

STATUTORY RULES.

1913. No. 202.

PROVISIONAL REGULATIONS UNDER THE NAVAL DEFENCE ACT 1910-1912.

I, THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, hereby certify that, on account of urgency, the following Regulations under the Naval Defence Act 1910-1912, should come into immediate operation, and further, should be taken to have come into operation on the 1st day of July, 1913, and make the Regulations to come into operation accordingly as Provisional Regulations.

Dated this fourteenth day of July, One thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

DENMAN,

Governor-General

By His Excellency's Command,

E. D. MILLEN.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE APPOINTMENT TO THE ROYAL AUSTRALIAN NAVAL RESERVE OF PERSONS FOR SPECIFIC DUTIES, e.g., EXAMINING OFFICERS.

Commissions on the Unattached List of the Royal Australian Naval Reserve may be granted, on the recommendation of the Naval Board, to persons holding special qualifications rendering them competent to perform certain Naval duties during war or in an emergency.

2. Such Officers shall be liable to be called out in time of war or emergency to perform the specific duties for which they are appointed. These Officers may also be required to perform certain training in peace time.

3. Such Officers, when under training, shall receive the pay laid down for their equivalent ranks of the Royal Australian Naval Reserve (O.); and when called out for service in war time or an emergency shall receive the active pay and allowances of their equivalent ranks in the Permanent Naval Forces (Seagoing).

4. Such Officers shall be placed on the Retired List on attaining the age of 60 years.

5. Any such Officer ceasing to follow the employment which rendered him qualified for the specific duty for which he was appointed to the List shall be placed on the Retired List, but may subsequently be reinstated on the Unattached List should he, at any time before reaching the age limit, resume his former employment.

6. All such Officers shall report themselves in writing once a year to the Naval Secretary. Failing this, their names shall be removed from the List.
