- (b) in the form of an adventure or concern in the nature of trade;

- (2) Business does not include an activity, or a series of activities, done in circumstances in which an entity doing that activity or series of activities in, or in connection with, Australia would not be entitled to an ABN.

5 Entities

- (1) Entity means any of the following:
 - (a) an individual;
 - (b) a body corporate;
 - (c) a corporation sole;
 - (d) a body politic;
 - (e) a partnership;
 - (f) any other unincorporated association or body of persons;
 - (g) a trust;
 - (h) a superannuation fund.

Note: The term entity is used in a number of different but related senses. It covers all kinds of legal persons. It also covers groups of legal persons, and other things, that in practice are treated as having a separate identity in the same way as a legal person does.

- (2) Paragraph (1)(f) does not include a non-entity joint venture.
- (3) The trustee of a trust or of a superannuation fund is taken to be an entity consisting of the person who is the trustee, or the persons who are the trustees, at any given time.

Note: This is because a right or obligation cannot be conferred or imposed on an entity that is not a legal person.

In his or her personal capacity, he or she is one entity. As trustee of each trust, he or she is a different entity. The trustees of the further trust are a different entity again, of which the individual is a member.

- (5) If a provision refers to an entity of a particular kind, it refers to the entity in its capacity as that kind of entity, not to that entity in any other capacity.

Example: A provision that refers to a company does not cover a company in a capacity as trustee, unless it also refers to a trustee.

 - (a) the register is maintained under the law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; and

- (2) Schedule 1 to this Act has effect subject to any modifications made by the regulations to reflect changes in the registers, or kinds of registers, maintained by the States and Territories.
- (3) If a Minister of a referring/adopting State or of an affected Territory notifies the Commonwealth Minister in writing of a proposed modification to Schedule 1, the Commonwealth Minister must consult with all other referring/adopting States and affected Territories about the proposed modification.
- (4) In this section:
modifications include additions, omissions and substitutions.

6A Meaning of Registrar

A reference in this Act to the Registrar is a reference to:

- (a) if only one Commonwealth body is appointed as Registrar under section 62A—that body; or
- (b) if more than one Commonwealth body is appointed under that section with functions and powers in connection with this Act or the Transitional Act:

 - (e) an agency or authority of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory;
 - (f) an agency or authority of the Commonwealth and any of the referring/adopting States and the affected Territories, acting jointly;
 - (g) an agency or authority of any 2 or more of the referring/adopting States and affected Territories, acting jointly;
 - (h) a local government body.

Division 4—Interaction between business names legislation and State and Territory laws

12 Concurrent operation intended

- (1) This Act and the Transitional Act (the business names legislation) are not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of any law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the business names legislation is not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of a law that:
 - (a) requires or permits a word or expression to be used by an entity or class of entities; or
 - (b) prohibits or restricts the use of a word or expression by an entity or class of entities; or
 - (c) relates to the accreditation or licensing of an entity that carries on a business; or
 - (d) makes provision for the conversion of one body into another or the amalgamation of bodies; or
 - (e) imposes obligations on an entity or class of entities that are in addition to obligations imposed under this Act; or
 - (f) makes provision in relation to a notified State/Territory register; or
 - (g) specifies a name as the name of an entity.
- (3) This section does not apply to a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory if there is a direct inconsistency between that law and the business names legislation.

Note: Section 14 avoids direct inconsistency arising in some cases by limiting the operation of the business names legislation.

13 When business names legislation does not apply

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if a provision of a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory declares a matter to be an excluded matter for the purposes of this section in relation to:

- (a) the whole of the business names legislation; or
- (b) a specified provision of the business names legislation; or
- (c) the business names legislation other than a specified provision; or
- (d) the business names legislation otherwise than to a specified extent.

(2) By force of this subsection:

- (a) none of the provisions of the business names legislation (other than this section) applies in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(a) applies; and
- (b) the specified provision of the business names legislation does not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(b) applies; and
- (c) the provisions of the business names legislation (other than this section and the specified provisions) do not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(c) applies; and
- (d) the provisions of the business names legislation (other than this section and otherwise than to the specified extent) do not apply in or in relation to the State or Territory with respect to the matter if the declaration is one to which paragraph (1)(d) applies.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the declaration to the extent to which the regulations provide that that subsection does not apply to that declaration.

