Part IIIAA  The Australian Energy Regulator (AER)
Division 3  Functions and powers of the AER

Section 44AH

Division 3—Functions and powers of the AER

44AH  Commonwealth functions

The AER has any functions:
(a) conferred under a law of the Commonwealth; or
(b) prescribed by regulations made under this Act.

44AI  Commonwealth consent to conferral of functions etc. on AER

(1) A State/Territory energy law may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the AER for the purposes of that law.

Note: Section 44AK sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the AER.

(2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a State/Territory energy law to the extent to which:
(a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER; or
(b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(3) The AER cannot perform a duty or function, or exercise a power, under a State/Territory energy law unless the conferral of the function or power, or the imposition of the duty, is in accordance with the Australian Energy Market Agreement, or any other relevant agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory concerned.

44AJ  How duty is imposed

Application

(1) This section applies if a State/Territory energy law purports to impose a duty on the AER.

Note: Section 44AK sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the AER.
State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

(2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Part (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
   (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
   (b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44AI to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

(3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Part to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.

(4) If, because of subsection (3), this Part is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Part.

(5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Part in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
   (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
   (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the AER.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44AI.

44AK When a State/Territory energy law imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44AI and 44AJ, a State/Territory energy law imposes a duty on the AER if:
   (a) the law confers a function or power on the AER; and
Part IIIAA  The Australian Energy Regulator (AER)

(b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the AER to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44AL  Powers of the AER

The AER has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

Note: State and Territory laws may also confer powers on the AER in respect of its functions under those laws: see section 44AI.

      (i) that the service be declared; or
      (ii) that the service not be declared.

(3) If the applicant is a person other than the designated Minister, the Council may recommend that the service not be declared if the Council thinks that the application was not made in good faith. This subsection does not limit the grounds on which the Council may decide to recommend that the service not be declared.

(4) In deciding what recommendation to make, the Council must consider whether it would be economical for anyone to develop another facility that could provide part of the service. This subsection does not limit the grounds on which the Council may decide to recommend that the service be declared or not be declared.

(5) The applicant may withdraw the application at any time before the Council makes a recommendation relating to it.

44G Limits on the Council recommending declaration of a service

(1) The Council cannot recommend declaration of a service that is the subject of an access undertaking in operation under section 44ZZA.

(2) The Council cannot recommend that a service be declared unless it is satisfied of all of the following matters:

(b) that it would be uneconomical for anyone to develop another facility to provide the service;

(c) that the facility is of national significance, having regard to:
   (i) the size of the facility; or

(b) must, subject to section 44DA, not consider any other matters.

(4) If there is in force a decision of the Commonwealth Minister under section 44N that a regime established by a State or Territory for access to the service is an effective access regime, the Council must follow that decision, unless the Council believes that, since the Commonwealth Minister’s decision was published, there have been substantial modifications of the access regime or of the relevant principles set out in the Competition Principles Agreement.

Note: The period for which a decision is in force is determined under subsection 44N(3) and paragraph 44P(a).

This subsection does not limit the grounds on which the designated Minister may make a decision whether to declare the service or not.

(3) The designated Minister cannot declare a service that is the subject of an access undertaking in operation under section 44ZZA.

(c) that the facility is of national significance, having regard to:
   (i) the size of the facility; or

(5) In deciding whether an access regime established by a State or Territory that is a party to the Competition Principles Agreement is an effective access regime, the Minister:

(a) must apply the relevant principles set out in that agreement; and
(6) If there is in force a decision of the Commonwealth Minister under section 44N that a regime established by a State or Territory for access to the service is an effective access regime, the designated Minister must follow that decision, unless the designated Minister believes that, since the Commonwealth Minister’s decision was published, there have been substantial modifications of the access regime or of the relevant principles set out in the Competition Principles Agreement.

Note: The period for which a decision is in force is determined under subsection 44N(3) and paragraph 44P(a).

(7) The designated Minister must publish the declaration or his or her decision not to declare the service. At the same time, the designated Minister must give reasons for the decision and a copy of the declaration recommendation to the provider and to the person who applied for the declaration recommendation.

(8) If the designated Minister declares the service, the declaration must specify the expiry date of the declaration.

(9) If the designated Minister does not publish under subsection (7) within 60 days after receiving the declaration recommendation, the designated Minister is taken, at the end of that 60-day period, to have decided not to declare the service and to have published that decision not to declare the service.

(3) A declaration continues in operation until its expiry date, unless it is earlier revoked.

(4) The expiry or revocation of a declaration does not affect:
Section 44J

(a) the arbitration of an access dispute that was notified before the expiry or revocation; or
(b) the operation or enforcement of any determination made in the arbitration of an access dispute that was notified before the expiry or revocation.

44J Revocation of declaration

(1) The Council may recommend to the designated Minister that a declaration be revoked.

(2) The Council cannot recommend revocation of a declaration unless it is satisfied that, at the time of the recommendation, subsection 44H(4) would prevent the designated Minister from declaring the service concerned.

(3) On receiving a revocation recommendation, the designated Minister must either revoke the declaration or decide not to revoke the declaration.

(4) The designated Minister must publish the decision to revoke or not to revoke.

(5) If the designated Minister decides not to revoke, the designated Minister must give reasons for the decision to the provider of the declared service when the designated Minister publishes the decision.

(6) The designated Minister cannot revoke a declaration without receiving a revocation recommendation.

44K Review of declaration

(1) If the designated Minister declares a service, the provider may apply in writing to the Tribunal for review of the declaration.

(3) An application for review must be made within 21 days after publication of the designated Minister’s decision.
(4) The review by the Tribunal is a re-consideration of the matter.

(5) For the purposes of the review, the Tribunal has the same powers as the designated Minister.

Part IIIA  Access to services
Division 2  Declared services

Section 44P

44P  State or Territory ceasing to be a party to Competition Principles Agreement

If a State or Territory that has established a regime for access to a service or proposed service ceases to be a party to the Competition Principles Agreement:

(a) a decision by the Commonwealth Minister that the regime is an effective access regime ceases to be in force; and

(b) the Council, the Commonwealth Minister and the Tribunal need not take any further action relating to an application for a decision by the Commonwealth Minister that the regime is an effective access regime.

44Q  Register of decisions and declarations

The Commission must maintain a public register that includes:

(a) each decision of the Commonwealth Minister that a regime established by a State or Territory for access to a service is an effective access regime for the service or proposed service; and

(b) each declaration (including a declaration that is no longer in force).
Division 3—Access to declared services

Subdivision A—Scope of Division

44R Constitutional limits on operation of this Division

This Division does not apply in relation to a third party’s access to a service unless:
(a) the provider is a corporation (or a partnership or joint venture consisting wholly of corporations); or
(b) the third party is a corporation; or
(c) the access is (or would be) in the course of, or for the purposes of, constitutional trade or commerce.

Subdivision B—Notification of access disputes

44S Notification of access disputes

(1) If a third party is unable to agree with the provider on one or more aspects of access to a declared service, either the provider or the third party may notify the Commission in writing that an access dispute exists.

Note: An example of one of the things on which a provider and third party might disagree is whether a previous determination ought to be varied.

(2) On receiving the notification, the Commission must give notice in writing of the access dispute to:
(a) the provider, if the third party notified the access dispute;
(b) the third party, if the provider notified the access dispute;
(c) any other person whom the Commission thinks might want to become a party to the arbitration.

44T Withdrawal of notifications

(1) A notification may be withdrawn as follows (and not otherwise):
(a) if the provider notified the dispute:
   (i) the provider may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its determination;
Section 44U

(ii) the third party may withdraw the provider’s notification at any time after the Commission issues a draft determination, but before it makes its determination;

(b) if the third party notified the dispute, the third party may withdraw the notification at any time before the Commission makes its determination.

(2) Despite subparagraph (1)(a)(ii), if the provider notified a dispute over variation of a determination, the third party may not withdraw the provider’s notification.

(3) If the notification is withdrawn, it is taken for the purposes of this Part never to have been given.

Subdivision C—Arbitration of access disputes

44U Parties to the arbitration

The parties to the arbitration of an access dispute are:

(a) the provider;

(b) the third party;

(c) any other person who applies in writing to be made a party and is accepted by the Commission as having a sufficient interest.

44V Determination by Commission

(1) Unless it terminates the arbitration under section 44Y, the Commission must make a written determination on access by the third party to the service.

(2) The determination may deal with any matter relating to access by the third party to the service, including matters that were not the basis for notification of the dispute. By way of example, the determination may:

(a) require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party;

(b) require the third party to accept, and pay for, access to the service;

(c) specify the terms and conditions of the third party’s access to the service;
Section 44W

(d) require the provider to extend the facility;
(e) specify the extent to which the determination overrides an earlier determination relating to access to the service by the third party.

(3) The determination does not have to require the provider to provide access to the service by the third party.

(4) Before making a determination, the Commission must give a draft determination to the parties.

(5) When the Commission makes a determination, it must give the parties to the arbitration its reasons for making the determination.

44W Restrictions on access determinations

(1) The Commission must not make a determination that would have any of the following effects:
(a) preventing an existing user obtaining a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the user’s reasonably anticipated requirements, measured at the time when the dispute was notified;
(b) preventing a person from obtaining, by the exercise of a pre-notification right, a sufficient amount of the service to be able to meet the person’s actual requirements;
(c) depriving any person of a protected contractual right;
(d) resulting in the third party becoming the owner (or one of the owners) of any part of the facility, or of extensions of the facility, without the consent of the provider;
(e) requiring the provider to bear some or all of the costs of extending the facility or maintaining extensions of the facility.

(2) Paragraphs (1)(a) and (b) do not apply in relation to the requirements and rights of the third party and the provider when the Commission is making a determination in arbitration of an access dispute relating to an earlier determination of an access dispute between the third party and the provider.

(3) A determination is of no effect if it is made in contravention of subsection (1).
Part IIIA Access to services
Division 3 Access to declared services

Section 44X

(4) If the Commission makes a determination that has the effect of depriving a person (the second person) of a pre-notification right to require the provider to supply the service to the second person, the determination must also require the third party:

(a) to pay to the second person such amount (if any) as the Commission considers is fair compensation for the deprivation; and

(b) to reimburse the provider and the Commonwealth for any compensation that the provider or the Commonwealth agrees, or is required by a court order, to pay to the second party as compensation for the deprivation.

Note: Without infringing paragraph (1)(b), a determination may deprive a second person of the right to be supplied with an amount of service equal to the difference between the total amount of service the person was entitled to under a pre-notification right and the amount that the person actually needs to meet his or her actual requirements.

(5) In this section:

existing user means a person (including the provider) who was using the service at the time when the dispute was notified.

pre-notification right means a right under a contract, or under a determination, that was in force at the time when the dispute was notified.

protected contractual right means a right under a contract that was in force at the beginning of 30 March 1995.

44X Matters that the Commission must take into account

(1) The Commission must take the following matters into account in making a determination:

(a) the legitimate business interests of the provider, and the provider’s investment in the facility;

(b) the public interest, including the public interest in having competition in markets (whether or not in Australia);

(c) the interests of all persons who have rights to use the service;

(d) the direct costs of providing access to the service;

(e) the value to the provider of extensions whose cost is borne by someone else;
(f) the operational and technical requirements necessary for the safe and reliable operation of the facility;
(g) the economically efficient operation of the facility.

(2) The Commission may take into account any other matters that it thinks are relevant.

44Y  Commission may terminate arbitration in certain cases

(1) The Commission may at any time terminate an arbitration (without making a determination) if it thinks that:
   (a) the notification of the dispute was vexatious; or
   (b) the subject matter of the dispute is trivial, misconceived or lacking in substance; or
   (c) the party who notified the dispute has not engaged in negotiations in good faith; or
   (d) access to the service should continue to be governed by an existing contract between the provider and the third party.

(2) In addition, if the dispute is about varying an existing determination, the Commission may terminate the arbitration if it thinks there is no sufficient reason why the previous determination should not continue to have effect in its present form.

Subdivision D—Procedure in arbitrations

44Z  Constitution of Commission for conduct of arbitration be constituted by 2 or more members of the Commission ominated in writing by the Chairperson.

If the Commission is constituted for an arbitration by 2 or more members of the Commission, any question before the Commission is to be decided:
   (a) unless paragraph (b) applies—according to the opinion of the majority of those members; or
   (b) if the members are evenly divided on the question—according to the opinion of the member who is presiding.

(6) If the undertaking provides for disputes about the undertaking to be resolved by the Commission, then the Commission may resolve the disputes in accordance with the undertaking.

(6A) If the undertaking provides for the Commission to perform functions or exercise powers in relation to the undertaking, the Commission may perform those functions and exercise those powers. If the Commission decides to do so, it must do so in accordance with the undertaking.

(7) The provider may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of the Commission.
Part IIIA  Access to services
Division 6  Access undertakings for non-declared services

Section 44ZZAA

44ZZAA  Access codes prepared by industry bodies

(1) An industry body may give a written code to the Commission setting out rules for access to a service.

(2) The code must specify the expiry date of the code.

(3) The Commission may accept the code, if it thinks it appropriate to do so having regard to the following matters:
   (a) the legitimate business interests of providers who might give undertakings in accordance with the code;
   (b) the public interest, including the public interest in having competition in markets (whether or not in Australia);
   (c) the interests of persons who might want access to the service covered by the code;
   (d) whether access to the service is already the subject of an access regime;
   (e) any matters specified in regulations made for the purposes of this subsection;
   (f) any other matters that the Commission thinks are relevant.

(4) The Commission must not accept the code unless the Commission has first:
   (a) published the code and invited people to make submissions to the Commission on the code; and
   (b) considered any submissions that were received within the time limit specified by the Commission when it published the code.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on industry body consultations: see section 44ZZAB.

(5) If the Commission accepts the code:
   (a) the code comes into operation at the time of acceptance; and
   (b) the code continues in operation until its expiry date, unless it is earlier withdrawn.

(6) The industry body may withdraw or vary the code at any time, but only with the consent of the Commission.

Note: The Commission may rely on industry body consultations before giving its consent: see section 44ZZAB.

104  Trade Practices Act 1974
(7) If the industry body that gave the code to the Commission has ceased to exist, a withdrawal or variation under subsection (6) may be made by a body or association prescribed by the regulations as a replacement for the original industry body.

(8) In this section:

code means a set of rules (which may be in general terms or detailed terms).

industry body means a body or association (including a body or association established by a law of a State or Territory) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

44ZZAB Commission may rely on industry body consultations

(1) Despite subsection 44ZZAA(4), the Commission may accept a code if the industry body has done the following before giving the code to the Commission under subsection 44ZZAA(1):

(a) published the code or a draft of the code and invited people to make submissions to the industry body on the code or draft;

(b) specified the effect of this subsection and subsection (2) when it published the code or draft;

(c) considered any submissions that were received within the time limit specified by the industry body when it published the code or draft.

(2) In deciding whether to accept the code, the Commission may consider any submission referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

(3) Before consenting to a variation or withdrawal of a code under subsection 44ZZAA(6), the Commission may rely on:

(a) publication of the variation or notice of the withdrawal by the industry body, including specification of the effect of this subsection and subsection (4); and

(b) consideration by the industry body of any submissions that were received within the time limit specified by the industry body when it published the variation or notice.

(4) In deciding whether to consent to the variation or withdrawal, the Commission may consider any submission referred to in paragraph (3)(b).
Part IIIA  Access to services
Division 6  Access undertakings for non-declared services

Section 44ZZB

(5) In this section:

code has the same meaning as it has in section 44ZZAA.

industry body has the same meaning as it has in section 44ZZAA.

44ZZB  Undertakings cannot be accepted in certain cases

The Commission cannot accept an undertaking given under section 44ZZA if the service concerned is a declared service.

44ZZC  Register of access undertakings and access codes

(1) The Commission must maintain a public register that includes all access undertakings and access codes that have been accepted by the Commission, including those that are no longer in operation.

(2) The register must include all variations of access undertakings and access codes.

Enforcement and remedies  Division 7

Section 44ZZD

Division 7—Enforcement and remedies

44ZZD  Enforcement of determinations

(1) If the Federal Court is satisfied, on the application of a party to a determination, that another party to the determination has engaged, is engaging, or is proposing to engage in conduct that constitutes a contravention of the determination, the Court may make all or any of the following orders:

(a) an order granting an injunction on such terms as the Court thinks appropriate:
   (i) restraining the other party from engaging in the conduct;
   or
   (ii) if the conduct involves refusing or failing to do something—requiring the other party to do that thing;
(b) an order directing the other party to compensate the applicant for loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention;
(c) any other order that the Court thinks appropriate.

(2) If the Federal Court has power under subsection (1) to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in particular conduct, or requiring a person to do anything, the Court may make any other orders (including granting an injunction) that it thinks appropriate against any other person who was involved in the contravention concerned.

(3) A reference in this section to a person involved in the contravention is a reference to a person who has:

(a) aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention; or
(b) induced the contravention, whether through threats or promises or otherwise; or
(c) been in any way (directly or indirectly) knowingly concerned in or a party to the contravention; or
(d) conspired with others to effect the contravention.

44ZZE  Enforcement of prohibition on hindering access

(1) If the Federal Court is satisfied, on the application of any person, that another person (the obstructor) has engaged, is engaging, or is proposing to engage in conduct constituting a contravention of section 44ZZ, the Court may make all or any of the following orders:

(a) an order granting an injunction on such terms as the Court thinks appropriate:
   (i) restraining the obstructor from engaging in the conduct; or
   (ii) if the conduct involves refusing or failing to do something—requiring the obstructor to do that thing;
(b) an order directing the obstructor to compensate a person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the contravention;
(c) any other order that the Court thinks appropriate.

(2) If the Federal Court has power under subsection (1) to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in particular conduct, or requiring a person to do anything, the Court may make any other orders (including granting an injunction) that it thinks appropriate against any other person who was involved in the contravention concerned.

(3) The grounds on which the Court may decide not to make an order under this section include the ground that Divisions 2 and 3 provide a more appropriate way of dealing with the issue of the applicant’s access to the service concerned.

(4) A reference in this section to a person involved in the contravention is a reference to a person who has:
   (a) aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention; or
   (b) induced the contravention, whether through threats or promises or otherwise; or
   (c) been in any way (directly or indirectly) knowingly concerned in or a party to the contravention; or
   (d) conspired with others to effect the contravention.

44ZZF Consent injunctions

On an application for an injunction under section 44ZZD or 44ZZE, the Federal Court may grant an injunction by consent of all of the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court is satisfied that the section applies.
44ZZG  Interim injunctions

(1) The Federal Court may grant an interim injunction pending determination of an application under section 44ZZD or 44ZZE.

(2) If the Commission makes an application under section 44ZZE to the Federal Court for an injunction, the Court must not require the Commission or any other person, as a condition of granting an interim injunction, to give any undertakings as to damages.

44ZZH  Factors relevant to granting a restraining injunction

The power of the Federal Court to grant an injunction under section 44ZZD or 44ZZE restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised whether or not:

(a) it appears to the Court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; or
(b) the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; or
(c) there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the first-mentioned person engages in conduct of that kind.

44ZZI  Factors relevant to granting a mandatory injunction

The power of the Federal Court to grant an injunction under section 44ZZD or 44ZZE requiring a person to do a thing may be exercised whether or not:

(a) it appears to the Court that the person intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that thing; or
(b) the person has previously refused or failed to do that thing; or
(c) there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the first-mentioned person refuses or fails to do that thing.

44ZZJ  Enforcement of access undertakings

(1) If the Commission thinks that the provider of an access undertaking in operation under section 44ZZA has breached any of its terms, the Commission may apply to the Federal Court for an order under subsection (2).
Part IIIA  Access to services
Division 7  Enforcement and remedies

Section 44ZZK

(2) If the Federal Court is satisfied that the provider has breached a term of the undertaking, the Court may make all or any of the following orders:

(a) an order directing the provider to comply with that term of the undertaking;
(b) an order directing the provider to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;

Division 8—Miscellaneous

44ZZL  Register of determinations

The Commission must maintain a public register that specifies the following information for each determination:

(a) the names of the parties to the determination;
(b) the service to which the determination relates;
(c) the date on which the determination was made.

44ZZM  Commonwealth consent to conferral of functions etc. on the Commission or Tribunal by State or Territory laws

(1) A State or Territory access regime law may confer functions or powers, or impose duties, on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note: Section 44ZZMB sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.

(2) Subsection (1) does not authorise the conferral of a function or power, or the imposition of a duty, by a law of a State or Territory to the extent to which:

(a) the conferral or imposition, or the authorisation, would contravene any constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal; or

(b) the authorisation would otherwise exceed the legislative power of the Commonwealth.

(3) The Commission or Tribunal cannot perform a duty or function, or exercise a power, under a State or Territory access regime law unless the conferral of the function or power, or the imposition of the duty, is in accordance with an agreement between the Commonwealth and the State or Territory concerned.

44ZZMA  How duty is imposed

Application

(1) This section applies if a State or Territory access regime law purports to impose a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.
Part IIA  Access to services
Division 8  Miscellaneous

Section 44ZZMA

Note: Section 44ZZMB sets out when such a law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal.

State or Territory legislative power sufficient to support duty

(2) The duty is taken not to be imposed by this Act (or any other law of the Commonwealth) to the extent to which:
   (a) imposing the duty is within the legislative powers of the State or Territory concerned; and
   (b) imposing the duty by the law of the State or Territory is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.

Note: If this subsection applies, the duty will be taken to be imposed by force of the law of the State or Territory (the Commonwealth having consented under section 44ZZM to the imposition of the duty by that law).

Commonwealth legislative power sufficient to support duty but State or Territory legislative powers are not

(3) If, to ensure the validity of the purported imposition of the duty, it is necessary that the duty be imposed by a law of the Commonwealth (rather than by the law of the State or Territory), the duty is taken to be imposed by this Act to the extent necessary to ensure that validity.

(4) If, because of subsection (3), this Act is taken to impose the duty, it is the intention of the Parliament to rely on all powers available to it under the Constitution to support the imposition of the duty by this Act.

(5) The duty is taken to be imposed by this Act in accordance with subsection (3) only to the extent to which imposing the duty:
   (a) is within the legislative powers of the Commonwealth; and
   (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines restricting the duties that may be imposed on the Commission or Tribunal.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) do not limit section 44ZZM.
44ZZMB When a law of a State or Territory imposes a duty

For the purposes of sections 44ZZM and 44ZZMA, a State or Territory access regime law imposes a duty on the Commission or Tribunal if:

(a) the law confers a function or power on the Commission or Tribunal; and

(b) the circumstances in which the function or power is conferred give rise to an obligation on the Commission or Tribunal to perform the function or to exercise the power.

44ZZN Compensation for acquisition of property

(1) If:

(a) a determination would result in an acquisition of property; and

(b) the determination would not be valid, apart from this section, because a particular person has not been sufficiently compensated;

the Commonwealth must pay that person:

(c) a reasonable amount of compensation agreed on between the person and the Commonwealth; or

(d) failing agreement—a reasonable amount of compensation determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) In assessing compensation payable in a proceeding begun under this section, the following must be taken into account if they arise out of the same event or transaction:

(a) any damages or compensation recovered, or other remedy, in a proceeding begun otherwise than under this section;

(b) compensation awarded under a determination.

(3) In this section, acquisition of property has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

is taken for the purposes of this Part to have been engaged in also by the body corporate, unless the body corporate establishes that the body corporate took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

(3) If, in a proceeding under this Part in respect of conduct engaged in by an individual, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the individual, it is sufficient to show:

(a) that the conduct was engaged in by a servant or agent of the individual within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and

(b) that the servant or agent had the relevant state of mind.

Section 44ZZP

(b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of a servant or agent of the individual, if the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the servant or agent; is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to have been engaged in also by that individual, unless that individual establishes that he or she took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

(5) If:
   (a) an individual is convicted of an offence; and
   (b) the individual would not have been convicted of the offence if subsections (3) and (4) had not been enacted; the individual is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for that offence.

(6) A reference in subsection (1) or (3) to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to:

   (e) procedure and evidence, including the appointment of persons to assist the Tribunal by giving evidence (whether personally or by means of a written report).
Section 44ZZQ

44ZZQ Regulations about fees for inspection etc. of registers

The regulations may make provision about the inspection of registers maintained under this Part (including provision about fees).
Part IV—Restrictive trade practices

45 Contracts, arrangements or understandings that restrict dealings or affect competition

(1) If a provision of a contract made before the commencement of the Trade Practices Amendment Act 1977:
   (a) is an exclusionary provision; or
   (b) has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition; that provision is unenforceable in so far as it confers rights or benefits or imposes duties or obligations on a corporation.

(2) A corporation shall not:
   (a) make a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, if:
      (i) the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding contains an exclusionary provision; or
      (ii) a provision of the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding has the purpose, or would have or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition; or
   (b) give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, whether the contract or arrangement was made, or the understanding was arrived at, before or after the commencement of this section, if that provision:
      (i) is an exclusionary provision; or
      (ii) has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition.

