Schedule—The Criminal Code

Section 3

Chapter 1—Codification

Division 1

1.1 Codification

The only offences against laws of the Commonwealth are those offences created by, or under the authority of, this Code or any other Act.

Chapter 2—General principles of criminal responsibility

Part 2.1—Purpose and application

Division 2

2.1 Purpose

The purpose of this Chapter is to codify the general principles of criminal responsibility under laws of the Commonwealth. It contains all the general principles of criminal responsibility that apply to any offence, irrespective of how the offence is created.

2.2 Application

(1) This Chapter applies to all offences against this Code.

(2) Subject to section 2.3, this Chapter applies on and after 15 December 2001 to all other offences.

(3) Section 11.6 applies to all offences.

2.3 Application of provisions relating to intoxication

Subsections 4.2(6) and (7) and Division 8 apply to all offences. For the purpose of interpreting those provisions in connection with an offence, the other provisions of this Chapter may be considered, whether or not those other provisions apply to the offence concerned.
Part 2.2—The elements of an offence

Division 3—General

3.1 Elements

(1) An offence consists of physical elements and fault elements.

(2) However, the law that creates the offence may provide that there is no fault element for one or more physical elements.

(3) The law that creates the offence may provide different fault elements for different physical elements.

3.2 Establishing guilt in respect of offences

In order for a person to be found guilty of committing an offence the following must be proved:

(a) the existence of such physical elements as are, under the law creating the offence, relevant to establishing guilt;

(b) in respect of each such physical element for which a fault element is required, one of the fault elements for the physical element.

Note 1:  See Part 2.6 on proof of criminal responsibility.

Note 2:  See Part 2.7 on geographical jurisdiction.
Division 4—Physical elements

4.1 Physical elements

(1) A physical element of an offence may be:
   (a) conduct; or
   (b) a result of conduct; or
   (c) a circumstance in which conduct, or a result of conduct, occurs.

(2) In this Code:

   conduct means an act, an omission to perform an act or a state of affairs.

   engage in conduct means:
   (a) do an act; or
   (b) omit to perform an act.

4.2 Voluntariness

(1) Conduct can only be a physical element if it is voluntary.

(2) Conduct is only voluntary if it is a product of the will of the person whose conduct it is.

(3) The following are examples of conduct that is not voluntary:
   (a) a spasm, convulsion or other unwilled bodily movement;
   (b) an act performed during sleep or unconsciousness;
   (c) an act performed during impaired consciousness depriving the person of the will to act.

(4) An omission to perform an act is only voluntary if the act omitted is one which the person is capable of performing.

(5) If the conduct constituting an offence consists only of a state of affairs, the state of affairs is only voluntary if it is one over which the person is capable of exercising control.

(6) Evidence of self-induced intoxication cannot be considered in determining whether conduct is voluntary.
Section 4.3

(7) Intoxication is self-induced unless it came about:
   (a) involuntarily; or
   (b) as a result of fraud, sudden or extraordinary emergency, accident, reasonable mistake, duress or force.

4.3 Omissions

An omission to perform an act can only be a physical element if:
   (a) the law creating the offence makes it so; or
   (b) the law creating the offence impliedly provides that the offence is committed by an omission to perform an act that by law there is a duty to perform.
Division 5—Fault elements

5.1 Fault elements

(1) A fault element for a particular physical element may be intention, knowledge, recklessness or negligence.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a law that creates a particular offence from specifying other fault elements for a physical element of that offence.

5.2 Intention

(1) A person has intention with respect to conduct if he or she means to engage in that conduct.

(2) A person has intention with respect to a circumstance if he or she believes that it exists or will exist.

(3) A person has intention with respect to a result if he or she means to bring it about or is aware that it will occur in the ordinary course of events.

5.3 Knowledge

A person has knowledge of a circumstance or a result if he or she is aware that it exists or will exist in the ordinary course of events.

5.4 Recklessness

(1) A person is reckless with respect to a circumstance if:
   (a) he or she is aware of a substantial risk that the circumstance exists or will exist; and
   (b) having regard to the circumstances known to him or her, it is unjustifiable to take the risk.

(2) A person is reckless with respect to a result if:
   (a) he or she is aware of a substantial risk that the result will occur; and
   (b) having regard to the circumstances known to him or her, it is unjustifiable to take the risk.

8 Criminal Code Act 1995
(3) The question whether taking a risk is unjustifiable is one of fact.

(4) If recklessness is a fault element for a physical element of an offence, proof of intention, knowledge or recklessness will satisfy that fault element.

5.5 Negligence

A person is negligent with respect to a physical element of an offence if his or her conduct involves:
(a) such a great falling short of the standard of care that a reasonable person would exercise in the circumstances; and
(b) such a high risk that the physical element exists or will exist; that the conduct merits criminal punishment for the offence.

5.6 Offences that do not specify fault elements

(1) If the law creating the offence does not specify a fault element for a physical element that consists only of conduct, intention is the fault element for that physical element.

(2) If the law creating the offence does not specify a fault element for a physical element that consists of a circumstance or a result, recklessness is the fault element for that physical element.

Note: Under subsection 5.4(4), recklessness can be established by proving intention, knowledge or recklessness.
Division 6—Cases where fault elements are not required

6.1  Strict liability

(1) If a law that creates an offence provides that the offence is an offence of strict liability:
   (a) there are no fault elements for any of the physical elements of the offence; and
   (b) the defence of mistake of fact under section 9.2 is available.

(2) If a law that creates an offence provides that strict liability applies to a particular physical element of the offence:
   (a) there are no fault elements for that physical element; and
   (b) the defence of mistake of fact under section 9.2 is available in relation to that physical element.

(3) The existence of strict liability does not make any other defence unavailable.

6.2  Absolute liability

(1) If a law that creates an offence provides that the offence is an offence of absolute liability:
   (a) there are no fault elements for any of the physical elements of the offence; and
   (b) the defence of mistake of fact under section 9.2 is unavailable.

(2) If a law that creates an offence provides that absolute liability applies to a particular physical element of the offence:
   (a) there are no fault elements for that physical element; and
   (b) the defence of mistake of fact under section 9.2 is unavailable in relation to that physical element.

(3) The existence of absolute liability does not make any other defence unavailable.
Part 2.3—Circumstances in which there is no criminal responsibility

Note: This Part sets out defences that are generally available. Defences that apply to a more limited class of offences are dealt with elsewhere in this Code and in other laws.

Division 7—Circumstances involving lack of capacity

7.1 Children under 10

A child under 10 years old is not criminally responsible for an offence.

7.2 Children over 10 but under 14

(1) A child aged 10 years or more but under 14 years old can only be criminally responsible for an offence if the child knows that his or her conduct is wrong.

(2) The question whether a child knows that his or her conduct is wrong is one of fact. The burden of proving this is on the prosecution.

7.3 Mental impairment

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if, at the time of carrying out the conduct constituting the offence, the person was suffering from a mental impairment that had the effect that:

(a) the person did not know the nature and quality of the conduct; or

(b) the person did not know that the conduct was wrong (that is, the person could not reason with a moderate degree of sense and composure about whether the conduct, as perceived by reasonable people, was wrong); or

(c) the person was unable to control the conduct.

(2) The question whether the person was suffering from a mental impairment is one of fact.
Section 7.3

(3) A person is presumed not to have been suffering from such a mental impairment. The presumption is only displaced if it is proved on the balance of probabilities (by the prosecution or the defence) that the person was suffering from such a mental impairment.

(4) The prosecution can only rely on this section if the court gives leave.

(5) The tribunal of fact must return a special verdict that a person is not guilty of an offence because of mental impairment if and only if it is satisfied that the person is not criminally responsible for the offence only because of a mental impairment.

(6) A person cannot rely on a mental impairment to deny voluntariness or the existence of a fault element but may rely on this section to deny criminal responsibility.

(7) If the tribunal of fact is satisfied that a person carried out conduct as a result of a delusion caused by a mental impairment, the delusion cannot otherwise be relied on as a defence.

(8) In this section:

mental impairment includes senility, intellectual disability, mental illness, brain damage and severe personality disorder.

(9) The reference in subsection (8) to mental illness is a reference to an underlying pathological infirmity of the mind, whether of long or short duration and whether permanent or temporary, but does not include a condition that results from the reaction of a healthy mind to extraordinary external stimuli. However, such a condition may be evidence of a mental illness if it involves some abnormality and is prone to recur.
Division 8—Intoxication

8.1 Definition—self-induced intoxication

For the purposes of this Division, intoxication is self-induced unless it came about:

(a) involuntarily; or

(b) as a result of fraud, sudden or extraordinary emergency, accident, reasonable mistake, duress or force.

8.2 Intoxication (offences involving basic intent)

(1) Evidence of self-induced intoxication cannot be considered in determining whether a fault element of basic intent existed.

(2) A fault element of basic intent is a fault element of intention for a physical element that consists only of conduct.

Note: A fault element of intention with respect to a circumstance or with respect to a result is not a fault element of basic intent.

(3) This section does not prevent evidence of self-induced intoxication being taken into consideration in determining whether conduct was accidental.

(4) This section does not prevent evidence of self-induced intoxication being taken into consideration in determining whether a person had a mistaken belief about facts if the person had considered whether or not the facts existed.

(5) A person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:

(a) he or she had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in circumstances surrounding that occasion; and

(b) he or she honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.
Section 8.3

8.3 Intoxication (negligence as fault element)

(1) If negligence is a fault element for a particular physical element of an offence, in determining whether that fault element existed in relation to a person who is intoxicated, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated.

(2) However, if intoxication is not self-induced, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person intoxicated to the same extent as the person concerned.

8.4 Intoxication (relevance to defences)

(1) If any part of a defence is based on actual knowledge or belief, evidence of intoxication may be considered in determining whether that knowledge or belief existed.

(2) If any part of a defence is based on reasonable belief, in determining whether that reasonable belief existed, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person who is not intoxicated.

(3) If a person’s intoxication is not self-induced, in determining whether any part of a defence based on reasonable belief exists, regard must be had to the standard of a reasonable person intoxicated to the same extent as the person concerned.

(4) If, in relation to an offence:
   (a) each physical element has a fault element of basic intent; and
   (b) any part of a defence is based on actual knowledge or belief; evidence of self-induced intoxication cannot be considered in determining whether that knowledge or belief existed.

(5) A fault element of basic intent is a fault element of intention for a physical element that consists only of conduct.

Note: A fault element of intention with respect to a circumstance or with respect to a result is not a fault element of basic intent.
8.5 Involuntary intoxication

A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if the person's conduct constituting the offence was as a result of intoxication that was not self-induced.
Division 9—Circumstances involving mistake or ignorance

9.1 Mistake or ignorance of fact (fault elements other than negligence)

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence that has a physical element for which there is a fault element other than negligence if:
   (a) at the time of the conduct constituting the physical element, the person is under a mistaken belief about, or is ignorant of, facts; and
   (b) the existence of that mistaken belief or ignorance negates any fault element applying to that physical element.

