Part 1 Introduction
Division 2 Objects and simplified outline

Section 3

Division 2—Objects and simplified outline

3 Objects

The objects of this Act are:

(a) to provide for national consistency in the regulation of higher education; and
(b) to regulate higher education using:
   (i) a standards-based quality framework; and
   (ii) principles relating to regulatory necessity, risk and proportionality; and
(c) to protect and enhance:
   (i) Australia’s reputation for quality higher education and training services; and
   (ii) Australia’s international competitiveness in the higher education sector; and
   (iii) excellence, diversity and innovation in higher education in Australia; and
(d) to encourage and promote a higher education system that is appropriate to meet Australia’s social and economic needs for a highly educated and skilled population; and
(e) to protect students undertaking, or proposing to undertake, higher education in Australia by requiring the provision of quality higher education; and
(f) to ensure students undertaking, or proposing to undertake, higher education, have access to information relating to higher education in Australia.

4 Simplified outline

The following is a simplified outline of this Act:

- An entity must be registered before it can offer or confer any of the following awards (regulated higher education awards):
(a) Australian higher education awards;

(b) overseas higher education awards, if those awards relate to courses of study provided at Australian premises.

- Registered higher education providers must have their courses of study accredited before those courses can be provided in connection with regulated higher education awards. Some providers (including Australian universities registered in the Australian university provider category) are authorised to self-accredit their courses of study.

- The Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) registers providers and accredits courses of study. TEQSA regulates higher education using principles relating to regulatory necessity, risk and proportionality, and using a standards-based quality framework.

- That quality framework is a series of standards made by the Minister on the advice of the Higher Education Standards Panel.

acquisition of property has the same meaning as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.

approved means approved by TEQSA, in writing, for the purposes of the provision in which the expression occurs.

(b) possession of the equipment or the disk, tape or other storage device by the occupier could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

Seizing other evidential material

(6) If:

(a) entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant; and
(b) the authorised officer, in the course of searching for the kind of evidential material specified in the warrant, finds a thing that the authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds to be other evidential material; and

(2) A consent has no effect unless the consent is voluntary.

(3) A consent may be expressed to be limited to entry during a particular period. If so, the consent has effect for that period unless the consent is withdrawn before the end of that period.

(4) A consent that is not limited as mentioned in subsection (3) has effect until the consent is withdrawn.

(5) If an authorised officer entered premises because of the consent of the occupier of the premises, the authorised officer, and any person assisting the authorised officer, must leave the premises if the consent ceases to have effect.

(1) An authorised officer must, before entering premises under a warrant:

(3) If:
   (a) an authorised officer does not comply with subsection (1) because of subsection (2); and
   (b) the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises; the authorised officer must, as soon as practicable after entering the premises, show his or her identity card to the occupier or other person.

79 Authorised officer to be in possession of warrant

Monitoring warrant

(1) If a monitoring warrant is being executed in relation to premises, an authorised officer executing the warrant must be in possession of the warrant or a copy of the warrant.

      (ii) that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and
   (b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and
   (c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the information may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;
   he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment, whether by locking it up, placing a guard or other means.
Enforcement powers

(3) If entry to the premises is under an enforcement warrant and an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that:

(a) there is on the premises evidential material of the kind specified in the warrant that may be accessible by operating electronic equipment on the premises; and

(b) expert assistance is required to operate the equipment; and

(c) if he or she does not take action under this subsection, the evidential material may be destroyed, altered or otherwise interfered with;

he or she may do whatever is necessary to secure the equipment, whether by locking it up, placing a guard, or otherwise.

Notice to occupier

Period equipment may be secured

(5) The equipment may be secured:

(a) until the 24-hour period ends; or

(b) until the equipment has been operated by the expert; whichever happens first.

Extensions

(6) If an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that the equipment needs to be secured for more than 24 hours, he or she may apply to an issuing officer for an extension of that period.

(7) The authorised officer must give notice to the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, of his or her intention to apply for an extension. The occupier or other person is entitled to be heard in relation to that application.

(8) The provisions of this Part relating to the issue of monitoring warrants or enforcement warrants apply, with such modifications as are necessary, to the issue of an extension.

(9) The 24-hour period may be extended more than once.

      (ii) the data recorded on the equipment is damaged; or
      (iii) programs associated with the use of the equipment, or with the use of the data, are damaged or corrupted; and
   (b) the damage or corruption occurs because:
      (i) insufficient care was exercised in selecting the person who was to operate the equipment; or
      (ii) insufficient care was exercised by the person operating the equipment.

