An Ordinance to establish the Christmas Island Services Corporation Provident Fund, and for related purposes

1 Short title [see Note 1]
This Ordinance may be cited as the Christmas Island Services Corporation Provident Fund Ordinance 1985.

2 Interpretation
In this Ordinance:
Corporation means the Christmas Island Services Corporation established by the Services Corporation Ordinance 1984.
employee means an employee of the Corporation.
fund means the provident fund established by this Ordinance.

3 Provident fund
(1) There is established by this Ordinance a provident fund to be known as the ‘Christmas Island Services Corporation Provident Fund’.

(2) The Corporation:
(a) shall arrange for trustees to hold, manage and apply the assets of the fund; and
(b) may make arrangements from time to time, by instrument in writing, with the trustees for or in relation to the holding, management and application of the assets of the fund.

(3) Without limiting the generality of paragraph (2) (b), an arrangement referred to in that paragraph may be made for or in relation to:
(a) the appointment and removal of trustees;
(b) the class or classes of employees eligible to become members of the fund;
(c) the payment of moneys into the fund;
Section 4

(d) the rate, if any, at which a member, a class of members or the Corporation may contribute moneys to the fund;
(e) the deduction of contributions to the fund from the salaries of members;
(f) the powers and duties of the trustees;
(g) the payment of benefits from the fund; and
(h) the investment of moneys standing to the credit of the fund that are not required for the payment of benefits.

4 Deposit of documents

The Corporation shall deposit a copy of each instrument by which it makes an arrangement under paragraph 3 (2) (b):
(a) with the Administrator; and
(b) at the principal place of business of the Corporation in the Territory;
as soon as practicable after making the arrangement.

5 Inspection of documents

An employee, a former employee or a dependant of an employee or of a former employee may:
(a) inspect a copy of an instrument deposited at the principal place of business of the Corporation under paragraph 4 (b); and
(b) require the Corporation to supply him or her, at his or her own expense, with a copy of such an instrument or part of such an instrument.