(2) In determining whether a person was under a mistaken belief about, or was ignorant of, facts, the tribunal of fact may consider whether the mistaken belief or ignorance was reasonable in the circumstances.

9.2 Mistake of fact (strict liability)

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence that has a physical element for which there is no fault element if:
   (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the physical element, the person considered whether or not facts existed, and is under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
   (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted an offence.

(2) A person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
   (a) he or she had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
   (b) he or she honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.
9.3 Mistake or ignorance of statute law

(1) A person can be criminally responsible for an offence even if, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, he or she is mistaken about, or ignorant of, the existence or content of an Act that directly or indirectly creates the offence or directly or indirectly affects the scope or operation of the offence.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply, and the person is not criminally responsible for the offence in those circumstances, if the Act is expressly to the contrary effect.

9.4 Mistake or ignorance of subordinate legislation

(1) A person can be criminally responsible for an offence even if, at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, he or she is mistaken about, or ignorant of, the existence or content of the subordinate legislation that directly or indirectly creates the offence or directly or indirectly affects the scope or operation of the offence.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply, and the person is not criminally responsible for the offence in those circumstances, if:

   (a) the subordinate legislation is expressly to the contrary effect; or

   (c) at the time of the conduct, the subordinate legislation:

      (i) has not been made available to the public (by means of the Register under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 or otherwise); and

      (ii) has not otherwise been made available to persons likely to be affected by it in such a way that the person would have become aware of its contents by exercising due diligence.

(3) In this section:

   available includes available by sale.
Section 9.5

_subordinate legislation_ means an instrument of a legislative character made directly or indirectly under an Act, or in force directly or indirectly under an Act.

9.5 Claim of right

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence that has a physical element relating to property if:

(a) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, the person is under a mistaken belief about a proprietary or possessory right; and

(b) the existence of that right would negate a fault element for any physical element of the offence.

(2) A person is not criminally responsible for any other offence arising necessarily out of the exercise of the proprietary or possessory right that he or she mistakenly believes to exist.

(3) This section does not negate criminal responsibility for an offence relating to the use of force against a person.
Division 10—Circumstances involving external factors

10.1 Intervening conduct or event

A person is not criminally responsible for an offence that has a physical element to which absolute liability or strict liability applies if:

(a) the physical element is brought about by another person over whom the person has no control or by a non-human act or event over which the person has no control; and

(b) the person could not reasonably be expected to guard against the bringing about of that physical element.

10.2 Duress

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if he or she carries out the conduct constituting the offence under duress.

(2) A person carries out conduct under duress if and only if he or she reasonably believes that:

(a) a threat has been made that will be carried out unless an offence is committed; and

(b) there is no reasonable way that the threat can be rendered ineffective; and

(c) the conduct is a reasonable response to the threat.

(3) This section does not apply if the threat is made by or on behalf of a person with whom the person under duress is voluntarily associating for the purpose of carrying out conduct of the kind actually carried out.

10.3 Sudden or extraordinary emergency

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if he or she carries out the conduct constituting the offence in response to circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency.

(2) This section applies if and only if the person carrying out the conduct reasonably believes that:
Section 10.4

(a) circumstances of sudden or extraordinary emergency exist; and
(b) committing the offence is the only reasonable way to deal with the emergency; and
(c) the conduct is a reasonable response to the emergency.

10.4 Self-defence

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if he or she carries out the conduct constituting the offence in self-defence.

(2) A person carries out conduct in self-defence if and only if he or she believes the conduct is necessary:
   (a) to defend himself or herself or another person; or
   (b) to prevent or terminate the unlawful imprisonment of himself or herself or another person; or
   (c) to protect property from unlawful appropriation, destruction, damage or interference; or
   (d) to prevent criminal trespass to any land or premises; or
   (e) to remove from any land or premises a person who is committing criminal trespass;
   and the conduct is a reasonable response in the circumstances as he or she perceives them.

(3) This section does not apply if the person uses force that involves the intentional infliction of death or really serious injury:
   (a) to protect property; or
   (b) to prevent criminal trespass; or
   (c) to remove a person who is committing criminal trespass.

(4) This section does not apply if:
   (a) the person is responding to lawful conduct; and
   (b) he or she knew that the conduct was lawful.
   However, conduct is not lawful merely because the person carrying it out is not criminally responsible for it.
10.5 Lawful authority

A person is not criminally responsible for an offence if the conduct constituting the offence is justified or excused by or under a law.
Part 2.4—Extensions of criminal responsibility

Division 11

11.1 Attempt

(1) A person who attempts to commit an offence is guilty of the offence of attempting to commit that offence and is punishable as if the offence attempted had been committed.

(2) For the person to be guilty, the person’s conduct must be more than merely preparatory to the commission of the offence. The question whether conduct is more than merely preparatory to the commission of the offence is one of fact.

(3) For the offence of attempting to commit an offence, intention and knowledge are fault elements in relation to each physical element of the offence attempted.

Note: Under section 3.2, only one of the fault elements of intention or knowledge would need to be established in respect of each physical element of the offence attempted.

(3A) Subsection (3) has effect subject to subsection (6A).

(4) A person may be found guilty even if:
   (a) committing the offence attempted is impossible; or
   (b) the person actually committed the offence attempted.

(5) A person who is found guilty of attempting to commit an offence cannot be subsequently charged with the completed offence.

(6) Any defences, procedures, limitations or qualifying provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of attempting to commit that offence.

(6A) Any special liability provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of attempting to commit that offence.

(7) It is not an offence to attempt to commit an offence against section 11.2 (complicity and common purpose), section 11.5 (conspiracy to commit an offence) or section 135.4 (conspiracy to defraud).
11.2 Complicity and common purpose

(1) A person who aids, abets, counsels or procures the commission of an offence by another person is taken to have committed that offence and is punishable accordingly.

(2) For the person to be guilty:
   (a) the person’s conduct must have in fact aided, abetted, counselled or procured the commission of the offence by the other person; and
   (b) the offence must have been committed by the other person.

(3) For the person to be guilty, the person must have intended that:
   (a) his or her conduct would aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of any offence (including its fault elements) of the type the other person committed; or
   (b) his or her conduct would aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of an offence and have been reckless about the commission of the offence (including its fault elements) that the other person in fact committed.

(3A) Subsection (3) has effect subject to subsection (6).

(4) A person cannot be found guilty of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence if, before the offence was committed, the person:
   (a) terminated his or her involvement; and
   (b) took all reasonable steps to prevent the commission of the offence.

(5) A person may be found guilty of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of an offence even if the principal offender has not been prosecuted or has not been found guilty.

(6) Any special liability provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence.

(7) If the trier of fact is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that a person either:
   (a) is guilty of a particular offence otherwise than because of the operation of subsection (1); or
(b) is guilty of that offence because of the operation of subsection (1); but is not able to determine which, the trier of fact may nonetheless find the person guilty of that offence.

11.3 Innocent agency

A person who:
(a) has, in relation to each physical element of an offence, a fault element applicable to that physical element; and
(b) procures conduct of another person that (whether or not together with conduct of the procurer) would have constituted an offence on the part of the procurer if the procurer had engaged in it; is taken to have committed that offence and is punishable accordingly.

11.4 Incitement

(1) A person who urges the commission of an offence is guilty of the offence of incitement.

(2) For the person to be guilty, the person must intend that the offence incited be committed.

(2A) Subsection (2) has effect subject to subsection (4A).

(3) A person may be found guilty even if committing the offence incited is impossible.

(4) Any defences, procedures, limitations or qualifying provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of incitement in respect of that offence.

(4A) Any special liability provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of incitement in respect of that offence.

(5) It is not an offence to incite the commission of an offence against section 11.1 (attempt), this section or section 11.5 (conspiracy).

Penalty:
(a) if the offence incited is punishable by life imprisonment—imprisonment for 10 years; or

(b) if the offence incited is punishable by imprisonment for 14 years or more, but is not punishable by life imprisonment—imprisonment for 7 years; or
(c) if the offence incited is punishable by imprisonment for 10 years or more, but is not punishable by imprisonment for 14 years or more—imprisonment for 5 years; or
(d) if the offence is otherwise punishable by imprisonment—imprisonment for 3 years or for the maximum term of imprisonment for the offence incited, whichever is the lesser; or
(e) if the offence incited is not punishable by imprisonment—the number of penalty units equal to the maximum number of penalty units applicable to the offence incited.

Note: Under section 4D of the Crimes Act 1914, these penalties are only maximum penalties. Subsection 4B(2) of that Act allows a court to impose an appropriate fine instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. If a body corporate is convicted of the offence, subsection 4B(3) of that Act allows a court to impose a fine of an amount not greater than 5 times the maximum fine that the court could impose on an individual convicted of the same offence. Penalty units are defined in section 4AA of that Act.

11.5 Conspiracy

(1) A person who conspires with another person to commit an offence punishable by imprisonment for more than 12 months, or by a fine of 200 penalty units or more, is guilty of the offence of conspiracy to commit that offence and is punishable as if the offence to which the conspiracy relates had been committed.

Note: Penalty units are defined in section 4AA of the Crimes Act 1914.

(2) For the person to be guilty:
   (a) the person must have entered into an agreement with one or more other persons; and
   (b) the person and at least one other party to the agreement must have intended that an offence would be committed pursuant to the agreement; and
   (c) the person or at least one other party to the agreement must have committed an overt act pursuant to the agreement.

(2A) Subsection (2) has effect subject to subsection (7A).
Section 11.5

(3) A person may be found guilty of conspiracy to commit an offence even if:
   (a) committing the offence is impossible; or
   (b) the only other party to the agreement is a body corporate; or
   (c) each other party to the agreement is at least one of the following:
      (i) a person who is not criminally responsible;
      (ii) a person for whose benefit or protection the offence exists; or
   (d) subject to paragraph (4)(a), all other parties to the agreement have been acquitted of the conspiracy.

(4) A person cannot be found guilty of conspiracy to commit an offence if:
   (a) all other parties to the agreement have been acquitted of the conspiracy and a finding of guilt would be inconsistent with their acquittal; or
   (b) he or she is a person for whose benefit or protection the offence exists.

(5) A person cannot be found guilty of conspiracy to commit an offence if, before the commission of an overt act pursuant to the agreement, the person:
   (a) withdrew from the agreement; and
   (b) took all reasonable steps to prevent the commission of the offence.

(6) A court may dismiss a charge of conspiracy if it thinks that the interests of justice require it to do so.

(7) Any defences, procedures, limitations or qualifying provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of conspiracy to commit that offence.

(7A) Any special liability provisions that apply to an offence apply also to the offence of conspiracy to commit that offence.

(8) Proceedings for an offence of conspiracy must not be commenced without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions. However, a person may be arrested for, charged with, or remanded in custody or on bail in connection with, an offence of conspiracy before the necessary consent has been given.
11.6 References in Acts to offences

(1) A reference in a law of the Commonwealth to an offence against a law of the Commonwealth (including this Code) includes a reference to an offence against section 11.1 (attempt), 11.4 (incitement) or 11.5 (conspiracy) of this Code that relates to such an offence.

