Part 2-3 has the rules about eligibility.

Section 4

The Secretary also cannot make that determination if the person has not made a claim for parental leave pay. Part 2-4 has the rules about claims.

There are 2 types of claims: PPL claims and special PPL claims. These claims relate to each other, although PPL claims are the main type of claim. PPL claims will often be the only claims that are made.

Chapter 3—Payment of parental leave pay

Chapter 3 sets out how parental leave pay is paid to a person.

Part 3-1 is about instalments of parental leave pay. It deals with when instalments must be paid, whether the person's employer or the Secretary must pay them and the amount of the instalments.

Part 3-2 sets out when a person's employer must pay instalments to the person. An employer is required to pay an instalment to a person in relation to a child if:

- (a) an employer determination has come into force for the employer and the person; and
- (b) the instalment is payable in relation to a flexible PPL day for the child that falls within the person's continuous flexible period for the child (which consists of at least 40 consecutive flexible PPL days for the child that are week days); and
- (c) the employer has been paid enough by the Secretary to fund the instalment.

Part 3-3 sets out when the Secretary must pay instalments directly to the person. For instance, the Secretary is required to do that if an employer determination is never made for the person (e.g. the person is a contractor and so does not have an employer). There are some other circumstances in which the Secretary is also required to pay instalments directly to the person (such as when an employer determination is being reviewed or has been revoked).

Section 4

Part 3-4 has general rules about the payment of instalments (such as what happens when an instalment cannot be paid on the day specified in this Act).

Part 3-5 is about employer determinations. If an employer determination is in force for an employer and a person, the employer must pay instalments to the person. The Secretary must be satisfied that certain conditions have been met before the Secretary can make an employer determination.

Chapter 3A—PPL superannuation contributions

A PPL superannuation contribution is payable for a person for an income year if one or more PPL funding amounts or instalments relating to the person are paid by the Secretary in the income year.

The amount of a PPL superannuation contribution is calculated on the basis of the SG charge percentage for the income year and is generally paid by the Commissioner of Taxation in the subsequent income year to a complying superannuation fund for the person.

The Commissioner of Taxation has the general administration of Chapter 3A.

Chapter 4—Compliance and enforcement

Chapter 4 deals with compliance and enforcement.

Part 4-1 allows the Secretary to gather information for the purposes of checking compliance with this Act. It also deals with the confidentiality of personal and protected information.

Part 4-2 deals with other compliance matters. It allows the Secretary to refer matters to the Fair Work Ombudsman for investigation if the Secretary has reason to believe that an employer has not complied with certain obligations under this Act. It also deals with civil penalty provisions, compliance notices and infringement notices.

Section 4

Part 4-3 provides for debts in relation to the paid parental leave scheme, and for the recovery of debts owing to the Commonwealth.

Chapter 5—Administrative review of decisions

Chapter 5 is about administrative review of decisions made under this Act.

Part 5-1 allows the Secretary, on the Secretary's own initiative, to conduct an internal review of decisions made under this Act. It also allows a person whose interests are affected by certain types of decisions to seek internal review of those decisions, and an employer to seek internal review of certain types of decisions that affect employers.

Part 5-2 allows a person to apply to the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART) for review of certain decisions made under this Act. This review is called ART review.

If a decision has been reviewed by the ART, in some circumstances the ART Act allows a person to apply to refer the matter to the ART as constituted by the guidance and appeals panel for further review.

In other circumstances, application may be made for review (a "second review") of the decision by the ART on ART review. Applications for second review are made under the ART Act.

Part 5-4 has miscellaneous provisions relating to reviews of decisions made under this Act.

Chapter 6—Miscellaneous

Chapter 6 has miscellaneous provisions.

Part 6-1 has rules that modify this Act so that it applies correctly in 3 limited kinds of cases—adoption, claims made in exceptional circumstances etc. and Commonwealth employment.

Part 6-3 deals with other miscellaneous matters, such as the PPL rules, delegations and regulations.

11A A determination must be made for parental leave pay for a flexible PPL day for a child to be payable to a person

Parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day for a child if a determination of the Secretary that parental leave pay is payable to the person for that day is in force under section 13 or 14.

Note: See Division 2 of Part 2-2 for the rules about when the Secretary can make such a determination.

11B For a determination to be made, the person must be eligible

The Secretary cannot make a determination under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day for a child unless the person was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on that day.

Note: See Part 2-3 for the rules about when a person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child.

11C For a determination to be made, the person must claim

The Secretary cannot make a determination under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day for a child unless the person has made:

- (a) an effective PPL claim for parental leave pay for that day (in which case the person is a PPL claimant); or
- (b) an effective special PPL claim for parental leave pay for that day (in which case the person is a special PPL claimant).

Note: See Part 2-4 for the rules about how to make an effective claim.

Part 2-1 Key provisions

Division 3 When parental leave pay for a flexible PPL day for a child is payable to a person

Section 11D

11D Flexible PPL day

A day is a flexible PPL day for a child if the day occurs in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day the child is born; and
- (b) ends on the day before the child's second birthday.

Part 2-2—Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 1—Guide to this Part

12 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the Secretary making determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person. These determinations are payability determinations. A person cannot be paid parental leave pay unless there is a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person.

Division 2 has the rules that apply to the Secretary when making a payability determination in relation to whether parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day for a child. Different rules apply depending on whether the claim is a PPL claim or a special PPL claim. The Secretary may only make a determination that parental leave pay is payable to certain PPL claimants and special PPL claimants for one or more flexible PPL days if permission has been given to claim those days.

Division 3 has restrictions that apply in particular circumstances to prevent the Secretary from making a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person (for example, where the child's birth has not been verified or where the limit on the number of flexible PPL days for which parental leave pay is payable to more than one person has been exceeded).

Division 4 has general rules that apply to payability determinations (for example, if the Secretary makes a determination, the Secretary must give a notice of it to the claimant).

Division 5 deals with initial eligibility determinations. These determinations can be made by the Secretary before the Secretary

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 1 Guide to this Part

Section 12

makes a payability determination. The Secretary can make an initial eligibility determination if the Secretary is satisfied that the person satisfies, or will satisfy, particular eligibility criteria. If the Secretary makes a determination, the Secretary must give a notice of it to the claimant.

Division 2—Determination about whether parental leave pay for a flexible PPL day is payable to a person

13 Determination on a PPL claim

When a claim is to be determined under this section

- (1) If:
- (a) a PPL claimant has made an effective PPL claim for parental leave pay for a child; and
 - (b) one or more flexible PPL days for the child (the claimed days) have been specified in the claim;
- the Secretary must make a determination on the PPL claim under this section.

When parental leave pay is payable to the PPL claimant for one or more claimed days

- (2) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is payable to the PPL claimant for one or more of the claimed days if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) the PPL claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on those days; and
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the PPL claimant is a person covered by subsection (3); and
 - (ii) the child's birth mother has not previously satisfied the work test in relation to the child;the child's birth mother satisfies the work test on the day the determination is made; and
 - (c) if:
 - (i) the PPL claimant is the partner of an adoptive parent of the child; and
 - (ii) an adoptive parent of the child has not previously satisfied the work test in relation to the child;

Section 13

the person who gave the PPL claimant the permission referred to in subparagraph (e)(i) satisfies the work test on the day the determination is made; and

- (d) if the PPL claimant is a person covered by subsection (3) and the circumstances prescribed by the rules for the purposes of this paragraph do not apply to the PPL claimant:
 - (i) a permission has been given to the PPL claimant under paragraph 15(1)(a) in relation to the child; and
 - (ii) the permission has not been revoked; and
- (iii) if the determination were made, the number of flexible PPL days for the child for which parental leave pay would be payable to the person would not exceed the number of flexible PPL days specified in the permission; and
- (e) if the PPL claimant is a person covered by subsection (4) and the circumstances prescribed by the rules for the purposes of this paragraph do not apply to the PPL claimant:
 - (i) a permission has been given to the PPL claimant under paragraph 15(1)(b) or (c) in relation to the child; and
 - (ii) the permission has not been revoked; and
- (iii) if the determination were made, the number of flexible PPL days for the child for which parental leave pay would be payable to the person would not exceed the number of flexible PPL days specified in the permission.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

- (3) The following persons are covered by this subsection:
 - (a) a person who:
 - (i) is a parent (other than an adoptive parent) of the child; and
 - (ii) is not the child's birth mother;
 - (b) the partner of the child's birth mother;
 - (c) the partner of a person covered by paragraph (a).

- (4) The following persons are covered by this subsection:
- (a) an adoptive parent of the child, if a payability determination under this section that parental leave pay for the child is payable is in force in relation to another adoptive parent of the child;
 - (b) the partner of an adoptive parent of the child.
- (5) The Secretary must specify in a determination made under subsection (2) the claimed days for which parental leave pay is payable to the PPL claimant.

When parental leave pay is not payable to the PPL claimant for one or more claimed days

- (6) If the Secretary is not satisfied of the matters in subsection (2) for one or more of the claimed days, the Secretary must:
- (a) determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the PPL claimant for those days; and
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the PPL claimant has not previously satisfied the work and income tests in relation to the child; and
 - (ii) the Secretary is satisfied that the PPL claimant satisfies the work test and income test on the day the determination is made;determine that the PPL claimant is conditionally eligible for parental leave pay for other flexible PPL days for the child.
- (7) The Secretary must specify in the determination made under subsection (6) the claimed days for which parental leave pay is not payable to the PPL claimant.

14 Determination on a special PPL claim

When a claim is to be determined under this section

- (1) If:

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-2 Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 2 Determination about whether parental leave pay for a flexible PPL day is payable to a person

Section 14

(a) a special PPL claimant has made an effective special PPL claim for parental leave pay for a child; and

(b) one or more flexible PPL days for the child (the claimed days) have been specified in the claim;

the Secretary must make a determination on the special PPL claim under this section.

When parental leave pay is payable to special PPL claimant for the claimed days

(2) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is payable to the special PPL claimant for one or more of the claimed days if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that:

(a) a payability determination under section 13 that parental leave pay for the child is payable to a PPL claimant is in force; and

(b) the special PPL claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on those days; and

(c) if the special PPL claimant is the partner of a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made—a permission has been given to the special PPL claimant under subsection 15(2) in relation to the child; and

(d) the permission has not been revoked; and

(e) if the determination were made, the number of flexible PPL days for the child for which parental leave pay would be payable to the person would not exceed the number of flexible PPL days specified in the permission.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

(3) The Secretary must specify in the determination made under subsection (2) the claimed days for which parental leave pay is payable to the special PPL claimant.

When parental leave pay is not payable to the special PPL claimant for the claimed days

- (4) If the Secretary is not satisfied of the matters in subsection (2) for one or more of the claimed days, the Secretary must:
- (a) determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the special PPL claimant for those days; and
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the special PPL claimant is the partner of a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made; and
 - (ii) the special PPL claimant has not previously satisfied the work and income tests in relation to the child; and
 - (iii) the Secretary is satisfied that the special PPL claimant satisfies the work test and income test on the day the determination is made;determine that the special PPL claimant is conditionally eligible for parental leave pay for other flexible PPL days for the child.
- (5) The Secretary must specify in the determination made under subsection (4) the claimed days for which parental leave pay is not payable to the special PPL claimant.