(3) For the purposes of this section and section 45A, competition, in relation to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, means competition in any market in which a corporation that is a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding or would be a party to the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, or any body corporate related to such a corporation, supplies or acquires, or is likely to supply or acquire, goods or services or would, but for the provision, supply or acquire, or be likely to supply or acquire, goods or services.

(4) For the purposes of the application of this section in relation to a particular corporation, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding shall be deemed to have or to be likely to have the effect of substantially lessening competition if that provision and any one or more of the following provisions, namely:

(a) the other provisions of that contract, arrangement or understanding or proposed contract, arrangement or understanding; and

(b) the provisions of any other contract, arrangement or understanding or proposed contract, arrangement or understanding to which the corporation or a body corporate related to the corporation is or would be a party; together have or are likely to have that effect.

(5) This section does not apply to or in relation to:

(a) a provision of a contract where the provision constitutes a covenant to which section 45B applies or, but for subsection 45B(9), would apply;

(b) a provision of a proposed contract where the provision would constitute a covenant to which section 45B would apply or, but for subsection 45B(9), would apply; or

(c) a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding in so far as the provision relates to:

(i) conduct that contravenes section 48; or

(ii) conduct that would contravene section 48 but for the operation of subsection 88(8A); or

(iii) conduct that would contravene section 48 if this Act defined the acts constituting the practice of resale price maintenance by reference to the maximum price at which goods or services are to be sold or supplied or are to be advertised, displayed or offered for sale or supply.

(6) The making of a contract, arrangement or understanding does not constitute a contravention of this section by reason that the contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision the giving effect to which would, or would but for the operation of subsection 47(10) or 88(8) or section 93, constitute a contravention of section 47 and this section does not apply to or in relation to the giving effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding by way of:

(a) engaging in conduct that contravene, or would but for the operation of subsection 47(10) or 88(8) or section 93 contravene, section 47; or

(b) doing an act by reason of a breach or threatened breach of a condition referred to in subsection 47(2), (4), (6) or (8), being an act done by a person at a time when:

(i) an authorization under subsection 88(8) is in force in relation to conduct engaged in by that person on that condition; or

(ii) by reason of subsection 93(7) conduct engaged in by that person on that condition is not to be taken to have the effect of substantially lessening competition within the meaning of section 47; or

(iii) a notice under subsection 93(1) is in force in relation to conduct engaged in by that person on that condition.

(7) This section does not apply to or in relation to a contract, arrangement or understanding in so far as the contract, arrangement or understanding provides, or to or in relation to a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding in so far as the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding would provide, directly or indirectly for the acquisition of any shares in the capital of a body corporate or any assets of a person.

(8) This section does not apply to or in relation to a contract, arrangement or understanding, or a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, the only parties to which are or would be bodies corporate that are related to each other.

(9) The making by a corporation of a contract that contains a provision in relation to which subsection 88(1) applies is not a contravention of subsection (2) of this section if:

(a) the contract is subject to a condition that the provision will not come into force unless and until the corporation is granted an authorization to give effect to the provision; and
Part IV  Restrictive trade practices

Section 45A

(b) the corporation applies for the grant of such an authorization within 14 days after the contract is made;
but nothing in this subsection prevents the giving effect by a corporation to such a provision from constituting a contravention of subsection (2).

45A Contracts, arrangements or understandings in relation to prices

(1) Without limiting the generality of section 45, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, shall be deemed for the purposes of that section to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition if the provision has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, as the case may be, of fixing, controlling or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintaining of, the price for, or a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to, goods or services supplied or acquired or to be supplied or acquired by the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding or the proposed parties to the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, or by any of them, or by any bodies corporate that are related to any of them, in competition with each other.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a provision of a contract or arrangement made or of an understanding arrived at, or of a proposed contract of arrangement to be made or of a proposed understanding to be arrived at, for the purposes of a joint venture to the extent that the provision relates or would relate to:

(a) the joint supply by 2 or more of the parties to the joint venture, or the supply by all the parties to the joint venture in proportion to their respective interests in the joint venture, of goods jointly produced by all the parties in pursuance of the joint venture;
(b) the joint supply by 2 or more of the parties to the joint venture of services in pursuance of the joint venture, or the supply by all the parties to the joint venture in proportion to their respective interests in the joint venture of services in pursuance of, and made available as a result of, the joint venture;
(c) in the case of a joint venture carried on by a body corporate as mentioned in subparagraph 4J(a)(ii):

120  Trade Practices Act 1974
Section 45A

(i) the supply by that body corporate of goods produced by it in pursuance of the joint venture; or
(ii) the supply by that body corporate of services in pursuance of the joint venture, not being services supplied on behalf of the body corporate by:
   (A) a person who is the owner of shares in the capital of the body corporate; or
   (B) a body corporate that is related to such a person.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, being a provision:
   (a) in relation to the price for goods or services to be collectively acquired, whether directly or indirectly, by parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding or by proposed parties to the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding; or
   (b) for the joint advertising of the price for the re-supply of goods or services so acquired.

(5) For the purposes of this Act, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, shall not be taken not to have the purpose, or not to have or to be likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintaining of, the price for, or a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to, goods or services by reason only of:
   (a) the form of, or of that provision of, the contract, arrangement or understanding or the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding; or
   (b) any description given to, or to that provision of, the contract, arrangement or understanding or the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding by the parties or proposed parties.

(6) For the purposes of this Act but without limiting the generality of subsection (5), a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, shall not be taken not to have the purpose, or not to have or to be likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintaining of, the price for, or a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to, goods or services by reason only that the provision recommends, or provides for the recommending of, such a price, discount, allowance, rebate or credit if in fact the provision has that purpose or has or is likely to have that effect.

(7) For the purposes of the preceding provisions of this section but without limiting the generality of those provisions, a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding, or of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, shall be deemed to have the purpose, or to have or to be likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintaining of, the price for, or a discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to, goods or services supplied as mentioned in subsection (1) if the provision has the purpose, or has or is likely to have the effect, of fixing, controlling or maintaining, or providing for the fixing, controlling or maintaining of, such a price, discount, allowance, rebate or credit in relation to a re-supply of the goods or services by persons to whom the goods or services are or would be supplied by the parties to the contract, arrangement or understanding or the proposed parties to the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, or by any of them, or by any bodies corporate that are related to any of them.

(8) The reference in subsection (1) to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons in competition with each other includes a reference to the supply or acquisition of goods or services by persons who, but for a provision of any contract, arrangement or understanding or of any proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, would be, or would be likely to be, in competition with each other in relation to the supply or acquisition of the goods or services.

45B  Covenants affecting competition

(1) A covenant, whether the covenant was given before or after the commencement of this section, is unenforceable in so far as it confers rights or benefits or imposes duties or obligations on a corporation or on a person associated with a corporation if the covenant has, or is likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in any market in which the corporation or any person associated with the corporation supplies or acquires, or is likely to supply or acquire, goods or services or would, but for the covenant, supply or acquire, or be likely to supply or acquire, goods or services.

(2) A corporation or a person associated with a corporation shall not:
(a) require the giving of a covenant, or give a covenant, if the proposed covenant has the purpose, or would have or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in any market in which:
(i) the corporation, or any person associated with the corporation by virtue of paragraph (7)(b), supplies or acquires, is likely to supply or acquire, or would, but for the covenant, supply or acquire, or be likely to supply or acquire, goods or services; or
(ii) any person associated with the corporation by virtue of the operation of paragraph (7)(a) supplies or acquires, is likely to supply or acquire, or would, but for the covenant, supply or acquire, or be likely to supply or acquire, goods or services, being a supply or acquisition in relation to which that person is, or would be, under an obligation to act in accordance with directions, instructions or wishes of the corporation;
(b) threaten to engage in particular conduct if a person who, but for subsection (1), would be bound by a covenant does not comply with the terms of the covenant; or (c) engage in particular conduct by reason that a person who, but for subsection (1), would be bound by a covenant has failed to comply, or proposes or threatens to fail to comply, with the terms of the covenant.

(3) Where a person:
(a) issues an invitation to another person to enter into a contract containing a covenant;
(b) makes an offer to another person to enter into a contract containing a covenant; or
Section 45B

(c) makes it known that the person will not enter into a contract of a particular kind unless the contract contains a covenant of a particular kind or in particular terms; the first-mentioned person shall, by issuing that invitation, making that offer or making that fact known, be deemed to require the giving of the covenant.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a covenant or proposed covenant shall be deemed to have, or to be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition in a market if the covenant or proposed covenant, as the case may be, would have, or be likely to have, that effect when taken together with the effect or likely effect on competition in that market of any other covenant or proposed covenant to the benefit of which:

(a) a corporation that, or person who, is or would be, or but for subsection (1) would be, entitled to the benefit of the first-mentioned covenant or proposed covenant; or

(b) a person associated with the corporation referred to in paragraph (a) or a corporation associated with the person referred to in that paragraph;

(7) For the purposes of this section, section 45C and subparagraph 87(3)(a)(ii), a person and a corporation shall be taken to be associated with each other in relation to a covenant or proposed covenant if, and only if:

Dominant purpose of conduct relates to employment matters—conduct by a person

(1) A person does not contravene, and is not involved in a contravention of, subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) by engaging in conduct if the dominant purpose for which the conduct is engaged in is substantially related to the remuneration, conditions of employment, hours of work or working conditions of that person or of another person employed by an employer of that person.

Dominant purpose of conduct relates to employment matters—conduct by employee organisation and employees

(2) If:

the same employer, engage in conduct in concert with another person who is, or with other persons each of whom is:
    (i) an organisation of employees; or substantially related to the remuneration, conditions of employment, hours of work or working conditions of the employee, or any of the employees, covered by 45DB(1) by engaging in the conduct.

Restrictive trade practices  Part IV

Section 45DD

Dominant purpose of conduct relates to environmental protection or consumer protection

(3) A person does not contravene, and is not involved in a contravention of, subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) by engaging in conduct if:

(a) the dominant purpose for which the conduct is engaged in is substantially related to environmental protection or consumer protection; and

(b) engaging in the conduct is not industrial action.

Note 1: If an environmental organisation or a consumer organisation is a body corporate:

(a) it is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption; and

(b) each of its members is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption.

Note 2: If an environmental organisation or a consumer organisation is not a body corporate:

(a) it is not a “person” and is therefore not subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) (consequently, this exemption does not cover the organisation as such), but

(b) each of its members is a “person” who may be subject to the prohibitions in subsections 45D(1), 45DA(1) and 45DB(1) and who may also be covered by this exemption.

(4) In subsection (3), industrial action means:

(a) the performance of work in a manner different from that in which it is customarily performed, or the adoption of a practice in relation to work, the result of which is a restriction or limitation on, or a delay in, the performance of the work, where:

(i) the terms and conditions of the work are prescribed, wholly or partly, by an industrial instrument or an order of an industrial body; or

(d) a failure or refusal by persons to attend for work or a failure or refusal to perform any work at all by persons who attend for work.

For this purpose, industrial body, industrial dispute and industrial instrument have the meanings given by subsection 298B(1) of the Workplace Relations Act 1996.

Meaning of industrial action—further clarification

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3):
(a) conduct is capable of constituting industrial action even if the conduct relates to part only of the duties that persons are required to perform in the course of their employment; and
(b) a reference to industrial action includes a reference to a course of conduct consisting of a series of industrial actions.

Subsections (1), (2) and (3) do not protect people not covered by them

(6) In applying subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1) or 45DB(1) to a person who is not covered by subsection (1), (2) or (3) in respect of certain conduct, disregard the fact that other persons may be covered by one of those subsections in respect of the same conduct.

Defences to contravention of subsection 45DB(1)

(7) In a proceeding under this Act in relation to a contravention of subsection 45DB(1), it is a defence if the defendant proves:
(a) that a notice in respect of the conduct concerned has been duly given to the Commission under subsection 93(1) and the Commission has not given a notice in respect of the conduct under subsection 93(3) or (3A); or
(b) that the dominant purpose for which the defendant engaged in the conduct concerned was to preserve or further a business carried on by him or her.
Restrictive trade practices  Part IV

Section 45E

Each person to prove defence

(8) If:

(a) a person engages in conduct in concert with another person; and

(b) the other person proves a matter specified in paragraph (7)(a) or (b) in respect of that conduct;

in applying subsection 45DB(1) to the first person, ignore the fact that the other person has proved that matter.

Note: Section 170MT of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 limits the right to bring actions under this Act in respect of industrial action that is protected action for the purposes of that section.

(b) preventing or hindering the first person from supplying or continuing to supply such goods or services to the second person, except subject to a condition:

(i) that is not a condition to which the supply of such goods or services by the first person to the second person has previously been subject because of a provision in a contract between those persons; and

(ii) that is about the persons to whom, the manner in which or the terms on which the second person may supply any goods or services.

Prohibition in an acquisition situation

(3) In an acquisition situation, the first person must not make a contract or arrangement, or arrive at an understanding, with an organisation of employees, an officer of such an organisation or a person acting for and on behalf of such an officer or organisation, if the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding contains a provision included for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of:

(b) the period has ended; and
(c) after the end of the period, the second person has been supplied with such goods or services by another person and has not also been supplied with such goods or services by the first person;

then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has been supplied with goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to supply such goods or services to the second person.

Meaning of accustomed to acquire

(7) In this section, a reference to a person who has been accustomed to acquire goods or services from a second person includes (subject to subsection (8)):
Section 45EA

(a) a regular acquirer of such goods or services from the second person; or
(b) a person who, when last acquiring such goods or services, acquired them from the second person; or
(c) a person who, at any time during the immediately preceding 3 months, acquired such goods or services from the second person.

Exception to subsection (7)

(b) the period has ended; and
(c) after the end of the period, the second person has refused to supply such goods or services to the first person;
then, for the purposes of the application of this section in relation to anything done after the second person has refused to supply goods or services as mentioned in paragraph (c), the first person is not to be taken to be a person who has been accustomed to acquire such goods or services from the second person.

(4) In determining for the purposes of this section the degree of market power that a body corporate or bodies corporate has or have in a trans-Tasman market, the Federal Court is to have regard to the extent to which the conduct of the body corporate or of any of those bodies corporate, in the trans-Tasman market is constrained by the conduct of:
(a) competitors, or potential competitors, of the body corporate, or of any of those bodies corporate, in the trans-Tasman market; or

(6) This section does not prevent a corporation from engaging in conduct that does not constitute a contravention of any of the following sections, namely, sections 45, 45B, 47 and 50, because an authorisation is in force or because of the operation of section 93.

(7) Without limiting the manner in which the purpose of a person may be established for the purposes of any other provision of this Act, a corporation may be taken to have taken advantage of its market power for a purpose referred to in subsection (2) even though, after all the evidence has been considered, the existence of that purpose is ascertainable only by inference from the conduct of the corporation or of any other person or from other relevant circumstances.

(8) It is the intention of the Parliament that this section, and the provisions of Parts VI and XII so far as they relate to a contravention of this section, should apply to New Zealand and New Zealand Crown corporations to the same extent, and in the same way, as they respectively apply under section 2A to the Commonwealth and authorities of the Commonwealth.

65AAC Pyramid selling schemes—participation

(1) A corporation must not participate in a pyramid selling scheme.

(2) A corporation must not induce, or attempt to induce, a person to participate in a pyramid selling scheme.

65AAD What is a pyramid selling scheme?

(1) In this Act:

pyramid selling scheme means a scheme with both the following characteristics:

(a) to take part in the scheme, some or all new participants must make a payment (a participation payment) to another participant or participants in the scheme;

(b) the participation payments are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants that they will be entitled to a payment (a recruitment payment) in relation to the introduction to the scheme of further new participants.

(2) A scheme may be a pyramid selling scheme:

(a) no matter who holds out to new participants the prospect of entitlement to recruitment payments; and

(b) no matter who is to make recruitment payments to new participants; and

(c) no matter who is to make introductions to the scheme of further new participants.

(3) A scheme may be a pyramid selling scheme even if it has any or all of the following characteristics:

(a) the participation payments may (or must) be made after the new participants begin to take part in the scheme;

(b) making a participation payment is not the only requirement for taking part in the scheme;

(c) the holding out of the prospect of entitlement to recruitment payments does not give any new participant a legally enforceable right;

(d) arrangements for the scheme are not recorded in writing (whether entirely or partly);
(e) the scheme involves the marketing of goods or services (or both).

65AAE Marketing schemes—are they pyramid selling schemes?

(1) To decide whether a scheme that involves the marketing of goods or services (or both) is a pyramid selling scheme, a court may have regard to the following matters in working out whether participation payments under the scheme are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants of entitlement to recruitment payments:

(a) the extent to which the participation payments bear a reasonable relationship to the value of the goods or services that participants are entitled to be supplied under the scheme (as assessed, if appropriate, by reference to the price of comparable goods or services available elsewhere);

(b) the emphasis given in the promotion of the scheme to the entitlement of participants to the supply of goods and services by comparison with the emphasis given to their entitlement to recruitment payments.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the matters to which the court may have regard in working out whether participation payments are entirely or substantially induced by the prospect held out to new participants of entitlement to recruitment payments.

   (a) in a case where the notice is published before the Minister takes any action under subsection 65J(1) in relation to goods of a particular kind—section 65J does not apply in relation to the action that the Minister may take under subsection 65C(5) or 65F(1) in relation to goods of that kind; or
   (b) in any other case—any action taken by the Minister under subsection 65J(1) in relation to goods of a particular kind ceases to have effect and, if a conference had, under section 65J, been arranged or such a conference had commenced or been completed without the Commission making a recommendation under section 65K, the Minister...
Section 65M

may publish the notice under subsection 65C(5) or 65F(1) without regard to the action taken under subsection 65J(1).

65M Conference after goods banned

(1) Where:

(a) a notice has been published under subsection 65C(5) in relation to goods of a particular kind; and

(b) the Minister publishes a notice under section 65L in relation to goods of that kind;

the Minister shall, by notice in writing published in the Gazette, invite any person (in this section referred to as a supplier) who supplied or proposes to supply goods of that kind to notify the Commission within the period (in this section referred to as the relevant period) of 10 days commencing on the day specified in the last-mentioned notice, being not earlier than the day on which that notice is published in the Gazette, to notify the Commission whether the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the notice referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) If a supplier notifies the Commission in writing within the relevant period, or within such longer period as the Commission allows, that the supplier wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the notice published under subsection 65C(5), the Commission shall appoint a day (being not later than 14 days after the end of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the day, time and place so appointed to the Minister and to each supplier who so notified the Commission.

(3) Subsections 65J(5), (6) and (7) apply in relation to a conference held under this section.

65N Recommendation after conclusion of conference

As soon as is practicable after the conclusion of a conference in relation to a notice that has been published under subsection 65C(5), the Commission shall:

(a) by notice in writing given to the Minister, recommend that the notice under subsection 65C(5):

(i) remain in force;
(ii) be varied; or
(iii) be revoked; and
(b) cause a copy of the notice in writing given to the Minister to be given to each supplier who was present or represented at the conference.

65P Minister to have regard to recommendation of Commission

Where the Commission, under section 65K or 65N, makes a recommendation to the Minister in relation to the proposed publication of a notice under subsection 65C(5) or (7) or 65F(1) or in relation to a notice that has been published under subsection 65C(5):

(a) the Minister shall have regard to the recommendation; and
(b) where the Minister decides to act otherwise than in accordance with the recommendation, the Minister shall, by notice in writing published in the Gazette, set out the reasons for the Minister’s decision.

65Q Power to obtain information, documents and evidence

(1) Where the Minister or an officer authorised by the Minister for the purposes of this section (in this section referred to as an authorised officer) has reason to believe that a corporation which, in trade or commerce, supplies goods of a particular kind which are intended to be used or are of a kind likely to be used by a consumer and which will or may cause injury to any person is capable of furnishing information, producing documents or giving evidence relating to goods of that kind, the Minister or the authorised officer may, by notice in writing served on the corporation, require the corporation:

(a) to furnish to the Minister, by writing signed by a competent officer of the corporation, in the manner, and within such reasonable time, as are specified in the notice, any such information;
(b) to produce to the Minister, or to the authorised officer, in accordance with such reasonable requirements as are specified in the notice, any such documents; or
(c) to cause a competent officer of the corporation to appear before the Minister or the authorised officer at such reasonable time and place as are specified in the notice to give any such evidence, either orally or in writing, and produce any such documents.

(2) Where an authorised officer has reason to believe that goods of a particular kind which are intended to be used or are of a kind likely to be used by a consumer will or may cause injury to a person, an authorised officer may, for the purposes of ascertaining whether goods of that kind will or may cause injury to any person, enter any premises in or from which the authorised officer has reason to believe a corporation supplies goods of that kind in trade or commerce and:

(a) inspect goods of that kind;
(b) take samples of goods of that kind;
(c) inspect any documents relating to goods of that kind and make copies of, or take extracts from, those documents; or
(d) inspect equipment used in the manufacturing, processing or storage of goods of that kind.

(3) The powers of an authorised officer under subsection (2) shall not be exercised except:

(a) pursuant to a warrant issued under subsection (5); or
(b) in circumstances where the exercise of those powers is required without delay in order to protect life or public safety.

(4) An authorised officer may apply to a person who is a judge of the Court or of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory for the issue under subsection (5) of a warrant to exercise the powers of an authorised officer under subsection (2) in relation to premises.

(5) Where an application under subsection (4) is made to a person who is a judge of such a court, the person may issue a warrant authorising an authorised officer named in the warrant, with such assistance as the officer thinks necessary and if necessary by force, to enter the premises specified in the warrant and to exercise the powers of an authorised officer under subsection (2) in relation to those premises.

(6) A person who is a judge of such a court shall not issue a warrant under subsection (5) unless:

(a) an affidavit has been furnished to the person setting out the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought;
(b) the applicant or some other person has given to the first-mentioned person such further information (if any) as the first-mentioned person requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought; and
(c) the first-mentioned person is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant.

(7) A warrant issued under subsection (5) shall:
(a) specify the purpose for which the warrant is issued;
(b) state whether entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night;
(c) include a description of the kind of goods authorised to be inspected or sampled; and
(d) specify a day, not being later than 7 days after the day on which the warrant is issued, at the end of which the warrant ceases to have effect.

(7A) An authorised officer or a person assisting the authorised officer must, before any person enters the premises under a warrant issued under subsection (5):
(a) announce that he or she is authorised to enter the premises; and
(b) give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.

(7B) An authorised officer or a person assisting the authorised officer is not required to comply with subsection (7A) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure:
(a) the safety of a person (including the authorised officer and the person assisting the authorised officer); or
(b) that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(8) Where an authorised officer takes samples under paragraph (2)(b), the officer shall pay a reasonable price for the goods sampled.

(9) A person who refuses or fails to comply with a notice under this section is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 40 penalty points.
Part V Consumer protection
Division 1A Product safety and product information

Section 65Q

(9A) Subsection (9) does not apply if the person complies with the notice to the extent to which the person is capable of complying with it.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (9A) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

(9B) Subsection (9) is an offence of strict liability.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

(9C) If:
   (a) a person, in purported compliance with a notice under this section, furnishes information or gives evidence; and
   (b) the person does so knowing that the information or evidence is false or misleading in a material particular;

the person is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by imprisonment for not longer than 12 months.

(10) A person who refuses or fails to provide an authorised officer acting in accordance with subsection (2) with all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of the authorised officer’s powers under that subsection is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

Note: Penalty units are defined in section 4AA of the Crimes Act 1914. Under subsection 4D(1) of that Act, these penalties are only maximum penalties for the offences. Subsection 4B(2) of that Act allows a court to impose an appropriate fine instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. If a body corporate is convicted of one of the offences, subsection 4B(3) of that Act allows a court to impose a fine of an amount not greater than 5 times the maximum fine that the court could impose on an individual convicted of the same offence.

(11) Any information furnished or evidence given by a person under this section, any document produced by a person under this section, and any information, evidence or document obtained under this section, is not admissible in evidence against the person:
   (a) in any proceedings instituted by the person; or
   (b) in any other proceedings, other than proceedings against the person for a contravention of a provision of this section.
65R Notification of voluntary recall

(1) Where a corporation voluntarily takes action to recall goods because the goods will or may cause injury to any person, the corporation shall, within 2 days after taking that action, give a notice in writing to the Minister:
   (a) stating that the goods are subject to recall; and
   (b) setting out the nature of the defect in, or dangerous characteristic of, the goods.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 30 penalty units.

Note: Penalty units are defined in section 4AA of the Crimes Act 1914. If a body corporate is convicted of the offence, subsection 4B(3) of that Act allows a court to impose a fine of an amount not greater than 5 times the maximum fine that the court could impose on an individual convicted of the same offence.

(4) For the purposes of this section, goods includes things that were goods at the time they were supplied but became fixtures after the supply.

(3) Subsection (2) is an offence of strict liability.