(2) A reference in a law of the Commonwealth (including this Code) to a particular offence includes a reference to an offence against section 11.1 (attempt), 11.4 (incitement) or 11.5 (conspiracy) of this Code that relates to that particular offence.

(3) Subsection (1) or (2) does not apply if a law of the Commonwealth is expressly or impliedly to the contrary effect.

(4) In particular, an express reference in a law of the Commonwealth to:
   (a) an offence against, under or created by the Crimes Act 1914; or
   (b) an offence against, under or created by a particular provision of the Crimes Act 1914; or
   (c) an offence arising out of the first-mentioned law or another law of the Commonwealth; or
   (d) an offence arising out of a particular provision; or (e) an offence against, under or created by the Taxation Administration Act 1953;

does not mean that the first-mentioned law is impliedly to the contrary effect.

Note: Sections 11.2 (complicity and common purpose) and 11.3 (innocent agency) of this Code operate as extensions of principal offences and are therefore not referred to in this section.
Section 12.1

Part 2.5—Corporate criminal responsibility

Division 12

12.1 General principles

(1) This Code applies to bodies corporate in the same way as it applies to individuals. It so applies with such modifications as are set out in this Part, and with such other modifications as are made necessary by the fact that criminal liability is being imposed on bodies corporate rather than individuals.

(2) A body corporate may be found guilty of any offence, including one punishable by imprisonment.

Note: Section 4B of the Crimes Act 1914 enables a fine to be imposed for offences that only specify imprisonment as a penalty.

12.2 Physical elements

If a physical element of an offence is committed by an employee, agent or officer of a body corporate acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, the physical element must also be attributed to the body corporate.

12.3 Fault elements other than negligence

(1) If intention, knowledge or recklessness is a fault element in relation to a physical element of an offence, that fault element must be attributed to a body corporate that expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorised or permitted the commission of the offence.

(2) The means by which such an authorisation or permission may be established include:

(a) proving that the body corporate’s board of directors intentionally, knowingly or recklessly carried out the relevant conduct, or expressly, tacitly or impliedly authorised or permitted the commission of the offence; or

(b) proving that a high managerial agent of the body corporate intentionally, knowingly or recklessly engaged in the relevant
(c) proving that a corporate culture existed within the body corporate that directed, encouraged, tolerated or led to non-compliance with the relevant provision; or

(d) proving that the body corporate failed to create and maintain a corporate culture that required compliance with the relevant provision.

(3) Paragraph (2)(b) does not apply if the body corporate proves that it exercised due diligence to prevent the conduct, or the authorisation or permission.

(4) Factors relevant to the application of paragraph (2)(c) or (d) include:

(a) whether authority to commit an offence of the same or a similar character had been given by a high managerial agent of the body corporate; and

(b) whether the employee, agent or officer of the body corporate who committed the offence believed on reasonable grounds, or entertained a reasonable expectation, that a high managerial agent of the body corporate would have authorised or permitted the commission of the offence.

(5) If recklessness is not a fault element in relation to a physical element of an offence, subsection (2) does not enable the fault element to be proved by proving that the board of directors, or a high managerial agent, of the body corporate recklessly engaged in the conduct or recklessly authorised or permitted the commission of the offence.

(6) In this section:

board of directors means the body (by whatever name called) exercising the executive authority of the body corporate.

corporate culture means an attitude, policy, rule, course of conduct or practice existing within the body corporate generally or in the part of the body corporate in which the relevant activities takes place.

high managerial agent means an employee, agent or officer of the body corporate with duties of such responsibility that his or her conduct may fairly be assumed to represent the body corporate’s policy.

12.4 Negligence

(1) The test of negligence for a body corporate is that set out in section 5.5.

(2) If:

(a) negligence is a fault element in relation to a physical element of an offence; and
(b) no individual employee, agent or officer of the body corporate has that fault element; that fault element may exist on the part of the body corporate if the body corporate’s conduct is negligent when viewed as a whole (that is, by aggregating the conduct of any number of its employees, agents or officers).

(3) Negligence may be evidenced by the fact that the prohibited conduct was substantially attributable to:

(a) inadequate corporate management, control or supervision of the conduct of one or more of its employees, agents or officers; or
(b) failure to provide adequate systems for conveying relevant information to relevant persons in the body corporate.

12.5 Mistake of fact (strict liability)

(1) A body corporate can only rely on section 9.2 (mistake of fact (strict liability)) in respect of conduct that would, apart from this section, constitute an offence on its part if:

(a) the employee, agent or officer of the body corporate who carried out the conduct was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about facts that, had they existed, would have meant that the conduct would not have constituted an offence; and
(b) the body corporate proves that it exercised due diligence to prevent the conduct.

(2) A failure to exercise due diligence may be evidenced by the fact that the prohibited conduct was substantially attributable to:
Section 12.6

(a) inadequate corporate management, control or supervision of the conduct of one or more of its employees, agents or officers; or
(b) failure to provide adequate systems for conveying relevant information to relevant persons in the body corporate.

12.6 Intervening conduct or event

A body corporate cannot rely on section 10.1 (intervening conduct or event) in respect of a physical element of an offence brought about by another person if the other person is an employee, agent or officer of the body corporate.
13.1 Legal burden of proof—prosecution

(1) The prosecution bears a legal burden of proving every element of an offence relevant to the guilt of the person charged.

Note: See section 3.2 on what elements are relevant to a person’s guilt.

(2) The prosecution also bears a legal burden of disproving any matter in relation to which the defendant has discharged an evidential burden of proof imposed on the defendant.

(3) In this Code:

legal burden, in relation to a matter, means the burden of proving the existence of the matter.

13.2 Standard of proof—prosecution

(1) A legal burden of proof on the prosecution must be discharged beyond reasonable doubt.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the law creating the offence specifies a different standard of proof.

13.3 Evidential burden of proof—defence

(1) Subject to section 13.4, a burden of proof that a law imposes on a defendant is an evidential burden only.

(2) A defendant who wishes to deny criminal responsibility by relying on a provision of Part 2.3 (other than section 7.3) bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

(3) A defendant who wishes to rely on any exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification provided by the law creating an offence bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter. The exception, exemption, excuse, qualification or justification need not accompany the description of the offence.
The defendant no longer bears the evidential burden in relation to a matter if evidence sufficient to discharge the burden is adduced by the prosecution or by the court.

(5) The question whether an evidential burden has been discharged is one of law.

(6) In this Code:

evidential burden, in relation to a matter, means the burden of adducing or pointing to evidence that suggests a reasonable possibility that the matter exists or does not exist.

13.4 Legal burden of proof—defence

A burden of proof that a law imposes on the defendant is a legal burden if and only if the law expressly:

- specifies that the burden of proof in relation to the matter in question is a legal burden; or
- requires the defendant to prove the matter; or
- creates a presumption that the matter exists unless the contrary is proved.

13.5 Standard of proof—defence

A legal burden of proof on the defendant must be discharged on the balance of probabilities.

13.6 Use of averments

A law that allows the prosecution to make an averment is taken not to allow the prosecution:

- to aver any fault element of an offence; or
- to make an averment in prosecuting for an offence that is directly punishable by imprisonment.
Section 14.1

Part 2.7—Geographical jurisdiction

Division 14—Standard geographical jurisdiction

14.1 Standard geographical jurisdiction

(1) This section may apply to a particular offence in either of the following ways:

(a) unless the contrary intention appears, this section applies to the following offences:

(i) a primary offence, where the provision creating the offence commences at or after the commencement of this section;

(ii) an ancillary offence, to the extent to which it relates to a primary offence covered by subparagraph (i);

(b) if a law of the Commonwealth provides that this section applies to a particular offence—this section applies to that offence.

Note: In the case of paragraph (b), the expression offence is given an extended meaning by subsection 11.2(1), section 11.3 and subsection 11.6(1).

(2) If this section applies to a particular offence, a person does not commit the offence unless:

(a) the conduct constituting the alleged offence occurs:

(4) For the purposes of the application of subsection 13.3(3) to an offence, subsection (3) of this section is taken to be an exception provided by the law creating the offence.

Defence—ancillary offence

(5) If this section applies to a particular offence, a person is not guilty of the offence if:

(a) the alleged offence is an ancillary offence; and foreign country, that creates an offence that corresponds to the primary offence.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in subsection (5). See subsection 13.3(3).

(6) For the purposes of the application of subsection 13.3(3) to an offence, subsection (5) of this section is taken to be an exception provided by the law creating the offence.

Operation in a non-referring State

(2) The operation of this Part in a State that is not a referring State is based on the legislative powers that the Commonwealth Parliament

Schedule  The Criminal Code
Chapter 5  The security of the Commonwealth
Part 5.3  Terrorism
Division 102  Terrorist organisations

Section 102.1

(a) the organisation directly or indirectly counsels or urges the doing of a terrorist act; or
(b) the organisation directly or indirectly provides instruction on the doing of a terrorist act; or
(c) the organisation directly praises the doing of a terrorist act in circumstances where there is a risk that such praise might have the effect of leading a person (regardless of his or her age or any mental impairment (within the meaning of section 7.3) that the person might suffer) to engage in a terrorist act.

Terrorist organisation regulations

(2) Before the Governor-General makes a regulation specifying an organisation for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of terrorist organisation in this section, the Minister must be satisfied on reasonable grounds that the organisation:

(a) is directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act (whether or not a terrorist act has occurred or will occur); or
(b) advocates the doing of a terrorist act (whether or not a terrorist act has occurred or will occur).

(2A) Before the Governor-General makes a regulation specifying an organisation for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of terrorist organisation in this section, the Minister must arrange for the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Representatives to be briefed in relation to the proposed regulation.

(3) Regulations for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of terrorist organisation in this section cease to have effect on the second anniversary of the day on which they take effect. To avoid doubt, this subsection does not prevent:

(a) the repeal of those regulations; or
(b) the cessation of effect of those regulations under subsection (4); or
(c) the making of new regulations the same in substance as those regulations (whether the new regulations are made or take effect before or after those regulations cease to have effect because of this subsection).

(ii) that the organisation advocates the doing of a terrorist act (whether or not a terrorist act has occurred or will occur);

the Minister must, by written notice published in the Gazette, make a declaration to the effect that the Minister has ceased to be so satisfied. The regulations, to the extent to which they specify the organisation, cease to have effect when the declaration is made.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (4) does not prevent the organisation from being subsequently specified by regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of terrorist organisation in this section if the Minister becomes satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2).

(6) If, under subsection (3) or (4), a regulation ceases to have effect, section 15 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 applies as if the regulation had been repealed.

