If a copy is given to a person under subsection 335G(2) subject to conditions, the person, and any other person who has possession, custody or control of the copy or a copy of it, must comply with the conditions.

Note: Failure to comply with this section is an offence (see section 337AA).

Division 4—Powers in relation to documents

335K Application for warrant to seize documents

(1) If the Commissioner has reasonable grounds to suspect that there are, or may be within the next 3 days, on particular premises in Australia, documents whose production could be required under section 335, he or she may:
(a) lay before a magistrate an information on oath or affirmation setting out those grounds; and
(b) apply for the issue of a warrant to search the premises for those documents.

(2) On an application under this section, the magistrate may require further information to be given, either orally or by affidavit, in connection with the application.

335L Grant of warrant

(1) This section applies if, on an application under section 335K, the magistrate is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that there are, or may be within the next 3 days, on particular premises, particular documents whose production could be required under section 335.

(2) The magistrate may issue a warrant authorising a member of the Australian Federal Police, whether or not named in the warrant, interior any person so named, with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable:
(a) to enter on or into the premises; and
(b) to search the premises; and
(c) to break open and search anything, whether a fixture or not, in or on the premises; and
(d) to take possession of, or secure against interference, documents that appear to be any or all of those documents.

(3) If the magistrate issues such a warrant, he or she must set out on the information laid before him or her under section 335K for the purposes of the application:
(a) which of the grounds set out in the information; and he or she has relied on to justify the issue of the warrant.

that is not more than 7 days after the day of issue of the warrant.

335M Execution of warrant

(1) Before any person enters premises under a search warrant issued under section 335L, a member of the Australian Federal Police must:
(a) announce that the member is authorised to enter the premises;
and
(b) give any person at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to the premises.

(2) However, the member of the Australian Federal Police is not required to comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the premises is required to ensure that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(3) If the occupier of the premises is present at the premises:
(a) the member of the Australian Federal Police must make available to the occupier a copy of the warrant; and (b) the occupier is entitled to observe the search being conducted.

(4) The occupier’s right to observe the search being conducted ends if the occupier impedes the search.

(5) This section does not prevent 2 or more areas of the premises being searched at the same time.

(6) If documents are seized under the warrant, the member of the Australian Federal Police or a person assisting the member must provide a receipt for the documents.

(7) If 2 or more documents are seized, they may be covered in the one receipt.

(1) This section applies if:
   (a) documents are produced to a person under a requirement made under section 335; or

(2) If paragraph (1)(a) applies, the person may take possession of any of the documents.

(3) The person may inspect, and may make copies of, or take extracts from, any of the documents.

(4) The person may use, or permit the use of, any of the documents for the purposes of a proceeding.

(5) The person may retain possession of any of the documents for so long as is necessary:
   (a) for the purposes of exercising a power conferred by this section (other than this subsection and subsection (7)); or
   (b) for the purposes of conducting the investigation concerned;
   or
   (c) for a decision to be made about whether or not a proceeding to which the documents would be relevant should be begun;
   or
   (d) for such a proceeding to be begun and carried on.

(6) No-one is entitled, as against the person, to claim a lien on any of the documents, but such a lien is not otherwise prejudiced.

(7) While the documents are in the person’s possession, the person:
   (a) must permit another person to inspect at all reasonable times such (if any) of the documents as the other person would be entitled to inspect if they were not in the first-mentioned person’s possession; and
   (b) may permit another person to inspect any of the documents.
Schedule 2  Increased disclosure requirements, investigation powers and penalties
Part 1  Amendments

(8) Unless subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies, the person may deliver any of the documents into the possession of the Commissioner or of a person authorised by the Commissioner to receive them.

(9) If paragraph (1)(a) or (b) applies, the person, or a person into whose possession the person delivers any of the documents under subsection (8), may require:

(a) if paragraph (1)(a) applies—a person who so produced any of the documents; or

(b) in any case—a person who was a party to the compilation of any of the documents; to explain any matter about the content of any of the documents or to which any of the documents relate.

Note: Failure to comply with a requirement made under this subsection is an offence (see section 337).

335P  Powers if documents not produced

If a person fails to produce particular documents in compliance with a requirement made by another person under section 335, the other person may require the first-mentioned person to explain:

(a) where the documents may be found; and

(b) who last had possession, custody or control of the documents and where that person may be found.

Note: Failure to comply with a requirement made under this section is an offence (see section 337).

subsection (2) (see section 13.4 of the Criminal Code).

337AD  Self-incrimination

(1) For the purposes of this Part, it is not a reasonable excuse for a person to refuse or fail:

(a) to give information; or
(b) to produce a document; or
(c) to sign a record;

in accordance with a requirement made of the person, that the information, producing the document or signing the record might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if:

(a) before:

(i) giving information; or
(ii) producing a document; or
(iii) signing a record;

pursuant to a requirement made under this Part, a person (other than a body corporate) claims that the information, producing the document or signing the record might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty; and

(b) the information, producing the document or signing the record might in fact tend to incriminate the person or make the person so liable.

(3) The information, or the fact that the person has produced the document or signed the record, is not admissible in evidence against the person in:
(a) a criminal proceeding; or
(b) a proceeding for the imposition of a penalty;
other than a proceeding in respect of:

whether the information or document is false or misleading;
or

contained in the record is false or misleading.

