(2) TEQSA must make a decision on the application:
   (a) within 12 months of receiving it; or
   (b) if a longer period is determined by TEQSA under subsection (3)—within that period.

For the purposes of paragraph (a), TEQSA is taken to receive the application when it receives payment of the substantive assessment application fee.

Longer period for decision on application

(3) If TEQSA is satisfied that, for reasons beyond its control, a decision on the application cannot be made within the period mentioned in paragraph (2)(a), TEQSA may determine a longer period, not exceeding a further 12 months, within which it must make a decision on the application.

(4) If TEQSA determines a longer period, it must do so not later than 6 weeks before the end of the period mentioned in paragraph (2)(a).

(5) If TEQSA determines a longer period, TEQSA must, within 7 days of making the determination:
   (a) notify the applicant, in writing, of the determination; and
   (b) give, in writing, the reasons for the determination.

Period of accreditation

(6) If TEQSA accredits a course of study in relation to a registered higher education provider, TEQSA must also determine the period...

for which the course of study is accredited. The period must not exceed 7 years, but need not be for the same period for which the provider is registered.

Note 1: The period will end automatically if the provider ceases to be registered as a registered higher education provider (see paragraph 51(2)(a)).

Note 2: Accreditation can be renewed (see section 56).

Note 3: TEQSA may also impose conditions on the accreditation (see subsection 53(1)).

Decision not made

(7) TEQSA is taken to have rejected the application if a decision is not made within the period applicable under subsection (2).

50 TEQSA to notify provider of decision about accreditation

TEQSA must, within 30 days of its decision to grant or reject an application for a course of study to be accredited, notify the applicant, in writing, of:

(a) the decision; and

(b) if TEQSA grants the application—the period for which the course of study is accredited; and

(c) if TEQSA rejects the application—the reasons for the decision.

Note: TEQSA must also notify of any conditions imposed under subsection 53(1) on the accreditation (see section 54).

51 Commencement and duration of accreditation

(1) Accreditation of a course of study:

(a) commences on the first day of the period specified in the notice given under section 50; and

(b) ends at the end of the period specified in the most recent notice given under section 50 or 57 in relation to the accreditation.

(2) Paragraph (1)(b) has effect subject to the following:

(a) the accreditation ends immediately if the provider ceases to be registered as a registered higher education provider;

2. (c) Division 1 of Part 7 (about cancelling accreditation and other administrative sanctions).
Division 3—Conditions of accreditation

52 Complying with conditions

A registered higher education provider must comply with any conditions imposed under subsection 53(1) on the accreditation of a course of study.

53 Conditions

(1) TEQSA may impose conditions on the accreditation of a course of study.

(2) TEQSA may, on its own initiative, vary or revoke a condition imposed under subsection (1).

(3) TEQSA may also vary or revoke a condition imposed under subsection (1) if the registered higher education provider applies for the variation or revocation.

(4) The provider’s application must be:
   (a) in the approved form; and
   (b) accompanied by any information, documents and assistance that TEQSA requests; and
   (c) accompanied by the fee determined under section 158 for an application under this section.

54 TEQSA to notify provider of decision to impose, vary or revoke a condition

TEQSA must, within 30 days of making a decision under subsection 53(1), (2) or (3), notify the registered higher education provider, in writing, of:
   (a) the decision; and
   (b) the reasons for the decision; and
   (c) if the decision is to impose a condition—the period for which the condition is imposed.
Part 4  Accreditation of courses of study
Division 4  Renewing accreditation

Section 55

Division 4—Renewing accreditation

55 Applying to renew accreditation

(1) A registered higher education provider may apply to TEQSA, in the approved form, for the renewal of the accreditation of a course of study in relation to the provider:
   (a) at least 180 days before the accreditation of the course of study is to end; or
   (b) within such shorter period as TEQSA allows.

(2) An application must be accompanied by the fee determined under section 158 for an application under this section.

56 Renewing accreditation

Deciding whether to grant the application

(1) Upon receiving an application for renewal of the accreditation of a course of study, TEQSA may renew the accreditation of the course of study in relation to the registered higher education provider if it is satisfied that the accredited course continues to meet the Provider Course Accreditation Standards.

(2) The things TEQSA may do to assist it to make a decision under subsection (1) include:
   (a) requesting information, documents or assistance from the provider; and
   (b) conducting an accreditation assessment.

(3) The accreditation of the course of study is taken to continue until TEQSA decides whether to renew the accreditation.

(4) If TEQSA renews the accreditation, TEQSA must determine the period for which the accreditation is renewed. The period must not exceed 7 years.

Note 1:  The period will end automatically if the provider ceases to be registered as a registered higher education provider (see paragraph 51(2)(a)).
Note 2: Any conditions imposed on the accreditation, and in force immediately before its renewal, will apply to the renewed accreditation.

Proposal to reject the application

(5) If TEQSA proposes to make a decision to reject the provider’s application for renewal of the accreditation, TEQSA must give the provider:
   (a) a written notice stating that TEQSA intends to make the decision for specified reasons; and
   (b) a reasonable opportunity to make representations to TEQSA in relation to the proposed decision.

(6) TEQSA must consider any representations received under subsection (5).