Note 1: Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

Note 2: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

65S Copies of certain notices to be given to suppliers or published in certain newspapers

(1) Where the Minister publishes a notice in writing in the Gazette under subsection 65B(1), 65J(1), 65L(1) or 65M(1), the Minister shall, within 2 days after the publication of that notice in the Gazette, or, if it is not practicable to do so within that period, as soon as practicable after the end of that period, either:
   (a) cause a copy of the notice to be given to each person who, to the knowledge of the Minister, supplies goods of the kind to which the notice relates; or
Section 65T

(b) cause a copy of the notice to be published in a newspaper circulating in each part of Australia where goods of the kind to which the notice relates are, to the knowledge of the Minister, supplied.

(2) Any failure to comply with subsection (1) in relation to a notice does not invalidate the notice.

65T Certain action not to affect insurance contracts

The liability of an insurer under a contract of insurance with a corporation, being a contract relating to the recall of goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the corporation or to the liability of the corporation with respect to possible defects in goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the corporation, shall not be affected by reason only that the corporation gives to the Minister, to the Commission, to a person appointed or engaged under the Public Service Act 1999, or to an officer of an authority of the Commonwealth information relating to any goods supplied or proposed to be supplied by the corporation.
Division 2—Conditions and warranties in consumer transactions

66 Interpretation

(1) In this Division:

(a) a reference to the quality of goods includes a reference to the state or condition of the goods;

(b) a reference to a contract does not include a reference to a contract made before the commencing date;

(c) a reference to antecedent negotiations in relation to a contract for the supply by a corporation of goods to a consumer is a reference to any negotiations or arrangements conducted or made with the consumer by another person in the course of a business carried on by the other person whereby the consumer was induced to make the contract or which otherwise promoted the transaction to which the contract relates; and

(d) a reference to the person by whom any antecedent negotiations were conducted is a reference to the person by whom the negotiations or arrangements concerned were conducted or made.

(2) Goods of any kind are of merchantable quality within the meaning of this Division if they are as fit for the purpose or purposes for which goods of that kind are commonly bought as it is reasonable to expect having regard to any description applied to them, the price (if relevant) and all the other relevant circumstances.

66A Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods

The provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, adopted at Vienna, Austria, on 10 April 1980, prevail over the provisions of this Division to the extent of any inconsistency.

67 Conflict of laws

Where:
Section 68

(a) the proper law of a contract for the supply by a corporation of goods or services to a consumer would, but for a term that it should be the law of some other country or a term to the like effect, be the law of any part of Australia; or
(b) a contract for the supply by a corporation of goods or services to a consumer contains a term that purports to substitute, or has the effect of substituting, provisions of the law of some other country or of a State or Territory for all or any of the provisions of this Division;

this Division applies to the contract notwithstanding that term.

68 Application of provisions not to be excluded or modified

(1) Any term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term of the contract) that purports to exclude, restrict or modify or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:
(a) the application of all or any of the provisions of this Division;
(b) the exercise of a right conferred by such a provision;
(c) any liability of the corporation for breach of a condition or warranty implied by such a provision; or
(d) the application of section 75A;

is void.

(2) A term of a contract shall not be taken to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provision of this Division or the application of section 75A unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with that provision or section.

68A Limitation of liability for breach of certain conditions or warranties

(1) Subject to this section, a term of a contract for the supply by a corporation of goods or services other than goods or services of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption is not void under section 68 by reason only that the term limits the liability of the corporation for a breach of a condition or warranty (other than a condition or warranty implied by section 69) to:
(a) in the case of goods, any one or more of the following:
Section 68A

(i) the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
(ii) the repair of the goods;
(iii) the payment of the cost of replacing the goods or of acquiring equivalent goods;
(iv) the payment of the cost of having the goods repaired; or

(b) in the case of services:
(i) the supplying of the services again; or
(ii) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a term of a contract if the person to whom the goods or services were supplied establishes that it is not fair or reasonable for the corporation to rely on that term of the contract.

(3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2) whether or not reliance on a term of a contract is fair or reasonable, a court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and in particular to the following matters:
(a) the strength of the bargaining positions of the corporation and the person to whom the goods or services were supplied (in this subsection referred to as the buyer) relative to each other, taking into account, among other things, the availability of equivalent goods or services and suitable alternative sources of supply;
(b) whether the buyer received an inducement to agree to the term or, in agreeing to the term, had an opportunity of acquiring the goods or services or equivalent goods or services from any source of supply under a contract that did not include that term;
(c) whether the buyer knew or ought reasonably to have known of the existence and extent of the term (having regard, among other things, to any custom of the trade and any previous course of dealing between the parties); and
(d) in the case of the supply of goods, whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the buyer.
68B Limitation of liability in relation to supply of recreational services

(1) A term of a contract for the supply by a corporation of recreational services is not void under section 68 by reason only that the term excludes, restricts or modifies, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:

(a) the application of section 74 to the supply of the recreational services under the contract; or
(b) the exercise of a right conferred by section 74 in relation to the supply of the recreational services under the contract; or
(c) any liability of the corporation for a breach of a warranty implied by section 74 in relation to the supply of the recreational services under the contract;

so long as:

(d) the exclusion, restriction or modification is limited to liability for death or personal injury; and
(e) the contract was entered into after the commencement of this section.

(2) In this section:

disease includes any physical or mental ailment, disorder, defect or morbid condition, whether of sudden onset or gradual development and whether of genetic or other origin.

injury means any physical or mental injury.

personal injury means:

(a) an injury of an individual (including the aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of an injury of the individual); or
(b) the contraction, aggravation, acceleration, or recurrence of a disease of an individual; or
(c) the coming into existence, the aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of any other condition, circumstance, occurrence, activity, form of behaviour, course of conduct or state of affairs in relation to an individual that is or may be harmful or disadvantageous to, or result in harm or disadvantage to:

(i) the individual; or
(ii) the community.
recreational services means services that consist of participation in:

(a) a sporting activity or a similar leisure-time pursuit; or
(b) any other activity that:
   (i) involves a significant degree of physical exertion or physical risk; and
   (ii) is undertaken for the purposes of recreation, enjoyment or leisure.

(3) The definition of injury in subsection (2) does not, by implication, affect the meaning of the expression injury when used in a provision of this Act other than this section.

69  Implied undertakings as to title, encumbrances and quiet possession

(1) In every contract for the supply of goods by a corporation to a consumer, other than a contract to which subsection (3) applies, there is:

(a) an implied condition that, in the case of a supply by way of sale, the supplier has a right to sell the goods, and, in the case of an agreement to sell or a hire-purchase agreement, the supplier will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;

(b) an implied warranty that the consumer will enjoy quiet possession of the goods except so far as it may lawfully be disturbed by the supplier or by another person who is entitled to the benefit of any charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made; and

(c) in the case of a contract for the supply of goods under which the property is to pass or may pass to the consumer—an implied warranty that the goods are free, and will remain free until the time when the property passes, from any charge or encumbrance not disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made.

(2) A corporation is not, in relation to a contract for the supply of goods, in breach of the implied warranty referred to in paragraph (1)(c) by reason only of the existence of a floating charge over assets of the corporation unless and until the charge becomes fixed and enforceable by the person to whom the charge is given.

(3) In a contract for the supply of goods by a corporation to a consumer in the case of which there appears from the contract or is to be inferred from the circumstances of the contract an intention that the supplier should transfer only such title as he or she or a third person may have, there is:

(a) an implied warranty that all charges or encumbrances known to the supplier and not known to the consumer have been disclosed to the consumer before the contract is made; and

(b) an implied warranty that:

(i) the supplier;

(ii) in a case where the parties to the contract intend that the supplier should transfer only such title as a third person may have—that person; and

(iii) anyone claiming through or under the supplier or that third person otherwise than under a charge or encumbrance disclosed or known to the consumer before the contract is made;

will not disturb the consumer’s quiet possession of the goods.

70 Supply by description

(1) Where there is a contract for the supply (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) by a corporation in the course of a business of goods to a consumer by description, there is an implied condition that the goods will correspond with the description, and, if the supply is by reference to a sample as well as by description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

(2) A supply of goods is not prevented from being a supply by description for the purposes of subsection (1) by reason only that, being exposed for sale or hire, they are selected by the consumer.

71 Implied undertakings as to quality or fitness

(1) Where a corporation supplies (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) goods to a consumer in the course of a business, there is an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract for the supply of the goods are of merchantable quality, except that there is no such condition by virtue only of this section:

(a) as regards defects specifically drawn to the consumer’s attention before the contract is made; or

(b) if the consumer examines the goods before the contract is made, as regards defects which that examination ought to reveal.

(2) Where a corporation supplies (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) goods to a consumer in the course of a business and the consumer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the corporation or to the person by whom any antecedent negotiations are conducted any particular purpose for which the goods are being acquired, there is an implied condition that the goods supplied under the contract for the supply of the goods are reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied, except where the circumstances show that the consumer does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him or her to rely, on the skill or judgment of the corporation or of that person.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to a contract for the supply of goods made by a person who in the course of a business is acting as agent for a corporation as they apply to a contract for the supply of goods made by a corporation in the course of a business, except where that corporation is not supplying in the course of a business and either the consumer knows that fact or reasonable steps are taken to bring it to the notice of the consumer before the contract is made.

72 Supply by sample

Where in a contract for the supply (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) by a corporation in the course of a business of goods to a consumer there is a term in the contract, expressed or implied, to the effect that the goods are supplied by reference to a sample:

(a) there is an implied condition that the bulk will correspond with the sample in quality;

(b) there is an implied condition that the consumer will have a reasonable opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample; and
(c) there is an implied condition that the goods will be free from any defect, rendering them unmerchantable, that would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

73 Liability for loss or damage from breach of certain contracts

(1) Where:

(a) a corporation (in this section referred to as the \textit{supplier}) supplies goods, or causes goods to be supplied, to a linked credit provider of the supplier and a consumer enters into a contract with the linked credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire-purchase of the goods to the consumer; or

(b) a consumer enters into a contract with a linked credit provider of a corporation (in this section also referred to as the \textit{supplier}) for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by the supplier of goods or services, or goods and services, to the consumer; and the consumer suffers loss or damage as a result of misrepresentation, breach of contract, or failure of consideration in relation to the contract, or as a result of a breach of a condition that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 70, 71 or 72 or of a warranty that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 74 of this Act or section 12ED of the \textit{Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act} 2001, the supplier and the linked credit provider are, subject to this section, jointly and severally liable to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage, and the consumer may recover that amount by action in accordance with this section in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Where:

(a) a corporation (in this section also referred to as the \textit{supplier}) supplies goods, or causes goods to be supplied, to a credit provider who is not a linked credit provider of the supplier;

(b) a consumer enters into a contract with the credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply by way of sale, lease, hire or hire-purchase of the goods to the consumer;

(c) antecedent negotiations in relation to the contract were conducted with the consumer by or on behalf of the supplier; and
(d) the credit provider did not take physical possession of the goods before they were delivered to the consumer; or where a consumer enters into a contract with a credit provider for the provision of credit in respect of the supply of services to the consumer by a corporation (in this section also referred to as the supplier) of which the credit provider is not a linked credit provider, and the consumer suffers loss or damage as a result of a breach of a condition that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 70, 71 or 72 or of a warranty that is implied in the contract by virtue of section 74 of this Act or section 12ED of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001, the credit provider is not under any liability to the consumer for the amount of the loss or damage, but the consumer may recover that amount by action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the supplier.

(3) A linked credit provider of a particular supplier is not liable to a consumer by virtue of subsection (1) in proceedings arising under that subsection if the credit provider establishes:
(a) that the credit provided by the credit provider to the consumer was the result of an approach made to the credit provider by the consumer that was not induced by the supplier;
(b) where the proceedings relate to the supply by way of lease, hire or hire-purchase of goods by the linked credit provider to the consumer, that:
   (i) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier’s financial standing and business conduct was good; and
   (ii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider had not had cause to suspect that:
      (A) the consumer might be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of misrepresentation or breach of a condition or warranty referred to in subsection (1); and
      (B) the supplier might be unable to meet the supplier’s liabilities as and when they fall due;
(c) where the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied loan contract applies, that:
(i) after due inquiry before becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, the credit provider was satisfied that the reputation of the supplier in respect of the supplier’s financial standing and business conduct was good; and

(ii) after becoming a linked credit provider of the supplier, but before the tied loan contract was entered into, the linked credit provider had not had cause to suspect that:

(A) the consumer might, if the contract was entered into, be entitled to recover an amount of loss or damage suffered as a result of misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to the contract or as a result of a breach of a condition or warranty referred to in subsection (1); and

(B) the supplier might be unable to meet the supplier’s liabilities as and when they fall due; or

(d) where the proceedings relate to a contract of sale with respect to which a tied continuing credit contract entered into by the linked credit provider applies, that, having regard to:

(i) the nature and volume of business carried on by the linked credit provider; and

(ii) such other matters as appear to be relevant in the circumstances of the case;

the linked credit provider, before becoming aware of the contract of sale or of proposals for the making of the contract of sale (whichever the linked credit provider first became aware of), had not had cause to suspect that a person entering into such a contract with the supplier might be entitled to claim damages against, or recover a sum of money from, the supplier for misrepresentation, breach of contract, failure of consideration, breach of a condition or breach of a warranty as referred to in subsection (1).

(4) Subject to subsection (5), in any proceedings in relation to a contract referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) in which a credit provider claims damages or an amount of money from a consumer, the consumer may set up the liability of the credit provider under subsection (1) in diminution or extinction of the consumer’s liability.
(5) Subject to subsection (6), a consumer may not, in respect of a liability for which, by reason of this section, a supplier and a linked credit provider are jointly and severally liable:
   (a) bring proceedings to recover an amount of loss or damage from the credit provider; or
   (b) where proceedings are brought against the consumer by the credit provider, make a counter-claim or exercise the right conferred by subsection (4) against the credit provider; unless the consumer brings the action against the supplier and the credit provider jointly or, in the case of a counter-claim or right conferred by subsection (4), claims in the proceedings against the supplier in respect of the liability by third-party proceedings or otherwise.

(6) Subsection (5) and paragraphs (8)(a) and (9)(a) do not apply in relation to proceedings where:
   (a) the supplier has been dissolved or is commenced to be wound up; or
   (b) in the opinion of the court in which the proceedings are taken, it is not reasonably likely that a judgment obtained against the supplier would be satisfied and the court has, on the application of the consumer, declared that subsection (5) and paragraphs (8)(a) and (9)(a) do not apply in relation to the proceedings.

(7) The liability of a linked credit provider to a consumer for damages or a sum of money in respect of a contract referred to in subsection (1) does not exceed the sum of:
   (a) the amount financed under the tied loan contract, tied continuing credit contract, lease contract, contract of hire or contract of hire-purchase;
   (b) the amount of interest (if any) or damages in the nature of interest allowed or awarded against the linked credit provider by the court; and
   (c) the amount of costs (if any) awarded by the court against the linked credit provider or supplier or both.

(8) Where in proceedings arising under subsection (1), judgment is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider, the judgment:
   (a) shall not be enforced against the linked credit provider unless a written demand made on the supplier for satisfaction of the Part V  Consumer protection
Division 2  Conditions and warranties in consumer transactions

Section 73

judgment has remained unsatisfied for not less than 30 days; and

(b) may be enforced against the linked credit provider only to the extent of:

(i) the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (7); or

(ii) so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier;

whichever is the lesser.

(9) Where in proceedings arising under subsection (1), a right conferred by subsection (4) is established against a linked credit provider, the consumer:

(a) shall not receive the benefit of the right unless judgment has been given against the supplier and linked credit provider, a written demand has been made on the supplier for satisfaction of the judgment and the demand has remained unsatisfied for not less than 30 days; and

(b) may receive the benefit only to the extent of:

(i) the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (7); or

(ii) so much of the judgment debt as has not been satisfied by the supplier;

whichever is the lesser.

(10) Unless the linked credit provider and supplier otherwise agree, the supplier is liable to the linked credit provider for the amount of a loss suffered by the linked credit provider, being an amount not exceeding the maximum amount of the linked credit provider’s liability under subsection (7) and, unless the court otherwise determines, the amount of costs (if any) reasonably incurred by the linked credit provider in defending the proceedings by reason of which the liability was incurred.

(11) Notwithstanding any other law, where, in proceedings arising under subsection (1), judgment is given against a supplier and a linked credit provider or against a linked credit provider for an amount of loss or damage, the court in which the proceedings are taken shall, on the application of the consumer, unless good cause is shown to the contrary, award interest to the consumer against the supplier and credit provider or against the credit provider, as the case may be, upon the whole or a part of the amount, from the time when the consumer became entitled to recover the amount until the date on which the judgment is given, at whichever of the following rates is the greater:

(a) where the amount payable by the consumer to the credit provider for the obtaining of credit in connection with the goods or services to which the proceedings relate may be calculated at a percentage rate per annum—that rate or, if more than one such rate may be calculated, the lower or lowest of those rates;

(b) 8% or such other rate as is prescribed.

(12) In determining whether good cause is shown against awarding interest under subsection (11) on the whole or part of an amount of loss or damage, the court shall take into account any payment made into court by the supplier or credit provider.

(13) Where a judgment given in proceedings arising under subsection (1) is enforced against a linked credit provider of a particular supplier, the credit provider is subrogated to the extent of the judgment so enforced to any rights that the consumer would have had but for the judgment against the supplier or any other person.

(14) In this section:

credit provider means a corporation providing, or proposing to provide, in the course of a business carried on by the corporation, credit to consumers in relation to the acquisition of goods or services.

Section 73A

(b) to whom the supplier, by arrangement with the credit provider, regularly refers persons for the purpose of obtaining credit;

(c) whose forms of contract or forms of application or offers for credit are, by arrangement with the credit provider, made available to persons by the supplier; or tied continuing credit contract means a continuing credit contract under which a credit provider provides credit in respect of the payment by a consumer for goods or services supplied by a supplier in relation to whom the credit provider is a linked credit provider.

tied loan contract means a loan contract entered into between a credit provider and a consumer where:

(a) the credit provider knows or ought reasonably to know that the consumer enters into the loan contract wholly or partly for the purposes of payment for goods or services supplied by a supplier; and

(b) at the time the loan contract is entered into the credit provider is a linked credit provider of the supplier.

73A Continuing credit contract

(1) For the purposes of this section:

(a) a reference to an agreement includes a reference to an arrangement, understanding or course of dealing; and

(b) a person shall be deemed to agree with another person with respect to a matter if the first-mentioned person has an agreement, arrangement or understanding with the other person, or is engaged in a course of dealing with the other person, with respect to the matter.

(2) Where:

(a) a person (in this section referred to as the creditor), in the course of a business carried on by the creditor, agrees with a consumer to provide credit to the consumer in respect of:
Section 73B

(i) payment for goods or services or cash supplied by the creditor to the consumer from time to time; or
(ii) payment by the creditor to a third person in respect of goods or services or cash supplied by that third person to the consumer from time to time; and

(b) the amounts owing to the creditor from time to time under the agreement are or are to be calculated on the basis that all amounts owing, and all payments made, by the consumer under or in respect of the agreement are entered in one or more accounts kept for the purpose of the agreement; the agreement is, for the purposes of section 73, a continuing credit contract.

(3) Where the creditor agrees to make payments to a third person in respect of goods or services or cash supplied by that third person to the consumer, as mentioned in subparagraph (2)(a)(ii), then, for the purposes of this section, the creditor shall, in respect of any goods or services or cash so supplied, be deemed to have provided credit to the consumer to the extent of any payments made or to be made by the creditor to that third person.

73B Loan contract

For the purposes of section 73, loan contract means a contract under which a person in the course of a business carried on by that person provides or agrees to provide, whether on one or more occasions, credit to a consumer in one or more of the following ways:

(a) by paying an amount to or in accordance with the instructions of the consumer;
(b) by applying an amount in satisfaction or reduction of an amount owed to the person by the consumer;
(c) by varying the terms of a contract under which money owed to the person by the consumer is payable;
(d) by deferring an obligation of the consumer to pay an amount to the person;
(e) by taking from the consumer a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument on which the consumer (whether alone or with another person or other persons) is liable as drawer, acceptor or endorser.

Division 2  Conditions and warranties in consumer transactions

Section 74

74  Warranties in relation to the supply of services

(1) In every contract for the supply by a corporation in the course of a business of services to a consumer there is an implied warranty that the services will be rendered with due care and skill and that any materials supplied in connexion with those services will be reasonably fit for the purpose for which they are supplied.

(2) Where a corporation supplies services (other than services of a professional nature provided by a qualified architect or engineer) to a consumer in the course of a business and the consumer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the corporation any particular purpose for which the services are required or the result that he or she desires the services to achieve, there is an implied warranty that the services supplied under the contract for the supply of the services and any materials supplied in connexion with those services will be reasonably fit for that purpose or are of such a nature and quality that they might reasonably be expected to achieve that result, except where the circumstances show that the consumer does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him or her to rely, on the corporation’s skill or judgment.

(2A) If:

(a) there is a breach of an implied warranty that exists because of this section in a contract made after the commencement of this subsection; and

(b) the law of a State or Territory is the proper law of the contract, the law of the State or Territory applies to limit or preclude liability for the breach, and recovery of that liability (if any), in the same way as it applies to limit or preclude liability, and recovery of a liability, for breach of another term of the contract.

(3) A reference in this section to services does not include a reference to services that are, or are to be, provided, granted or conferred under:

(a) a contract for or in relation to the transportation or storage of goods for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation carried on or engaged in by the person for whom the goods are transported or stored; or

(b) a contract of insurance.
Division 2A—Actions against manufacturers and importers of goods

74A Interpretation

(1) In this Division:

express warranty, in relation to goods, means an undertaking, assertion or representation in relation to:

(a) the quality, performance or characteristics of the goods;
(b) the provision of services that are or may at any time be required in respect of the goods;
(c) the supply of parts that are or may at any time be required for the goods; or
(d) the future availability of identical goods, or of goods constituting or forming part of a set of which the goods in relation to which the undertaking, assertion or representation is given or made form part;

given or made in connection with the supply of the goods or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of the goods, the natural tendency of which is to induce persons to acquire the goods.

manufactured includes grown, extracted, produced, processed and assembled.

(2) In this Division:

(a) a reference to goods shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be read as a reference to goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption;

(aa) a reference to a person who acquires goods from a consumer does not include a reference to a person who acquires goods for the purpose of re-supply;

(b) a reference to the quality of goods includes a reference to the state or condition of the goods;

(c) a reference to antecedent negotiations in relation to the acquisition of goods by a consumer shall be read as a reference to any negotiations or arrangements conducted or made with the consumer by another person in the course of a business carried on by the other person whereby the consumer was induced to acquire the goods or which otherwise promoted the acquisition of the goods by the consumer; and

(d) a reference to the person by whom any antecedent negotiations were conducted shall be read as a reference to the person by whom the negotiations or arrangements concerned were conducted or made.

(3) If:

(a) a corporation holds itself out to the public as the manufacturer of goods;

(b) a corporation causes or permits the name of the corporation, a name by which the corporation carries on business or a brand or mark of the corporation to be applied to goods supplied by the corporation; or

(c) a corporation causes or permits another person, in connexion with the supply or possible supply of goods by that other person, or in connexion with the promotion by that other person by any means of the supply or use of goods, to hold out the corporation to the public as the manufacturer of the goods;

the corporation shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Division, to have manufactured the goods.

(4) If:

(a) goods are imported into Australia by a corporation that was not the manufacturer of the goods; and

(b) at the time of the importation the manufacturer of the goods does not have a place of business in Australia;

the corporation shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Division, to have manufactured the goods.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b):

(a) a name, brand or mark shall be deemed to be applied to goods if it:

(i) is woven in, impressed on, worked into or annexed or affixed to the goods; or

(ii) is applied to a covering, label, reel or thing in or with which the goods are supplied; and
(b) if the name of a corporation, a name in which a corporation carries on business or a brand or mark of a corporation is applied to goods, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is established, that the corporation caused or permitted the name, brand or mark to be applied to the goods.

(6) The reference in subsection (5) to a covering includes a reference to a stopper, glass, bottle, vessel, box, capsule, case, frame or wrapper and the reference in that subsection to a label includes a reference to a band or ticket.

(7) If goods are imported into Australia on behalf of a corporation, the corporation shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Division, to have imported the goods into Australia.

(8) For the purposes of this Division, goods shall be taken to be supplied to a consumer notwithstanding that, at the time of the supply, they are affixed to land or premises.

74B Actions in respect of unsuitable goods

(1) Where:
   (a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply;
   (b) a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer;
   (c) the goods are acquired by the consumer for a particular purpose that was, expressly or by implication, made known to the corporation, either directly, or through the person from whom the consumer acquired the goods or a person by whom any antecedent negotiations in connexion with the acquisition of the goods were conducted;
   (d) the goods are not reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied; and
(e) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods are not reasonably fit for that purpose; the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply:
   (a) if the goods are not reasonably fit for the purpose referred to in that subsection by reason of:
      (i) an act or default of any person (not being the corporation or a servant or agent of the corporation); or
      (ii) a cause independent of human control; occurring after the goods have left the control of the corporation; or
   (b) where the circumstances show that the consumer did not rely, or that it was unreasonable for the consumer to rely, on the skill or judgment of the corporation.

