   (a) that appropriate protocols are in place:
       (i) to enable proper consent to be obtained before an excess ART embryo or human egg is used, or other embryo is created or used under the licence (see paragraph 24(1)(a)); and
       (ii) to enable compliance with any restrictions on such consent;
   (b) if the use of an excess ART embryo proposed in the application may damage or destroy the embryo—that appropriate protocols are in place to enable compliance with the condition that such use is authorised only in respect of an embryo created before 5 April 2002 (see subsection 24(3));
   (c) that the activity or project proposed in the application has been assessed and approved by a HREC that is constituted in accordance with, and acting in compliance with, the NHMRC National Statement on Ethical Conduct in Research Involving Humans (1999), as in force from time to time.

   (b) the likelihood of significant advance in knowledge or improvement in technologies for treatment as a result of the use of excess ART embryos or human eggs, or the creation or use of other embryos, proposed in the application, which could not reasonably be achieved by other means;
   (c) any relevant guidelines, or relevant parts of guidelines, issued by the CEO of the NHMRC under the National Health and
22 Notification of decision

   (b) the HREC that assessed and approved the activity or project proposed in the application as mentioned in paragraph 21(3)(c);

(2) If the NHMRC Licensing Committee decides to issue the licence, it must, in addition to issuing the licence to the applicant, give a copy of the licence to the bodies mentioned in paragraphs (1)(b) and (c).

23 Period of licence

(1) A licence:
   (a) comes into force on the day specified in the licence, or if no day is specified, on the day on which it is issued; and
   (b) remains in force until the day specified in the licence, unless it is suspended, revoked or surrendered before that day.

(2) A licence is not in force throughout any period of suspension.

24 Licence is subject to conditions [see Note 1]

(1) A licence is subject to the condition that before an excess ART embryo or human egg is used, or any other embryo is created or used, as authorised by the licence:
   (a) each responsible person in relation to the excess ART embryo, human egg or other embryo must have given proper consent to that creation or use; and
(b) the licence holder must have reported in writing to the NHMRC Licensing Committee that such consent has been obtained, and any restrictions to which the consent is subject.

(2) A licence is subject to the condition that the use of an excess ART embryo or human egg, or the creation or use of any other embryo, must be in accordance with any restrictions to which the proper consent under subsection (1) is subject.

(3) If a licence authorises the use of an excess ART embryo that may damage or destroy the embryo, the licence is subject to the condition that such use is authorised only in respect of an embryo created before 5 April 2002.

(4) A licence is subject to such other conditions as are specified in the licence.

(5) The conditions specified in the licence may include, but are not limited to, conditions relating to the following:
   (a) the persons authorised by the licence to use excess ART
   embryos or human eggs, or create or use other embryos;
   (b) the number of excess ART embryos or human eggs to all persons who are authorised by the licence to use excess ART embryos or human eggs, or to create or use other embryos.

(7) Licence conditions specified in the licence apply to:
   (a) the licence holder; and
   (b) such other persons authorised by the licence to use excess
       ART embryos or human eggs, or to create or use other embryos as are specified in the licence.

(8) For the purposes of applying the condition referred to in paragraph (1)(a):

20 Research Involving Human Embryos Act 2002
(a) a licence may provide that the guidelines referred to in the definition of proper consent apply in a modified form in relation to the use, under the licence, of excess ART embryos that are unsuitable for implantation; and
(b) if a licence so provides, the guidelines as modified by the licence have effect in relation to the giving of consent for such creation or use.

Note: For example, the guidelines could apply to a particular licence in a modified form, to alter the cooling-off period required in relation to the use of excess ART embryos that are unsuitable for implantation.

25 Variation of licence

(1) The NHMRC Licensing Committee may, by notice in writing given to the licence holder, vary a licence if the Committee believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary or desirable to do so.

(2) The NHMRC Licensing Committee may vary a licence under subsection (1) on its own initiative or on application by the licence holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the NHMRC Licensing Committee may vary the licence by specifying additional conditions or varying existing conditions.

(4) The NHMRC Licensing Committee must not vary a licence in such a way that, had a person applied under section 20 for the licence as varied, the Committee would not have been permitted by this Part to issue the licence.

26 Suspension or revocation of licence

(1) The NHMRC Licensing Committee may, by notice in writing given to the licence holder, suspend or revoke a licence if the Committee believes on reasonable grounds that a condition of the licence has been breached.

(2) If a licence holder is convicted of an offence under this Act or the Prohibition of Human Cloning Act 2002, the NHMRC Licensing Committee must, by notice in writing given to the licence holder, revoke each licence held by the licence holder.