57 TEQSA to notify provider of decision about renewal

TEQSA must, within 30 days of its decision to grant or reject an application for renewal of accreditation, notify the registered higher education provider, in writing, of:
   (a) the decision; and
   (b) if TEQSA grants the application—the period for which the accreditation is renewed; and
   (c) if TEQSA rejects the application—the reasons for the decision.

Making the Research Standards

(2) The Research Minister may, by legislative instrument, make the Research Standards.

Note: For varying or revoking the Research Standards, see subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Part 5  Higher Education Standards Framework
Division 2  Compliance with the Framework

Section 59

Division 2—Compliance with the Framework

59 Compliance assessments

TEQSA may review or examine any aspect of an entity’s operations to assess whether a registered higher education provider continues to meet the Threshold Standards.

Note: This enables TEQSA to review the operations of an entity that provides part of a course of study that leads to a regulated higher education award offered or conferred by the registered higher education provider.

60 Quality (including thematic) assessments

TEQSA may review or examine any aspect of an entity’s operations to:

(a) assess the level of quality of higher education provided by one or more registered higher education providers; or
(b) assess whether there are any systemic issues relating to a particular course of study leading to a particular regulated higher education award; or
(c) assess the level of quality of, or whether there are any systemic issues relating to, the courses of study that lead to one or more kinds of regulated higher education awards.

61 Accreditation assessments

TEQSA may review or examine an accredited course to assess whether the course continues to meet the Provider Course Accreditation Standards.

62 Matters relevant to assessments

Consent

(1) Sections 59, 60 and 61 have effect subject to subsection (2).

(2) TEQSA must obtain an entity’s consent before:

(a) entering the entity’s premises; or
(b) doing anything on those premises;
Section 62

for the purposes of a review or examination under this Division.

(3) However, subsection (2) has effect subject to section 24 (about a registered provider having to comply with conditions).

Note 1: When deciding whether to give the consent mentioned in subsection (2), a registered higher education provider needs to have regard to the condition that it cooperate with TEQSA (see section 31).

Note 2: A condition could be imposed under subsection 32(1) for the provider to arrange for another entity’s consent to be given.

Operations that can be reviewed or examined

(4) The operations covered by sections 59 and 60 are not limited to the entity’s higher education operations.
Part 6—Investigative powers

Division 1—Requiring people to give information etc.

63 Requiring person connected with a regulated entity to give information etc.

(1) This section applies to a person if TEQSA believes on reasonable grounds that:
   (a) the person is, or was, connected with:
      (i) a regulated entity; or
      (ii) a former regulated entity; and
   (b) the person is capable of giving or producing information, a document or a thing relevant to TEQSA’s function in paragraph 134(1)(c) (about investigating compliance with this Act).

(2) TEQSA may, by written notice given to the person, require the person:
   (a) to give TEQSA the information; or
   (b) to produce to TEQSA the document or thing; or
   (c) to make copies of the document and to produce to TEQSA those copies;
   within the period and in the manner specified in the notice.

(3) The notice must:
   (a) not specify a period shorter than 14 days after the notice is given, unless TEQSA reasonably considers that a shorter period is necessary that is at least 24 hours after the notice is given; and
   (b) set out the effect of section 64.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to:
   (a) a lawyer who is acting, or has acted, for the regulated entity or former regulated entity; or
   (b) national security information (within the meaning of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004); or
Section 64

(c) documents or things relating to national security (within the meaning of the National Security Information (Criminal and Civil Proceedings) Act 2004).

64 Contravening requirement to give information etc.

A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person has been given a notice under subsection 63(2); and
(b) the person fails to comply with a requirement in the notice.

Penalty: 30 penalty units.

65 Copying documents—compensation

A person is entitled to be paid by TEQSA, on behalf of the Commonwealth, reasonable compensation for complying with a requirement covered by paragraph 63(2)(c).

66 TEQSA may retain documents and things

TEQSA may retain documents and things etc.

(1) If a document (including a copy of a document), or a thing, is produced to TEQSA under section 63, TEQSA:
(a) may take possession of, and may make copies of, the document or thing; and
(b) may retain possession of the document or thing for such period as is necessary:
   (i) for the purposes of this Act; or
   (ii) for the purposes of an investigation to which the document or thing relates; or
   (iii) to enable evidence to be secured for the purposes of a prosecution or civil penalty proceeding.

Access and certified copy to be provided

(2) Subsections (3) to (5) apply to a document produced under paragraph 63(2)(b).
Part 6 Investigative powers

Division 1 Requiring people to give information etc.

Section 67

(3) The person otherwise entitled to possession of the document is entitled to be supplied, as soon as practicable, with a copy certified by TEQSA to be a true copy.

(4) The certified copy must be received in all courts and tribunals as evidence as if it were the original.

(5) Until a certified copy is supplied, TEQSA must, at such times and places as TEQSA thinks appropriate, permit the person otherwise entitled to possession of the document, or a person authorised by that person, to inspect and make copies of, or take extracts from, the document.

67 Returning documents or things produced

(1) If:
   (a) a document (other than a copy of a document), or thing, is produced to TEQSA under section 63; and
   (b) TEQSA can no longer retain it under paragraph 66(1)(b); TEQSA must take reasonable steps to return it, unless the document or thing is forfeited or forfeitable to the Commonwealth or is the subject of a dispute as to ownership.

(2) The document or thing must be returned to the person who produced it (or to the owner if that person is not entitled to possess it).