15 Permission to claim flexible PPL days for a child

Certain claimants may give permission

- (1) Permission for PPL claimants to claim parental leave pay for one or more flexible PPL days for a child may be given by the following persons:
- (a) the child's birth mother;
 - (b) a person:
 - (i) who is an adoptive parent of the child; and
 - (ii) in respect of whom a payability determination under section 13 that parental leave pay for the child is payable is in force; and

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-2 Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 2 Determination about whether parental leave pay for a flexible PPL day is payable to a person

Section 15

- (iii) who is the first adoptive parent of the child in respect of whom a payability determination under section 13 that parental leave pay for the child is payable has been made;
 - (c) an adoptive parent of the child who is nominated by the partner of an adoptive parent of the child to give permission to that partner.
- (2) Permission for special PPL claimants to claim parental leave pay for flexible PPL days for a child may be given by a person:
 - (a) who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made; and
 - (b) in respect of whom a payability determination under section 13 that parental leave pay for the child is payable is in force.
- (3) The permission must:
 - (a) be given to the Secretary in the form approved by the Secretary; and
 - (b) specify the number of flexible PPL days for the child to whom the permission relates that may be claimed; and
 - (c) specify the person to whom the permission is given.

Note 1: The maximum number of flexible PPL days for a child that is payable is worked out under sections 31AB and 31ABA.

Note 2: The permission does not preclude the person giving the permission from claiming parental leave pay for some or all of the specified number of flexible PPL days for the child.

Variation and revocation of permission

- (4) If a person has given a permission under subsection (1) or (2), the person may:
 - (a) vary the number of flexible PPL days for the child specified in the permission; or
 - (b) revoke the permission.

Section 15

- (5) The variation or revocation must be given to the Secretary in the form approved by the Secretary.
- (6) If:
- (a) a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for one or more flexible PPL days for a child is in force in relation to a claim; and
 - (b) permission was given in relation to that claim under subsection (1) or (2); and
 - (c) that permission is varied under paragraph (4)(a);
- then:
- (d) the variation of the permission does not affect the operation of the payability determination in relation to the days specified in the payability determination that, at the time the permission is varied, have already occurred; and
 - (e) the Secretary must vary the payability determination to remove the days specified in the payability determination that, at the time the permission is varied:
 - (i) have not yet occurred; and
 - (ii) exceed the number of days specified in the permission, as varied; and
 - (f) the Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the person for the days referred to in paragraph (e).

Note: Subsections 13(5) and (7) (for PPL claims) and 14(3) and (5) (for special PPL claims) provide that determinations must specify the claimed days for which parental leave pay is payable and not payable to a claimant.

- (7) If:
- (a) a payability determination is in force in relation to a claim made by a person; and
 - (b) permission was given in relation to that claim under subsection (1) or (2); and
 - (c) that permission is revoked in relation to the person under paragraph (4)(b);

Section 15

then:

- (d) the revocation of the permission does not affect the operation of the payability determination in relation to the days specified in the payability determination that, at the time the permission is revoked, have already occurred; and
- (e) the Secretary must vary the payability determination to remove the days specified in the payability determination that, at the time the permission is revoked, have not yet occurred; and
- (f) the Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the person for the days referred to in paragraph (e).

Note: Subsections 13(5) and (7) (for PPL claims) and 14(3) and (5) (for special PPL claims) provide that determinations must specify the claimed days for which parental leave pay is payable and not payable to a claimant.

Division 3—When the Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable

18 The child's birth has not been verified

- (1) The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child unless a PPL claimant has verified the child's birth.

Verifying a child's birth

- (2) A person verifies a child's birth if:
- (a) the person gives the Secretary a completed birth verification form for the child; and
 - (b) if subsection (3) applies to the person, the person satisfies the requirement of that subsection.
- (3) If:
- (a) the person is the parent (other than an adoptive parent) of the child; and
 - (b) the child is not stillborn; and
 - (c) the person is, under a law of a State or a Territory, responsible (whether alone or jointly) for registering the birth of the child under the law;
- then the person must give the Secretary information showing that:
- (d) the child's birth has been registered under the law; or
 - (e) the person has applied to have the birth of the child registered under the law.
- (4) The Secretary may approve a form (a birth verification form) for the purposes of verifying the birth of a child.

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-2 Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 3 When the Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable

Section 19B

19B Parental leave pay not payable to COVID-19 affected claimant if child born after 31 March 2021

If a person is a COVID-19 affected claimant in relation to a claim for parental leave pay for a child of the person, the Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person for the child if the child is born after 31 March 2021.

20 Multiple births

The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child if:

- (a) the child and another child are born during the same multiple birth; and
- (b) parental leave pay is or was payable to the person or another person for the other child.

21 Limit on number of flexible PPL days for which parental leave pay is payable to more than one person

- (1) The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day (the relevant day) for a child if:
 - (a) the effect of one or more payability determinations made by the Secretary under section 13 or 14 is that parental leave pay is payable to more than one person for the same flexible PPL day for the child on a total of:
 - (i) if the child is born before 1 July 2025—10 flexible PPL days; or
 - (ii) if the child is born on or after 1 July 2025—20 flexible PPL days; and
 - (b) the effect of a payability determination made by the Secretary under section 13 or 14 is that parental leave pay is payable to another person for the relevant day.

- (2) However, the PPL rules may prescribe circumstances in which a flexible PPL day does not count towards the total number of flexible PPL days referred to in paragraph (1)(a).

Section 22

Division 4—General provisions applying to determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable

22 Assumptions when making the determination

In deciding whether to make a payability determination about parental leave pay, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

23 When the determination is in force

A payability determination about parental leave pay comes into force on the day it is made and continues in force unless it is:

- (a) revoked under section 25 (which deals with revoking a payability determination on the claimant's request); or
- (b) set aside under Chapter 5 (which deals with review of decisions).

24 Notice of the determination

If the Secretary makes a payability determination about parental leave pay for a child, the Secretary must give the claimant a notice stating:

- (a) whether parental leave pay is payable; and
- (c) if parental leave pay is payable for one or more flexible PPL days for the child—those days; and
- (d) if parental leave pay is not payable—whether a conditional eligibility determination has been made; and
- (e) that the claimant may apply for review of the determination in the manner set out in Chapter 5.

25 Revoking the determination on request

- (1) If:

Section 25

- (a) a payability determination is made that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a flexible PPL day for a child; and
 - (b) the person requests the Secretary to revoke the determination; and
 - (c) the request is made before the last day of the instalment period for the instalment that relates to the flexible PPL day for the child; and
 - (d) the request is made in a manner approved by the Secretary; then the Secretary must revoke the determination.
- (2) The revocation is taken to have come into force on the day the person requested the Secretary to revoke the determination.

Division 5—Initial eligibility determinations about parental leave pay

26A Initial eligibility determinations relating to flexible PPL days for a child

The Secretary may make a determination (the initial eligibility determination) that a person is initially eligible for parental leave pay for one or more flexible PPL days for a child if:

- (a) the flexible PPL days for the child are specified in an effective PPL claim or effective special PPL claim made by the person; and
- (b) if no other initial eligibility determination under this section is in force in relation to the person and child—the Secretary is satisfied that the person satisfies the work test and income test when making the determination; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the person satisfies the Australian residency test when making the determination.

27 Assumptions when making the initial eligibility determination

In deciding whether to make an initial eligibility determination about parental leave pay, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

28 When the initial eligibility determination comes into force

An initial eligibility determination about parental leave pay comes into force on the day it is made.

29 Notice of the initial eligibility determination

If the Secretary makes an initial eligibility determination about parental leave pay, the Secretary must give a notice of the determination to the claimant.

Part 2-3—Eligibility for parental leave pay

Division 1—Guide to this Part

30 Guide to this Part

This Part sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay. The Secretary cannot make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable if the person is not eligible for it.

Division 2 sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay. Section 31AA sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child. Sections 31AB and 31ABA set out the maximum number of flexible PPL days for a child for which parental leave pay can be paid. This includes, subject to certain exceptions, the flexible PPL days that are reserved for other claimants where a claimant has a partner at the time of their first effective claim.

Division 3 has the work test. To satisfy the work test, a person must have performed enough paid work or taken enough paid leave in a particular period. A flexible PPL day for a previous child for which parental leave pay was payable to the person may be taken into account in working out whether the person satisfies the work test for a subsequent child. Any jobkeeper payment period or COVID-19 Australian Government payment period for the person may also be taken into account. Special rules apply in the case of premature birth or complications or illness related to the pregnancy (see section 36A) or in special circumstances (see section 36AA).

Division 4 has the income test. To satisfy the income test, the person's income for a particular income year must not be more than either the individual PPL income limit (which is $150,000 until 30 June 2021 and then indexed) or the family PPL income limit (which is $350,000 until 30 June 2024 and then indexed). If

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 1 Guide to this Part

Section 30

the person has a partner, their partner's income is also counted towards the family PPL income limit.

Division 5 has the Australian residency test. To satisfy this test, the person must be an Australian resident or be in a special class of visa holder.

Division 6 sets out when a person is caring for a child.

Division 2—When a person is eligible for parental leave pay

31AA When a person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child

- (1) A person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child if:
- (a) the person is eligible for parental leave pay on the day under subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5); and
 - (b) the person is not ineligible for parental leave pay on the day under section 31AB.

Main eligibility rule

- (2) A person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child if:
- (a) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on that day; and
 - (b) the person is caring for the child on that day; and
 - (c) on that day the person is performing no more than one hour of paid work; and
 - (d) if the person has not previously satisfied the work and income tests in relation to the child—the person satisfies the work test and the income test on that day; and
 - (e) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on the day the child was born;
 - (ii) if the day the child was born is in a newly arrived resident's waiting period that the person is subject to under section 31A—subsection 31A(7) or (7A) applies to the person on the day the child was born.

Section 31AA

When child is stillborn or has died

- (3) A person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child if:
- (a) the child is stillborn or has died before that day; and
 - (b) on that day, the person would be eligible under subsection (2) for parental leave pay on that day, if paragraphs (2)(b) and (c) were disregarded; and
 - (c) the person would have been caring for the child on that day had the child not been stillborn or died.

When person meets prescribed conditions—persons other than special PPL claimants in exceptional circumstances

- (4) A person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child if:
- (a) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on that day; and
 - (b) if the person has not previously satisfied the work and income tests in relation to the child—the person satisfies the work test and the income test on that day; and
 - (c) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on the day the child was born;
 - (ii) if the day the child was born is in a newly arrived resident's waiting period that the person is subject to under section 31A—subsection 31A(7) or (7A) applies to the person on the day the child was born; and
 - (d) the person does not satisfy the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a special PPL claim can be made; and
 - (e) on that flexible PPL day, the person satisfies the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of this paragraph.

Section 31AB

When person meets prescribed conditions—special PPL claimants in exceptional circumstances

- (5) A person is eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child if:
- (a) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on that day; and
 - (b) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the person satisfies the Australian residency test on the day the child was born;
 - (ii) if the day the child was born is in a newly arrived resident's waiting period that the person is subject to under section 31A—subsection 31A(7) or (7A) applies to the person on the day the child was born; and
 - (c) the person satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a special PPL claim can be made; and
 - (d) on that flexible PPL day, the person satisfies the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of this paragraph.

