(2.) For all the purposes of these Regulations—

- (a) the Australian Capital Territory shall be deemed to be part of the State of New South Wales; and
- (b) the Northern Territory shall be deemed to be a separate State.

PART II.—RETURNS.

5. Unless required in writing by the Commissioner, the Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner so to do, it shall not be necessary for the administrator to furnish a return in accordance with section 10 of the Act in respect of an estate where the value of the estate (as defined in section 18A of the Act) does not exceed—

- (a) where the deceased person died on or after the twentieth day of May, One thousand nine hundred and forty, and the whole of the estate passes to his widow, children or grandchildren—Two thousand pounds; or
- (b) in any other case—One thousand pounds.

6. Where in any estate there is no administrator liable to furnish a return and the property of the deceased person liable to estate duty has been distributed at, or within twelve months prior to, the decease of the deceased person, each of the persons to whom the property has been distributed shall, within three months after the date of the death of the deceased person, furnish a full and complete return of all the property received by him from the deceased person and shall be liable for the payment of any estate duty assessable in respect of that property.

7. Subject to these Regulations, every return furnished in pursuance of sub-section (1.) of section 10 of the Act—

- (a) shall be in accordance with Form 1 in the Schedule to these Regulations; and
- (b) shall, within three months after the death of the deceased person in respect of whose estate it is required to be prepared and furnished, be furnished to the Commissioner at—
 - (i) if the estate in Australia of the deceased person is situated wholly within one State—the office of the Deputy Commissioner in that State; or
 - (ii) if the estate in Australia of the deceased person is situated within more than one State—at the office of the Deputy Commissioner, Central Office, Melbourne.

8. Every return required by the Commissioner shall be prepared and furnished in accordance with such form, and lodged at such office, within such time, as the Commissioner specifies in the requirement.

9. The Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner may at any time accept a return in a form substantially similar to a prescribed form.

10. The Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner may at any time, by notice in writing, grant an extension of the time for furnishing a return. Extension of time.

11. The administrator shall furnish with the return a certified copy of— Will and settlement to be furnished with return.

- (a) the will (if any) of the deceased person and all codicils thereto; and
- (b) every settlement made by the deceased person, either before or after the commencement of the Act.

12.—(1.) Subject to sub-regulation (2.) of this regulation, every return shall be signed by the administrator. Signature to returns.

(2.) Where the administrator is unable to write, the Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner may accept a return, if otherwise in order, if—

- (a) the administrator affixes his mark thereto as a signature;
- (b) the mark is attested by a witness; and
- (c) the witness certifies on the return that the return was read over to the administrator and that the administrator fully understood and approved the contents thereof and freely and voluntarily affixed his mark thereto as a signature.

(3.) If there are more administrators than one in respect of an estate, the signature of one administrator to the return shall be sufficient.

13. A return shall not be deemed to have been duly furnished to the Commissioner unless and until— When return deemed to be furnished.

- (a) the proper form in accordance with these Regulations, signed by the administrator, and containing a full, true and complete statement of all matters and things required to be stated therein by the Act, these Regulations, the Commissioner and the form itself; and
- (b) all documents and copies which, by the Act, these Regulations or the Commissioner, are required to be furnished with the return, have, at the place where under these Regulations the return is to be furnished, been received by an officer authorized by the Commissioner to receive returns.

14. The administrator shall, in the return, give an address in Australia for service. Notice of address.

15. An administrator who changes his address shall, within one month after the change, give to the Commissioner, at the place where the return was furnished, notice in writing of his new address in Australia for service. Notice of change of address.

16. Any administrator who changes his address and fails to give to the Commissioner notice in writing of his new address in Australia for service shall not be permitted to plead that change of address as a defence in any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) instituted against him under the Act or these Regulations. Failure to notify change of address.

17.—(1.) The Commissioner may cause or permit his officers to make on any return such marks, figures and annotations as the Commissioner thinks fit. Annotations on returns.

(2.) The marks, figures and annotations shall be made in ink of a colour different from that of the ink used in the return.

PART III.—COLLECTION AND RECOVERY OF ESTATE DUTY.

18. Estate duty may be paid—

- (a) by delivery of cash, bank notes or cheques at the office of the Commissioner or of any Deputy Commissioner;
- (b) by remitting the duty to the Commissioner or any Deputy Commissioner by bank draft, cheque, postal money order, or postal note payable in the city to which the remittance is sent; or
- (c) by depositing the net amount of the tax to the credit of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner at any branch of the Commonwealth Bank of Australia.

How duty may be paid.

19. Where a remittance is posted by ~~a taxpayer~~ addressed to the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, the Post Office shall be deemed to be the agent of the remitter, and payments shall not be deemed to have been made until the remittance has been received by the addressee. Post office to be agent of remitter. an administrator

20. Where a cheque has been delivered or remitted to the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner in payment of estate duty, the duty shall, notwithstanding any receipt given therefor, not be deemed to have been paid until the amount for which the cheque is drawn has been collected. Payment by cheque.

21. Receipts for estate duty shall be issued by such persons as the Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner authorizes. Receipts to be issued.

22. Except with the express consent of the Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, no money shall be accepted on account or in part payment of estate duty. Part payment of estate duty.

