6 Intelligence Services Amendment (Establishment of the Australian Signals Directorate) Act 2018 No. 25, 2018

Authorised Version C2018A00025
Cooperating with authorities of other countries—with approval

23 At the end of section 13
Add:

Cooperating with authorities of other countries—ASD

(4) Despite paragraph (1)(c), subject to any arrangements made or directions given by the responsible Minister, ASD may, for the purposes of performing its function under paragraph 7(1)(ca), cooperate with authorities of other countries if they are capable of assisting ASD in the performance of its functions.

(5) The Director-General of ASD must, as soon as practicable after each year ending on 30 June, give to the responsible Minister and the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security a report about any significant cooperation under this section by ASD with authorities of other countries referred to in subsection (4).

(6) A report under subsection (5):
(a) must be in writing; and
(b) is not a legislative instrument.

24 Section 13A (heading)
Omit “Co-operation”, substitute “Cooperation”.

25 Subsection 14(3) (definition of staff member)
Repeal the definition, substitute:

staff member includes the Director-General of ASIS, the Director of AGO and the Director-General of ASD.

26 Paragraph 15(3)(b)

27 After Part 3
Insert:
Part 3A—Establishment of ASD and role of Director-General of ASD

Division 1—Establishment and control of ASD

27A Establishment of ASD on a statutory basis

(1) The organisation known as the Australian Signals Directorate is continued in existence in accordance with this Act.

Note: The Australian Signals Directorate provides assistance to the Defence Force in support of military operations and cooperates with the Defence Force on intelligence matters: see paragraph 7(1)(d).

(2) For the purposes of the finance law (within the meaning of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013):

(a) ASD is a listed entity; and

(b) the Director-General of ASD is the accountable authority of ASD; and

(c) the following persons are officials of ASD:

(i) the Director-General of ASD;

(ii) the staff referred to in section 38A;

(iii) consultants engaged under section 38B;

(iv) employees of contracted service providers engaged under section 38C who are providing services under the relevant ASD contract;

(v) persons whose services are made available to ASD under section 38E; and

(d) the purposes of ASD include the functions of ASD referred to in section 7.

27B Appointment of Director-General of ASD

(1) There is to be a Director-General of ASD.

(2) The Director-General of ASD is to be appointed by the Governor-General by written instrument.

Note: The Director-General of ASD may be reappointed: see section 33AA of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.
(3) Before a recommendation is made to the Governor-General for the appointment of a person as Director-General of ASD, the Prime Minister must consult with the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Representatives.

27C Control of ASD

(1) ASD, and the staff referred to in subsection 38A(1), are under the control of the Director-General of ASD.

(2) The Director-General of ASD, under the Minister, is responsible for managing ASD and must advise the Minister in matters relating to ASD.

27D Briefing the Leader of the Opposition about ASD

The Director-General of ASD must consult regularly with the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Representatives for the purpose of keeping him or her informed on matters relating to ASD.

Division 2—Administrative provisions relating to the Director-General of ASD

27E Basis and period of appointment

(1) The Director-General of ASD holds office on a full-time basis.

(2) The Director-General of ASD holds office for the period specified in the instrument of appointment. The period must not exceed 5 years.

27F Remuneration

(1) The Director-General of ASD is to be paid the remuneration that is determined by the Remuneration Tribunal. If no determination of that remuneration by the Tribunal is in operation, the Director-General is to be paid the remuneration that is prescribed by the regulations.
Schedule 1  Amendments
Part 1  Main amendments

(2) The Director-General of ASD is to be paid the allowances that are prescribed by the regulations.

(3) This section has effect subject to the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.

27G Resignation

(1) The Director-General of ASD may resign his or her appointment by giving the Governor-General a written resignation.

(2) The resignation takes effect on the day it is received by the Governor-General or, if a later day is specified in the resignation, on that later day.

27H Termination of appointment

(1) The Governor-General may terminate the appointment of the Director-General of ASD:
   (a) for misbehaviour; or
   (b) if the Director-General is unable to perform the duties of his or her office because of physical or mental incapacity.