31AB When a person is not eligible for parental leave pay on a flexible PPL day for a child

When a person is not eligible

- (1) A person (the relevant claimant) is not eligible for parental leave pay on a day that is a flexible PPL day for a child if subsection (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) or (8) applies to the relevant claimant on that day.

Flexible PPL days exceed maximum amounts—total limit in relation to child

- (2) This subsection applies to the relevant claimant on a flexible PPL day if:
- (a) one or more determinations under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to a person are in force in

- (b) neither the relevant claimant nor the relevant claimant's partner (if any) satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made.

When flexible PPL days exceed maximum amounts—claimant limit when partnered (reserved period)

- (3) This subsection applies to the relevant claimant on a flexible PPL day if:

 - (c) neither the relevant claimant nor the relevant claimant's partner (if any) satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made; and
 - (d) the relevant claimant does not satisfy the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of this paragraph.

When flexible PPL days exceed maximum amounts—exceptional circumstances persons (other than persons that meet prescribed conditions)

- (4) This subsection applies to the relevant claimant on a flexible PPL day if:
 - (a) one or more determinations under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to the relevant claimant or the relevant claimant's partner (if any) are in force in relation to the number of flexible PPL days for the child specified in subsection 31ABA(1); and

Section 31AB

- (b) the relevant claimant or the relevant claimant's partner (if any) satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a PPL claim can be made; and
- (c) the relevant claimant does not satisfy the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of paragraph (5)(c).

When flexible PPL days exceed maximum amounts—exceptional circumstances persons that meet prescribed conditions (total limit)

- (5) This subsection applies to the relevant claimant on a flexible PPL day if:
 - (a) one or more determinations under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to the relevant claimant or the relevant claimant's partner (if any) are in force in relation to the number of flexible PPL days for the child specified in subsection 31ABA(1); and

Division 3—The work test

32 When a person satisfies the work test

To work out whether a person satisfies the work test on a day, use the following method statement:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the person's work test period.

Note: Work test period is defined in sections 33 and 33A for PPL claimants and special PPL claimants.

Step 2. Work out the days in the work test period on which the person has and has not performed qualifying work.

Note: Qualifying work is defined in section 34.

Step 3. Work out whether any days on which the person has not performed qualifying work during the work test period fall within a permissible break.

Note: Permissible break is defined in section 36.

Step 4. Work out whether there is a period (a qualifying period) of 295 consecutive days in the work test period that are days:

- (a) on which the person has performed qualifying work; or
- (b) that fall within a permissible break.

Step 5. If the person has performed at least 330 hours of qualifying work in a qualifying period, the person satisfies the work test.

Note 1: A person may also satisfy the work test despite not satisfying the test in step 5, if:

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-3 Eligibility for parental leave pay

Division 3 The work test

Section 33

- (a) the child was born prematurely; or
- (b) while the person was pregnant with the child, the person had complications or illness related to the pregnancy which prevented the person from performing paid work.

See section 36A.

Note 1A: A person may also satisfy the work test in special circumstances: see section 36AA.

Note 3: If the person performs qualifying work on a day because of paragraph (c) or (d) of the definition of qualifying work in subsection 34(1), and does not also perform qualifying work on that day because of paragraph (e) or (f) of that definition, see section 35A to work out the hours of qualifying work the person is taken to have performed on the day.

Note 4: If the person performs qualifying work on a day because of paragraph (e) of the definition of qualifying work in subsection 34(1), the number of hours of qualifying work the person is taken to have performed on that day is determined in accordance with the PPL rules (see section 35B).

Note 5: If the person performs qualifying work on a day because of paragraph (f) of the definition of qualifying work in subsection 34(1), the number of hours of qualifying work the person is taken to have performed on that day is determined in accordance with the PPL rules (see section 35C).

33 The work test period—claimants other than COVID-19 affected claimants

Application of section

(1A) This section applies in relation to a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant who is not a COVID-19 affected claimant in relation to a claim for parental leave pay for a child.

(1B) If a provision of this Act or the PPL rules requires a person (the first person) to satisfy the work test on a day for the purposes of a PPL claim or special PPL claim made by another person, this section applies as if a reference to a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant were a reference to the first person.

Note: For the work test period for a COVID-19 affected claimant in relation to such a claim: see section 33A.

Section 33

Work test period

- (1) The work test period for the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is the 392 days immediately before:
- (a) if:
 - (i) subsection (2A) applies in relation to the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant; and
 - (ii) the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant would not satisfy the work test if the claimant's work test period were the work test period under paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection;the claimant's work cessation day; or
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the child of the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is born after the expected date of birth of the child; and
 - (ii) the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant would not satisfy the work test if the claimant's work test period were the work test period under paragraph (c) of this subsection;the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (c) otherwise—the day the child is born.
- (2) However, for the purposes of making an initial eligibility determination on a PPL claim or special PPL claim, the work test period for the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is the 392 days immediately before:
- (a) if:
 - (i) subsection (2A) applies in relation to the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant; and
 - (ii) the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant would not satisfy the work test if the claimant's work test period were the work test period under paragraph (b) of this subsection;the claimant's work cessation day; or
 - (b) otherwise—the expected date of birth of the child.

Section 33A

- (2A) This subsection applies in relation to a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant if:
- (a) the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is pregnant with the child or is the birth mother of the child; and

 - (c) the PPL claimant or special PPL claimant will cease or ceased performing that kind of work on a particular day (the claimant's work cessation day) because of hazards connected with that kind of work that pose or posed a risk to the pregnancy; and
 - (d) any conditions prescribed by the PPL rules are satisfied.

33A The work test period—COVID-19 affected claimants

The work test period for a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant who is a COVID-19 affected claimant in relation to a claim for parental leave pay for a child is the work test period that would apply to the claimant under section 33 if:

- (a) subsection 33(1A) were disregarded; and
- (b) the reference in subsections 33(1) and (2) to 392 days were a reference to 600 days.

 - (e) the day is in a jobkeeper payment period for the person;
 - (f) the day is in a COVID-19 Australian Government payment period for the person.

Section 35

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the PPL rules may prescribe what is, or is not, taken to be paid leave.
- (3) A jobkeeper payment period for a person is a period for which:
 - (a) an employer of the person is entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the person; or
 - (b) the person themselves is entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments.

 - (b) a payment or grant of financial assistance by the Commonwealth that is prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of this paragraph.

35 When a person performs paid work

People other than self-employed

- (1) A person performs paid work on a day if, on that day, the person performs work (whether as an employee, a contractor or otherwise and whether or not in Australia) for another entity for remuneration or other financial benefit.

Section 35A

- (2) However, a person is taken not to perform paid work for the purposes of subsection (1) if the other entity is controlled by the person (whether alone or with others).

 - (b) an entity that is controlled by the person (whether alone or with others).

When a person controls an entity

- (4) A person controls an entity if the person has the capacity to determine the outcome of decisions about the entity's financial and operating policies.

PPL rules about what paid work is

- (5) The PPL rules may prescribe what is, or is not, taken to be paid work.

35A Hours of qualifying work on a flexible PPL day

If person does not perform paid work or take paid leave on previous flexible PPL day

- (1) For the purposes of step 5 of the method statement in section 32, if a person performs qualifying work on a day only because the day is a flexible PPL day for a previous child, the person is taken to have performed 7.6 hours of work on that day.

If person performs paid work on previous flexible PPL day

- (2) For the purposes of step 5 of the method statement in section 32, if a person performs qualifying work on a day because both:

Section 35B

- (a) the person performs at least one hour of paid work on the day; and
 - (b) the day is a flexible PPL day for which parental leave pay is payable to the person for a previous child;
- the person is taken to have performed on that day the greater of:
- (c) the hours of work the person would be taken to have performed if subsection (1) applied; and
 - (d) the number of hours of paid work performed by the person on that day.

If person takes paid leave on previous flexible PPL day

- (3) For the purposes of step 5 of the method statement in section 32, if a person performs qualifying work on a day because both:
 - (a) the person takes a period of paid leave of at least one hour on the day; and
 - (b) the day is a flexible PPL day for which parental leave pay is payable to the person for a previous child;the person is taken to have performed on that day the greater of:
 - (c) the hours of work the person would be taken to have performed if subsection (1) applied; and
 - (d) the number of hours of paid leave taken by the person on that day.

35B Hours of qualifying work on a day in a jobkeeper payment period

- (1) For the purposes of step 5 of the method statement in section 32, if a person performs qualifying work on a day because the day is in a jobkeeper payment period for the person, the person is taken to have performed on that day the number of hours of work determined in accordance with the PPL rules.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect:
 - (a) even if the person also performs qualifying work on that day because of paragraph 34(1)(a), (b) or (ca); and
 - (b) despite section 35A.

Section 35C

35C Hours of qualifying work on a day in a COVID-19 Australian Government payment period

- (1) For the purposes of step 5 of the method statement in section 32, if a person performs qualifying work on a day because the day is in a COVID-19 Australian Government payment period for the person, the person is taken to have performed on that day the number of hours of work determined in accordance with the PPL rules.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect:
 - (a) even if the person also performs qualifying work on that day because of paragraph 34(1)(a), (b) or (ca); and
 - (b) despite section 35A.

36 When there is a permissible break

- (1) A permissible break is any of the periods in subsections (2) and (3).

Permissible break between 2 qualifying work days

- (2) If, between a day on which the person performed qualifying work (a qualifying work day) in the work test period and the next qualifying work day, there was at least 1 day but not more than 84 consecutive days on which the person did not perform qualifying work—the day or period of consecutive days between those 2 qualifying work days is a permissible break.

Permissible break at the start of the work test period

- (3) If:
 - (a) a person performed qualifying work on a day (the earlier qualifying work day) before the first day in the work test period; and
 - (b) the person next performed qualifying work on a day (the later qualifying work day) after the first day in the work test period; and

Section 36A

(c) the later qualifying work day was no more than 84 consecutive days after the earlier qualifying work day; then the day or period of consecutive days on which the person did not perform qualifying work between the first day in the work test period and the later qualifying work day (including the first day of the work test period) is a permissible break.

36A Premature birth or pregnancy-related complications or illness

- (1) A person also satisfies the work test on a day if:
- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that either or both of the following circumstances existed:
 - (i) if the person is covered by subsection (2)—the child was born prematurely;
 - (ii) if the person is the child's birth mother—while the person was pregnant with the child, the person had complications or illness related to the pregnancy which prevented the person from performing paid work; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the person would have satisfied the work test on the day in accordance with section 32 if that circumstance, or those circumstances, had not existed.
- (2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1)(a)(i), the following persons are covered:
- (a) the child's birth mother;

 - (c) the partner of the child's birth mother.

36AA Special circumstances

- A person also satisfies the work test on a day if:
- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that special circumstances of a kind prescribed by the PPL rules for the purposes of this paragraph exist in relation to the person on the day; and

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-3 Eligibility for parental leave pay

Division 3 The work test

Section 36AA

- (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the person would have satisfied the work test on the day in accordance with section 32 if those circumstances had not existed.

