Paid Parental Leave Act 2010

No. 104, 2010

An Act to provide for the payment of parental leave pay, and for related purposes

[Assented to 14 July 2010]

The Parliament of Australia enacts:

Chapter 1—Introduction

Part 1-1—Introduction

Division 1—Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Paid Parental Leave Act 2010.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 October 2010.

3 Act binds Crown

- (1) This Act binds the Crown in each of its capacities.
- (2) However, this Act does not make the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.
- (3) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not prevent the Crown from being liable to pay a pecuniary penalty under section 147 or 159.

Note: Section 147 deals with civil penalty orders and section 159 deals with infringement notices.

Division 1A—Object of this Act

3A Object of this Act

- (1) The object of this Act is to provide financial support to primary carers (mainly birth mothers) of newborn and newly adopted children, in order to:
 - (a) allow those carers to take time off work to care for the child after the child's birth or adoption; and
 - (b) enhance the health and development of birth mothers and children; and
 - (c) encourage women to continue to participate in the workforce; and
 - (d) promote equality between men and women, and the balance between work and family life.
- (2) Generally, the financial support is provided only to primary carers who have a regular connection to the workforce.
- (3) The financial support provided by this Act is intended to complement and supplement existing entitlements to paid or unpaid leave in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

Division 2—Guide to this Act

4 Guide to this Act

Overview

This Act provides for the payment of parental leave pay to a person in the first year after the birth of a child or, for adoption, the placement of a child.

Parental leave pay is paid to a person for a particular period. That period is called the person's PPL period. The maximum period for which any person may be paid parental leave pay is 18 weeks. A person's PPL period may be the full 18 weeks or a lesser period (e.g. where the person is not eligible for parental leave pay for that full period).

Parental leave pay is paid in instalments at the national minimum wage for each week day during the person's PPL period. It is paid by either the person's employer or the Secretary.

Chapter 2—When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Chapter 2 sets out when parental leave pay is payable to a person. The key provisions for the Chapter are found in Part 2-1.

A person can only be paid parental leave pay if the Secretary makes a determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person. Part 2-2 has the rules about when the Secretary can make that determination.

The Secretary cannot make that determination if the person is not eligible for parental leave pay. Part 2-3 has the rules about eligibility. For the main case, to be eligible a person must (broadly):

- (a) satisfy the work test, the income test and the Australian residency test; and

- (b) be the child's primary carer; and
- (c) not have returned to work; and
- (d) not be entitled to baby bonus.

The Secretary also cannot make that determination if the person has not made a claim for parental leave pay. Part 2-4 has the rules about claims.

There are 3 types of claims: a primary claim, a secondary claim and (in rare cases) a tertiary claim. These claims relate to each other, although the primary claim is the main one—a secondary or tertiary claim cannot be made without it. The primary claim will often be the only claim that is made. If a secondary or tertiary claim is made, that claim will be for the part of the maximum 18 week period (or lesser period) in which parental leave pay was not payable to the primary claimant.

Chapter 3—Payment of parental leave pay

Chapter 3 sets out how parental leave pay is paid to a person.

Part 3-1 is about instalments of parental leave pay. It deals with when instalments must be paid, whether the person's employer or the Secretary must pay them and the amount of the instalments.

Part 3-2 sets out when a person's employer must pay instalments to the person. The employer is only required to do that if an employer determination has come into force for the employer and the person, and the employer has been paid enough by the Secretary to fund the instalment.

Part 3-3 sets out when the Secretary must pay instalments directly to the person. The Secretary is required to do that if an employer determination is never made for the person (e.g. the person is a contractor and so does not have an employer). There are some other circumstances in which the Secretary is also required to pay instalments directly to the person (such as when an employer determination is being reviewed or has been revoked).

Chapter 1 Introduction

Part 1-1 Introduction

Division 2 Guide to this Act

Section 4

Part 3-4 has general rules about the payment of instalments (such as what happens when an instalment cannot be paid on the day specified in this Act).

Part 3-5 is about employer determinations. If an employer determination is in force for an employer and a person, the employer must pay instalments to the person. The Secretary must be satisfied that certain conditions have been met before the Secretary can make an employer determination.

It allows the Secretary to refer matters to the Fair Work Ombudsman for investigation if the Secretary has reason to believe that an employer has not complied with certain obligations under this Act. It also deals with civil penalty provisions, compliance notices and infringement notices.

Part 4-3 provides for debts in relation to the parental leave pay scheme, and for the recovery of debts owing to the Commonwealth.

Chapter 5—Review of decisions

Chapter 5 is about administrative and judicial review of decisions made under this Act.

Part 5-1 allows the Secretary, on his or her own initiative, to conduct an internal review of decisions made under this Act. It also allows a person whose interests are affected by certain types of decisions to seek internal review of those decisions, and an employer to seek internal review of certain types of decisions that affect employers.

Part 5-2 allows a person to apply to the Social Security Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision made under this Act.

Part 5-3 is about the procedures to be followed when the Social Security Appeals Tribunal reviews a decision.

Part 5-4 allows the Secretary or a person whose interests are affected by a decision made by the Social Security Appeals Tribunal to apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the decision.

Part 5-5 has miscellaneous provisions relating to reviews of decisions under this Act.

Chapter 6—Miscellaneous

Chapter 6 has miscellaneous provisions.

Part 6-1 has rules that modify this Act so that it applies correctly in 3 limited kinds of cases—adoption, claims made in exceptional circumstances etc. and Commonwealth employment.

Part 6-2 is about payment nominees (who are people who can receive payments of instalments of parental leave pay on behalf of other people for the purposes of this Act) and correspondence nominees (who are people who can receive notices on behalf of other people for the purposes of this Act).

Part 6-3 deals with other miscellaneous matters, such as the PPL rules, delegations and regulations.

Chapter 2—When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-1—Key provisions

Division 1—Guide to this Part

7 Guide to this Part

This Part has the key provisions for this Chapter (which deals with when parental leave pay is payable to a person).

A person can only be paid parental leave pay if the Secretary makes a determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person. Part 2-2 has the rules about when the Secretary can make that determination.

The Secretary cannot make that determination if the person has not made a claim for parental leave pay. Part 2-4 has the rules about claims. There are 3 types of claims: a primary claim, a secondary claim and (in rare cases) a tertiary claim. These claims relate to each other, although the primary claim is the main one—a secondary or tertiary claim cannot be made without it. The primary claim will often be the only claim that is made.

If the Secretary makes a determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child, the parental leave pay is payable for the particular period that is specified in the determination. This period is the person's PPL period. The maximum period for which any person may be paid parental leave pay is 18 weeks. A person's PPL period may be the full 18 weeks or a lesser period (e.g. where the person is not eligible for parental leave pay for that full period).

If a secondary or tertiary claim is made, that claim will be for the part of the maximum 18 week period (or lesser period) in which parental leave pay was not payable to the primary claimant. The person's employer or the Secretary will pay instalments of parental leave pay for that period (see Chapter 3 for the rules about how the person is paid parental leave pay).

Section 8

Division 2—When parental leave pay is payable to a person

8 A determination must be made for parental leave pay to be payable to a person

Parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child for a period if a determination of the Secretary that parental leave pay is payable to the person for that period is in force under section 13, 14, 15, 16 or 17.

Note: See Part 2-2 for the rules about when the Secretary can make a determination that parental leave pay is, or is not, payable to a person.

9 For the determination to be made, the person must be eligible

The Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child for a period unless the person was or will be eligible for parental leave pay during the period.

Note: See Part 2-3 for the rules about when a person is eligible for parental leave pay.

10 For the determination to be made, the person must claim

The Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child for a period unless the person has made:

- (a) an effective primary claim for the child (in which case the person is the primary claimant); or
- (b) an effective secondary claim for the child (in which case the person is the secondary claimant); or
- (c) an effective tertiary claim for the child (in which case the person is the tertiary claimant).

Note: See Part 2-4 for the rules about how to make an effective claim.

11 The determination must specify the person's PPL period

- (1) If the Secretary makes a determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child, the Secretary must specify, in the determination, the period for which parental leave pay is payable to the person. That period is the person's PPL period.

Note: For a primary claimant's PPL period, see subsections 13(3) and 14(3).
For a secondary claimant's PPL period, see subsections 14(6), 15(5) and 16(4). For a tertiary claimant's PPL period, see subsection 17(3).

- (2) A person's PPL period must be the same as, or within, the maximum PPL period for the child.
- (3) The maximum PPL period for a child is the period that:
- (a) starts on the child's maximum PPL period start day; and
 - (b) ends on the child's maximum PPL period end day.
- (4) The maximum PPL period start day for a child is:
- (a) if, on or before the day (the relevant day) that is 28 days after the day the child was born, the primary claimant both made an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child and verified the child's birth—the later of the following days:
 - (i) the day the child was born;
 - (ii) the primary claimant's nominated start date; and
 - (b) if, on or before the relevant day, the primary claimant made an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child but did not verify the child's birth—the later of the following days:
 - (i) the day the primary claimant verifies the child's birth;
 - (ii) the primary claimant's nominated start date; and
 - (c) if the primary claimant makes an effective claim for parental leave pay for the child after the relevant day—the later of the following days:
 - (i) the day the claim is made;
 - (ii) the primary claimant's nominated start date.
- (5) The maximum PPL period end day for a child is the earlier of the following days:
- (a) the day that is 125 days after the maximum PPL period start day (which is 18 weeks from (and including) that start day);

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-1 Key provisions

Division 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Section 11

(b) the day before the child's first birthday.

Part 2-2—Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 1—Guide to this Part

12 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the Secretary making determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person. These determinations are payability determinations. A person cannot be paid parental leave pay unless there is a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person.

Division 2 has the rules that apply to the Secretary when making a payability determination. Different rules apply depending on the type of claim and, for a primary or secondary claim, whether it was made by itself or at the same time as another claim.

Division 3 has restrictions that apply in particular circumstances to prevent the Secretary from making a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person (for example, where the child's birth has not been verified or the person has already been paid parental leave pay for the child).

Division 4 has general rules that apply to payability determinations (for example, if the Secretary makes a determination, the Secretary must give a notice of it to the claimant).

Division 5 deals with initial eligibility determinations. These determinations can be made by the Secretary before the Secretary makes a payability determination. The Secretary can make an initial eligibility determination if the Secretary is satisfied that the person satisfies, or will satisfy, particular eligibility criteria (the work test, the income test and the Australian residency test). If the Secretary makes a determination, the Secretary must give a notice of it to the claimant.

- (b) the secondary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in the secondary claimant's PPL period; and
- (c) if the secondary claimant's PPL period starts after the day the child was born—subsection (4) applies to the period that:
 - (i) starts on the day the child was born; and
 - (ii) ends on the day before the start of the secondary claimant's PPL period.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

- (4) This subsection applies to the period referred to in paragraph (3)(c) if:
 - (a) the primary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in that period; or
 - (b) the secondary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in that period; or
 - (c) both of the following are satisfied:
 - (i) the primary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in the first part of that period;
 - (ii) the secondary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in the last part of that period.

Secondary claimant's PPL period

- (5) The Secretary must specify in the determination under subsection (3) that the secondary claimant's PPL period:
 - (a) starts on the maximum PPL period start day; and
 - (b) ends on:
 - (i) if the Secretary is satisfied that the secondary claimant was or will be eligible on each day in the child's maximum PPL period—the child's maximum PPL period end day; or
 - (ii) if the Secretary is satisfied that the secondary claimant was or will be eligible for a period that is shorter than the child's maximum PPL period—the last day in the child's maximum PPL period that the Secretary is satisfied that the secondary claimant was or will be eligible.

When parental leave pay is not payable to secondary claimant

- (6) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the secondary claimant if the Secretary is not satisfied of the matters in subsection (3).

