An Act to make provision for the protection of the olympic insignia, for the regulation of the commercial use of certain olympic expressions, and for related purposes

Chapter 1—Introduction

Part 1.1—Introduction

1 Short title [see Note 1]

This Act may be cited as the Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987.

1A Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Act:

- Chapter 2 of this Act protects the olympic insignia by:
  - (a) making the AOC the owner of copyright in the olympic symbol; and
  - (b) making the AOC the owner of certain olympic designs; and
  - (c) providing that the olympic motto, the olympic symbol and certain other olympic images must not be registered as trade marks.

- Chapter 3 of this Act prohibits the commercial use of certain olympic expressions unless the user holds a licence granted by the AOC.
Chapter 2—Copyright and design protection

Part 2.1—Introduction

2 Interpretation

(1) In this Chapter, unless the contrary intention appears:

_AOC_ or _Australian Olympic Committee_ means the Australian Olympic Committee Incorporated, being an association incorporated on 24 April 1985 under the _Associations Incorporation Act 1981_ of Victoria.

Australia, when used in a geographical sense, includes the external Territories.

_Australian Consumer Law_ means Schedule 2 to the _Competition and Consumer Act 2010_ as applied under Subdivision A of Division 2 of Part XI of that Act.

_charge_ means a charge created in any way and includes a mortgage and an agreement to give or execute a charge or mortgage, whether upon demand or otherwise.

_corresponding design_, in relation to an artistic work, means a design that, when applied to an article, results in a reproduction of that work.

_design of the olympic symbol_ means the design that, when applied to any article, results in a reproduction of the olympic symbol.

_Federal Court_ means the Federal Court of Australia.

_monopoly_, in relation to a protected design, means the exclusive right to apply the design to any article to which the design is capable of being applied.

_olympic artistic work_ means:

(a) a prescribed olympic torch and flame; or
(b) an artistic work that incorporates either but not both of the following:
   (i) the olympic symbol;

2 _Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987_
Section 2

(ii) a prescribed olympic torch and flame.

olympic motto means:
(a) the motto expressed in Latin as citius, altius, fortius; and
(b) the motto expressed in English as faster, higher, stronger.

olympic symbol means the symbol an outline of which is set out in the Schedule.

prescribed olympic torch and flame means an artistic work prescribed under section 2A.

protected design means each of the following:
(a) the design of the olympic symbol;
(b) a registered olympic design;
(c) a registered torch and flame design.

protection period means:
(a) in relation to a registered olympic design—the period of 12 years starting on the day the design was registered, as extended or reduced under section 11; or
(b) in relation to a registered torch and flame design for a particular Summer or Winter Olympic Games—the period starting:
   (i) on the 1 January that is at least 3 years but less than 4 years before the opening of those Olympic Games; or
   (ii) when the design is registered; whichever is later, and ending on 31 December next after the closing of those Olympic Games, as reduced under section 11A.

registered design means a design registered under section 10.

registered olympic design means a design registered under this Act in relation to an artistic work that incorporates the olympic symbol.

registered torch and flame design means a design registered under this Act in relation to an artistic work that is or incorporates a prescribed olympic torch and flame.

Registrar means the Registrar of Designs holding office under the Designs Act 1906.
Section 2A

_reproduction_, in relation to an artistic work, has the same meaning as in the _Copyright Act 1968_.

(2) Where, by virtue of regulations in force for the purposes of subsection 17(2) of the _Designs Act 1906_, a design is not capable of being registered under that Act for an article specified in those regulations, a reference in this Chapter to an article does not include a reference to an article so specified.

(3) Unless the contrary intention appears, an expression used in this Chapter and the _Designs Act 1906_ has the same meaning in this Chapter as in the _Designs Act 1906_.

2A Artistic work of olympic torch and flame may be prescribed

(1) The regulations may prescribe a single artistic work of an olympic torch and flame for a particular Summer Olympic Games or for a particular Winter Olympic Games. The artistic work must not incorporate the olympic symbol.

