

Government House
Canberra ACT 2600

6 May 2013

Her Excellency the Governor-General is pleased to announce:

Recognition of RAOUL WALLENBERG as an Honorary Australian Citizen

for his tireless devotion to human life during the Holocaust.

By Her Excellency's Command

Stephen Brady
Official Secretary to the Governor-General

The Governor-General, Her Excellency Ms Quentin Bryce AC CVO, hosted at Government House, Canberra on Monday 6 May 2013, the presentation of a certificate of honorary citizenship, signed by the Governor-General and the Prime Minister, the Honourable Julia Gillard MP.

Honorary Australian citizenship is symbolic recognition, outside of the Citizenship Act 2007. A copy of the certificate is attached. The original certificate will be preserved and displayed by the Jewish Holocaust Museum and Research Centre in Melbourne and the Sydney Jewish Museum.

On behalf of the Australian people we are pleased to recognise in the year of the centenary of his birth

Raoul Wallenberg

as an

HONORARY AUSTRALIAN CITIZEN

for his selfless and tireless devotion to human life during the Holocaust.

The Hon Julia Gillard MP
Prime Minister

Her Excellency Ms Quentin Bryce AC CVO
Governor-General
