Regulation 1

Part 1 Preliminary1 Name of Regulations [see Note 1]

These Regulations are the Family Law (Child Abduction Convention) Regulations 1986.

1A Purpose

- (1) The purpose of these Regulations is to give effect to section 111B of the Act.
- (2) These Regulations are intended to be construed:
 - (a) having regard to the principles and objects mentioned in the preamble to and Article 1 of the Convention; and
 - (b) recognising, in accordance with the Convention, that the appropriate forum for resolving disputes relating to a child's care, welfare and development is ordinarily the child's country of habitual residence; and
 - (c) recognising that the effective implementation of the Convention depends on the reciprocity and mutual respect between judicial or administrative authorities (as the case may be) of convention countries.

2 Interpretation

- (1) In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears:

Article 3 applicant means a person, institution or other body that has made an application under paragraph 14 (1) (b) or subregulation 14 (2).

Central Authority has the meaning it has in the Convention.

child means a person who has not attained the age of 16 years.

Commonwealth Central Authority means the Secretary of the Attorney-General's Department.

Regulation 2

Convention means the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction referred to in section 111B of the Act, a copy of the English text of which is set out in Schedule 1.

convention country means a country that under regulation 10 is a convention country.

court means a court having jurisdiction under paragraph 39 (5) (d), 39 (5A) (a) or 39 (6) (d) of the Act.

filed has the same meaning as in the applicable Rules of Court.

Registrar means:

- (a) in relation to the Family Court, or the Family Court of Western Australia — the Registrar, or a Deputy Registrar, of the court; and
- (b) in relation to any other court — the principal officer of the other court.

request means a request made to a responsible Central Authority for the purposes of Article 8 or 21 of the Convention.

responsible Central Authority, in relation to action to be taken in a State or Territory, means the Commonwealth Central Authority or the State Central Authority of that State or Territory, as the case requires.

return order means an order under Part 3 for the return, under the Convention, of a child who has been removed to, or retained in, Australia.

rights of access include the right to take a child for a limited period of time to a place other than the child's habitual residence.

rights of custody has the meaning given in regulation 4.

State Central Authority means a person appointed under subregulation 8 (1) to be the Central Authority of a State or Territory.

the Act means the Family Law Act 1975.

Note applicable Rules of Court is defined in subsection 4 (1) of the Act.

- (1A) A reference in these Regulations to a form by number is a reference to the form so numbered in Schedule 3.

Regulation 4

- (1B) Unless the contrary intention appears, an expression that is used in these Regulations and in the Convention has the same meaning in these regulations as in the Convention.
- (1C) A reference in these Regulations to a child who is removed:
- (a) from Australia to a convention country; or
 - (b) from a convention country to another convention country or to Australia;
- includes a reference to the removal of the child to the convention country concerned or to Australia, as the case may be, whether or not the child is first removed to another country.
- (2) The removal or retention of a child is wrongful in the circumstances mentioned in Article 3 of the Convention.

4 Meaning of rights of custody

- (1) For these Regulations, a person, institution or other body has rights of custody in relation to a child if:
- (a) the child was habitually resident in Australia or in a convention country immediately before his or her removal or retention; and
 - (b) rights of custody in relation to the child are attributed to the person, institution or other body, either jointly or alone, under a law in force in Australia or in the convention country in which the child habitually resided immediately before his or her removal or retention.
- (2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), rights of custody include rights relating to the care of the person of the child and, in particular, the right to determine the place of residence of the child.
- (3) For the purposes of this regulation, rights of custody may arise:
- (a) by operation of law; or
 - (b) by reason of a judicial or administrative decision; or
 - (c) by reason of an agreement having legal effect under a law in force in Australia or a convention country.

Regulation 6

5 Commonwealth Central Authority — duties, powers and functions

- (1) In addition to the other functions conferred on the Commonwealth Central Authority by these Regulations, the functions of the Commonwealth Central Authority are:
 - (a) to do, or co-ordinate the doing of, anything that is necessary to enable the performance of the obligations of Australia, or to obtain for Australia any advantage or benefit, under the Convention; and
 - (b) to advise the Attorney-General, either on the initiative of the Commonwealth Central Authority or on a request made to that Authority by the Attorney-General, on all matters that concern, or arise out of performing, those obligations, including any need for additional legislation required for performing those obligations; and
 - (c) to do everything that is necessary or appropriate to give effect to the Convention in relation to the welfare of a child on the return of the child to Australia.
- (2) The Commonwealth Central Authority has all the duties, may exercise all the powers, and shall perform all the functions, that a Central Authority has under the Convention.
- (3) The Commonwealth Central Authority must perform its functions and exercise its powers as quickly as a proper consideration of each matter relating to the performance of a function or the exercise of a power allows.

6 These Regulations do not affect other powers of, or rights of application to, a court

- (1) These Regulations are not intended to prevent a person, institution or other body that has rights of custody in relation to a child for the purposes of the Convention from applying to a court if the child is removed to, or retained in, Australia in breach of those rights.
- (2) These Regulations are not to be taken as preventing a court from making an order at any time under Part VII of the Act or under any other law in force in Australia for the return of a child.

Regulation 7

7 Immunity of Commonwealth Central Authority etc in respect of orders to pay costs

A court must not make an order that requires the Commonwealth Central Authority or a State Central Authority to pay costs in relation to his or her exercising the powers, or performing the functions, of the Commonwealth Central Authority.

8 State Central Authority — appointment

- (1) The Attorney-General may appoint a person to be the Central Authority of a State or Territory for the purposes of these Regulations.
- (2) The power to appoint a person under subregulation (1) includes a power to appoint any person from time to time holding, occupying or performing the duties of a specified office or position of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory.
- (3) An appointment of a person under subregulation (1) may be expressed to have effect only in such circumstances as are specified in the instrument of appointment.