Division 4—The income test

Subdivision A—The income test

37 When a person satisfies the income test

- (1) A person satisfies the income test on a day:
 - (a) that is a flexible PPL day for a child of the person; or
 - (b) on which a conditional eligibility determination or initial eligibility determination is made in relation to the person;if the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference income year is not more than the relevant individual PPL income limit.
- (2) A person satisfies the income test on a day:
 - (a) that is a flexible PPL day for a child of the person; or
 - (b) on which a conditional eligibility determination or initial eligibility determination is made in relation to the person;if:
 - (c) the person does not have a partner at the time the person makes the claim to which that flexible PPL day or determination relates; and
 - (d) the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference income year is not more than the relevant family PPL income limit.
- (3) A person satisfies the income test on a day:
 - (a) that is a flexible PPL day for a child of the person; or
 - (b) on which a conditional eligibility determination or initial eligibility determination is made in relation to the person;if:
 - (c) the person has a partner at the time the person makes the claim to which that flexible PPL day or determination relates; and
 - (d) the total of the following amounts is not more than the relevant family PPL income limit:

Section 38

- (i) the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference income year;
- (ii) the adjusted taxable income of the person's partner for the reference income year.

38 A person's adjusted taxable income

A person's adjusted taxable income for an income year is worked out in accordance with Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act (disregarding subclause 2(2) and clauses 3 and 3A of that Schedule).

Note: Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act sets out how to work out a person's adjusted taxable income for the purposes of that Act.

39 The reference income year

The reference income year for a person is:

- (a) the income year that ended before the earlier of:
 - (i) the day the person made the claim; and
 - (ii) the day the child was born.

40 The relevant individual PPL income limit and relevant family PPL income limit

- (1) The relevant individual PPL income limit for a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is the individual PPL income limit that applies on the earlier of the following days:
 - (a) the day the person made the claim;
 - (b) the day the child was born.
- (2) The relevant family PPL income limit for a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant is the family PPL income limit that applies on the earlier of the following days:
 - (a) the day the person made the claim;
 - (b) the day the child was born.

41 The individual PPL income limit and family PPL income limit

- (1) The individual PPL income limit that applies on a day is:
 - (a) if the day is on or after 1 October 2010 but before 1 July 2021—$150,000; and
 - (b) if the day is on or after an indexation day (the relevant indexation day) but before the next indexation day—the indexed amount on the relevant indexation day worked out under Subdivision B.
- (2) The family PPL income limit that applies on a day is:
 - (a) if the day is on or after 1 July 2023 but before 1 July 2024—$350,000; and
 - (b) if the day is on or after an indexation day (the relevant indexation day) but before the next indexation day—the indexed amount on the relevant indexation day worked out under Subdivision B.

Subdivision B—Indexation of individual and family PPL income limits

42 Indexation of individual and family PPL income limits

Indexation day

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the amount of the individual PPL income limit and the amount of the family PPL income limit are to be indexed under this Subdivision on 1 July each year (the indexation day).
- (2) The first indexation day for an amount of the individual PPL income limit is 1 July 2021 and the first indexation day for an amount of the family PPL income limit is 1 July 2024.

Section 43

Working out the indexed amount for the individual and family PPL income limits

- (3) This is how to work out the indexed amount for the individual and family PPL income limits on the indexation day:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount (the previous amount) for the relevant income limit that applied on the day immediately before the indexation day.
- Step 2. Use section 43 to work out the indexation factor on the indexation day.
- Step 3. Multiply the previous amount by the indexation factor: the result is the provisional indexed amount.
- Step 4. Use section 44 to round off the provisional indexed amount: the result is the indexed amount.

43 The indexation factor

- (1) The indexation factor is worked out using the following formula and applying subsections (2) and (3):

$$\frac{\text{Index number for the reference December quarter}}{\text{Index number for the base December quarter}}$$

where:

base December quarter means the December quarter that has the highest index number of the December quarters before the reference December quarter (but not earlier than the December quarter 2007).

index number, for a quarter, means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number that is the weighted average of the 8 capital cities and is published by the Australian Statistician in relation to that quarter.

reference December quarter means the last December quarter before the indexation day.

- (2) The indexation factor is to be worked out to 3 decimal places, but increased by 0.001 if the fourth decimal place is more than 4.
- (3) If an indexation factor worked out under subsections (1) and (2) would be less than 1, that indexation factor is to be increased to 1.

Changes to CPI reference base and publication of substituted index numbers

- (4) Amounts are to be worked out under this section:
 - (a) using only the index numbers published in terms of the most recently published reference base for the Consumer Price Index; and
 - (b) disregarding index numbers published in substitution for previously published index numbers (except where the substituted numbers are published to take account of changes in the reference base).

44 Rounding off indexed amounts

- (1) If a provisional indexed amount is a multiple of $1.00, the provisional indexed amount becomes the indexed amount.
- (2) If a provisional indexed amount is not a multiple of $1.00, the indexed amount is the provisional indexed amount rounded up or down to the nearest multiple of $1.00.
- (3) If a provisional indexed amount is not a multiple of $1.00 but is a multiple of $0.50, the indexed amount is the provisional indexed amount rounded up to the nearest multiple of $1.00.

Section 45

Division 5—The Australian residency test

45 When a person satisfies the Australian residency test

- (1) A person satisfies the Australian residency test on a day if, on that day, the person:
- (a) is an Australian resident; or
 - (b) is a special category visa holder residing in Australia; or
 - (c) satisfies subsection (2).

When a person satisfies this subsection

- (2) A person satisfies this subsection if:
- (a) the person is the holder of a visa determined by the Minister for the purposes of subparagraph 729(2)(f)(v) of the Social Security Act; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the person is in Australia; or
 - (ii) the person is temporarily absent from Australia for not more than 6 weeks and the absence is an allowable absence in relation to special benefit within the meaning of Part 4.2 of that Act.

46 Effect of absence from Australia on Australian residency test

- (1) Despite section 45, a person does not satisfy the Australian residency test on a day (the relevant day) if:
- (a) before the relevant day, the person left Australia; and
 - (b) on the relevant day, the person has been absent from Australia for more than 56 weeks since the day the person left Australia.

Effect of a person's return to Australia within 56 weeks

- (2) If:

Section 46

- (a) a person who has been absent from Australia for more than 6 weeks, but not more than 56 weeks, returns to Australia; and
 - (b) the person leaves Australia again less than 6 weeks later;
- then the person is taken not to have returned to Australia for the purposes of subsection (1).

Effect of a person's return to Australia after 56 weeks

- (3) If:
- (a) a person satisfies the Australian residency test while the person is absent from Australia; and
 - (b) the person then ceases to satisfy the Australian residency test because of the application of subsection (1) or a previous application of this subsection; and
 - (c) the person returns to Australia; and
 - (d) the person leaves Australia again less than 6 weeks later;
- then, despite section 45, the person does not satisfy the Australian residency test at any time during:

Part 2-4—Claims for parental leave pay

Division 1—Guide to this Part

51 Guide to this Part

This Part is about claims for parental leave pay. A person cannot be paid parental leave pay unless the person has first made a claim for it.

Division 2 sets out the rules about claims. There are 2 types of claims: PPL claims and special PPL claims. These claims relate to each other, although PPL claims are the main type of claim. PPL claims will often be the only claims that are made. Section 54 sets out who can make each type of claim.

The Secretary cannot make a payability determination on a claim unless it is an effective claim. To be effective, the claim must be made by the right person and satisfy the requirements in the provisions listed in section 55. One of those requirements is that the claim must be in the form, and contain the information, required by the Secretary (see section 56). Another requirement is that the claim must be made in the period set out in section 60.

Division 2—Claims for parental leave pay

52 Who can claim

Only a natural person can make a claim for parental leave pay.

53 Types of claims

- (1) There are 2 types of claims for parental leave pay:
 - (a) a PPL claim; and
 - (b) a special PPL claim.
- (2) A PPL claim is a claim in the form approved by the Secretary for PPL claims.
- (3) A special PPL claim is a claim in the form approved by the Secretary for special PPL claims.
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), the Secretary may approve:
 - (a) different forms for different types of claims; and
 - (b) different forms for the same type of claim.

54 Who can make a PPL claim or special PPL claim

PPL claim

- (1) Only the following people can make a PPL claim for a child:

 - (b) a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a special PPL claim can be made.

55 When a claim is effective

- (1) A claim for parental leave pay is not effective unless the requirements of the following provisions that apply to the claim are satisfied:
 - (a) section 56 (which deals with the form etc. of the claim);
 - (ba) section 57A (which deals with the specification in a claim of flexible PPL days for a child etc.);
 - (c) section 58 (which deals with expected date of birth etc.);
 - (d) section 59 (which deals with tax file number statements);
 - (da) section 59A (which deals with permission to make claims for flexible PPL days for a child);
 - (e) section 60 (which deals with when to make the claim).
- (2) A claim for parental leave pay is also not effective if it is made by a person who cannot make that type of claim under section 54.
- (3) A claim for parental leave pay that is not effective is taken not to have been made.

56 Requirements of the claim

- (1) The claim for parental leave pay must:
 - (a) be made in the form approved, and the manner required, by the Secretary for that type of claim; and

Section 57A

- (b) contain any information (including information about the claimant's employer or the claimant's employment with that employer) required by the Secretary; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any documents required by the Secretary.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(b) and (c), the Secretary may require that different information be contained in, and different documents accompany:

- (3) Before a payability determination is made on the claim, the claimant may change a flexible PPL day for the child specified in the claim by notifying the Secretary of the new flexible PPL day for the child.
- (4) If:
 - (a) one or more days were specified in the claim for parental leave pay as flexible PPL days for the child at the time the claim was made; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules apply in relation to the claim;

Section 58

then, before a payability determination is made on the claim, the Secretary may determine, in accordance with any requirements prescribed by the PPL rules, that the claim is to be taken, for the purposes of making the determination, to have specified one or more other flexible PPL days for the child.

58 Expected date of birth

If the claim is a PPL claim and it is made before the child's birth, the claim must specify the child's expected date of birth.

59 Tax file number statement

- (1) The claim for parental leave pay must contain the person's tax file number statement, which is a statement of the kind set out in subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5).

Statement of tax file number

- (2) The first kind is a statement of the person's tax file number.

Statement that person does not know his or her tax file number

- (3) The second kind is a statement that the person:

59A Permission to make claims for flexible PPL days for a child

When permission is required for an effective claim

- (1) A PPL claim for parental leave pay for one or more flexible PPL days for a child that is made by the following persons is not an effective claim unless permission to make a claim in relation to the child is given, and has not been revoked, by the child's birth mother:

Chapter 3—Payment of parental leave pay

Part 3-1—Instalments of parental leave pay

Division 1—Guide to this Part

62 Guide to this Part

This Part is about instalments of parental leave pay.

Parental leave pay is payable in instalments for regular periods called instalment periods. An instalment is payable to a person if one or more flexible PPL days for a child of the person fall within an instalment period for the person and parental leave pay is payable to the person for those days.

Instalments are payable by either a person's employer (see Part 3-2) or the Secretary (see Part 3-3).

This Part also contains rules for working out the amount of an instalment and deals with the deductions that may be made from an instalment.

Division 2—Instalments of parental leave pay

63 Instalments of parental leave pay

- (1) Parental leave pay must be paid to a person in instalments.

Who pays an instalment

- (2) An instalment is payable to a person, in accordance with sections 72, 84, 85, 86 and 87, by either:
- (a) the person's employer; or
 - (b) the Secretary.