36 Monitoring powers

(1) The monitoring powers that an inspector may exercise under paragraph 35(1)(b) are as follows:

      (i) answer any questions put by the inspector; and
      (ii) produce any book, record or document requested by the inspector.
(2) For the purposes of this Part, monitoring powers include the power to operate equipment at premises to see whether:

(a) operate equipment or facilities at the premises to put the information in documentary form and copy the document so produced; or
(b) if the information can be transferred to a tape, disk or other storage device that:

37 Power to secure

If an inspector, during a search of premises, believes on reasonable grounds that there is at the premises a human embryo, another embryo, a human egg or a thing that may afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act, the monitoring powers include securing the embryo, the egg or the thing pending the obtaining of a warrant (whether by the inspector or by another person) to seize it.

37A Monitoring warrants

(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to premises.
Section 37B

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied by information on oath or affirmation that it is reasonably necessary that one or more inspectors should have access to the premises for the purposes of finding out whether this Act or the regulations have been complied with.

(3) The magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the inspector or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

(4) The warrant must:
   (a) authorise one or more inspectors (whether or not named in the warrant) with such assistance and by such force as is necessary and reasonable:

(b) give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.

37D  Occupier entitled to be present during search

(1) If a warrant under section 37A is being executed and the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier is present at the premises, the person is entitled to observe the search being conducted.

(2) The right to observe the search being conducted ceases if the person impedes the search.

(3) This section does not prevent 2 or more areas of the premises being searched at the same time.

38  Inspector must produce identity card on request

An inspector is not entitled to exercise any powers under this Part in relation to premises if:
(a) the occupier of the premises has required the inspector to produce his or her identity card for inspection by the occupier; and
(b) the inspector fails to comply with the requirement.

39  Consent

(1) Before obtaining the consent of a person for the purposes of paragraph 35(2)(a), the inspector must inform the person that he or she may refuse consent.

(1) The owner of equipment or other facilities is entitled to compensation for damage to the equipment or other facilities if:
(a) the damage was caused to the equipment or other facilities as a result of it being operated by an inspector as mentioned in this Part; and
(b) the damage was caused as a result of insufficient care being exercised by the inspector operating the equipment or other facilities.

(2) Compensation is payable out of money appropriated by the Parliament.

(3) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises and his or her employees and agents, if they were available at the time, had provided any warning or guidance as to the operation of the equipment or other facilities that was appropriate in the circumstances.

41 Extended operation of Part

A reference in this Part to this Act includes a reference to the Prohibition of Human Cloning Act 2002, and a reference in this Part to the regulations includes a reference to regulations made under the Prohibition of Human Cloning Act 2002.
Part 4—Commonwealth/State arrangements

42 Operation of State laws

This Act is not intended to exclude the operation of any law of a State, to the extent that the law of the State is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.

43 Conferral of functions on Commonwealth officers and bodies

(1) A corresponding State law may confer functions, powers and duties on the following:
   (a) the NHMRC Licensing Committee;
   (b) a Commonwealth authority;
   (c) an officer of the Commonwealth or a Commonwealth authority.

(2) If a function, power or duty is conferred on a person or body under subsection (1), the person or body may perform the function or duty or exercise the power, as the case requires.

(3) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a corresponding State law to the extent to which:
   (a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth body, officer or authority; or
   (b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(4) This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of a corresponding State law that confers any functions or powers, or imposes any duties, on the NHMRC Licensing Committee, a Commonwealth officer or a Commonwealth authority to the extent to which that law:
   (a) is consistent with subsections (1) and (2); and
   (b) is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.
44 When duty imposed

(1) This section applies if a corresponding State law purports to impose a duty on the following:
   (a) the NHMRC Licensing Committee;
   (b) a Commonwealth authority;
   (c) an officer of the Commonwealth or a Commonwealth authority.

(2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Act (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
   (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State concerned; and
   (b) imposing the duty by the corresponding State law is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth body, officer or authority.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the corresponding State law (the Commonwealth having consented under section 43 to the imposition of the duty by the corresponding State law).

(3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by force of the corresponding State law), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.

(4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.

(5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
   (a) is within the legislative power of the Commonwealth; and
   (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth body, officer or authority.

(6) To avoid doubt, neither this Act (nor any other law of the Commonwealth) imposes a duty on the NHMRC Licensing Committee.
Part 4 Commonwealth/State arrangements

Section 45

Committee, a Commonwealth officer or a Commonwealth authority to the extent to which imposing such a duty would:

(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth body, officer or authority; or

(b) otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(7) Subsections (1) to (6) do not limit section 43.

45 Review of certain decisions

(1) Application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a reviewable State decision.

(2) A decision made by the NHMRC Licensing Committee in the performance of a function or the exercise of a power conferred by a corresponding State law is a reviewable State decision for the purposes of this section if:

(a) the law under which the decision was made provides for review by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal; and

(b) the decision is declared by the regulations to be a reviewable State decision for the purposes of this section.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 has effect as if a corresponding State law were an enactment.