(2) The Commonwealth must pay the owner of the equipment, or the user of the data or programs, such reasonable compensation for the damage or corruption as the Commonwealth and the owner or user agree on.

(3) However, if the owner or user and the Commonwealth fail to agree, the owner or user may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for such reasonable amount of compensation as the Court determines.

(4) In determining the amount of compensation payable, regard is to be had to whether the occupier of the premises, or the occupier’s employees and agents, if they were available at the time, provided
(5) For the purposes of this section:

damage, in relation to data, includes damage by erasure of data or addition of other data.
Division 4—Occupier’s rights and responsibilities

83 Occupier entitled to observe execution of warrant

(1) If:
   (a) a warrant is being executed in relation to premises; and
   (b) the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, is present at the premises;
   the occupier or other person is entitled to observe the execution of the warrant.

(1) The occupier of premises to which a warrant relates, or another person who apparently represents the occupier, must provide:

   (b) any person assisting the authorised officer; with all reasonable facilities and assistance for the effective exercise of their powers.

(2) A person commits an offence if:
   (a) the person is subject to subsection (1); and
   (b) the person fails to comply with that subsection.

Penalty for contravention of this subsection: 30 penalty units.
Division 5—General provisions relating to seizure

(1) If an enforcement warrant is being executed and an authorised officer seizes:
   (a) a document, film, computer file or other thing that can be readily copied; or
   (b) a storage device, the information in which can be readily copied;
   the authorised officer must, if requested to do so by the occupier of the premises, or another person who apparently represents the occupier and who is present when the warrant is executed, give a copy of the thing or the information to the occupier or other person as soon as practicable after the seizure.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if possession of the document, film, computer file, thing or information by the occupier or other person could constitute an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

86 Receipts for things seized

(1) If a thing is seized under this Part, an authorised officer must provide a receipt for the thing.

(2) If 2 or more things are seized, they may be covered in the one receipt.

87 Return of seized things

(1) Subject to any contrary order of a court, if an authorised officer seizes a thing under this Part, an authorised officer must take reasonable steps to return it if:

   (b) the period of 60 days after its seizure ends;
Section 88

whichever happens first, unless the thing is forfeited or forfeitable to the Commonwealth or is the subject of a dispute as to ownership.

(2) If, apart from this subsection, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return a thing under subsection (1) because of paragraph (1)(b), the authorised officer is not required to do so if:

(a) proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence were instituted before the end of the 60 days and have not been completed (including an appeal to a court in relation to those proceedings); or
(b) the thing may continue to be retained because of an order under section 88; or
(c) the Commonwealth, a Commissioner or an authorised officer is otherwise authorised (by a law, or an order of a court, of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory) to retain, destroy, dispose of or otherwise deal with the thing.

(3) A thing that is required to be returned under this section must be returned to the person from whom it was seized (or to the owner if that person is not entitled to possess it).

88 Issuing officer may permit a thing to be retained

(1) An authorised officer may apply to an issuing officer for an order permitting the retention of the thing for a further period if:

(a) before the end of 60 days after the seizure; or
(b) before the end of a period previously specified in an order of an issuing officer under this section; proceedings in respect of which the thing may afford evidence have not commenced.

(2) If the issuing officer is satisfied that it is necessary for the thing to continue to be retained:

(a) for the purpose of either or both of the following:
Section 89

(i) an investigation as to whether an offence against this Act or this Act’s associated provisions has been committed;
(ii) an investigation as to whether there has been a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or

(b) to enable either or both of the following:
   (i) evidence of an offence mentioned in subparagraph (a)(i) to be secured for the purposes of a prosecution;
   (ii) evidence of a contravention of a civil penalty provision to be secured for the purposes of civil penalty proceedings; the issuing officer may order that the thing may continue to be retained for a period specified in the order (which must not exceed 3 years).

(3) Before making the application, the authorised officer must:
   (a) take reasonable steps to discover who has an interest in the retention of the thing; and
   (b) if it is practicable to do so, notify each person whom the authorised officer believes to have such an interest of the proposed application.

89 Disposal if cannot be returned

(1) TEQSA may dispose of a thing in such manner as it considers appropriate if:
   (a) the thing is seized under this Part; and
   (b) apart from this section, an authorised officer would be required to take reasonable steps to return the thing to a person; and
   (c) either:
      (i) the authorised officer cannot, despite making reasonable efforts, locate the person; or
      (ii) the person has refused to take possession of the thing.

(2) If the operation of this section would result in an acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, the Commonwealth is liable to pay a reasonable amount of compensation to the person.