68 Disposal if cannot be returned

(1) TEQSA may dispose of a document or thing in such manner as it considers appropriate if:
   (a) the document or thing is produced to TEQSA under section 63; and
   (b) under section 67, TEQSA is required to take reasonable steps to return the document or thing to a person; and
   (c) either:
      (i) TEQSA cannot, despite making reasonable efforts, locate the person; or
      (ii) the person has refused to take possession of the document or thing.
(2) If the operation of this section would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(3) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

69 Self-incrimination

(1) A person is not excused from:
   (a) giving information; or
   (b) producing a document (including a copy of a document) or thing;
   under section 63 on the ground that doing so might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.

(2) However, in the case of an individual, none of the following:
   (a) the information given;
   (b) the document, copy or thing produced;
   (c) the giving of the information or the producing of the document, copy or thing;

obstruction of Commonwealth public officials) that relates to this Act.
Division 2—Searches of premises

Section 70

70 Authorised officer may enter premises by consent or under a warrant

(1) For the purposes of finding out whether this Act or this Act’s associated provisions have been or are being complied with, an authorised officer may:
   (a) enter any premises; and
   (b) exercise the monitoring powers set out in section 71.

(2) If an authorised officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting that there may be evidential material on any premises, the authorised officer may:
   (a) enter the premises; and
   (b) exercise the enforcement powers set out in section 72.

(3) However, an authorised officer is not authorised to enter premises under this section unless:
   (a) the occupier of the premises has consented to the entry and the authorised officer has shown his or her identity card if required by the occupier; or
   (b) the entry is made under a warrant.

Note: If entry to the premises is with the occupier’s consent, the authorised officer must leave the premises if the consent ceases to have effect: see section 77.

71 Monitoring powers of authorised officers

(1) The following are the monitoring powers that an authorised officer may exercise under section 70 in relation to premises:
   (a) the power to search the premises and any thing on the premises;
   (b) the power to examine any activity conducted on the premises;
   (c) the power to inspect, examine, take measurements of or conduct tests on any thing on the premises;
   (d) the power to make any still or moving image or any recording of the premises or any thing on the premises;
   (e) the power to inspect any document on the premises;

Section 71

(f) the power to take extracts from, or make copies of, any such document;
(g) the power to take onto the premises such equipment and materials as the authorised officer requires for the purposes of exercising powers in relation to the premises;
(h) the powers set out in subsections (2), (3) and (5).

Operating electronic equipment

(2) The monitoring powers include the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to see whether:
(a) the equipment; or
(b) a disk, tape or other storage device that:
   (i) is on the premises; and
   (ii) can be used with the equipment or is associated with it; contains information that is relevant to determining whether there has been compliance with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions.

(3) The monitoring powers include the following powers in relation to information described in subsection (2) found in the exercise of the power under that subsection:
(a) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to put the information in documentary form and remove the documents so produced from the premises;
(b) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to transfer the information to a disk, tape or other storage device that:
   (i) is brought to the premises for the exercise of the power;

carried out without damage to the equipment.

Securing things if entry to premises is under a monitoring warrant

(5) If entry to the premises is under a monitoring warrant, the monitoring powers include the power to secure a thing for a period not exceeding 24 hours if:
   (a) the thing is found during the exercise of monitoring powers on the premises; and
   (b) an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that the thing affords evidence of either or both of the following:
      (i) the commission of an offence against this Act or this Act’s associated provisions;
      (ii) the contravention of a civil penalty provision; and
   (c) the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that:
      (i) it is necessary to secure the thing in order to prevent it from being concealed, lost or destroyed before a warrant to seize the thing is obtained; and
      (ii) the circumstances are serious and urgent.

(6) If an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that the thing needs to be secured for more than 24 hours, he or she may apply to a magistrate for an extension of that period.

(7) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to apply for an extension. The occupier or other person is entitled to be heard in relation to that application.

(8) The provisions of this Part relating to the issue of monitoring warrants apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to the issue of an extension.

(9) The 24-hour period may be extended more than once.
72 Enforcement powers of authorised officers

(1) The following are the enforcement powers that an authorised officer may exercise under section 70 in relation to premises:

(a) if entry to the premises is with the occupier’s consent—the power to search the premises and any thing on the premises for the evidential material the authorised officer has reasonable grounds for suspecting may be on the premises;

(b) if entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant:

(i) the power to search the premises and any thing on the premises for the kind of evidential material specified in the warrant; and

(ii) the power to seize evidential material of that kind if the authorised officer finds it on the premises;

(c) the power to inspect, examine, take measurements of, conduct tests on or take samples of evidential material referred to in paragraph (a) or (b);

(d) the power to make any still or moving image or any recording of the premises or evidential material referred to in paragraph (a) or (b);

(e) the power to take onto the premises such equipment and materials as the authorised officer requires for the purposes of exercising powers in relation to the premises;

(f) the powers set out in subsections (2), (3) and (6).

Powers relating to electronic equipment

(2) The enforcement powers include the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to see whether:

(a) the equipment; or

(b) a disk, tape or other storage device that:

(i) is on the premises; and

(ii) can be used with the equipment or is associated with it; contains evidential material referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b).