16 Determination on a secondary claim made after the primary claim

When a claim is to be determined under this section

- (1) If:
- (a) a primary claimant makes an effective primary claim for parental leave pay for a child; and
 - (b) a secondary claimant makes an effective secondary claim for parental leave pay for the child at a later time;
- the Secretary must make a determination on the secondary claim under this section.
- (2) However, the Secretary cannot make a determination on the secondary claim under this section until the Secretary has first made a determination on the primary claim.

When parental leave pay is payable to secondary claimant

- (3) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is payable to the secondary claimant for the secondary claimant's PPL period if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) a determination under section 13 or 14 that parental leave pay is payable to the primary claimant was or will be in force on the day before the start of the secondary claimant's PPL period; and
 - (b) the secondary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay for the child on each day in the secondary claimant's PPL period.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

Section 17

Secondary claimant's PPL period

- (4) The Secretary must specify in the determination under subsection (3) that the secondary claimant's PPL period:
- (a) starts on the first day after the primary claimant's PPL period ends; and
 - (b) ends on:
 - (i) if the Secretary is satisfied that the secondary claimant was or will be eligible on each day that remains in the child's maximum PPL period—the child's maximum PPL period end day; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the last day in the child's maximum PPL period that the Secretary is satisfied the secondary claimant was or will be eligible.

When parental leave pay is not payable to secondary claimant

- (5) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the secondary claimant if the Secretary is not satisfied of the matters in subsection (3).

17 Determination on a tertiary claim

When a tertiary claim is to be determined under this section

- (1) If a tertiary claimant makes an effective tertiary claim for parental leave pay for a child, the Secretary must make a determination on the tertiary claim under this section.

When parental leave pay is payable to tertiary claimant

- (2) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is payable to the tertiary claimant for the tertiary claimant's PPL period if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) a determination under section 14, 15 or 16 that parental leave pay is payable to the secondary claimant was or will be in force on the day before the start of the tertiary claimant's PPL period; and
 - (b) the tertiary claimant was or will be eligible for parental leave pay on each day in the tertiary claimant's PPL period.

Note: The Secretary is prevented from making a determination under this subsection in certain circumstances: see Division 3.

Tertiary claimant's PPL period

- (3) The Secretary must specify in the determination under subsection (2) that the tertiary claimant's PPL period:
- (a) starts on the first day after the secondary claimant's PPL period ends; and
 - (b) ends on:
 - (i) if the Secretary is satisfied that the tertiary claimant was or will be eligible on each day that remains in the child's maximum PPL period—the child's maximum PPL period end day; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the last day in the child's maximum PPL period that the Secretary is satisfied the tertiary claimant was or will be eligible.

When parental leave pay is not payable to tertiary claimant

- (4) The Secretary must determine that parental leave pay is not payable to the tertiary claimant if the Secretary is not satisfied of the matters in subsection (2).

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-2 Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 3 When the Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable

Section 18

Division 3—When the Secretary cannot make a determination that parental leave pay is payable

18 The child’s birth has not been verified

- (1) The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child unless the primary claimant has verified the child’s birth.

Verifying a child’s birth

- (2) A person verifies a child’s birth if:
- (a) the person gives the Secretary a completed birth verification form for the child; and
 - (b) if subsection (3) applies to the person, the person satisfies the requirement of that subsection.

- (3) If:
- (a) the person is the parent (other than an adoptive parent) of the child; and
 - (b) the child is not stillborn; and
 - (c) the person is, under a law of a State or a Territory, responsible (whether alone or jointly) for registering the birth of the child under the law;

then the person must give the Secretary information showing that:

- (d) the child’s birth has been registered under the law; or
 - (e) the person has applied to have the birth of the child registered under the law.
- (4) The Secretary may approve a form (a birth verification form) for the purposes of verifying the birth of a child.

19 The child was born before 1 January 2011

The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child if the child was born before 1 January 2011.

20 Multiple births

The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child if:

- (a) the child and another child are born during the same multiple birth; and
- (b) parental leave pay is or was payable to the person or another person for the other child.

21 The person etc. has already been paid parental leave pay

(1) The Secretary must not make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to a person for a child if:

- (a) the person has been paid parental leave pay for the child under a different claim; or
- (b) if the person is the primary claimant:
 - (i) the person's partner has been paid parental leave pay for the child; or
 - (ii) a former partner of the person was paid parental leave pay for the child when he or she was the person's partner; or
- (c) if the person is the secondary claimant:
 - (i) the person's partner has been paid parental leave pay for the child (other than as the primary claimant to which the person's secondary claim relates); or
 - (ii) a former partner of the person was paid parental leave pay for the child when he or she was the person's partner (other than as the primary claimant to which the person's secondary claim relates).

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a claim that is made in exceptional circumstances.

Chapter 2 When parental leave pay is payable to a person

Part 2-2 Determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable to a person

Division 4 General provisions applying to determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable

Section 22

Division 4—General provisions applying to determinations about whether parental leave pay is payable

22 Assumptions when making the determination

In deciding whether to make a payability determination, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

23 When the determination is in force

A payability determination comes into force on the day it is made and continues in force unless it is:

- (a) revoked under section 25 (which deals with revoking a payability determination on the claimant's request); or
- (b) set aside under Chapter 5 (which deals with review of decisions).

24 Notice of the determination

If the Secretary makes a payability determination, the Secretary must give a notice of the determination to the claimant, stating:

- (a) whether parental leave pay is payable; and
- (b) if parental leave pay is payable—the claimant's PPL period; and
- (c) that the claimant may apply for review of the determination in the manner set out in Chapter 5.

25 Revoking the determination on request

- (1) If:
 - (a) a payability determination is made that parental leave pay is payable to a person; and
 - (b) the person requests the Secretary to revoke the determination; and
 - (c) the request is made:

Section 25

- (i) before the start of the person's PPL period; and
 - (ii) in a manner approved by the Secretary;
- then the Secretary must revoke the determination.
- (2) The revocation is taken to have come into force on the day the person requested the Secretary to revoke the determination.

Division 5—Initial eligibility determinations

26 Initial eligibility determinations

Primary claimants

- (1) If a person makes an effective primary claim, the Secretary may make a determination (the initial eligibility determination) that the person is initially eligible for parental leave pay for the child if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that the person satisfies:
 - (a) the work test; and
 - (b) the income test; and
 - (c) the Australian residency test.

Secondary claimants

- (2) If a person makes an effective secondary claim, the Secretary may make a determination (the initial eligibility determination) that the person is initially eligible for parental leave pay for the child if, when making the determination, the Secretary is satisfied that the person:
 - (a) satisfies:
 - (i) the work test; and
 - (ii) the income test; and
 - (iii) the Australian residency test; or
 - (b) will satisfy those tests on the day the person becomes the child's primary carer.

27 Assumptions when making the initial eligibility determination

In deciding whether to make an initial eligibility determination, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

28 When the initial eligibility determination comes into force

An initial eligibility determination comes into force on the day it is made.

29 Notice of the initial eligibility determination

If the Secretary makes an initial eligibility determination, the Secretary must give a notice of the determination to the claimant.

Part 2-3—Eligibility for parental leave pay

Division 1—Guide to this Part

30 Guide to this Part

This Part sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay. The Secretary cannot make a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable if the person is not eligible for it.

Division 2 sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay. Subsection 31(2) deals with the main case and requires that for a person to be eligible for parental leave pay for a child, the person must (broadly):

- (a) satisfy the work test, the income test and the Australian residency test; and
- (b) be the child's primary carer; and
- (c) not have returned to work; and
- (d) not be entitled to baby bonus.

There are other eligibility criteria that apply for more unusual cases—see subsection 31(3) (which deals with when a child is stillborn or dies) and subsection 31(4) (which allows the PPL rules to prescribe eligibility criteria).

Division 3 has the work test. To satisfy the work test, a person must have performed enough paid work or taken enough paid leave in a particular period before the day the child was born (for a primary claimant) or the day the person became the child's primary carer (for a secondary claimant).

Division 4 has the income test. To satisfy the income test, the person's income for a particular income year must not be more than the PPL income limit (which is $150,000 until 30 June 2012 and then indexed).

Division 5 has the Australian residency test. To satisfy this test, the person must be an Australian resident or be in a special class of visa holder.

Division 6 sets out when a person is the primary carer of a child. For the main case, a person will not be eligible for parental leave pay if the person is not the child's primary carer.

Division 7 sets out when a person returns to work after the birth of a child. For the main case, a person will not be eligible for parental leave pay if the person performs more than one hour of work other than for a permissible purpose. There are 2 permissible purposes. One is where the person performs the work for another entity on a keeping in touch day with that entity. The other is where the person performs the work for a business that the person carries on and the work consists of overseeing the business or is an occasional administrative task.

Section 31

Division 2—When a person is eligible for parental leave pay

31 When a person is eligible for parental leave pay

- (1) This section sets out when a person is eligible for parental leave pay for a child on a day.
- (2) First, a person is eligible for parental leave pay for a child on a day if, on that day:
 - (a) the person satisfies the work test (see Division 3) or subsection (4A) applies to the person; and
 - (b) the person satisfies the income test (see Division 4); and
 - (c) the person satisfies the Australian residency test (see Division 5); and
 - (d) the person is the primary carer of the child (see Division 6); and
 - (e) the person has not returned to work (see Division 7); and
 - (f) both of the following are satisfied:
 - (i) the person and the person's partner are not entitled to baby bonus for the child;
 - (ii) a former partner of the person was not entitled to baby bonus for the child when he or she was the person's partner.
- (3) Second, a person is eligible for parental leave pay for a child on a day if:
 - (a) the child is stillborn or has died before that day; and
 - (b) on that day, the person would be eligible under subsection (2) for parental leave pay for the child, if paragraphs (2)(d) and (e) were disregarded; and
 - (c) the person would have been the child's primary carer on that day had the child not been stillborn or died.
- (4) Third, a person is eligible for parental leave pay for a child on a day if, on that day:

- (a) if the person is the primary claimant:
 - (i) the person satisfies the work test (see Division 3) or subsection (4A) applies to the person; and
 - (ii) the person satisfies the income test (see Division 4); and
 - (iii) the person satisfies the Australian residency test (see Division 5); and
 - (iv) the person satisfies the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules; and
 - (b) if the person is a secondary claimant or tertiary claimant—the person satisfies the conditions prescribed by the PPL rules.
- (4A) This subsection applies to a person if:
- (a) the person does not satisfy the work test in relation to a child; and
 - (b) the person is the birth mother of the child; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that either or both of the following subparagraphs apply:
 - (i) the child was born prematurely;
 - (ii) while the person was pregnant with the child, the person had complications or illness related to the pregnancy which prevented the person from performing paid work; and
 - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that the person would have satisfied the work test if either or both of the subparagraphs in paragraph (c) had not applied.
- (5) Despite subsections (2), (3) and (4), a person is not eligible for parental leave pay for a child on a day if, on that day, the person is deceased.

Section 32

Division 3—The work test

32 When a person satisfies the work test

To work out whether a person satisfies the work test on a day, use the following method statement:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the person's work test period under section 33.

Step 2. Work out the days in the work test period on which the person has and has not performed qualifying work.

Note: Qualifying work is defined in section 34.

Step 3. Work out whether any days on which the person has not performed qualifying work during the work test period fall within a permissible break.

Note: Permissible break is defined in section 36.

Step 4. Work out whether there is a period (a qualifying period) of 295 consecutive days in the work test period that are days:

(a) on which the person has performed qualifying work; or

(b) that fall within a permissible break.

Step 5. If the person has performed at least 330 hours of qualifying work in a qualifying period, the person satisfies the work test.