(2) The Governor-General must terminate the appointment of the Director-General of ASD if:
   (a) the Director-General:
      (i) becomes bankrupt; or
      (ii) applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or
      (iii) compounds with his or her creditors; or
      (iv) makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for the benefit of his or her creditors; or
   (b) the Director-General is absent, except on leave of absence, for 14 consecutive days or for 28 days in any 12 months; or
   (c) the Director-General engages in paid work that, in the Minister’s opinion, conflicts or may conflict with the proper performance of the Director-General’s duties (see section 27L); or
   (d) the Director-General lacks, or has lost, an essential qualification for performing the duties of his or her office.
Note: The appointment of the Director-General of ASD may also be terminated under section 30 of the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013 (which deals with terminating the appointment of an accountable authority, or a member of an accountable authority, for contravening general duties of officials).

(3) The Governor-General may, with the Director-General of ASD’s consent, retire the Director-General from office on the ground of incapacity if the Director-General is:
(a) an eligible employee for the purposes of the Superannuation
Act 1976; or
(b) a member of the superannuation scheme established by deed under the Superannuation Act 1990; or
(c) an ordinary employer-sponsored member of PSSAP, within the meaning of the Superannuation Act 2005.

27J Acting appointments

Appointment generally

(1) The Minister may, by written instrument, appoint a person to act as the Director-General of ASD:
(a) during a vacancy in the office of the Director-General (whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the office); or
(b) during any period, or during all periods, when the Director-General:
(i) is absent from duty or from Australia; or
(ii) is, for any reason, unable to perform the duties of the office.

Note: For rules that apply to acting appointments, see sections 33AB and 33A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Appointment while under command

(2) If:
(a) a person is appointed to act as the Director-General of ASD under subsection (1); and
(b) the person is under the command of the Chief of the Defence Force under the Defence Act 1903;
then, the person must perform the duties of the office of the Director-General consistently with this Act during the period of the appointment, even though the person is under the command of the Chief of the Defence Force.

27K Leave of absence

(1) A Director-General of ASD has the recreation leave entitlements that are determined by the Remuneration Tribunal.

(2) The Minister may grant the Director-General of ASD leave of absence, other than recreation leave, on the terms and conditions as to remuneration or otherwise that the Minister determines.

27L Outside employment

The Director-General of ASD must not engage in paid work that, in the Minister’s opinion, conflicts or may conflict with the proper performance of the Director-General’s duties.

27M Other terms and conditions

The Director-General of ASD holds office on the terms and conditions (if any) in relation to matters not covered by this Act that are determined by the Minister.

27N Delegation by Director-General of ASD

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, in writing, delegate all or any of his or her functions or powers under Part 5A to a staff member who holds, or is acting in, a position that is an Executive Level 1 position, or an equivalent or higher position, in ASD.

(2) In performing a delegated function or exercising a delegated power, the delegate must comply with any written directions of the Director-General of ASD.

28 Paragraph 30(ba)

Omit “Director of ASD”, substitute “Director-General of ASD”.

12 Intelligence Services Amendment (Establishment of the Australian Signals Directorate) Act 2018 No. 25, 2018
29 After Part 5
Insert:

Part 5A—Staff of ASD

38A Employment of staff

Employees

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, employ by written agreement such employees of ASD as the Director-General thinks necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Director-General of ASD, on behalf of the Commonwealth, has all the rights, duties and powers of an employer in respect of the engagement, and employment, of employees of ASD.

(3) The Director-General of ASD may determine the terms and conditions on which employees are to be employed. Before making a determination the Director-General must consult with the employees who are to be subject to the terms and conditions of the determination.

Termination of employment

(4) The Director-General of ASD may, at any time, by written notice, terminate the employment of a person employed under subsection (1).

Note: The Fair Work Act 2009 has rules and entitlements that apply to termination of employment.

38B Consultants

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, engage as consultants persons having suitable qualifications and experience to assist in the performance of ASD’s functions.

(2) The engagement of a consultant must be by written agreement.
(3) The terms and conditions of engagement are those that the Director-General of ASD determines in writing.

38C Contracted service providers

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, engage a contracted service provider to assist in the performance of the ASD’s functions.

(2) The engagement of a contracted service provider must be by written agreement.

(3) The terms and conditions of engagement are those that the Director-General of ASD determines in writing.

38D Secondment of employees of ASD

Secondment

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, in writing, arrange for an employee of ASD to be seconded for a specified period to a body or organisation whether within or outside Australia.

Termination of secondment

(2) The Director-General may at any time, by notice given to the body or organisation to which an employee of ASD is seconded under subsection (1), terminate the secondment.