14 Avoiding direct inconsistency between Commonwealth and State and Territory laws

This section overrides other business names legislation

- (1) This section has effect despite anything else in the business names legislation.

When this section does not apply to a referring/adopting State or Territory law

- (2) This section does not apply to a provision of a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory that is capable of concurrent operation with the business names legislation.

Note: This kind of provision is dealt with by section 12.

When this section applies to a referring/adopting State or Territory law

- (3) This section applies to the interaction between a provision (the displacement provision) of a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory and a provision (the Commonwealth provision) of the business names legislation only if the displacement provision is declared by a law of the State or Territory to be a business names legislation displacement provision for the purposes of this section (either generally or specifically in relation to the Commonwealth provision).

Effect of displacement provision

- (4) The Commonwealth provision does not:
- (a) prohibit the doing of an act; or
 - (b) impose a liability (whether civil or criminal) for doing an act;
- if the displacement provision specifically permits, authorises or requires the doing of that act.
- (5) The Commonwealth provision does not operate in or in relation to the State or Territory to the extent necessary to ensure that no inconsistency arises between:

- (a) the Commonwealth provision; and
- (b) the displacement provision to the extent to which the displacement provision would, apart from this subsection, be inconsistent with the Commonwealth provision.

Note 1: The displacement provision is not covered by this subsection if subsection (4) applies to the displacement provision: if that subsection applies there would be no potential inconsistency to be dealt with by this subsection.

Note 2: The operation of the displacement provision will be supported by section 12 to the extent to which it can operate concurrently with the Commonwealth provision.

- (6) Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply in relation to the displacement provision to the extent to which the regulations provide that those subsections do not apply in relation to the displacement provision.

15 Regulations to deal with interaction between laws

- (1) The regulations may modify the operation of the business names legislation so that:
 - (a) provisions of the business names legislation do not apply to a matter that is dealt with by a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory specified in the regulations; or
 - (b) no inconsistency arises between the operation of a provision of the business names legislation and the operation of a provision of a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory specified in the regulations.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), regulations made for the purposes of that subsection may provide that a provision of the business names legislation:
 - (a) does not apply to:
 - (i) a person specified in the regulations; or
 - (ii) a body specified in the regulations; or
 - (iii) circumstances specified in the regulations; or
 - (iv) a person or body specified in the regulations in the circumstances specified in the regulations; or

- (b) does not prohibit an act to the extent to which the prohibition would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
- (c) does not require a person to do an act to the extent to which the requirement would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
- (d) does not authorise a person to do an act to the extent to which the conferral of that authority on the person would otherwise give rise to an inconsistency with a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
- (e) does not impose an obligation on a person to the extent to which complying with that obligation would require the person not to comply with an obligation imposed on the person under a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
- (f) authorises a person to do something for the purposes of the business names legislation that the person:
 - (i) is authorised to do under a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; and
 - (ii) would not otherwise be authorised to do under the business names legislation; or
- (g) will be taken to be satisfied if a law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory is satisfied.

Division 5—Objects of this Act and consequences of registration

16 Objects of this Act

- (1) The objects of this Act are:
 - (a) to ensure that if an entity carries on a business under a business name, those who engage or propose to engage with that business can identify the entity and how the entity may be contacted; and
 - (b) to remove the inconvenience caused by the registration of business names under the law of more than one jurisdiction within Australia.
- (2) These objects are achieved by requiring an entity that intends to carry on a business under a business name to register the business name on a nationally established and maintained register of business names.
- (3) The objects of this Act are also:
 - (a) to avoid confusion by ensuring that business names that are identical or nearly identical are not registered; and
 - (b) to ensure that business names that are undesirable (for example, because they are offensive) are not registered; and
 - (c) to ensure that business names that should be restricted for any other reason (for example, because they might mislead consumers) are not registered.
- (4) The objects mentioned in subsection (3) are achieved by rules dealing with the availability of business names.