337AE Legal professional privilege

(1) This section applies if:
(a) under this Part, a person requires a lawyer:

(ii) to produce a document; and
(b) giving the information would involve disclosing, or the document contains, a privileged communication made by, on behalf of or to the lawyer in his or her capacity as a lawyer.

(2) The lawyer is entitled to refuse to comply with the requirement unless the person to whom, or by or on behalf of whom, the communication was made, consents to the lawyer complying with the requirement.

(3) If the lawyer so refuses, he or she must, as soon as practicable, give to the person who made the requirement a written notice setting out:
(a) if the lawyer knows the name and address of the person to whom, or by or on behalf of whom, the communication was made—that name and address; and made in writing—sufficient particulars to identify the document containing the communication; and

Division 7—Evidentiary use of certain material

337AF Statements made on oath or affirmation during an investigation—proceedings against attendee

(1) A statement that a person makes on oath or affirmation during an investigation is admissible in evidence against the person in a proceeding unless:

(a) because of subsection 337AD(3), the statement is not admissible in evidence against the person in the proceeding;

(b) the statement is not relevant to the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement; or

(c) the statement is qualified or explained by some other statement made by the person on oath or affirmation during the investigation, evidence of the other statement is not tendered in the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the first-mentioned statement; or

(d) the statement discloses matter in respect of which the person could claim legal professional privilege in the proceeding if this subsection did not apply in relation to the statement, and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

(2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a proceeding against a person even if it is heard together with a proceeding against another person.

(3) If a written record of statements made by a person during questioning is signed by the person under subsection 335G(2) or authenticated in any other prescribed manner, the record is, in a proceeding, prima facie evidence of the statements it records, but nothing in this Part limits or affects the admissibility in the proceeding of other evidence of statements made during the questioning.

337AG Statements made on oath or affirmation during an investigation—other proceedings

If direct evidence by a person (the absent witness) of a matter would be admissible in a proceeding, a statement that the absent witness made on oath or affirmation during an investigation and that tends to establish that matter is admissible in the proceeding as evidence of that matter:

(a) if it appears to the court or tribunal that:
   (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness; or (ii) the absent witness is outside the State or Territory in which the proceeding is being heard and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his or her attendance;
   or
   (iii) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the absent witness but he or she cannot be found; or

(b) if it does not so appear to the court or tribunal—unless another party to the proceeding requires the party tendering evidence of the statement to call the absent witness as a witness in the proceeding and the tendering party does not so call the absent witness.

337AH Weight of evidence admitted under section 337AG

(1) This section applies if evidence of a statement made by a person made on oath or affirmation during an investigation is admitted under section 337AG in a proceeding.

(2) In deciding how much weight (if any) to give to the statement as evidence of a matter, regard is to be had to:
   (a) how long after the matters to which it related the statement was made; and
   (b) any reason the person may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
   (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about how accurate the statement is.

(3) If the person is not called as a witness in the proceeding:
   (a) evidence that would, if the person had been so called, have been admissible in the proceeding for the purpose of destroying or supporting his or her credibility is so admissible; and
   (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the person has made at any time.
(4) However, evidence of a matter is not admissible under this section if, had the person been called as a witness in the proceeding and denied the matter in cross-examination, evidence of the matter would not have been admissible if adduced by the cross-examining party.

337AJ Objection to admission of statements made on oath or affirmation during an investigation

(1) A party (the adducing party) to a proceeding may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceeding, give to another party to the proceeding written notice that the adducing party:

   (a) will apply to have admitted in evidence in the proceeding specified statements made on oath or affirmation during an investigation; and

   (b) for that purpose, will apply to have evidence of those statements admitted in the proceeding.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) must set out, or be accompanied by writing that sets out, the specified statements.

(3) Within 14 days after a notice is given under subsection (1), the other party may give to the adducing party a written notice:

   (a) stating that the other party objects to specified statements being admitted in evidence in the proceeding; and

   (b) specifying, in relation to each of those statements, the grounds of objection.

(4) The period prescribed by subsection (3) may be extended by the court or tribunal or by agreement between the parties concerned.

(5) On receiving a notice given under subsection (3), the adducing party must give to the court or tribunal a copy of:

   (a) the notice under subsection (1) and any writing that subsection (2) required to accompany that notice; and

   (b) the notice under subsection (3).

(6) If subsection (5) is complied with, the court or tribunal may either:

   (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceeding begins; or

   (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.
(7) If a notice has been given in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceeding to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceeding, unless:
(a) the other party has, in accordance with subsection (3), objected to the statement being so admitted; or (b) the court or tribunal gives the other party leave to object to the statement being so admitted.

337AK Copies of, or extracts from, certain documents

(1) A copy of, or an extract from, a document relating to the affairs of an organisation is admissible in evidence in a proceeding as if the copy were the original document, or the extract were the relevant part of the original document, whether or not the copy or extract was made under section 335N.

(2) A copy of, or an extract from, a document is not admissible in evidence under subsection (1) unless it is proved that the copy or extract is a true copy of the document, or of the relevant part of the document.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person who has compared:
(a) a copy of a document with the document; or
(b) an extract from a document with the relevant part of the document;
may give evidence, either orally or by an affidavit or statutory declaration, that the copy or extract is a true copy of the document or relevant part, as the case may be.

proceeding in circumstances where it would have been admissible
in that proceeding if this Division had not been enacted.