(3) The enforcement powers include the following powers in relation to evidential material described in subsection (2) found in the exercise of the power under that subsection:
Part 6  Investigative powers
Division 2  Searches of premises

Section 72

(a) if entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant—the power to seize the equipment and the disk, tape or other storage device referred to in that subsection;

(b) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to put the evidential material in documentary form and remove the documents so produced from the premises;

(c) the power to operate electronic equipment on the premises to transfer the evidential material to a disk, tape or other storage device that:

(i) is brought to the premises for the exercise of the power;

or

(ii) is on the premises and the use of which for that purpose has been agreed in writing by the occupier of the premises;

and remove the disk, tape or other storage device from the premises.

(4) An authorised officer may operate electronic equipment as mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) only if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that the operation of the equipment can be carried out without damage to the equipment.

(5) An authorised officer may seize equipment or a disk, tape or other storage device as mentioned in paragraph (3)(a) only if:

(a) it is not practicable to put the evidential material in documentary form as mentioned in paragraph (3)(b) or to transfer the evidential material as mentioned in paragraph (3)(c); or

(b) possession of the equipment or the disk, tape or other storage device by the occupier could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

Seizing other evidential material

(6) If:

(a) entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant; and

(b) the authorised officer, in the course of searching for the kind of evidential material specified in the warrant, finds a thing that the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds to be other evidential material; and
(c) the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to seize the thing in order to prevent its concealment, loss or destruction;
then the enforcement powers include seizing the thing.

73 Persons assisting authorised officers

Authorised officers may be assisted by other persons

(1) An authorised officer may, in entering premises under section 70 and in exercising monitoring powers or enforcement powers in relation to the premises, be assisted by other persons if that assistance is necessary and reasonable. A person giving such assistance is a person assisting the authorised officer.

Powers of a person assisting the authorised officer

(2) A person assisting the authorised officer may:
   (a) enter the premises; and
   (b) exercise monitoring powers or enforcement powers in relation to the premises, but only in accordance with a direction given to the person by the authorised officer.

(3) A power exercised by a person assisting the authorised officer as mentioned in subsection (2) is taken for all purposes to have been exercised by the authorised officer.

(4) If a direction is given under paragraph (2)(b) in writing, the direction is not a legislative instrument.

74 Use of force in executing a warrant

In executing a warrant, an authorised officer executing the warrant, and a person assisting the authorised officer, may use such force against things as is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.

Note: This section does not authorise the use of force against people.

(a) answer any questions relating to:
   (i) the operation of this Act; or
   (ii) information provided under this Act; or
   (iii) the reasons for the authorised officer entering the premises;
   that are put by the authorised officer; and
(b) produce any document relating to:
   (i) the operation of this Act; or
   (ii) information provided under this Act; or
   (iii) the reasons for the authorised officer entering the premises;
   that is requested by the authorised officer.

Entry under a warrant

(2) If an authorised officer is authorised to enter premises by a warrant, the authorised officer may require any person on the premises to:

(a) answer any questions relating to:

(b) produce any document relating to:
   (i) the operation of this Act; or
   (ii) information provided under this Act; or
   (iii) the reasons for the authorised officer entering the premises;
that is requested by the authorised officer.

(3) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person is subject to a requirement under subsection (2); and

(b) the person fails to comply with the requirement.

Penalty for contravention of this subsection: 30 penalty units.

76 Self-incrimination

(1) A person is not excused from:

(a) answering a question; or

(b) producing a document;

under subsection 75(2) on the ground that doing so might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.

(2) However, in the case of an individual, none of the following:

(a) the answer given or document produced;

(b) answering the question or producing the document;

(c) any information or document obtained as a direct or indirect consequence of answering the question or producing the document;

is admissible in evidence against the individual:

(d) in civil proceedings for the recovery of a penalty; or

(e) in criminal proceedings, other than proceedings for an offence against:

(i) subsection 75(3); or

(ii) section 137.1 or 137.2 of the Criminal Code (which deals with false or misleading information or documents) that relates to this Act; or

(iii) section 149.1 of the Criminal Code (which deals with obstruction of Commonwealth public officials) that relates to this Act.
Division 3—Obligations and incidental powers of authorised officers

77 Consent

(1) An authorised officer must, before obtaining the consent of an occupier of premises for the purposes of paragraph 70(3)(a), inform the occupier that the occupier may refuse consent.

(2) A consent has no effect unless the consent is voluntary.

(3) A consent may be expressed to be limited to entry during a particular period. If so, the consent has effect for that period unless the consent is withdrawn before the end of that period.

(4) A consent that is not limited as mentioned in subsection (3) has effect until the consent is withdrawn.

(5) If an authorised officer entered premises because of the consent of the occupier of the premises, the authorised officer, and any person assisting the authorised officer, must leave the premises if the consent ceases to have effect.

78 Announcement before entry under warrant

(1) An authorised officer must, before entering premises under a warrant:

(a) announce that he or she is authorised to enter the premises;

and

(b) show his or her identity card to the occupier of the premises, or to another person who apparently represents the occupier, if the occupier or other person is present at the premises; and

(c) give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.

(2) However, an authorised officer is not required to comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(3) If:

Monitoring warrant

(1) If a monitoring warrant is being executed in relation to premises, an authorised officer executing the warrant must be in possession of the warrant or a copy of the warrant.