When an instalment is payable

- (3) An instalment is payable to a person if one or more flexible PPL days for a child of the person:
- (a) fall within an instalment period for the person; and
 - (b) are days for which parental leave pay is payable to the person.

Note: Sections 93 and 94 affect when an instalment period for a person starts and ends in certain circumstances.

Section 65

Instalment to be paid by employer—regular pay period

- (2) If the instalment is to be paid by the person's employer and there is a regular period for which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work:
- (a) the person's instalment period is each such regular period; and
 - (b) the payday for the instalment is the day on which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work for the instalment period to which the instalment relates.

Instalment to be paid by employer—no regular pay period

- (3) If the instalment is to be paid by the person's employer and there is not a regular period for which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work:
- (a) the person's instalment period is each calendar month; and
 - (b) the payday for the instalment is the first day after the end of the instalment period to which the instalment relates.

Instalment to be paid by Secretary

- (4) If the instalment is to be paid by the Secretary:
- (a) the person's instalment period is the period of 14 days starting on a day the Secretary considers appropriate for the person (or a class of person in which the person is included) and each successive 14 day period; and

Section 66

- (b) a day for which parental leave pay is payable to the person.
- (2) The daily national minimum wage amount for a day is 7.6 times the amount of the national minimum wage (when expressed as a monetary amount per hour) set by a national minimum wage order that is in operation on that day (whether or not the order has also taken effect on that day).
- Note: For when a national minimum wage order comes into operation, see section 287 of the Fair Work Act.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2):
- (a) the national minimum wage is taken to be the wage set by the national minimum wage order for employees in relation to whom no exceptional circumstances exist (see subsection 287(2) of the Fair Work Act); and
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the Fair Work Commission makes a determination under section 296 of the Fair Work Act varying a national minimum wage order; and
 - (ii) the day the determination comes into operation under section 297 of that Act is earlier than the day the determination is made;the determination is taken to come into operation on the day the determination is made.

66 Protection of instalment

- (1) An instalment is absolutely inalienable, whether by way of, or in consequence of, sale, assignment, charge, execution, bankruptcy or otherwise.
- Note: Section 97 (which deals with the effect of a garnishee etc. order) also provides a protection for an account into which an instalment has been paid.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to sections 67, 68, 69, 69A and 69B (which deal with deductions).

Section 67

67 Deductions authorised by person

- (1) An employer or the Secretary may deduct an amount from an instalment that is payable to a person if the deduction is:
- (a) authorised by the person; and
 - (b) principally for the person's benefit.

Note: A deduction by an employer in accordance with a salary sacrifice or other arrangement, under which a person chooses to:

- (a) forgo an amount payable to the person in relation to an instalment; but
- (b) receive some other form of benefit or remuneration;

will be permitted if it is made in accordance with this section.

- (2) The Secretary may deduct an amount from an instalment that is payable to a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant for a child if:
- (a) another PPL claimant or special PPL claimant owes a debt to the Commonwealth in relation to amounts paid to, or in relation to, that other PPL claimant or special PPL claimant by way of instalments for the same child; and
 - (b) the deduction is authorised by the first PPL claimant or special PPL claimant for the purposes of the recovery of the debt.
- (3) An authorisation for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or (2)(b):
- (a) must be in writing; and
 - (b) must specify the amount of the deduction; and
 - (c) may be withdrawn in writing by the person at any time.
- (4) Any variation in the amount of the authorised deduction must also be authorised in writing by the person.

68 Deductions for PAYG withholding

An employer or the Secretary (the payer) may deduct an amount from an instalment that is payable to a person if the payer is required to withhold the amount under section 12-110 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

69 Deductions relating to child support

- (1) An employer may deduct an amount from an instalment that is payable to a person if the employer is required to deduct the amount under section 46 or 72A of the Child Support (Registration and Collection) Act 1988.

 - (a) make deductions from an instalment that is payable to the person (subject to subsections (3) and (4) of that section); and
 - (b) pay the amounts deducted to the Child Support Registrar.

69A Deductions to avoid overpayment of income support payment

If:

- (a) a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person is made; and
- (b) an instalment for an instalment period becomes payable to the person by the Secretary on a particular day; and
- (c) before that day, the person was paid an amount of income support payment under the social security law or Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 for a period (the income support period) that falls within, or overlaps with, the instalment period; and then the Secretary may deduct from the instalment an amount equal to the excess.
- (d) the Secretary is satisfied that the amount of income support payment so paid exceeds the amount of income support payment that would have been payable to the person for the income support period under that law or Act had the instalment been taken into account when working out the amount of income support payment payable to the person for that period under that law or Act;

Section 69B

Note: A person's income is taken into account when working out the amount of income support payment that is payable to the person under the social security law or the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986. An instalment is income so payment of an instalment may reduce the amount of income support payment that is payable to the person.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

Part 3-2—Payment of instalments by employer

Division 1—Guide to this Part

- (a) an employer determination has come into force for the employer and the person (see Part 3-5); and
- (b) the instalment is payable in relation to a flexible PPL day for the child that falls within the person's continuous flexible period for the child; and
- (c) the employer has been paid enough by the Secretary to fund the instalment.

Division 3 is about the payment by the Secretary of amounts (called PPL funding amounts) to an employer to ensure the employer has been paid enough to fund an instalment.

Division 4 sets out certain obligations of employers relating to paying instalments (such as giving and keeping records and notifying the Secretary if certain events happen).

Section 71A

Division 1A—Continuous flexible periods

71A When a person has a continuous flexible period

If:

(a) either:

- (i) one or more payability determinations that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a period (the relevant period) of one or more flexible PPL days for a child are in force under section 13 or 14; or
- (ii) one or more initial eligibility determinations for a person for a period (the relevant period) of one or more flexible PPL days for a child are in force under section 26A; and

- (b) the relevant period only consists of consecutive flexible PPL days for the child that are week days; and
- (c) the relevant period consists of at least 40 consecutive flexible PPL days for the child that are week days;

then the person's continuous flexible period for the child is the period that:

- (d) starts on the first day in the relevant period; and
- (e) ends on the earlier of the following days:
 - (i) the last day in the relevant period;
 - (ii) the day before the child's first birthday.

Division 2—Payment of instalments by employer

72 When an employer pays instalments

Employer determination in force on day during instalment period

- (1) An employer must pay an instalment to a person on the payday for the instalment if:
- (a) the instalment is payable to the person; and
 - (b) an employer determination is in force for the employer and the person on a day during the instalment period to which the instalment relates; and
 - (c) as at the payroll cut-off for the instalment, the employer has been paid enough to fund the instalment.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

Note 2: See section 96 for when the employer is taken to have complied with this requirement.

- (1A) If an employer is required under subsection (1) to pay an instalment to a person in relation to a child of the person, the requirement only applies to the extent that the instalment is payable in relation to a flexible PPL day for the child that falls within the continuous flexible period mentioned in the employer notice relating to the employer determination.

Note 1: The Secretary must pay an instalment to the person to the extent that the instalment is payable in relation to a day that is a flexible PPL day for the child and that does not fall within the person's continuous flexible period for the child (see subsection 84(2A)).

Note 2: The Secretary will also be required to pay an instalment to the person if the person's continuous flexible period for the child is extended on review after that period has ended (see sections 87 and 92A).

Employer determination comes into force after instalment period

- (2) If:
- (a) a person's employer becomes required under subsection (1) to pay an instalment in relation to a child of the person after the start of the person's continuous flexible period for the child; and

Section 72

- (b) an earlier instalment is taken to have become payable to the person under section 91 (which deals with the effect of the Secretary or an employer becoming required to pay instalments after the start of a person's continuous flexible period for a child); and
- (c) as at the payroll cut-off for the instalment referred to in subsection (1), the employer has been paid enough to fund the earlier instalment;

the employer must pay the earlier instalment on the payday for the instalment referred to in subsection (1).

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

Note 2: See section 96 for when the employer is taken to have complied with this requirement.

Employer determination in force and employer paid enough at later time

(3) If:

- (a) an employer is not required under subsection (1) or (2) to pay an instalment only because paragraph (1)(c) or (2)(c) (as the case may be) was not satisfied; and
- (b) that paragraph is satisfied as at the payroll cut-off for an instalment for a later instalment period;

the employer must pay the instalment to the person on the payday for the instalment for that later instalment period.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

Note 2: If there is no instalment payable for a later instalment period, see section 95.

Note 3: See section 96 for when the employer is taken to have complied with this requirement.

- (4) An employer is not required to pay an instalment to a person except in accordance with this section.

73 When an employer has been paid enough to fund an instalment

Division 3—PPL funding amounts

75 Payment of PPL funding amounts

- (1) The Secretary must pay one or more amounts (the PPL funding amounts) to a person's employer if the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) an instalment was or is likely to be payable to the person; and
 - (b) the employer is or is likely to be required to pay the instalment to the person.

Note: Subsections 72(1) and (1A) deal with when an employer is required to pay an instalment to a person.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not require the Secretary to pay a PPL funding amount in relation to an instalment earlier than a reasonable period before the payroll cut-off for the instalment.

- (3) If:

- (a) the Secretary is required under subsection (1) to pay a PPL funding amount to a person's employer in relation to an instalment for the person; and
- (b) the employer has not been paid enough to fund the instalment as at the first payroll cut-off for an instalment for the person after the Secretary becomes required to pay the PPL funding amount;

Division 4—Obligations of employer relating to paying instalments

80 Giving person record of payment

An employer must, before the end of the next working day after paying an instalment to a person, give the person the information prescribed by the PPL rules in the form (if any) prescribed by the PPL rules.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

81 Keeping records

- (1) An employer must make, and keep for 7 years, records of the kind prescribed by the PPL rules in relation to each person for whom an employer determination for the employer comes into force.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

- (2) A record must:

- (a) if a form is prescribed by the PPL rules for that kind of record—be in that form; and
- (b) include any information prescribed by the PPL rules.

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

82 Notifying Secretary if certain events happen

- (1) If the Secretary makes an employer determination for a person and the person's employer in relation to a child of the person, the employer must notify the Secretary if any of the following events happen:
- (a) the employer's bank account information changes;
 - (b) the person's instalment period changes;
 - (c) the day on which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work for instalment periods for the person changes;

Section 82

- (d) the payroll cut-off for instalments payable to the person changes;
 - (e) the employer becomes aware that the employer has ceased, or is likely to cease, to carry on a business;
 - (f) the person performs more than one hour of paid work for the employer at any time during the person's continuous flexible period for the child;
 - (g) the person ceases to be employed by the employer before the end of the person's continuous flexible period for the child;
 - (h) the person is not paid an instalment the employer is required to pay to the person;
 - (i) the employer is not paid enough to fund a particular instalment for the person as at the payroll cut-off for the instalment;
 - (j) if the Secretary has agreed to pay a particular PPL funding amount to the employer—the employer is not paid the PPL funding amount as agreed;
 - (k) in any case—a PPL funding amount paid to the employer is more than the sum of the amounts of the instalments payable to the person for the days for which the PPL funding amount has been paid;
 - (l) the sum of the PPL funding amounts paid to the employer for the person is more than the sum of the amounts of the instalments that are payable by the employer to the person under this Part.
- (2) The notice must be given:
- (a) as soon as practicable after the employer becomes aware that the event has happened (subject to paragraph (b)); and
 - (b) if paragraph (1)(e) applies—not more than 30 days before the day the employer ceased, or is likely to cease, to carry on the business; and
 - (c) in the manner set out in a written notice given to the employer under subsection (2B).