(17) If:

(a) an organisation (the listed organisation) is specified in regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of terrorist organisation in this section; and

(b) an individual or an organisation (which may be the listed organisation) makes an application (the de-listing application) to the Minister for a declaration under subsection (4) in relation to the listed organisation; and

(c) the de-listing application is made on the grounds that there is no basis for the Minister to be satisfied that the listed organisation:

(i) is directly or indirectly engaged in, preparing, planning, assisting in or fostering the doing of a terrorist act
Section 102.1A

(whether or not a terrorist act has occurred or will occur); or
(ii) advocates the doing of a terrorist act (whether or not a terrorist act has occurred or will occur); as the case requires;

the Minister must consider the de-listing application.

(18) Subsection (17) does not limit the matters that may be considered by the Minister for the purposes of subsection (4).

Section 104.3

(4) The Attorney-General’s consent may be made subject to changes being made to the draft request (including the draft of the interim control order to be requested).

(5) To avoid doubt, a senior AFP member may seek the Attorney-General’s consent to request an interim control order in relation to a person, even if such a request has previously been made in relation to the person.

(c) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities:
   (i) that making the order would substantially assist in preventing a terrorist act; or
   (ii) that the person has provided training to, or received training from, a listed terrorist organisation; and

(d) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that each of the obligations, prohibitions and restrictions to be imposed on the person by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the public from a terrorist act.

(2) In determining whether each of the obligations, prohibitions and restrictions to be imposed on the person by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the court must take into account the impact of the obligation, prohibition or restriction on the person’s circumstances (including the person’s financial and personal circumstances).

(3) The court need not include in the order an obligation, prohibition or restriction that was sought by the senior AFP member if the court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(d) in respect of that obligation, prohibition or restriction.

104.5 Terms of an interim control order

(1) If the issuing court makes the interim control order, the order must:

   (c) specify all of the obligations, prohibitions and restrictions mentioned in subsection (3) that are to be imposed on the person by the order; and
   (d) state that the order does not begin to be in force until it is served personally on the person; and
   (e) specify a day on which the person may attend the court for the court to:
      (i) confirm (with or without variation) the interim control order; or
      (ii) declare the interim control order to be void; or
      (iii) revoke the interim control order; and
   (f) specify the period during which the confirmed control order is to be in force, which must not end more than 12 months after the day on which the interim control order is made; and
   (g) state that the person’s lawyer may attend a specified place in order to obtain a copy of the interim control order; and
   (h) set out a summary of the grounds on which the order is made.
Note 1: An interim control order made in relation to a person must be served on the person at least 48 hours before the day specified as mentioned in paragraph (1)(e) (see section 104.12).

Note 2: A confirmed control order that is made in relation to a 16- to 18-year-old must not end more than 3 months after the day on which the interim control order is made (see section 104.28).

(1A) The day specified for the purposes of paragraph (1)(e) must be as soon as practicable, but at least 72 hours, after the order is made.

(2) Paragraph (1)(f) does not prevent the making of successive control orders in relation to the same person.

(2A) To avoid doubt, paragraph (1)(h) does not require any information to be included in the summary if disclosure of that information is likely to prejudice national security (within the meaning of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004).

Obligations, prohibitions and restrictions

(3) The obligations, prohibitions and restrictions that the court may impose on the person by the order are the following:

(a) a prohibition or restriction on the person being at specified areas or places;

(i) a requirement that the person report to specified persons at specified times and places;
Section 104.6

(j) a requirement that the person allow himself or herself to be photographed;
(k) a requirement that the person allow impressions of his or her fingerprints to be taken;
(l) a requirement that the person participate in specified counselling or education.

Note: Restrictions apply to the use of photographs or impressions of fingerprints taken as mentioned in paragraphs (3)(j) and (k) (see section 104.22).

Communicating and associating

(4) Subsection 102.8(4) applies to paragraph (3)(e) and the person’s communication or association in the same way as that subsection applies to section 102.8 and a person’s association.

(5) This section does not affect the person’s right to contact, communicate or associate with the person’s lawyer unless the person’s lawyer is a specified individual as mentioned in paragraph (3)(e). If the person’s lawyer is so specified, the person may contact, communicate or associate with any other lawyer who is not so specified.

Counselling and education

(6) A person is required to participate in specified counselling or education as mentioned in paragraph (3)(l) only if the person agrees, at the time of the counselling or education, to participate in the counselling or education.

Subdivision C—Making an urgent interim control order

104.6 Requesting an urgent interim control order by electronic means

(1) A senior AFP member may request, by telephone, fax, email or other electronic means, an issuing court to make an interim control order in relation to a person if:
   (a) the member considers it necessary to use such means because of urgent circumstances; and
   (b) the member either considers or suspects the matters mentioned in subsection 104.2(2) on reasonable grounds.
(2) The Attorney-General’s consent under section 104.2 is not required before the request is made.

Note: However, if the Attorney-General’s consent is not obtained before the member makes the request, the Attorney-General’s consent must be obtained within 4 hours of the member making the request (see section 104.10).

(3) The issuing court may require communication by voice to the extent that is practicable in the circumstances.

(4) The request must include the following:

   (a) all that is required under subsection 104.2(3) in respect of an ordinary request for an interim control order (including, if the Attorney-General’s consent has been obtained before making the request, the changes (if any) required by the Attorney-General);

   (b) an explanation as to why the making of the interim control order is urgent;

   (c) if the Attorney-General’s consent has been obtained before making the request—a copy of the Attorney-General’s consent.

Note: The member might commit an offence if the request is false or misleading (see sections 137.1 and 137.2).

(5) The information and the explanation included in the request must be sworn or affirmed by the member, but do not have to be sworn or affirmed before the request is made.

Note: Subsection 104.7(5) requires the information and the explanation to be sworn or affirmed within 24 hours.

104.7 Making an urgent interim control order by electronic means

(1) Before making an order in response to a request under section 104.6, the issuing court must:

   (a) consider the information and the explanation included in the request; and

   (b) receive and consider such further information (if any) as the court requires.

(2) If the issuing court is satisfied that an order should be made urgently, the court may complete the same form of order that would be made under sections 104.4 and 104.5.
Section 104.8

Procedure after urgent interim control order is made

(3) If the issuing court makes the order, the court must inform the senior AFP member, by telephone, fax, email or other electronic means, of:
   (a) the terms of the order; and
   (b) the day on which, and the time at which, it was completed.

(4) The member must then complete a form of order in terms substantially corresponding to those given by the issuing court, stating on the form:
   (a) the name of the court; and
   (b) the day on which, and the time at which, the order was completed.

(5) Within 24 hours of being informed under subsection (3), the member must give or transmit the following to the issuing court:
   (a) the form of order completed by the member;
   (b) if the information and the explanation included in the request were not already sworn or affirmed— that information and explanation duly sworn or affirmed;
   (c) if the Attorney-General’s consent was not obtained before making the request—a copy of the Attorney-General’s consent.

(6) The issuing court must attach to the documents provided under subsection (5) the form of order the court has completed.

104.8 Requesting an urgent interim control order in person

(1) A senior AFP member may request, in person, an issuing court to make an interim control order in relation to a person without first obtaining the Attorney-General’s consent under section 104.2 if:
   (a) the member considers it necessary to request the order without the consent because of urgent circumstances; and
   (b) the member either considers or suspects the matters mentioned in subsection 104.2(2) on reasonable grounds.

Note: The Attorney-General’s consent must be obtained within 4 hours of making the request (see section 104.10).

(2) The request must include the following:
Section 104.9

(a) all that is required under subsection 104.2(3) in respect of an ordinary request for an interim control order (including information that is sworn or affirmed by the member);

(b) an explanation that is sworn or affirmed as to why the making of the interim control order without first obtaining the Attorney-General’s consent is urgent.

Note: The member might commit an offence if the request is false or misleading (see sections 137.1 and 137.2).

104.9 Making an urgent interim control order in person

(1) Before making an order in response to a request under section 104.8, the issuing court must:

(a) consider the information and the explanation included in the request; and

(b) receive and consider such further information (if any) as the court requires.

(2) If the issuing court is satisfied that an order should be made urgently, the court may make the same order that would be made under sections 104.4 and 104.5.

(3) Within 24 hours of the order being made under subsection (2), the member must:

(a) give or transmit a copy of the order to the issuing court; and

(b) either:

(i) give or transmit a copy of the Attorney-General’s consent to request the order to the court; or

(ii) notify the court in writing that the Attorney-General’s consent was not obtained.

Note: Section 104.10 deals with the Attorney-General’s consent.

104.10 Obtaining the Attorney-General’s consent within 4 hours

(1) If the Attorney-General’s consent to request an interim control order was not first sought before making a request under section 104.6 or 104.8, the senior AFP member who made the request must, in accordance with subsection 104.2(3), seek that consent within 4 hours of making the request.

(2) In any case, if the Attorney-General:

Criminal Code Act 1995  153
Section 104.11

(a) refuses his or her consent to request the order; or
(b) has not given his or her consent to request the order; within 4 hours of the request being made, the order immediately ceases to be in force.

Note: However, the senior AFP member can vary the request and seek the Attorney-General’s consent to request a new interim control order in relation to the person (see subsection 104.2(5)).

(3) If the order ceases to be in force under subsection (2), the senior
AFP member must, as soon as practicable:
(a) notify the court that the order has ceased to be in force; and
(b) if the order has been served on the person in relation to whom it was made:
   (i) annotate the order to indicate that it has ceased to be in force; and
   (ii) cause the annotated order to be served personally on the person.

104.11 Court to assume that exercise of power not authorised by urgent interim control order

If:
(a) it is material, in any proceedings, for a court to be satisfied that an interim control order was duly made under section 104.7; and
(b) the form of order completed by the relevant issuing court is not produced in evidence;
the first-mentioned court is to assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the order was not duly made.

Subdivision D—Confirming an interim control order

104.12 Service, explanation and notification of an interim control order

Service and explanation of an interim control order

(1) As soon as practicable after an interim control order is made in relation to a person, and at least 48 hours before the day specified as mentioned in paragraph 104.5(1)(e), an AFP member:
(a) must serve the order personally on the person; and
Section 104.12A

(b) must inform the person of the following:
   (i) the effect of the order;
   (ii) the period for which the order (if confirmed) is in force;
   (iii) the effect of sections 104.12A, 104.13, 104.14, 104.18 and 104.27 (and section 104.22 if appropriate); and
   (c) must ensure that the person understands the information provided under paragraph (b) (taking into account the person’s age, language skills, mental capacity and any other relevant factor).

(3) Paragraphs (1)(b) and (c) do not apply if the actions of the person in relation to whom the interim control order has been made make it impracticable for the AFP member to comply with those paragraphs.

(4) A failure to comply with paragraph (1)(c) does not make the control order ineffective to any extent.

Queensland public interest monitor to be given copy of interim control order

(5) If:
   (a) the person in relation to whom the interim control order is made is a resident of Queensland; or
   (b) the issuing court that made the interim control order did so in Queensland;
       an AFP member must give to the Queensland public interest monitor a copy of the order.