17 Consequences of registration of a business name

- (1) The registration of a business name does not affect the rights of any entity in relation to the business name, or a word or an expression that constitutes or is included in the business name,

Part 1 Preliminary

Section 17

under the law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory, or under the general law.

- (2) An entity does not acquire property in a business name, or in a word or an expression that constitutes or is included in a business name, because the name is registered to the entity under this Act or the Transitional Act.

Part 2—Offences relating to business names

18 Offence—carrying on a business under an unregistered business name

- (1) An entity commits an offence if:
 - (a) the entity carries on a business under a name; and
 - (b) the name is not registered to the entity as a business name on the Business Names Register.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
 - (a) the entity is an individual and the name is the individual's name; or
 - (b) the entity is a corporation and the name is the corporation's name; or
 - (c) the entity is a partnership and the name consists of all of the partners' names; or
 - (d) the name is registered to the entity on a notified State/Territory register; or
 - (e) an Act of the Commonwealth, a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory, or an instrument made under such an Act, specifies the name as the name of the entity; or
 - (f) the entity is a government body; or
 - (g) the entity is a notified successor in relation to the name; or
 - (h) other circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph apply.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (2): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

- (3) Subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

19 Offence—must include business name in written communications

- (1) An entity commits an offence if:
- (a) the entity carries on a business under a business name; and
 - (b) the entity communicates in writing with another entity; and
 - (c) that communication is a business document connected with carrying on the business under the name; and
 - (d) the entity does not include clearly legible business names information in the document.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) Business names information means the name and, if the entity has an ABN, the entity's ABN, where the business document is of one of the following kinds:
- (a) a document that is lodged with ASIC;
 - (b) a statement of account (including an invoice);
 - (c) a receipt;
 - (d) an order for goods or services;
 - (e) a cheque;
 - (f) a promissory note or bill of exchange;
 - (g) an offer to provide goods or services (rather than an invitation to treat).
- (3) In any other case, business names information means the name.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the entity is an individual and the name is the individual's name; or
 - (b) the entity is a corporation and the name is the corporation's name; or
 - (c) the entity is a partnership and the name consists of all of the partners' names; or
 - (d) the name is registered to the entity on a notified State/Territory register; or

- (e) an Act of the Commonwealth, a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory, or an instrument made under such an Act, specifies the name as the name of the entity; or
 - (f) the entity is a government body; or
 - (g) the entity is a notified successor in relation to the name; or
 - (h) the Minister has exempted the entity from the requirement in relation to the business and the business name, under subsection (6); or
 - (i) other circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph apply.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not require an entity to include a name or the entity's ABN in a written communication in circumstances where:
- (a) it would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory to include the name or the entity's ABN in the communication; or
 - (b) the inclusion of the name in the communication would directly or indirectly give rise to a representation that would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
 - (c) the use of the name by the entity would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory.
- Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsections (4) and (5): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.
- Note 2: As an example, the use of a name would be contrary to the law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory if the law of that jurisdiction provided that the name could not be used without the consent of a relevant authority and that consent was not obtained.
- (6) The Minister may, by determination in writing, exempt an entity from the requirement to include a name or the entity's ABN in a written communication in connection with a specified business carried on under a specified business name, if the Minister is satisfied that the inclusion of that information in a written communication would create a serious risk to:
- (a) public safety; or

Section 20

- (b) significant infrastructure such as:
 - (i) transport infrastructure; or
 - (ii) energy infrastructure; or
 - (iii) communications infrastructure; or
 - (iv) water infrastructure.

The determination is not a legislative instrument.

- (7) Subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

20 Offence—must display business name at places open to public

- (1) An entity commits an offence if:
 - (a) the entity carries on a business under a business name; and
 - (b) the entity does not display the name prominently at every place at which the entity carries on the business that is open to the public.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
 - (a) the entity is an individual and the name is the individual's name; or
 - (b) the entity is a corporation and the name is the corporation's name; or
 - (c) the entity is a partnership and the name consists of all of the partners' names; or

 - (f) the entity is a government body; or
 - (g) the entity is a notified successor in relation to the name; or

- (h) the Minister has exempted the entity from the requirement in relation to the business name and the place, under subsection (4); or
 - (i) other circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph apply.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not require an entity to display a name at a place in circumstances where:
 - (a) it would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory to display the name at that place; or
 - (b) displaying the name at the place would directly or indirectly give rise to a representation that would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory; or
 - (c) the use of the name by the entity would be contrary to the law of the Commonwealth or of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsections (2) and (3): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Note 2: As an example, the law of a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory may prohibit advertising in relation to gambling. A sign relating to gambling would not therefore be required to be displayed under this Act.