Note: This subsection is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

- (2A) The Secretary must approve a manner of notification that an employer must use when notifying the Secretary of an event under this section.
- (2B) The Secretary must, by written notice, notify the employer of the approved manner of notification.

When obligation to notify of certain events ceases

- (3) An obligation under subsection (1) that arises because of any of paragraphs (1)(a) to (g) ceases to apply if the event happens on or after the earliest of the following days:
 - (b) if the employer determination comes into force:
 - (i) if the employer determination is not revoked—the day after the person’s continuous flexible period for the child ends; and
 - (ii) if the employer determination is revoked—the day the revocation comes into force;
 - (c) if the employer determination never comes into force—the day the Secretary becomes required to pay instalments to the person instead of the employer under the employer determination.

Part 3-3—Payment of instalments by Secretary

Division 1—Guide to this Part

83 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the payment of instalments to a person by the Secretary.

The Secretary is required to pay instalments directly to a person if:

- (a) an employer determination is never made for the person; or
- (b) the instalment is payable in relation to a day that is a flexible PPL day for a child of the person and that does not fall within the person's continuous flexible period for the child (if any).

The Secretary is also required to pay instalments directly to a person in certain circumstances where an employer determination is being reviewed or has been revoked, or where a matter has been referred to the Fair Work Ombudsman relating to a failure by an employer to pay an instalment to a person.

In certain circumstances where the Secretary becomes required to pay instalments to a person, the Secretary is also required to pay the person arrears for instalments that had previously become payable, but not been paid, to the person.

Division 2—Payment of instalments by Secretary

84 When the Secretary pays instalments

- (1) If the Secretary is required under this section to pay an instalment to a person, the Secretary must do so on the payday for the instalment.

Note: See section 96 for when the Secretary is taken to have complied with this requirement.

Employer determination never made

- (2) The Secretary must pay an instalment that is payable to a person if the Secretary, in accordance with section 101, never made an employer determination for the person and the person's employer.

Instalments relating to certain flexible PPL days

- (2A) The Secretary must pay an instalment that is payable to a person to the extent that the instalment is payable in relation to a day that does not fall within the person's continuous flexible period for the child that is mentioned in an employer notice relating to an employer determination made for the person and the person's employer.

Note: The person's employer must pay an instalment to the person to the extent that the instalment is payable in relation to a flexible PPL day for the child that falls within the person's continuous flexible period for the child (see subsections 72(1) and (1A)).

Employer determination reviewed

- (3) The Secretary must pay an instalment that is payable to a person in relation to a child of the person if:
- (a) the person's employer has applied for review under Part 5-1 or 5-2, or to a court for judicial review, in relation to the employer determination made for the person and the employer; and

Section 84

- (b) the employer determination has not come into force before the 28th day after the start of the person's continuous flexible period for the child; and
- (c) the instalment relates to an instalment period that:
 - (i) either includes the day referred to in paragraph (b) or is a later instalment period; and
 - (ii) starts before the day (the transfer day) on which the employer determination comes into force (if at all).

Note 1: The Secretary must also pay the person instalments payable to the person for earlier instalment periods (see section 85).

Note 2: If the employer determination never comes into force, the Secretary will pay all instalments to the person.

Employer determination revoked

- (4) The Secretary must pay an instalment that is payable to a person if:
 - (a) the Secretary revokes the employer determination for the person and the person's employer; and
 - (b) the instalment relates to an instalment period that starts on or after the day (the transfer day) the revocation comes into force.

Note: See sections 85 and 86 for when the Secretary must also pay the person instalments payable to the person for earlier instalment periods.

Referral of matter to Fair Work Ombudsman relating to failure to pay instalment

- (5) The Secretary must pay an instalment that is payable to a person in relation to a child of the person if:
 - (a) the Secretary has referred a matter to the Fair Work Ombudsman relating to a contravention by the employer of section 70, 72 or 74 (which deal with unauthorised deductions and payment of instalments by an employer) in relation to the person; and
 - (b) the instalment relates to an instalment period that starts on or after the day (the transfer day) after the last flexible PPL day for the child that falls within the person's continuous flexible

- period for the child and for which the Secretary has paid the employer a PPL funding amount for the person; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that it is appropriate to pay the instalment; and
 - (d) the Fair Work Ombudsman has not notified the Secretary, before the transfer day, that the employer has not complied with a compliance notice given for the contravention referred to in paragraph (a).
- (6) If both subsections (4) and (5) apply in relation to a person, then only the subsection where the transfer day occurs first is taken to apply in relation to the person.

85 Payment of arrears—employer determination reviewed or revoked before coming into force

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to a person under subsection 84(3) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is reviewed); or
 - (b) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to a person under subsection 84(4) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is revoked);
 - (ii) the employer determination made for the person and the person's employer has never come into force.
- (2) The Secretary must pay the person each instalment that is taken to have become payable to the person under section 91 (which deals with the effect of the Secretary or an employer becoming required to pay instalments after the start of a person's continuous flexible period for a child).
- (3) The Secretary must pay the instalments on the payday for the first instalment that the Secretary is required to pay as referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) of this section.

Section 86

Note: See section 96 for when the Secretary is taken to have complied with this requirement.

86 Payment of arrears—employer determination revoked after coming into force

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the Secretary revokes an employer determination that has come into force for a person and the person's employer; and
 - (b) the employer has not, as at the payday for the instalment, paid all or part of an instalment that was payable to the person by the employer; and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the Fair Work Ombudsman has notified the Secretary that the employer has not complied with a compliance notice given for a contravention of section 70, 72 or 74 (which deal with unauthorised deductions and payment of instalments by an employer) that relates to the payment of the instalment; or
 - (ii) the employer determination was revoked because the Secretary was satisfied that the employer was insolvent.
- (2) The Secretary must pay the person the instalment, or the part of the instalment, on the payday for the next instalment that the Secretary is required to pay under subsection 84(4) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is revoked).
- Note 1: If there is no instalment payable for a later instalment period, see section 95.
- Note 2: See section 96 for when the Secretary is taken to have complied with this requirement.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not require the Secretary to pay the person all or part of an instalment to the extent that the instalment or the part of the instalment has been recovered under section 172 (which deals with debts owing by employers to employees).

- (4) To avoid doubt, this section applies whether or not the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to the person under subsection 84(4).

87 Payment of arrears—extending continuous flexible period after review

- (1) The Secretary must pay a person each instalment that is taken to have become payable to the person under section 92A.
- (2) The Secretary must pay the instalments as soon as practicable after the Secretary becomes required to pay the instalments.

88 Method of payment of instalment payable by Secretary

- (1) The Secretary must pay an instalment, or a part of an instalment, that the Secretary is required to pay to a person, to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by the person.
- (2) The Secretary may direct that the whole or a part of an instalment that the Secretary is required to pay a person is to be paid in a different way from that provided for by subsection (1). If the Secretary gives the direction, the instalment, or the part of the instalment, is to be paid in accordance with the direction.
- (3) A direction made under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

89 Giving person record of payment

If the Secretary pays an instalment, or part of an instalment, to or in relation to a person, in particular circumstances, the Secretary must give the person the information prescribed by the PPL rules in relation to instalments paid in those circumstances.

Part 3-4—General rules relevant to paying instalments

Division 1—Guide to this Part

90 Guide to this Part

This Part contains general rules that are relevant to the payment of instalments to a person, whether by the person's employer or the Secretary.

Some of those rules deem instalments to have become payable in certain circumstances (such as when a person's continuous flexible period is extended after review).

Other rules deal with the effect on a person's instalment periods of changing who is required to pay instalments to the person.

There are also rules that relate to what happens when an instalment cannot be paid on the day specified in this Act.

Finally, this Part deals with the interaction of this Chapter with certain Commonwealth, State and Territory laws.

Division 2—General rules relevant to paying instalments

91 Effect of the Secretary or employer becoming required to pay instalments after start of continuous flexible period

If:

- (a) the Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) becomes required to pay an instalment to the person in relation to a child of the person after the start of the person's continuous flexible period for the child; and
- (b) neither the Secretary nor the employer is otherwise required to pay an earlier instalment to the person; and
- (c) one or more instalments would have been payable to the person on the paydays for the instalments if the payer had been required to pay instalments from the start of the person's continuous flexible period for the child;

then the instalments referred to in paragraph (c) are taken to have become payable on the respective paydays for the instalments.

92A Effect of extending a person's continuous flexible period after review

(1) If:

- (a) a person's continuous flexible period for a child ends; and
- (b) later, a decision in relation to a payability determination for the person is made that has the effect that the person's continuous flexible period for the child is extended by an additional period of one or more flexible PPL days for the child; and
- (c) one or more instalments that relate to instalment periods that overlap with the additional period would have been payable to the person on the paydays for the instalments if:
 - (i) the person's continuous flexible period for the child had always been the extended continuous flexible period; and

Section 93

- (ii) the Secretary had been required to pay the instalments;
and
- (d) the Secretary is not otherwise required to pay the instalments; then the instalments referred to in paragraph (c) are taken to have become payable on the respective paydays for the instalments.

93 Effect on instalment periods of employer determination coming into force after review

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to a person under subsection 84(3) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is reviewed);
and
 - (b) the employer determination comes into force for the person and the person's employer on the transfer day referred to in that subsection.
- (2) The instalment period for the person for the last instalment payable by the Secretary is taken to end on the day before the transfer day.
- (3) The instalment period for the person for the first instalment payable by the employer is taken to start on the transfer day.

94 Effect on instalment periods of revocation etc.

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an employer determination has come into force for a person and the person's employer; and
 - (b) the Secretary becomes required to pay an instalment to the person under either of the following subsections for an instalment period that starts on or after the transfer day referred to in that subsection:
 - (i) subsection 84(4) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is revoked);

- (ii) subsection 84(5) (which deals with payment of instalments where a matter is referred to the Fair Work Ombudsman relating to a failure to pay an instalment).
- (2) The instalment period for the person for the last instalment payable by the employer is taken to end on the day before the transfer day.
- (3) The instalment period for the person for the first instalment payable by the Secretary is taken to start on the transfer day.

Note: Subsection (3) does not affect when the instalment period ends.

95 Paying instalment on payday for later instalment—no later instalment

If:

- (a) the Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) is required to pay an instalment to the person on the payday for an instalment for a later instalment period; and
 - (b) that later instalment is not payable by the payer;
- the payer must pay the instalment referred to in paragraph (a) on the day that would have been the payday for the later instalment if it had been payable by the payer.

96 Paying instalment on particular day—complying with obligation

The Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) is taken to have complied with a requirement to pay an instalment on a particular day if the payer pays the instalment:

- (a) before that day; or
- (b) if the payer cannot pay the instalment on that day—as soon as practicable after that day.

97 Effect of garnishee etc. order

- (1) If:
 - (a) an instalment is being paid, or has been paid, to the credit of an account; and

Section 98

(b) a court order in the nature of a garnishee order comes into force in relation to the account; the court order does not apply to the saved amount (if any) in the account.

(2) The saved amount is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total amount of the instalments that have been paid to the credit of the account during the 4 week period immediately before the court order came into force.
- Step 2. Subtract from the step 1 amount the total amount withdrawn from the account during the same 4 week period: the result is the saved amount.