33 The work test period

Primary claimant's work test period

- (1) The work test period for a primary claimant is the 392 days immediately before:
 - (a) if the child is born on or before the expected date of birth of the child—the day the child is born; or
 - (b) if the child is born after the expected date of birth of the child—either:
 - (i) the day the child is born; or
 - (ii) if the person does not satisfy the work test in the work test period that applies under subparagraph (i), the expected date of birth of the child.
- (2) However, for the purposes of making an initial eligibility determination on a primary claim that is made before the child is born, the work test period for the primary claimant is the 392 days immediately before the expected date of birth of the child.

Secondary claimant's work test period

- (3) The work test period for a secondary claimant is the 392 days immediately before the day the person becomes the child's primary carer.

34 When a person performs qualifying work

- (1) A person performs qualifying work if:
 - (a) the person performs at least one hour of paid work on a day; or
 - (b) the person takes a period of paid leave of at least one hour on a day.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the PPL rules may prescribe what is, or is not, taken to be paid leave.

Section 35

35 When a person performs paid work

People other than self-employed

- (1) A person performs paid work on a day if, on that day, the person performs work (whether as an employee, a contractor or otherwise and whether or not in Australia) for another entity for remuneration or other financial benefit.
- (2) However, a person is taken not to perform paid work for the purposes of subsection (1) if the other entity is controlled by the person (whether alone or with others).

Self-employed

- (3) A person performs paid work on a day if, on that day, the person performs work for the purposes of a business that is carried on for profit (whether in or outside of Australia) by:
 - (a) the person (whether alone or with others); or
 - (b) an entity that is controlled by the person (whether alone or with others).

When a person controls an entity

- (4) A person controls an entity if the person has the capacity to determine the outcome of decisions about the entity's financial and operating policies.

PPL rules about what paid work is

- (5) The PPL rules may prescribe what is, or is not, taken to be paid work.

36 When there is a permissible break

- (1) A permissible break is any of the periods in subsections (2) and (3).

Permissible break between 2 qualifying work days

- (2) If, between a day on which the person performed qualifying work (a qualifying work day) in the work test period and the next qualifying work day, there was at least 1 day but not more than 56 consecutive days on which the person did not perform qualifying work—the day or period of consecutive days between those 2 qualifying work days is a permissible break.

Permissible break at the start of the work test period

(3) If:

- (a) a person performed qualifying work on a day (the earlier qualifying work day) before the first day in the work test period; and
- (b) the person next performed qualifying work on a day (the later qualifying work day) after the first day in the work test period; and
- (c) the later qualifying work day was no more than 56 consecutive days after the earlier qualifying work day;

then the day or period of consecutive days on which the person did not perform qualifying work between the first day in the work test period and the later qualifying work day (including the first day of the work test period) is a permissible break.

Division 4—The income test

Subdivision A—The income test

37 When a person satisfies the income test

A person satisfies the income test on a day if the person's adjusted taxable income for the reference income year is not more than the relevant PPL income limit.

38 A person's adjusted taxable income

A person's adjusted taxable income for an income year is worked out in accordance with Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act (disregarding subclause 2(2) and clauses 3 and 3A of that Schedule).

Note: Schedule 3 to the Family Assistance Act sets out how to work out a person's adjusted taxable income for the purposes of that Act.

39 The reference income year

The reference income year for a person is:

- (a) if the person is a primary claimant—the income year that ended before the earlier of:
 - (i) the day the person made the claim; and
 - (ii) the day the child was born; and
- (b) if the person is a secondary claimant—the income year that ended before the earlier of:
 - (i) the day the person made the claim; and
 - (ii) the day the person became the child's primary carer.

40 The relevant PPL income limit

The relevant PPL income limit for a person is:

- (a) if the person is a primary claimant—the PPL income limit that applies on the earlier of the following days:
 - (i) the day the person made the claim;

- (ii) the day the child was born; or
- (b) if the person is a secondary claimant—the PPL income limit that applies on the earlier of the following days:
 - (i) the day the person made the claim;
 - (ii) the day the person became the child’s primary carer.

41 The PPL income limit

The PPL income limit that applies on a day is:

- (a) if the day is on or after 1 October 2010 but before 1 July 2012—$150,000; and
- (b) if the day is on or after an indexation day (the relevant indexation day) but before the next indexation day—the indexed amount on the relevant indexation day worked out under Subdivision B.

Subdivision B—Indexation of the PPL income limit

42 Indexation of the PPL income limit

- (1) The amount of the PPL income limit in section 41 is to be indexed under this Subdivision on 1 July each year (the indexation day) starting on 1 July 2012.

Working out the indexed amount for the PPL income limit

- (2) This is how to work out the indexed amount for the PPL income limit on the indexation day:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount (the previous amount) for the PPL income limit that applied on the day immediately before the indexation day.
- Step 2. Use section 43 to work out the indexation factor on the indexation day.

Section 43

Step 3. Multiply the previous amount by the indexation factor: the result is the provisional indexed amount.

Step 4. Use section 44 to round off the provisional indexed amount: the result is the indexed amount.

43 The indexation factor

- (1) The indexation factor is worked out using the following formula and applying subsections (2) and (3):

$$\frac{\text{Index number for the reference December quarter}}{\text{Index number for the base December quarter}}$$

where:

base December quarter means the December quarter that has the highest index number of the December quarters before the reference December quarter (but not earlier than the December quarter 2007).

index number, for a quarter, means the All Groups Consumer Price Index number that is the weighted average of the 8 capital cities and is published by the Australian Statistician in relation to that quarter.

reference December quarter means the last December quarter before the indexation day.

- (2) The indexation factor is to be worked out to 3 decimal places, but increased by 0.001 if the fourth decimal place is more than 4.
- (3) If an indexation factor worked out under subsections (1) and (2) would be less than 1, that indexation factor is to be increased to 1.

Changes to CPI reference base and publication of substituted index numbers

- (4) Amounts are to be worked out under this section:

Section 44

- (a) using only the index numbers published in terms of the most recently published reference base for the Consumer Price Index; and
- (b) disregarding index numbers published in substitution for previously published index numbers (except where the substituted numbers are published to take account of changes in the reference base).

44 Rounding off indexed amounts

- (1) If a provisional indexed amount is a multiple of $1.00, the provisional indexed amount becomes the indexed amount.
- (2) If a provisional indexed amount is not a multiple of $1.00, the indexed amount is the provisional indexed amount rounded up or down to the nearest multiple of $1.00.
- (3) If a provisional indexed amount is not a multiple of $1.00 but is a multiple of $0.50, the indexed amount is the provisional indexed amount rounded up to the nearest multiple of $1.00.

Division 5—The Australian residency test

45 When a person satisfies the Australian residency test

- (1) A person satisfies the Australian residency test on a day if, on that day, the person:
- (a) is an Australian resident; or
 - (b) is a special category visa holder residing in Australia; or
 - (c) satisfies subsection (2).

When a person satisfies this subsection

- (2) A person satisfies this subsection if the person is the holder of a visa determined by the Minister for the purposes of subparagraph 729(2)(f)(v) of the Social Security Act, and either of the following applies:
- (a) the person is in Australia;
 - (b) the person:
 - (i) is temporarily absent from Australia for not more than 13 weeks; and
 - (ii) the absence is an allowable absence in relation to special benefit within the meaning of Part 4.2 of that Act.

46 Effect of absence from Australia on Australian residency test

- (1) Despite section 45, a person does not satisfy the Australian residency test on a day (the relevant day) if:
- (a) before the relevant day, the person left Australia; and
 - (b) on the relevant day, the person has been absent from Australia for more than 3 years since the day the person left Australia.

Effect of a person's return to Australia within 3 years

- (2) If:
- (a) a person who has been absent from Australia for more than 13 weeks, but not more than 3 years, returns to Australia; and

(b) the person leaves Australia again less than 13 weeks later; then the person is taken not to have returned to Australia for the purposes of subsection (1).

Effect of a person's return to Australia after 3 years

- (3) If:
- (a) a person satisfies the Australian residency test while the person is absent from Australia; and
 - (b) the person then ceases to satisfy the Australian residency test because of the application of subsection (1) or a previous application of this subsection; and
 - (c) the person returns to Australia; and
 - (d) the person leaves Australia again less than 13 weeks later; then, despite section 45, the person does not satisfy the Australian residency test at any time during:
 - (e) the person's return to Australia referred to in paragraph (c); or
 - (f) the person's absence from Australia referred to in paragraph (d).

Division 6—Primary carer

47 When a person is the primary carer of a child

- (1) A person is the primary carer of a child on a day in the person's reference period if:
 - (a) the child is in the person's care in that period; and
 - (b) the person meets the child's physical needs more than anyone else in that period.
- (2) A person's reference period is the period that is determined by the Secretary for the purposes of making a payability determination on the person's claim.
- (3) Only one person can be a child's primary carer on a particular day.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), a person is not the primary carer of a child on a day if, before that day, the child has died.

Division 7—Return to work

48 When a person returns to work

A person returns to work on a day that is on or after the birth of a child if, on that day, the person performs one hour or more of paid work other than for a permissible purpose.

49 When paid work is for a permissible purpose

Permissible purpose for people other than self-employed

- (1) If a person performs paid work on a day for another entity (see subsection 35(1)), the person does so for a permissible purpose if:
 - (a) the person performs the work for the entity as an employee, defence force member or law enforcement officer; and
 - (b) the day is a keeping in touch day with the entity and would otherwise be a day of leave in a period of leave granted by that entity; and
 - (c) the person has not already performed paid work on 10 keeping in touch days (whether with the entity or another entity).

Permissible purpose for self-employed

- (2) If a person performs paid work on a day for a business in the situation referred to in subsection 35(3), the person does so for a permissible purpose if the work performed by the person consists of overseeing the business or is an occasional administrative task for the purposes of the business.

50 Performing paid work on a keeping in touch day

A day on which a person performs paid work for an entity on a day that would otherwise be a day of leave in a period of leave granted by that entity is a keeping in touch day if:

- (a) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the person to keep in touch with his or her employment or engagement in order to facilitate a return to that employment or engagement after the end of the period of leave; and

Section 50

- (b) both the person and the entity consent to the person performing work for the entity on that day; and
- (c) the day is not within 14 days after the day the child was born.

Division 1—Guide to this Part

51 Guide to this Part

This Part is about claims for parental leave pay. A person cannot be paid parental leave pay unless the person has first made a claim for it.

Division 2 sets out the rules about claims. There are 3 types of claims: a primary claim, a secondary claim and (in rare cases) a tertiary claim. These claims relate to each other, although the primary claim is the main one—a secondary or tertiary claim cannot be made without it. However, it will often be the only claim that is made. Section 54 sets out who can make a primary claim, a secondary claim or a tertiary claim.

The Secretary cannot make a payability determination on a claim unless it is an effective claim. To be effective, the claim must be made by the right person and satisfy the requirements in the provisions listed in section 55. One of those requirements is that the claim must be in the form, and contain the information, required by the Secretary (see section 56). Another requirement is that the claim must be made in the period set out in section 60.

Section 52

Division 2—Claims for parental leave pay

52 Who can claim

Only a natural person can make a claim.

53 Types of claims

- (1) There are 3 types of claims:
 - (a) a primary claim; and
 - (b) a secondary claim; and
 - (c) a tertiary claim.
- (2) A primary claim is a claim in the form approved by the Secretary for primary claims.
- (3) A secondary claim is a claim in the form approved by the Secretary for secondary claims.
- (4) A tertiary claim is a claim in the form approved by the Secretary for tertiary claims.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (2), (3) and (4), the Secretary may approve:
 - (a) different forms for different types of claims; and
 - (b) different forms for the same type of claim.

54 Who can make a primary claim, secondary claim or tertiary claim

Primary claim

- (1) Only the following people can make a primary claim for a child:
 - (a) the child's birth mother;
 - (b) an adoptive parent of the child;
 - (c) a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a primary claim can be made.