9 State Central Authority — duties, powers and functions

Subject to subregulation 8 (3), a State Central Authority has all the duties, may exercise all the powers, and may perform all the functions, of the Commonwealth Central Authority.

10 Convention countries

Subject to Article 40 of the Convention, each of the following countries is a convention country:

- (a) a country specified in Schedule 2, being a country:
 - (i) as between Australia and which the Convention entered into force on the date specified in column 2 in relation to that country; and

Regulation 10

- (ii) that has acceded to the Convention with reservations in accordance with Article 42 of the Convention in respect of any provisions specified in column 3 in relation to that country;
- (b) any other country in respect of which the Convention has entered into force for Australia.

Regulation 11

Part 2 Requests to Central Authorities, except for access

11 Request for return of child abducted from Australia

- (1) A person, institution or other body that claims under a law in force in Australia to have rights of custody in relation to a child who, in breach of those rights, has been:
 - (a) removed from Australia to a convention country; or
 - (b) retained in a convention country;may request a responsible Central Authority to have the claim sent to the Central Authority in the country to which the child has been removed or in which the child is retained.
- (2) A request must be:
 - (a) in accordance with Form 1; and
 - (b) in accordance with the Convention.
- (3) A State Central Authority that is satisfied that a request received by it complies with subregulation (2) must send the request to the Commonwealth Central Authority.
- (4) If the Commonwealth Central Authority is satisfied that a request received by it complies with subregulation (2), the Commonwealth Central Authority must, on behalf of the person, institution or other body, take any action required to be taken by a Central Authority under the Convention.
- (5) A responsible Central Authority that is satisfied that a request received by it does not comply with subregulation (2) may, by notice in writing, refuse to accept the request.
- (6) A notice under subregulation (5) from the Commonwealth Central Authority must:
 - (a) be sent to the person, institution or other body that made the request; and

Regulation 13

- (b) if the Commonwealth Central Authority received the request from a State Central Authority — be sent to the State Central Authority; and
 - (c) include the reason for the refusal.
- (7) A notice under subregulation (5) from a State Central Authority must:
- (a) be sent to the person, institution or other body that made the request; and
 - (b) include the reason for the refusal.

13 Request for return of child abducted to Australia

- (1) The Commonwealth Central Authority must take action to secure the return of a child under the Convention if:
- (a) it receives a request from:
 - (i) a person, institution or other body that claims to have rights of custody in relation to the child who, in breach of those rights, has been removed from a convention country to Australia or has been retained in Australia; or
 - (ii) a Central Authority on behalf of a person, institution or other body mentioned in subparagraph (i); and
 - (b) it is satisfied that the request is in accordance with the Convention.
- (2) The Commonwealth Central Authority may, by notice in writing, refuse to accept a request received by it if it is satisfied that the request is not in accordance with the Convention.
- (3) A notice under subregulation (2) must:
- (a) be sent to the person, institution or other body that made the request; and
 - (b) if the Commonwealth Central Authority received the request from a Central Authority — be sent to the Central Authority; and
 - (c) include the reason for the refusal.

Regulation 13

- (4) For subregulation (1), the action taken may include any of the following:
- (a) transferring the request to a State Central Authority;
 - (b) seeking an amicable resolution of the differences, in relation to the removal or retention of the child, between the person making the request for the child's return and the person opposing the child's return;
 - (c) seeking the voluntary return of the child;
 - (d) applying for an order under Part 3.

Part 3 Court applications, except for access

14 Applications to court

- (1) If a child is removed from a convention country to, or retained in, Australia:
 - (a) the responsible Central Authority may apply to the court, in accordance with Form 2, for any of the following orders:
 - (i) a return order for the child;
 - (ii) an order for the delivery of the passport of the child, and the passport of any other relevant person, to the responsible Central Authority, a member of the Australian Federal Police or a person specified in the order, on conditions appropriate to give effect to the Convention;
 - (iii) an order for the issue of a warrant mentioned in regulation 31;
 - (iv) an order directing that:
 - (A) the child not be removed from a specified place; and
 - (B) members of the Australian Federal Police prevent the child being removed from that place;
 - (v) an order requiring that arrangements be made (as necessary) to place the child with an appropriate person, institution or other body to secure the welfare of the child, until a request under regulation 13 is determined;
 - (vi) any other order that the responsible Central Authority considers appropriate to give effect to the Convention; or

Regulation 14A

- (b) a person, institution or other body that has rights of custody in relation to the child for the purposes of the Convention may apply to the court, in accordance with Form 2, for an order mentioned in subparagraph (a) (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v).
- (2) If the responsible Central Authority, or a person, institution or other body that has rights of custody in relation to a child for the purposes of the Convention, has reasonable grounds to believe that there is an appreciable possibility or a threat that the child will be removed from Australia, the responsible Central Authority or person, institution or other body may:
 - (a) apply to the court, in accordance with Form 2, for an order for the issue of a warrant mentioned in regulation 31; or
 - (b) apply to the court for an order for the delivery of the passport of the child, and the passport of any other relevant person, to the responsible Central Authority, a member of the Australian Federal Police or a person specified in the order, on conditions appropriate to give effect to the Convention.
- (3) If a child is wrongfully removed from Australia to, or retained in, a convention country, the responsible Central Authority may apply to the court, in accordance with Form 2, for:
 - (a) an order that the responsible Central Authority considers necessary or appropriate to give effect to the Convention in relation to the welfare of the child after his or her return to Australia; or
 - (b) any other order that the responsible Central Authority considers appropriate to give effect to the Convention.
- (4) If a copy of an application made under subregulation (1), (2) or (3) is served on a person:
 - (a) the person must file an answer, or an answer and a cross-application, in accordance with Form 2A; and
 - (b) the applicant may file a reply in accordance with Form 2B.