- (4) The Minister may, by determination in writing, exempt an entity from the requirement to display a specified name at a specified place, if the Minister is satisfied that the display of that name at that place would create a serious risk to:
 - (a) public safety; or
 - (b) significant infrastructure such as:
 - (i) transport infrastructure; or
 - (ii) energy infrastructure; or
 - (iii) communications infrastructure; or
 - (iv) water infrastructure.

The determination is not a legislative instrument.

Section 21

- (5) Subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

21 Offence—carrying on a business under a business name while disqualified

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

- (a) the entity is an individual and the name is the individual's name; or
- (b) the entity is a corporation and the name is the corporation's name; or

- (f) the entity is a government body; or
- (g) the entity is a notified successor in relation to the name; or
- (h) other circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph apply.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (2): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

- (3) Subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

Part 3—Registering a business name

22 The Business Names Register

- (1) ASIC must establish and maintain a Business Names Register.
- (2) The purpose of the Business Names Register is to enable those who engage or propose to engage with a business carried on under a business name to identify the entity carrying on the business and how the entity may be contacted.
- (3) The Business Names Register may be kept in any form that ASIC considers appropriate.
- (4) The Business Names Register is not a legislative instrument.

23 Application to register a business name

- (1) An entity that intends to carry on a business under a name may lodge with ASIC an application for the name to be registered to the entity as a business name.

Note: Under section 18, it is an offence to carry on a business under an unregistered business name.

- (2) The application must:
 - (a) include:
 - (i) details sufficient to identify the entity; and
 - (ii) the entity's ABN or, if an application for an ABN is pending, a statement to that effect and the reference number for the ABN application; and
 - (iii) the address of the entity's principal place of business in Australia; and
 - (iv) an address in Australia for service of documents; and
 - (v) the business name to which the application relates; and
 - (b) specify the period for which registration is sought; and
 - (c) specify whether the entity is disqualified.

Section 24

- (3) The application:
 - (a) must be in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) must be lodged in the prescribed manner.
- (4) The applicant must pay the registration fee.
- (5) If an application for registration of a business name is lodged with ASIC by post, it is taken to have been lodged with ASIC immediately after the end of the period of 5 business days beginning on the day on which it is received by ASIC.
- (6) The prescribed form for an application for registration of a business name must require the applicant to provide details of a person's date and place of birth if it is necessary for or directly related to the purposes of:
 - (a) identifying the entity to whom the business name is to be registered; or
 - (b) determining whether the entity is disqualified.

24 Decision to register a business name to an entity

- (1) ASIC must register the business name to the entity if ASIC is satisfied that:
 - (a) the entity has an ABN; and
 - (b) the registration fee has been paid; and
 - (c) the name is available to the entity; and
 - (d) the entity is not disqualified.
- (2) ASIC may request the entity in writing to give ASIC, within the period specified in the request, information or a document that is of a kind specified in the request and that ASIC needs to be satisfied of the matters mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) If the entity does not comply with the request within the time specified, ASIC may refuse the application.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the grounds on which ASIC may refuse an application to register a business name to an entity.