104.12A Election to confirm control order

(1) At least 48 hours before the day specified in an interim control order as mentioned in paragraph 104.5(1)(e), the senior AFP member who requested the order must:
   (a) elect whether to confirm the order on the specified day; and
   (b) give a written notification to the issuing court that made the order of the member’s election.

(2) If the senior AFP member elects to confirm the order, an AFP member must:
Section 104.12A

(a) serve personally on the person in relation to whom the order is made:
   (i) a copy of the notification; and
   (ii) a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraphs 104.2(3)(b) and (c); and
   (iii) any other details required to enable the person to understand and respond to the substance of the facts, matters and circumstances which will form the basis of the confirmation of the order; and

(b) if the person is a resident of Queensland, or the court made the order in Queensland—give the Queensland public interest monitor a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraph (a).

(3) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) does not require any information to be served or given if disclosure of that information is likely:
   (a) to prejudice national security (within the meaning of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004); or
   (b) to be protected by public interest immunity; or
   (c) to put at risk ongoing operations by law enforcement agencies or intelligence agencies; or
   (d) to put at risk the safety of the community, law enforcement officers or intelligence officers.

The fact that information of a kind mentioned in this subsection is not required to be disclosed does not imply that such information is required to be disclosed in other provisions of this Part that relate to the disclosure of information.

(4) If the senior AFP member elects not to confirm the order, and the order has already been served on the person, then:
   (a) the order immediately ceases to be in force; and
   (b) an AFP member must:
      (i) annotate the order to indicate that it has ceased to be in force; and
      (ii) cause the annotated order and a copy of the notification to be served personally on the person; and
      (iii) if the person is a resident of Queensland, or the court made the order in Queensland—give the Queensland public interest monitor a copy of the annotated order and the notification.
104.13 Lawyer may request a copy of an interim control order

(1) A lawyer of the person in relation to whom an interim control order is made may attend the place specified in the order as mentioned in paragraph 104.5(1)(g) in order to obtain a copy of the order.

(2) This section does not:
(a) require more than one person to give the lawyer a copy of the order; or
(b) entitle the lawyer to request, be given a copy of, or see, a document other than the order.

104.14 Confirming an interim control order

Who may adduce evidence or make submissions

(1) If an election has been made to confirm an interim control order, then, on the day specified as mentioned in paragraph 104.5(1)(e), the following persons may adduce evidence (including by calling witnesses or producing material), or make submissions, to the issuing court in relation to the confirmation of the order:
(a) the senior AFP member who requested the interim control order;
(b) one or more other AFP members;
(c) the person in relation to whom the interim control order is made;
(d) one or more representatives of the person;
(e) if:
(i) the person is a resident of Queensland; or
(ii) the court made the interim control order in Queensland; the Queensland public interest monitor (unless the monitor is already a representative of the person).

(2) Subsection (1) does not otherwise limit the power of the court to control proceedings in relation to the confirmation of an interim control order.

(3) Before taking action under this section, the court must consider:
(a) the original request for the interim control order; and
(b) any evidence adduced, and any submissions made, under subsection (1) in respect of the order.
Section 104.14

Failure of person or representative etc. to attend

(4) The court may confirm the order without variation if:
   (a) none of the following persons attend the court on the time specified day:
      (i) the person in relation to whom the order is made;
      (ii) a representative of the person;
      (iii) if the person is a resident of Queensland, or the court made the order in Queensland—the Queensland public interest monitor; and
   (b) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the order was properly served on the person in relation to whom the order is made.

Attendance of person or representative etc.

(5) The court may take the action mentioned in subsection (6) or (7) if any of the following persons attend the court on the specified day:
     (a) the person in relation to whom the order is made;
     (b) a representative of the person;
     (c) if the person is a resident of Queensland, or the court made the order in Queensland—the Queensland public interest monitor.

(6) The court may declare, in writing, the order to be void if the court is satisfied that, at the time of making the order, there were no grounds on which to make the order.

(7) Otherwise, the court may:
     (a) revoke the order if, at the time of confirming the order, the court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(c); or (b) confirm and vary the order by removing one or more obligations, prohibitions or restrictions if, at the time of confirming the order, the court is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(c) but is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(d); or
     (c) confirm the order without variation if, at the time of confirming the order, the court is satisfied as mentioned in paragraphs 104.4(1)(c) and (d).
104.15 When a declaration, or a revocation, variation or confirmation of a control order, is in force

(1) If the court declares the interim control order to be void under section 104.14, the order is taken never to have been in force.

(2) If the court revokes the interim control order under section 104.14, the order ceases to be in force when the court revokes the order.

(3) If the court confirms the interim control order (with or without variation) under section 104.14 then:
   (a) the interim control order ceases to be in force; and
   (b) the confirmed control order begins to be in force; when the court makes a corresponding order under section 104.16.

104.16 Terms of a confirmed control order

(1) If the issuing court confirms the interim control order under section 104.14, the court must make a corresponding order that:
   (a) states that the court is satisfied of the matters mentioned in paragraphs 104.4(1)(c) and (d); and
   (b) specifies the name of the person to whom the order relates; and
   (c) specifies all of the obligations, prohibitions and restrictions mentioned in subsection 104.5(3) that are to be imposed on the person by the order; and
   (d) specifies the period during which the order is to be in force, which must not end more than 12 months after the day on which the interim control order was made; and
   (e) states that the person’s lawyer may attend a specified place in order to obtain a copy of the confirmed control order.

Note: A confirmed control order that is made in relation to a 16- to 18-year-old must not end more than 3 months after the day on which the interim control order was made (see section 104.28).

(2) Paragraph (1)(d) does not prevent the making of successive control orders in relation to the same person.
Section 104.17

104.17 Service of a declaration, or a revocation, variation or confirmation of a control order

As soon as practicable after an interim control order is declared to be void, revoked or confirmed (with or without variation) under section 104.14, an AFP member must serve the declaration, the revocation or the confirmed control order personally on the person.

Subdivision E—Rights in respect of a control order

104.18 Application by the person for a revocation or variation of a control order

(1) A person in relation to whom a confirmed control order is made may apply to an issuing court for the court to revoke or vary the order under section 104.20.

(2) The person may make the application at any time after the order is served on the person.

(3) The person must give written notice of both the application and the grounds on which the revocation or variation is sought to the following persons:
   (a) the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police;
   (b) if:
      (i) the person in relation to whom the order is made is a resident of Queensland; or
      (ii) the court will hear the application in Queensland;
          the Queensland public interest monitor.

(4) The following persons may adduce additional evidence (including by calling witnesses or producing material), or make additional submissions, to the court in relation to the application to revoke or vary the order:
   (a) the Commissioner;
   (b) one or more other AFP members;
   (c) the person in relation to whom the order is made;
   (d) one or more representatives of the person;
   (e) if paragraph (3)(b) applies—the Queensland public interest monitor (unless the monitor is a representative of the person).
(5) Subsection (4) does not otherwise limit the power of the court to control proceedings in relation to an application to revoke or vary a confirmed control order.

104.19 Application by the AFP Commissioner for a revocation or variation of a control order

(1) While a confirmed control order is in force, the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police must cause an application to be made to an issuing court:

(a) to revoke the order, under section 104.20, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the grounds on which the order was confirmed have ceased to exist; and

(b) to vary the order, under that section, by removing one or more obligations, prohibitions or restrictions, if the Commissioner is satisfied that those obligations, prohibitions or restrictions should no longer be imposed on the person.

(2) The Commissioner must cause written notice of both the application and the grounds on which the revocation or variation is sought to be given to the following persons:

(a) the person in relation to whom the order is made;

(b) if:

(i) the person in relation to whom the order is made is a resident of Queensland; or

(ii) the court will hear the application in Queensland;

the Queensland public interest monitor.

(3) The following persons may adduce additional evidence (including by calling witnesses or producing material), or make additional submissions, to the court in relation to the application to revoke or vary the order:

(a) the Commissioner;

(b) one or more other AFP members;

(c) the person in relation to whom the order is made;

(d) one or more representatives of the person;

(e) if paragraph (2)(b) applies—the Queensland public interest monitor (unless the monitor is a representative of the person).
Section 104.20

(4) Subsection (3) does not otherwise limit the power of the court to control proceedings in relation to an application to revoke or vary a confirmed control order.

104.20 Revocation or variation of a control order

(1) If an application is made under section 104.18 or 104.19 in respect of a confirmed control order, the court may:
   (a) revoke the order if, at the time of considering the application, the court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(c); or
   (b) vary the order by removing one or more obligations, prohibitions or restrictions if, at the time of considering the application, the court is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(c) but is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 104.4(1)(d); or
   (c) dismiss the application if, at the time of considering the application, the court is satisfied as mentioned in paragraphs 104.4(1)(c) and (d).

(2) A revocation or variation begins to be in force when the court revokes or varies the order.

(3) An AFP member must serve the revocation or variation personally on the person as soon as practicable after a confirmed control order is revoked or varied.

104.21 Lawyer may request a copy of a control order

(1) If a control order is confirmed or varied under section 104.14, 104.20 or 104.24, a lawyer of the person in relation to whom the control order is made may attend the place specified in the order as mentioned in paragraph 104.16(1)(e) or 104.25(d) in order to obtain a copy of the order.

(2) This section does not:
   (a) require more than one person to give the lawyer a copy of the order; or
   (b) entitle the lawyer to request, be given a copy of, or see, a document other than the order.
104.22 Treatment of photographs and impressions of fingerprints

(1) A photograph, or an impression of fingerprints, taken as mentioned in paragraph 104.5(3)(j) or (k) must only be used for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the relevant control order.

(2) If:
   (a) a period of 12 months elapses after the control order ceases to be in force; and
   (b) proceedings in respect of the control order have not been brought, or have been brought and discontinued or completed, within that period;

   the photograph or the impression must be destroyed as soon as practicable after the end of that period.

(3) A person commits an offence if:
   (a) the person engages in conduct; and
   (b) the conduct contravenes subsection (1).

   Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

Subdivision F—Adding obligations, prohibitions or restrictions to a control order

104.23 Application by the AFP Commissioner for addition of obligations, prohibitions or restrictions

(1) The Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police may cause an application to be made to an issuing court to vary, under section 104.24, a confirmed control order, by adding one or more obligations, prohibitions or restrictions mentioned in subsection 104.5(3) to the order, if the Commissioner considers on reasonable grounds that the varied control order in the terms to be sought would substantially assist in preventing a terrorist act.

(2) The Commissioner must cause the court to be given:
   (a) a copy of the additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions to be imposed on the person by the order; and
   (b) the following:
Section 104.23

(i) an explanation as to why each of those obligations, prohibitions and restrictions should be imposed on the person; and
(ii) if the Commissioner is aware of any facts relating to why any of those obligations, prohibitions or restrictions should not be imposed on the person—a statement of those facts; and
(c) the outcomes and particulars of all previous applications under this section for variations of the order; and
(d) information (if any) that the Commissioner has about the person’s age.