14A Further applications to court

- (1) A responsible Central Authority or person, institution or other body that has made an application under subregulation 14 (1),

Regulation 16

(2) or (3) may make a further application for an order mentioned in those subregulations.

- (2) An application under subregulation (1) must be in accordance with Form 2 in Schedule 2 to the Family Law Rules 2004.

15 Orders

- (1) If a court is satisfied that it is desirable to do so, the court may, in relation to an application made under regulation 14:
- (a) make an order of a kind mentioned in that regulation; and
 - (b) make any other order that the court considers to be appropriate to give effect to the Convention; and
 - (c) include in an order to which paragraph (a) or (b) applies a condition that the court considers to be appropriate to give effect to the Convention.
- (2) A court must, so far as practicable, give to an application such priority as will ensure that the application is dealt with as quickly as a proper consideration of each matter relating to the application allows.
- (4) If an application made under regulation 14 is not determined by a court within the period of 42 days commencing on the day on which the application is filed:
- (a) the responsible Central Authority or Article 3 applicant who made the application may ask the Registrar of the court to state in writing the reasons for the application not having been determined within that period; and
 - (b) as soon as practicable after being asked, the Registrar must give the statement to the responsible Central Authority or Article 3 applicant.

16 Obligation to make a return order

- (1) If:
- (a) an application for a return order for a child is made; and
 - (b) the application (or, if regulation 28 applies, the original application within the meaning of that regulation) is filed within one year after the child's removal or retention; and

Regulation 16

- (c) the responsible Central Authority or Article 3 applicant satisfies the court that the child's removal or retention was wrongful under subregulation (1A);

the court must, subject to subregulation (3), make the order.

- (1A) For subregulation (1), a child's removal to, or retention in, Australia is wrongful if:

- (a) the child was under 16; and
- (b) the child habitually resided in a convention country immediately before the child's removal to, or retention in, Australia; and
- (c) the person, institution or other body seeking the child's return had rights of custody in relation to the child under the law of the country in which the child habitually resided immediately before the child's removal to, or retention in, Australia; and
- (d) the child's removal to, or retention in, Australia is in breach of those rights of custody; and
- (e) at the time of the child's removal or retention, the person, institution or other body:
 - (i) was actually exercising the rights of custody (either jointly or alone); or
 - (ii) would have exercised those rights if the child had not been removed or retained.

- (2) If:

- (a) an application for a return order for a child is made; and
- (b) the application is filed more than one year after the day on which the child was first removed to, or retained in, Australia; and
- (c) the court is satisfied that the person opposing the return has not established that the child has settled in his or her new environment;

the court must, subject to subregulation (3), make the order.

- (3) A court may refuse to make an order under subregulation (1) or (2) if a person opposing return establishes that:

- (a) the person, institution or other body seeking the child's return:

Regulation 17

- (i) was not actually exercising rights of custody when the child was removed to, or first retained in, Australia and those rights would not have been exercised if the child had not been so removed or retained; or
 - (ii) had consented or subsequently acquiesced in the child being removed to, or retained in, Australia; or
 - (b) there is a grave risk that the return of the child under the Convention would expose the child to physical or psychological harm or otherwise place the child in an intolerable situation; or
 - (c) each of the following applies:
 - (i) the child objects to being returned;
 - (ii) the child's objection shows a strength of feeling beyond the mere expression of a preference or of ordinary wishes;
 - (iii) the child has attained an age, and a degree of maturity, at which it is appropriate to take account of his or her views; or
 - (d) the return of the child would not be permitted by the fundamental principles of Australia relating to the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms.
- (4) For the purposes of subregulation (3), the court must take into account any information relating to the social background of the child that is provided by the Central Authority or other competent authority of the country in which the child habitually resided immediately before his or her removal or retention.
- (5) The court is not precluded from making a return order for the child only because a matter mentioned in subregulation (3) is established by a person opposing return.

17 Declaration that removal or retention was wrongful

- (1) On application, a court may by order declare that:
 - (a) the removal of a child from Australia to a convention country; or

Regulation 18

(b) the retention of a child in a convention country; was wrongful within the meaning of Article 3 of the Convention.

- (2) The court may ask a responsible Central Authority to arrange for the person, institution or other body making a request in relation to the return of a child under the Convention to obtain an order of a court, or a decision of a competent authority, of the country in which the child habitually resided immediately before his or her removal or retention declaring that the removal or retention was wrongful within the meaning of Article 3 of the Convention.

18 Effect of other custody orders in Australia or overseas

- (1) The following rules apply to the hearing of an application made under subregulation 14 (1):
- (a) the court must not refuse to make a return order for the child only because there is in force or enforceable in Australia an order relating to the custody of the child;
 - (b) the court may take into account the reasons for the making of any order relating to the custody of the child;
 - (c) an order for the return of the child does not determine the merits of any custody issue in relation to the child.
- (2) In this regulation:
- custody*, in relation to a child, includes:
- (a) guardianship of the child; and
 - (b) responsibility for the long-term or day-to-day care, welfare and development of the child; and
 - (c) responsibility as the person or persons with whom the child is to live.

19 When a court not to make certain orders

If an application for a return order for a child is made, a court must not make an order, except an interim order, providing for the custody of the child, within the meaning of regulation 18, until the application is determined.

Regulation 20

19A Discharge of return order

- (1) If a court makes a return order, the responsible Central Authority, the Article 3 applicant or a respondent to the proceeding may apply to the court, in accordance with Form 2D, for the discharge of the order.
- (2) The court may make an order discharging a return order, or a part of a return order, only if it is satisfied that:
 - (a) all the parties consent to the return order being discharged; or
 - (b) since the return order was made, circumstances have arisen that make it impracticable for the order to be carried out; or
 - (c) exceptional circumstances exist that justify the return order being discharged; or
 - (d) the day on which the application for the discharge of the return order was made is more than 1 year after the return order was made or any appeal in relation to the return order was determined.
- (3) In considering whether to make an order discharging a return order, the court must have regard to section 111CE of the Act if the convention country from which the child was removed is also a Convention country within the meaning of subsection 111CA (1) of the Act.

