Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Person not to be admitted without stamped ticket in certain cases.

22. A person shall not be admitted for payment to any entertainment or to any part or parts of a place of entertainment otherwise than by stamped ticket where the total amount or amounts paid for admission of the person admitted exceeds sixpence.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

Stamped tickets to be supplied by Commissioner after proclaimed day.

23. On and after a day fixed by the Commissioner and notified in the Gazette (hereinafter called the proclaimed day) all stamped tickets shall be supplied by the Commissioner only and may be obtained by proprietors of entertainments from or through a post-office.

Until proclaimed day postage stamps may be used.

24. Until the proclaimed day tickets may be stamped by the proprietor of the entertainment by affixing to each ticket issued an unused postage stamp or stamps equal in value to the tax payable on the payment for admission in respect of which the ticket is issued.

Issuing ticket other than stamped ticket.

25. A proprietor of an entertainment—

- (a) who issues or uses; or
- (b) who permits or suffers to be issued or used; or
- (c) in respect of whose entertainment there is issued or used—for or in connexion with the admission of any person to the entertainment or to any part of the place of entertainment in respect of which tax is payable any ticket other than a stamped ticket shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Stamped ticket not to be defaced without authority.

26. A stamped ticket or the stamps on a stamped ticket shall not be defaced without the authority of the Commissioner.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

27. For the purpose of payment of tax each person entitled to admission on a multiple ticket shall be deemed to pay for his admission an equal proportion of the full amount paid for the ticket.

28. (1) A ticket shall not be issued more than once.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(2) A ticket (other than a season ticket) shall not be used more than once.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(3) A ticket (other than a multiple ticket) shall not be issued or used for the admission of more than one person.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

29. When a person is admitted to any part of a place of entertainment and is subsequently admitted to another part or other parts of the place of entertainment and payments totalling more than sixpence in all are made for the admissions, tax shall be payable on the total of the amounts paid for all the admissions as if the total amount had been paid for a single admission.

30. A person who has been admitted to any part of a place of entertainment shall not thereafter be admitted for payment to any other part of the place of entertainment unless and until either—

(a) a stamped transfer ticket is issued to him; or

(b) a stamped ticket for the full price of admission to such other part of the place of entertainment is issued to him—if the total of the amounts paid in respect of all the admissions exceeds sixpence.

Penalty: Twenty pounds.

31. Within twenty-four hours after the close of each entertainment which is or should be registered in accordance with these Regulations (or within such further time as the Commissioner may in writing allow to the proprietor of the entertainment for that purpose) the proprietor of the entertainment shall forward to the Commissioner at the office of the Deputy Commissioner for the State in which the entertainment was held—

(a) all tickets issued and used in connexion with the entertainment;

(b) a statement certified by the proprietor as correct showing—

(i) the consecutive numbers on all tickets issued in connexion with the entertainment;

(ii) the total number of persons admitted for each separate taxable payment for admission;

(iii) the total number of persons admitted from one part to another part of the place of entertainment;

(iv) the number of transfer tickets issued; and

(v) the total number of each differently priced transfer ticket issued.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

32. Before any stamped tickets are supplied by the Commissioner the proprietor of the entertainment in connexion with which the tickets are to be used shall deposit with the Commissioner—

(a) an amount equal to the total tax represented by the stamps on the tickets supplied; and

(b) the amount fixed by the Commissioner as the purchase price for printing and supplying the tickets.

33. (1) Where tax has been deposited with the Commissioner under Regulation 34 and the proprietor of the entertainment proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that—

(a) the tickets or any of the tickets supplied were not issued;

or

Multiple ticket deemed to be paid for in equal proportions. Issue and use of tickets once.

Transfer from part of entertainment to another part.

Person not to be transferred except on stamped ticket.

Tickets to be forwarded to Commissioner.

Refund where stamped tickets not used.

- (b) the tickets or any of the tickets supplied were issued but the payments made for such tickets were wholly or partly refunded by the proprietor—

the Commissioner may repay to the proprietor so much of the tax deposited as is in excess of the tax properly payable on payments for admission to the entertainment.

(2) The decision of the Commissioner as to the amount of tax properly payable shall for the purpose of this Regulation be final and conclusive.

Division 2.—Payment Otherwise than by Stamped Ticket.

Application for the approval of arrangement under s. 8 (1) of Act.

34. (1) An application by a proprietor of an entertainment for the approval of the Commissioner to an arrangement for furnishing returns under section (8) (1) of the Act may be in accordance with Form A in the Schedule.

(2) If the Commissioner approves of the arrangement a certificate in accordance with Form B in the Schedule shall be issued to the proprietor of the entertainment.

General conditions to be binding on person to whom certificate is issued.

35. (1) Each and every of the general conditions set forth in the Schedule shall be binding upon every proprietor of an entertainment to whom a certificate in accordance with Form B in the Schedule is issued.

(2) Whenever a breach or non-observance of any of the general conditions set forth in the Schedule occurs at or in connexion with or in respect of any entertainment to the proprietor of which a certificate in accordance with Form B in the Schedule is issued, the proprietor of the entertainment shall notwithstanding that the breach or non-observance occurred contrary to his instructions or without his knowledge, be deemed to be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

Use of barrier or mechanical contrivance.