38E Secondment of persons to ASD

(1) The Director-General of ASD may, by written agreement with a body or organisation (whether within or outside Australia), arrange for a person who is an officer, employee or other member of staff of the body or organisation to be made available to ASD to perform services in connection with the performance of its functions or the exercise of its powers.

(2) The terms and conditions (including remuneration and allowances) applicable to a person performing services under an agreement are those specified in the agreement.
38F Applicability of principles of the Public Service Act 1999

Although employees of ASD are not employed under the Public Service Act 1999, the Director-General of ASD must adopt the principles of that Act in relation to employees of ASD to the extent to which the Director-General considers they are consistent with the effective performance of the functions of ASD.

38G Voluntary moves to APS

(1) Section 26 of the Public Service Act 1999 applies in relation to an employee of ASD as if the employee were an APS employee and ASD were an APS Agency.

(2) An employee of ASD who moves to an APS Agency under that section is entitled to have his or her employment, as an employee of ASD, treated as if it were:
   (a) employment as an APS employee; and
   (b) at a corresponding classification, as agreed between the Director-General of ASD and the Public Service Commissioner.

38H Staff grievances

(1) The Director-General of ASD must:
   (a) establish procedures relating to the consideration of grievances of employees and former employees of ASD; and
   (b) determine the classes of ASD actions that are to be subject to the grievance procedures.

(2) In establishing the procedures and determining the classes of action, the Director-General of ASD must:
   (a) adopt the principles of the Public Service Act 1999 to the extent to which the Director-General considers they are consistent with the effective performance of the functions of ASD; and
   (b) consult with the employees of ASD.

(3) In this section:
   action includes a refusal or failure to act.
Schedule 1 Amendments
Part 1 Main amendments

ASD action means action taken after the commencement of this section by the Director-General of ASD or an employee of ASD that relates to the employment of an employee of ASD.

30 Subparagraphs 40(1)(c)(i) to (iv), 40G(1)(d)(iii) and (iv) and 40H(1)(d)(iii) and (iv)
Omit “Director of ASD” (wherever occurring), substitute “Director-General of ASD”.

31 Section 42 (at the end of the heading)
Add “—ASIS”.

32 After section 42
Insert:

42A Annual report—ASD
As soon as practicable after each year ending on 30 June, the Director-General of ASD must give to the Minister a report of the activities of ASD during the year.

33 Clause 1A of Schedule 1 (paragraph (c) of the definition of agency head)
Omit “Director of ASD”, substitute “Director-General of ASD”.

Part 3—Transitional provisions

100 Definitions

In this Part:

accrued employment benefits, in relation to a person, means benefits accrued by the person as an APS employee before 1 July 2018, whether accrued under a law of the Commonwealth, a workplace instrument (within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009) or a written agreement.

Defence Department means the Department of State that deals with defence and that is administered by the Minister responsible for administering section 1 of the Defence Act 1903.

Minister means the Minister responsible for the Australian Signals Directorate.

new ASD means the Australian Signals Directorate, as established on a statutory basis by section 27A of the new law.

new law means the Intelligence Services Act 2001, as amended by this Schedule.

old ASD means that part of the Defence Department known as the Australian Signals Directorate under the Intelligence Services Act 2001, as in force immediately before the commencement of this item.

staffing procedures includes procedures and policies related to:

(a) recruitment, promotion or performance management; or
(b) inefficiency, misconduct, forfeiture of position, fitness for duty or loss of essential qualifications; or
(c) disciplinary action, grievance processes or reviews of, or appeals against, staffing decisions; or
(d) transfers, resignations or termination of employment; or
(e) leave.

101 Things done by, or in relation to, the old ASD

(1) If a thing was done by, or in relation to, the old ASD, then the thing is taken, for the purposes of the operation of any law on and after 1 July 2018, to have been done by, or in relation to, the new ASD.
(2) The Minister may, in writing, determine that subitem (1) does not apply in relation to a specified thing done by, or in relation to, the old ASD.

(3) To avoid doubt, doing a thing includes making an instrument.

(4) A determination under subitem (2) is not a legislative instrument.

102 Things done by, or in relation to, the Director of the old ASD

(1) If a thing was done by, or in relation to, the Director of the old ASD, then the thing is taken, for the purposes of the operation of any law on and after 1 July 2018, to have been done by, or in relation to, the Director-General of the new ASD.