(2) The regulations must not prescribe an artistic work unless:
   (a) copyright under the _Copyright Act 1968_ subsists in the artistic work; and
   (b) the AOC is the owner of the copyright in the artistic work.

(3) The Governor-General may not make a regulation prescribing an artistic work for a particular Olympic Games before the 1 July that is at least 3½ years but less than 4½ years before the opening of those Olympic Games (that is, 6 months before the earliest date on which the protection period for a registered torch and flame design for those Olympic Games could start).

3 Act to bind Crown

Subject to Part VII of the _Copyright Act 1968_, this Chapter binds the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the States, of the Northern Territory and of Norfolk Island.

4 Extension of Act to external Territories

This Chapter extends to the external Territories.

4 _Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987_
Part 2.2—Copyright protection

5 Ownership etc. of copyright in the olympic symbol

(1) For the purposes of the Copyright Act 1968:
   (a) the olympic symbol shall be taken to be an original artistic work in which copyright subsists; and
   (b) the AOC shall be taken to be the owner of the copyright in the olympic symbol.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the Copyright Act 1968:
   (a) copyright in the olympic symbol subsists indefinitely; and
   (b) a fair dealing with the olympic symbol does not constitute an infringement of the copyright in the olympic symbol if it is for the purpose of, or is associated with, the giving of information (including the reporting of news):
      (i) in a newspaper, magazine or similar periodical; or
      (ii) by means of broadcasting or in a cinematograph film.

(3) An expression used in this section and in the Copyright Act 1968 has the same meaning in this section as it has in that Act.

(4) The AOC does not have the capacity to bring an action or proceeding under the law of a foreign country for an infringement of copyright in the olympic symbol.
Part 2.3—Design protection

6 Ownership of design of olympic symbol

The AOC is taken to be the owner of:
(a) the design of the olympic symbol; and
(b) any registered olympic design that was registered under this Act immediately before the commencement of the Olympic Insignia Protection Amendment Act 1994.

7 Monopoly of design

(1) The AOC has a monopoly in a protected design.

(2) The rights of the AOC with respect to a protected design are personal property and, subject to this Chapter, the laws applicable to ownership of personal property apply in relation to the monopoly in the design as they apply in relation to other choses in action.

8 Infringement of monopoly in protected design

(1) A person infringes the monopoly in a protected design if:
(a) in the case of the design of the olympic symbol—at any time; or
(b) in the case of a registered olympic design or registered torch and flame design—during the protection period in relation to that design;

the person, without the licence of the AOC:
(c) applies the design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation of it to any article;
(d) imports into Australia for sale, or for use for the purposes of any trade or business, any article to which the design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation of it has been applied, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, outside Australia; or
(e) sells, or offers or keeps for sale, or hires, or offers or keeps for hire:

6 Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987
(i) any article to which the design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation of it has been applied in infringement of the monopoly in the design; or

(ii) any article:
   (A) to which the design or any fraudulent or obvious imitation of it has been applied; and
   (B) that has been imported into Australia in infringement of the monopoly in the design.

(2) A person does not infringe the monopoly in a protected design by virtue of the application of paragraph (1)(c) or subparagraph (1)(e)(i) in relation to an article if, at the time when the person did the act that, but for this subsection, would have constituted the infringement, the person did not intend that the article would be used in Australia at a later time by any person.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), if a person infringes the monopoly in a protected design:
   (a) the AOC; or
   (b) a holder of a licence in relation to the design whose interests have been, are or would be affected by the infringement; may bring an action or proceeding against the person in the Federal Court for infringement of the monopoly in the design.

(4) An action or proceeding for infringement of the monopoly in a protected design shall not be instituted by the holder of a licence in relation to the design without the consent of the AOC.

(5) Where:
   (a) a person, being the holder of a licence in relation to a protected design, applies, by notice in writing served on the AOC, for the consent of the AOC under subsection (4) to the institution by the person of an action or proceeding for infringement of the monopoly in the design; and
   (b) the AOC does not grant or refuse that consent before the end of the period of 7 days after the day on which the notice was served;

the AOC shall, at the end of that period, be deemed to have granted that consent under subsection (4).