74C Actions in respect of false descriptions

(1) Where:
   (a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply;
   (b) a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer by description;
   (c) the goods do not correspond with the description; and
   (d) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods do not correspond with the description; the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.
Section 74D

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the goods do not correspond with the description referred to in that subsection by reason of:
   (a) an act or default of any person (not being the corporation or a servant or agent of the corporation); or
   (b) a cause independent of human control; occurring after the goods have left the control of the corporation.

(3) A corporation is not liable to compensate a person for loss or damage suffered by the person by reason that goods do not correspond with a description unless the description was applied to the goods:
   (a) by or on behalf of the corporation; or
   (b) with the consent of the corporation, whether express or implied.

(4) If the goods referred to in subsection (1) are supplied to the consumer by reference to a sample as well as by description, it is not a defence to an action under this section that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

(5) A supply of goods is not prevented from being a supply by description for the purposes of subsection (1) by reason only that, being exposed for sale or hire, they are selected by the consumer.

74D Actions in respect of goods of unmerchantable quality

(1) Where:
   (a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply;
   (b) a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer;
   (c) the goods are not of merchantable quality; and
   (d) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the goods are not of merchantable quality;
   the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply:
   (a) if the goods are not of merchantable quality by reason of:
       (i) an act or default of any person (not being the corporation or a servant or agent of the corporation); or
       (ii) a cause independent of human control; occurring after the goods have left the control of the corporation;
   (b) as regards defects specifically drawn to the consumer’s attention before the making of the contract for the supply of the goods to the consumer; or
   (c) if the consumer examines the goods before that contract is made, as regards defects that the examination ought to reveal.

(3) Goods of any kind are of merchantable quality within the meaning of this section if they are as fit for the purpose or purposes for which goods of that kind are commonly bought as it is reasonable to expect having regard to:
   (a) any description applied to the goods by the corporation;
   (b) the price received by the corporation for the goods (if relevant); and
   (c) all the other relevant circumstances.

74E Actions in respect of non-correspondence with samples etc.

(1) Where:
   (a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply;
   (b) a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer;
   (c) the goods are supplied to the consumer by reference to a sample;
   (d) the bulk of the goods does not correspond with the sample in quality or the goods have a defect, rendering them unmerchantable, that is not, or would not be, apparent on reasonable examination of the sample; and
Section 74F

(e) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason that the bulk does not correspond with the sample in quality or by reason that the goods have that defect;

the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the loss or damage by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where:

(a) the sample is not supplied by the corporation;

(b) the supply by sample is made without the express or implied concurrence of the corporation; or

(c) the failure of the bulk of the goods to correspond with the sample in quality or the existence of the defect is due to:

(i) an act or default of any person (not being the corporation or a servant or agent of the corporation), or a cause independent of human control, occurring after the goods have left the control of the corporation; or

(ii) other circumstances that were beyond the control of the corporation and that it could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen.

74F Actions in respect of failure to provide facilities for repairs or parts

(1) Where:

(a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) manufactured by the corporation to a consumer; or

(b) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply and a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer;

and:

(c) at a time (in this section referred to as the relevant time) after the acquisition of the goods by the consumer:
Section 74F

(i) the goods require to be repaired but facilities for their repair are not reasonably available to the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer; or

(ii) a part is required for the goods but the part is not reasonably available to the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer;

(d) the corporation acted unreasonably in failing to ensure that facilities for the repair of the goods were, or that the part was, reasonably available to the consumer or that other person at the relevant time; and

(e) the consumer or that other person suffers loss or damage by reason of the failure of the corporation to ensure that facilities for the repair of the goods were, or that the part was, reasonably available to the consumer or that other person at the relevant time;

the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the corporation took reasonable action to ensure that the consumer acquiring the goods would be given notice at or before the time when he or she acquired the goods that:

(a) the corporation did not promise that facilities for the repair of the goods, or that parts for the goods, would be available; or

(b) the corporation did not promise that facilities for the repair of the goods, or that parts for the goods, would be available after a specified period, being a period that expired before the relevant time.

(3) Where the corporation took reasonable action to ensure that the consumer acquiring the goods would be given notice at or before the time when he or she acquired the goods that the corporation did not promise that:

(a) facilities for the repair of the goods, being facilities of a kind specified in the notice, would be available;

(b) parts for the goods, being parts of a kind specified in the notice, would be available; or
(c) facilities for the repair of the goods would be available at, or parts for the goods would be available from, a place or places specified in the notice;

the corporation is not liable to compensate the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer for loss or damage suffered by the consumer or that other person by reason of the failure of the corporation to ensure that facilities of the kind specified in the notice, or parts of the kind specified in the notice, were available, or that facilities for the repair of the goods were available at, or parts for the goods were available from, a place or places specified in the notice, as the case may be.

(4) In determining whether a corporation acted unreasonably in failing to ensure that facilities for the repair of goods were, or that a part was, reasonably available to a person at the relevant time, a court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case, and in particular to the existence, at the relevant time, of circumstances that prevented those facilities or that part being so available, being circumstances beyond the control of the corporation.

74G Actions in respect of non-compliance with express warranty

(1) Where:

(a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) manufactured by the corporation to a consumer; or

(b) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by the corporation to another person who acquires the goods for re-supply and a person (whether or not the person who acquired the goods from the corporation) supplies the goods (otherwise than by way of sale by auction) to a consumer;

and:

(c) the corporation fails to comply with an express warranty given or made by the corporation in relation to the goods; and
(d) the consumer or a person who acquires the goods from, or derives title to the goods through or under, the consumer suffers loss or damage by reason of the failure;
the corporation is liable to compensate the consumer or that other person for the loss or damage and the consumer or that other person may recover the amount of the compensation by action against the corporation in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) For the purposes of any action instituted by a person against a corporation under this section, where:
(a) an undertaking, assertion or representation was given or made in connection with the supply of goods or in connection with the promotion by any means of the supply or use of goods; and
(b) the undertaking, assertion or representation would, if it had been given or made by the corporation or a person acting on its behalf, have constituted an express warranty in relation to the goods;
it shall be presumed that the undertaking, assertion or representation was given or made by the corporation or a person acting on its behalf unless the corporation proves that it did not give or make, and did not cause or permit the giving or making of, the undertaking, assertion or representation.

74H Right of seller to recover against manufacturer or importer

Where:
(a) a person (in this section referred to as the seller) is under a liability to another person (in this section referred to as the consumer) in respect of loss or damage suffered by the consumer as a result of a breach of a condition or warranty implied by a provision of Division 2 in a contract for the supply of goods (whether or not the goods are of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption) by the seller to the consumer; and
(b) a third person (in this section referred to as the manufacturer):
(i) is liable to compensate the consumer in respect of the same loss or damage by reason of a provision of this Division; or
(ii) in a case where the goods referred to in paragraph (a) are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption—would, if the provisions of sections 74B, 74C, 74D and 74E applied in relation to those goods, be liable to compensate the consumer in respect of the same loss or damage by reason of any of those provisions;

the manufacturer is liable to indemnify the seller in respect of the liability of the seller to the consumer and the seller may, in respect of the manufacturer’s liability to indemnify the seller, institute an action against the manufacturer in a court of competent jurisdiction for such legal or equitable relief as the seller could have obtained if the liability of the manufacturer to indemnify the seller had arisen under a contract of indemnity made between the manufacturer and the seller.

74J Time for commencing actions

(1) Subject to this section, an action under a provision of this Division may be commenced at any time within 3 years after the day on which the cause of the action accrued.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued:

(a) in the case of an action other than an action under section 74H, on the day on which the consumer or a person who acquired the goods from, or derived title to the goods through or under, the consumer first became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware:

(i) in the case of an action under section 74B—that the goods were not reasonably fit for the purpose referred to in that section;

(ii) in the case of an action under section 74C—that the goods did not correspond with the description referred to in that section;

(iii) in the case of an action under section 74D—that the goods were not of merchantable quality;

(iv) in the case of an action under section 74E—that the bulk of the goods did not correspond with the sample in quality or the goods had the defect referred to in that section;
Part V  Consumer protection
Division 2A  Actions against manufacturers and importers of goods

Section 74K

(v) in the case of an action under section 74F—that the goods required to be repaired or that the part was required for the goods, as the case may be; or
(vi) in the case of an action under section 74G—that the failure of the corporation to comply with the express warranty referred to in that section; or

(b) in the case of an action under section 74H, on:
   (i) the day, or the first day, as the case may be, on which the seller referred to in that section made a payment in respect of, or otherwise discharged in whole or in part, the liability of that seller to the consumer referred to in that section; or
   (ii) the day on which a proceeding was instituted by that consumer against that seller in respect of that liability or, if more than one such proceeding was instituted, the day on which the first such proceeding was instituted; whichever was the earlier.

(3) In an action under a provision of this Division, it is a defence if the defendant proves that the action was not commenced within 10 years after the time of the first supply to a consumer of the goods to which the action relates.

Note: Part VIB restricts awards of compensation for death or personal injury, and sets out time limits for commencing actions for compensation for death or personal injury.

74K  Application of Division not to be excluded or modified

(1) Any term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term of the contract) that purports to exclude, restrict or modify, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying, any liability of a person to compensate or indemnify another person that may arise under this Division, is void.

(2) A term of a contract shall not be taken to exclude, restrict or modify the application of a provision of this Division unless the term does so expressly or is inconsistent with that provision.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to a term of a contract referred to in subsection 74L(4).
74L Limitation in certain circumstances of liability of manufacturer to seller

(1) Notwithstanding section 74H but subject to this section, in the case of goods other than goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption, the liability under that section of a manufacturer to a seller is limited to a liability to pay to the seller an amount equal to:
   (a) the cost of replacing the goods;
   (b) the cost of obtaining equivalent goods; or
   (c) the cost of having the goods repaired;
whichever is the lowest amount.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to particular goods if the seller establishes that it is not fair or reasonable for the liability of the manufacturer in respect of those goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) In determining for the purposes of subsection (2) whether or not it is fair or reasonable for the liability of a manufacturer to a seller in respect of goods to be limited as mentioned in subsection (1), a court shall have regard to all the circumstances of the case and, in particular, to:
   (a) the availability of suitable alternative sources of supply of the goods;
   (b) the availability of equivalent goods; and
   (c) whether the goods were manufactured, processed or adapted to the special order of the seller.

(4) This section is subject to any term of a contract between the manufacturer and the seller imposing on the manufacturer a greater liability than the liability mentioned in subsection (1).

(5) In this section, the expressions manufacturer and seller have the same respective meanings as in section 74H.

74M The effect of Part VIB on this Division

This Division has effect subject to Part VIB.
Section 75

Division 3—Miscellaneous

75 Saving of other laws and remedies

(1) Except as provided by subsection (2), this Part is not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of any law of a State or Territory.

(2) Where an act or omission of a person is both an offence against section 79 and an offence under the law of a State or Territory and that person is convicted of either of those offences, he or she is not liable to be convicted of the other of those offences.

(3) Except as expressly provided by this Part, nothing in this Part shall be taken to limit, restrict or otherwise affect any right or remedy a person would have had if this Part had not been enacted.

75A Rescission of contracts

(1) Where:

(a) a corporation supplies goods to a consumer in the course of a business; and

(b) there is a breach of a condition that is, by virtue of a provision of Division 2, implied in the contract for the supply of the goods;

the consumer is, subject to this section, entitled to rescind the contract by:

(c) causing to be served on the corporation a notice in writing signed by him or her giving particulars of the breach; or

(d) causing the goods to be returned to the corporation and giving to the corporation, either orally or in writing, particulars of the breach.

(2) Where a consumer purports to rescind under this section a contract for the supply of goods by a corporation, the purported rescission does not have any effect if:

(a) the notice is not served or the goods are not returned within a reasonable time after the consumer has had a reasonable opportunity of inspecting the goods;

236 Trade Practices Act 1974
Section 75A

(b) in the case of a rescission effected by service of a notice, after the delivery of the goods to the consumer but before the notice is served:
   (i) the goods were disposed of by the consumer, were lost, or were destroyed otherwise than by reason of a defect in the goods;
   (ii) the consumer caused the goods to become unmerchantable or failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the goods from becoming unmerchantable; or
   (iii) the goods were damaged by abnormal use; or

(c) in the case of a rescission effected by return of the goods, while the goods were in the possession of the consumer:
   (i) the consumer caused the goods to become unmerchantable or failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the goods from becoming unmerchantable; or
   (ii) the goods were damaged by abnormal use.

(3) Where a contract for the supply of goods by a corporation to a consumer has been rescinded in accordance with this section:
   (a) if the property in the goods had passed to the consumer before the notice of rescission was served on, or the goods were returned to, the corporation—the property in the goods re-vests in the corporation upon the service of the notice or the return of the goods; and

75AB Certain interpretation provisions (importers and others taken to be manufacturers etc.) apply to this Part Subsections 74A(3) to (8) (inclusive) operate as if references in them to Division 2A of Part V included references to this Part.

75AC Meaning of goods having defect

(1) For the purposes of this Part, goods have a defect if their safety is not such as persons generally are entitled to expect.

(2) In determining the extent of the safety of goods, regard is to be given to all relevant circumstances including:
   (a) the manner in which, and the purposes for which, they have been marketed; and
   (b) their packaging; and
   (c) the use of any mark in relation to them; and
   (d) any instructions for, or warnings with respect to, doing, or refraining from doing, anything with or in relation to them; and

(3) An inference that goods have a defect is not to be made only because of the fact that, after they were supplied by their manufacturer, safer goods of the same kind were supplied.

(4) An inference that goods have a defect is not to be made only because:
   (a) there was compliance with a Commonwealth mandatory standard for them; and
   (b) that standard was not the safest possible standard having regard to the latest state of scientific or technical knowledge when they were supplied by their manufacturer.

75AD Liability for defective goods causing injuries—loss by injured individual

If:
Section 75AE

(a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by it; and
(b) they have a defect; and
(c) because of the defect, an individual suffers injuries;
then:
(d) the corporation is liable to compensate the individual for the amount of the individual’s loss suffered as a result of the injuries; and
(e) the individual may recover that amount by action against the corporation; and
(f) if the individual dies because of the injuries—a law of a State or Territory about liability in respect of the death of individuals applies as if:
   (i) the action were an action under the law of the State or Territory for damages in respect of the injuries; and
   (ii) the defect were the corporation’s wrongful act, neglect or default.

75AE Liability for defective goods causing injuries—loss by person other than injured individual

(1) If:
   (a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by it; and
   (b) they have a defect; and
   (c) because of the defect, an individual suffers injuries; and
   (d) a person, other than the individual, suffers loss because of:
      (i) the injuries; or
      (ii) if the individual dies because of the injuries—the individual’s death; and
   (e) the loss does not come about because of a business relationship between the person and the individual;
then:
(f) the corporation is liable to compensate the person for the amount of the person’s loss; and
(g) the person may recover that amount by action against the corporation.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

75AF Liability for defective goods—loss relating to other goods

If:

(a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by it; and
(b) they have a defect; and
(c) because of the defect, goods of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use (not being the defective goods) are destroyed or damaged; and
(d) a person who:
   (i) so used; or
   (ii) intended to so use;
   the destroyed or damaged goods, suffers loss as a result of the destruction or damage;
then:

(e) the corporation is liable to compensate the person for the amount of the loss; and
(f) the person may recover that amount by action against the corporation.

75AG Liability for defective goods—loss relating to buildings etc.

If:

(a) a corporation, in trade or commerce, supplies goods manufactured by it; and
(b) they have a defect; and
(c) because of the defect, land, buildings, or fixtures, ordinarily acquired for private use are destroyed or damaged; and

75AI No liability action where workers’ compensation or law giving effect to an international agreement applies

Section 75AD, 75AE, 75AF or 75AG does not apply to a loss in respect of which an amount has been, or could be, recovered under a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory that:
(a) relates to workers’ compensation; or
(b) gives effect to an international agreement.

75AJ Unidentified manufacturer

(1) If a person who wishes to institute a liability action does not know who manufactured the action goods, the person may serve on a supplier, or each supplier, of the action goods who is known to the person a written request to give the person particulars identifying:
(a) the corporation which manufactured the goods (having regard to section 75AB); or
(b) the supplier of the goods to the supplier requested.

(2) If, 30 days after the person has made the request or requests, the person still does not know who manufactured the action goods, then the corporation, or each corporation, that is a supplier:
(a) to whom a request was made; and
(b) who did not comply with the request; is taken, for the purposes of the action, to have manufactured the action goods.

75AK Defences

(1) In a liability action, it is a defence if it is established that:
Liability of manufacturers and importers for defective goods  Part VA

Section 75AL

(a) the defect in the action goods that is alleged to have caused the loss did not exist at the supply time; or
(b) they had that defect only because there was compliance with a mandatory standard for them; or
(c) the state of scientific or technical knowledge at the time when they were supplied by their actual manufacturer was not such as to enable that defect to be discovered; or
(d) if they were comprised in other goods (finished goods)—that defect is attributable only to:
   (i) the design of the finished goods; or
   (ii) the markings on or accompanying the finished goods; or
   (iii) the instructions or warnings given by the manufacturer of the finished goods.

(2) In this section:

supply time means:
(a) in relation to electricity—the time at which it was generated, being a time before it was transmitted or distributed; or
(b) in relation to other goods—the time when they were supplied by their actual manufacturer.

75AL  Commonwealth liability for goods that are defective only because of compliance with Commonwealth mandatory standard

(1) If a defendant in a liability action raises the defence that the action goods had the alleged defect only because there was compliance with a Commonwealth mandatory standard for them, that defendant must, as soon as practicable after raising that defence, serve on the Commonwealth a prescribed notice of the action and of that defence together with a copy of that defendant’s defence in the action.

(2) Service of the notice and defence makes the Commonwealth a defendant in the action.

(3) If, in the action, the Court finds that the plaintiff would have succeeded against the defendant who served the notice but for the action goods having the alleged defect only because there was compliance with a Commonwealth mandatory standard for them, then:

(a) the Commonwealth, and not the defendant who served the notice, is liable to pay the plaintiff for the amount of the loss caused by the defect; and
(b) the Court is to enter judgment against the Commonwealth for that amount; and
(c) the Court may make such orders for costs as the Court considers just.

75AM Liability joint and several

If 2 or more corporations are liable under section 75AD, 75AE, 75AF or 75AG for the same loss they are jointly and severally liable.

75AN Contributory acts or omissions to reduce compensation

(1) If the loss in a liability action under section 75AD or 75AE was caused by both:
(a) an act or omission of the individual who suffers the injuries concerned; and
(b) a defect of the action goods;
the amount of the loss is to be reduced to such extent (which may be to nil) as the court thinks fit having regard to that individual’s share in causing the loss.

(2) If the loss in a liability action under section 75AF or 75AG was caused by both:
(a) an act or omission of the person who suffered the loss; and
(b) a defect of the action goods;
the amount of the loss is to be reduced to such extent (which may be to nil) as the court thinks fit having regard to the person’s share in causing the loss.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the acts and omissions of a person who is responsible for another person include the acts and omissions of that other person.
75AO  Time for commencing actions

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person may commence a liability action at any time within 3 years after the time the person became aware, or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the alleged loss, the defect and the identity of the person who manufactured the action goods.

(2) A liability action must be commenced within 10 years of the supply by the manufacturer of the action goods.

Note: Part VIB restricts awards of compensation for death or personal injury, and sets out time limits for commencing actions for compensation for death or personal injury.

75AP  Application of provisions not to be excluded or modified

(1) Any term of a contract (including a term that is not set out in the contract but is incorporated in the contract by another term) that purports to exclude, restrict or modify, or has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying:

(a) the application of all or any of the provisions of this Part; or

(b) the exercise of a right conferred by any of those provisions; or

(c) any liability under any of those provisions; is void.

(1) The Commission may, by application, commence a liability action on behalf of one or more persons identified in the application who has suffered the loss for whose amount the action is commenced.

(2) The Commission may only make an application under this section if it has obtained the written consent of the person, or each of the persons, on whose behalf the application is being made.

   (b) has attempted to contravene such a provision;
   (c) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured a person to contravene such a provision;
   (d) has induced, or attempted to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision;
   (e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
Section 76

(f) has conspired with others to contravene such a provision; the Court may order the person to pay to the Commonwealth such pecuniary penalty, in respect of each act or omission by the person to which this section applies, as the Court determines to be appropriate having regard to all relevant matters including the nature and extent of the act or omission and of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the act or omission, the circumstances in which the act or omission took place and whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Part or Part XIB to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Note: Section 87AA provides that, if boycott conduct is involved in proceedings, the Court must have regard to certain matters in exercising its powers under this Part. (Boycott conduct is defined in subsection 87AA(2).)

(1A) The pecuniary penalty payable under subsection (1) by a body corporate is not to exceed:

(a) for each act or omission to which this section applies that relates to section 45D, 45DB, 45E or 45EA—$750,000; and

(b) for each other act or omission to which this section applies—$10,000,000.

(1B) The pecuniary penalty payable under subsection (1) by a person other than a body corporate is not to exceed $500,000 for each act or omission to which this section applies.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) authorises the making of an order against an individual because the individual has contravened or attempted to contravene, or been involved in a contravention of, section 45D, 45DA, 45DB, 45E or 45EA.

(3) If conduct constitutes a contravention of two or more provisions of Part IV, a proceeding may be instituted under this Act against a person in relation to the contravention of any one or more of the provisions but a person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section in respect of the same conduct.

(4) The single pecuniary penalty that may be imposed in accordance with subsection (3) in respect of conduct that contravenes provisions to which the 2 limits in subsection (1A) apply is an amount up to the higher of those limits.
Section 76A

76A Defence to proceedings under section 76 relating to a contravention of section 75AYA

(1) In this section:

contravention of section 75AYA includes conduct referred to in paragraph 76(1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) that relates to a contravention of section 75AYA.

(2) In proceedings against a person (the respondent) under section 76 in relation to an alleged contravention of section 75AYA, it is a defence if the respondent establishes:

(a) that the contravention in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was due to reasonable mistake; or

(b) that the contravention in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was due to reasonable reliance on information supplied by another person; or

(c) that:

(i) the contravention in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was due to the act or default of another person, to an accident or to some other cause beyond the respondent’s control; and

(ii) the respondent took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the contravention.

(3) In paragraphs (2)(b) and (c), another person does not include a person who was:

(a) a servant or agent of the respondent; or

(b) if the respondent is a body corporate—a director, servant or agent of the respondent;

at the time when the alleged contravention occurred.

76B What happens if substantially the same conduct is a contravention of section 75AYA and an offence?

(1) In this section:

contravention of section 75AYA includes conduct referred to in paragraph 76(1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) that relates to a contravention of section 75AYA.
pecuniary penalty order means an order under section 76 for the payment of a pecuniary penalty.

(2) The Court must not make a pecuniary penalty order against a person in relation to a contravention of section 75AYA if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

(3) Proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against a person in relation to a contravention of section 75AYA are stayed if:
   (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

The proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings are dismissed.

(4) Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of section 75AYA regardless of whether a pecuniary penalty order has been made against the person in respect of the contravention.

(5) Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:
   (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a pecuniary penalty order against the individual for a contravention of section 75AYA (whether or not the order was made); and
   (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the pecuniary penalty order.
Section 77

77 Civil action for recovery of pecuniary penalties

(1) The Commission may institute a proceeding in the Court for the recovery on behalf of the Commonwealth of a pecuniary penalty referred to in section 76.

(2) A proceeding under subsection (1) may be commenced within 6 years after the contravention.

78 Criminal proceedings not to be brought for contraventions of Part IV or V or section 75AU or 75AYA

Criminal proceedings do not lie against a person by reason only that the person:

(a) has contravened any of the following provisions:
   (i) a provision of Part IV or V (other than section 65Q or 65R or subsection 65F(9));
   (ii) section 75AU or 75AYA;
(b) has attempted to contravene such a provision;
(c) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured a person to contravene such a provision;
(d) has induced, or attempted to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision;
(e) has been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
(f) has conspired with others to contravene such a provision.

79 Offences against Part VC etc.

(1) A person who:
   (a) aids, abets, counsels or procures a person to contravene; or
   (b) induces, or attempts to induce, a person (whether by threats or promises or otherwise) to contravene; or
   (c) is in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of; or
   (d) conspires with others to contravene; a provision of Part VC is taken to have contravened that provision and is punishable accordingly.
Section 79

(1A) Subsections 11.2(2) to (5) (inclusive) of the Criminal Code apply in relation to paragraph (1)(a) in the same way that they apply in relation to subsection 11.2(1) of the Criminal Code.

(1B) Subsections 11.5(2) to (5) (inclusive) of the Criminal Code apply in relation to paragraph (1)(d) in the same way that they apply in relation to the offence of conspiracy under subsection 11.5(1) of the Criminal Code.

(2) Where a person is convicted of two or more offences constituted by, or relating to, contraventions of the same provision of Part VC, being contraventions that appear to the Court to have been of the same nature or a substantially similar nature and to have occurred at or about the same time (whether or not the person is also convicted of an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, another contravention or other contraventions of that provision that were of a different nature or occurred at a different time), the Court shall not, in respect of the first-mentioned offences, impose on the person fines that, in the aggregate, exceed the maximum fine that would be applicable in respect of one offence by that person against that provision.