25 Is a business name available to an entity?

A business name is available to an entity if:

- (a) the name is not identical or nearly identical to:
 - (i) a business name registered to another entity; or
 - (ii) a name that is reserved or registered under the Corporations Act 2001 for another body; or
 - (iii) a name that is registered to another entity on a notified State/Territory register; or
 - (iv) if ASIC receives notice electronically from a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory of the name of a government body and the entity is not that body—that name; or
 - (v) if ASIC receives notice electronically from a referring/adopting State or an affected Territory that an Act of the State or Territory, or an instrument made under such an Act, specifies a name as the name of another entity—that name; or
 - (vi) if ASIC receives notice electronically from a Commonwealth government body of the name of that body and the entity is not that body—that name; or
 - (vii) if ASIC receives notice electronically from a body that an Act of the Commonwealth, or an instrument made under such an Act, specifies a name as the name of that body and the entity is not that body—that name; and
- (b) a name that is identical or nearly identical is not held under section 54 or a provision of the Transitional Act; and
- (c) no other entity has priority over a name that is identical or nearly identical; and
- (d) either:
 - (i) the name is not of a kind that is undesirable; or
 - (ii) the name is of a kind that is undesirable but the Minister has determined under subsection 27(2) that the name is available to the entity; and
- (e) either:

Section 26

- (i) the name is not constituted by, and does not include, a restricted word or expression; or
- (ii) the name is constituted by or includes a word or expression that is restricted unless a condition is satisfied, and the entity satisfies the condition.

26 Identical or nearly identical names

The Minister may, by legislative instrument, make rules for determining whether a name is identical or nearly identical to another name.

27 Undesirable names

- (1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine the kinds of name that are undesirable for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Minister may determine in writing that a business name specified in the determination is to be available to an entity specified in the determination, even though the name is of a kind that is undesirable.
- (3) A determination under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.
- (4) The Minister must, at least 28 days before revoking a determination made under subsection (2), give notice in writing to the entity specified in the determination:
 - (a) informing the entity of the Minister's intention to revoke the determination; and
 - (b) setting out the Minister's reasons for revoking the determination.

28 Restricted words and expressions

- (1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that a word or expression specified in the determination:
 - (a) is restricted; or

- (b) is restricted in relation to a specified class of entity or business unless a condition or conditions specified in the determination are met.
- (2) The Minister may determine in writing that a word or expression specified in the determination is restricted in relation to a specified entity or a specified business unless a condition or conditions specified in the determination are met.
- (3) A determination under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

29 Priority

- (1) Where:
 - (a) 2 or more applications are lodged with ASIC for registration of business names that are identical or nearly identical; and
 - (b) none of the applications is a consent application;the applications take priority in the order in which they are lodged.
- (2) To avoid doubt, the priority of an entity over a business name is not affected by the fact that an ABN application by the entity is pending.
- (3) If an entity's application for registration of a business name to the entity is refused, the entity's priority over the business name is not affected during the review period in relation to that decision.
- (4) The review period, in relation to a decision to refuse an application by an entity for the registration of a business name to the entity, is:
 - (a) a period of 28 days beginning on the day on which the entity is notified of the decision; or
 - (b) if ASIC determines a longer period under subsection (5)—that longer period.
- (5) ASIC may determine in writing a longer review period. The determination is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) ASIC must give a copy of the determination to the applicant.

Section 30

- (7) ASIC may refuse 2 or more applications for registration of business names that are identical or nearly identical if all of the applications take the same priority.

30 Refusal for failure to pay registration fee on time

- (1) This section applies if an entity lodges with ASIC an application for the registration of a business name to the entity, but the entity does not pay the registration fee when the application is lodged.
- (2) The application is taken to have been refused if the registration fee is not paid before the end of the fee payment period.
- (3) The fee payment period begins at the time at which the application is lodged and ends immediately before that time on the day 10 business days after the day on which the application is lodged.

31 Consent applications

Consent of holder of the business name to registration by another entity

- (1) An entity to whom a business name is registered may, by notice in accordance with subsection (2), consent to the registration of the business name to another entity.

Note: So if, for example, the entity to whom the business name is registered uses the business name in relation to a business that is then sold, the entity might also consent to the business name being registered to the purchaser.

Prescribed manner and form

- (2) The consent notice:
- (a) must be in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) must be lodged in the prescribed manner.

Availability of business name

- (3) If:

- (a) an application under section 23 for registration of a business name to an entity (the applicant) is lodged with ASIC; and
- (b) each of the following notices is lodged with ASIC:
 - (i) a notice under subsection (1) by the entity to whom the business name is registered consenting to the registration of the business name to the applicant;
 - (ii) a notice under subsection 42(1) by the entity to whom the business name is registered requesting ASIC to cancel the registration of the business name to the entity;

the business name is taken to be available to the applicant.

