An Act relating to Statutory Declarations

1 Short title [see Note 1]

This Act may be cited as the Statutory Declarations Act 1959.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine.

3 Repeal and saving

- (1) The following Acts are repealed:

Statutory Declarations Act 1911;

Statutory Declarations Act 1922;

Statutory Declarations Act 1944.

- (3) A statutory declaration purporting to be made, after the commencement of this Act, by virtue of the Statutory Declarations Act 1911, or by virtue of that Act as amended, has the same force and effect, and entails the same consequences, as if it had been expressed to be made by virtue of this Act.

4 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

Magistrate means a Chief, Police, Stipendiary, Resident or Special Magistrate.

State includes the Northern Territory.

Territory does not include the Northern Territory.

5 Application

- (1) Subject to this section, this Act applies both within and without the Commonwealth.

- (2) Except as provided by subsection (8) of section twelve of this Act, this Act does not apply in a Territory not forming part of the Commonwealth unless this Act extends to that Territory by virtue of section thirteen of this Act.

5A Application of the Criminal Code

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code applies to all offences against this Act.

Note: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

6 Authority to make and use statutory declarations

- (1) A person may, if he or she so desires, make a statutory declaration in relation to any matter.
- (2) Subject to the next succeeding subsection, a statutory declaration may be used:
 - (a) for the purposes of a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory, unless the contrary intention appears in that law;
 - (b) in connexion with any matter arising under a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory, unless the contrary intention appears in that law; or
 - (c) in connexion with the administration of any Department of State of the Commonwealth.
- (3) The last preceding subsection does not authorize a statutory declaration to be used as evidence in a judicial proceeding but nothing in this section prevents a statutory declaration from being so used.

7 References to statutory declarations

Where, in a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory (whether passed or made before or after the commencement of this Act), a reference is made to a statutory declaration, the reference includes a reference to a statutory declaration made under this Act, unless the contrary intention appears in that law.

8 How statutory declaration is made

A statutory declaration made under this Act must:

- (a) be in the form in the Schedule; and
- (b) be made before a prescribed person.

10 Declarations under other laws

Where, by a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory (whether passed or made before or after the commencement of this Act), a declaration is required to be made by a person before some other person, the declaration may, unless the contrary intention appears in that law, be made before the person mentioned in that law or before a person before whom a statutory declaration under this Act may be made.

11 False declarations

A person must not intentionally make a false statement in a statutory declaration.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 4 years.

12 Jurisdiction of courts

- (1) Subject to the succeeding provisions of this section:
 - (a) the several courts of the States (other than the Northern Territory) are invested with federal jurisdiction; and
 - (b) jurisdiction is conferred on the several courts of the Territories and of the Northern Territory;with respect to offences against this Act.
- (2) The jurisdiction invested in or conferred on courts by the last preceding subsection is invested or conferred within the limits (other than limits having effect by reference to the places at which offences are committed) of their several jurisdictions, whether those limits are as to subject-matter or otherwise, but subject to the conditions and restrictions specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of section thirty-nine of the Judiciary Act 1903-1955.

- (3) The jurisdiction invested in, or conferred on, a court of summary jurisdiction by this section shall not be judicially exercised except by a Judge, a Magistrate, or a District Officer or Assistant District Officer of a Territory.
- (4) The trial on indictment of an offence against this Act, not being an offence committed within a State, may be held in any State or Territory.
- (5) Subject to this Act, the laws of a State or Territory with respect to the arrest and custody of offenders or persons charged with offences and the procedure for:
 - (a) their summary conviction;
 - (b) their examination and commitment for trial on indictment;
 - (c) their trial and conviction on indictment; and
 - (d) the hearing and determination of appeals arising out of any such trial or conviction or out of any proceedings connected therewith;and for holding accused persons to bail apply, so far as they are applicable, to a person who is charged in that State or Territory with an offence against this Act.
- (6) Except as provided by this section, the Judiciary Act 1903-1955 applies in relation to offences against this Act.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, court of summary jurisdiction includes a court of a Territory sitting as a court for the making of summary orders or the summary punishment of offences under the law of the Territory.
- (8) This section extends to all the Territories not forming part of the Commonwealth.

13 Extension of Act to Territories [see Note 2]

Subject to subsection (8) of the last preceding section, this Act extends to Norfolk Island and to such other Territories not forming part of the Commonwealth as the Governor-General, by Proclamation, declares.

14 Regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act:

- (a) prescribing matters required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; and
- (b) prescribing matters necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
