7 registered (the designated goods or services) from the goods or
8 services of other persons.

9 Note: For goods of a person and services of a person see section 6.

10 (2) A trade mark is taken not to be capable of distinguishing the 11 designated goods or services from the goods or services of other
12 persons only if either subsection (3) or (4) applies to the trade
13 mark.

14 (3) This subsection applies to a trade mark if:

15 (a) the trade mark is not to any extent inherently adapted to 16 distinguish the designated goods or services from the goods
17 or services of other persons; and

22 (4) This subsection applies to a trade mark if:

23 (a) the trade mark is, to some extent, but not sufficiently,
24 inherently adapted to distinguish the designated goods or

4 ordinarily used to indicate:
- 5 (a) the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical 6 origin, or some other characteristic, of goods or services; or 7 (b) the time of production of goods or of the rendering of services.

- 9 Note 3: Use of a trade mark by a predecessor in title of an applicant and an 10 authorised use of a trade mark by another person are each taken to be 11 use of the trade mark by the applicant (see subsections (5) and 7(3) 12 and section 8).
- 13 (5) For the purposes of this section, the use of a trade mark by a
