Dated 2 March 1993. BILL HAYDEN
Governor-General

By His Excellency’s Command,

R. KELLY
Minister of State for the Arts, Sport, the Environment and Territories for and on behalf of the Minister of State for Primary Industries and Energy

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Farm Household Support Regulations.
Commencement

2. These Regulations commence on 20 March 1993.

Interpretation

3. In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears:

Finance institution

4. For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “finance institution” in subsection 3 (2) of the Act, the following institutions that make finance available to farmers are prescribed:

(a) bodies corporate authorised under Part II of the Banking Act 1959 to carry on banking business in Australia; and

(b) registered corporations within the meaning of the Financial Corporations Act 1974; and

(c) organisations of a State or Territory that:

(i) administer all or part of the Rural Adjustment Scheme within the meaning of the Rural Adjustment Act 1992; and

(ii) have a lending function for the provision of working capital.