(3) Where:

(a) a person is convicted of an offence constituted by, or relating to, a contravention of a provision of Part VC; and

(b) a fine has, or fines have, previously been imposed on the person by the Court for an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, another contravention or other contraventions of the same provision, being a contravention that, or contraventions each of which, appears to the Court to have been of the same nature as, or of a substantially similar nature to, and to have occurred at or about the same time as, the first-mentioned contravention (whether or not a fine has, or fines have, also previously been imposed on the person for an offence or offences constituted by, or relating to, a contravention or contraventions of that provision that were of a different nature or occurred at a different time);

the Court shall not, in respect of the offence mentioned in paragraph (a), impose on the person a fine that exceeds the amount (if any) by which the maximum fine applicable in respect of that offence is greater than the amount of the fine, or the sum of the amounts of the fines, first referred to in paragraph (b).
Section 79A

(4) In proceedings against a person for contravening a provision of Part VC, the Court may:
   (a) grant an injunction under section 80 against the person in relation to:
      (i) the conduct that constitutes, or is alleged to constitute, the contravention; or
      (ii) other conduct of that kind; or
   (b) make an order under section 86C or 86D in relation to the contravention.

(5) Sections 5, 7 and 7A of the Crimes Act 1914, and section 11.1 of the Criminal Code, do not apply in relation to an offence against a provision of Part VC.

(6) A prosecution for an offence against a provision of Part VC may be commenced within 3 years after the commission of the offence.

79A  Enforcement and recovery of certain fines

(1) Where a person on whom a fine has been imposed for an offence against a provision of Part VC or section 65Q, 65R or 155 or subsection 65F(9) or 87A(5) defaults in payment of the fine, a Court may:
   (a) exercise any power that the Court has apart from this section with respect to the enforcement and recovery of fines imposed by the Court; or
   (b) make an order, on the application of the Minister or the Commission, declaring that the fine is to have effect, and may be enforced, as if it were a judgment debt under a judgment of the Court.

(2) Where a person in relation to whom an order is made under subsection (1) in respect of a fine gives security for the payment of the fine, the Court shall cancel the order in respect of the fine.

(3) Where the Court makes an order in relation to a person in respect of a fine, the Court may, at any time before the order is executed in respect of the fine, allow the person a specified time in which to pay the fine or allow the person to pay the fine by specified instalments, and, in that case:
   (a) the order shall not be executed unless the person fails to pay the fine within that time or fails to pay an instalment at or before the time when it becomes payable, as the case may be; and
(b) if the person pays the fine within that time or pays all the instalments, as the case may be, the order shall be deemed to have been discharged in respect of the fine.

(4) Subject to subsection (7), an order under subsection (1) in respect of a fine ceases to have effect:
(a) on payment of the fine; or
(b) if the fine is not paid—on full compliance with the order.

(5) The term of a sentence of imprisonment imposed by an order under a law of a State or Territory applied by section 18A of the Crimes Act 1914 in respect of a fine shall be calculated at the rate of one day’s imprisonment for each $25 of the amount of the fine that is from time to time unpaid.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), where a person is required to serve periods of imprisonment by virtue of an order or orders under subsection (1) in respect of 2 or more fines, those periods of imprisonment shall be served consecutively.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), where:
(a) a person would, but for this subsection, be required by virtue of an order or orders under subsection (1) in respect of 3 or more fines to serve periods of imprisonment in respect of those fines exceeding in the aggregate 3 years; and
(b) those fines were imposed (whether or not in the same proceedings) for offences constituted by contraventions that occurred within a period of 2 years, being contraventions that appear to the Court to have been of the same nature or a substantially similar nature;
the Court shall, by order, declare that the order or orders shall cease to have effect in respect of those fines after the person has served an aggregate of 3 years’ imprisonment in respect of those fines.

(8) Where subsection (7) would, but for this subsection, apply to a person with respect to offences committed by the person within 2 or more overlapping periods of 2 years, the Court shall make an order under that subsection with respect to one only of those periods, being whichever period would give the person the maximum benefit from the application of that subsection.
Part VI  Enforcement and remedies

(9) For the purposes of subsection (8), the Court may vary or revoke an order made under subsection (7).

(10) Paragraphs 18A(1)(b), (c) and (d) of the Crimes Act 1914 do not apply with respect to fines referred to in subsection (1).

(11) This section applies only in relation to fines imposed for offences committed after the commencement of this section.

79B  Preference must be given to compensation for victims

If the Court considers that:
(a) it is appropriate to order a person (the defendant):
   (i) to pay a pecuniary penalty under section 76; or
   (ii) to impose a fine under Part VC;
   in respect of a contravention, or an involvement in a contravention, of this Act; and
(b) it is appropriate to order the defendant to pay compensation to a person who has suffered loss or damage in respect of the contravention or the involvement; and
(c) the defendant does not have sufficient financial resources to pay both the pecuniary penalty or fine and the compensation;
the Court must give preference to making an order for compensation.

80  Injunctions

(1) Subject to subsections (1A), (1AAA) and (1B), where, on the application of the Commission or any other person, the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged, or is proposing to engage, in conduct that constitutes or would constitute:
(a) a contravention of any of the following provisions:
   (i) a provision of Part IV, IVA, IVB, V or VC;
   (ii) section 75AU or 75AYA;
(b) attempting to contravene such a provision;
(c) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene such a provision;
(d) inducing, or attempting to induce, whether by threats, promises or otherwise, a person to contravene such a provision;
(e) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
(f) conspiring with others to contravene such a provision;

the Court may grant an injunction in such terms as the Court determines to be appropriate.

(1AA) Where an application for an injunction under subsection (1) has been made, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection, the Court may, if the Court determines it to be appropriate, grant an injunction by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged, or is proposing to engage, in conduct of a kind mentioned in subsection (1).

(1A) A person other than the Commission is not entitled to make an application under subsection (1) for an injunction by reason that a person has contravened or attempted to contravene or is proposing to contravene, or has been or is proposing to be involved in a contravention of, section 50, 75AU or 75AYA.

(1AAA) Subject to subsection (1B), a person other than the Minister or the Commission may not apply for an injunction on the ground of:
(a) a person’s actual, attempted or proposed contravention of section 50A; or
(b) a person’s actual or proposed involvement in a contravention of section 50A.

(1B) Where the Tribunal has, on the application of a person (in this subsection referred to as the applicant) other than the Minister or the Commission, made a declaration under subsection 50A(1) in relation to the acquisition by a person of a controlling interest in a corporation, the applicant is entitled to make an application under subsection (1) for an injunction by reason that the corporation has contravened or attempted to contravene or is proposing to contravene subsection 50A(6) in relation to that declaration.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Court it is desirable to do so, the Court may grant an interim injunction pending determination of an application under subsection (1).

(3) The Court may rescind or vary an injunction granted under subsection (1) or (2).

(4) The power of the Court to grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind;
   (b) whether or not the person has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the first-mentioned person engages in conduct of that kind.

(5) The power of the Court to grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the person intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that act or thing;
   (b) whether or not the person has previously refused or failed to do that act or thing; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any person if the first-mentioned person refuses or fails to do that act or thing.

(6) Where the Minister or the Commission makes an application to the Court for the grant of an injunction under this section, the Court shall not require the applicant or any other person, as a condition of granting an interim injunction, to give any undertakings as to damages.

(6A) Subsection (6) does not apply to an application by the Minister for an injunction relating to Part IV.

(7) Where:
(a) in a case to which subsection (6) does not apply the Court would, but for this subsection, require a person to give an undertaking as to damages or costs; and
(b) the Minister gives the undertaking;
the Court shall accept the undertaking by the Minister and shall not require a further undertaking from any other person.

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply in relation to an application for an injunction relating to Part IV.

80AA Division 7 of Part VI of the Workplace Relations Act does not prevent granting of injunction

Nothing in Division 7 of Part VI of the Workplace Relations Act 1996 prevents the Court granting an injunction under section 80.

80AB Stay of injunctions

(1) The Court may stay the operation of an injunction granted under section 80 if:
(a) the injunction is in respect of conduct that constitutes or would constitute a contravention of subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1), 45DB(1), 45E(2) or 45E(3) or section 45EA or an associated contravention; and
(b) there is a proceeding in respect of a dispute relating to the conduct pending before:
   (i) the Australian Industrial Relations Commission under Division 7 of Part VI of the Workplace Relations Act 1996; or
   (ii) a court, tribunal or authority of a State or Territory under a prescribed provision of a law of the State or Territory; and
(c) the conduct relates to the supply of goods or services to, or the acquisition of goods or services from, a person who is or becomes a party to the proceeding referred to in paragraph (b); and
(d) any of the following has applied for the stay:
   (i) a Minister of the Commonwealth;
   (ii) if subparagraph (b)(ii) applies—a Minister of the State or Territory concerned;
Section 80B

(iii) a party to the proceeding for the injunction; and

(e) the Court considers that granting the stay:

(i) would be likely to facilitate the settlement of the dispute by conciliation; and

(ii) would, in all the circumstances, be just.

(2) An order staying the operation of the injunction may be expressed to have effect for a specified period and may be varied or rescinded by the Court at any time.

(3) If the proceeding referred to in paragraph (1)(b) is terminated because the Australian Industrial Relations Commission, or the State or Territory court, tribunal or authority, has settled the dispute to which the conduct relates by conciliation, the Court must not make any order in relation to the costs of the proceedings in respect of the granting of the injunction or in relation to the costs of any proceedings for the rescission of the injunction.

(4) Nothing in this section affects other powers of the Court.

(5) In this section:

associated contravention means:

(a) attempting to contravene subsection 45D(1), 45DA(1), 45DB(1), 45E(2) or 45E(3) or section 45EA; or

(b) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring a person to contravene any of those provisions; or

(c) inducing, or attempting to induce, a person (whether by threats, promises or otherwise) to contravene any of those provisions; or

(d) being in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of any of those provisions; or injunction includes an interim injunction.

(e) conspiring with others to contravene any of those provisions.

80B Section 75AU contraventions—orders limiting prices or requiring refunds of money

Without limiting the generality of section 80, where, on the application of the Commission, the Court is satisfied that a person has engaged in conduct constituting a contravention of section 75AU, the Court may make either or both of the following orders:
Section 81

(a) an order requiring that person, or a person involved in the contravention, not to make a regulated supply of a kind specified in the order for a price in excess of the price specified in the order while the order remains in force;
(b) an order requiring that person, or a person involved in the contravention, to refund money to a person specified in the order.

81 Divestiture

(1) The Court may, on the application of the Commission or any other person, if it finds, or has in another proceeding instituted under this Part found, that a person has contravened section 50, by order, give directions for the purpose of securing the disposal by the person of all or any of the shares or assets acquired in contravention of that section.

(1A) Where:

(a) the Court finds, in a proceeding instituted under this Part, that a person (in this subsection referred to as the acquirer) has acquired shares in the capital of a body corporate or any assets of a person in contravention of section 50;
(b) the Court finds, whether in that proceeding or any other proceeding instituted under this Part, that the person (in this section referred to as the vendor) from whom the acquirer acquired those shares or those assets, as the case may be, was involved in the contravention; and
(c) at the time when the finding referred to in paragraph (b) is made, any of those shares or those assets, as the case may be, are vested in the acquirer or, if the acquirer is a body corporate, in any body corporate that is related to the acquirer;

the Court may, on the application of the Commission, declare that the acquisition, in so far as it relates to the shares or assets referred to in paragraph (c), is void as from the day on which it took place and, where the Court makes such a declaration:

(d) the shares or the assets to which the declaration relates shall be deemed not to have been disposed of by the vendor; and Part VI  Enforcement and remedies

Section 82

(e) the vendor shall refund to the acquirer any amount paid to the vendor in respect of the acquisition of the shares or assets to which the declaration relates.

(1B) Where a declaration has been made under subsection 50A(1) in relation to the obtaining of a controlling interest in a corporation, or in each of 2 or more corporations, the Court may, on the application of the Minister or the Commission, if it finds, or has in a proceeding instituted under section 80 found, that that corporation, or any of those corporations, as the case may be (in this subsection referred to as the relevant corporation), has contravened subsection 50A(6), by order, for the purpose of ensuring that the obtaining of that controlling interest ceases to have the result referred to in paragraph 50A(1)(a), direct the relevant corporation to dispose of such of its assets as are specified in the order within such period as is so specified.

(1C) Where an application is made to the Court for an order under subsection (1) or a declaration under subsection (1A), the Court may, instead of making an order under subsection (1) for the purpose of securing the disposal by a person of shares or assets or an order under subsection (1A) that the acquisition by a person of shares or assets is void, accept, upon such conditions (if any) as the Court thinks fit, an undertaking by the person to dispose of other shares or assets owned by the person.

(2) An application under subsection (1), (1A) or (1B) may be made at any time within 3 years after the date on which the contravention occurred.

(3) Where an application for directions under subsection (1) or for a declaration under subsection (1A) has been made, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection, the Court may, if the Court determines it to be appropriate, give directions or make a declaration by consent of all the parties to the proceedings, whether or not the Court has made the findings referred to in subsections (1) and (1A).

82 Actions for damages

(1) A person who suffers loss or damage by conduct of another person that was done in contravention of a provision of Part IV, IVA, IVB or V or section 51AC may recover the amount of the loss or damage by action against that other person or against any person involved in the contravention.
Enforcement and remedies  Part VI

Section 83

(1AA) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 87AB.

Note: Section 87AB may limit the amount that the person may recover for a contravention of section 52 (Misleading or deceptive conduct) from the other person or from another person involved in the contravention.

(1B) Despite subsection (1), if:
(a) a person (the claimant) makes a claim under subsection (1) in relation to:
   (i) economic loss; or
   (ii) damage to property; caused by conduct of another person (the defendant) that was done in contravention of section 52; and
(b) the claimant suffered the loss or damage:
   (i) as a result partly of the claimant’s failure to take reasonable care; and
   (ii) as a result partly of the conduct referred to in paragraph (a); and
(c) the defendant:
   (i) did not intend to cause the loss or damage; and
   (ii) did not fraudulently cause the loss or damage;
the damages that the claimant may recover in relation to the loss or damage are to be reduced to the extent to which the court thinks just and equitable having regard to the claimant’s share in the responsibility for the loss or damage.

Note: Part VIA also applies proportionate liability to a claim for damages under this section for a contravention of section 52.

(2) An action under subsection (1) may be commenced at any time within 6 years after the day on which the cause of action that relates to the conduct accrued.

83 Finding in proceedings to be evidence

In a proceeding against a person under section 82 or in an application under subsection 87(1A) for an order against a person,

Section 84

A finding of any fact by a court made in proceedings under section 77, 80, 81, 86C or 86D, or for an offence against a provision of Part VC, in which that person has been found to have contravened, or to have been involved in a contravention of, a provision of Part IV, IVA, IVB, V or VC is prima facie evidence of that fact and the finding may be proved by production of a document under the seal of the court from which the finding appears.

84  Conduct by directors, servants or agents

(1) Where, in a proceeding under this Part in respect of conduct engaged in by a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which section 46 or 46A or Part IVA, IVB, V, VB or VC applies, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the body corporate, it is sufficient to show that a director, servant or agent of the body corporate, being a director, servant or agent by whom the conduct was engaged in within the scope of the person’s actual or apparent authority, had that state of mind.

(2) Any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate:
   (a) by a director, servant or agent of the body corporate within the scope of the person’s actual or apparent authority; or
   (b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of a director, servant or agent of the body corporate, where the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the director, servant or agent; shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been engaged in also by the body corporate.

(3) Where, in a proceeding under this Part in respect of conduct engaged in by a person other than a body corporate, being conduct in relation to which a provision of Part IVA, IVB, V, VB or VC applies, it is necessary to establish the state of mind of the person, it is sufficient to show that a servant or agent of the person, being a servant or agent by whom the conduct was engaged in within the scope of the servant’s or agent’s actual or apparent authority, had that state of mind.

(4) Conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate:
Section 85

(a) by a servant or agent of the person within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the servant or agent; or
(b) by any other person at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of a servant or agent of the first-mentioned person, where the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the servant or agent;

shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to have been engaged in also by the first-mentioned person.

(5) A reference in this section to the state of mind of a person includes a reference to the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person and the person’s reasons for the person’s intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

85 Defences

(1) Subject to subsection (2), in a prosecution for a contravention of a provision of Part VC, it is a defence if the defendant establishes:
(a) that the contravention in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was caused by a reasonable mistake of fact, including a mistake of fact caused by reasonable reliance on information supplied by another person; or
(c) that:
   (i) the contravention in respect of which the proceeding was instituted was due to the act or default of another person, to an accident or to some other cause beyond the defendant’s control; and
   (ii) the defendant took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the contravention.

Note: A defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matters in subsection (1) (see section 13.4 of the Criminal Code).

(1AA) Paragraph (1)(a) is to be interpreted as having the same effect in relation to a contravention of a provision of Part VC as section 9.2 of the Criminal Code has in relation to offences of strict liability.

(1A) In paragraphs (1)(a) and (c), another person does not include a person who was:
(a) a servant or agent of the defendant; or Part VI  Enforcement and remedies

Section 85

(b) in the case of a defendant being a body corporate, a director, servant or agent of the defendant; at the time when the contravention occurred.

(2) If a defence provided by subsection (1) involves an allegation that a contravention was due to reliance on information supplied by another person or to the act or default of another person, the defendant is not, without leave of the Court, entitled to rely on that defence unless he or she has, not later than 7 days before the day on which the hearing of the proceeding commences, served on the person by whom the proceeding was instituted a notice in writing giving such information that would identify or assist in the identification of the other person as was then in his or her possession.

(3) In a proceeding in relation to a contravention of a provision of Part V or VC committed by the publication of an advertisement, it is a defence if the defendant establishes that he or she is a person whose business it is to publish or arrange for the publication of advertisements and that he or she received the advertisement for publication in the ordinary course of business and did not know and had no reason to suspect that its publication would amount to a contravention of a provision of that Part.

Note: In a prosecution for an offence against Part VC, a defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in subsection (3) (see section 13.4 of the Criminal Code).

(4) In a proceeding in relation to a contravention of a provision of Part V or VC committed by the supplying of goods that did not comply with a consumer product safety standard or in relation to which the supplier did not comply with a consumer product information standard, it is a defence if the defendant establishes:

(a) that the goods were acquired by him or her for the purpose of re-supply and were so acquired from a person who carried on in Australia a business of supplying such goods otherwise than as the agent of a person outside Australia; and

(b) that he or she did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, that the goods did not comply with that standard or that he or she had not complied with that standard in relation to the goods, as the case may be, or he or she relied in good faith on a representation by the person from whom he or she acquired the goods that a consumer product safety standard or a consumer product information standard, as the case may be, had not been prescribed in respect of the goods.

Note: In a prosecution for an offence against Part VC, a defendant bears a legal burden in relation to the matter in subsection (4) (see section 13.4 of the Criminal Code).

(5) A person is not, without leave of the Court, entitled to rely on the defence provided by subsection (4) unless he or she has, not later than 7 days before the day on which the hearing of the proceeding commences, served on the person by whom the proceeding was instituted a notice in writing identifying the person from whom he or she acquired the goods.

(6) Where, in any proceedings under this Part against a person other than a body corporate, it appears to the Court that the person has or may have engaged in conduct in contravention of a provision of Part IV or in conduct referred to in paragraph 76(1)(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f) but that the person acted honestly and reasonably and, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, ought fairly to be excused, the Court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from liability to any penalty or damages on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

86 Jurisdiction of courts

(1AA) A reference in this section to this Act, or to a Part or Division of this Act, is a reference to this Act, or to that Part or Division, as it has effect as a law of the Commonwealth.

Part IVA or IVB or Division 1, 1A or 1AA of Part V in respect of which a civil proceeding is instituted by a person other than the Territories under subsection (2); and

(c) the jurisdiction of the High Court under section 75 of the the court shall, if directed to do so by the Federal Court, transfer to the Federal Court the matter referred to in paragraph (b) and such other matters for determination in the proceeding the determination of which would, apart from any law of a State or of the Northern Territory relating to cross-vesting of jurisdiction, be within the jurisdiction of the Federal Court as the Federal Court determines.

(5) Where:
(a) a proceeding is pending in a court (other than the Supreme

(b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the matter be determined by the other court.

(7) Where a court transfers a matter to another court under subsection (5), further proceedings in the matter shall be as directed by the other court.

87  Other orders

(1) Without limiting the generality of section 80, where, in a proceeding instituted under this Part, or for an offence against Part VC, the Court finds that a person who is a party to the proceeding has suffered, or is likely to suffer, loss or damage by conduct of another person that was engaged in (whether before or after the commencement of this subsection) in contravention of a provision of Part IV, IVA, IVB, V or VC, the Court may, whether or not it grants an injunction under section 80 or makes an order under section 82, 86C or 86D, make such order or orders as it thinks appropriate against the person who engaged in the conduct or a person who was involved in the contravention (including all or any of the orders mentioned in subsection (2) of this section) if the Court considers that the order or orders concerned will compensate the first-mentioned person in whole or in part for the loss or damage or will prevent or reduce the loss or damage.

(a) on the application of a person who has suffered, or is likely to suffer, loss or damage by conduct of another person that was engaged in in contravention of Part IVA, IVB, V or VC; or make such order or orders as the Court thinks appropriate against the person who engaged in the conduct or a person who was involved in the contravention (including all or any of the orders mentioned in subsection (2)) if the Court considers that the order or orders concerned will:

(c) compensate the person who made the application, or the person or any of the persons on whose behalf the application was made, in whole or in part for the loss or damage; or (d) prevent or reduce the loss or damage suffered, or likely to be suffered, by such a person.

(1B) The Commission may make an application under paragraph (1A)(b) on behalf of one or more persons identified in by the conduct, or of a collateral arrangement relating to such a contract, to be void and, if the Court thinks fit, to have been void ab initio or at all times on and after such date before the date on which the order is made as is specified in the order;

order is made as is so specified;
(ba) an order refusing to enforce any or all of the provisions of such a contract;
(c) an order directing the person who engaged in the conduct or a person who was involved in the contravention constituted by the conduct to refund money or return property to the person who suffered the loss or damage;

likely to suffer, the loss or damage;
(f) an order directing the person who engaged in the conduct or a person who was involved in the contravention constituted by the conduct, at his or her own expense, to supply specified services to the person who suffered, or is likely to suffer, the loss or damage; and
(g) an order, in relation to an instrument creating or transferring an interest in land, directing the person who engaged in the conduct or a person who was involved in the contravention constituted by the conduct to execute an instrument that:
(i) varies, or has the effect of varying, the first-mentioned instrument; or
(ii) terminates or otherwise affects, or has the effect of terminating or otherwise affecting, the operation or effect of the first-mentioned instrument.

(2A) Subsections (1) and (1A) have effect subject to section 87AB.
Section 87

Note: Section 87AB may limit the liability, under an order under subsection (1) or (1A) of this section, of a person for his or her contravention of section 52 (Misleading or deceptive conduct) or involvement in such a contravention.

(3) Where:

(a) a provision of a contract made, or a covenant given, whether before or after the commencement of the Trade Practices Amendment Act 1977:

(i) in the case of a provision of a contract, is unenforceable by reason of section 45 in so far as it confers rights or benefits or imposes duties or obligations on a corporation; or

(c) varying the contract or covenant, or a collateral arrangement relating to the contract or covenant, in such manner as the Court considers just and equitable; or

(d) directing another party to the contract, or another person who would, but for subsection 45B(1), be bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant, to do any act in relation to the first-mentioned party or person that the Court considers just and equitable.

(4) The orders that may be made under subsection (3) include an order directing the termination of a lease or the increase or reduction of any rent or premium payable under a lease.

(1) In exercising its powers in proceedings under this Part in relation to boycott conduct, the Court is to have regard to any action the applicant in the proceedings has taken, or could take, before an industrial authority in relation to the boycott conduct. In particular, the Court is to have regard to any application for conciliation that the applicant has made or could make.

(2) In this section:

boycott conduct means conduct that constitutes or would constitute:

State or Territory professional standards law limits liability

(1) A professional standards law of a State, the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory applies to limit occupational liability relating to an action for contravention of section 52 in the same way as it limits occupational liability arising under a law of the State or Territory.

Note: Section 52 prohibits misleading or deceptive conduct by corporations in trade or commerce and (because of sections 5 and 6) by other persons in certain types of trade or commerce.

(2) However, the professional standards law applies for that purpose:

(a) only in relation to a scheme that was prescribed by the regulations at the time (the contravention time) of the contravention; and

(b) as if the scheme were in force under that law at the contravention time in the form the scheme would have been in if:

(i) the scheme had not been amended or revoked under that law since the scheme was first prescribed; and

(ii) the modifications (if any) prescribed by the regulations at the contravention time had been made to the scheme.

Which State’s or Territory’s professional standards law applies?

(3) For the purposes of working out whether a professional standards law of a particular State or Territory applies under subsection (1) in relation to a particular contravention of section 52, choice of law rules operate in relation to the contravention in the same way as they operate in relation to a tort.

