Part 9—Content rules, program standards and codes of practice

5 Before section 122
Insert:
121G  Australian content—transmission quota

Programs transmitted on core/primary commercial television broadcasting service

(1) A commercial television broadcasting licensee must ensure that, for:

(a) the calendar year that began on 1 January 2013; and

(b) each later calendar year;

the percentage worked out using the following formula is not less than 55%:

\frac{\text{Total hours of Australian programs transmitted during the year}}{\text{Total hours of programs transmitted during the year}} \times 100 where:

- total hours of Australian programs transmitted during the year means the total number of hours of Australian programs that were transmitted:

  (a) during targeted viewing hours in the year; and

  (b) on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee.

- total hours of programs transmitted during the year means the total number of hours of television programs transmitted:

  (a) during targeted viewing hours in the year; and

  (b) on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee.

Programs transmitted otherwise than on core/primary commercial television broadcasting service

(2) A commercial television broadcasting licensee must ensure that:

(a) for the calendar year that began on 1 January 2013, the total number of hours of Australian programs that were transmitted by the licensee:

(i) during targeted viewing hours in the year; and Amendments Schedule 1
General amendments Part 1

(ii) otherwise than on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee;

is not less than 730; and

(b) for the calendar year beginning on 1 January 2014, the total number of hours of Australian programs that were transmitted:

(i) during targeted viewing hours in the year; and

(ii) otherwise than on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee;

is not less than 1,095; and

(c) for each calendar year beginning on or after 1 January 2015, the total number of hours of Australian programs that were transmitted:

(i) during targeted viewing hours in the year; and

(ii) otherwise than on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee;

is not less than 1,460.

(3) For the purposes of the application of subsection (2) to a commercial television broadcasting licensee, if a first release Australian drama program was transmitted by the licensee:

(a) during targeted viewing hours in a calendar year; and

(b) otherwise than on the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee;

assume that the duration of the program was twice as long as the actual duration of the program.

Targeted viewing hours

(4) For the purposes of this section, targeted viewing hours are the hours:

(a) beginning at 6 am each day; and

(b) ending at midnight on the same day.

(5) For the purposes of this section, if:

(a) a television program consists of coverage of a sporting event; and

(b) the program:

(i) begins before midnight on a particular day (the first day); and
(ii) ends on the next day;
the part of the program transmitted between midnight on the first day and 2 am on the next day is taken to have been transmitted during targeted viewing hours on the first day.

Australian programs

For the purposes of this section, Australian program means:
(a) if an instrument is in force under subsection (7)—an Australian program as defined by that instrument; or
(b) otherwise:
(i) an Australian program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard
2005 as in force on 1 January 2013); or
(ii) an Australian official co-production (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013); or (iii) a New Zealand program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard
2005 as in force on 1 January 2013); or (iv) an Australian/New Zealand program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013).

The ACMA may, by legislative instrument, define the meaning of the expression Australian program for the purposes of this section.

Note: See also section 16 of the Australian Communications and Media Authority Act 2005 (consistency with CER Trade in Services Protocol).

First release Australian drama program

For the purposes of this section, first release means:
(a) if an instrument is in force under subsection (9)—first release as defined by that instrument; or
(b) otherwise—first release (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005
as in force on 1 January 2013).

The ACMA may, by legislative instrument, define the meaning of the expression first release for the purposes of this section.
(10) For the purposes of this section, Australian drama program means:

(a) if an instrument is in force under subsection (12)—an Australian drama program as defined by that instrument; or

(b) otherwise:

(i) an Australian drama program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013); or

(ii) an Australian official co-production (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013) that is a drama program; or

(iii) a New Zealand program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013) that is a drama program; or

(iv) an Australian/New Zealand program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013) that is a drama program.

(11) For the purposes of subparagraphs (10)(b)(ii), (iii) and (iv), drama program means a program that would be an Australian drama program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 as in force on 1 January 2013) if the expression “Australian” were omitted from paragraphs (a) and (c) of the definition of Australian drama program in that standard as in force on 1 January 2013.