Secondary claim

- (2) Only the following people can make a secondary claim for a child:
 - (a) the partner of a primary claimant;
 - (b) a person who:
 - (i) is a parent of the child; and
 - (ii) is not the primary claimant;
 - (c) a partner of a person covered by paragraph (b);
 - (d) a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a secondary claim can be made.

Tertiary claim

- (3) Only a person who satisfies the circumstances prescribed by the PPL rules as being exceptional circumstances in which a tertiary claim can be made can make a tertiary claim for a child.

55 When a claim is effective

- (1) A claim is not effective unless the requirements of the following provisions that apply to the claim are satisfied:
 - (a) section 56 (which deals with the form etc. of the claim);
 - (b) section 57 (which deals with the nominated start date);
 - (c) section 58 (which deals with expected date of birth etc.);
 - (d) section 59 (which deals with tax file number statements);
 - (e) section 60 (which deals with when to make the claim).
- (2) A claim is also not effective if it is made by a person who cannot make that type of claim under section 54.
- (3) A claim that is not effective is taken not to have been made.

56 Requirements of the claim

- (1) The claim must:
 - (a) be made in the form approved, and the manner required, by the Secretary for that type of claim; and

Section 57

- (b) contain any information (including information about the claimant's employer or the claimant's employment with that employer) required by the Secretary; and
 - (c) be accompanied by any documents required by the Secretary.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(b) and (c), the Secretary may require that different information be contained in, and different documents accompany:
- (a) different types of claims; or
 - (b) different claims of the same type of claim.

57 Nominated start date

- (1) If the claim is a primary claim, the claim must state a specific date (the nominated start date) on which the primary claimant wants parental leave pay to start being paid.

Note 1: For the purposes of subsection (1), "6 months after the birth of the child" would not be a specific date. However, the "date of birth of the child" would be.

Note 2: Even though a primary claimant nominates a specific date, parental leave pay may not be payable from that date because, for example, the primary claimant has not verified the child's birth before that date: see subsection 11(4).

- (2) Before a payability determination is made on the primary claim, the primary claimant may change his or her nominated start date by notifying the Secretary of the new nominated start date.
- (3) If a payability determination is made that parental leave pay is payable to the primary claimant, the primary claimant may only change his or her nominated start date (the old date) by:
- (a) notifying the Secretary, before the old date, of the new nominated start date; and
 - (b) nominating a new nominated start date that is on or after the day the person notifies the Secretary of the change.

58 Expected date of birth and expected day of primary care

Primary claim

- (1) If the claim is a primary claim and it is made before the child's birth, the claim must specify the child's expected date of birth.

Secondary claim

- (2) If the claim is a secondary claim and it is made before the day the secondary claimant expects to become the child's primary carer, the claim must specify the day the claimant expects to become the child's primary carer.

59 Tax file number statement

- (1) The claim must contain the person's tax file number statement, which is a statement of the kind set out in subsection (2), (3) or (4).

Statement of tax file number

- (2) The first kind is a statement of the person's tax file number.

Statement that person does not know his or her tax file number

- (3) The second kind is a statement that the person:
 - (a) has a tax file number but does not know what it is; and
 - (b) has asked the Commissioner of Taxation to inform the person of his or her tax file number; and
 - (c) authorises the Commissioner of Taxation to tell the Secretary:
 - (i) whether the person has a tax file number; and
 - (ii) if the person has a tax file number—that number.

Statement that an application for a tax file number is pending

- (4) The third kind is a statement that the person:
 - (a) has an application for a tax file number pending; and
 - (b) authorises the Commissioner of Taxation to tell the Secretary:

A claim must be made in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day that is 97 days before the expected date of birth of the child; and
- (b) ends on the day before the child's first birthday.

61 Claim may be withdrawn or varied

- (1) After making an effective claim, the person may withdraw or vary the claim before a payability determination is made on it.
- (2) The person may only do so in a manner approved by the Secretary.
- (3) If a claim is withdrawn, it is taken never to have been made.

Chapter 3—Payment of parental leave pay

Part 3-1—Instalments of parental leave pay

Division 1—Guide to this Part

62 Guide to this Part

This Part is about instalments of parental leave pay.

Parental leave pay is payable in instalments for regular periods called instalment periods. Instalments are payable to a person if those instalment periods overlap with the person's PPL period.

Instalments are payable by either a person's employer (see Part 3-2) or the Secretary (see Part 3-3).

This Part also contains rules for working out the amount of an instalment and deals with the deductions that may be made from an instalment.

Division 2—Instalments of parental leave pay

63 Instalments of parental leave pay

- (1) Parental leave pay must be paid to a person in instalments.

Who pays an instalment

- (2) An instalment is payable to a person, in accordance with sections 72, 84, 85, 86 and 87, by either:
 - (a) the person's employer; or
 - (b) the Secretary.

When an instalment is payable

- (3) An instalment is payable to a person if one or more days (the PPL days) of an instalment period for the person fall within the person's PPL period.
- (4) An instalment becomes payable on the payday for the instalment.
- (5) More than one instalment may be paid to a person on a particular day.

64 A person's instalment period and the payday for an instalment

- (1) A person's instalment period, and the payday for an instalment that relates to an instalment period, are worked out according to the following rules.

Note: Sections 93 and 94 affect when an instalment period for a person starts and ends in certain circumstances.

Instalment to be paid by employer—regular pay period

- (2) If the instalment is to be paid by the person's employer and there is a regular period for which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work:
 - (a) the person's instalment period is each such regular period;and

- (b) the payday for the instalment is the day on which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work for the instalment period to which the instalment relates.

Instalment to be paid by employer—no regular pay period

- (3) If the instalment is to be paid by the person's employer and there is not a regular period for which the person would usually be paid in relation to the person's performance of work:
 - (a) the person's instalment period is each calendar month; and
 - (b) the payday for the instalment is the first day after the end of the instalment period to which the instalment relates.

Instalment to be paid by Secretary

- (4) If the instalment is to be paid by the Secretary:

- (2) The daily national minimum wage amount for a day is 7.6 times the amount of the national minimum wage (when expressed as a monetary amount per hour) set by a national minimum wage order that is in operation on that day (whether or not the order has also taken effect on that day).

Note: For when a national minimum wage order comes into operation, see section 287 of the Fair Work Act.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2):

Section 66

- (a) the national minimum wage is taken to be the wage set by the national minimum wage order for employees in relation to whom no exceptional circumstances exist (see subsection 287(2) of the Fair Work Act); and
- (b) if:
 - (i) Fair Work Australia makes a determination under section 296 of the Fair Work Act varying a national minimum wage order; and
 - (ii) the day the determination comes into operation under section 297 of that Act is earlier than the day the determination is made;the determination is taken to come into operation on the day the determination is made.

66 Protection of instalment

- (1) An instalment is absolutely inalienable, whether by way of, or in consequence of, sale, assignment, charge, execution, bankruptcy or otherwise.

Note: Section 97 (which deals with the effect of a garnishee etc. order) also provides a protection for an account into which an instalment has been paid.

- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to sections 67, 68 and 69 (which deal with deductions).

67 Deductions authorised by person

- (1) An employer or the Secretary may deduct an amount from an instalment that is payable to a person if the deduction is:
 - (a) authorised by the person; and

Note: A deduction by an employer in accordance with a salary sacrifice or other arrangement, under which a person chooses to:

- (4) Any variation in the amount of the authorised deduction must also be authorised in writing by the person.

68 Deductions for PAYG withholding

 - (ii) the employer determination was revoked because the Secretary was satisfied that the employer was insolvent.

- (2) The Secretary must pay the person the instalment, or the part of the instalment, on the payday for the next instalment that the Secretary is required to pay under subsection 84(4) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is revoked).

Note 1: If there is no instalment payable for a later instalment period, see section 95.

Note 2: See section 96 for when the Secretary is taken to have complied with this requirement.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not require the Secretary to pay the person all or part of an instalment to the extent that the instalment or the part of the instalment has been recovered under section 172 (which deals with debts owing by employers to employees).
- (4) To avoid doubt, this section applies whether or not the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to the person under subsection 84(4).

87 Payment of arrears—extending PPL period after review

- (1) The Secretary must pay a person each instalment that is taken to have become payable to the person under section 92 (which deals with the effect of extending a person's PPL period after a review).
- (2) The Secretary must pay the instalments as soon as practicable after the Secretary becomes required to pay the instalments.

88 Method of payment of instalment payable by Secretary

- (1) The Secretary must pay an instalment, or a part of an instalment, that the Secretary is required to pay to a person, to the credit of a bank account nominated and maintained by the person.
- (2) The Secretary may direct that the whole or a part of an instalment that the Secretary is required to pay a person is to be paid in a different way from that provided for by subsection (1). If the Secretary gives the direction, the instalment, or the part of the instalment, is to be paid in accordance with the direction.
- (3) A direction made under subsection (2) is not a legislative instrument.

Section 89

89 Giving person record of payment

If the Secretary pays an instalment, or part of an instalment, to or in relation to a person, in particular circumstances, the Secretary must give the person the information prescribed by the PPL rules in relation to instalments paid in those circumstances.

Part 3-4—General rules relevant to paying instalments

Division 1—Guide to this Part

90 Guide to this Part

This Part contains general rules that are relevant to the payment of instalments to a person, whether by the person's employer or the Secretary.

Some of those rules deem instalments to have become payable in certain circumstances (such as when an employer or the Secretary becomes required to pay instalments to a person after the person's PPL period has already started).

Other rules deal with the effect on a person's instalment periods of changing who is required to pay instalments to the person.

There are also rules that relate to what happens when an instalment cannot be paid on the day specified in this Act.

Finally, this Part deals with the interaction of this Chapter with certain Commonwealth, State and Territory laws.

Division 2—General rules relevant to paying instalments

91 Effect of the Secretary or employer becoming required to pay instalments after start of PPL period

If:

- (a) the Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) becomes required to pay an instalment to the person after the start of the person's PPL period; and
- (b) neither the Secretary nor the employer is otherwise required to pay an earlier instalment to the person; and
- (c) one or more instalments would have been payable to the person on the paydays for the instalments if the payer had been required to pay instalments from the start of the person's PPL period;

then the instalments referred to in paragraph (c) are taken to have become payable on the respective paydays for the instalments.

92 Effect of extending PPL period after review

If:

- (a) a person's PPL period ends; and
- (b) later, a decision in relation to a payability determination for the person is made that has the effect that the person's PPL period is extended by an additional period; and
- (c) one or more instalments that relate to instalment periods that overlap with the additional period would have been payable to the person on the paydays for the instalments if:
 - (i) the payability determination had always specified the extended PPL period; and
 - (ii) the Secretary had been required to pay the instalments; and
- (d) the Secretary is not otherwise required to pay the instalments;

then the instalments referred to in paragraph (c) are taken to have become payable on the respective paydays for the instalments.

93 Effect on instalment periods of employer determination coming into force after review

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the Secretary is required to pay an instalment to a person under subsection 84(3) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is reviewed); and
 - (b) the employer determination comes into force for the person and the person's employer on the transfer day referred to in that subsection.
- (2) The instalment period for the person for the last instalment payable by the Secretary is taken to end on the day before the transfer day.
- (3) The instalment period for the person for the first instalment payable by the employer is taken to start on the transfer day.

Note: Subsection (3) does not affect when the instalment period ends.

94 Effect on instalment periods of revocation etc.

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an employer determination has come into force for a person and the person's employer; and
 - (b) the Secretary becomes required to pay an instalment to the person under either of the following subsections for an instalment period that starts on or after the transfer day referred to in that subsection:
 - (i) subsection 84(4) (which deals with payment of instalments where an employer determination is revoked);
 - (ii) subsection 84(5) (which deals with payment of instalments where a matter is referred to the Fair Work Ombudsman relating to a failure to pay an instalment).
- (2) The instalment period for the person for the last instalment payable by the employer is taken to end on the day before the transfer day.
- (3) The instalment period for the person for the first instalment payable by the Secretary is taken to start on the transfer day.