Note 1: A control order cannot be made in relation to a person who is under 16 years of age (see section 104.28).

Note 2: An offence might be committed if the application is false or misleading (see sections 137.1 and 137.2).

(3) The Commissioner must cause:
(a) written notice of the application and the grounds on which the variation is sought; and
(b) a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraph (2)(b); and
(c) any other details required to enable the person in relation to whom the order is made to understand and respond to the substance of the facts, matters and circumstances which will form the basis of the variation of the order; to be given to the following persons:

(d) the person in relation to whom the order is made;
(e) if the person is a resident of Queensland, or the court will hear the application in Queensland—the Queensland public interest monitor.

(3A) To avoid doubt, subsection (3) does not require any information to be given if disclosure of that information is likely:
(a) to prejudice national security (within the meaning of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004); or
(b) to be protected by public interest immunity; or
(c) to put at risk ongoing operations by law enforcement agencies or intelligence agencies; or
(d) to put at risk the safety of the community, law enforcement officers or intelligence officers.
The fact that information of a kind mentioned in this subsection is not required to be disclosed does not imply that such information is required to be disclosed in other provisions of this Part that relate to the disclosure of information.

(4) The following persons may adduce additional evidence (including by calling witnesses or producing material), or make additional submissions, to the court in relation to the application to vary the order:
   (a) the Commissioner;
   (b) one or more other AFP members;
   (c) the person in relation to whom the order is made;
   (d) one or more representatives of the person;
   (e) if paragraph (3)(b) applies—the Queensland public interest monitor (unless the monitor is a representative of the person).

(5) Subsection (4) does not otherwise limit the power of the court to control proceedings in relation to an application to vary a confirmed control order.

104.24 Varying a control order

(1) If an application is made under section 104.23, the issuing court may vary the control order, but only if:
   (a) an application has been made in accordance with section 104.23; and
   (b) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that each of the additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions to be imposed on the person by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the public from a terrorist act.

(2) In determining whether each of the additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions to be imposed on the person by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the court must take into account the impact of the obligation, prohibition or restriction on the person’s circumstances (including the person’s financial and personal circumstances).

(3) The court need not include in the order an obligation, prohibition or restriction that was sought if the court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) in respect of that obligation, prohibition or restriction.
Section 104.25

104.25 Terms of a varied control order

If the issuing court varies the control order under section 104.24, the following must be included in the order:

(a) a statement that the court is satisfied of the matter mentioned in paragraph 104.24(1)(b); and

(b) the additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions that are to be imposed on the person by the varied order; and

(c) a statement that the variation of the order does not begin to be in force until the varied order is served personally on the person; and

(d) a statement that the person’s lawyer may attend a specified place in order to obtain a copy of the varied order.

104.26 Service and explanation of a varied control order

(1) As soon as practicable after a control order is varied under section 104.24, an AFP member:

(a) must serve the varied order personally on the person; and

(b) must inform the person that the order has been varied to impose additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions; and

(c) must inform the person of the following:

(i) the effect of the additional obligations, prohibitions and restrictions;

(ii) the effect of sections 104.18, 104.21 and 104.27 (and section 104.22 if appropriate); and

(d) must ensure that the person understands the information provided under paragraph (c) (taking into account the person’s age, language skills, mental capacity and any other relevant factor).

(3) Paragraphs (1)(c) and (d) do not apply if the actions of the person in relation to whom the interim control order has been made make it impracticable for the AFP member to comply with those paragraphs.

(2) A police officer must not enter a dwelling house under subsection (1) at any time during the period commencing at 9 pm on a day and ending at 6 am on the following day unless the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that:

(b) it is necessary to do so in order to prevent the concealment, loss or destruction of evidence of, or relating to, a terrorist act.

(3) In subsection (2):

(b) seize any seizable items found as a result of the search.

105.24 Power to conduct an ordinary search

A police officer who takes a person into custody under a preventative detention order, or who is present when the person is taken into custody, may, if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person is carrying:

(a) evidence of, or relating to, a terrorist act; or conduct an ordinary search of the person at, or soon after, the time when the person is taken into custody, and seize any such thing found as a result of the search.

105.25 Warrant under Division 3 of Part III of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979

(1) This section applies if:

(a) a person is being detained under a preventative detention order; and

_Criminal Code Act 1995_ 195
(b) a warrant under Division 3 of Part III of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979 is in force in relation to the person; and
(c) a copy of the warrant is given to the police officer who is detaining the person under the preventative detention order.

(2) The police officer must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the person may be dealt with in accordance with the warrant.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the police officer may, under section 105.26, release the person from detention under the preventative detention order so that the person may be dealt with in accordance with the warrant.

Note: If the police officer is not an AFP member, the police officer will need to obtain the approval of a senior AFP member before releasing the person from detention (see subsection 105.26(2)).

(4) To avoid doubt, the fact that the person is released from detention under the preventative detention order so that the person may be:

(a) questioned before a prescribed authority under the warrant; or

(b) detained under the warrant in connection with that questioning;

does not extend the period for which the preventative detention order remains in force in relation to the person.

Note: See paragraph 105.26(7)(a).

105.26 Release of person from preventative detention

(1) The police officer who is detaining a person under a preventative detention order may release the person from detention under the order.

Note: A person may be released, for example, so that the person may be arrested and otherwise dealt with under the provisions of Division 4 of Part IAA, and Part IC, of the Crimes Act 1914.

(2) If the police officer detaining the person under the order is not an AFP member:

(a) the police officer must not release the person from detention without the approval of a senior AFP member; and

(b) the senior AFP member must approve the person’s release if the person is being released so that the person may be dealt with in accordance with a warrant under Division 3 of Part III of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation

(3) The police officer who releases the person from detention under the preventative detention order must give the person a written statement that the person is being released from that detention. The statement must be signed by the police officer.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the police officer releases the person from detention so that the person may be dealt with:
(a) in accordance with a warrant under Division 3 of Part III of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979; or (b) under the provisions of Division 4 of Part IAA, and Part IC, of the Crimes Act 1914.

(5) To avoid doubt, a person may be taken to have been released from detention under a preventative detention order even if:
(a) the person is informed that he or she is being released from detention under the order; and
(b) the person is taken into custody on some other basis immediately after the person is informed that he or she is being released from detention under the order.

(6) To avoid doubt, a person is taken not to be detained under a preventative detention order during a period during which the person is released from detention under the order.

Note: During this period, the provisions of this Division that apply to a person who is being detained under a preventative detention order (for example, section 105.34 which deals with the people the person may contact) do not apply to the person.

(7) To avoid doubt:
(a) the release of the person under subsection (1) from detention under the preventative detention order does not extend the period for which the preventative detention order remains in force; and
(b) a person released under subsection (1) from detention under a preventative detention order may again be taken into custody and detained under the order at any time while the order remains in force in relation to the person.
Section 105.27

(2) If an arrangement is made under subsection (1):
   (a) the preventative detention order is taken to authorise the person in charge of the prison or remand centre to detain the subject at the prison or remand centre while the order is in force in relation to the subject; and
   (b) section 105.33 applies in relation to the subject’s detention under the order at the prison or remand centre as if:
      (i) the person in charge of that prison or remand centre; or
      (ii) any other person involved in the subject’s detention at that prison or remand centre; were a person exercising authority under the order or implementing or enforcing the order; and
   (c) the senior AFP member who makes the arrangement is taken, while the subject is detained at the prison or remand centre, to be the AFP member detaining the subject for the purposes of Subdivisions D and E of this Division.

(3) The arrangement under subsection (1) may include provision for the Commonwealth meeting the expenses of the subject’s detention at the prison or remand centre.

(3) The police officer who is detaining the person under the preventative detention order must arrange for the assistance of an interpreter in complying with subsection 105.28(1) or 105.29(1) or section 105.30 if the police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is unable, because of inadequate knowledge of the English language or a disability, to communicate with reasonable fluency in that language.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), the assistance of the interpreter may be provided by telephone.

(5) The lawfulness of a person’s detention under a preventative detention order is not affected by a failure to comply with subsection 105.28(1) or 105.29(1), section 105.30 or subsection (3) of this section.

105.32 Copy of preventative detention order

(1) As soon as practicable after a person is first taken into custody under an initial preventative detention order, the police officer who is detaining the person under the order must give the person a copy of the order.

(3) Despite subsection 105.19(2), a police officer does not need to have a copy of the order with him or her, or to produce a copy of the order to the person being taken into custody, when the police officer takes the person into custody.

(4) As soon as practicable after a continued preventative detention order is made in relation to a person in relation to whom an initial preventative detention order is in force, the police officer who is detaining the person under the initial preventative detention order, or the continued preventative detention order, must give the person a copy of the continued preventative detention order.

(6) A person who is being detained under a preventative detention order may request a police officer who is detaining the person to arrange for a copy of:

(a) the order; or

(c) any extension or further extension of the order under section 105.10 or 105.14;

to be given to a lawyer acting for the person in relation to the order.

Note 1: Section 105.37 deals with the person’s right to contact a lawyer and the obligation of the police officer detaining the person to give the person assistance to choose a lawyer.

Note 2: Section 105.40 prevents the person from contacting a lawyer who is specified in a prohibited contact order.

(7) The police officer must make arrangements for a copy of the order, or the extension or further extension, to be given to the lawyer as soon as practicable after the request is made.

(8) Without limiting subsection (7), the copy of the order, or the extension, may be faxed or emailed to the lawyer.

(9) To avoid doubt, subsection (7) does not entitle the lawyer to be given a copy of, or see, a document other than the order, or the extension or further extension.

(10) Nothing in this section requires a copy of a prohibited contact order to be given to a person.

(11) The police officer who gives:

(a) the person being detained under an initial preventative detention order; or

(b) a lawyer acting for the person;

a copy of the initial preventative detention order under this section must endorse on the copy the date on which, and time at which, the person was first taken into custody under the order.

(2) For the purposes of this Division, if property, or a right or interest in property, is, or purports to be, transferred or given to a person acting in good faith, a later assumption by the person of rights which the person had believed himself or herself to be acquiring does not, because of any defect in the transferor’s title, amount to an appropriation of the property.

131.6 Obligation to deal with property in a particular way

For the purposes of this Division, if:

(a) a person receives property from or on account of another; and
(b) the person is under a legal obligation to the other to retain and deal with that property or its proceeds in a particular way;

(1) For the purposes of this Division, if:
(a) a person appropriates property belonging to another without meaning the other permanently to lose the thing itself; and
(b) the person’s intention is to treat the thing as the person’s own to dispose of regardless of the other’s rights;
the person has the intention of permanently depriving the other of it.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a borrowing or lending of a thing amounts to treating the thing as the borrower’s or lender’s own to dispose of regardless of another’s rights if, and only if, the borrowing or lending is for a period and in circumstances making it equivalent to an outright taking or disposal.

(3) For the purposes of this section, if:
(a) a person has possession or control (lawfully or not) of property belonging to another; and
(b) the person parts with the property under a condition as to its return that the person may not be able to perform; and

Note: See also paragraph 131.7(2)(a).