Potential applicant may carry on a business

- (4) If an entity to whom a business name is registered gives notice under subsection (1) consenting to the registration of the business name to another entity (the potential applicant), the potential applicant may notify ASIC in accordance with subsection (5) that the consent has been given.
- (5) The notice:
 - (a) must be in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) must be lodged in the prescribed manner.
- (6) If the potential applicant gives notice under subsection (4), the potential applicant does not commit an offence under subsection 18(1) if the potential applicant carries on a business under the business name during the period of 3 months beginning on the day on which that notice is given.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (6): see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

Note 2: Subsections (4) to (6) allow the potential applicant to trade while an application for registration of a business name is being processed.

32 Disqualified entities

- (1) An entity is disqualified if:

Section 32

- (a) the entity is a person disqualified from managing corporations under subsection 206B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 because the person is convicted of an offence; or
 - (b) a person involved in the management of the entity is disqualified from managing corporations under subsection 206B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001 because the person is convicted of an offence; or
 - (c) the entity is a person who is not disqualified under subsection 206B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001, but is convicted of an offence against a law of the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or a foreign country that involves dishonesty and is punishable by imprisonment for at least 3 months; or
 - (d) the entity is a person who is not disqualified under subsection 206B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001, but is convicted of an offence against the law of a foreign country that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of more than 12 months; or
 - (e) a person involved in the management of the entity is not disqualified under subsection 206B(1) of the Corporations Act 2001, but is convicted of an offence referred to in paragraph (c) or (d) of this subsection.
- (2) The entity is disqualified:
- (a) in a case mentioned in paragraph (1)(a)—during the period for which the entity is disqualified under subsection 206B(2) of the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (b) in a case mentioned in paragraph (1)(b)—during the period for which the person involved in the management of the entity is disqualified under subsection 206B(2); and
 - (c) in a case mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) or (d):
 - (i) if the entity does not serve a term of imprisonment—for a period of 5 years after the day on which the entity is convicted; or
 - (ii) if the entity serves a term of imprisonment—for a period of 5 years after the day on which the entity is released from prison; and

- (d) in a case mentioned in paragraph (1)(e):
 - (i) if the person involved in the management of the entity does not serve a term of imprisonment—for a period of 5 years after the day on which the person is convicted; or
 - (ii) if the person involved in the management of the entity serves a term of imprisonment—for a period of 5 years after the day on which the person is released from prison.
- (3) The Minister may, on application in writing by a person, determine that:
 - (a) where the person is the entity that would otherwise be disqualified—the entity is not disqualified despite the conviction; and
 - (b) where the person is involved in the management of an entity that would otherwise be disqualified—the entity is not disqualified despite the conviction.
- (4) A determination under subsection (3) must be in writing but is not a legislative instrument.

33 Steps taken by ASIC to register a business name to an entity

- (1) ASIC registers a business name to an entity by entering in the Business Names Register:
 - (a) details sufficient to identify the entity, including the entity's ABN; and
 - (b) the business name; and
 - (c) the address of the entity's principal place of business in Australia; and
 - (d) an address in Australia for service of documents; and
 - (e) the period for which the business name is registered to the entity, including the time at which, and the day on which, the period starts.
- (2) The registration period for which the business name is registered to the entity must be a period of either 1 year or 3 years, unless an alternative registration period is determined by ASIC under subsection (3) or (4).

Section 33

- (3) ASIC may determine an alternative registration period for the registration of a business name to an entity if:
 - (a) the entity lodges a request with ASIC, in the prescribed form and manner, to have an alternative registration period determined; and

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

Endnote 2—Abbreviation key

Endnote 3—Legislation history

Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdescribed amendments

A misdescribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe how an amendment is to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

can be given effect as intended, then the misdescribed amendment can be incorporated through an editorial change made under section 15V of the Legislation Act 2003.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the amendment is not incorporated and “(md not incorp)” is added to the amendment history.