Section 95

Note: Subsection (3) does not affect when the instalment period ends.

95 Paying instalment on payday for later instalment—no later instalment

If:

- (a) the Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) is required to pay an instalment to the person on the payday for an instalment for a later instalment period; and
- (b) that later instalment is not payable by the payer;

the payer must pay the instalment referred to in paragraph (a) on the day that would have been the payday for the later instalment if it had been payable by the payer.

96 Paying instalment on particular day—complying with obligation

The Secretary or a person's employer (the payer) is taken to have complied with a requirement to pay an instalment on a particular day if the payer pays the instalment:

- (a) before that day; or
- (b) if the payer cannot pay the instalment on that day—as soon as practicable after that day.

97 Effect of garnishee etc. order

(1) If:

- (a) an instalment is being paid, or has been paid, to the credit of an account; and
- (b) a court order in the nature of a garnishee order comes into force in relation to the account; the court order does not apply to the saved amount (if any) in the account.

(2) The saved amount is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the total amount of the instalments that have been paid to the credit of the account during the 4 week period immediately before the court order came into force.
- Step 2. Subtract from the step 1 amount the total amount withdrawn from the account during the same 4 week period: the result is the saved amount.

98 Exemption from operation of workers' compensation and accident compensation laws

- (1) The payment of an instalment of parental leave pay is not to be taken into account for the purposes of the following provisions or laws:
- (a) a provision of a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, if the provision deals with:
 - (i) workers' compensation; or
 - (ii) accident compensation;
 - (b) a law, or a provision of a law, prescribed by the PPL rules, to the extent that the law or provision deals with a matter referred to in paragraph (a).
- (2) The PPL rules may provide that subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a prescribed provision of a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

99 PPL period is not a period of paid leave

Despite any law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or any industrial instrument (however described), a period of unpaid leave is not to be taken to be a period of paid leave just because a person receives instalments of parental leave pay for all or part of that period.

Section 99A

99A Payment of paid parental leave does not affect other employer obligations

An obligation of an employer to pay a person parental leave pay under this Act is in addition to any other obligation the employer may have in relation to the person, however that other obligation might arise (including, for example, under another law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, or an industrial instrument (however described)).

Part 3-5—Employer determinations

Division 1—Guide to this Part

100 Guide to this Part

This Part is about employer determinations. If an employer determination is in force for an employer and a person, the employer must pay instalments to the person.

Under Division 2, the Secretary must make an employer determination if the Secretary is satisfied that certain conditions have been met. Not all of those conditions need to be satisfied for a person if the employer has made an election under Division 4 that applies to the person and the person consents to the employer paying the instalments.

If the Secretary makes an employer determination for a person and the person's employer, the employer must either:

- (a) give the Secretary certain information to enable the Secretary to pay the employer PPL funding amounts for the person; or
- (b) apply for review of the employer determination under Part 5-1 or 5-2.

Division 3 is about when an employer determination is in force. It includes rules about revoking employer determinations.

Under Division 4, an employer may elect to pay instalments to one or more employees.

Division 5 provides for the Secretary to give an employer for whom an employer determination has been made notice of certain other decisions under this Act.

Division 2—Making employer determinations

101 Making employer determinations

When Secretary must make employer determination

- (1) The Secretary must make a determination under this section (the employer determination) that a person's employer is to pay the person instalments if the Secretary is satisfied, when making the determination, that:
 - (a) a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person, or an initial eligibility determination for the person, is in force; and
 - (b) instalments are likely, if the determination is made, to be payable by the employer to the person for at least 40 consecutive PPL days that are week days; and
 - (c) the person has, or will have, been employed by the employer for at least 12 months immediately before:
 - (i) if the person's claim was made before the birth of the person's child—the expected date of birth of the child; or
 - (ii) if the person's claim was made after the birth of the person's child—the later of the expected date of birth of the child and the day the child was born; and
 - (d) the person is likely to be an Australian-based employee of the employer during whichever of the following periods applies:
 - (i) if the Secretary has made a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person—the person's PPL period;
 - (ii) otherwise—the period of days for which instalments are likely, if the determination is made, to be payable to the person by the employer; and
 - (e) the employer has an ABN; and
 - (f) if paragraphs (c) to (e) are satisfied in relation to more than one employer of the person (other than because of subsection (2))—the person nominated the employer in the claim as the employer who would be required to pay instalments to the person.

Effect of election by employer to pay instalments

- (2) Paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) do not apply in relation to a person if:
- (a) the person's employer has made an election under section 109 that applies to the person; and
 - (b) the person has consented in the claim to the employer paying instalments to the person.

When must employer determination be made

- (a) the Secretary is satisfied as referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (b) the employer determination is made on or before the day on which the payability determination referred to in paragraph (1)(a) is made.

Note: See section 106 for when the Secretary may, despite this subsection, make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer after the day referred to in paragraph (b).

When Secretary may decide not to make employer determination

- (4) Despite subsection (1), the Secretary may decide not to make an employer determination for a person and the person's employer if the Secretary is satisfied of all or any of the following:
- (a) the person's PPL period has ended;
 - (b) the person is a tertiary claimant;
 - (c) the child in relation to whom parental leave pay is payable to the person is stillborn or has died;
 - (d) both of the following apply:
 - (i) a primary claimant owes a debt to the Commonwealth in relation to amounts paid to, or in relation to, the primary claimant by way of instalments for a child;
 - (ii) the person is a secondary claimant for parental leave pay for the same child;
 - (e) the employer is not a fit and proper person.

Section 101

Matters relevant to whether employer is a fit and proper person

- (5) The Secretary may take into account the following matters in determining whether an employer is a fit and proper person:
- (a) whether the employer is insolvent;
 - (b) whether the employer has, or is alleged to have, contravened a civil penalty provision of this Act;
 - (c) whether a matter relating to a contravention of section 70 or Part 3-2 (which deal with unauthorised deductions and payment of instalments by an employer) by the employer has been referred to the Fair Work Ombudsman under section 143;

 - (e) subject to Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914, whether the employer has been convicted of an offence against this Act, or a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory that involves:
 - (i) fraud or dishonesty; or
 - (ii) the misapplication of money; or
 - (iii) the management of the affairs of a body (whether or not incorporated);
 - (f) any other matter the Secretary considers relevant.

Note: Part VIIC of the Crimes Act 1914 includes provisions that, in certain circumstances, relieve persons from the requirement to disclose spent convictions and require persons aware of such convictions to disregard them.

Secretary may assume state of affairs will not change

- (6) In deciding whether to make a determination under this section, the Secretary may act on the assumption that the state of affairs known to the Secretary when making the determination will remain unchanged.

102 Secretary must give notice of employer determination

- (1) If the Secretary makes an employer determination for a person and the person's employer, the Secretary must give the employer and the person a written notice advising them that the determination has been made.

- (2) The Fair Work Ombudsman may withdraw an infringement notice that has been given to a person by the Fair Work Ombudsman.
- (3) For a withdrawal to be effective, a written notice that withdraws the infringement notice must be given to the person within 42 days after the infringement notice was given to the person.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), a withdrawal may be effective if it is given to a person later than 42 days after an infringement notice is given to the person if the person has applied to a court for judicial review in relation to the making of an employer determination.

Refund of penalty if infringement notice withdrawn

- (5) The Commonwealth is liable to refund the amount of the penalty specified in an infringement notice if the infringement notice is withdrawn after the penalty has been paid.

161 What happens if the penalty is paid

- (1) Any liability of a person for an alleged civil penalty is discharged if:
 - (a) an infringement notice is given to the person in relation to the alleged civil penalty; and
 - (b) the penalty is paid in accordance with the infringement notice; and
 - (c) the infringement notice is not withdrawn.
- (2) In addition, proceedings under Division 3 must not be brought against the person for the alleged civil penalty.

162 Effect of this Division on civil proceedings

This Division does not:

- (a) require an infringement notice to be given in relation to an alleged civil penalty; or
- (b) affect the liability of a person to have proceedings under Division 3 brought against the person for an alleged civil penalty if:
 - (i) the person does not comply with an infringement notice relating to the contravention; or
 - (ii) an infringement notice relating to the contravention is not given to the person; or
 - (iii) an infringement notice relating to the contravention is given to the person and later withdrawn; or
- (c) limit the discretion of the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court to determine the amount of a penalty to be imposed on a person who is found in proceedings under Division 3 to have contravened a civil penalty provision.

163 Further provision in relation to infringement notices

The Minister may further provide in relation to infringement notices in the PPL rules.

Part 4-3—Debt recovery

Division 1—Guide to this Part

164 Guide to this Part

This Part provides for debts in relation to the parental leave pay scheme, and for the recovery of debts owing to the Commonwealth.

Division 2 provides for the main debts recoverable by the Commonwealth under this Act, as follows:

- (a) overpayments or mistaken payments of parental leave pay;
- (b) PPL funding amounts for a person that are not paid to the person as parental leave pay;
- (c) parental leave pay or PPL funding amounts paid to the wrong person.

Division 3 allows an employee to recover, as a debt, parental leave pay due from his or her employer.

Division 4 deals with the procedure for raising a debt that is recoverable by the Commonwealth under this Act, and charging interest on the debt. An administrative charge of $50 is also payable if interest is charged.

Division 5 deals with how the Commonwealth can recover debts.

Division 6 allows the Secretary to write off debts. Even if a debt is written off, it can be later recovered if circumstances change.

Division 7 allows the Secretary to waive debts in various circumstances.

Section 164

Division 8 provides that debts under this Act apply in relation to matters inside and outside Australia, and to all persons irrespective of nationality or citizenship.

Division 2—Main debts recoverable under this Act

165 Debts due to the Commonwealth

If an amount has been paid by way of parental leave pay or a PPL funding amount, the amount (or an amount equivalent to the amount) is a debt due to the Commonwealth only to the extent expressly provided for under:

- (a) this Act; or
- (b) the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990.

Note: The main debts due to the Commonwealth under this Act are provided for in this Division. Other debts due to the Commonwealth are provided for in the following provisions:

- (a) section 177 (which deals with interest);
- (b) section 179 (which imposes an administrative charge);
- (c) section 186 (which deals with non-compliance with garnishee notices).

166 Parental leave pay instalment debts—instalments paid by employer

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the total of amounts paid to a person (the first person) by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for another person for a child exceeds (by the PPL funding excess) the total of amounts payable to the first person as PPL funding amounts in relation to those instalments; and
 - (b) the first person pays an amount (the employer payment) to, or in relation to, the other person for the child by way of an instalment; and
 - (c) the total of employer payments paid for the child exceeds (by the instalment excess) the total of amounts that are payable by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person for the child as instalments under Division 2 of Part 3-2 (which deals with the payment of instalments by employers).

Note: Instalments may stop being payable with retrospective effect if a payability determination that parental leave is payable to the other person for the child is set aside or varied after the instalments are paid.

- (2) An amount equal to the lesser of the PPL funding excess and the instalment excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the other person.

Example: If no amounts are payable by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person for a child as instalments, the amount of the instalment excess is the total amount of the employer payments.

- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises:
- (a) if the other person has a PPL period for the child—immediately after the end of the person's PPL period; or
 - (b) otherwise—when subsection (1) starts to apply in relation to an employer payment.

Note 1: The other person does not have a PPL period for the child if a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the other person for the child has not been made, or has been set aside. In such a case, a debt will arise as soon as there is an instalment excess.

Note 2: This section may apply to overpayments by way of instalments or amounts that are mistakenly paid. For example, an overpayment or mistaken payment may arise due to administrative error, the setting aside or variation of a payability determination or payments following a stay order under subsection 41(2) of the AAT Act.

