

STATUTORY RULES.

1941. No. .

REGULATIONS UNDER THE CABLE AND WIRE BOUNTY ACT 1941.*

I THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, hereby make the following Regulations under the Cable and Wire Bounty Act 1941.

Dated this twentieth day of October, 1941.

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

Minister of State for Trade and Customs.

CABLE AND WIRE BOUNTY REGULATIONS.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Cable and Wire Bounty Regulations.
2. These Regulations shall come into operation on the date on which the Act comes into operation.
- 3.—(1.) In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears—
 - “bounty” means bounty under the Act;
 - “the Act” means the Cable and Wire Bounty Act 1941.(2.) In these Regulations, any reference to a Form shall be read as a reference to a Form in the Schedule to these Regulations.
- 4.—(1.) A manufacturer may appoint, in accordance with Form 1, an authorized agent to execute on his behalf any notice, declaration, certificate or other document required for the purposes of the Act or these Regulations, and the authorized agent may execute on behalf of his principal any such notice, declaration, certificate or other document accordingly.
 - (2.) Any notice, declaration, certificate or other document so executed shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the principal.
5. A manufacturer who intends to claim bounty shall furnish to the Collector in the State in which the rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire has been, or is to be, manufactured a notice of intention to claim bounty in accordance with Form 2—
 - (a) where he has manufactured rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire (in respect of which he intends to claim bounty) since the first day of July, 1940, and prior to the commencement of these Regulations, or where he is manufacturing rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated

Notice of intention to claim bounty.

wire (in respect of which he intends to claim bounty) during the period of fourteen days after the commencement of these Regulations—within that period of fourteen days; or

- (b) where he begins to manufacture rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire (in respect of which he intends to claim bounty) after that period of fourteen days—at least fourteen days before he begins to manufacture those goods.

6. An application for bounty shall be in accordance with Form 3 and shall be supported by a statutory declaration in accordance with the form contained in that Form.

Form of application for bounty.

7.—(1.) Subject to the next two succeeding sub-regulations, an application for bounty in respect of rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire shall be lodged with the Collector in the State in which the goods were manufactured within thirty days after the end of the month during which the manufacture thereof was completed.

Time within which applications for bounty are to be made.

(2.) The Collector may permit applications for bounty in respect of rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire, the manufacture of which was completed during any period of three months ending on the last day of March, June, September or December, to be lodged with him within sixty days after the end of that period.

(3.) An application for bounty in respect of rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire the manufacture of which was completed during the period from the first day of July, 1940, to the thirtieth day of June, 1941, may be lodged with the Collector in the State in which the goods were produced within sixty days after the end of that period.

8.—(1.) Materials intended for use in the manufacture of rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire shall be stored by the manufacturer separately from other materials, to the satisfaction of the Collector, and shall be properly recorded in the accounts and books of the manufacturer.

Conditions of manufacture.

(2.) Proper records shall be kept by the manufacturer, to the satisfaction of the Collector, of the weight, value and country of origin of all copper wire used in the manufacture of rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire and shall show that information separately as to the copper wire used for goods subject to bounty and copper wire used for goods sold by the manufacturer direct to the Commonwealth for use for defence purposes.

9. The return referred to in section 22 of the Act shall, in addition to setting forth the particulars specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (2.) of that section, set forth—

Return for Parliament.

- (a) whether each manufacturer in a locality in which standard rates of wages or conditions of employment have been prescribed or declared in pursuance of section 12 of the Act who has been paid bounty has, in respect of the persons employed by him in the manufacture of the rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire in respect of which the bounty was paid, paid rates of wages and observed conditions of employment not less favorable to the persons so employed than the rates and conditions so prescribed or declared; and

(b) where the rates or conditions so prescribed or declared have not been paid or observed, the extent to which non-payment or non-observance has occurred, the amount of bounty (if any) withheld for that reason, and what action (if any) has been taken by the manufacturer to compensate the persons so employed in respect of his failure to pay those rates and observe those conditions.

10. Any person who commits a breach of, or fails to comply with any of these Regulations, shall be guilty of an offence, and shall be liable, upon conviction, to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds. Offences.

STATUTORY DECLARATION.

- I, (b)
do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:—
- (1) I am the (c) _____ of the rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire specified in the foregoing application for bounty.
 - (2) The rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire were manufactured in premises appointed by the Minister of State for Trade and Customs as a factory for the purposes of the Cable and Wire Bounty Act 1941.
 - (3) The description of the rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire, and all the particulars relating thereto, set out in the foregoing application for bounty, are true and correct in every particular.
 - (4) The rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire were produced for sale for use in the Commonwealth.
 - (5) None of the rubber-insulated cable or rubber-insulated wire has been, or will be, sold by the applicant direct to the Commonwealth for use for defence purposes.
 - (6) The rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire are of good merchantable quality.
 - (7) (d) The rates of wages paid and the conditions of employment observed by the manufacturer in respect of the persons employed in the production of the rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire were not less favorable to the persons so employed than the rates and conditions prescribed or declared in pursuance of section 12 of the Cable and Wire Bounty Act 1941.
 - (8) Nothing on my part has been done or omitted to be done, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, nothing on the part of any other person has been done or omitted to be done, whereby the right of the manufacturer to bounty in respect of the rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire has been forfeited or taken away.
 - (9) To the best of my knowledge and belief, no other application for bounty has been made, nor has any bounty been paid, in respect of the rubber-insulated cable and rubber-insulated wire.

And I make this solemn declaration by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1911 conscientiously believing the statements contained therein to be true in every particular.