20 Arrangements for return of child

- (1) If the responsible Central Authority applies to the court for a return order for a child, and the order is made, the responsible Central Authority must coordinate the making of the arrangements that are necessary to give effect to the order.
- (2) If:
 - (a) a return order for a child is made; and
 - (b) within 7 days after the order is made, the responsible Central Authority or Article 3 applicant has not been notified that the order has been stayed;the child must be returned in accordance with the order.

Regulation 21

- (3) Subregulation (1) does not require the Commonwealth Central Authority or the State Central Authority to make or pay for the arrangements that are necessary to give effect to the order.

21 Security for costs etc

A responsible Central Authority or a court must not require any security or bond for the payment of costs or expenses of, or incidental to, proceedings falling within the scope of the Convention.

Part 4

Requests to Central Authorities and court applications for access

23 Request for access to child in convention country

- (1) A person who claims under a law in force in Australia to have rights of access to a child in a convention country may request a responsible Central Authority to have arrangements made for establishing, organising or securing the effective exercise of those rights in that convention country.

Note For persons who should be regarded as having a right of access to a child, see paragraph 111B (4) (d) of the Act.

- (2) A request must be:
- (a) in accordance with Form 3; and
 - (b) in accordance with the Convention.
- (3) A State Central Authority that is satisfied that a request received by it complies with subregulation (2) must send the request to the Commonwealth Central Authority.
- (4) If the Commonwealth Central Authority is satisfied that a request received by it complies with subregulation (2), it must take any action required to be taken by a Central Authority under the Convention.
- (5) A responsible Central Authority that is satisfied that a request received by it does not comply with subregulation (2) may, by notice in writing, refuse to accept the request.
- (6) A notice under subregulation (5) from the Commonwealth Central Authority must:
- (a) be sent to the person who made the request; and
 - (b) if the Commonwealth Central Authority received the request from a State Central Authority — be sent to the State Central Authority; and
 - (c) include the reason for the refusal.

Regulation 24

- (7) A notice under subregulation (5) from a State Central Authority must:
- (a) be sent to the person who made the request; and
 - (b) include the reason for the refusal.

24 Request for access to child in Australia

- (1) The Commonwealth Central Authority must take action to establish, organise or secure the effective exercise of rights of access to a child in Australia if:
- (a) it receives a request from a Central Authority on behalf of a person who claims:
 - (i) to have rights of access to the child under a law in force in a convention country; and
 - (ii) that those rights have been breached; and
 - (b) it is satisfied that the request is in accordance with the Convention.
- (2) The Commonwealth Central Authority may, by notice in writing, refuse to accept a request received by it if it is satisfied that the request is not in accordance with the Convention.
- (3) A notice under subregulation (2) must:
- (a) be sent to the Central Authority that sent the request; and
 - (b) include the reason for the refusal.
- (4) For subregulation (1), the action taken may include any of the following:
- (a) transferring the request to a State Central Authority;
 - (b) applying to a court under regulation 25 for an order that is necessary or appropriate to establish, organise or secure the effective exercise of the rights of access to which the request relates;
 - (c) seeking an amicable resolution in relation to the rights of access to the child.

25 Application for access to child in Australia

- (1) The responsible Central Authority may apply to the court, in accordance with Form 4, for any of the following orders:

Regulation 25A

- (a) an order specifying with whom a child is to spend time or communicate;
 - (b) an order for the issue of a warrant mentioned in regulation 31;
 - (c) any other order that the responsible Central Authority considers appropriate to give effect to the Convention.
- (2) If a copy of an application made under subregulation (1) is served on a person:
- (a) the person must file an answer, or an answer and a cross-application, in accordance with Form 4A; and
 - (b) the responsible Central Authority may file a reply in accordance with Form 4B.

25A Orders

- (1) If a court is satisfied that it is desirable to do so, the court may, in relation to an application made under subregulation 25 (1):
- (a) make an order of a kind mentioned in that regulation; and
 - (b) make any other order that the court considers to be appropriate to give effect to the Convention; and
 - (c) include in an order to which paragraph (a) or (b) applies a condition that the court considers to be appropriate to give effect to the Convention.
- (2) In determining an application made under subregulation 25 (1) seeking an order of the kind mentioned in paragraph 25 (1) (a), the court must have regard to the matters set out in section 111CW of the Act if the convention country under the laws of which the person mentioned in paragraph 24 (1) (a) claims to have access rights to the child is also a Convention country within the meaning of subsection 111CA (1) of the Act.
- (3) The court may make an order under subregulation (1) regardless of:
- (a) whether an order or determination (however described) has been made under a law in force in another convention country about rights of access to the child concerned; or

Regulation 25A

- (b) if the child was removed to Australia — when that happened; or
 - (c) whether the child has been wrongfully removed to, or retained in, Australia.
- (4) If the responsible Central Authority applies to the court for an order under subregulation (1), and the order is made, the Commonwealth Central Authority or the State Central Authority is not required to make or pay for the arrangements that are necessary to give effect to the order.

Part 5 General

26 Reports by family consultants

- (1) In proceedings under these Regulations in a court, the court may:
 - (a) direct a family consultant to report to the court on such matters that are relevant to the proceedings as the court considers to be appropriate; and
 - (b) adjourn the proceedings until the report is made.
- (2) A family consultant may include in a report, in addition to the matters required to be included in the report, any other matter that relates to the care, welfare or development of the child.
- (3) The court may make such orders, or give such further directions, as it considers appropriate in relation to the preparation of the report including, if the court considers it appropriate, orders or directions in relation to the attendance on the family consultant of a party to the proceedings or of the child.
- (4) If a person fails to comply with any order or direction under subregulation (3), the family consultant must report the failure to the court.
- (5) If, under subregulation (4), a family consultant reports to the court a failure of the kind referred to in that subsection, the court may give such further directions in relation to the preparation of the report as the court considers appropriate.
- (6) A report made to the court in accordance with a direction given under this regulation may be received in evidence in any proceedings under these Regulations.
- (7) The court may direct the Commonwealth Central Authority or a State Central Authority to inform a Central Authority in a convention country about a matter that:

Regulation 27

- (a) relates to the welfare of the child; and
- (b) under subregulation (2) — is included in a report.