(6) Consent under subsection (4) to the institution of an action or proceeding shall not be unreasonably refused.
(7) Subsection (4) does not affect the granting of an interlocutory injunction on the application of a holder of a licence in relation to a protected design.

(8) For the purposes of this section, a design shall not be taken not to be a fraudulent or obvious imitation of a registered Olympic design by reason only that the first-mentioned design does not incorporate the design of the Olympic symbol.

(9) For the purposes of this section, a design may be a fraudulent or obvious imitation of a registered torch and flame design in relation to an artistic work that incorporates a prescribed torch and flame even though the first-mentioned design relates to an artistic work that does not include the prescribed Olympic torch and flame.

9 Remedies for infringement of monopoly in protected design

The relief that the Federal Court may grant in an action or proceeding for the infringement of the monopoly in a protected design includes an injunction (subject to such terms, if any, as the Court thinks fit) and, at the option of the plaintiff, either damages or an account of profits.

9A Australian Consumer Law provides further remedies

(1) The remedies provided under this Chapter in relation to protected designs are in addition to the remedies provided by the Australian Consumer Law in relation to engaging in conduct that is misleading or deceptive (see section 18 of the Australian Consumer Law) and, in particular, in relation to representations:
   (a) that goods or services have sponsorship or approval that they do not have (see paragraph 29(1)(g) of the Australian Consumer Law); or
   (b) that a corporation as defined in that Act has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation that it does not have (see paragraph 29(1)(h) of the Australian Consumer Law).

(2) The references in subsection (1) to particular provisions of the Australian Consumer Law do not imply that other provisions of the Australian Consumer Law do not apply in relation to conduct that is also covered by this Chapter.
10 Registration of designs

(1) The AOC may apply to the Registrar to register under this Act the design that, when applied to any article, results in a reproduction of an olympic artistic work.

(2) An application:
   (a) must be in accordance with an approved form; and
   (b) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee; and
   (c) must be lodged by being left at, or delivered by post to, the Designs Office.

(3) The Registrar must cause notice of an application to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.

(4) A notice of an application must invite persons who wish to object to the grant of the application on any relevant grounds to make representations in connection with the application by a day specified in the notice.

(5) The day specified in the notice must be at least 60 days after the date of the notice.

(6) A person may, not later than the day specified in the notice, make representations to the Registrar about the application in accordance with an approved form.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), after the Registrar has considered any representations made about the application, the Registrar must register the design if, and only if:
   (a) copyright under the Copyright Act 1968 subsists in the olympic artistic work; and
   (b) the AOC is the owner of the copyright in the olympic artistic work; and
   (c) the AOC is the owner of the design; and
   (d) no other person has an interest in the design; and
   (e) no corresponding design in relation to the olympic artistic work is registered under the Designs Act 1906; and
   (f) upon registration of the design, there would be no more than 10 registered designs with unexpired protection periods (including registered designs whose protection periods have not yet started).
(8) A design must not be registered under this section unless it is a new or original design and in particular, must not be registered if the design:
   (a) differs from a published design only in immaterial details or in features commonly used in a relevant trade; or
   (b) is an obvious adaptation of a published design.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (8), a design in relation to an artistic work is not to be treated:
   (a) as other than new or original; or
   (b) as having been published or used; merely because of any use made of the artistic work by the AOC before the day on which the application for registration of the design was lodged.

(10) Where the Registrar decides under subsection (7) to register, or to refuse to register, a design, the Registrar must cause notice of that decision to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.

(11) An appeal lies to the Federal Court from the decision of the Registrar to register, or to refuse to register, a design.

(12) In this section:

   published design, in relation to an application under this section, means a design that:
   (a) was registered under the Designs Act 1906; or
   (b) was published or used in Australia in respect of any article; before the day on which the application was lodged.