(3) If the Commonwealth and the person do not agree on the amount of the compensation, the person may institute proceedings in the Federal Court for the recovery from the Commonwealth of such reasonable amount of compensation as the court determines.
Division 6—Warrants

90 Issuing monitoring warrants

Application for warrant

(1) An authorised officer may apply to an issuing officer for a warrant under this section in relation to premises.

Issue of warrant

(2) The issuing officer may issue the warrant if the issuing officer is satisfied, by information on oath or affirmation, that it is reasonably necessary that one or more authorised officers should have access to the premises for the purpose of determining whether this Act or this Act’s associated provisions have been, or are being, complied with.

(3) However, the issuing officer must not issue the warrant unless the authorised officer or some other person has given to the issuing officer, either orally or by affidavit, such further information (if any) as the issuing officer requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought.

Content of warrant

(4) The warrant must:

(a) describe the premises to which the warrant relates; and

Voice communication

(2) The issuing officer may require communication by voice to the extent that it is practicable in the circumstances.

Information

(3) Before applying for the warrant, the authorised officer must prepare an information of the kind mentioned in subsection 91(2) in relation to the premises that sets out the grounds on which the warrant is sought. If it is necessary to do so, the authorised officer may apply for the warrant before the information is sworn or affirmed.

Signing of warrant

(4) If the issuing officer is satisfied:

(a) after considering the terms of the information; and
(b) after receiving such further information (if any) as the issuing officer requires concerning the grounds on which the issue of the warrant is being sought; that there are reasonable grounds for issuing the warrant, the issuing officer may complete and sign the same warrant that the issuing officer would issue under section 91 if the application had been made under that section.

Notification

(5) If the issuing officer completes and signs the warrant, the issuing officer must inform the authorised officer, by telephone, fax or other electronic means, of:
(a) the terms of the warrant; and
(b) the day, and the time, the warrant was signed.

(6) The authorised officer must then complete a form of warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the issuing officer, stating on the form:

   (a) it is material, in any proceedings, for a court to be satisfied that an exercise of a power was authorised by this section; and
   (b) the warrant signed by the issuing officer authorising the exercise of the power is not produced in evidence; the court must assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the exercise of the power was not authorised by such a warrant.

93 Offence relating to warrants by telephone, fax etc.

An authorised officer commits an offence if:
   (a) the authorised officer states, in a document that purports to be a form of warrant under section 92, the name of an issuing officer, unless that issuing officer signed the warrant; or

Division 2—Offences and civil penalty provisions

Subdivision A—Offences and civil penalty provisions

104 Guide to offences and civil penalty provisions

  - sets out defences such as mistake of fact; and
  - extends the reach of the offences to, for example, a person who aids or abets the commission of an offence by a provider.

- The civil penalty provisions in this Subdivision need to be read with Subdivisions B and C. For example:
  - section 120 provides for a defence of mistake of fact; and
  - section 116 extends the reach of each civil penalty provision to, for example, a person knowingly concerned in a provider’s contravention of the civil penalty provision.

Section 115

Subdivision B—Obtaining a civil penalty order

115 Civil penalty orders

Application for order

(1) Within 6 years of a person (the wrongdoer) contravening a civil penalty provision, TEQSA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to:
   (a) the Federal Court; or
   (b) the Federal Circuit Court;
for an order that the wrongdoer pay the Commonwealth a pecuniary penalty.

Court may order wrongdoer to pay pecuniary penalty

(2) If the Court is satisfied that the wrongdoer has contravened the civil penalty provision, the Court may order the wrongdoer to pay to the Commonwealth for each contravention the pecuniary penalty that the Court determines is appropriate (but not exceeding the amount specified for the provision).

(3) An order under subsection (2) is to be known as a civil penalty order.

Determining amount of pecuniary penalty

(4) In determining the pecuniary penalty, the Court must have regard to all relevant matters, including:
   (a) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
   (b) the nature and extent of any loss or damage suffered as a result of the contravention; and
   (c) the circumstances in which the contravention took place; and
   (d) whether the person has previously been found by the Court in proceedings under this Act to have engaged in any similar conduct.
Civil evidence and procedure rules apply

(5) The Court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a civil penalty order.

Note: The standard of proof in civil proceedings is the balance of probabilities: see section 140 of the Evidence Act 1995.

Conduct contravening 2 or more provisions

(6) If conduct contravenes 2 or more civil penalty provisions, proceedings may be instituted under this section against a person for the contravention of any one or more of those provisions. However, the person is not liable to more than one pecuniary penalty under this section for the same conduct.

