Part 2—Regulations to provide for sanctions

Division 1—Making and effect of regulations

10 Regulations may apply sanctions

- (1) The regulations may make provision relating to any or all of the following:
 - (a) proscription of persons or entities (for specified purposes or more generally);
 - (b) restriction or prevention of uses of, dealings with, and making available of, assets;

- (2) Before the Governor-General makes regulations for the purposes of subsection (1), the Minister must be satisfied that the proposed regulations:
 - (a) will facilitate the conduct of Australia's relations with other countries or with entities or persons outside Australia; or
 - (b) will otherwise deal with matters, things or relationships outside Australia.
- (3) Despite subsection 14(2) of the Legislation Act 2003, regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) may make provision in relation to a matter by applying, adopting or incorporating any matter contained in an instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

Section 11

11 Regulations may have extraterritorial effect

- (1) The regulations may be expressed to have extraterritorial effect.
- (2) If they are so expressed, they have effect accordingly, and so does Division 2 of this Part.

12 Effect of regulations on earlier Commonwealth Acts and on State and Territory laws

The regulations have effect despite:

- (a) an Act enacted before the commencement of this section; or
- (b) an instrument made under such an Act (including such an instrument made at or after that commencement); or
- (c) a law of a State or Territory; or
- (d) an instrument made under such a law.

13 Later Acts not to be interpreted as overriding this Part or the regulations

- (1) An Act enacted at or after the commencement of this section is not to be interpreted as:
 - (a) amending or repealing, or otherwise altering the effect or operation of, a provision of this Part or of the regulations; or
 - (b) authorising the making of an instrument amending or repealing, or otherwise altering the effect or operation of, a provision of this Part or of the regulations.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the interpretation of an Act so far as that Act provides expressly for that Act, or for an instrument made under that Act, to have effect despite this Act, despite the regulations, or despite a specified provision of this Act or of the regulations.

Division 2—Enforcing the regulations

14 Injunctions

- (1) If a person has engaged, is engaging, or proposes to engage, in conduct involving a contravention of the regulations, a superior court may by order grant an injunction restraining the person from engaging in the conduct.

- (3) On an application, the court may grant an injunction by consent of all parties to the proceedings, whether or not the court is satisfied that subsection (1) applies.
- (4) A superior court may grant an interim injunction pending its determination of an application.
- (5) A court is not to require the Attorney-General or anyone else to give an undertaking as to damages, as a condition of granting an interim injunction.
- (6) A court may discharge or vary an injunction it has granted.
- (7) The power to grant or vary an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
- (a) whether or not it appears to the court that the person intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in such conduct; and
 - (b) whether or not the person has previously engaged in such conduct.

15 Invalidation of authorisations

An authorisation (however described) granted under the regulations is taken never to have been granted if information contained in, or information or a document accompanying, the application for the authorisation:

- (a) is false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) omits any matter or thing without which the information or document is misleading in a material particular.