27 Service of notice of certain applications

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), notice of an application under regulation 14, 19A or 25 that includes a copy of the application must be served by the applicant in accordance with the applicable Rules of Court:
 - (a) for an application under regulation 14 — on the person whom the applicant claims has wrongfully removed or retained the child who is the subject of the application; and
 - (b) for an application under regulation 19A — on any other party to the proceeding for return of the child; and
 - (c) for an application under regulation 25 — on the person, institution or other body in possession of the child who is the subject of the application.
- (2) In accordance with the applicable Rules of Court, the court to which an application referred to in subregulation (1) is made may dispense with service of notice of the application under that subregulation.

28 Change of venue

- (1) This regulation applies if:
 - (a) an application (the original application) is made to a court in a State or Territory (the first jurisdiction) under regulation 14, 19A or 25; and
 - (b) the child who is the subject of the original application is located in another State or Territory (the second jurisdiction) before the application is determined.
- (1A) The Central Authority in the second jurisdiction may make a corresponding application (a later application) to another registry of the court, or to another court, in the second jurisdiction.
- (2) If a later application is made, the applicant for the later application must:

Regulation 29

- (a) refer in the later application to the original application; and
 - (b) as soon as practicable, inform the Registrar of the court in which the original application was filed, in writing, of the later application.
- (2A) As soon as practicable after receiving information under paragraph (2) (b), the Registrar of the court in which the original application was filed must transfer all records and other documents filed in the court relating to the original application to the Registrar of the court in which the later application is made.
- (3) Subject to subregulation (4), proceedings in relation to an original application are taken to have been discontinued when a later application is made.
- (4) If an order is made before proceedings are discontinued by operation of subregulation (3), the order remains in force until an order is made in relation to a later application.
- (5) In proceedings in relation to a later application, the court may have regard to:
- (a) a record, or another document filed in the court, in relation to an original application; and
 - (b) evidence given to a court in relation to an original application.

29 Evidentiary provisions

- (1) This regulation applies in a proceeding in a court under regulation 14, 19A or 25 in which the applicant is a responsible Central Authority.
- (2) The application under regulation 14, 19A or 25, or a request under regulation 13, 24 or 25 relating to that application, or any document attached to or given in support of that application or request, is admissible as evidence of the facts stated in that application, request or document.

Regulation 29

- (3) An affidavit of a witness who resides outside Australia that is filed in the proceeding is admissible as evidence even if the witness does not attend the proceeding for cross-examination.
- (4) A statement contained in a document that claims:
- (a) to set out or summarise evidence given in a proceeding in a court in a convention country, or before a competent authority of that country, in relation to the custody of a child and to have been signed by the person before whom the evidence was given; or
 - (b) to set out or summarise evidence taken in a convention country for the purpose of a proceeding under these Regulations (whether in response to a request made by the court or otherwise) and to have been signed by the person before whom the evidence was taken; or
 - (c) to have been received as evidence in a proceeding in a court in a convention country or before a competent authority of that country in relation to the custody of a child and to have been signed by a judge, an officer of the court or that authority;
- is admissible as evidence of any fact stated in the document to the same extent as oral evidence of that fact, without proof of that person's signature or official position.
- (5) The court may take judicial notice of the following matters:
- (a) a law in force in a convention country;
 - (b) a decision of a judicial or administrative character made by a judicial or administrative authority of a convention country.
- (6) A document that claims:
- (a) to be an order, or a copy of an order, of a court in a convention country, or a decision of a competent authority of that country, in relation to the custody of a child; and
 - (b) to have been signed by a judge, an officer of the court or that authority;
- is admissible as evidence of that order or decision without proof of that person's signature or official position.

Regulation 30

(7) In this regulation:

custody, in relation to a child, includes:

- (a) guardianship of the child; and
- (b) responsibility for the long-term or day-to-day care, welfare and development of the child; and
- (c) responsibility as the person or persons with whom the child is to live.

30 Costs of applications

(1) This regulation applies if:

(a) either:

- (i) a responsible Central Authority has applied to the court for an order in relation to a child under Part 3 or 4; or
- (ii) an Article 3 applicant has applied to the court for an order in relation to a child under Part 3; and

(b) the court makes an order under regulation 15, 17, 19A, 25A or 26.

(2) The responsible Central Authority may apply to the court for an order that the person who removed or retained the child, or who prevented the exercise of rights of access to the child, must pay to the responsible Central Authority the costs of the application mentioned in subregulation (3).

(3) For subregulation (2), the costs are the necessary expenses incurred by the responsible Central Authority, including the following:

- (a) costs incurred in locating the child;
- (b) costs of legal representation;
- (c) costs incurred in relation to the attendance by the child or an interested party at a family consultant for the preparation of a report by that consultant;
- (d) costs incurred in coordinating the making of arrangements for the return of the child.

Regulation 31

- (4) The Article 3 applicant may apply to the court for an order that the person who removed or retained the child, or who prevented the exercise of rights of access to the child, must pay to the Article 3 applicant the costs of the application mentioned in subregulation (5).
- (5) For subregulation (4), the costs are the necessary expenses incurred by the Article 3 applicant, including:
 - (a) travelling expenses; and
 - (b) the costs mentioned in paragraphs (3) (a) to (c).

