1211 Social Security (International Agreements) Act overrides Part

If the Social Security (International Agreements) Act 1999 applies to the payment of a social security payment to a person, this Part does not apply to the payment to the person.

1212 Meaning of terms used in this Part

In this Part:

allegation authority means:

(a) the Greek Australian Workers’ Welfare Association of NSW; or

(b) the Commission of Enquiry established by Letters Patent of 9 February 1984 and 16 August 1984 to investigate matters known as the Greek conspiracy.

claim, in relation to a social security payment, includes a claim that is taken to have been made under a provision of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.

eligible medical treatment, in relation to a person, means medical treatment of a kind that is not available to the person in Australia.

entitled person means:

(a) a woman who has at any time been an Australian resident for a period of, or for periods totalling, at least 10 years; or

(b) a woman in receipt of a widow B pension because she was legally married and her husband died; or

(c) a woman who was, or is the partner of a man who was, the subject of a recommendation by an allegation authority that resulted in payment of an amount of compensation by the Commonwealth to her or her partner.

Note: This definition is only relevant in relation to wife pension and widow B pension.

14 Social Security and Veterans’ Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000
Reserve service means attending a training camp as a member of any of the following:

(a) the Australian Naval Reserve;
(b) the Naval Emergency Reserve Forces;
(c) the Australian Army Reserve;
(d) the Australian Air Force Reserve;
(e) the Air Force Emergency Force;
(f) the Army Individual Emergency Reserve.

1212A Meaning of acute family crisis

For the purposes of this Part, a person’s absence is for the purpose of attending to an acute family crisis at a particular time if the Secretary is satisfied that the absence is, at that time:

(a) for the purpose of visiting a family member who is critically ill; or
(b) for the purpose of visiting a family member who is hospitalised with a serious illness; or
(c) for a purpose relating to the death of a family member; or
(d) for a purpose relating to a life-threatening situation (other than an illness referred to in paragraph (a) or (b)) that:
   (i) is facing a family member; and
   (ii) is beyond the control of the family member.

1212B Meaning of humanitarian purpose

For the purposes of this Part, a person’s absence is for a humanitarian purpose at a particular time if the Secretary is satisfied that the absence is, at that time:

(a) for the purpose of involvement in custody proceedings, criminal proceedings (other than criminal proceedings in respect of a crime alleged to have been committed by the person) or other legal proceedings; or
(b) for purposes relating to the adoption of a child by the person; or
(c) for a purpose specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.
1212C Meaning of temporary absence

For the purposes of this Part, a person’s absence from Australia is temporary if, throughout the absence, the person does not cease to reside in Australia (within the meaning of subsection 7(3)).

1212D Part does not affect need for qualification

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Part confers a right on a person to continue to be paid a social security payment if the person is not qualified for the payment (even if the person’s failure to qualify is related to the absence).

110 Section 1213A

Repeal the section.

111 Sections 1215, 1216, 1216A, 1216B and 1217

Repeal the sections, substitute:

Division 2—Portability of social security payments

Subdivision A—Basic portability provisions

1213 Persons to whom Division applies

This Division applies to a person during a period (the \textit{period of absence}) throughout which the person is continuously absent from Australia, if:

(a) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving a social security payment (the \textit{payment}) mentioned in column 2 of the table at the end of section 1217; or

(b) during the period of absence, the person’s claim for such a payment is granted under the \textit{Social Security (Administration) Act 1999}.

1214 Some payments generally portable with no time limit

(1) If the person’s maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period, the person’s right to continue to be paid the payment throughout the period of absence is not affected merely by the absence.

Note 1: Section 1217 defines the person’s maximum portability period for the payment.

Note 2: However, the person’s rate of payment may be affected after 26 weeks—see Division 3.

(2) This section is subject to section 1220.

1215 Some payments generally portable with time limit

(1) If the person’s maximum portability period for the payment is not an unlimited period, the following rules apply:

(a) throughout the person’s portability period for the payment, the person’s right to continue to be paid the payment is not affected merely by the absence;

(b) throughout so much (if any) of the period of absence as occurs after the end of the person’s portability period for the payment, the payment is not payable to the person.