23. The postage on every return, statement, communication, remittance, or other matter sent by post, addressed to the Commissioner, Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, shall be fully prepaid by the sender. Postage to be prepaid.

24. When any sum is received as payment of estate duty, the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, shall first deduct therefrom the amount of postage and surcharge (if any) paid upon any unstamped or insufficiently stamped matter received through the post from the administrator and shall credit in payment of duty only the net amount then remaining. Deficient postage.

25. In any action against a person for the recovery of estate duty, a certificate in writing, signed by the Commissioner, the Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner, certifying that— Certificate as to service of notice of assessment, &c.

- (a) the person named in the certificate is the administrator or other person liable under the Act to pay estate duty;
- (b) an assessment of estate duty was duly made against him in respect of the estate mentioned in the certificate;
- (c) the particulars of the assessment are as stated in the certificate;
- (d) notice of the assessment was duly served upon him;
- (e) the sum named in the certificate was, at the date of the certificate, due by him to the King on behalf of the Commonwealth in respect of estate duty, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.

26. In any action for the recovery of estate duty, evidence may be given by affidavit, but the Court may require the deponent to attend for the purpose of being cross-examined. Evidence by affidavit.

PART IV.—APPEALS.

27. The notice of appeal referred to in sub-section (5.) of section 24 of the Act may be in accordance with Form 2 in the Schedule to these Regulations. Form of notice of appeal.

28.—(1.) The appellant shall set the appeal down for hearing at the first sitting of the Court to which the appeal is made to be held after the expiration of forty-two days from the date upon which notice of appeal is served on the Commissioner. Setting down of a hearing of appeal.

(2.) Notice of setting down shall be served on the Commissioner not less than twenty-one days before the date of the hearing.

(3.) If the appeal is not set down, or if notice of setting down is not served on the Commissioner within the time prescribed by this regulation, the Commissioner may, by motion upon notice to the appellant, apply to the Court for an order dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution.

PART V.—MISCELLANEOUS.

29. Any notice or other communication by or on behalf of the Commissioner may be served upon any administrator or other person— Service of notices, &c.

- (a) by causing it to be served personally on him; or
- (b) by leaving it at his address for service; or
- (c) by posting it by prepaid letter post, addressed to him at his address for service, and, in any case to which paragraph (c) of this regulation applies, unless the contrary is proved, service thereof shall be deemed to have been effected at the time when it would, in the ordinary course of post, have arrived at the place to which it was addressed.

30. Any notice to be given by the Commissioner may be given by any officer of the Commissioner duly authorized in that behalf, and any notice purporting to be signed by the authority of the Commissioner shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes as if signed by the Commissioner in person. Signatures.

31.—(1.) Any certificate, notice or other document bearing the written, stamped or printed signature of the Commissioner, the Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been duly signed by the person by whom it purports to have been signed. Signature deemed to be duly signed.

(2.) Judicial notice shall be taken of every such signature and of the fact that the person whose signature it purports to be holds, or has held, the office of Commissioner, Second Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be.

32. In any proceedings against a person for failing or neglecting duly to furnish a return, a certificate in writing signed by the Commissioner, Second Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner at whose office the return should have been furnished, certifying that no return has been received from that person by any officer authorized by the Commissioner to receive returns at the place where, under these Regulations, the return should have been furnished, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant has failed or neglected duly to furnish a return. Onus of proof.

33. A writing certified by the Commissioner, the Second Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner to be a true copy of, or a true extract from, any assessment, return, list, declaration, statement, book, document, or writing of any nature whatsoever in the custody of the Commissioner or of any officer of the Commissioner shall, for all purposes, be prima facie evidence of the original of which it purports to be a copy or extract, and shall be receivable in evidence to the same extent as the original. Copies or extracts certified by the Commissioner to be received in evidence.

34. Wherever the Commissioner, in the exercise of any power conferred upon him by the Act or these Regulations, requires any person to do any act, the requirement may specify the period (not being in any case less than seven days) within which the act shall be done. Commissioner may specify time in which acts to be done.

35. A prosecution under section 47 of the Act for failing or neglecting duly to furnish a return, or for knowingly and willfully making or delivering a false return, may, at the option of the prosecutor, be instituted in a court of summary jurisdiction having jurisdiction either at the place where under these Regulations the return is to be furnished or at the usual or last known place of business or abode of the defendant. Where prosecution may be instituted.

36. Any person required under section 45 of the Act to attend and give evidence shall be entitled to be reimbursed the sum (not exceeding in any case One pound per diem) actually and necessarily lost by him by reason of his attendance, and, in addition, if the person resides more than four miles from the place of hearing, such sum for travelling expenses (not exceeding the sum actually paid) as the person conducting the inquiry thinks reasonable. Expenses of witnesses.

37.—(1.) Wherever it is necessary for the purposes of the Act to calculate the value of a life interest or an interest for a period certain in an estate, the value shall be calculated in accordance with the appropriate value of One pound per annum shown in any standard set of tables for calculation of values on a four and one-half per centum basis.

(2.) The appropriate value based upon the same periods of rest between the payments as are specified in the instrument creating the interest in the estate shall be employed.

(3.) Where the instrument creating the interest does not specify any period of rest between payments, the appropriate value based upon annual payments shall be employed.
