Note 1: The period will end automatically if the provider ceases to be registered as a registered higher education provider (see paragraph 51(2)(a)).

Note 2: Any conditions imposed on the accreditation, and in force immediately before its renewal, will apply to the renewed accreditation.

Proposal to reject the application

Part 5—Higher Education Standards Framework

Division 1—Higher Education Standards Framework

 - (b) the Provider Category Standards;
 - (c) the Provider Course Accreditation Standards;

Content of the standards

(5) Despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, a standard may make provision in relation to a matter by applying, adopting or incorporating any matter contained in an instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

Division 2—Compliance with the Framework

59 Compliance assessments

TEQSA may review or examine any aspect of an entity's operations to assess whether a registered higher education provider continues to meet the Threshold Standards.

Note:

This enables TEQSA to review the operations of an entity that provides part of a course of study that leads to a regulated higher education award offered or conferred by the registered higher education provider.

60 Quality (including thematic) assessments

- (1) TEQSA may review or examine any aspect of an entity's operations to:
 - (a) assess the level of quality of higher education provided by one or more registered higher education providers; or
 - (b) assess whether there are any systemic issues relating to a particular course of study leading to a particular regulated higher education award; or
 - (c) assess the level of quality of, or whether there are any systemic issues relating to, the courses of study that lead to one or more kinds of regulated higher education awards.
- (2) At least 60 days before starting a review or examination that TEQSA is satisfied could impact on a majority of registered higher education providers, TEQSA must give written notice of the proposed review or examination to the Minister and the Panel.

61 Accreditation assessments

TEQSA may review or examine an accredited course to assess whether the course continues to meet the Provider Course Accreditation Standards.

62 Matters relevant to assessments

Consent

- (1) Sections 59, 60 and 61 have effect subject to subsection (2).
- (2) TEQSA must obtain an entity's consent before:

 - (b) doing anything on those premises;

for the purposes of a review or examination under this Division.

- (3) However, subsection (2) has effect subject to section 24 (about a registered provider having to comply with conditions).
 - Note 1: When deciding whether to give the consent mentioned in subsection (2), a registered higher education provider needs to have regard to the condition that it cooperate with TEQSA (see section 31).
 - Note 2: A condition could be imposed under subsection 32(1) for the provider to arrange for another entity's consent to be given.

Operations that can be reviewed or examined

(4) The operations covered by sections 59 and 60 are not limited to the entity's higher education operations.

Part 5A—Tuition protection

Division 1—Preliminary

62A What this Part is about

Certain registered higher education providers who default in delivering a unit of study to a domestic student for whom an up-front payment for the unit of study has been made must give information about the default to the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director and to the student. If the student was entitled to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance for the unit, the provider may also have obligations under Part 5-1A of the Higher Education Support Act 2003 in relation to the default.

The provider must assist the student to find a replacement unit or replacement course, or provide a refund to the student (and offer the student a choice about this). If the provider fails to discharge this obligation, the Director must offer the student a suitable replacement course. If there is no suitable replacement course, or the student does not accept the offer, the Director must provide a refund to the student.

62B Application of this Part

- (1) This Part applies to registered higher education providers other than:
 - (a) Table A providers; or
 - (b) providers that are owned by the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (c) providers that are established under one of the following:
 - (i) the Technical and Further Education Commission Act 1990 (NSW);
 - (ii) the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 (Vic.);

- (vi) the Training and Workforce Development Act 2013 (Tas.);
- (vii) the Canberra Institute of Technology Act 1987 (ACT); or
- (d) providers of a kind prescribed by the Up-front Payments Guidelines.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), the Minister may, by written notice, determine that this Part:
 - (a) applies to a specified registered higher education provider; or
 - (b) does not apply to a specified registered higher education provider;

if the Minister considers it appropriate that this Part applies, or does not apply, to the provider.

- (3) In deciding whether it is appropriate that this Part applies, or does not apply, to a specified registered higher education provider, the Minister must have regard to the following:
 - (a) the risk of the provider defaulting in relation to one or more domestic students;
 - (b) the provider's financial status and capacity;
 - (c) any non-compliance, or risk of future non-compliance, with the Threshold Standards, this Act, legislative instruments made under this Act or this Act's associated provisions;
 - (d) any advice given to the Minister by TEQSA or the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director in relation to any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c);
 - (e) any other matter the Minister considers appropriate.
- (4) A determination under subsection (2):
 - (a) may be made either unconditionally or subject to conditions; and
 - (b) may be expressed to be in force indefinitely or for a specified period.

Compilation No. 18

62

Compilation date: 08/03/2021

- (5) A determination made under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) Despite subsection (1), sections 62N, 62P and 62Q apply to all registered higher education providers.

Note:

Section 62N deals with the obligations of providers to provide information about replacement courses, section 62P deals with obligations of providers who provide replacement courses and section 62Q deals with the requirement of providers who provide replacement courses to keep up-to-date enrolment information.