(a) the warrant issued by the magistrate under section 91, or a copy of the warrant as so issued; or

(b) the form of warrant completed under subsection 92(6), or a copy of the form as so completed.

80 Details of warrant etc. to be given to occupier

If:

(a) a warrant is being executed in relation to premises; and

(b) the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises; an authorised officer executing the warrant must, as soon as practicable:

(c) do one of the following:

(i) if the warrant was issued under section 90 or 91—make a copy of the warrant available to the occupier or other person (which need not include the signature of the magistrate who issued it);
81 Expert assistance to operate electronic equipment

(1) This section applies to premises to which a warrant relates.

Monitoring powers

(2) If entry to the premises is under a monitoring warrant and an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that:

(a) there is on the premises information:

(i) that is relevant to determining whether there has been compliance with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions; and

(ii) that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and

(b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and

(c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the information may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;

he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment, whether by locking it up, placing a guard or other means.

Enforcement powers

(3) If entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant and an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that:

(a) there is on the premises evidential material of the kind specified in the warrant that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and

(b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and

(c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the evidential material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;
he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment,
whether by locking it up, placing a guard, or otherwise.

Notice to occupier

(4) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to secure the equipment under subsection (2) or (3) and of the fact that the equipment may be secured for up to 24 hours.

Period equipment may be secured

(5) The equipment may be secured:
   (a) until the 24-hour period ends; or
   (b) until the equipment has been operated by the expert;
whichever happens first.

Extensions

(6) If an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that the equipment needs to be secured for more than 24 hours, he or she may apply to a magistrate for an extension of that period.

(7) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to apply for an extension. The occupier or other person is entitled to be heard in relation to that application.

(8) The provisions of this Part relating to the issue of monitoring warrants or enforcement warrants apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to the issue of an extension.

(9) The 24-hour period may be extended more than once.

82 Compensation for damage to electronic equipment

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) as a result of electronic equipment being operated as mentioned in this Part:
Part 6 Investigative powers
Division 3 Obligations and incidental powers of authorised officers

Section 82

(i) damage is caused to the equipment; or
(ii) the data recorded on the equipment is damaged; or
(iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
(b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
   (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
   (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.

(2) The Commonwealth must pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, such reasonable compensation for the damage or corruption as the Commonwealth and the owner or user agree on.

(3) However, if the owner or user and the Commonwealth fail to agree, the owner or user may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for such reasonable amount of compensation as the Court determines.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises, or the occupier’s employees and agents, if they were available at the time, provided any appropriate warning or guidance on the operation of the equipment.

(5) For the purposes of this section:

damage, in relation to data, includes damage by erasure of data or addition of other data.
Division 4—Occupier’s rights and responsibilities

83 Occupier entitled to observe execution of warrant

(1) If:
(a) a warrant is being executed in relation to premises; and
(b) the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises;
the occupier or other person is entitled to observe the execution of the warrant.

(2) The right to observe the execution of the warrant ceases if the occupier or other person impedes that execution.

(3) This section does not prevent the execution of the warrant in 2 or more areas of the premises at the same time.

84 Occupier to provide authorised officer with facilities and assistance

(1) The occupier of premises to which a warrant relates, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, must provide:
(a) an authorised officer executing the warrant; and
(b) any person assisting the authorised officer; with all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of their powers.

(2) A person commits an offence if:
(a) the person is subject to subsection (1); and
(b) the person fails to comply with that subsection.

Penalty for contravention of this subsection: 30 penalty units.
85 Copies of seized things to be provided

(1) If an enforcement warrant is being executed and an authorised officer seizes:

   (a) a document, film, computer file or other thing that can be readily copied; or
   (b) a storage device, the information in which can be readily copied;

   the authorised officer must, if requested to do so by the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier and who is present when the warrant is executed, give a copy of the thing or the information to the occupier or other person as soon as practicable after the seizure.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if possession of the document, film, computer file, thing or information by the occupier or other person could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

86 Receipts for things seized

(1) If a thing is seized under this Part, an authorised officer must provide a receipt for the thing.

(2) If 2 or more things are seized, they may be covered in the one receipt.

87 Return of seized things

(1) Subject to any contrary order of a court, if an authorised officer seizes a thing under this Part, an authorised officer must take reasonable steps to return it if:

   (a) the reason for its seizure no longer exists or it is decided that it is not to be used in evidence; or
   (b) the period of 60 days after its seizure ends;
whichever happens first, unless the thing is forfeited or forfeitable to the Commonwealth or is the subject of a dispute as to ownership.

(2) If, apart from this subsection, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return a thing under subsection (1) because of paragraph (1)(b), the authorised officer is not required to do so if:

(a) proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence were instituted before the end of the 60 days and have not been completed (including an appeal to a court in relation to those proceedings); or
(b) the thing may continue to be retained because of an order under section 88; or
(c) the Commonwealth, a Commissioner or an authorised officer is otherwise authorised (by a law, or an order of a court, of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory) to retain, destroy, dispose of or otherwise deal with the thing.

(3) A thing that is required to be returned under this section must be returned to the person from whom it was seized (or to the owner if that person is not entitled to possess it).

88 Magistrate may permit a thing to be retained

(1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate for an order permitting the retention of the thing for a further period if:

(a) before the end of 60 days after the seizure; or
(b) before the end of a period previously specified in an order of a magistrate under this section;
proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence have not commenced.