36. (1) A proprietor of an entertainment may use a barrier or mechanical contrivance to automatically register the number of persons admitted to the entertainment, upon compliance with the following conditions, viz. :—

- (a) The approval of the Commissioner shall first be obtained by the proprietor;
- (b) The mechanical contrivance that records the number of persons admitted shall be approved by the Commissioner and shall be secured by a lock or seal approved by the Commissioner;
- (c) The barrier or mechanical contrivance shall be fixed in a manner approved by the Commissioner and shall not be interfered with without the authority of the Commissioner;
- (d) Unless the barrier or mechanical contrivance provides for registering separately the total number of persons admitted at each different price of admission, a separate barrier or mechanical contrivance shall be provided for registering the number of persons admitted at each different price of admission;
- (e) Any approval or authority of the Commissioner under this Regulation shall be in writing.

(2) Any proprietor of an entertainment who uses a barrier or mechanical contrivance to automatically register the number of persons admitted to the entertainment and who fails to comply with any of the said conditions shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

THE GENERAL CONDITIONS under which this permission is allowed are as follows :—

1. A complete and accurate return shall be furnished weekly to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxation (or to such person as he may designate for the purpose) showing the total number of persons admitted during each week at each price of admission on which tax is paid (including payments for transfers from one part of the entertainment to another part, together with a remittance for the proper amount of Entertainments Tax). The return shall be in such form as the Deputy Commissioner directs and shall be certified by the person named under heading 5 in the attached form of application, and shall be accompanied by signed duplicates of the actual returns which are prepared by the Cashiers and Box Office Clerks for each performance; specifying particulars of admission at each price on which tax is paid; transfers at each price; free admissions and bookings at outside agencies. If a weekly summary is prepared by the proprietor, such summary will be accepted in lieu of the signed duplicates referred to. The return shall be furnished within two days of the end of each week.

When automatic check machines or turnstiles, or tickets numbered and in consecutive series, are used, the starting and finishing numbers shown on the indicators or on the tickets must be stated on the returns of the Cashiers and Box Office Clerks for each performance.

2. An annual return of the number of persons admitted at each price of admission (including payments for transfers from one part of the entertainment to another part), certified by a Public Accountant, shall be furnished to the Deputy Commissioner within two months of the date specified by the applicant in heading 11 in the attached form of application.

3. The price of admission must be clearly shown separately from the amount of tax on a notice exhibited at each pay box.

4. Where automatic machines which register the number of admissions paid are used:—

- (a) The machine must be securely fixed to the ground or to the structure of the building, and not removed without the permission in writing of the Deputy Commissioner.
- (b) The indicator that records the number of admissions must be capable of being secured by a Departmental lock or seal, and the Deputy Commissioner may, if he so desire, secure such indicator, and such lock or seal must not be interfered with by any person other than an officer authorized in writing by the Deputy Commissioner.

5. Previous notice in writing not less than seven days shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of any alteration in the price of admission which would affect the rate of tax.

6. Immediate notice in writing must be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of the intention to cancel any performance or to close the place of entertainment for a period. When the place of entertainment is closed for a period the dates from and to which it is closed shall be stated.

7. All books and documents required by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose of checking returns are to be placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner or his officers at all reasonable times. Counterfoils from which tickets of admission are taken need not be retained for this purpose for more than three months.

8. A copy of the Certificate of the Deputy Commissioner granting this application must be exhibited in a prominent position at each public entrance to the place of amusement at all times when the place is open to the public. Each copy will remain the property of the Commonwealth Treasurer, and must be returned to the Deputy Commissioner on demand by him in writing.

9. This concession may be cancelled at any time if the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that there has been any failure on the part of the proprietor of the entertainment or any of his employees to observe all or any of the foregoing conditions or any breach of the Entertainments Tax Assessment Act 1916, or the Regulations thereunder.

- (a) The machine must be securely fixed to the ground or to the structure of the building, and not removed without the permission in writing of the Deputy Commissioner.
- (b) The indicator that records the number of admissions must be capable of being secured by a Departmental lock or seal, and the Deputy Commissioner may, if he so desire, secure such indicator, and such lock or seal must not be interfered with by any person other than an officer authorized in writing by the Deputy Commissioner.

5. Previous notice in writing not less than seven days shall be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of any alteration in the price of admission which would affect the rate of tax.

6. Immediate notice in writing must be sent to the Deputy Commissioner of the intention to cancel any performance or to close the place of entertainment for a period. When the place of entertainment is closed for a period the dates from and to which it is closed shall be stated.

7. All books and documents required by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose of checking returns are to be placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner or his officers at all reasonable times. Counterfoils from which tickets of admission are taken need not be retained for this purpose for more than three months.

8. A copy of the Certificate of the Deputy Commissioner granting this application must be exhibited in a prominent position at each public entrance to the place of amusement at all times when the place is open to the public. Each copy will remain the property of the Commonwealth Treasurer, and must be returned to the Deputy Commissioner on demand by him in writing.

9. This concession may be cancelled at any time if the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that there has been any failure on the part of the proprietor of the entertainment or any of his employees to observe all or any of the foregoing conditions or any breach of the Entertainments Tax Assessment Act 1916, or the Regulations thereunder.

Deputy Commissioner of Taxation.