(2) The person may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of the Secretary to the Department.

(3) If the Secretary to the Department considers that the person who gave the undertaking has breached any of its terms, the Secretary may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (4).

(4) If the Court is satisfied that the person has breached a term of the undertaking, the Court may make all or any of the following orders:

(a) an order directing the person to comply with that term of the undertaking;

(b) an order directing the person to pay to the Commonwealth an amount up to the amount of any financial benefit that the person has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the breach;

(c) any order that the court considers appropriate directing the person to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;

(d) any other order that the Court considers appropriate.

87CA  Intervention by Commission

(1) The Commission may, with the leave of the Court and subject to any conditions imposed by the Court, intervene in any proceeding instituted under this Act.

(2) If the Commission intervenes in a proceeding, the Commission is taken to be a party to the proceeding and has all the rights, duties and liabilities of such a party.
Section 87CAA

87CAA The effect of Part VIB on this Part

This Part has effect subject to Part VIB.
Part VIA—Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct

87CB Application of Part

(1) This Part applies to a claim (an apportionable claim) if the claim is a claim for damages made under section 82 for:
   (a) economic loss; or
   (b) damage to property;
   caused by conduct that was done in a contravention of section 52.

(2) For the purposes of this Part, there is a single apportionable claim in proceedings in respect of the same loss or damage even if the claim for the loss or damage is based on more than one cause of action (whether or not of the same or a different kind).

(3) In this Part, a concurrent wrongdoer, in relation to a claim, is a person who is one of 2 or more persons whose acts or omissions (or act or omission) caused, independently of each other or jointly, the damage or loss that is the subject of the claim.

(4) For the purposes of this Part, apportionable claims are limited to those claims specified in subsection (1).

(5) For the purposes of this Part, it does not matter that a concurrent wrongdoer is insolvent, is being wound up or has ceased to exist or died.

87CC Certain concurrent wrongdoers not to have benefit of apportionment

(1) Nothing in this Part operates to exclude the liability of a concurrent wrongdoer (an excluded concurrent wrongdoer) in proceedings involving an apportionable claim if:
   (a) the concurrent wrongdoer intended to cause the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim; or
   (b) the concurrent wrongdoer fraudulently caused the economic loss or damage to property that is the subject of the claim.
Part VIA  Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct

Section 87CD

(2) The liability of an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules (if any) that (apart from this Part) are relevant.

(3) The liability of any other concurrent wrongdoer who is not an excluded concurrent wrongdoer is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

87CD  Proportionate liability for apportionable claims

(1) In any proceedings involving an apportionable claim:
   (a) the liability of a defendant who is a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to that claim is limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the court considers just having regard to the extent of the defendant’s responsibility for the damage or loss; and
   (b) the court may give judgment against the defendant for not more than that amount.

(2) If the proceedings involve both an apportionable claim and a claim that is not an apportionable claim:
   (a) liability for the apportionable claim is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Part; and
   (b) liability for the other claim is to be determined in accordance with the legal rules, if any, that (apart from this Part) are relevant.

(3) In apportioning responsibility between defendants in the proceedings:
   (a) the court is to exclude that proportion of the damage or loss in relation to which the plaintiff is contributorily negligent under any relevant law; and
   (b) the court may have regard to the comparative responsibility of any concurrent wrongdoer who is not a party to the proceedings.

(4) This section applies in proceedings involving an apportionable claim whether or not all concurrent wrongdoers are parties to the proceedings.

(5) A reference in this Part to a defendant in proceedings includes any person joined as a defendant or other party in the proceedings.

314  Trade Practices Act 1974
Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct  Part VIA

Section 87CE

(except as a plaintiff) whether joined under this Part, under rules of court or otherwise.

87CE  Defendant to notify plaintiff of concurrent wrongdoer of whom defendant aware

(1) If:

(a) a defendant in proceedings involving an apportionable claim has reasonable grounds to believe that a particular person (the other person) may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and

(b) the defendant fails to give the plaintiff, as soon as practicable, written notice of the information that the defendant has about:

(i) the identity of the other person; and

(ii) the circumstances that may make the other person a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim; and

(c) the plaintiff unnecessarily incurs costs in the proceedings because the plaintiff was not aware that the other person may be a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to the claim;

the court hearing the proceedings may order that the defendant pay all or any of those costs of the plaintiff.

(2) The court may order that the costs to be paid by the defendant be assessed on an indemnity basis or otherwise.

87CF  Contribution not recoverable from defendant

A defendant against whom judgment is given under this Part as a concurrent wrongdoer in relation to an apportionable claim:

(a) cannot be required to contribute to any damages or contribution recovered from another concurrent wrongdoer in respect of the apportionable claim (whether or not the damages or contribution are recovered in the same proceedings in which judgment is given against the defendant); and

(b) cannot be required to indemnify any such wrongdoer.
Part VIA  Proportionate liability for misleading and deceptive conduct

Section 87CG

87CG  Subsequent actions

(1) In relation to an apportionable claim, nothing in this Part or any other law prevents a plaintiff who has previously recovered judgment against a concurrent wrongdoer for an apportionable part of any damage or loss from bringing another action against any other concurrent wrongdoer for that damage or loss.

(2) However, in any proceedings in respect of any such action, the plaintiff cannot recover an amount of damages that, having regard to any damages previously recovered by the plaintiff in respect of the damage or loss, would result in the plaintiff receiving compensation for damage or loss that is greater than the damage or loss actually sustained by the plaintiff.

87CH  Joining non-party concurrent wrongdoer in the action

(1) The court may give leave for any one or more persons to be joined as defendants in proceedings involving an apportionable claim.

(2) The court is not to give leave for the joinder of any person who was a party to any previously concluded proceedings in respect of the apportionable claim.

87CI  Application of Part

Nothing in this Part:

(a) prevents a person being held vicariously liable for a proportion of an apportionable claim for which another person is liable; or
(b) prevents a partner from being held severally liable with another partner for that proportion of an apportionable claim for which the other partner is liable; or
(c) affects the operation of any other Act to the extent that it imposes several liability on any person in respect of what would otherwise be an apportionable claim.

   (a) after the end of the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability for the death or injury to which the personal injury damages would relate; or
   (b) after the end of the long-stop period for that death or injury.

87G Date of discoverability

Definition

(1) The date of discoverability for the death or injury is the first date when the plaintiff in the proceeding knows or ought to know each of the following:
   (a) that the death or personal injury has occurred;
   (b) that the death or personal injury was attributable to a contravention of this Act;
   (c) that in the case of a personal injury—the injury was significant enough to justify bringing an action.

Constructive knowledge

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the plaintiff ought to know a fact if the plaintiff would have ascertained the fact had the plaintiff taken all reasonable steps before the date in question to ascertain the fact.

Use of the plaintiff’s conduct and statements

(3) In determining what the plaintiff knows or ought to have known, the court may have regard to the plaintiff’s conduct, and to the plaintiff’s oral or written statements.

Minors

(4) If the plaintiff is a minor, facts that a capable parent or guardian of the plaintiff knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.

Incapacitated persons

(5) If:
   (a) the plaintiff is an incapacitated person; and
   (b) there is a guardian of the plaintiff, or other person to manage all or part of the plaintiff’s estate, under a law of a State or Territory relating to the protection of incapacitated persons; facts that the guardian or other person knows or ought to know are taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to be facts that the plaintiff knows or ought to know.
Proceedings by personal representatives

(6) Despite subsection (1), if the plaintiff brings the proceeding in the capacity of the personal representative of a deceased person, the date of discoverability for the death or injury is the earliest of:

(a) if, had the deceased person commenced a proceeding, in relation to the contravention to which the death or injury relates, before his or her death, the date of discoverability under subsection (1) would have occurred more than 3 years before the death—that date; or

(b) if, at the time of the plaintiff’s appointment as personal representative, the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c)—the date of the appointment; or

(c) if the first time at which the plaintiff knew, or ought to have known, all of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) was after the date of appointment—the date of that first time.

87H Long-stop period

(1) The long-stop period for the death or injury of a person is:

(a) the period of 12 years following the act or omission alleged to have caused the death or injury; or

(b) that period as extended by the court.

(2) The court must not extend the period by more than 3 years beyond the date of discoverability for the death or injury.

(3) In considering whether to extend the period, the court must have regard to the justice of the case, and, in particular, must have regard to:

(a) whether the passage of time has prejudiced a fair trial; and

(b) the nature and extent of the person’s loss or damage; and

(c) the nature of the defendant’s conduct alleged to have caused the death or injury; and

(d) the nature of the defendant’s conduct since the alleged act or omission.
87J The effect of minority or incapacity

In working out whether the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability, or the long-stop period, has expired, disregard any period during which the plaintiff has been:

(a) a minor who is not in the custody of a capable parent or guardian; or
(b) an incapacitated person in respect of whom there is no guardian, and no other person to manage all or part of the person’s estate, under a law of a State or Territory relating to the protection of incapacitated persons.

87K The effect of close relationships

(1) If:

(a) a cause of action to which the proceeding relates is founded on the death or injury to a person (the \textit{victim}) who was a minor at the time of the act or omission alleged to have caused the death or injury; and
(b) the proceeding is taken against a person who was at that time:
   (i) a parent or guardian of the victim; or
   (ii) a person in a close relationship with a parent or guardian of the victim;

in working out whether the period of 3 years after the date of discoverability, or the long-stop period, has expired, disregard any period:

(c) before the victim turns 25; or
(d) if the victim dies before turning 25—before the victim’s death.

(2) For the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(ii), a person is taken to be in a \textit{close relationship} with a parent or guardian of the victim if the person’s relationship with the parent or guardian is such that:

(a) the person might influence the parent or guardian not to bring a claim on behalf of the victim against the person; or
(b) the victim might be unwilling to disclose to the parent or guardian the acts, omissions or events in respect of which the cause of action is founded.
Division 3—Limits on personal injury damages for non-economic loss

87L Limits on damages for non-economic loss

A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss an amount that exceeds the amount (if any) permitted under this Division.

87M Maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss

(1) The maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss is:

(a) during the year in which this Part commences—$250,000; or

(b) during a later year—the amount worked out (to the nearest multiple of $10) as follows:

\text{Previous maximum amount} \times \frac{\text{Current September CPI number}}{\text{Previous September CPI number}}

where:

- current September CPI number is the index number for the quarter ending on 30 September in the year immediately preceding that later year.
- previous maximum amount is the maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss during the year immediately preceding that later year.
- previous September CPI number is the index number for the quarter ending on the 30 September immediately preceding the 30 September referred to in the definition of current September CPI number.

(2) If an amount worked out under paragraph (1)(b) is a multiple of $5 (but not a multiple of $10), round the amount up to the nearest multiple of $10.

(3) This section does not affect the operation of section 86AA.
87N  Index numbers

(1) The index number for a quarter is the All Groups Consumer Price Index number, being the weighted average of the 8 capital cities, published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if, at any time before or after the commencement of this Act:
   (a) the Australian Statistician has published or publishes an index number in respect of a quarter; and
   (b) that index number is in substitution for an index number previously published by the Australian Statistician in respect of that quarter; disregard the publication of the later index number for the purposes of this section.

(3) If, at any time, the Australian Statistician has changed or changes the reference base for the Consumer Price Index, then, in applying this section after the change took place or takes place, have regard only to index numbers published in terms of the new reference base.

(4) In this section:

87P  Most extreme cases

(1) The court must not award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss the maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss except in a most extreme case.

(2) A most extreme case is a case in which the plaintiff suffers non-economic loss of the gravest conceivable kind.

87Q  Cases of 33% or more (but not 100%) of a most extreme case

(1) If the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers is at least 33%, but less than 100%, of a most extreme case, the court must not award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss an amount that Part VIB  Claims for damages or compensation for death or personal injury
Division 3  Limits on personal injury damages for non-economic loss exceeds the applicable percentage of the maximum amount of damages for non-economic loss.

(2) The applicable percentage is the extent of the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers, expressed as a percentage of a most extreme case.

87R  Cases of 15% or more (but less than 33%) of a most extreme case

If the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers is at least 15%, but less than 33%, of a most extreme case, the court must not award as personal injury damages for non-economic loss an amount that exceeds the amount set out in the following table:

Section 87S

87S  Cases of less than 15% of a most extreme case

If the non-economic loss the plaintiff suffers is less than 15% of a most extreme case, the court must not award personal injury damages for non-economic loss.

87T  Referring to earlier decisions on non-economic loss

(1) In determining personal injury damages for non-economic loss, the court may refer to earlier decisions of the court or of other courts for the purpose of establishing the appropriate award in the proceeding.

(2) For that purpose, the parties to the proceeding or their counsel may bring the court’s attention to awards of personal injury damages for non-economic loss in those earlier decisions.

(3) This section does not affect the rules for determination of other damages or compensation.
Division 4—Limits on personal injury damages for loss of earning capacity

87U Personal injury damages for loss of earning capacity

In determining, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, personal injury damages for:

(a) past economic loss due to loss of earnings or the deprivation or impairment of earning capacity; or
(b) future economic loss due to the deprivation or impairment of earning capacity; or
(c) the loss of expectation of financial support;

a court must disregard the amount by which the plaintiff’s gross weekly earnings during any quarter would (but for the personal injury or death in question) have exceeded:

(d) if, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter was ascertainable—an amount that is twice the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter; or
(e) if:

(i) at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter was not ascertainable; or
(ii) the award was made during, or before the start of, the quarter;

an amount that is twice the amount of average weekly earnings for the quarter that, at the time the award was made, was the most recent quarter for which the amount of average weekly earnings was ascertainable.

87V Average weekly earnings

(1) Average weekly earnings, for a quarter, means the amount:

(a) published by the Australian Statistician as the average weekly earnings for all employees (total earnings, seasonally adjusted) for the reference period in that quarter; or
(b) if the Australian Statistician fails or ceases to publish the amount referred to in paragraph (a)—the amount determined in the manner specified in the regulations.
Claims for damages or compensation for death or personal injury Part VIB Limits on personal injury damages for loss of earning capacity Division 4

Section 87V

(2) Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) may specify matters by reference to which an amount is to be determined.

(3) In this section:

reference period, in a quarter, is the period described by the Australian Statistician as the pay period ending on or before a specified day that is the third Friday of the middle month of that quarter.
Part VIB Claims for damages or compensation for death or personal injury

Division 5 Limits on personal injury damages for gratuitous attendant care services

Section 87W

Division 5—Limits on personal injury damages for gratuitous attendant care services

87W Personal injury damages for gratuitous attendant care services for plaintiff

(1) A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, award personal injury damages for gratuitous attendant care services for the plaintiff, except in accordance with this section.

(2) The court must be satisfied that:
   (a) there is (or was) a reasonable need for the services to be provided; and
   (b) the need has arisen (or arose) solely because of personal injury to which the personal injury damages relate; and
   (c) the services would not be (or would not have been) provided to the plaintiff but for the injury; and
   (d) the services are provided (or are to be provided) for at least 6 hours per week; and
   (e) the services are provided (or are to be provided) over a period of at least 6 months.

(3) If the services were provided during a quarter for which, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings was ascertainable, the court must not award as personal injury damages for the services:
   (a) if the services were provided for at least 40 hours per week—an amount per week that exceeds average weekly earnings for that quarter; or
   (b) if the services were provided for less than 40 hours per week—an amount per hour that exceeds \( \frac{1}{40} \) of average weekly earnings for that quarter.

(4) If the services:
   (a) were provided during a quarter for which, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings was not ascertainable; or
   (b) are to be provided after the time the award was made;
the court must not award as personal injury damages for the services:

(c) if the services were provided for at least 40 hours per week—an amount per week that exceeds average weekly earnings for the quarter that, at the time the award was made, was the most recent quarter for which the amount of average weekly earnings was ascertainable; or

(d) if the services were provided for less than 40 hours per week—an amount per hour that exceeds \( \frac{1}{40} \) of average weekly earnings for that quarter.

(5) Gratuitous attendant care services are services that one person provides to another person:

(a) that:

(i) are of a domestic nature; or

(ii) relate to nursing; or

(iii) aim to alleviate the consequences of a personal injury; and

(b) for which the other person has not paid or is not liable to pay.

87X Personal injury damages for loss of plaintiff’s capacity to provide gratuitous attendant care services

(1) A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, award personal injury damages for loss of the plaintiff’s capacity to provide gratuitous attendant care services to other persons, except in accordance with this section.

(2) The court must be satisfied that:

(a) prior to his or her loss of capacity to provide the services, the plaintiff had provided the services:

(i) for at least 6 hours per week; and

(ii) over a period of at least 6 months; and

(b) the other person would have been entitled, if the plaintiff had died as a result of the contravention of this Act to which the award relates, to recover damages under a law of a State or Territory for loss of the plaintiff’s services.

(3) If the plaintiff would have provided the services during a quarter for which, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings was ascertainable, the court must not award as personal injury damages for the services:

(a) if the services would have been provided for at least 40 hours per week—an amount per week that exceeds average weekly earnings for that quarter; and

(b) if the services would have been provided for less than 40 hours per week—an amount per hour that exceeds $\frac{1}{40}$ of average weekly earnings for that quarter.

(4) If the plaintiff:

(a) would have provided the services during a quarter for which, at the time the award was made, the amount of average weekly earnings was not ascertainable; or

(b) would have provided the services after the time the award was made;

the court must not award as personal injury damages for the services:

(c) if the services were provided for at least 40 hours per week—an amount per week that exceeds average weekly earnings for the quarter that, at the time the award was made, was the most recent quarter for which the amount of average weekly earnings was ascertainable; or

(d) if the services were provided for less than 40 hours per week—an amount per hour that exceeds $\frac{1}{40}$ of average weekly earnings for that quarter.
Division 6—Other limits on personal injury damages

87Y Damages for future economic loss—discount rate

(1) If an award of personal injury damages in a proceeding to which this Part applies is to include any component, assessed as a lump sum, for future economic loss of any kind, the present value of that future economic loss is to be determined by applying:

(a) a discount rate of the percentage prescribed by the regulations; or

(b) if no percentage is prescribed—a discount rate of 5%.

(2) A regulation made for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) does not take effect before the end of the period of 6 months starting:

(a) if the regulation is laid before each House of the Parliament under paragraph 48(1)(c) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 on the same day—starting on that day; or

(b) if it is laid before each House of the Parliament under that paragraph on different days—starting on the later of those days.

(3) Except as provided by this section, this section does not affect any other law relating to the discounting of sums awarded as damages or compensation.

87Z Damages for loss of superannuation entitlements

A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, award personal injury damages for economic loss due to the loss of employer superannuation contributions an amount that exceeds the following amount:

Superannuation percentage × Damages for earnings loss

where:

damages for earnings loss are the personal injury damages payable (in accordance with this Part) for:

(a) any past economic loss due to loss of earnings, or the deprivation or impairment of earning capacity, on which the entitlement to those contributions is based; and Part VIB  Claims for damages or compensation for death or personal injury
Division 6  Other limits on personal injury damages

Section 87ZA

(b) any future economic loss due to the deprivation or impairment of earning capacity on which the entitlement to those contributions would be based.

superannuation percentage is the highest employer’s charge percentage for a quarter under section 19 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992.

87ZA Interest on damages

(1) A court must not, in a proceeding to which this Part applies, order the payment of interest on personal injury damages for:

(a) non-economic loss; or
(b) gratuitous attendant care services for the plaintiff; or
(c) loss of the plaintiff’s capacity to provide gratuitous attendant care services to other persons.

have the effect, of substantially lessening competition within the meaning of section 45;
and, while such an authorization remains in force:

(c) in the case of an authorization to make a contract or arrangement or to arrive at an understanding—subsection 45(2) does not prevent the corporation from making the contract or arrangement or arriving at the understanding in accordance with the authorization and giving effect in accordance with the authorization to any provision of the contract or arrangement so made or of the understanding so arrived at;

(d) in the case of an authorization to give effect to a provision of a contract:
   (i) the provision is not unenforceable by reason of subsection 45(1); and
   (ii) subsection 45(2) does not prevent the corporation from giving effect to the provision in accordance with the authorization; or

(e) in the case of an authorization to give effect to a provision of an arrangement or understanding—subsection 45(2) does not accordance with the authorization.

(5) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, upon application by or on behalf of a person, grant an authorization to the person:

(a) to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant where the proposed covenant would have the purpose, or would have or might have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a market referred to in paragraph 45B(2)(a); or

(b) to enforce the terms of a covenant;

and, while such an authorization remains in force:

(c) in the case of an authorization to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant:
   (i) the covenant is not unenforceable by reason of subsection 45B(1); and
   (ii) subsection 45B(2) does not apply in relation to the covenant; or

(d) in the case of an authorization to enforce the terms of a covenant:
(i) the covenant is not unenforceable by reason of subsection 45B(1); and
(ii) paragraphs 45B(2)(b) and (c) do not apply in relation to the covenant.

(6) An authorization granted by the Commission to a person under any of the preceding provisions of this section to:

   (b) give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding;
   (c) require the giving of, or give, a covenant; or
   (d) enforce the terms of a covenant;
has effect as if it were also an authorization in the same terms to every other person named or referred to in the application for the authorization as a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding or as a proposed party to the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, or as a person who is or would be bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant or the proposed covenant, as the case may be.

(7) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, upon application by or on behalf of a person, grant an authorization to the person, and to any other person acting in concert with the first-mentioned person, to engage in conduct to which section 45D, 45DA or 45DB would or might apply and, while such an authorization remains in force, that section does not apply in relation to the engaging in that conduct by the applicant and by any person acting in concert with the applicant.

(7A) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, on application by or on behalf of a person, grant an authorisation to the person to engage in conduct to which section 45E or 45EA would or might apply. (8) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, upon application by or on behalf of a corporation, grant an authorization to the corporation to engage in conduct that constitutes or may constitute the practice of exclusive dealing and, while such an authorization remains in force, section 47 does not prevent the corporation from engaging in that conduct in accordance with the authorization.
Part VII  Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices
Division 1  Authorizations

Section 88

(8AA) If:

(a) the Commission grants an authorization to a corporation to engage in particular conduct under subsection (8); and
(b) the particular conduct referred to in the authorization is conduct expressly required or permitted under a contract, an arrangement, an understanding or an industry code of practice;

then:

(c) the authorization has effect as if it were also an authorization in the same terms to every other person named or referred to in the application for the authorization as a party or proposed party to the contract, arrangement, understanding or code; and

(d) the authorization may be expressed so as to apply to or in relation to another person who becomes a party to the contract, arrangement, understanding or code at a time after the authorization is granted.

(8AB) For the purposes of subsection (8AA), a reference in that subsection to a contract, an arrangement, an understanding or an industry code of practice includes a reference to a proposed contract, a proposed arrangement, a proposed understanding or a proposed industry code of practice (as the case requires).

(8A) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, upon application by or on behalf of a person, grant an authorisation to the person to engage in conduct that constitutes (or may constitute) the practice of resale price maintenance. While the authorisation remains in force, section 48 does not prevent the person from engaging in that conduct in accordance with the authorisation.

(9) Subject to this Part, the Commission may, upon application by or on behalf of a person:

(a) grant an authorisation to the person to acquire shares in the capital of a body corporate or to acquire assets of a person; or

(b) grant an authorisation to the person to acquire a controlling interest in a body corporate within the meaning of section 50A;

and, while such an authorisation remains in force:
(c) in the case of an authorisation under paragraph (a)— section 50 does not prevent the person from acquiring shares or assets in accordance with the authorisation; or (d) in the case of an authorisation under paragraph (b)— section 50A does not, to the extent specified in the authorisation, apply in relation to the acquisition of that controlling interest.

(10) An authorization to a corporation under subsection (1) may be expressed so as to apply to or in relation to another person who:

(a) in the case of an authorization to make a contract or arrangement or arrive at an understanding—becomes a party to the proposed contract or arrangement at a time after it is made or becomes a party to the proposed understanding at a time after it is arrived at; or
(b) in the case of an authorization to give effect to a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding—becomes a party to the contract, arrangement or understanding at a time after the authorization is granted.

(11) An authorization under subsection (5) may be expressed so as to apply to or in relation to another person who:

(a) in the case of an authorization to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant—becomes bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the proposed covenant at a time after the covenant is given; or
(b) in the case of an authorization to enforce the terms of a covenant—becomes bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant at a time after the authorization is granted.

(12) The Commission does not have power to grant an authorization to a corporation to make a contract or arrangement, to arrive at an understanding or to require the giving of, or to give, a covenant if the contract or arrangement has been made, the understanding has been arrived at or the covenant has been given before the Commission makes a determination in respect of the application.

(13) An application made to the Commission under this section for an authorization in relation to a particular contract or proposed contract (including an application mentioned in subsection (8AA)) may be expressed to be made also in relation to another contract or proposed contract that is or will be, or in relation to two or more other contracts or proposed contracts that are or will be, in similar terms to the first-mentioned contract or proposed contract and, where an application is so expressed, the Commission may grant a single authorization in respect of all the contracts or proposed contracts or may grant separate authorizations in respect of any one or more of the contracts or proposed contracts.