116 Involvement in contravening civil penalty provision

(1) A person must not:
(a) attempt to contravene a civil penalty provision; or
(b) aid, abet, counsel or procure a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(c) induce (by threats, promises or otherwise) a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(d) be in any way directly or indirectly knowingly concerned in, or party to, a contravention of a civil penalty provision; or
(e) conspire with others to contravene a civil penalty provision.

Civil penalty

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) in relation to a civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened the civil penalty provision.

117 Recovery of a pecuniary penalty

A pecuniary penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth. The Commonwealth may enforce the civil penalty order as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the person to recover a debt due by the person. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

118 2 or more proceedings may be heard together

The Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may direct that 2 or more proceedings for civil penalty orders are to be heard together.

119 Continuing and multiple contraventions of civil penalty provisions

(1) If, under a civil penalty provision, an act or thing is required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time, then the obligation to do that act or thing continues (even if the period has ended or the time has passed) until the act or thing is done.

(2) A person commits a separate contravention of the civil penalty provision in respect of each day (including a day of the making of a relevant civil penalty order or any subsequent day) the person refuses or fails to comply with that requirement.

(3) The Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may make a single order to pay a pecuniary penalty for all the contraventions described in subsection (2), but the penalty must not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties that could be ordered if a separate penalty were ordered for each of the contraventions.

120 Mistake of fact

(1) A person is not liable to have a civil penalty order made against the person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if:

   (a) at or before the time of the conduct constituting the contravention, the person:

      (i) considered whether or not facts existed; and

      (ii) was under a mistaken but reasonable belief about those facts; and

   (b) had those facts existed, the conduct would not have constituted a contravention of the civil penalty provision.
(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person may be regarded as having considered whether or not facts existed if:

(a) the person had considered, on a previous occasion, whether those facts existed in the circumstances surrounding that occasion; and

(b) the person honestly and reasonably believed that the circumstances surrounding the present occasion were the same, or substantially the same, as those surrounding the previous occasion.

(3) A person who wishes to rely on subsection (1) or (2) in proceedings for a civil penalty order bears an evidential burden in relation to that matter.

Subdivision C—Civil penalty proceedings and criminal proceedings

121 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court must not make a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision if the person has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

122 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

(1) Proceedings for a civil penalty order against a person for a contravention of a civil penalty provision are stayed if:

(a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the person for an offence; and

(b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention.

(2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.
123  Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a civil penalty provision regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the person.

124  Evidence given in proceedings for civil penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if:

(a) the individual previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order against the individual for a contravention of a civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and

(b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct that was claimed to constitute the contravention.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.
Division 3—Enforceable undertakings

125 Acceptance of undertakings

(1) TEQSA may accept any of the following undertakings given by a regulated entity:

   (a) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will, in order to comply with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, take specified action;
   (b) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will, in order to comply with this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, refrain from taking specified action;
   (c) a written undertaking given by the entity that the entity will take specified action directed towards ensuring that the entity does not contravene this Act or this Act’s associated provisions, or is unlikely to contravene this Act or those associated provisions, in the future.

(2) The undertaking must be expressed to be an undertaking under this section.

(3) The regulated entity may withdraw or vary the undertaking at any time, but only with the consent of TEQSA.

(4) TEQSA may, by written notice given to the regulated entity, cancel the undertaking.

(5) TEQSA may publish the undertaking on the Register.

126 Enforcement of undertakings

(1) If:

   (a) a regulated entity has given an undertaking under section 125; and
   (b) the undertaking has not been withdrawn or cancelled; and
   (c) TEQSA considers that the entity has breached the undertaking;
TEQSA may apply, on behalf of the Commonwealth, to the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court for an order under subsection (2).

(2) If the Court is satisfied that the regulated entity has breached the undertaking, the Court may make any or all of the following orders:

(a) an order directing the entity to comply with the undertaking;
(b) an order directing the entity to pay to the Commonwealth an amount up to the amount of any financial benefit that the entity has obtained directly or indirectly and that is reasonably attributable to the breach;
(c) any order that the Court considers appropriate directing the entity to compensate any other person who has suffered loss or damage as a result of the breach;
(d) any other order that the Court considers appropriate.
Division 4—Injunctions

127 Injunctions

Restraining injunctions

(1) If a regulated entity has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage, in any conduct that would be in contravention of:
   (a) this Act; or
   (b) this Act’s associated provisions;
the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may, on the application of TEQSA (on behalf of the Commonwealth), grant an injunction:
   (c) restraining the entity from engaging in the conduct; and
   (d) if, in the Court’s opinion, it is desirable to do so—requiring the entity to do a thing.