(13) For the purposes of the definition of published design in subsection (12), any secret use of the design is to be disregarded.

11 Extension or reduction of protection periods in relation to registered olympic designs

(1) The AOC may, not later than 6 months before the end of the protection period in relation to a registered olympic design (including a protection period that has been extended or reduced under this section), apply to the Registrar for that period to be extended by a further period of 12 years.
(2) An application under subsection (1):
   (a) must be in accordance with an approved form; and
   (b) must be accompanied by the prescribed fee; and
   (c) must be lodged by being left at, or delivered by post to, the Designs Office.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the Registrar shall cause notice of the application to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.

(4) A notice of an application shall invite persons who wish to object to the grant of the application on any relevant grounds to make representations in connection with the application by such date, not being a date earlier than 60 days after the date of the notice, as is specified in the notice.

(5) A person may, not later than the date specified in the notice, make representations to the Registrar in connection with the application in accordance with an approved form.

(6) After the Registrar has considered any such representations made in respect of an application for the extension of the protection period in relation to a registered Olympic design, the Registrar shall, before the end of the protection period, extend the protection period for a further period of 12 years if the Registrar would be required to register the design if an application for registration of the design had been made immediately after the end of the protection period.

(7) The Registrar shall, on the application of the AOC made in accordance with an approved form, reduce the duration of the protection period in relation to a registered Olympic design.

(8) Where the protection period in relation to a registered Olympic design ends or is extended, the Registrar shall cause notice of the end or extension to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.

(9) Where the Registrar makes a decision under subsection (6) refusing to extend a protection period, the Registrar shall cause notice of the decision to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.
Section 11A

(10) An appeal lies to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar under subsection (6) to extend or to refuse to extend a protection period.

11A Reduction of protection periods for registered torch and flame designs

(1) The Registrar must, on the application of the AOC made in accordance with an approved form, reduce the duration of the protection period in relation to a registered torch and flame design.

(2) Where the protection period in relation to a registered torch and flame design ends, the Registrar must cause notice of the end of that period to be published in the Gazette and in the Official Journal.

12 Register of Olympic Designs

(1) There shall be kept at the Designs Office a Register of Olympic Designs.

(2) The Registrar shall enter in the Register of Olympic Designs particulars of:
   (a) registered olympic designs; and
   (b) the end and extension of protection periods in relation to registered olympic designs; and
   (ba) registered torch and flame designs; and
   (bb) the end of protection periods in relation to registered torch and flame designs; and
   (c) any other prescribed matters.

(3) The Register of Olympic Designs shall be open to the inspection of the public at the times, and on payment of the fees (if any), prescribed for the purposes of this section.

(4) The regulations may make further provision with respect to the Register of Olympic Designs, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, provision for the correction of errors in the Register of Olympic Designs.

(5) Section 36 of the Designs Act 1906 applies in relation to the Register of Olympic Designs in the same manner as it applies in relation to the Register of Designs.

12 Olympic Insignia Protection Act 1987
(6) The Federal Court, on the application of a person aggrieved, may order the rectification of the Register of Olympic Designs by:
   (a) the making of any entry wrongly omitted to be made in the Register of Olympic Designs; or
   (b) the expunging or amendment of any entry wrongly made in or remaining on the Register of Olympic Designs; or
   (c) the correcting of any error or defect in the Register of Olympic Designs.

(7) Notice of each application under subsection (6) shall be given to the Registrar, who may be heard on the application.

(8) A copy of an order under subsection (6) shall be served on the Registrar, who shall, on receipt of the order, take such steps as are necessary to give effect to the order.

(9) A defendant in an action or proceeding for the infringement of the monopoly in a protected design may apply, by way of counter-claim in the action or proceeding, for the rectification of the Register of Olympic Designs by the expunging of the entry of the registration of the design from the Register of Olympic Designs.

13 Delegation

Section 8A of the Designs Act 1906 applies in relation to the Registrar’s powers under this Part in the same manner in which it applies in relation to the Registrar’s powers under that Act.