(14) Where an application made to the Commission under this section for an authorization in relation to a particular contract or proposed contract is expressed in accordance with subsection (13) to be made also in relation to another contract or contracts or proposed contract or proposed contracts:

(a) the application shall set out:
   (i) the names of the parties to each other contract; and
   (ii) the names of the parties to each other proposed contract where those names are known to the applicant at the time when the application is made; and

(b) if an authorization is granted in respect of a proposed contract the names of the parties to which were not so known to the applicant, the authorization shall, by force of this subsection, be deemed to be expressed to be subject to a condition that any party to the contract will, when so required by the Commission, furnish to the Commission the names of all the parties to the contract.

(15) In subsections (13) and (14):

(a) contract includes an arrangement, understanding, industry code of practice or covenant and proposed contract has a corresponding meaning; and

(b) the reference to the parties to a contract or proposed contract shall, for the purposes of the application of those subsections in relation to a covenant or proposed covenant by reason of paragraph (a) of this subsection, be read as a reference to the persons who are or will be, or but for subsection 45B(1) would be, respectively bound by, or entitled to the benefit of, the covenant or proposed covenant.

(16) A corporation that has made an application to the Commission for an authorisation, or a person other than a corporation who has made an application to the Commission for an authorisation under subsection (9), may at any time, by notice in writing to the Commission, withdraw the application.
89 Procedure for applications and the keeping of a register

(1) An application for an authorization, a minor variation of an authorization, a revocation of an authorization or a revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization, shall be made in writing as prescribed.

(2) If the Commission receives such an application, the Commission must cause notice of the receipt of that application to be made public in such manner as it thinks fit.

(3) The Commission must keep a register of:
   (a) applications for authorizations; and
   (b) applications for minor variations of authorizations; and
   (c) applications for, or the Commission’s proposals for, the revocation of authorizations; and
   (d) applications for, or the Commission’s proposals for, the revocation of authorizations and the substitution of other authorizations; including applications that have been withdrawn or proposals that have been abandoned.

(4) Subject to this section, the register kept under subsection (3) shall include:
   (a) any document furnished to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection (3);
   (aa) any draft determination, and any summary of reasons, by the Commission that is furnished to a person under section 90A, or under that section as applied by section 91C;
   (ab) any record of a conference made in accordance with subsection 90A(8), or with that subsection as applied by section 91C, and any certificate in relation to a conference given under subsection 90A(9), or under that subsection as so applied;
   (b) particulars of any oral submission made to the Commission in relation to such an application or proposal; and
   (c) the determination of the Commission on such an application or proposal and the statement of the reasons given by the Commission for that determination.

Division 1  Authorizations

Section 89

(5) Where a person furnishes a document to the Commission in relation to an application or proposal referred to in subsection (3) or makes an oral submission to the Commission in relation to such an application or proposal, he or she may, at the time when the document is furnished or the submission is made, request that the document or a part of the document, or that particulars of the submission or of part of the submission, be excluded from the register kept under subsection (3) by reason of the confidential nature of any of the matters contained in the document or submission.

(5A) Where such a request is made:

(a) if the document or the part of the document, or the submission or the part of the submission, to which the request relates contains particulars of:

   (i) a secret formula or process;

   (ii) the cash consideration offered for the acquisition of shares in the capital of a body corporate or assets of a person; or

   (iii) the current costs of manufacturing, producing or marketing goods or services;

the Commission shall exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from the register kept under subsection (3); and

(b) in any other case—the Commission may, if it is satisfied that it is desirable to do so by reason of the confidential nature of the matters contained in the document or the part of the document, or in the submission or the part of the submission, exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from that register.

(5B) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude a document or a part of a document from the register kept under subsection (3), the Commission shall, if the person who furnished the document to the Commission so requires, return the document or part of the document to him or her and, in that case, paragraph (4)(a) does not apply in relation to the document or part of the document.

(5C) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude particulars of an oral submission or of part of an oral submission from the register

kept under subsection (3), the person who made the submission may inform the Commission that he or she withdraws the submission or that part of the submission and, in that case, paragraph (4)(b) does not apply in relation to the submission or that part of the submission, as the case may be.

(5D) Where the Commission is satisfied that it is desirable to do so for any reason other than the confidential nature of matters contained in a document or submission, the Commission may exclude a document or part of a document referred to in paragraph (4)(a) or particulars referred to in paragraph (4)(b) from the register kept under subsection (3).

(5E) If a person requests, in accordance with subsection (5) that a document or a part of a document, or that particulars of a submission or of part of a submission, be excluded from the register kept under subsection (3), the document or part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, shall not be included in that register until the Commission has made a determination in relation to the request.

(6) A document shall not be included in the register kept under subsection (3) if a direction in relation to that document was in force under paragraph 22(1)(b) of the Trade Practices Act 1974 immediately before the commencement of the Trade Practices Amendment Act 1977.

90 Determination of applications for authorisations

(1) The Commission shall, in respect of an application for an authorization:
   (a) make a determination in writing granting such authorization as it considers appropriate; or
   (b) make a determination in writing dismissing the application.

(2) The Commission shall take into account any submissions in relation to the application made to it by the applicant, by the Commonwealth, by a State or by any other person.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

(6) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization under subsection 88(1), (5) or (8) in respect of a provision (not being a provision that is or may be an exclusionary provision) of a proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, in respect of a proposed covenant, or in respect of proposed conduct (other than conduct to which subsection 47(6) or (7) applies), unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the provision of the proposed contract, arrangement or understanding, the proposed covenant, or the proposed conduct, as the case may be, would result, or be likely to result, in a benefit to the public and that that benefit would outweigh the detriment to the public constituted by any lessening of competition that would result, or be likely to result, if:

(a) the proposed contract or arrangement were made, or the proposed understanding were arrived at, and the provision concerned were given effect to;
(b) the proposed covenant were given, and were complied with; or
(c) the proposed conduct were engaged in;

as the case may be.

(7) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization under subsection 88(1) or (5) in respect of a provision (not being a provision that is or may be an exclusionary provision) of a contract, arrangement or understanding or, in respect of a covenant, unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the provision of the contract, arrangement or understanding, or the covenant, as the case may be, has resulted, or is likely to result, in a benefit to the public and that that benefit outweighs or would outweigh the detriment to the public constituted by any lessening of competition that has resulted, or is likely to result, from giving effect to the provision or complying with the covenant.

(8) The Commission shall not:

(ii) an authorization under subsection 88(7) or (7A) in respect of proposed conduct; or

(iii) an authorization under subsection 88(8) in respect of proposed conduct to which subsection 47(6) or (7) applies; or

(iv) an authorization under subsection 88(8A) for proposed conduct to which section 48 applies;

unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the proposed provision or the proposed conduct would result, or be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that the proposed contract or arrangement should be allowed to be made, the proposed understanding should be allowed to be arrived at, or the proposed conduct should be allowed to take place, as the case may be; or

(b) make a determination granting an authorization under subsection 88(1) in respect of a provision of a contract, arrangement or understanding that is or may be an exclusionary provision unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the provision has resulted, or is likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that the contract, arrangement or understanding should be allowed to be given effect to.

(9) The Commission shall not make a determination granting an authorization under subsection 88(9) in respect of a proposed acquisition of shares in the capital of a body corporate or of assets of a person or in respect of the acquisition of a controlling interest in a body corporate within the meaning of section 50A unless it is satisfied in all the circumstances that the proposed acquisition would result, or be likely to result, in such a benefit to the public that the acquisition should be allowed to take place.

(9A) In determining what amounts to a benefit to the public for the purposes of subsection (9):

(a) the Commission must regard the following as benefits to the public (in addition to any other benefits to the public that may exist apart from this paragraph):
Part VII  Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices
Division 1  Authorizations

Section 90

(i) a significant increase in the real value of exports;
(ii) a significant substitution of domestic products for imported goods; and
(b) without limiting the matters that may be taken into account, the Commission must take into account all other relevant matters that relate to the international competitiveness of any Australian industry.

(10) Subject to subsections (10A), (12), (13), (14) and (15), if:
(a) the Minister, by notice published in the Gazette, fixes a date for the purposes of the application of this subsection in relation to applications for authorizations under subsection 88(1), (5), (7), (7A), (8) or (8A); and
(b) the Commission does not determine an application for an authorization under a subsection in relation to which a date is so fixed within 4 months from that date or the date on which the application was or is received by the Commission, whichever is the later;
the Commission shall be deemed to have granted, at the expiration of that period, the authorization applied for.

(10A) If, within the latest occurring 4 month period referred to in paragraph (10)(b) in relation to an application for an authorisation, the Commission gives to the applicant a written notice requesting the applicant to give to the Commission additional information relevant to the determination of the application, the reference in that paragraph to 4 months shall be taken to be a reference to a period consisting of 4 months increased by the number of days in the period commencing on the day on which the notice is given to the applicant and ending on the day on which the applicant gives to the Commission such of the additional information as the applicant is able to provide.

(11) Subject to subsections (12), (13) and (15), if the Commission does not determine an application for an authorisation under subsection 88(9) within:
(a) 30 days from the day on which the application is received by the Commission; or
(b) if the Commission, before the end of that period of 30 days, gives to the applicant a notice in writing requesting the applicant to give to the Commission additional information relevant to the determination of the application—the period consisting of 30 days from the day on which the application is received by the Commission increased by the number of days in the period commencing on the day on which the notice is given to the applicant and ending on the day on which the applicant gives to the Commission such of the additional information as the applicant is able to provide;
Section 90

the Commission shall be deemed to have granted, at the end of that period, the authorisation applied for.

(11A) The Commission may, within the 30 day period mentioned in subsection (11), notify the applicant in writing that the Commission considers that the period should be extended to 45 days due to the complexity of the issues involved. If the Commission so notifies the applicant, the references in subsection (11) to 30 days are to be treated as references to 45 days.

(12) If the applicant for an authorization informs the Commission in writing before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (10) or (11) (in this subsection and in subsection (13) referred to as the base period) that the applicant agrees to the Commission taking a specified longer period for the determination of the application, a reference to that longer period shall be deemed for the purposes of that application to be substituted in subsection (10) or (11), as the case may be, for the reference in that subsection to the base period.

(13) For the purposes of any application of subsection (12), a reference in that subsection to the base period shall, if a reference to another period is deemed by any other application or applications of that subsection to have been substituted in subsection (10) or (11) for the reference in subsection (10) or (11) to the base period, be construed as a reference to that other period.

(14) If a person to whom a notice has been sent under subsection 90A(2) in relation to a draft determination in respect of an application for an authorization notifies the Commission in accordance with subsection 90A(6) that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination, the period referred to in subsection (10) of this section shall be deemed to be increased by a period equal to the period commencing on the day on which the first notification in relation to the draft determination was received by the Commission and ending on the seventh day after the day specified in the certificate given by a member of the Commission in pursuance of subsection 90A(9) as the day on which the conference terminated.

(15) Where a party to a joint venture makes at the one time two or more applications for authorizations, being applications each of which deals with a matter relating to the joint venture:

(a) the Commission shall not make a determination in respect of any one of those applications unless it also makes a determination or determinations at the same time in respect of the other application or other applications; and

(b) if the Commission does not make a determination in respect of any one of the applications within the period referred to in whichever of subsections (10) and (11) is applicable in relation to that application, the Commission shall be deemed to have granted, at the expiration of that period, all the authorizations applied for.

90A Commission to afford opportunity for conference before determining application for authorisation

(1) Before determining an application for an authorization (other than an application for an authorisation under subsection 88(9)), the Commission shall prepare a draft determination in relation to the application.

(2) The Commission shall, by notice in writing sent to the applicant and to each other interested person, invite the applicant or other person to notify the Commission, within 14 days after a date fixed by the Commission being not earlier than the day on which the notice is sent, whether the applicant or other person wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination.

(3) If:

(a) the draft determination provides for the granting of the application unconditionally; and
(b) no person has made a written submission to the Commission opposing the application; each notice by the Commission under subsection (2) shall inform the person to whom the notice is sent that the draft determination so provides.

(4) If:
   (a) the draft determination does not provide for the granting of the application or provides for the granting of the application subject to conditions; or
   (b) the draft determination provides for the granting of the application unconditionally but a written submission has, or written submissions have, been made to the Commission opposing the application;

the Commission shall send with each notice under subsection (2) a copy of the draft determination and:
   (c) in a case to which paragraph (a) applies—a summary of the reasons why the Commission is not satisfied that the application should be granted or why it is not satisfied that the application should be granted unconditionally; or
   (d) in a case to which paragraph (b) applies—a summary of the reasons why it is satisfied that the application should be granted unconditionally.

(5) If each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2):
   (a) notifies the Commission within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she does not wish the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination; or the Commission may make the determination at any time after the expiration of that period.
   (b) does not notify the Commission within that period that he or she wishes the Commission to hold such a conference;

(6) If any of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft determination, the Commission shall appoint a date (being not later than 30 days after the expiration of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2).

(7) At the conference:
   (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members of the Commission (being a member or members who participated in the preparation of the draft determination) nominated by the Chairperson; and
   (b) each person to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) and any other interested person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be appropriate is entitled to attend and participate personally or, in the case of a body corporate, may be represented by a person who, or by persons each of whom, is a director, officer or employee of the body corporate; and
   (c) a person participating in the conference in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) is entitled to have another person or other persons present to assist him or her but a person who so assists another person at the conference is not entitled to participate in the discussion; and
   (e) no other person is entitled to be present.

(8) A member of the Commission participating in the conference shall make such record of the discussions as is sufficient to set out the matters raised by the persons participating in the conference.

(9) The member of the Commission who represents the Commission at the conference, or, if the Commission is represented by more than one member of the Commission, one of those members appointed by the Chairperson:
   (a) may exclude from the conference any person who uses insulting language at the conference, creates, or takes part in creating or continuing, a disturbance at the conference or repeatedly interrupts the conference;
   (b) may terminate the conference when he or she is of the opinion that a reasonable opportunity has been given for the expression of the views of persons participating in the conference (other than persons excluded from the conference under paragraph (a)); and

(c) shall give a certificate certifying the day on which the first notification under subsection (6) in relation to the draft determination was received by the Commission and the day on which the conference terminated; and any such certificate shall be received in all courts as evidence of the matters certified.

(10) A document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (9) shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be such a certificate and to have been duly given.

(11) The Commission shall take account of all matters raised at the conference and may at any time after the termination of the conference make a determination in respect of the application.

(12) For the purposes of this section, interested person means a person who has notified the Commission in writing that he or she, or a specified unincorporated association of which he or she is a member, claims to have an interest in the application, being an interest that, in the opinion of the Commission, is real and substantial.

(13) Where the Commission is of the opinion that two or more applications for authorizations that are made by the same person, or by persons being bodies corporate that are related to each other, involve the same or substantially similar issues, the Commission may treat the applications as if they constitute a single application and may prepare one draft determination in relation to the applications and hold one conference in relation to that draft determination.

90B Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC

(1) This section applies if:

(a) an application under section 88, 91A, 91B or 91C is made in relation to the National Electricity Code or a provision of the Code; and

(b) the AEMC has done the following:

(i) published the Code or the provision and invited people to make submissions to it on the Code or the provision;
Part VII  Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices

Division 1  Authorizations

Section 91

(ii) specified the effect of subsection (2) when it published the Code or the provision;

(iii) considered any submissions that were received within the time limit specified by it when it published the Code or the provision.

(2) In making a determination under section 90, 91A, 91B or 91C:

(a) the Commission may rely on the process mentioned in paragraph (1)(b), instead of undertaking the process mentioned in section 90A, subsection 91A(2), 91B(2) or 91C(2) or (5); and

(b) the Commission may take into account:

(i) any submissions mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(iii); and

(ii) any submissions, in respect of the application, made by the AEMC; and

(c) despite subsection 90(2), the Commission may disregard any submissions, in relation to the application, made by the Commonwealth, by a State, or by any other person (other than the AEMC).

(3) In this section:

National Electricity Code means the National Electricity Code, as in force from time to time, made under the National Electricity Law set out in Schedule 1 to the National Electricity (South Australia) Act 1996 of South Australia.

91 Grant and variation of authorisations

(1) An authorization may be expressed to be in force for a period specified in the authorization and, if so expressed, remains in force for that period only.

(1A) An authorisation, other than an authorisation deemed to have been granted under subsection 90(10) or (11), comes into force on the day specified for the purpose in the authorisation, not being a day earlier than, and an authorisation deemed to have been granted under subsection 90(10) or (11) comes into force on:

(a) where paragraph (b) or (c) does not apply—the end of the period in which an application may be made to the Tribunal

354  Trade Practices Act 1974
for a review of the determination by the Commission of the application for the authorisation;
(b) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is not withdrawn—the day on which the Tribunal makes a determination on the review;
(c) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is withdrawn—the day on which the application is withdrawn.

(1B) A minor variation of an authorization comes into force on a day specified by the Commission in the determination making the variation, not being a day earlier than:
(a) if neither paragraph (b) nor (c) applies—the end of the period in which an application may be made to the Tribunal for a review of the determination of the Commission in respect of the application for the minor variation; or
(b) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is not withdrawn—the day on which the Tribunal makes a determination on the review; or
(c) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is withdrawn—the day on which the application is withdrawn.

(1C) If an authorization (the prior authorization) is revoked and another authorization is made in substitution for it, that other authorization comes into force on the day specified for the purpose in that other authorization, not being a day earlier than:
(a) if neither paragraph (b) nor (c) applies—the end of the period in which an application may be made to the Tribunal for a review of an application, or the Commission’s proposal, for the revocation of the prior authorization and the substitution of that other authorization; or
(b) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is not withdrawn—the day on which the Tribunal makes a determination on the review; or
(c) if such an application is made to the Tribunal and the application is withdrawn—the day on which the application is withdrawn.

(2) If the Commission considers that it is appropriate to do so:
(a) for the purpose of enabling due consideration to be given to:
Part VII  Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices
Division 1  Authorizations

Section 91

(i) an application for an authorization; or
(ii) an application for a minor variation of an authorization;
or
(iii) an application for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of a new one; or

(b) pending the expiration of the time allowed for the making of an application to the Tribunal for review of a determination by the Commission of an application referred to in paragraph (a) and, if such an application for a review is made, pending the making of a determination by the Tribunal on the review; or

(c) for any other reason;
the Commission may at any time:

(d) in the case of an application for an authorization—grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization; and

(e) in the case of an application for a minor variation of an authorization—grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization dealing only with the matter the subject of the application for a variation; and

(f) in the case of an application for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another—suspend the operation of the authorization sought to be revoked and grant an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization in substitution for the authorization suspended.

(2AA) An authorization granted under paragraph 91(2)(d), (e) or (f) and expressed to be an interim authorization comes into force on such a date, not being a date before the grant of the interim authorization, as is specified by the Commission in the interim authorization.

(2AB) The Commission may, at any time, revoke an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization and, where that interim authorization is in substitution for an authorization the operation of which has been suspended, the revocation of the interim authorization has the effect of reviving the operation of the suspended authorization.

(2A) Subsections 90(4) to (9), inclusive, do not apply in relation to an authorization that is expressed to be an interim authorization.
(3) An authorization may be expressed to be subject to such conditions as are specified in the authorization.

91A Minor variations of authorizations

(1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a minor variation of the authorization.

(2) On receipt of an application, the Commission must, if it is satisfied that the variation sought in the application is a minor variation, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:

(a) indicate the nature of the variation applied for; and

(b) invite submissions in respect of the variation within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

(3) After considering the application and any submissions received within the period specified, the Commission may make a determination in writing varying the authorization or dismissing the application.

(4) The Commission must not make a determination varying an authorization to which, if it were a new authorization, subsection 90(6) or (7) would apply, unless the Commission is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, the variation would not result, or would be likely not to result, in a reduction in the extent to which the benefit to the public of the authorization outweighs any detriment to the public caused by the authorization.

(5) The Commission must not make a determination varying an authorization to which, if it were a new authorization, subsection 90(8) or (9) would apply, unless the Commission is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, the variation would not result, or would be likely not to result, in a reduction in the benefit to the public that arose from the original authorization.

(6) Nothing in this section prevents a person from applying for 2 or more variations in the same application.

(7) If:
Part VII  Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices
Division 1  Authorizations

Section 91B

(a) a person applies for 2 or more variations:
   (i) at the same time; or
   (ii) in such close succession that the variations could conveniently be dealt with by the Commission at the same time; and

(b) the Commission is satisfied that the combined effect of those variations, if all were granted, would not involve a material change in the effect of the authorization;
the Commission may deal with all of those variations together as if they were a single minor variation.

(8) An application for a minor variation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.

91B  Revocation of an authorization

(1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a revocation of the authorization.

(2) On receipt of such an application, the Commission must, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:
   (a) indicate that the revocation of the authorization has been applied for; and
   (b) indicate the basis on which the revocation has been applied for; and
   (c) invite submissions in respect of the revocation within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

(3) If, at any time after granting an authorization, it appears to the Commission that:
   (a) the authorization was granted on the basis of evidence or information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or
   (b) a condition to which the authorization was expressed to be subject has not been complied with; or
   (c) there has been a material change of circumstances since the authorization was granted;
the Commission may, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:
(d) inform those persons that it is considering the revocation of the authorization; and
(e) indicate the basis on which the revocation is being proposed; and
(f) invite submissions in respect of the revocation within a period specified by the Commission.

(4) After considering any submissions invited under subsection (2) or (3) that are received within the period specified by the Commission under that subsection, the Commission may make a determination in writing:
(a) revoking the authorization; or
(b) deciding not to revoke the authorization.

(5) If an objection to the revocation is included in any submission
(a) that was invited under subsection (2) or (3); and
(b) that is received within the period specified by the Commission under that subsection;
the Commission must not make a determination revoking the authorization unless the Commission is satisfied that it would, if the authorization had not already been granted, be prevented under subsection 90(6), (7), (8) or (9) from making a determination granting the authorization in respect of which the revocation is sought.

(6) An application for revocation may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.

(7) The Commission may disregard any objection that, in its opinion, is either vexatious or frivolous.

91C  Revocation of an authorization and substitution of a replacement

(1) A person to whom an authorization was granted, or another person on behalf of such a person, may apply to the Commission for a revocation of the authorization and the substitution of a new authorization for the one revoked.
(2) On receipt of such an application, the Commission must, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to the Commission to be interested:

(a) indicate that the revocation of the authorization, and the substitution of another authorization for it, has been applied for; and

(b) indicate the basis upon which the revocation and substitution has been applied for and the nature of the substituted authorization so applied for; and

(c) invite submissions in respect of the revocation and substitution within a period specified by the Commission.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

(3) If, at any time after granting an authorization, it appears to the Commission that:

(a) the authorization was granted on the basis of evidence or information that was false or misleading in a material particular; or

(b) a condition to which the authorization was expressed to be subject has not been complied with; or

(c) there has been a material change of circumstances since the authorization was granted;

the Commission may, by notice in writing given to any persons who appear to be interested:

(d) inform those persons that it is considering the revocation of the authorization and the substitution of a new authorization; and

(e) indicate the basis on which the revocation and substitution is being proposed and the nature of the substituted authorization proposed; and

(f) invite submissions in respect of the proposed action within a period specified by the Commission.

(4) After considering any submissions invited under subsection (2) or (3) in relation to an authorization that are received within the period specified by the Commission under that subsection and after compliance with the requirements of section 90A in accordance with subsection (5), the Commission may make a determination in writing:
Authorizations and notifications in respect of restrictive trade practices

Part VII

Authorizations

Division 1

Section 91C

(a) revoking the authorization and granting another such authorization that it considers appropriate, in substitution for it; or

(b) deciding not to revoke the authorization.

(5) Before making a determination under subsection (4) in relation to an application, or a proposal, for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another, the Commission must comply with the requirements of section 90A.

Note: Alternatively, the Commission may rely on consultations undertaken by the AEMC: see section 90B.

(6) For the purposes of complying with section 90A in accordance with subsection (5), section 90A has effect:

(a) as if the reference in subsection (1) to an application for an authorization (other than an application for an authorization under subsection 88(9)) were a reference to an application, or to a proposal, for the revocation of an authorization (other than an authorization granted on an application granted under subsection 88(9)) and the substitution of another authorization; and

(b) as if references in other provisions of that section to an application, or to an application for an authorization, were references either to an application, or to a proposal, for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another; and

(c) as if subsection 90A(2) had provided, in its operation in relation to a proposal for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another, that:

(i) the reference to the applicant and to each other interested person were a reference only to each interested person; and

(ii) each reference to the applicant or other person were a reference only to the other person.

(7) The Commission must not make a determination revoking an authorization and substituting another authorization unless the Commission is satisfied that it would not be prevented under subsection 90(6), (7), (8) or (9) from making a determination granting the substituted authorization, if it were a new authorization sought under section 88.
Section 91C

(8) An application for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization may be withdrawn by notice in writing to the Commission at any time.
Division 2—Notifications

93 Notification of exclusive dealing

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a corporation that engages, or proposes to engage, in conduct of a kind referred to in subsection 47(2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9) may give to the Commission notice, as prescribed, setting out particulars of the conduct or proposed conduct.