(12) The ACMA may, by legislative instrument, define the meaning of the expression Australian drama program for the purposes of this section.

Note: See also section 16 of the Australian Communications and Media Authority Act 2005 (consistency with CER Trade in Services Protocol).
Schedule 1  Amendments
Part 1  General amendments

Licence allocated under subsection 40(1) on or after 1 January 2007

(13) If a commercial television broadcasting licence is or was allocated under subsection 40(1) on or after 1 January 2007, subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not apply to the licensee for:
  (a) the calendar year in which the licence is or was allocated; and
  (b) any of the next 4 calendar years.

Ministerial direction

(14) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, give directions to the ACMA in relation to the exercise of its powers under this section.

Note:  Section 42 (disallowance) and Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 do not apply to the direction (see sections 44 and 54 of that Act).

(15) The ACMA must comply with a direction under subsection (14).

6 Subsection 122(1)

Omit “notice in writing”, substitute “legislative instrument”.

7 At the end of subsection 122(1)

Add:

Note:  See also section 16 of the Australian Communications and Media Authority Act 2005 (consistency with CER Trade in Services Protocol).

8 Subsection 122(5)

Repeal the subsection.

9 Subsections 122(7) and (9)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

(7) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, give directions to the ACMA in relation to the exercise of its powers under this section.

Note:  Section 42 (disallowance) and Part 6 (sunsetting) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 do not apply to the direction (see sections 44 and 54 of that Act).

(8) The ACMA must comply with a direction under subsection (7).

Broadcasting Legislation Amendment (Convergence Review and Other Measures) Bill 2013 No.  , 2013
(9) The ACMA must not determine a standard under subsection (1) that has the effect of quantitatively extending the requirements imposed by subsection 121G(1) or (2).

(10) If:

(a) a standard under subsection (1) imposes a quantitative requirement in relation to a particular kind of program transmitted by a commercial television broadcasting licensee; and

(b) the requirement does not substantially correspond to subsection 121G(1) or (2); and

(c) a program of that kind is transmitted on a commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee; the transmission of the program counts for the purposes of meeting the requirement.

Note: The following are examples of a kind of program:

(a) an Australian drama program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005);

(b) a C program (within the meaning of the Children’s Television Standards 2009);

(c) a P program (within the meaning of the Children’s Television Standards 2009).

(11) If a commercial television broadcasting licence is or was allocated under subsection 40(1) on or after 1 January 2007, standards under subsection (1) of this section do not apply to the licensee during:

(a) the calendar year in which the licence is or was allocated; and

(b) any of the next 4 calendar years.

(12) For the purposes of this section, in determining whether a requirement substantially corresponds to subsection 121G(1) or (2), disregard any differences as to:

(a) percentage; or

(b) viewing hours.

10 After paragraph 7(1)(a) of Schedule 2

Insert:

(aa) the licensee will comply with section 121G (which deals with Australian content);
11 Clause 60D of Schedule 4

Repeal the clause.

12 Transitional—Broadcasting Services (Australian Content)
   Standard 2005

Section 9 of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 does not apply in relation to programs transmitted in:

(a) the calendar year beginning on 1 January 2013; or

(b) a later calendar year.

Note: Section 9 of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005 deals with transmission quotas for Australian programs.

13 Transitional—section 122 of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992

Standards under subsection 122(1) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 do not apply to programs transmitted before 1 January 2013 on a commercial television broadcasting service provided by a commercial television broadcasting licensee, unless that service is the core/primary commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee.

14 Transitional—standards under section 122 of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992

(1) For the purposes of this item, interim period means the period:

(a) beginning at the start of 1 January 2013; and

(b) ending immediately before the commencement of this item.