Note: Section 1217 defines the person’s maximum portability period and portability period for the payment.

(2) This section is subject to Subdivision B of this Division (which contains exceptions) and section 1220.

1216 Amounts added to rate

During the period of absence, remote area allowance, rent assistance, incentive allowance and pharmaceutical allowance are not to be added to the person’s rate under Chapter 3 after whichever of the following times applies:

(a) if the person’s maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period—26 weeks after the period of absence commenced;

(b) otherwise—the end of the person’s portability period for the payment.
Meaning of maximum portability period

(1) The person’s maximum portability period for the payment is the period referred to in column 5 of the table at the end of this section (the table) that is applicable to:
   (a) the payment (as specified in column 2 of the table); and
   (b) the class of persons to which the person belongs (as specified in column 3 of the table).

Meaning of allowable absence

(2) The person’s absence is an allowable absence in relation to the payment at a particular time if, at that time, it is an absence specified in column 5 of the table that is applicable to:
   (a) the payment (as specified in column 2 of the table); and
   (b) the class of persons to which the person belongs (as specified in column 3 of the table).

Meaning of portability period if unlimited maximum portability period

(3) If the person’s maximum portability period for the payment is an unlimited period, the person’s portability period for the payment, in relation to the period of absence, is an unlimited period beginning at the commencement of the period of absence.

Meaning of portability period if maximum portability period limited

(4) If the person’s maximum portability period for the payment is a period of weeks, the person’s portability period for the payment, in relation to the period of absence, is the period:
   (a) beginning at the commencement of the period of absence; and
   (b) ending at the earlier of the following times:
      (i) the first time during the period of absence at which the absence is not an allowable absence in relation to the payment;
(ii) the end of the period of weeks that is person’s maximum portability period for the payment.

Note: People will be required (under the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999) to notify changes in circumstance.

Persons who cease to be severely disabled

(5) However, if:

(a) the person was a severely disabled person at the commencement of the period of absence; and

(b) during the period of absence, the person ceased to be a severely disabled person;

the person’s portability period for disability support pension, in relation to the period of absence, is taken to have begun when the person ceased to be a severely disabled person.

Subdivision B—Exceptions to Subdivision A rules

1218 Exception—full-time students outside Australia for purposes of Australian course

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the period of absence commenced:
   (a) the person was undertaking full-time study as part of a course of education at an educational institution; and
   (b) the person was receiving youth allowance or austudy payment.

(2) The person’s right to continue to be paid youth allowance or austudy payment is not affected merely by the person’s absence throughout so much of the period of absence as is for the purpose of undertaking studies that form part of the course of education.

(3) If the person returns to Australia for a period of 13 weeks or less, the return is taken not affect the continuity of the period of absence.

1218A Exception—Reserve service

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving parenting payment, youth allowance, austudy payment, newstart allowance, mature age allowance or mature age partner allowance.

(2) The person’s right to continue to be paid the payment is not affected merely by the person’s absence throughout so much of the period of absence as is for the purpose of undertaking Reserve service.

1218B Exception—waiting period in Australia before parenting payment is portable

If:
   (a) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving parenting payment; and
   (b) at a time not more than 26 weeks before the period of absence commenced, parenting payment had ceased to be payable to the person because:
(i) the person’s portability period for parenting payment in relation to another period of absence ended; or
(ii) another absence had ceased to be an allowable absence for parenting payment; parenting payment is not payable to the person during the period of absence.