Performance injunctions

(2) If:
   (a) a regulated entity has refused or failed, or is refusing or failing, or is proposing to refuse or fail, to do a thing; and
   (b) the refusal or failure was, is or would be in contravention of this Act or this Act’s associated provisions;
the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may, on the application of TEQSA (on behalf of the Commonwealth), grant an injunction requiring the entity to do that thing.

128 Interim injunctions

Before deciding an application for an injunction under section 127, the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court may grant an interim injunction:
   (a) restraining a regulated entity from engaging in conduct; or
   (b) requiring a regulated entity to do a thing.
Part 7 Enforcement

130 Certain limits on granting injunctions not to apply

Restraining injunctions

(1) The power of the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court under this Division to grant an injunction restraining a regulated entity from engaging in conduct may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the entity intends to engage again, or to continue to engage, in conduct of that kind; and
   (b) whether or not the entity has previously engaged in conduct of that kind; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the entity engages in conduct of that kind.

Performance injunctions

(2) The power of the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court under this Division to grant an injunction requiring a regulated entity to do a thing may be exercised:
   (a) whether or not it appears to the Court that the entity intends to refuse or fail again, or to continue to refuse or fail, to do that thing; and
   (b) whether or not the entity has previously refused or failed to do that thing; and
   (c) whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to any other person if the entity refuses or fails to do that thing.
131 Other powers of the Court unaffected

The powers conferred on the Federal Court or the Federal Circuit Court under this Division are in addition to, and not instead of, any other powers of the Court, whether conferred by this Act or otherwise.

   (a) TEQSA is a listed entity; and
   (b) the Commissioners are the accountable authority of TEQSA; and
   (c) the following persons are officials of TEQSA:
      (i) the Commissioners;
      (ii) the Chief Executive Officer;

Section 135

(k) to develop service standards that TEQSA must meet in performing its functions;
(l) any function determined under subsection (5);
(m) such other functions as are conferred on TEQSA by or under this Act or any other Commonwealth law.

Note: An example for paragraph (m) is TEQSA’s functions under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000.

(2) Without limiting paragraph (1)(m), that paragraph includes a function conferred on TEQSA by an authorisation made for the purposes of a Commonwealth law.

Note: An example would be if the Minister authorised TEQSA to consider whether to consent to a company using “university” in its name for the purposes of section 147 of the Corporations Act 2001.

(3) TEQSA may perform its functions within or outside Australia.

(4) TEQSA has the power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

(2) A direction under subsection (1) must be of a general nature only.

(2A) Subsection (2) does not apply to a direction that relates to the power conferred by subsection 158(1).

Note: Subsection 158(1) confers a power to determine fees.

(2B) Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 44(2)(b) of the Legislation Act 2003 do not apply in relation to a direction under subsection (1) of this section.

Note: This means that section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 applies to the direction.

(3) TEQSA must comply with a direction given under subsection (1).

137 TEQSA has privileges and immunities of the Crown

TEQSA has the privileges and immunities of the Crown in right of the Commonwealth.

Endnotes

Endnote 1—About the endnotes

The endnotes provide information about this compilation and the compiled law.

The following endnotes are included in every compilation:

Endnote 1—About the endnotes
Endnote 2—Abbreviation key
Endnote 3—Legislation history
Endnote 4—Amendment history

Abbreviation key—Endnote 2

The abbreviation key sets out abbreviations that may be used in the endnotes.

Legislation history and amendment history—Endnotes 3 and 4

Amending laws are annotated in the legislation history and amendment history.

The legislation history in endnote 3 provides information about each law that has amended (or will amend) the compiled law. The information includes commencement details for amending laws and details of any application, saving or transitional provisions that are not included in this compilation.

The amendment history in endnote 4 provides information about amendments at the provision (generally section or equivalent) level. It also includes information about any provision of the compiled law that has been repealed in accordance with a provision of the law.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2003 authorises First Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial and presentational changes to a compiled law in preparing a compilation of the law for registration. The changes must not change the effect of the law. Editorial changes take effect from the compilation registration date.

If the compilation includes editorial changes, the endnotes include a brief outline of the changes in general terms. Full details of any changes can be obtained from the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Misdcribed amendments

A misdcribed amendment is an amendment that does not accurately describe the amendment to be made. If, despite the misdescription, the amendment can be given effect as intended, the amendment is incorporated into the compiled law and the abbreviation “(md)” added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.

If a misdescribed amendment cannot be given effect as intended, the abbreviation “(md not incorp)” is added to the details of the amendment included in the amendment history.