14 Approved forms

(1) A reference in this Part to an approved form is a reference to a form approved by the Registrar in writing.

(2) An approved form may require any statement in the form to be verified by a statutory declaration accompanying the form.

14A Doing act when Designs Office reopens after end of period otherwise provided for doing act

(1) If the last day of a period provided by this Chapter (except this section), or regulations made for the purposes of this Chapter, for doing an act is a day when the Designs Office is not open for... business, the act may be done in prescribed circumstances on the next day when the office is open for business.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the Designs Office is taken not to be open for business on a day:
   (a) declared by regulations to be a day on which the office is not open for business; or
   (b) declared, by a prescribed person in writing published in the prescribed way, to be a day on which the office is not open for business.

Declarations

(3) A declaration mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) or (b) may identify the day by reference to its being declared a public holiday by or under a law of a State or Territory. This does not limit the way the declaration may identify the day.

(4) A declaration mentioned in paragraph (2)(b):
   (a) may be made before, on or after the day; and
   (b) is not a legislative instrument.

Relationship with other law

(5) This section has effect despite the rest of this Chapter.

(6) Subsection 36(2) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 does not apply in relation to the act mentioned in subsection (1) of this section.

Exception for prescribed act

(7) This section does not apply to a prescribed act.

Note: Subsection 36(2) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 is relevant to a prescribed act.
Part 2.4—Miscellaneous

15 Certain purported dispositions or charges to be void

(1) A disposition, by assignment, declaration of trust or by any other means, purporting to be made by the AOC of the whole or any part of:
   (a) its interest in the copyright in the olympic symbol; or
   (b) its interest in a registered olympic design;
   is void.

(2) A charge purporting to be given by the AOC with respect to an asset of the AOC that consists of, or includes, the whole or any part of:
   (a) its interest in the copyright in the olympic symbol; or
   (b) its interest in a registered olympic design;
   is void.

(3) A disposition, by assignment, declaration of trust or by any other means, purporting to be made by the AOC of the whole or any part of its interest in a registered torch and flame design is void.

(4) A charge purporting to be given by the AOC with respect to an asset of the AOC that consists of, or includes, the whole or any part of its interest in a registered torch and flame design is void.

16 Validation of certain licences

Where, before the date of commencement of this Act, the AOC purported to grant a licence for a particular period ending after that date in respect of the copyright in, or the design of, the olympic symbol, the licence is as valid and effectual as it would have been if it had been granted on that date for the part of that period that commenced on that date.
17 Application of the Copyright Act 1968

(1) Division 8 of Part III of the Copyright Act 1968 does not apply in relation to:
   (a) the copyright in the olympic symbol; and
   (aa) the copyright in a prescribed olympic torch and flame; and
   (b) where the design in relation to an artistic work is registered under this Act—the copyright in the artistic work.

(2) It is not an infringement of the copyright in the olympic symbol to apply the design of the olympic symbol to an article.

(3) During the protection period in relation to a registered design, being the design in relation to an artistic work, it is not an infringement of the copyright in the artistic work to apply the design to an article.

(4) Where:
   (a) an artistic work incorporates the olympic symbol;
   (b) the design in relation to the artistic work is registered under this Act; and
   (c) the protection period in relation to the design has ended;
   it is not an infringement of the copyright in the artistic work to apply a design to an article, being:
   (d) a design that is a corresponding design in relation to an artistic work that is a public domain version of the first-mentioned artistic work; or
   (e) a design that differs from the design referred to in paragraph (d) only in immaterial details or in features commonly used in a relevant trade.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), where an artistic work incorporates the olympic symbol, the artistic work (if any) that would result from the omission of the olympic symbol from the first-mentioned artistic work shall be taken to be the public domain version of the first-mentioned artistic work.

(5A) Where the protection period in relation to a registered torch and flame design has ended, it is not an infringement of the copyright in the artistic work concerned to apply the design to an article.