(2) If, during the interim period:

(a) a standard under subsection 122(1) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 imposed a quantitative requirement in relation to a particular kind of program transmitted by a commercial television broadcasting licensee; and

(b) the requirement did not substantially correspond to subsection 121G(1) or (2) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (as amended by this Schedule); and

(c) a program of that kind was transmitted on a commercial television broadcasting service provided by the licensee;

the transmission of the program counts for the purposes of meeting the requirement.
Note: The following are examples of a kind of program:

(a) an Australian drama program (within the meaning of the Broadcasting Services (Australian Content) Standard 2005);
(b) a C program (within the meaning of the Children’s Television Standards 2009);
(c) a P program (within the meaning of the Children’s Television Standards 2009).

(3) For the purposes of this item, in determining whether a requirement substantially corresponds to subsection 121G(1) or (2) of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (as amended by this Schedule):

(a) disregard any differences as to:
   (i) percentage; or
   (ii) viewing hours; and
(b) assume that section 121G of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (as amended by this Schedule) had been in force during the interim period.

Special Broadcasting Service Act 1991

15 Section 3

Insert:

than content that is, in the opinion of the Corporation, being used as an advertisement; or
(d) content the provision of which is directed by the Minister under subsection 78(3A).

(6) Subsection (4) does not apply to a digital media service that relates to the Corporation’s international television service and its associated audio channels.

(7) Subsection (4) does not apply to an eligible electronic publication.

(8) For the purposes of this section, if:
(a) content consists of:
   (i) an electronic edition of a book, magazine or newspaper;
or
   (ii) an audio recording of the text, or abridged text, of a book, magazine or newspaper; and
   (b) a print edition of the book, magazine or newspaper is or was available to the public (whether by way of purchase or otherwise) in Australia;
the content is an eligible electronic publication.

27 At the end of Part IV
Add:

31AA Corporation or prescribed companies to be the only providers of Commonwealth-funded international broadcasting services

The Commonwealth must not enter into a contract or other arrangement with a person or body other than:
(a) the Corporation; or
(b) a prescribed company (within the meaning of section 25A);
if the contract or arrangement:
(c) is for the provision of international broadcasting services;
and
(d) provides for the Commonwealth to make payments to the person or body.
28 After subsection 78(3)

Insert:

(3A) If the Minister is of the opinion that the provision of particular content by the Corporation would be in the national interest, the Minister may direct the Corporation to provide that content on all of its digital media services or on such of them as are specified in the direction. If such a direction is given, the Corporation must provide that content, free of charge, in accordance with the direction.

29 At the end of paragraph 80(a)

Add “and”.

30 After paragraph 80(a)

Insert:

(b) particulars of each provision of content by the Corporation on a digital media service during the year to which the report relates in accordance with a direction by the Minister under subsection 78(3A); and

31 At the end of paragraph 80(c)

Add “and”.

32 After paragraph 80(c)

Insert:

(ca) particulars of any provision of content by the Corporation on a digital media service during that year in accordance with a direction by the Minister otherwise than under this Act; and

33 At the end of paragraph 80(d)

Add “and”.

34 After paragraph 80(d)

Insert:

(daa) particulars of any direction not to provide content on a digital media service that was given to the Corporation during that year by the Minister otherwise than under this Act; and

(a) are carried by means of guided and/or unguided electromagnetic energy; and
(b) involve the use of digital technology.

37 Section 3

Insert:

digital media service has the meaning given by section 3A.

38 After section 3

Insert:

3A Digital media service

(1) For the purposes of this Act, digital media service means:

(a) a service that delivers content to persons having equipment appropriate for receiving that content, where the delivery of the service is by means of digital electronic communications;
    or
(b) a service that allows end-users to access content using digital electronic communications;

but does not include:

(c) a radio or television service; or
(d) a datacasting service.

(2) For the purposes of this section, content means content:

(a) whether in the form of text; or
(b) whether in the form of data; or
(c) whether in the form of speech, music or other sounds; or
(d) whether in the form of visual images (animated or otherwise); or
(e) whether in any other form; or