62C When a provider defaults in relation to a student

- (1) A registered higher education provider defaults in relation to a domestic student if:
 - (a) the provider fails to start to provide a unit of study to the student on the day the unit was scheduled to start; and
 - (b) the student has not withdrawn before that day; and
 - (c) an up-front payment:
 - (i) was made for the student for the unit of study on or before that day; or
 - (ii) was not made for the student for the unit on or before that day and the student was not entitled, and would not have been entitled, to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance for the unit.
- (2) A registered higher education provider defaults in relation to a domestic student if:

Note:

If the student was entitled, or would have been entitled, to FEE-HELP assistance or HECS-HELP assistance in relation to the unit of study (or any other affected units of the original course) the provider may also have defaulted in relation to the student under the Higher Education Support Act 2003: see section 166-10 of that Act.

Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011

- (a) the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director is required under that subsection to pay an amount to the provider of the replacement course; and

62L Consequences of payments being made from the Higher Education Tuition Protection Fund

Cessation of claim

- (1) If:
 - (a) a registered higher education provider defaults in relation to a domestic student; and
 - (b) the Higher Education Tuition Protection Director pays an amount in accordance with section 62K in relation to the student;

the student ceases to have any claim against the provider in respect of the up-front payments made for the affected unit.

Subdivision B—Obtaining a civil penalty order

115 Civil penalty orders

Application for order

- (1) Within 6 years of a person (the wrongdoer) contravening a civil penalty provision, TEQSA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to:
 - (a) the Federal Court; or
 - (b) the Federal Circuit Court;

for an order that the wrongdoer pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.

Note:

Civil penalty provisions under Part 5A (which deals with tuition protection) are enforceable under the Regulatory Powers Act: see section 131C.

Court may order wrongdoer to pay pecuniary penalty

- (2) If the Court is satisfied that the wrongdoer has contravened the civil penalty provision, the Court may order the wrongdoer to pay to the Commonwealth for each contravention the pecuniary penalty that the Court determines is appropriate.
- (2A) Subject to subsection (2B), in determining a pecuniary penalty for the purposes of subsection (2), the Court must not determine a penalty exceeding the pecuniary penalty specified for the civil penalty provision.
- (2B) If a court is satisfied that a body corporate has contravened subsection 114A(3) or 114B(2) (which deal with academic cheating services), the Court may determine a pecuniary penalty not exceeding an amount equal to 5 times the pecuniary penalty specified for the civil penalty provision.

Note:

If a body corporate is convicted of an offence against subsection 114A(1) or 114B(1), subsection 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allows a court to impose a fine of up to 5 times the penalty set out in the relevant subsection.

Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011

Compilation No. 18 Compilation date: 08/03/2021 Registered: 24/03/2021

(3) An order under subsection (2) is to be known as a civil penalty order.

Determining amount of pecuniary penalty

- (4) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the Court must have regard to all relevant matters, including:
 - (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention; and
 - (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
 - (d) whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Act to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Civil evidence and procedure rules apply

(5) The Court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a civil penalty order.

Note: The standard of proof in civil proceedings is the balance of probabilities: see section 140 of the Evidence Act 1995.

Conduct contravening 2 or more provisions

(6) If conduct contravenes 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this section against a person for the contravention of any one or more of those provisions. However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section for the same conduct.

116 Involvement in contravening civil penalty provision

(1) A person must not:

132

- (a) attempt to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
- (b) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
- (c) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or

Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011

Compilation No. 18 Compilation date: 08/03/2021 Registered: 24/03/2021

- (d) be in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
- (e) conspire with others to contravene a civil penalty provision.

Civil penalty

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the civil penalty provision.

117 Recovery of a pecuniary penalty

A pecuniary penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth may enforce the civil penalty order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

118 2 or more proceedings may be heard together

The Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for civil penalty orders are to be heard together.

119 Continuing and multiple contraventions of civil penalty provisions

- (1) If, under a civil penalty provision, an act or thing is required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time, then the obligation to do that act or thing continues (even if the period has ended or the time has passed) until the act or thing is done.
- (2) A person commits a separate contravention of the civil penalty provision in respect of each day (including a day of the making of a relevant civil penalty order or any subsequent day) the person refuses or fails to comply with that requirement.
- (3) The Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may make a single order to pay a pecuniary penalty for all the contraventions described in subsection (2), but the penalty must not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties that could be ordered if a separate penalty were ordered for each of the contraventions.

Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency Act 2011

133

Compilation No. 18

120 Mistake of fact

- (1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
 - (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
 - (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
 - (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
 - (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
 - (a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
 - (b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.
- (3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

Subdivision C—Civil penalty proceedings and criminal proceedings

121 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

 - (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
 - (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.
- (2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

123 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person.

124 Evidence given in proceedings for civil penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:

- (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
- (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.