167 Parental leave pay instalment debts—instalments paid by Secretary

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the Secretary pays an amount (the Secretary payment) to, or in relation to, a person for a child by way of an instalment; and
 - (b) the total of Secretary payments paid for the child exceeds the total of amounts that are payable to, or in relation to, the person for the child as instalments under Part 3-3 (which deals with the payment of instalments by the Secretary).

Note: Instalments may stop being payable with retrospective effect if the payability determination is set aside or varied after the instalments are paid.

- (2) An amount equal to the amount of the excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the person.

Section 168

Example: If no amounts are payable to, or in relation to, a person for a child as instalments, the amount of the excess is the total amount of the Secretary payments.

- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises:
- (a) if the person has a PPL period for the child—immediately after the end of the person’s PPL period; or
 - (b) otherwise—when subsection (1) starts to apply in relation to a Secretary payment.

Note 1: The person does not have a PPL period for the child if a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person for the child has not been made, or has been set aside. In such a case, a debt will arise as soon as there is an excess as referred to in subsection (1).

Note 2: This section may apply to overpayments by way of instalments or amounts that are mistakenly paid. For example, an overpayment or mistaken payment may arise due to administrative error, the setting aside or variation of a payability determination or payments following a stay order under subsection 41(2) of the AAT Act.

168 PPL funding amount debts—amounts not paid as parental leave pay instalments

- (1) This section applies if the total of amounts paid to a person (the first person) by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for another person for a child exceeds the total of amounts paid by the first person to, or in relation to, the other person by way of such instalments for the child.
- (2) The amount of the excess is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the first person.

Example: If the first person has not paid any amounts by way of instalments to the other person, the amount of the excess is the total of amounts paid to the first person by way of PPL funding amounts in relation to instalments for the other person for the child.

- (3) The debt under subsection (2) arises:
- (a) if the other person has a PPL period for the child—at the earlier of the following times:
 - (i) when the Secretary pays one or more of the instalments to, or in relation to, the other person under section 85, 86 or 87 (which deal with the payment of arrears);

- (ii) immediately after the end of the other person's PPL period; or
- (b) otherwise—when subsection (1) starts to apply in relation to an amount paid to the first person.

Note 1: The other person does not have a PPL period for the child if a payability determination that parental leave pay is payable to the person for the child has not been made, or has been set aside. In such a case, a debt will arise as soon as there is an excess referred to in subsection (1).

Note 2: This section may apply to overpayments by way of PPL funding amounts or amounts that are mistakenly paid. For example, an overpayment or mistaken payment may arise due to administrative error or the revocation or setting aside of an employer determination.

169 Wrong person receives parental leave pay instalment or PPL funding amount

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) an instalment or a PPL funding amount (the PPL payment) is paid by the Secretary or an employer; and
 - (b) a person (the wrong recipient) other than the person (the right recipient) to whom the PPL payment is payable receives the PPL payment (or a part of it); and
 - (c) the wrong recipient is not authorised by the right recipient, or authorised under law, to receive the PPL payment (or that part).
- (2) An amount equal to the PPL payment (or that part of the PPL payment), is a debt due by the wrong recipient to:
 - (a) if the PPL payment is made by the Secretary—the Commonwealth; or
 - (b) if the PPL payment is made by an employer—the employer.

Note 1: Because the PPL payment (or part) has not been properly paid to the right recipient, the Secretary or the employer must repay to the right recipient the amount of the PPL payment that ought to have been paid to the right recipient in the first place.

Note 2: The Secretary may recover a debt due to the Commonwealth under this section from an ADI (see section 192).

Section 170

170 Joint and several liability for debts arising because of false and misleading statements

A person (the recipient) and another person are jointly and severally liable to pay a debt if:

- (a) the recipient is liable under this Division to repay an amount (the unauthorised amount) paid to, or in relation to, the recipient (or an amount equal to such an amount); and
- (b) the unauthorised amount was paid because the recipient contravened Part 7.4 of the Criminal Code (which deals with false and misleading statements); and
- (c) the other person is convicted of an offence:
 - (i) that is taken to have been committed in relation to that contravention because of section 11.2 or 11.2A of the Criminal Code (which deal with complicity, common purpose and joint commission); or
 - (ii) in relation to that contravention against section 11.4 or 11.5 of the Criminal Code (which deal with incitement and conspiracy).

171 Debts under the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990

An amount is recoverable by the Commonwealth if:

- (a) the amount has been paid to, or in relation to, a person by way of an instalment; and
- (b) the amount is a debt due to the Commonwealth under subsection 11(6) of the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990.

Division 3—Parental leave pay recoverable by employees from employers

172 PPL funding amount debts—debts owing by employers to employees

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a PPL funding amount is paid to an employer in relation to an instalment that is payable to a person; and
 - (b) the instalment, or part of the instalment, is not paid to, or in relation to, the person in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (i) section 70 (which deals with unauthorised deductions from instalments);
 - (ii) Division 2 of Part 3-2 (which deals with the payment of instalments by employers).
- (2) So much of the instalment as is not paid to, or in relation to, the person in accordance with section 70 and Division 2 of Part 3-2, or as arrears under section 85, 86 or 87, is a debt due to the person by the employer, and is recoverable by the person in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Division 4—Debt notices and interest on debts

173 Debt notices—initial notice

Requirement to give initial notice

- (1) If a debt due to the Commonwealth under this Act has not been wholly paid, the Secretary must give the debtor a notice stating the following:
 - (a) the date the preparation of the notice is completed (the date of the initial debt notice);
 - (b) for a debt under section 168 that relates to a PPL funding amount payable in relation to an instalment (or a debt under this Division in relation to such a debt)—the name of the person to whom, or in relation to whom, the instalment is payable;
 - (c) the reason the debt was incurred, including a brief explanation of the circumstances that led to the debt being incurred;
 - (d) the period to which the debt relates;
 - (e) the outstanding amount of the debt at the date of the initial debt notice;

 - (h) the contact details for inquiries concerning the debt.

Due date

- (2) The outstanding amount of the debt is due and payable on the 28th day after the date of the initial debt notice.

Combining initial and further debt notices

- (3) If a notice given under this section states the matters referred to in paragraphs 174(2)(e) and (f) (which relate to interest and an administrative charge), the notice is taken also to be a further debt notice given under section 174.

174 Debt notices—further debt notice if repayments not made

When a further debt notice may be given

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a person has been given a notice under section 173 for a debt; and

 - (c) the outstanding amount of the debt at the date of the further debt notice;
 - (d) the matters referred to in paragraphs 173(1)(f) to (h);
 - (e) the effect of sections 175, 176, 177 and 179 (which deal with interest and an administrative charge);
 - (f) how the interest under section 175 is to be calculated.

Note: A person may be taken to have been given a notice under this section by the giving of an initial notice under section 173 if the matters stated in paragraphs (2)(e) and (f) of this section are stated in the initial notice (see subsection 173(3)).

Section 175

- (5) If a person contravenes a condition, or conditions, of an interest exemption determination without reasonable excuse, the determination ceases to have effect from and including the day on which the contravention, or the earliest of the contraventions, occurred.
- (6) The Secretary may cancel or vary an interest exemption determination by written notice given to the person.

179 Administrative charge

- (f) deduction or setting off in relation to a payment to which the debtor (or another person) is entitled under another Act, but only if the other Act expressly provides for recovery of the debt by such deduction or setting off.

- Note: A debt can be recovered by deduction or set off in relation to other payments as follows:

Section 185

- (3) For the purposes of this section, if, apart from this subsection, money is not due or repayable on demand to the original debtor unless a condition is fulfilled, the money is taken to be due or repayable on demand, even though the condition has not been fulfilled.

- (4) The time for making a payment in compliance with a garnishee notice is the time stated in the notice, but not before:
- (a) the money concerned becomes due or is held; or

- (5) The Secretary must give a copy of a garnishee notice to the original debtor.

185 Garnishee notices—amounts paid in compliance

- (1) A person who makes a payment to the Commonwealth in compliance with a garnishee notice is taken to have made the payment under the authority of the original debtor and of any other person concerned.

- (1) This section applies if a garnishee fails to comply with the garnishee notice to the extent that the garnishee is capable of complying with it.
- (2) The amount of the debt outstanding (worked out under subsection (3)) is a debt due to the Commonwealth by the garnishee.

- (3) The amount of the debt outstanding is the amount equal to the lesser of the following amounts:

191 Deductions from instalments payable to another person

- (1) This section applies if an amount is deducted under subsection 67(2) from an instalment payable to a secondary claimant for a child, if the deduction is for the purposes of the recovery of a debt due to the Commonwealth by the primary claimant in relation to the same child.
- (2) The debt due to the Commonwealth by the primary claimant is reduced by an amount equal to the amount of the deduction.

192 Recovery from an ADI

 - (a) the amount of the instalment or PPL funding amount, as stated in the notice;
 - (b) the amount standing to the credit of the account when the notice is given to the ADI.
- (3) If the notice relates to a payment to a person who has died, as soon as possible after issuing the notice, the Secretary must inform the deceased estate in writing of:
 - (a) the amount sought to be recovered from the deceased person's account; and
 - (b) the reasons for the recovery action.

Offence for contravening notice

- (4) A body corporate commits an offence if:
 - (a) the body is an ADI; and
 - (b) the body is given a notice under subsection (2); and
 - (c) the body refuses or fails to comply with the notice.

Penalty: 300 penalty units.

Amount recovered reduces debt

- (5) Any amount recovered by the Commonwealth from an ADI under this section reduces the amount of a debt referred to in paragraph (1)(b).

Division 6—Writing off debts

193 When debts can be written off

General

- (1) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to write off, for a stated period or otherwise, a debt that is due to the Commonwealth under this Act.

Note: Debts recoverable by the Commonwealth under this Act are provided for by the following provisions:

- (a) Division 2 (which provides for the main debts recoverable under this Act);
- (b) sections 177, 179 and 186 (which provide for debts relating to interest and garnishee notices).

Write off conditions

- (2) The Secretary may decide to write off a debt under subsection (1) if, and only if:
- (a) the debt is irrecoverable at law; or
 - (b) the debtor has no capacity to repay the debt; or
 - (c) the debtor's whereabouts are unknown after all reasonable efforts have been made to locate the debtor; or
 - (d) it is not cost effective for the Commonwealth to take action to recover the debt.

When a debt is irrecoverable

- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a debt is taken to be irrecoverable at law if, and only if:
- (a) the debt cannot be recovered under Division 5, for example because a time limit for recovery action under that Division has elapsed; or
 - (b) there is no proof of the debt capable of sustaining legal proceedings for its recovery; or
 - (c) the debtor is discharged from bankruptcy or administration and the debt was incurred before the debtor became bankrupt or entered into administration, and was not incurred by fraud; or

Section 193

- (d) the debtor has died leaving no estate or not enough funds in the debtor's estate to repay the debt.

When a debtor has capacity to repay by deductions etc.

- (4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), a person is taken to have the capacity to repay a debt to which subsection (5) applies, unless recovery by those means would cause the person severe financial hardship.
- (5) This subsection applies to a debt if it could be recovered by deduction or setting off in relation to a payment to which the debtor is entitled under another Act.

When write off comes into operation

- (6) A decision under subsection (1) to write off a debt comes into operation:
- (a) if no day is stated in the decision—on the day the decision is made; or
- (b) if a day is stated in the decision—on the stated day (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).

Debt that has been written off may be recovered

- (7) Nothing in this section prevents anything being done at any time to recover a debt that has been written off under this section.

Division 7—Waiver of debts

194 Waiver of debts—general

- (1) This Division applies to debts that are due to the Commonwealth under this Act.

Note: Debts recoverable by the Commonwealth under this Act are provided for by the following provisions:

- (a) Division 2 (which provides for the main debts recoverable under this Act);
 - (b) sections 177, 179 and 186 (which provide for debts relating to interest and garnishee notices).
- (2) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to waive the Commonwealth's right to recover the whole or a part of a debt, but only if required or allowed to do so under another provision of this Division.
- (3) A decision to waive the right to recover a debt (or a part of a debt) comes into operation:
- (a) if no day is stated in the decision—on the day the decision is made; or
 - (b) if a day is stated in the decision—on the stated day (whether that day is before, after or on the day on which the decision is made).

