8 Access by Board members to records

For the purposes of the operation of subsection 27L(4) of the Commonwealth Authorities and Companies Act 1997 in relation to the books of the old Commission, the reference in that subsection to a Commonwealth authority is to be read, after the commencement time, as a reference to the CEO.
Part 3—Reference to, and things done by or in relation to, old Commission

9 References in instruments

References to old Commission taken to be references to CEO or Commonwealth

(1) If:
   (a) an instrument is in force immediately before the commencement time; and
   (b) the instrument contains a reference to the old Commission (including a reference to the Board, the Managing Director or the Deputy Managing Director);

the instrument has effect from the commencement time as if the reference were a reference to the CEO.

(2) However, if:
   (a) an instrument is in force immediately before the commencement time; and
   (b) the instrument relates to assets or liabilities covered by item 2 or 3; and
   (c) the instrument refers to the old Commission (including a reference to the Board, the Managing Director or the Deputy Managing Director);

the reference is to be read as a reference to the Commonwealth as necessary to give effect to item 2 or 3, as the case requires.

References to staff of old Commission taken to be references to staff of new Commission

(3) If:
   (a) an instrument is in force immediately before the commencement time; and
   (b) the instrument contains a reference to a member of the staff of the old Commission;
the instrument has effect from the commencement time as if the reference to the member of the staff of the old Commission were a reference to a member of the staff of the new Commission referred to in section 60 of the new law.

Minister and regulations may provide otherwise

(4) The Minister may, by writing, determine that subitem (1), (2) or (3):
   (a) does not apply in relation to a specified reference; or
   (b) applies as if:
      (i) in the case of subitem (1)—the reference in that subitem to the CEO were a reference to the Commonwealth; or
      (ii) in the case of subitem (2)—the reference in that subitem to the Commonwealth were a reference to the CEO; or

A determination under this subitem has effect accordingly.

(5) The regulations may provide that an instrument containing a reference specified in a determination under paragraph (4)(a) has effect from the commencement time as if:
   (a) in the case of an instrument covered by subitem (1)—the reference were a reference to a specified person or body other than the Commonwealth or the CEO; or
   (b) in the case of an instrument covered by subitem (2)—the reference were a reference to a specified person or body other than the Commonwealth or the CEO; or

Things done by old Commission taken to be done by CEO

(1) If, before the commencement time, a thing was done by, or in relation to, the old Commission (including the Board, the Managing Director or the Deputy Managing Director), then, for the purposes of the operation of any law of the Commonwealth after the commencement time, the thing is taken to have been done by, or in relation to, the CEO.

(2) For the purposes of subitem (1), a thing done before the commencement time under a provision that is amended by this Act has effect from that time as if it were done under that provision as amended. However, this is not taken to change the time at which the thing was actually done.

Minister and regulations may provide otherwise

(3) The Minister may, by writing, determine that subitem (1):
   (a) does not apply in relation to a specified thing done by, or in relation to, the old Commission; or
   (b) applies as if the reference in that subitem to the CEO were a reference to the Commonwealth.

A determination under this subitem has effect accordingly.

(4) The regulations may provide for a thing specified in a determination under paragraph (3)(a) to be taken to have been done by, or in relation to, a specified person or body other than the Commonwealth or the CEO.

Meaning of doing

(5) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of this item, doing a thing includes making an instrument.

Determinations are not legislative instruments

(6) A determination made under subitem (3) is not a legislative instrument.

   (b) section 54;
   (c) section 55;
   (d) section 57;
   (e) section 64;

       the old Commission (including the Managing Director) to provide a report (whether financial statements or otherwise) for a period; and
   (b) the period ends after the commencement time;

   the CEO must provide the report, as required, for so much of the period as occurs before the commencement time.

(2) If:
   (a) under subitem (1), the CEO is required to provide a report for a part of a period; and
   (b) the CEO is also required to provide a similar report for the remainder of the period;

   the CEO may meet the requirements in a single report for the period.

Outstanding reporting requirements

(3) If:
   (a) a law required the old Commission (including the Managing Director) to provide a report (whether financial statements or otherwise) for a period that ended before the commencement time; and
   (b) the report has not been provided by the commencement time;

   the CEO must provide the report as required.

13 Continuation of secrecy obligations

Despite the amendment of section 94 of the Australian Trade Commission Act 1985 by this Act, that section continues to apply after the commencement time, in relation to anything done by a person to whom that section applies immediately before that time, as if the amendments had not been made.
Part 4—CEO and staff

14 CEO

(b) on the same terms and conditions as applied to the person immediately before the commencement time.

15 Transfer of staff

(1) The regulations may prescribe other matters of a transitional nature in relation to the transfer of staff from the old Commission to the new Commission.

(2) Without limiting subitem (1), regulations under that subitem may provide for:

(a) some or all of the entitlements and obligations of the staff of the old Commission to be preserved; or
(b) the old Commission’s staffing procedures to apply, or to continue to apply, in relation to:

(i) processes begun before, but not completed by, the commencement time; or
(ii) things done by, for or in relation to the old Commission or a staff member of the old Commission before the commencement time; or

(c) the new Commission’s staffing procedures to apply in relation to:

(i) processes begun before, but not completed by, the commencement time; or
(ii) things done by, for or in relation to the old Commission or a staff member of the old Commission before the commencement time.

(3) Regulations made under this item have effect despite the Public Service Act 1999.
(4) In this item:

staffing procedures includes procedures and policies related to recruitment, promotion, performance management, inefficiency, misconduct, forfeiture of position, fitness for duty, loss of essential qualifications, disciplinary action, reviews of or appeals against staffing decisions, transfers, redundancy, resignations, termination of employment, grievance processes and leave.
Part 5—Miscellaneous

17 Exemption from stamp duty and other State or Territory taxes
No stamp duty or other tax is payable under a law of a State or Territory in respect of, or in respect of anything connected with:
(a) the transfer of an asset or liability under this Schedule; or
(b) the operation of this Schedule in any other respect.

18 Constitutional safety net—acquisition of property
(1) If the operation of this Schedule would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.
(2) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.

19 Certificates taken to be authentic
A document that appears to be a certificate made or issued under a particular provision of this Schedule:
(a) is taken to be such a certificate; and
(b) is taken to have been properly given; unless the contrary is established.

20 Delegation by Minister
(1) The Minister may, by writing, delegate all or any of his or her powers and functions under this Schedule to the CEO.
(2) In exercising or performing powers or functions under a delegation, the delegate must comply with any directions of the Minister.

21 Regulations
(1) The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters:
(a) required or permitted by this Schedule to be prescribed; or
(b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Schedule.

(2) In particular, regulations may be made prescribing matters of a transitional nature (including prescribing any saving or application provisions) relating to the amendments or repeals made by this Schedule.