48 Other remedies

(1) The remedies provided under this Division are in addition to remedies provided by any law (whether a law of the Commonwealth or a law of a State or Territory) that confers any rights or powers on the AOC or a licensed user in relation to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 36.

(2) The remedies provided under this Division are in addition to the remedies provided by the Australian Consumer Law in relation to engaging in conduct that is misleading or deceptive (see section 18 of the Australian Consumer Law) and, in particular, in relation to representations:
Section 48

(a) that goods or services have sponsorship or approval that they do not have (see paragraph 29(1)(g) of the Australian Consumer Law); or

(b) that a corporation (as defined in that Act) has a sponsorship, approval or affiliation that it does not have (see paragraph 29(1)(h) of the Australian Consumer Law).

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit subsection (1).

(4) The references in subsection (2) to particular provisions of the Australian Consumer Law do not imply that other provisions of the Australian Consumer Law do not apply in relation to conduct of a kind that constitutes a contravention of section 36 of this Act.
Division 2—Importation of goods

49 Definitions

In this Division, unless the contrary intention appears:

application period, in relation to seized goods, means:

(a) if there is only one objector to the importation of the goods—the period specified in the notice given to the objector under section 55 or, if that period is extended under subsection 55(5), that period as so extended; or

(b) if there is more than one objector to the importation of the goods—the period beginning on the earliest day on which a period specified in a notice given to an objector under section 55 commences and ending:

(i) on the last day on which a period specified in such a notice ends; or

(ii) on the last day on which such a period as extended under subsection 55(5) ends;

whichever is the later.

CEO means the Chief Executive Officer of Customs.

objector, in relation to seized goods, means the person by whom a notice in force under section 52 in relation to the goods was given.

officer of Customs has the meaning given by subsection 4(1) of the Customs Act 1901.

seized goods means goods seized under section 54.

working day means a day that is not:

(a) a Saturday; or

(b) a Sunday; or

(c) a public holiday in the Australian Capital Territory.

50 Determinations about owners of goods

The CEO or an officer of Customs may determine that a person is the owner of goods for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of designated owner in section 23 if the person is an owner (within the meaning of subsection 4(1) of the Customs Act 1901) of the goods.

51 Importation of goods by the AOC

The AOC may import goods to which a protected olympic expression has been applied, so long as the importation does not contravene a law of the Commonwealth other than this Chapter.

52 Notice of objection to importation

(1) Subject to this section, the AOC or a licensed user may give the CEO a written notice objecting to the importation, after the day on which the notice is given, of goods that have applied to them a protected olympic expression that the designated owner of the goods is not authorised by, or licensed under, this Chapter to use for commercial purposes in relation to the goods.

(2) A notice:
   (a) is to be given together with any prescribed document; and
   (b) is to be accompanied by the prescribed fee (if any).

(3) A licensed user may only give a notice in relation to a protected olympic expression that the person is licensed to use.

(4) A notice given by the AOC or a licensed user may be revoked at any time by written notice given to the CEO by the person who gave the original notice.

(5) Unless sooner revoked, a notice ceases to have effect at the end of the prescribed period. This subsection has effect subject to subsection (6).

(6) If:
   (a) a notice given by a licensed user is not revoked under subsection (4); and
   (b) the licence expires or is revoked;
   the notice ceases to have effect on the day on which the licence ceases to be in force.

(7) A reference in this section to the use of protected olympic expressions for commercial purposes does not include a reference to use covered by subsection 30(3).
53 Consent of the AOC to giving of notices

(1) A licensed user must not give a notice of objection to importation under section 52 except with the written consent of the AOC.

(2) If:
   (a) a licensed user gives the AOC a written request for consent under subsection (1); and
   (b) the AOC neither gives nor refuses that consent before the end of the period of 8 days beginning on the day on which the request was given;
   the AOC is taken to have given the consent.

(3) Consent under subsection (1) must not be unreasonably refused.