131.11 General deficiency

(1) For the purposes of this Division, a person may be convicted of theft of all or any part of a general deficiency in money even though the deficiency is made up of any number of particular sums of money that were appropriated over a period of time.

(1) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person engages in conduct; and

(b) the conduct causes harm to an individual; and

(c) the individual is under 14 years of age; and

Penalty: Imprisonment for 9 years or 1,800 penalty units, or both.

Section 310.4

(3) In a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1), it is not necessary to prove that a particular person committed the offence mentioned in paragraph (1)(e).

310.4 Aggravated offences—manufacturing controlled drugs and controlled precursors

(1) If the prosecution intends to prove an aggravated offence, the charge must allege the relevant aggravated offence.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, an offence against section 305.4 or 305.5 is an aggravated offence if:
   (a) the commission of the offence exposes an individual to the manufacture of a controlled drug; and
   (b) the individual is under 14 years of age.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, an offence against section 306.2, 306.3 or 306.4 is an aggravated offence if:

       (i) a controlled precursor intended to be used for the manufacture of a controlled drug; or
       (ii) the manufacture of a controlled precursor; and
   (b) the individual is under 14 years of age.

(4) The fault element for paragraphs (2)(a) and (3)(a) is recklessness.

(5) Strict liability applies to paragraphs (2)(b) and (3)(b).

(6) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply if the commission of the offence does not give rise to a danger of harm to the individual.

   Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (6) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

(7) For the purposes of this section, if the commission of an offence exposes a person to the risk of catching a disease that may give rise to a danger of harm to the person, the commission of the offence is taken to give rise to a danger of harm to the person.
Section 310.4

(8) For the purposes of this section, the commission of an offence gives rise to a danger of harm if the commission of the offence is ordinarily capable of creating a real, and not merely a theoretical, danger of harm.

(9) For the purposes of this section, the commission of an offence may give rise to a danger of harm whatever the statistical or arithmetical calculation of the degree of risk of harm involved.
Division 311—Combining quantities of drugs, plants or precursors

Subdivision A—Combining different parcels on the same occasion

the person may be charged with a single offence against this Part in respect of all or any of the different parcels of drugs, plants or precursors.

Note: See section 312.2 for working out quantities where different kinds of controlled or border controlled drugs, plants or precursors are involved.

(3) If the prosecution intends to rely on this Subdivision, particulars of each parcel of drugs, plants or precursors must be set out in the charge.

(4) This Subdivision does not prevent a person being charged with separate offences in respect of different parcels of drugs, plants or precursors.

Subdivision B—Combining parcels from organised commercial activities

(c) that the defendant was engaged in an organised commercial activity that involved repeated trafficking in controlled drugs; and
Section 311.3

(d) that the relevant quantity of a controlled drug, or of a combination of controlled drugs, was trafficked in the course of that activity.

Note 1: See section 312.2 for working out quantities where different kinds of controlled drugs are involved.

Note 2: Section 313.4 provides a partial defence in relation to the matter in paragraph (1)(d).

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is not necessary for the prosecution to specify or prove:
   (a) the exact date of each occasion of trafficking; or

Section 311.4

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is not necessary for the prosecution to specify or prove:
   (a) the exact date of each occasion of pre-trafficking; or

(1) If, in proceedings for an offence, the prosecution intends to rely on section 311.2, 311.3, 311.4, 311.5 or 311.6:
   (a) the fact that it intends to do so must be set out in the charge; and
   (b) a description of the conduct alleged for the purposes of that section must be set out in the charge or provided to the accused within a reasonable time before the proceedings.

(2) If:
   (a) an occasion of trafficking, pre-trafficking, importing or exporting or supplying is alleged in proceedings against a person for an offence prosecuted in accordance with section 311.2, 311.3, 311.4, 311.5 or 311.6; and

311.22 General rules—combining parcels from multiple offences

(1) If the prosecution intends to rely on a section of this Subdivision, the particulars of the offences alleged to have been committed on the different occasions must be set out in the charge.

(2) The same parcel of controlled drugs, controlled plants, controlled precursors, border controlled drugs, border controlled plants or border controlled precursors must not be counted more than once for the purposes of this Subdivision.

Example: A person is in possession of a quantity of a controlled drug for sale on one day (the first occasion) and sells that particular quantity the next day (the second occasion). Only the quantity trafficked on one of those occasions may be counted.

(3) This Subdivision does not prevent a person being charged with separate offences in respect of conduct on different occasions.
Division 312—Working out quantities of drugs, plants or precursors

312.1 Working out quantities of drugs and precursors in mixtures

(1) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the controlled drug involved:
   (a) by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the controlled drug; or
   (b) if such a quantity is specified in Division 314 for the controlled drug in a mixture—by proving that quantity of the mixture.

(2) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a controlled precursor in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the controlled precursor involved by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the controlled precursor.

(3) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a border controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the border controlled drug involved:
   (a) by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the border controlled drug; or
   (b) if such a quantity is specified in Division 314 for the border controlled drug in a mixture—by proving that quantity of the mixture.

(4) If an alleged offence against this Part involves a quantity of a border controlled precursor in a mixture of substances, the prosecution may prove the quantity of the border controlled precursor involved by proving that the mixture contains that quantity of the pure form of the border controlled precursor.

312.2 Working out quantities where different kinds of drugs, plants or precursors are involved

(1) This section applies if a person is charged with a single offence against this Part that involves:
Section 312.2

(a) trafficking in more than one kind of controlled drug; or
(b) cultivating more than one kind of controlled plant; or
(c) selling more than one kind of controlled plant; or
(d) manufacturing more than one kind of controlled drug; or
(e) pre-trafficking in more than one kind of controlled precursor; or
(f) importing or exporting more than one kind of border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
(g) possessing more than one kind of unlawfully imported border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
(h) possessing more than one kind of border controlled drug or border controlled plant reasonably suspected of having been unlawfully imported; or
(i) importing or exporting more than one kind of border controlled precursor; or
(j) supplying more than one kind of controlled drug to a child for trafficking; or
(k) procuring a child to traffic in more than one kind of controlled drug; or
(l) procuring a child to pre-traffic in more than one kind of controlled precursor; or
(m) procuring a child to import or export more than one kind of border controlled drug or border controlled plant; or
(n) procuring a child to import or export more than one kind of border controlled precursor.

(2) The following apply for the purposes of working out the quantity of controlled drugs, controlled plants, controlled precursors, border controlled drugs, border controlled plants or border controlled precursors involved in the offence:

(a) the quantity of the drugs or plants is a trafficable quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the trafficable quantity of each of those drugs or plants is equal to or greater than one;

(b) the quantity of drugs, plants or precursors is a marketable quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the marketable quantity of each of those drugs, plants or precursors is equal to or greater than one;

(c) the quantity of drugs, plants or precursors is a commercial quantity if the sum of the requisite fractions of the commercial quantity of each of those drugs, plants or precursors is equal to or greater than one.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, \textit{requisite fraction} means:

(a) in relation to a trafficable quantity of a controlled drug or controlled plant, the actual quantity of the drug or plant divided by the smallest trafficable quantity of the drug or plant; or

(b) in relation to a marketable quantity of a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor, the actual quantity of the drug, plant or precursor divided by the smallest marketable quantity of the drug, plant or precursor; or

(c) in relation to a commercial quantity of a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor, the actual quantity of the drug, plant or precursor divided by the smallest commercial quantity of the drug, plant or precursor.

(4) If this section applies in relation to a controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the requisite fraction of a trafficable, marketable or commercial quantity of the controlled drug may be calculated:

(a) on the basis of the quantity of the controlled drug in pure form; or

(b) if such a quantity is specified in Division 314 for the controlled drug in a mixture—on the basis of the quantity of the mixture.

(5) If this section applies in relation to a border controlled drug in a mixture of substances, the requisite fraction of a marketable or commercial quantity of the border controlled drug may be calculated:

(a) on the basis of the quantity of the border controlled drug in pure form; or

(b) if such a quantity is specified in Division 314 for the border controlled drug in a mixture—on the basis of the quantity of the mixture.
Division 313—Defences and alternative verdicts

313.1 Defence—conduct justified or excused by or under a law of a State or Territory

This Part, other than Division 307, does not apply in relation to conduct if:

(a) a person engages in the conduct in a State or Territory; and
(b) the conduct is justified or excused by or under a law of that State or Territory.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this section (see subsection 13.3(3)).

Note 2: A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against this Part if the person’s conduct is justified or excused by or under another Commonwealth law (see section 10.5). In 2005, Commonwealth laws that authorised importation, possession or use of controlled drugs, controlled plants, controlled precursors, border controlled drugs, border controlled plants or border controlled precursors included the Customs Act 1901, the Narcotic Drugs Act 1967 and the Crimes Act 1914.

313.2 Defence—reasonable belief that conduct is justified or excused by or under a law

A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against this Part if:

(a) at the time of the conduct constituting the offence, the person was under a mistaken but reasonable belief that the conduct was justified or excused by or under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; and
(b) had the conduct been so justified or excused—the conduct would not have constituted the offence.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (a) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

313.3 Alternative verdict—offence not proved

If:

(a) in a prosecution for an offence against this Part, the trier of fact:
Section 313.4

(i) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the alleged offence; but
(ii) is satisfied, beyond reasonable doubt, that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Part; and
(b) the maximum penalty for the other offence is not greater than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the alleged offence but guilty of the other offence, so long as the defendant has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

313.4 Alternative verdict—mistake as to quantity of drug, plant or precursor

(1) This section applies if:
(a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
(b) the offence involves a commercial quantity or a marketable quantity of a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and
(c) the trier of fact would, apart from this section, have found the defendant guilty of the offence.

(2) If:
(a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the quantity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
(b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
(c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;
the trier of fact may find the defendant:
(d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
(e) guilty of the other offence.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).
Section 313.5

313.5 Alternative verdict—mistake as to identity of drug, plant or precursor

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) an offence against this Part (other than Division 307) is prosecuted; and
   (b) the offence involves a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor; and
   (c) the trier of fact would, apart from this section, have found the defendant guilty of the offence.

(2) If:
   (a) the defendant proves that, at the time of the alleged offence, he or she was under a mistaken belief about the identity of the drug, plant or precursor; and
   (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
   (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;

the trier of fact may find the defendant:
   (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
   (e) guilty of the other offence.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in paragraph (2)(a) (see section 13.4).