(2) If the magistrate is satisfied that it is necessary for the thing to continue to be retained:

(a) for the purpose of either or both of the following:
    (i) an investigation as to whether an offence against this Act or this Act’s associated provisions has been committed;
Part 6 Investigative powers
Division 5 General provisions relating to seizure

Section 89

(ii) an investigation as to whether there has been a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(b) to enable either or both of the following:
   (i) evidence of an offence mentioned in subparagraph (a)(i)
to be secured for the purposes of a prosecution;
   (ii) evidence of a contravention of a civil penalty provision to be secured for the purposes of civil penalty proceedings;

the magistrate may order that the thing may continue to be retained for a period specified in the order (which must not exceed 3 years).

(3) Before making the application, the authorised officer must:
   (a) take reasonable steps to discover who has an interest in the retention of the thing; and
   (b) if it is practicable to do so, notify each person whom the authorised officer believes to have such an interest of the proposed application.

89 Disposal if cannot be returned

(1) TEQSA may dispose of a thing in such manner as it considers appropriate if:
   (a) the thing is seized under this Part; and
   (b) apart from this section, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return the thing to a person; and
   (c) either:
       (i) the authorised officer cannot, despite making reasonable efforts, locate the person; or
       (ii) the person has refused to take possession of the thing.

(2) If the operation of this section would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(3) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

Issue of warrant

(2) The magistrate may issue the warrant if the magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath or affirmation, that it is reasonably necessary that one or more authorised officers should have access to the premises for the purpose of determining whether this Act or this Act’s associated provisions have been, or are being, complied with.

(3) However, the magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the authorised officer or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

Content of warrant

(4) The warrant must:

(a) describe the premises to which the warrant relates; and

(b) state that the warrant is issued under this section; and

(c) state that the warrant is issued for the purpose of determining whether this Act or this Act’s associated provisions have been, or are being, complied with; and

(d) authorise one or more authorised officers (whether or not named in the warrant) from time to time while the warrant remains in force:

Application for warrant

(1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate for a warrant under this section in relation to premises.

Issue of warrant

(3) However, the magistrate must not issue the warrant unless the authorised officer or some other person has given to the magistrate, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

92 Enforcement warrants by telephone, fax etc.

Application for warrant

(1) An authorised officer may apply to a magistrate by telephone, fax or other electronic means for a warrant under section 91 in relation to premises:
(a) in an urgent case; or
(b) if the authorised officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the delay that would occur if an application were made in person would frustrate the effective execution of the warrant.

Voice communication

(2) The magistrate may require communication by voice to the extent that it is practicable in the circumstances.

Information

(3) Before applying for the warrant, the authorised officer must prepare an information of the kind mentioned in subsection 91(2) in relation to the premises that sets out the grounds on which the warrant is sought. If it is necessary to do so, the authorised officer may apply for the warrant before the information is sworn or affirmed.

Signing of warrant

(4) If the magistrate is satisfied:
(a) after considering the terms of the information; and
(b) after receiving such further information (if any) as the magistrate requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought;
that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant, the magistrate may complete and sign the same warrant that the magistrate would issue under section 91 if the application had been made under that section.
Notification

(5) If the magistrate completes and signs the warrant, the magistrate must inform the authorised officer, by telephone, fax or other electronic means, of:
   (a) the terms of the warrant; and
   (b) the day, and the time, the warrant was signed.

Form of warrant

(6) The authorised officer must then complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the magistrate, stating on the form:

   (b) the day, and the time, the warrant was signed.

Completed form of warrant to be given to magistrate

Attachment

of the power is not produced in evidence;
the court must assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the exercise of the power was not authorised by such a warrant.

93 Offence relating to warrants by telephone, fax etc.

An authorised officer commits an offence if:
(a) the authorised officer states, in a document that purports to be a form of warrant under section 92, the name of a magistrate, unless that magistrate signed the warrant; or
(b) the authorised officer states on a form of warrant under that section a matter that, to the authorised officer’s knowledge, departs in a material particular from the terms of the warrant signed by the magistrate under that section; or
(c) the authorised officer purports to execute, or present to another person, a document that purports to be a form of

Division 2 Offences and civil penalty provisions

Section 104

Division 2—Offences and civil penalty provisions

Subdivision A—Offences and civil penalty provisions

104 Guide to offences and civil penalty provisions

The following is a guide to this Subdivision:

- The offences in this Subdivision need to be read with other Acts, including the Criminal Code and the Crimes Act 1914. For example, the Criminal Code:

  - sets out defences such as mistake of fact; and
  - extends the reach of the offences to, for example, a person who aids or abets the commission of an offence by a provider.

- The civil penalty provisions in this Subdivision need to be read with Subdivisions B and C. For example:
  - section 120 provides for a defence of mistake of fact; and
  - section 116 extends the reach of each civil penalty provision to, for example, a person knowingly concerned in a provider’s contravention of the civil penalty provision.

Part 7 Enforcement

Division 2 Offences and civil penalty provisions

Section 113

(b) the course of study leads to a regulated higher education award offered or conferred by the provider; and
(c) the course of study is not an accredited course in relation to the provider.

Civil penalty: 240 penalty units.