54 CEO may seize goods

(1) This section applies to goods manufactured outside Australia that:
   (a) are imported into Australia; and
   (b) are subject to the control of the Customs within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901.

(2) If:
   (a) goods have had applied to them one or more protected olympic expressions; and
   (b) a notice in force under section 52 relates to the goods; and
   (c) it appears to the CEO that the designated owner is not authorised by, or licensed under, this Chapter, to use the expressions for commercial purposes in relation to the goods;
   the CEO must seize the goods unless the CEO has no reasonable grounds for believing that section 36 would be contravened by the use of the expressions by the designated owner for commercial purposes.

(3) The CEO may refuse to seize the goods unless the CEO has been given by the objector, or by one or more of the objectors, security in an amount that the CEO considers sufficient to reimburse the Commonwealth for the reasonable expenses that may be incurred by the Commonwealth if the goods were seized.

(4) Goods seized under this section must be kept in a secure place as directed by the CEO.
(5) A reference in this section to the use of protected olympic expressions for commercial purposes does not include a reference to use covered by subsection 30(3).

55 Notice of seizure

(1) As soon as practicable after goods are seized under section 54, the CEO must give the designated owner and each objector, either personally or by post, a written notice identifying the goods and stating that they have been seized under section 54.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) that is given to each objector must also:
   (a) specify:
       (i) the full name and address of the designated owner of the goods; and
       (ii) any information that the CEO has and that the CEO believes, on reasonable grounds, to be likely to help the objector, or objectors, to identify the designated owner; and
   (b) state that the goods will be released to the designated owner unless:
       (i) an application for an injunction under section 41 in relation to the goods is made by the objector, or by one of the objectors, within the period of 10 working days beginning on a specified day; and
       (ii) written notice of the making of the application is given to the CEO within that period.

(3) The day specified for the purpose of subparagraph (2)(b)(i) must not be earlier than the day on which the notice is given.

(4) An objector may, by written notice given to the CEO before the end of the period specified in a notice for the purposes of subparagraph (2)(b)(i), request that the period be extended.

(5) If:
   (a) a request is made in accordance with subsection (4); and
   (b) the CEO is satisfied that it is reasonable that the request be granted; the CEO may extend the period by not more than 10 working days.

56 Forfeiture of goods—by consent

(1) The designated owner of any seized goods may, at any time before an objector makes an application for an injunction under section 41 in relation to the goods, consent to the goods being forfeited to the Commonwealth by giving a written notice to that effect to the CEO.

(2) If the designated owner gives such a notice, the goods are forfeited to the Commonwealth and must be disposed of as the CEO directs.

57 Release of goods—no application for injunction

(1) The CEO must release seized goods (other than goods forfeited to the Commonwealth under section 56) to their designated owner at the end of the application period unless, within that period, the objector, or one of the objectors, has:
   (a) made an application for an injunction under section 41 in relation to the goods; and
   (b) given to the CEO written notice of the application.

(2) The CEO must also release the seized goods to their designated owner if, before the end of the application period, the objector, or each of the objectors, has, by written notice given to the CEO, consented to the release of the goods.

(3) The CEO may release the seized goods to their designated owner at any time before the end of the application period if:
   (a) the CEO, having regard to information that has come to his or her knowledge after the goods were seized, does not have reasonable grounds for believing that section 36 would be contravened by the importation of the goods; and
   (b) the objector has not, or none of the objectors has, made an application for an injunction under section 41 in relation to the goods.

Note: In obtaining information for the purposes of this section, the CEO must comply with Principles 1, 2 and 3 in section 14 of the Privacy Act 1988.
58 Application for injunction—additional parties, relief etc.

(1) In this section, a reference to an application for an injunction under section 41 is a reference to such an application made, in relation to seized goods, by a person who is an objector in relation to the goods.

(2) A prescribed court in which an application for an injunction under section 41 is pending:
   (a) may, on the application of a person having a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the application, allow the person to be joined as a respondent to the application; and
   (b) must allow the CEO to appear and be heard.