(2) A corporation may not give a notice for conduct or proposed conduct if:

(a) the corporation applied for an authorisation for the conduct or proposed conduct; and

(b) the Commission or the Trade Practices Commission made a determination dismissing the application or granting an authorisation (whether or not the authorisation is still in force); and

(c) either:

(i) the Tribunal or the Trade Practices Tribunal made a determination on an application for a review of a determination described in paragraph (b); or

(ii) the time for making such an application for review has ended without the making of an application.

(2A) In subsection (2):

Trade Practices Commission means the Trade Practices Commission established by section 6A of this Act as in force immediately before this subsection commenced.

Trade Practices Tribunal means the Trade Practices Tribunal continued in existence by section 30 of this Act as in force immediately before this subsection commenced.

(3) If the Commission is satisfied that the engaging by a corporation in conduct or proposed conduct of a kind described in subsection 47(2), (3), (4) or (5) or paragraph 47(8)(a) or (b) or (9)(a), (b) or (c) and referred to in a notice given by the corporation to the Commission under subsection (1) has or would have the purpose or has or is likely to have, or would have or be likely to have, the effect of substantially lessening competition within the meaning of section 47 and that in all the circumstances:

(a) the conduct has not resulted or is not likely to result, or the proposed conduct would not result or be likely to result, in a benefit to the public; or

(b) any benefit to the public that has resulted or is likely to result from the conduct, or would result or be likely to result from the proposed conduct, would not outweigh the detriment to the public constituted by any lessening of competition that has resulted or is likely to result from the conduct or would result or be likely to result from the proposed conduct;

the Commission may at any time give notice in writing to the corporation stating that the Commission is so satisfied and accompanied by a statement setting out its reasons for being so satisfied.

(3A) If:

(a) a corporation has notified the Commission under subsection (1) of conduct or proposed conduct described in subsection 47(6) or (7) or paragraph 47(8)(c) or (9)(d); and

(b) the Commission is satisfied that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct or proposed conduct will not outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct or proposed conduct;

the Commission may give the corporation a written notice stating that the Commission is so satisfied.

(3B) The Commission must also give the corporation a written statement of its reasons for giving notice when the Commission gives the notice.

(4) Before giving a notice under subsection (3) or (3A) the Commission shall comply with the requirements of section 93A.

(5) In satisfying itself for the purposes of subsection (3) or (3A) in relation to any conduct or proposed conduct referred to in a notice given to the Commission by a corporation under subsection (1), the Commission shall seek such relevant information as it considers reasonable and appropriate and may make a decision on the basis of any information so obtained and any other information furnished to it by the corporation or any other person or otherwise in its possession.
Section 93

(6) A corporation that has given a notice to the Commission under this section in relation to any conduct or proposed conduct may, at any time before the Commission has given to the corporation a notice under subsection (3) or (3A) in relation to the conduct or proposed conduct, by notice in writing to the Commission, withdraw the first-mentioned notice.

(7) Where a corporation has given notice to the Commission under subsection (1):

(a) in the case of a notice given before the expiration of the period of 3 months commencing on the date of commencement of the Trade Practices Amendment Act 1977, the engaging by the corporation in the conduct referred to in the notice on or after that date and before the giving of the notice shall not be taken, for the purposes of section 47, to have had the effect of substantially lessening competition within the meaning of that section; and

(b) in any case, the engaging by the corporation in the conduct referred to in the notice after the giving of the notice shall not be taken, for the purposes of section 47, to have the purpose, or to have or be likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition within the meaning of that section unless:

(i) the Commission has given notice to the corporation under subsection (3) of this section in relation to the conduct and the conduct takes place more than 30 days (or such longer period as the Commission by writing permits) after the day on which the Commission gave the notice; or

(ii) the notice has been, or is deemed to have been, withdrawn and the conduct takes place after the day on which the notice was, or is deemed to have been, withdrawn.

(7A) A notice under subsection (1) describing conduct or proposed conduct referred to in subsection 47(6) or (7) or paragraph 47(8)(c) or (9)(d) comes into force:

(a) at the end of a prescribed period that started on the day when the corporation gave the Commission the notice; or

(b) if the Commission gives notice to the corporation under subsection 93A(2) during that period—when the Commission decides not to give the corporation a notice under subsection (3A) of this section.

(7B) A notice under subsection (1) describing conduct or proposed conduct referred to in subsection 47(6) or (7) or paragraph 47(8)(c) or (9)(d) does not come into force:

(a) if the notice is withdrawn, or deemed to be withdrawn, before it would come into force under subsection (7A); or

(b) if the Commission:

(i) gives notice to the corporation under subsection 93A(2) during the period described in paragraph (7A)(a); and

(ii) gives notice to the corporation under subsection (3A).

(7C) A notice under subsection (1) describing conduct referred to in subsection 47(6) or (7) or paragraph 47(8)(c) or (9)(d) ceases to be in force:

(a) when the notice is withdrawn or deemed to be withdrawn; or

(b) if the Commission gives the corporation a notice under subsection (3A)—on the 31st day after the Commission gave the notice under subsection (3A) or on a later day specified in writing by the Commission.

(8) Where:

(a) a corporation gives a notice to the Commission under subsection (1) in relation to any conduct or proposed conduct;

(b) before or after the notice is given the corporation makes an application to the Commission for an authorization to engage in that conduct;

(c) the Commission:

(i) makes a determination dismissing the application; or

(ii) makes a determination granting an authorization in respect of the application; and

(d) the Tribunal makes a determination on an application for a review of the determination of the Commission or the time for making such an application for review expires without an application for review having been made; the notice shall thereupon be deemed to be withdrawn.

(9) If an application is made to the Tribunal for a review of the giving of a notice by the Commission under subsection (3) or (3A), a reference in subsection (7) or paragraph (7C)(b) to the day on which the Commission gave the notice shall be read as a reference to:

(a) if the application is withdrawn—the day on which the application is withdrawn;
(b) if the Tribunal, on the application of the Commission or of any other person who the Tribunal is satisfied has an interest in the subject matter of the review, declares that the application for the review is not being proceeded with by the applicant with due diligence—the day on which the Tribunal makes the declaration; or
(c) in any other case—the day on which the Tribunal makes a determination on the review.

(10) Where:

(a) a corporation has given a notice to the Commission under subsection (1) in relation to conduct or proposed conduct and the Commission has given notice to the corporation in writing under subsection (3) or (3A) in relation to the conduct or the proposed conduct; or
(b) a notice given by a corporation to the Commission under subsection (1) in relation to conduct or proposed conduct is withdrawn or deemed to be withdrawn;

the corporation is not entitled to give a further notice under subsection (1) to the Commission in relation to the same conduct or proposed conduct or in relation to conduct or proposed conduct to the like effect.

93A  Commission to afford opportunity for conference before giving notice in relation to exclusive dealing

(1) Before giving a notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A) in relation to any conduct or proposed conduct, the Commission shall prepare a draft notice in relation to that conduct or proposed conduct.

(2) The Commission shall, by notice in writing sent to the corporation to the conduct or proposed conduct of which the draft notice relates and to each other interested person, invite the corporation or other person to notify the Commission, within 14 days after a date fixed by the Commission being not earlier than the day on which the notice is sent, whether the corporation or other person wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft notice.

(3) The Commission shall send with each notice under subsection (2) a copy of the draft notice and a summary of the reasons why it proposes to give the notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A).

(4) If each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2):
   (a) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that the person does not wish the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft notice; or
the Commission must decide after the end of that period whether or not to give the notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A).

(5) If any of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) notifies the Commission in writing within the period of 14 days mentioned in that subsection that he or she wishes the Commission to hold a conference in relation to the draft notice, the Commission shall appoint a date (being not later than 30 days after the expiration of that period), time and place for the holding of the conference and give notice of the date, time and place so appointed to each of the persons to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2).

(6) At the conference:
   (a) the Commission shall be represented by a member or members of the Commission (being a member or members who participated in the preparation of the draft notice) nominated by the Chairperson; and
   (b) each person to whom a notice was sent under subsection (2) and any other interested person whose presence at the conference is considered by the Commission to be appropriate is entitled to attend and participate personally or, in the case of a body corporate, may be represented by a person who, or by persons each of whom, is a director, officer or employee of the body corporate; and
   (c) a person participating in the conference in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) is entitled to have another person or other persons present to assist him or her but a person who so assists another person at the conference is not entitled to participate in the discussion; and
(e) no other person is entitled to be present.

(7) A member of the Commission participating in the conference shall make such record of the discussions as is sufficient to set out the matters raised by the persons participating in the conference.

(8) The member of the Commission who represents the Commission at the conference, or, if the Commission is represented by more than one member of the Commission, one of those members appointed by the Chairperson:
(a) may exclude from the conference any person who uses insulting language at the conference, creates, or takes part in creating or continuing, a disturbance at the conference or repeatedly interrupts the conference;
(b) may terminate the conference when he or she is of the opinion that a reasonable opportunity has been given for the expression of the views of persons participating in the conference (other than persons excluded from the conference under paragraph (a)); and

and any such certificate shall be received in all courts as evidence of the matters certified.

(9) A document purporting to be a certificate referred to in subsection (8) shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be such a certificate and to have been duly given.

(10) The Commission must take account of all matters raised at the conference.

(10A) After the conference, the Commission must decide whether or not to give a notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A).

(11) For the purposes of this section, interested person means a person who has notified the Commission in writing that he or she, or a specified unincorporated association of which he or she is a member, claims to have an interest in the matter, being an interest that, in the opinion of the Commission, is real and substantial.

(12) Where the Commission is of the opinion that two or more notices given to the Commission under subsection 93(1) by the same person, or by persons being bodies corporate that are related to each other, deal with substantially similar conduct or proposed conduct, the Commission may treat the notices as if they constituted a single notice and may prepare one draft notice in relation to the notices so given to the Commission and hold one conference in relation to that draft notice.

95  Register of notifications

(1) The Commission shall keep a register containing:

(aa) notices relating to voluntary industry codes given to the Commission pursuant to regulations made under section 51AE (including notices that have been withdrawn pursuant to those regulations); and

(a) draft notices, and summaries of reasons, by the Commission furnished to any person under section 93A; and

(b) records of conferences made in accordance with subsection 93A(7) and certificates in relation to conferences given under subsection 93A(8); and

(c) notices (including notices that have been withdrawn) given to the Commission under section 93; and

(d) documents furnished to the Commission in relation to such notices; and

(e) particulars of any oral submissions made to the Commission in relation to such notices; and

(f) particulars of notices given by the Commission to corporations by which notices under section 93 were given; and

(g) particulars of any permits given by the Commission under subparagraph 93(7)(b)(i); and

(ga) details of the specification of any day by the Commission under paragraph 93(7C)(b); and

(h) records of proceedings at conferences held under section 65J or 65M; and
(j) particulars of recommendations made to the Minister by the Commission under section 65K or 65N.

(2) Where a person furnishes a document to the Commission:
   (a) in relation to a notice given to the Commission under section 93; or
   (b) in relation to a conference held under section 65J or 65M;
or makes an oral submission to the Commission in relation to the notice or the conference, he or she may, at the time when the document is furnished or the submission is made, request that the document or a part of the document, or that particulars of the submission or of part of the submission, be excluded from the register kept under subsection (1) by reason of the confidential nature of any of the matters contained in the document or submission.

(3) Where such a request is made:
   (a) if the document or part of the document, or the submission or part of the submission, to which the request relates contains particulars of:
      (i) a secret formula or process;
      (ii) the cash consideration offered for the acquisition of shares in the capital of a body corporate or of assets of a person; or
      (iii) the current costs of manufacturing, producing or marketing goods or services;
the Commission shall exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from the register kept under subsection (1); and
   (b) in any other case—the Commission may, if it is satisfied that it is desirable to do so by reason of the confidential nature of matters contained in the document or the part of the document, or in the submission or the part of the submission, exclude the document or the part of the document, or particulars of the submission or of the part of the submission, as the case may be, from that register.

(4) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude a document or a part of a document from the register kept under subsection (1), the Commission shall, if the person who furnished the document to the Commission so requires, return the document or part of the document to him or her and, in that case, paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to the document or part of the document.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply in relation to a document that was produced to the Minister or the Commission in pursuance of a notice under section 65Q or 155.

(6) If the Commission refuses a request to exclude particulars of an oral submission or of part of an oral submission from the register kept under subsection (1), the person who made the submission may inform the Commission that he or she withdraws the submission or that part of the submission and, in that case, paragraph (1)(e) does not apply in relation to the submission or that

95D  Crown to be bound

(1) This Part binds the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the States, of the Australian Capital Territory and of the Northern Territory.

(2) Nothing in this Part makes the Crown liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

(3) The protection in subsection (2) does not apply to an incorporated Commonwealth authority or an incorporated State or Territory authority.

95E  Object of this Part

The object of this Part is to have prices surveillance applied only in those markets where, in the view of the Minister, competitive pressures are not sufficient to achieve efficient prices and protect consumers.

95F  Simplified overview of this Part

(1) This Part deals with 3 main things.

Price inquiries

(2) First, it provides for the Commission or another body to hold price inquiries in relation to the supply of goods or services.

(3) These inquiries may relate to the supply of goods or services by a particular person. If so, the person’s ability to increase the prices of those goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.
Price notifications

(4) Second, this Part allows the Minister or the Commission to declare goods or services to be notified goods or services and to declare a person to be a declared person in relation to such goods or services.

(5) If this happens, the person’s ability to increase the prices of such goods or services during a particular period is restricted. However, there is a way for the person to increase prices during that period.

Price monitoring

(6) Third, this Part allows the Minister to direct the Commission to undertake price monitoring.

(7) This may be in relation to supplies of goods or services in a particular industry or in relation to supplies of goods or services by particular persons.
Division 2—Commission’s functions under this Part

95G Commission’s functions under this Part

(1) The Commission’s functions under this Part are set out in this section.

Price inquiries

(2) The Commission is to hold such inquiries as it is required to hold under section 95H.

(3) The Commission may, with the Minister’s approval under section 95H, hold such other inquiries as it thinks fit.

(4) The Commission is to give the Minister a report on the results of each inquiry it holds.

Price notifications

(5) The Commission is to consider locality notices and to take, in relation to such notices, such action in accordance with this Part as it considers appropriate.

Price monitoring

(6) The Commission is to monitor prices, costs and profits in any industry or business that the Minister directs it to monitor and is to give the Minister a report on the results of such monitoring.

General

(7) In exercising its powers and performing its functions under this Part, the Commission must, subject to any directions given under section 95ZH, have particular regard to the following:

(a) the need to maintain investment and employment, including the influence of profitability on investment and employment;

(b) the need to discourage a person who is in a position to substantially influence a market for goods or services from taking advantage of that power in setting prices;

(c) the need to discourage cost increases arising from increases in wages and changes in conditions of employment.

Defence

(4) Subsection (1), (2) or (3) does not apply if the following 4 requirements are satisfied.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (4) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

Locality notice

(5) The first requirement is that the person has given the Commission a notice (a locality notice) in writing stating that the person proposes to supply goods or services of that description in that locality on specified terms and conditions (the proposed terms) at a specified price (the proposed price).

Note: The person may give further notices modifying the locality notice: see section 95ZA.
Response to locality notice

(6) The second requirement is that:
   (a) the applicable period in relation to the locality notice has ended; or
   (b) the Commission has given the person a notice in writing stating that it has no objection to the person supplying goods or services of that description in that locality on the proposed terms at the proposed price; or
   (c) both of the following apply:
      (i) the Commission has given the person a notice (the response notice) in writing stating that it would have no objection to the person supplying goods or services of that description in that locality on the proposed terms at a specified price (the approved price) that is less than the proposed price;
      (ii) the person has, not later than 7 days after being given the response notice, given the Commission a notice in writing stating that the person proposes to supply goods or services of that description in that locality on the proposed terms at a price not exceeding the approved price.

Actual terms

95ZA Later notices modifying a locality notice

(1) If a person gives the Commission a locality notice, the person may give the Commission one or more further notices in writing stating that the locality notice is to have effect as if there were substituted for the proposed price another specified price.

(2) A price specified in a notice under subsection (1) must be:

Section 95ZB

(a) less than the proposed price; and
(b) less than the price specified in any previous notice under that subsection in relation to the locality notice.

(3) If a notice is given under subsection (1), the locality notice has effect accordingly.

(4) In this section:

proposed price has the meaning given by subsection 95Z(5).

95ZB Applicable period in relation to a locality notice

(1) The applicable period in relation to a locality notice is the period
(the price-freeze period) of 21 days starting on the day on which the notice was given.

(2) However, the Commission may, with the consent of the person who gave the locality notice, determine, before the end of the price-freeze period, that the applicable period in relation to the notice for the purposes of this section is a specified longer period.

(3) If the Commission so determines, that longer period is taken to become the applicable period in relation to the locality notice.

(4) Also, if the Commission has given a response notice, the period that is the applicable period (worked out under subsections (1) to (3)) in relation to the locality notice is taken to be increased by a period of 14 days.

Example: On 1 May the person gives the Commission a locality notice.
Under subsection (1), the applicable period ends on 21 May.

On 9 May the Commission, with the consent of the person, determines, under subsection (2), that the applicable period ends on 31 May.

If the Commission also gives the person a response notice, under subsection (4), the applicable period instead of ending on 31 May ends on 14 June.

(c) during the period of 6 months immediately before the time when the defendant so acted, the defendant became aware of a matter or circumstance capable of constituting a reason referred to in paragraph 96(3)(d) or (e) for the defendant’s so acting;

then, subject to subsection (2), it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is established, that that matter or circumstance was the reason for the defendant’s so acting.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the plaintiff establishes the matter mentioned in paragraph 98(1)(b) or (c) but the terms disadvantageous to the plaintiff, or the less favourable treatment of the plaintiff, consisted only of a requirement by the defendant as to the time at which, or the form in which, payment was to be made or as to the giving of security to secure payment.

(3) In the application of this section in proceedings by the Commission for an injunction, references to the plaintiff shall be construed as references to a person specified in the application for the injunction as the person in relation to whom the defendant is claimed to have acted as mentioned in paragraph (1)(a).
Part IX—Review by Tribunal of Determinations of Commission

Division 1—Applications for Review

101 Applications for review

(1) A person dissatisfied with a determination by the Commission:
   (a) in relation to an application for an authorization or a minor variation of an authorization; or
   (b) in relation to the revocation of an authorization, or the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;

may, as prescribed and within the time allowed by or under the regulations or under subsection (1B), as the case may be, apply to the Tribunal for a review of the determination.

(1AA) If:
   (a) the person applying under subsection (1) for review of a determination was the applicant for an authorization, or for the minor variation of an authorization, for the revocation of an authorization or for the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization; or
   (b) the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has a sufficient interest;

the Tribunal must review the determination.

(1A) Where a person has, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection, made an application under subsection (1) for a review of a determination, the Tribunal may, if the Tribunal determines it to be appropriate, make a determination by consent of the applicant, the Commission, and all persons who have been permitted under subsection 109(2) to intervene in the proceedings for review, whether or not the Tribunal is satisfied of the matters referred to in subsection 90(6), (7), (8) or (9).

(1B) A presidential member may, on the application of a person concerned:

Division 1  Applications for Review

Section 101A

(a) in an application for an authorization under subsection 88(9); or
(b) in an application for a minor variation or a revocation of such an authorization; or
(c) in an application for the revocation of such an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;
shorten the time allowed by or under the regulations within which an application under subsection (1) may be made for a review of the determination by the Commission of the application referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) if the member is satisfied that special circumstances exist and that, in all the circumstances, it would not be unfair to do so.

(2) A review by the Tribunal is a re-hearing of the matter and subsections 90(6), (7), (8) and (9), 91A(4), 91A(5), 91B(5) and 91C(7) apply in relation to the Tribunal in like manner as they apply in relation to the Commission.

101A  Application for review of notice under subsection 93(3) or (3A)

A person dissatisfied with the giving of a notice by the Commission under subsection 93(3) or (3A) may, as prescribed and within the time allowed by or under the regulations, apply to the Tribunal for a review of the giving of the notice and, if the person was the person to whom the notice was given or the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has a sufficient interest, the Tribunal shall review the giving of the notice.

102  Functions and powers of Tribunal

(1) On a review of a determination of the Commission in relation to:
(a) an application for an authorization; or
(b) an application for a minor variation of an authorization; or
(c) an application for, or the Commission’s proposal for, the revocation of an authorization; or
(d) an application for, or the Commission’s proposal for, the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;
the Tribunal may make a determination affirming, setting aside or varying the determination of the Commission and, for the purposes of the review, may perform all the functions and exercise all the powers of the Commission.

420  Trade Practices Act 1974
Section 102

(1A) If a person applies to the Tribunal for review of a determination of the Commission relating to:
(a) the grant of an authorisation under subsection 88(9); or
(b) the minor variation, or the revocation, of an authorization granted under that subsection; or
(c) the revocation of an authorization granted under that subsection and the substitution of another authorization;
the Tribunal must make its determination on the review within 60 days after receiving the application for review.

(1B) The 60 day time limit in subsection (1A) does not apply if the Tribunal considers that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period of 60 days, either because of its complexity or because of other special circumstances.

(1C) If subsection (1B) applies, the Tribunal must notify the applicant before the end of the 60 day period that the matter cannot be dealt with properly within that period.

(2) A determination by the Tribunal affirming, setting aside or varying a determination of the Commission in relation to:
(a) an application for an authorization; or
(b) an application for a minor variation of an authorization; or
(c) an application for, or the Commission’s proposal for, the revocation of an authorization; or
(d) an application for, or the Commission’s proposal for, the revocation of an authorization and the substitution of another authorization;
is, for the purposes of this Act other than this Part, to be taken to be a determination of the Commission.

(4) Upon a review of the giving of a notice by the Commission under subsection 93(3):
(a) if the person who applied for the review satisfies the Tribunal that in all the circumstances:
   (i) the conduct or proposed conduct to which the notice relates has resulted or is likely to result, or would result or be likely to result, as the case may be, in a benefit to the public; and
(ii) that benefit would outweigh the detriment to the public constituted by any lessening of competition that has resulted or is likely to result from the conduct or would result or be likely to result from the proposed conduct; the Tribunal shall make a determination setting aside the notice; or
(b) if the person who applied for the review does not so satisfy the Tribunal—the Tribunal shall make a determination affirming the notice.

(5) Where the Tribunal makes a determination setting aside a notice given by the Commission under subsection 93(3), then, after the setting aside of the notice, subsection 93(7) has effect in relation to the conduct referred to in the notice as if the Commission had not given the notice.

(5A) The Tribunal must set aside a notice under subsection 93(3A) if the person who applied for a review of the giving of the notice satisfies the Tribunal that the likely benefit to the public from the conduct or proposed conduct to which the notice relates will outweigh the likely detriment to the public from the conduct or proposed conduct.

(5B) The Tribunal must affirm the giving of a notice under subsection 93(3A) if the person who applied for a review of the giving of the notice does not satisfy the Tribunal as described in subsection (5A).

(5C) If the Tribunal sets aside a notice given by the Commission under subsection 93(3A), then:
(a) if the Commission gave the notice as part of a process starting when the Commission gave a notice under subsection 93A(2) during the period described in paragraph 93(7A)(a)— the Commission is taken for the purposes of paragraph 93(7A)(b) to have decided not to give the notice under subsection 93(3A) at the time the Tribunal set aside the notice given under subsection 93(3A); and (b) for the purposes of subsections 93(7B) and (7C) the notice is taken not to have been given.
(6) For the purposes of a review by the Tribunal, the member of the Tribunal presiding at the review may require the Commission to furnish such information, make such reports and provide such other assistance to the Tribunal as the member specifies.

(7) For the purposes of a review, the Tribunal may have regard to any information furnished, documents produced or evidence given to the Commission in connexion with the making of the determination, or the giving of the notice, to which the review relates.

(a) direct that a hearing or part of a hearing shall take place in private and give directions as to the persons who may be present; or

(b) give directions prohibiting or restricting the publication of evidence given before the Tribunal, whether in public or in private, or of matters contained in documents filed or lodged with the Registrar, received in evidence by the Tribunal or placed in the records of the Tribunal.

(3) The powers of the Tribunal under this section may be exercised by the Tribunal as constituted for the purposes of the hearing or by the Tribunal constituted by a presidential member.

107 Evidence in form of written statement

The Tribunal may permit a person appearing as a witness before the Tribunal to give evidence by tendering, and, if the Tribunal thinks fit, verifying by oath or affirmation, a written statement, which shall be filed with the Registrar.

108 Taking of evidence by single member

The Tribunal as constituted for the purposes of any proceedings in which evidence may be taken may authorize a presidential member to take evidence for the purposes of the proceedings on its behalf, with such limitations (if any) as the Tribunal so constituted directs, and, where such an authority is given:

(a) that member may take evidence accordingly; and
Section 109

(b) for the purposes of this Act, that member shall, in relation to the taking of evidence in accordance with the authority, be deemed to constitute the Tribunal.

109 Participants in proceedings before Tribunal