31 Warrants

For subparagraph 14 (1) (a) (iii) and paragraphs 14 (2) (a) and 25 (1) (b), a warrant:

- (a) authorises a person named or described in the warrant, with such assistance as is necessary and reasonable and, if necessary and reasonable, by force:
 - (i) to find and recover the child; and
 - (ii) if the person reasonably believes that the child is in, or on, a vehicle, vessel, aircraft or premises and the circumstances are so serious and urgent that the entry and search of the vehicle, vessel, aircraft or premises is justified:
 - (A) to stop, enter and search the vehicle, vessel or aircraft; or
 - (B) to enter and search the premises; and
 - (iii) to deliver the child to the person named in the warrant; and
- (b) must be in accordance with Form 2C.

Schedule 1 Convention on the civil aspects of international child abduction

(regulation 2)

The States signatory to the present Convention,
Firmly convinced that the interests of children are of paramount importance in matters relating to their custody,
Desiring to protect children internationally from the harmful effects of their wrongful removal or retention and to establish procedures to ensure their prompt return to the State of their habitual residence, as well as to secure protection for rights of access,
Have resolved to conclude a Convention to this effect, and have agreed upon the following provisions—

CHAPTER I—SCOPE OF THE CONVENTION

Article 1

The objects of the present Convention are—

- a* to secure the prompt return of children wrongfully removed to or retained in any Contracting State; and
- b* to ensure that rights of custody and of access under the law of one Contracting State are effectively respected in the other Contracting States.

Article 2

Contracting States shall take all appropriate measures to secure within their territories the implementation of the objects of the Convention. For this purpose they shall use the most expeditious procedures available.

Article 3

The removal or the retention of a child is to be considered wrongful where—

- a* it is in breach of rights of custody attributed to a person, an institution or any other body, either jointly or alone, under the law of the State in which the child was habitually resident immediately before the removal or retention; and b at the time of removal or retention those rights were actually exercised, either jointly or alone, or would have been so exercised but for the removal or retention.

The rights of custody mentioned in sub-paragraph a above, may arise in particular by operation of law or by reason of a judicial or administrative decision, or by reason of an agreement having legal effect under the law of that State.

Article 4

The Convention shall apply to any child who was habitually resident in a Contracting State immediately before any breach of custody or access rights. The Convention shall cease to apply when the child attains the age of 16 years.

Article 5

For the purposes of this Convention—

a ‘rights of custody’ shall include rights relating to the care of the person of the child and, in particular, the right to determine the child’s place of residence;

b ‘rights of access’ shall include the right to take a child for a limited period of time to a place other than the child’s habitual residence.

CHAPTER II—CENTRAL AUTHORITIES

Article 6

A Contracting State shall designate a Central Authority to discharge the duties which are imposed by the Convention upon such authorities.

Federal States, States with more than one system of law or States having autonomous territorial organizations shall be free to appoint more than one Central Authority and to specify the territorial extent of their powers. Where a State has appointed more than one Central Authority, it shall designate the Central Authority to which applications may be addressed for transmission to the appropriate Central Authority within that State.

Article 7

Central Authorities shall co-operate with each other and promote co-operation amongst the competent authorities in their respective States to secure the prompt return of children and to achieve the other objects of this Convention.

In particular, either directly or through any intermediary, they shall take all appropriate measures—a to discover the whereabouts of a child who has been wrongfully removed or retained;

b to prevent further harm to the child or prejudice to interested parties by taking or causing to be taken provisional measures;

c to secure the voluntary return of the child or to bring about an amicable resolution of the issues;

d to exchange, where desirable, information relating to the social background of the child;

e to provide information of a general character as to the law of their State in connection with the application of the Convention;

f to initiate or facilitate the institution of judicial or administrative proceedings with a view to obtaining the return of the child and, in a proper case, to make arrangements for organizing or securing the effective exercise of rights of access;

g where the circumstances so require, to provide or facilitate the provision of legal aid and advice, including the participation of legal counsel and advisers;

h to provide such administrative arrangements as may be necessary and appropriate to secure the safe return of the child;

i to keep each other informed with respect to the operation of this Convention and, as far as possible, to eliminate any obstacles to its application.

CHAPTER III—RETURN OF CHILDREN

Article 8

Any person, institution or other body claiming that a child has been removed or retained in breach of custody rights may apply either to the Central Authority of the child's habitual residence or to the Central Authority of any other Contracting State for assistance in securing the return of the child.

The application shall contain—

- a* information concerning the identity of the applicant, of the child and of the person alleged to have removed or retained the child;
- b* where available, the date of birth of the child;
- c* the grounds on which the applicant's claim for return of the child is based;
- d* all available information relating to the whereabouts of the child and the identity of the person with whom the child is presumed to be.

The application may be accompanied or supplemented by—

- e* an authenticated copy of any relevant decision or agreement;
- f* a certificate or an affidavit emanating from a Central Authority, or other competent authority of the State of the child's habitual residence, or from a qualified person, concerning the relevant law of that State;
- g* any other relevant document.

Article 9

If the Central Authority which receives an application referred to in Article 8 has reason to believe that the child is in another Contracting State, it shall directly and without delay transmit the application to the Central Authority of that Contracting State and inform the requesting Central Authority, or the applicant, as the case may be.

Article 10

The Central Authority of the State where the child is shall take or cause to be taken appropriate measures in order to obtain the voluntary return of the child.

Article 11

The judicial or administrative authorities of Contracting States shall act expeditiously in proceedings for the return of children.

If the judicial or administrative authority concerned has not reached a decision within six weeks from the date of commencement of the proceedings, the applicant or the Central Authority of the requested State, on its own initiative or if asked by the Central Authority of the requesting State, shall have the right to request a statement of the reasons for the delay. If a reply is received by the Central Authority of the requested State, that Authority shall transmit the reply to the Central Authority of the requesting State, or to the applicant, as the case may be.