113 Breach of condition of registration

A registered higher education provider contravenes this section if:
(a) a condition is imposed on the provider’s registration; and
(b) the provider does an act or omits to do an act; and
(c) the act or omission breaches the condition.

Civil penalty: 120 penalty units.

114 Breach of condition of accreditation

A registered higher education provider contravenes this section if:
(a) a condition is imposed on the accreditation of a course of study accredited in relation to the provider; and
(b) the provider does an act or omits to do an act; and
(c) the act or omission breaches the condition.

Civil penalty: 120 penalty units.

Subdivision B—Obtaining a civil penalty order

115 Civil penalty orders

Application for order

(1) Within 6 years of a person (the wrongdoer) contravening a civil penalty provision, TEQSA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to:
(a) the Federal Court; or
(b) the Federal Magistrates Court;
for an order that the wrongdoer pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.
Court may order wrongdoer to pay pecuniary penalty

(2) If the Court is satisfied that the wrongdoer has contravened the civil penalty provision, the Court may order the wrongdoer to pay to the Commonwealth for each contravention the pecuniary penalty that the Court determines is appropriate (but not exceeding the amount specified for the provision).

(3) An order under subsection (2) is to be known as a civil penalty order.

Determining amount of pecuniary penalty

(4) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the Court must have regard to all relevant matters, including:
   (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
   (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention; and
   (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
   (d) whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Act to have engaged in any similar conduct.

Civil evidence and procedure rules apply

(5) The Court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a civil penalty order.

Note: The standard of proof in civil proceedings is the balance of probabilities; see section 140 of the Evidence Act 1995.

Conduct contravening 2 or more provisions

(6) If conduct contravenes 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this section against a person for the contravention of any one or more of those provisions. However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section for the same conduct.

116 Involvement in contravening civil penalty provision

(1) A person must not:
Part 7  Enforcement
Division 2  Offences and civil penalty provisions

Section 117

(a) attempt to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
(b) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(c) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(d) be in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(e) conspire with others to contravene a civil penalty provision.

Civil penalty

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the civil penalty provision.

117 Recovery of a pecuniary penalty

A pecuniary penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth may enforce the civil penalty order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

118 2 or more proceedings may be heard together

The Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for civil penalty orders are to be heard together.

119 Continuing and multiple contraventions of civil penalty provisions

(1) If, under a civil penalty provision, an act or thing is required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time, then the obligation to do that act or thing continues (even if the period has ended or the time has passed) until the act or thing is done.

(2) A person commits a separate contravention of the civil penalty provision in respect of each day (including a day of the making of a relevant civil penalty order or any subsequent day) the person refuses or fails to comply with that requirement.

(3) The Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may make a single order to pay a pecuniary penalty for all the contraventions described in subsection (2), but the penalty must not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties that could be ordered if a separate penalty were ordered for each of the contraventions.

120 Mistake of fact

(1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:
   (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:
           (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and
           (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and
           (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:
   (a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and
   (b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

(3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.
Subdivision C—Civil penalty proceedings and criminal proceedings

121 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court must not make a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

122 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

(1) Proceedings for a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:
   (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and
   (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

123 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person.

124 Evidence given in proceedings for civil penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:
   (a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.
Division 3—Enforceable undertakings

125 Acceptance of undertakings

(1) TEQSA may accept any of the following undertakings given by a regulated entity:
   (a) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will, in order to comply with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, take specified action;
   (b) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will, in order to comply with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, refrain from taking specified action;
   (c) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will take specified action directed towards ensuring that the entity does not contravene this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, or is unlikely to contravene this Act or those associated provisions, in the future.

(2) The undertaking must be expressed to be an undertaking under this section.

(3) The regulated entity may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of TEQSA.

(4) TEQSA may, by written notice given to the regulated entity, cancel the undertaking.

(5) TEQSA may publish the undertaking on the Register.

126 Enforcement of undertakings

(1) If:
   (a) a regulated entity has given an undertaking under section 125; and
   (b) the undertaking has not been withdrawn or cancelled; and
   (c) TEQSA considers that the entity has breached the undertaking;

   TEQSA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court for an order under subsection (2).
(2) If the Court is satisfied that the regulated entity has breached the undertaking, the Court may make any or all of the following orders:

(a) an order directing the entity to comply with the undertaking;

(b) an order directing the entity to pay to the Commonwealth an amount up to the amount of any financial benefit that the entity has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the breach;

(c) any order that the Court considers appropriate directing the entity to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;

(d) any other order that the Court considers appropriate.
Part 7 Enforcement
Division 4 Injunctions

Section 127

Division 4—Injunctions

127 Injunctions

Restraining injunctions

(1) If a regulated entity has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage, in any conduct that would be in contravention of:
   (a) this Act; or
   (b) this Act’s associated provisions;
the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may, on the application of TEQSA (on behalf of the Commonwealth), grant an injunction:
   (c) restraining the entity from engaging in the conduct; and
   (d) if, in the Court’s opinion, it is desirable to do so—requiring the entity to do a thing.

Performance injunctions

(2) If:
   (a) a regulated entity has refused or failed, or is refusing or failing, or is proposing to refuse or fail, to do a thing; and
   (b) the refusal or failure was, is or would be in contravention of this Act or this Act’s associated provisions;
the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may, on the application of TEQSA (on behalf of the Commonwealth), grant an injunction requiring the entity to do that thing.