(2) The Minister may, in writing, determine that subitem (1) does not apply in relation to a specified thing done by, or in relation to, the Director of the old ASD.

(3) To avoid doubt, doing a thing includes making an instrument.

(4) A determination under subitem (2) is not a legislative instrument.

103 Director of the Australian Signals Directorate continues as Director-General

The person who holds the position of the Director of the old ASD, immediately before 1 July 2018, is taken to have been appointed as the Director-General of the new ASD by the Governor-General under section 27B of the new law:

(a) for a term of 6 months; and
(b) on the terms and conditions set out in Division 2 of Part 3A of the new law.

104 Existing ASD staff—terms and conditions of employment and accrued entitlements etc.

Existing staff

(1) If, immediately before 1 July 2018, a person was employed in the old ASD, the person:

(a) continues, on and after 1 July 2018, to be employed in the new ASD; and
(b) ceases to be an APS employee.

Terms and conditions of employment

(2) A person who, immediately before 1 July 2018, was employed in the old ASD under a written agreement, continues to be employed on the terms and conditions specified in that agreement.

(3) A person who, immediately before 1 July 2018, had his or her terms and conditions of employment in the old ASD determined under section 24 of the Public Service Act 1999, continues to be employed on the terms and conditions specified in that determination.

(4) Subitems (2) and (3) are subject to any determination made by the Director-General of the new ASD under subsection 38A(3) of the new law.

Preservation of accrued entitlements

(5) The accrued employment benefits of a person to whom subitem (1) applies are not affected by the person ceasing to be an APS employee.

Continuity of service

(6) The service of a person to whom subitem (1) applies as an employee of the new ASD is taken, for all purposes, to have been continuous with his or her service as an employee of the old ASD.

Ceasing employment with ASD

(7) To avoid doubt, if a person ceases to be an APS employee (as mentioned in subitem (1)), the person is not entitled to receive any payment or other benefit merely because he or she ceased to be such an employee.

105 Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988

(1) This item applies in relation to a person if:

   (a) the person was a member of the staff of the old ASD before 1 July 2018 (whether or not the person was still a member of the staff of ASD immediately before that date); and

   (b) the person was an employee (within the meaning of the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 (the SRC Act).
(2) The SRC Act applies, on and after 1 July 2018, as if the person had been an employee of the new ASD during the period that the person was a member of the staff of the old ASD.

106 Continuation of existing staffing procedures

(1) The staffing procedures of the old ASD that were in effect immediately before 1 July 2018 continue to apply on and after that date in relation to:

(a) processes begun before, but not completed by, that date; and
(b) things done by, for or in relation to the old ASD or an employee of the old ASD before that date.

(2) The rules may prescribe details relating to how the staffing procedures of the old ASD will continue to apply under subitem (1).

(3) Subitem (1) and any rules made under subitem (2) have effect despite the Public Service Act 1999.

107 Continuation of existing inquiries under the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security Act 1986

If the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security had begun an inquiry in relation to the old ASD under section 8 of the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security Act 1986 before 1 July 2018 but had not completed it on that day, then, for the purposes of completing that inquiry:

(a) the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security Act 1986, as in force on the day that the inquiry began, continues in force despite the amendments made by this Schedule; and
(b) any other Act amended by this Schedule, as in force on the day that the inquiry began, continues in force despite the amendments made by this Schedule.

Note: This means, for example, that a person who was given a notice under section 18 of the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security Act 1986 before 1 July 2018 in relation to an inquiry is still required to comply with the notice after that date if the person hasn’t done so.
Schedule 1  Amendments
Part 3  Transitional provisions

108 Power to make rules

(1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, make rules prescribing matters:
   (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed by the rules; or
   (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Without limiting subitem (1), the rules may prescribe other matters of a transitional nature in relation to the transfer of persons who were employees of the old ASD before 1 July 2018.

(3) To avoid doubt, the rules may not do the following:
   (a) create an offence or civil penalty;
   (b) provide powers of:
       (i) arrest or detention; or
       (ii) entry, search or seizure;
   (c) impose a tax;
   (d) set an amount to be appropriated from the Consolidated Revenue Fund under an appropriation in this Act;
   (e) directly amend the text of this Act.