195 Waiver of debts—administrative error

The Secretary must waive the right to recover so much of a debt as is attributable solely to an administrative error made by the Commonwealth, or an agent of the Commonwealth, if:

- (a) the debtor received in good faith the payment or payments that gave rise to that proportion of the debt; and
- (b) the debtor would suffer severe financial hardship if it were not waived.

196 Waiver of debts—arising from offence

The Secretary must waive the right to recover so much of a debt as arises from an offence, if:

- (a) the debtor is convicted of the offence; and
- (b) the court indicated in sentencing the debtor that it imposed a longer custodial sentence on the debtor because he or she was unable or unwilling to pay the debt.

197 Waiver of debts—small debts

- (1) The Secretary must waive the right to recover a debt if:
 - (a) the debt is, or is likely to be, less than $200; and
 - (b) it is not cost effective for the Commonwealth to take action to recover the debt.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the debt is at least $50 and could be recovered by deduction or setting off in relation to a payment to which the debtor is entitled under another Act.

198 Waiver of debts—settlement of civil actions

Settlement of civil action

- (1) If the Commonwealth has agreed to settle a civil action against a debtor for recovery of a debt for less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.

Settlement of proceedings before the AAT

- (2) If the Secretary has agreed to settle proceedings before the AAT relating to recovery of a debt on the basis that the debtor will pay less than the full amount of the debt, the Secretary must waive the right to recover the difference between the debt and the amount that is the subject of the settlement.

Note: See section 263 (which deals with settlement of proceedings before the AAT).

Section 198

Waiver where at least 80% of debt recovered and debtor cannot pay more

- (3) If:
- (a) the Commonwealth has recovered at least 80% of the original value of a debt from a debtor; and
 - (b) the Commonwealth and the debtor agree that the recovery is in full satisfaction for the whole of the debt; and
 - (c) the debtor cannot repay a greater proportion of the debt;
- the Secretary must waive the right to recover the remaining 20% or less of the value of the original debt.

Agreement for part payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

- (4) If the Secretary and a debtor agree that the debtor's debt will be fully satisfied if the debtor pays the Commonwealth an agreed amount less than the amount (the unpaid amount) of the debt outstanding when the agreement is made, the Secretary must, if the agreed amount is paid, waive the right to recover the difference between the unpaid amount and the agreed amount.

Limits on agreement to accept part payment in satisfaction of outstanding debt

- (5) The Secretary must not make an agreement described in subsection (4) unless the Secretary is satisfied that the agreed amount is at least the present value of the unpaid amount if it is repaid in instalments of amounts, and at times, determined by the Secretary.

Working out present value of unpaid amount

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), the present value of the unpaid amount is the amount worked out in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Annual repayment}}{\text{Settlement interest}} \times \left[1 - \frac{1}{\left(1 + \text{Settlement interest}\right)^p} \right]$$

where:

annual repayment is the amount of the debt that the Secretary believes would be recovered under Division 5 in a year if subsection (4) did not apply in relation to the debt.

rp (short for repayment period) is the number of years needed to repay the unpaid amount if repayments equal to the annual repayment were made each year.

settlement interest is an annual rate of interest prescribed for the purposes of this subsection by the PPL rules.

199 Waiver of debts—special circumstances

The Secretary may waive the right to recover all or part of a debt if the Secretary is satisfied that:

- (a) the debt did not result wholly or partly from the debtor or another person knowingly:
 - (i) making a false or misleading statement or representation; or
 - (ii) failing or omitting to comply with a provision of this Act; and
- (b) there are special circumstances (other than financial hardship alone) that make it desirable to waive the debt (or part); and
- (c) it is more appropriate to waive the debt (or part) than to write off the debt (or part).

200 Waiver of debts—determined classes

- (1) The Secretary may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, decide to waive the Commonwealth's right to recover debts (or parts of debts) that are included in a class of debts determined by the Minister by legislative instrument.
- (2) A determination under subsection (1) may state:
 - (a) conditions to be met before the Secretary exercises the power to waive the debts (or parts); and
 - (b) limits on the amounts of the debts to be waived.

Chapter 4 Compliance and enforcement

Part 4-3 Debt recovery

Division 7 Waiver of debts

Section 200

 - (b) if a day is stated in the decision—on the stated day (whether before, after or on the day the decision is made).

Division 8—Miscellaneous

- (a) acts, omissions, matters and things outside Australia, whether or not in a foreign country; and
- (b) all persons, irrespective of their nationality or citizenship.

Note: Section 171 provides for debts under the Data-matching Program (Assistance and Tax) Act 1990.

Chapter 5—Review of decisions

Part 5-1—Internal review of decisions

Division 1—Guide to this Part

202 Guide to this Part

This Part is about the internal review of decisions of officers under this Act.

Division 2 sets out 3 kinds of internal review of those decisions.

The first kind of review is where the Secretary, on his or her own initiative, reviews those decisions.

The second kind of review is where a person whose interests are affected by certain decisions (which are “claimant decisions”) applies for internal review of the decision.

The third kind of review is where an employer applies for internal review of certain decisions that affect the employer (those decisions are “employer determination decisions” and “employer funding amount decisions”). Employer determination decisions can only be reviewed on application, and not on the Secretary’s own initiative.

Division 2—Internal review of decisions

203 Internal review—own-initiative review by Secretary

- (1) The Secretary may, on his or her own initiative, review a decision of an officer under this Act if the Secretary is satisfied that there is enough reason to review the decision.
- (2) However, the Secretary must not, on his or her own initiative, review a decision of an officer under section 101 to make an employer determination.

Note 1: An employer may apply for review of a decision to make an employer determination (see section 207).

Note 2: For revocation of employer determinations, see section 108.

- (3) The Secretary may review a decision:
 - (a) whether or not any person has applied for review of the decision; and
 - (b) even though an application has been made to the SSAT or the AAT for review of the decision.
- (4) On review of a decision, the Secretary may:
 - (a) affirm the decision; or
 - (b) vary the decision; or
 - (c) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision.
- (5) A reference in subsection (1) to a decision of an officer under this Act includes a reference to a determination that the Secretary is taken, because of a provision of this Act, to have made.

204 Internal review—own-initiative review and tribunal review

- (1) The Secretary must give the Principal Member written notice of a decision under subsection 203(4) if, when the Secretary makes the decision, an application has been made to the SSAT for review in relation to the decision that was reviewed by the Secretary.

Section 205

- (2) The Secretary must give the Registrar of the AAT written notice of a decision under subsection 203(4) if, when the Secretary makes the decision, an application has been made to the AAT for review in relation to the decision that was reviewed by the Secretary.

205 Internal review—review following application

- (1) If an application is made under section 206, 207 or 208 for review of a decision, the Secretary or an authorised review officer must:
- (a) review the decision; and
 - (b) do one of the following:
 - (i) affirm the decision;
 - (ii) vary the decision;
 - (iii) set the decision aside and substitute a new decision.
- (2) However, an authorised review officer must not, under subsection (1), review a decision relating to the exercise of the Secretary's power under section 263 (settlement of proceedings before the AAT).

206 Internal review—application for review of claimant decision

Claimant decisions

- (1) This section applies to a decision of an officer under this Act, unless the decision is:
- (a) a decision under Part 3-2 (which deals with the payment of instalments by employer); or
 - (b) a decision under Part 3-5 (which deals with employer determinations); or
 - (c) a decision under Part 4-2 (which deals with compliance); or
 - (d) a decision under the PPL rules, if the PPL rules state that this section does not apply to the decision; or
 - (e) a decision under the regulations, if the regulations state that this section does not apply to the decision.
- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to a decision of an officer under this Act includes a reference to a determination that the Secretary is taken, because of a provision of this Act, to have made.

- (3) A decision to which this section applies is a claimant decision.

Application for review

- (4) A person whose interests are affected by a claimant decision may apply to the Secretary for review of the decision, unless the decision was made personally by a PPL agency head.
- (5) An application under subsection (4) may only be made:
- (a) within 28 days after the day the decision was made; or
 - (b) if the Secretary is satisfied that a longer period should apply—within the longer period.
- (6) A person cannot make an application under subsection (4) in the person's capacity as an employer.

207 Internal review—application for review of employer determination decision

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a decision (an employer determination decision) of an officer under section 101 to make an employer determination.
- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to a decision of an officer includes a reference to a determination that the Secretary is taken, because of a provision of this Act, to have made.

Application

- (3) An employer may apply, in writing, to the Secretary for review of an employer determination decision that relates to the employer and a person if the employer believes that:
- (a) both:
 - (i) a condition in paragraph 101(1)(b) or (c) is not satisfied in relation to the employer determination; and
 - (ii) the employer has not made an election under section 109 that applies to the person; or

Section 207

(b) a condition in paragraph 101(1)(d) or (e) is not satisfied in relation to the employer determination.

Note 1: The conditions in paragraphs 101(1)(b) to (e) relate to the employment by an employer of someone to whom parental leave pay is payable.

Note 2: Section 109 allows an employer to elect to pay instalments to an employee, a class of employees or all employees of the employer. Subsection 101(2) deals with the application of paragraphs 101(1)(b) and (c) if the employer has made an election under section 109 that applies to the person.

(4) However, the employer cannot make an application under subsection (3) for review of an employer determination decision that was made personally by a PPL agency head.

(5) An application under subsection (3) may only be made within the 14 day period referred to in section 103.

Note: Section 103 requires an employer for which an employer determination has been made to, within a 14 day period, either provide a notice to the Secretary accepting the determination or apply for review of the employer determination.

(6) An application under subsection (3) must:

(a) specify the condition or conditions that the employer believes are not satisfied; and

(b) if paragraph (3)(a) applies to the application—state whether the employer believes that an election under section 109 applies to the person; and

(c) be signed by a person authorised by the employer; and

(d) be accompanied by:

(i) documentary evidence supporting the application; or

(ii) if the applicant is unable to provide documentary evidence—a statutory declaration supporting the application.

(7) The disclosure of personal information (within the meaning of the Privacy Act 1988) for the purposes of making an application under subsection (3) is taken to be authorised by law for the purposes of:

(a) the Privacy Act 1988; and

(b) any provision of a law of a State or a Territory that provides that personal information may be used or disclosed if the use or disclosure is authorised by law.

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a decision of an officer under section 75 to pay a PPL funding amount to an employer.
- (2) A reference in subsection (1) to a decision of an officer includes a reference to a determination that the Secretary is taken, because of a provision of this Act, to have made.
- (3) A decision to which this section applies is an employer funding amount decision.

Application

- (4) An employer may apply, in writing, to the Secretary for review of an employer funding amount decision that relates to the employer if:
 - (a) the employer believes that the Secretary has contravened subsection 75(3) in relation to the decision; and
 - (b) the decision was not made personally by a PPL agency head.
- Note: Subsection 75(3) requires the Secretary to pay a PPL funding amount to an employer within a certain time.
- (5) An application under subsection (4) must be signed by a person authorised by the employer.
 - (6) An application under subsection (4) in relation to a PPL funding amount may only be made within 14 days after the second payroll cut-off referred to in subsection 75(3) in relation to the PPL funding amount.

209 Internal review—withdrawal of application

- (1) A person or an employer who has applied to the Secretary for review of a decision may withdraw the application at any time before the review has been completed.
- (2) If an application for review of a decision, other than an application under section 207 (which deals with application for review of employer determination decisions), is withdrawn, the application is taken never to have been made.

- (3) An application may be withdrawn orally or in writing or in any other manner approved by the Secretary.