128 Interim injunctions

Before deciding an application for an injunction under section 127, the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may grant an interim injunction:
   (a) restraining a regulated entity from engaging in conduct; or
   (b) requiring a regulated entity to do a thing.
129 Discharging or varying injunctions

The Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court may discharge or vary an injunction granted under this Division.

130 Certain limits on granting injunctions not to apply

Restraining injunctions

(1) The power of the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court under this Division to grant an injunction restraining a regulated entity from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the entity intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; and
   (b) whether or not the entity has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the entity engages in conduct of that kind.

Performance injunctions

(2) The power of the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court under this Division to grant an injunction requiring a regulated entity to do a thing may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the entity intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that thing; and
   (b) whether or not the entity has previously refused or failed to do that thing; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the entity refuses or fails to do that thing.

131 Other powers of the Court unaffected

The powers conferred on the Federal Court or the Federal Magistrates Court under this Division are in addition to, and not

(m) such other functions as are conferred on TEQSA by or under this Act or any other Commonwealth law.

Note: An example for paragraph (m) is TEQSA’s functions under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000.

(2) Without limiting paragraph (1)(m), that paragraph includes a function conferred on TEQSA by an authorisation made for the purposes of a Commonwealth law.

Note: An example would be if the Minister authorised TEQSA to consider whether to consent to a company using “university” in its name for the purposes of section 147 of the Corporations Act 2001.
Section 135

(3) TEQSA may perform its functions within or outside Australia.

(4) TEQSA has the power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

135 Independence of TEQSA

Subject to section 136, TEQSA is not subject to direction from anyone in relation to the performance of its functions or the exercise of its powers.

136 Minister may give directions to TEQSA

(1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, give a direction to TEQSA if the Minister considers that the direction is necessary to protect the integrity of the higher education sector.

Note: Section 42 (disallowance) and Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 do not apply to the direction (see sections 44 and 54 of that Act).

(3) TEQSA must comply with a direction given under subsection (1).

137 TEQSA has privileges and immunities of the Crown

TEQSA has the privileges and immunities of the Crown in right of the Commonwealth.
Division 2—Appointment of Commissioners

138 Appointment

(1) The Chief Commissioner is to be appointed by the Minister, by written instrument, on a full-time basis.

(2) Two further Commissioners are to be appointed by the Minister, by written instrument, on a full-time basis.

(3) Two further Commissioners are to be appointed by the Minister, by written instrument, on a part-time basis.

143 Disclosure of interests to the Minister

(1) A Commissioner must give written notice to the Minister of all interests, pecuniary or otherwise, that the Commissioner has or acquires that conflict or could conflict with the proper performance of the Commissioner’s functions.

(2) The resignation takes effect on the day it is received by the Minister or, if a later day is specified in the resignation, on that later day.

Note: If the Chief Commissioner resigns, he or she also resigns his or her position as the Chief Executive Officer. This does not prevent a person who is both the Chief Commissioner and Chief Executive Officer from being reappointed only as a Commissioner.

146 Termination of appointment

(1) The Minister may terminate the appointment of a Commissioner:

   (a) for misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity; or

   (b) if the Commissioner:

      (i) becomes bankrupt; or

   (d) if the Commissioner is a part-time Commissioner and is absent, except on leave of absence, from 3 consecutive TEQSA meetings; or

   (e) the Commissioner engages in paid employment contrary to section 142; or

   (f) if the Commissioner fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 143 or 150.

(2) The Minister must terminate the appointment of a Commissioner if the Commissioner becomes an executive officer of a higher education provider.
147 Acting appointments

   (a) during a vacancy in the office of the Chief Commissioner (whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the office); or

(c) the appointment had ceased to have effect; or

(d) the occasion to act had not arisen or had ceased.

Note: For further provisions about acting appointments, see the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

(3) The disclosure must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(4) Unless TEQSA otherwise determines, the Commissioner:
   (a) must not be present during TEQSA’s deliberation on the matter; and

157 Staff to be made available to TEQSA

      (i) 31 January in the last year of the 3-year period to which the previous plan related; or
      (ii) such later day as the Minister allows.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a strategic plan if the Minister decides the plan does not need approval.

(3) A strategic plan comes into force on:
   (a) if the plan needs Ministerial approval—the later of:
Varying strategic plans

Varying plans with Ministerial approval

(1) TEQSA may, with the Minister’s approval, vary a strategic plan.

(2) When giving the Minister a proposed variation, TEQSA must also give the Minister a proposal for any consequential variation of a relevant annual operational plan.

(3) The Minister may, at any time, request TEQSA to vary a strategic plan. TEQSA must comply with the request.

(4) A variation approved by the Minister takes effect on the day it is approved.

Ministerial approval not required for minor variations

(5) Despite subsection (1), TEQSA may vary a strategic plan without the approval of the Minister if the variation is of a minor nature. The variation takes effect on the day it is made.

(6) If TEQSA makes a variation of a minor nature, TEQSA must inform the Minister of the variation as soon as is practicable.

Subdivision B—Annual operational plans

Developing annual operational plans

(1) TEQSA must give the Minister an annual operational plan relating to the 12-month period beginning on 1 July in each year. TEQSA must do so:

(a) for the first operational plan—before the end of the period of 3 months beginning on the day this Act receives the Royal Assent; and
