   (b) the threat of riot or open violence; or
   (c) storm, tempest, flood or an occurrence of a similar kind; or
   (d) a health hazard; or

   (i) the safety of voters; or
   (ii) difficulties in the physical conduct of the voting.

(2) If from any cause any polling booth at a polling place is not opened on the voting day at a referendum the presiding officer at the polling booth may adjourn the voting for a period not exceeding 21 days, and shall forthwith give public notice of the adjournment.

the presiding officer shall adjourn the voting at the referendum to the same day.

44 Adjourned voting

Where the voting at a referendum is adjourned at a polling place, only those electors:
(a) who are enrolled for the Subdivision for which the polling place is appointed; or and who have not already voted, are entitled to vote during the adjourned voting at that polling place.

Referendum (Machinery Provisions) Act 1984
45 Compulsory voting

(1) It is the duty of every elector to vote at a referendum.

(2) The Electoral Commissioner must, after the voting day at a referendum, being a referendum the voting day for which was not the same as that fixed for the polling at a Senate election or a general election of members of the House of Representatives, prepare for each Division a list of the names and addresses of the electors who appear to have failed to vote at the referendum.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), within the period of 3 months after the voting day at a referendum, each DRO must:
   (a) send a penalty notice by post; or
   (b) arrange for a penalty notice to be delivered by other means;
   to the latest known address of each elector whose name appears on the list prepared under subsection (2).

(4) The DRO is not required to send or deliver a penalty notice if he or she is satisfied that the elector:
   (a) is dead; or
   (b) was absent from Australia on the voting day for the referendum; or
   (c) was ineligible to vote at the referendum; or
   (d) had a valid and sufficient reason for failing to vote.

(5) A penalty notice is a notice in an approved form notifying the elector that:
   (a) the elector appears to have failed to vote at the referendum; and
   (b) it is an offence to fail to vote at a referendum without a valid and sufficient reason for the failure; and
   (c) if the elector does not wish to have the apparent failure to vote dealt with by a court, the elector may, within the prescribed time:
      (i) if the elector did vote as required by this Act—give the DRO particulars of the circumstances of the elector’s voting; or
      (ii) if the elector failed to vote—give the DRO a valid and sufficient reason for the failure; or
(iii) pay to the DRO a penalty of $20.

(6) If an elector does not respond to a penalty notice in the manner indicated in subparagraph (5)(c)(i), (ii) or (iii), within the prescribed time, the DRO must send by post or deliver to the elector, at his or her latest known address, a second penalty notice, having, subject to subsection (7), the same form as the first such notice but bearing a notation to the effect that a previous notice in the same terms was sent to the elector but that a response in the manner indicated in subparagraph (5)(c)(i), (ii) or (iii) was not received.

(7) The provisions of this section, other than subsection (6), apply in relation to a second penalty notice:
   (a) as if it were a penalty notice issued under subsection (3); and
   (b) as if, in the provisions of this section as so applied, references to paragraphs and subparagraphs of subsection (5) included references to those paragraphs and subparagraphs as applied by this section.

(8) If, within the prescribed time:
   (a) an elector responds to a penalty notice in the manner indicated in subparagraph (5)(c)(i) or (ii) and the DRO to whom the response has been given is satisfied:
      (i) in the case of a response of the kind referred to in subparagraph (5)(c)(i)—that the elector did vote as required by this Act; or
      (ii) in the case of a response of the kind referred to in subparagraph (5)(c)(ii)—that the reason for the failure to vote is a valid and sufficient reason; or
   (b) an elector responds to a penalty notice by paying the penalty of $20;
   proceedings against the elector for a contravention of subsection (14) are prohibited.

(9) If the DRO to whom a response to a penalty notice has been given under subparagraph (5)(c)(i) or (ii) within the prescribed time is not satisfied:
   (a) in the case of a response of the kind referred to in subparagraph (5)(c)(i)—that the elector voted as required by this Act; or
(b) in the case of a response of the kind referred to in subparagraph (5)(c)(ii)—that the reason for the failure to vote is a valid and sufficient reason;
the DRO must send by post or deliver to the elector, at his or her latest known address, a notice in an approved form, notifying the elector that:
(c) the DRO is not so satisfied; and
(d) if the elector does not wish to have the apparent failure to vote without a valid and sufficient reason for such failure dealt with by a court, he or she may, within the prescribed time, pay to the DRO a penalty of $20.

(10) If, in response to a notice under subsection (9), the penalty of $20 is paid to the DRO within the prescribed time, proceedings against the elector for a contravention of subsection (14) are prohibited.

(11) If an elector is unable, by reason of absence from his or her place of living or physical incapacity, to respond to a penalty notice or to a notice under subsection (9) within the prescribed time, any other elector who has a personal knowledge of the facts may, subject to the regulations, respond to the notice within that time, and such response is to be treated as compliance by the first-mentioned elector with the notice.

(12) The DRO must prepare a list of all electors to whom a penalty notice has been sent or delivered and note on that list in relation to each elector:
(a) whether there has been a response to the notice; and
(b) if there has been a response:
   (i) whether the DRO is satisfied that the elector did in fact vote or that there was a valid and sufficient reason for the elector’s failure to vote; or
   (ii) whether the penalty has been paid.

(13) The DRO must note on the list prepared under subsection (12) in relation to each elector to whom a notice under subsection (9) has been sent or delivered:
(a) the fact that a notice has been sent or delivered under subsection (9); and
(b) whether there has been a response to the notice; and Section 45

(c) if there has been a response—whether the penalty has been paid.

(13A) Without limiting the circumstances that may constitute a valid and sufficient reason for not voting, the fact that an elector believes it to be part of his or her religious duty to abstain from voting constitutes a valid and sufficient reason for the failure of the elector to vote.

(14) An elector is guilty of an offence if the elector fails to vote at a referendum.

Penalty: $50.

(14A) Strict liability applies to an offence against subsection (14).

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

(14B) Subsection (14) does not apply if the elector has a valid and sufficient reason for the failure.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (14B) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

(14C) An elector who makes a statement in response to a penalty notice or to a notice under subsection (9) that is, to his or her knowledge, false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $50.

(15) Proceedings for an offence against this section may be instituted only by the Electoral Commissioner or an officer authorised, in writing, for the purpose by the Electoral Commissioner.

(16) In this section, elector does not include:

(a) an Antarctic elector; or
(b) an eligible overseas elector; or that did not affect the result of the referendum.

(2) Where any elector was, on account of the absence of any officer, or error of, or omission by, any officer, prevented from voting at a referendum, the High Court shall not, for the purpose of determining whether the absence, error or omission did or did not affect the result of the referendum, admit any evidence of the way in which the elector intended to vote.

2. All written applications for postal votes not already dealt with at a preliminary scrutiny shall be produced at each preliminary scrutiny of postal votes.

3. The DRO shall compare the signature of the elector on each postal vote application with the signature on the relevant postal vote certificate and allow the scrutineers to inspect both signatures.

3A. For each postal vote certificate not dealt with under paragraph 3, the DRO must compare the signature of the elector on the postal vote certificate with the signature of the elector on:
   (a) the elector’s application for registration as a general postal voter under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918; or
   (b) the elector’s application for enrolment or transfer of enrolment under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918;