Article 12

Where a child has been wrongfully removed or retained in terms of Article 3 and, at the date of the commencement of the proceedings before the judicial or administrative authority of the Contracting State where the child is, a period of less than one year has elapsed from the date of the wrongful removal or retention, the authority concerned shall order the return of the child forthwith.

The judicial or administrative authority, even where the proceedings have been commenced after the expiration of the period of one year referred to in the preceding paragraph, shall also order the return of the child, unless it is demonstrated that the child is now settled in its new environment.

Where the judicial or administrative authority in the requested State has reason to believe that the child has been taken to another State, it may stay the proceedings or dismiss the application for the return of the child.

Article 13

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding Article, the judicial or administrative authority of the requested State is not bound to order the return of the child if the person, institution or other body which opposes its return establishes that—a the person, institution or other body having the care of the person of the child was not actually exercising the custody rights at the time of removal or retention, or had consented to or subsequently acquiesced in the removal or retention; or b there is a grave risk that his or her return would expose the child to physical or psychological harm or otherwise place the child in an intolerable situation.

The judicial or administrative authority may also refuse to order the return of the child if it finds that the child objects to being returned and has attained an age and degree of maturity at which it is appropriate to take account of its views.

In considering the circumstances referred to in this Article, the judicial and administrative authorities shall take into account the information relating to the social background of the child provided by the Central Authority or other competent authority of the child's habitual residence.

Article 14

In ascertaining whether there has been a wrongful removal or retention within the meaning of Article 3, the judicial or administrative authorities of the requested State may take notice directly of the law of, and of judicial or administrative decisions, formally recognized or not in the State of the habitual residence of the child, without recourse to the specific procedures for the proof of that law or for the recognition of foreign decisions which would otherwise be applicable.

Article 15

The judicial or administrative authorities of a Contracting State may, prior to the making of an order for the return of the child, request that the applicant obtain from the authorities of the State of the habitual residence of the child a decision or other determination that the removal or retention was wrongful within the meaning of Article 3 of the Convention where such a decision or determination may be obtained in that State. The Central Authorities of the Contracting States shall so far as practicable assist applicants to obtain such a decision or determination.

Article 16

After receiving notice of a wrongful removal or retention of a child in the sense of Article 3, the judicial or administrative authorities of the Contracting State to which the child has been removed or in which it has been retained shall not decide on the merits of rights of custody until it has been determined that the child is not to be returned under this Convention or unless an application under this Convention is not lodged within a reasonable time following receipt of the notice.

Article 17

The sole fact that a decision relating to custody has been given in or is entitled to recognition in the requested State shall not be a ground for refusing to return a child under this Convention, but the judicial or administrative authorities of the requested State may take account of the reasons for that decision in applying this Convention.

Article 18

The provisions of this Chapter do not limit the power of a judicial or administrative authority to order the return of the child at any time.

Article 19

A decision under this Convention concerning the return of the child shall not be taken to be a determination on the merits of any custody issue.

Article 20

The return of the child under the provisions of Article 12 may be refused if this would not be permitted by the fundamental principles of the requested State relating to the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

CHAPTER IV—RIGHTS OF ACCESS

Article 21

An application to make arrangements for organizing or securing the effective exercise of rights of access may be presented to the Central Authorities of the Contracting States in the same way as an application for the return of a child.

The Central Authorities are bound by the obligations of co-operation which are set forth in Article 7 to promote the peaceful enjoyment of access rights and the fulfilment of any conditions to which the exercise of those rights may be subject. The Central Authorities shall take steps to remove, as far as possible, all obstacles to the exercise of such rights.

The Central Authorities, either directly or through intermediaries, may initiate or assist in the institution of proceedings with a view to organizing or protecting these rights and securing respect for the conditions to which the exercise of these rights may be subject.

CHAPTER V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 22

No security, bond or deposit, however described, shall be required to guarantee the payment of costs and expenses in the judicial or administrative proceedings falling within the scope of this Convention.

Article 23

No legalization or similar formality may be required in the context of this Convention.

Article 24

Any application, communication or other document sent to the Central Authority of the requested State shall be in the original language, and shall be accompanied by a translation into the official language or one of the official languages of the requested State or, where that is not feasible, a translation into French or English.

However, a Contracting State may, by making a reservation in accordance with Article 42, object to the use of either French or English, but not both, in any application, communication or other document sent to its Central Authority.

Article 25

Nationals of the Contracting States and persons who are habitually resident within those States shall be entitled in matters concerned with the application of this Convention to legal aid and advice in any other Contracting State on the same conditions as if they themselves were nationals of and habitually resident in that State.

Article 26

Each Central Authority shall bear its own costs in applying this Convention.

Central Authorities and other public services of Contracting States shall not impose any charges in relation to applications submitted under this Convention. In particular, they may not require any payment from the applicant towards the costs and expenses of the proceedings or, where applicable, those arising from the participation of legal counsel or advisers. However, they may require the payment of the expenses incurred or to be incurred in implementing the return of the child.

However, a Contracting State may, by making a reservation in accordance with Article 42, declare that it shall not be bound to assume any costs referred to in the preceding paragraph resulting from the participation of legal counsel or advisers or from court proceedings, except insofar as those costs may be covered by its system of legal aid and advice.

Upon ordering the return of a child or issuing an order concerning rights of access under this Convention, the judicial or administrative authorities may, where appropriate, direct the person who removed or retained the child, or who prevented the exercise of rights of access to pay necessary expenses incurred by or on behalf of the applicant, including travel expenses, any costs incurred or payments made for locating the child, the costs of legal representation of the applicant, and those of returning the child.

Article 27

When it is manifest that the requirements of this Convention are not fulfilled or that the application is otherwise not well founded, a Central Authority is not bound to accept the application. In that case, the Central Authority shall forthwith inform the applicant or the Central Authority through which the application was submitted, as the case may be, of its reasons.