Section 314.1

(2) A substance is a controlled drug if the substance (the drug analogue) is, in relation to a controlled drug listed in subsection (1) (or a stereoisomer, a structural isomer (with the same constituent groups) or an alkaloid of such a controlled drug):
(a) a stereoisomer; or
(b) a structural isomer having the same constituent groups; or
(c) an alkaloid; or
(d) a structural modification obtained by the addition of one or more of the following groups:
   (i) alkoxy, cyclic diether, acyl, acyloxy, mono-amino or dialkylamino groups with up to 6 carbon atoms in any alkyl residue;
   (ii) alkyl, alkenyl or alkynyl groups with up to 6 carbon atoms in the group, where the group is attached to oxygen (for example, an ester or an ether group), nitrogen, sulphur or carbon;
   (iii) halogen, hydroxy, nitro or amino groups; or
(e) a structural modification obtained in one or more of the following ways:
   (i) by the replacement of up to 2 carbocyclic or heterocyclic ring structures with different carbocyclic or heterocyclic ring structures;
   (ii) by the addition of hydrogen atoms to one or more unsaturated bonds;
   (iii) by the replacement of one or more of the groups specified in paragraph (d) with another such group or groups;
   (iv) by the conversion of a carboxyl or an ester group into an amide group; or
   (f) otherwise a homologue, analogue, chemical derivative or substance substantially similar in chemical structure; however obtained, except where the drug analogue is separately listed in subsection (1).

(3) The trafficable quantity for a drug analogue described in subsection (2) is:
(a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the trafficable quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for the controlled drug to which the drug analogue relates (whether directly or indirectly); or

Section 314.2

(b) if the drug analogue relates to more than one controlled drug listed in the table in subsection (1)—the smallest trafficable quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for any of those controlled drugs.

(4) The marketable quantity for a drug analogue described in subsection (2) is:
   (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the marketable quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for the controlled drug to which the drug analogue relates (whether directly or indirectly); or
   (b) if the drug analogue relates to more than one controlled drug listed in the table in subsection (1)—the smallest marketable quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for any of those controlled drugs.

(5) The commercial quantity for a drug analogue described in subsection (2) is:
   (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the commercial quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for the controlled drug to which the drug analogue relates (whether directly or indirectly); or
   (b) if the drug analogue relates to more than one controlled drug listed in the table in subsection (1)—the smallest commercial quantity set out in the table in subsection (1) for any of those controlled drugs.

(2) A substance is also a border controlled drug if the substance (the drug analogue) is, in relation to a border controlled drug listed in subsection (1) (or a stereoisomer, a structural isomer (with the same constituent groups) or an alkaloid of such a border controlled drug):

(a) a stereoisomer; or
(b) a structural isomer having the same constituent groups; or
(c) an alkaloid; or
(d) a structural modification obtained by the addition of one or more of the following groups:
   (i) alkoxy, cyclic diether, acyl, acyloxy, mono-amino or dialkylamino groups with up to 6 carbon atoms in any alkyl residue;
   (ii) alkyl, alkenyl or alkynyl groups with up to 6 carbon atoms in the group, where the group is attached to oxygen (for example, an ester or an ether group), nitrogen, sulphur or carbon;
   (iii) halogen, hydroxy, nitro or amino groups; or
(e) a structural modification obtained in one or more of the following ways:
(i) by the replacement of up to 2 carbocyclic or heterocyclic ring structures with different carbocyclic or heterocyclic ring structures;
(ii) by the addition of hydrogen atoms to one or more unsaturated bonds;
(iii) by the replacement of one or more of the groups specified in paragraph (d) with another such group or groups;
(iv) by the conversion of a carboxyl or an ester group into an amide group; or
(f) otherwise a homologue, analogue, chemical derivative or substance substantially similar in chemical structure; however obtained, except where the drug analogue is separately listed in subsection (1).

(3) The marketable quantity for a drug analogue described in subsection (2) is:
(a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the marketable quantity specified in the table in subsection (1) for the border controlled drug to which the drug analogue relates (whether directly or indirectly); or
(b) if the drug analogue relates to more than one border controlled drug listed in the table in subsection (1)—the smallest marketable quantity specified in the table in subsection (1) for any of those border controlled drugs.

(4) The commercial quantity for a drug analogue described in subsection (2) is:
(a) unless paragraph (b) applies—the commercial quantity specified in the table in subsection (1) for the border controlled drug to which the drug analogue relates (whether directly or indirectly); or
(b) if the drug analogue relates to more than one border controlled drug listed in the table in subsection (1)—the smallest commercial quantity specified in the table in subsection (1) for any of those border controlled drugs.

       (c) the person is reckless as to the fact that the money or property is proceeds of crime or the fact that there is a risk that it will become an instrument of crime (as the case requires).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months, or 30 penalty units, or both.

(3) A person is guilty of an offence if:
(a) the person deals with money or other property; and
(b) either:
   (i) the money or property is proceeds of crime; or
   (ii) there is a risk that the money or property will become an instrument of crime; and
(c) the person is negligent as to the fact that the money or property is proceeds of crime or the fact that there is a risk that it will become an instrument of crime (as the case requires).

Penalty: 10 penalty units.

400.9 Possession etc. of property reasonably suspected of being proceeds of crime etc.

(1) A person is guilty of an offence if:
(a) the person:
   (i) receives, possesses, conceals or disposes of money or other property; or
   (ii) imports money or other property into, or exports money or other property from, Australia; and
(b) it is reasonable to suspect any of the following:
   (i) the money or property is proceeds of crime in relation to a Commonwealth indictable offence or a foreign indictable offence;
   (ia) the money or property is proceeds of crime in relation to a State indictable offence;
   (ib) the money or property is proceeds of crime in relation to an Australian Capital Territory indictable offence or a Northern Territory indictable offence;
   (ii) the money or property is proceeds of crime, and the person’s conduct referred to in paragraph (a) takes place in circumstances referred to in subsection (3).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years, or 50 penalty units, or both.
(2) Without limiting paragraph (1)(b), that paragraph is taken to be satisfied if:

(a) the conduct referred to in paragraph (1)(a) involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or

(aa) the conduct involves a number of transactions that are structured or arranged to avoid the reporting requirements of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 that would otherwise apply to the transactions; or

(b) the conduct involves using one or more accounts held with ADIs in false names; or

(ba) the conduct amounts to an offence against section 139, 140 or 141 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006; or

(c) the value of the money and property involved in the conduct is, in the opinion of the trier of fact, grossly out of proportion to the defendant’s income and expenditure; or

(d) the conduct involves a significant cash transaction within the meaning of the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988, and the defendant:
   (i) has contravened his or her obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
   (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or

(da) the conduct involves a threshold transaction (within the meaning of the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006) and the defendant:
   (i) has contravened the defendant’s obligations under that Act relating to reporting the transaction; or
   (ii) has given false or misleading information in purported compliance with those obligations; or

(e) the defendant:
   (i) has stated that the conduct was engaged in on behalf of or at the request of another person; and
   (ii) has not provided information enabling the other person to be identified and located.
Section 400.10

(3) Subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies if the conduct in question takes place:

(a) in the course of or for the purposes of importation of goods into, or exportation of goods from, Australia; or
(b) by means of a communication using a postal, telegraphic or telephonic service within the meaning of paragraph 51(xx) of the Constitution; or
(c) in the course of banking (other than State banking that does not extend beyond the limits of the State concerned).

(4) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(b).

(5) This section does not apply if the defendant proves that he or she had no reasonable grounds for suspecting that the money or property was derived or realised, directly or indirectly, from some form of unlawful activity.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5) (see section 13.4).

(6) Subparagraph (1)(b)(ia), in its application to an offence against subsection (1), has effect only to the extent to which it is a law with respect to external affairs (within the meaning of paragraph 51 (xxix) of the Constitution).

400.10 Mistake of fact as to the value of money or property

(1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence against section 400.3, 400.4, 400.5, 400.6 or 400.7 in relation to money or property if:

(a) at or before the time of dealing with the money or property, the person considered what was the value of the money or property, and was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about that value; and
(b) had the value been what the person believed it to be, the person’s conduct would have constituted another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged.

Example: Assume that a person deals with money or property that is the proceeds of crime. While the person believes it to be proceeds of crime, he or she is under a mistaken but reasonable belief that it is worth $90,000 when it is in fact worth $120,000.
That belief is a defence to an offence against subsection 400.4(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $100,000 or more). However, the person would be guilty of an offence against subsection 400.5(1) (which deals with money or property of a value of $10,000 or more). Section 400.14 allows for an alternative verdict of guilty of an offence against subsection 400.5(1).

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (1) (see subsection 13.3(3)).

(2) A person may be regarded as having considered what the value of the money or property was if:

(a) he or she had considered, on a previous occasion, what the value of the money or property was in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and

(b) he or she honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

400.11 Proof of certain matters relating to kinds of offences not required

In a prosecution for an offence against a provision of this Division, it is not necessary to prove the existence of any fault element in relation to any of the following:

(a) whether an offence may be dealt with as an indictable offence;

(b) whether an offence is an indictable offence;

(c) whether an offence is a Commonwealth indictable offence;

(d) whether an offence is a foreign indictable offence;

(e) whether an offence is a State indictable offence;

(f) whether an offence is an Australian Capital Territory indictable offence;

(g) whether an offence is a Northern Territory indictable offence.

400.12 Combining several contraventions in a single charge

(1) A single charge of an offence against a provision of this Division may be about 2 or more instances of the defendant engaging in conduct (at the same time or different times) that constitutes an offence against a provision of this Division.
Section 400.13

(2) If:

(a) a single charge is about 2 or more such instances; and

(b) the value of the money and other property dealt with is an element of the offence in question;

that value is taken to be the sum of the values of the money and other property dealt with in respect of each of those instances.

400.13 Proof of other offences is not required

(1) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division that money or property is proceeds of crime, to establish:

(a) a particular offence was committed in relation to the money or property; or

(b) a particular person committed an offence in relation to the money or property.

(2) To avoid doubt, it is not necessary, in order to prove for the purposes of this Division an intention or risk that money or property will be an instrument of crime, to establish that:

(a) an intention or risk that a particular offence will be committed in relation to the money or property; or

(b) an intention or risk that a particular person will commit an offence in relation to the money or property.

400.14 Alternative verdicts

If, on a trial for an offence against a provision of this Division (the offence charged), the trier of fact:

(a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of the offence charged; but

(b) is otherwise satisfied that the defendant is guilty of another offence against this Division for which the maximum penalty, in penalty units, is less than the maximum penalty, in penalty units, for the offence charged;

the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of the offence charged but guilty of the other offence, so long as the person has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.
400.15 Geographical jurisdiction

Section 15.2 (extended geographical jurisdiction—category B) applies to each offence against this Division.

400.16 Saving of other laws

This Division is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of any other law of the Commonwealth or any law of a State or Territory.

(a) the person dishonestly appropriates:
   (i) a mail-receptacle; or appears to have been lost or wrongly delivered by or on behalf of Australia Post or lost in the course of delivery to Australia Post); or

This subsection has effect subject to subsection (4).

Original stolen property

(3) For the purposes of this section, original stolen property is property, or a part of property, that:

(a) was appropriated in the course of an offence against section 471.1 (whether or not the property, or the part of the property, is in the state it was in when it was so appropriated); and
(b) is in the possession or custody of the person who so appropriated the property.