1218C Extension of person’s portability period

(1) The Secretary may extend the person’s portability period for the payment if the Secretary is satisfied that the person is unable to return to Australia because of any of the following events:

(a) a serious accident involving the person or a family member of the person;
(b) a serious illness of the person or a family member of the person;
(c) the hospitalisation of the person or a family member of the person;
(d) the death of a family member of the person;
(e) the person’s involvement in custody proceedings in the country in which the person is located;
(f) a legal requirement for the person to remain outside Australia in connection with criminal proceedings (other than criminal proceedings in respect of a crime alleged to have been committed by the person);
(g) robbery or serious crime committed against the person or a family member of the person;
(h) a natural disaster in the country in which the person is located;
(i) political or social unrest in the country in which the person is located;
(j) industrial action in the country in which the person is located;
(k) a war in the country in which the person is located.

(2) The Secretary must not extend the person’s portability period under subsection (1) unless:

(a) the event occurred or began during the period of absence; and
(b) if the event is political or social unrest, industrial action or war—the person is not willingly involved in, or willingly participating in the event.
(3) If the Secretary extends a person’s portability period under subsection (1), the person’s portability period for the payment, for the purposes of this Part, is the extended period.

1220A Proportionality—age pension rate
A person’s rate of age pension is to be calculated using the Pension Portability Rate Calculator at the end of section 1221 if:
(a) the person has been continuously absent from Australia, throughout a period (the period of absence) of more than 26 weeks; and

(b) either:

   (i) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving the age pension; or

   (ii) during the period of absence, the person’s claim for the age pension is granted under the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.

1220B  Proportionality—disability support pension rate for a severely disabled person

(1) The rate of disability support pension for a severely disabled person is to be calculated using the Pension Portability Rate Calculator at the end of section 1221 if:

   (a) the person has been continuously absent from Australia, throughout a period (the period of absence) of more than 26 weeks; and

   (b) either:

      (i) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving the disability support pension; or

      (ii) during the period of absence, the person’s claim for the disability support pension is granted under the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person became qualified to receive the disability support pension because the person became unable to work or permanently blind while the person was an Australian resident.

122  Subsections 1221(1), (2) and (3)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:
1221 Proportionality—wife pension and widow B pension rate for entitled persons

(1) An entitled person’s rate of wife pension or widow B pension is to be calculated using the Pension Portability Rate Calculator at the end of this section if:

(a) the person has been continuously absent from Australia, throughout a period (the period of absence) of more than 26 weeks; and

(b) immediately before the period of absence commenced, the person was receiving the wife pension or widow B pension.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if:

(a) the person became qualified to receive the pension because of the death of the person’s partner; and

(b) immediately before the death of the partner, the partner was an Australian resident.

123 After point 1221-A1

Insert in Module A:

Limit in portability rate

1221-A2 If a person’s portability rate as calculated under point 1221-A1 would exceed the rate (the notional rate) that would be the person’s notional domestic rate under that point if the person had a residence factor of 1, the person’s portability rate is the rate that equals the notional rate.

124 Point 1221-B2

Omit “to 1221-B9”, substitute “and 1221-B4”.

125 Points 1221-B5, 1221-B6, 1221-B7, 1221-B8 and 1221-B9

128 Saving provision—portability rules relating to rates of pension

Despite the amendments of sections 1213A, 1215, 1216, 1220A, 1220B and 1221 of this Act made by the Social Security and Veterans’ Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000, if:

(a) a person was absent from Australia immediately before 20 September 2000; and
(b) at a time (the post-start time) after 20 September 2000, the person had not returned to Australia for a continuous period of 26 weeks or more since 20 September 2000;

those provisions continue to apply to the person at the post-start time as if those amendments had not been made.

129 Application of amendments relating to short residence

Despite the amendments of section 1220 of this Act made by the Social Security and Veterans’ Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000, that section, as in force immediately before 20 September 2000, continues to apply to a pension or allowance granted before 20 September 2000 as if those amendments had not been made.

