Social Security (Administration) Act 1999

47 Section 12
Repeal the section, substitute:
12 Deemed claim in certain cases

(1) The Secretary may determine that, for the purposes of the social security law, a person is taken to have made a claim for an income support payment (the new payment), if:
   (a) the person became qualified for the new payment while receiving another income support payment; or
   (b) the person became qualified for the new payment immediately after ceasing to receive another income support payment.

(2) The person is taken to have made the claim for the new payment on the day specified in the Secretary’s determination. That day must not be earlier than:
   (a) the day that is 13 weeks before the day on which the Secretary’s determination is made; or
   (b) if the person became qualified for the new payment after the day referred to in paragraph (a)—the day on which the person became qualified for the new payment.

48 Application—amendment of section 12 of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999

(1) A determination (including a determination on review) made on or after 1 January 2008 under section 12 of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999 must be made under section 12 as amended, and cannot be made under section 12 as in force before 1 January 2008 (whether or not the determination would relate to a person who became qualified for a payment before that date).

(2) Subitem (1) does not apply in relation to a determination on review if a review of the decision (whether or not the review on which the determination was made) was:
   (a) initiated by the Secretary; or
   (b) applied for by a person;
before 1 January 2008.

(3) In this item:
   determination on review means a determination made on review of a decision in accordance with Part 4 of the Social Security (Administration) Act 1999.