Article 28

A Central Authority may require that the application be accompanied by a written authorization empowering it to act on behalf of the applicant, or to designate a representative so to act.

Article 29

This Convention shall not preclude any person, institution or body who claims that there has been a breach of custody or access rights within the meaning of Article 3 or 21 from applying directly to the judicial or administrative authorities of a Contracting State, whether or not under the provisions of this Convention.

Article 30

Any application submitted to the Central Authorities or directly to the judicial or administrative authorities of a Contracting State in accordance with the terms of this Convention, together with documents and any other information appended thereto or provided by a Central Authority, shall be admissible in the courts or administrative authorities of the Contracting States.

Article 31

In relation to a State which in matters of custody of children has two or more systems of law applicable in different territorial units—

a any reference to habitual residence in that State shall be construed as referring to habitual residence in a territorial unit of that State;

b any reference to the law of the State of habitual residence shall be construed as referring to the law of the territorial unit in that State where the child habitually resides.

Article 32

In relation to a State which in matters of custody of children has two or more systems of law applicable to different categories of persons, any reference to the law of that State shall be construed as referring to the legal system specified by the law of that State.

Article 33

A State within which different territorial units have their own rules of law in respect of custody of children shall not be bound to apply this Convention where a State with a unified system of law would not be bound to do so.

Article 34

This Convention shall take priority in matters within its scope over the Convention of 5 October 1961 concerning the powers of authorities and the law applicable in respect of the protection of minors, as between Parties to both Conventions. Otherwise the present Convention shall not restrict the application of an international instrument in force between the State or origin and the State addressed or other law of the State addressed for the purposes of obtaining the return of a child who has been wrongfully removed or retained or of organizing access rights.

Article 35

This Convention shall apply as between Contracting States only to wrongful removals or retentions occurring after its entry into force in those States.

Where a declaration has been made under Article 39 or 40, the reference in the preceding paragraph to a Contracting State shall be taken to refer to the territorial unit or units in relation to which this Convention applies.

Article 36

Nothing in this Convention shall prevent two or more Contracting States, in order to limit the restrictions to which the return of the child may be subject, from agreeing among themselves to derogate from any provisions of this Convention which may imply such a restriction.

CHAPTER VI—FINAL CLAUSES

Article 37

The Convention shall be open for signature by the States which were Members of the Hague Conference on Private International Law at the time of its Fourteenth Session. It shall be ratified, accepted or approved and the instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Article 38

Any other State may accede to the Convention.

The instrument of accession shall be deposited with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The Convention shall enter into force for a State acceding to it on the first day of the third calendar month after the deposit of its instrument of accession.

The accession will have effect only as regards the relations between the acceding State and such Contracting States as will have declared their acceptance of the accession. Such a declaration will also have to be made by any Member State ratifying, accepting or approving the Convention after an accession. Such declaration shall be deposited at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands: this Ministry shall forward, through diplomatic channels, a certified copy to each of the Contracting States.

The Convention will enter into force as between the acceding State and the State that has declared its acceptance of the accession on the first day of the third calendar month after the deposit of the declaration of acceptance.

Article 39

Any State may, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, declare that the Convention shall extend to all the territories for the international relations of which it is responsible, or to one or more of them. Such a declaration shall take effect at the time the Convention enters into force for that State.

Such declaration, as well as any subsequent extension, shall be notified to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Article 40

If a Contracting State has two or more territorial units in which different systems of law are applicable in relation to matters dealt with in this Convention, it may at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession declare that this Convention shall extend to all its territorial units or only to one or more of them and may modify this declaration by submitting another declaration at any time.

Any such declaration shall be notified to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands and shall state expressly the territorial units to which the Convention applies.

Article 41

Where a Contracting State has a system of government under which executive, judicial and legislative powers are distributed between central and other authorities within that State, its signature or ratification, acceptance or approval of, or accession to this Convention, or its making of any declaration in terms of Article 40 shall carry no implication as to the internal distribution of powers within the State.

Article 42

Any State may, not later than the time of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or at the time of making a declaration in terms of Article 39 or 40, make one or both of the reservations provided for in Article 24 and Article 26, third paragraph. No other reservations shall be permitted.

Any State may at any time withdraw a reservation it has made. The withdrawal shall be notified to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

The reservation shall cease to have effect on the first day of the third calendar month after the notification referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Article 43

The Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the third calendar month after the deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession referred to in Articles 37 and 38.

Thereafter the Convention shall enter into force—

1 for each State ratifying, accepting, approving or acceding to it subsequently, on the first day of the third calendar month after the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession;

2 for any territory or territorial unit to which the Convention has been extended in conformity with Article 39 or 40, on the first day of the third calendar month after the notification referred to in that Article.

Article 44

The Convention shall remain in force for five years from the date of its entry into force in accordance with the first paragraph of Article 43 even for States which subsequently have ratified, accepted, approved it or acceded to it. If there has been no denunciation, it shall be renewed tacitly every five years.

Any denunciation shall be notified to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands at least six months before the expiry of the five year period. It may be limited to certain of the territories or territorial units to which the Convention applies.

The denunciation shall have effect only as regards the State which has notified it. The Convention shall remain in force for the other Contracting States.

Article 45

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands shall notify the States Members of the Conference, and the States which have acceded in accordance with Article 38, of the following—

- 1 the signatures and ratifications, acceptances and approvals referred to in Article 37;
- 2 the accessions referred to in Article 38;

- 3 the date on which the Convention enters into force in accordance with Article 43;
- 4 the extensions referred to in Article 39;
- 5 the declarations referred to in Articles 38 and 40;
- 6 the reservations referred to in Article 24 and Article 26, third paragraph, and the withdrawals referred to in Article 42;
- 7 the denunciations referred to in Article 44.