130 Saving provision—other portability rules

Despite the amendments of this Act made by Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Social Security and Veterans’ Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000, other than:

(a) the amendments mentioned in clauses 128 and 129 of this Schedule; and
(b) the amendments of sections 1216B, 1218, 1218A, 1218B, 1218C and 1219; and
(c) the amendment of Module A of the Rate Calculator at the end of section 1221;

if:

(d) a person was absent from Australia immediately before 20 September 2000; and
(e) at a time (the post-start time) after 20 September 2000, the person had not returned to Australia since 20 September 2000; this Act continues to apply to the person at the post-start time as if the amendments (other than those mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c)) had not been made.

    eligible for a pharmaceutical allowance after the day on which he or she left Australia.

(2A) A person who is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so absent for more than 26 weeks is not eligible for a pharmaceutical allowance after the first 26 weeks of the absence.

13 Subsection 118A(4)
Repeal the subsection.

14 After subsection 118Q(3)
Insert:
People leaving Australia otherwise than temporarily

(3A) A person who leaves Australia otherwise than temporarily is not eligible for a telephone allowance on or after the next telephone allowance payday.

Temporary absence from Australia

(3B) A person who is temporarily absent from Australia and has been so absent for more than 26 weeks is not eligible for an instalment of telephone allowance that, apart from this subsection, would be payable on a telephone allowance payday occurring after the first 26 weeks of the absence.

15 Paragraph SCH6-C3(e)
Repeal the paragraph, substitute:
(e) either:
   (i) the person is in Australia; or
   (ii) the person is temporarily absent from Australia and the period in respect of which the rent assistance is sought is not a period after the first 26 weeks of the absence; and

16 Point SCH6-D2
Repeal the point, substitute:

No pharmaceutical allowance during certain periods of absence from Australia

SCH6-D2 Pharmaceutical allowance is not to be added to a person’s maximum basic rate if the person is not eligible to receive the allowance because of subsection 118A(2) or (2A).

17 Point SCH6-G3
Repeal the point, substitute:

Eligibility of FA children who are outside Australia

SCH6-G3(1) If an FA child leaves Australia otherwise than temporarily, additional allowance is not payable for the child on or after the day on which he or she left Australia.
(2) If an FA child is temporarily absent from Australia for more than 8 weeks, additional allowance is not payable for the child after the first 8 weeks of the absence.

18 Application of amendments

The amendments made by this Part apply only to people leaving Australia on or after 20 September 2000, and the provisions of the Veterans’ Entitlements Act 1986 that are amended by this Part continue to apply, as if the amendments had not been made, to people leaving Australia before that date.

63A Secretary may extend 26 week period of absence from Australia

(1) The Secretary may extend the 26 week period (the initial period) referred to in subsection 62(2) or 63(2) if the Secretary is satisfied that the individual mentioned in subsection 62(2) or the FTB child mentioned in subsection 63(2) (in each case, the person) is unable to return to Australia within that period because of any of the following events:

(a) a serious accident involving the person or a family member of the person;
(b) a serious illness of the person or a family member of the person;
(c) the hospitalisation of the person or a family member of the person;
(d) the death of a family member of the person;
(e) the person’s involvement in custody proceedings in the country in which the person is located;
(f) a legal requirement for the person to remain outside Australia in connection with criminal proceedings (other than criminal proceedings in respect of a crime alleged to have been committed by the person);
(g) robbery or serious crime committed against the person or a family member of the person;
(h) a natural disaster in the country in which the person is located;

Social Security and Veterans’ Entitlements Legislation Amendment (Miscellaneous Matters) Act 2000
(i) political or social unrest in the country in which the person is located;

(j) industrial action in the country in which the person is located;

(k) a war in the country in which the person is located.

(2) The Secretary must not extend the initial period under subsection (1) unless:

(a) the event occurred or began during the initial period; and

(b) if the event is political or social unrest, industrial action or war—the person is not willingly involved in, or willingly participating in the event.
Schedule 9—Amendment of the Social Security (International Agreements) Act 1999

1 At the end of section 13
Add:

(2) If a person’s international agreement portability rate as calculated under subsection (1) would exceed the rate (the notional rate) that would be the person’s notional agreement pension rate under that subsection if the person had a residence factor of 1, the person’s international agreement portability rate is the rate that equals the notional rate.