98 Exemption from operation of workers' compensation and accident compensation laws

- (1) The payment of an instalment of parental leave pay is not to be taken into account for the purposes of the following provisions or laws:
- (a) a provision of a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, if the provision deals with:
 - (i) workers' compensation; or
 - (ii) accident compensation;
 - (b) a law, or a provision of a law, prescribed by the PPL rules, to the extent that the law or provision deals with a matter referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) The PPL rules may provide that subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a prescribed provision of a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

99 Period receiving parental leave pay is not a period of paid leave

Despite any law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or any industrial instrument (however described), a period of unpaid leave is not to be taken to be a period of paid leave just because a person receives instalments of parental leave pay for all or part of that period.

99A Payment of paid parental leave does not affect other employer obligations

An obligation of an employer to pay a person parental leave pay under this Act is in addition to any other obligation the employer may have in relation to the person, however that other obligation might arise (including, for example, under another law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or an industrial instrument (however described)).

Part 3-5—Employer determinations

Division 1—Guide to this Part

100 Guide to this Part

This Part is about employer determinations.

Under Division 2, the Secretary must make an employer determination if the Secretary is satisfied that certain conditions have been met. Not all of those conditions need to be satisfied for a person if the employer has made an election under Division 4 that applies to the person and the person consents to the employer paying the instalments.

If the Secretary makes an employer determination for a person and the person's employer, the employer must either:

- (a) give the Secretary certain information to enable the Secretary to pay the employer PPL funding amounts for the person; or
- (b) apply for review of the employer determination under Part 5-1 or 5-2.

Division 3 is about when an employer determination is in force. It includes rules about revoking employer determinations.

Under Division 4, an employer may elect to pay instalments to one or more employees.

Division 5 provides for the Secretary to give an employer for whom an employer determination has been made notice of certain other decisions under this Act.

Division 2—Making employer determinations

101 Making employer determinations

When Secretary must make employer determination

- (1) The Secretary must make a determination under this section (the employer determination) that a person's employer is to pay the person instalments if the Secretary is satisfied, when making the determination, that:
 - (a) either:
 - (i) a payability determination under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to the person for a child is in force; or
 - (ii) an initial eligibility determination under section 26A for the person in relation to a child is in force; and
 - (b) instalments are likely, if the determination is made under this section, to be payable by the employer to the person for at least 40 consecutive flexible PPL days that are week days; and
 - (c) the person has, or will have, been employed by the employer for at least 12 months immediately before:
 - (i) if the person's claim was made before the birth of the person's child—the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) if the person's claim was made after the birth of the person's child—the later of the expected date of birth of the child and the day the child was born; and
 - (d) the person has a continuous flexible period for the child and is likely to be an Australian-based employee of the employer during that period; and
 - (da) there are no other flexible PPL days prior to the person's continuous flexible period in respect of which:
 - (i) parental leave pay is payable to the person for the child; or

Section 101

- (ii) the person is initially eligible for parental leave pay for the child; and
- (e) the employer has an ABN; and
- (f) if paragraphs (c) to (e) are satisfied in relation to more than one employer of the person (other than because of subsection (2))—the person nominated the employer in the claim as the employer who would be required to pay instalments to the person.

Effect of election by employer to pay instalments

- (2) Paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) do not apply in relation to a person if:
 - (a) the person's employer has made an election under section 109 that applies to the person; and
 - (b) the person has consented in the claim to the employer paying instalments to the person.

When must employer determination be made

- (3) The Secretary must not make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer unless:
 - (a) the Secretary is satisfied as referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) the employer determination is made on or before the day on which the payability determination referred to in paragraph (1)(a) is made.

Note: See section 106 for when the Secretary may, despite this subsection, make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer after the day referred to in paragraph (b).

When employer determination must not be made

- (3A) The Secretary must not make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer if the person is receiving an income support payment.

When Secretary may decide not to make employer determination

- (4) Despite subsection (1), the Secretary may decide not to make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer in relation to a child of the person if the Secretary is satisfied of all or any of the following:

- (a) the person's continuous flexible period for the child has ended;
- (b) the person is a special PPL claimant;
- (c) the child in relation to whom parental leave pay is payable to the person is stillborn or has died;
- (d) both of the following apply:
 - (i) the person is a PPL claimant or special PPL claimant for parental leave pay for a child;
 - (ii) another PPL claimant or special PPL claimant for parental leave pay for the same child owes a debt to the Commonwealth in relation to amounts paid to, or in relation to, that other PPL claimant or special PPL claimant by way of instalments for that child;
- (e) the employer is not a fit and proper person.

Matters relevant to whether employer is a fit and proper person

- (5) The Secretary may take into account the following matters in determining whether an employer is a fit and proper person:
 - (a) whether the employer is insolvent;
 - (b) whether the employer has, or is alleged to have, contravened a civil penalty provision of this Act;
 - (c) whether a matter relating to a contravention of section 70 or Part 3-2 (which deal with unauthorised deductions and payment of instalments by an employer) by the employer has been referred to the Fair Work Ombudsman under section 143;
 - (d) subject to Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914, whether the employer has, or is alleged to have, contravened a provision of an industrial law (within the meaning of the Fair Work Act);
 - (e) subject to Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914, whether the employer has been convicted of an offence against this Act, or a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory that involves:

Section 102

- (i) fraud or dishonesty; or
- (ii) the misapplication of money; or
- (iii) the management of the affairs of a body (whether or not incorporated);
- (ea) whether the employer has, or is alleged to have, contravened a provision of the Employment Act 1988 (Norfolk Island);
- (f) any other matter the Secretary considers relevant.

Note: Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them.

Secretary may assume state of affairs will not change

- (6) In deciding whether to make a determination under this section, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

102 Secretary must give notice of employer determination

- (1) If the Secretary makes an employer determination for a person and the person's employer in relation to a child of the person, the Secretary must give the employer and the person a written notice advising them that the determination has been made.

Notice given to person

- (2) The notice given to the person must contain the name of the employer and any information prescribed by the PPL rules.

Notice given to employer

- (3) The notice given to the employer must contain the following information:

Section 103

- (4) The notice given to the employer must also be dated. The date of the notice must be the date the preparation of the notice was completed.

Decision not to make employer determination—notice to person

- (5) If the Secretary decides not to make an employer determination for a person, the Secretary must give the person a written notice advising the person of that decision. The notice must contain any information prescribed by the PPL rules.

103 Employer must respond to notice of employer determination

Within 14 days after the date of the notice given under section 102, the employer must do one of the following:

- (a) give the Secretary a written notice (the acceptance notice) that complies with section 104;
- (b) apply for a review of the employer determination under Part 5-1 or 5-2.

Note: This section is a civil penalty provision (see section 146).

104 Requirements for an acceptance notice

 - (b) the acceptance notice contains a declaration to the effect that the employer's bank account information given in the notice under subsection 109(1) is correct in relation to the person.

105 Giving bank account and pay cycle information etc. after review

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an employer applies for review under Part 5-1 or 5-2, or to a court for judicial review, in relation to an employer determination made for a person and the employer; and

 - (i) the employer withdraws the application;
 - (ii) the employer determination has not been set aside or quashed and is no longer subject to review; and

106 Effect of decision on review that parental leave pay is payable

The Secretary may, despite subsection 101(3), make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer, if:

- (a) a decision is made that has the effect that parental leave pay is not payable to the person (whether or not the decision is a payability determination to that effect); and

Section 106

- (b) a later decision is made that has the effect that a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person comes into force; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied, when making the employer determination, of the matters referred to in the applicable paragraphs of subsection 101(1) in relation to the person and the employer.

Division 3—When an employer determination is in force

107 When an employer determination comes into force

- (1) An employer determination comes into force for a person and the person's employer as set out in subsection (2) or (3). Otherwise, the employer determination does not come into force at all.

Chapter 3A—Paid Parental Leave Superannuation Contributions

Part 1—Payability and amount of PPL superannuation contribution

Division 1—Guide to this Part

115A Guide to this Part

A person is eligible for a PPL superannuation contribution for an income year if the Secretary pays one or more PPL funding amounts or instalments for the person during the income year.

The Commissioner of Taxation works out the amount of the PPL superannuation contribution on the basis of the sum of all PPL funding amounts and instalments paid for the person during the income year multiplied by the SG charge percentage. An interest component is then added to the amount of the contribution to account for the PPL superannuation contribution being paid at a later time than the PPL funding amounts or instalments.

Chapter 4 Compliance and enforcement

Part 4-3 Debt recovery

Division 1 Guide to this Part

Section 164

Division 7A deals with when a departure prohibition order, prohibiting a person from departing from Australia for a foreign country, can be made if the person has a debt due to the Commonwealth under this Act.

Division 8 provides that debts under this Act apply in relation to matters inside and outside Australia, and to all persons irrespective of nationality or citizenship.

Division 2—Main debts recoverable under this Act

165 Debts due to the Commonwealth

If an amount has been paid by way of parental leave pay or a PPL funding amount, the amount (or an amount equivalent to the amount) is a debt due to the Commonwealth only to the extent expressly provided for under:

- (a) this Act; or
- (b) the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990.

Note: The main debts due to the Commonwealth under this Act are provided for in this Division. Other debts due to the Commonwealth are provided for in the following provisions:

- (a) section 176 (which deals with interest);
- (c) section 186 (which deals with non-compliance with garnishee notices).

166 Parental leave pay instalment debts—instalments paid by employer

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the total of amounts paid to a person (the first person) by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for another person for a child exceeds (by the PPL funding excess) the total of amounts payable to the first person as PPL funding amounts in relation to those instalments; and
 - (b) the first person pays an amount (the employer payment) to, or in relation to, the other person for the child by way of an instalment; and
 - (c) the total of employer payments paid for the child exceeds (by the instalment excess) the total of amounts that are payable by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person for the child as instalments under Division 2 of Part 3-2 (which deals with the payment of instalments by employers).

Note: Instalments may stop being payable with retrospective effect if a payability determination that parental leave is payable to the other person for the child is set aside or varied after the instalments are paid.

Section 167

- (2) An amount equal to the lesser of the PPL funding excess and the instalment excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the other person.

Example: If no amounts are payable by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person for a child as instalments, the amount of the instalment excess is the total amount of the employer payments.

- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises:
- (a) if the other person has a continuous flexible period for the child—immediately after the end of that continuous flexible period; or
 - (b) otherwise—when subsection (1) starts to apply in relation to an employer payment.

Note: This section may apply to overpayments by way of instalments or amounts that are mistakenly paid. For example, an overpayment or mistaken payment may arise due to administrative error, the setting aside or variation of a payability determination or payments following a stay order under subsection 32(2) of the ART Act.

167 Parental leave pay instalment debts—instalments paid by the Secretary

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the Secretary pays an amount to, or in relation to, a person for a child by way of an instalment; and
 - (b) the amount exceeds the amount that should have been paid to, or in relation to, the person under Part 3-3.

Note: Instalments may stop being payable with retrospective effect if the payability determination is set aside or varied after the instalments are paid.

- (2) An amount equal to the amount of the excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the person.
- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises when the Secretary pays the amount mentioned in paragraph (1)(a).