(3) In addition to any relief that the court may grant apart from this section, the court may:
   (a) at any time, if it thinks it just, order that the seized goods be released to their designated owner subject to such conditions (if any) as the court thinks fit; or
   (b) order that the seized goods be forfeited to the Commonwealth.

(4) If:
   (a) the court decides that an injunction should not be granted under section 41; and
   (b) the designated owner of the goods, or any other respondent, satisfies the court that he or she has suffered loss or damage because the goods were seized;

   the court may order the objector to pay to the designated owner or other respondent compensation, in the amount determined by the court, for any part of that loss or damage that is attributable to any period beginning on or after the day on which the application under section 41 was made.

(5) If, at the end of 20 working days beginning on the day on which the application for an injunction under section 41 was made, there is not in force an order of the court directed at the CEO preventing the goods from being released, the CEO must release the goods to their designated owner.

(6) If the court orders that the goods be released, the CEO must, subject to section 60, comply with the order.
59 Disposal of goods ordered to be forfeited

If the court orders under section 58 that goods be forfeited to the Commonwealth, the goods are to be disposed of as the CEO directs.

60 Power of CEO to retain control of goods

Despite anything in this Part, the CEO must not:
(a) release, or dispose of, any seized goods; or
(b) take any action in relation to the goods to give effect to any order of a court under section 58;
if the CEO is required or allowed to retain control of the goods under any other law of the Commonwealth.

61 Insufficient security

If security given under subsection 54(3) by the objector or objectors who gave notice under section 52 is not sufficient to meet the expenses incurred by the Commonwealth as a result of the action taken by the CEO under this Division because of the notice, the amount of the difference between those expenses and the amount of security:
(a) is a debt due by the objector, or by the objectors jointly and severally, to the Commonwealth; and
(b) may be recovered by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

62 Commonwealth not liable for loss etc. suffered because of seizure

The Commonwealth is not liable for any loss or damage suffered by a person:
(a) because the CEO seized, or failed to seize, goods under this Division; or
(b) because of the release of any seized goods.

63 Modification in relation to Christmas Island etc.

The regulations may provide for the modification or adaptation of this Division in its application to:
(a) Christmas Island; or
Section 63

(b) Cocos (Keeling) Islands; or
(c) Norfolk Island.
Division 3—Groundless threats

64 Groundless threats of legal proceedings

(1) If the AOC or a licensed user threatens to make an application, or bring an action, against a person (the threatened person) on the ground that the threatened person has engaged, is engaging, or is proposing to engage in conduct in contravention of section 36, any person aggrieved by the threat may bring an action in a prescribed court against the AOC or the licensed user, as the case may be.

(2) In an action under subsection (1), the court may:
   (a) make a declaration that the AOC or the licensed user had no grounds for making the threat; and
   (b) grant an injunction restraining the AOC or the licensed user from continuing to make the threat.

   The court may also award damages for loss that the person aggrieved has suffered as a result of the making of the threat.

(3) An action may not be brought under this section if the person who made the threat has made an application, or brought an action, under Division 1 against the threatened person in relation to the act, or proposed act, to which the threat related.

(4) An action under this section may not be continued if the person who made the threat makes an application, or brings an action, under Division 1 against the threatened person in relation to the act, or proposed act, to which the threat related.

(5) It is a defence to an action under subsection (1) that the conduct of the threatened person, in relation to which the threat was made, constitutes a contravention of section 36.

65 Counterclaim in action on groundless threats

(1) If the AOC or a licensed user would be entitled to make an application, or bring an action, against a person for a contravention of section 36, the AOC, or the licensed user may, in an action under section 64, make a counterclaim for any relief to which the AOC or the licensed user would be entitled under Division 1.
(2) The provisions of Divisions 1 and 2 apply as if a counterclaim were an application or action made or brought by the AOC or a licensed user under Division 1.

(2) When a court transfers an application or action to another court:

(a) all relevant documents of record filed in the transferring court must be sent to the other court by the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the transferring court; and
