Table of Subdivisions

	Guide to Division 355
355-A	Objects and application of Division

355-1 What this Division is about

The disclosure of information about the tax affairs of a particular entity is prohibited, except in certain specified circumstances.

Those exceptions are designed having regard to the principle that disclosure of information should be permitted only if the public benefit derived from the disclosure outweighs the entity's privacy.

Note: This Division contains the main circumstances in which protected tax information can be disclosed. A number of other Commonwealth laws also allow for the disclosure of, or access to, such information in limited circumstances. Some of these other laws are as follows:

- sections 32 and 33 of the Auditor-General Act 1997;

- section 15 of the Inspector-General of Taxation Act 2003;
- section 9 of the Ombudsman Act 1976;
- section 44 of the Privacy Act 1988.

Subdivision 355-A—Objects and application of Division

Table of sections

355-10	Objects of Division
355-15	Application of Division

355-10 Objects of Division

The objects of this Division are:

- (a) to protect the confidentiality of taxpayers' affairs by imposing strict obligations on *taxation officers (and others who acquire protected tax information), and so encourage taxpayers to provide correct information to the Commissioner; and
- (b) to facilitate efficient and effective government administration and law enforcement by allowing disclosures of protected tax information for specific, appropriate purposes.

355-15 Application of Division

This Division applies in relation to the following entities in the same way as it applies in relation to *taxation officers:

- (a) an entity engaged to provide services relating to the Australian Taxation Office;
- (b) an individual employed by, or otherwise performing services for, an entity referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) an individual:
 - (i) appointed or employed by, or performing services for, the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth; and
 - (ii) performing functions or exercising powers under or for the purposes of a *taxation law.

Subdivision 355-B—Disclosure of protected information by taxation officers

355-20 What this Subdivision is about

- (1) An entity commits an offence if:
 - (a) the entity is or was a *taxation officer; and
 - (b) the entity:
 - (i) makes a record of information; or

- (ii) discloses information to another entity (other than the entity to whom the information relates or an entity covered by subsection (2)) or to a court or tribunal; and
- (c) the information is *protected information; and
- (d) the information was acquired by the first-mentioned entity as a taxation officer.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) An entity (the covered entity) is covered by this subsection in relation to *protected information that relates to another entity (the primary entity) if:
 - (a) the covered entity is the primary entity's *registered tax agent or BAS agent; or
 - (b) the covered entity is a *legal practitioner representing the primary entity in relation to the primary entity's *tax affairs; or
 - (c) the primary entity is an *incapacitated entity and the covered entity is a *representative of the incapacitated entity; or
 - (d) the covered entity is the primary entity's *legal personal representative; or
 - (e) the covered entity is the primary entity's guardian where the primary entity is a minor or suffers from mental incapacity; or
 - (f) the covered entity and the primary entity are members of the same *consolidated group or *MEC group; or
 - (g) the covered entity is a representative of the primary entity who has been nominated by the primary entity in the *approved form to act on that entity's behalf with respect to protected information.

355-30 Meaning of protected information and taxation officer

- (1) Protected information means information that:
 - (a) was disclosed or obtained under or for the purposes of a law that was a *taxation law (other than the Tax Agent Services Act 2009) when the information was disclosed or obtained; and
 - (b) relates to the affairs of an entity; and

- (c) identifies, or is reasonably capable of being used to identify, the entity.

Note: Tax file numbers do not constitute protected information because they are not, by themselves, reasonably capable of being used to identify an entity. For offences relating to tax file numbers, see Subdivision BA of Division 2 of Part III.

(2) Taxation officer means:

- (a) the Commissioner or a Second Commissioner of Taxation; or
(b) an individual appointed or engaged under the Public Service Act 1999 and performing duties in the Australian Taxation Office.

Note: This Division applies to certain other entities as if they were taxation officers: see section 355-15.

355-35 Consent is not a defence

It is not a defence to a prosecution for an offence against section 355-25 that the entity to whom the information relates has consented to:

- (a) the making of the record; or
(b) the disclosure of the information.

355-40 Generality of Subdivision not limited

Except as provided by section 355-60, nothing in this Subdivision limits the generality of anything else in it.

Note: This means that each provision in this Subdivision (other than section 355-60) has an independent operation and is not to be interpreted by reference to any other provision within the Subdivision.

355-45 Exception—disclosure of publicly available information

Section 355-25 does not apply if the information was already available to the public (otherwise than as a result of a contravention of section 355-25, 355-155 or 355-265).

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this section: see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

355-50 Exception—disclosure in performing duties

- (1) Section 355-25 does not apply if:

Note 2: Section 19A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provides that the expression “the Minister”, as used in table items 2 and 3, refers to the Minister or Ministers administering the relevant provision.

- (2) The *taxation officer is entitled to rely on the exception in subsection (1) even if the agreement referred to in paragraph (1)(c) has not been obtained in relation to the record or disclosure.

355-60 Limits on disclosure to Ministers

- (1) Sections 355-45 and 355-55 are the only exceptions to the prohibition in section 355-25 on which an entity who has acquired *protected information as a *taxation officer can rely in making a record of the information for, or disclosing the information to, a Minister, whether or not provided to a Minister in the course of, or for the purposes of or incidental to, the transacting of the business of a House of the Parliament or of a committee of one or both Houses of the Parliament.

Note: Disclosures that are not prohibited by section 355-25 are not affected by this subsection. For example, a taxation officer may disclose information to a Minister if the Minister is the entity to whom the information relates, or is an entity covered by subsection 355-25(2) in relation to the information.

- (2) Subsection (1) has effect despite section 16 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987, and that section does not operate to the extent that it would otherwise apply to a disclosure of *protected information by a *taxation officer to a Minister.

Note: This subsection does not limit the operation of section 16 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987 in any other respect. That section continues to operate, for example, to enable taxation officers to disclose protected information to a committee of one or both Houses of the Parliament.

355-65 Exception—disclosure for other government purposes

- (1) Section 355-25 does not apply if:
- (a) the entity is a *taxation officer; and
 - (b) an item in a table in this section covers the making of the record or the disclosure.

Example: The Australian Taxation Office obtains information about an entity from a credit reporting agency by giving a notice under section 264 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936. The agency is not committing an offence under section 355-155 by making a record of the disclosure in the entity's credit information file, as required by subsection 18K(5) of the Privacy Act 1988.

Note: Disclosures that are not prohibited by section 355-155 are not affected by this subsection. For example, an entity may disclose information to a Minister if the Minister is the entity to whom the information relates, or is another entity's agent in relation to the information.

- (2) Subsection (1) has effect despite section 16 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987, and that section does not operate to the extent that it would otherwise apply to a disclosure of *protected information by the entity to a Minister.

Note: This subsection does not limit the operation of section 16 of the Parliamentary Privileges Act 1987 in any other respect. That section continues to operate, for example, to enable an entity to disclose protected information to a committee of one or both Houses of the Parliament.