168 PPL funding amount debts—amounts not paid as parental leave pay instalments

- (1) This section applies if the total of amounts paid to a person (the first person) by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for another person for a child exceeds the total of amounts paid by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person by way of such instalments for the child.

- (2) The amount of the excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the first person.

Example: If the first person has not paid any amounts by way of instalments to the other person, the amount of the excess is the total of amounts paid to the first person by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for the other person for the child.

- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises when subsection (1) starts to apply in relation to an amount paid to the first person.

Note: This section may apply to overpayments by way of PPL funding amounts or amounts that are mistakenly paid. For example, an overpayment or mistaken payment may arise due to administrative error or the revocation or setting aside of an employer determination.

169 Wrong person receives parental leave pay instalment or PPL funding amount

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an instalment or a PPL funding amount (the PPL payment) is paid by the Secretary or an employer; and
 - (b) a person (the wrong recipient) other than the person (the right recipient) to whom the PPL payment is payable receives the PPL payment (or a part of it); and
 - (c) the wrong recipient is not authorised by the right recipient, or authorised under law, to receive the PPL payment (or that part).
- (2) An amount equal to the PPL payment (or that part of the PPL payment), is a debt due by the wrong recipient to:

Section 170

- (a) if the PPL payment is made by the Secretary—the Commonwealth; or
- (b) if the PPL payment is made by an employer—the employer.

Note 1: Because the PPL payment (or part) has not been properly paid to the right recipient, the Secretary or the employer must repay to the right recipient the amount of the PPL payment that ought to have been paid to the right recipient in the first place.

Note 2: The Secretary may recover a debt due to the Commonwealth under this section from an ADI (see section 192).

170 Joint and several liability for debts arising because of false and misleading statements

A person (the recipient) and another person are jointly and severally liable to pay a debt if:

- (a) the recipient is liable under this Division to repay an amount (the unauthorised amount) paid to, or in relation to, the recipient (or an amount equal to such an amount); and
- (b) the unauthorised amount was paid because the recipient contravened Part 7.4 of the Criminal Code (which deals with false and misleading statements); and
- (c) the other person is convicted of an offence:
 - (i) that is taken to have been committed in relation to that contravention because of section 11.2 or 11.2A of the Criminal Code (which deal with complicity, common purpose and joint commission); or
 - (ii) in relation to that contravention against section 11.4 or 11.5 of the Criminal Code (which deal with incitement and conspiracy).

171 Debts under the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990

An amount is recoverable by the Commonwealth if:

 - (b) the instalment, or part of the instalment, is not paid to, or in relation to, the person in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (i) section 70 (which deals with unauthorised deductions from instalments);
 - (ii) Division 2 of Part 3-2 (which deals with the payment of instalments by employers).
- (2) So much of the instalment as is not paid to, or in relation to, the person in accordance with section 70 and Division 2 of Part 3-2, or as arrears under section 85, 86 or 87, is a debt due to the person by the employer, and is recoverable by the person in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Division 4—Debt notices and interest on debts

173 Notices in respect of debt

- (1) If a debt due to the Commonwealth under this Act (other than Chapter 3A) has not been wholly paid, the Secretary must give the debtor a notice stating the following:

When write off comes into operation

- (6) A decision under subsection (1) to write off a debt comes into operation:

The Secretary must waive the right to recover so much of a debt as is attributable solely to an administrative error made by the Commonwealth, or an agent of the Commonwealth, if:

- (b) the debtor would suffer severe financial hardship if it were not waived.

Section 196

196 Waiver of debts—arising from offence

The Secretary must waive the right to recover so much of a debt as arises from an offence, if:

- the Secretary must waive the right to recover the remaining 20% or less of the value of the original debt.

Agreement for part payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

- (4) If the Secretary and a debtor agree that the debtor's debt will be fully satisfied if the debtor pays the Commonwealth an agreed amount less than the amount (the unpaid amount) of the debt outstanding when the agreement is made, the Secretary must, if the agreed amount is paid, waive the right to recover the difference between the unpaid amount and the agreed amount.

Limits on agreement to accept part payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

where:

annual repayment is the amount of the debt that the Secretary believes would be recovered under Division 5 in a year if subsection (4) did not apply in relation to the debt.

rp (short for repayment period) is the number of years needed to repay the unpaid amount if repayments equal to the annual repayment were made each year.

settlement interest is an annual rate of interest prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by the PPL rules.

199 Waiver of debts—special circumstances

The Secretary may waive the right to recover all or part of a debt if the Secretary is satisfied that:

Part 5-1—Internal review of decisions

Division 1—Guide to this Part

202 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the internal review of decisions of officers under this Act.

Division 2 sets out 3 kinds of internal review of those decisions.

The first kind of review is where the Secretary, on his or her own initiative, reviews those decisions.

The second kind of review is where a person whose interests are affected by certain decisions (which are “claimant decisions”) applies for internal review of the decision.

The third kind of review is where an employer applies for internal review of certain decisions that affect the employer (those decisions are “employer determination decisions” and “employer funding amount decisions”). Employer determination decisions can only be reviewed on application, and not on the Secretary’s own initiative.

Division 2—Internal review of decisions

203 Internal review—own-initiative review by Secretary

- (1) The Secretary may, on his or her own initiative, review a decision of an officer under this Act if the Secretary is satisfied that there is enough reason to review the decision.
- (2) However, the Secretary must not, on his or her own initiative, review a decision of an officer under section 101 to make an employer determination.

Note 1: An employer may apply for review of a decision to make an employer determination (see section 207).

Note 2: For revocation of employer determinations, see section 108.

- (3) The Secretary may review a decision:
 - (a) whether or not any person has applied for review of the decision; and
 - (b) even though an application has been made to the ART for review of the decision.
- (4) On review of a decision, the Secretary may:
 - (a) affirm the decision; or
 - (b) vary the decision; or
 - (c) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision.
- (5) A reference in subsection (1) to a decision of an officer under this Act includes a reference to a determination that the Secretary is taken, because of a provision of this Act, to have made.

204 Internal review—own-initiative review and tribunal review

The Secretary must give the ART Principal Registrar written notice of a decision under subsection 203(4) if, when the Secretary makes the decision, an application has been made to the ART for review in relation to the decision that was reviewed by the Secretary.

Section 205

205 Internal review—review following application

- (1) If an application is made under section 206, 207 or 208 for review of a decision, the Secretary or an authorised review officer must:
 - (a) review the decision; and
 - (b) do one of the following:
 - (i) affirm the decision;
 - (ii) vary the decision;
 - (iii) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision.
- (2) However, an authorised review officer must not, under subsection (1), review a decision relating to the exercise of the Secretary's power under section 273A (settlement of proceedings before the ART).

206 Internal review—application for review of claimant decision

Claimant decisions

- (1) This section applies to a decision of an officer under this Act, unless the decision is:

 - (ba) a decision under Chapter 3A (which deals with PPL superannuation contributions); or

- (a) within 28 days after the day the decision was made; or
 - (b) if the Secretary is satisfied that a longer period should apply—within the longer period.

Note: Section 103 requires an employer for which an employer determination has been made to, within a 14 day period, either provide a notice to the Secretary accepting the determination or apply for review of the employer determination.

- (6) An application under subsection (3) must:

- (a) specify the condition or conditions that the employer believes are not satisfied; and

 - (6) An application under subsection (4) in relation to a PPL funding amount may only be made within 14 days after the second payroll cut-off referred to in subsection 75(3) in relation to the PPL funding amount.

Section 209

209 Internal review—withdrawal of application

210 Internal review—when decision made on review comes into force

Part 5-2—ART review of certain decisions

Division 1—Guide to this Part

213 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the review by the Administrative Review Tribunal of decisions that have been internally reviewed under Part 5-1, and of decisions made personally by particular PPL agency representatives (which are not subject to internal review). These reviews are called ART reviews.

ART review is available for certain claimant decisions (called ART reviewable claimant decisions). People whose interests are affected by ART reviewable claimant decisions may apply for ART review of those decisions.

A person may also apply to the ART for second review if the person is dissatisfied with the decision of the ART on review of an ART reviewable claimant decision. Applications for second review are made under the ART Act.

ART review is also available for certain employer determination decisions and employer funding amount decisions (called ART reviewable employer decisions). Employers may apply for ART review of ART reviewable employer decisions.

The rules relating to review by the ART are mainly in the ART Act, but this Part modifies the operation of that Act in some ways for the purposes of ART reviews.

Chapter 6—Miscellaneous

Part 6-1—How this Act applies in particular circumstances

Division 1—Guide to this Part

274 Guide to this Part

This Part has rules that modify this Act so that it applies correctly in 3 limited kinds of cases—adoption, claims made in exceptional circumstances etc. and Commonwealth employment.

Division 2 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly for adopted children aged under 16. For example, where a provision of this Act refers to the day a child was born, Division 2 modifies that provision so that, when applying that provision to the adopted child, the provision has the effect of referring to the day the adopted child becomes entrusted to care (instead of the day the adopted child was born).

Division 3 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly for claims that are made in exceptional circumstances and other special cases. For example, where a provision of this Act refers to the day a child was born, Division 3 modifies that provision so that, when applying that provision in relation to a claim that is made in exceptional circumstances, the provision has the effect of referring to the day the claimant became the child's primary carer (instead of the day the child was born).

Division 4 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly to Commonwealth employment.

Division 2—How this Act applies to an adopted child

275 How this Act applies to an adopted child

 - (c) a reference to the expected date of birth of the child were a reference to the day expected to be the day the child will become entrusted to the care of a person as mentioned in subsection (2); and
 - (d) a reference to a child's first birthday were a reference to the first anniversary of the day the child became entrusted to the care of a person as mentioned in subsection (2); and
 - (da) a reference to a child's second birthday were a reference to the second anniversary of the day the child became entrusted to the care of a person as mentioned in subsection (2); and
 - (e) a reference to a completed birth verification form for a child were a reference to information required by the Secretary about the adoption of the child; and
 - (f) a reference to a child being born during the same multiple birth were a reference to the child being adopted during the same multiple adoption.

When a child satisfies this subsection

- (2) A child satisfies the requirements of this subsection if:
- (a) the child becomes, or is to become, entrusted (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Act) to the care of the person; and
 - (b) it is an authorised party that entrusts, or is to entrust, the child to the care of the person; and

- (d) the child is, or will be, aged under 16 on the day the child becomes entrusted to the care of the person.

Division 3—How this Act applies to claims made in exceptional circumstances and other cases

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.

Endnote 5—Editorial changes

In preparing this compilation for registration, the following kinds of editorial change(s) were made under the Legislation Act 2003.

Subsection 224(1A)

Kind of editorial change

Correct a typographical error

Details of editorial change

Schedule 3 item 118 of the Administrative Review Tribunal (Consequential and Transitional Provisions No. 1) Act 2024 provides as follows:

118 After subsection 224(1)

Insert:

- (1A) If a guidance and appeals panel application is taken to have been made because the ART’s decision on review of an AAT reviewable employer decision is referred to the guidance and appeals panel, review of the decision to which that application relates is also an ART review.

Subsection 224(1A) refers to “AAT reviewable employer decision” rather than “ART reviewable employer decision”.

This compilation was editorially changed to omit “AAT reviewable employer decision” and substitute “ART reviewable employer decision” in subsection 224(1A) to correct the typographical error.