210 Internal review—when decision made on review comes into force

- (1) A decision under subsection 203(4) or paragraph 205(1)(b) (the review decision) to vary a decision or to set aside a decision and substitute a new decision comes into force on the day that would give full effect to the review decision.
- (2) However, a decision comes into force immediately on the giving of the decision if it is a decision under subsection 203(4) or paragraph 205(1)(b) to:
 - (a) vary an employer determination decision or an employer funding amount decision; or
 - (b) set aside an employer determination decision or an employer funding amount decision and substitute a new decision.

211 Internal review—notice of decision on review of claimant decision

Notice

- (2) The decision-maker must give written notice of the decision to:
 - (a) any natural person (other than an employer) if the decision-maker is satisfied that his or her interests are affected by the decision; and
 - (b) for a decision under paragraph 205(1)(b) in response to an application—the applicant.

Section 212

- (3) If the decision relates to a child, the decision-maker must also give written notice of the decision to:
- (a) any natural person who has made a claim in relation to the child; and
 - (b) any natural person who has notified the Secretary that he or she intends to make a claim in relation to the child, if the decision-maker is satisfied that the claim has or would have a reasonable prospect of success.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2) or (3) given to a person in relation to a decision must include:
- (a) a statement to the effect that the person may, subject to this Act, apply to the SSAT for review of the decision; and
 - (b) a statement to the effect that, if the person is dissatisfied with the decision of the SSAT, application may, subject to the AAT Act, be made to the AAT for review of the decision of the SSAT.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to a decision referred to in subsection 215(2).
- Note: Subsection 215(2) excludes certain claimant decisions from SSAT review.
- (6) A notice under subsection (2) or (3) given to a particular person in relation to a decision may also, if the decision-maker considers it appropriate, include a statement that does one or more of the following, in whole or in part:
- (a) sets out the reasons for the decision;
 - (b) sets out the findings by the decision-maker on material questions of fact;
 - (c) refers to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based.

212 Internal review—notice of decision relating to employer

Scope

- (1) This section applies if a person (the decision-maker) makes a decision under subsection 203(4) or paragraph 205(1)(b) in relation to:

Section 212

- (a) an employer funding amount decision; or
 - (b) any other decision under Part 3-2 (which deals with payment of instalments by employers); or

 - (d) any other decision under Part 3-5 (which deals with employer determinations); or
 - (e) a decision under Part 4-2 (which deals with compliance); or
 - (f) any other decision under this Act that directly affects the interests of an employer.
- (2) To avoid doubt, paragraph (1)(f) does not apply to a decision if the only effect of the decision on the interests of an employer is that the decision could result in an employer determination for the employer being made, varied, set aside or revoked.

Notice

- (3) The decision-maker must give written notice of the decision to the employer concerned.
- (4) The notice must include a statement that:
- (a) sets out the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) sets out the findings by the decision-maker on material questions of fact; and

- (2) If the SSAT does not give a written statement to a party under subparagraph (1)(c)(ii), the party may, within 14 days after the copy of the initial statement is given to the party, make a written request of the SSAT for such a statement.
- (3) A PPL agency head may also make a written request of the SSAT for a written statement referred to in subparagraph (1)(c)(ii) if:

- (a) the SSAT has not given such a statement to the PPL agency head; and
 - (b) a person applies to the AAT under section 261 for review of the decision of the SSAT on the review referred to in subsection (1).

- (a) prepare a written statement that:

Division 10—Correction of errors in decisions or statements of reasons

258 Correction of errors in decisions or statements of reasons

Correction of errors

- (1) If:
 - (a) the SSAT makes a decision on a review; and
 - (b) the presiding member of the SSAT as constituted for the purposes of the review, or the Principal Member, is satisfied that there is an obvious error in:
 - (i) the text of the decision; or
 - (ii) a written statement of reasons for the decision;the presiding member or the Principal Member may alter the text of the decision or statement.
- (2) If the text of a decision or statement is altered under subsection (1), the altered text is taken to be the decision of the SSAT or the statement of reasons for the decision (as the case may be).

Examples of obvious errors

- (3) Examples of obvious errors in the text of a decision or statement of reasons are:
 - (a) an obvious clerical or typographical error in the text of the decision or statement; and
 - (b) an inconsistency between the decision and the statement.

Division 11—Appeals and references of questions of law from the SSAT to the Federal Court

259 Appeals and references of questions of law in relation to SSAT review of employer decisions

Scope

- (1) This section applies to proceedings before the SSAT for review of an SSAT reviewable employer decision (SSAT employer proceedings).

Object

- (2) The object of this section is to allow SSAT employer proceedings to be subject to judicial review as if they were proceedings before the AAT.
- (3) In order to achieve this object, this section is intended to allow:
 - (a) a party to SSAT employer proceedings to appeal to the Federal Court, on a question of law, from any decision of the SSAT in those proceedings; and
 - (b) a question of law arising in SSAT employer proceedings to be referred to the Federal Court for decision.

Modification of AAT Act

- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), Part IVA of the AAT Act applies in relation to SSAT employer proceedings as if:
 - (a) references to the Tribunal in that Part were references to the SSAT; and
 - (b) paragraph 44(2A)(a) of the AAT Act allowed an appeal to be instituted within the time prescribed by rules of court made under the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976, or such further time as is allowed under those rules; and
 - (c) the reference to section 43AA of the AAT Act in paragraph 44(2B)(b) of that Act were a reference to section 258 of this

Section 259

Act (which allows correction of errors in decisions or statements of reasons); and

- (d) the reference to the President in paragraph 45(1)(a) of the AAT Act were a reference to the Principal Member; and
- (e) any other necessary changes were made.

Note 1: Paragraph 44(2A)(a) of the AAT Act sets a time limit within which an appeal must be instituted, unless the Federal Court allows further time to appeal.

Note 2: Paragraph 44(2B)(b) of the AAT Act provides that the Federal Court may allow further time to appeal if the text of a decision or a statement of reasons for a decision has been altered under section 43AA of the AAT Act (which allows errors to be corrected).

Note 3: Paragraph 45(1)(a) of the AAT Act requires the President of the AAT to concur before the AAT can refer a question of law arising in proceedings before the AAT to the Federal Court.

- (5) However, the following provisions of Part IVA of the AAT Act do not apply in relation to SSAT employer proceedings:
 - (a) subsection 44(2) (which allows certain appeals about standing before the AAT to be made);
 - (b) paragraphs 44(3)(b) and (c) (which require appeals to be heard by the Full Court of the Federal Court in some circumstances);
 - (c) subsection 44AA(2) (which prevents appeals being transferred to the Federal Magistrates Court in some circumstances).

Part 5-4—Review of claimant decisions by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal

Division 1—Guide to this Part

260 Guide to this Part

This Part is about how the Secretary or people whose interests are affected by a decision of the Social Security Appeals Tribunal (SSAT) may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) for review of the SSAT's decision. Employers may not seek AAT review of SSAT decisions.

Division 2 allows an application to be made for AAT review of a decision. It also sets out what happens if the SSAT's decision is varied after an application is made to the AAT, and allows the Secretary to settle proceedings relating to the recovery of a debt.

Division 3 modifies the AAT Act for the purposes of reviews of decisions made under this Act.

Division 2—Right to review by AAT

261 Review of decisions by AAT

- (1) The Secretary or a person whose interests are affected by a decision of the SSAT to affirm, vary or set aside an SSAT reviewable claimant decision may apply to the AAT for review of the decision of the SSAT.

 - (c) where the SSAT sets aside an SSAT reviewable claimant decision and substitutes a new decision—the new decision; and

- (b) the application were an application for review of the decision as varied.
- (2) If an officer sets a decision aside and substitutes a new decision after an application has been made under section 261 to the AAT for review of the original decision but before the determination of the application, the application must be treated as if:
 - (a) the SSAT had set aside the original decision and substituted the new decision; and
 - (b) the application were an application for review of the new decision.
- (3) If:
 - (a) a person applies to the AAT for review of a decision under section 261; and
 - (b) before determination of the review, an officer varies the decision or sets the decision aside and substitutes a new decision;the applicant may, instead of proceeding with the application under subsection (1) or (2), withdraw the application.

263 Settlement of proceedings before the AAT

- (1) The Secretary may agree with other parties to proceedings before the AAT that relate to the recovery of a debt that the proceedings be settled. The agreement must be in writing.

Division 3—Modification of AAT Act in relation to section 261 review applications

265 Parties to a review by the AAT

 - (b) if the decision that was reviewed by the SSAT was made by the CEO or an employee of Medicare Australia—the CEO of Medicare Australia;
 - (c) otherwise—the Secretary.
- (2) If a person applies to the AAT under section 261 for review of a decision, the deemed decision-maker is taken to have complied with his or her obligations under paragraph 37(1)(a) of the AAT Act in relation to the decision if he or she gives the AAT the required number of copies of:

Section 274

Chapter 6—Miscellaneous

Part 6-1—How this Act applies in particular circumstances

Division 1—Guide to this Part

274 Guide to this Part

This Part has rules that modify this Act so that it applies correctly in 3 limited kinds of cases—adoption, claims made in exceptional circumstances etc. and Commonwealth employment.

Division 2 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly for adopted children under 16. For example, where a provision of this Act refers to the day a child was born, Division 2 modifies that provision so that, when applying that provision to the adopted child, the provision has the effect of referring to the day of placement of the adopted child (instead of the day the adopted child was born).

Division 3 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly for claims that are made in exceptional circumstances and other special cases. For example, where a provision of this Act refers to the day a child was born, Division 3 modifies that provision so that, when applying that provision in relation to a claim that is made in exceptional circumstance, the provision has the effect of referring to the day the claimant became the child's primary carer (instead of the day the child was born).

Division 4 modifies this Act so that it applies correctly to Commonwealth employment.

Division 2—How this Act applies to an adopted child

275 How this Act applies to an adopted child

- (1) This Act applies in relation to an adopted child that satisfies the requirements of subsection (2) as if:

 - (b) a reference to the day the child was born were a reference to the day of placement of the child; and
 - (c) a reference to the expected date of birth of the child were a reference to the expected day of placement of the child; and
 - (d) a reference to a child's first birthday were a reference to the first anniversary of the day of placement of the child; and
 - (e) a reference to a completed birth verification form for a child were a reference to information required by the Secretary about the adoption of the child; and
 - (f) a reference to a child being born during the same multiple birth were a reference to the child being adopted during the same multiple adoption.

When a child satisfies this subsection

- (2) A child satisfies the requirements of this subsection if:
 - (a) as part of the process for the adoption of the child by a person, the child is, or is to be, entrusted to the care of the person by an authorised party; and
 - (b) the child is, or will be, under 16 on the day of placement of the child.

Meaning of day of placement

- (3) The day of placement of a child with a person is the day on which, as part of the process for the adoption of a child by a person, the child is entrusted to the care of the person by an authorised party.

Division 3—How this Act applies to claims made in exceptional circumstances and other cases

- (b) a reference to the day the child was born were a reference to the day the claimant became the child's primary carer; and
- (c) a reference to the expected date of birth of the child were a reference to the day the claimant expects to become the child's primary carer; and

- (f) a reference to a child being born during the same multiple birth were a reference to the claimant becoming the primary carer of the child at the same time as becoming the primary carer of another child.

277 Primary carers when a child is stillborn or dies

- (1) If:
 - (a) a claim is made for parental leave pay for a child; and
 - (b) before or after the claim is made, the child is stillborn or dies;then this Act (other than sections 31 and 47) applies as if a reference to the claimant becoming or being the child's primary carer were a reference to the claimant having become or been the child's primary carer had the child not been stillborn or died.

Section 277

Note: Section 31 deals with eligibility for parental leave pay and section 47 defines who is a primary carer.

- (2) The PPL rules may modify the operation of subsection (1).

Division 4—How this Act applies to Commonwealth employment

278 How this Act applies to Commonwealth employment
